Chapter 211

No matter what you do, you can turn eight hundred corners and think of her.

Perhaps, this is love.

“Have you seen your grandparents today?”

Isabella responded lightly, “Yes, I scc.”

“Are they feeling better?”

“It may take more than 20 days to wake up.”

“I heard that their illnesses are very difficult...” Benjamin paused. and continued, “But as long as you are here, I believe that no matter what situation you encounter, you can solve it.”

Isabella raised the corners of her lips, “Have confidence in me?”

“Well.” Benjamin affirmed, “There are only two types of people in this world with you, the dead and the living. As long as they are living, you must have a way to save them.”

Isabella thought of the project she was working on. Not only did she spend a lot of money, but she didn't make much progress, she said with a hint of helplessness in her tone. “But there are many diseases in this world that I can't do anything about.”

“That's why you took down him and did research in private. You want to help more people, and you want to give those who have been sentenced to death for their illness a chance to survive. You have worked very hard.”

“Do you think I'm whimsical?”

“No, on the contrary, I think a doctor should be like you, be selfless, this is the real noble character.”

Isabella felt warm when she heard this.

“You are great.” Benjamin raised the corners of his lips. “I am very proud to have such an excellent fiancée like you.”

After a while, Isabella finished talking on the phone, took a shower, and went downstairs for supper.

“Ms. Young, are you finished? This bowl of bird’s nest with milk is specially made for you by my wife.” Myra brought out a bowl of bird’s nest from the kitchen, and smiled, “How would you like it?”

Seeing that she hadn’t rested yet, Isabella couldn’t help but said, “It’s so late, go and rest first, you don’t need to serve here.”

“I’m not sleepy.” Myra smiled, looking very kind.

Isabella ate a few mouthfuls of bird’s nest, and asked quietly, “Brother, did you talk to Cecilia tonight?”

Myra froze for a moment, “ Ms. Young, how do you know?”

Isabella didn’t think so, “Guess.”

“Guess?” Myra was even more surprised, guessed, guessed so accurately? Ms. Young is really good at predicting things.

She didn’t dare to hide it, and reported truthfully, “I was in the garden tonight, and I did see the young master and Miss Logan chatting on the viewing terrace on the second floor, but what they talked about was too far away, so I didn’t hear it.”

“It’s okay.” Isabella said flatly, “I know what they talked about.”

“You know?”

It must have been a warning to Cecilia, hoping that she would rein in the precipice and turn around.

“Did Mom make two servings of this bird’s nest?”

Myra was surprised again, how docs Ms. Young know everything!

“Madam did make two servings. Yours is milk bird’s nest, and Miss Logan’s is black tea bird’s nest. I originally waited for Ms. Young to finish eating, and then called Miss Logan to come down, lest you meet again.”

Isabella didn’t expect her to be very well-intentioned. Her parents have always treated Cecilia and her equally...

Cecilia killed herself...

After supper, Isabella went upstairs first.

She turned on the computer, entered a dedicated software, entered a series of chemical equations, and then studied the medicines that her grandparents would use later.

This software can calculate what drugs and what drugs are synthesized, and what positive and side effects will occur, which is very helpful for research.

After a while, she received another call.

[Boss, another big order! This time the rich man said how much we have in stock and how much he wants! Thank you for your hard work tonight to draw more manuscripts lol...]

“Could it be someone I know again?” Isabella asked, pursing her lips.

[This time I promise, absolutely not! It’s a foreigner!]

“Okay.” Isabella agreed confidently. “What time do you want?”

[Preferably before 8:00 am tomorrow, because I have to rush the

The person who opened the door was Scarlet, she gave Myra a dissatisfied look, and sneered, “Ms. Young will give Miss Logan the leftovers ? Miss Logan is not a garbage bag, you can put any garbage!”

Scarlet, what do you mean?” Myra was a little annoyed. Madam made two servings of bird’s nest according to the different tastes of the two ladies, but Scarlet said that Ms. Young had leftovers, so she gave them to Miss Logan.

“Anyway, our Miss Logan is not hungry, so we won’t eat!” Scarlet angrily closed the door.

“You...” Myra was very angry, what kind of quality is this person!

After closing the door, Scarlet came to Cecilia, “Miss Logan, I drove her away.”

Sitting in front of the dressing table. Cecilia looked at her beautiful face that had been supported by money for eighteen years, and said lightly, “Don’t pay attention to her.

“It’s too much! What the hell! It’s just a servant who dares to ask you to eat Ms. Young’s leftovers. Isn’t this a humiliation?”

Scarlet was furious, and defended Cecilia, "You are still the young lady of this family, and the publicly acknowledged daughter of Elder Mr. and Mrs., how dare she treat you like this...see if I won't punish her!"

Cecilia reminded lightly, "Scarlet, don't forget, you still have the video at Isabella 's. In the last few days, we'd better keep quiet."

Although she was extremely disappointed with her mother's partiality, she even lowered her tone, "Even if you want to teach them a lesson, it's not at home."

The eldest brother can see that she is hostile to Isabella, if her parents find out...

Her life must be difficult.

Do it outside!

"I just said that Elder Mr. and Mrs. are lying. Their biological daughter is back. You are just an outsider with no blood relationship to this family. If they have you in their hearts, they won't even want a bowl of bird's nest." Here you are! Isn't this partiality?"

When Scarlet said this, he was angry for a while, and then continued." Before the young master talked to you tonight, he specially asked someone to plant her favorite vanilla on Ms. Young 's balcony."

"vanilla?" Cecilia was a little surprised when she heard that, the elder brother would do such a romantic thing, it's not like the elder brother's style!

Could it be that Isabella begged herself?

The young master did this to make Ms. Young think of him every day? This shows that he regards his own sister very seriously in his heart, very important!”

Cecilia ‘s mood became even more depressed, “I know.”

Didn’t the young master say that he treats people equally? Why docs Ms. Young have flowers, but you don’t? Didn’t he say that everything he gives to Ms. Young now is what you have owned in the past eighteen years? Things like planting flowers, you Never had it!”

Cecilia lowered her head, feeling even more sad in her heart.

She thought that what the elder brother said tonight made some sense, but she began to waver, wondering whether the previous self really did something wrong, did she treat Isabella too much...

But now, each and every incident, no matter how big or small, is enough to break her heart.

“I’m not afraid of lowering the family’s class by planting any garbage flowers! This is the home of the richest man in the United States! The cheapest variety in the garden costs tens of thousands of dollars. She herself is shabby, and even the things she likes are also shabby! She is not afraid to grow them out.”
Make people laugh!”

Scarlet couldn’t help but scolded. “It’s really a person who can’t get on the stage! She wants to plant, she can plant it in her room to enjoy it, or someone can pick a bunch and put it in a vase in her room, why do she want to plant it to hinder others Eyes? Isn’t this meant to show off to you?”

Cecilia ‘s mood was extremely heavy.

Elder Mr. and Mrs., including what the young master told you tonight, are all lies to children! You must not believe it! If you believe it, you will be fooled!”

When Scarlet said this, he deliberately lowered his voice, "If Isabella doesn't come back, you will be the only Lady at home.

When you get married in the future, the dowry must not be spread all over the ten streets? But what did the lady say last time? Bigger than sister Zocy!"

At that time, when her sister got married, her dowry was 800 million USD, plus 12 suites and 12 cars.

"Just send you with this little thing? How can it be done? Didn't you mean to treat you as your own daughter? At least you have to look like your own daughter?" Scarlet paused for a while, and persuaded in a good voice, "Next During this time, the young master is not around, we can create more things to make Elder Mr. and Mrs. hate Isabella! No matter at home or outside, as long as the goal is achieved..."

Cecilia raised her long eyelashes, a little uncertain, "But brother is very well informed..."

What if he finds out and drives her out of the house?

"It's not about murdering money, it's just giving Isabella a little bit of trouble! We can't hold our breath and let her be happy by herself? Besides, there is no evidence at that time, even if the young master suspects it, she won't directly Say we're not!"

"Then what's your idea?" Cecilia asked in a low voice with anxiety.

"I think..." Scarlet leaned closer to Cecilia's car and said a lot. Seeing that Cecilia didn't respond much after listening, she was a little anxious," Miss Logan, you want to be a dragon and phoenix, and you want to get Elder Mr. and Mrs.. There are also a few brothers who value it, if you want to have a future with Mr. Mason, you must be ruthless and give it a go!"

Cecilia thought about it, but still felt it was wrong. Although she really wanted to punish Isabella and make Isabella suffer a little bit. but the big brother said tonight, inside and outside, it seemed that a thick wall had been laid in her heart. thick walls...

Let her not dare to go beyond, fear in her heart.

“Think about what Elder Mr. and Mrs. did after that Isabella came back, and the young master...” Scarlet kept giving her a boost, “That’s not partiality, what is it?”

“But...” Cecilia was still confused.

Miss Logan, it’s time for you to plan for your future!” Scarlet said. “Don’t worry, even if something happens, I will take care of it for you.”

Scarlet, you...” Cecilia didn’t expect that even a servant was better than the so-called family, and suddenly had mixed feelings.

Scarlet patted her chest and assured, “I’ll take everything on myself when the time comes.”

“Scarlet...”

“I said, in my heart, I have already regarded you as my child...” Scarlet said every word with sincerity, “Even if I risk my old life, I will fight for your best interests, I am the person who looks forward to your best in the whole world!”

After being touched by her, Cecilia finally made a decision.

Early the next morning, Williams received a call from the hospital, saying that his mother's physical data had improved slightly, and he wondered if it was because of the needle given by Isabella yesterday.

While Williams was happy, he and Eloise washed up again, took the medicine Isabella gave them, and hurried to the hospital.

Not long after, the results of the Enter University exam could be checked. It is estimated that too many people squeezed into the system, and the system was paralyzed after a while.

Chapter 213 A Famous University Comes to You

"Daisy, what's the matter, the webpage still can't be opened?" Gail was anxious.

Seeing his wife pacing in the living room, Michael couldn't help but said, "Don't stress Daisy by walking around, Daisy is already very nervous."

Although he was also extremely nervous, he remained calm on the surface.

"Open it..." Sitting on the sofa, Daisy entered her exam admission ticket number and ID number on the laptop with her fingers, and clicked to log in.

"How is it, have the results come out?" Gail rushed over to take a look, and the system crashed again.

After a while. Daisy kept refreshing, logging in, and finally squeezed in!

“Dad. Mom, I got a score of 601!!” Daisy stared at the numbers on the screen and cried out excitedly.

“Really?” Gail squeezed over to take a look, his brows and eyes stretched out with joy. “601! It’s really 601! So, it’s okay to go to a key university?”

“Our family is really lucky to have such a top student!” Michael laughed, and the haze of many days was swept away!

“I didn’t expect Ms. Daisy ‘s grades to be so good!” The nanny on the side also said happily. “I heard that the exam questions this time are very difficult, and many students with top grades did not perform well. My niece just said in the family group She scored 530 in the test! I didn’t expect Miss Daisy to get 601! It’s amazing!”

Gail raised her chin triumphantly. A nanny’s niece deserves to be compared with her daughter?

Her daughter was born so outstanding!

“Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Elder, you have such a smart daughter!”

“Miss Daisy can enter a higher education institution, the future is promising!”

“Miss Daisy is amazing, we uneducated people can only worship!”

The nannies complimented each other.

It has been a long time since such a happy event happened at home, Gail felt elated," Michael. please go and inform other relatives in the family, we are going to treat guests to dinner at the best restaurant in Bomsville! By the way, announce Daisy Lady's identity! Oh by the way, Daisy, how are you and Harris doing lately? Do you still have contact?

Daisy was very happy at first, but when she heard this, her expression froze, "Yes."

Contact once every three to five days, every time she took the initiative!

Can't go on like this!

Otherwise, she would really lose Harris completely!

A Famous University Comes You

"As long as you have it, as long as you have it!" Gail was even happier, and planned. "Then you invite their family over for dinner, and if his parents don't want to show their respect, you can invite Harris alone so that he can get acquainted with our relatives Get acquainted, move around."

"Harris is in the best university. With your score, can you go to his school?" Michael asked suddenly.

Daisy bit her lower lip. "Bomsville University 's admission score in previous years was above 620 points... This year's exam questions are more difficult, I don't know if it will drop..."

If it drops to 600 points, then she can barely pass!

Isn't the place where Harris is in a university town anyway? There are a total of ten universities there, and Daisy just needs to find one of these 10, and she can still see Harris every day!" Gail is not worried about this problem.

At this moment, a nanny rushed over, "Master, madam, there are many people coming outside! They are all here to find Miss Daisy!"

“Who?” Gail guessed, “Is it Daisy’s classmate?”

“I don’t know her. It seems to be from a prestigious school. I want to ask Ms. Daisy to go to college with them!”

“Really? From a prestigious school?”

Gail was flattered, and Michael was clearly taken aback.

Daisy looked at her pajamas, “Dad, Mom, hold it up for a while, I’ll go upstairs and change first!”

“Could it be that the test questions are more difficult this time, and

A Famous University Comes You

Daisy ‘s score is among the best in Bomsville, so those key universities have found us?” Gail guessed excitedly.

“It’s possible!” Michael glanced out of the window hastily, and there were crowds of people outside the gate. Daisy’s results this time must be very good!

After Daisy got off after changing her clothes, they also tidied up their appearance and went out to greet her in a hurry.

An admissions teacher saw them coming out from a long distance, and hurriedly shouted. “Hello, I am the admissions teacher of the University of Foreign Languages, your daughter’s Enter University exam is very good, do you consider coming to our foreign language school?”? Free tuition for four years!”

When Michael and Gail heard it, is there such a good thing? The pace is faster.

“Come on, open the door quickly, open the door quickly...” Michael hastily ordered someone to open the carved door.

Twenty or so teachers swarmed in, and many of them surrounded them, scrambling to grab the students, not to be outdone.

“The treatment that the University of Foreign Languages can give, our University of Science and Technology can also give! Not only will the four-year tuition fee be exempted, but also provide a single VIP dormitory! Free stay for four years!”

When Daisy heard it, it was so good? Single dorms are what she wants!

“Single-person dormitory can also be provided by our university of science and technology! Not only tuition and miscellaneous fees are free, but also a scholarship of 500,000 USD!”

half a million?!

“Our University can provide one million rewards!”

one million?!

“Our University has a beautiful environment. No matter which major you choose, there will be the best professors to guide you!”

“Our Bomsville University is the highest institution in the United States, and we, Bomsville University, can meet all the conditions they put forward!”

“Our Washington University can do it too!”

Michael and Gail didn't expect their daughter to be so popular, and they were overjoyed!

Gail retreated from the crowd step by step, and whispered to the nanny behind him, “What are you still doing? Why don't you hurry up and record this glorious moment, and I will treat guests to dinner later, and I can put it on the big screen for everyone to see. How many do we have?”

“Yes!” The nanny hurriedly turned on the phone and tapped to record.

Daisy guessed that her grades should be very high, otherwise it would be impossible for both Bomsville University and Washington University to come to her at the same time.

“Thank you for your kind invitation.” Daisy smiled generously, “In fact, your universities are all very good, and I like them all, but Bomsville University has a major that I want to study. I'm sorry to let teachers from other schools make a waste of time. gone.”

When she said this, she bowed to everyone very politely, showing the appearance of a good student.

“Why don't you think about it again? Our engineering university is really good.”

“Our University of Architecture is also good!”

“If you think the conditions offered by our Acronautical University are not attractive enough, I can apply to the school to fully meet your requirements!”

Michael stretched out his hand in high spirits to signal everyone to be quiet. Like a leader in a meeting, he said with a smile. "Thank you all the school leaders and teachers for paying attention to my daughter, and even came to the door in person. My daughter, He Dehe can, can you get such attention?"

He smiled, and continued, "Everyone has come from afar, please come in with me, drink some coffee, have some snacks, and then talk ab

Chapter 214 A Big Joke

The admissions teachers of all famous universities received the news early in the morning and kept rushing on the road. Indeed, they haven't had a sip of water until now.

They thanked Michael for the invitation one after another, and they were about to enter the house.

Daisy, what are you still doing in a daze, show the teachers the way." Gail said enthusiastically with a smile all over her face.

Hearing the name " Daisy ", everyone stopped and looked at Gail suspiciously.

"Madam, may I ask, is Daisy your daughter's first name?"

"Yeah, her full name is Daisy Brown, and we usually call her Daisy..."

Hearing "Daisy", everyone realized that they had found the wrong person!

It's all because the teachers who were in the same class just now robbed people too much. They rushed one by one, and they didn't confirm the identity of this candidate first!

I almost stepped into someone's house for coffee!

“Excuse me, isn’t this Isabella ‘s home?” one of the old professors suddenly asked.

the name ” Isabella “. Michael and Gail were stunned.

“We are looking for Isabella. I see that she filled in this address on the student information, right?”
Another admissions teacher took out Isabella’s personal information registered at the school before.
and compared the house number outside the door. It was indeed here, ah!

“Could it be that Isabella made a careless mistake?”

“Excuse me, is there any neighbor’s child named Isabella here ?”

“It’s probably because the kid was careless and filled in the wrong house number!”

There are many villas here, and Isabella probably lives in one of them!

“You, you, are you looking for Isabella...?” Michael was stunned like a lightning strike!

Gail subconsciously asked, “Her, is her grades good?”

“Yeah, she is the Enter University exam No. 1 this time!”

“Enter University exam No. 1 “These four words fell like a bolt of lightning, and the Brown family, including several nannies of the Brown family, were all dumbfounded!

Isabella is Enter University exam No. 1?

Wasn’t her previous grade last ??

Did these teachers read the wrong name???

How could Isabella be Enter University exam No. 1 ?!

the Brown family, the teachers apologized one after another and

Dividing into pages now turned to leave..

Gail hurriedly stopped one of the old professors, "Excuse me, may I ask, with Daisy's score this year, can he get into your school?"

The one who was caught was a professor from Bomsville University. He heard Daisy 's name very familiarly just now, and now he finally remembered who this person was!

He withdrew his hand lightly, completely different from the enthusiastic him just now.

He looked at Daisy and confirmed again, "Your name, is it Daisy ?"

"Yes." Although Daisy was hit hard by Isabella 's grades, she still smiled and said politely, "I got 601 points in the test this year."

"Can't get on."

The old professor was about to leave, and Daisy hurriedly asked, "Is it because the admission score of Bomsville University is high?"

The old professor's eyes fell on Daisy again, with a bit of displeasure, "I heard that you won the ranking by plagiarism in a grand piano competition? You have bad conduct, even if you get full marks, our school will not Take a student like you!"

The teachers from other universities were stunned when they heard this. Seeing her gentle and polite. Lori, she actually relied on plagiarism to get her ranking?

This is not acceptable!!

Daisy 's complexion turned pale.

The admissions teacher of another university also said. "Although our admission score this year is 600 points, our university does not admit students with bad conduct."

"So is our Aeronautical University."

"Don't apply to our University. If you do, we won't admit you either. Our principal values students' conduct more than the score line!"

"So docs our principal."

Hearing the rejections from the teachers of these famous universities one after another, Daisy 's face was extremely pale, and she almost couldn't stand still!

Michael was also shocked, and he didn't realize what happened until they left.

And Gail saw that the nanny was still recording the video, and angrily scolded, "Recording what? Isn't it embarrassing enough?"

Neighbors from several surrounding villas were also watching their jokes, especially Mrs. Holt, who had signed with them before, showed a contemptuous and gloating look at this moment.

Gail's face was hot, as if she had been slapped dozens of times, she pulled Daisy, and whispered to the other servants, "Don't go in yet."

Everyone hurried into the house, closed the door, and even locked the door lock.

How could Isabella be the Enter University exam No. 1 this time? How is it possible?" Gail was going crazy, pacing the living room non-stop, "She must have this time?"

Before anyone else could speak, Gail rebuked angrily, "It must be her, she must have leaked what happened at the awards ceremony, otherwise how could the teachers of these prestigious universities know what happened that day! Don't forget that The award ceremony is not announced to the public!"

When Gail said this, he wanted to strangle Isabella to death!

Everything under the sun will be exposed! I don't think Isabella said it." Michael sat on the sofa, the high spirits just now were gone, replaced by embarrassment and depression.

Daisy is also sad, Dad still believes in that little bitch so much, she didn't leak it, who else?

"How do you know she didn't say it? You're just taking sides with her!" Gail was furious, "You and your mother are as good as you, and you've been fooled by that little bastard Isabella!"

Isabella really disclosed this to the professor at Bomsville University, it means that the two of them know each other, but the professor just now clearly didn't know Isabella, and mistakenly thought that Daisy was the No. 1 of this year!"

When everyone hears it. it makes sense...

"Could it be that she called to reveal it? So the professor hasn't seen her?" Gail speculated.

“It doesn’t matter who revealed it now!” Michael corrected angrily, “What matters is that Daisy was rejected by those prestigious universities at the same time, what will the neighbors say? When she is going to apply for university later, will she still be able to apply for university? Those schools in the city? If not, she is so far away from Harris, if Harris is attracted to other girls? What about Daisy ??”

“Yes.” Gail fell silent, thinking of countermeasures.

Isabella in everything. If you hadn’t done such a great job at the beginning, then Isabella became Enter University exam No. 1, and we can also save face!”

“Also before, if the relationship hadn’t been so tense, even if Daisy had copied Isabella’s music. Isabella wouldn’t have killed them all! They want us to lose money and break up with us!”

“Before that, she knew that Fred, maybe she could help us build a good relationship with Jessica!”

Chapter 215 Do you dare to bet?

“Are you blaming me?” Gail was very angry, “I didn’t know she was so powerful? Besides, with her personality, even if we treat her well. does she know how to reciprocate the favor? What happened in the family? There are many things, one after another, one by one, which one did she help?”

“Stop arguing!” Daisy was tired of it, but her parents were still arguing in front of her, which was upsetting.

Only then did Gail notice her daughter’s emotions, and restrained herself a lot.” Daisy, don’t take what happened today to your heart. Getting a score of 601 in the test is already very good! Mom and Dad are proud of you!”

Daisy was very unconvinced, that idiot could become Enter University exam No. 1, and she only got 601 in the exam!

Say it out and throw people to death!

“I’m going upstairs first!” At this moment. Daisy just wanted to change out of her clothes as soon as possible. Just now, she mistakenly thought that the teachers in the prestigious universities. were looking for her, and she was dressed very luxuriously...

Now it seems that it is a joke!

Riverside Villa.

Cecilia went downstairs in a flowing nightdress, still holding a tablet in her hand, and asked softly, “Scarlet, why don’t you go and see what’s going on with the Internet? Why is there no Internet in

I can’t connect to wifi or 4G, it’s time to check the results...

Scarlet knew that the Enter University exam score was going to be checked today. Could it be that Isabella’s grades were not good, so she deliberately hired someone to disrupt the Internet, so that her family would not compare Miss Logan’s Enter University exam score with hers?

With that in mind, Scarlet picked up the pace, impatient to see Isabella embarrass herself.

Not long after, Scarlet ran back to the living room as if he had seen a ghost, with a slipper flying, with an excited smile on his face, Miss Logan, Mr. Logan received a message saying that more than a dozen famous brands The university’s admissions teachers and professors are on their way, and I heard that No. 1 is in our Riverside Villa!”

When she said this, she took a breath, and hurriedly shared the joy, “There are also some professors from key universities, hurry up and come here by various means of transportation! In the entire lake villa, only you and Ms. Young are in their third year of high school!

When Cecilia heard this, she was overjoyed. So, No. 1 is likely to be her?

A maid next to her couldn't help but said. "Could this No. 1 be Miss Logan? Miss Logan has been very good at her homework since she was a child! Last time she won the first place!"

Do you dare to bet

Ms. Young's high school is very ordinary, even if she usually has good grades, it is difficult to get No. 1, right?"

"I think Miss Logan is more likely."

"I think so."

"No matter who it is, let's go wash up first and change into decent clothes. It is said that some teachers who are fast are coming to Riverside Villa soon!"

Cecilia faintly felt that No. 1 was herself, but she didn't dare to show it too obviously, so she suppressed her joy and asked, "Where are my parents?"

"They went to the hospital early in the morning to deliver medicine to the old gentleman and old lady, and they are on their way here now." Scarlet replied.

"Then I'll go change my clothes first."

After Cecilia went upstairs, Myra was anxious in her heart, so she could only come to Isabella's room, struggling non-stop.

Isabella drew the design draft all night last night, and concocted the antidote for a long time, and she just lay down for a long time.

Not long ago, she had told Myra not to wake her up or to eat lunch.

Once she doesn't get enough sleep, she has a very bad temper.

Myra lingered at the door for a long time, and finally went downstairs with a hey, and couldn't bear to wake Ms. Young up.

As soon as Cecilia changed her clothes and went downstairs, Scarlet praised with a smile, "Miss Logan is so beautiful! There is no other person in this world who can match her temperament and facial features!"

Several maids around thought of Ms. Young's beauty in prosperity. Although Ms. Young was better, but at this time, they didn't want to spoil the fun, and they couldn't tear it down.

After all, Miss Logan looks decent...

"Miss Logan, congratulations! This No. 1 must be you!" Someone asked with a smile, "Have you decided to apply for a major?"

Cecilia pretended to be modest and said, "I don't know if it's me, in case it's my sister..."

"Miss Logan, your achievements are obvious to all, it must be you!" Scarlet said with a smile on her face, "I brought you up, who else but you?"

At this moment, a maid excitedly said, "There is an Internet, Miss Logan, there is an Internet! You can check your results now!!"

Cecilia hurriedly picked up the tablet computer on the sofa, and entered the well-known exam admission ticket number and ID number.

A group of servants surrounded her, chattering non-stop.

“Why can’t I open the webpage?”

“Is it because there are too many people checking the results, and the system can’t respond?”

“I’m so nervous, even more nervous than when I checked my Enter University exam results...”

Do you dare to bet

“Miss Logan must have had a high score...”

The page did not display the score for a long time, and a maid comforted softly, “Anyway, No. 1 must be Miss Logan, it can’t be wrong! Don’t worry, the system needs to buffer.”

“Congratulations to Miss Logan in advance, proud of Elder Mr. and Mrs.!”

“Congratulations, Miss Logan...”

“Miss Logan, congratulations!”

Although Cecilia knew that No. 1 was none other than herself, she still waited for the real hammer, stared at the page without moving away, and said softly on the surface, “Don’t congratulate too early, if it’s not me...”

“It must be you!” When Scarlet said this, she couldn’t help mocking triumphantly, “There are two Enter University exam students in our family, if one gets No. 1 and the other fails, the gap is too big! If it is I fail the exam, then I will dig a hole in the garden, lie in it by myself, and die without shame in this world.”

Everyone heard that Scarlet’s sarcasm was Ms. Young, but due to Scarlet’s high status, no one dared to speak out.

Only Myra stood up and accused dissatisfiedly. “Scarlet, the score hasn’t come out yet, so it’s not sure who No. 1 is.”

“Oh, come out in a while, someone’s face hurts so much!” Scarlet sneered, looking at Myra, “I don’t know what Ms. Young did to you in private, so rushing to speak for her? How about it? Dare Don’t dare to bet?”

Myra was a little angry and confused. “What bet?”

Do you dare to bet

“Just bet on all the housework in this family! If anyone guesses wrong, the others don’t have to do the work at hand, and she will do it all by herself! Just bet on today’s work, how about it?”

“Okay!” Myra felt that losers can’t lose, no matter what, they can’t lose this tone, and they can’t let Ms. Young be ridiculed and looked down upon by her!

At this moment, someone shouted excitedly, “It’s out, it’s out, Miss Logan’s results are out!”

They are getting closer!

Chapter 216 If you want to repeat

Cecilia was pleasantly surprised to find that her total score on the Enter University exam was 722!

This broke the highest score of Bomsville last year!!

“Wow? Miss Logan is amazing, isn’t she?”

No. 1 in other cities is at most 702, 708, 711, and there is no 722 yet!!”

“So Miss Logan is the highest score in America?”

“Miss Logan is America’s No. 1 ?”

Everyone was stunned, even Cecilia couldn’t believe it, confused, and was hit by a huge surprise!

Scarlet was excited, and hurriedly urged, “Miss Logan, what are you still doing? Call Elder Mr. and Mrs. to tell the good news!”

“1...”

“Such great news, we must share it with them!” Scarlet hurriedly brought her mobile phone over, “Call quickly!”

Cecilia did not expect that her Enter University exam score was even-higher than she expected.

She was proud of herself, and soon, she was going to be famous.

News Headlines, Twitter Cecilia’s name will definitely appear on trending and major platforms!

She, Cecilia, is a well-deserved top student in the United States!

Soon to be a man of the hour!

Seeing the gap between her dialing the phone, Scarlet couldn't help, but proudly said, "What's so great about having a blood relationship, it's not you Miss Logan who really gave Elder Mr. and Mrs. a face! What a lady, you have to humble yourself in front of you head?"

Everyone knew that she was taunting Ms. Young, but dared not speak out if they had opinions, for fear of being spoiled by her behind the scenes.

After a while, Williams answered, "Hello, Cecilia ? Is the result of the Enter University exam out?"

"It came out." Cecilia tried her best to suppress the excitement in her heart, and shared generously, "I got 722 points in the exam."

"722? That's the highest score in the US right now?" Williams laughed, "What about Isabella? Has her score come out yet?"

Cecilia didn't expect her father to turn to Isabella with two or three words, a look of displeasure flashed across her eyes, and she quickly said with a smile, "My sister locked herself in the room, I don't know if she was trying to catch up on sleep or she was in a bad mood.....Dad, when will you go home? When you come, go to accompany my sister and give her some courage and confidence?"

"We'll be there soon, in five minutes."

"Okay, then my sister and I will wait for you and mother at home." Cecilia ended the call gracefully, and couldn't help but share the good news in the girlfriend group, friend group, and spare tire group.

and many

And the class group has already revealed her high scores, students are guessing that she is the No. 1 in the United States this year. Cecilia modestly denies it, and at the same time she is very proud.

Myra tenderly again, "Myra, it's getting late now, why don't you wake up my sister? In case the No. 1 in the United States is her, all the teachers from famous schools have come to the door, She hasn't washed yet...it's a bit unreasonable."

Before Myra could answer. Scarlet cut a cut and sneered, "If she is America's No. 1, I'll kneel down and shine her shoes! Miss Logan, be confident, this America's No. 1 is none other than you!"

Because Cecilia shared the news in the group in advance, many people speculated that she was the No. 1 in the United States. One spread to ten, ten to hundreds, and soon many classmates' mothers. including your wife, called Eloisc.

Eloise was still dealing with it when she entered the door. "Where is that? We don't usually urge her to study. It all depends on her self- consciousness. It's too carly to congratulate. It's not sure who is No. 1 in the United States. okay, okay, If No. 1 came out in our house, we would definitely treat them to dinner."

Williams 's phone was also ringing off the hook, and he responded with a smile, "Please cat? No problem, no problem! As long as No. 1 is in our house, let alone invite you to dinner, our holiday resort, you can play whatever you want. We take care of food and lodging hahaha..."

On the other hand, Cecilia felt the glory brought to her by the title of No. 1 in the United States. In addition to being proud, she sent a WhatsApp to Lisa to announce the good news.

"Has Isabella's grades come out?"

Sure enough, everyone in the family cared about Isabella!!

Cecilia and Lori said weakly, "My sister is still locked in her room, probably because she is in a bad mood."

As for why it was bad, she didn't need to say it out, anyone with a brain would think of it-poor grades.

This time, Lisa didn't reply, but sent it to Isabella instead.

At this time, Isabella was still asleep, her phone turned to silent, unaware that one message after another appeared on the screen.

[Is the result out? Don't worry, there is a big brother in everything. J

Benjamin also texted her this morning.

[How did you do in the exam? Don't put pressure on yourself, everything is up to me. I

Before that, there were still many unread messages.

[Isabella, the people under my command said they couldn't find you, and I just remembered that you don't live in the Brown family anymore, you live in Riverside Villa, right? My people will pass right away, you must report to my school!]

Seeing that Eloise ended the call, Scarlet hurried forward and complimented, "Madam is so lucky to have such a smart and beautiful daughter as Miss Logan. You are now the No. 1 mother in the United States. There must be many reporters interviewing you by then!"

Eloise smiled and said, "Since you were young, you have spent the most time with Cecilia. If Cecilia is really No. 1 in the United States, then you are a great contributor! For Cecilia 's achievement, no matter whether it is No. 1 or not, everyone this month Double your salary, Scarlet, five times."

“Thank you ma’am!” Everyone thanked in unison, very excited.

While Scarlet was happy, she did not forget to say. “ Ms. Young may not have done well in the exam, or she may not have the courage to check her grades. Elder Mr. and Mrs.. please go and comfort her. If she fails in her grades and wants to retake the exam, Miss Logan can help, too, to make her feel better.”

Eloise was about to go upstairs when she heard a servant rushing to report.

“Mr and Mrs. Young, the admissions teachers from more than a dozen famous universities have come to the door, what should we do, should we invite them to come in and have a sit down?”

“I’ll do it myself.” Eloise walked out of the main hall quickly.

Williams followed her footsteps, Cecilia also followed with confidence, and all the servants in the family went out to join in the fun.

“Hello, madam, we are here to find Enter University exam No. 1...”

The speaker was a professor from Bomsville University. Before he could finish speaking, Scarlet hurriedly dragged Cecilia to stand in front of him, “ No. 1 is right here. This is our Miss Logan, who scored 722 points in the test this year!”

Cecilia raised her noble head, waiting for them to compete for her as a high-quality student.

Cecilia appreciatively.

Chapter 217 Full Score No. 1

Student Cecilia did well in the exam this time." The professor of Bomsville University smiled, "But we are here to find Isabella."

"Isabella ??" Williams and Eloise were surprised.

The other servants were also surprised.

Cecilia clenched her hands into fists unconsciously, forcing herself to calm down.

"She is the perfect score No. 1 this time!"

Everyone was stunned, full marks?

There was no blood on Cecilia's face, as if her whole body had been struck by lightning, and she was almost unable to stand still.

How could Isabella become the perfect No. 1 ??

How could she get full marks on such a difficult question??

Scarlet couldn't believe her ears, did she mishear the name? How could it be Isabella? Isabella 's IQ is so high?

Even Miss Logan was so smart that he got 722 points...

How did Isabella get 750 in the exam??

All the servants were stunned for several seconds before they realized who the full score No. 1 was referring to. They all congratulated Williams and Eloise.

Williams and Eloise were overjoyed by a huge surprise after a brief moment of astonishment!

“Isabella is the perfect No. 1 ?! This kid is usually too low-key!”

Eloise didn't expect that this child, who was usually a taciturn person, would be so strong! Just like the skills hidden in her body, there are too many hidden skills, and one of them will fall out from time to time, which shocks everyone.

Williams was also very excited. Unexpectedly, this child can also be medical, play the piano, and design clothes and jewelry. He is still No. 1 out of 10!!

What else in this world does she not know?

The old professor of Bomsville University saw that their family was shocked and happy. Unexpectedly, he smiled and said. “It seems that you don't know Isabella 's grades yet? Do you know where she is now? On behalf of the school, we want to invite her to our study there.”

“So do we!” The other admissions teachers echoed.

They explained their intentions, and Eloise smiled and explained gracefully, “The child is still resting in the room, and hasn't gotten up to check his grades yet.”

Now it's the turn of the admissions teachers to be surprised. Today is the day that thousands of students value and care about the most. 99.9% of them are the first time to check their grades online, but Isabella is still able to sleep?

I have to say, this psychological quality is too strong...

No. 1 with a full score is really different from that of ordinary students.

“Everyone, please follow me to the back room, Myra, and ask Ms. Young to come down.” Williams smiled and invited them into the room. In this life, it has never been so honorable!

Even if he has been the richest man in the United States for many years, the huge wealth in his hands has never brought him the pride he is today!

It was his biological daughter who made him feel glorious!

Eloise also entered the room, and the servants rushed to serve coffee and water, and entertained them politely, leaving only Cecilia and Scarlet standing where they were, dumbfounded for a long time.

[Cecilia, has the admissions teacher from a prestigious university arrived at your door?]

[I heard that the professor of Bomsville University went to see you in person, what does he look like? Take a photo for us to have a look, enjoy your eyesight!]

[When are you going to treat guests to dinner? After the admissions teacher leaves, we will beat you, No. 1 in the United States!]

Seeing the news in the group, Cecilia felt even worse!

She was proud of herself and felt that she would soon be famous.

She looks forward to the headlines, Twitter trending, and Cecilia 's name appearing on various platforms.

She expects thousands of netizens to praise her status as a top student in the comment area.

She felt that she was about to become a man of the hour!

Unexpectedly, a perfect score No. 1 popped up all of a sudden, stealing all her glory!!

“Oops!” Scarlet suddenly remembered something, hurriedly took out her mobile phone and made a call.

Cecilia was in no mood and didn't have the strength to ask her, but unexpectedly, Scarlet 's few words made her raise her eyes suddenly, and asked in surprise,“ Scarlet, you still invited a reporter?”

After Scarlet hung up the phone, she said in a hurry, “I, I didn't expect that dead girl to be No. 1, I thought it was you... Now those reporters are coming to Riverside Villa, what should I do? We can't let that dead girl Should the girl accept their interview? That way. the dead girl will have a bright future!”

Cecilia knew that it was impossible to ask those reporters to go back now. Anyone would want to grab such a big news!

“Scarlet, there is no sure thing, you are too reckless!” Cecilia could only accuse in a low voice.

“I'm sorry Miss Logan, I did something bad with good intentions...”

So far, it can't be stopped!

When Isabella came downstairs, all the admissions teachers raised their eyes and were amazed by her beauty.

Even though he was wearing the most ordinary clothes, the aura emanating from his whole body was so strong that it could not be ignored.

With such an aura at such a young age, the future is promising!

Isabella only slept for half an hour since last night, and she was a little irritable, but hearing so many teachers waiting for her in the living room, she still held back her temper and walked down the 1 stairs step by step.

As she got closer, that clear and fair face appeared in front of everyone, so beautiful that people couldn't take their eyes off it.

This little girl not only has good grades, but also looks exceptionally beautiful.

Even when he sat down, his whole body exuded a flamboyant and cold aura, which made people unable to bear to take a second look, and then a second look.

"Hello, Isabella, I heard that you were resting just now, so you probably don't know your Enter University exam results this time?", One of the admissions teachers asked with a smile.

Isabella said lightly, "I know."

"You know?" All the admissions teachers were surprised and said in unison, "Have you checked your grades?"

"I didn't check it, but it should be a perfect score."

Everyone was amazed by her confident and indifferent appearance. What kind of strength and confidence is required to say such confident words...

"You guessed it really accurately, yes, you are the only No. 1 with a perfect score this year, and No. 1 in the United States!"

The admissions teacher of University said this and asked enthusiastically, "I don't know if you have a favorite university?"

You can consider coming to our University of Science and Technology. Not only is the tuition fee free for four years, it provides VIP single dormitory, a one million scholarship, and you can choose your own Choose a major, as long as it is a major you are interested in, the best professors will come forward to take you!"

When the other admissions teachers heard this, they were immediately anxious. Why did this guy finish everything they wanted to say?

Isabella knew that the admission score of University in previous years was not lower than 680, but she politely declined, "I'm sorry, I won't consider it for the time being."

University knows that the possibility of her choosing to go to their school is relatively low. After all, professors from Washington University and Bomsville University are here...

But he still didn't give up, and subconsciously fought, "If you change your mind next, you can contact me at any time. This is my business card with my contact information and WhatsApp QR code on it. Do you want me to teach you how to scan it?"

"..." Isabella said politely, "No need."

Chapter 218 Fulfilling the Bet

"Hello, Isabella, I am the admissions teacher of the University of Foreign Languages. Our school is in need of a talented student like you. I wonder if you are interested in coming to our school? We can meet all the conditions proposed by University just now, and our foreign language, a bonus of two million!"

When the people present heard, two million? This is an unprecedented huge reward!!

that the No. 1 in the United States in previous years was only two to three hundred thousand cash rewards at most...

But Isabella is different. She is the only No. 1 with a perfect score in the last seven years. Seven years ago, Benjamin was very smart. He was in the third year of high school at the age of 15 and took the Enter University exam.!

Since him, no one in the United States has won the title of No. 1 for seven years!

An exception was made by this girl today.

“Sorry, I don’t have any intention at the moment.” Isabella politely declined.

The foreign language teacher felt very sorry and couldn’t help asking, “Can I ask why? Our school can provide any conditions that Washington University and Bomsville University can offer, and our most famous all-round professor, although He is retired, but we are sure to ask him to come out and take you with us personally! In addition, if you want to study a double degree abroad during college, we will also bear all the expenses abroad.”

When everyone heard this, what a treat!!

Cecilia on the side was almost jealous. She never thought that the conditions offered by these teachers were so attractive. The key point is that the tone was very amiable, revealing a trace of deliberate flattery!

They seem to be very careful in front of Isabella!!

“I have a school of my choice.”

Although it was not her favourite, but for the old man’s sake, she still reluctantly chose his old man’s school.

“It must be our Bomsville University, right?” The old professor of Bomsville University said confidently and happily, “Little girl, as long as you come to our school, you can choose professors and dormitories. The bonus is not a problem!”

Everyone was stunned by his rhetoric, this treatment is better than before! After all, in some schools, professors cannot be chosen, and bonuses have upper limits...

“If you like to do experiments, the school can even give you a separate laboratory!”

Even the servants couldn't help opening their mouths, rich, so rich!

The lab will give it...

It can only be said that Bomsville University is too pity!

To be willing to give such an attractive condition!

“Our Washington University can also give it! Not to mention the laboratory, the school's piano room, research room, dance room, painting studio, as long as you are interested, we can give you everything!!”

The people present were surprised again. It was the first time to see a prestigious school robbing students.

“Sorry, I'm more interested in medical universities.”

“Doctor, Medical University???”

Not only the teachers present were stunned, but even the family members and servants were shocked...

medical universities in the United States is not comparable to that of Bomsville University and Washington University. Although the admission scores in previous years were above 660, it is 40 points less than Washington University and Bomsville University!!

Can have 750, can't you pick the best university??

What is No. 1 thinking??

When the admissions teacher of the Medical University heard this, he was immediately overwhelmed with excitement," Student Isabella, our principal said that no matter what conditions others put forward, our school can afford it. In addition, the principal asked me to bring a word..."

Everyone hurriedly followed the prestige, what did you say? What other words can attract the perfect score No. 1 to enroll in his school? ?

"Our principal said that the school just acquired the world- renowned top drug research instrument H30 this year, and Isabella must be interested."

Isabella to enroll in his school, the old man specially took the coffin moncy to buy this instrument!!

Spend 5 billion!

Just put it in his school, there are only two in the world, one is in the French National Research Institute, and the other is in his school!

This instrument can make a lot of drug research a qualitative leap and a huge change in quantity!

The corner of Isabella's lips curled up, she was quite aware of her weakness??

"Our principal also said that in addition to the H30, he also bought X1, T2p, Y23 and other instruments, and put them in the school's research room. Isabella can use them at any time! In addition, our principal also made a condition!"

When everyone hears it, what is the condition? Isabella seems to be very interested in the conditions he offered just now!

Isabella can take the usual courses if she wants, and she can do research in private if she doesn't want to. The school won't blame you."

In other words, you can go in and out of the school freely, you can go to school if you want to, and you can't go to school if you don't want to.

Such a good condition is simply a student's dream!

Other admissions teachers lamented that the medical university's move was too despicable. If students don't take classes well and go out to play every day, what good things can they learn?

No. 1 went to them, it will definitely regress!

It can only be said that their conditions have ruined such a good student!!

"I choose a medical university." As soon as Isabella said this, the other teachers felt sorry, and after sitting for a while, Poll reluctantly left.

The admissions teacher of the medical university didn't expect the principal to be so good, and even guessed that Isabella would apply to their school, his face was flushed with excitement, and he was full of energy!

He kept chatting with classmate Isabella, and before leaving, he kept telling her, please, don't write the wrong school name when you apply...

After the teacher from the medical university left, Cecilia's expression was extremely embarrassing. I didn't expect Isabella to be so popular, and I didn't expect her to apply to a medical university because of her bad brain!

Williams and Eloise were about to praise and reward their precious daughter, but Myra spoke first.

Ms. Young, I didn't have internet at home just now, so I couldn't check the results of the Enter University exam. I have nothing to do, so I made a bet with Scarlet!"

Eloise's attention was quickly diverted, "What bet?"

Isabella was also a little surprised and looked at her.

Scarlet thinks that Miss Logan is more likely to get No. 1. I think it's Ms. Young. Whoever loses the bet will take over all the housework for today's family!"

"So you won?" Eloise laughed, "Then Scarlet, thank you for your hard work today."

"It's not hard." Scarlet gritted her teeth in her heart, and compared her gaze to Myra's from a distance away.

And Myra glanced at her proudly, and said, "Wait a minute, Ms. Young, I'm going to get something."

Everyone didn't know what kind of medicine she was selling in the gourd until she brought a pair of shoes over and bent down to put them on for Isabella.

Isabella doesn't know why.

Ms. Young, you don't know something. Someone said just now that if you are Enter University exam No. 1, she will kneel down and shine your shoes!"

When Myra said this, she looked at Scarlet, gloating in her eyes, "The shoes are here now. Scarlet, help Ms. Young wear them and then polish them."

Scarlet didn't expect this dead woman to actually tell this matter. She is a nanny, and her status is somewhat higher than these servants, but now, she is required to shine Isabella's shoes in front of so many servants ? ?

Chapter 219 Hurry up and bury it

"Scarlet was full of confidence when he made the bet just now, and now he won't lose and want to renege on it?" Myra pretended to be bored and said, "That's really boring, and we won't bet with Scarlet in the future."

"Are you betting so big?" Eloise didn't care, thinking that they were more joking. In the past, servants often bet with each other, just to add some fun to life.

Scarlet, you, you are usually too attached to Cecilia, you bet so big, and you didn't expect the consequences!" Eloise smiled. "They are all young ladies in the family, you can't treat them differently, you have to treat them equally!"

Scarlet smiled awkwardly, "Yes, yes, I'm going to get the cloth right now, please wait a moment, Ms. Young."

When she turned around, she was extremely angry, and secretly called Myra a slob, a bitch!

Isabella raised her eyebrows, the servant put his face in front of her, there was no reason not to hit her, didn't he want to shine shoes? Give her a good rub in a while.

“Isabella, why do you want to apply to the University of Medicine? Just now, I heard from the admissions teacher that the principal of the University of Medicine knows you? How does he know that you like to study medicine, and even attract you with experimental equipment?” Williams sitting on the sofa curiously asked.

Before Isabella could answer, Eloise took the conversation and said without hesitation, “Is there any need to ask? Isabella is interested in medicine and likes to study things. The principal found out that she has this hobby, so he prescribes the right medicine to attract talents, isn’t it?” Is it normal? Besides, they study medicine in the whole school, and they must need a lot of medical equipment for research, and it’s not just for Isabella.”

“It’s a pity, Washington University and Bomsville University are such good schools...”

How many students have dreamed of it, and want to squeeze in with their heads sharpened! But Isabella gave up.

Eloise said disapprovingly. “The school that can interest Isabella is a good school! Although Washington University and Bomsville University are excellent, their medical research is not as good as that of medical universities. Isabella is a good choice.”

At this time, Scarlet had already taken the cloth, squatted down, and put on Isabella’s shoes.

In her life, she had never been so humiliated!

“Thank you.” Isabella raised the corners of her lips and looked at her with interest.

Scarlet endured the resentment in her eyes, and said with a smile, “It is my honor to serve Ms. Young.”

“Really?” Myra added with a smile, “Ms. Young is No. 1 in the United States. It is indeed your honor. Then you will serve Ms. Young more in the future!”

Scarlet :!!

none of your business!!

You talk too much!!

Eloise cast her kind eyes on Isabella, didn't take their jokes seriously, and then chatted. "Fortunately, the medical university is in Bomsville, not far from us. Isabella, do you want to live in school or at home?"

Isabella replied with a light smile. "I haven't thought about it yet."

"No matter where you live. remember to come back when you have time on weekends! Otherwise. Dad will miss you!" Williams said. this, and then looked at Cecilia. " Cecilia. Dad hasn't asked you yet, which school do you want to apply for?"

Cecilia felt extremely wronged. From now until now, her parents have neglected her for a long time, and now she finally thinks of her as a daughter? snort!

She held back her grievances and pretended to say softly. " Bomsville University 's admission score in previous years is above 700 points. If I apply, it should be more than enough."

Although Isabella doesn't want Bomsville University, Cecilia does n't like Medical University either!!

"So you want to apply to Bomsville University?" Williams smiled kindly. "Bomsville University is very good, it is adjacent to the Medical University, and they are both in the university town. In the future, you two sisters will take care of each other."

Isabella: Who wants to take care of her?

Cecilia Sounds like I need her care!!

Ms. Young, look, are these shoes clean?” Scarlet asked with a smile.

Isabella looked at the upper, “It’s okay.”

“Then my bet has come true...” Scarlet stood up and was about to leave.

“Don’t forget that today’s housework is done by you! Ladies and gentlemen, thanks to Scarlet helping us today, we can relax for a day!” Myra smiled and added in a timely manner, “Thank you Scarlet!”

The other servants all smiled and thanked. ” Scarlet has worked hard.”

Scarlet resisted the urge to cut this bitch into pieces, and smiled. “It’s not hard, I’m willing to bet and lose.”

At this moment, a servant rushed in to report, “Master, madam, many reporters have come outside. They seem to have found out that No. 1 is at our house, and they all asked to interview Ms. Young!”

“Did you reveal anything?” Williams asked hastily.

“No, I didn’t say anything, so I hurried in to report.”

“Why are the noses of this group of reporters so sensitive? They smelled here so quickly?” Eloise said this, her eyes fell on Isabella, “Isabella, do you want to be interviewed?”

Cecilia and Scarlet on the side couldn't help looking at Isabella nervously, afraid that she would show off in front of the reporters, or show off her true Lady status intentionally or unintentionally!

But Isabella just stood up indifferently, "I won't show my face, there are still many messages I haven't responded to, so I'll go upstairs first."

"Okay, then mom will help you deal with it." Eloise looked at her back upstairs, and reminded her, "Go to sleep when you have time, and stop studying, do you hear me?"

Isabella :...

Even if the book was placed in front of her, she would not take a second look.

Eloise thought that she was studying while hiding in the room, otherwise she would not have such good grades.

No one knew that she was taking private orders to make money for research.

But out of filial piety. Isabella still responded, "Okay."

Seeing that she wasn't going to be interviewed. Cecilia breathed a sigh of relief, and even Scarlet relaxed too.

It's a good thing this idiot doesn't know how to take a chance!

Sure enough, my brain is not good!

Normal people who get full marks in the test will definitely choose Bomsville University and Washington University, who would choose a medical university that is not well-known!

No matter how good the medical knowledge is, you will have to work for others when you come out. What's the use of being a doctor and working from nine to five!

It's better to go to Bomsville University and Washington University for further study. Regardless of whether you find a job or not, you will be a top student at a top prestigious university!

Myra passed by the garden and saw Scarlet watering the flowers.

She couldn't help but stop and laughed mockingly, "Hey, Scarlet, are you watering the flowers? Why don't you dig up the soil by the way?"

Scarlet raised a dissatisfied look, not understanding what she meant by that.

"Didn't you say that there are two young ladies in the family, if one takes the No. 1 exam and the other fails, then the gap is indeed not sporadic! You said it yourself, if you are the one who failed the exam, you can dig a hole in the garden. Lie down in it, and you won't be ashamed in the world if you die."

"You!!" Scarlet didn't expect that she would remember this and deliberately come over to mock her, so she was very angry.

"Don't you hurry up and dig a hole for your Miss Logan? The gap is so big. According to your words, how can you still have the face to live in this world? Hurry up and bury it!"

Chapter 220

"You, you wait for me, I'll tell Elder Mr. and Mrs. that you cursed Miss Logan to death!" Scarlet was about to report.

Myra laughed, "Go ahead, you said this yourself, and all the servants in the family can testify! If you want to curse, you curse Ms. Young first! I will fight back later! The one who is right is me!"

"you..."

“You came up with the idea of digging a hole and laying people down. What can I do?”

Scarlet couldn't listen anymore, and couldn't help scolding, “Enough! Do you really think I can't take you?”

“I'd like to know, what tricks are you planning to do again? Frame me up? Or are you planning to wear small shoes for Ms. Young? Don't forget that the video you tried to make Ms. Young slip last time is still in Ms. Young's hands!”

When this matter was brought up, Scarlet suddenly felt a little guilty, and dared not speak out.

“I will ask Ms. Young to send me the video in a while. If you dare to mock Ms. Young and bully her in front of so many people in the future, I will send the video to Elder Mr. and Mrs. to see who gets out first Get out of this house!”

Scarlet was furious. You know, this bitch was recruited by her in the past, so she was one of her subordinates, but now she treats her like this because of Isabella ?!

Can it be reversed?

Isabella must have done this bitch a lot!

“Did you hear that?” Myra left contentedly after threatening her.

Scarlet stared at her back, furious!

Eloise came to the gate gracefully, exuding a noble temperament all over her body. It was the pampering and pampering of these years that made her every move reveal the demeanor of a famous lady.

Before the door was opened, a group of reporters squeezed in front of the carved railing, asking questions desperately through the door.

“Mrs. Logan, I heard that No. 1 is at your house? Can you tell me how many points No. 1 scored this time?”

“I heard that professors from Bomsville University and Washington University are robbing students. What kind of conditions do they offer? Who is No. 1 chosen?”

“In the entire Riverside Villa, only your family’s child is in the third year of high school. Is this Cecilia Lady Logan ?”

“Can we meet No. 1, please ?”

“We want to take a picture of No. 1, can you open the door?”

Eloise gracefully extended her hand, signaled them to be quiet, and said with a smile, “Thank you for your concern. No. 1 is indeed in our house. Her name is Isabella. She got full marks this time. I just learned from the professor of Bomsville University that she is America’s No. 1!”

As soon as this remark came out, the audience was in an uproar, desperately taking pictures and recording it.

“In addition to the name and grades, I hope everyone will not post other irrelevant content, such as family background, photos and other things. Our children are low-key and don’t like to attract attention.”

Everyone was stunned. They didn't expect the richest man in the United States to have a modest daughter named Isabella. They always thought that the richest man had only one daughter named Cecilia...

Although I haven't seen the No. 1 real person, but with such a good background, he must not be bad looking!

"It must be a beautiful woman plus a talented woman!"

"Thank you Mrs. Logan for revealing. Mrs. Logan is so lucky to have such an excellent daughter as Miss Cecilia, and a No. 1 daughter."

"Congratulations, Mrs. Logan."

"congratulations."

Isabella 's name for the first time, these rich people often hide their children well to prevent them from being exposed to the camera.

For example, some wealthy people will send their children to study abroad for further study when they were young, and they will be with them when they grow up...

Some wealthy people will raise their children somewhere in the United States, and for the safety of the children, they will not announce the identity of the children until the time is right.

Although everyone has only heard of Cecilia, Isabella may have been studying abroad and came back after entering the University exam, so it's normal that they haven't heard of it!

Since Mrs. Logan said not to disclose other things such as family background, they can only name the topic simply and rudely.

Soon, #fullmarkNo. 1Isabella # The topic appeared on trending first.

Isabella returned to the room and found that there were many unread messages on the phone, so she replied to Benjamin first.

The professor from Bomsville University came here just now, but I applied to the medical university.”

Benjamin quickly called her, with a hint of surprise and indulgence in his tone, “You are the No. 1 out of 10 ?”

Isabella raised her eyebrows, it’s on the news so soon?

It was less than ten minutes away from the group of reporters, and it spread so quickly?

“My Isabella is awesome.” Benjamin praised heartily.

Isabella hooked her lips, “You’re not bad either.”

Benjamin was a little surprised, this little girl knew so quickly that he was No. 1 with a perfect score seven years ago? Did you check it, or did you notice it seven years ago?

“The medical university is pretty good, and it’s close to me.”

Benjamin smiled dotingly, “I like to see you save people. You’re very serious and beautiful.”

“Usually not good-looking?”

Isabella raised the corners of her lips, “What if I choose a foreign school this time?”

“Then I’ll move to work abroad. Wherever you are, that’s my destination.”

“Then how tired are you?” Isabella knows that when working abroad, although everything can be explained online and contacted by phone, if there is any problem, she still has to fly back to the United States to deal with it. There are countless.

“If you don’t act diligently, what will you do if you kick me out when you go to college and see other sunny and handsome boys?”

Isabella couldn’t help laughing when she heard this.

“I don’t want to lose such a lovely, beautiful and powerful fiancée because of the distance.”

“The boys in college were too young,”

For her, it’s too immature, like watching a group of younger brothers, she won’t feel moved.

She raised the corner of her lips and said, “It’s better to be mature.”

Benjamin asked dotingly, “Then is your fiancé considered mature?”

Isabella said without thinking, “It’s quite mature, but sometimes it’s a little childish.”

childish???

“Is it time to cling to you?”

“Um.”

“Who makes you so cute? I’m so happy when I’m with you...” Benjamin said from the bottom of his heart. “I’m so happy, so I want to be with you all the time.”

Isabella’s heart seemed to have knocked over the honey pot, but she still said, “I have to reply to my brother, he is still waiting for me.”

“Then I’ll call you later.

“Hmm.” Isabella said lightly, “It’s done.”

After hanging up the phone, Isabella announced the good news to her eldest brother, then clicked on Mr. Brown’s WhatsApp and replied a few words.

There is also a congratulatory message from Kara in WhatsApp. After Isabella replied, she opened the next unread message...

from a former teacher,

[Isabella, I saw the news, you are awesome! The teacher is proud of you!
