

Chased Her 201

Chapter 201

“Okay.” Isabella went upstairs and returned to her room. As soon as she turned on her phone, she found more than a dozen unread messages.

She had been busy in the laboratory just now, her phone was muted, and she drove by herself on the way back, so she didn’t have time to look at her phone.

Among them was a message from my elder brother.

Isabella, my elder brother is going abroad carly tomorrow morning. If there is anything wrong with the family, or if you suffer any grievances, please tell the elder brother directly, and the elder brother will solve it.]

[Parents have run the group for many years. Although they have strategized in the business field, they will not bring that shrewdness home, and they will not observe and doubt their family members all the time. It is not because they are confused or partial.]

Isabella understands what he said. Cecilia’s clumsy tricks have not been hidden from the elder brother’s eyes, and the elder brother knows it in his heart.

Big brother is right, who would treat their son and daughter as bad guys and wonder whether they have any malicious intentions every day?

Especially this child had performed very well before, not only knew everything, but also filial piety from the bottom of his heart, respected them, and had no bad intentions, so they loved her and

| Dad is a man with a big nerve, and Mom has been spoiled by Dad for decades, so she is relatively simple.]

[Don't hide anything, you can tell your elder brother, your elder brother will always be your strong backing.]

[Good night, my sister, sleep well.]

Isabella touched the screen with her slender fingers, and quickly replied, "Don't worry, brother, I will take care of it, good night."

Then she exited the chat box again and clicked on the message from Benjamin.

[Have you seen your grandparents today? Are their health any better?]

[Have you eaten yet?]

He also posted several photos of himself eating.

[Without you by my side, the meal would not taste good.]

Across the screen, Isabella seemed to be able to think of his handsome face slightly depressed, the corners of his lips raised subconsciously.

[Still busy?]

[I miss you.]

[Not sure what my fiancée is doing now.]

Isabella knew that if it wasn't for the fear of disturbing her, the man could have sent her more messages.

Touching the screen with her finger, Isabella quickly replied, "Just got home."

Benjamin called immediately, "It's finally time for you."

"Haven't slept yet?"

"I haven't seen you for 16 hours, I can't sleep."

"Then you can sleep after talking on the phone now?"

"I miss you even more when I hear your voice, I can't sleep."

Without her by my side today, no matter what I do, I will always think of her.

On the way home from get off work. I would think about who picked her up, where she went, and who she met.

When eating, she would think about whether the food was her favorite, whether she had finished it well, and whether she enjoyed it or not.

When I am free, I think about what she is doing and why she hasn't replied.

Every minute and every second, her figure pops up in his mind.

No matter what you do, you can turn eight hundred corners and think of her.

Perhaps, this is love.

“Have you seen your grandparents today?”

Isabella responded lightly, “Yes, I scc.”

“Are they feeling better?”

“It may take more than 20 days to wake up.”

“I heard that their illnesses are very difficult...” Benjamin paused. and continued, “But as long as you are here, I believe that no matter what situation you encounter, you can solve it.”

Isabella raised the corners of her lips, “Have confidence in me?”

“Well.” Benjamin affirmed, “There are only two types of people in this world with you, the dead and the living. As long as they are living, you must have a way to save them.”

Isabella thought of the project she was working on. Not only did she spend a lot of money, but she didn't make much progress, she said with a hint of helplessness in her tone. “But there are many diseases in this world that I can't do anything about.”

“That's why you took down him and did research in private. You want to help more people, and you want to give those who have been sentenced to death for their illness a chance to survive. You have worked very hard.”

“Do you think I'm whimsical?”

“No, on the contrary, I think a doctor should be like you, be selfless, this is the real noble character.”

Isabella felt warm when she heard this.

"You are great." Benjamin raised the corners of his lips. "I am very proud to have such an excellent fiancée like you."

After a while, Isabella finished talking on the phone, took a shower, and went downstairs for supper.

"Ms. Young, are you finished? This bowl of bird's nest with milk is specially made for you by my wife." Myra brought out a bowl of bird's nest from the kitchen, and smiled, "How would you like it?"

Seeing that she hadn't rested yet, Isabella couldn't help but said, "It's so late, go and rest first, you don't need to serve here."

"I'm not sleepy." Myra smiled, looking very kind.

Isabella ate a few mouthfuls of bird's nest, and asked quietly, "Brother, did you talk to Cecilia tonight?"

Myra froze for a moment, "Ms. Young, how do you know?"

Isabella didn't think so, "Guess."

"Guess?" Myra was even more surprised, guessed, guessed so accurately? Ms. Young is really good at predicting things.

She didn't dare to hide it, and reported truthfully, "I was in the garden tonight, and I did see the young master and Miss Logan chatting on the viewing terrace on the second floor, but what they talked about was too far away, so I didn't hear it."

"It's okay." Isabella said flatly, "I know what they talked about."

"You know?"

It must have been a warning to Cecilia, hoping that she would rein in the precipice and turn around.

“Did Mom make two servings of this bird’s nest?”

Myra was surprised again, how docs Ms. Young know everything!

“Madam did make two servings. Yours is milk bird’s nest, and Miss Logan’s is black tea bird’s nest. I originally waited for Ms. Young to finish eating, and then called Miss Logan to come down, lest you meet again.”

Isabella didn’t expect her to be very well-intentioned. Her parents have always treated Cecilia and her equally...

Cecilia killed herself...

After supper, Isabella went upstairs first.

She turned on the computer, entered a dedicated software, entered a series of chemical equations, and then studied the medicines that her grandparents would use later.

This software can calculate what drugs and what drugs are synthesized, and what positive and side effects will occur, which is very helpful for research.

After a while, she received another call.

[Boss, another big order! This time the rich man said how much we have in stock and how much he wants! Thank you for your hard work tonight to draw more manuscripts lol...]

“Could it be someone I know again?” Isabella asked, pursing her lips.

[This time I promise, absolutely not! It’s a foreigner!]

“Okay.” Isabella agreed confidently. “What time do you want?”

[Preferably before 8:00 am tomorrow, because I have to rush the Chapter 202 Big brother broke his leg noon.

The employees eating in the cafeteria saw Lisa and Isabella appearing together, and they were so surprised that they couldn't hold their forks steadily.

Mr. Logan hasn't left yet?

Still staying at the company to have lunch with Ms. Young ?

Mr. Logan likes Ms. Young as rumored ?

But there is at least six or seven years of age difference between them!

This looks like Lolita, right?

“The way he talks to Ms. Young is so gentle.”

I saw Lisa leaning over to listen to Isabella's words, then nodded, said something to the cooking staff, helped Isabella prepare the food, brought it to the table first, and asked her to sit and wait.

“Mr. Logan is such a gentleman! Help Ms. Young cook first, and then cook for yourself. It doesn't bother me to go back and forth.”

Isabella!!”

At this time, Lucy finished buying food and saw Isabella sitting at the dining table alone, smiling and sitting next to her with the plate, "Why are you alone? Has Mr. Logan gone back?"

As soon as she finished speaking, she saw Lisa walking towards them with a tray.

"Mr. Logan?" Lucy was dumbfounded, "I, did I take your scat, I'm sorry I just..."

"It's okay, let's eat together."

Lisa sat across from Isabella, wiped her hands with a disinfectant tissue, and began to peel the shrimp.

"Mr. Logan also likes to eat shrimp? Like Isabella, he likes to eat seafood..."

"I peeled it for her." Lisa put the peeled shrimp one by one on Isabella's dinner plate, "Eat more, I ordered these dishes for you."

The four or five dishes on his dinner plate are all Isabella's favorites on weekdays, and even the soup is Isabella's favorite.

He doesn't have any of his favorite dishes.

"Isabella, your elder brother treats you well..." While envious, Lucy couldn't help saying. "Mr. Logan, you really should try the food in our cafeteria. Since Isabella cleaned up the cafeteria, the food here is better than before. Less, fresh, delicious and cheap!"

"Really?" Lisa put the peeled shrimp into Isabella's bowl, "Try it later."

He looked at Isabella and raised a smile, "Your employees think highly of you."

Lucy is a good friend of mine, not an employee."

The relationship between them has already surpassed that of “When you’re free, invite your good friends to sit at home.” After peeling the shrimp, Lisa helped Isabella remove the bone from the roast chicken, and put the meat into Isabella’s bowl.

“Brother, you eat too.” Isabella was afraid that all the food on his plate would be cold.

“I see that you eat well, are in a good mood, and your appetite naturally improves. You will definitely eat more than you in a while.”

Lisa didn’t stop what she was doing, but said, “This time I’m going abroad. I may not come back so soon, you usually have to take care of yourself, and when you’re bored, go shopping and watch movies with your good friends. I’ll pay for all the expenses.” Yes, if there’s anything you can’t solve, just give me a call.”

“Okay.” Isabella also took two uneaten French fries from the plate and put them on Lisa’s plate, “Brother, you can eat too.”

Lisa’s eyes warmed up, and her sister brought him food! This is the treatment that other brothers did not enjoy!

He suddenly wanted to create a group and post it in the group to show off to others!

“Brother will come back to accompany you as soon as possible.” Lisa finished stripping the ribs, then removed the fish’s bones one by one, and said. “Your Bradley will be back in a few days. He careless and heartless. If you don’t Be careful to make you sad, or be wronged, just tell me, and I will break his leg.”

When Lucy heard this, she trembled in fright. This Mr. Logan was really gentle when he was gentle, but he was also really ruthless when he was ruthless!!

It's terrible that a brother's leg is broken casually!!

"Bradley is coming back?" Isabella was a bit surprised.

"Well, I don't know the exact date, so don't worry about him." Lisa put the fish in Isabella's bowl, thinking, next, the opportunity to serve her sister is gone, and it will be cheaper for the fifth child!!

"It's too much, I can't finish it." Isabella didn't want to keep him busy, "Brother won't eat, and neither will I."

"Okay." Seeing that the peeling was almost done, Lisa wiped her hands with a sterile paper towel, "I'll wash my hands first, and I'll get you some soup later, and I'll eat it later. "

After Lisa left, Lucy couldn't help but bumped Isabella with her elbow, "God, I've never seen such a gentle side of Mr. Logan, Isabella, you are so lucky to have such a good big brother, last time he was to vent your anger in front of so many people, and this time to peel the shrimp and meat for you, if only I had such a big brother!"

"Your mother is also very good to you, isn't she?" Isabella smiled gently. She has never experienced this kind of love and care from her family in the Brown family for 18 years, except for Mrs. Brown who gave her a little warmth...

Employees all around are gossip:

"Mr. Logan sure likes Ms. Young! I bet a hundred bucks!"

Brandon wrote a love letter to Ms. Young by c-mail in the morning, and Mr. Logan found out, and was immediately transferred to another subsidiary! This isn't liking, what is it?"

"It's so obvious, I don't know when I can attend their wedding!"

“If they get married, will the company give us a holiday?”

“I’m so envious of Ms. Young, I also want to be treated so tenderly by Mr. Logan...”

Lisa came over to add a bowl of soup to Isabella, picked up a lot of vegetables on her own plate for Isabella, and then began to eat.

Halfway through his meal, he suddenly stopped and asked, “Isabella, do you have a favorite flower?”

“Flowers?” Isabella was stunned for a moment, “vanilla.”

Why did the eldest brother suddenly ask this?

“Then how about I get someone to plant a circle of vanilla on your balcony?”

Not for anything else, just because after he goes abroad, every time he sees this flower, he can think of her!

Otherwise, after the second child Terry, the fourth child and the fifth child come back, what if the younger sister forgets about him?

Isabella didn’t know what he was thinking, and nodded, “Okay.”

Why is the eldest brother acting strange all of a sudden? ?

After lunch, Isabella returned to the office, and Lucas immediately put the things he bought in front of her.

“Ms. Young, these are newly purchased coffee beans, which one do you want to try first?"

Big brother broke his leg

"Blue Mountain."

"I'll brew it for you right now!"

After Lucas made the coffee with the coffee machine, he brought a cup to Lisa and a cup to Isabella, "Ms. Young, how do you taste it? Is it too bitter? Do you need to add sugar?"

"No need, you can do your work." Isabella said this, looked at Lisa who was sitting on the sofa, and couldn't help asking, "Brother likes this brand of coffee very much?"

"Well, it's mellow but not bitter, fragrant but not greasy, it's a rare taste." Lisa 's eyes softened, "Try it."

After he finished speaking, he looked at Lucas, "Did you explain it?"

"I have already told the purchasing department of the company that in the future, the coffee that Ms. Young drinks will be delivered directly from the headquarters, and there is no need for the purchasing department to purchase it separately."

Chapter 203 The Skirt Cracked

"Yeah." Lisa took a sip of coffee.

Isabella also picked up the cup and tasted it, "Not bad."

At this time, someone brought the snack cabinet and snacks again, and Lucas sorted it out himself, " Ms. Young, Boss usually doesn't eat snacks. If there is anything that doesn't suit your taste, you can tell me, and I won't send it to you next time." Come."

"Okay." Isabella doesn't usually eat snacks, but seeing her big brother being so caring, her heart is still warm.

Lucas sorted the snacks into different categories, and wrote on labels such as nuts, spicy bars, biscuits, candies, pastries, potato chips, etc., and then pasted them to make it easier for Isabella to find them next time.

Alan on the side was drooling, almost crying with envy, he really wanted to have such a domineering and gentle brother...

Seeing that Lucas was done, Lisa told him to go back to the headquarters first, "I'll stay with Isabella for a while."

After going abroad tomorrow. I don't know when I will be able to stay with my sister as well as today.

"Yes!" Lucas left respectfully.

Ms. Young, I don't know if the pepper fries are too spicy for you.

If necessary, I will try it for you first..." Alan laughed twice.

The Skirt Cracked

Isabella said blankly, "Go out and do your work."

The snacks that the elder brother gave her, she has not eaten yet, and this guy misses it?

“Yes...” Alan left regretfully.

“You are busy with your work, don’t worry about me.” Lisa sat on the office wicker chair opposite Isabella, quietly watching her busy in front of the computer.

Her slender fingers tapped the keyboard for a while, responded to the voice, flipped through the documents, and signed. In less than half an hour, she had already dealt with several things.

This work efficiency can be said to be comparable to his, but the little girl is only eighteen years old!

It’s so impressive.

After a while, someone called her, and she got up and went to the balcony, just as someone knocked on the office door, Lisa said softly. “Come in.”

After Lucy came in, she realized that Lisa hadn’t left yet. No wonder she heard his voice when she knocked on the door just now, and thought she had an auditory hallucination!

At this moment, she hid her things behind her back,” Mr. Logan is good.”

“What are you hiding?” Lisa ‘s eyes fell on her, inexplicably curious.

Lucy knew that she couldn’t hide it, so she had to take the things to the front,” Ms. Young helped me a lot before, and recently I bought some snacks online, they are delicious! I just want to give her some... Me, I don’t count work hours as a desertion, do I?”

This timid expression is inexplicably cute.

“She went to make a phone call.” Lisa ‘s tone did not blame, “Put it on her desk.”

“Thank you, Mr. Logan!” Seeing that Lisa was not angry, Lucy hurriedly put the things on Isabella ‘s desk, maybe because she was too anxious, her knee hit the chair next to Lisa, she groaned in pain, and just wanted to leave when she put down the things. The skirt caught on to the rattan sticking out of it again.

“Ahhhhh...” At this moment, she fell down with the chair.

Lisa quickly caught her, and Lucy just fell into his arms.

Lucy looked at the man in front of her in shock, Lisa also looked down at her, and the soft breath of the girl in her arms came out immediately...

Isabella came in after making the phone call, and found that the two of them were in a very intimate position, so this progress was quite fast?

“Are you okay?” Lisa lowered her head and asked the girl in her arms.

“No, no, it’s okay...” Lucy tried to stand up several times, but stepped on her torn skirt, slipped again and again, and kept falling into Lisa’s arms...

Her face was burning like fire, and she stammered, “Yes, I’m sorry Mr. Logan...I, I didn’t mean to...”

She was about to cry, and she was so ashamed. For the last time. she stood up crucially, but she didn’t expect that her skirt was stepped on, and it cracked even more. It fell apart in front of Lisa, and she was scared out of her wits, “Ah... ”

Lisa took off her blazer, wrapped it around her waist quickly, and her sleeves were knotted, which well covered her embarrassment.

“Mr. Logan, yes, I’m sorry, thank you...” Lucy had no face to explain, and hurried out the door.

Lisa’s face was a little hot unconsciously, and there seemed to be a girl’s soft breath in her arms...

Isabella walked into the office, her high heels slammed on the ground. Lisa came back to her senses, the heat on her face still hadn’t dissipated.

“Your good friend, the skirt is torn and may need your help.”

“oh I saw it.”

Isabella raised the corners of her lips, and suddenly felt that the two of them looked like perfect matches. She took out her mobile phone and called Alan, “Go to the nearby clothing store and buy a one- size-fits-all dress.”

“I’ll go buy it.” Lisa felt that if he stayed, the redness on his face. might be seen by his sister, so he got up and walked outside.

“It’s fine.” Isabella said to Alan on the phone. “You don’t need to buy it, my brother will go.”

Then, she called Lucy again, “Where are you?”

Isabella, I... I lost my life!” Lucy was extremely embarrassed and ashamed, "I'm in the women's room now..."

The Skirt Cracked

Lisa's blazer was still tied around her waist, the skirt was torn like this, and she was really ashamed to go out to meet people.

She was wearing a long lace dress today, but she didn't expect that the hem of the skirt would fall apart...

Just now she felt that her panties were exposed, maybe Mr. Logan saw it?

Thinking of this, she was so ashamed that she wanted to hang herself. If she had known earlier, she would not have bought such a cheap dress!

"I'll bring you clothes later."

Isabella's voice sounded like a rescuer, and Lucy was so excited, "Hoo, woo, hello."

"It's my elder brother, he bought the clothes."

"Huh??" At this moment, Lucy's face became even hotter!!

After a while, Lisa came back after buying the skirt, and Isabella sent it to the women's room. After Lucy changed, she was about to ask Isabella to return the suit jacket to Mr. Logan. She was really embarrassed to face Lisa...

Unexpectedly, at this time, Isabella received a call and walked out of the women's bathroom first.

As soon as Lucy came out holding Lisa's suit jacket, she saw Lisa standing outside, her face was red like fire again, thinking of falling into his arms again and again, her heart was extremely embarrassed...

She hurriedly stuffed the clothes into Lisa 's arms, bent down and said, "Thank you, Mr. Logan, for the money for the dress, I will pay you back later."

Lisa was about to say no, but she already ran away quickly...

This girl, seeing him was like scing a ghost...

Running so fast, not afraid of falling, like just now...

When Isabella came back from the phone call, only the suit jacket was left in Lisa's hands, and Lucy had already disappeared.

"Where's Lucy?" Isabella asked.

"gone back."

"What did she want from me just now?"

"Say it's some snacks to share with you."

Chapter 204

After work, Lisa took Isabella to Dawn Hospital and parked the car in the VIP garage. As soon as she got out of the car, she saw the RV at home approaching from far away and parked in the parking space next to him.

This floor is a VIP floor that only belongs to their family. The vehicles of other patients' family members cannot enter, and the privacy is excellent.

Williams helped Eloise 's men get out of the car, and Cecilia pretended to be in pain from a fall last time, and asked her father to help her.

After getting out of the car. Cecilia held Williams with her left hand and Eloise with her right hand, and said with a smile, "Brother, sister, are you here too?"

Lisa's gaze fell on her arm, and she said in a nonchalant manner, "Those who didn't know thought that parents belonged to you alone. How old are they, and they are still childish."

This childishness, I don't know if it means that she is ignorant of the world and loves to act like a baby, or that she deliberately shows off in front of Isabella.

Cecilia smiled sweetly, "Brother said it as if he took over his parents. His injury hasn't healed yet, and he still needs his parents to support him..."

"Come on, Isabella." Lisa ignored her, but put her on Isabella 's shoulder, and said gently, "Do you remember what Big Brother told you on the road just now?"

"Don't worry, brother, remember everything."

When Cecilia heard this, she rushed forward and grabbed Lisa's other hand, and said gossip, "What secret did big brother tell sister on the road just now? Tell me? Sister, did big brother tell you something interesting?"

"Hand." Lisa looked at her arm pointedly.

Cecilia pursed her mouth aggrieved, and reluctantly let go, "Brother is biased, you can let my sister touch it, but not me! Hmph, stingy!"

“Your sister just came back to this house, why don’t you treat her better? It’s you, the recent vacation has swelled up, why don’t you wait for your Wayne grades to come out, apply for a foreign university, and let the elder brother personally supervise your studies.”

“Don’t...” Cecilia doesn’t want to be supervised by the elder brother. Who knows how boring and boring the days of studying under the elder brother are. Taking the rigid and regular schedule of the elder brother as an example, it is enough to kill her several times!

Didn’t the eldest brother see that she deliberately showed off in front of Isabella just now, so he warned her with these words!

snort!

Brother is too biased!

This dead Isabella doesn’t know what she said to her eldest brother in the company, and her eldest brother seems to like her more than before!

Thinking of this, Cecilia felt even more uncomfortable.

“Lisa. I heard that you were at Isabella’s place all day today? Did you help Isabella with some difficult matters?” Eloise stepped forward to hold Isabella’s hand, her eyes fell on the eldest son, naturally.

Williams also rushed forward, took Isabella’s other hand, and asked with a smile. “ Isabella, your elder brother didn’t scare you, did he? He is usually cold, so he didn’t put pressure on you when he went to your place today, did he?”

“Brother is very kind to me.” Isabella said truthfully.

Lisa walked towards the elevator and said, “ Isabella is very efficient and capable. She doesn’t need my help. She is very popular in the company and everyone likes her very much.”

“Really?” Eloise was very happy. “I’ve heard that everyone in the company likes her. Now that you say it, I can imagine how popular our Isabella is in the company!”

“Yes, today some employees mistakenly thought that I was going to lay off staff, and said that if I fired Isabella, they would not do it.” Lisa said this, and looked at her sister gently, “Many people asked me to bring her paid holiday.”

“It seems that our Isabella is the favorite of the group in the company!” Williams is also very happy. It is not easy to achieve this level. It is conceivable that Isabella has put in a lot of hard work in normal times.

Cecilia couldn’t help feeling a little bit dissatisfied when she saw how their family loved each other. Heh, what kind of employees don’t have eyes? Just like Isabella, she resigned, so it is necessary to leave with her? Are you out of your mind?

He also asked for a salary increase for her, crazy!

It is estimated that she was bribed to speak for her, right?

“But the results of the Enter University exam will come out tomorrow...what’s my sister’s plan?” Cecilia asked naively, “Should I continue to manage the company, or go to college?”

She hoped that Isabella would go to a rubbish university, at least she wouldn’t get any property from the family!

Isabella was disgusted when she heard her pretentious voice, but fortunately Lisa replied first, “I have already told the people in the company that Isabella is going to school, Alan will be responsible for the small things in the company, and Isabella will be in charge of the big things remotely. It is decided that even if Isabella does not go to work, she will still be paid.”

“Wow, that’s a good idea!” Cecilia pretended to be happy, “Did the rest of the company agree?”

Not going to work, but still being paid, the eldest brother's preference is too obvious!

If you do this, other people in the company must not jump up to object?

"They all agreed, unanimously."

Hearing what Lisa said, Cecilia hated in her heart. Are those people sick? Can you still get a salary without going to work? Can this be unanimously approved??

I guess they all passed against their will, right??

"My sister is so amazing..." Cecilia pretended to admire, "I don't know when I will be able to run the company like my sister, parents, brother, what do you think?"

Lisa just glanced at her and said, "You have been spoiled since you were a child, and if you put it in a company, I'm afraid you won't be able to convince the public."

What this means is that she is not worthy of running the company, can Isabella ??

"I haven't tried it yet, and my elder brother just said these words to hurt people! Hmph!" Cecilia pretended to be coquettish, "Parents, look at elder brother..."

"Your elder brother is right. You have been pampered since childhood, so you don't have any management experience!" Eloise agrees with the elder son's statement. "It's better to study at case, and we will talk about the future."

"I know!" Cecilia knew that her mother was biased, but at this moment, she couldn't say it too clearly, she could only step forward and hold Eloise's other hand, "I will do whatever Mom tells me! Even if I am told not to marry in the future, I am also willing to stay by your side and serve you!"

“How can a girl not marry when she grows up?” Eloise didn’t agree with her point of view, “Parents don’t need you to take care of them. As long as you are obedient and our family lives in harmony, then I will be satisfied.”

Cecilia heard her subtext, “Mom, don’t worry, with my sister, our big family will definitely be more lively than before!”

The elevator door opened with a ding, and they appeared together

This floor is not open to the public, and all the medical staff only serve the Logan Family. When a head nurse saw them, she bent down respectfully, “Mr. Logan, Mrs. Logan, are you here? Young Master Logan and Lady Logan are also here gone?”

“This is Lady Logan too. She can come and go from this place. freely in the future.” Eloise introduced Isabella, who was beside her.

The head nurse was a little surprised, but still bowed down to say hello respectfully, “Hi, Lady Logan!”

Chapter 205

“Hi.” Isabella nodded slightly, politely.

The head nurse saw that this lady’s aura was more noble than Cecilia’s. Could it be a relative of the Logan Family?

Cecilia reveals all over her body. She looks like a person who knows the general situation.

“Are Mom and Dad awake today?” Although she knew the possibility was extremely low, Eloise asked with a glimmer of hope.

“The old gentleman and the old lady haven’t woken up yet. Their condition has not been very good in the past three days...”

The daily monitoring data and doctor's advice will be updated in the background of a software for Williams and Eloise to view at any time.

Eloise also found out in the past two days that the data of the two elderly people has dropped a little bit, and the doctor's comments are not optimistic, so you must be mentally prepared.

"The main reason is that the old gentleman and old lady are getting old and their physical functions are declining..."

"You go down first."

"yes."

Eloise took Isabella's hand and walked deep into the corridor, "Your grandparents need to rest, so the ward is arranged in the last

In the spacious and bright VIP ward, there are two smart beds. Two nurses are accompanying the two elderly people. When they see Eloise and others appear, they stand up hastily and are about to say hello.

"Shh." Eloise made a hushed gesture, motioning them out.

They bowed respectfully and exited the ward.

"Dad, Mom..." Williams didn't expect that his parents would have to suffer this kind of crime while his family was rich, and he couldn't help feeling a sore nose.

"Mom and Dad, when are you going to wake up? Our biological daughter who was left behind has finally been found!" Eloise waved to Isabella, "This is Isabella, Isabella Logan, your own granddaughter."

Cecilia on the side heard the word “pro-granddaughter” and looked away in disdain, “Oh, what’s so great about it.”

She suddenly hoped that her grandparents would never wake up again in this life, so that Isabella would not be recognized by the elderly!

In the hearts of the elderly, there is always only one granddaughter, and that is Cecilia!

Isabella, say hello to your grandparents.” Eloise said softly.

Isabella stepped forward and said obediently, “Grandpa, grandma, I’m here to see you.”

The two old men were wearing comfortable and loose home clothes, with their eyes closed, as if they were taking a nap.

Their hair has been meticulously groomed, their nails have been carefully trimmed, and there is nothing inappropriate about them.

After all, he is a member of a wealthy family, even if he is plugged in with a ventilator, it is not difficult to see from the kind face of his grandfather that in life, he must be a person full of energy and full of optimism about life.

Looking at grandma again, on that well-maintained face, it seems that she can still see the expression of her decades of dominance in the business field. While she is amiable and amiable, she also reveals a hint of wisdom and competence of a strong woman.

It turned out that her grandparents were such people.

“Isabella, sit here.” Eloise gestured for Isabella to sit on the chair between the two beds.

After Isabella sat down, she put her little hand on Grandpa's wrist naturally, "Grandpa, everyone hopes that you will wake up soon."

Isabella put another hand on Grandma's wrist again, "Grandma, can you hear me?"

These two actions of hers naturally did not escape Lisa's eyes.

Is my sister feeling the pulse of grandparents?

Although I heard that she saved Elder Mr. Mason, the condition of grandparents is worse than that of Elder Mr. Mason...

Not even famous doctors can do anything...

Eloise didn't notice her daughter's unusual behavior, put her hand on the edge of the old lady's bed, and said softly, "I didn't expect Isabella to be taken away in the billowing smoke in the fire eighteen years ago. Fortunately, eighteen years later, she came back to me again, you don't know how smart Isabella is, she can manage the company at a young age, not inferior to when you were young!"

Eloise smiled when she said this, and continued, "It must be heredity. We Logan Family members have business genes in our bones. The clothing company was about to go bankrupt and liquidated. I didn't expect Isabella to go there and come back to life. It is also supported by many employees!"

Williams sat beside the old man's bed with a sore nose, "Dad, Eloise is right, you should really open your eyes and look at Isabella, she is beautiful and sensible, she can do business, play the piano, and design clothes... There is nothing in this world that she can't do! If you wake up and see such a granddaughter, you will definitely be very happy!"

I just don't know if the old man can last until the moment his eyes open...

Thinking of this, Williams ' nose became more sore, and he felt the urge to cry.

"Dad, don't worry, the whole team of doctors is working hard, grandparents will definitely wake up."
Lisa said this, her eyes fell on Isabella, "Plus, Isabella is here..."

Seeing that everyone was praising Isabella, Cecilia burst into tears, and suddenly lay down beside the old lady's bed.

"Grandma, when will you wake up and talk to me? I really miss when you hugged me when I was young, praised me with a smile, and said that I am your most proud granddaughter. No matter what I do, as long as I take a little Award, you will be proud of me if you get a compliment from the teacher!"

When Cecilia said this, she raised her crying face, "If all my progress and all my glory need you to exchange for my health, then I would rather be incompetent and unknown in my life, as long as you can accompany me like I did when I was a child, smiling Talk to me, and I will give up everything willingly!"

Isabella :...

Will crying and making noise like this affect the patient's rest?

"Grandma, can you hear me? Don't you even want to pay attention to your favorite, proudest, and proudest granddaughter? Even if your granddaughter is crying like this, don't you feel bad? Grandma..."

Cecilia lay beside the bed again, crying, "I cried when I was a child, you would hold me, wipe my tears, and say that your granddaughter's tears are the most precious diamonds in the world, whoever makes your granddaughter cry, you will never No mercy! But now, your granddaughter is crying for you, so don't you care..."

Isabella :...

As for the "granddaughter" emphasis on one mouthful??

Cecilia, grandma needs to rest." Lisa reminded aloud.

"I'm sorry, big brother. When I saw my grandparents suffering here, my heart hurt so badly that it seemed to stop beating."

When Williams said this, his eyes were warm. He also felt sorry for the suffering of his parents, and he didn't know when these sufferings would end.

Cecilia sobbed a few times, and Freda looked at her grandparents pitifully, "I'm still looking forward to holding your hands and walking with you like before. Don't you keep saying that I'm nervous about studying and don't have time to accompany you? Now I'm on summer vacation, I have a lot of time to accompany you, as long as you wake up, let me do anything!"

"Mom, take Cecilia out and take it easy." Lisa reminded aloud.

Eloise was also heartbroken by her crying, got up and pulled her, Cecilia, let's go out."

Don't affect grandparents' rest.

When Cecilia stood up, she pretended to be unsteady and threw herself into Eloise's arms. "Mom, when do you think grandpa and grandma will wake up? I'm so worried and uncomfortable... I feel dizzy and almost I can't stand still."

"I know you are filial." Eloise patted her on the back, "Mom believes that your grandparents are auspicious people, and they will definitely get better soon."

"I'm going to talk to the doctor." Williams also couldn't control his emotions several times, stood up with red eyes, and walked out of the ward door first.

When only the siblings were left in the ward, Lisa asked softly, "Are you still feeling the pulse?"

Isabella was just surprised, and replied truthfully, "A little bit."

"Is there something wrong with that one?" Lisa was surprised.

"Doctors are conservative in medication, and they can't prescribe the right medicine to the case. They missed the best treatment period."

Chapter 206 Go Back and Read More

Lisa didn't expect that she even knew this, "The doctor considers that grandparents are getting old, so they choose conservative treatment, and they are not 100% sure, so they dare not rush to use medicine..."

"Grandpa and grandma are very fragile now."

However, it is not completely impossible to save, but the intracranial hemorrhage caused great damage to their central nervous system, plus respiratory infection, anemia, electrolyte metabolism disorder, etc., requiring multiple medications.

A simple infusion cannot cure the disease at all.

"You have a solution?" Lisa was a little surprised to see Isabella's confident look, but she didn't expect that the whole team of doctors was helpless, and she looked confident.

“Yes.” As soon as Isabella finished speaking, there was a beeping sound on grandma’s instrument...

The sound was very rapid. the guard outside heard the sound, immediately opened the door and came in, looked at it and said anxiously, “No! The old lady can’t breathe!”

She immediately rang the bell beside the bed, and then shouted in the old lady’s ear, “Old lady! What’s wrong with you? Hold on, hold on! The doctor will be here soon!”

The head nurse at the guidance desk heard the call, and immediately sent someone to find the doctor, and rushed to the ward with two nurses!

Williams was inquiring about the doctor’s condition, and when he heard the situation, he hurried to the ward!

“What’s the matter, Mom?” Eloise rushed after hearing the sound.

Cecilia also panicked, “Brother, what’s the matter! Mom and I just went out for a while, why is this instrument beeping non-stop? What’s wrong with grandma? Nurse Lee, what’s going on!”

“The old lady can’t breathe!” Nurse Lee didn’t know what happened. Just now, there were only Young Master Logan and a strange girl in the ward. Before the strange girl appeared, both the old man and the old lady were fine!

Could it be because of her??

“Ready to defibrillate!” the doctor yelled.

“Stop, get out of the way!” Isabella squeezed grandma’s fingers tightly with one hand, bringing all ten fingers together, and took out the needle bag from the backpack with the other hand, quickly flung it away, and took out a long and thin needle, Quickly prick the bloodletting.

“You, who are you? What are you doing! Stop it!” The doctor was stunned and wanted to stop it!

“There is only one end to defibrillation now, and that is death!”

Isabella’s words made the doctor dare not take a step forward!

Everyone was stunned by Isabella’s momentum, unbelievable, how did she know that grandma’s condition could not be defibrillated? What medical basis?

“Grandma has neurological dyspnea. This is because the cerebral hemorrhage affects the respiratory center. As long as the bloodletting is done, it will be fine!”

“You, where did you see the theory? We don’t believe it!” Seeing that the ventilator was still beeping, the doctor couldn’t wait, “The old lady’s condition is getting worse, Mr. Logan And Mrs. Logan, I beg to get this girl out!”

“Sister, what are you doing! Saving people is not just a matter of just getting two needles. You are not a genius doctor. Get out of the way and let the doctor come. If you kill grandma, your parents will not let you go!”

Cecilia didn’t expect Isabella to go crazy in order to show off, and she even brought a needle kit, wanting to show herself in front of her parents anytime and anywhere?

Are you sick in your head?

If grandma is put to death, she won’t be able to stay in this house any longer!

Both Williams and Eloise couldn’t believe that their daughter knew medical skills, but the old man’s condition is so serious, can he wake up just by bloodletting?.

“Let her cure!” Lisa saw the dawn of victory in Isabella’s confident eyes.

The doctor was stunned, “Young Master Logan, the old lady is about to go into shock now! It must be defibrillated! Otherwise, if it is half a minute late, even a genius doctor will be powerless!”

The little nurse next to her also followed suit, “Who is this girl? How old is she? Do you know her? How can you let her mess around? Does she know medicine? Does she know what saving people is?”

The nurse on the side also begged, “Please stop, the old lady is dying! Let the doctor come! I beg you!”

The doctor could no longer hear the beeping sound of the ventilator, “Come on, pull her away!”

“If you want her to die, just come here!”

Isabella’s words shocked the audience!!

Everyone couldn’t believe that a teenage girl had such a powerful aura!

Within two seconds, the ventilator stopped the alarm signal, and the doctor’s eyes widened in disbelief, looking at the data above, it turned out to be normal?!

The head nurse and the two nurses were also stunned, is it normal? Just a few random needles will be fine?

Seeing their surprised expressions, Cecilia couldn’t believe that Isabella really had a solution. With a hint of schadenfreude, she hurriedly asked, “Doctor, what’s the matter, is my grandma dying... What does the above data mean? You Tell everyone!”

As long as something happens to her grandma, Isabella will never be able to stay in the Logan Family for the rest of her life!

Cecilia was stunned when the doctor said this. How could it be possible that Isabella could save grandma with just a few blows?

I didn't expect her to be lucky!

After Isabella finished it briefly, I heard the doctor ask in a cautious and respectful voice, "Excuse me, miss, where did you study? How many years have you studied medicine?"

Just bloodletting and pricking a few acupuncture points, the old lady can be revived...it's amazing!

"Haven't you read the book? It's written like this in the medical book!"

Isabella knew from his confused look that he hadn't read it, and sneered coldly.

The doctor blushed and turned pale when asked.

Seeing that he was still young, Isabella said, "Go back and study more."

"yes..."

Chapter 207 She Dare To Guarantee

"Isabella, you saved your grandma! You brought her back from hell in such a short period of time! You are amazing!" Williams was so excited that he wanted to hug her.

Unexpectedly, Eloise hugged her daughter first, "Great, your grandma is fine! You scared us to death just now!"

I'm afraid that something will happen to her old man...

I didn't expect my daughter's medical skills to be so good.

No wonder Elder Mr. Mason always praised her superb medical skills before.

It turns out that it's not that the elderly prefer Isabella, but that Isabella really has this ability!

Her medical skills are really superb!

The decisiveness, calmness, and wisdom she showed in the process of saving people just now are simply impressive!

Isabella was suddenly hugged by her mother. This feeling of being liked, pampered, and valued was something she had never experienced since she was a child.

"Your grandma will be very happy to know this when she wakes up!" Eloise looked at Isabella appreciatively, as if proud of having such a child.

While Williams is proud, he also wonders what Isabella has the Brown family still don't like him even though he has all these extraordinary abilities?

Thinking of this, he felt sorry for his daughter again, feeling that her daughter had suffered a lot and suffered a lot of grievances!

He secretly vowed that he would treat her twice as well and make it up to her!

The doctors, nurses, and nurses around were stunned. From the words of Williams and Eloise, it was not difficult to guess that the old man in the hospital bed was not only Cecilia 's grandparents, but also this girl!

But didn't Williams and Eloise have only one daughter?

Where did this girl come from?

It seems that Williams and Eloise spoiled her even more than Cecilia.

Look at Cecilia next to it, it's all delicious!

Realizing that the girl's identity is not easy, and that she had indeed uttered wild words just now, the little nurse on the side bowed her head and apologized to Isabella, "I'm sorry. I questioned your medical skills just now... I'm blind!"

This girl's medical skills are definitely above theirs!

Nurse Lee next to her also lowered her head and said shamelessly,

"I was too anxious just now and said something unpleasant... Please don't take it too seriously, my lord!"

Dividing into pages now

When the old lady's illness broke out just now, she thought it was a girl's hands and feet. Now think about it, which granddaughter in the world would do such a thing that is not as good as a beast?

"What happened when I went out just now? Why is grandma suddenly out of breath?" Cecilia began to feel her presence again, "I didn't ask anyone to be held accountable, but I wanted to speak out. Try to avoid this situation again, don't let grandma suffer again, just now there were only elder brother and elder sister in the ward, elder brother has always been steady, elder sister, did you say something to grandma, grandma got excited..."

Isabella for her grandma's illness.

But-Lisa reprimanded softly, "Didn't Isabella say that? Grandma is suffering from neurological dyspnea. This situation is caused by cerebral hemorrhage involving the respiratory center. It wasn't anyone who stimulated her. Isabella didn't do anything."

Cecilia was afraid that her elder brother would see her thoughts, so she pretended to be harmless, and nodded as if she had suddenly realized.

"It seems that it is useful to read more unscrupulous books at ordinary times. At least you can follow the gourd at critical moments. My sister's luck is also good today. I guess God must have eyes, and I want my sister to leave a good impression on my grandparents., so I arranged this out."

Lisa heard the words in her words, and asked coldly, "Is medicine considered a serious book?"

Lucky to save grandma??

"I mean extracurricular books. My parents only let me read academic books on weekdays, and I have no chance to get in touch with extracurricular books." Cecilia took the opportunity to coquettishly said, "Mom, I will learn from my sister in the future, read more Extracurricular books."

The doctor on the side said respectfully, "You can't save people simply by reading two books. Miss Isabella 's medical skills are obviously superior to all of us, and you can't just copy them to save pcopl.""

Cecilia is dissatisfied and wants you to talk too much? none of your business?

Doctor Lawrence ignored Cecilia 's resentment, and bowed respectfully, "I dare to ask this lady, the old gentleman and old lady's current illness, is there any way to help them recover as soon as possible?"

Isabella curled her lips lightly. She had figured out the condition of her grandparents during the process of feeling her pulse just now.

“I know a doctor, quite famous, and she has medicine on hand, just to treat this condition.”

Hearing Isabella ‘s words, everyone present was shocked!

Isabella, do you still know a famous doctor? She has medicine to save your grandparents?”

After Williams was shocked, he also thought that the baby girl’s identity is an internationally renowned pianist, and she must have a wide network of contacts. It is not difficult to get to know a doctor.

Eloise was also surprised and said happily, “So, your grandparents are saved? That’s great!”

Unexpectedly, the baby girl also knew famous doctors, and she really impressed them time and time again.

“Sister, is that doctor better than Doctor Lawrence? Doctor Lawrence is a talented student who graduated from a top medical university. He is helpless. Can your friend help?”

When Cecilia talked about this, she deliberately explained, “I mean, grandpa and grandma’s condition is very difficult, and many doctors and experts are helpless. Is your friend reliable? In case, in case you trust her and take the medicine for her Grandpa and grandma cat it, but that person lied to you?”

Now many scammers outside are pretending to be genius doctors and scamming money everywhere.

But Isabella ‘s tone was full of confidence. “She won’t lie.”

Because, this person is herself!

Can Doctor Lawrence compare to Selby Brown?

Isabella hooked her lips, "I can also guarantee that as long as the medication is continued, grandparents will be able to wake up within a month."

Both Williams and Eloise were stunned, a month?

You must know that the two old men have been in a coma for a long time, how dare Isabella guarantee that they will wake up within a month?

That... that doctor must be very powerful!

She Dare To Guarantee

At this time. Lisa looked at her sister with a trace of inquiry.

Even if Isabella knew the famous doctor, how could she guarantee that her grandparents would wake up within a month?

How did she know that the doctor had medicine suitable for grandparents?

Seeing her full of confidence, could it be that the doctor she mentioned is herself?

Coupled with the admiration of the doctors and nurses beside her, her medical skills must be very high!

Chapter 208 A Scary Thought

Lisa suddenly became a little curious, what is the status of her sister in the medical field, and she can think of a solution to such a difficult condition in an instant....

As we all know, the most powerful doctor in the world is Selby Brown. It is said that his medical skills are superb, and he brought back to life, but he is so unpredictable that no one knows where he is...

Since his grandparents were admitted to the ICU, he had sent people to inquire about Selby Brown 's whereabouts again and again, hoping to ask him to come forward to treat his grandparents.

Some people say that he is dead, some people say that he has appeared in LA, whether these news are reliable, no one knows.

Will my sister's medical skills be learned from Selby Brown?

If this is the case, then grandparents must be saved!

"Isabella, you are so sure about that doctor's medical skills. It seems that you are in frequent contact with each other? Are you familiar with each other?" Eloise asked softly.

"Yeah." She and herself are really familiar.

"If she can even treat your grandparents with such a difficult illness, then her fee must not be cheap!"

Speaking of which, Eloise took out a card from her handbag, "There are two billion in this card, you can see what price she offers, satisfy her, and the rest will be your pocket money."

A Scary Thought

Isabella :??

Give her money again? ?

Cecilia on the side was so jealous, her mother tried to give Isabella money again, in front of her face, completely ignoring her feelings... It's just asking the doctor to prescribe some medicine, why do I need two billion!

This is clearly partiality, spoiling!

"No, I have the money." Isabella pushed the card back into her mother's arms, but did not accept it.

"A well-known doctor must have a very high price. How can your little money be enough?" Eloise insisted on handing over the card, "Besides, how can I ask you to pay?"

"I know her well, she won't charge me much, don't worry." She can no longer take money from her parents.

Cecilia on the side held Eloise's arm and said coquettishly, "Mom, you are too alien, my sister wants to take this opportunity to do her filial piety, if grandpa and grandma wake up and find out that my sister is calling a doctor for them again Those who pay will definitely like my sister more from the bottom of their hearts!"

Eloise glanced at her, "Your sister is just eighteen years old just like you! It's normal for a girl at this age not to make money. If you let her pay, your grandparents will wake up and say I'm wrong!"

"My sister has already said that she knows the doctor. If she comes forward, the doctor won't charge her much..."

A Scary Thought

"No, no, I have to charge!" Williams insisted, "How can I let Isabella pay for it herself?"

“That’s right, your father is right. If you don’t accept it, then we won’t give your grandparents the medicine you brought.” Eloise pretended to threaten.

Williams nodded, “ Isabella has just returned to this house for less. than a month, and she is managing the company, finding out so many people who are not good for the company, and committing herself to participate in the design competition, helping the people under her to win the championship trophy, How can we, as parents, take advantage of her again by raising the company’s popularity?”

Isabella, take it quickly.” Eloise insisted on putting the card into Isabella’s hand, but Isabella refused to accept it, so she forced it into Isabella ‘s backpack.

In the end. Isabella did not refuse, and thought to herself, just return the card to her mother after a while.

Cecilia was so jealous, didn’t she say no? Didn’t you get the money in the end? hypocritical! nausea! affectation!

“It’s just Isabella, do you need to ask that doctor to come over and give your grandparents a closer look, and then prescribe the right medicine?” Eloise asked curiously.

“That’s right, this matter can’t be sloppy. Invite her to come and have a look, so we can thank her face to face.” Williams also suggested.

Lisa thought, if that person is Selby Brown, then it would be better to invite him to come and have a look. His medical skills are definitely more reliable than Doctor Lawrence and the others.

A Scary Thought

Doctor Lawrence next to him also looked forward to it, “If we can invite that doctor over, we can also discuss and cooperate in person, maybe the old gentleman and old lady can wake up faster.”

“...” Isabella could only say, “Then I’ll talk to her later.”

“Okay, okay, great!” The boulder that Eloise had accumulated in her heart for a long time was finally about to land!

At this time, Cecilia had an idea again, “Sister, it’s a good thing you brought a needle pack when you went out today, otherwise grandma would...”

She pretended to be worried, and continued, “However, how could you guess that grandpa and grandma would suddenly feel unwell?”

The meaning of this sentence is to remind everyone present, could it be that Isabella deliberately stimulated grandma’s condition when her elder brother was not paying attention, and then took out the needle bag prepared in advance, just to show it in front of all of them ?

“Miss Logan doesn’t know anything.” Doctor Lawrence on the side smiled and said, “It’s not surprising that people who study doctors carry needle bags with them anytime and anywhere. Fortunately, Miss Isabella made a timely move today. Knowing that I have any medical problems in the future, can I ask Ms. Isabella? I really admire Ms. Isabella ‘s medical skills from the bottom of my heart.”

Isabella will go to college next time. If you have any questions, you can ask her when she comes to visit her grandparents when she is free.” Williams is afraid that it will affect his daughter’s study.

“Yes, then I would like to thank Mr. Logan, Mrs. Logan, and Miss Isabella.” After Doctor Lawrence finished speaking, he left with several nurses.

A Scary Thought

Cecilia was so jealous, huh, she wasn’t mentioned!

Fortunately, she praised his medical skills in front of Isabella just now!

At this moment, a terrible thought suddenly appeared in her heart, if the medicine Isabella brought could kill her grandparents...

Then she won't want to stay in this house any longer!

Even with two lives on her back, even if the law does not sentence Isabella to death for the sake of the Logan Family, Isabella will most likely spend her entire life in prison.

By that time, she will still be a little princess in the family, and everything will be back to the beginning.

She is still the favorite of her parents, and the only sister who is loved by her five brothers...

Just thinking about it, Cecilia couldn't hold back the excitement in her heart, as long as all the evidence proves that Isabella wants to kill her grandparents...

Thinking of this, Cecilia looked at the two elderly people on the hospital bed. After all, they really hurt her for eighteen years. If she really wanted to do something, she really couldn't bear it...

After a while, Eloise got up and told the nurse next to her, "I'll trouble you from now on. If you need anything, call me anytime."

"yes."

Isabella, it's getting late, let's go back." Eloise took Isabella's hand and left the ward with her.

Back at Riverside Villa, Isabella found an excuse to leave after eating, and went to Woods Villa to prepare the medicine for her grandparents.

Chapter 209

Because the central nervous system of grandparents has been greatly damaged, plus respiratory infections, anemia, electrolyte metabolism disorders, etc., multiple medications are required.

She first prepared the medicines that she needed to take for the first three days, and made them into powder, which was convenient for mixing with water.

Before I knew it, it was already half past eight in the evening.

And Lisa waited in the green courtyard, raised her watch, and looked in the direction of the gate, but she never saw her sister coming home.

I heard that she has something to go out, is she going to see the doctor?

I don't know if the doctor is a man or a woman. If it is a man, will my sister be taken advantage of at such a late hour?

π

At this time, Myra stepped forward and reported respectfully, young master, the vanilla you ordered are planted, do you want to go up and have a look?"

Lisa looked up and saw a circle of vanilla blooming around the guardrail on the balcony of her sister on the second floor, which was so fresh and pleasing to the eye.

I don't know if Isabella will feel better after seeing this scene.

"That's Isabella's room, I won't go there."

Although he is the eldest brother, he is a man after all. How could he enter my sister's room at night without her consent?

"Go ahead and get busy."

"Yes." Myra stepped back respectfully.

After a while, Lisa didn't wait for her sister, got up and walked into the living room, "Scarlet, is Cecilia asleep?"

"Is the young master looking for Miss Logan? She must not be asleep at this point! Wait a moment, I'll call her down."

Scarlet was a little overjoyed, because in this family, apart from being useful to please the Elder Mr. and Mrs., the most important thing is to get the attention and love of the young master!

Compared with the other young masters, the young master's words carry the most weight. As long as he wants to stay, everyone has to give face.

"No, I'll go find her." Lisa walked upstairs without letting Cecilia make a special trip.

Scarlet glanced at the time, secretly happy in his heart, logically speaking at this point, the young master was about to take a rest, but he actually made an exception for Miss Logan!

“Cecilia, it’s me, are you asleep?” Lisa stood at Cecilia’s door and knocked on the door.

“Brother?” Cecilia opened the door immediately when she heard the voice. You must know that Big Brother hasn’t looked for her alone for a long time.

Isabella was going out tonight, and the elder brother happened to come to her, presumably Isabella would not let the elder brother come!

Thinking of this. Cecilia happily gave up her seat, “Brother, come in and chat.”

“Let’s go to the terrace.”

Every floor has a large viewing terrace, and Cecilia’s floor is no exception.

On the terrace where the flowers and plants were swaying, Cecilia asked happily, “Brother, what do you want from me at night?”

Before Lisa could answer. Cecilia took the opportunity to act coquettishly and said. “You haven’t chatted with me for a long time, I thought our brother-sister relationship has changed! Although I always think of you as a big brother in my heart, I don’t know that in your heart, it is Don’t you still treat me as a younger sister...”

Speaking of this, Cecilia deliberately pretended to be aggrieved and depressed.

“of course.”

Lisa’s affirmative tone made Cecilia smile all of a sudden, “I know that big brother treats me the best!”

“Isabella has just returned to this home. It is normal for everyone to worry about her feelings. It may make you think that we treat you differently than before.”

Lisa said from the bottom of her heart, "But in the eyes of my parents, including me and the other brothers, you are still a part of this family and have never changed."

When Cecilia heard it, it wasn't good, there was something in the big brother's words. Could it be that the big brother came to her at night to warn her?

"Did your parents treat you well all these years?" Lisa asked again.

Cecilia said without hesitation, "Of course, my parents once said that I am the most important baby in the family, and I can't wait to bring all the good things in the world to me."

"How does the elder brother treat you?"

"My elder brother will buy me as soon as he sees anything that suits me. There are some new styles that I can't buy, and my elder brother came out with them."

"How do the other brothers treat you?"

"It's also very good!" Cecilia didn't know what to do, and decided to preemptively said, "Brother, why are you asking that all of a sudden?"

Lisa said earnestly, "Isabella has been away for 18 years, and finally returned to this home. My parents and I want to make up for her. Maybe in your opinion, we value her more than you, but in our opinion, everything we give her now is what you have had in the past eighteen years."

Cecilia understands, the eldest brother is because of Isabella, so he talks to her at night!

She suddenly felt a little unhappy.

“Have you ever thought that this is her home, and she should come back here to enjoy the life that should belong to her. She is the child of her parents, and her parents should treat her well, and as my brother. We should pamper her and love her even more, especially since she has endured eighteen years of suffering outside, and we should compensate her even more in the future.”

“Brother, you suddenly said this to me, making it seem like I don’t welcome my sister back to this home!” Cecilia felt a little disgusted and looked a little depressed, “Don’t get me wrong, I have no hostility towards my sister.”

“Whether there is hostility and how much there is, I can see it.”

Lisa’s eyes fell on her, and she said meaningfully, “The reason why big brother chatted with you is to let you know that even if Isabella returns to this home, our feelings for you in the past eighteen years are not fake, you still You can stay, as before, buy whatever you want, do what you want, no one will restrain you, or treat you differently.”

Cecilia couldn’t believe it. The family treated her differently...

“I can see that Isabella is not hostile to you. Sometimes you make trouble first, but she always gives way to you and doesn’t care about you. You should be happy to have such a sister.”

When Lisa said this, she paused, and then continued, “Listen to brother, let go of your prejudices, try to accept her, respect her, and you will find that life is not much worse than before. On the contrary, you will live a better life than before.” I was happy before.”

Will you be really happy?

But seeing her parents love Isabella so much, and her elder brother always favoring Isabella, she was so jealous and angry!

Lisa earnestly said. "This home doesn't belong to you."

In a word, let Cecilia wake up like a dream!

215 Vouchers

"Including the love of your parents and several older brothers, the life of rich clothes and good food, and the respect of your servants, none of it belongs to you."

Cecilia froze in place.

"It is because of your fault that you have enjoyed eighteen years of happy life for Isabella. Isabella accepts you in the face of her parents and brother, and you have the opportunity to be jealous of her and hurt her. If she firmly refuses from the beginning If you stay in this home, what will happen to you, have you thought about it?"

Chapter 210 This is the most useless move

Cecilia was surprised for a few seconds, as if frozen.

"And can you, like her, accept her on the face of your parents and brother? Like she accepts you?"

Seeing her lost in thought, Lisa patted her on the head, "Think about what elder brother said before going to bed tonight, and hope that next time elder brother comes home, he can see a different you."

Lisa's biological clock was still on time, and there were only three minutes left before his bedtime, and he stood up, not making an exception for anyone.

Before he left, he deliberately said. "If I were you, I would cherish everything in front of me. I don't regret it until I lose it."

Cecilia looked at him in astonishment.

"Good night." Lisa took a step and left the terrace.

Seeing Lisa gone, Scarlet, who was hiding in the dark, hurriedly appeared, "Miss Logan, are you okay..."

the young master was looking for Miss Logan just now, she has followed her secretly!

I thought that the young master would say something to love Miss Logan, or do something to love Miss Logan, but I never expected it to be a warning!!

Young master is warning you, if you don't get along well with Isabella, you will leave this house..."

Cecilia's tears rolled down, "But brother is right, this family doesn't belong to me in the first place, the love from parents and brothers, the life of rich clothes and good food, the service of servants, all don't belong to me! It's me. Enjoyed eighteen years of life instead of Isabella!"

Miss Logan, you can't think like this." Scarlet was in a hurry, looked around quickly, and said when there was no one else, "Who made Elder Mr. and Mrs. confused and picked up the wrong child. how can I blame you? You also lost eighteen years of being loved by your biological parents, you have lost too!"

Cecilia said in a daze, "Scarlet, tell me, if I really treat Isabella as my own sister, will they treat me the same as before? I mean my parents, and a few older brothers..."

“Certainly not!” Scarlet said anxiously, “Miss Logan, why are you so stupid! You were fooled by the young master in a few words! If the young master really treats you as his sister, he will not warn you in disguise tonight you!”

“But I think what elder brother said has some truth...” Although it sounds hurtful, everything makes sense.

“Do you remember what the last sentence of the young master was? He is implying you, restless, you will lose it soon!”

Scarlet is impatient. “ Miss Logan, listen to me, while you still have the ability and connections, and while they still have feelings for you, either kick Isabella out of the game, or strive for the best interests of the Logan Family, or be on the list of Mr. Mason has become the most influential person in the world, don’t be stupid, n

keep a low profile and build a good relationship with Isabella, this trick is the most useless!”

Cecilia raised her eyes, a little shaken again.

“I have watched you grow up since I was a child, and I have already regarded you as my own child, and I will never harm you!” Scarlet was so anxious that she almost cried, “I am really doing it for you, Miss Logan, don’t be fooled by young Master cheated!”

“Scarlet, do you have no children ?” Cecilia asked suddenly.

Scarlet was stunned for a while, not understanding what Miss Logan meant, before saying after a while, “I once had a child too.”

“Ever?” Cecilia asked in surprise.

“That was a long time ago. At that time, I had just finished my confinement. I heard that it was very profitable to be a nanny in the city. I wanted to try it out. Because my husband was lame and could only stay in the village to take care of him. The family, young and old, did not expect the sudden flood that year... My husband left, my child passed away, and the child’s grandparents also disappeared.”

Cecilia was a little moved, “Sorry, I asked about your sadness.”

She was just curious, she hadn’t heard Scarlet talk about her family in the past eighteen years, and during the holidays, Scarlet didn’t think about going back to visit her relatives.

“The people in our village are all relatives, and many people died in the flood that year.”

Cecilia nodded, “I won’t forget you when I succeed in the future.”

“Thank you Miss Logan!” Scarlet said a lot to her again.

Isabella was busy until 11:30, checked the time, sorted and packed the medicines, and hurried home.

As soon as she stepped into the gate, she could feel a hostile gaze on her from the second floor, as if she wanted to cut her into pieces.

She looked up and found a figure hiding behind the window, seeming to be spying on her whereabouts.

That window, from Cecilia’s room.

Maybe Cecilia didn’t know it, but the light pulled her into a long shadow, which was reflected on the curtain.

Isabella looked away disapprovingly, and heard her parents' voices as soon as she entered the living room.

"Why hasn't baby Isabella come back yet? Is there any danger? Why don't you call and ask?" It was Williams' voice, "It's so late, she's a girl, I'm always not at ease..."

"It's not twelve o'clock yet, don't rush, don't let Isabella have psychological pressure!" Eloise's voice had a hint of sleepiness, "Wait a minute, Isabella will never be later than twelve o'clock before!"

"Really??" Williams yawned, "Then I'll wait!"

When Isabella heard these conversations, her heart warmed up, and she changed into a pair of slippers and entered the door, "Mom and Dad, I'm back."

Williams and Eloise cheered up immediately and got up to greet them.

As soon as Williams finished speaking. Eloise slapped her hands, "You are checking your account! Why are you asking so carefully! Isabella is such a big person, she has a sense of propriety."

"Yes, yes, I was just worrying!"

Isabella curled her lips lightly, "I went to see that doctor just now. She is going abroad to see other people tonight. Before she left, she gave me this medicine and said it was 100% okay."

Eloise was stunned, "That's right, she's famous, there must be many people asking her to see a doctor, we let her come over to see her parents temporarily, she can't turn down the order on hand and come right away."

“That’s right, that’s right, Isabella also knows medical skills. She told the doctor about her parents’ situation, and he prescribes the right medicine. I believe nothing will go wrong!” Williams also didn’t want to put pressure on Isabella.

“This is the medicine for the first three days. There are six bottles in total, one in the morning and one in the evening, and you can take it by pouring it into warm water.” Isabella handed over a small bag, “She will prepare the medicine and send it to me. Don’t worry about not being able to catch up.”

“Okay, thank you for your hard work!” Eloise said hurriedly. “Mom has prepared a supper for you, go eat some first, oh yes, is the money enough? Parents will add more?”

“No need, she confiscated much.” Isabella smiled. “I’ll go upstairs to take a shower first, and then I’ll come down to eat later, you guys go to bed first.”

“Okay, then you have to remember to eat!”
