

Chapter: 3151

An Tianxiang raised the corner of his mouth lightly and said, “Well, you still chose me.”

At the beginning, An Yue was still reluctant to accept this advertisement, but Zheng Tao forced her to follow. Later, she learned that it was An Tianxiang, the youngest and handsome president of the legendary Jiahe Group who personally chose her, and she felt like she was filled with honey. , too sweet.

On the other hand, An Ning was very surprised when she heard the conversation. Even though An Yue is already a little popular now, she is a newcomer after all. How could a large group like Tianhua choose her as its spokesperson?

“Well, Mr. An, I heard that you will be staying here tonight, right?”

An Yue hesitated for a while, but she asked boldly, her cheeks flushed, making people want to take a bite.

Apparently because of hearing An Yue’s words, An Tianxiang’s originally beautiful eyebrows were tightly knitted, as if he subconsciously turned his head and glanced in the direction of An Ning’s shooting base, but did not reply.

But An Tianxiang didn’t seem to want to answer. After a while, seeing that An Yue didn’t mean to leave, An Tianxiang replied softly out of social etiquette, “Yeah.”

“Mr. An, do you have time at night, I think...”

An Yue raised her head slightly, with a hint of shyness and anticipation in her eyes. It was this look that made many men unable to refuse, and completely aroused a man’s desire for protection.

An Ning sneered, she knew that every time An Yue wanted to get started with a man, she would show such an expression, she was shy and timid, such a shy flower, so pitiful!

However, this time, An Ning found a difference in An Yue’s expression. In her expression, there was also the temptation of a girl’s love for the first time. It was the first time An Ning saw this expression on An Yue’s face. A few days ago An Yue showed off in front of herself how tall her sweetheart was. It seemed that this was the man who let An Yue show off, and this time, An Yue was probably coming for real.

If this is the case, if he can grab An Tianxiang into his hands, will he be taking revenge on An Yue?

Over there, An Tianxiang didn’t seem to take An Yue’s words to heart, but he didn’t know how to refuse, his brows furrowed even more, but Fu Heng had good eyesight at the back: “Mr. An, time is short. early.”

“I still have something to do.” It seems that because the assistant’s words were relieved, An Tianxiang didn’t care about An Yue’s expression at all, and left the shooting base in big strides.

And An Yue obviously did not expect to be rejected so much with her own charm. Just froze in place. The originally smiling little face gradually froze, staring at the direction An Tianxiang was leaving, his eyes full of nostalgia.

Mr. An came and went quickly, and the shooting soon returned to normal. It seems that this is just an inconspicuous episode, but there is a wave in your heart.

However, because of Mr. An’s departure, everyone in the shooting base gradually let go and went about their own business.

It seemed that President An’s arrival was just an inconspicuous episode, but An Ning took An Yue’s performance to heart.

In the evening, because An Ning stayed to make up a scene, after the filming was over, he just finished work with the crew.

Huang Jingren took Lin Keke’s bag, stopped An Ning who was packing up and was about to leave, and said, “This is Ke Yin’s bag, why don’t you help him bring it back.”

“Well, good.” An Ning didn’t care, she responded casually, and returned to the hotel with Lin Keke’s bag.

Lin Keke’s suite is also on the top floor, but it is different from the top floor where An Yue lives. Lin Keke’s side is the reserved area of the hotel, and there is a special elevator. The suite is also specially prepared for Lin Keke, even if Lin Keke does not If you come to film the base hotel, you will never rent the room to others.

After saying hello to the front desk in advance, An Ning came up for the first time. The elevator stopped on the top floor. An Ning just stepped out of the elevator, but unexpectedly, she suddenly saw a figure in the corridor. He stomped his steps cautiously.
