Chapter 68 Are you free

Sending Isabella to the door of the company, Benjamin still couldn't let go of his hand, bowed his head and said to the girl in his arms, "I'll bring you some snacks later, is there anything you want to eat in particular?"

"Are you free?"

"Just had nothing to do."

Green in the driver's seat was stunned when he heard this. Mr. Mason, you have two meetings this afternoon, three partners to meet, and more than a dozen documents that need to be finalized by you...

Are you sure you have nothing to do?

"I'm not hungry."

Isabella was about to get out of the car, Benjamin stretched out his hand to wrap her around tightly, "Hold for a while."

"It's almost late!"

"Just a moment."

Benjamin took a deep breath of the fragrance on her body, it smelled so good, it made people linger.

"Don't bring me food in the afternoon." Isabella's tone was a little helpless, "I'm a little busy."

"Do you need my help?"

"Need not."

Isabella was entangled by him for a while, finally took his hand away and hurried towards the company.

"Mr. Mason, why do I feel like Ms. Young wants to hurry up..." Green watched Isabella's back as she left, and then looked in the rearview mirror. Benjamin's gaze never left the girl for half a second.

"Oh, by the way, Mr. Mason, the manager of the restaurant asked me to give it to you..." Green turned on the phone and sent a dozen photos to Benjamin.

That is the photo of them eating at the Ferris wheel at noon.

If he hadn't seen it with his own eyes, Benjamin would not have believed it. When he looked at Isabella, there was a soft and dotting light in his eyes.

Although Isabella looked sideways at the scenery outside and didn't notice his gaze, it didn't prevent him from appreciating her face attentively and seriously.

What was she thinking at that time, her eyes were as clean as a stream of clear water.

Benjamin's slender fingers slid across the screen and looked at the other photos. Every angle was good.

Green immediately transferred 10,000 dollar to the restaurant manager.

“Actually, Mr. Mason, I also took a few photos...” Green sent the photos he secretly took to Benjamin for viewing.

It was a picture of Benjamin holding Isabella in his arms and looking at the scenery later.

The two seem to be made for each other.

“Mr. Mason, let me declare first, I didn’t want any favors, I just took this photo because I thought you were good- looking...” Green was afraid that Mr. Mason would blame him, after all, he also took the photo secretly without Benjamin’s knowledge.

But Benjamin didn’t say a word, and after two seconds, Green’s phone dinged and received a money transfer.

His eyes widened, $ 99999!

Mr. Mason transferred so much money to him at once? This is a reward?

Benjamin set his two favorite photos as screensavers and home screen wallpapers, and then looked at the company the girl worked for, with a reluctant gaze, “Go back to the group.”

Green could clearly feel the miss in his tone, tsk, this Ms. Young has only left for a short time, and you start to miss her so soon?

Mason Group.

Cecilia prepared six snacks for the six receptionists, and they were all very happy.

“Ms. Logan, I haven’t seen you for a long time! You bought us something again when you came!”

“It’s too expensive. How can we be happy after eating such an expensive thing?”

“In the past few years, Ms. Logan has brought us food.”

“Long time no see, Ms. Logan is still so pretty!”

Hearing their compliments, Cecilia raised a smile and said reproachfully, “There is no honey in the dim sum, look at all of you with sweet mouths ~”

“Ms. Logan, you are really getting more and more beautiful, can you tell us how you did it?”

One of them became nympho, resting his chin on his hands, admiring Cecilia’s looks.

“Ms. Logan’s usual skin care products must be very expensive, how can we afford them?”

Cecilia listened to their arguing, smiled, and was about to say something when she suddenly noticed that they stood up and adjusted their appearance in a panic.

Cecilia looked back, and it turned out that Benjamin had returned.

“Benjamin ”

Before Cecilia ran over, several high-level officials took a step ahead of her.

When they saw Benjamin, they immediately rushed over to report the emergency. Everyone walked towards the elevator quickly, and no one seemed to notice that a voice called Benjamin just now.

It was Green who stayed behind and stopped in front of Cecilia, “Ms. Logan, are you here? Do you need Mr. Mason?”

“Here is the snack I bought for Benjamin, and you have a share. I have something to say to Benjamin.” Cecilia looked at the back of the man walking towards the elevator, a little anxious, but Green didn’t let her go forward, and she didn’t either. Method.

“I really have something to do with Benjamin.”

“Mr. Mason has an emergency to attend to.”

“I can wait.”

“Mr. Mason will be busy for a while. Ms. Logan should go home and wait. If you have anything to do, you can call Mr. Mason or send a message to Mr. Mason.”

“It’s okay, I’ll go up and wait, I have something to say to him in person.

Cecilia went forward with all her heart, but Green kept stopping her, “Ms. Logan, why don’t you tell me first, I can help Ms. Logan tell...”

Cecilia was a little annoyed at being stopped by him, but due to her status, she still smiled decently, “Mr. Larson is going to stop him all the time?”

“Sorry, I was afraid that Ms. Logan would wait in vain...”

“I said it’s okay, how long he is busy, how long I wait!” Cecilia walked around him and walked towards the elevator.

Green thought she was the adopted daughter of the Logan family, so she didn’t let her down on the spot, but she didn’t listen to persuasion, and she was asking for trouble when she went up.

Mr. Mason only has Ms. Young in his heart, there is no one else at all...

Seeing Cecilia enter the elevator, he could only follow in.

The six receptionists didn’t know what happened, and vaguely felt that there was something inside.

“Do you think the CEO doesn’t like Ms. Logan?”

“No way? Ms. Logan is so good.”

“But why did Mr. Larson stop her?”

“The president probably didn’t mean to snub Ms. Logan. As you can see, as soon as he walked in, so many executives came to him to deal with matters. Mr. Larson must have considered this and didn’t want Ms. Logan to wait in vain. .”

“He treats everyone with a cold look, as if he only has work in his eyes! We have been working here for several years, and the president has looked at us?”

“That’s not true.”

“So, the relationship between the husband and wife is good,
it’s not our turn to worry about it!”
