

Chapter: 3144

Having been in the entertainment industry for eight years in the last life, why didn't Anning know what this meant? But even in the last life, Cheng Hao asked her to give up all her dignity, and An Ning could accompany the wine and laugh, but there was one thing she could never let go.

That is her body. Even in this life, An Ning has never been able to let go of her last dignity.

"I know, it's shameful to give a face, right? If you have a future, don't think about living in the crew."

Zeng Yuan finally failed, there was a scolding sound outside the door, and the door was banged by Zeng Yuan.

After Zeng Yuan left, An Ning's whole body softened, and she leaned against the door behind her. She was afraid for a while. This kind of scene made her feel chills from the bottom of her heart.

Suddenly, as if thinking of something, An Ning only felt a chill behind her, what was she holding on to?

In the last life, he obviously gave up on himself, so Cheng Hao disliked her so much later.

That memory, which had been buried deep in my heart and never wanted to be mentioned, was suddenly brought up.

An Ning held his head in pain, and the whole person couldn't help shrinking to the corner of the bed.

Painful memories are like a quagmire, causing An Ning to sink into fear and unable to extricate herself. She kept shaking her head, trying to stop herself from remembering all the unbearable things, but the more she didn't want to, the clearer it became...

It was also very cold that day, and the narrow and long walkway was empty and seemed to never end.

An Ning only remembered that she was dizzy, and when she opened her eyes again, it was a dark room, a strange man, a strange smell in her breath, and then a kind of intertwined pain, she couldn't bear it at all. , crying and begging for mercy.

"No, don't... beg... please let me go."

I saw An Ning shaking his head in pain, and the large beads of sweat fell on his forehead, and after a sudden scream, he froze as if he had lost his soul.

It wasn't until a long time later that An Ning stood up from the ground unconsciously, lying on the bed and sobbing helplessly, like a puppet.

There was no way for An Ning to be quiet this night. Once he was quiet, he would think of that moment, that time.

Even though it was a matter of his previous life, An Ning still couldn't forget it, and finally fell asleep in a groggy state. It was not until the next morning that An Ning regained consciousness.

"Come on, peace! Another beautiful day.

Don't forget your dreams of revenge!

After practicing the perfect smile again in front of the mirror, An Ning cheered herself up in her heart.

"That's all from a previous life, and it will never happen again in this life." Although he didn't sleep well, his face was pale. Even with heavy makeup, it still couldn't hide it well.

An Ning deliberately slowed down for half a beat, and was not the first to arrive on the set as usual, but still not as expected. After arriving on the set, Zeng Yuanzheng looked at himself with resentment and did not shy away.

I thought yesterday's incident was over like this. Zeng Dao was a little self-aware, and he should have known that there was a handle in An Ning's hands, so he shouldn't be embarrassed anymore, but it seemed that Zeng Dao didn't think so.

As he said, after offending the director, An Ning is really not easy to get along with in this crew.

It wasn't the first scene where there was An Ning, so when she was about to change her clothes, she ran into a big trouble.

Although they were quite pleasant to get along with Lin Keke and the others these days, because they were only a supporting role after all, and unlike Chi Fang, who was 80% from a rich family, An Ning just shared a clothing room with the other supporting actresses.

Of course, the clothes are also public, but generally speaking, the costumes of the crew are quite complete.

Princess Minmin played by An Ning is a rebellious character in the play. Although she is a princess of a small border country, her skinny camel is bigger than a horse. In theory, An Ning's clothes should be luxurious.
