

Chapter: 3281

“Anything else to call?”

“No, let’s open the cards.”

The simple and neat response made Cheng Hao more and more joyful in his heart. He stood up with a swipe and turned over the hole cards on the poker table with force. The surprise on his face was unobstructed.

“Twenty-four, four million are mine!”

Hearing his cry, the people present couldn’t help but cast their gazes at the cards in front of him, but after just a moment, everyone’s eyes gradually changed from envy to inexplicable.

“Is this guy crazy?”

“Do casinos allow neuroses too?”

The voices of discussion entered the ears of Yang Ning and Cheng Hao, and the two had different expressions. The fourteen-point card in front of them seemed to be regressing to the beginning, but in the end, one won and the other lost.

Cheng Hao obviously couldn’t believe that the twenty-four o’clock he had just made up turned into fourteen o’clock. He slumped on the chair in astonishment, as if thinking of something, and his short-circuited thoughts suddenly lit up.

He pointed to the dealer and casino staff in front of him, and shouted frantically: “You must be the one who made the money! Otherwise, why would my cards disappear! I’m obviously at twenty-four! Give me back my four million! ”

Obviously about to get it, but watching it slip away inexplicably is probably very bad, Cheng Hao has already ignored the approaching thugs in the casino, and started to splash it indiscriminately.

Seeing this, Yang Ning knew that it was not good now. She and Cheng Hao had been together just now. If they were investigated, she would have become a prisoner of the casino together with Cheng Hao.

Thinking of keeping herself safe, Yang Ning didn’t want to watch this lively anymore. Taking advantage of the chaos in the casino, she quietly left the casino through the back door.

After a while, Yang Ning stopped a taxi and hurried back to the hotel, finally heaving a sigh of relief.

Lying on the soft big bed, Yang Ning remembered what happened to Cheng Hao next, and the bad anger that was stuck in his chest just now finally dissipated.

This man, the next thing to do is to face foreign debts of more than ten thousand yuan, as well as the violent confrontation between the lending triad and the casino.

Cheng Hao, ah, Cheng Hao, I didn’t think that I would be mistaken for being smart!

Yang Ning smiled coldly and felt at ease. She didn’t know anything in her last life, and the one she knew best was Cheng Hao. A piece of rotten wood wanted to fight her, it was a fool’s dream.

However, that Yang Yue is getting more and more lawless, and dares to instigate Cheng Hao to deal with herself! Fortunately, this person is stupid enough and familiar enough. If he were replaced by another man, he might not fall into trouble today.

Thinking of this, Yang Ning’s eyes sank. For now, she and Yang Yue are in a similar situation. They can only block each other. If you really want to directly leverage the other’s position, neither of them can do it.

Yang Ning remembered that Yang Yue had been making frequent small moves recently, and she should have wanted to completely pry herself and force her to quit the entertainment industry.

However, the woman was still young, and after Cheng Hao was finished, she must come to teach Yang Yue about her ignorant personality.

“Ding ding ding…”

When her thoughts were scattered, Yang Ning suddenly sat up in shock from a ringing sound. She crawled out of bed in a daze, reached for the phone on the table, and glanced at the screen.

The caller ID above shows An Tianxiang.

Yang Ning looked at the screen and hesitated to press the answer button. Just when the ringing was about to end, she pressed the answer button and put the phone to her ear.

“Hello.” An Tianxiang spoke first, his deep and magnetic voice made Yang Ning’s heart skip a beat.

“What’s matter?”

Her mood was not high, she seemed to be affected by the casino incident, and she seemed to be blaming An Tianxiang for taking so long to call back.

Yang Ning also didn’t understand why his mood was suddenly not so excited.

“You called me just now, but I didn’t receive it during the meeting.” An Tianxiang sat at his desk, his eyelashes lowered, his expression indifferent.