Chapter 48 Is Isabella the distinguished guest in the box?

"I miss you. Also, the top three of this year's piano competition came out, and they were selected by the people under my hand. They said that this year's works are not very good, so I'll send them to you for a listen."

"Okay." Isabella is also one of the top judges, but she rarely participates in the selection process, and the people below are responsible.

Yushon has a piano competition every year, but this year there are fewer participants, and they all went abroad to participate in international competitions.

"The first place barely won the first place because of the family's reputation and the fact that other works were not very good. It's a pity for the second place. The first half of the song is mediocre, and the second part is a little bit broken. The climax Parts are not bad, but I feel that too many things have been added! It's a bit redundant! The third place, let's not talk about it..."

"Okay, let me listen." Although Isabella did not participate in the selection, she still needs to listen to know what stage. it is and what talents are there this year.

When she clicked on the audio from Grandpa Long, she found that Cecilia's name was written on it.

Cecilia took the first place?

The tune sounds really mediocre.

Then click on the second place, what a coincidence, Daisy?

Why does this song sound so familiar?

There was a sneer on the corner of Isabella's lips, she turned off the computer and stopped listening.

On the other side, Michael sat in the lounge area on the first floor of the Oink Capital Group, looking in the direction of the elevator.

He waited from morning to noon, did not wait for Austin to appear, and endured the hunger, he insisted on waiting until this moment.

At this point, he was about to faint from hunger!

No one invited him upstairs, not even poured him a gla*s of water!

He couldn't help coming to the front desk, smiling carefully, "Excuse me, I want to ask, is Mr. Austin finished the meeting?"

From morning to now, it is impossible to have a one-day meeting!

"I'm sorry, Mr. Austin is still busy, you can come back another day!" The front desk lady didn't have the usual enthusiasm for him, and her attitude was indifferent.

Michael asked again in a low voice, "Can you accommodate me? Ask me, I've been waiting since morning."

is Isabella the distinguished guest in the box?

"Our Mr. Austin is really busy." As soon as the front desk lady finished speaking, she saw Austin coming out of the elevator. She stood up quickly and nodded respectfully with other colleagues.

"Mr. Austin, it's me..." Michael finally saw that familiar figure, and couldn't wait to step forward to start a relationship.

But Kevin reached out to stop him, "I'm sorry, Mr. Austin still has a very important appointment to attend."

"Give me three minutes..." Michael still wanted to push forward, "I have something to say to Mr. Austin."

"Sorry, Mr. Austin is really in a hurry."

"Kevin, tell me, why doesn't Mr. Austin cooperate with us?" Michael, regardless of the public, quietly took the bank card that the fortress had given to Isabella before, and was about to stuff it into Kevin's arms.

"This must not be the case!" Kevin hurriedly pushed the card to him.

Michael insisted on stuffing it into his arms, but the card fell to the ground, and many people watched.

"You are a blatant bribe, you will cost me my job!" Kevin was furious.

"Kevin..."

Kevin hurriedly shook off his hand and followed Austin's footsteps, as if he couldn't wait to get rid of him.

"Kevin, wait for me..." Michael didn't care about his embarrassment, he picked up the card on the ground and caught up with them. Seeing them getting into the car, Michael hurriedly raised a taxi, "Follow up to the people in front of us." car."

In the box of the restaurant, Isabella had been waiting here. for a long time. Seeing Austin entering the door in a formal suit, she couldn't help teasing, "Now he's more and more like a president."

"You made fun of me again." After entering the door, Austin put the report aside and took out the meeting gift first.

Isabella took the gift, "Let's eat first."

Michael managed to get to the restaurant, and found out that Austin had gone to the box on the second floor after inquiring. As soon as he went up, he saw Kevin guarding the door of the box.

Kevin also saw him, and his first reaction was that Michael wanted to break into the box, and immediately stood in front of the door to stop him.

“Kevin!” Michael came in front of him with a contorted smile, “You misunderstood, I didn’t intend to go in, I just wanted to wait for Mr. Austin to finish talking and see me, I have something to say to him.”

“Mr. Austin has nothing to say to you.”

“How could it be!” Michael kept laughing, “We used to cooperate so happily!”

If it weren’t for the big Ms. Young, who would cooperate with a small company like yours?

Moreover, every cooperation in the past was not pleasant!

“Kevin, it’s not convenient for Fang to disclose, who is the person who ate with Mr. Austin?” Michael smiled flatteringly.

But Kevin said coldly, “It’s not convenient.”

“Kevin...”

Michael wanted to say something, but was interrupted coldly by Kevin, “Mr. Austin won’t see you, please go back!”

Michael was not annoyed, he just stood at the door and waited. After a while, the waiter was about to go in to serve food, and Michael poked his head to see what was going on inside. Although Kevin tried his best to block it, the sharp-eyed Michael still saw a familiar figure!

Isabella?

How is she in there?

The person Austin needs to meet in a hurry, is she?

How can it be?

After a while, the waiter went in to serve the food again. Michael took a closer look and found that the person was indeed Isabella!

The point is, Austin, who has always been serious and indifferent, actually showed a trace of respect and politeness in front of that girl!

How can it be?

“Isn’t that Isabella?”

After the door of the box closed, Michael looked at Kevin in shock, but Kevin had long been used to it and ignored his words.

Michael was so shocked that he remembered that the company had been interrupted for no reason, and one of them happened to be Austin...

Could this be related to Isabella?

Isabella and Austin, what’s the relationship?

Thinking of this, he was shocked, Isabella, Oink Capital...

Isabella and Oink Capital Group, wouldn't they be inextricably linked?

His breathing fluctuated violently, and he couldn't believe this hypothesis at all. No, it's impossible, how can that girl have such great abilities?

But remembering just now, Austin was indeed very polite to Isabella, as if he was trying to please her.

The more Michael thought about it, the more he felt something was wrong. After waiting outside the box for a long time, he found that Kevin left suddenly...

He hurried forward and twisted the doorknob.

The people inside had already finished eating and left through another passage. I didn't expect that there were other passages in this box!

No, he has to ask Isabella to find out what's going on!
