

Chapter: 920

Bai San's figure almost bowed to the ground.

The demeanor was extremely humble.

Behind him, the man driving and the co-pilot also bowed to the old man.

Seeing the trio of trembling appearances.

On the ugly face of Xuefutu, there was no fluctuation in his expression, but he said indifferently:

"Young man, the car is driving too fast, it's not good!" The words were extremely flat.

Especially this kind of tone, as if nothing had happened, and the violent appearance of the front of the car with a punch just now, it was almost like two people.

"Yes... what the old man said! We are wrong! We will definitely pay attention next time!"

Bai San wiped the cold sweat from his forehead and replied repeatedly.

At this moment, a heart of his almost touched his throat.

After all, the man standing in front of him is a super murderer.

Don't say it's him!

Even among the white angels, those great masters might not necessarily be the opponents of the bloody statue in front of him, so how could he not panic.

"Okay! Go!" The Blood Buddha was obviously too lazy to care about these people, and waved his hand at the moment.

And in one sentence, for Bai San and others, it was like being amnesty, which immediately made them ecstatic.

"Much... Thank you for the large number of old gentlemen! Thank you!" After Bai San finished speaking, he turned his head and wanted to leave.

However, just before he turned around.

"Wait a minute!" A clear voice came, but it was the blood wolf next to it.

"Little... little sir, is there anything else?" Bai San's expression became stiff, and at the moment he couldn't help turning his eyes to the blood wolf.

However, after he saw the somewhat immature face of Blood Wolf, he didn't have much fear.

"You can go!" The blood wolf said lightly, and then suddenly pointed his finger at the man driving:

"But he, can't go!"

What!

Upon hearing this, Bai San and the others, as well as the ten white angel members behind them, all changed their expressions.

It's just that I haven't waited for them to speak yet.

clatter!

The blood wolf took a sudden step forward, and then he stared at the driving man with a pair of eyes, and said grimly:

"Just now, you wanted to drive and hit my master, right?"

Master!

Upon hearing this word, Bai San and the others instantly understood the identity of the blood wolf.

This also made their expressions congeal.

One of the top ten killers in East Asia, blood wolf!

This also makes them very jealous.

"It's... it's me!"

The man who drove wiped his cold sweat, and then said:

"I just... not intentionally! I didn't have time..."

The man who was driving was just about to defend.

But at this moment!

"It's you!" The blood wolf smiled sensibly:

"You, apologize with death!"

Wow!

Blood Wolf's words were arrogant, especially after he finished speaking, his figure flashed and disappeared suddenly.

"No! Be careful!"

This scene changed the expressions of Bai San and the others. When they found that the blood wolf was like electricity, rushing toward them and the others, they couldn't help but want to stop them.

however!

Their reaction is fast, but the blood wolf is faster.

Baishan only felt a gust of wind passing by his side, and then when he turned his eyes to look again.

Huh!

The blood wolf's figure has rushed to the front of the man who drove, his palm spread out like a knife, and he slammed the man's neck with a sudden wave!

Pouch!

The voice was dull and suppressed.

Everyone was stunned at this moment.
