

Chased Her 311

Chapter 311 Private Plane to Switzerland

“Then you should comfort him more, his hair is all white.”

This would not have been possible were it not for the excess of grief.

Benjamin knew the pain of losing a loved one, patted Isabella’s head and said, “You are his pillar now.”

“Well, I’ll take care of him.”

After the funeral, the next day, Isabella went to the place where her grandmother lived.

Because the garden has not been cleaned for too long, most of the flowers and plants have withered, and the cobblestone path is covered with fallen leaves and flowers. Once grandma left, everything seemed lifeless.

Isabella had someone clean the entire villa inside and out, while she went to her grandma’s bedroom before she was alive, twisted the wall lamp on the wall, and the entire wardrobe moved away automatically, revealing a small dark room.

In the darkroom, there are all the things that grandma treasured during her lifetime, some are valuables given to her by Isabella, some are real estate certificates, passbooks, etc. under her own name, and some are her old man’s collections in this life.

dowry left to Isabella.

There was also a safe in the corner. Isabella entered the password, and after successful identification, got the contents inside.

is the gold ring that grandma said she would give to Benjamin. before she was alive, but now...things are different.

Isabella thought about it for a long time before opening the backpack and putting everything into it. This is something grandma guarded with all her life, and she must not leave it to Michael and the others.

In the dark room, Isabella also found a large box, opened it, and found that there were graffiti drawn by her since she was a child, and a letter to her grandma.

The letter said that when she grows up, she will take her grandma around the world and give her a better life...

Seeing these contents, Isabella's nose was sour. She never thought that such a childish promise would be stored in the dark room together with the treasures in the eyes of the world.

In grandma's heart, her granddaughter should be more precious than any treasure, right?

Thinking of this, Isabella thought of that kind old man again, and remembered all the life together in the past...

Finally, she put her backpack on her back, picked up the box, restored the wardrobe to its original position, went downstairs, and handed the box to her subordinates.

"Send it to Woods Villa, my bedroom."

"Boss, did the old lady leave you such a box of treasures?" The subordinate stared wide-eyed in disbelief, took the box with one hand, and couldn't help but lift the lid with the other to take a sneak peck, "Hey, what is this? A picture drawn by a kindergartener??"

There are still many things in the box, including the handicrafts she gave to her grandma when she was a child, small gifts made by herself, etc., all of which are kept intact in the box.

“Yeah.” Isabella didn’t say much, but looked at everything in the villa reluctantly, “Remember to change the locks after cleaning.”

Never give Daisy the chance to come in.

“Notify the property side, pay attention to this person Daisy.”

Never let her take advantage of it!

That idiot Michael must have been here before, there are traces of rummaging everywhere...” His subordinates were also speechless, never expecting such a person to exist in the world.

Isabella’s eyebrows turned cold, Michael didn’t know until his death that there would be a secret room behind grandma’s closet...

This is also the reason why they couldn’t find the treasure when they came here before!

“Boss, the old lady also left this villa to you?”

“Um.”

But if possible, Isabella doesn’t want grandma’s things, but just wants grandma to live and live well...

Private Plane to Switzerland

Benjamin didn’t expect that the old lady had prepared a gift for him. before she died, and felt a little sad.

“Take it.” Isabella leaned back on the scat, thinking of all the past again, her nose became sore...

This long summer vacation is coming to an end.

About a week before the start of school, Isabella suddenly received a phone call.

“Ms. Young, you, come here, Mr. Will is going to do something stupid!! No matter how much you persuade him!!!”

Benjamin, who was by the side, waited for her to finish talking on the phone, and asked softly, “What happened?”

“I’m going to Switzerland.” Isabella got up and walked out with a nervous expression, “Mr. Will has an accident.”

“I go with you.”

Benjamin provided a private jet to land at Luman ‘s private estate as quickly as possible.

The housekeeper Paul hurried forward, “ Ms. Young is not good! This? This is...”

“Benjamin, my fiancé.” Isabella spoke concisely and hurried in, “ What’s wrong with Mr. Will ?”

The butler nodded and greeted Benjamin, followed Isabella ‘s pace, and reported while walking. “Since Mr. Will came back from the funeral, he often didn’t eat, sleep, or drink water, just watched Elder Mrs. Brown’s The photos are in a daze...”

Private Plane to Switzerland

When Isabella entered the hall, many servants immediately bowed down to greet her. It was obvious that she had been here before, and the servants all knew her and treated her with respect.

Isabella nodded as a response, and stepped into the elevator with her long legs, “And then?”

The housekeeper reached out and pressed the second floor, and then reported. "Every time you call to carc, Mr. Will pretends that he is fine, but in fact he is not fine at all... He doesn't let us tell you, he just repeatedly emphasizes that, saying that he doesn't want to live. anymore, life is meaningless..."

how so??

Isabella calls him every day, and sometimes vidco...

"Oh, that's right." The butler added, "Every time he makes a video, someone puts on his makeup to make him look more energetic..."

Because Luman is separated from the screen of the mobile phone, and Luman deliberately stays away from the camera every time, either pretending to be planting flowers and grass, or showing Isabella the scenery in the manor, coupled with his deliberately pretended hearty laughter, Isabella really didn't notice See his strangeness!

More than ten days have passed since grandma's funeral, all Isabella knows is that after the funeral, Luman went to the bureau to beat Michael up.

Anyway, it's not grandma's own child, so I beat it, and Isabella didn't care...

Thinking about it now, Mr. Will taught Michael a lesson again, made people suffer for Gail, cared about her on the phone every day, and told her, as if he was giving his last words in disguise...

Private Plane to Switzerland

I used to know that Mr. Will was going to live in Switzerland, but Isabella didn't care because he owns a lot of real estate, sometimes he would go to France, sometimes to Italy....

But Isabella never expected that there is a regulation in Switzerland, which is the purpose of Mr. Will's coming here!

The housekeeper added, " Mr. Will didn't eat or drink, and finally applied for euthanasia..."

Euthanasia is not allowed in most countries!!

But in Switzerland, it is legal to apply for euthanasia, but it must be performed by the person himself. If it is assisted by others, it is murder...

Chapter 312 Even you want to leave me?

During the process of euthanasia performed by patients themselves, court staff and notaries must be present himself who wants to be euthanized and has nothing to do with other people.

As long as Luman hasn't injected himself with drugs, he can stop this process at any time, but Luman really doesn't want to live anymore. Before he rushes to die, he finally has a little light in his eyes.

Rose is his spiritual pillar, and when the pillar collapsed, he really couldn't find the meaning of living.

All his life's struggles are for Rose!

After he signed the euthanasia execution document, he turned on the drip switch by himself and waited for death.

This process only takes four minutes.

If the butler hadn't informed Isabella in advance, and Isabella arrived by private jet, she wouldn't have been able to see Luman in the last four minutes...

In the bedroom stood a court worker, a notary, a family doctor, a nurse, and a servant.

The spacious and bright bedroom was lifeless, and everyone looked sad.

Isabella didn't know how she walked to Luman's window, and asked with a choked voice, "Are you going to leave me too?"

"Isabella..." Luman smiled when he saw her coming, and looked at Benjamin again, "You are here too..."

The housekeeper must have leaked the news...

"Don't leave me alone." Isabella knelt by the bed, very reluctant.

She knew that Luman must agree to stop this process, so she held his hand and begged, "Grandma is accompanied by Grandpa in the sky, it's useless if you go, you might as well stay with me..."

Luman smiled more serenely, "I will guard her from afar and not disturb her... I will go to whichever world she is in... that's all."

Isabella knew that with every second that passed, his chances of surviving were getting less and less, so she got up to pause the injection.

But Luman grabbed her hand and said, "Isabella, grant me..."

Isabella froze.

“This is my decision, after careful consideration and repeated consideration, I don’t want to spend the rest of my life in torment and torture...I want to be free...”

“There are many ways of liberation... I can take you around and take you to every place grandma wanted to go...the flowers and plants left by grandma can also be transplanted into your garden...and, don’t you want to watch me grow up? Watch me put on a wedding dress...”

Isabella was still pleading, “Grandma’s biggest regret was not being able to see me put on a wedding dress... Can you help her see it?”

Luman shook his head with a smile, and looked at her lovingly, “There are still those old men who can grow up with you and witness your marriage... Let grandpa go, can you stop it once, can you stop it thousands of times?”

He really wants to go to another world, even if he can only guard Rose from afar...

Isabella held his hand, her eyes flushed.

“Boy.” Luman called Benjamin, “My precious granddaughter, I will leave it to you. If you dare to treat her badly in this life, I will never let you go... She has more than a dozen grandpas, Will help me clean up you together, you must give her happiness...”

Benjamin knew that once Luman made a decision, nine bulls would not be able to pull him back.

He knelt on one knee beside the bed, held Luman’s other hand, and said hoarsely. “You are cruel to Isabella.”

Ten days ago, she had just lost her grandma, and now she has lost her grandpa...

“Forgive Grandpa. be selfish for a while...” Luman knew that time was running out, and held Benjamin ‘s hand and said, “Boy, you haven’t promised me yet...”

Benjamin’s eyes turned red. “I promise you, I will risk my life to protect her and treat her well...”

“Okay, okay...” Luman closed his eyes reassuringly. Before he left, he would have his granddaughter and grandson-in-law to see him off, and he would not be ridiculed for having no descendants after he went to heaven and earth.

Seeing him closing his eyes and walking peacefully, Isabella couldn’t help crying silently beside him.

After shooting the video, the court staff and notaries left after a few words of comfort.

Isabella with a heavy heart.

In the spacious bedroom, only the girl was left lying on the side of the bed, shrugging her shoulders.

Benjamin stroked her back lightly, hoping to give her some comfort.

But the butler just covered his face, desperately trying not to cry out.

They know that Luman’s love for Rose is too deep, it has already surpassed life and death...

After grieving all afternoon, the housekeeper handed the things Luman left behind to Isabella, “This is a video recorded by the old man before his death, so I must hand it to you.”

Isabella knew that it must be the last words, so she reached out to take it and played it in the living room.

In the video is Luman's kind face. He first explained why he chose this way of death, because it was too painful for him to live.

The only thing he can't let go of now is Isabella.

He told Isabella not to be sad, to live a good life, exhort thousands, exhort ten thousand, and then explain the funeral.

"Although grandpa can't bear your young age, the burden on your shoulders is too heavy... But forgive grandpa, let grandpa be selfish and self-willed once."

"After grandpa leaves, all property under his name will be given to you, and you will inherit it."

"I'm wearing this suit, which I planned to wear at your wedding.... It's a pity..." Luman smiled again when he said this, "I planned to wear this suit, which is more handsome than those stinky old men..... How about it, grandpa looks handsome with this outfit and hairstyle, right?"

Isabella's tears flowed down her cheeks.

"I also had people notify them after I left, and I also recorded a video for them... They will come to see me off for the last time, Isabella, go to school, be a useful person to society, take care, and be happy."

In the video, Luman waved goodbye to her, "I will be your grandfather in my next life."

Isabella immediately cried uncontrollably.

Benjamin hugged her and comforted her, "This is Grandpa's own choice, don't be sad... Grandpa was happy when he left."

Although Isabella knows that this way is a relief for Mr. Will, she is still very sad to lose two relatives in a short period of time.

“I’m still here.” Benjamin patted her on the back distressedly, like coaxing a child, “Don’t cry.”

Isabella cried in his arms until the sky was dark, until the other grandpas who received the news came and held a simple funeral together, letting Luman rest in peace...

In a blink of an eye, the summer vacation is over. This hot summer has taken her two relatives away. The dry and hot breath in the air blows with the wind, making Isabella’s eyes stained with nostalgia.

t, and the whole process needs to be photographed and recorded.

Afterwards, this record needs to be provided to the US police to prove that it is the patient

Chapter 313 The day before school starts

It’s the last day of school.

On this day, Isabella didn’t go to work and was dealing with private affairs in the bedroom.

After a while, her phone lights up.

[Hey, this is the university dormitory that grandpa prepared for you, is it okay?]

Isabella clicked on the picture and saw that it was a luxurious dormitory with four bedrooms and two living rooms. Each bedroom had an independent bathroom and a balcony with a view of the sea.

There is also a small kitchen in the dormitory, a refrigerator, an oven in the small kitchen, and all kinds of electrical appliances...

“Too loud,” Isabella replied.

She was going to school, not on vacation.

[Grandpa knows that you are a low-key person. In order to deceive others, Grandpa specially asked someone to build a brand new dormitory building. He declared to the public that this dormitory building is for students with excellent grades!]

“...” Isabella thought it was funny, “You really have a good intention.”

[That is, for my sweetheart, I even changed the chef in the cafeteria, just waiting for sweetheart to come.]

| Go to the principal’s office tomorrow to find grandpa. Grandpa hasn’t seen you for a long time. I have your favorite coffee and snacks. Remember to come! |

“Okay.” After Isabella replied, she received Kara’s WhatsApp again.

[Isabella, see you at the medical university tomorrow~ Mch! |

Since Isabella chose the medical university, Kara also applied to the medical university without hesitation, and it is said that she will share a dormitory with her through her relationship.

“See you tomorrow.” Isabella sent an emoji and reminded her that the new dormitory is very nice.

She was about to go downstairs when she suddenly saw in the living room that Williams and Eloise had prepared twenty suitcases for her, filled with daily necessities and new clothes respectively.

Isabella must take this, in case she feels unwell...” Eloise picked up another medicine kit and stuffed it into her suitcase.

'Isabella is a doctor herself...'

Before Williams could finish speaking. Eloise interrupted. "It's hard for a doctor to heal himself. It's always good to have some medicine with you. If you want to use it, you can get it at your fingertips..."

"I can understand the medicine cabinet, but you bring so much food to Isabella... especially fruit, which is easy to spoil."

"I heard that there is a refrigerator in their dormitory."

Williams' eyes lit up, "That's more."

The day before school start

Unexpectedly, the treatment in the school is quite good now, and the student dormitory has refrigerators.

Isabella is used to the food in the cafeteria. Or. let's ask the chef at home to cook there?"

Williams denied, "As soon as our chef went, wouldn't Isabella recognize it? I heard that there is a piece of commercial land in the center of the University City. It is said that the owner of the land is going to resell it. Why don't I buy it and make a deal?" The shopping mall allows our daughter to eat, drink and have fun. without leaving home."

The point is, there is no money to spend there!

"Good idea!" Eloise hit it off.

Hearing this. Isabella stepped downstairs with long legs and was about to stop them.

Eloise suddenly thought of something, and said, "I heard that freshmen will have to practice in the first half of the month, why don't we call the school and ask them to cancel the training?"

After training for so long, their beautiful and lovely daughter will definitely get a tan!

The point is, how tired Isabella is usually, and she has to go to training, how can her delicate body bear it?

"I'll call right now, notify the school first, and then discuss the purchase of land." Williams said, about to take out his mobile phone.

"Dad, Mom, no need." Isabella went downstairs and stopped her with a loud voice, "Temporary cancellation of training will have a

The day before school starts

bad impact."

Is the influence bad?

Indeed, this school trains every year, no matter if it is windy, rainy or something, the training will continue as usual!

It was quite sudden to cancel the day before school started.

"Then cancel Isabella alone, or, we can ask Isabella for leave!" Williams suggested, "Let's ask the family doctor to write a medical record for her..."

"Yeah..."

Is it okay to ask for leave?

“Dad, Mom, I’m usually busy with work, so it’s not bad to go to exercise.”

She has long wanted to stretch her muscles.

For her, the gang leader in LA, the training in the school is nothing but a tickle, and it doesn’t hurt at all.

But Williams and Eloise couldn’t bear the suffering of their precious daughter, and felt distressed...

“I don’t agree with the purchase of land to build a shopping mall, so don’t bother.”

Isabella...”

Eloise wanted to persuade her again, but at this moment, Bradley came back with big bags and small bags.

1e day before school starts

“Isabella, this is the skin care product that Bradley thinks is the best to use. If you carry it with you, it will always be useful.”

Isabella watched him pour out the things, there are more than a dozen kinds of sunscreen alone...

I didn’t expect Bradley to use more than her...

“And this, I heard that girls need to use a shower cap when taking a shower, oh yes, this is a hair drying cap, and this...” Bradley took out a lot of things like a treasure, all for girls.

Eloise didn't expect her son to be more thoughtful than her, and raising him so big finally came in handy!

Bradley put the things into Isabella 's suitcase, patted her on the head, and said dotingly, " Bradley will visit you when he is free!"

As soon as the words came out, Isabella immediately refused, "Don't... your face is too ostentatious."

"I can wear a mask and a hat, and I'm sure no one will recognize me!" Bradley patted her on the head again, planning to go out.

Eloise was a little puzzled, "Where are you going? Your sister is going to school tomorrow, and you don't want to stay with her for a while?"

"I also ordered something for her, it will be here soon, I'll get it."

Isabella didn't expect the whole family to be so busy just going to school...

"Mom, I don't need to bring so many things."

"I'll have someone send it to your dormitory, and you don't need to take anything."

The day before school starts

Williams also persuaded, "Take it with you, be prepared! These fruits are all your favorites. I have prepared some more. you can share them with your new roommates... and these snacks are all your favorites food..."

“This box is for school supplies, these two boxes are for bedding. and this...” Eloise said at the end with a sore nose, “ Isabella, come home and have a look at the weekend...”

“Okay, it’s not like I won’t be back.” Isabella saw her reluctance, stepped forward and hugged her, “I’ll be back when I have nothing to do on weekends.”

“Okay, great...”

Cecilia, who was pecking upstairs, was very angry.

Scarlet helped pack her luggage, why did her parents pack one for her?

Although I asked her if she needed to help tidy up, but she said no, her parents really didn’t prepare for her.

Sure enough!

Miss Logan, don’t be angry, you’re afraid you won’t have the chance to deal with her after you went to college?” Scarlet stood behind Cecilia, with a flash of calculation in his eyes.

Isabella at home, it doesn’t mean I can’t do it in other places...

Cecilia bit her lower lip, hum, Isabella, just let you be proud for a while!

Chapter 314

“That Lily is also in the university town, and we will clean it up when the time comes.”

Hearing what Scarlet said, Cecilia’s eyes flashed with joy, just wait and see!

In the evening, Benjamin personally came to the door and brought Isabella a lot of things for college.

Benjamin, you are so caring. You have prepared so much for Isabella. Will you send Isabella to school with us tomorrow?" Eloise warmly invited.

Benjamin hit it right in his arms, and he said hello gently.

"Is Elder Mrs. Manson feeling better recently?" Williams sat on the main seat and asked kindly.

"Call her, she has a reaction, Isabella said to continue the medication, the situation will get better."

"What a god..." Eloise didn't expect her baby girl to have such profound knowledge in medicine. It seems that she can make a difference in the medical field together with her son in the future.

"It's all thanks to Isabella." Benjamin was also very surprised. He didn't expect that the little girl was so confident about the things that many top doctors couldn't help.

Suddenly, Benjamin remembered the day Elder Mrs. Brown left, the little girl cried, there are people in this world she can't save...

that helpless and pitiful little girl, he can't help feeling distressed.

"Tomorrow I can go alone."

Isabella was sitting on the sofa holding lemonade in one hand and leaning on the armrest with the other, exuding a strong aura all over her body.

Not at all like the little girl who cried sadly before.

Bomsville University a long time ago, and going to school was just for fun to her.

But the three of them said in unison. "How can that be done?"

How can I let her go alone?

Others have relatives and friends to accompany them to college!

At this moment. Bradley hurried downstairs with a bunch of things again. "Isabella, you take these to school."

Today Bradley went in and out, up and down many times, this time. I prepared a bunch of autographed photos for Isabella!

It cannot be bought in the market!

Several question marks appeared in Isabella 's mind.

"You usually don't like to talk, and Bradley is afraid that you won't be able to make friends..." Bradley put the autographed photo in her suitcase. "This is Bradley 's autographed photo, you can share it with your classmates, it will definitely improve your relationship with classmates. "

"If the students want to vidco with Bradley, they can do whatever they want, as long as they treat you well and treat you as a friend sincerely..."

"Thank you Bradley."

"Silly girl, why are you being polite to your brother!" Bradley took out some other autographed photos from his pocket, "These are for you."

"Me?" Isabella was even more confused.

“It’s been so long since you’ve been home, and Bradley hasn’t signed your autograph yet. These are all photos taken by Bradley according to your favorite poses. If you miss Bradley, take them out and have a look.”

Benjamin on the side resisted the urge to vomit.

Do you want to be so narcissistic?

Who would miss him?

If you think about it, you also think about your fiancé!

Williams watched him operate fiercely like a tiger, and said to Benjamin a little speechlessly, “This kid is completely useless.”

“That’s right, it’s better than Benjamin preparing a bunch of food for Isabella...”

“I’m ready too...”

Didn’t he prepare a bunch of skin care products in the morning, as well as the delicious snacks that Isabella said last time...

Williams and Eloise ignored him, and chatted with Benjamin.

Isabella said to Bradley, “ Bradley, don’t be busy, come and have a drink.”

“Bradley is preparing other for you, drink it later.” Bradley patted her on the head and hurried upstairs again.

Early the next morning.

Isabella accidentally glanced out of the window when she got up, and suddenly found a whole black convoy parked outside!

The drivers of Logan Family were uniformly dressed and waited respectfully beside the car.

Looks like she was sent to college...

Would this be too noticeable?

She's just going to school, not getting married...

After washing up. Isabella just went downstairs when she suddenly found Williams and Eloise dressed formally and directing the servants to carry their luggage.

All the servants were dressed in uniform, each of them was pushing a suitcase in his hand, and they walked out neatly, and it seemed that they were also going to send her to school...

"Dad. Mom..."

Before Isabella stopped her, Eloise said unexpectedly, "Baby girl, why did you wake up so soon? It's still early! Did the movement in the living room wake you up?"

"these are..."

"You mean Myra and the others? It must be the whole family mobilizing to send you to school together. My precious daughter is going to school. The ostentation must not be small!"

"Mom, I really don't need it." Isabella doesn't want to attract attention, with such a big show, it is estimated that she will make enemies in all directions on the first day of school...

“All of us will send you to Medical University first, then Cecilia to Bomsville University...”

This idea was brought up by Cecilia. She said that Isabella is the older sister, and she should be sent to the older sister first...

In fact, her calculation was that after Benjamin delivered Isabella, she would definitely send her to Bomsville University with everyone...

As long as anyone in the school sees the picture of her with Benjamin, the rumors will definitely spread...

Maybe Isabella turned around and started a fight with Benjamin, and Benjamin got impatient, so who should choose her?

“Sister, my parents made such a big show just to let everyone in the school know that the two of us are people they can’t bully... This is what my parents want... so don’t refuse.”

Isabella saw her vanity, didn’t she just want to show off in the new school?

With such a high profile on the first day of school, do you think no one will trip you up in the future?

As soon as she finished speaking, she suddenly realized that the suitcases that she was not allowed to bring yesterday were taken by the servants again, and she was speechless...

“Your father originally said that ten helicopters would take you to school, and that they would land on the school playground!” Eloise knew that her daughter was a low-key person, so she didn’t agree, and she didn’t drive out all the luxury cars in the garage, but chose pure black car...

“Mom, I know you want everyone in the school to know that I have a backer, but don’t worry, even if I don’t use this method. I won’t be bullied at school.”

Isabella talked about it, and Eloise finally agreed to drive six cars, no less! I can’t fit any more suitcases...

Servants may not bring them, but family members must accompany them!

Isabella had no choice but to agree.

On the way to school, Cecilia and Scarlet had one car. Williams and Eloise had one car. Benjamin and Isabella had one car, and the remaining three cars had their luggage packed.

Benjamin held Isabella’s hand tightly and said, “I have a flat near the school. If the dormitory is uncomfortable, you can come to my place.”

Isabella looked up, and heard him add. “There is also a branch office there, and I will handle work there recently, and it is only a five-minute drive from your school.”

Chapter 315 Eye-catching

“So?” Isabella asked with a raised eyebrow.

“I’m not like your brother. I don’t have photos for you to see and think about. If you miss me, I can appear in front of you at any time and let you meet.” Benjamin’s eyes were full of tenderness and doting.

Isabella suddenly realized that he and Bradley seemed to be fighting for favor? Is it her illusion??

At the school gate, Isabella refused to let him get off the car, “You are too eye-catching.”

“Afraid that I will be seen by other brats?”

“I’m afraid you will attract bees and butterflies.”

Benjamin smiled wantonly, cupped her face in his hands, and kissed her lustfully.

Williams, who got out of the car, accidentally saw this scene, and hurriedly turned his face away, “Young people today are really different from our era...”

In broad daylight, he was so courageous that he hugged her at every turn.

Eloise glanced at it and dismissed it. “What do you know, it’s so sweet and sweet! This shows that the young couple are inseparable...”

“Then let’s have one too?” Williams smiled and was about to lean over.

Eloise slapped him hastily, “Go away, old rascal!”

Williams: ???

If the son-in-law kisses the other half, he will be tired, but if he kisses the other half, he will be an old hooligan??

“feel free to contact.”

In the car, Benjamin 's voice was sensual and seductive, and his eyes were full of strong reluctance and affection.

“Well, good.” Isabella got out of the car and walked forward without looking back.

Looking at her independent and confident back, Benjamin suddenly felt that the little girl was so heartless that she didn't even look back at him...

For some reason, his heart felt empty...

Although Isabella has kept a low profile today, the six luxury cars. parked in front of the school still attracted too many people's attention.

“Is that a freshman?”

“Her family looks so rich...”

“The point is, she looks so temperamental and beautiful! She's a little cold, but also a little cool...”

“Are her parents next to her? Looks familiar?”

“Yeah, I seem to have seen it somewhere...”

Williams and Eloise walked into the school holding Isabella 's hand at the same time. Unexpectedly, the environment of the medical university is not bad. They were very excited to accompany their daughter to the school for the first time.

Six drivers followed behind them, carrying luggage for Isabella.

As soon as they entered the school, several seniors from the student union noticed them.

Every year, teachers from the Admissions Office and seniors from the Student Union stand at the gate of the school to help welcome new students.

At this time, several seniors scrambled forward, and after asking about the situation, they led them along the way, and introduced the situation of the school along the way, including the direction of the canteen, the playground, the teaching building, etc...

I took Isabella to the downstairs of the dormitory. They wanted a WhatsApp, but seeing Isabella's cold aura and the presence of her parents, they still didn't dare to speak...

This freshman's aura is amazing!

Inexplicably oppressive...

"I haven't seen such a punctual girl in school for a long time."

"I bet she will become the beauty of our medical university!"

"It doesn't matter if she's good-looking, and she got a perfect score in the Enter University exam. Now if I want to chase her, I feel like I'm not good enough."

"Hahahaha, you're pretty self-aware!"

When the auntie in charge saw Isabella coming, she remembered what the principal had said before, that a very beautiful girl would come today, the one who would be very shocking at a glance, needless to say, it must be her!

At this time, Isabella stepped up the stairs step by step. Before she entered the gate of the dormitory building, the dormitory aunt ran out to greet her in person.

“Are you the granddaughter of Principal Brown ?” The dormitory auntie hurriedly covered her mouth when she said this, “Yes, yes, you can’t say it, you can’t say it, Principal Brown asked me to keep it a secret... Well, you are Isabella, right?”

“Hello.”

“Hello, hello, please come in, these two are your parents, right? Let’s go in together? Hey, you brought a bodyguard? Is it to deliver your luggage?”

Isabella knew that men in the girls’ dormitory were not allowed in, so she told the drivers behind her, “Put your luggage here.”

“No, no, let them carry it up for you, you thin arms and legs, how can you carry it...”

The dormitory auntie smiled like a flower, put her shoulders on Isabella, and smiled familiarly, “Auntie will cover everything in the future! That is, that, Mr. Logan, the dormitory supervisor in the male dormitory will be raised every three years. Salary, I have been here for six years...”

Isabella understood what she meant and nodded, “I’ll talk to “Hey, okay, you’re such a good boy, then hurry up and show your parents a tour of the dormitory!” Auntie the dormitory manager smiled even more happily.

Both Williams and Eloise were confused by their conversation, what’s going on??

Isabella is Principal Brown’s granddaughter??

When did this happen??

Could it be that Mr. Brown, like Luman, recognized Isabella as his granddaughter??

Although they also know Mr. Brown, they don't have many connections. Before, it was the parents who walked around...

If they want to call Mr. Brown to take care of Isabella at school, they have to use the friendship of their parents to speak out...

But they haven't made this phone call yet, and they heard about this relationship...

"Isabella, do you know Mr. Brown?" After entering the elevator, Eloise couldn't help asking.

"Well, yes, he and Mr. Will are good friends. In terms of medical skills, it was only after his old man taught him that he became enlightened."

So it is!!

"So, my precious daughter is the favorite of the group?!" Eloise was very happy, but she didn't expect her daughter to impress them

When I reached the tallest building. Isabella opened the door of the dormitory and suddenly found two girls inside.

The two girls were talking, when they heard the sound, they glanced at the door, and after this one glance, they couldn't look back.

What a beautiful, temperamental girl!!

They looked at Isabella, her eyes were as clear as water, her skin was fair, she was thin and tall, and she exuded a powerful aura.

"You...are you Isabella or Kara ?"

They had seen the dormitory list before, and knew the names of the other two people, one was No. 1 Isabella and the other was Kara.

Isabella 's eyes softened, "My name is Isabella."

"Full score No. 1 ? You are the perfect score No. 1 ???" Poll was stunned and excited.

"We actually share a bedroom with No. 1 ?!" Another girl, Millie, was also very excited, "God, please accept my knee!"

How did the master manage to be good-looking and get full academic marks??

At this time, Poll suddenly realized, "Didn't you bring your luggage?"

"have."

Isabella moved out of the way, and the drivers outside the door

When Poll saw the first bodyguard, he thought it was Isabella 's father. Just as he was about to say hello, he saw bodyguards walking in one after another...

Both of them were stunned by this battle, and forgot to bite the apple in their hands.

At this time, a couple with more elegant and luxurious clothes appeared.

Chapter 316 We meet again

"Hi, classmates, hello, I'm Isabella 's father!"

"I'm Isabella 's mother." Eloise also appeared in front of them gracefully, smiling gracefully.

The two girls looked at it, wow, what a temperament! No wonder you can give birth to such a beautiful daughter!

This looks like a rich family!

“It’s fate that everyone can live in the same dormitory, Isabella, didn’t you bring something to share with your classmates? In the No. 9 suitcase...”

Before coming, Eloise put a number on each suitcase, and she wrote down what was in each number and sent it to Isabella’s mobile phone.

Isabella opened the No. 9 suitcase, and said generously in front of everyone, “Take whatever you want.”

The two girls looked at it, oh my god, these snacks are brands they have never seen before, and the packaging is very expensive...

There are also these fruits, several of which they have never seen before, and they don’t know what they are.....

Undoubtedly, he is a real rich man!

Seeing that they didn’t take it, Isabella felt embarrassed, so she picked up some and handed them to them.

The two girls didn’t expect Isabella to be so sassy when she gave things, and couldn’t help but sigh in their hearts. They are both girls, so the gap is so big!!

Full score No. 1 This appearance, this aura, so cool!

“This is your dormitory?” Eloise looked around, nodded, and smiled. “It’s not bad, although the sparrow is small, it has all the internal organs...”

When one of the girls heard this, her eyes widened. This environment has killed American dormitory buildings in seconds! Moreover, the area is larger than her home...

But in Eloise's eyes, still small??

Woooooo, how big is their house...

Thinking of this, the girls were hit hard.

Isabella, go chat and eat with your classmates..."

Eloise came to Isabella's room, and under the prompts of several drivers, she personally helped her daughter lay the sheets and hang up the mosquito net...

The two girls knew at a glance that Eloise was an expensive wife who had never worked at home...

"Mom, leave your luggage, I'll collect it myself later."

Hearing what Isabella said, Eloise was a little bit reluctant, patted her head and said, "Then if you need anything, or if you need something, just call me and come back when you are free on the weekend..."

"good."

"Take care of yourself..." Eloise suddenly had a sore nose, feeling extremely reluctant.

The two girls hurriedly said, "Auntie, don't worry, we will take care of your daughter for you!"

"thank you all..."

After Williams and Eloise left, the two girls relaxed a lot, chatting around Isabella from left to right.

"Isabella, your family looks so rich..."

Isabella didn't think so, "It's okay."

"Your family members have good temperament...your temperament is also very good, and your skin is also good!"

"How did you achieve perfect marks in your studies and take care of your skin so well? What skin care products do you usually use?"

As soon as they spoke, the door of the dormitory was pushed open.

A very confident and beautiful girl came. When she saw Isabella, she rushed over and hugged her, "It's great that we finally have a dormitory!"

She made a thousand promises in front of Mr. Brown, a million promises, that she would take good care of Isabella...

"Hot." Isabella's tone was a little disgusted, but her eyebrows and eyes were smiling.

Kara smiled brightly, and looked at the other two girls, "Hi, how are you all! My name is Kara, and I'm a good friend of Isabella."

beautiful girl to come, she is still a good friend with a perfect score of No. 1...

“So, your grades are also very good?”

“Hello, my name is Poll, nice to meet you.”

“My name is Millie, and we will be friends from now on!”

The four girls chatted and chatted lively. After a while, Isabella ‘s cell phone rang.

“Oh my dear, why don’t you come? Grandpa’s neck is longer than a giraffe... Are you satisfied with the dormitory environment?”

“It’s pretty good.” Isabella didn’t expect the old man to give her the view of the highest floor, and the view is superb. “I’ll go in a while.”

“Then grandpa is waiting for you in the principal’s office...” Principal Brown hung up the phone with a smile.

Isabella saw Benjamin, Big Brother, and Bradley ‘s WhatsApp on her phone, and they were all asking her how her new school and classmates are doing, and whether they are getting used to it.

Isabella took a picture of her room and sent it, adding, “Everything

“Let’s go buy some drinks together? The weather is so hot! I saw that there are many concentrated commercial streets in the university town. Let’s go shopping together?” Kara suggested.

The two girls had to pack their luggage, so they couldn’t go.

Kara pulled on Isabella, “Then we’ll bring you some later! What do you drink?”

“No need.” The two girls were embarrassed to take advantage of her.

But Kara is very generous and doesn't take this little money seriously.

The commercial street in the university city has been refreshed, with graffiti on the walls, which looks very trendy.

Isabella walked around with Kara for a while, and just after shopping for something to go back. I accidentally saw a familiar figure.

Kara was surprised, “Daisy ??”

How does she have the face to learn?

Didn't the videos that broke out on the Internet make her ashamed. to commit suicide??

The point is, why would the school admit such a bad student like her??

Daisy obviously noticed them too, and stopped.

Her face was scratched by Mrs. Moore at the beginning, leaving a scar, but she put on makeup, so it can't be seen for the time being.

Under the sun, her eyebrows were a little cold, and she walked up to Isabella, her tone filled with hatred, “Mom and Dad were sentenced to life imprisonment, are you satisfied?”

Isabella cast her cold eyes on her, “I'm not very satisfied... After all, I'm not dead yet.”

Grandma is dead, why are they still alive?

If it wasn't for torturing them and making them atone for their sins, they would have been sent to the King of Hades long ago!

Daisy still wanted to say something, so Kara took a step forward. "Isn't the beating not enough last time? Do you want to learn from Miss Ben again?"

"You, you wait for me!"

"Why wait for you? Who are you?" Kara snapped back without hesitation.

Daisy held back her anger, turned and left.

Kara looked at the back of her leaving, and couldn't help saying to Isabella, "She's still so annoying... Her parents were sentenced to life imprisonment, what's the matter with you? They deserved it!"

If they did not commit a crime, the law would not sentence them!!

Isabella looked at Daisy's back, and said casually, "I heard that she returned to Viv's place, and she is not used to the life of simple coffee and light meals..."

"I've only been a lady for a few days? Can't adapt to the life before? That Viv is so stupid, she has no conscience, and she still treats her like a daughter..."

"After all, she is desperate now."

Surrounded by creditors every day, the school became her shelter instead.

Chapter 317 And You Take It All the other side.

Sitting in the car, Benjamin clicked on the phone screen countless times, and finally received a reply from the little girl.

There are only four words: all are very good.

A photo of the dormitory is also attached.

But the first thing Benjamin noticed was the shadow reflected on the glass door when the little girl took the photo.

The waist is really thin.

So lovely.

He was about to reply when someone knocked on the car window.

Benjamin." Cecilia raised a sweet smile, stood outside the car, and said softly, "It's too stuffy in the car, why don't you come down and get some air?"

Benjamin ignored her and was about to type for Isabella when Cecilia knocked on the car window again, persistently.

"How boring you are in the car alone...and no one to talk to you."

"The drivers have all gone to deliver luggage to my sister, and my parents are not here. We are also idle. Why don't we go to a nearby coffee shop and have a cup of coffee, sit and wait?"

She intentionally showed her full breasts, trying to attract Benjamin's attention, but Benjamin didn't even look at her, but responded to the phone message with one hand, completely treating her as transparent.

Cecilia was a little embarrassed and a little discouraged.

Scarlet in the other car kept giving her winks, telling her not to give up easily.

Cecilia could only invite again with a cheeky face, " Benjamin... I don't mean anything else. We grew up together. Can't we even have a cup of coffee now? What else can I do to you in public?"

"I have a fiancée." Benjamin didn't look at her, but looked at his phone, and warned in a cold voice. "Stay away from me."

Hearing this, Cecilia immediately put on a pitiful look for Freda.

"Don't you just like the kind of people who look cold and are unreasonable..."

Before Cecilia finished speaking, she received Benjamin 's warning eyes.

"Do you think the life in Logan Family is too comfortable and you don't want to live?"

"Benjamin..."

Cecilia was frightened suddenly, what she said was the truth, Isabella put on a self-righteous look all day long, she was cold, and she was not tactful enough...

She didn't discredit the black family!

"I just want to buy you a cup of coffee. If you prefer to stay in the car, I can go up to accompany you..." Cecilia said this, and Lori said weakly, "Is there some misunderstanding between us?...We can take this opportunity to make it clear, is my sister saying that I am not in front of you..."

"You take yourself too seriously." Benjamin 's eyes were extremely cold, and his tone was even more displeased, "You don't deserve her to mention it."

"Benjamin..."

"In this life, even if you imitate her words and deeds, even if you look like her... I won't take another look at you."

Cecilia has never been humiliated face to face since she was a child, and she just froze in place, embarrassed and ashamed.

"I hate hypocritical, hypocritical, self-righteous people the most, and you have it all."

Cecilia bit her lower lip, almost crying.

"No matter how self-indulgent and asking for trouble, you Lady 's life, don't even think about it."

Cecilia looked at his indifferent side face, was extremely embarrassed, ran back to the car and cried...

"How could he say that about me? I'm hypocritical, hypocritical, self-righteous..." Cecilia cried sadly in Scarlet's arms, feeling aggrieved. "Is there anything I can't compare to Isabella? Isn't it The world's richest man, what's so great, talking hurts too much!!"

Scarlet comforted him patiently, " People like Mr. Mason in high positions are naturally arrogant by nature, and it's not so easy to win

"But what's so good about Isabella that it deserves him to maintain it to such an extent?! Isn't it just that he can play the piano, go to the company to fish, and often put on a bad face?"

“A man, the more cold and indifferent he is to him, the more he wants to conquer... This is a man’s desire to conquer! It’s not your fault.”

Scarlet analyzed a bunch before Cecilia ‘s tears stopped and she sniffled.

“And you are not smart, you cried just now, you have to cry in front of him, so that he will feel at a loss when he sees it, and feel that he is a big man bullying a little girl, and he feels sorry...”

“But now, wipe away your tears first, listen to me, try again...”

“Go again?” Cecilia really didn’t want to embarrass herself, Benjamin’s reaction just now was terrible, if she goes again, she will be thrown to Africa by him!

“Be more frustrated and courageous, let him see your uniqueness!” Scarlet went on to brainwash, “Let him know that you really like him! You are not like other girls out there who are interested in his money, power and status.”

Cecilia struggled for a long time and finally got out of the car.

Scarlet said, she boldly knocked on Benjamin ‘s car window, and Lori said weakly, “ Benjamin, I’m sorry, I was wrong just now, please don’t be angry, listen to me...”

Benjamin glanced at her, Cecilia seemed to see hope immediately, and said with red eyes, “Well, can you get out of the car and listen to me, because you will make me feel oppressed when you look at me like this...”

She didn’t dare to look at Benjamin ‘s reaction, she lowered her head, as timid and uneasy as a poor child who did something wrong and wanted to be forgiven by adults.

However, to Cecilia’s surprise...

The next second, she heard the sound of the car door opening.

Benjamin stepped out with slender legs, and the shiny leather shoes came into her eyes.

Seeing his feet fall to the ground...

Cecilia seemed to be dreaming, she couldn't believe it, from bottom to top, she looked at his handsome face that was overshadowed by everything in the world...

Benjamin is off!!

He really got off!!

He was standing right in front of her!!

Scarlet is right, men can't see a woman's red-eyed, aggrieved look...

Just now she pretended to be like this on purpose, and even lowered her neckline, for this effect!!

Just when Cecilia showed a happy face and was about to speak, the next second, Benjamin stepped forward and passed her by...

The whole process only took three seconds...

Cecilia was stunned, seeing him get into Green 's car, and the car drove away...

It took a while to realize that Benjamin got out of the car, not to listen to her nonsense, but to see Green coming to pick him up, so he got off...

From the beginning to the end, it has nothing to do with her...

The ecstasy just now was gone, replaced by embarrassment and shame...

In the car, Green asked while driving, "Boss, what's the matter? Didn't you take Ms. Young to school today? Why did you ask me to pick you up all of a sudden? Could it be that you and Ms. Young had a fight?"

Chapter 318 Parent-child relationship 99.99%

"I'll quarrel with her?" Benjamin's tone was disapproving. There was no such thing as quarreling with him, and he would only let Isabella win.

"Then you are..." Green didn't understand.

"There's an annoying fly buzzing in my car all the time, it's annoying."

fly? ? ?

Green froze for two seconds before remembering the figure of Miss Logan. The fly that Boss mentioned didn't mean Miss Logan, did he??

so poor...

When, Miss Logan was at the boss, only as a fly...

It used to be at least personal...

Not even a human anymore...

Benjamin took out his mobile phone again and called Williams, meaning that the group was in a hurry, and he would take Green 's car back first, and then we would have dinner together when Isabella was free.

“It’s okay, my dear son-in-law, just go and do your work...”

Knowing that he has a lot of affairs to deal with every day,

Williams said very openly, “You can send Isabella to school, uncles and aunts are already very happy... that’s next time, what... Be careful, after all, it’s in broad daylight, isn’t it, then Influence, not so good...”

A question mark popped up in Benjamin 's mind, and he didn’t know why.

“Isabella is still young...isn’t it...” Williams smiled on the phone.

Benjamin instantly understood, “Sorry Uncle, I’m a beast.”

“Huh???” Williams was taken aback by his attitude, “No, no, it’s not your problem...”

“The main reason is that Isabella is so good-looking, and her uncle and aunt are so good at giving birth.”

“This, this, this, why do you praise us...”

“It’s a great honor to be able to become a family with my uncle and aunt. When I finish my work, I must do my filial piety in front of you two elders to make you happy.”

After hanging up the phone, Williams was still in a daze, this kid, how can he speak so well... What was his point just now? They were all led astray by this kid...

the other side.

Kara bought a lot of things to share with the people in the dormitory, and dinner was also her treat.

Because of her enthusiasm and cheerfulness, the other two girls quickly became acquainted with her.

Isabella with her in everything, the two girls also quickly become one with Isabella.

In the evening, Kara generously shared the extra skin care products. she brought with the other two girls, and the three chatted endlessly in the small living room.

After Isabella took a shower, she threw her clothes into the washing machine, stood on the balcony, and listened to her subordinates report the results of the investigation.

[Boss, that Scarlet and Cecilia are really mother and daughter! The results of the appraisal showed that the parent-child relationship between them reached 99.99%! Fuck! This is too bloody!]

While wiping her hair, Isabella said disapprovingly, "I guessed it earlier."

[It's just. like you said, how can a nanny be able to steal? Now there are only two possibilities. One is that after the explosion in the health center. Scarlet found out that her daughter was wrongly carried by your family, and thought that your family was rich, so she faked her death as a nanny. Come to your house to accompany her daughter, and take the opportunity to let her daughter live a good life.]

[Another possibility is that there is a mastermind behind her, and she also knows who planned the fire, but this possibility is relatively low, and there are many doubts...]

For example, with her intelligence, she is definitely not a good pawn.

There is nothing special about her, which can make the mastermind behind the scenes be extra merciful and leave her alive.

Besides, Cecilia's stay in the Logan Family seems to have not substantial help to the whole plan, and it can be said to be irrelevant...

Could it be that Cecilia was wronged back then, it was really a mistake...

And Scarlet is just going with the flow?

Not as complicated as they imagined??

If you want to know the truth, you have to start from the beginning.]

What is certain is that Scarlet was a parturient in the same ward as Eloise in the hospital back then. In that fire, she did not die, but quietly survived...

"What about Cecilia 's biological father?" Isabella asked quietly.

[Still in the investigation, I checked Scarlet's contact records with outsiders over the years, and found that they are all quite normal, there is no opposite sex who is about her age and moves around a lot...]

Isabella recalled what Williams and Eloise said before. They sent someone to investigate. Cecilia 's biological father was missing in the fire, and her biological mother died...

"Over the years, has Scarlet ever been to the cemetery, or paid homage to anyone in private?" Isabella continued to ask.

[No, she has been working as a nanny in your house and rarely goes out... Boss, is there a possibility that Cecilia 's biological father also changed his name and surname, mistakenly thinking that his wife and daughter died in the fire, so he married another?]

As long as you change your name and surname, and live in a small village, trying to find it is like looking for a needle in a haystack...

“Hard to say.”

Without evidence, Isabella is not easy to draw conclusions, but said, “If Cecilia’s biological father knows that his wife and daughter are not dead, and the daughter lives a good life, the wife will come to share a piece of the pic, but he, as the father of the child, will not come Points? With Scarlet 's personality, he should be notified of this benefit... You should focus on checking the entry records of all opposite sexes in the Logan Family eighteen years ago...”

[Boss, do you mean that Cecilia 's biological father may also be at your house? Maybe a driver, maybe a bodyguard??] The subordinates were stunned...

“Well, it’s just my guess. You should check carefully to see if there is anything you missed.”

[Yes!]

After finishing the business, the subordinates couldn’t help but pissed off, | Boss, is school fun? How about you let me go in and experience life?]

“Your face is too old.”

When the men heard it, they immediately felt heartbroken, [Boss, I’m only in my carly 20s... If it wasn’t for running around for you every day, I wouldn’t grow old so fast...]

The point is, he doesn't feel that he is old, so why does his handsomeness not exist in the eyes of the boss?

Is it because the boss looks at Benjamin 's face every day, and the aesthetic standard has improved? Has he been harsh on his petty subordinates?!

"Hung up." Isabella didn't wait for him to talk nonsense, after hanging up the phone, she picked up Benjamin 's call again.

"Little friend, who are you chatting with?" Benjamin called just now, she was on the call, and she called again later, or she was still on the call, and now she finally got through...

"It's been a long time, man?"

"Well, man, in his early twenties." Isabella raised the corner of her lips and asked. "Do you want me to send you his identity information?"

It really is a man!

Benjamin couldn't get through to her phone just now, so he had a premonition that it would be a man...

"Okay, you send it, and I promise not to hit him."

Isabella found it funny, "What do you want from me?"

"I miss you, so I can't look for you?" Benjamin 's tone was a little tasteless, "Why did he look for you? He has business? What business can a kid in his early twenties have? Just met today? Classmate??"

Chapter 319 Can You Make A Friend?

Isabella was amused by his tone, and couldn't help but said, "It's a subordinate who asked me to report to work, you are so jealous, do I have to replace all my subordinates with women in the future?"

"It's a good idea."

Isabella couldn't help laughing, "What about you?"

"All my subordinates can be replaced by men."

Isabella chatted with him, and she didn't hang up until someone knocked on the door.

"Isabella, these are the clothes for training tomorrow. I brought you two sets, both in your size."

The person who came was Kara.

Isabella picked up the military uniform and looked at it. The quality was quite good. Suddenly, she remembered that Benjamin had just asked her on the phone if she had received the military uniform. Could it be...

"I heard that the material and style of the military uniforms this year are different from previous years. This year is sponsored by Mason Group. Could it be your husband?"

Isabella's face flushed slightly, "What husband?"

"It's your man, could it be mine?" Kara joked, "The material is really good, but this style looks a bit conservative..."

It should be revealed, it didn't show at all...

This man takes good care of his wife...

Early the next morning, all the freshmen stood on the playground and were scorched by the scorching sun.

Looking from a distance, there are huge crowds of people.

who led Isabella 's class looked very strict. Although he was young, his dark face and sharp eyes made people feel frightened.

"It's so hot. I'm about to faint..."

"Help, it's only been an hour and I'm dying..."

"When will it end?"

Many girls complained in low voices in the team. Kara 's mouth was parched from the scorching sun. Looking at Isabella again, those clear eyes were crystal clear.

"Isabella, your physical fitness is too good?" Kara's mouth was dry, and her throat felt smoke when she said a word.

"Isn't it just standing?" Isabella 's tone was very relaxed. Except for her, the whole class stood unsteadily, like flowers in a greenhouse, unable to withstand the scorching sun.

"Stand up for me." The instructor whistled, and his expression became more serious. "Didn't you cat this morning? Look at the class next door and tell yourself, are they standing up well?"

The whole class stretched their hips and said, "Not good-"

“You are on the same level as them, cheer me up! Take a break, stand at attention! Stand still-”

The whole class is about to collapse.

“Only after a lot of tempering can you become a good steel! You have become like this before you have started tempering? It would be embarrassing for me to say it! Stand at attention! Hold your chest up!”

At this time, a girl in the crowd weakly raised her hand and said feebly. “Report, instructor, I’m a little dizzy...”

“On my side, no one is allowed to fall! I would rather you die on the battlefield than allow any of you to flee! This is the characteristic of our American soldiers!”

The whole class collapsed even more...

“Everyone obeys-”

The instructor blew his whistle, and suddenly found a boy staring at Isabella all the time. he patted the back of the boy’s head angrily, and his tone was a bit fierce.

“Your girlfriend? No? Then what are you looking at!! Stand up for mc-”

The whole morning, the whole class was tortured by this instructor named Seb...

Finally rested.

Everyone hurried to the cafeteria.

Kara leaned against Isabella and said weakly, "Mr. Brown also asked me to take care of you more, you don't need anyone to take care of you at all!"

The most energetic person in the class is her...

"It's so hot, let's go eat quickly, there will be no seats if it's late." Poll stepped forward to hold their hands, feeling hot and hungry.

"Am I tanned?" Millie touched her face with her hand, it felt so hot, it must be a few degrees darker.

The four of them came to the cafeteria, and as soon as they ordered their meals and sat down, they heard the people at the next table chatting.

"I heard that the No. 1 dormitory with a perfect score is in the South Building. Does anyone who lives in the South Building know what she looks like?"

"People with good grades like this usually have a bad temper and are ugly, right?"

"Many people on the Internet said that she looks terrible, short and fat, and has acne all over her face."

"It is said that he is still bald!"

Isabella who is eating beside: ???

The other three girls ate half of it, and looked at Isabella in unison. Where was she short, where was she fat, where was she ugly, and where was she bald?!

She's obviously beautiful like a fairy, and her skin is flimsy. Even if those people on the Internet want to make it up, they can't make it up so outrageously, right?

"I saw her former classmate broke the news that No. 1 was out of gregariousness, had a weird temper, and often talked to herself, like a psychopath..."

Kara on the side couldn't listen anymore, she patted the table and said. "Have you seen it? If you haven't seen it, spread rumors? There is no cost to spread rumors? You are so tired from training and your can't eat well. Why are you gossip?"

The other party was taken aback by her aura, and suddenly felt aggrieved. They were just chatting, and they didn't make it up...

If No. 1 is really good-looking, how could there be so many bad reviews on the Internet??

Isabella was eating when her phone vibrated.

It was from my subordinates.

[Boss. I have investigated, and the identities of all the servants of the opposite sex in your family are quite normal.]

"you sure?"

It took only one day? Just figured it all out? The speed is quite fast.

[The main reason is that their identities are easy to check...] The subordinate explained.

"Well, I see." After Isabella ended the call, she typed and sent it.

“Check it out and see if any of them have bought fake identities from scalpers, whether the addresses on their ID cards really exist. and some people’s hometowns are far away, you go and check if it’s real There is this person whose appearance is different from the one on the ID card, what relatives are there in his hometown, do those relatives know him, etc.

The subordinates were stunned. They didn’t expect the boss to investigate so carefully.

[Boss, you are afraid that in those days, someone would fish in troubled waters... OK, no problem, leave it to me.]

Isabella put away her phone, and the hot eyes from the side. hurriedly retracted.

Isabella, you are so beautiful, the boys around you are all looking at you.” Poll couldn’t help but wink at Isabella.

Isabella ‘s looks are pleasing to the eye even for a girl, let alone a boy...

Millie took a sip of the soup and added. “Not only Isabella, but Kara is also very popular. The beauty of the two of them is too eye- catching in the medical university.”

“There are also many boys looking at you two, are you okay?” Kara said disapprovingly after cating the last bite of food. “The appearance of our dormitory should be the highest.”

“Hello.”

At this time, a boy came forward and asked shyly, “What’s your name, please? Can I make a friend?”

Chapter 320

Isabella realized that someone was talking to him, and took a look. The other party was also a freshman, wearing a military uniform, and looked a little nervous.

“Sorry, I can’t.”

Hearing what Isabella said, the boy blushed even more, and hurried away after saying “excuse me”. His friends burst into laughter.

After a while, someone came to ask for Isabella’s WhatsApp, but Isabella didn’t give it back and asked him to go back to study hard. The three girls around couldn’t help laughing.

On the way back to the dormitory, boys kept chatting up the four of them, and Isabella was the one who got the most WhatsApp requests.

In the next few days, in addition to basic training such as standing in a military posture and walking forward, the instructors also taught the students in each class military boxing.

During the intermission. Poll left for a while and came back with red eyes.

“What’s wrong?” Millie was the first to notice her strangeness, and put one hand on her shoulder, “Didn’t you say to go to the bathroom? Why are you crying?”

It was fine if Millic didn’t ask, but Poll’s eyes became redder when he asked, and he was choked up, speechless.

Isabella’s eyes fell on her. “Do you need help?”

Poll shook his head.

“All risc–”

Just then, instructor Seb blew his whistle and the intermission ended.

Millie asked Poll next to her in a low voice, “Can you do it? Do you want to take a leave of absence?”

Poll still shook his head.

Next, we will continue to teach military boxing. The sunset is about to set, and the students are so exhausted that they can’t even make gestures properly.

Isabella, Kara, and Millic observed Poll from time to time, and found that she was absent-minded, her eyes dimmed, and she seemed to have been greatly shocked.

Adam, the instructor in the next class, couldn’t help laughing, because the class he brought out was better than them.

He whistled and said loudly, “Lori, get out of the queue and teach the students in the next class. Let instructor Seb have a good rest.”

The Lori who stood up was heroic, good-looking, with an unyielding spirit in her bones, and a strong desire to win in her eyes.

Seb’s face darkened, asking a freshman to teach their class? How despised are you?

In a team before, this Adam often confronted him, and now he raised a warning look, "Who needs your little brat to teach?"

"Hey, my little brat has practiced really well. Is there anyone in your class better than her? Do you dare to call someone out to compete?"

Seb looked at the kids behind him, "Who wants to try?"

The whole class was silent...

Lori was leading the demonstration in the next class just now, they saw her, and she really practiced well...

They only have to be beaten when they go up...

"Just her."

Unexpectedly, Lori 's gaze jumped over the two instructors, raised her chin slightly, and clicked Poll directly in the crowd.

Because she looks like a bully.

Seb looked at Poll. "Can you?"

Poll stood up, "Report to the instructor, I can try."

Lori was in the middle of her arms, and then smiled, "I accidentally bumped into something later, so don't cry."

The people in the two classes boomed immediately, cheering for the people in their respective classes.

Not long after Poll came on stage, he was hit on the head by Lori, and then kicked again.

Kara, who was sitting below, saw Lori 's moves were fast and ruthless, leaving no room for Poll at all, and couldn't help but said,

"Is there a mistake, it's just a discussion, what about it?"

"Everything goes to the end, who, you are too much!" Millic couldn't help complaining.

"On the battlefield, you have no eyes and no eyes, and you don't recognize your relatives. Haven't you heard of it?" Lori kicked Poll to the ground again.

Poll is still struggling to get up, although it hurts.

Seb was a little distressed, and whistled, "Return to the team--"

"I haven't finished teaching this military boxing yet, and instructor Seb feels distressed?" Adam smiled vigorously, and patted Seb on the shoulder. "Your students are not as good as others, so don't rely on my students in the future. It's expensive...'

Seb shrugged off his touch, disapproving eyes.

How can peace be the most important thing here? It's clearly a public revenge and making fun of his students!

As if nothing happened. Adam smiled and said to the students in his class, "Students, have you seen it? Learning military boxing well can not only strengthen your body, but also protect yourself at critical moments. Next, everyone will fight Pull up your spirits and study hard! If you don't study well, this is a negative teaching material!"

Poll on the ground. In order not to embarrass himself, Poll stood up desperately.

“Fuck...”

There are several male students in Isabella’s class who are not convinced, what kind of Poll has been beaten, and he has been treated as a negative example...

Poll, are you alright?” Millic and Kara rushed forward to help Poll after the game was over.

Isabella found that Poll was seriously injured, that Lori must have done it on purpose.

“Lori, return to the team.” Adam was about to whistle when he heard a voice.

“Report.” Isabella stood up, her gaze fell lazily on Lori, “Let me see how powerful Lori is.”

Adam looked back and was really eye-opening, “Hey, is there anyone else who dares to come up?”

It seems that the instructors who are competitive, the students they bring out are competitive!!

Want to come up without weighing yourself?

So thin, is it enough to fight?

Seeing that the person standing up was Isabella, Seb was at a loss for words.

Although it is a good thing to want to stand out for classmates...

But when she usually practiced boxing, Seb had an impression, but it was not as good as boxing...

Isn't this looking for a beating?

Seb coughed twice, walked over and said to Isabella in a low voice,

"I can." Isabella's eyes were full of confidence, and she looked like a little girl who refused to admit defeat.

Adam on the side couldn't help but joked, "Instructor Seb is not teaching your students to run away? This is not your style..."

The male students in Isabella's class couldn't help but speak.

"Tell you, this is our perfect score No. 1 Isabella, you will cry in a while!"

"Isabella, abuse her, teach her how to behave!"

Isabella, don't be soft, beat her up!"

are cheering for Isabella one by one.

Adam and Seb didn't expect that the beautiful and proud girl in front of them was the legendary No. 1, and they were surprised and surprised.

Full score No. 1, so good-looking?

If you get hit in a while, your face will be painted, but it will be ugly.

When Lori heard the words "Full Score No. 1 ", it turned out that Cecilia was talking about her??

It looks very arrogant!

Use your fists to teach her how to behave in a while!

Seeing Isabella walking towards Lori step by step, Seb could only
