

Chased Her 291

Chapter 291 Invited Someone in the hospital.

Isabella brought the birthday gift in front of Rosc, "Grandma, I wish you a happy birthday, and the future is boundless."

"Hey, good boy, you are the only one who remembers my birthday every year." Rose smiled, "You are so busy, and you still prepare so many gifts for me..."

"Try to see if it works." Isabella took out a massager and put it on Rose 's shoulder and neck.

After a while, Rose closed her eyes comfortably, "It's so good, where did you buy it? It must be very expensive, right?"

In the past, she also asked acquaintances to buy a few massage devices, which were expensive and not easy to use. This one must cost a lot of money to press comfortably.

Always making her granddaughter spend money, she felt very sorry...

"It's not expensive." Isabella set her to the adult hand pushing and kneading mode, and looked at her gently.

Rose relaxed, "My shoulder and neck have been sore for the past two nights, and I can't sleep all the time. Your gift is so timely!"

Hearing this, Isabella frowned slightly, "Why didn't you tell me if you were uncomfortable?"

“How can I bother you with trivial matters...” Before Rose finished speaking, Isabella’s slender fingers caught her pulse.

Fortunately, nothing happened, and it was not a sleep disorder caused by pathology.

Rose smiled and said, “Grandma is getting old, her body parts are almost useless, so it’s normal to be sore now and then... If you are careful, you should be thoughtful, and then grandma can sleep well.”

“If you feel uncomfortable in the future, you must tell me, don’t be afraid of trouble.” After Isabella finished speaking, she told her how to use it again, “This is the remote control. There are several modes...”

After the lecture, she sent another video on her mobile phone, “I’m afraid you won’t remember it, I recorded the method of use in advance as a video, if you forget, just click and watch.”

“Good boy, you have a heart...” Rose looked at her moved.

“And...” Isabella took out a medicine pouch from the gift bag, “Hanging this on the bedside can help you sleep.”

Rose took a look at the medicine pouch, and praised with a smile, “Your little hands are getting more and more skillful, this mandarin duck is embroidered so vividly.”

“You taught me well.”

“It’s clear that you are a child with talent, and you can learn everything...” Rose didn’t expect that her precious granddaughter would prepare these two things for her on her birthday, and she was moved and gratified.

Isabella hangs the medicine pouch on the bedside, which has a faint medicinal scent, which smells very comfortable.

“Also, these are herbal medicine packs, which can be used to soak your feet. I’ll give you a try.”

Seeing that Isabella took out two herbal medicine bags to soak her feet. Rose hurriedly refused, “No, no, no, how can you do such a thing!”

“I am your granddaughter, who will do it if I don’t?”

“Your status is different now...”

“Isn’t it your granddaughter?”

Isabella added water to the foot bath bucket, put in herbal medicine packs, rolled up the old lady’s trousers and was about to put her feet into the water.

“No, no...” Rose was still refusing.

“It’s very comfortable to soak, try it!” Isabella put the old man’s feet in the water and gave her a massage.

The old lady smiled like a flower, “Itchy...really itchy...”

Isabella couldn’t help but look at her, “How, did I lie to you? Isn’t it comfortable?”

“Yes, you are the most filial!” Rose smiled from ear to ear, not to mention happiness.

“There are gifts inside, take it out and have a look.” Isabella said. while giving her a massage.

“What else? You child, how much have you prepared...” Rose took out one thing after another from the gift box, including a whole set of purple sand pot coffee set. sky-high coffee leaves, heated knee pads, moxibustion heat cap, blood glucose meter, reading glasses wait for something.

Finally, Rosc also found a strange scarf in the bag.

It's strange because the scarf looks like it was woven by a clumsy person, and it was definitely not made by Isabella. With Isabella's level, there is no way to weave it like this.

But it doesn't look like it was bought from the market.

Isabella saw her doubts, and lied calmly, "That's a popular style this year. It was designed by a geek designer. It doesn't meet the public's aesthetics. What I want is to be unique..."

"Oh, so that's how it is..." Rose accepted it with a smile without any suspicion.

"And cake."

Rose was surprised, and looked around the ward, "Is it the one on the coffee table?"

"Well, I also invited someone to celebrate your birthday."

As soon as Isabella finished speaking, there was a knock on the door of the ward.

Rose was puzzled until he saw the person who pushed the door a came in overlapped with the boy in his memory.

The years have made him look more personable, less youthful spirited, and more stable and optimistic that has been settled over time.

He was well dressed, full of energy, and his voice was powerfu, " Rose, long time no see."

That friendly and enthusiastic appearance also carried the majesty and spirit of decades of dominance.

“Hi?” Rose was a little surprised to see him.

“I happened to be back in the United States to deal with some things. I heard Isabella said your birthday, so I came to see...” Luman lied without changing his face, with a warm smile, “I’m sorry, I didn’t prepare a gift in advance...”

When Rose heard it, the corner of her mouth raised a gentle arc, “It’s okay, it’s okay, you can come, you have a heart!”

“Mr. Will, there is a chair next to you, please sit down first.” Isabella took a dry towel to wipe the old lady’s feet, and asked in front of Luman intentionally, “Grandma, you haven’t said whether you like these gifts or not?”

“I like it, of course I like it. I like making coffee the most. This set of coffee sets is really cute, and this coffee leaf is also my favorite. It remember it was discontinued, so why can I still buy it?”

Isabella lowered her eyes and smiled slightly. It was true that the production was discontinued. Last year, the boss of the coffee leaf company got old and handed over the business to his son. However, his son was not good at management and spent too much money, and he went bankrupt not long after.

Luman acquired their company, took over their coffee mountain and the recipe in his hand, and let people re-produce it, and only produced coffee leaves for Rose.

Isabella said lightly, “The owner has changed.”

“Then I’ll buy more, lest it will be discontinued someday!” Rose joked with a smile.

Isabella raised her gentle eyebrows, “No.”

In this life, this production line is only produced for her alone.

But Rose didn't know, and praised with a smile, "And the knee pads, blood glucose meter, reading glasses, etc. you sent, especially the scarf, are very practical, good boy, you have a heart!"

These things are sent by Luman in the name of Isabella.

The scarf was also slowly woven by him stitch by stitch. It took him two full months to weave...

It is said that a scarf represents warmth and care.

Chapter 292

At this moment, Isabella glanced at Luman, as if to say: Grandma likes it very much, you say you have a heart.

Luman smiled contentedly.

"I'm going to get the cake, let's chat." Isabella washed her hands and took the cake out of the box.

This cake looks cute, with a circle of birthday peaches surrounding a smiling old lady, and a lot of fruits as decorations, and there are four words of health and longevity on it.

It was made by Luman before dawn, several pastry chefs took turns to guide, and a lot of materials were wasted...

Finally made a decent one.

But Rose didn't know, and asked with a smile on her face." Isabella, you made this? It's so beautiful!"

She knows that her precious granddaughter can make desserts.

But Isabella smiled slightly, "I didn't do it this year."

She can't make it to this level.

It is full of Luman 's heart for Rose.

Originally, Isabella planned to celebrate Rose's birthday at seven or eight in the evening, but because of Luman's schedule problems, there was no other way, so she had to celebrate in advance.

"Are the candles lit?"

Isabella inserted the number 70 on the cake, and Luman hurriedly said. "I'll come, I'll come! I have a lighter."

Seeing him take out a lighter from his pocket, Rose was a little surprised, "Didn't I remember that you don't smoke?"

"yes..."

Just because Rose said that she didn't like the smell of cigarettes, Luman never touched cigarettes again in the next few decades.

He lied calmly, "Isabella asked me to buy it downstairs."

Rose took a look at the brand of the lighter, which cannot be bought in ordinary convenience stores...

The careful Luman suddenly noticed her gaze, and hurriedly added, "But I was afraid that I couldn't buy it downstairs, so I borrowed one from the people under my hand."

It turned out to be like this.

Rose dismissed her doubts.

Isabella knew that Luman bought this lighter specially for the moment of lighting the candles herself.

“I’m going to draw the curtains.”

Isabella closed the curtains, put a birthday hat on the old lady, and sang birthday songs to the old lady with Luman.

In the flickering candlelight, Luman took a peck at Rose’s radiant face, this face he had dreamed of for decades, and today he finally had a legitimate name to see.

In the past, when Rose ‘s husband was alive, he would meet in the name of doing business, and if he was lucky, he would still meet Rosc.

But since Rose ‘s husband died and he attended the funeral, it’s hard to see Rose alone.

I haven’t seen her in a few years, Rose ‘s elegance and calmness engraved in her bones make her look more feminine.

“Happy birthday to you, happy birthday to you...”

There were tears in Luman ‘s eyes, if it wasn’t for Isabella’s invitation this time, he could only hide in a foreign country and bless this woman from afar...

“Make a wish!” After singing, Luman looked at her gently.

Rose closed her eyes, made a wish, and blew out the candle.

Amid the applause, Rose cut the cake and divided it into several portions.

“You only have a few sips,” Isabella reminded.

“Okay, okay...I can take a few bites, I’m satisfied!” Rose took a bite.

“How does it taste?” Luman asked hastily.

“Then I’ll try it.” Luman took a sip and asked concerned, “Is your health better recently? Is there any discomfort?”

“It’s much better. Isabella is going to operate on me tomorrow.”

“Don’t worry about Isabella’s medical skills. Tomorrow, when you close your eyes and open them, the operation will be over.”

“Haha. I think so too...”

“Grandma, after the operation tomorrow, your body will be fine! Then you will be able to go out often.”

“Great, I’ve been lying in this hospital bed for several months, and it’s almost moldy.”

The three talked and laughed until Rose was tired, and Isabella and Luman left together.

“If it weren’t for you today, I would regret it forever...” Luman patted Isabella on the shoulder and praised, “Good boy, thank you for your encouragement... With this experience, I really can die without regret.”

“What a day, don’t say unlucky things.”

” lol...” Luman laughed, thinking of Michael and the others, his face became a little colder. “Has that unfilial son come to bother Rose about her recovery?”

“I’ve been here a few times, and I was sent away by the nurse, but sometimes the nurse didn’t notice, but in the end I was kicked out of the ward by my grandma...”

“I don’t think they’re so desperate, they’re going to have an operation tomorrow, so don’t make any fools...”

“Don’t worry, I have installed surveillance in the ward.”

“Haha, that’s good!” Luman walked out of the hospital with her, “I’ll go to France to deal with some matters first, and I’ll fly back later, and the stone in my heart will fall when your grandma’s operation is successful...”

Isabella knew that he wanted to spend time with his grandma during the operation, so he nodded, “I’ll go back to the company to deal with things, see you tomorrow.”

“good.”

Isabella got into the car and received a call from Alan not long after.

“Ms. Young, our company has signed another very powerful designer! He is from Japan. He said that he saw your strength in the last design competition and came here specially for you. When will you return to the company? ah?”

Isabella said lightly, "Ten minutes or so, how many designers do we have now?"

"There are more than thirty, but only six have actually won the grand prize!"

"Well, these six, they set up independent columns on the official website, such as Lucy, which represents a style, and new styles are released at any time."

"Okay! No problem!" Alan took notes immediately, and then said, "Oh, by the way, speaking of Minister Yin... Recently, many people imitate her works, Ms. Young, should we come forward to deal with it?"

Do you still need to ask this question?

Isabella said disapprovingly, "Suc one by one until they are afraid. Don't be afraid of time-consuming, and don't be afraid that your won't lose a lot of money in the end. In short, let everyone know that the works of all our designers under Logan 's Whoever dares to imitate will be held accountable to the bottom! They also need to apologize on their official blog until no one dares to imitate."

"Yes, I'll do it now!"

"I have something to do tomorrow morning. If there are any important things, try to arrange them until today."

Tomorrow morning, she will have an operation on the old lady.

"Then I'll bring tomorrow's meeting forward to today? There's a new company that wants to talk to us about cooperation tomorrow morning, and I'll make an appointment to today?"

"Well, good." After finishing the call, Isabella continued to drive.

Benjamin after work, and dealt with personal affairs at night.

After finally being busy until two o'clock in the morning, Isabella just fell asleep when the phone vibrated.

The vibrating sound after another was especially abrupt in the dark night. Isabella has always been a light sleeper, and was awakened by this sound after a while.

Chapter 293 Broken Heart

“Isabella, come to the hospital! No time to explain, hurry!!!”

It's Bennett calling.

Bennett has always been a calm and aloof person, and it made him anxious. Don't think about it, something must have happened to the old lady!

The sound of a fast sports car left immediately from the villa on the other side.

At this point, Eloise was just getting up to drink water, and when she heard the sound, she glanced out the window, just in time to see the shadow of a red Ferrari speeding away.

It's so late, where is Isabella going?

What happened?

Isabella stepped on the gas pedal to the bottom, and performed speed and drift on the street late at night.

She threw the sports car at the gate of the hospital in ten minutes, scaring the nurses waiting there.

Isabella 's car almost hit her!

She breathed a sigh of relief, and hurried forward, "Ms. Young, you are finally here! Dr. Robinson told me to wait for you here, saying that your grandma's condition is very critical, and she has... missed the best time to rescue her!"

Isabella's eyes froze, and she quickened her pace and ran towards Ward 301.

"Ms. Young, wait for me..." The little nurse had short legs and couldn't keep up with her.

Isabella ran to Ward 301 like a gust of wind, opened the door and saw that there was no one there.

"Ms. Young, the operating room! Please change into the surgical gown, quickly..." Another nurse reminded.

Isabella changed into the sterile gown as quickly as possible, and when she came to the operating room, all the instruments told her that grandma was dying!

"Heart rupture caused by myocardial infarction! Quick!" Bennett's voice brought her back to reality in a second.

Heart rupture caused by myocardial infarction is arguably the most serious complication of myocardial infarction.

When the disease comes, it is very dangerous, and the mortality rate can reach 100% in a short period of time. Many people die on the spot before they can be sent to the hospital.

Fortunately, the old lady was in the ward at the time, and was found by the nurse who made the rounds, and she was sent to the operating room immediately.

Before Isabella came, Bennett had opened the chest of the old lady, quickly inserted the femoral artery, and cut the pericardium, but the bad news was that a large number of blood clots emerged in the pericardium.

Just then an unexpected situation made things worse.

“Not good, the heart has a sudden ventricular fibrillation!” A doctor said anxiously.

Isabella made a decisive decision, “Shock and defibrillate.”

After a while, the doctor breathed a sigh of relief, “The defibrillation was successful, the heart resumed beating, and the blood pressure rose back to 70mmhg.”

“I’ll take care of the blood clot in the heart!” Isabella took the initiative.

A doctor had seen her deal with adhesions and blood clots last time, and knew that she was very good at this, so they all left it to her.

After the treatment of Isabella, another person was placed in the venous drainage catheter to establish extracorporeal circulation, but not long after, bad news came again.

“Not good, blood pressure dropped again!” A doctor reported.

Isabella remained calm in the face of danger, “Block the ascending aorta, inject cardioplegia at the root to make the heart softly stop!”

“Successful blocking, cardioplegia has been injected.”

“External probing of the ascending aorta.”

Upon hearing Isabella 's order, a doctor immediately inspected the ascending aorta, "After the inspection, no obvious thickening or intramural hematoma was found."

The possibility of rupture of the ascending aorta was ruled out.

Isabella glanced at the slightly thickened aortic arch, "There is no aortic dissection, rule out aortic rupture, and protect the brain from hypothermia."

The reason for this is to prevent brain damage caused by cerebral ischemia.

"The breach is getting bigger and bigger."

"Increased bleeding."

"The cycle cannot be maintained."

Doctors kept reminding Isabella of the latest situation.

Isabella finally managed to deal with all the situations, and another problem faced her, because the heart rupture caused by myocardial infarction made the surrounding myocardium very fragile, and the heart rupture reached 3 cm, requiring very high suturing skills to be successful.

"Or, let Dr. Robinson come..." One of the doctors, who didn't know Isabella, thought that Bennett 's medical skills were better.

But Bennett opened his mouth to break his stereotype, "No one is more suitable than her!"

Isabella sutured the wound calmly, using double-layer bovine pericardial patch to suture the damaged part little by little, and reinforced the outside with felt strips. The two-pronged approach ensured the firmness of the heart repair.

People who have never seen her undergo surgery were surprised, they did not expect her suture skills to be so good...

But those who watched her surgery were also surprised, because her suturing skills are still so unrivaled...

Some doctors have never cooperated with Isabella, but Isabella cooperated perfectly with them, and the tacit understanding was high. The whole operation was smooth and smooth, and the suture was completed in just over four hours!

Just at the end, one of the doctors suddenly exclaimed, "The extracorporeal circulation cannot be withdrawn, and the blood pressure will drop as soon as it is withdrawn!"

Another doctor also discovered, "The blood cannot return to the left atrium!"

"The heart failed to re-beat, and the blood pressure dropped!" More doctors said in surprise.

Everyone was dumbfounded, how could this be?

Obviously as long as the extracorporeal circulation machine is removed, the whole operation will be over perfectly!

But this happens!

Bennett quickly recalled the whole operation, "There was no problem during the operation! Isabella's separation and suturing were handled extremely well! The best treatment plan was also given for all temporary situations!"

“What’s the problem?” the other doctors asked.

They had been standing for more than four hours, and each of them looked like an enemy.

Isabella did not answer their questions, but ordered, “Continue to assist, and the ultrasound machine will come over.”

” Isabella...”

Bennett looked at her, and said in a low voice with distress. “Actually, you know better than anyone that the old lady’s body functions can’t keep up...”

In other words, the old lady’s body simply cannot bear the consumption of the entire operation!

This operation is completely different from the one that will be performed tomorrow.

Heart rupture caused by myocardial infarction in this operating room! Extremely deadly!

What’s more, the old lady herself has other illnesses...

It’s not that Isabella’s surgery is not possible, it’s that the old lady’s life is at an end, I’m afraid today...

“No one understands me?” Isabella’s stubborn little face showed a trace of anger.

Immediately, a doctor asked for an ultrasound machine from the operating room. Isabella observed that the ultrasound showed that there was very little blood flowing through the left atrium, not completely!

She can definitely, she can definitely bring grandma back from hell again!

The sun gradually rose, and the sky outside was completely brightened.

Eloise spent the whole night in fear, but still didn't wait for Isabella to come back. She didn't answer her calls or texts. When it was ten o'clock in the morning, she couldn't sit still anymore and could only call Benjamin.

Benjamin, Isabella went out after two o'clock last night. She seemed very anxious. She hasn't come back yet. I'm afraid she's in danger..."

Chapter 294

She's been looked for, but there's no sign of Isabella anywhere.

She checked the surveillance, and only knew that her precious daughter passed the Beihuan Bridge at a very high speed, and she could say that she was driving with her life!

There was a section of the road behind where the surveillance was broken, so I don't know where she went when she got off the bridge.

Cecilia on the side secretly rejoiced, could it be that Isabella died in a car accident?

If this is the case, then Lady 's position is still hers!

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but hope that Isabella would never come back...

"Leaving in a hurry?" Benjamin asked softly on the phone.

"Yes. she is fast, faster than those racers on TV, something must have happened!" Eloise was about to cry.

"Don't worry... I probably know where she went."

There is only one person who can make her anxious like this!

Benjamin asked people to investigate while rushing to the hospital. Sure enough, when he arrived at the gate of the hospital, he suddenly received a message from his subordinates. At two o'clock in the morning, the hospital surveillance did indeed capture the appearance of Isabella!

She is in the hospital!

"No, the patient is in cardiac arrest!"

"Stop breathing!"

"Doctor Ou, what should we do?"

"Grandma, don't sleep!" Isabella is desperately trying to save her, and everyone is working hard, racing against time and death!

But the situation is getting worse and worse. Isabella's eyes are red with anxiety. It is the first time that she finds that her medical skills are so useless that she can't even save herself!

Seeing her fighting for more than ten hours, Bennett couldn't help persuading her:

"Isabella, you know it's pointless to do this."

"If you don't stop, you won't even have the last chance."

"Don't you even want to hear grandma's last words?"

"Isabella?"

“Get out-” Isabella didn’t want to hear such words at all, “Grandma won’t die! She won’t die! Don’t die! Continue to assist-”

Benjamin learned that Isabella was undergoing surgery and called Eloise to report that she was safe.

“It turns out that’s the case... Then I can rest assured! I will visit the old lady again in a while. It’s the first time we meet, and I don’t know what to bring...”

Eloise knew that the old lady was very important to Isabella, so she struggled.

Benjamin wanted to tell her that the nurse said that the old lady’s condition was very critical, and that Isabella had been rescued from two o’clock in the morning to ten o’clock in the morning, but he didn’t say anything in the end because he was afraid that Eloise would worry, but only gave some advice.

Seeing the time passing by, Benjamin waited outside the operating room from ten o’clock to eleven o’clock, and then from eleven o’clock to twelve o’clock...

The door to the operating room was still closed.

at the same time.

At the Bomsville Hotel, a newlyweds greet guests at the gate.

Daisy, this is my second uncle and second aunt..." Harris, who was wearing a suit, introduced softly.

Daisy, who was dragging the floor in a white wedding dress, immediately raised a sweet smile, and called obediently, "Second Uncle. Second Aunt, I'm glad you can come!"

"You are Daisy, right? Why is it different from the photos we saw? This chubby face looks so lucky!" The second aunt originally had good intentions.

But when Daisy heard it, she was a little embarrassed.

She was beaten up by Mrs. Thirza's people last night, and she was covered with injuries. Today she specially put on a trailing wedding dress and white sleeves, but the injuries on her face could not be covered, so she could only cover them with a thick foundation.

It seemed that her face had gained two rounds of fat, which was very different from the previous photos.

But the elders just like this kind of chubby girl.

"Second Uncle, Second Aunt, please come inside." Harris smoothed things over with a smile.

His arm was scratched by his father last night, and he had an operation, but their invitation to the engagement banquet had already been sent out, and it would be embarrassing to cancel it temporarily.

Early this morning, Michael, Gail and Daisy went to visit him, the Brown family returned Lucas' land worth 12 billion, half of which was divided between them after the engagement banquet.

Mrs. Moore, who hated Daisy last night so much that she gritted her teeth, smiled again at this time. For the sake of six billion, she reluctantly asked, "Daisy, are you tired from standing?"

"Auntie, I'm not tired."

“Also called auntie, after this engagement banquet is over, you have to change your mind!”

Daisy was taken aback, then excitedly said, “Okay, I will definitely change my words when the time comes!”

Mr. Moore originally hated the Brown family to the core, but he thought that an engagement banquet can be exchanged for six billion, which is a good deal.

the Brown family off later...

Therefore, today’s engagement banquet can be held as scheduled...

Harris, docs your arm hurt? Do you want to rest for a while?” Daisy cared sweetly.

Harris remembered that Daisy went to visit him today, that this little mouth had comforted his male symbol without the presence of both parents, and his heart softened.

“Not tired, how about you, do you want to go in and rest for a while?”

“No, today is the day I’m looking forward to the most!” Daisy smiled innocently.

Today, all the distant relatives and neighbors from the man’s side came, and only seven or eight people from the woman’s side came, but this did not prevent Michael and Gail from being happy.

Daisy, my uncle, aunt and my cousin are here!” Harris whispered in Daisy’s ear.

Daisy was immediately attracted by Harris' cousin. He had heard that Harris' cousin was very handsome, but he didn't expect to see him today, and it turned out to be true!

Both uncle and aunt have high business status, so Michael and Gail also took the opportunity to build a good relationship with them...

On the other hand, my cousin, who is used to flirting, immediately became interested when he saw Daisy. "I didn't expect my sister-in-law to be so cute."

"Cousin, I'm overwhelmed." Harris saw another guest coming, and greeted another guest.

In less than a minute, my cousin looked at Daisy with an evil smile on his face, and Daisy also showed a shy expression...

When the cousin saw that she was interested, he said in a frivolous and joking voice. "I will add you on WhatsApp later, and I will talk to you about Harris' embarrassing things when I was a child!"

"Okay, brother." Daisy called her brother tenderly and tenderly.

The cousin didn't expect Harris to be honest and have such a fiancée, so he smiled even more sinisterly, "Interesting."

"Cousin, what's interesting? Tell me!"

"It's okay, cousin thinks you're lucky." Cousin patted him on the shoulder, and was about to go in, when he suddenly remembered where Daisy's face seemed to have been seen before, he stepped back, and stared at Daisy again.

Harris thought he had fallen in love with his fiancée, and hurriedly hugged Daisy in his arms, "Cousin, with your eyes... those who didn't know thought you were interested in my fiancée..."

"Hahahaha... I just think she looks familiar, as if I've seen her somewhere."

If Daisy hadn't gained weight twice, this face might have been recognized by her cousin...

But because his face was swollen, my cousin didn't remember who it was after looking at it for a long time, so he simply gave up.

Chapter 295

half an hour later.

All the guests came together, the host enlivened the atmosphere on the stage, and then invited Mr. Moore and Mrs. Moore to give a speech.

"Dear friends and relatives, today is the wedding day of my son Harris and daughter-in-law Daisy. On behalf of the parents of both parties, I would like to express my heartfelt thanks and warm welcome to all relatives and friends..."

As soon as Mr. Moore finished speaking, the audience burst into applause.

He didn't have the humble look of begging for mercy in front of Mrs. Thirza last night, and his face was high-spirited, as if nothing happened last night.

"As the groom's father, I would like to take this opportunity to sincerely wish my son and daughter-in-law a happy marriage. I hope that you will respect and love each other from now on, share joys and sorrows, be united forever, and have a happy union for a hundred years!"

Everyone applauded again, with smiles and blessings on their faces.

such a wife. I sincerely hope that the two families can communicate with each other and get along with each other from generation to generation!”

Everyone applauded again, Mr. Moore handed over the microphone. to Mrs. Moore, and Mrs. Moore smiled dignifiedly.

“In order to announce this happy event today, and to thank all the guests for taking time out of their busy schedules to attend the engagement banquet between our two families, we have prepared some food and wine. Please drink to your heart's content..”

As soon as Mrs. Moore finished speaking, the dreamy hall burst into warm applause again.

The waiter began to serve the food. There were sixty-six large tables in the hall, each with ten people, a total of more than six hundred people came.

“In-laws, in-laws, please take a seat.”

“No, no, please first.”

The parents of both sides gave up their seats to each other, and after taking their seats, they toasted together.

There is a show on stage.

The opening clown made all the guests laugh.

the other side.

A frail hand reached out to Isabella with difficulty and slowly, gently tugged at the corner of her clothes, forced a smile, and said weakly, “Son, don’t cry...”

It’s okay for the old lady not to comfort her, but as soon as she comforted her, Isabella’s tears rolled down her face.

No one knows the old lady's current physical condition better than Isabella. It can be said that the old lady is able to talk to her, which can be said to be a flashback.

In LA before, Isabella didn't shed a single tear when she was seriously injured, but now, the tears are like broken beads, and she can't stop no matter what.

Rose, who was lying on the operating table, managed to raise a smile, and said weakly and kindly. "I, just now, dreamed about your grandpa. He said, it's time, and he came to pick me up..."

Isabella shook her head, her eyes washed with tears were clear and sad, she couldn't accept this reality no matter what.

"Look, your grandpa is standing there, smiling at me..."

Rose was afraid that she would blame herself and feel sad, so she tried her best to comfort her.

"Son, it's grandma's own body that doesn't live up to expectations. I don't blame you. You have excellent medical skills and have pulled grandma back from hell several times... This time, it's my fate, and God is coming to take me in."

She should have died a few years ago, but Isabella's medical skills gave her a few more years of life.

She is satisfied.

Isabella wiped away the tears on her face, knelt beside the old lady all the time, with a choked and gentle voice, "Grandma, please stop talking, I will try another way."

“It’s useless... Grandma’s body, I know well, this, this life, I, I am content with a good granddaughter like you... The world is not in vain...”

When Rose said this, she was almost out of breath, and added with difficulty and effort, “Just, just, I can’t watch you put on the wedding dress, go, and walk into the palace of marriage...”

Her Isabella must look beautiful in her wedding dress!

It’s a pity that she will never see her again in this life...

At this moment, the door of the operating room was slammed open by Bennett.” Isabella! Benjamin has been outside!”

“Let him in!” After Isabella finished speaking, she carefully wiped the tears from the old lady’s face, and begged softly, “Grandma, if you hold on a little longer, Benjamin will be here soon...I haven’t introduced you yet...”

Rose didn’t seem to hear it, and exhausted her last strength, word by word, and said with a smile, “Grandma is finally, no longer, your burden... Take care, take care of yourself, be sure, be sure, be happy...”

“grandmother—”

Benjamin ran in and saw Rose dying in front of Isabella, her eyes closed weakly, and a frail hand slipped down.

“Grandma—” Isabella couldn’t believe what was happening before her eyes, holding Rose, her mind went blank.

Not long after, the whole operating room was filled with the heart- piercing cries of the girl, and Benjamin ‘s footsteps froze in place, never expecting that he was a second late, and a second was the difference between yin and yang.

“Grandma, wake up...” Isabella knelt on the icy ground, hugging the old lady’s body and crying hysterically.

It was the first time Benjamin saw her cry.

From now on, she has never revealed her fragility, as if there is nothing wrong with her in the world.

She is so proud, so lofty, but now she is crying like a child.

“I haven’t taken you abroad yet, and I haven’t introduced Benjamin to you yet... Why did you leave me behind?”

Isabella cried her heart out.

“Grandma, come back...we still have a lot of things to do together...”

“You promised me that you would live a long life...”

“Grandma, it’s all my fault...”

Seeing her start to blame herself, Benjamin walked over, leaned over and hugged her gently.

“You’ve done a good job.”

At least in Benjamin’s opinion, from 2:00 am to 1:00 pm, she has tried her best to save people.

As long as there is a way, she will not let the old lady leave her

Isabella cried very sadly and blamed herself, “I am Selby Brown, but I can’t save her...how can...why can’t I save her...why there is no way...”

Benjamin hugged her distressedly, his eyes were red, he understood how important Elder Mrs. Brown was to Isabella, and he understood the little girl's mood at this moment.

"It's not your problem. You have tried your best...Cry out when you are sad, and I am here."

"I can't save her, Benjamin, I can't save her..." Isabella lowered her head, as if crushed by reality, hugged the old lady's body in pain and cried loudly.

Back when she was studying medicine, she even told the old lady that her health in this life would be guarded by her!

She also promised in front of the old lady that the old lady would live a long life, because there is no operation in this world that she can't do.

But now, her heart is broken, and she is gone in front of her!

Everyone in the world knows that Selby Brown is amazing and has superb medical skills, but they don't know that there are people in this world that Selby Brown can't save!

Chapter 296 Exchange Rings

Williams and Eloise came to the hospital carrying a bunch of gifts. They heard that the old lady was still in the operating room. As soon as they arrived at the door of the operating room, they heard the girl crying in despair.

This voice is clearly Isabella...

Both of them were stunned, their brains went blank, they looked at the silent Bennett standing at the door, and finally couldn't help asking, "Dr. Robinson, the old lady...."

“Just left.” Bennett stood at the door, watching Isabella crying heartbreakingly inside, and Benjamin just hugged her like that, letting her cry in his arms.

If possible, he would also like to comfort her like this, but with his identity, he is doomed to stand aside and watch her suffer, and he is not even qualified to go forward to comfort her.

Bennett ‘s eyes were also a little red, and his voice was distressed, Isabella has been rescued for eleven hours, and I did my best.”

Eleven hours, as long as there is a way, she will not let the old lady leave her hand...

However, the old lady’s body really has no room for maneuver.

Eloise was hit on the head, and the things in her hands fell to the ground. Williams hurriedly dropped the things in his hands to help her, “Honey, are you alright?”

Eloise’s heart ached, and then she became sad. She didn’t expect that she hadn’t seen each other yet, and she was separated forever.

They are late!

At this moment, Isabella must be very sad!

Rosc, Rosc...”

At this moment, an old figure ran out of the elevator and stumbled towards the operating room.

With all his strength, he squeezed through the crowd all the way, and pushed open the door of the operating room, only to see a cold corpse.

He could barely stand, if it wasn't for Bennett at the door to help him, he would have collapsed already!

Rose—

This painful call carried the old man's mournful cry and pain.

He suddenly felt uncomfortable in the morning. At that time, he had a premonition that something might happen to Rose...

All morning, Isabella's phone has been unable to get through. He has a heart condition, so he can only send someone to the hospital to inquire, and he knows that Isabella is operating on Rose...

I thought it was the one we had agreed upon, so I waited patiently for the news.

After he got better and recovered, he received bad news as soon as he arrived at the gate of the hospital, saying that this operation was not the one that was originally arranged...

It was Rose who suddenly fell ill last night. Isabella had been resuscitating for eleven hours overnight, but it was invalid and she left...

He couldn't believe that the person who celebrated his birthday together yesterday and was smiling all over his face suddenly fell ill last night, and the rescue was ineffective...

He didn't know how he walked up to Rose little by little, it was so unbelievable, he looked at her over and over again, subconsciously sniffed her, and was really out of breath.

His heart was clenched into a ball, and he was so painful that he could hardly breathe. After a while, he trembled and touched Rose's hand lightly. It was cold, without the body temperature of a normal person...

Now, he suddenly cried out, " Rose— "

Why did she just leave!

Why didn't you wait for him to come and let him see him for the last time, and just left!

Didn't she care most about Isabella, the precious granddaughter? Why is she willing to leave her precious granddaughter behind...

What happened?

What happened last night??

Rose, Rosc-“ |

Luman hugged this cold body. He never thought that the only time he hugged her in so many years would be like this...

Never thought yesterday's birthday was the last time the two of them would see each other!

Williams and Eloise came to the door, their eyes turned red when they saw this scene.

Why is it so sudden?

As far as they know, Isabella has been giving the old lady the best medicine, and she was able to have a smooth operation early this morning...

Why is there such an accident?

Isabella also shed tears silently beside her. Originally, grandma and Mr. Will may have a bright future...

At least it's not a problem for grandma to live ten or twenty years longer...

What happened last night?

With grandma's medication and physical condition during this period, it is impossible for her to have a sudden myocardial infarction and cause her heart to rupture!

Remembering that the breach was three centimeters long, her heart seemed to be being torn apart, and she was suffocating in pain.

Yes, monitoring!

She had installed a surveillance camera in her grandma's ward before!

Yesterday, she helped grandma celebrate her birthday, and returned to the company to handle the work. During the period, she took out her mobile phone and watched the monitoring several times. Seeing that grandma was sleeping peacefully, she continued to deal with work...

After work, she accompanied Benjamin to cat and take a walk. After returning home, she checked the monitor again. At that time, grandma was already asleep!

She thought that as usual, grandma would sleep through the night, so she took a shower and started to deal with her personal affairs!

She thought that grandma was preparing for the operation the next day, so she went to bed early...

Could it be that something else happened last night? She didn't know?

Thinking of this, Isabella wiped away her tears, pushed Benjamin away, and left the operating room.

“Isabella...”

Seeing her walk out of the operating room, Eloise was afraid that she would be overwhelmed and do something stupid.

“Auntie, don’t worry. I’m the one in everything.” Benjamin comforted Eloise and followed Isabella’s footsteps.

Luman was left holding Rose, crying with grief...

The lobby of the hotel.

All the guests had almost eaten, and the show had gone on seven or eight times. The host came to the stage and excitedly picked up the “Now, please invite both parents, as well as our protagonists today, Harris and Daisy, to come on stage, and everyone applauds!”

All the guests applauded desperately. Unexpectedly, Moore spent a lot of money this time. Not only was the venue decorated dreamily and beautifully, but every dish was outrageously expensive. A famous mouthpiece.

“Let us witness the exchange of engagement rings between the two couples with the warmest applause and the most sincere blessings!!”

As soon as the host finished speaking, the audience burst into thunderous applause. Harris smiled and took out a ring box from his expensive suit.

Open it up, it’s a full carat.

Daisy didn't expect that he really showed his sincerity and wanted to marry her, so she suddenly became shy.

"The bride is still shy!" The host joked, "Here, on behalf of the guests. I would like to ask the bride, are you satisfied with this ring?"

"Of course I am satisfied." Daisy showed a shy and sweet expression, "But I am most satisfied with the one in front of me."

The host led the audience to applaud.

"Then now, let the groom put on the ring for the bride first, and everyone applauds and encourages."

Under the applause of more than 600 people in the audience, Harris took out the ring and put it on Daisy's ring finger. Daisy, it's an honor to be engaged to you."

Chapter 297 Expose the Scandal

Daisy was moved to tears, "Me too, it's the luckiest thing in my life to be with you."

"Now, please ask our bride to put on the ring for the groom!"

Daisy took the ring box from the staff and opened it. It was also a one-carat diamond ring.

"Wow..." The host once again stirred up the atmosphere of the audience. "Let me tell all the guests first, neither of the two newcomers has seen the rings prepared by both parties beforehand, and this is the first time they have shown it!"

The audience burst into warm applause.

“From the one-carat diamond ring they prepared, it can be seen that they have a good heart and coincide with each other. This also proves from the side that their marriage is destined by heaven...”

This diamond ring was specially ordered by the Brown family from a well-known foreign brand for the purpose of arranging the meeting. It is worth about 100,000 USD.

And the one-carat diamond ring Harris ordered from the United States is also a well-known brand, which is about the same amount.

The diamond rings prepared by the two families are about 100,000 USD, which can be said to be evenly matched.

One is the son of the richest man in Autumn Town, and the other is the daughter of the richest man in Winter Town. It is said that the richest man in Winter Town spent 12 billion to buy a piece of land not long ago...

perfect matches more suitable than them!

When Harris saw the ring, his eyes became softer. He didn't expect that he would be so valued by the Brown family. You must know that the Brown family has always been stingy...

“Now, let our beautiful bride put on a ring for the handsome groom, and let us witness this sacred moment with the warmest applause!!!”

The applause of the audience lasted like a tide.

Daisy smiled happily. Just as she was about to put the ring on Harris' ring finger, the big screen on the stage suddenly lit up!

Everyone followed the light and saw a passionate scene playing on the big screen. In the dim room, on the messy bed, a man and a woman were doing something indescribable, and the sound resounded throughout the hall.

All the guests were shocked. They never expected such a thing to happen halfway through the ring exchange.

The parents of both parties froze on the stage, not understanding the situation.

Daisy's face was extremely pale, because the heroine in this video is -her!

No one knows the source of this video better than her!

Harris' eyes widened, from disbelief at the beginning to shock at the end...

Because the girl in the video raised her blurred eyes and said, "Ted. stop taking pictures, it's important to do things..."

This is clearly Daisy's face and Daisy's voice!

And the boy's face, Harris was surprised to find, wasn't it the male classmate Ted who appeared at the last party?

The last time Daisy won the second place in the piano competition, the former classmates wanted to help her celebrate, so they held a class reunion in the holiday club.

At that party, Ted was the last to come. He kicked in the door with a few attendants, looking like he was doing nothing.

It is said that he was a bad student in his class, relying on his family's money and domineering personality, he stopped studying in the second year of high school, became the boss of a gangster outside, and set up a small gang. Twenty or thirty younger brothers followed him to eat and drink hot.

As soon as he entered the box, he drank a bottle of XO and threatened to book the whole room.

But at that time, a classmate told him that Daisy's fiancé had reserved the restaurant, so he asked his younger brothers to let go of eating and taking. Anyway, it was Harris' treat, and his gang of younger brothers were very expensive. point.

Harris had a very bad impression of that Ted, because at that time. he took the initiative to greet Ted and wanted to shake his hand, but he looked disdainful and didn't take Harris seriously at all.

He also said that Daisy took the second place, as Daisy shouldn't he drink two more glasses?

Harris drank a lot at the time, but Ted didn't intend to let him go, and called seven or eight women of special professions to test his loyalty to Daisy.

Harris was completely irritated at the time, but he, who has always been personable, finally made an excuse to go to the bathroom, but heard the classmates whispering in the bathroom, saying that Daisy had dated with Ted and even kissed on the mouth!

When Harris and Daisy first started dating, Daisy also said he was her first love.

I still remember the first time I kissed her, her kissing method was a little clumsy, saying that she was inexperienced...

At the class reunion, Ted and his group deliberately stained the sofa and walls of the box before leaving, which cost him nearly 10 million in total...

Later he thought, it doesn't matter if those classmates look down on Daisy, anyway, who would dare to laugh at her when she becomes his wife in the future?

She also didn't want to be picked up by the cleaners to be raised, but fate made a big joke on her. Instead of complaining, she treated the people around her with a kind heart...

In this world, is there any better girl than her?

Even if she has dated other boys before, so what, she has no fatherly love since she was a child, and she longs for someone to care for her, is it wrong?

Harris thought at the time, so he quickly accepted Daisy and turned the story over...

But what he didn't expect was that such a video would be released today. It turned out that before he knew Daisy, Daisy had already had sex with Ted!

This is the most intolerable thing for a man!

After working for a long time, he picked up other people's broken shoes as treasures!!

"What is this mess? Why don't you turn it off soon?" The host didn't recognize the girl in the video as Daisy, because Daisy is too fat today, and she is far from the innocent and harmless girl with a small face in the video.

But the other guests more or less recognized it, and couldn't help talking about it.

At this time, the parents of both parties found out that this unruly girl is Daisy, today's bride!

Harris' cousin sitting in the audience finally remembered it. No wonder he always thought Daisy's face looked familiar, as if he had seen it somewhere before. After seeing this video today, he finally remembered it!

Ted had shown this video to their group of brothers before. It can be said that every time he had sex with Daisy, Ted would share the video with them, looking generous.

Mr. Colins has shared it more than 20 times. He never thought that his cousin would pick up the grass that others don't want, and treat it as a treasure!

The cousin laughed, thinking that the girl Daisy is too scheming.

"What's going on here?" Harris withdrew his hand from Daisy, gritted his teeth, and asked angrily, pointing at the big screen.

His voice was transmitted to the audience through the microphone on the collar...

Daisy was in a hurry, "Brother Harris, listen to my explanation..."

"What other lies are you going to make up to lie to me? Say you were forced? I saw you clearly voluntarily in the video! You enjoyed it! Daisy, how old were you when you were with him? How did you Can do such a thing!"

"Brother Harris..."

With a snap, Harris slapped Daisy across the face in public, his voice clear and crisp.

Chapter 298

The more than 600 people who came here today can be said to be relatives and friends of Moore. Where does this make Moore face?! Let him Harris how to meet people in the future??

Mrs. Moore came to his senses and pushed Gail angrily, "This is how you, the Brown family, raise your daughter? You don't know how to behave, it's shameless!"

Daisy in this video looks very immature, it should be a year or two ago...

How old was she a year or two ago?!

Gail was dumbfounded. Although most of the guests who came today were from Moore's side, some of them were from the Brown family. The engagement banquet was so public that she wanted it even if others were shameless!

She subconsciously took Mrs. Moore's hand, and explained in a good voice, "Mother-in-law, you should know who Daisy is, she would never do such a thing, she might be framed by someone!"

Michael also hurriedly said, "Yes, yes, isn't it very popular to change heads now? The man and woman in this video must be someone else. Someone must have deliberately played a prank and ruined the engagement banquet. Who the hell is it? Get out!"

"Mr. Brown, do you think we are blind? Is this person Daisy? As parents, you can't tell it? This face, this voice, can you pretend?" Punch those shameless people of the Brown family to death!

With so many guests present today, his old face is completely ashamed!

Gail didn't know how to save the scene, so he hurriedly called out to Daisy, "Daisy, speak up!"

Only then did Daisy come to her senses, that's right, she can bite her to death and refuse to admit it, anyway, since the person involved is not present, she can say whatever she wants!

So she started her usual tricks, with big tears rolling down her eyes, "There is no reason to blame me! I don't know who made this kind of video, and why it suddenly broke out during the ring exchange! You Who is it? What exactly do you want to do! Are you displeased with the engagement banquet between me and Harris, deliberately sabotaging it? Come out if you have the ability! Let's face it face to face!"

She raised her sad face and looked at Harris with aggrieved and stubborn eyes, "You are my fiancé, and you will soon be my family!"

She was referring to Mr. Moore and Mrs. Moore. She shed tears and said with restraint and strength, "You didn't even ask me a word. One hit me, one wronged me, and one humiliated my parents! Don't you think it's too much? Is this what you Moore's upbringing?!"

In a word, the audience was silent!

Yeah, is Moore being sloppy? This is the scene of the engagement banquet after all...

Just beat the bride in public...

The bride's family is the richest man in Winter Town!

Harris' palm was burning hot and painful, yes, he was indeed too angry, and hit her indiscriminately in front of more than six hundred people...

Seeing that one side of her face was red and swollen, Harris thought of the injuries she had suffered in the past two days, and felt a little distressed.

"You said that this girl is not you?" Mrs. Moore's anger obviously had not dissipated, pointing to the big screen and asked angrily, "Then what evidence do you have to prove that she is someone else?"

Daisy smiled sadly, and looked at Mrs. Moore, "Then what evidence do you have to prove that this video is real? That girl in it is me? I did this kind of thing? I don't even know it? All of you know better than me?"

Michael and Gail breathed a sigh of relief, fortunately, Daisy is sensible, smart, and eloquent, and can turn things around at this time.

"I know you don't like me, you don't like me, Brother Harris and I really love each other, but you don't allow it... Could it be that you made this video? Deliberately sabotaging the engagement banquet?"

Daisy changed the subject and poured all the dirty water on Mr. Moore and Mrs. Moore.

“It’s nonsense! Today is our Moore treat, would we do such a thing? You are a sharp-tongued little girl, wouldn’t you really do such a thing and want to pour dirty water on us?”

“If I really do this kind of thing, my whole family will die!” Daisy said fiercely, “What about you? Do you dare to swear? Do you dare to say that you didn’t maliciously fabricate these things? We deliberately let us the Brown The family is embarrassed?!”

“Neuropathy!”

To swear a poisonous oath on such a happy day and curse your whole family? Mr. Moore and Mrs. Moore wouldn’t do such stupid kid things!

But when all the guests saw Daisy swear, Mr. Moore and Mrs. Moore didn’t dare to swear. They felt that the little girl had been wronged. If she really did such a beastly thing, how could she swear on the whole family??

There should be something hidden...

At this moment, the big screen played another page after page of room opening records.

When, where, which room, hours, all recorded by Angela and Freda!

There are even videos of Ted and Daisy in and out of the hotel at the same time, and videos of them having fun in different rooms.

At a glance, there are more than 20 videos playing on the entire screen at the same time, each of which is Daisy ‘s face!

Harris saw Daisy's mole on her butt in a bunch of videos, if the girl in the video wasn't her, how would the person who made the video know where her mole was?!

Also, her thigh still has the scar left by being scalded by boiling water when she was a child. This position is close to the root of her thigh. If the girl in the video is not her, why is the scar at this position exactly the same?

"You still say it wasn't you?" Harris raised his palm in a panic, wishing he could slap her again!

Daisy didn't expect that all the records of opening rooms with Ted in the past, as well as all kinds of intimate scenes in daily life, were all found and neatly appeared in front of her eyes...

This time, instead of calming down just now, she took a step back, unbelievable!

Who, who has the ability to turn over everything from a year ago...

At this time, a figure quickly flashed in her mind, could it be... Isabella ?!

Seeing her like this, Mrs. Moore immediately gained confidence, "It really is you! Just now, in order to mislead everyone, you even swore on the whole family... You are simply a snake-hearted thing, not as good as a pig or a dog!"

Before Daisy could react, she was slapped hard by Mrs. Moore!

"You, why did you hit my daughter?" Gail was in a panic and was about to step forward.

"You disgusting bastard, your parents didn't teach you how to be a human being, I'll teach you how to behave today!" Mrs. Moore slapped Daisy again.

Gail wanted to stop him, but was blocked by Mr. Moore, and Michael was punched hard by Mr. Moore just as he stepped forward.

The entire stage was in chaos, and even the famous host was stunned, not knowing how to host.

“Look what a daughter you’ve taught!” Mr. Moore punched Michael hard again, ignoring them on stage.

Gail saw that the corner of her husband’s mouth was bleeding, she screamed, and wanted to stop her, but in the blink of an eye, she saw Mrs. Moore slapping Daisy again, and Daisy was still holding onto Harris’ hand, trying to explain something!

Chapter 299 Restoring the Truth

“You little bitch, see if I don’t tear off your hypocritical face...” Mrs. Moore rushed over regardless, scratching Daisy’s face hard with the nails he had just done today.

Daisy screamed, her hair was pulled by Mrs. Moore again, even her wedding dress was taken off...

“Anyway, you’re shameless, why don’t you just take it off and let everyone enjoy it! Anyway, everyone should have seen what should be seen and what should not be seen just now!”

“What are you doing. let go!” Daisy covered the wedding dress with one hand, and hit Mrs. Moore indiscriminately with the other, unexpectedly hitting Mrs. Moore in the face.

“You little bitch still dare to hit me...”

Mrs. Moore pinned Daisy to the ground three times, five times and two times, then rode up on him, slapped her repeatedly, and grabbed her wedding dress.

Daisy screamed for Harris to help, but Harris stood aside, looking at her coldly.

Some guests from the Brown family stepped forward to dissuade them, but they quarreled with Moore 's guests.

A few of Moore 's guests helped Mrs. Moore hold Daisy, spat on Daisy's face, and helped to remove clothes.

Gail couldn't save her husband, so she turned to save her daughter, but was surrounded by Moore 's relatives, pointing at her nose, cursing and throwing things at her...

Just when everyone was arguing, the screen jumped again, and at this time, the screen changed to Rose 's ward.

At eleven o'clock last night, taking advantage of the shift change of the medical staff, Michael 's family of three sneaked into the old lady's ward, begging the old lady for help.

"I thought you were here to celebrate my birthday in the last hour, but I didn't expect..." The old lady was woken up by their noise, and slowly sat up and coughed a few times.

Michael in the video heard that today was his mother's birthday, and hurriedly said, "Mom, wait a moment, I'll ask someone to order a cake, and it will be delivered in a while! But, the Brown family is really in crisis! You must help us this time!"

Seeing this moment, all the guests were stunned. Unexpectedly, Michael, who was in high spirits in front of him, brought his wife and daughter to the old lady's hospital bed.

Didn't they spend huge sums of money to take down the land? How could you be in such a mess?

The people who had scuffled together on the stage were also stunned, and stopped their movements one by one. I didn't expect that Michael's family of three would be like this in private!

Gail was even more stunned. When was every move in the ward captured?

Is there a surveillance system installed in the old lady's ward?!

Thinking of this, she suddenly became limp and weak, almost unable to stand!

"Mom, we begged you for help a while ago, but you didn't want to, and we don't want to make your old man unhappy anymore."

Michael knelt on the ground and said sincerely, "Later we heard that there was a piece of land, as long as it was photographed, the price could be doubled several times! So, Gail and I put all the assets in our hands, including houses, shares, and cash. It was sold! It was exchanged for cash! I also borrowed huge sums of money from many township banks, and borrowed money from many people, so I got together 12 billion!"

All the guests heard the news, they didn't expect the land of the Brown family to be photographed like this, and they wondered where they got the money from!

It turned out that it was cobbled together and borrowed from everywhere!

Feeling the disdain and disgust from all directions, Gail shouted loudly, "Whoever put the surveillance on, don't stop it!"

The host hurriedly asked people to go to the background to see what was going on, and asked the staff to pause the video.

But the staff pressed the machine many times to no avail, "Can't pause! I don't know what's going on, this machine seems to be broken?"

"Cut off the power!"

“Can’t stop!”

This is the first time for the staff to encounter such a situation, it is really evil!!

In the surveillance, Michael knelt in front of the old lady’s hospital bed, and said tearfully. “We finally bought the land, but we heard that the land must start construction within a month, and cannot be resold within five years...”

Moore was also interested in this piece of land before, but they dismissed the idea when they heard that it would be held in their hands for five years and could not be changed hands.

At that time, they wondered how the Brown family had the strength to hold the land for five years. Unexpectedly, the Brown family didn’t know about it.

“We have borrowed money from so many township banks and old acquaintances, and the interest alone has to pay back more than three million USD every month... But the group’s capital turnover is not enough, and it would be good if we can get half a million profits every month, can’t repay this debt at all!”

As soon as these words came out, all the guests were shocked, the interest of more than three million USD...

What a scary number!

It’s okay if it’s for a few months, but if it’s for five years in a row...

Who can stand it?

The point is, is it true that there are rumors that the Brown family has a financial problem?

Their monthly profit is not even 500,000 USD...

Fortunately, they are still the richest man in Winter Town!

“So, what do you want me to do?” Rose asked aloud while sitting on

The angle of the video only captures Michael’s family of three kneeling on the ground pleading, and does not capture Rose’s face, but from her voice, one can still hear her displeasure and annoyance.

What annoys her is that her son is unfilial, and keeps disturbing her to recuperate, even though she has said that she won’t help.

But Michael still took his wife and daughter and begged her in front of her again and again, making people unhappy.

“Mom, don’t you have 30% of the shares on hand? It’s worth 300 million..... I have a suggestion, can you listen to it? That is, you sell the shares, keep 100 million in cash for yourself, and give us the remaining 200 million Emergency? If the 200 million USD is used to repay the monthly debt of more than 3 million USD, it can be used for about five years...”

Rose didn’t expect his wishful thinking to be so loud, and smiled. coldly.

“Five years later, I will sell the land again. The money I get will definitely be several times higher than it is now. At that time, I will return another 200 million to you. You can keep it for yourself or give it to Isabella. See if this is okay. ?”

Rose laughed even more mockingly, “I’m old, but I’m not stupid! I’ve sold the shares now, will you pay me back the money when the time comes?”

With the personalities of Michael and Gail, they will definitely turn their heads and refuse to admit it at that time!

“Mom, I can write you a letter of guarantee! As long as you lend us two-thirds of the shares for emergencies, we will definitely repay them!”

When Michael said this, he was afraid that his mother would disagree, so he hurriedly added, “Otherwise, the group will collapse, and it will be useless for you to keep the 30% of the shares. It will be worthless at that time!”

Rose’s face remained unchanged, and her tone was extreme, “If it weren’t for the fact that you have ignored me all these years, and didn’t come to see me when I was sick and hospitalized, and even wished for my death... If it wasn’t for you who kept my granddaughter away from me... Send it away, if you didn’t do so many stupid things, I would definitely help you.”

When Michael heard it, he was anxious and wanted to say something more, but was interrupted abruptly by Rose.

Chapter 300 The scene before death

“But you have done so many things to me and the people around me. Hugh’s daughter was scared by you and suffered from depression! Director Li had a heart attack and died early because of you! And Salome, Thanks to you, I am mentally disturbed!”

The audience was in an uproar, oh my god, the Brown family has done so many heartless things?

Scared out of depression? Died prematurely? Insanity?

This sounds like a crime!!

“Mom, we know we were wrong in everything in the past, you always have to give us a chance to reform...” Gail, who was kneeling on the ground, cried and begged.

But Rose replied coldly. “If I hadn’t seen clearly your wolfish ambitions, maybe I would really have given this chance...”

But their nature is like this, and it will not change in this life!

Thinking of this, Rose issued an order to evict the guest. "Go away, you can deal with the crimes you have made yourself."

"Mom, we haven't begged you for so many years, just this time, why are you refusing to help us?" Gail grabbed the old lady's clothes and refused to leave, crying very sadly.

"I didn't say it clearly enough just now? Why won't you help? You don't have a clue? All the things you have done for so many years have made me disheartened! So I won't help!"

Isabella used to wipe your ass behind your back! Isabella contributed a lot to your success today!"

"If Isabella didn't give you resources, give you orders, and help you deal with the aftermath, would you be where you are today?"

"But, how did you treat her? Kick her out of the house, all kinds of sarcastic remarks! You want to beat and scold her every now and then!"

"You drove away the Wealth God yourself, and now you are in trouble, so you come to me?!"

"I said, if I don't help, you should die!"

All the guests were shocked...

Even Moore didn't expect that the Brown family can achieve what they are today, not because Michael and Gail are good at business, nor because they are superior, but because Isabella gave them the resources behind them to help them deal with the mess!

People who don't know Isabella don't know who she is.

But the Brown family, as well as relatives and friends of the Brown family, as well as Mr. Moore, Mrs. Moore, and Harris, naturally know that Isabella is the adopted daughter who lived in the Brown family for 18 years and was finally sent away by Michael and Gail!

Unexpectedly, she was so capable that she could help Michael become the richest man in Winter Town!

She founded QY and is also a piano master. She must have a wide network...

Thinking about it this way, Mr. Moore and Mrs. Moore regret it. If they had a daughter-in-law like Isabella, Moore's momentum would definitely be better than it is now!

Blame them for their short-sightedness and missed opportunities!

in the video.

Gail was still pleading, "Mom, we can't hold it anymore, but you insist on leaving everything on hand to Isabella, is it fair for you to treat Michael, mc, and Daisy like this?"

"It's mine. I can give it to whoever I like. If you don't leave, I'll call someone."

In the end, no matter how much Michael's family cried and begged, the old lady had already made up her mind.

"Today is my birthday, and tomorrow I will have an operation. You are still crying here at this point, do you want me to die?"

After being told by the old lady, Michael could only pull Gail and Daisy, and wanted to wait until the old lady had the operation tomorrow before begging her.

Originally, the video ended here, but unexpectedly, after a while, Gail returned to the ward alone.

At the beginning, she begged bitterly, but in the end she lost her patience, and her brows were stained with hatred.

“I really regard you as my own mother, so I have been compromising and giving in! I will ask you for the last time, will you help?”

Rose was also irritated, “Are you threatening me? Let me tell you...”

Before Rose could finish speaking. Gail suddenly grabbed the old lady’s hair, and said with a grim face. “You old bastard, do you really think you are great when you usually give you three-point noodles? Let me tell you, if you don’t help today, you have to Help! Otherwise, you will suffer!!”

“Let me go!” Maybe she didn’t expect Gail to dare to be so presumptuous. Rose was completely enraged, but she couldn’t break free from Gail’s strength, like a chick being held, completely powerless to fight back,

Gail grabbed Rose’s hair with one hand and slapped her hard with the other!

In the quiet ward, the slap was particularly clear and loud.

All the guests were shocked. Unexpectedly, Gail, who was crying bitterly in the last second, seemed to be a different person in the next second!

To treat a sick old lady so cruelly!

Even Michael and Daisy couldn’t believe it. The three of them were kicked out of the ward by the old lady last night. As soon as they walked into the corridor. Gail suddenly said that he had a good idea to get the old lady to help...

So they dubiously asked her to go back to the ward to try, and the father and daughter went to the car to wait for her to come back.

Unexpectedly, she returned to the ward to commit violence!

“Damn old man, if it wasn’t for Michael ‘s sake, I would have killed you a long time ago!”

“You can live to this day, you are not grateful to Dade, and you will return your favor and revenge!”

“Every day, you pull like two to five to eighty thousand in front of mc. Those who don’t know think you are capable!”

“You ungrateful animal!”

Having said this, Gail shook the old lady away vigorously.

Rose hit the head of the bed with her back, and her whole body was miserable, “Come on, come on...”

“Immortal, still want to call someone? You shout! I see if you can shout!”

Gail tightly covered Rose ‘s mouth and nose, Rose couldn’t breathe and struggled desperately.

“How does it feel to be suffocating? Let me ask you one last time, do you want to help?”

From the monitoring angle, we can only see the old lady struggling in pain on the hospital bed, and Gail’s grim face.

Rose couldn't take her daughter-in-law's hand away with her frail hands, and the feeling of suffocation made her heart feel great stimulation. For a moment, she felt that she was going to die!

Almost subconsciously, her hand wanted to ring the service bell, but Gail spotted it and slapped it away.

"You old bastard, it seems that you haven't suffered enough!"

Gail put the service bell some distance away and slapped Rose again.

Dealing with Rose is like dealing with an unarmed child, and she doesn't need to work hard at all.

Rose was beaten so hard that she couldn't breathe, and subconsciously touched the phone under the pillow.

Gail noticed her action at a glance, "What? You still want to call Isabella? You old bastard! You have a lot of ideas!"

Gail wanted to snatch the phone, but Rose refused. The two were fighting, and Rose was anxious and angry. She was pushed, and the back of her head hit the railing next to the bed hard.

Gail managed to grab the phone, held it in his hand, and showed off with a smile, "Do you want it?"
