

Chapter: 964

Ok?

The expression of a single sentence instantly changed the complexion of Baiyi's family.

They knew that the last time Lin Fan offended Bai Chen had already spread.

I just didn't expect it.

Even Chang Yuan had heard of it.

"Senior, you are from Jiangnan City, and you should be most familiar with the Jiangnan Bai family! Do you think the Bai family will deal with Lin Fan?" Bai Yi's pretty face was pale.

What she worries most is the safety of Lin Fan.

Even Baishan and Shen Yumei next to him were looking towards Chang Yuan with their gazes, and their expressions were extremely tense.

"Oh..."

Chang Yuan shook his head pretentiously, and then glanced at Lin Fan with regret, as if he was looking at a dying person:

"Bai Yi, you don't know the four hidden giants. Tyrannical! Although the Bai family has begun to fall, it is still not something ordinary people can provoke!"

"The white angel, if you recruit it, you will die, if you go against it, you will hurt! What's more, I heard that this time the white three groups, the entire army is wiped out. Lin Fan will definitely be blamed for this crime!" Mobile phone:

Yes!

Hearing Chang Yuan's words, Bai Yi's family of three had sweat on their foreheads and their complexions were pale.

This is more than that.

"In addition to the white angels, the Bai family's network of military, political, and business relations is even more terrifying!"

Chang Yuan said solemnly:

"Samsung battle general Baihu, led by 10,000 sergeants, assistant Donghai, is unmatched!"

"The four-star boss stands proudly in the political world, covering the sky with only one hand!" "It can be said that Lin Fan went to Jiangnan, and it was like a sheep's mouth. As long as he is targeted by the Bai family, then he is completely...over!"

Boom!

These words of Chang Yuan fell in the ears of Bai Yi's family of three, like a thunderstorm, and the family suddenly felt that their eyes were dark, and they almost fainted with fright.

How...what to do?

Bai Yi glared at Lin Fan reproachfully.

She hadn't let Lin Fan follow her a long time ago. It's better now. This guy has to die by herself. Isn't this looking for death?

"Senior Chang Yuan, can you save my husband? He can't die, he must not die!"

Bai Yi looked at Chang Yuan almost beggingly.

And Shen Yumei and Baishan on the side also seemed to regard Chang Yuan as their only hope to save Lin Fan.

"This matter, I can only do my best!"

Chang Yuan nodded faintly, with a deep look:

"But as for the result, it only depends on Lin Fan's fate!"

said.

Chang Yuan turned his head and glanced at Lin Fan again, his eyes filled with pity, ridicule, and contempt.

As if in Chang Yuan's eyes.

Lin Fan is like an ant about to die, making him happy and excited.

But he didn't notice it.

Although Lin Fan didn't say a word, his expression was extremely strange.

He looked at Chang Yuan's gaze, as if he was looking at an idiot.

Time passed slowly amidst the concerns of the Bai Yi family.

When one hour later.

The plane has begun to fall gradually and entered the area of Jiangnan City.

Until the plane stopped on the airport apron.

Lin Fan said to Bai Yi and the others:

"Parents, wife, let me take care of my grandfather first! Later, I will go to the hospital to make peace with you!"
