Chapter 64 Mr. Mason is in a good mood

"I wonder why the turnover rate of the company's employees is so high. It turns out that she is behind the scenes!"

"She did a lot of wrong things."

In addition to what Isabella just said, there are some others that have seriously violated the law.

The evidence has been handed over to the police, and what awaits Kate will be a prison sentence.

"There are so many industries under the name of the Logan family, the top management of the group can't pay attention to every little thing that happens in every subsidiary, especially such a small company..."

I thought that sending some experienced and capable employees to sit in the town would at least save me some trouble.

"Isabella, you are very talented in business. With you back home, the burden on your brother's shoulders will be lighter. When you get used to this company, Dad will give you bigger and more companies. In the future, you and your brother will develop the Logan family together..."

"No....."

This company is already busy enough for her. Although it is all trivial matters, it also took her a lot of time.

She has no time for her own affairs.

"Your ability is obvious to all."

When Williams threw the company to her before, he didn't expect her to do well, just to play for her, and even prepared for bankruptcy.

Unexpectedly, in just a few days, she managed to make the company look good, firing those who should be fired, and recruiting those who should be recruited.

"Isabella, are you still used to sleeping at Old Mr. Mason's place last night?" Williams actually wanted to ask Old Mr. Mason if he treated her well and what happened last night.

But Isabella said lightly, "It's all good."

On the other side, Benjamin stared at the chat box for a long time, and finally couldn't bear to call the little girl.

While Isabella was talking to Williams, the phone suddenly vibrated a few times. She saw that it was Benjamin calling.

"Dad, I have a call coming in."

"Okay, pick it up quickly. I'm hanging up, go home early tonight!"

Williams wanted someone to cook her a sumptuous supper to reward her well. The child was at Old Mr. Mason's yesterday, and he didn't know if he had eaten enough.

"Okay." After Isabella ended the call, she picked up Benjamin's call again, "What's the matter?"

"What are you busy with?"

"I just finished dealing with the company's affairs, and I didn't say a few words to my dad, and you called."

Hearing that it was her father, Benjamin felt better, "Seeing that you didn't reply, I want to ask if I can help you?"

"Need not."

"What do you want for lunch?"

Isabella thought for a while and said, "Anything is fine."

After chatting with him for a while, Isabella didn't end the call until Frank sent the company's purchase order.

Riverside Villa.

Cecilia just came back from outside, with a big bag of food in her hand, "Dad, Mom, I bought you your favorite food..."

No one responded to her.

At this time, Eloise saw Williams finished talking on the phone, and hurriedly asked, "Isabella, okay?"

All her thoughts were on Isabella.

"It's okay! It's Isabella who caught out the company's illegal employees! You don't know that Kate, the head of the human resources department sent by the headquarters, dared to tamper with the attendance sheet without authorization. She only worked 78 days a year and took us a whole year Salary and full attendance, and annual bonuses..."

Eloise didn't expect this to happen, and subconsciously asked, "Then how did Isabella find out?"

"I don't know about it. I just heard people in the company say that Isabella is kind-hearted and planned to let Kate go. But Kate found the office, took pictures of Isabella's desk, and said a lot of nasty things. Because many people are in the office Watching the excitement outside, Isabella threw the evidence in front of her and called the police."

"Isabella is great!" Eloise didn't expect that Isabella could easily deal with the difficulties of her resigned subordinates. This psychological quality is too strong.

"Miss is really amazing! At such a young age, she is simply a business genius!"

"That's not true! Such a business mind must be in the genes of Mr. Logan and Madam Logan."

"Sure enough, she is the Logan family's biological daughter, just as outstanding as her brothers!"

“Congratulations to Mr. Logan and Madam Logan, you have such an excellent and beautiful daughter, hand over the company to her, you can rest assured in the future...”

Williams and Eloise were equally happy when they heard the compliments from the servants.

When I threw that small company to Isabella, I wanted her to pass the time, but I didn't expect her to do so shockingly.

Cecilia, who was hiding and eavesdropping, did not expect to make Isabella famous again this time. While she was jealous in her heart, she smiled again and came in with something.

“Dad, Mom, I'm back, let's see what good things I brought you?”

One of the servants had sharp eyes and found the name of the hotel printed on the bag. He complimented, “Mr. Logan and Madam Logan are so blessed. One daughter has a business mind and the other is so caring!”

“Yeah, I heard that it's hard to buy things at that store. Even if you're a wealthy daughter, you still have to wait in line to get there!”

“Cecilia, are you going to line up?” Eloise felt a little distressed when she heard this.

“As long as parents are happy to eat, it doesn't matter how long you wait in line.” Cecilia took out the food and said with a smile, “Eat it while it's hot!”

She asked the bodyguards to line up, and the bodyguards got the food and delivered it to her, and she took it home herself...

From the beginning to the end, she didn't put in much effort. She didn't expect Eloise to be moved so quickly.

It seems that she can use this more to win their favor in the future.

“You are the daughter of the Logan family, let the servants do these things in the future.”

Hearing what Williams said, Cecilia hugged him again, “I know Dad loves me...I dare to hug you like this when my sister is away. Okay, sit down and eat!”

When Williams heard this, he immediately felt guilty. Originally, this child was raised by them as their own daughter.

Now that Isabella is back, her status is indeed not as good as before.

“Although Isabella is back, you are still our daughter. When you get married, your parents will not treat you badly.” Eloise patted her head, she had feelings for this daughter.

“Thank you, dad, thank you mom!” Cecilia smiled sweetly, “I don't want anything, as long as I can stay by your side for the rest of my life, I'm content...”

“Stupid boy.” Eloise smiled, feeling sore in her heart, this kid is too sensible.

Green sent the document in front of Benjamin, "Mr. Mason, this needs to be signed...I have read it, there is no problem."

Like this kind of small contract, Green will go through it for Benjamin first.

Benjamin is usually busy, so he is too lazy to deal with such a small-level contract...

Benjamin slightly hooked the corner of his lips, and with a swipe of a pen, his eloquent name appeared on the contract.

"Mr. Mason, are you in a good mood today?"
