Chapter 23 He Subconsciously Caught Her

Isabella put the phone close to her ear, and heard Benjamin's magnetic voice. "Something happened to my grandpa. Could you come over?"

Isabella was a little puzzled. Given the situation of Old Mr. Mason yesterday, he was recovering very well.

What happened?

"Where are you?" Benjamin's pleasant voice was like a cello, low and seductive, "I'll pick you up."

"Then you go to Baxter Church in the suburbs."

Baxter Church was not far from the manor. If Isabella took a shortcut, it would be only a few minutes away.

Benjamin was a little surprised. "Are you in the suburbs?"

"Yes."

Baxter Church was an old building from the 1980s. No believers went there to pray anymore. Weeds were overgrown there. She was a girl. What was she doing there?

After Isabella hung up the phone. she said to Kara. "I'm going to Baxter Church. I have something to deal with."

"Okay." Kara knew that she had a lot of fake identities, so she didn't ask, "I'll send the things to you later."

After bidding, there was still a set of procedures to go through. Isabella was in a hurry, so she nodded. "OK."

At the entrance of Baxter Church. Green parked the car. looked at the desolate place in front of him, and suddenly realized something. "Oh. I know why Ms. Young came here! A few days ago. I saw some news online. It's said that there is a large field of verbena behind this church. It's a good place to take pictures."

Ms. Young probably came here to take pictures. After all, she was so beautiful...

It would be a waste of her beautiful face if she didn't take pictures!

Benjamin didn't speak. He looked into the distance until a figure appeared.

"It's Ms. Young!" Green also noticed, "I knew it! Ms. Young is here to take pictures."

Isabella was wearing a white dress today. Under the afterglow of the setting sun, the whole church looked like a painting.

Isabella looked like a fairy walking out of the painting, with her white dress dancing slightly and long hair fluttering.

Green was stunned. It took a while before he got out of the car and opened the door. "Ms. Young, this way please."

Isabella's eyes were bright and clear. When her eyes fell on the man in the back of the car, she just nodded lightly and sat down next to him without the slightest awkwardness.

"What's the current situation of Old Mr. Mason?"

Benjamin looked at her beautiful face, and said lightly, "He drank the soup that an acquaintance brought, and he's now in the operating room for rescue."

"Soup from an acquaintance?"

"Yes."

Isabella recalled the condition of Old Mr. Mason yesterday. Even if he had drunk the soup, he would not have fallen ill and been sent to the operating room.

There was probably something wrong with the soup.

"Ms. Young, may I ask, how old are you?" Green glanced at the rearview mirror and couldn't help but say, "I think you're still a student, right?"

She looked so young, like a teenage girl.

"Eighteen." Isabella's tone was casual, "I just finished the college entrance examination."

Eighteen?

She was indeed very young...

Green was amazed. "You are only eighteen years old and you are so good at medicine. Are your parent's doctors?"

"No."

"Then you are..." Before Green finished his sentence, the car suddenly jolted violently.

Isabella couldn't sit still, and she fell towards Benjamin.

It happened so fast. Benjamin subconsciously caught her.

The dress Isabella was wearing today was sleeveless. At this moment, Benjamin's hand was on her shoulder, making her blush.

When Benjamin touched her delicate and smooth skin, he looked a little awkward.

He was close enough to smell her hair and it was a pleasant fragrance.

"Sorry, Mr. Mason, Ms. Young, I..." Before Green could finish his sentence, the car bumped a few times.

Green had been so focused on talking to Ms. Young just now that he didn't notice that this short section of road was bumpy.....

As the car bumped violently, Benjamin protected the sweet and warm girl in his arms, and warned Green, "Concentrate on driving."

Isabella looked up and saw his exquisite facial features...Her heart skipped a beat.

Benjamin didn't let go of his hand until the road became smooth, "Sorry."

"It's okay." Isabella looked away, and her face was still a little hot.

On the two previous occasions Benjamin had met her, she had always looked cold and arrogant. But now she looked like an ordinary young girl, and he found it interesting.

Green had thought that he would be scolded badly by Mr. Mason, but Mr. Mason just took it lightly...

Green looked up, and found that the atmosphere in the back was a bit subtle!

Could it be...

"Pay attention to the road." Benjamin noticed his gaze and said in a low voice.

In the past, if a woman dared to fall on Mr. Mason, she would be kicked out of the car by Mr. Mason!

But now...

Not only did Mr. Mason not drive her away, but he also helped her during the turbulence of the car...

Green suddenly came up with an idea, and hurriedly said, "Mr. Mason, it's mainly because the thing Old Mr. Mason talked about kept me distracted."

Benjamin froze.

"Ms. Young, here is the thing. Today, when Mr. Mason and I went to visit Old Mr. Mason, Old Mr. Mason proposed that he wanted to see you.

"He wants to thank you in person because you saved his life.

"Well, Old Mr. Mason is a stubborn man. If he says he wants to see you. he will try his best to find you.

"Mr. Mason. I'm worried that Old Mr. Mason will disturb Ms. Young's life. Why don't we make an appointment with Ms. Young and ask Ms. Young to talk to Old Mr. Mason about the dangers of not taking medicine?"

"Ms. Young is a doctor. Old Mr. Mason will listen to what she says."

Isabella froze.

Benjamin froze too.

"What do you think?" Benjamin took the opportunity and asked.

"OK." Isabella nodded mainly because she was afraid that others. would come to her and cause trouble.

“If Old Mr. Mason wakes up later. I’ll see him directly. If he doesn’t wake up. I’ll make another appointment.”

“Okay.” Benjamin looked at her face, took out his phone, and asked, “If we make an appointment...how about I befriend you on WhatsApp?”

“OK.”

“I’ll befriend you first.”

Seeing that they were befriendng each other on WhatsApp, Green was so excited!

“Send me your location and I’ll pick you up.” Benjamin put away his phone and said in a soft tone.

“OK.”

At the door of the operating room of Cameron Hospital, Bob was pacing back and forth anxiously.

Old Mr. Mason had been in for an hour, and the operating light was still on...

The elevator door opened, and Benjamin and Isabella came out together. The two had outstanding looks and well-matched figures. and they looked very suitable.

“Mr. Mason...” Bob was a little surprised to see a young girl next to Benjamin, but he didn’t ask anything at this time. “Old Mr. Mason has been in for an hour.”

“What did the doctor say?”

“The situation is not optimistic...” Bob sounded a little frustrated. He should have stopped Old Mr. Mason from having the soup.

“Show Ms. Young the soup.”

“Yes. Mr. Mason.”

Although Bob was a little surprised, he quickly brought the soup.

Isabella used a spoon to stir the rest of the soup. The main ingredient was ganoderma lucidum. mixed with some other medicinal materials. It was a well-known heart-enhancing soup.

But this soup shouldn’t taste like this after it was cooked.

Isabella sniffed it carefully and found a familiar smell.
