

Chased Her 161

Chapter 161 Retaliation

Shawn felt that it was necessary to go there, maybe he really liked his daughter's beauty...

Taking a closer look, my daughter's facial features are indeed good, but he hit her a little harder just now, and her face was swollen from the beating.

half an hour later.

The Mason family's car was parked in front of a deserted warehouse in the suburbs.

Mrs. Bartley was a little scared, and grabbed her husband's clothes tightly. "Why does this place look so desolate? Are we meeting here? I have a bad feeling..."

"What do you know!" Shawn rolled her eyes and took her hand away, "Don't wrinkle my clothes, I'll see Mr. Mason later!"

"Let's go back..."

Shawn raised his eyes and looked at the place in front of him, "Sometimes men just want to play something different! What do you know!"

Ella couldn't wait to get out of the car.

On the way just now, she deliberately put on girlish makeup.

At this time, she was full of confidence, thinking that her upside- down appearance would definitely seduce Mr. Mason. Before entering the warehouse, she deliberately took off one shoulder strap.

Shawn glared at his wife, as if to say, daughter is better than you!

After entering the warehouse, they realized that the place was eerily empty. Benjamin was sitting on a single chair with Green standing next to him. Other than that, the rest of the place was empty.

The light coming in from the high windows was eerie.

“Mr. Mason, you have to save me...” Ella knelt down in front of Benjamin, crying tenderly, “I accidentally did something wrong and hurt my family... As long as you save me, what conditions will I have?” I can promise you everything!”

“Oh?” The corners of Benjamin’s lips curved ruthlessly, “Any conditions are fine?”

Ella thought that Benjamin was really interested in her, so she hurriedly nodded and said, “Yes, of course, I will do whatever you ask me to do, and I will never break my promise.”

Shawn on the side bowed his waist, looking respectful and fearful, “Mr. Mason, please help me discipline my daughter...”

If Benjamin wants to do business here, that’s the best, and when it’s done, he can keep his wealth...

Benjamin raised his hand, and Green pulled out a knife and threw it in front of Ella.

With a sway, the three members of the Bartley family were stunned when they saw this shining knife, not knowing why...

Does Benjamin want to play exciting??

“Whichever hand hurt her, use that hand to repay.” Benjamin’s eyes glowed coldly.

The family of three finally realized that this she refers to Isabella!!

Benjamin came to replace Isabella?

“Mr. Mason...” Shawn was already trembling with fright, “Ms. Young is your man...”

Benjamin said slowly. “My fiancée.”

Shawn was struck by lightning, and he was too scared to speak.

Mrs. Bartley was so frightened that her face paled. Is Isabella Benjamin’s fiancée? It’s over, the Bartley family is not just going bankrupt this time!

“Last time you touched her, and this time you’re bothering her again...” Benjamin’s eyes seemed to come from hell, “Do you think she’s easy to bully and has no backing?”

Hearing this, Shawn slapped Ella hard twice, “What did you do to Ms. Young last time? Look, I won’t beat you to death!”

Mrs. Bartley was too frightened to defend herself, and watched her husband slap her daughter seven or eight times.

“Dad, let me tell you, stop beating...” Ella cried, with no makeup on, “Isabella helped Kennedy get ahead on the anniversary of Uncle’s death last time. I was wrong, I really know I was wrong...”

“You idiot!!” Shawn slapped her hard twice again.

Only then did Ella realize why so many bodyguards asked her to resign that day and said they quit. It turned out that it was because Offending Benjamin, the consequences are much more serious than offending Matthew!

Benjamin's voice was as cool as water, and his eyes were even more icy cold, "I hurt my fiancée twice, is it not too much to ask your daughter for a hand?"

Shawn was afraid of crying, "It's not too much. What are you still doing in a daze, and you don't do anything? Do you want me to help you?"

Mrs. Bartley was reluctant, really reluctant. "Mr. Mason, I beg you, he is still young, we can leave Bomsville as a family and never come back..."

"Want to leave after hurting Ms. Young? Fantastic!" Green said coldly, "You only have 30 seconds."

Ella cried desperately, shook her head, looked at the knife on the ground, and dared not move.

The timer starts.

Shawn was cruel, picked up the knife, and walked towards his daughter step by step, "You should never, never should have touched Mr. Mason's people!!"

"Dad, don't..."

When the knife went down, Ella's right wrist was bleeding profusely, and all the muscles and bones were exposed...

Mrs. Bartley rushed over and hugged her injured daughter, crying, with heartache.

Shawn wiped the blood from the knife on himself, and handed the knife forward respectfully and timidly, "Mr. Mason, wipe it clean, do you think this is okay? Can this matter just go away?"

"You asked Mr. Mason that way. I don't know. I thought it was Mr. Mason threatening you to hurt your daughter."

Hearing Green's words, Shawn bowed even lower, "No, she accidentally scratched herself, and everything has nothing to do with Mr. Mason."

"Twenty-two last night, one bullied my fiancée." Benjamin's voice was full of displeasure, "Bring people in."

Those twenty-two gangsters last night had already been beaten to the point of bruises all over their bodies, leaving only one breath left.

Seeing the people, she hired turned out to be like this. Ella was trembling with fear, and the severe pain from the wound almost made her eyes go black.

"How many of us are there?" Benjamin asked Green behind him softly.

Green replied respectfully, "Twenty-two in total, Mr. Mason."

"Whether you can leave here alive depends on your own destiny." Benjamin got up to leave, Green gave them a cold look, and Only then did Shawn realize that Benjamin wanted to use his own way to punish him.

Last night, my daughter asked twenty-two gangsters to bully Isabella, so today, Benjamin asked twenty-two men to clean them

But how can their family of three be the opponents of Benjamin and his gang?

In addition to these twenty-two gangsters on the ground with only one breath left... how can they be against it?

The door of the warehouse opened, and a huge light from outside came in.

Benjamin and Green walked out, and twenty-two men walked in...

"Mr. Mason, I beg you to raise your hand..." Shawn had just knelt down when the warehouse door closed ruthlessly...

Chapter 162 I'll Call and Tell Her Right Now

half an hour later.

Benjamin's car was parked in front of Riverside Villa.

He looked up and saw that Isabella's room was still warmly lit, got out of the car, took out his mobile phone, and dialed the familiar number.

"Isabella, still up?"

"Yeah." Isabella just took a shower and was drying her hair with a dry towel. "Is the matter over?"

"Yes, I wanted to go directly to you after getting off the plane."

It was temporarily learned that her hand injury was related to the Bartley family... It took some time to deal with it.

"Come to the window."

At this point, it was inconvenient for him to go in and disturb her. The weather was hot, and he was reluctant to let the girl leave the air-conditioned room and come to the balcony where the heat wave was rolling.

So, I can only look at her from a distance.

Isabella went to the window and found Benjamin standing beside the car, looking up in her direction.

His figure was slender and tall, although his facial features and expression could not be seen clearly, but Isabella could feel his gentle pampering when he spoke.

“Did you eat properly while I was away?”

“Yes.” Isabella brushed her hair casually and beautifully.

“Take it easy, you still have injuries on your hands.”

Isabella was stunned for a moment, “How do you know?”

“I watched the video of the competition.” Benjamin’s eyes softened, “I never thought that my Isabella, with her hands, can not only save lives, play the piano, but also make such beautiful clothes.”

“Does it look good?” Isabella didn’t think the few strokes she added at the game scene were so pretty.

But Benjamin said it looked good, so she said, “I’ll make some sets for you another day.”

“Really?” Benjamin’s voice was a little surprised, “Then do it for me after you recover from your injury.”

“Um.”

He could see that Isabella's design talent was definitely above Kennedy's.

It's just that during the competition, she kept restraining her edge and let Kennedy shine.

"If you are bullied in the future, you must tell me immediately."

"good."

"I brought a little supper, and I'll go to bed early after eating." Benjamin looked at the girl in the window and said gently, "Look who hasn't slept, let her come down and get it, and I won't ring the doorbell."

So as not to disturb other people's rest.

"You don't come down," Benjamin added, "You're injured and can't lift anything."

"Okay." Isabella ordered Myra after hanging up the phone.

Myra didn't expect that the young master of the Mason family would prepare so many suppers, and she couldn't lift her hands, so she asked with a smile, "Mr. Mason, won't you go in and sit down?"

"I'll visit you another day." When Benjamin looked inside, there was a hint of nostalgia in his eyes.

Myra saw it, "It's so late, you don't want to disturb Mr. Logan and Madam Logan, do you?"

I don't want to trouble them, even if I miss Ms. Young again, I still bear it...

Benjamin's eyes softened, "Myra, the bag outside is filled with medicine. Isabella's hand is injured, and I will trouble you to rub some medicine on her later."

"Ms. Young's hand hurt?" Myra suddenly remembered, no wonder Ms. Young has been eating with her left hand tonight!

Everyone in the family knows that Ms. Young can use both hands and is very powerful, so when she holds a fork with her left hand, no one pays attention to this detail...

I Call and Tell Her Right Now

But how did Mr. Mason know?

"Don't worry, I will give Ms. Young medicine in a while."

"Trouble."

"No trouble..."

When Myra took the things into the living room, Williams happened to see it, and only after asking did he know that the future son-in-law had prepared so many suppers for them.

Dozens of exquisite packaging boxes filled the dining table.

Isabella: ...

Didn't you say that you only prepared "a little bit"?

Cecilia on the side was jealous. I heard that Benjamin went abroad yesterday, and he prepared so much supper for Isabella just after he came back today?

Looking at the logo on the box, these night snacks are at least six figures!

This girl can only play the piano and make some clothes, what's the big deal!

Why is Benjamin so obsessed with her!

"Miss Isabella, let me see your hand."

Just as Myra wanted to check the injury, Isabella put away her hands, "Is there something wrong?"

"This is the medicine Mr. Mason prepared for you, tell me to wipe it for you later..." Myra took out the medicine from the bag.

There is also a sheet inside, which is written by Benjamin, instructing what medicine to apply first, what medicine to apply next, and how to do it in the end.

He wrote the whole process down,

Only now did Williams and Eloise realize that Isabella's hand was injured, and felt sorry for their daughter's injury while Benjamin was careful.

"Baby, what's going on? When did you get hurt?"

"How did it become so swollen? Did it fall down or was it bullied?"

Isabella put away her hand, "It's okay, I touched it by accident."

Williams and Eloise didn't know she was injured because the video of the game was not released.

In addition, Isabella usually hides and tucks in, so no one notices.

"Why didn't you hear what your brother said?"

"I'll call the doctor right away."

Seeing Williams pick up the phone, Isabella said, "No need, Benjamin is ready for medicine."

These medicines seem to be very precious, and they cannot be bought in ordinary pharmacies.

There's no way he'd have them in his car all the time.

Isabella guessed that he might have picked it up from his own house on the side was very jealous. After sitting down, she said with a sweet smile, "He has prepared so much, so let's share it for you? You are so happy!"

"Eat first." Isabella handed the cutlery to her parents before sitting down and holding the fork with her left hand.

"Since you know he is your brother-in-law, please change your name in front of your friends." Isabella said casually while eating the delicious food in front of her.

When everyone heard this, they were stunned.

Cecilia bit her lower lip even more pitifully, "What do you mean by that? I don't understand..."

“Didn’t you claim that Benjamin is your fiancé?” Isabella raised her eyes and said disapprovingly, “Your friends believed it and came here today to stand up for you.”

Cecilia was struck by lightning, “Which friend? She must have misunderstood something! What’s her name, I’ll call and talk about her right away.”

“Okay.” Isabella didn’t stop her, she raised her eyebrows, “Let’s fight, people from the Larson family.”

Williams and Eloise were about to say something, when Cecilia hurriedly said, “How could she trouble you like this, my brother-in-law and I are a thing of the past... Maybe in her cognition, she thinks we are a couple... Is she a girlfriend? Be stupid! I’ll call her right away!”

Scarlet hurriedly said, “Ms. Logan, it’s so late, it’s better not to disturb Miss Zocy’s rest...”

Chapter 163 The Call Connected

“Why do young people go to bed so early?” Eloise suddenly understood, no wonder Isabella called in the morning, her tone was a little bit bad, could it be that Zoey was bothering her?

The designer of the Larson family also went to participate in the design competition today?

Thinking of this, Williams asked a little angrily, “Is the injury on your hand related to her? If so, Dad will ask the Larson family to give an explanation!”

“This matter has nothing to do with anyone else.” Isabella said this, looking at Cecilia. “Didn’t you want to call?”

Cecilia had to bite the bullet and take out her mobile phone. If she typed this out, wouldn’t all the lies be self-defeating?

Where will she put her face in the future?

“Ms. Young, Ms. Logan has always regarded you as her own sister. You have misunderstood her.”

When Scarlet said this, she pretended to be distressed. “In Ms. Logan’s heart, your sister is the most important. How could she spread rumors outside, hurt your heart, and destroy this precious sisterhood?”

Isabella: ...

“You just came to this house, so you may not know what Ms. Logan is like, but in the past eighteen years, Mrs. Madam knows exactly

“You said that, not only hurt Ms. Logan’s heart, but also broke the harmony of the family, and made it difficult for Mrs. Madam!”

“If Ms. Logan had to choose between you and Mr. Mason, she would definitely choose you!”

“You really misunderstood Ms. Logan!”

Tears welled up in Cecilia’s eyes, making her look even more innocent and pitiful.

Isabella:?

So, it’s all her problem?

Cecilia right?

“Scarlet.” Eloise stretched out her hand to stop her from continuing, “I know how Cecilia is, but Isabella is not a person who makes trouble out of nothing. I grew up watching Zocy, although she is a bit arrogant, but not wrong No difference.”

When Scarlet and Cecilia heard this, they secretly felt something was wrong.

“If Zocy knows that Isabella is my biological daughter, the marriage contract with Benjamin is not only justified, but the two are also in love... If she knows Cecilia’s identity, then she can’t rush to trouble Isabella.”

There are only two possibilities, one is that she does not know the identity of Cecilia’s adopted daughter, and the other is that she does not know the true identity of Isabella.

The Call Connected

So, did Cecilia not tell her, or did Cecilia hide it from her on purpose and mislead her? this point is very important.

“If that girl from the Larson family thinks that Isabella has stolen Cecilia’s fiancé, what will become of Isabella?”

“Then this problem is very serious. If your friend misunderstood, you should call her to clarify.” Eloise said.

With tears in her eyes, Cecilia said pitifully, “Dad, Mom, don’t worry, I’ll call Zoey right away.”

“Speak up, let me hear what she has to say.”

“Ma’am?” Scarlet made a deliberately astonished expression upon hearing this. “Don’t you believe in Ms. Logan? You weren’t like this before Ms. Young came back to this house...”

Cecilia’s tears fell even more, feeling extremely wronged.

“Isabella has been suffering outside for eighteen years. From the moment she stepped into this house, I swore in my heart that from now on, I must protect her and never let her suffer any harm!”

When Eloise said this, she looked at Scarlet. "In the past eighteen years, our whole family has treated Cecilia as our own. Even if Isabella came back, we should give and take care of everything! But here Basically, just make up for Isabella! Shouldn't it be?"

Scarlet hurriedly said, "Ma'am, you misunderstood, of course you should, I mean..."

"Since I know it's happening, I can't let my own daughter be scolded! I have to hear what's going on!"

Cecilia knew she couldn't escape, shed tears, and dialed Zoey's

The phone rang until the end, but no one picked up on the other end.

Cecilia secretly breathed a sigh of relief, fortunately Zocy has two mobile phones, two numbers...

"Zoey should be asleep, it's okay, I'll call again."

Cecilia knew that this number was rarely used by Zocy, so she called again with confidence.

Sure enough, no one picked up the other end.

"Miss Zoey should be asleep..." Scarlet poked secretly and heaved a sigh of relief, but fortunately he didn't answer, otherwise Miss Cecilia would be in trouble!

Eloise looked at the clock, it was only ten o'clock in the evening, it was impossible for young people to go to bed so early.

"Give her a voice call."

Hearing what Eloise said, Cecilia froze, voice call?

Although Zoey has two mobile phone numbers, but only one information, calling the past now, wouldn't it be shooting yourself in the foot?

Cecilia was terrified. If Eloise asked Zoey directly, she might as well make the call herself!

"Mom, I'll call..." Cecilia hurriedly said, "I'll do this by myself..."

She bit the bullet and made a voice call, and within a few seconds,

"Cecilia? Are you still asleep?" Zocy's enthusiastic and cheerful voice came from the other end.

"Zocy! Did you trouble my sister today?"

Cecilia didn't wait for her to answer, and finished speaking in one breath. "I know you are doing it for my own good, but they are a couple! You are not allowed to mess around in the future, my sister has misunderstood it. Well, I won't tell you, I know I have to explain to my sister, don't mess around in the future..."

Having said that, Cecilia hung up the phone hastily.

Williams: ...

Eloise: ...

Isabella: ...

Zoey was stunned, what's the matter? Call her for no reason and say this? Did Isabella trouble Cecilia?

It is impossible for Cecilia to tolerate a relative and sister bullying her like this...

Isn't she just a little assistant? There's nothing to be afraid of!

Zoey touched her neck subconsciously, remembering that Isabella hit her at the match today...

Cecilia should have been threatened with violence, so why did she call her out of nowhere?

Cecilia a message today, but Cecilia didn't reply...

Thinking of this, Zoey called again, worried about Cecilia's safety.

After Cecilia hung up the voice call just now, she turned off the phone.

Zoey couldn't get through, so she could only leave a message to ask about the situation...

Seeing that Cecilia didn't reply, she became even more anxious.

Cecilia raised her tearful eyes and said pitifully, "Don't worry, I won't rob him. He only has you in his heart, even if I really have such thoughts, it's useless."

Before Isabella could speak, Cecilia stood up again, and said sadly, "I'd better not eat his supper, lest you misunderstand again, I'll go upstairs to rest first..."

Chapter 164

Speaking of this, she turned around innocently and pitifully, and was about to leave.

At this moment, the phone in the living room rang. As soon as Myra answered, she hurried over with the phone, "Ma'am, I'm looking for you."

She handed the phone to Eloise and added, "It's Miss Zoey."

It was too late for Cecilia to snatch the phone. She had already stepped out of the restaurant with one foot, neither leaving nor staying, restless and impatient.

“Zoey?” Eloise took the phone and asked lovingly, “What can I do for you?”

“Auntie, Cecilia’s cell phone is turned off. I’m worried about her. and I have to tell you something, your relative Isabella, she...”

Zoey was going to say that Isabella was violent...

But Eloise asked naturally, “You mean my daughter Isabella? What happened to her?”

“Your daughter??” It was Zoey’s turn to be stunned for a few seconds before asking, “Isabella is your daughter?”

“yes.”

“biological?”

Let Her Suffer

“Then she really belongs to Cecilia...”

“Sister.”

“Then what docs Cecilia say...”

“What is it?”

Zocy subconsciously asked, "Isn't Isabella a relative of your family?"

"Cecilia told you that? That Isabella is a relative?"

Hearing this, Cecilia rushed over to snatch the phone, "Zoey! Why are you calling again! What kind of relative is not relative! Stop talking nonsense! We still have something to do, so don't call to make trouble!"

After hanging up the phone. Cecilia hurriedly explained, "Mom, don't listen to Zoey's nonsense, she must have misheard, I never said that Isabella is a relative of the family..."

Seeing her flustered and angry look, Eloise's eyes darkened a little, "Cecilia, you have always been a sensible and kind child since you were a child. You should understand what to do next?"

"Mom... Don't worry, I will tell all my friends that they are a legitimate couple, and I am just an adopted daughter..."

"I will never take it. Everything that belongs to Isabella, I will not take it away!"

"Believe it or not, in my heart, Isabella is the most important..."

"I've misunderstood you, I'm really sorry!"

She shed two lines of tears and took the opportunity to leave...

Isabella has been watching this good show since just now, cating while watching, and now she is full.

"You take it easy, I'll go up first." She was about to leave.

"Isabella..." Eloise hurriedly pulled her back, "I'll give you some medicine."

“No need, I’ll take care of this little injury myself.”

Isabella didn’t take this little injury seriously at all, but Eloise insisted on pulling her to sit down, and according to the list written by Benjamin, first rub her some anti-inflammatory medicine, and then rub her some painkillers.

“Zoey troubled you today? What did she say?” Eloise wanted to ask what happened.

“I didn’t say anything.”

They were all scolded.

“It seems that Cecilia deliberately misled Zoey into thinking that you are a relative of the family...”

In fact, it is not difficult to understand, after all, Cecilia has been held by their family for eighteen years since she was a child, and she is the only princess in the family.

Suddenly one day, a girl came back and said that she was the daughter of the family, and Cecilia was just a child with no blood relationship, no one would be able to accept this sudden gap...

“Maybe she wants to save a little face in front of her friends...”

Eloise guessed, “It may also be that she didn’t dare to reveal your identity before she made it public... In short, you have been wronged by this matter.”

“I’m not wronged.” Isabella just couldn’t bear her acting in front of her every day, and tonight just had a chance to fight back a little.

Unexpectedly, she was crying again and pretending to be wronged. There were too many scenes.

on the side said distressed. "After a while, your grandparents and grandmothers are in better health. Let's visit them together, and then they will decide when to announce your identity."

"No rush." Isabella plans to go to Triangular Space for a while, if she announces her identity in advance, those people won't be able to touch her, and they will naturally trouble her family...

Although there were quite a few bodyguards around Williams and Eloise, they were obviously not their opponents.

What if those people are still eyeing the four old people at home...

Isabella thought about it and made a decision. Besides the Triangular Space, there are still some threats that must be dealt with quickly...

Cecilia went back to the room annoyed, "Zoey that idiot!"

"Miss Zoey is also worried about you..." Scarlet stroked her back gently, "Don't be angry, you should be happy to have such a girlfriend."

"I almost ruined her tonight!" Cecilia choked, thinking of her parents' cold expressions, aggrieved and angry, "They seem to believe in Isabella more, and care more about Isabella's feelings."

Eighteen years of relationship, is it true? Can't compare to this blood relationship? You clearly agreed to treat me as your own daughter..."

But in his words, he always directed towards Isabella, attacking her...

"Fortunately, Matthew went to rest and didn't know what happened just now, otherwise..."

Speaking of this. Scarlet couldn't help reminding, "Be more careful in doing things in the future, don't leave her something to talk about, I think she just likes to complain."

Cecilia agrees with this point of view.

“Didn’t you want her to take a ride last time to visit Old Mr. Mason together? It’s fine if she doesn’t agree, and she deliberately sulked and skipped lunch, taking the opportunity to attract the attention of Mrs. and Mrs. It’s despicable!”

Cecilia also thinks the same way, if Isabella doesn’t play tricks, don’t put on that cold look all day long, please her well, and get along with her, then they can still be a pair of superficially intimate sisters!

However, Isabella didn’t give her a good face, and even tried to resist her in various ways...

“It’s time to give her some pain.” Scarlet’s eyes flashed a ruthless light, “Master and Madam must know that she is not as perfect as they imagined...”

Don’t think that if you can play the piano and make some clothes, you are superior to others...

In terms of true daughter-in-law, compared to Miss Cecilia, that dead girl is far behind!

Early the next morning.

Isabella finished her breakfast and was about to go to work when Matthew said, “I’ll take you there.”

When Cecilia heard it, she almost couldn’t hold the fork anymore.

“No need, I have someone to deliver.” Isabella stood up, “Use it slowly, I’ll go home to eat tonight.

Matthew looked at Myra, and Myra hurriedly explained, “It’s the young master of the Mason family, who comes to pick up Ms. Young to and from get off work every day.”

Benjamin?

Eloise said with a smile, "That boy Benjamin has a heart. I heard that he gave Isabella another pink diamond. It's QY."

Chapter 165 Return to the original owner

Matthew:??

So, the pink diamond he was going to give to his sister was given to his sister by Benjamin beforehand?

"I'm going to meet him."

Matthew had just left the main hall, and before he walked out of the gate, he saw Benjamin holding his sister's face in his hands and saying something affectionately.

His eyes were full of displeasure, and he quickened his pace. Before they got close, they had already got into the car and left.

Fashion Company.

When Frank saw Isabella, he stepped forward at once. "Ms. Young, you are finally here! Our company's phone number has been ringing! Many people have ordered the clothes designed by Kennedy on site, and some manufacturers, one-time To order thousands, tens of thousands of picces!"

"Then why are you still standing there, free up a production line and increase production."

Those are all designed by Kennedy himself, and the copyright is in his own hands, so he can produce as much as he wants.

"Also, the clothes previously designed by Kennedy have been snapped up in major shopping malls, and they are all out of stock! Shall we take this opportunity to produce more?"

Frank blocked the elevator door with his hand, and after Isabella entered, he reached out and pressed the highest floor.

“Of course.” Isabella said decisively, “Let Kennedy release some new styles, strike while the iron is hot, set up an extra classified column belonging to Kennedy on the company’s official website, as well as the official online store. In addition, the headquarters said they would give Kennedy ten times the monthly salary, Confirm with the other side, implement it as soon as possible, and strive to send it to Kennedy next month.”

“Ten, ten times...” Frank’s eyes widened. Kennedy’s salary is 8,000, ten times is 80,000?

This is too much!

“She won the national championship, and 80,000 is not much.”

At the match that day, someone offered 100,000, 150,000 to poach Kennedy...

But Kennedy didn’t agree.

“Oh, by the way, Ms. Young, a customer consulted our official website customer service in the morning, asking if we authorized other stores to sell Kennedy’s new products this season in advance.”

The elevator door dinged open, and Frank followed Isabella’s footsteps, reporting as he walked.

“Because the design style is very similar, the packaging box is exactly the same as ours before, and our company’s trademark is also pasted, but the price is much cheaper than our previous price.”

“Currently, that store has sold thousands of new products, but none of those new products came from Kennedy.”

“I am worried that any follow-up problems with those new products will affect our company and affect Kennedy’s reputation.”

“Look at this...”

Isabella pushed open the door of the office and said disapprovingly, “What’s the matter? You bring a few trustworthy employees, pretend to be customers, and place an order in the other’s store. Don’t you know the delivery address and mobile phone number of the other party? Then call the police, and leave the rest to the police.”

Isabella was too lazy to investigate this kind of trivial matter. Anyway, with the basic information, the police could follow the clues.

“Yes. I’ll do it now!”

After a while, Isabella’s cell phone rang.

[Boss, Clark broke the news about their family’s scandal to media reporters.]

“What scandal?” Isabella sat on the office chair and turned on the computer.

[Clark said that many years ago, after his uncle had a car accident, the family robbed his uncle’s company and drove his aunt and cousin Kennedy out of the house.]

[They have been doing a lot of evil, especially on the day of Uncle’s death, the siblings splashed paint on Uncle’s grave, threw garbage, and bullied Auntie and Kennedy. Afterwards, the family of four suffered bad luck.]

[He also said that he dreamed of his uncle every night, and his uncle turned into a ghost and haunted them, making them restless. His parents and sister Ella were overwhelmed, mentally weakened, and chose to commit suicide. He was left alone and decided to return the company and the house. Lord, beg for forgiveness from your heavenly uncle.]

Isabella raised her eyebrows, “Does anyone believe this kind of news?”

[have! There are so many people who believe in it, saying that Clark and his family have been punished... they deserve it! At the same time, the public opinion was onc-sided, saying that Kennedy was able to study design hard in such an environment and win the championship. They all praised her for self-improvement, and fell in love with her!]

Isabella knew that breaking the news should have something to do with her elder brother. Yesterday Matthew gave the Bartley family time to return the stolen things to their original owners...

It should be Clark who came up with the idea of breaking the news. not Matthew forcing it.

But the death of Shawn, his wife, and Ella...is not as simple as suicide!

[I checked, Shawn, his wife, daughter Ella, and the twenty-two gangsters who attacked you that night suddenly disappeared from this world, and I couldn't find any news.]

There is only one person in this world who can do this.

Kai and Isabella invariably think of the same person—Benjamin.

Isabella thought of last night, when Benjamin said that he had something to deal with temporarily, could it be because of her?

Thinking of this, her eyes darkened a little.

Department of Design.

Many people surrounded Kennedy, chattering non-stop.

“Kennedy, you actually won the National Championship, that’s amazing!”

“Are you the daughter of the Bartley family? You didn’t tell us before! It’s too deep!”

“The Bartley family’s clothing company is yours?”

“I didn’t expect Ella and the others to be so bad. They robbed you of your things and killed them all!”

Kennedy knew that it wasn’t Dad protecting them, it was because of Isabella that Mr. Logan came forward to help her.

While she was grateful, she was asked by others, “Kennedy, what are your plans for the future?”

“You are already a national champion, and your brother-in-law returned the company to you. Have you ever thought about doing it yourself?”

“Such as taking over the company and creating your own brand?” “Kennedy, you can’t forget me in the future!”

“One day I will be fired by Ms. Young, you have to take me in!”

Kennedy looked at his colleagues around and smiled slightly, “I have this day because of Ms. Young’s guidance and support. I will not leave here. My current ability is not enough to manage a company, so I have to stay. Come down and learn more from Ms. Young.”

“Then what about your company?” Everyone asked.

“Usually, I rely on the help of those experienced executives to take care of it. If there is any problem. I will consult Ms. Young.” Kennedy said this, and checked the time, “Okay, I won’t tell you, I will go to Ms. Young Young.”

She took the elevator to the twentieth floor and knocked on the door of the office.

“Ms. Young, it’s me.”

“Enter.”

Kennedy pushed open the door and returned the key to her with a smile, “Ms. Young, just now Clark has given us back the house that was usurped before, thank you for renting my house!”

Isabella raised an eyebrow, did she know?

Chapter 166 A Surprise For Her

“When I went to pay the utility bills last night, I heard from the property management that you are the owner, so I realized that you rented the house to us cheaply!”

In the past, Isabella has always lied about being a friend’s house, and the rent she gave was very cheap...

Kennedy was infinitely grateful. “If it weren’t for you, on the day of my father’s death, maybe my mother and I would have...”

When she said this, she lowered her eyes and quickly raised her smile, “It was you who pulled me up again and again, allowing me to stand on the top of the mountain and see a different scenery! So. I decided, next Stay by your side and study hard!”

While she shines in this competition, many brag about her as an up- and-coming designer, the next “Master Sofia Welch”...

But only she knows that it is because of Isabella's help that she can make such amazing works, win the championship trophy, gain popularity, and be loved and sought after by so many fans.

The really powerful person is Isabella!

Without Isabella, she would not be what she is today!

"I'll give you three months." Isabella smiled, "After three months, you will go back to take care of your own company."

"Three, three months?"

She still wants to study with Isabella for three years, five years, or even ten years...

"Three months is enough for you." Isabella thinks she is a person who knows everything. "You are very smart and have great ideas. You will definitely be able to shine on the road of design."

Kennedy raised a grateful look.

"The salary has been settled for you, and then you have a place to live, so I will keep the key."

"Thank you Ms. Young!"

"Just call me Isabella in private."

During this time, Isabella has always regarded her as a friend, otherwise she would not have been helping her.

Kennedy said gratefully and happily, "Isabella, it's nice to meet you!"

Since meeting Isabella, her life seems to be different, completely different!

It's been a busy day.

After get off work, Benjamin took Isabella back.

The flowers are all planted, and there is no end to the sight at a glance.

Countless pink and white flowers surround the Crescent Lake, and under the reflection of the setting sun, it is as beautiful as a fairyland.

It seems that there is no end in sight, and the eyes are all pink and white oceans.

Benjamin held Isabella from behind and whispered in her ear, "I have a surprise for you."

surprise?

Such a beautiful sea of flowers is already a surprise to her, what other surprises are there?

Benjamin covered her eyes with one hand, put one arm around her waist, and whispered the countdown in her ear with a seductive and charming voice.

Counting from three to one, he slowly released his hand.

Isabella looked up and saw thousands of butterflies flying in the sea of flowers.

So many butterflies?

Where did it come from?

Do magic?

“Does it look good?”

This was prepared by Benjamin in advance. Colorful butterflies flew out of the bag and shuttled in the beautiful sea of flowers, as beautiful as a painting.

“It’s beautiful.” Isabella’s eyes were full of beauty and happiness, and the corners of her lips raised, “It’s really beautiful.”-

“You like it, I’ll show you every day.” Benjamin hugged her even tighter.

Otherwise, you can prepare a surprise for her at night, and stay with her for a while...

Isabella found that there was a transparent circular glass room in the sea of flowers, which contained a top crystal piano.

She could tell that it was an internationally renowned Harman piano worth 300 million.

“Don’t you want to hear me play the piano?”

Isabella walked into the glass room and improvised a beautiful piano piece for him.

Benjamin looked at her beautiful face playing the piano and her outstanding facial features, his eyes softened.

Her slender fingers switched freely on the keys, every movement, every expression, was incomparably beautiful.

After the song was over, Benjamin bent down and gave her a kiss, "It sounds good."

He heard her heartfelt from this song, and she is happy at this moment.

Benjamin sat down, "I'll play one for you too."

Isabella was a little surprised, he can play the piano?

I saw his fingers jumping nimbly on the keys. Although it was a temporary creation, it sounded no less impressive!

Isabella was slightly surprised by his fingering. This familiar feeling reminded her of the famous piano genius – Starsun a few years ago.

When Starsun played the piano, he never showed his face, only showing his hands. Although he was slender and good-looking, he could be seen as a young boy.

On the Internet, there are only three Starsun playing videos, and one is released every year.

Isabella reads back and forth fluently, every fingering, every movement, she is familiar with by heart.

It's a pity that he stopped releasing videos a few years ago. Fans waited for a few years, and the popularity passed. Next, Muisic became popular...

Starsun seems to be slowly being forgotten...

After playing the song, Isabella raised her eyes and asked, "Are you Starsun?"

Benjamin was a little surprised, this little girl knew who he was just by watching him play?

Too smart, right?

"Starsun has nice hands." Isabella added.

Benjamin raised the corners of his lips, "Is he good-looking?"

Why did you ask such a question?

"It's okay, I'm happy and content to get your compliment, even if it's just a pair of hands." Benjamin lowered his head and kissed her lightly, "This is a song I composed for you, called Love..."

Isabella's eyes softened.

Benjamin sent the song to her mobile phone, "I recorded this in advance and gave it to you."

The song is romantic and beautiful, expressing his love for her...

Isabella can hear his heart, is really saying: I love you.

Benjamin saw the sunset and the sky had dimmed slightly, so he could only send her home.

Hearing that her elder brother came back in the past two days, she had to go home for dinner. Although she was reluctant, Benjamin still respected her decision.

In the car. Benjamin gently rubbed the medicine on her, "Be careful when taking a shower, don't touch the water."

"Um."

"You don't need to change your medicine tonight. I'll change it for you when I send you to work tomorrow."

"good."

Isabella's heart warmed up when she saw his meticulous appearance.

Butler Dean could tell that Isabella's fingering was not simple, and her piano skills were definitely not inferior to Mr.

It looks, even a bit like Muise...

Think of Muise's fingering and posture when playing the piano, and compare it to when Ms. Young played just now...

The more Dean thought about it, the more he thought about it, the more he thought it was possible... Finally, he couldn't help but ask Green for confirmation.

Knowing that Ms. Young is the famous Muisic in the world, think about the saying that Ms. Young saved the old man twice...

While Dean was stunned, he was deeply impressed. He never thought that Ms. Young's hand could not only save people, but also play the piano...

The key is that she is young and good-looking. Now you are lucky sir!

Chapter 167 Not a few days left

Two days later, Isabella followed Benjamin to visit her grandpa and heard that her grandma had also moved back.

In the past, Craig was in poor health, unable to take care of himself, and was often hospitalized. Grandma was sent to a senior hospital, where professional doctors and nurses guarded her 24 hours a day, and a group of famous doctors worked hard for her condition.

Now, those famous doctors have exhausted all their talents and studies and are helpless, and my grandfather has recovered, so I took my grandmother back and took care of me personally.

Bob brought a bowl of Yushon Medicine, "Drink the medicine first?"

"Take it away!" Craig frowned, with a look of disgust on his face, "Isabella came in a while, and I tasted bitter medicine in my mouth, how can I talk to her?"

At this moment, a servant reported loudly, "They are coming!"

Seeing Benjamin walk into the small courtyard holding Isabella's hand side by side. Craig was elated, "Darling granddaughter-in-law, you finally came to see me!"

Completely ignore the tall and handsome Benjamin next to him.

“Grandpa.” Isabella smiled and greeted Bob politely, “Is the medicine ready?”

“Yes.” Bob smiled respectfully, thinking to himself, old man, it’s up

Isabella took the bowl and brought it to Craig naturally, “Grandpa, drink the medicine while it’s hot. I see that your energy is much better today than before.”

“That’s right, it’s your medicine that was prescribed well. I wake up feeling refreshed every day recently! I’m about to drink this medicine. It’s all because of Lao Wen’s nonsense, and I forgot it for a while!”

Craig hurriedly took the bowl, and said, “I drink medicine very consciously.”

The servants on the side:??

Who is the person who cries and refuses to take medicine every day?

Who is the person pretending to be good in front of her now?

Craig drank the medicine in one go, and asked domineeringly, “Why is there only half a bowl today? Is there any more in the kitchen?”

Bob couldn’t help laughing. “Half a bowl is enough. I’ll get some candy and snacks, you sit down first.”

“Go.” Craig said enthusiastically after driving Bob away, “Isabella, come to me quickly, are you busy recently?”

Isabella sat down, “Not busy.”

“Has he bullied you? If so, I will vent my anger on you.”

“He’s fine.” Isabella glanced at Benjamin, since he met her, he has “Really?” Craig was dubious, “If there is anything he doesn’t do well, you must tell me, and I will support you.”

When Craig said this, he looked at his grandson again, “You have to be more kind to Isabella, don’t be outdone by a better and younger guy one day, and it will be too late to regret it!”

“Isabella likes old ones.” Benjamin sat down and asked softly, “Where’s grandma?”

“She just finished basking in the sun, and the servant took her to change clothes. Why hasn’t she come here for so long?”

At this time, Bob brings tea and snacks.

“Go and ask the old lady to come over.”

Bob pushed the old lady out of the back room himself.

The kind old woman was dressed in noble clothes, radiant and sitting in a wheelchair, motionless, exuding a pampered and elegant aura all over her body.

It can be seen that she is usually well taken care of. From head to tail, every strand of hair has been combed neatly, her nails have been carefully trimmed, and even her clothes are in accordance with her previous habits.

If she can move and talk, she must be a kind and gentle grandma.

“Granddaughter-in-law is here to see you!” Craig took his wife’s hand and introduced with a smile. “This is Isabella, whom I have often mentioned to you. How is it, isn’t she pretty? Not only is she beautiful, she can play the piano with her hands, and Will save lives, he is so lucky to have found such a good partner in Isabella.”

I heard that Isabella is also the piano master Muise!

Isabella looked at the kind old woman and said softly, “Grandma, my name is Isabella, nice to meet you.”

She touched the necklace around her neck, “Thank you for the gift, I like it very much.”

She took out another gift, “This is for you.”

“What is this?” Craig took it on his behalf, opened it and saw it was a beautiful jade bracelet.

Last time Isabella took a piece of fine jade for Old Madam Brown, and designed two bracelets by herself, one for Old Madam Brown as a birthday present, and one for grandma as a meeting gift.

“This is a high-quality jade... It looks very unique in style.” Craig held it in front of his wife, “Look at it, how beautiful it is, I’ll put it on for you.”

He carefully put the bracelet on his wife’s wrist, “If your grandma responds, she must be hugging you very excitedly...”

It’s a pity that no one can do anything about this disease.

Although she can blink and breathe, her other symptoms are completely the same as those of plants.

Benjamin didn’t know when Isabella prepared a meeting gift for grandma, and it was such an expensive jadeite. While being moved, he felt sorry for her spending money.

In the past, some young ladies tried every means to find grandpa in the name of visiting grandma, and bought things to please grandpa. In their subconscious mind, vegetative people do not need to give gifts.

Even if it is prepared, it is ruined.

But Isabella regards grandma as a living person, not a plant, and respects and treats her from the bottom of her heart.

This is what sets her apart.

Isabella held grandma's wrist, "Grandma, when you are well, let's go outside to play, cat, go shopping, or take a trip to see the outside world together."

When Craig heard this, his nose turned sore, he turned his face away, and hurriedly swallowed back the warmth in his eyes.

Benjamin reached out to pat him on the back, as if to comfort him.

And Isabella has withdrawn her hand, knowing it well, "I believe this day will come soon."

As Benjamin said before, grandma is indeed brain damaged.

A long time ago, she once treated a difficult case. The patient also became a vegetable due to brain damage.

Although he was cured in the end, he had to prepare a lot of medicines. Some medicines were very rare and rare, and some were in the Triangular Space outside the border. In that place, if you are destined to get it, you may not be destined to return.

But the difference between grandma and the previous patient is that she has only a few days left in her life.

But on this point, Isabella didn't say it, but planned to go back and think of a way.

Speaking up now will not help anything but make them anxious and sad...

After spending time with grandparents, on the way back to Riverside Villa, Benjamin asked softly. "Is there something wrong?"

Chapter 168 Only That Place Has It

Isabella:??

He knew she was seeing a doctor for grandma just now?

"Grandma did have a brain injury, and it's very difficult to recover." Isabella said truthfully without hiding anything.

Benjamin did not expect that the little girl's medical skills were definitely better than many famous doctors.

Isabella knew that forty-nine medicines were needed to cure grandma's condition.

These forty-nine herbs are hard to find, and one of them is even more rare.

This drug has appeared in Triangular Space before, but it is easy to get in but difficult to get out of that place.

Even if Isabella has her own forces there, she won't break into that arca casily.

What's more, I don't know if there is one yet.

night.

Isabella asked people to find a lot of medicines with similar effects. After a long time of debugging in, it still didn't work.

It seems that she has to go to the Triangular Space herself tomorrow.

On the other hand, Craig called Benjamin, "Benjamin, your grandma's breathing rhythm is different today than before. I asked someone to measure her blood pressure just now, and the blood pressure has dropped a lot. I don't know if the situation has improved. It's still getting worse..."

Benjamin could hear the anxiety in his words, "I'll let Old Mr. Robinson go and have a look."

Old Mr. Robinson's medical skills are well-known at home and abroad, and it happened to be in Bomsville recently.

"Don't panic, I'll go take a look later."

"Okay, then come back quickly."

"Um."

Benjamin rushed back to after finishing his work in the group, and Joseph had just finished his pulse.

He sighed, and announced helplessly, "This is a precursor to the death of a vegetative person, that is to say, the old lady does not have a few days left."

Craig passed out like a lightning strike.

Bob was terrified, and hurriedly supported him, "Dr. Robinson, save our old man quickly."

Joseph glanced lightly, "It's okay, it's just a little bit of stimulation, let's send him back to his room to rest first."

"Is there any other way?" Benjamin asked in a deep voice.

Grandma is the backbone of their family. If grandma dies, grandpa

Only That Place Has

will probably not be able to survive...

Grandma is very important to grandpa!

It can be said that it is more important than grandpa's life!

"It's not impossible, but...it's impractical!" Joseph said helplessly, "There is a medicine that is very difficult to find. Many doctors have never heard of it in their entire lives, let alone seen it. It is very difficult to find it. Disaster."

It can be said that in this world, only a very small number of people know what it looks like.

"Is this medicine helpful for grandma's condition?" Benjamin asked earnestly.

“That’s right, but this medicine is very difficult to find. Your grandma’s illness may not be able to wait.” Joseph took a sip of tea, stood up and said, “Forgive me for being powerless, and I’m leaving.”

“Send off Old Mr. Robinson,” Benjamin ordered.

Immediately, someone came forward to deliver a blank check, and Joseph waved his hand, “I didn’t do anything to help, I received this check, I feel uneasy about my conscience, let me add another word, find Pacon, maybe he has a solution.”

Benjamin said truthfully, “We have been sending people to inquire for the past six months, but there is no news of Pacon.”

Joseph waved his hands helplessly. “Then I have nothing to do.”

“You revealed such important information, which is already a great help to the Mason family!”

Joseph was so entangled that he couldn’t help it, so he finally accepted it, which was considered a fec.

Benjamin took out his mobile phone, “Ask where Ginseng is.”

“Mr. Mason, what are you looking for?” Green didn’t understand.

Benjamin’s eyes darkened a bit, “Grandma’s condition needs to be used.”

Green immediately sent someone to inquire.

Early the next morning, he called Benjamin, “Mr. Mason, finally there is news. Ginseng has appeared in Triangular Space before, but that place is very dangerous. Although we also have influence there, the risk factor is too high. Just don’t take any chances.”

Benjamin’s eyes darkened. Triangular Space? Where is it?

“Mr. Mason, what if that thing is just a legend? Why don’t we find other medicines that can replace Ginseng?”

“Time is running out.”

Try the same thing, I don’t know how long it will take, it’s better to find Ginseng directly, at least it can save grandma’s life.

“Make arrangements to go to Triangular Space.”

“Ah?” Green didn’t expect that Mr. Mason really planned to go to that place, “Is there any change in the old lady’s condition?”

“Well, there are not a few days left.”

Only That Place Has It

When Green heard it, he finally knew why Mr. Mason wanted to go there!

On the way to send Isabella to work, Benjamin found that the injury on the girl’s right wrist was not healed, but worsened. He immediately said distressedly, “What’s going on?”

The medicine he rubs on her every day is the best medicine in the world, it is impossible that it has no effect at all.

“Have you used your hands too much lately? Playing the piano? Or drawing blueprints?”

Isabella withdrew her hand and said disapprovingly, “I’m just busy with work.”

In fact, she had been adjusting the medicine to save grandma last night. She adjusted it all night, and she did use her hands too much.

“Don’t be too busy.” Benjamin wiped it for her distressedly. “I have some urgent business to go abroad in the past two days. I want to see your hands get better when I come back?”

“Okay.” Isabella didn’t expect that he happened to be going abroad on business. At first, she was still thinking about what excuse she had to find to go to Triangular Space...

Now is your chance!

“Don’t worry, I will take good care of myself.”

Hearing what the girl said, and looking at the girl’s expression, Benjamin raised his eyebrows, “Why do I think you’re a little happy?”

She was a little happy that he was leaving?

Is it his illusion?

“You read it wrong.” Isabella said flatly, “I’m not happy.”

Yeah? The corners of the girl’s mouth were clearly raised just now.

Outside the office, Benjamin packed the medicine and handed it to her. “It’s still the same as before, once in the morning and evening, rub this first, then this, try not to touch the water.”

“knew.”

Benjamin hugged her reluctantly for a while, bowed his head to give her a long kiss, and then let her go, “Wait for me to come back.”

“Yeah.” Isabella got out of the car, waited for his car to drive away. and then took out her mobile phone,
“Pick me up at the coffee shop next to my company.”

“Okay, Boss.”

“Get ready for the plane. I’m going to Triangular Space.”

“Triangular Space?” The person on the other end of the phone was stunned, “Boss, you are finally going to come out in person and help the brothers crush those bastards to death? That’s great!”

There is a boss sitting in the town, let’s see who dares to go crazy in front of the boss!

Those people have never seen how powerful the boss is. If they have, they probably have a heart attack...

Chapter 169 No problem

Isabella walked in the direction of the coffee shop while calling home, “Mom, a friend of mine had an accident. I’m going to see her. Yes, it’s serious. I’m abroad and I have to leave for two days...”

After the phone call, Isabella called Frank again, “I have something to do these two days, the company, if someone calls me, just say I’m in a meeting, and don’t let people know that I’m not here.”

It was the first time Frank heard that Ms. Young was unable to go to work, so he hurriedly said, “No problem, no problem, but Ms. Young, where are you going?”

He was about to ask, but the only answer was a beeping sound.

Ms. Young is always in a hurry to do things, and she doesn’t say a word of nonsense.

At this time, a luxurious private jet was parked on the top of the mountain.

The four stood aside respectfully.

Kai brought a lot of equipment with him, and Luca also loaded the gun. Seeing Isabella appear, he immediately stepped forward.

“Boss, you are finally here! Why do you suddenly want to go to Triangular Space?”

As soon as Luca asked this question, Kai despised him, “Do you still need to ask? That place is also one of the strongholds of the Boss! Go and kill the vigor of those gangsters, and establish the prestige of our gang!”

Isn't this what a boss should do?

“Help me find out about Ginseng.” Isabella walked up the machine stairs with a strong aura and a cool back.

“Ginseng?” Kai was stunned for a moment, as if the experience of taking Ginseng last time was still in front of him, “Boss, who are you going to save this time?”

Isabella didn't hide, and said one person: “the Mason family grandma.”

the Mason family?

Benjamin's grandma?

Kai seemed to see a big golden mountain beckoning to him, “The remuneration must be very high, right?”

It would take at least a few hundred million dollars to get Boss to risk his life to get this thing again, more than that?

“No.”

“Ah? No?” Kai and Luca looked at each other, that is to say, the trip to Boss is free?

What is the boss drawing?

Picture Benjamin’s prosperous and handsome face? Or were you bewitched by Benjamin’s few words?

“Let’s go.” Isabella’s tone was mixed with a hint of coldness.

Kai and Luca silently sympathized with Benjamin in their hearts. Facing the cold boss every day, they don’t know how they feel...

Are you panicking like them?

During the eight-hour flight, Isabella fell asleep on the plane, and after waking up, she changed into cool clothes and a peaked cap, looking like a cool girl.

“Boss, there is a virus called X3 that is very popular there recently.”

It is said that it can be infected through breathing, and the infected person will fester and die from torture...

This virus was spread from a well-known research institute in Triangular Space, and there is no antidote so far.

Kai handed Isabella a black mask, "A few of our brothers are also infected."

After Isabella put on the mask, she revealed a pair of clear and bright pupils, which looked even more breathtaking, "I'll take a look when I go back."

"Okay." Kai glanced at the profile of the Boss. "If the Boss is a boy, he will definitely fascinate many little girls."

"Boss is so good-looking, it's really cheap for that bastard Benjamin."

The plane just flew into the Triangular Space, and before the captain had time to turn on the automatic defense mode, suddenly, a shell hit their tail, and the plane lost its balance and spun in mid-air.

A harsh reminder sounded in the cabin.

Everything was tilted to and fro, and Isabella subconsciously grasped the armrest, her face extremely cold.

Fortunately, everyone fastened their seat belts, otherwise they would have been thrown out long ago.

"Which bastard did it?" Kai cursed secretly, stood up with great difficulty, and went to the cockpit.

"Who is so rampant recently?" Isabella just didn't come here for a while, and she didn't expect the risk factor here to be higher than before.

"Recently, there is an additional gang called The Wolf. They are so crazy that they are all crazy. Except for the C gang, they have basically provoked all other gangs!"

Isabella curled her lips coldly, quite disregarding people?

“Today’s incident is probably done by The Wolf!” Luca was indignant, wishing to take them all.

The plane’s tail was broken off a bit and it was plummeting.

“Lock the position and drop the bomb.” Isabella said coldly. “If you have the guts to blow up our tail fins, you must have the guts to suffer the consequences. Find a place and make an emergency landing.”

“Yes.” Luca immediately conveyed her meaning to the cockpit.

The captain locked the position where they hit their tail just now, and dropped the bomb directly at two o’clock. There was a bang, thick smoke billowed, and the entire Triangular Space was

After the plane made an emergency landing, several vehicles soon appeared in front of Isabella.

The people who got out of the car held guns one by one, and when they saw Isabella, they were very respectful.

“Boss!”

“Boss, are you here?”

“haven’t seen you for a long time.”

“Yeah.” Isabella got into the car, with a hint of coldness in her eyes.

Everyone admired her psychological quality. Boss is Boss. When she came to such a place, she still remained expressionless, as if she didn’t take anyone seriously.

Even if a well-known undercover agent steps into this arca, all the cells in his body will be alert, and his eyes will be extra vigilant...

But Boss had just had his tail blown off, and it looked as if nothing had happened, his eyes were clear and cold.

Just then, her phone vibrated.

I saw that it was Benjamin calling.

“Isabella, I’m abroad.” Benjamin checked the time, “Someone will pick you up from get off work later.”

Isabella immediately said, “No need, I have my own car.

“I’m worried about you commuting to get off work alone.”

Benjamin’s voice was terribly gentle, “Be good, Nick will be there in three minutes, and there is some food in the car for you.”

Isabella had a headache, but her tone was still good, “I’ll let Frank go down and get it. I have a meeting in a while. I have something to deal with today. Don’t pick me up.”

“There is still a meeting at this point?” Benjamin worried that she was too tired, “Call me when you get home.”

“good.”

After finishing the call, Isabella called Frank, and Frank went downstairs immediately and saw someone driving a Rolls-Royce limited edition, thinking, Benjamin is really rich, not only to drive such a good car for the driver, but the driver looks like Also very temperamental.

“Hi, I’m Ms. Young’s assistant, you can call me Frank!” Frank smiled, “Did you come here?”

“Hi, I’m Mr. Mason’s personal butler, just call me Nick.”

Frank saw a lot of expensive snacks in Nick’s hands, and couldn’t help but be speechless. Rich people are so extravagant, and any meal is worth a month’s salary.

“Where’s Ms. Young?” Dean didn’t see the girl’s figure and couldn’t help asking.

“Oh, Ms. Young is still in a meeting, and she will be b

Chapter 170 Infected

“Okay.” Dean offered the snack with both hands, “Mr. Mason prepared this for Ms. Young, so please take it.”

“No trouble, no trouble, it’s hard work for you to make a special trip.” Frank said a few words to him politely, then went upstairs with his things, and called Isabella, “Ms. Young, what do you do with these things?”

“Eat it.”

“Huh? Give me all of it?” Frank couldn’t help but said while being happy. “But there are so many, I can’t finish it all by myself.”

“Get some for Kennedy.” Isabella sat in the car, her voice was cold. “Don’t talk about it.”

“yes.”

Frank sent some more to Kennedy.

Arriving at his base camp, Isabella got out of the car, and several men with guns outside the door saw her, and immediately excitedly said: "Boss, you are here!"

Isabella noticed that they were all wearing masks, raised a cold eyebrow and asked, "How many people are infected?"

"Four yesterday, and three more today..." One of the subordinates couldn't help but said, "Boss, they are all at the doctor's place, you better not go..."

Isabella was a little puzzled.

"A doctor got infected yesterday, and today his whole body started to fester..." Another subordinate couldn't help but said, "This X3 is coming in menacingly, if you are not careful, you will lose your life. You are the backbone of the gang. There is no base. You cannot....."

"It's okay, I'll pay attention." Isabella lifted her foot and walked inside, not taking the virus seriously at all.

The subordinate hurriedly reminded, "Boss, if you really want to go in, you must wear protective clothing!"

Otherwise, it will be troublesome if you get infected!

This is Isabella's base. After a large area of grass, it is her main castle, and the second floor inside is her research institute.

The infected person should be in the easternmost ward on the second floor.

Along the way, everyone greeted her respectfully when they saw her.

Isabella changed into protective clothing and walked into the ward on the east side, and saw seven infected people lying on seven hospital beds, their skins were festering to varying degrees.

They complained endlessly and suffered a lot.

"I'm so uncomfortable, my whole body seems to be on fire..."

"Help me, I don't want to die..."

"Don't scratch the wound, the more you scratch, the faster you will die!" Troy was too busy, when he heard the sound of the door opening, he turned his head, as if seeing a savior!

"Boss, are you finally here?"

Seeing the Boss, Troy was very excited, great, the Boss is here, he is saved!

"Tell me about the situation." As soon as Isabella came in, she began to observe the condition of each patient and give them their pulse.

"I heard that someone stole the unsuccessful medicine from the Research Institute of the C Gang and put it on the market to harm others."

When Troy said this, he was aggrieved, "Infected people will feel hot all over at first, and gradually, the skin all over their bodies will be like a fire. They can't bear it, so they will scratch. After a short period of comfort, it will be even more uncomfortable."

"So, they kept scratching, and the more they scratched, the faster it rotted, and eventually the skin on the whole body festered and died."

Troy saw this process in his eyes and was anxious in his heart, but there was nothing he could do, and he didn't know how to help them...

"This process only took three days..." Troy said helplessly.

Today, some of the people lying on the hospital bed have only two days left to live, and some have only one day left...

Isabella's eyes darkened, and with such abusive drugs, these people are really vicious.

"Several big forces, plus some small gangs, have been infected..."

Troy couldn't help sighing, "The whole Triangular Space is panic-stricken, and everyone wears masks when they go out!"

Some of these gangs have invited medical experts from abroad, but without exception, they are helpless against the disease.

"Bring me my needle bag."-

As soon as Isabella finished speaking, Troy immediately went to get it. Isabella opened the needle bag, took out the slender silver needles, and pierced one of the patients first.

"Accept the others in my order." Isabella demonstrated to Troy.

Troy hastily complied.

After a while, several patients spit out a mouthful of blood. Although they felt better, their skin was still burning and uncomfortable.

“I’ll go to the research room and ask two more people to come in. Watch them, and don’t let them scratch the wound. If the pain is unbearable, you can gently rub it with your fingertips.” Isabella confessed.

“yes!”

Isabella took a pen and wrote down several medicines.

The injection just now can only delay the spread of toxicity.

In order to truly detoxify, twenty-nine medicines need to be prepared. Fortunately, all these twenty-nine herbs can be found in her medicine mountain!

On the other side, the site of the C gang, Green rushed in to report,

“Mr. Mason, four more brothers have been infected with X3, you should put on a mask first...”

If you get infected, you will be in trouble!

Benjamin put on a mask, only showing a pair of sharp eyes, his voice was extremely cold, “Why did the medicine in our research institute spread?”

“It is said that there is a traitor in our gang, and we are cleaning up the sect...” Green did not expect that someone would be so bold as to betray their gang!

Seeing that Benjamin’s eyes darkened. Green hurriedly said, “Our old experts are already researching the antidote, but people infected with this virus will fester and die within three days. It is estimated that the antidote has been developed. Half of the people will die.”

This virus is extremely contagious, once infected, the mortality rate is 100%!

“Mr. Mason, we can’t stay in this place for long, find Ginseng, and we’ll leave immediately.”

“We can’t leave those infected people alone, let the experts speed up and research the antidote as soon as possible.” Benjamin’s voice was extremely cold. “Is there any news about Ginseng?”

“It is said that there was a plant in the auction of Triangular Space, and people have been sent to investigate it. It is estimated that there will be a result soon.”

Benjamin turned on the phone, looked at the girl on the screen saver, his voice softened, “I have news, I’ll be dispatched immediately.”

Looking at the girl on the phone screen, he started to miss her after only a few hours away.

The last time he went abroad, he thought about her insomnia, or after returning to the country, he hugged her and got a good night’s sleep when he got home...

Green saw the screen saver by accident. This photo was accidentally taken by a reporter outside the door of Ms. Young on the day she went to the Melody Theatre.

Afterwards, it was bought by Benjamin at a high price and used as a mobile phone wallpaper.

If Ms. Young knew that Mr. Mason loved her so deeply, she would definitely be moved...

After all, Ms. Young is the first one that Mr. Mason can fall in love with, and probably the last one...

“Yes. I will send someone to inquire quickly.” Green stepped back respectfully.
