

Chapter: 3185

It seems that he came to Xingshi to ask the guilt.

“You... have you seen it?”

An Tianxiang chuckled lightly, with an arrogant expression, and said indifferently: “The next time you are pushed by someone, be a little more ruthless with yourself, at least at the level of Tang Qian.”

Tang Qian?

Yang Ning blinked and immediately understood why he mentioned Tang Qian, shook his head and smiled, “I’m not as old as her.”

Hearing this, An Tianxiang turned his head and gave her a very deep look, the atmosphere in the car instantly became lower, Yang Ning restrained his smile, knowing that the main topic was coming.

“You may not know that there are indeed many people who have come to me in the past few years. They all say that their name is Yang Ning, but they all ended up in Africa as coolies.” An Tianxiang stared silently ahead, speaking at a gentle pace : “I don’t want you to be next.”

Yang Ning knew what An Tianxiang was implying, but a normal person who didn’t lie would not understand, so she widened her eyes curiously and asked timidly, “Why? My nickname is Yang Ning, too. ?”

An Tianxiang glanced at her sideways, snorted lightly, pinched her chin, his eyes were cold and ruthless: “Not in front of me, unless you are her.”

“Who is it? It’s hard to understand what you said.” Yang Ning broke free from his hand, his expression was slightly sullen, and his eyes were not miserable or false.

An Tianxiang, who was on the side, saw this, and the doubts in his heart gradually spread. He folded his legs and recalled the information about Yang Ning he had found.

“Remember what you said that day, you have been to an orphanage in Longquan Village.” An Tianxiang said casually, resting his hand on the car window: “I’m a little curious about some children in that orphanage, and here are some photos. Come take a look, do you still recognize me?”

Yang Ning looked slightly, but she was still forcibly stabilized by her. Regarding this, Qiwei had shown him in the follow-up investigation, in addition to the photos, there were some details of life.

However, it would be impossible for her to pronounce her names completely one by one.

So, she explained calmly: “I did go to an orphanage, but I don’t live in an orphanage, and I only know a few people there.”

An Tianxiang was dubious about this, he turned his head to look at Yang Ning’s expression, and suddenly sneered: “Okay, then you can find someone you know in these photos, and retell the details of the year.”

Hearing this, Yang Ning rolled her eyes, she could understand why all the people before were sold to Africa as coolies.

“Okay, you can give me the photo.” Yang Ning nodded, without the slightest panic: “If you have all of them, I should know some of them.”

Seeing her so cheerful, An Tianxiang couldn’t help but glance at her again, then took out an envelope from the inner pocket of his suit and handed it to her.

“It’s going to be noon, hurry up and see, it can decide whether you go to a restaurant or a cruise to Africa.”

His words were extremely calm, as if they were discussing the weather, Yang Ning was startled, and steadfastly steadied his hand, barely making his hand tremble.

Ignoring An Tianxiang’s words, Yang Ning opened the envelope, and the gray-yellow photos inside slipped out. She took out a photo and looked at it carefully, and recognized An Tianxiang inside.

His current appearance is very different from his childhood appearance. He is thin and small, and he is not as handsome and tall as he is now. If he has not seen the photos before, he must not recognize him.

“This, I recognize it.” Yang Ning pointed to An Tianxiang’s face in the photo with a firm expression: “I used to go to Longquan Village, and he and I often played together.”

Seeing where Yang Ning’s finger fell, An Tianxiang’s eyes narrowed involuntarily, but soon, he returned to normal: “Oh? Then do you remember anything else about him?”

Yang Ning raised his head from the photo and looked at An Tianxiang’s eyes, his dark eyes were like bright obsidian, radiating light: “Of course I remember, because, ah, I liked him when I was a child, don’t look at him thin and small Yes, but he’s very smart, he often makes me happy, and he told me his name is Xiao Yuan, and asked me to call him that too.”
