

Chased 46

Chapter 46 The Sole Heir

It's just that people didn't expect that one summer vacation, she asked Isabella to go to him with the ring and ask him to teach him a skill.

He is a business genius, and he has many powerful friends around him.

For the woman he loves, Henry remains unmarried all his life, loves Isabella as his own granddaughter, and teaches her how to do business. His friends have also taught Isabella medical skills, and several friends who are good at piano, chess and painting also like Isabella very much and taught her life skills. And Isabella lived up to expectations.

It can be said that Isabella spent all her winter and summer vacations with these old men. She is today thanks to these old men!

"When will you graduate from college? It's time to share the burden for grandpa!" Henry felt old, "I have no children under my knees, and you will be the only heir in the future..."

Isabella is really overwhelmed, and now that Williams has given her another company, she has no skills at all.

"You are the only family member I have in this world, if I don't give you my property, who else can I give it to?" Henry laughed.

"Since you miss grandma, why don't you go back and settle down?"

Anyway, his foreign career is also stable. If he settles in Bomsville, he can still have frequent contacts.

But Henry smiled sadly, "The influence is not good."

No one knew about their past, even Michael didn't know that his mother knew such a number one person!

"Her husband died early, but he was really good to your grandma. I can't get together with your grandma after he died."

"I can care about her from afar, and it's enough to inquire about her." Henry doesn't expect too much, and what makes him happy now is the child Isabella, who has been trained so well, and it's a shame to be his successor!

The car arrived at the entrance of the restaurant. Isabella opened the car door and helped him out of the car, "Don't work so hard when you are young, you won't listen."

Henry smiled, and was satisfied with her support, "Thinking of leaving you a dowry after death, all these years of hard work are worth it."

"You're clearly working hard for grandma, so it's none of my business." Isabella helped him walk forward slowly, "You're getting older now, it's time for a break."

"No, no, there are still some properties that I have to take for you before I die."

At this moment, Daisy took Harris' hand and said in shock, "Isn't that Isabella?"

She and Harris came to the bridal shop opposite the restaurant to look at the wedding dresses, but just as she walked out, she saw Isabella holding the hand of an old man and slowly walking into the restaurant.

"That man is so old, she doesn't think it's disgusting?" Harris frowned. He didn't expect Isabella to be so unselfish in order to stay in Bomsville! Immediately disgusted!

walked out of the VIP elevator with a man. Could it be that Isabella was dating different men at the same time? Or, was that man last night really her brother?

In any case, it's really satisfying for her to be down like this!

Benjamin in the car saw Isabella supporting the old man's hand, and couldn't look away for a long time.

The pair of small hands that he had held were now holding someone else's arm.

"Why do I feel that the old man looks familiar?"

Green went through it carefully in his mind several times, and suddenly remembered, "I know! His name is Henry, and he is the helm of Moon Group, a well-known foreign venture capital group."

His group is bigger than Oink Capital. He used to make a fortune from a small business, but after he had sufficient funds, he mainly focused on investment. His eyes are fierce and vicious, as long as he takes a fancy to the project, he will make an accurate investment. In the past few decades of development, he has invested in many industries, and his personal wealth is extremely strong!

No wonder I haven't seen his license plate, he has lived abroad all year round.

Green couldn't help feeling emotional, "Ms. Young has quite a wide network of contacts."

Not only the dean of Cameron Hospital was very affirmative of her, but also the group of medical experts respected her very much. The richest man was her father. Now it seems that she and Henry also have a very close relationship.

Benjamin is still looking at those hands, holding them for so long, still not letting go?

Seeing their figures entering the elevator, Benjamin's eyes sank slightly, "Check which room they are eating in."

"You want to go in and eat together?"

As soon as Green finished speaking, he sensed the boss' displeasure. He thought about it, and suddenly understood!

"I asked the person in charge of the restaurant. They said that Ms. Young went to the box on the south side of the second floor. There is also a restaurant opposite the south side. Why don't we go to the opposite side? Don't disturb Ms. Young and have fun with friends..."

"Hmm." Benjamin withdrew his gaze, thinking of those soft hands still in his mind.

Isabella helped Henry into the box, and handed over the contents of the bag, "Here, here you are."

"Birthday gift?" Henry took out his things, seven or eight sets of clothes, including outerwear and pajamas.

He was happy and satisfied, "Did you do it yourself?"

"Um."

"I like wearing clothes made by you the most! The style is beautiful and comfortable to wear!"

The suit Henry was wearing was made by her last year, and it hasn't lost its shape after wearing it.

"This is a good gift! I accept it."

"The dishes are all served. You may eat."

In the box, seeing that Benjamin's eyes had been fixed on the girl in the box opposite, Green couldn't help but tease, "The sight here is really good!"

What Ms. Young was doing inside was clearly visible.

"Eat yours." Benjamin saw the girl gave the old man a gift, poured a glass of water, and brought some food for the old man.

Last night, he didn't even get this kind of treatment!

"Then I won't be polite." Green picked up his rice bowl and ate, "It's so delicious!"

He was really hungry. He followed Mr. Mason in and out, and he was hungry all morning.

"Look at my memory..." Henry suddenly realized that he had forgotten to bring a gift, "It will be your grandma's birthday in half a month, I have prepared a gift for her, and you can go to the hotel with me to get it later, it's still the old rules, it cannot be said that I sent it."

"Yeah." Isabella served him another bowl of soup and put it in front of him, "How many days do you plan to stay this time?"

"Leave in the afternoon."

"So fast?"

"I was originally a loner..."

Isabella looked at the loneliness in his eyes, and said lightly, "If you want to see grandma, I can arrange it."

Henry was faintly agitated, but after thinking about it, he was afraid that the effect would be bad. There are so many people in the hospital, if someone speaks nonsense and spread it to the younger generation, he doesn't care. He is afraid that her reputation will be affected, although they are innocent and have never done anything.

“I can ask Bennett to take you in at night.” Isabella took a sip of the soup and said lightly, “Don’t worry, grandma won’t wake up at night.”

“This...” Henry thought for a while, but still shook his head resolutely, “I’m afraid that once I go, I won’t be willing to leave again.”

Isabella froze for a moment, looking into his eyes.

“Actually, this is pretty good... You can follow me to the hotel later and get your grandma’s gift.”

Although people can’t accompany her, at least there is something by her side, so that she is not lonely.
