

Chapter: 3294

In fact, the moment she saw Yang Yue outside the makeup studio, she knew that Yang Yue was a guest of this issue, but there was only one issue anyway, so Yang Ning didn't take her to heart.

"Alright alright, the recording starts!"

Following the director's order, everyone in the studio immediately took their place. Yang Yue and the other four people immediately started recording the show. After the host introduced, Yang Yue trotted sweetly. come up.

The theme of this show is the decryption of horror adventures, and there are some special decorations specially set up in the studio, but in general, it is still carried out in the real-life secret room behind them.

"Everyone pay attention to concentration, everyone has read the script, but don't give up your brains, be flexible!"

The director frowned and reminded me painstakingly, just hoping that the show would be broadcast smoothly, but when his eyes fell on Yang Yue, he found that she was carelessly grinding her nails.

Seeing Yang Yue's attitude, the director's expression changed obviously, but he didn't speak. The show had to start shooting quickly, he didn't have the time to gossip with Yang Yue.

A few minutes later, after confirming the equipment, the second phase of "Run, Star" officially started.

By drawing lots, everyone quickly got their respective groups. This time, she was not very lucky, and she was in a group with Han Shaoqiu.

It's not that he is bad, but the group Yang Yue gets is Chen Dong who is the strongest every time. This man is a handsome guy who made his debut in sports. He can always show extraordinary explosive power in running.

Could it be that this time, he will be planted in Yang Yue's hands?

Gritting his teeth, Yang Ning told himself that he couldn't think about these things.

After being divided into groups, everyone stood on the starting line from different starting points. The goal of this time was to solve the riddles in the maze according to the clues.

Of course, there will be ghosts and people chasing you along the way, so you must maintain a high level of calm.

"Come on, don't be afraid, I will protect you." Seeing that Yang Ning was slow, Han Shaoqiu thought she was a little scared, so he called her quickly and asked her to keep up with his pace.

Yang Ning reacted, hurriedly chased after him, and chuckled: "I was thinking about something just now."

The two entered the secret room. The dim environment and the slightly cold atmosphere made Yang Ning's heart start to tremble.

She couldn't help but take a step closer to Han Shaoqiu, always feeling that something was following her.

Han Shaoqiu, who was walking aside, did not notice Yang Ning's unease. He kept holding a flashlight to check whether there were road signs and clues on the walls and ground.

He was also a little careless when he picked up the conversation: "What is it, is it a matter of Qingfeng?"

"Well, let's talk to you after the show."

Yang Ning didn't forget that she was recording the show, she immediately changed the topic, and she didn't want to continue talking until she clicked.

At this time, Han Shaoqiu, who had been checking the surrounding environment, seemed to have touched an organ. He turned his head and glanced at Yang Ning and motioned her to come over quickly.

"Let's screw this together, I feel like there should be something open here."

Hearing this, Yang Ning ran over immediately and unscrewed the mechanism on the wall together with Han Shaoqiu without any hesitation. After a rumbling sound, the wall behind them was suddenly moved.

"what on earth is it?"

Yang Ning stared at the road that suddenly appeared in front of her and was stunned, but the next second, she immediately woke up and couldn't help screaming.

"what!"

The figures of Chen Xue and Yang Yue happened to appear on the opposite wall, but both of them were running wild, because there was a white ghost chasing them behind them.

"Help!"

Yang Yue was obviously frightened. Seeing Yang Ning on the other side, she screamed wildly and wanted to seek protection. It seemed that Chen Dong on her side didn't care about her at all.

"Close the door!"

Chen Dong ran faster than Yang Yue, he rushed to the door in a few seconds, and wanted to close the door and let the ghost eliminate her directly, and he didn't mean to care about Yang Yue at all.
