

Chapter: 3358

Yang Ning nodded, her expression was obviously a little excited, she said proudly: “If I can really be elected, it is an important step in my life, and it is also my first heroine play, but there are still many excellent actors. All I can say is that I have a great chance.”

Speaking of this, Yang Ning is also self-aware. Just like the actress who starred in “The Legend of the Concubine” in her previous life, she is indeed very dedicated and excellent.

An Tianxiang glanced at her thoughtful gaze, tapped his fingers on the sofa, his expression a little stiff.

She didn’t let him help her. If she could be like the other women who climbed high branches, she would not know how many good resources she had received at this time.

Forget it, don’t think about it anymore, if you think about it again, I’m afraid that your cold will get worse again.

An Tianxiang retracted his thoughts and changed the subject lightly: “In other words, if you don’t come today, I should also be looking for you.”

Hearing this, Yang Ning was stunned for a moment, and she asked in surprise, “Why are you looking for me?”

An Tianxiang’s eyes darkened, and his tone suddenly became tense: “You mentioned Cheng Hao to me before, I remember him as an unattractive star, but this time when I went to talk business with my friends, I found that he seems to be helping me now. Friends do things.”

“what?”

Yang Ning was stunned for a moment, her lips stiffened, as if she didn’t understand what he was saying for a while.

Could it be that after he fell out with Yang Yue last time, he went to An Tianxiang’s friend?

She didn’t believe that Cheng Hao did things for his friend. This man was obviously full of nonsense, and he couldn’t believe a word of it.

Yang Ning’s expression was serious and his heart was a little uneasy. He was her enemy in the last life, and every action could push her to hell. She was keenly aware of a sense of danger in this strange behavior.

She turned her head, frowned and asked, “Did you talk a lot on the field?”

An Tianxiang saw Yang Ning’s solemn expression in his eyes, he thought for a while, and nodded silently: “Yes, I remember him.”

Hearing this, Yang Ning’s whole body suddenly trembled, and goosebumps appeared. Only she herself knew how terrifying his words were.

Could it be that An Tianxiang is President An in Cheng Hao’s mouth?

Yang Ning couldn’t believe it, and didn’t want to believe it. This was undoubtedly not a huge blow to her.

She lowered her eyes and clenched her fists tightly, as if to hide her emotions, but all this had already fallen into An Tianxiang’s eyes.

He didn’t understand where her nervousness came from, so he frowned and asked, “Do you mind me and Cheng Hao getting to know each other?”

Yang Ning moved his shoulders and turned his face. The worry and wavering in his expression were still very obvious: “No, if you know it, you will know it.”

“I’m still lying.” An Tianxiang became a little unhappy, Yang Ning’s appearance was full of worries, how could she be as unrestrained as she said.

Yang Ning knew what he had discovered, but she couldn’t say it. This matter was life-threatening to her, and there was no way to reveal it to others.

Who knows where the gears of fate will turn?

She looked away, her eyes were full of helplessness, and she said softly, “I’m sorry, this time you don’t know.”

Yang Ning’s temper is very stubborn. This is the most profound thing An Tianxiang has realized after getting along for so long. He feels that even if he opens her mouth here today, she will not say anything.

The more he thought about it, the more uncomfortable he felt, and he could only use some excuses to force himself to divert his attention.

“Since you said that, then I don’t know about this matter, and let you keep your position.” An Tianxiang’s expression was dull, and he threw a sentence to Yang Ning.

“I have no position on this matter. It was originally a matter between you and him.”

Yang Ning was eager to clear the relationship. From the beginning of wanting to confirm, to the current fear, she had no idea how to maintain the balance between love and fear.