

Chased Her 171

Chapter 171 Boss, do you have money?

Isabella made the antidote developed into Yushon Medicine and distributed it to seven subordinates, taking one pill each.

After a while, they found a miraculous change.

“I don’t have the burning sensation in my body anymore, and the dizziness has also lessened.”

“The skin all over my body won’t feel unbearably itchy, and I don’t have the urge to scratch...”

“The whole person is much more comfortable, it’s amazing!”

They all looked at Isabella at the same time, as if they were looking at a miracle doctor, their eyes were full of admiration and gratitude.

Isabella threw the small pill bottle to them. “Take one pill a day for the next four days, the festered skin will scab and fall off, and new skin will grow.”

“That is to say, we won’t die?” The seven people wept with joy and were about to get off the bed and kneel to thank Isabella.

Isabella stretched out her hand to stop her, “Take a good rest, your greatest gift is to take good care of your health and continue to work for the gang.”

She threw another bottle of medicine to Troy, and ordered softly, “Let others take it.”

With the antibody, even if you come into contact with X3, you will Troy didn't expect that Boss could develop an antidote in such a short period of time. He was shocked and deeply admired at the same time.

"Boss, if you can stay in the Triangular Space and develop, then sooner or later we will be the overlord."

Just as Isabella wanted to say that her ambition is not here, Kai came to report, "Boss, there is good news and bad news, which one do you want to hear first?"

Isabella raised her eyes, without thinking, "Good news."

"At the Auction in one hour, Ginseng will appear as the finale treasure!"

"Bad news?"

"It is said that there is only one plant...and the C gang also wants it."

Gang C is the overlord of Triangular Space, and other gangs and forces are more or less afraid of their reputation...

Even The Wolf, who has been dragged to the sky recently, dare not provoke them easily.

It is said that the behind-the-scenes boss of Gang C is a big shot who can't be provoked by black and white!

The amount of money is innumerable, and the forces behind it are so intricate that you can't even imagine...

"Boss, there is even bigger bad news!"

Boss, do you have money?

Kai swallowed, and found that Boss' face was a little ugly.

"Say." Sure enough, Isabella's tone became a lot cooler.

"In the previous auction, a Ginseng plant was auctioned, and the transaction price was three billion..."

Isabella:??

How many??

Three billion??

steal money??

Kai noticed that Boss's expression was uglier than before, so he added bravely, "I got it right! It is said that this auction will require capital verification, and those on the card are less than 100 million, and they are not even eligible to enter the door..."

When he said this, he scratched his head and asked embarrassedly. "Boss, do you still have any money?"

The pocket money her parents gave her before, as well as the money she earned herself, were all invested in drug research...

At present, only the card given to her by her eldest brother is left, which is only two billion, which is obviously not enough.

"It is said that the C gang is bound to win this time, and they are not short of money, let alone three billion, they can afford 30 billion..."

Once the fight started, she would definitely be at a disadvantage.

When Kai said this, he found that Boss's expression was beyond description. He swallowed his saliva and persuaded, "Boss, the Mason family didn't pay us, that old lady, I don't think it's necessary to save..."

Isabella raised a cold eyebrow, her eyes were warning.

"I mean, this time the C gang must get this Ginseng. The transaction price may exceed 3 billion... Think about it, 3 billion dollar can buy a lot of things! Take the villa in the center of Bomsville. Say, three billion can buy thirty sets!"

"I think, Boss, there are some things we have to do within our capabilities..."

Even if this three billion is used for eating, drinking and having fun, it is better than saving an old lady who has no blood relationship!

"Arrange it." Isabella seemed to have made a decision, "Go to the auction later, remember to bring your weapon."

"You want to grab it??" Kai couldn't help admiring Boss's courage, "This year's Auction is held by The Wolf, if we want to grab it, how many brothers we have to die!"

"You come with me."

"Huh?? Me? Just the two of us?" Kai couldn't believe what he heard. It's no problem to escape safely with the Boss' skills, but he...he has to peel off his skin if he doesn't die, right?

Boss is the first thing that comes to mind when he has any adventures!

He is also the first person to be ignored when paying salary!

Isabella couldn't help raising the corners of her lips when she saw his greedy life and fearful death, "Who said I'm going to steal it?"

"If you don't rob, can you still get credit??" Kai was a little puzzled.

"I have my own way."

Seeing Isabella's full confidence, Kai really didn't want to hit her, but he had to say frankly, "Oh, Boss, there is one more thing I forgot to tell you..."

Isabella knew that he had no good words to say, so her expression turned cold. "Speak quickly while I don't have a knife in my hand."

"This Ginseng is something from The Wolf... Today's auction is also held by others, and the auction site in the south of the city is also their territory... We just blew up half of their base today. Even if we have money, they may not sell it to us, if we go now, it is equivalent to a sheep entering the tiger's mouth..."

When The Wolf saw them, it would be strange if he didn't beat them up first!

Isabella's eyes turned cold, and now?

"Boss, we are destined to miss Ginseng..." How about giving up?

He didn't dare to say the last sentence, for fear that the Boss would cut off his head.

Isabella checked the time, "Prepare the car and go to the auction."

"ah?"

It's all like this, Boss still dare to go?

Boss, do you have money?

Boss is really not afraid of death...

But he is afraid!!

the other side.

Green received the news and immediately reported it to Benjamin.

"Mr. Mason, in 40 minutes, Ginseng will appear at the Auction... However, capital verification is required to enter the door."

"Let's test it." Benjamin seemed not to care about this little money, and his tone was casual.

Green went on to report. "The host of this auction is The Wolf, and The Wolf has always been interested in making friends with us. This auction, no accident, Ginseng will fall into our hands. The problem is the price. It is said that the previous transaction price was 30 100 million....."

Insanely expensive indeed!

No matter how good the medicine is, it usually does not exceed three to five billion dollar.

Benjamin's voice was extremely cold. "They deserve it too?"

He knew that the latest gang in Triangular Space was The Wolf. He, Benjamin, doesn't even bother to associate with such a small gang. If he can't afford money, he can solve it directly by force.

befriend? impossible!

Auction.

Isabella verified the qualifications and took Kai into the No. 3 box. After a while, someone reported their whereabouts to the leader of The Wolf.

It's just that he didn't know what the man said wrong, Oscar listened to his words, took a puff of cigarette, and slowly spit it into his face.

In the next second, Oscar crushed the cigarette butt hard on the top of his head.

"Ah..." The subordinate was trembling with pain, but he didn't dare to resist, but knelt down and begged.

There was a sizzling sound from the top of his head, and his hands were so painful that he almost fainted, but he still tried his best to hold on...

Oscar smiled coldly, "Does it hurt?"

"No pain, no pain, thank you Oscar for helping me refresh my mind, I feel refreshed immediately!"

"Heh." Oscar let go of his hand and let him go.

"Should we find someone to surround them? Take them down in one fell swoop?"

“No rush.” Oscar lit another long, thin cigarette and took a puff,

“Wait until they take pictures of the baby before doing it.”

Before you kill them all, make a little money.

“Yes, I understand...”

His subordinates were about to leave when Oscar stopped him again, “How many of them are there?”

“They? Just two, one male and one female...”

“Is it true that women can’t see it?”

It seems that the cigarette just now was pressed in the wrong position. He should not be on top of his head, but the eyes.

“Bai has a pair of eyes!”

The subordinate was terrified, and hurriedly said, “That person is wearing a peaked cap, a big mask on his face, and a sweater and trousers, I really can’t tell the difference...”

“Get out of the way.”

“yes.....”

Oscar took a few more breaths, huh, just two people? How courageous!

Dare to blow up The Wolf's base? Let them have their lives, but not their lives!

Octagonal stage.

Each side corresponds to a box, and there are three floors in total. Isabella's No. 3 box is on the highest floor.

"Look, Boss." Kai found that there was only one price increase button in the box, and each price increase was 30 million, and 30 million increased!

"That's insane enough! The money grabbing is blatant! This The Wolf's eating is really ugly."

Isabella crossed her legs, sat on the sofa carelessly, pressed the phone with one hand, and took a sip of the lemonade on the table with the other.

"Boss, aren't you afraid of being poisonous?" Kai widened his eyes, as if admiring the boss's courage.

But Isabella didn't take it seriously, "Is there any poison in this world that I can't cure?"

"It makes sense..." Saying so. Kai also picked up a glass of lemonade and drank it all in one go!

I'm really thirsty after being busy with Boss today!

Not to mention, this lemonade is quite delicious!

He poured another glass, and continued. "In our domestic auctions, there are 100,000, 500,000, 1 million and other options to increase the price. This is good, and I will give you 30 million! Really wicked! Boss. You haven't answered my question just now."

"Um?"

"How much money do you have on hand?"

Seeing his sincere smile, Isabella stretched out her slender fingers and made a two-to-one comparison.

"Two billion? That's right..." Kai took a sip of lemonade in peace of mind, and the stone in his heart finally fell to the ground. "Two billion, at least I can fight against the C gang for a while."

"Remove a zero."

Kai took a sip of lemonade, "How much? Two billion? Boss, are you kidding me? Two billion can buy Ginseng?? I guess we will be beaten to death by those people!"

"Oh, I'm not going to buy it."

"Ah?" Kai swallowed, "Boss, you don't buy it, you don't grab it, and you don't pay it on credit, so why don't you just take it?"

"Yeah." That's exactly what he meant.

Kai looked hopeless. His gun and small bombs were handed over to the security outside the door. How long could he fight with his bare hands?

"Boss. I'm already old. Next time you have this kind of mission, you can consider Luca. Luca is agile and invulnerable..."

“Oh. I’ll record it and send it to Luca later.”

“Don’t.....”

In Room 2, Green said respectfully, “Mr. Mason, Ginseng will appear at the end, would you like to rest for a while?”

“No need.” Sitting on the single chair, Benjamin’s eyes were cold, and he exuded a strong aura, “How is the situation with grandma?”

“I called just now and said that the old lady’s complexion is getting worse...”

Before you start, make some money first

It looked like she couldn’t last long.

“The plane is ready, go back immediately when you get the things.”

I don’t know if the little girl got off work or if she had a good meal when she got home...

He missed her not long after he left.

At this time, a male auctioneer came to the middle of the octagon, took a small hammer and tapped it, and said authoritatively, “Now I announce that the auction will begin!”

The first baby is a beautiful woman, imprisoned in an iron cage, hugging her knees helplessly, looking very pitiful.

Kai is really an eye-opener. Every time I come here, I can be refreshed by this group of people...

Isabella pressed her phone without raising her head.

“The starting price is 30 million!”

Many boxes offered 30 million dollar, and soon, several boxes increased their prices...

Real-time display on the stage big screen:

[Box No. 7: 60 million.]

[Box No. 9: 60 million.]

[Box No. 11: 60 million.]

Since the prices offered by the three boxes are the same, they can only continue to increase, but both boxes No. 7 and No. 11 think that 60 million is already a very high price for a woman, and it is not worthwhile to increase it.

So, in the third round of bidding, they did not move.

[Box No. 9 is 90 million!]

[Box 9 90 million for the first time!]

[Box 9 90 million for the second time!]

[Box 9 is 90 million for the third time, a deal!]

[Let us congratulate buyer No. 9 for getting his wish!]

“This group of people is really nothing!” Kai cursed secretly, even the girls took it out and put a price tag on it! Disgusting enough.

“This world is like this.” Isabella lightly touched the phone screen and casually reminded, “Especially in Triangular Space, all the things you think are impossible and impossible are happening every day.”

“Boss, why do I feel that you are young and live a more transparent life than me??”

Chapter 173 Invite two buyers to discuss in person

Next, a few more items were listed at the auction.

It was half an hour before the finale appeared.

Isabella just finished playing a game match, and when she looked up, she heard Kai say, “Ginseng is playing! Come and see!”

His eyes fell on the scantily clad Miss Manners.

This figure is so hot!

The hostess is holding an expensive wooden box, facing the camera, and showing it to everyone.

[The starting price is 30 million!]

Kai knew that the boss was going to order this treasure, so he pressed 30 million several times in one breath.

The other boxes were all shocked by the wealth of buyer No. 3. The bid was 120 million when it first came up. It seems that buyer No. 3 has a lot of background, and he is bound to get this gadget!

Isabella glanced at Kai lightly, it wasn't your card that was swiped, and you pressed it quite happily?

"Hey Boss, how about it, I helped you get rid of many people in one go!"

The other boxes knew that Ginseng was a good thing, and even if it was sold on the market, it could fetch three billion, so they bid one after another.

[Box No. 6 180 million.]

[Box No. 14: 210 million.]

[Box 18 is 240 million.]

[Box 23 is 270 million.]

1288 (Vouchers

Seeing the crowd follow in full swing, Isabella ordered coldly, "Get rid of them."

“Yes!” Kai desperately pressed the price increase button, his hand was sore from pressing it, and he hurriedly changed his hand.

Inside Box 1.

Benjamin watched the other buyers chasing after them, completely ignoring them, and said nonchalantly. “Add until they give up.”

“Yes.” Green also raised the price desperately.

Soon, the price on the big screen has exceeded two billion!

“Boss, shall we still follow?” Kai knew that the Boss’ wallet did not allow him to press anymore!

But Isabella said firmly: “Follow.”

Kai can only bite the bullet and continue to increase the price...

Box 3 is three billion thirty million.]

[Box 1 is three billion sixty million.]

Box 3 is three billion ninety million.]

Invite two buyers to discuss in person

[Box 1 is 3.12 billion.]

Only No. 1 and No. 3 were left to compete in the air, and looking at the trend, neither side had the intention of giving up!

“Mr. Mason, buyer No. 3 seems to want to order this item.” Green said while pressing the price increase button, “How about I tell the leader of The Wolf to give us the item?”

What he likes, needs someone else to give it to him?

“Burst the lights.” Benjamin ordered coldly.

“Burst lights??” Green was stunned and couldn’t believe it!

The meaning of the explosion is that no matter how much the other party bids, this side will be 30 million more than them!

All in all, order this thing!

Unexpectedly, in order to save the old lady’s life, Mr. Mason would be willing to...

It seems that Mr. Mason is not only a good husband, but also a good grandson...

Green hurriedly pressed the price increase button for three seconds, and the lights went off!

A magnificent notification sound came from the big screen on the stage!

The auctioneer was stunned, and the other buyers couldn’t believe their eyes. They stared dumbfoundedly at the flashing words “Lights exploded in Box No. 1” on the big screen on the stage...

The huge font caught everyone's eyes...

One can't help but admire the deep pockets of Buyer No. 1...

"It's more than three billion dollar. Buyer No. 1 still doesn't give up? Still blowing up?"

"It looks like he's going to decide on this thing!"

"Who is so rich, more than three billion, like a drizzle..."

Kai found that Boss's face was ugly, yes, the things that must be obtained were taken away by others, can Boss not be annoyed?

I don't know who is so rich, is it the C gang?

I heard that the C gang also want this thing.

"It seems that this is God's will... Boss, although you have this filial piety, but..." The wallet does not allow...

"Burst lights." Isabella said abruptly.

"Ah? What?" Kai suspected that he had heard it wrong. How could the auction be overwhelmed by both parties? The point is, buyer No. 1 doesn't seem to be short of money, they really don't have eno money...

"Press." Isabella ordered, and Kai thought she was crazy!

Must be pissed off by Buyer #1!

The meaning of this explosion is that if you are willing to cover the bottom line, even if the other party pays 10 billion or 20 billion, this side will always pay 30 million more than them!!

Where did the boss get the money from?

“What are you still doing?” Isabella glanced at him with a little displeasure in her eyes.

Kai knew she was serious, closed his eyes, bit the bullet, and pressed for three seconds...

[Buyer No. 1 has exploded, let us congratulate Buyer No. 1, it went well...]

The auctioneer hadn't finished speaking when another majestic voice sounded on the stage, and there were flashing reminders on the big screen.

[Buyer No. 3 explodes!]

The audience was in an uproar! !

Not to mention the auction in the south of the city, even in the world, there is no situation where two buyers explode at the same time!

It seems that the two sides are indeed not short of money, and they are indeed on the hook!

The auctioneer is stunned. What's the situation? Buyer No. 3 has also exploded. Buyer No. 1 also wants to order this item. How will this auction continue? He doesn't have enough experience...

At this moment, the boss of The Wolf saw this scene with great interest in his eyes. He said something to the auctioneer, and the auctioneer's carphones immediately picked up his meaning.

The auctioneer hurriedly presided over the overall situation, "Don't be impatient, everyone. Since buyer No. 1 and buyer No. 3 both want to get this treasure, after asking for instructions, please come to our backstage first, and our helper will personally meet you. Whoever has the highest price and the fastest transfer speed will own this treasure!"

It means that if you give money in person, whoever gives more will get the things.

"Now I announce that this auction has come to a successful conclusion. Buyer No. 1 and Buyer No. 3 are invited to follow our staff to the backstage for a detailed discussion..."

Kai only felt his eyes go dark, it's over, it's over, it's over!

The boss can only give 2 billion in person, and if he goes to the backstage, why don't he have to be skinned alive?

"Boss, why don't I cover you, you go first..." Kai felt like he couldn't get out of here today!

He is ready to sacrifice for the boss.

Unexpectedly, Isabella stood up domineeringly, "Go, go backstage."

Kai:??

Boss, you are really not afraid of death!

The door of the box opened, and there were already a few people from The Wolf waiting for them outside with guns, saying that they were taking them backstage, but anyone with a discerning eye knew that they were afraid that they would run away because they had no money...

Although he hated them in his heart, Kai still called them brothers and sisters on the surface, "Brother, let me ask you something, what is the origin of buyer No. 1?"

"C helps the boss."

"Huh? C's bosses are here?"

Although I received the news before, knowing that the C gang is bound to win this Ginseng, but I didn't expect that even the boss behind the scenes would be alarmed....

Chapter 174 Oscar

Isabella took Kai to the backstage of the auction. There was only one long table, and the man sitting in the middle was the leader of The Wolf, Oscar.

Oscar has a mixed-race face, and when he smiles, the smile doesn't reach his eyes, it's cold and evil.

"I didn't expect it to be a girl, interesting, really interesting."

He looked into Isabella's eyes, and smiled obsessively, "It seems that she is the best in the world."

Just this pair of clear and bright eyes is already captivating.

I don't know how overwhelming it will be when she takes off the mask...

Kai wanted to gouge out his squinty eyeballs. If the Boss hadn't wanted Ginseng wholeheartedly, his knife would have been pulled out and stabbed into this guy's cyc socket!

Isabella hooked her long legs, hooked the chair over, and sat down domineeringly, "It seems that buyer No. 1 has no sense of time."

"Who said we don't have a sense of time?" Green's voice had just finished.

The handsome man stepped into the background, his eyes suddenly noticed the girl sitting on the left side of the long table, Isabella? Why is she here?

Green heard Ms. Young's voice just now, and thought that she had been getting along a lot recently and had auditory hallucinations...

Unexpectedly, I followed Mr. Mason into the door and saw that the girl sitting by the long table was the Ms. Young that Mr. Mason was thinking of?

Didn't Ms. Young get off work and go home for dinner?

How did it appear in Triangular Space, or as a buyer...

Green froze.

Benjamin was also a bit surprised. When Nick went to deliver snacks in the afternoon, the little girl said that she was in a meeting and couldn't leave. The meeting was held in Triangular Space?

Bomsville is at least eight hours' flight time from Triangular Space.

Being able to participate in the auction means that she left Bomsville not long after he left...

In other words, she lied to him.

Isabella didn't expect the man who stepped in to be Benjamin.

And Kai also froze for a few seconds, isn't this man the boss's man? He is the boss of C gang?

It seems that they don't know each other's identity, interesting! So funny!

Looking at the way Boss was caught, it seemed that a child was caught stealing candy. He just wanted to laugh when Isabella glared at him.

"Mr. Mason, you are here..." He personally opened the chair on the right for Benjamin, and invited, "Please sit down, the environment here is not very good, I have wronged Mr. Mason!"

Benjamin sat across from Isabella, even though the little girl was wearing a hat and a mask, only showing a pair of eyes, but with this figure and expression, he would never admit it wrong!

It's his girl, Isabella!

Seeing Benjamin staring at Isabella, Oscar thought they were enemies meeting, and hurriedly said. "Let me introduce first, this is the boss of Gang C, nicknamed Mr. Mason."

Realizing this, Isabella raised the corners of her lips, "Nice to meet you."

"This is the leader of The Fire. I only found out today that she is a beautiful girl."

Oscar looked at Isabella like a wolf watching its prey. The naked ambition and greed made Benjamin's eyes turn cold.

"you like her?"

Oscar didn't hear the coldness and displeasure in his tone, and said with a smile. "If the Lord of The Fire can't pay for it later, he will put people here."

After all, he doesn't believe in The Fire, so he can easily spend more than three billion!

"The owner of The Fire should have raised the price indiscriminately just now?" Oscar thought, in this way, he can use this reason to put the beauty in his arms. If she is his, then The Fire must be his too...

How could Isabella not know what he was thinking, and curled her lips coldly, "I dare to resist, but I'm afraid that Oscar won't dare to take it."

Oscar laughed loudly, "You're joking. I can still afford to be alone!"

The more he looked at Isabella, the more beautiful she felt. Although she is a girl, she has a very cool and sassy aura all over her body.

Benjamin looked at the girl in front of him, "I didn't expect to be a leader at such a young age."

"Each each other."

In terms of age, they are not a few years apart...

Benjamin looked into Isabella's eyes, like an adult talking to a child, "Do you know where this is?"

Triangular Space, she is a girl with a subordinate, dare to break in?

Green also admires Ms. Young's courage...

Although he came here alone with Mr. Mason, there are many guards outside, all armed with high-end weapons!

In addition, he and Mr. Mason are more skilled than everyone here, so they walked in with a big swagger...

But Ms. Young, a girl, walked in with a subordinate who didn't look very powerful, and was still sitting here.

When Oscar heard this, he thought that Benjamin questioned Isabella's ability and financial resources, and felt that the girl was beyond her control, otherwise how could he ask the girl if she knew where this place was!

He smiled and said, "Don't worry, Mr. Mason, if she doesn't have enough money, then the baby is yours..."

Of course, if she is to stay, it belongs to him!

"What price do you want?" Benjamin looked at the girl in front of him and asked with great interest.

Isabella guessed that he took Ginseng to save grandma's life.

Although I don't know where he got reliable information that Ginseng is helpful to grandma, but since their goals are the same, there is no need to spend more money.

"I want to ask Oscar, is the price we offered just now worth it?" Isabella looked at Oscar.

Oscar still had lewd eyes, as if fascinated by her.

At the auction just now, buyers No. 1 and No. 3 have reached a price of 3.33 billion...

If it can go any higher...

Oscar smiled lewdly, "Of course it doesn't count, now both of you bid again."

"The starting price is 30 million?"

"yes."

Oscar's expression froze for a moment, what's the matter? Instead of adding on top of the 3.33 billion, instead of just overturning it and starting over?

Benjamin had already blown the lights just now, so Isabella offered 30 million, and he naturally wanted to add another 30 million to this standard.

"Sixty million." He bid slowly.

"Okay, I give up, the things are yours."

Maybe he didn't expect Isabella to do this, Oscar immediately shouted, "Wait! You should continue to increase the price on the basis of 3.33 billion!"

The priceless Ginseng sold 60 million to the C gang?

So, what else does he earn?

What's the point of his auction?

Chapter 175

Hearing this, Green smiled disdainfully, "You take yourself too seriously! We, Mr. Mason, don't need any reason to do anything to anyone! It's you who are overthinking yourself and wanting to get her... Oscar! Open your eyes Take a good look at how the empire. you built collapsed little by little!"

When Oscar heard it, his whole body was like a lightning strike, and he stood there, motionless.

"Don't worry, Mr. Mason will save your life, and Ginseng will buy it according to the rules of the game you set, and will not take advantage of you..."

However, it was agreed that it was 60 million, it was 60 million, not a cent more!

Hearing Green's words, Oscar couldn't help but smile, his face turned pale, "So. according to what you said, you didn't steal or rob me, and you were extra merciful to me and spared my life. Is it all my fault?"

"Of course! Who told you to be rude to her?" Green's words made Oscar slightly murderous.

Benjamin stood up and held out his hand to Isabella.

Isabella walked towards him obediently.

Kai's eyes widened, and he saw that the usually cold Boss was hugged by Benjamin, and he just left...

"My The Wolf is gone, and you can't even think about it!" At this moment, Oscar pressed the switch, and a huge iron door suddenly slammed down, sealing the only exit.

“Be careful.” Benjamin held Isabella in his arms and took a step back. They were almost smashed by the falling iron gate!

Oscar took out a few pistols from under the table, ready to fight his way out!

More than a dozen of his men also drew their guns and shot at Benjamin and Isabella!

Kai watched as more than a dozen bullets hit the boss. Fortunately, Benjamin was protecting him, otherwise the boss would have been beaten into a sieve!

“Damn it, dare to bully our boss?” Kai raised his foot and kicked, grabbed the pistol from one of his men and threw it to Isabella, and then grabbed another pistol to fight back.

Green didn’t expect that the subordinates brought by Ms. Young didn’t look very good, but they were actually pretty good!

His strength should be on par with him!

It seems that he underestimated others just now!

“Kids, don’t play with guns, it’s dangerous.” Benjamin let Isabella hide in a safe corner, and gently stroked her head, “Wait for me, I’ll be there soon.”

“Oh.” Isabella was obedient and didn’t go out to help.

Benjamin beat several of his subordinates to the ground in twos and threes, exuding a cold aura all over his body. He saw Oscar open the iron door switch and was about to run away. Pull the trigger to kill him.

Oscar fell into a pool of blood, his body still twitching.

At this time, two men aimed at Benjamin and were about to shoot. Isabella was one step ahead of them and shot from the shadows, one by one, and sent them away directly.

Maybe he didn't expect the little girl's marksmanship to be so good. Benjamin turned his head and looked at her with a touch of inquiry and interest.

Who the hell is the little girl? Not only can she shoot, but she is quite courageous. He doesn't know what else is she?

Seeing that everyone was down, Isabella threw the gun aside, didn't look into Benjamin's eyes, and said disapprovingly, "Just playing casually, I didn't expect to shoot."

The little girl thinks he is so foolish?

She shoots casually, can she shoot so accurately?

Can ordinary girls play with guns?

Does she know how to play?

Let alone playing with guns, why would an ordinary girl scream when she saw this scene?

If you don't scream, at least you will show fear and panic.

But the little girl remained calm from beginning to end, as if everything in front of her was just an ordinary scene...

Her courage, her courage, her ability...all show that she is not an ordinary girl!

“Let’s go.” Isabella took the lead to leave here.

The iron door had been opened by Oscar just now, and Benjamin followed her pace and held her hand.

People in the entire Triangular Space heard that The Wolf was wiped out in an instant, and the C gang formed an alliance with The Fire, and bloodbathed The Wolf...

They couldn’t believe it!

To say that these two gangs have nothing to do with each other... why did they form an alliance all of a sudden? What is the reason?

He even uttered cruel words, whoever dares to touch one of their gangs, the other will definitely not be lenient...

It seems that no one in Triangular Space will dare to provoke them anymore.

Join forces to dominate the Triangular Space...

Even members of Gang C and The Fire don’t know why their boss decided to form an alliance...

“Come on, let’s go home.” Benjamin took Isabella’s hand and walked up the flight stairs.

Chapter 176 Who Revealed Her Identity?

Inside the luxurious cabin.

Benjamin hugged Isabella on his lap, and gently stroked her soft hair with his chin, "How many identities do you have that I don't know?"

Isabella looked away guiltily, not much, although I can't count with two hands...

"Is it because of grandma's illness that you want to get Ginseng?" Benjamin looked down at the girl in his arms, and asked softly, "You knew that her condition was getting worse when you took grandma's pulse that day, and there are not a few days left?"

"Um."

"Why didn't you tell me earlier?" Benjamin looked into her eyes, "Or, at that time, you had decided to come to Triangular Space alone to find Ginseng? Who told you that this thing could save grandma's life?"

"I also saw it in a medical book a long time ago..."

As for whether it can be cured, it depends on grandma's own physical condition.

"Triangular Space is too dangerous, you are a girl, what should I do if something happens to you?" Benjamin couldn't imagine.

"It's someone else who has something to do."

His girl's marksmanship alone is superior to Green's. She taught the Bartley family members a lesson before, and it's no problem to single out more than 20 of them...

Something happened, it was someone else.

"Still tricking me into having a meeting at the company?" Benjamin punished her with a kiss. "If it wasn't just a coincidence, how long are you going to lie to me?"

“It’s not like I’m lying to you...” Isabella said lightly, “I’m just afraid that you will worry.”

“You keep it from me. I’m even more worried if I’m in danger.” Benjamin lowered his head and kissed her lips lightly again, “Promise me that no matter what happens in the future, I won’t do such a risky thing.”

“Okay.” Although she said yes, what Isabella was thinking in her mind was: promise first, otherwise I will be pestered by him endlessly.

“The Fire was founded three years ago. How old were you three years ago? Why did you appear in Triangular Space?” Benjamin had some doubts in his mind, “Why did you become the leader of The Fire?”

Speaking of this, Isabella’s eyes dimmed, “It’s a long story.”

Three years ago, Old Madam Brown’s condition deteriorated and he was in urgent need of an herb that grew on the medicine mountain in Triangular Space. At that time, several gangs were fighting for the medicine mountain. When Isabella appeared, it was the time when they were fighting the most.....

Because Old Madam Brown’s condition urgently needs medicine, and he has to take it for a long time, and that kind of herbal medicine is only suitable for the soil of Medicine Mountain. Therefore, by chance, Isabella not only founded The Fire, occupied Medicine Mountain, but also strengthened her power...

Although she almost died in Triangular Space several times, although Old Madam Brown’s condition was out of control again and needed other medical treatment, but fortunately, she saved Old Madam Brown’s life, and The Fire also became more and more popular under her leadership. the better...

Now with the help of Gang C, the two gangs in Triangular Space will be existences that no one dares to mess with in the future,

After listening to her words. Benjamin felt even more distressed about what happened to her.

At such a young age, he suffered so much.

No wonder she always looks cold and indifferent to everything.

Since she was a child, no one has supported her, no one cares about her, and she can only rely on herself in everything, so she has developed the habit of being independent and self-reliant.

Her coldness, her rustiness, and her abilities were all bought with blood and tears.

The ordinary little girl has not been beaten by the society. Unlike her, she crawled all the way by herself. It is through endless darkness and suffering that she has achieved what she is today.

Benjamin's voice was distressed, "If I didn't show up, what are you going to use to trade with Oscar today?"

Who Revealed Her Identity?

More than 3 billion cash is not so easy to get out.

Isabella took out a small bottle from her pocket, "This."

Benjamin asked puzzled, "What is this?"

"The antidote for X3." Isabella said flatly, "Oscar is infected with X3, I think, exchange this with him for Ginseng, he should agree."

After all, everyone wants to live...

No one cares about their own lives...

“That’s why you dare to blow up the lights?” Benjamin suddenly understood. He didn’t expect his girl to be smarter and more capable than he imagined.

“Yeah.” So, Isabella didn’t plan to buy Ginseng from Oscar at the beginning, she thought about bartering.

“Why is there an antidote for X3?” Benjamin lowered his head and asked, “Developed by yourself?”

Isabella raised her eyes, as if asking, how do you know?

“There is no medicine that you can’t make.” Benjamin raised the corners of his lips and smiled softly.

“Before boarding the plane just now. I had someone deliver the antidote to Gang C.” Isabella said lightly.

The bottle in her hand was intended to be exchanged with Oscar, but now that Oscar is dead...

“I wanted to take advantage of your inattention and throw it in your mouth...”

Hearing what she said, Benjamin smiled even more indulgently, “Worried about my infection? You have me in your heart...”

“Since you know my identity, eat it.” Isabella handed over the small bottle. People who are not infected will produce antibodies after eating it. Even if they come into contact with infected people in the future, they will not be infected.

“You feed me.”

This guy is playing hooligan again?

“I miss you these two days...” Benjamin rubbed against her car, his charming voice whispering softly in her car.

Isabella couldn't stand his whispering, uncapped the bottle, poured out the pill, and stuffed it straight into his mouth.

Pretty rough.

Benjamin smiled and said, "This medicine is priceless. There are so many members of the C gang, and they take so much medicine from you. I feel sorry."

Every pill can save a person's life, which is indeed priceless.

"I can't take advantage of you for nothing..." Benjamin whispered into her ear, "The combination of the safe at home is your birthday."

"Take whatever is inside." Benjamin looked at her dotingly, "What's mine is yours."

"Okay, there are still more than seven hours, sleep first." Benjamin could see that she was tired.

"Yeah." Isabella has indeed been busy for a long time in order to save the base's infected subordinates, and in addition to dealing with other affairs, she has hardly had a break...

She snuggled into Benjamin's arms like a well-behaved cat, and it didn't take long for her to fall asleep.

Seeing that she was sleeping soundly, Benjamin gently picked her up and put her on the bed in the bedroom...

There are several bedrooms in this plane, and Benjamin put her in the most spacious one. Before covering her with the quilt, he saw her mobile phone fell out of her pocket and was vibrating...

Someone called her, it was a string of codes.

Chapter 177 Another Identity Can't Be Hidden

Unexpectedly, the little girl even encrypted her calls. Benjamin was even more curious about who she was.

Out of respect, Benjamin didn't help her answer the call, nor did he hang up, but let the other party vibrate for a while, and ended by himself.

He put the phone on the bedside table, gently covered the little girl with a quilt, and leaned over to give her a loving kiss.

She looks beautiful when she is asleep, as beautiful as a princess in a fairy tale, with black and curled eyelashes, a tall nose, and delicate lips...

He couldn't help but leaned over and kissed her lightly.

At this moment, the phone vibrated again, it was a message sent to, her by someone else.

Benjamin glanced at it inadvertently, and saw several messages appear on the screen.

[Boss, QY's report for this month has been sent to your mailbox.]

[The response to the recently launched jewelry series has been very good. I

[When do you have time to draw some more?]

Benjamin's guess: Darreld? Head of QY?

Another identity Can't Be Hidden

It is said that Sofia Welch, the founder of QY, never shows his face, and concentrates on creation, and all the affairs of the group are handed over to Darreld to take care of.

So, his Isabella is Sofia Welch?

QY was founded by her?

she kept emphasizing not to give her QY clothes and jewelry before ...

Facing the things I designed every day, there is no sense of novelty, no wonder I didn't see the expression of surprise on her face.

Everything is made by myself, so where is the surprise?

He recalled the expression on the little girl's face when she received his gift, as if she couldn't explain it in words...

Thinking of this, Benjamin raised the corners of his lips. He didn't expect that his Isabella not only has medical skills, but also can make medicine, is a piano master, and is also the founder of QY....

The Logan family probably didn't know the real identity of the little girl, so they let her take over the small clothing company at the beginning...

"Mr. Mason."

At this time, Green called softly outside the door.

Benjamin put away his thoughts, looked at the little girl reluctantly, and then closed the door and left.

"Ms. Young asleep?" Green didn't expect Mr. Mason to be so gentle to Ms. Young.

If C gang's subordinates read it, their cycs would probably pop out...

After all, Mr. Mason's image outside has always been cold-blooded and ruthless...

"Keep your voice down." Benjamin walked towards the living room in the cabin, and said after sitting down, "Say it here."

Too close for fear of disturbing the little girl to sleep.

"Yes." Seeing him sitting down, Green hurriedly reported, "There is news about Pacon!"

Benjamin was surprised. He didn't expect good things to happen today. He asked in a low voice. "Where is he?"

"I don't know for the time being. It was a middleman who said that he has Pacon's contact information. It's okay to ask Pacon to make a doctor's visit, but Pacon doesn't want a fee, but something."

This is unexpected.

"What?" Benjamin asked quietly.

"Licorice and Rosa Root."

Benjamin's eyes darkened, what did he want these two things for?

"Mr. Mason, we have collected these two items for many years. They are invaluable, and their rarity is no less than that of Ginseng... Although the other party does not know that we have these two items, the price they offer is, who can take out these two items, Pacon Just treat anyone."

Benjamin's voice was flat, "Okay, promise him."

Mr. Mason, I don't understand..." Green carefully expressed his doubts, "Ms. Young's medical skills are excellent, there is no medicine in this world that she can't make. She also knows that Ginseng can save the old lady's life, why not let her try?"

Also use Licorice and Rosa Root to invite Mr. Pacon?

Isn't this a waste of money!

Benjamin remembered that he answered this question a long time ago, and said lightly, "Grandma's condition is getting worse now, there are not a few days left..."

It would be better if Isabella could save grandma...

But what if...

"I'm afraid that in case grandma is seriously ill, no one can save her, but Isabella will feel that it's because of her poor medical skills, so she will blame herself and feel sad..."

Therefore, he would rather save grandma through the hands of outsiders than to let the little girl have psychological pressure and bear a lifetime of psychological shadow.

"Licorice and Rosa Root for him, make an appointment with him, the sooner the better."

"yes!"

Only then did Green fully understand why Mr. Mason kept asking about Mr. Pacon...

Why don't you have to...

It turned out that it was because Ms. Young was under pressure!

Another Identity Cant Be Hidden

Mr. Mason is so kind to Ms. Young!

The plane flew in the air for eight hours and landed directly on the tarmac at home.

Benjamin carried Isabella down the flight stairs, stunned the butler...

The housekeeper didn't expect that Mr. Mason would go abroad with business, and he would go with Ms. Young...

Moreover, the two came back together.

Come back as soon as you come back, still in such an intimate posture...

A gust of wind blew by, and Isabella felt a little cold. She raised her eyes and saw that she had arrived at Moon Lake Bay!

I can't believe that she slept for so long.

"Are you awake?" Benjamin carried her off the plane with a soft voice, "Sleep more."

I've never seen her sleep so soundly.

Isabella was also a little surprised. She was able to sleep so peacefully next to Benjamin. The key point is that she never had a single nightmare...

“Put me down.” She wanted to go by herself.

But Benjamin hugged her, “Sleep a little longer, cat something, and send you back later.”

Isabella was carried upstairs by him, as if she had gotten used to his

Another Identity Can't Be Hidden

domineering and autocratic manner, she didn't say much.

“When you fell asleep, someone called you.” Benjamin said.

Isabella was startled, he didn't answer, right?

“I didn't answer, but the other party sent you another message.”

Isabella:??

“I didn't expect my Isabella to be the founder of QY.” Benjamin smiled softly, “Darreld is just your subordinate?”

Isabella:!!

“You peeked at my message?”

“It just appears on the screen, it's hard not to see it.”

“I didn’t know that QY’s things were all designed by you, and I will see you off later.” Benjamin bowed his head and kissed her, and carried her into the bedroom. “This is my bed, you can rest here for a while, you can cat I’ll call you again.”

“I am not sleepy.”

“Then lie down.”

Sleeping on a plane is not as comfortable as here.

Benjamin was afraid that she would go to work tomorrow, so he was so absorbed in work that he didn’t even have time to catch his breath.

Another Identity Can’t Be Hidden

Take advantage of the time now, take a good rest.

Seeing him leaving, Isabella took out her phone and looked, and sure enough Darreld sent her a few messages.

There are also some encrypted messages that will not appear on the phone screen. She clicked on the software to check, and replied quickly.

Chapter 178 I Love You

After a meeting.

The chef prepared the food, and Benjamin brought it to her himself. “Can’t sleep?”

“Hmm...” Isabella was a little surprised to see him carrying two large trays, “Do you usually eat in your room?”

“No.” Benjamin put the tray on the table, and said softly, “But all my habits. I am willing to make an exception for you, wait for me, there are still downstairs, I will get them.”

Seeing his figure leave the bedroom, Isabella felt warm inside.

Outside the window, the lake shimmered under the sunshine, and the endless flowers swayed in the wind. Isabella came to the balcony to enjoy the beautiful scenery and feel the coolness of the breeze.

Benjamin came with two large trays, tall and handsome, looking at Isabella with connivance and doting.

“Let’s eat here.” Isabella pointed to the table on the balcony, “The view here is good.”

“Okay.” Benjamin put the things down and pulled out the chair for her.

After Isabella sat down, she saw him bring a lot of things over.

After eating the perfect food, Isabella said lightly, “I should go back, Ginseng, you keep it for now, and cook it together after I prepare the other medicines.”

“Where are the other medicines?” Benjamin asked softly.

Triangular Space again? Or some other dangerous place? He was worried that she would go alone.

“I’ll send someone to get it.” Benjamin said worriedly, “Tell me the address.”

“Don’t worry, it’s safe.”

“It will be ready tonight.” Isabella said gently, “You take me home first.”

“Don’t work too hard.” Benjamin said distressedly.

While Grandma’s condition is important, so is her body.

“Oh, I see.”

Back at Riverside Villa, Isabella waited for Benjamin to leave before walking towards the garage, ready to drive to the laboratory by herself.

Eloise was drinking snacks in the garden. When she saw her, she said happily, “Isabella. you’re back? Come sit down and have a snack together. Is your friend okay? Do you need to ask the doctor to see her? What’s wrong with her?”

Last time Isabella just called and said a few words, so Eloise didn’t know the specific situation, but Isabella said on the phone that her friend had an accident and was seriously ill, and she would go abroad to visit her.

“She’s fine, don’t worry.” Isabella said gently, “Mom, I have something to go out now.”

“Going out again? It’s not long since you came back... Wait a little longer, I’ll ask the kitchen to squeeze a glass of fruit juice for you, and leave after drinking...”

“Come back and drink.”

“Then be careful on the road...”

Isabella drove to the laboratory and ordered the preparation of other medicines, which she developed by herself.

Meanwhile, Green received the news and immediately called Benjamin.

“Mr. Mason, the other party replied that they need to see Licorice and Rosa Root first, probably because they are afraid that we will lie to him.”

Benjamin controlled the steering wheel with one hand, and said in a casual tone, “Show him.”

“yes.....”

Green was a little surprised, he didn't expect Mr. Mason to be so talkative because of the old lady...

In normal times, if the other party wanted to inspect the goods first, -Mr. Mason would never talk to him.

it's dark.

Isabella handed over the medicine, “This is a three-day supply, one in the morning and one in the evening, a total of six packs.”

Some vegetative people need to be fed through a nasal feeding tube, but the old lady has a swallowing reflex and can drink liquid food with her mouth.

Benjamin didn't expect her to match up so quickly, and touched her face distressedly, “You didn't take a good rest when you went back?”

“I slept on the plane for a long time.” Isabella said lightly, “I still have something to do, so I’ll go back first.”

“What else is there?” Benjamin was reluctant to let go, “I’ll help you.”

Isabella wanted to say that he couldn’t help, but was afraid that he would follow her secretly, so she could only say, “It’s nothing, it’s about work.”

“Take care of work right after you come back?” Benjamin felt even more distressed, touched her face and said, “Then I’ll take you there.”

“No need, I will drive by myself.” Isabella looked at the time and reminded softly, “Remember to take the medicine for grandma.”

“Okay.” Benjamin followed her to the car, and told her worriedly, “Then you go back and pay attention to safety, call me if you need anything, and don’t carry it alone.”

“knew.”

Benjamin watched her walk away as soon as she stepped on the gas pedal, but he didn’t expect his little girl to be able to do everything in decathlon.

A little girl at this age is doing memorization and doing questions, but she can drive a car and start a career.

Dean looked at the direction where Isabella was leaving, and couldn’t help asking, “Sir, which famous doctor prescribed the medicine that Ms. Young prepared for the old lady? Do you want someone to test it?”

It’s not that he doesn’t believe in Ms. Young, but because of the old lady’s condition, no doctor has been able to figure out a way to treat it in recent years.

Not even Joseph could do anything about it.

Now that the old lady is in danger, she only has one breath left. I don't know if there will be any side effects after taking this medicine. I must be cautious, cautious, and more cautious.

Dean was afraid that Ms. Young would be deceived by outsiders due to her young age, and she wouldn't know if she took fake medicine...

"No one in this world has more effective medicine than her."

Hearing such a high evaluation from Benjamin, Dean was stunned for a moment, "Is this the medicine prescribed by Ms. Young herself?"

How old is she?

Are you going to prescribe medicine?

Although I heard that Ms. Young saved the old man twice before, and I know that she knows medicine, but many famous doctors are helpless for the old lady's condition...

With only one breath left now, can Ms. Young's medicine save the old lady?

Isn't she better than those famous doctors?

"Prepare the car. I'll take it to grandma."

Dean didn't expect Mr. to trust Ms. Young so much...

"Sir, then why do you still ask Mr. Pacon to see the old lady?"

Ms. Young has been given medicine...

After taking Ms. Young's medicine to save the old lady's life, Mr. Pacon is naturally unnecessary.

"It took a lot of trouble to find him, because I wanted to know if he could restore grandma from a vegetative state to a normal person.

Isabella's medicine can only temporarily save grandma's life...

As for whether he can return to a normal person, we have to listen to what Pacon has to say.

Dean understood, and bowed respectfully, "I'll go get the car ready."

At Ms. Young's age, being able to save the old lady's life is already a superb medical skill.

But if you want to change from a vegetable to a normal person, you still need an old famous doctor like Pacon to do it....

"Sir, I'll go with you. I haven't seen the old man and the old lady for a long time."

"Okay." Benjamin agreed.

Chapter 179 Mr. Paeon is a girl?

Before the red light, Isabella stopped the car and turned on her cell phone.

[Boss, this is a photo sent by the other party, please check if it is genuine.]

Isabella clicked on the picture and saw Licorice and Rosa Root.

No matter from the shape, color, texture, root hair part... It can be judged that these two things are genuine.

“Give me the location.”

[Boss, is it really genuine? The other party is too good, you can find these two treasures so quickly, we haven't found them for three whole months! I was worried that they would fool us with fake ones...]

I didn't expect it to be true!

[They want you to wait for them in the outskirts, where there is a small pavilion.]

Isabella replied OK, just when the green light came on, she stepped on the accelerator and came to the agreed place.

In order to deceive others, she parked the car in a remote location, got out of the car and walked to the small pavilion.

After a while, an unlicensed car came to her.

A man in a suit got out of the car. When he saw Isabella, he was slightly taken aback, “Are you Mr. Pacon's daughter or apprentice? We are looking for Mr. Pacon!”

“I am.”

“You?” The man in the suit looked at her for three seconds before reminding him. “Little girl, do you know the consequences of lying? You may not see the sun tomorrow... I advise you to be honest, if Mr. Pacon can't come because of something, we can discuss another day.”

“I am Pacon.” Isabella said with a cold aura all over her body, “It's truc.”

The man in the suit was stunned again for three seconds, then opened the car door, and said respectfully, “Sorry, Mr. Pacon, I got offended just now.”

Although his heart still can't believe that Mr. Pacon is a girl and still so young...

But in any case, let's take the person back first.

Isabella didn't bother with him, and sat in the back seat, and saw him handing something over.

“As agreed, you have to put on the blindfold and take it off when you're at the patient.”

Isabella knew that the other party didn't want her to remember the route, but they didn't know that she had a good sense of direction since she was a child, and even with the blindfold on, a complete track could still appear in her mind.

But Isabella didn't tell him about it, but put on a blindfold

Mr. Pacon is a girl?

symbolically, and sat calmly.

The man in the suit just got into the car, driving on small roads...

The exact age, gender, identity, and condition of the patient this time were unknown, and even the address was kept secret.

But Isabella went to Licorice and Rosa Root, because these two things can increase the level of acetylcholine in the brain, and can be synthesized with other Yushon Medicine, which is extremely helpful for the treatment of Alzheimer's disease.

The driver deliberately took a detour, went around in circles, and finally stopped at one place.

"Mr. Pacon, we've arrived, you can take off the blindfold."

Just now Isabella felt that the location was a bit familiar, and now she smelled a scent of flowers, which was also very familiar...

After taking off the blindfold, she found that the villa in front of her was more familiar...

Although the driver took her through the back door, Isabella quickly realized that the person who asked her to see a doctor was Benjamin?

The patient is grandma?

the other side.

Benjamin received the news in advance and knew that Mr. Pacon was coming soon, so he came to the back door to wait in advance.

As the car got closer and closer until it stopped...

The person in the car took off the blindfold and got out of the car, it turned out to be Isabella!!

Benjamin was a little surprised, Dean's eyes widened, and even Green couldn't believe it!

They have worked so hard to find the miracle doctor Pacon for several months, but it turned out to be Ms. Young again?

Seeing their expressions, the man in the suit hurriedly explained, "Mr. Mason, although I can't believe that Mr. Pacon is a girl, she swears that it's true..."

Seeing that Benjamin didn't respond, he bent over in fright and almost cried, "Mr. Mason. I just pick up people according to the agreement... If I make a mistake, please punish me!"

"You really surprise me time and time again." Benjamin stepped forward and touched the girl's delicate face. "I said I have something to deal with tonight, so that's it?"

"I didn't expect that the one with Licorice and Rosa Root is you."

"What do you want these two things for?" Benjamin knew that she still had a lot of secrets, so he said softly, "Instead of continuing to hide it, why don't you tell me as soon as possible, in case you accidentally fall off later?"

"We have a project to study Alzheimer's disease. These two drugs are needed. They can increase the level of acetylcholine in the brain, which is of great help to Alzheimer's patients."

So, his Isabella is still working on such a big project behind the scenes?

"There is nothing in this world that you don't know." Benjamin touched her face lovingly, "If you need any medicine in the future, just tell me, as long as I have it, I will give it to you."

"if there is not?"

“Go to heaven and carth, I will help you find it.” Benjamin held her hand, “Grandpa is waiting for you, if you know that you are Pacon, you will definitely be happier.”

“You came to me just to know if grandma can change from a vegetable to a normal person?”

Benjamin was a little surprised, he didn't expect that everything could not escape the eyes of the little girl.

How is his little girl so smart.

Just as Benjamin was about to speak, he heard the old man's voice.

“Is Mr. Pacon here? Get out of the way. I'm going to greet him personally...” Craig pushed aside a group of servants, and suddenly saw Benjamin appearing holding Isabella's hand, and he was stunned.

“Ms. Young is Mr. Pacon.” Green added respectfully.

Craig was even more confused. His precious granddaughter-in-law turned out to be Pacon, a well-known genius doctor in the world?

You must know that Pacon's medical skills are much better than the famous doctors around him...

It's just that few people can find her!

I didn't expect such a powerful doctor to be by my side every day!

“Isabella, you are amazing, you are so outstanding at such a young age!” Craig suddenly felt that his grandson was not good enough for her!

“I didn’t expect Pacon to save me twice...”

How lucky he is that Pacon can save people himself, twice, twice!

“Then Isabella, do you think your grandma can become a normal person?” This was the question that Craig was most concerned about, and it was also what Benjamin wanted to know the most.

Isabella said gently, “The medicine I prescribed to grandma is to help her recover. The specifics depend on the reaction after taking the medicine in the last three days. If there are no other conditions, I will continue to dispense the medicine. Within a month, grandma should be restored...”

Hearing this, Craig seemed to be hit by a huge surprise, and couldn’t believe his ears!

Benjamin was even more surprised, he didn’t expect his Isabella to really have a way!

Chapter 180 I Like This Granddaughter-in-law Very Much

Green, Dean, and other servants beside him couldn’t believe that Ms. Young’s medical skills were so good...

All the doctors couldn’t help, but she dared to guarantee that she would recover within a month.

She is not a human, but a god, right?

“The Mason family is so lucky to have a daughter-in-law like you...” Craig was so excited that his eyes were moist.

Great, my wife is finally saved!

Within a month, she'd be talking to him and taking walks with him like she used to!

This is something he never dared to dream of!

The sudden joy made Craig weep with joy, bent over grateful, "I thank you for your grandma first..."

"Grandpa, you are too polite." Isabella hurriedly reached out to support him.

In Isabella's perception, she just did a trivial thing, which is not worth mentioning...

But for everyone in the Mason family, it is already a life-saving grace that is as important as Mount Tai!

Green said respectfully: "Before Mr. Pacon was found. Ms. Young went to find medicine for the old lady without telling us. The place she went to was very dangerous, and she would lose her life if she was not careful, but she didn't back down. Originally, she You can skip this muddy water, or you can ask someone else to do it...but she didn't!"

When everyone heard this, they were surprised and had a lot more favorable impression of Isabella.

"Later, she worked tirelessly to find all the medicines. She raced against time to prepare them. If we hadn't happened to reveal her identity, we wouldn't have known that Ms. Young had paid so much for the old lady in private."

No need for others to say much, she has already taken the initiative to save people, she didn't take the opportunity to claim credit, and she didn't give herself a favor...

All in silence.

"My wife doesn't leave her name behind when she does good deeds. This style and this kind of mind make me admire you very much." Dean also bowed to Isabella, showing admiration.

“The young mistress has always kept a low profile. She is obviously a miracle doctor Pacon and a piano master Muise, but she never puts on airs in front of us and is very polite to us.”

“Congratulations, young master, for finding such a good life partner!”

“I’m not completely sure, it’s just a trial stage.” Isabella explained

I Like This Granddaughter-in-law Very Much lightly.

What she just said is yes, she should be able to recover.

As for whether it will work in the end, it still depends on the old lady’s own physical condition.

“Even if you are only 10% sure, grandpa will support you to try your best!” Craig gave her great confidence and trust, “I believe that if your grandma can speak, she will definitely support your idea.”

Instead of being a vegetable all your life, why not give it a try, in case a miracle happens?

“It’s more than 10% sure, maybe 70% to 80%, but there are still 100% to 20% variables, which cannot be ignored.” Isabella added gently. “I will do my best to heal grandma, and I also want to treat grandma in front of her. Thank you for the meeting ceremony.”

When everyone heard the words, they all looked at the crown necklace on her neck. In this world, she is probably the only one who is qualified to wear this necklace, right?

“Your grandma will be very happy to see you when she wakes up...” Craig’s eyes flushed again with excitement.

“Grandpa, don’t stand here anymore, let the young lady go in and have a meeting?” Bob reminded, supporting Craig’s arm.

“Yes, yes, look at my brain, I get so excited that my precious granddaughter-in-law gets tired!” Craig said with a smile, “Come on, follow me in for a while, old man, let someone make some of Isabella’s favorite snacks, And juice...”

Isabella wanted to say no, but couldn’t keep the old man happy, so she followed her into the house...

After eating some snacks, Isabella got up and said, “It’s time for me to go back.”

It’s getting late again.

I guess my brother fell asleep again...

I have been so busy these two days that I didn’t even take care of my family.

“Benjamin, get Isabella to your door safely. Call Isabella when you get home, don’t worry her...”

Craig told his grandson unrelentingly, and then turned to Isabella and said. “When your grandma recovers, we will visit the door together... Good boy, fortunately, you are here, the Mason family is grateful for your care... It has been hard work recently is you.”

Next, I have to dispense medicine, and I have to come to see my wife frequently to see her recovery. This child is really hard work!

Knowing that this kid still has the Logan family’s company to take care of...

While Craig felt that she had outstanding abilities, he felt sorry for her suffering.

“It’s not hard.” Seeing Craig cough twice, Isabella cared. “It’s windy outside, you go inside first, so you don’t catch a cold.”

“It’s okay, I’ll see you off...” Craig walked with Isabella, which was still some distance from the gate.

He rambled, “I remembered the scene when you saved me for the first time...”

At that time, all the doctors advocated giving him tranquilizers, but only this little girl resisted all opinions...

If she hadn’t acted bravely and “meddled in her own business”, he would have died long ago!

“If it weren’t for you, I wouldn’t have the opportunity to take a walk with you here, waiting for my wife to wake up...”

“It’s all fate.” Isabella smiled lightly, “Okay, let’s send it here, and you quickly enter the house.”

Although his health has improved a lot, he still needs to pay more attention.

“I’ll see when I’m free these two days. I’ll eat here with Benjamin. Lunch and dinner are fine. After eating, we can chat and take a walk...”

Not to mention other abilities, just chatting with the little girl makes him feel happy...

The little girl is not like other girls who flatter him deliberately, and get along with him carefully... She always has something to say, but she can take care of his feelings...

“Okay, I’ll come when I have time.” Isabella got into the car, and after the car started, through the rearview mirror, she saw her grandfather standing where she was, watching her leave.

“Grandpa really likes you.” Benjamin said gently.

This kind of liking is not because the little girl saved him and his wife...

It’s the little girl’s way of life, which is very appetizing to him...

Sending the little girl to Riverside Villa, Benjamin took out two boxes containing Licorice and Rosa Root.

Isabella was a little surprised, there were a few more plants than what was said in advance!

“These are my collections, you use them first.” Benjamin put the box in her hand, “I’ll find some more later.”

“No need.” Isabella knew that these two things were priceless, and the amount alone was worth at least a billion dollars.

Benjamin patted her head lovingly, “Go in, I’ll pick you up tomorrow morning.”

“Yeah.” Isabella entered the room with two wooden boxes in her arms, the phone vibrated a few times suddenly, and a call came in.
