Chapter 16 His Grandpa Urged Him to Get Married

They were in the same hospital with the same ward number. The hospital caught fire, and they picked up the wrong child in a panic....

Cecilia wondered if it was true.

Williams went on, "They sent Isa's hair, and we did a DNA test. The similarity was 99.9%! After we met, I found that Isa was a spitting image of your mother... They looked so much alike!"

Hearing what Williams said, Cecilia was completely frustrated, but she was still a little unwilling, "Then how do you know that I am not your biological daughter?"

"After we did the paternity test with Isa, we went to your room to take the hair for the test..."

In other words, Cecilia was indeed not a real member of the Logan family.

The last hope hidden in Cecilia's heart was shattered!

"Cecilia, you are not the child of Williams and me, but we have treated you as our daughter for so many years..." Eloise stroked her head. "You can stay in the family with peace of mind. If you meet a good man in the future, we will throw you a grand wedding."

Eloise looked at her as usual, but Cecilia knew better than anyone else that something was different!

If only she was still the daughter of the richest man in the country...

Now that Isabella was back, she could at most be considered an unrelated adopted daughter of the Logan family!

To put it bluntly, she was an outsider!

Her eyes dimmed for a few seconds, and she subconsciously reached out to hug Eloise. "Mom, I love you and Dad. I will be your daughter forever."

After staying with her parents for a while, Cecilia came to the second floor and suddenly found that the layout of the entire floor had changed!

The huge second floor had taken on a completely new look. It had been redecorated. Every room had its style...

Cecilia stopped a maid and asked, "What's wrong with these rooms?"

"To welcome Ms. Logan back home, Mr. Logan and Mrs. Logan specially invited the internationally famous designer Ken to come over to design. They also invited the best team to come to decorate. Apart from your room, all other rooms on the second floor were redecorated! They didn't know what style Ms. Logan might like, so they decorated each of these rooms in a different style."

Cecilia lost her composure on her face.

“But...” Seeing that there was no one else around, the maid whispered, “After all, Ms. Logan grew up in a small household. In the end, she only chose the most common room...”

Hearing what the maid said, Cecilia felt better.

The maid looked around again and whispered, “Ms. Logan hasn’t seen much of the world since she was a child, and she probably hasn’t seen famous paintings. A work as expensive as After Drinking was originally meant to be hung in the living room for others to see. But she had it taken to the tea room!”

Cecilia was a little surprised. “Is she still meddling in this kind of business?”

“Mr. Logan and Mrs. Logan seem to value her very much. They listened to her every piece of advice. It was taken to the tea room!”

“Today, Mrs. Logan cooked for her herself and ordered so many beautiful clothes, shoes, and bags for her.

“They also gave her more than 100 million pocket money...”

Cecilia narrowed her eyes slightly.

www

“Ms. Logan, to be honest, if you choose to go abroad for college, your family status in the future...will be in jeopardy.” The maid reminded her bravely.

Cecilia naturally knew her situation better than anyone else, “Well, I see. Go back to work if there’s nothing else.”

“Yes, Ms. Logan.”

“Wait, your name is Eliza, right?” Cecilia stopped her suddenly, took off the diamond bracelet on her wrist, and gave it to her, “I heard that your family member is sick and hospitalized. This bracelet may be useful.”

“Thank you, Ms. Logan!” Eliza expressed her loyalty all of a sudden, “From now on, I’ll be at your disposal.”

The maid was quite smart.

Cecilia raised her hand to signal the maid to leave, and she vaguely came up with an idea.

Isabella was the real daughter of this family, but she had been with Williams and Eloise all these years, and their relationship was much deeper than Isabella’s!

The next morning, in Cameron Hospital, a man pushed the door of Ward 306 and entered.

He had a pair of black and clear eyes and exquisite facial features. He looked dignified and proud.

The old man on the hospital bed moved his fingers slightly, as if he had sensed something, and slowly opened his eyes.

Seeing that the person who came in was his eldest grandson Benjamin, the old man's eyes softened, and his voice was a little weak, "You brat..."

Benjamin said slightly, "Are you awake?"

"Where is this?" The old man struggled to lift his head and looked at the surrounding environment, "What's wrong with me?"

Why was his body hurting like hell? Why did he have no strength to speak?

Benjamin smiled slightly, "Didn't you go on a hunger strike?"

He had refused to eat and take medicine and insisted on forcing him to show up. In the end, he had almost gotten himself killed.

After he reminded, the old man remembered something. It seemed

He knew that his time was running out, so he wanted to force his grandson to get married as soon as possible...

He wanted to change his posture, but his whole body hurt so badly. "Oh, it hurts. It hurts..."

Instead of helping, Benjamin said, "You're lucky enough to be even alive."

This little pain should be endured. He was asking for it.

"You...you brat, I just woke up. Can't you be nicer to me?" The old man complained, "It's all your fault. Tell me, how long has it been since you came to see me?"

If he hadn't refused to eat and take medicine, and undergone such a major operation, this brat definitely wouldn't have come to see him.

"It's because you always touched the soft spot."

Every time he came over, the old man would bring up Cecilia, the daughter of the Logan family, and the marriage contract back then...

"You... I don't care!" The old man turned his head away angrily, "I'm already like this. Maybe I will die one day. You must bring your fiancée to see me tomorrow!"

Benjamin said word by word, "I don't have a fiancée."

"You're trying to piss me off!" The old man couldn't help but say angrily, "The Mason family has an engagement with the Logan family. You and Cecilia must get married! Otherwise, how can I explain to the Logan family?"

You made the marriage contract." Benjamin's voice was cold,

"How to solve it is your own business."

"You... you brat... Oh, my heart..." The old man covered his heart all of a sudden and looked extremely painful.

"Green, call the doctor in."

As soon as Benjamin said that, the old man immediately waved his hand and said, "No need! Anyway, to put it bluntly, if you two don't show up together tomorrow, don't recognize me as your grandfather anymore! Whether I live or die has nothing to do with you from now on!"

Seeing that the grandpa and grandson were fighting again, Green hurried out to smooth things over, "Old Mr. Mason, calm down. Mr. Mason has just been too busy recently..."

"You're single too. You are all always busy with work. Can you spare some time to think about marriage?"

"I..." How did this involve him? He was single? He just loved his work!
