

Chased Her 121

Chapter 121 Dare to Slander Again And now, only Isabella herself can slap Daisy in the face! Isabella: ... She originally wanted Daisy to get out of this industry, she didn't want to show her face... But helplessly, some people are just brazened, plagiarized, and refuse to admit it. Everyone followed Lena's gaze with surprised expressions. That girl is Muise? "Is she Muise? Impossible..." "But Ms. Farley's gaze was clearly looking over there. Apart from that girl, there was no one else nearby." "Muise has won numerous piano awards at home and abroad, so it's impossible for her to be a little girl..." "Is the light a bit dim, Ms. Farley has identified the wrong person? She looks like a high school student!" Because the spotlights were on the stage, the auditorium was rather dim, but everyone still found that top-notch beautiful face exuding a cold aura in the darkness. "If Ms. Farley says she is Muise, I still believe it. How could that girl be Muise?"

Dare to Stander Again "I also don't think it's possible..." It was only then that Michael and Gail noticed that Lena's eyes fell on a certain girl in the auditorium. No matter how it looks, the girl's back looks a bit similar to Isabella... No, it's not similar, Gail recognizes this outfit, just now she had a conflict with Isabella at the bathroom door, and Isabella was wearing this outfit! Lena said she was Muise? How can it be! How many times has she touched the piano since she was a child?

Didn't read the book well! Even if she knows how to press a few keys, it doesn't prove that she can compose music. Is she Muise? If Cecilia is Muise, then they think it is possible, after all, she is the daughter of Williams, the daughter of the richest man! But speaking of Isabella... No! No way! At this time. Harris also followed Lena's line of sight, and found that the girl's back was a little familiar, and he couldn't believe it when he heard Gail's words. Isabella? His expression was a little shocked. Isabella also came to the awards ceremony? How did she get in? ||| < Lena said she was Muise? How can it be? Cecilia followed Lena's gaze to the auditorium, and there was no one else there except Isabella! Isabella is Muise? Who is Muise, and how could she be so young? Lena must have made a mistake. Daisy was also stunned, "Isabella? So, you did it!" She suddenly realized, and her voice was transmitted to everyone's ears through the microphone, "I understand! You must be pretending to be Muisc and find Ms. Farley to expose me. Ms. Farley is kind, and I believe your nonsense!" After all, no one has ever seen Muise, if Isabella pretends to be, it is not impossible! She smiled coldly, as if to find out the culprit, "It's fine if you pretend to be someone else. Muise is the idol of many people present. Did you get the consent of the fans when you pretended to be her? Do you think her fans are easy to bully?"

Everyone presents whispered. "Yeah, how could she be Muise? Muise is so powerful...." "I also don't think it's her..." "If she really pretends to be Muise, I won't let her go lightly!" "Me too!"

Dare to Slander Again "It sounds like these two girls know each other, and they have some personal grievances..." Daisy felt ashamed and ashamed, at this moment, she decided to let Isabella have a taste of this embarrassment! "You replaced my life and enjoyed eighteen years of glory and wealth. By chance, my parents brought me back who was suffering outside. You are not convinced in your heart, so you target me everywhere!" As soon as these words came out, the audience was shocked... I didn't expect that there was such a deep connection between these two people! So, like this girl in the auditorium, in order to avenge Daisy on the stage, set up a frame up? Immediately, everyone started to say bad things about Isabella from praising Isabella's beauty... "Your biological family is so poor, you go out with different men every day in order to stay in Bomsville! Who brought you in today? Do you dare to introduce everyone?" "As my younger sister. I have advised you several times not to go astray, but if you don't listen, just beat me several times and forget about it, and even bully my fiancé! Let someone beat him!" "Originally, for the sake of my family, I didn't care about you. I didn't expect you to find a way to cheat Ms. Farley's trust after seeing me win the award, and tried my best to discredit me! That's why Ms. Farley is kind. I will believe your nonsense!"

The people present were amazed again... O It sounds like the girl sitting in the auditorium has a messy private life... She looks so beautiful, she looks like the kind of person who would seduce others with her beauty... Listening to Daisy's analysis. Isabella probably slandered Daisy for plagiarism out of jealousy or unwillingness... Cecilia on the side looked at Daisy in front of her with an inexplicable look. Is she out of her mind? If Isabella can't play the piano, then there is a possibility... But to say that Isabella's biological family is so poor? Sorry, if the richest man in the country is also considered poor, what is the Brown family? She also said that Isabella went out with different men every day in order to stay in Bomsville? Her parents gave her hundreds of millions of pocket money, and the clothes and bags alone were enough for her to wear for three to five years... She needs to live off a man? Besides, she has already climbed up to Benjamin, so does she still need to please other men? Is this person a fool? What man in the world could compare to Benjamin? Dare in an Agen However, this is Isabella's business, so she doesn't care about it and just watches the show from the sidelines. "Nonsense!" Lena was very angry. "A person with Muise's status needs to live by pleasing men? Her worth is already higher than that of your Brown family!" Just a "Muisc" status is already better than how many rich families... Before the entertainment industry, there were people who paid 100,000 dollar for a note, and wanted to ask Muise to make a song for him! But Muise refused! The reason is that there is no shortage of money! No time! "A person like Muise, is it you who want to blaspheme? We, the entire Piano Association, are no match for a single finger of Muise in musical talent! Do you think that Muise is young and has no one to support him? Let me tell you, the entire piano association is Muise's backer! Do you dare to slander her again?" The audience erupted. So, that girl is really the piano master Muise? Everyone looked at Ms. Farley's righteous indignation, nine out of ten, it was the girl!!

Chapter 122 Piano skills

It's just that Muise is too young and too good-looking...

They thought that Muisc must be Ms. Farley's agc...

Daisy couldn't believe her ears, is Isabella really Muise? How can it be!

Even the expressions of Michael, Gail and Harris in the audience. were stunned and couldn't believe it...

"Muise's piano skills are questioned by a junior like you? She can play the piano with her eyes closed, let alone with her eyes closed, even with her back to the piano and her hands bouncing, she can play the piano better than you!"

The audience boiled again.

Daisy's complexion could no longer be described as pale, but she still insisted, "Really? Since she is so proficient in the piano, let's invite her to play on stage for everyone to hear!"

No one has ever dared to make such an unreasonable request!

Did she take herself too seriously?

"If the piece is hers, she can play it without reading the score. If not, then she is not Muise, and the piece is not hers! How about it, Muise, do you dare to come up? Prove yourself!" Daisy is determined Isabella can't play the piano!

Even if she could, she couldn't memorize this unpublished piece of music, and play all of them correctly!

Lena wanted the security to throw this bad-minded junior out, but she didn't want to. Isabella stood up and pursed her lips. "Yes."

Everyone watched Isabella take the stage step by step. Her beautiful facial features were too good-looking, her skin was better than snow, the light in her eyes was like the plum blossom in the snow, and her whole body exuded a cold and arrogant aura.

This girl not only has a strong aura, but also looks outstanding.

“Just now Ms. Farley said that you can play with your back to the piano? Why don’t you open everyone’s eyes?” Daisy is sure that Isabella will make a joke!

At this time, Williams and Eloise came back in a hurry and found that there were many people standing on the stage. Cecilia already held the championship trophy in her hand. It seemed that the awards had already been presented?

But why don’t you come down after the awards, and stand on top with a group of people?

And what’s wrong with the atmosphere?

What surprised them the most was, how did Isabella go up there?

What exactly is going on?

I saw Isabella sitting on the piano bench, with her back to the piano, her hands back, her slender fingers falling on the keys, and she played freely.

Everyone in the audience was shocked, because Isabella played every note so naturally without looking up at the score.

The wonderful sound of the piano flowed out from her hands, which was extremely pleasant.

“I’m a fan of Muise. This song is like Muise in terms of melody and momentum!”

“Only Muise can make such a beautiful song!”

“This piece was definitely written by her, otherwise, how could she play it without any preparation.”

“She must be Muise, yes!”

Both Williams and Eloise were taken aback, Isabella is Muise?

Their precious daughter turned out to be a musical genius?

They didn’t know that they could play such a moving melody with such an elegant posture without looking at the score with their backs to the piano. The key point is that the fingering is correct!

The whole song is magnificent and has a huge pattern, which is very similar to Muise’s usual style.

Muise’s music has a strong appeal, and everyone present is moved...

In contrast, everyone realized that the song Sadness written by Daisy before was simply rubbish!

This girl who plays the piano is definitely Muise, unmistakable!

After Isabella finished playing, she took the host’s microphone and said calmly, “I wrote the piece for the survivors of the earthquake last year, so I can play it without reading the score.”

This is the best proof!

Michael and Gail in the audience were stunned as if struck by lightning, and couldn't believe that this girl who played the piano fluently was once their child....

Doesn't she know nothing!

How can she play the piano? It's still such a difficult method of playing...

It is said that someone asked Mui-se to compose music at a sky-high price, but was rejected...

Unexpectedly, the person who refused was Isabella...

Cecilia didn't expect that Isabella turned out to be Mui-se. Just now, her playing level was obviously higher than everyone else's!

And she was still showing off in front of others before... It's embarrassing to think about it!

While Daisy was shocked, she refused to admit it, "Impossible! Ms. Farley said that this piece of music has been included in the teaching materials. You must have looked at the score and memorized it in advance in order to slap me in the face.!"

Otherwise, it would be impossible to pop out so fluently!

Since she was a child, she took the place of girl and spent the money of the Brown family to learn the piano. There is nothing to be proud of!

After listening to Isabella's performance, she realized what it means to be beyond the sky and to have someone beyond others. Just now she played the climax part of Mui-se in public. Does Mui-se think her playing is rubbish?

Seeing that Daisy was about to die. Lena refused to admit it, and her anger suddenly burst out.

“Since you insist that Sadness is created independently by yourself, and since you can create such a beautiful climax, do you dare to compete with Muise?”

Competition?

How to compare?

“You and Muisc each have ten minutes to improvise. If you really have that talent and your improvisation is better than Muise’s, then we will recognize your composition level!” Lena said this, Looking at her coldly, “It depends on whether you dare or not!”

Isabella on the side said lazily, “It won’t take ten minutes.”

She sat in front of the piano and played a random melody that she had come up with.

Without any preparation or thoughtful conception, her style of music sounds majestic and melodious.

After playing a short piece of brisk and joyful melody, Isabella played another piece of earth-shattering tune. Everyone could hear it and feel anger from it. Immediately afterwards, there was another piece of sad melody, and finally, a piece of joyful tune moved the whole audience. Everyone’s emotions.

She interpreted what is called “joy”, “anger”, “sorrow” and “joy” with music at will.

The audience resounded like thunder. Whether it’s her fingering, or the ability to play with the scene, or the style and level of the tune, it all proves that she is Muise!

If it wasn't for today's farce, they still wouldn't be able to hear such beautiful music and see the master himself!

The applause of the audience lasted for a long time...

Even Williams and Eloise were clapping like hell.

Unexpectedly, their precious daughter is so good at piano!

It plays so well!

And Daisy's expression can no longer be described with shock and shame...

Isabella's piano level is not only above her, but also far above everyone present!

She really is Muise!

Chapter 123 Play the piano

After Cecilia listened to Isabella's improvisation, there was only one question in her mind, why was she able to improvise so well without any preparation?

Over the years, Cecilia has also listened to many niche piano pieces. She can be sure that Isabella's melodies just now have never been published on the market. In all likelihood, they are really impromptu creations!

Why didn't the melody that was carefully conceived and pondered over and over again be able to perform so well temporarily!

Earlier, she even asked people if they had ever learned to play the piano, had they won prizes...

He also showed off in front of others that he has won more than 50 first prizes since he was a child, and studied under the famous piano master Andy, but Andy is nothing in front of Muisc.

Muise is a myth in the piano world, so far no one can break it!

She has won countless awards with the highest gold content at home and abroad, and is a master figure who is tied for the first place with Mr. Griffith!

In Muise's eyes, let alone the fact that her opponent won more than 50 first places, even if she won more than 500, she didn't take it seriously.

Their level is in the clouds!

Cecilia thought she must have made a joke.

When she asked those arrogant questions just now. Isabella was still playing games. She thought that she would be worthless in this life. but she didn't know...

The contempt and self-righteousness just now turned into slaps in the face, and they were slapped back on my face one by one...

Cecilia couldn't tell what mood she was in right now, frustrated? Unwilling? sad? Lost? frustrated? Feel useless? still?

"It's your turn." On the stage, Lena raised her red lips and looked at Daisy with confidence, "Muise has already finished improvising. I believe everyone can see how good it is. Don't you think your talent is higher than Muise? Now you can show everyone."

Daisy stood there, trembling uncontrollably. She knew her creative level better than anyone else, and once she showed it, it would be ridiculous.

How could she be better than Muise!

Lena saw her embarrassment, and smiled coldly, "If you don't know how to improvise, then just play a famous piece of music you've heard."

Daisy can't play. Although her tutor had taught her to play Canon, Für Alice, Dream Wedding and other famous songs before, she couldn't remember a complete melody without reading the score.

Even if someone put the sheet music in front of her and asked her to play, she still played very jerky, definitely not as smooth as Isabella just now.

As long as people who know the piano hear it, they will "You can't even play the top ten famous songs?" Lena felt ironic, because she really looked up to her before.

Daisy bit her lower lip, still insisting, "My mind just went blank all of a sudden..."

Seeing her embarrassed look, Lena thought it was funny. "Since you don't know how to improvise, and you don't have any impression of the top ten famous songs, then just play a piece that you know how to do."

Daisy has never moved. This month she only practiced the piano piece Sadness hard, and she didn't practice the others at all.

"What? You can't even play other piano pieces? Can't you even play the simplest little star?"

The audience roared with laughter.

"I didn't expect Daisy really can't play the piano!"

“She only knows the song Sadness?”

“She can’t remember the score?”

“For those who learn the piano, notation is the most basic... It’s incredible that she can’t even memorize a complete piece of music.”

“The point is, it’s a bit of a stretch not to know how to play Little Star! I was able to play Little Star when I was four years old.”

“Such a person, what qualifications do you have to get the second place?”

“Her second place is definitely hydrated!”

The judge teacher sitting in the first row of the auditorium held the microphone and said disappointedly. “This year’s piano competition not only requires the contestants to have a very high level of playing, but also requires each of you to compose your own music. From the primary election in the first round to the top eight in the third round, they all played the same piece of music.”

Other contestants will make a few more pieces and play them differently, trying to let the judges see a better side and get more points.

But Daisy only played Sadness from beginning to end.

“At the beginning. I thought you were very confident in this piece of music you composed, and thought that you would be invincible all over the world with one piece, so you played the same piece from beginning to end, and I even thought you were quite confident. Unexpectedly, it turns out that you are not confident, you only know the song Sadness from the beginning to the end!”

“You used opportunistic methods to try to get away with such a serious and grand occasion. I am very disappointed in you.”

“No, it’s not like that...” Daisy was about to cry, “I don’t only know this song...”

The people in the audience ridiculed one after another:

“Then you are playing! Prove yourself with your strength!”

“Muisse plays so well, are you guilty? Don’t you dare to play?”

“Apologize!”

“Apologies to Muise!”

“You don’t deserve the second place! You don’t deserve to be in this circle!”

“Daisy, you are a disgrace to the piano world! Please get out of this circle!”

“Get out! Get out!”

Michael and Gail watched their daughter fall from the second place that was sought after by thousands of people, and all this was thanks to Isabella!

They felt distressed and were about to say something for help when Isabella spoke.

“I was in the audience just now, and I met your former classmate.” When Isabella spoke, her expression was very calm, but her aura was strong. “Now let’s invite her to the stage.”

Everyone looked in surprise, only to see a girl came to the stage, and said in a slim voice, “Hi everyone, my name is Tina, and I used to be in the same class as Daisy.”

Daisy exclaimed in shock, "Tina!"

In the past, she and Tina had a good time, and they were good friends, but later they had some conflicts. After Tina transferred to another school, they lost contact...

Unexpectedly, her former good friend would stand up and expose her rumors. Is it because she showed off to Tina that she won the second place just before the award ceremony? Or was Tina bought by Isabella?

No matter what, Daisy felt that she was going to be finished today! Subconsciously clenched his fists, his face palc.

"Daisy used to be from a poor family. I went to her house, but she didn't have a piano at all. She was very envious of me practicing piano since I was a child. Every time I went to my house, I would touch that piano."

"I can testify that before high school, she didn't learn piano, and she couldn't distinguish between the low and high registers."

"Her piano career should have started after high school."

Chapter 124 Sorry

As soon as this remark came out, the audience erupted.

I thought that Daisy learned piano from elementary school to adulthood, but I never thought...wait until high school to start?

Daisy quibbled softly, "Later, my biological parents hired me a piano teacher..."

Before she could finish her defense, she heard Isabella ask in a low voice. "This one, is the piano teacher you mentioned?"

A young female teacher came onto the stage, glanced at Daisy, and greeted everyone, "Hello everyone, I am Daisy's piano teacher, and I have taught her piano for a month..."

a month? She actually only learned piano for a month...

Everyone was stunned.

"She had never touched the piano before. At the beginning, she was taught to recognize world famous songs, but it was difficult for her to remember every melody, and she often made mistakes in fingering. After a few days, she suddenly became enlightened and wrote a melody. Please let me evaluate it."

"I have never seen such beautiful and moving music. When connected together, the momentum is magnificent!"

"At that time, I wondered if she was pretending to be some master's work, because she had only learned the piano for a few days, and it was impossible to create such beautiful music."

"But I searched the Internet for a long time. but I couldn't find anything similar, so I believed her words and praised her musical talent."

"I asked her, and she said that it came out of a sudden feeling and created it temporarily."

"To be honest, people like me who have been in the piano industry for more than ten years can't write such beautiful music! So, I feel ashamed and resign from her."

What the piano teacher didn't expect was that her sixth sense was right, this piece was really not Daisy's, but a copy of Mui's! No wonder it's so well written!

Daisy fell two steps back, trembling badly...

She knew that her piano career was completely over!

The people in the audience cursed angrily:

“You have to wait until the teachers and classmates around you come forward to beat you in person before you know how to write dead words!”

“I think she’s good at sophistry, and I don’t know what else to wrong Muise for a while.”

“Please apologize to Muise!”

“You owe the original author and the original environment an apology!”

“I must apologize!”

“Apologize to Muise! Otherwise, you won’t be able to leave this

Many audience members stood up spontaneously and severely attacked the girl on the stage.

Daisy’s first taste of what it means: Ruin!

Harris in the audience suddenly found that the girl he loved so much had become strange, vain, scary...

Holding the master’s work and forcing it to be my own, I have to get into such a mess before I am willing to settle down.

It’s as if he’s never seen through her...

At this time, Mrs. Moore, who came in a hurry, saw this scene with a surprised and angry expression.

She really is a little girl who can't get on the stage! Fortunately, I didn't step into the door of the Moore family, otherwise I would be ashamed today, but the two families!

"You're here..." Mrs. Lynn in the audience saw Mrs. Moore, and couldn't help but taunted. "You are right in denying this daughter-in-law, look at her, she copied the master's works and still refuses to admit it."

"Mom, why are you here?" Harris found his mother coming.

"Follow me." Mrs. Moore grabbed Harris's hand, "As you can see, this girl is not worthy of your love! If you marry her, you will be laughed at for the rest of your life!"

"It's that girl, at a young age, who turns out to be Muisic..." Mrs.

“It’s that girl, at a young age, who turns out to be Muise...” Mrs.

Mrs. Moore heard her, followed her gaze, “Who are you talking about?”

“It’s the coldest and prettiest girl in the middle of the stage...” Mrs. Lynn gestured with her hand, “She’s Muisc, can’t you think of it?”

Mrs. Moore saw Isabella’s top-notch indifferent face, subconsciously startled, is she Muise? This is a big loss for the Moore family...

“I don’t know what kind of young man is lucky enough to marry her. I heard that someone in the entertainment industry asked her to make a tailor-made piano piece and charged a sky-high price, but he wasn’t interested and said it was not bad for money...”

Mrs. Lynn’s words caused Mrs. Moore’s face to become shocked and astonished...

In the past, she felt that Isabella had no ability, but she put on a cold look all day long.

I didn’t expect that people really have real knowledge, and it’s because of their talent that they exude aloof arrogance!

Harris glanced at Isabella on the stage, she was so beautiful, she was the brightest star in the crowd.

On the other hand, Daisy next to her was much inferior to her.

It can be said that he is like a passerby, ordinary, and he doesn't know why he fell in love with her before

Harris stood up and left with his mother.

Daisy on the stage noticed this scene and subconsciously wanted to

But a bunch of people surrounded her, asking her to apologize!

Michael and Gail were also ridiculed and ridiculed by the people around them... They felt ashamed and lost to their ancestors, and they just wanted to get out of this damn place!

"You have plagiarized other people's works for personal fame and fortune without the author's permission, which is already an infringement, and you should bear the corresponding civil liability." Isabella's voice was cold and her eyes were indifferent, "You will receive a lawyer's letter soon..."

Daisy opened her mouth, unable to say anything, completely overwhelmed.

A group of people are still urging her to apologize!

Seeing her parents being mobbed in the audience, Daisy, with tears in her eyes, bowed deeply to Isabella, "I'm sorry! It's my fault, I apologize to you."

After finishing speaking, she pushed through the crowd and ran off the stage. She had no face to stay in this ghostly place anymore!

Seeing her run away, Michael and Gail quickly pushed through the crowd and left as if fleeing.

The crowd surrounded Isabella:

“Master, I made a piece of music recently, I wonder if I have the honor to be instructed by you?”

“Hello, I am the third place in this competition. I wonder if I can study with you for a while?”

“Muisic, your improvisation just now is so good! I’m fascinated! I’m your fan, I can play all your songs, thank you for creating so much good music and bringing satisfaction to so many fans Full of healing!”

“Muisse, I like you! Can I have an autograph?”

“Shall we take a photo together?”

They surrounded Isabella one by one, cautiously, with anticipation and anxiety, hoping that Muisic would take another look at them.

And Isabella saw her parents from a distance, and said gently, “I still have something to do, so just pretend you didn’t see me today.”

“no problem!”

“The master said so, we will never talk nonsense when we go out!”

“When people asked us if the master was a man or a woman, whether he was old or young, we all said we didn’t know!”

Chapter 125 ASAP

“Yes, you can rest assured.”

“When will you create a new song? We fans have waited too long.”

Isabella smiled slightly, “I will as soon as possible.”

“That’s great!” Everyone was happy, and they didn’t dare to block the master’s way, they stepped aside one after another, the host announced the end of the show, and all the people in the auditorium dispersed.

Isabella walked towards her parents, and when she saw their excited faces, she smiled slightly. “Tell me in the car.

“Okay...” Williams didn’t expect the baby girl’s identity to be a piano master!

At the beginning, my son begged someone to write a piece of music worth 100,000 dollar per note, but he was ruthlessly rejected. After returning home, my son complained, saying that the master was too proud!

Unexpectedly, this arrogant person turned out to be the son’s own sister, which is interesting now.

Several hardcore fans saw the master leaving with Williams and his wife, and couldn’t help feeling envious.

“Sure enough, the friends of big shots are big shots. When will I be able to be friends with the richest man like the master...”

“Close your eyes.”

“Close your eyes??”

“Dreams have everything.”

25 Vouchers

On the way back, Cecilia only felt that the championship trophy in her hand was heavy, just like her mood...

In Muise’s eyes, this rubbish is probably not even a fart...

She was about to hide this embarrassing thing behind her back, when she heard Eloise say, “Cecilia, your sister is Muise! If you don’t understand anything, you can ask her for advice.”

“okay.....”

“I didn’t expect that our Logan family has a musical talent! It’s great! We will celebrate tonight!” Eloise laughed from ear to ear.

Williams was also very happy. “Isabella is too good for the Logan family! She used to be in the Brown family, she was too talented.”

“What are you doing mentioning the Brown family! Mentioning it affects your mood!”

“You’re right. Don’t worry, I’ll call and tell you to continue!” Williams took out his phone and said to the person on the other end, “Let the word out, no one is allowed to cooperate with the Brown family, otherwise it will be hard for us !”

Dare to bully his precious girl?

snort! Let them live in Bomsville!

Cecilia has been proud for more than ten years, but she still can't accept that Isabella is better than her...

At this time, her heart was jealous and broke down, but it was too difficult to pretend to be calm on the surface.

And the other side.

Green knocked on the door of the CEO's office, and rushed in before Benjamin agreed, "Mr. Mason... a big deal! Ms. Young turned out to be Muise! Muise is a famous musical genius in the piano world!!"

Benjamin raised his eyes, and unexpectedly, a dotting smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

His girl always brings him surprises. At such a young age, she not only has superb medical skills, but is also a piano genius.

What other identity is he not aware of?

"Today Ms. Young accompanied her family to attend the awards ceremony of the piano competition..."
Green described the incident.

the Brown family.

Daisy locked herself in the room, unable to scream.

"Miss Daisy, didn't you go to the awards ceremony? What happened?"

"We made a cake for you, and we want to celebrate together when you come back..."

“Open the door and look at this cake. It says: I wish Miss Daisy the second prizc...”

The sound of the vase breaking came from the room, as if telling them to shut up and stop talking!

The nannies were taken aback. Secing that Michael and Gail had returned, they hurried downstairs, “Miss Daisy, she...”

Before they could finish their words, they saw Michael and Gail’s faces were slumped, their clothes were messy, and they looked like they were about to go bankrupt!

“What happened?”

“Miss Daisy locked herself in her room, and you...why do you look like this?”

“Didn’t Miss Daisy go to get the trophy? Why didn’t I see the trophy...”

“Ma’am, are you all right?”

Seeing that Gail was about to fall, two or three nannies rushed forward to help him.

Gail felt weak all over his body, had a headache and dizziness, and could hardly stand upright, “Don’t mention the award to me again...”

“Yes, ma’am, let me help you sit on the sofa for a while...” The nanny hurriedly helped Gail onto the sofa, and then poured two more glasses of water, “Master, take a sip too!”

Michael has never been in such a mess like today!

He didn’t understand why Daisy plagiarized someone else’s work, and that person happened to be Isabella...

This is all right, let everyone see the joke!

“Isabella that damn girl...” Gail couldn’t stop cursing.

Several nannies thought they met Isabella again, and Isabella made them unhappy, so they hurriedly scolded them.

“It’s that white-eyed wolf who made you feel bad again? I said why Miss Daisy still had tears on her face when she came back. She seemed to have suffered a lot. It turned out to be her fault!”

“She doesn’t even think about it. If it weren’t for your kindness in -nurturing, she would have lived to this age?”

“Enough!” Michael’s heart, liver, spleen, lungs and kidneys were all agitated, “If Daisy hadn’t plagiarized her work first, she would have come on stage and slapped her in the face? It’s because Daisy didn’t make it clear to us in advance...”

If they had said so, they would not have gone to the awards ceremony today, let alone make such a big joke!

Several nannies were stunned, Miss Daisy plagiarized Isabella’s work? Was discovered and slapped in the face on the spot?

This is embarrassing....

No wonder the family of three came back with this expression...

At this moment, Gail’s cell phone rang. When she saw the caller, she was uneasy, but she still smiled, “Hello...”

“Today’s awards ceremony ended at 11:01 am. At 11:01, our official Weibo announced Miss Brown's endorsement status, but not long after, an insider called and told me that Miss Brown's entry The work plagiarized Muisic's The Wish? Was Muisic slapped on the spot?"

Gail knew that she was here for this matter, and said flatteringly, "Listen to me..."

She interrupted forcefully, "Because the news was blocked, I waited for half an hour to find out from insiders! Now a bunch of people are boycotting my piano brand! As a last resort, we can only delete Weibo! Things are messed up." At this point, you are silent, and you don't even have an explanation?"

Gail only felt his face hurt, "Listen to me...'

Chapter 126 The Brown family is coming to an end

The other party no longer wants to hear any explanation, "We signed the contract in black and white. During the contract period, there must be no negative news, otherwise we will pay ten times the liquidated damages... According to the requirements, you must pay 50 million within ten days. Otherwise, we can only meet in court!"

Gail still wanted to say something, but the other party had already hung up the phone, and if he called again, he had already been blocked.

Gail collapsed, fifty million, where can she find fifty million...

Although Michael is the richest man in Winter Town, his personal assets have exceeded one billion RMB, but most of them are fixed assets, such as houses, shops, shares, cars, etc...

A while ago, because big groups such as Oink Capital suddenly stopped cooperating with them, they were unable to turn over their funds, and they lost a lot of money in business. They have already sold many shops and houses.

Now you want to pay 50 million?

I'm afraid I can only sell shares!

But once the shares are sold, they become minority shareholders... The decision-making power is in the hands of Old Madam Brown and other shareholders!

No, no, they can't sell shares...

"You guys go down!" Gail dismissed the babysitter, and asked Michael in a low voice and anxiously, "What should I do? Daisy violated the contract, and she wants to pay fifty million dollar, within ten days..."

Just as Michael was about to say something, the phone vibrated, and it was an unfamiliar number.

"Hi, hello."

"Mr. Michael? I'm Ms. Muise's lawyer..."

The other party didn't know what to say, Michael was very surprised, "Compensation for 60 million??"

"Yes, Miss Brown plagiarized Ms. Muise's work and used it in the competition without authorization. This is a serious infringement and must bear corresponding civil liabilities."

"According to the relevant laws and regulations, you must stop the infringement, eliminate the impact, and make a solemn apology, and make additional compensation for Ms. Muise's losses."

"With Ms. Muise's reputation, the compensation of 60 million is already extremely lenient."

“If the account is not received within three days, we will take Miss Brown to court and announce it on the official account.”

“Don’t...” Michael begged hastily. “Everything is easy to talk about...”

If it is officially announced, then people across the country will know about Daisy’s plagiarism, which will have a serious negative impact on her reputation and the reputation of the Brown family...

Seeing that Michael finished the phone call, Gail hurriedly asked. “What’s the situation? That damn girl Isabella wants us to pay 60 million dollar? Why?”

“It’s just because Daisy copied her music!” Michael became angry when he thought about it. “If you didn’t insist on driving her out of the Brown family, how much benefit would she bring us as a Muise? Our two daughters How good is she? How good is it to bring it out? How many contacts will she bring when she gets married in the future?”

It’s too late to regret now...

“Who knows that girl is Muise? I haven’t heard of her before.” Gail was a little annoyed, “It can be seen that she is a very scheming person! The old lady loves her the most, but she even hides it from the old lady. Go!”

Gail was sure that if the old lady knew, she would tell them.

Michael sat on the sofa slumped, now the 50 million breach of contract payment, and the 60 million infringement compensation... the total is hundreds of millions!

He doesn’t have that much cash on hand!

“Michael, why don’t we discuss it with that girl? That girl has a soft heart...”

Before Gail finished speaking, Michael couldn't help scolding, "You know she's soft-hearted? If you had been more magnanimous at the beginning, even if you had to send her away, we would have a good time together. Later, when we met on the road, we just smiled and called each other. Say hello, the relationship won't be so deadlocked!"

Michael found that since Isabella left the Brown family, nothing in the Brown family went well...

It was not easy for Daisy to get the second place. Before she was happy for a few days, she was slapped in the face!

Michael couldn't tell what he was feeling now, whether it was regret, heartache, anger, or irritability...

He thought of Oink Capital and suddenly realized.

"No wonder she eats with Austin and the others, no wonder the assistant is so respectful to her..."

It is very likely that because of her identity as a Muise, she has made friends with some powerful people.

Michael regretted the past, "Called Daisy down, now I can only sincerely apologize to that child and try to get that child's forgiveness..."

"Why?" Gail called out, unwilling to say, "Daisy already apologized to her on stage..."

Want to apologize in private?

Wouldn't that be using himself as a step and letting Isabella step on them?

“If you can lose 60 million dollar by saying sorry, you can cover your mouth and smile!” Michael vaguely felt that the matter was not that simple, “What I am worried about is that the child has been hurt by us too many times, and he will not forgive us so casily. ...”

She has blocked their phone number...

The Brown family is coming to an end

“Didn’t she fancy Daisy’s necklace before? At most, give her that...”

Before Gail finished speaking, Michael laughed.

“why are you laughing?”

“He is a piano master, don’t have money to buy a necklace?”

“Then why did she steal from Daisy? Still dating so many men? Isn’t it just for money?”

Michael pondered for a while, and said, “What Daisy said may not be true. She has been in contact with so many men, maybe it’s because of her status as a piano master, she has made like-minded friends...”

After all, these people with status and status like to get together...

Hearing what he said, Gail suddenly felt that it made sense...

But how could Daisy lie?

Michael must be thinking too much!

At this moment, Michael's cell phone vibrated again, and it was Jack from the company.

"Boss Bai, it's not good!! The Logan family has uttered harsh words, forbidding any company to cooperate with our Brown family. Anyone who dares to help us will have trouble with their Logan family!"

"Now there are several companies coming to terminate the contract..."

"If this continues, our company will drink the northwest wind!"

The Brown family is coming to an end

When Michael heard this, he was astonished and puzzled. "We didn't offend the Logan family, did the Logan family say anything about it?"

"No....."

"Then go and find out quickly!!" Michael was anxious. At the awards ceremony today, they didn't have any conflicts with the Logan family... they didn't even say hello! How did you get offended?

"Don't worry, I'll inquire right away."

After Jack hung up the phone, Michael faintly felt that he was going to be finished...

He couldn't figure out why the Logan family would release such cruel words, could it be because of Isabella?

Is there a possibility that the Logan family likes Muise, seeing that she is being bullied, so they come forward to help?

If this is the case, then they have offended two people of status at once...

Chapter 127 Research Failure

Riverside Villa.

As soon as Williams got home, he realized that the piano at home was no longer worthy of his status as a baby girl. He immediately took out his mobile phone and said, "I will order a diamond piano for my daughter immediately! Except for the keys, the other parts. must be easy to drill, and the tone must be the best." Good! It must be delivered before dark."

"Our piano is too ordinary, it really doesn't match Isabella's identity." Eloise smiled, "Come on, hurry up and buy some good meat and dishes. Tonight, let's celebrate Isabella!"

Respectful and curious, Myra asked with a smile, "What are you celebrating? Madame, is there any happy event at home?"

"Isabella is a well-known piano master at home and abroad! As parents, we only know today..."

As soon as Eloise finished speaking, several servants were surprised and pleasantly surprised. "Miss Isabella is amazing...you are still a master at such a young age?"

Isn't her status in the piano world higher than Ms. Logan?

Look at Ms. Logan's face again, it's really not good...

“Isabella is too low-key.” Eloise gave Isabella a tender and loving look, “Are you tired? Go upstairs and rest first, and I’ll call you when the meal is ready.”

[Boss, is it convenient to come to South Mountain Villa? A33’s research failed again. ]

South Mountain Villa is one of Isabella’s base camps located on the outskirts of Bomsville. It is picturesque and has many large laboratories.

The laboratory has the most advanced equipment and instruments at home and abroad, and many medical experiments before Isabella were done there.

A33 is the abbreviation of a project that studies Alzheimer’s disease. As we all know, there is no way to completely cure this disease, and it can only be relieved temporarily by drugs.

It is difficult to find a medicine that can completely recover.

[Boss, this project is too expensive, why don’t we change the project? There is no way to spend money like this...]

“I’ll go and have a look in a while.” Isabella said softly.

“Great Boss, then when you come, can you make the Heart Tonic Pill by the way? Recently, many people have offered high prices on the black market.”

“OK.”

After hanging up the phone, Isabella went downstairs with the medicine Kara gave her, told Eloise and went out.

South Mountain Villa is located in a lush forest, with a magnificent momentum and a wide arca. When a dozen men guarding the gate saw Isabella, they were excited and respectful, "Boss, you are finally here!"

Isabella entered the main hall, where Kai was already waiting.

"Boss, I haven't seen you for a long time and you are still so cool."

Isabella's aura is icy.

Several doctors and experts in the No. 1 laboratory saw Isabella and greeted them respectfully. Isabella nodded, changed her clothes, and stepped into the door of the laboratory with slender legs, "Where is the progress now?"

"Extraction has been failing." One of the doctors said helplessly, "There is a substance in it that can improve memory, but the extraction process must be extremely careful, otherwise the ingredients will be destroyed. We tried it for more than ten days, but it still doesn't work."

Another doctor also said. "There are other Yushon Medicines. Although the extraction was successful, they must be synthesized together to maximize the level of acetylcholine in the brain. However, we have not been able to synthesize..."

Isabella opened the data of a series of recent research failures, pondered for a while and said, "I'll try."

Several doctors and experts surrounded her, watching her try to separate and extract the medicinal materials after steaming them at high temperature...

Not long after, Isabella's phone vibrated.

She was busy and didn't have time to pay attention to the person on the other end of the phone, but the other party was persistent and kept calling.

In the end, Isabella was forced to take off her gloves, went outside, and picked up the strange number with some displeasure, "Who is it?"

"Isabella, it's Dad! Don't hang up! I'll hold you back for two minutes!"

Michael hurriedly finished the main point, "Daisy plagiarized your work. It is indeed her fault. We were at home just now and criticized her severely! We are also responsible for this matter. We did not teach her well, which caused her to commit such a serious crime. Wrong! In this way, if you are free now, we will take her to apologize to you in person!"

"No need." Isabella was about to hang up.

Michael hurriedly begged. "Don't hang up! Please, Isabella, give Daisy a chance to apologize, and give us a chance too? There were many things in the past that we didn't do well, which made you sad, for grandma's sake..."

"You are not qualified to mention grandma." Isabella's voice was extremely cold.

Why, 60 million in compensation? Heartache? Reluctant to take it out? Want to play the emotional card with grandma?

"Yes, I'm not qualified to mention your grandma. If your grandma wakes up and sees that the Brown family has been defeated by me, she will definitely be heartbroken, and her condition will worsen by then... Sigh!"

Michael seemed to be remorseful, and heartbroken, "Everything is our fault, you are right to hate us! We don't expect your forgiveness, if you want..."

Isabella interrupted without waiting for him to finish, "I don't want to."

Michael didn't expect her attitude to be so firm, and he couldn't do anything, "Isabella, how can you calm down? As long as I can..."

"Of course, you can." Isabella said directly, "Compensation is 60 million, and the rest of the money will go to the black market to buy a few good medicines for grandma."

Michael remembered that Dr. Bennett said before that there is a drug on the black market, a pill worth 10 million dollar, which can be taken twice a month, and can be operated on for three consecutive months, which is much better than hanging in the ward!

Because this kind of medicine is made of very rare medicinal materials, one medicine is ridiculously expensive...

Michael subconsciously refused. The reason why he let the old lady stay in the hospital was because the 30% shares in her hand were worth 300 million, and the second was that the old lady was eccentric. Isabella...

That's why he wanted to save the old lady and let her make a will before she died, leaving all the shares to Daisy.

He thought Isabella didn't know what he was thinking, and said with a kind smile, "Isabella, don't worry about your grandma, I will definitely save her, and she is also my mother! There are many unreliable medicines on the black market, and Cameron Hospital is the best medicine in the country. It's a good hospital, the heart surgery is well-known at home and abroad, and there are Professor Carter, Dr. Bennett and other powerful experts in charge... Your grandma is raised there. I don't worry."

In the end, he still couldn't bear to part with the money, so he knew his virtue, and he just called to save the 60 million in compensation. Do you really think she is stupid? Can't hear it?

Chapter 128 A gift of hundreds of millions

“Isabella...”

Isabella hung up the phone directly, blocked the number, and was about to enter the laboratory when another unknown number called.

Isabella: ...

Needless to say, Michael must have changed to a new number.

Isabella hung up directly, pulled the black button, and walked into the laboratory with long legs.

Michael had expected that she would not pick up again. Before calling her, he had asked someone to buy more than a dozen numbers. At this time, he called one by one. Isabella blocked one, and he changed another one.

Eventually, Isabella shuts down and Michael is completely lost.

“How do you say it?” Seeing Michael’s frustrated look, Gail had a bad premonition, “She still won’t answer your call?” @

Daisy lowered her head, shedding tears silently as if she had done something wrong.

It looks pitiful.

A gift of hundreds of millions

“It’s too much!” Gail gritted his teeth, hating Isabella. “No matter what, this matter can’t be in the news, otherwise not only Daisy’s reputation in this life, but also the reputation of our Brown family will also be destroyed!”

snort! Isn’t it 60 million? They are the richest man in Winter Town, and they can’t afford to lose!

Michael was silent for a while, took out his mobile phone, and ordered the people under his command to list several luxury houses and a dozen shops under his name for sale, “The buyer must pay in full.”

Otherwise, after a series of loan procedures are approved by the bank, you will not get the money within three days!

“It needs to be done quickly, if it doesn’t work, the price will drop...” Michael finished talking on the phone and looked at his wife and daughter with dejected eyes. “After the sale, we only have this apartment and a few shops left under our name.”

The nanny who was holding the tea next to her was startled when she heard this, the tray in her hand became unstable and fell to the ground.

“What are you doing?” Gail couldn’t help scolding when she noticed her sneaky look, “You want to scare us to death?”

“I’m sorry Ma’am, I didn’t take it well...” The nanny thought to herself, a person who is about to go bankrupt, how can he put on airs in front of her! No, she has to find another way out... the Brown family will definitely be finished soon!

“Dad, Mom, I’m sorry...” Daisy sobbed, tears fell, and she looked extremely guilty.

“Hey...” “Michael sighed. Once the mansion and shops under his name are sold, he will no longer be the richest man in Winter Town, and his status will plummet...”

At that time, the business of the Brown family will be even more precarious...

"It's all my fault." Daisy knew how much trouble she had caused, and said weepingly, "If I hadn't returned to this family, my father would still be the richest man, and my mother would still be living a life of luxury... I am the one who caused you all.", harmed this family! I'm sorry, I'm really sorry!"

If she didn't apologize, she was afraid that her parents would complain and drive her out.

She could tell that her father was disappointed in her, even if she cried like this, her father didn't give him a word of comfort!

"Stupid child! You are a child of our family. You have been homeless for eighteen years, and you have suffered too much!"

Gail touched her head distressedly, and said lovingly, "You used to have no conditions to learn the piano, but it's different now! With parents around, I won't let you suffer anymore, it's just piano, as long as you still want to learn, Parents will definitely hire you a tutor!"

Daisy's tears rolled down, she shook her head, as if to say, I don't want to learn piano anymore.

Gail felt even more distressed, "It's okay, as long as you lose 60 million, at most the people at the awards ceremony will know about it, and it will be over soon, and it won't spread to the ears of the people of the whole country..."

A gift of hundreds of millions

Daisy nodded, looking guilty.

"The results will come out in a few days. With your level, university is not a problem!"

“For four years in college, you can develop in other fields. Instead of playing the piano, we can also learn painting, fashion design, and golf. In short, improve your taste.”

“When you graduate from a famous university, work in our family’s company, and spread the word, you will become a beautiful daughter with ability and education. However, Harris...”

It’s tricky.

Gail could tell that Harris was disappointed with Daisy today and was dragged away by Mrs. Moore...

“The marriage between the Brown family and the Moore family may not be progressing for the time being...”

Daisy also knew in her heart that Harris was disappointed in her!

Today’s incident did not only lose her face!

She bit her lower lip, no, she must find a way to keep him, even if she pays a price...

in the lab.

Isabella successfully extracted the drug, and the surrounding experts. and doctors were shocked and praised.

“so amazing.....”

“We have been busy for more than ten days, and you can finish it in

“In terms of drug research, you are called the second, and no one dares to be the first.”

Isabella looked at the extracted things and was a little dissatisfied, "It hasn't been fully extracted, and the ingredients are not pure enough. I'll take a look at it tomorrow night."

Eloise had had a big table cooked for her tonight to celebrate, and now that it was dark, she had to go back, or they'd be waiting for a long time.

Hearing that Isabella will come tomorrow night, several doctors and experts were excited again, "Great!"

"Although it has not been fully extracted, it is already very powerful to be able to extract part of it!"

"I thought this project was going to fail in all likelihood, but I didn't expect to make such great progress once you came!"

"I believe that success is just around the corner!"

Isabella looked at the ingredients in the device, "You guys will watch again tonight to see how long this ingredient can survive at high temperatures."

If you can't stand the high temperature, the ingredients will be destroyed, and it's useless to extract them.

"Don't worry, we will definitely follow up on this matter."

Isabella got in the car and left. Not long after, she returned to Riverside Villa. As soon as she entered the living room, she saw a brand-new diamond piano, shining charmingly under the lights.

"Isabella is back?" Williams was very happy to see her. "It's just right, you can try it to see how it feels, and the tone is right, okay?"

Cecilia on the side was very jealous. She asked the person who gave the piano just now. Such a piano is worth hundreds of millions, which is very expensive.

The person who gave the piano thought she was the daughter Williams gave her, and even complimented her, so angry that she almost hurt internally.

Isabella's slender fingers caressed the keys, and lightly pressed a few notes. The tone was excellent. How could such a piano not exceed 100 million?

"Ms. Young. I heard that you are a piano master. I wonder if we have the honor to listen to you play a piece?"

"I heard you are Muise? To be honest, I'm your fan!"

"Miss Muise, ah, no, Ms. Young, can I listen to you play a song?"

"Your piano music is very nice. I will listen to a few of them every night before going to bed."

Isabella hooked her lips: So, her piano music has a hypnotic effect?

Chapter 129 Betrayal of the Group

Under the begging of several servants, Isabella sat in front of the piano, her slender fingers fell on the keys, and the melodious sound of the piano sounded immediately.

Each note seems to become a jumping cliff, leading everyone on a joyful journey.

People who hear this piano piece feel refreshed and happy as if they encountered a sea of flowers and saw a clear sea during their journey.

As the rhythm of the song gets faster and faster, everyone's mood gets better and better, and the body and mind are double-washed...

I don't know how long it took, the sound of the piano fell, and everyone applauded desperately.

"sounds amazing!"

"I listen to the master's music every night. I can tell whether it is played by the master... You are definitely Muise!"

"Is this the master's new piece? I've never heard it before. It's full of poetic and picturesque flavors, and it's pleasing to the heart and mind. It's so good!"

"Excuse me, where can I download it? I haven't heard enough, I want to hear more..."

Several servants surrounded Isabella, as if they idolized her.

Betrayal of the Group

Isabella slightly hooked her lips, "It's improvisation."

There is no template, no idea in advance, and you can play whatever you think of, and play at will.

The crowd was overwhelmed by her talent and praised her fiercely.

"Improvisation, it sounds better than those classic songs...Ms. Young, you are amazing!"

"The picce you played just now is the best piano piece I've ever heard!"

Ms. Young's piano attainments are obviously higher than Ms. Logan's!

Ms. Logan has studied the piano hard since she was a child, but the music she plays is not so beautiful.

Seeing the servants adore and love Isabella. Cecilia felt even more jealous!

damn it! Let this little bitch show off again!

“This piano is perfect for Isabella.”

Eloise has been recording videos and taking photos of her baby girl

since just now. At this moment, she saw that her daughter was sitting in front of the piano. No matter her movements, postures, or expressions, she was impeccably beautiful.

Her baby girl is so beautiful!

“Come on, send this piano to Isabella’s room quickly. Isabella, you can play with it when you have time, and leave it when you don’t. Don’t be afraid of dust accumulation!” Williams’ tone was always

Isabella hummed, took out the presents she made in the laboratory today, and handed each of them a bottle. “For you.”

Both Williams and Eloise were taken aback, and there are still gifts to receive?

“It’s been a long time since I’ve been home, and I haven’t given you anything yet.”

These two bottles of small pills, which she just made, have different effects.

“Eating that bottle of Dad can strengthen your body.”

Isabella knew that Williams was busy with his career and had many problems when he was young, and that bottle can cure many problems.

“Eating the bottle of Mama can beautify the skin, nourish qi and nourish the blood.” Isabella said gently, “Both of you take one pill a day. If you keep taking it for three months, you can see good results.”

100 capsules in such a small bottle, about 100 million per bottle.

“Did my baby girl buy us health care products?” Eloise thought this little thing was a health care product, but was moved by surprise, “This child is so caring!”

She looked at Isabella, her eyes were full of doting, “Don’t worry, we will definitely insist on eating! We will not miss a day!”

“This is Isabella’s wish. I am reluctant to take it...” Williams held the small bottle of pills, with tears in his eyes.

p

This is the first gift Isabella gave them after returning home.

He wants to keep it.

“There are more after eating.”

Williams was overjoyed, “Anything else?”

“Um.”

286/Vouchers

“Isabella, keep your money for yourself and ask me for it if you don’t have enough. We don’t need you to buy any gifts, as long as you are healthy and happy, we will be content.” Eloise said lovingly.

“Let’s not talk about it, today’s dinner is ready~ Isabella, let’s celebrate tonight!”

Cecilia on the side watched her parents leave holding Isabella’s hand, feeling uncomfortable....

She was the one who took the first place, why did the parents celebrate Isabella?

At seven o’clock in the evening, the Mason Group is brightly lit, and no one dares to leave work early...

In the conference room.

After listening to a manager’s report, Benjamin’s expression was cold, and his eyes were as cold as ice, “Is this what you said was foolproof?”

“I thought that by spreading the word, the opponents would be able to invest in that piece of land. As long as they are locked up in that piece of land, it will be a matter of time before they have funding problems. Sooner or later, we will be able to get them into the

“I was wrong! I didn’t expect them to pretend to invest in the land in the south on the surface, but secretly bought all the land in the north that we fancy.”

The manager was very guilty and bent over to apologize.

Benjamin’s eyes were as cold as water, “How many years have you been in the group?”

“Ah?” The manager was dumbfounded by the question, and hurriedly said, “Eight years...”

“The group treats you badly?”

“Of course...” The manager was so scared that he wiped his sweat and couldn’t stop shaking.

“Since there is no place to treat you badly...” Benjamin’s eyes fell on his head. “Why did you betray the Mason family?”

The manager didn’t expect the news to reach Benjamin’s ears so quickly. He originally wanted to go abroad to hide for a while after finishing the order...

“Are you going to fly to France at eight o’clock tonight?” Benjamin threw the ticket in front of him, and the manager suddenly became frightened, it’s over, everything was discovered!

Green on the side said coldly, “If the conditions offered by the rival group are very favorable, you have made up your mind to go. As long as you submit your resignation letter, I will not stop you, but you are making moves in front of Mr. Mason...”

The manager trembled even more, “It’s all my fault... please give Green glanced at him, and added coldly. “Actually, the president has already discovered your little trick! That piece of land is not what we want, the real treasure, it’s under the piece of land in the south...just,

I borrowed your hand to set it up.” Together they.”

The manager was stunned for a moment, realizing that everything was over for him, and his expression was extremely depressed.

“Leaking group secrets is suspected of breaking the law.” As soon as Green finished speaking, two policemen came to the door and took the manager away for interrogation.

Benjamin's eyes fell on the audience, "Now, who else has to confess?"

After a romantic candlelight dinner, Isabella enjoys a rare and pleasant family time...

Although Cecilia's presence affects her mood, her parents love and spoil her from the bottom of their hearts.

This is also the first time that Isabella has truly felt the warmth of her family since she was a child.

"Isabella, you go take a shower first, there will be a surprise later!"

Chapter 130 Brother Has Returned Back

Isabella came downstairs after taking a shower, and saw the sky filled with fireworks. Eloise smiled and said, "Isabella, come quickly, let's take a family portrait together!"

The famous photographer led a whole team, standing under the fireworks and waiting.

Under the bright night sky, Williams and Eloise looked kindly, holding Isabella's hand respectively. "I've wanted to take a family photo with you for a long time, but I never had the chance. Cecilia just happened to go out with friends."

That's okay, so I can take a photo with Isabella that only belongs to the three of them.

After all, they are the real blood-related family.

"I'm in my pajamas..."

Before Isabella finished speaking, Williams and Eloise laughed in unison. "It's okay, it's okay..."

They also deliberately wore pajamas, looking more like a family.

What they want to take is this kind of photo that is close to life.

“Okay, everyone, come closer!”

“Mr. Logan, your collar is a little crooked, and Madam Logan’s chin is a little lower.”

“Ms. Young can smile a little brighter.”

Isabella smiled, and the camera clicked and clicked.

“Switch side, switch side!” Eloise happily swapped places with Williams.

The fireworks in the night sky became their background, the two of them held Isabella’s hand and smiled happily.

Isabella had never felt so closely loved by her parents, they held her dotingly on her arm as if she was their most precious treasure.

“Okay, change a group.

After the photographer finished shooting in the garden, he went to the living room to take a lot of photos of life.

Isabella was held tightly by them, her heart seemed to have never been so warm.

After filming more than a dozen scenes, Eloise was still unsatisfied and wanted to continue filming.

But Williams said with a smile, "Let Isabella rest for a while, it's been a long time shooting tonight."

"Ma'am, there are more than a dozen scenes, and there are thousands of photos." The photographer was also worried that they were too tired and had a bad expression.

"After the five brothers come back, let's take some neat photos!" Williams lovingly massaged Eloise, "Come here, serve some tea."

A servant brought lemon juice, Eloise put the straw away, and held it in front of Isabella, "Isabella, drink some water, are you tired?"

Bther Has Returned Bach

Isabella shook her head, took a sip, and found it a bit sweet.

"Would you like dessert?" Williams brought a whole plate of desserts in front of Isabella. "Do you like pink macarons? Or do you like pudding? Biscuits? If you don't like it, I'll have someone redo it!"

"You choose first." Isabella took the plate and handed it to them first.

Williams and Eloise were moved again. They didn't eat dessert at night, so they each took one.

The photographer first sent all the electronic photos to Eloise's mobile phone, and Eloise looked at them under countless lenses, satisfied and happy.

Every shot is perfectly shot, naturally...

"Isabella, come and take a look, do you like it? I'll send it to you first."

Isabella chose a biscuit with lemon juice, glanced at it. "It's all good."

“Then I’ll send them all to you.” After Eloise finished sending, she went on to appreciate. “These photos are so good! Especially these few photos...”

Seeing her setting the photo as the phone wallpaper, Williams followed suit, “I want to set it as the wallpaper too!”

After eating snacks, when Isabella went back to her room, she saw her parents admiring their photos on the sofa, and the happiness on their faces couldn’t be hidden.

The next day, when Isabella finished breakfast and was about to go to work, she found Cecilia’s face was very ugly.

She should have known about the photoshoot last night.

At this moment, she was a little bit resentful, staring at Isabella, desperately holding back her anger. That look almost swallowed Isabella.

Isabella just glanced away before looking away, and got into Benjamin’s car.

On the contrary, Cecilia was very angry, and said to Scarlet behind her, “Last night, my friend got married, and I went to be her bridesmaid. When I came back, they all finished filming and went to bed!”

There were so many fireworks and so many photographers, they didn’t take her feelings into consideration.

“They don’t have you in their hearts...” Scarlet secretly worried for her, “Ms. Logan, you have to act faster, listen to me, you can’t delay any longer! Otherwise, you will have less and less status in this family...”

“But.....”

“No more hesitation!”

Hearing Scarlet say that, Cecilia bit her lower lip, making up her mind.

A private helicopter rolled up the wind and slowly landed on the top floor of a towering office building.

Bther Has Returned Back

As soon as the tall, handsome and cold man stepped up the stairs, a boss hurried up to the top floor. “Boss, wait, there is something wrong with the project in the city center, can you stay for a few more days?”

The man’s face was indifferent and his aura was fierce. Hearing this, his eyes were condensed with a layer of frost.

The young assistant on the side said, “Boss is in a hurry to go home to see his sister. Because of work, it has been delayed for more than ten days. You follow up on this project and report to Boss if you have any problems.”

“You don’t know...”

Before the boss could finish his sentence, he noticed Noah’s eyes on his right foot.

Only then did he realize that he had stepped on the machine stairs with one foot.

He hurriedly took a step back and bowed respectfully: "Boss, the journey is smooth, Assistant Xu, go slowly."

The helicopter rattled off, setting off a gust of wind.

The wise, handsome and cold man asked softly, "Did you choose the present?"

"Boss, everything is ready!" Noah replied respectfully. "There are three sets in total, one is a limited perfume set, one is a limited lipstick set, and the other is a limited skin care set."

Because he was not sure which kind Boss wanted to give to his sister, Noah prepared a copy of each.

Brother Has Returned Back

Whether it is perfume, lipstick or skin care products, it is the favorite of girls nowadays.

But the noble man said in a cold voice, "It's lighter."

Noah suddenly realized that these gifts were too light, and hurriedly said. "I didn't think carefully. After getting off the plane, I will rearrange."

"Which brand is the most popular among girls?" the man asked quietly.

Noah thought for a while and said, "Of course it's QY."

Three years ago. QY was born out of nowhere. Because of its unique and novel styles, each garment only produces one piece... It soon became famous in the upper circles and was sought after by many celebrities, daughters, and stars.

Immediately afterwards, QY launched shoes and bags... which shocked the entire fashion circle.

Sofia Welch, the designer of QY, has won many international awards and led the entire brand, from an unknown 18th-line brand to an international first-line brand.

“It is said that QY recently launched a brand-new jewelry series, each jewelry is unique...” Noah said this, and immediately showed the tablet in his hand to the man.
