

Chased Her 191

Chapter 191 Falling Down

“Mom, are you okay, Mom!” Daisy rushed over, trying to help Gail up.

“It hurts, it hurts... don’t touch me...” Gail was lying on the grass in a state of distress, tears flowed from the pain.

“Isabella, you are too much!” Seeing that Isabella wanted to leave, Daisy caught up with her in two or three steps, grabbed her arm, and wanted to have a good argument with her.

Isabella hated her touch, and as soon as she raised her hand to shake it off, Daisy fell to the grass exaggeratedly, with a painful expression on her face.

“Miss Daisy, are you alright?” The servant at the side hurried forward to help her.

Daisy’s tears fell, but she pretended to be stubborn and said, “I’m fine... don’t worry.”

“Isabella, how can you treat your mother and sister like this!” Michael couldn’t believe it, this girl turned out to be like this. Not only did she teach the servants a lesson, she even ignored her mother and sister.

“You said it yourself, I have nothing to do with this family.” Isabella’s eyes were extremely cold, “If I find out that you stole grandma’s things again, I will chop off your hands and feed them to the dogs!”

“You...don’t stop her for me!” Gail burst into tears in pain, and ordered the servants around, “Close the door and give me a good beating!”

Isabella made her way easily and swaggered away from the Brown family villa.

The Brown family really opened their eyes, is this still the old Isabella? It's been less than a month since I left, so much has changed...

"Mom, are you alright?" Daisy hurried forward to ask for warmth.

Gail gritted his teeth with hatred, "Damn girl, if you don't teach her a lesson, you really think we are easy to bully..."

Michael sighed. He thought Isabella had figured it out and wanted to cooperate with them, but it didn't happen...

Isabella left the Brown family and delivered something to Old Madam Brown, the phone suddenly vibrated.

[Isabella, what are you up to?]

It's a message from my brother.

Isabella tapped the screen with her finger, and quickly replied: "Take care of something outside."

[Do you want to go home for dinner tonight? ]

"Back."

"It's fine if you're not picky about food."

Matthew has always been concise and concise. After replying "yes", he didn't see his sister sending again, so he started typing again.

[Don't be too busy, pay attention to your body. ]

After thinking about it, he added: [See you tonight. ]

Isabella sent an OK expression and put the phone away.

Matthew didn't expect his sister to be more succinct than him, so he smiled and said to Noah who was beside him, "Try to move ahead in the afternoon, I want to go home early to accompany Isabella."

Noah's eyes widened. He seemed to see Boss smiling just now. He has been with Boss for seven or eight years. Boss seems to be a little different to this sister.

After Isabella accompanied Old Madam Brown, she just took a taxi back to the company when she saw Benjamin's car parked not far away.

The man who got out of the car was tall and handsome, causing several passers-by to stare at him...

There was still half an hour before the end of get off work, and Isabella thought that if she came back earlier, he would not find out.

Unexpectedly, he came half an hour early.

"Where did you go?" Benjamin stepped forward and gently smoothed her broken hair, "You can tell me if you want to use the car next time."

He didn't want the girl to go outside to take a taxi.

Falling Down

"Go out to deal with something, why are you here so early?" Isabella looked up at him. "Or, are you so early every day?"

“There’s nothing to do recently.” Benjamin looked at her dotingly.

That being said, only Green knows that Mr. Mason speeds up his work every day just to pick up Ms. Young earlier and get closer to her...

At this point, Mr. Mason has spared time to fall in love, but his special assistant is still in the aftermath of the group!

“I’m going home for dinner tonight, so I can’t accompany you.”

“Okay.” Benjamin patted her head and opened the car door for her.

Along the way, Isabella asked about grandma’s situation, and chatted about each other’s work. After a while, they arrived at Riverside Villa.

Benjamin unbuckled her seat belt, opened the car door, and hugged her reluctantly, “Can you spare time to accompany me another day?”

“Okay.” Isabella turned around, and when she was about to enter the gate, she suddenly found that the ground was shiny with oil, should it be oil?

In sunlight, large areas of oil look like water shapes...

It is estimated that to cover up the oil, someone washed the garden with water, and the ground is wet...

If you don’t look carefully, you really can’t see it...

Who spilled oil here?

In one of the windows of the main house, there seemed to be a pair of eyes secretly watching the movement here through the curtains.

Isabella stepped on the water stains on the ground calmly, avoided the oil on the ground perfectly, and walked directly inside.

“She just came in like that?” Scarlet, who was hiding behind the curtain, couldn’t believe it, “I deliberately knocked over two barrels of oil, why isn’t it slippery at all?”

Cecilia felt very sorry, “Did the oil wash away when I washed the garden?”

“It stands to reason that Isabella will fall!”

But, she came in so calmly!

At this time, Isabella walked into the main house, and the two of them hurriedly pretended to discuss the style of curtains in fright.

“Ms. Logan, do you want to change the curtains in your room to this floral pattern?”

“Yeah, don’t you think it’s pretty?”

“Benjamin is looking for you.” Isabella said casually as she passed Cecilia, “He has something to tell you.”

Benjamin looking for her?

Cecilia was ecstatic and was about to rush out, but Scarlet stopped her with a wink!

It stands to reason that the young master of the Mason family

Could it be that Isabella found the cooking oil on the ground and wanted to trick Ms. Logan into wrestling?

Isabella went up two flights of stairs and said casually, "He's there, if you don't want to go, at least have someone notify him."

Why don't you want to go!

Cecilia wants to talk to Benjamin in her dreams!

She rushed out of the main house, Scarlet hurried to catch up, "Ms. Logan, slow down, the ground is full of oil."

"It's okay, Isabella slipped and fell when she came in just now, if you're worried, let's walk slowly!"

Before Cecilia finished speaking, the soles of her feet slipped, and she fell backwards all of a sudden.

"Ms. Logan!" Scarlet was about to help her up, but he couldn't help her up, so he also fell down.

Isabella stood on the balcony of the room, watched the two of them fall, and called Benjamin, "Now, you can go."

When she came in just now, she sent a message to Benjamin and asked him to wait for a while.

Benjamin raised the corners of his lips, "You said there was a good show to watch, but this one?"

"Um."

Benjamin didn't expect these two femme fatales to want to make

Isabella fall. "I'll go in and talk to uncle."

"Need not

This little thing won't alarm Dad.

in the living room.

Cecilia and Scarlet were carried in, lying on two sofas respectively, their expressions changed due to the pain.

Eloise rushed over after hearing the news, "What's going on? Come on, please call the doctor."

"Mom, I fell, and Scarlet fell to help me too..."

Due to stepping on the oil, the inertia of falling down is greater and more painful.

"Let me see..." Seeing that there were women all around, Eloise gently lifted the clothes behind Cecilia and saw that her entire back was bruised!

"I didn't take good care of Miss, Madam, please punish me!" Scarlet also burst into tears in pain, this damn Isabella, the ground is slippery like this, how can she be fine?

Did she discover that there was oil on the ground from the very beginning?

impossible!

With her eyes, how could she detect it?

Even if she found out, how could she perfectly avoid the oil stains on the ground and swagger into the house?

“Cecilia said that you fell down to help her. It’s too late for me to thank you. How could I punish you!”

“It’s my job to protect Miss.”

“But it’s fine, how did it fall? Where did it fall?”

“Madam doesn’t know. Ms. Young said that Mr. Mason had something to do with Ms. Logan. Ms. Logan was afraid that Mr. Mason would wait for a long time, so she wanted to speed up her pace. Unexpectedly, she fell down before reaching the gate!”

As soon as Scarlet finished speaking, someone beside him added in a timely manner, “I just went to look at the place where Ms. Logan fell. I don’t know when someone spilled oil on the ground...”

“Why is there oil on the ground in the garden?” Eloise asked with a questioning face.

“I also find it strange that when Ms. Young told Ms. Logan to go there, there was oil on the ground...”

Eloise got angry, “You mean, all of this was framed by Isabella?”

“I didn’t mean that, I was just guessing...” She hurriedly bowed down to admit her mistake, “Ms. Logan treats me like a sister, and seeing her fall like this. I was just impatient...”

“What’s going on?” Williams rushed over upon hearing the news, and after hearing what had happened, he saw the two fell like this, and hurriedly asked, “Why hasn’t Doctor arrived yet?”

“I’m on the way. They say there are fifteen minutes left.”

“Tell the driver to hurry up.”

Dividing into pages now

“yes!”

“Don’t you find it strange?”

The person who spoke was on good terms with Scarlet on weekdays, and had stayed in this family for twelve years.

Relying on her old status, she said coldly, “Mr. Mason usually only looks for Ms. Young, why did he suddenly look for Ms. Logan today? But, when Ms. Logan went out, there was oil on the ground. It was a coincidence! ”

Eloise gave her a displeased look, “What do you mean by that?”

“In order not to wrong the innocent person, nor to let go of the person who framed Ms. Logan, I ask Ms. Young to come down and explain what happened, and request that the monitoring be adjusted!”

“Nonsense!” Eloise didn’t expect this servant to be so bold as to make such a request, “I think you are an old man in the family, and I don’t care about you, but I won’t give you the same chance again, so do it yourself!”

“I heard that someone is looking for me?”

At this moment, Isabella walked down the spiral staircase disapprovingly, followed by Myra.

Myra should have told her everything about the living room.

“Isabella, why did you come down?” Eloise looked at Myra again, “Who told you to invite Ms. Young down?”

“It’s because their voices are too loud.” Isabella came to the crowd and glanced casually, “Didn’t you want to adjust the surveillance?”

“Isabella...”

“Tune it up.” Isabella’s tone was very calm, “I also want to see if someone is playing with fire and setting themselves on fire.”

The man was quite dissatisfied with her in his heart, but he still said on the surface, “Since it was requested by Ms. Young herself, then I will call it out for everyone to see...”

I believe everyone also has doubts in their hearts, what happened to all this, and how Ms. Logan fell! ”

“If the person who framed Ms. Logan hides in the dark and sees Ms. Logan fall like this, and doesn’t need to bear the consequences, wouldn’t everyone be able to climb on top of Ms. Logan? Ms. Logan still wants to know how much suffering? Does she have any status in this family?”

Isabella leaned leisurely on the single sofa, Myra poured her a glass of lemonade, she took a sip, and said casually, “Don’t talk nonsense.”

“Tune.”

“You wait!” The man went to adjust the monitoring, and soon, the big TV screen was showing the monitoring picture in the afternoon.

At half past five, the screen suddenly turned into black and white bars, and then, the time jumped to six in the afternoon.

Isabella walked into the gate, and it didn't take long for Scarlet to accompany Cecilia out of the main building. Before she got close to the carved gate, Cecilia slipped and fell, and Scarlet also fell to help her.

"It doesn't look like anyone's fault, Ms. Young didn't do anything, neither did Ms. Logan!"

"Both of them look innocent!"

"You misunderstood Ms. Young. At this time, Ms. Young just came home from get off work."

"yes."

Several maids spoke for Isabella one after another.

"No! You can see clearly, this is the place, Ms. Young didn't fall when she passed by, why did Ms. Logan fall!"

When everyone saw it, it was true that both Ms. Logan and Ms. Young passed by this place.

"Ms. Young must have known in advance that there was oil in this place, so she avoided it! But Ms. Logan didn't know, and fell down when she walked over!"

In other words, this oil was sprinkled by Ms. Young!

"Nonsense! Ms. Young doesn't have time to commit crimes until she gets home from work at six o'clock!" Myra stood up and accused, "How dare you slander Ms. Young! You are so brave!"

“This monitoring was bought by my wife abroad with a lot of money. It has not been broken in the past five years, but it happened that the half-hour monitoring from 5:30 to 6:00 was deleted. Then, at 6:00 Upon arrival, Ms. Young appeared on the screen!”

“What do you mean!” Myra couldn’t listen anymore, and stood in front of Isabella. “Ms. Young just arrived at this house, and she doesn’t even know where the oil is! You don’t want to slander her!”

“That’s also possible. You told her?”

“Nonsense!”

“I heard that Ms. Young came home from get off work, dismissed

Chapter 193 Benjamin’s Assist

Isabella:??

Can’t she go upstairs and go back to her room?

“Everyone knows that the monitoring room is on the third floor! Ms. Young turned away all eyes on purpose, didn’t she just want to go upstairs and delete the monitoring?”

Isabella: ...

“What proof do you have?” Myra was furious.

“You have no evidence to prove that Ms. Young is innocent!”

“Enough—” Eloise couldn’t listen anymore, and her eyes fell on the servant with displeasure, “You are really getting more and more presumptuous. Isabella is my biological daughter, you are here to sow discord, and you don’t want to spend the rest of your life Did you go back to your hometown to retire?”

“Ma’am, Ms. Logan has been kind to me all these years. She is so hurt that I have to stand up! If I misunderstood Ms. Young, I would kowtow and apologize to her afterwards, but now, I ask Ms. Young to give me An explanation! Why didn’t you fall when you passed the same place as Ms. Logan?”

“Oh, because I saw oil in that place.” Isabella said casually.

No one else saw it, no wonder it was on her head!

“She really knows that there is oil in that place! I also want to ask, why did Mr. Mason find Ms. Logan for no reason? Are you lying? Mr. Mason didn’t find her at all! You made it up to harm Ms.. Logan slipped?”

Thinking of this, Cecilia looked at Isabella in astonishment, did this damn girl lie?

Benjamin wasn’t looking for her at all...

If that’s the case, she must tear this little bitch up!

Why is Benjamin looking for her, this is something you can ask?” Isabella thought it was funny.

“Mr. Mason has a noble status, so naturally I can’t get involved, but Ms. Young can!”

Meaning, tell her to call Benjamin?

Williams was about to tell her to pack up and get out of the house when Isabella spoke up.

“OK, no problem.”

Isabella casually took out her mobile phone, dialed Benjamin's number, and turned on the speakerphone.

While Cecilia was nervous, she secretly hoped that Benjamin would really come to her for something!

If Isabella lied to her, then she would never let this little bitch go!

Soon, the other party picked up.

"Isabella."

Benjamin Ast

Every time Benjamin called Isabella's name, his voice was very pleasant, a little provocative, and pampering and pampering.

His bubbly voice has a charming timbre. "Did you cat?"

It sounds great.

"not yet."

"Are you hungry?"

"Not hungry."

"It's rare to call me." Benjamin's voice sounded cheerful, "I just missed you, what are you doing?"

Cecilia didn't expect Benjamin to spoil Isabella so much in private!

“I drive the speakerphone.” In order to prevent him from saying more intimate words, Isabella said directly, “What do you want Cecilia to do this afternoon?”

Kicked the problem directly to him.

Hands-free? What’s the matter with Cecilia?

Benjamin reacted instantly, “It’s nothing.”

Cecilia was a little disappointed. At first, she thought that Benjamin wanted to confess to her, or ask her where to meet, drink coffee, chat and so on.

“I want to tell her that I only like you.”

“The last time I went to your house for breakfast, my uncle and aunt hadn’t woken up yet. She expressed her wish to me, but I refused.”

Benjamin’s Assist

Cecilia’s eyes widened, never expecting that Benjamin would mention this!

Scarlet couldn’t believe it, but Mr. Mason actually said it...

This is hands-free!

Sure enough, while Williams and Eloise couldn’t believe it, their faces were extremely ugly.

“I don’t like her. First, I want her to give up. Second, I don’t want her to hurt my uncle and aunt. Third, I want to warn her not to bully you again.”

The word “again” was used so cleverly that everyone was dumbfounded. This means that Ms. Logan often bullies Ms. Young in private?

This is a huge amount of information!

“You are kind.” Benjamin’s tone was pampering and distressed. “Usually, I am not allowed to come out, and I am not allowed to have a good talk with my uncle and aunt. Don’t think I don’t know. You have been wronged at home.”

Isabella was intrigued, the guy was quite talkative.

When Williams and Eloise heard this, the baby girl was wronged when she came back to this home! Immediately more heartache, angrier!

“You are afraid that they will be sad, but if you don’t tell them the truth, you are the one who is sad. You have suffered too much alone.”

“Not all kindness can be exchanged for return, although I know you don’t expect return, you are such a simple person.”

Benjamin’s Assist

Benjamin knew that she was driving a hands-free, and deliberately said to some people, “No matter what she does, I only like you.”

Cecilia was completely stunned like a lightning strike!

The audience is silent....

Everyone couldn't believe that Ms. Logan's ambitions were so big. she seduced Mr. Mason in private, and even bullied Ms. Young!

"Dad, Mom, it's not what you think..." Cecilia wanted to get up and explain, but her whole body hurt so badly that she fell off the sofa as soon as she moved, and all the bones in her body were so painful that they fell apart.

"You mean. Benjamin is lying?" Eloise didn't believe that kid Benjamin would lie, and in his capacity, he didn't need to wrong anyone!

"We treat you as our own daughter, but you tried to seduce Isabella's fiancé and bully her when we couldn't see it!" Eloise slapped the table angrily.

Cecilia was so scared that she quickly crawled to her feet, "Mom, you misunderstood! That was before! I did have a little thought about him that I shouldn't have! But later I let it go! I really let it go!!"

"Ma'am, don't be led astray! Today's investigation is about Ms. Logan's fall!" The servant hurriedly changed the subject.

"Shut up!" Eloise knew that this servant was not a good person!

"Don't want the truth?" Isabella's voice reached everyone's ears casually, "Then I'll give you the truth! Myra, please bring me the laptop in the room,"

"Yes." Myra hurried to get it.

Soon, Isabella typed strings of codes on the keyboard in front of everyone.

Everyone watched as a large piece of code appeared densely on the computer screen. Although they didn't know what she was doing, it seemed that she was very powerful!

Williams and Eloise were also a little confused by their daughter's operation. What are they doing?

After a while, the monitoring from 5:30 pm to 6:00 pm was restored!

Scarlet couldn't believe it and was stunned for a few seconds, and hurriedly looked over!

That person couldn't believe it, how could it be that the surveillance within half an hour was clearly deleted by her own hands!

She also emptied the recycle bin!

Chapter 194 The Truth

How did Isabella recover?

"This is the truth you want." Isabella clicked to play at triple speed.

At 5:30 in the afternoon, a truck was parked at the gate, and Scarlet took a few servants to the truck to move things.

Sitting on the sofa, Eloise remembered that in the middle of every month, the rice, oil and salt at home would be delivered to the door by a special driver.

From the monitoring point of view, the door of the truck was opened, and several servants brought out a lot of things from inside and walked into the house, including rice, various seasonings, and barrels of cooking oil...

Scarlet carried two barrels by herself, and accidentally tripped over the threshold when entering the gate, fell forward, and spilled the two barrels of cooking oil on the floor.

The servant who was walking in front heard the sound and wanted to come over to help, but was stopped by Scarlet. From Scarlet's movements, it is not difficult to guess that she should have said that there is oil on the ground, don't come over, be careful and slip.

A servant pointed to the clothes, as if to say: Your clothes are all dirty, hurry up and change them in the house.

Scarlet looked down at her clothes, and called the truck driver again, as if asking why the two barrels of oil were not tightly capped.

After a while, Scarlet made a detour into the house to change.

It may have been a long time, and I forgot to call someone to clean up the ground.

It seems that all of this happened by accident, but Isabella still sees a clue.

First of all, Scarlet is responsible for taking care of Cecilia's personal nanny, and there is no need to help with things at all.

Secondly, she waited until all the servants had finished collecting their things and entered the house before she went to the truck to get oil by herself...

When she took it, she dawdled for a while, probably because it took some time to unscrew the bottle cap with her hands. At this time, the truck door blocked all her movements, and she could only see her feet standing there for a while.

She is an old man in the family, so she naturally knows where the surveillance is directed, so when she entered the door, she deliberately tripped over the threshold, pretending that everything happened by accident...

“It’s all my fault! I had nothing to do to help me get things. I didn’t expect that the two barrels of oil were not tightly capped. Xiao Yu and the others let me enter the house to change clothes. I had just finished changing when Ms. Logan called me over to have some snacks. I didn’t dare to refuse Ms. Logan’s kindness, I forgot the oil on the ground for a while, and I didn’t ask someone to clean it up, it was all my fault!”

Scarlet said, pretending to be remorseful, and was about to stand up and apologize.

But the pain in her body made her fall back to the sofa again and again.

“Why isn’t the lid closed tightly?” Eloise asked the others in a cold voice. “No one cleaned up the ground when the oil was spilled? Scarlet, when you and Cecilia fell, you should have thought of it, but I just asked you why you fell, you didn’t even mention it! Seeing she beating around the bush and wronging Isabella, you didn’t stand up and speak out!”

“Ma’am, I was wrong! It hurts too much when I felt like this. My mind is full of pain from the bones and nerves. I didn’t think about it for a while, and my brain is not working well when I am old. Please punish me!”

“Ma’am, it’s all my fault. I saw that Ms. Logan was injured, and I said something wrong in a moment of anxiety. Please forgive me!” She also hastily apologized.

One of the servants was also eager to explain: “At that time, we came in after moving our things. Ms. Logan said that we had worked hard, so he let us have some snacks, and we forgot after eating...”

When she said this, she lowered her head.

“The truck driver said that it might not be checked before it was delivered, and something like this happened last year...”

“Madam, it’s all our fault, please punish!”

“Punishment?” Eloise gave them a condescending look, “Of course they will be punished! If Isabella hadn’t resumed monitoring, how would she be wronged by you now?”

“I’m sorry, Ms. Young!” Several servants were trembling with fear, and hurriedly knelt down. “I’m sorry, Ma’am, I’m sorry, Ms. Logan, it’s all our fault...”

It’s all because of their gluttony, and Ms. Logan kept asking them about their health and chatting about things, so they forgot about it.

“Scarlet, your duty is to take care of Cecilia. Although you are kind enough to help carry things, but the oil spilled, you should at least call other people to clean it up. You said you forgot when you were too old, I can understand, because you took care of her. Cecilia has 18 years, and now she falls like this, you will be fined one month’s salary, no exception.”

Scarlet was grateful, and looked at Isabella provocatively, as if to say, what can you do with me.

Isabella curled her lips slightly, as if everything was in her expectation.

“You guys, you forgot to clean the floor after eating snacks, causing Cecilia to fall down, and almost made Isabella suffer unjustly, and fine you two months’ salary!”

A few people were grateful, thankful that they were not kicked out...

You must know that the treatment of the Logan family is one of the best!

“And you! I know what you said just now!”

“Ma’am, it’s all my fault. Ms. Logan has been very kind to me all these years. She got hurt like this. I was too anxious, so I misunderstood Ms. Young. I apologize to Ms. Young!”

She said just now that if she really misunderstood Isabella, she would kneel down and kowtow to admit her mistake!

At this moment, she knelt down in front of Isabella, “Ms. Young, it’s all my fault for talking nonsense in a moment of impatience. please forgive me! I’m from the countryside, I have no education! I beg you to see that I have devoted myself to this family for twelve years. For your sake, please forgive me this time? I kowtow to you!”

She really bent down and kowtowed three times in a row!

In any case, it is important to keep your job first.

Isabella’s eyes fell on her leisurely, and the corners of her lips twitched, “When you deleted the monitoring, did you ever think that I would be misunderstood, disgusted, and looked at in a strange way?”

Everyone looked at her in shock! She deleted the monitoring?

“Because this kind of high-end surveillance equipment, in order to prevent people with malicious intentions from deleting the surveillance, the front camera will automatically take pictures and save them when deleting. You deleted the surveillance content for half an hour, but forgot to delete your own photos.”

“Ms. Young, I was wrong, please forgive me...”

Scarlet was secretly anxious in her heart, the surveillance equipment didn’t have a front camera at all, Isabella was trying to bluff people, but she was frightened, so she didn’t tell herself!

“At this moment, why haven’t you revealed who is behind the scenes?” Isabella’s expression was calm, and her voice was even more disapproving.

But she was already in a cold sweat, subconsciously looking at Scarlet and Cecilia..

The two of them also looked at her nervously, as if saying. Don't say it, don't betray us!

Chapter 195 Who is it?

Williams and Eloise glanced at each other, as if they both had doubts, was all this ordered by someone?

who is it?

Who wants to kill Isabella?

"It's my fault. I saw that Ms. Young came back to this house, and Ms. Logan was neglected, so I hated Ms. Young in my heart, and wanted to find a chance to embarrass her... I wanted to make her fall, But I didn't expect Ms. Logan to fall in the end..."

Saying so, she cried and knelt down in front of Cecilia, "I'm sorry Ms. Logan, I didn't expect to hurt you, I'm really sorry..."

In the end, she carried everything alone...

Cecilia said heartbroken, "Although you love me, you used the wrong method. I was not neglected in this family. On the contrary, you almost wronged her and made my parents angry. You really let me down!"

"I'm sorry Ms. Logan, I failed to live up to your kindness to me all these years..."

Scarlet also added fuel to the side, "You shouldn't, you shouldn't have taken the opportunity to delete the monitoring. If you do this, others will mistakenly think that I spilled oil on purpose, and I will collude with you to let you delete the monitoring to harm Ms. Young... .."

“I’m sorry, it’s my own fault, it’s none of your business.”

She knew that Ms. Logan would definitely compensate her twice afterwards, so she took all the responsibility on herself. “No one instructed me about this matter. I was jealous of Ms. Young and wanted to deal with her, and it had nothing to do with Ms. Logan.” thing.....”

“You go, this family will not keep you anymore, and you and your family will not be allowed to enter all the properties under the name of the Logan family!” Eloise said this, and looked at another young girl. “You go too, who dares to disrespect Isabella in the future, the end will be the same!”

“Yes!” The other servants bent down one after another, thinking, Madam is so kind to Ms. Young!

“Now, it’s your turn.” Eloise’s eyes fell on Cecilia with a hint of coldness.

Cecilia hurriedly hugged her leg and cried, “Mom, listen to me. I used to have fantasies about my brother-in-law, because he was my only fiancé since I was a child. My love for him is justified, but suddenly One day, my sister appeared.”

“I couldn’t hold back my affection for him. I made a mistake for a while and said something I should not have said to him.

Afterwards, Scarlet severely criticized me, and I also realized my mistake. I swear, I will treat him as my brother-in-law in the future If you don’t believe me, ask Scarlet, I haven’t even seen him during this time! How could I pester him!”

“Ma’am, Ms. Logan is telling the truth, and she has had a boyfriend since then!”

Cecilia:??

Everyone:??

Williams and Eloise were even more stunned, “Boyfriend??”

Russell White from the White family. He has been chasing Ms. Logan since junior high school, and has been pursuing Ms. Logan for six years now. A while ago, Ms. Logan was completely moved by him and agreed to try to date him..."

Scarlet said very sincerely, "Because we have only been dating for a few days, there are too many uncertain factors, so I haven't told Mrs. Madam for now, it's not intentional to hide it!"

"I wanted to wait until the end of the summer vacation to tell you..." Cecilia said this, with a shy and sweet face of a girl, and it could be seen that she was really in love with Russell.

"Are you and Russell really dating?" Eloise asked dubiously.

"Ma'am, I stay by Ms. Logan's side day and night, I can testify! I see that they often chat until midnight, and they go on dates more than once! These days Ms. Logan has been going out frequently, just to see him!"

"Scarlet!" Cecilia called falsely, as if blaming Scarlet for revealing her secret.

Scarlet hurriedly said, "Ms. Logan, if you have someone who cares and loves you, Mrs. Madam will be happy for you. It doesn't matter if you tell me. If you don't believe me, Mr. White will appear again tonight, saying that he will bring Ms. Logan goes to the movies, and then you'll know if I'm telling the truth!"

Williams and Eloise glanced at each other, if Scarlet and Cecilia lied and pulled someone out, how could that person just ask Cecilia to watch a movie tonight?

If Cecilia really has someone she likes, it's a good thing, and she won't miss Benjamin anymore.

They knew Cecilia, if she really couldn't let go of Benjamin, she couldn't agree to another boy's pursuit and still be with him!

So, they're actually dating..

Myra couldn't help but said, "Just now I asked Ms. Young to call Mr. Mason to prove her innocence, so can Ms. Logan also call Mr. White and ask Mr. White to tell whether they are really dating?"

"You don't believe in Ms. Logan? Or don't you believe me? Do you think I just pulled someone out? Even if I pulled it out, how could Ms. Logan really date people casually? Ms. Logan is someone who has pursuit! Besides, if I made it up now, how would I know that person is free to ask Ms. Logan to watch a movie tonight!"

"you....."

"Besides, Ms. Logan and Mr. White have only started dating for a few days. If you call and ask now, it will only make people feel inexplicable and affect the young man's feelings!"

The White family is also in a good family, although not as strong as the Logan family, but the difference is not far behind...

Russell is also good looking, a flexible kid.

Eloise said again, "Then why did you bully Isabella in private?"

"Ma'am, you really misunderstood!" Scarlet once again grabbed the topic and helped explain.

"Could it be that because she is always nice to Ms. Logan, she can blame Ms. Logan for the stupid things she did, then Ms. Logan is too wronged!"

"Ms. Logan never hit Ms. Young, nor scolded Ms. Young."

“Dad, Mom, if I really bully Isabella, I will die a terrible death.” Cecilia knew that her poisonous vow would not be fulfilled, so she became more and more harsh, “I was hit by a car when I went out. and I choked to death. He was killed by a high-altitude parabolic while walking...”

“Enough!” Eloise couldn’t listen anymore, “If you really don’t have other thoughts about Benjamin, and you don’t instruct others to bully Isabella, then this matter is fine, but if I find out that you bully Isabella, you still have feelings for Benjamin.” fantasy.....

“No. Mom, you have raised me for eighteen years, and I won’t take revenge.” Cecilia said a lot more.

At this time, the doctor arrived, and Cecilia hurriedly pretended to be in pain, pestered Eloise with grievances, and talked about her childhood.

Matthew just came back, saw this scene, couldn’t help asking, “What’s wrong?”

“I accidentally fell down...” Cecilia was helped by the servants to lie down on the sofa, making a pitiful look.

“How did you fall?”

Before Matthew walked over, he put the things he bought on the road in front of Isabella, “See if you like it?”

“You’re biased, she has it. I don’t!” Cecilia pouted pretending to be jealous, looking contrived and disgusting.

“Is there anything you didn’t have before?” Matthew said this, and added, “Besides, you don’t need it.”

What can’t she use?

Cecilia watched eagerly...

Isabella opened the small gift box, which was a set of limited- edition lipsticks.

Chapter 196 centric

“Isabella can use it when she goes to work. I heard that many girls are grabbing this suit recently.”

He contacted the brand owner directly, and the brand owner wanted to give him a few sets, but he didn't want it and just bought it.

What he gave to his sister has a different meaning from what the brand owner gave.

Cecilia is a little annoyed, she can use lipstick at the banquet and birthday party.

“Thank you.” Isabella said gently.

Matthew felt better after hearing it, and his eyes softened a little. “If you need anything in the future, just tell me, and I'll buy it for you.”

At this time, the doctor checked Cecilia and found that it was just bruises and redness, which was not a serious problem.

When the servants applied the medicine to Cecilia, Cecilia cried out that it hurts from time to time, and frequently interrupted the conversation between the siblings.

The doctor was not good at talking, it was just bruises and redness. Women are hypocritical, shouting like this, those who don't know think they have broken bones.

Isabella's cell phone vibrated twice, it was a call from grandpa, she stood up and said, “I'm going upstairs first.”

“Isabella.” Matthew still wanted to chat with her for a while, but he seemed a little unhappy when he saw her leaving?

What happened?

At this time Scarlet hurriedly said, “Master, look at Ms. Logan, she keeps crying for pain...”

Matthew glanced at her reproachfully. “Come here, help Ms. Logan upstairs to rest, and invite her after dinner.”

“Brother, do I really hurt...” Cecilia said coquettishly again.

“Grandpa.” Isabella walked up the stairs with a gentle voice, “How are you?”

“Not good, not good at all! It’s been almost a month, and I haven’t called grandpa! I’m tired of staying with those old men every day! The last time someone was showing off cating with you in front of me Already! Hmph, don’t take me either! Leave me behind!”

Through the mobile phone, Isabella could imagine his expression of blowing his beard and staring with anger, and couldn’t help but smile lightly, “It was his birthday last time.”

“I don’t care, I will go to you in two days! You also have to have a meal with me, and you have to cat more than him. I want to take pictures for him to compare him with! Oh yes, the test results will be out soon Okay, let me say it first, you are not allowed to consider other universities, even if you want to go to school to have fun, you must think of me!”

Isabella raised the corner of her lips, “OK.”

After chatting a few more words over there, I hung up the phone.

Cecilia was helped to the room, and put a diamond bracelet into Scarlet's hand. "It's not convenient for me to transfer money to them now, so don't make it too obvious, find a few reliable people, and ask them to transfer money to their accounts respectively." Transfer some money over there."

If it weren't for them today, her image would be completely ruined!

"Remember, don't leave a handle."

"Don't worry." Scarlet put away the bracelet. Knowing that it was worth a million dollars, she couldn't help but ask, "Miss, what do you mean, give each person half a million?"

"One person is 250,000 dollar, and the remaining 500,000 dollar is yours. You fell and hurt me to help me today. If you hadn't helped me speak and made up a boyfriend temporarily, I saw my mother's expression, as if to kill me!"

The more Cecilia thought about it, the angrier she became, "Obviously she agreed to treat me as her own daughter, but when I have a conflict of interest with her daughter, she still can't help but say to help her own people! To her, I am an outsider!"

"Miss, madam is already very tolerant."

"And brother, I don't have a share to buy gifts for Isabella!" Cecilia was so angry that neither of them took her seriously, so why did Isabella come back!

"It's just that I made up a boyfriend for you... In fact, Miss can also consider continuing to play boyfriend and girlfriend with Mr. White, so that the master and wife will no doubt it! Our plan can also proceed smoothly."

Cecilia thought the same way, although Russell was not her ideal target, and even a little annoying, but at least it was a shield, and she could let him do whatever she wanted in the future!

After thinking about it, Cecilia took out her phone and sent him a message.

“The day before yesterday was your birthday. Didn’t you make a birthday wish? Today I will help you realize it.”

The other party was ecstatic and called. “Cecilia. have you agreed to my pursuit? You are finally willing to be my girlfriend? That’s great!!”

“It’s just a trial stage, it can’t be considered a real relationship...”

“You are willing to give me a chance, I’m already very happy! Cecilia, can I go to you now? I have a lot to tell you!” Russell has liked her for six years, and he can’t wait to hold her in his hands and pet her.

Cecilia took the opportunity to hint, “There is a movie tonight, I heard it’s very good...’

“What’s your name? I’ll go back to my country and take you to see it.”

Cecilia could hear the voice of him ordering someone else to book a plane ticket, and couldn’t help wondering, “Are you abroad?”

“Accompany my sister to France, and take a look at the subsidiary here. Cecilia, do you like France? I’ll take you to see the lavender here someday, it’s beautiful!”

“Let’s talk.” Cecilia told him the name of the movie and hung up.

When it was time for dinner, Myra and Scarlet went upstairs to ask the two ladies to have dinner. They glanced at each other with dissatisfaction and disgust in their eyes, and quickly looked away.

“Master, Mrs. and the five young masters have been with Ms.

Logan for eighteen years. This deep relationship cannot be replaced by blood.”

When Scarlet went upstairs, her eyes were straight ahead and she spoke with an air of arrogance.

Myra didn't look at her, but looked at the road ahead and mocked coldly. “Does the injury hurt anymore? I thought this fall would clear your mind, but I didn't expect it to be even more stupid! If you can't speak, you will shut up and don't show your intelligence here.”

Chapter 197 Ms. Logan

“You!” Scarlet couldn't help but sneer, “What advantage did that girl give you to talk to her like this?”

“In this family, as long as you are a servant, you have to address her as Ms. Young!”

Even if Isabella doesn't give her a penny, she will stand up and speak out, not for anything else, but because of Isabella's character. she likes to behave in the world.

Not as contrived and obnoxious as Ms. Logan.

“Ms. Logan used to treat you kindly.” Scarlet walked on the corridor, keeping her eyes straight ahead and keeping a smile on her lips, as if reminding her of something.

“Ms. Young also treats you kindly, how do you repay her?”

Myra walked side by side in the corridor with her, then turned a corner, stood in front of Isabella's room, and reminded in a low voice, “Master and Madam's attitude is right there, whoever bullies. Ms. Young and misses Mr. Mason, needless to say what will happen to you I know it in my heart!”

Having said that, she knocked on the door and said respectfully, “Ms. Young, it's time to eat.”

“Oh, some people follow the wrong master and think they are so smart!” Scarlet sneered for a while, then reached out and knocked on the door with a humble attitude, “Ms. Logan, it’s time to eat.”

Both doors opened simultaneously.

Isabella came out just in time to see Cecilia.

Cecilia was stunned for a moment, thinking of the anger she received today, the dissatisfaction in her heart was burning all of a sudden. “Did I let you down today?”

Isabella was about to pass by her, when she heard her words, the corners of her lips curled up coldly, “You really don’t know much, don’t you know that Bomsville has something called the eye of the sky?”

Cecilia was stunned. She had indeed heard of this kind of thing. It is not the ordinary monitoring on the market. One piece is not as big as a grain of rice, but it can see the detailed road surface of the entire Bomsville, and even the license plate of each car. Actions.

It is said that only the top leaders of government departments are qualified to open the eyes of the sky. Some people say that it is to improve the overall quality of life and safety in first-tier cities. bad guy.

It was also claimed that somewhere in Bomsville the family of the Supreme Leader lives, so this kind of thing needs to be used to protect their safety.

Because of the wide coverage, as long as you are not in the building, there is no shelter, you can see your every move clearly when walking on the street!

Isabella turned on the phone and zoomed in on the monitor, “It turns out that you unscrewed the bottle cap.”

Cecilia and Scarlet looked together, and saw Scarlet standing at the back of the truck, unscrewing two bottle caps with his hands, and pretending to stumble when he entered the door...

I didn't expect that there is such a monitoring, and it can be so detailed!

"This person is you, right?" Isabella raised the corners of her lips and smiled coldly, "If you are too old to recognize it, I can take it downstairs and ask everyone to help you identify it..."

Scarlet knelt down in fright, "Ms. Young, I was wrong, I shouldn't have wronged you..."

"It's useful to admit your mistake now? If you hand this thing over to the police, you've committed murder on purpose. If I accidentally fell down at that time, if it's lighter, you can still go to prison for three years. If it's heavier, let alone more than three years, the entire Logan family will settle accounts with you!"

Scarlet was trembling with fear, "Ms. Young, what do you want me to do, as long as you don't tell Mrs. Madam... I can do whatever you want!"

"It depends on my mood." Isabella put away the phone, "If I find out that you are making small moves behind your back, or bullying Myra, then I don't know whether to hand it over to the police, give it to my parents, or post it on the Internet."

Myra on the side didn't expect Ms. Young to mention her, and her back straightened immediately, and she became stiff!

"Ms. Young, it was all my fault before, and I will never do it again! I kowtow to you! Please delete the video..."

"Delete?" Isabella curled her lips coldly, "I made a backup just

Ms Logan

Scarlet trembled even more when she heard that.

Isabella ignored Scarlet’s body shaking like an electric shock. She shook the phone in her hand, and looked at Cecilia, “Your people want to harm me. Do you think you can get away with it? Will parents believe you, or me?”

Cecilia bit her lower lip. She didn’t expect that she could save the surveillance footage by opening her eyes. How did she do it?

“Myra, let’s go.”

Scarlet looked at the back of them leaving, and his whole body softened.

“Scarlet, are you alright?” Cecilia hurriedly reached out to help her up.

“There is no surveillance in that place. Could it be that the Sky Eye that Ms. Young said is so powerful that it can take pictures so clearly...”

Scarlet felt that she was done for, she was too careless, thinking that there was no surveillance in that place, and she was careless!

“We must find a way to get her to delete the video! It must not be spread!” Cecilia was afraid that she would be implicated.

“But Ms. Young, she’s not such a talkative person! She just said she had a backup!”

Isn’t this intentionally leaving this thing to threaten them!

How despicable!

“Scarlet, you don’t know, that thing can’t take pictures of every move inside the building, we can do it inside the building...”

Scarlet didn’t expect that Ms. Logan would suddenly get enlightened, and could still think of this idea. “Okay, as long as it can be deleted, we can sit back and relax...”

“Ms. Young, you are really amazing!” Myra followed Isabella downstairs, and couldn’t help asking, “Since you have evidence. why don’t you point it out and blame Ms. Logan! This matter must have something to do with her!”

Scarlet must have been instructed by Cecilia!

“This thing can only prove that she did it. As long as she insists that this matter is her own idea, it has nothing to do with Cecilia. Cecilia will move out the affection she had with her parents since she was a child, or cry to the old man at home. In front of you, cry in front of your older brothers...”

At most, it was just a servant who was fired!

Cecilia, for the most part, won’t be kicked out!

“This thing is in my hands. It is equivalent to a handle. It can serve as a warning to them. If they are not afraid of death and cannot sit still, they will definitely try to coerce me to delete it.”

Then they will make mistakes, and if they want to catch Cecilia’s mistakes!

And be big mistake!

Only in that way can the parents make up their minds and no longer have any hope for her...

“Ms. Young, you’re really smart!” Myra reacted, admiring the young lady. “You’re still thoughtful in thinking about things.”

“Stop talking.” Before Isabella entered the restaurant, she motioned for her to stop talking.

Myra hastily shut up knowingly.

When eating, Cecilia didn't even dare to look at Isabella, she lowered her head and almost spilled the soup several times...

Chapter 198 Make an appointment tomorrow

Scarlet didn't dare to look at Isabella either, and kept serving Cecilia with her head down.

“Have grandpa and grandma been feeling better recently?” Matthew looked at his parents after serving Isabella some food.

Recently, he was either busy with the headquarters of the group, or rushed home to accompany his younger sister. It has been a week since he came back, and he hasn't visited his grandparents yet.

“On the day of the award ceremony, your grandma woke up once, but then she fell into a coma again.” Eloise said distressedly, “I don't know when I will wake up.”

“What caused it?” Isabella asked quietly.

I heard that my grandparents are not in good health and my grandparents are old, but I didn't ask about the specific situation.

“Your grandparents like sports very much. A month ago, when they were climbing a mountain, your grandma accidentally fell down. In order to catch her, your grandpa fell down a dozen steps on the spot. Both of them lost consciousness at the same time and entered the hospital. It's time to fall into a deep coma.”

Eloise still remembers that day, as if it is vivid in her mind.

“The CT examination showed that your grandma had intracranial fractures, brain contusions, and multiple fractures all over her body. Your grandfather was more serious than her, because when he fell, your grandfather used her as a human back to protect her. Multiple fractures, fluid in the left chest cavity, intracranial hemorrhage and blood accumulation, both of them have high disability and high risk of death.”

Eloise still has lingering fears when she thinks about that day.

“During the examination that day, your grandpa had symptoms of shock, and your grandma had acute respiratory failure, which frightened us!”

At that time, the vital signs of the two of them were extremely unstable, and the bleeding was deep, making it unsuitable for surgery, so the doctor transferred them to the ICU.

“They have been lying in the ICU until now, your grandma has woken up twice, but your grandpa... hasn’t woken up once!”

When Eloise said this, her heart became heavy. “In addition to a series of complications, the doctor said that the intracranial hemorrhage caused great damage to their central nervous system. Both of them had symptoms of cough and difficulty in expectoration. So the doctors also cut their trachea and put them on a ventilator to help them breathe.”

It sounds like the symptoms are serious, and a little carelessness can kill you.

Williams also said heavily, "In the past month, the entire ICU team has overcome many difficulties, from respiratory failure, shock, respiratory infection, anemia to electrolyte metabolism disorders, etc., and they are facing new challenges every day. When will people wake up completely, but we have been holding out hope."

"Is it at Cameron Hospital?" Isabella asked next.

"no."

Make an appointment tomorrow

Although Cameron Hospital is the best public hospital in Bomsville and is most famous for heart care, it is not as thoughtful as private hospitals in terms of nursing care.

"Our family also has a hospital in Bomsville, where your grandparents recuperate." Williams explained, "Professionals help them with basic care and professional care every day. They will communicate with your grandparents and give them positive psychological hints. Help them wake up early."

"Is grandpa and grandma better?" Matthew asked in a deep voice.

"They haven't improved. Your uncle has contacted top experts abroad and has taken them abroad for diagnosis and treatment a while ago."

Matthew knew that the situation of his grandparents was not much more optimistic than that of his grandparents, so he felt even heavier.

"Okay, don't talk about this during the meal." Williams was afraid that the atmosphere would be too heavy, so he brought some food for Isabella, "Come on, eat more, Isabella has been back for almost a month, right?"

"Soon." Isabella picked up the bowl and took the food brought by her father, looking obedient.

“The test results seem to be coming out soon?”

“You can check it the day after tomorrow.”

“Great! Then do you have a university you want to apply for?” Williams smiled, “Let me tell you something first, as long as it is the university you want to go to, I will fully support it! Of course, if you don’t want to go to it, neither will I.” It will hinder you! Everything depends on your happiness.”

Make an appointment tomorrow

“Thank you Dad.”

Cecilia on the side is jealous!

Matthew looked softly at the girl next to him, “Are you nervous?”

Isabella:??

Isn’t it just grades, what’s there to be nervous about?

If the eldest brother knew her level, he wouldn’t have asked this sentence...

But in order not to worry her elder brother, she still replied obediently, “It’s okay.”

Matthew couldn’t see nervousness and anxiety in her eyes, so he must be sure about the grades?

“I’m going abroad the day after tomorrow. After get off work tomorrow, will I take you to see my grandparents?”

This is the deadline he can procrastinate!

France kept urging that tomorrow would be his last day with his sister. Thinking of this, he felt a little bit sad.

Although Williams and Eloise also want the old man to see their granddaughter, they have been in a coma, which is why they did not arrange for them to meet Isabella.

A sly light flashed in Cecilia’s eyes. If grandparents didn’t wake up, then Isabella’s going would be useless. If she doesn’t get the approval of the old people, it’s a waste of time!

Make an appointment tom

But if the grandparents wake up suddenly and see Isabella’s emotions, and their bodies can’t stand the great sorrow and joy, if something goes wrong, then Isabella will be the culprit!

How could the Logan family keep someone who killed her grandparents?

Such a good show must not be missed!

Thinking of this, she said softly, “Dad, Mom, brother, I also want to visit my grandparents.”

“Then shall we go too?” Williams thought to himself, the whole family appeared together, maybe the old man heard their voices and woke up suddenly?

“Isabella. I’ll pick you up tomorrow afternoon.” Matthew patted Isabella’s head, “Eat first, then talk, the food is cold.”

“Okay.” Isabella thought to herself, someone is going to be jealous again, and she has been giving him a lot of attention lately...

Fortunately, there is a hospital at home, so that grandparents can take good care of their injuries. If it were an ordinary family, the daily expenses would be 20.000 dollar, and they would have gone bankrupt for more than a month.

Bennett said before that he has seen through human nature à long time ago, because he has seen countless life and death in the emergency room. Some family members saw their family members admitted to the ICU, and they wanted to extubate and give up treatment...

Some because of lack of money, some because of impatience...

In short, the human nature can be seen there at a glance, which makes people sigh.

“Isabella, what are you thinking about?” Matthew added another bowl of soup for her. The little girl was quite calm just now, but now she fell into deep thought again. Could it be that she is worried about her college entrance examination results?

After all, he is still a child, no matter how much he can hide it, he is still young after all.

Thinking of this, Matthew said gently, “Don’t worry, whether it’s grades or other things, I’m here.”

Take Bomsville as an example, which university in Bomsville dares to reject people from the Logan family?

Chapter 199 Brother and Benjamin Met

Early the next morning, Matthew saw Isabella finished her breakfast, and immediately went forward.
“Isabella, I’ll take you to work.”

“No, Benjamin will pick me up.”

Matthew finally made a trip back, and he never saw off his sister for a day!

He is very attentive, rushing to pick up and drop off every day!

I heard that the pink diamond necklace he had a crush on before was given to Isabella by that kid too!

The parents said that the kid fell in love with Isabella, and he was generous to Isabella, asking for her health.

But in Matthew’s eyes, Isabella is still young and still in school, so that kid is a bit clingy, and if he does something out of the ordinary...he will never let it go!

At this time, Benjamin was waiting outside the gate with a slender figure and handsome features. Seeing Matthew and Isabella walking together, he stood up straight and walked towards them.

“elder brother.”

Out of politeness, Benjamin called Matthew the same as Isabella.

But Matthew’s eyes turned cold, “Isabella is my younger sister, so calling me big brother is a matter of course, Mr. Mason is not too polite, just call me Mr. Logan.”

Benjamin sees hostility in Matthew's eyes, the hostility obviously thinks he's abducted his sister.

"You are Isabella's big brother, so of course you are my big brother."

Seeing the eyes of the two of them competing in the air, Isabella said lightly, "I'm going to be late soon, so please keep the story short."

"He seems to have something to say, you wait for me in the car first."

Benjamin opened the car door for Isabella, and when Isabella bent over to get in, his hands were on top of her head to protect her, and after she sat down, he bent down to help her fasten her seat belt.

He seemed to repeat this action thousands of times. Matthew didn't expect the two of them to get along so intimately and naturally in private, so he clenched his fists.

He also wanted to pick up his sister in this way, but he had no chance!

"Speak well." Before the car door closed, Isabella looked at Benjamin and then at Matthew, as if to warn them both.

Benjamin said softly, "Don't worry, if brother is not happy, I'm willing to let him punch you twice."

Matthew:!!

What nonsense is this kid talking about?

Is he violent?

Dividing into pages now

Bther and Benjamin Met

How dare you discredit him in front of your sister!

At this moment, his fist was even harder!

After closing the car door, Benjamin came to Matthew. "Brother."

"Brother, is your voice quite fluent?" Matthew noticed the sight of his sister in the car, held back his fists, and asked patiently, "When did you and Isabella start dating?"

"I noticed her before she returned to the Logan family. If we talk about dating, it was after returning to the Logan family."

"Have you met before?"

"She saved grandpa in the hospital, and her medical skills are impressive."

Matthew heard about this matter from his mother. He heard that his sister saved Old Mr. Mason twice. Old Mr. Mason loved her very much and even gave her the crown necklace representing his granddaughter-in-law!

"Then what's your parents' attitude?" Matthew asked coldly.

"My parents traveled all over the world and haven't come back yet."

Ever since they dumped the group to Benjamin, they were overjoyed. They were afraid that Benjamin would repent and fly abroad overnight. They usually contacted the Mason family on their own initiative. Even the old man didn't have their fixed contact information.

“My grandma is still in a coma.”

Old Mr. Mason is the only one who can call the shots in the Mason family.

“Don’t worry, Isabella is a very good girl, and I will cherish it with my life.”

“You don’t have to worry about me being a novelty for a while. whether you will change your mind in the future, if I do something wrong to Isabella, you can come and get my life anytime, anytime.”

Seeing that he was a cheerful person, Matthew didn’t feel embarrassed, “Okay, then I will accept your promise, if you treat Isabella well, our Logan family will naturally treat each other with respect, but if you dare to do something to Isabella If you like the new and dislike the old, or make her cry, not only me, but our entire Logan family will seek justice from you!”

“Okay, it’s a deal.” Benjamin bumped fists with him.

Isabella sat in the car and watched this scene from a distance, knowing that this was an agreement and commitment between men, and they should have reached a certain consensus, and this consensus is probably related to her.

It’s not hard to guess what it is.

“My sister is still young and still in school. Treat her like a child and don’t frighten her.” Matthew was afraid that Benjamin would be too impatient and do something indescribable.

But Benjamin thought, the eldest brother probably doesn't know how wild his younger sister can be. The Fire's Boss in Triangular Space is amazing at playing with guns, and the agility of the skill, the eldest brother probably couldn't believe his eyes after seeing it.

"Your words, I will always remember them in my heart."

bether and Benjamin M

"I'm going to take Isabella to visit my grandparents in the afternoon, she'll take my car! You don't have to pick her up!"

From his return to the present. Isabella has only been in his car once, and that day was after the design competition...

Since then, my sister has been dominated by this guy, and today it's finally his turn!

"OK."

It is reasonable for brother to get close to his sister.

Matthew asked again, "So what do you think of Cecilia?"

The person who had a marriage contract with Benjamin before was Cecilia. She was held in the palm of her hand since she was a child. She was proficient in all kinds of piano, chess, calligraphy and painting.

"I don't have any thoughts about her." These were Benjamin's inner thoughts.

Matthew also thinks so, if there is, Benjamin will pay attention to Cecilia before Isabella comes back...

But since childhood. Benjamin and Cecilia haven't met a few times. Everyone in the circle knows that he is carcer-minded, but he is extremely indifferent to matters between men and women.

Isabella seems to be the first person he admits to liking, and also the first person he will personally pick up and take time to treat.

Matthew knew he was on good terms with his brother. If there is a problem with his character, it is impossible for his younger brother to be his brother for so long.

Bether and Benjamin Met

Thinking of this, Matthew looked at Benjamin and said earnestly, "I hope I don't see the wrong person."

"Don't worry, I will definitely not live up to your trust and expectations."

Seeing Matthew walking towards his car, Benjamin respectfully said, "Go slowly."

After Matthew left, Benjamin got into the car, patted Isabella's head, "I kept you waiting."

"What did he tell you?"

"It's nothing." Benjamin gave her a gentle look, "Let me treat you well."

Isabella already guessed it.

"Brother is going to take you to see your grandparents this afternoon?" Although Benjamin couldn't go, he still wanted to prepare an extra gift to represent his heart.

Chapter 200 Brother Came to Inspect

“I have a heart.” Isabella didn’t expect that he would prepare gifts for his grandparents. After all, she has never given him a gift since she met her. It’s time to think about what to give him.

“I heard you can check your grades tomorrow?” Benjamin gave her a concerned look, “Are you nervous?”

Isabella:??

Why did he ask the same question as my brother?

“good.”

“Is there any university you like?” Benjamin asked gently, “As long as you like it, you can go to it.”

Isabella hooked the corners of her lips, “Can you get in if you don’t have enough points?”

“All the universities in the world can only be divided into whether you like it or not, and the score is not important.”

What does this mean, to help her through the back door?

“Let’s see tomorrow.” Isabella doesn’t have a university she wants to go to, but thinking of her grandfather, she might choose a place where his old man lives...

Although the old man is a bit long-winded...

After a while, Benjamin sent her to the door of the company.

Brother Camelinapet

As soon as Isabella stepped into the gate, Frank rushed over to report, “Ms. Young, your brother is here!”

“my brother?”

“An emergency meeting will be held in ten minutes, and all employees above the deputy level must attend, including you.”

“What about others?”

“Already waiting in the meeting room!”

Isabella gave the things to Frank and asked him to take them to the office first. On the way to the conference room, many employees walked in front of her, walking in a hurry, three or five gathered together to gossip.

“I didn’t expect the president to come to our company to inspect in person!”

“I just met him downstairs, so handsome! How handsome is that face!”

“I don’t know what kind of girl is worthy of him.”

“Stop daydreaming, with the president’s worth, you will never be like us!”

“His aura is so strong. I think only someone with Ms. Young’s aura can hold him down, oh, Ms. Young...”

They walked into the elevator and were about to press the door close button when they turned around and found that Isabella was about to walk in. They were so frightened that they shut up their gossiping mouths and said hello to Isabella one after another.

Brother Came to Inspect

"It's okay, you guys continue." Isabella knew that gossip among the employees was inevitable, so she walked into the elevator and pressed the close button.

Many employees held their breath because of her arrival and were too scared to speak.

"Why don't you talk?" Isabella still wanted to hear the gossip between them.

"Ms. Young..." one of the female employees dared to ask, "Do you think the CEO is handsome?"

Isabella blurted out without thinking, "Not bad."

"Then is he your ideal type?" The female employee continued to ask.. "If the president pursues you, will you agree to him and be with him?"

Isabella:??

"Won't."

How could she be with her brother?

"Ah? Why??" The other employees were puzzled and asked, "There is no second person in the world who is as young, handsome and rich as the president, right?"

"Yes." Isabella said without thinking.

"Ah? Is there any more? Who?" Several employees didn't know who she was talking about, "Ms. Young, you won't have a boyfriend, right?"

"Ms. Young is so young, what are you thinking about!"

Mother Came to inspect

“Exactly! Even if Ms. Young has a boyfriend, that boyfriend must be very good!”

“Ms. Young, do you know why the president suddenly came to inspect? Is there something urgent? It can’t be layoffs, right?”

“Ah? No, I’m afraid of layoffs...”

The elevator door opened with a ding, and several employees hurriedly followed Isabella’s footsteps, and asked anxiously, “Ms. Young, you said, the president won’t really lay off staff, right? It is said that last month, he was laid off by country M. ” Thousands of people! Thousands of people!!”

“Oh my God, I feel like I’m inside too...” One of the employees dared to grab Isabella’s clothes and said anxiously, “Ms. Young, if President Li wants to fire me, you must save me!”

“By the way, save me!”

“What if it’s me?” Isabella raised the corners of her lips, deliberately teasing them.

“Ah??” Several employees were stunned. “If the president dares to lay off you, we will go on strike and quit!”

Isabella was a little surprised, she curled her lips and asked, “Really?”

“Of course, if the company didn’t have you, it wouldn’t be where it is today, and it wouldn’t be us!”

“Ms. Young, if you are really laid off, we will go wherever you go next!”

“I’m not joking, or flattering, we all know your ability, if the CEO really lays you off, it can only show that he has no vision!”

“The company has a future with you!”

“Yes, that’s right!”

The corners of Isabella’s lips are always raised. I didn’t expect her to be quite popular in the hearts of this group of employees.

She stopped and knocked on the door of the meeting room, and a familiar voice came from inside.

“Enter.”

Many employees followed behind Isabella. When they saw Matthew, they all said in unison, “Good morning, President!”

Isabella also said hello.

“Sit by my side.” Matthew patted the seat on the right and looked at Isabella gently.

Seeing this, everyone thought they were dazzled, how could the president be so friendly to Ms. Young? So, shouldn’t she be fired?

Isabella sat next to Matthew and heard him say, “I’m just here to sec, don’t be nervous.”

His eyes swept to everyone, but these words seemed to be addressed to Isabella.

Hearing this, everyone was completely relieved, as long as it wasn't layoffs!

After a while, everyone gathered. Matthew first asked about the recent situation of the company, and several ministers talked about Isabella one after another.

"I don't know if the president has heard about the company before. Fortunately, Ms. Young is here, otherwise the company will collapse!"

"If it weren't for Ms. Young wronging herself and lowering her status to accompany me to participate in the design competition. I would not be able to win the championship, and the company would not be able to succeed. Speaking of which, Ms. Young is the biggest contributor!"

The person who said this was Kennedy. She has been promoted to the head of the design department. At this time, she looked at Matthew and said very earnestly, "Since the president is here, I ask The headquarters to give Ms. Young a little reward!"

"That's right!"

"I agree! Ms. Young deserves to be rewarded for giving so much to the company."

Matthew looked at everyone, "Then everyone agrees, what should I reward?"

"I think what we want most at work is a high salary and holidays! I heard that Ms. Young has already raised her salary before, so I ask Ms. Young to take a paid holiday!"

"That's a good idea, we agree!"

Everyone echoed.

Matthew didn't expect his sister's prestige in the company to be quite high, and his brows softened, "I heard that her test results are coming out."

Binther Came to Inspect

"Huh? Ms. Young is indeed a high school student!"

"After the grades come out, will Ms. Young enroll in university and stop coming to the company?"

"No, Ms. Young, we can't bear you..."
