

Chapter: 3209

Saying that, Sister Luo really took a few boxes of gift boxes from a super large cardboard box and gave them to Xiaodong next to her, and sat next to Yang Ning with a smile on her face: “As the New Year is approaching, good contracts are not good. Signed, but I have specially reserved a few good commercials and movie castings for you here, with...”

“Wait, Sister Luo.” Yang Ning raised her hand to interrupt Sister Luo’s continuous speech, frowned, and looked dissatisfied: “I said it last time, Shengtian and I don’t renew the contract, and you didn’t stay. I, it’s not appropriate to talk about this now, is it?”

Hearing this, Sister Luo was stunned, slapped her thigh, and slapped her head desperately with a smile, she quickly took a document from the desk and put it in front of Yang Ning: “Since you are here, I think just sign the renewal contract, look at the terms I gave you above, this is definitely what the first-line entertainers here are qualified to get.”

Looking at the contents of the document, Yang Ning tugged at the corner of her mouth without a trace. Those things written on it were indeed comparable to Yang Yue’s resources. However, with the experience of the previous life, she would never put herself tied in this broken place.

So, she pushed the contract in front of Sister Luo again, and smiled at her instantly stiff face: “Thank you for your love, but I don’t think I have the will.”

“You...Yang Ning, have you read the clauses seriously?” Sister Luo was obviously annoyed, she secretly suppressed her anger, raised her brows, and her expression was full of doubts.

Seeing Sister Luo’s appearance, Yang Ning couldn’t help but sneer in his heart.

She really thought that only Shengtian could stay.

“Of course, I know that this contract is comparable to Yang Yue’s, but the choice is for both parties. I don’t want to choose Shengtian. I hate, hate, this place.”

These words were too straightforward, and Sister Luo’s eyes became cold, her face sinking like water.

She pretended to sort out the documents and threw the folder heavily on the coffee table: “Yang Ning, don’t think that if you act in a TV series, you can be a man with your tail up, I’m here to negotiate a contract with you because I look up to you. .”

Can’t help it finally, showing her mean look.

Yang Ning looked at her with interest and laughed softly: “Really, I’m on fire, so you look down on me, it’s not your fault, it’s your lack of interest, but I’m very interesting, since you If one day you don’t leave me alone, then today, I will be beyond your reach.”

“you!”

Sister Luo had never seen such arrogance in Yang Ning’s lowered eyebrows, and she was speechless for a while.

She had to press the tip of the ballpoint pen irritably and quickly to vent her anger.

After an unknown period of time, Sister Luo finally calmed down a little, she put down the pen, the figure of Yang Ning fell in her eyes, and said earnestly: “Yang Ning, I don’t think you have any plans to quit the entertainment industry now, there is a brokerage company to support you. , how important it is, you can’t realize it when you are young, and you will regret it when you arrive. I don’t want to see the stars of tomorrow fall like this.”

As long as Sister Luo wants to say nice things, she always speaks very well. If Yang Ning was her in the last life, I am afraid she will be a little moved, but now, she is not even half touched.

“Really, but my role of becoming famous was not given to me by the agency at all.”

Yang Ning’s words were like a long blade, which directly pierced Sister Luo’s insistence. She half-closed her eyes, looking forward to how Sister Luo would speak.

But no matter what, Sister Luo is an old river and lake, and it is not difficult to live with her in such a small scene.

“It’s true that I didn’t give it to you, but if you don’t have the platform of Shengtian, how could you possibly be qualified to take on the show.” Sister Luo raised her eyebrows with a complacent look.

Yang Ning almost laughed when she heard it in her ears. She and Xiaodong smiled at each other, staring sarcastically at Sister Luo who was still pretending to be calm.

“Shengtian, you need a heartfelt person like you. It’s embarrassing to say it. I’ve been here for so long, and I haven’t been able to give you anything. These gift boxes will be given to you by me.”
