

Chapter: 951

Many Bai family members were extremely excited.

At the moment, he took many guests and walked towards the front yard.

It's just that they didn't notice.

The bodyguard who came to shout was as pale as a piece of white paper, especially his gaze towards the Bai family, filled with a trace of pity and sorrow.

Da da da!

Everyone walked quickly towards the front yard.

Although the journey was short, all the Bai family members looked scorched, as if they couldn't wait to see Lin Fan's miserable appearance.

"Hey...Lin Fan, aren't you awesome? I see how awesome you are this time!"

Bai Yan's face almost burst into laughter.

She was slapped in the face by Lin Fan before, and she had already hated that bastard to the extreme.

And now!

The time for revenge has finally arrived.

however!

Just when Bai Yan was extremely excited, when he walked forward quickly.

She was stunned to discover that the old man Bai and the uncle Bai Hai and others at the forefront had stopped abruptly.

Each body was stiff in place, a pair of eyes fixed on the front, and even their bodies began to tremble slowly. Mobile:

Huh?

This scene stunned Bai Yan, her height was very short, especially the old man and the others in front of her, completely covered up the scene in the front yard, so that she could not see clearly.

Right now, Bai Yan asked suspiciously:

"Grandpa! Uncle! Why don't you leave? What happened before?"

Bai Yan was confused .

What surprised her even more was that no one in front of them answered her.

Instead, all eyes stared straight at the front yard, as if they had seen a ghost.

Humph!

This scene made Bai Yan's heart gradually show a bad premonition.

At the moment, she hurriedly dived forward.

Until she got to the front of the crowd and turned to look forward.

The scene before him completely stunned him.

See you!

In the spacious courtyard of the front yard, there were only two figures.

One stood as straight as loose.

One was sitting, trembling all over.

In addition to this!

Under the dim light, Bai Yan also vaguely saw on the ground, there were many round things that looked like watermelons.

"What's that?"

Bai Yan's bad feeling in his heart grew stronger.

However, when she stared at the ground carefully, the scene she saw made her whole person struck by lightning.

"That's... the head?"

Boom!

This discovery was like five thunderstorms to Bai Yan.

She only felt a cold breath, and instantly rushed to her forehead from the soles of her feet, looking at the heads, densely piled on the ground, and then looking at each of the heads, there was a hideous and horrified expression. This even made Bai Yan puff and fell to the ground.

"Ah ah ah!"

"Kill!"

"Dead!"

Screams Bai Yan, so that all guests behind all shocked.

But when they looked at everything in front of them clearly, the entire front yard was silent and fell into a deathly silence.

"One, three, five, ten... there are 14 heads? Oh my god, send... what happened?"
