Chapter 74 In prison

"It's really his fault. He was greedy for money and made some bad ingredients... But look, the employees didn't have any trouble, and the company compensated the employees. Can you let him go?"

Isabella asked slowly, "How?"

"For example, let this matter pass like this, let him provide free food for employees for half a year, or a year. Don't worry, I will definitely keep an eye on the ingredients in the future, and I will never let him shoddy it!"

"The accident happened because of you staring at me before." Isabella's eyes fell on him, with a sense of oppression, "Is Mr. Barnes not responsible at all?"

"Yes, I am indeed responsible..." George lowered his head, if it wasn't because other relationships couldn't work out, why would he come to beg the girl in front of him?

"If you think it doesn't matter if your employees eat those additives, then you should be like them and eat them for a year. After a year, we will talk about it again."

"Ms. Young, aren't you joking?" George smiled flatteringly, "This year... is enough for my relatives to eat in prison for 365 days."

"Isn't prison rice more fragrant than additives?"

"At least healthy."

George was completely choked.

"As the vice president of the company, you didn't reflect on yourself immediately after the incident, nor did you think about how to compensate the employees, but excused your relatives. I don't know where you have the face to tell me this. If you want me to be private, sorry, but I can't do that."

Hearing the girl's refusal, George was a little scared, because he remembered that something happened to his relatives, and he might confess him. He had to bite the bullet and go

"Ms. Young, the main reason is that our two families have a very deep relationship in private. My old mother is 89 years old this year. When she learned that he was involved in the bureau, she insisted on me getting him out..."

"His family is also making trouble with me. I really had no choice but to look for you with the cheek..."

"The main reason is that we don't want to see him suffer this crime..."

"Then you are willing to let the employees suffer this?" Isabella raised her eyes and asked.

"this....."

“There is no room for negotiation on this matter. Mr. Barnes should think about it for himself. He is your relative. If something like this happens, the headquarters will definitely investigate it to the end.”

When George heard this, his back was not as rigid as before, he bowed slightly, and left dejectedly.

Isabella ate the desserts bought by Benjamin, dealt with work for a while, and it was time to get off work soon.

Night fell. Benjamin took her to have a candlelight dinner, his eyes seemed to contain a thousand words, but in the end, he didn't say a word, and silently served her food.

“What's the matter?” Isabella looked at him hesitant to speak, a little puzzled.

“Don't you like that bracelet?” Benjamin looked at the girl's beautiful eyes, and seemed a little downcast, “You still don't like me?”

“Is it because I've been pestering you lately, which annoys you?” Benjamin picked up a hot towel and gently wiped the sauce from the corners of her lips, waiting for her answer with burning eyes and concern.

It was only then that Isabella noticed that she had forgotten to wear the bracelet on her wrist.

“If you don't like me, then I will work harder to make you like me, give me a little more time?”

“If you don't like that bracelet, I'll redesign it for you.”

“The bracelet was designed by you?” Isabella was a little surprised.

But for Benjamin, it is not difficult, he has a design talent since childhood. In Green's words, if he concentrates on design, he will become a myth in the design world!

His design talent once caused a sensation internationally.

“Hmm.” Benjamin looked into her eyes with a serious and solemn expression, “Is it the bracelet problem, or my problem? If there are both, I'll change them together.”

Isabella raised the corners of her lips and smiled brightly, “The bracelet is pretty good, I like it very much, but I accidentally spilled it while drinking juice in the afternoon, took it off when I went to wash my hands, and forgot to put it back on.”

It turns out that this man thought she didn't like him anymore, so he was careful?

“What about me?” Benjamin's eyes were serious and concerned, looking at her, “Do you like it?”

Why did you ask such a question?

“Like it, or don't you like it?”

“It's okay.” Isabella smiled, “Can I have a good meal now?”

Benjamin fondled her face, which was full of sweetness and happiness.

Isabella said he was fine.

In other words, he usually does a good job.

He smiled and fed her happily.

“I eat it myself.”

“Do you want me to feed with a spoon, or with...” Benjamin suddenly moved closer and kissed her lips, as if hinting at something.

“you.....”

After finally finishing her meal, Benjamin sent her downstairs to the company, got out of the car and opened the door for her, “I’ll accompany you up there.”

“The company’s production line operates 24 hours a day.”

If he went up, he might be seen by the production department.

Seeing that Benjamin was aggrieved, Isabella said helplessly, “You wait for me here, I will come down after I get the bracelet.”

“Then hold me for a while.”

“Hold me, and I’ll let you up.” Benjamin opened his arms, begging for a hug like a child.

Isabella felt even more helpless watching this normally indifferent man become so childish in front of her. In order not to be seen by others, she deliberately reached out and touched him.

I thought I would just touch her, but Benjamin’s arms suddenly encircled her, “When will I be seen by others?”

“Um?”

“When will people know that I am your fiancé?”

Isabella was speechless, “Is this important?”

“It’s important.” Benjamin hugged tightly, “It’s very important. Is there anyone from the company chasing you?”

Isabella finds it funny, let alone men, women dare not approach her these two days...

“No.”

“I like it.” Benjamin breathed in the fragrance of her body, “I like you very much. You have to keep a distance from others.”

“Ok?”

“Understood, I’m going up.” Isabella didn’t want to hug on the main road, it would not be a good influence.

She entered the company, entered the pa*sword of the office, opened the door and entered, the bracelet was still quietly lying on the desk....

Thinking of what he said tonight, Isabella felt warm inside.

In order not to keep him waiting, Isabella put on the bracelet and left the office. She was about to enter the elevator when she suddenly heard a sound from the safe corridor, which seemed to be arguing, with some complaints.

Isabella stepped lightly and pushed open the corridor door, only then did she notice that the sound was coming from several floors' downstairs.

Because the corridor echoes, it sounds louder.
