Chapter 51 Answered yes

Knowing Madam's concerns, Myra respectfully answered yes.

Isabella was a little surprised, did her parents investigate the Brown family? Otherwise, when Michael and Gail were mentioned, the faces of both of them were not very good- looking.

Did they know that the Brown family had bullied her before?

"Isabella, if someone from the Brown family comes to you later on, just tell me and I'll take care of it." Eloise couldn't speak too directly, and said tactfully, "If someone from the Brown family wants to ask for the favor of nurturing, I will tell them Discuss."

"Of course, the grandma of the Brown family is kind to you, we are not ungrateful people!" Williams said kindly, "If the hospital needs help, such as paying bills, changing VIP wards, just tell me, and I will arrange it!"

"I heard that the old man is seriously ill. If you need to hire a famous doctor, you can also tell us! We know that the Brown family grandma has brought you up these years. If you want to repay your kindness and filial piety, you can also take her home Come on, let's give it a thumbs up!"

"Thank you, dad, thank you mom." Isabella was even more sure of her guess in her heart, her parents must have checked the Brown family.

"Mr. Mason's car is following behind." The driver Barret glanced at the rearview mirror and said tremblingly, "It has been following for a while."

It's hard for them not to recognize the conspicuous license plate number!

Isabella thought to herself, what are you doing with them?

Cecilia clenched her fists. How did Benjamin follow them? Could it be because of Isabella?

Thinking of this, she wished Isabella would die!

"Should I stop?" The driver was a little embarra*sed.

It was Eloise who said happily, "Benjamin must have come for Isabella! Isabella, get out of the car first! Your father and I have to go somewhere else! We're not on the way for now."

“Yes, yes, let Benjamin take you home first.” Williams asked the driver to stop, and said to Isabella with a smile, “Hurry up, don’t keep Benjamin waiting.”

Eloise opened the door directly and pushed Isabella out of the car.

Was she kicked out of the car by her biological parents?

“Mr. Mason, Ms. Young seems to have been kicked out of the car?” Green’s eyes widened, unable to believe what he saw.

Benjamin raised the corners of his lips, pushed open the car door and stepped forward, pulling the girl into his arms, looking at the car going away with a meaningful smile,

“Parents are really sensible people.”

Isabella provoked the displeasure in her eyes, “Who are your parents?”

If it wasn’t for you, I’d be kicked out of the car?

“Your parents, aren’t they, my parents?” Benjamin looked down at the girl in his arms, the corners of his lips slightly curled up, “Aren’t we a family?”

“Didn’t I ask you to go back first?” Isabella was pulled into the car by him, with a helpless tone, “You don’t think you haven’t eaten yet?”

Green explained in time: “Mr. Mason waited for you to come out, so he didn’t leave a step, and didn’t eat a bite.”

Isabella had a headache, “Then go find something to eat first, stop the car, and I’ll go home by myself.”

“Come with me.” Benjamin held on to her hand, “I owe you my company, give me back now.”

Can you still ask for it like this?

At this moment, Isabella’s cell phone vibrated a few times, and she took it out to see that it was Michael calling.

With little hesitation, Isabella blocked the number directly.

After a while, Michael sent another message:

[Isabella, why did you block my phone number? I have something to tell you!]

Isabella slightly curled her lips. When she was sent back to the ravine two days ago, she deliberately distanced herself from her. Why is she talking about her father now?

Seeing that she didn’t reply, Michael sent several more messages:

[The car you got in tonight belongs to your family? I heard it will cost 300 million...]

[What do your parents do? How can you still afford servants and drivers?]

[Is what the servant said tonight true? Your parents really prepared so many expensive gifts for us? Why don't you remind us?]

[How about this, do you have time now, let's find a place to have a good chat...]

[Didn't you fancy Daisy's necklace? I'll bring it to you! It's for you! You just take it!]

At the end, Michael hypocritically added: [The main reason is that I miss you and want to see you.]

Isabella evoked a mocking smile, blocked the account together, put away the phone, and pretended nothing happened.

"Someone harassed you?" Benjamin took her little hand, "I'll handle it?"

"No need." Isabella didn't take the Brown family seriously at all, her expression was indifferent.

"You can find me if you have anything to do." Benjamin looked into her eyes, "All the things you don't want to deal with or are too lazy to deal with, you can leave them to me."

"Are you free?"

"No matter how busy you are with your affairs, I will spare time." Benjamin's tone was a little doting, "You are young, don't take care of everything by yourself."

"Everything is mine." Benjamin patted her head, "Do you remember? Kid."

Isabella said helplessly, "Remember."

"Remember what?"

"Remember to find you..."

"Remember that you still have a fiancé, spend more time with him when you have time, and think about him more when you don't have time."

"He will protect you from the wind and rain, and accompany you through all the dark dawns." Benjamin touched her face, "Remember it."

"knew!"

the other side.

"That damn girl even blocked you?" Gail saw Michael's message, and a red exclamation point popped up, gnashing her teeth angrily, "I've raised her for eighteen years, why not raise a dog!"

"It's not all because of you! I've said it all, be nice to her, you see, since she left our house, we have all kinds of problems..."

Now they don't know who her biological parents are. Several groups do not cooperate with him, is it related to her biological parents?

Thinking of the car tonight and what the servant said, they always felt that her family was more powerful than theirs...

“Didn’t her mother call last time? We still have her mother’s contact information...”

Before Michael finished speaking, he heard Gail say, “I thought her family was poor, and all contact information was deleted. I didn’t keep it.”

“You let me tell you what’s good about you!” Michael was so anxious that he almost cursed out.

“Don’t worry.” Gail thought of an idea, “Recently, a big man is hospitalized, and many people with status and status have visited him! This is a good opportunity...”
