Chapter 83 Transfer Money to Daughter

“The company said that Isabella called the manager of the production department, the warehouse manager, the team leader of the fourth and fifth production lines, and the director of the purchasing department to the office early in the morning...”

Eloise stroked his heart, “And then?”

“Do you know why the company hasn’t improved for a whole year?”

When Williams said this, the fire that had been suppressed with great difficulty ignited again, and his breathing felt difficult.

“Don’t worry, speak slowly...” Eloise vaguely felt that something was wrong.

Williams tried to calm down, “There are three cloth merchants that cooperate with our company, and the price per 100 meters of cloth is about 800, but the purchase amount submitted by the head of the purchasing department to the headquarters is 1,500, and the extra 700, he and Chen The manager, the warehouse manager, the team leader of Line 4 and 5, and some production workers have been separated!”

Eloise was surprised, there is such a thing?

“It’s okay if he was greedy for 700. The point is, he has been greedy for a whole year! Isabella checked it out, and the total amount involved in the whole thing is as high as tens of millions!”

When Eloise heard this, she was stunned, “They colluded together to do such a thing!”

“Those three cloth merchants transfer money to him every month, which proves that he has indeed received kickbacks, and he himself admitted...”

Williams was so angry that his heart ached, “Not only that, if such a piece of 100-meter-long cloth was made into a new product, there would be at least seventy or eighty pieces, but when it was put into storage, there were only twenty or thirty pieces left. You know the fifty Where did it go?”

Eloise shook her head, Cecilia also expressed puzzlement, and both of them were waiting for Williams to continue.

“Their group opened an online store in the second month of the company’s establishment. If a customer places an order, they will send the goods to the nearby courier point for consignment. If the customer wants more at one time, There will be a courier who will come directly to the door and receive the goods at the door of our company!”

Eloise was stunned, “This group of people are too courageous? Aren’t they afraid of being caught by surveillance cameras?”

“The monitoring was deleted by them. They colluded together and have nothing to fear.” Williams couldn’t believe it when he heard this, but the evidence was convincing. "It is said that Isabella saw this scene after restoring the monitoring..."

Eloise was stunned, "If it wasn't for Isabella, how long would they have kept the secret..."

"Not only that, they also hoarded a large number of inferior fabrics, produced exactly the same styles as the company's, put the company's label on them, and sold them to other places. Because the fabrics were rough, many people had skin allergies after wearing them, which was equivalent to smashing the company's products. The signboard... the impact is huge!"

No wonder the company couldn't make any money for a whole year, it turned out that it was because these few people were playing tricks behind their backs!

What Cecilia thought was, Isabella again!

She deliberately brought her parents here to play golf today. As soon as this relationship was cultivated, this incident happened in the company, and now her parents' good mood has been affected!

Everything she did today was in vain!

Damn Isabella, why does she have so many things, she has to jump out from time to time to affect her mood!

"What about George? Before Isabella came to the company, he was the biggest person in charge! Didn't he know that something like this happened under his nose?" Eloise asked.

"Those people said that all of this was caused by George's coercion, and they don't know if it's true..."

If there is really something wrong with George, then this year, the company will not only lose tens of millions of dollars...

"George is also a key talent in our headquarters. When he was sent there, I believed in his ability and character..." Eloise never thought that such a thing would happen, and George must have something to do with it.

"But there's very little physical evidence pointing to him. now, and he can't be convicted yet..." Thinking of this, Williams felt as if a boulder had been crushed in his heart, feeling heavy.

If George really covered the sky with one hand in the company and deceived others, then how much money will their company lose this year...

"Should I send people to reinforce Isabella?" Eloise was afraid that the baby girl would be alone and helpless.

But Williams is not worried about this, "Look at how long we have played here, Isabella has already discovered so many problems... Her ability is above everyone else! I believe she can handle these well."

"Since Isabella took over the company, it has really saved us a lot of worry." Eloise said this, and then glanced at Cecilia again, "In the future, you should learn more from your sister..."

Isabella's management ability is beyond her age.

After all, it was his own, the business gene is engraved in his bones, and he is outstanding.

On the contrary, Cecilia has been raised and raised up since she was a child. Even if she is given a company, she may not be able to manage it as well as Isabella.

"Cecilia will not take over the company in the future, right? You will continue to be a little princess. When the fate comes, you will get married, and your parents will never treat you badly." Williams raised a kind smile, still treating her as his family.

Eloise also smiled and said, "Your good friend Zoey, when her sister got married, her dowry was 800 million dollar, plus twelve suites and twelve cars. Don't worry, your pomp will definitely be bigger than her sister's."

When Cecilia heard this, she felt uncomfortable. The Logan family has a big business, and the pomp will only be bigger than sister Zoey?

Why?

They also said that they treated her as a family member, which is indeed a lie!

Think about it, Isabella has only been home for a few days, and the pocket money alone is hundreds of millions. Now Isabella still has a company in her hands, which will develop later, and I don't know how much it is worth!

The last time I heard from my parents was that I will give this wild girl some property in the future!

Money will be spent sooner or later, only the company is long-term!

Her parents actually planned to send her away with a few dollars, a few flats, and a few cars!

She is not a beggar!

"My sister must have suffered a lot in the Brown family to gain insight into the dark side of so many human beings..." Cecilia suddenly changed the subject, pretending to be distressed, "Mom and Dad, let's treat my sister-better..."

Hearing what Cecilia said, Williams and Eloise remembered what they had investigated. Over the years, Isabella hadn't had a good day in the Brown family.

Her personality is clear and cold, and she is very independent and strong in her work. It must be that no one around her cares about her and warms her up.

"Cecilia is right, I want to ansfer some money to Isabella to let her know the warmth of the family..." Eloise immediately took out her phone and transferred 50 million.

Williams also took out his mobile phone, "As much as you transfer, I will transfer too. We need to let Isabella know that she not only has mother's love, but also father's love!"

When Cecilia heard this, she became jealous immediately. Her original intention was to imply to Williams and Eloise that Isabella grew up in such an environment, and her mind was already complicated and impure!

But why do parents think differently from normal people...
