

Chased Her 321

Chapter 321 What's Your Name?

"In the two minutes just now, I didn't see the strength of this classmate. I request that this time, no one is allowed to stop within five minutes."

Everyone was shocked when they heard Isabella 's words.

mad!

It's crazy!

This classmate, at first glance, has never been beaten by the society...

Are you stupid to read?

Didn't see what happened to Poll?

Lori 's military boxing is very good, it's not something you can win with just three or two moves...

Instructor Seb, this is what your students themselves said. Don't take back the water that was spilled when you say it!"

After Adam finished speaking, he patted Lori on the shoulder again, "Teach her well and let her see what real military boxing is."

"clear!"

After Lori came on the court, after a few rounds, Isabella only knew to avoid her, and couldn't hit her at all.

Lori smiled smugly, thinking how amazing it was, that's it??

Everyone was sweating for Isabella, why didn't she hit Lori with her hands, could it be that Lori 's moves were too fast, she couldn't handle it at all...

Seb on the side felt a little heavy, and if he knew it, he wouldn't let her go up. The little girl has slender arms and legs, and she looks weirdly good-looking. If she gets hit, it will make people feel distressed.

"Student, you have been hiding for a minute, and there are four minutes left, are you going to continue hiding?" Adam felt funny, "Is this the tactic your instructor taught you??"

As soon as he finished speaking, the people in the two classes exclaimed.

I saw Isabella hit Lori 's waist directly with a crisp movement.

Before instructor Adam could react, Isabella quickly kicked Lori 's calf and hit her on the head. The whole process happened in one go...

This is the real military boxing!

Lunge punches, throat-piercing kicks, horseback strikes...

The reason why I wasted a minute just now was to consume Lori's physical strength and make her relax her vigilance.

Seb couldn't believe his eyes, was this the little girl's move?

I usually see her not paying attention to the lectures in class, why is she completely changed now??

This military boxing is better than his instructor, not only the movements are standardized, but also the flexible use...

Internal strokes and downward hooks, staggered side kicks, external horizontal hooks...

Lori was kicked not only in the knee, but also in the head, face and stomach...

The whole person was in a terrible state of disarray, hanging everywhere.

The people in the two classes were dumbfounded, and even the other classes were shocked by Isabella's neat figure, and applauded one after another...

handsome!

so handsome!

Few girls fight with such momentum.

But Isabella exudes a cold aura all over her body, as if a big boss is dealing with a little trash...

Simply handsome!!

Isabella directly countered with a hook kick, and Lori fell to the ground immediately.

The audience applauded thunderously.

Isabella looked down at the people on the ground, "This is the military boxing that your instructor taught you? Garbage."

This sentence is a pun, and the faces of Adam and Lori are ugly at the same time...

“Why? Still not getting up?” Seeing her lying on the ground,

Isabella curled her lips coldly, “This is the tactic your instructor taught you? If you can’t beat it, just pretend to be dead?”

Many people roared with laughter, and it was obvious that Isabella was intentionally retaliating with fire and venting her anger for her instructor.

Seb was relieved immediately, this little girl is quite defensive!

Isabella!!” Lori clenched her fists, and finally understood why

Cecilia was bullied by this little bitch to the point of tears.

this little bitch crazy, but she also deserves a beating.

Isabella looked at her coldly, “Have you learned the previous seven moves? There is no time to teach you.”

“I use you to teach?” Lori got up unwillingly, “Again!”

Rotating the other arm, slicing the ribs with a virtual step, popping the crotch and pushing the elbow...

Lori was completely beaten by Isabella and fell to the ground again...

The students in Lori’s class kept shouting to stop, but the students in Isabella’s class were not convinced.

“Why didn’t you tell me to stop when we beat Poll in our class?”

“Don’t you think you are very powerful?”

“It’s your instructor who said five minutes, and now it’s only two and a half minutes, what’s the rush!”

Two and a half minutes??

Lori felt like she was about to be beaten to death, and it was only two and a half minutes?

Why, Isabella can play the moves so well...

Still have the upper hand?

How can this be??

Next, Lori was beaten again by Isabella until the last move was exhausted, exactly five minutes...

Seb was stunned, the little girl pinched it on purpose, right?

But, she is obviously a little girl, how could she do it...

Lori couldn’t get up anymore, so Adam asked two classmates to lift her down.

Although no blood was shed at all, no one knew better than Isabella that the injuries all over her body would not be healed within ten days and half a month...

Definitely not sleeping well at night.

At this time. Scott happened to pass by and saw that the girl being carried down was Lori who had called him not long ago to take care of her, and was immediately frightened...

It looks like he was beaten badly.

He immediately gave Adam a warning look, Adam didn't know what was going on, he usually worked so hard to teach Lori, but the result was not enough for him to fight!

At this moment, he could only look at Seb, meaning, it was Seb 's

With his hands behind his back, Scott said coldly, " Seb, call that classmate over here!"

A thing that doesn't have long cycs, even dare to hit Lori ?!

Must teach well!

Scb saw Scott 's anger and whispered to Isabella, "Don't be afraid, come with me."

Isabella was not afraid, and followed him disapprovingly, looking a little careless.

Seeing her beating a classmate and still acting foolishly, Scott's anger grew even stronger.

Seb came to Scott, saluted a standard military salute, reported, and then explained, "I asked her to go up to the competition just now, so I will bear any responsibility..."

"Can you afford it? You, the person who was beaten is called Lori, and her father is a famous boss! Get out of the way!"

After Scott reprimanded her in a low voice, he looked at Isabella again. This girl is full of gangsters, and she is not a good student at first glance!

“What’s your name?” Scott kept his hands behind his back, planning to teach him a lesson.

Unexpectedly, another man appeared.

Scott, who was still arrogant just now, saw him at this moment, hurried forward respectfully, and saluted a standard military salute,

“Mr. Sam, are you here? Why don’t you let me pick you up...

Mr. Sam heard that some medical students were discussing here, so he wanted to come over and see. Seeing that Scott seemed to be scolding, he couldn’t help asking, “What’s wrong?”

“This classmate...” Scott suddenly realized that he still didn’t know the name of the girl in front of him, so he asked in a cold voice, “What’s your name?”

Isabella.”

“Are you Isabella ??” Mr. Sam didn’t expect that the person that the big bosses told him to take care of was the little girl in front of him,

Isabella ?”

“yes.”

Chapter 322 The Enmity Between Me and Her Has Ended

Mr. Sam’s expression suddenly became milder, “Are you tired from the two days of training?”

A question mark appeared in Isabella’s mind, and she said slowly, “I’m not tired.”

“It’s good that you’re not tired, who is her instructor?” Mr. Sam asked Scott on the side again.

Scott was stunned. He didn’t understand how Mr. Sam, who had a serious face just now, was so polite to a little girl. Does she have any identity?

“Report Mr. Sam, I am Seb. Isabella ‘s instructor.” Seb on the side saluted a standard military salute, and was also confused at this time. It seemed that Mr. Sam knew the little girl and gave her face very much.

“You are her instructor?” Mr. Sam smiled and praised, “I think she does a good job in military boxing. It can be seen that you are a good teacher.”

Seb stood up straight, not daring to take credit at all, “It is Isabella who is qualified.”

After all, if you don’t listen well in class, and you can do military boxing so well, what is it if you don’t have qualifications??

“Cultivate well, you will definitely be a good student in the future.” Mr. Sam patted Seb on the shoulder with a smile, hinting.

The Enmity Between Me and Her Has Ended

Seb is a little confused, is he a good boy if he practiced well in military boxing?

What’s the point??

“Oh, by the way, what did you say about classmate Isabella ?” Mr. Sam looked at Scott beside him. Seeing Scott ‘s posture just now, he seemed to be lecturing??

“Oh no, nothing...”

Scott is not a vegetarian to be able to get this identity. He quickly realized that the identity of a girl is not easy to mess with, so he hurriedly smiled.

“I just want to tell her, the weather is hot now, don’t forget to drink plenty of water during the intermission...”

“That’s it?” Mr. Sam obviously didn’t believe it, so what’s the point of telling him?

“Also, and... that is, I see that she has practiced well in military boxing, and I want to praise her!”

“Old He, I didn’t blame you.” Mr. Sam ‘s eyes were full of reproach and suggestion, “I’m a little girl, when you praise me, you should have a better expression and a gentler tone. When I walked over just now, I saw you black and white. With a straight face, I thought you were going to criticize her!”

“No no no, how dare I...” Scott was sweating profusely.

“Don’t dare to be the best!”

Mr. Sam said this, looked at Isabella with a smile, and asked kindly, “Student Isabella, how much is your WhatsApp ?”

The Enmity Between Me and Her Has Ended

As soon as these words came out, both Scott and Seb were stunned...

Mr. Sam ignored their reactions, with a gentle expression on his face. "I am the commander of ten battalions, not only the company commanders under the battalion, but all the instructors here also listen to me... If you have anything to do in the future, you can directly report it to me!"

Scott was so frightened that his legs went limp. It seems that this little girl is not easy to mess with. To make the battalion commander so polite, her status must be higher than that of the battalion commander!

He was blind just now!

Isabella didn't want to give Mr. Sam WhatsApp, but he was a battalion commander, in front of two subordinates, in the end, Isabella reported her mobile phone number.

"I added you. I'll pass it later." Mr. Sam smiled, "It's all right, go back and contact me anytime."

"Okay." Isabella nodded, wondering who gave him special attention. Benjamin? Grandpa principal? Or parents? Brothers?

Seeing the back of the little girl leaving, Mr. Sam returned to his usual majesty, and told Seb, "Take care, don't make any mistakes."

"yes!"

After paying the military salute, Seb caught up with Isabella in two or three steps, and asked inexplicably, "You are so good at military boxing, why didn't you make good gestures in class?"

He was so worried just now!

Isabella's eyes fell on the front casually, and she asked in a casual tone, "The three moves and two moves, do you need to practice?"

"you..."

mad!

What a crazy little girl!

This has a background, but it is different!

the other side.

Lying on the hospital bed in the school infirmary, Lori couldn't swallow the more she thought about it, and took out her mobile phone to send Cecilia a WhatsApp message.

"Cecilia, who do you think I ran into just now?"

Cecilia, who was finishing training at Bomsville University, saw the news, and suddenly had an ominous premonition in her mind.

Lori and Isabella are both in medical university...

Could it be...

She asked cautiously, "Could it be Isabella?"

Isabella didn't talk nonsense??

Didn't it reveal that she is a fake Lady??

"It's her!" Lori's tone was filled with hatred. "I declare that today, I am completely enmity with her!"

The Enmity Between Me and Her Has Ended

Cecilia was in the middle of her arms, and asked what happened falsely, but Isabella didn't expect Isabella to learn military boxing so well...

"She grew up in a small place, she must have been spoiled by some bad friends..."

"I'm sorry Lori, I didn't know she was so over the top, and she didn't restrain herself at school..."

"My parents are quite superstitious. I heard from a fortune teller that her horoscope is good and can bring good luck to the Logan Family, so they decided to adopt her temporarily and take her as an adopted daughter..."

Logan in front of her name means that she is from the Logan Family. It's amazing!"

"Ever since she stepped into this house, her eyes have turned to the sky. It's fine to bully me. I didn't expect her to be so crazy at school..."

"It's a good thing you didn't say you knew me, otherwise, she would kill her today..."

Lori, this was originally my family business, and my parents used to make me swear to God not to let me reveal this...but you are my best friend..."

"Don't worry, Cecilia, I won't tell."

With Lori's promise, Cecilia pretended to care about her injury and kept apologizing for Isabella.

The Enmity Between Me and Her Has Ended

"It's not your fault, don't apologize to me!"

Isabella who was wrong, I want to apologize, and it was Isabella who knelt down and apologized to her Lori!!

“When I get better, I must take care of her!” Lori ‘s cycs flashed with resentment.

Cecilia made a sighing expression again. “The fortune teller said that there will be a catastrophe in our family. Only by raising her all the time can we save the day, so I use her for this role. If something happens to her, my parents will definitely hold them accountable... Forget about Lori, there is no other person in this world with such a delicate horoscope... My parents value her very much.”

Lori heard what she meant, “Don’t worry, I’ll play by car.”

What’s so great about learning a set of military boxing? Later, she asked her family’s Sanda champion brother to teach her three moves and two moves, so that she can hold Isabella to death...

When the time comes, won’t she still be her defeated opponent?!

Besides, the sky is high and the emperor is far away. If something happens to Isabella accidentally, can uncles and aunts hold her accountable??

Even if they are held accountable, evidence must be produced??

As long as you don’t know...

“Lori, although your ancestors were the king’s doctors, and there are so many famous doctors in your family, Isabella ‘s medical skills are not bad...”

Chapter 323 Better Than Her

She saved Elder Mr. Mason before, and now she is saving Mrs. Mason again. I heard that Mrs. Mason ‘s condition has improved...

There are also grandparents at home, the two old people are taking the medicine she gave...

Although I think her medical skills are not that great, after all, she has treated Elder Mrs. Brown to death...

But it's always good to keep an eye out...

Lori in medical skills??

Lori knew what Cecilia was thinking, "Don't worry, Cecilia, in terms of medical skills, I dare to say that I will dump her 18 blocks!"

She has been fascinated by medical skills since she was a child, and Isabella wants to surpass her, except in her dreams!

"Then you must defeat her professionally, extinguish her arrogance, and teach her how to behave!"

Cecilia, don't worry, I will!"

Cecilia put away her phone, a smug look flashed in her eyes.

Isabella, even if I'm not in the medical university, I can still make you unable to live or die!

In the next two days, since he knew that Isabella 's identity was not easy to mess with. Seb didn't dare to ask her to train. Today's training event had to run three kilometers, so he blew his whistle to let Isabella go out.

"You take a timer, stand under a tree, and help them time."

A question mark popped up in Isabella 's mind, what does it mean? She doesn't need to train? Just watching from the side??

It's not isolation, is it??

The students in the class can all see that, these two days, Instructor Seb has taken special care of Isabella, and she is not required to participate in any training, is it because of her beauty? Want to chase her??

Thinking of this, they laughed meaningfully one by one.

"Everyone get ready, listen to my password, and run-"

Seb whistled, completely ignoring their thoughts.

Everyone started running forward.

"Student Isabella, just find a shady place to time the timer..."

Just as Seb turned his head, he suddenly found that Isabella was gone. Looking carefully, she caught up with the tail of the team and ran behind her classmates!

this girl.

Didn't she let her time, how did she catch up with the team with the timer...

If something goes wrong, how will he explain to Mr. Sam? How did Mr. Sam explain to the people above??

An ignorant little girl will cause trouble for others!

Seeing Isabella running around and passing him, Seb immediately took a step forward, " Student Isabella, come here."

Isabella ignored him and continued running.

After moving her whole body, she felt much more comfortable. The training for these two days was not for her, but it made her miserable.

Seb was afraid that she would faint, so after she ran the second lap, he whistled again," Student Isabella, come to me."

"time is not up yet."

Isabella kept running, free as the wind.

Seb suddenly regretted running three kilometers. If this continues, the little girl is afraid that something will happen!

When Isabella ran the third lap. Seb suddenly stepped forward to block her way, and scolded seriously. "I asked you to stand under the big tree to time the time, didn't you hear?"

A few classmates around me were stunned. Instructor Seb's appearance seemed to be that his boyfriend was distressed by his girlfriend's running troubles...

It looks so warm.....

"Are you training me?"

Isabella narrowed her eyes, and Seb hesitated a little, “I, I mean, just go under the big tree and count the time...”

This little girl’s aura is too penetrating...

Let him unconsciously think of his boss...

“I will participate in all the training in the future. No matter what happens, I will not report to the battalion commander. You can rest assured.”

After Isabella finished speaking, she turned around and caught up with the team, without giving Seb a chance to refuse...

Seb looked at the stubborn back of the little girl, and suddenly realized that her character, her behavior, was really similar to one of his bosses...

Thinking of the boss who was young but had an iceberg face, Seb shivered involuntarily.

terrible!

“Instructor Seb definitely doesn’t know, you can run ten kilometers without any problem...” Kara laughed while running, “Who asked him to take special care of you? This care is too obvious, isn’t it making you an enemy?”

“I don’t know.” Isabella ran forward slowly, guessing that apart from her family, only Benjamin would do such a thing.

“By the way, what you want will appear at the auction in half a month, and then we will go together.”

“Okay, you will remind me in advance when the time comes.”

Better Than Her

“no problem.”

After the three kilometers, everyone stood in front of Seb, panting, listening to him.

Seb 's eyes flicker across the room.

“Students, tomorrow Friday, we will set up an obstacle course at the back of the school. If any class can cross the obstacle in the shortest time and get the red flag at the finish line, it will be considered the winner. The winning class will be rewarded with a day off.”

Everyone became excited when they heard it.

Very good!

You must know that this training will take about half a month of continuous training, the kind that cannot be stopped in the middle!!

It is a great reward for them to have one day to rest!!

“But it is not so easy to get this red flag. All our instructors will not be with you tomorrow, and you need to participate in the whole process.”

When many people heard this, they began to worry again...

“Do you have confidence?”

“have!!”

“Remember what I said, we will not be deserters on the battlefield, even if we are climbing, we must climb to the end for me! Do you hear me clearly?”

“Clear.”

“louder—”

“Clear—”

“Very well, take a rest, stand at attention, disband—”

Seb whistled, then looked at Isabella, “ Student Isabella, come.

here.”

Many people talked about it.

“Instructor Seb seems to really like Isabella. I just broke up, so I can’t wait to talk to her.”

“Do you think Isabella will like him? Will she agree to date him?”

“I think so. the instructor looks very manly, very masculine...”

“The facial features are very handsome.”

Isabella walked up to Seb and asked softly, “What’s the matter?”

Can you stop calling her alone in front of so many people...

Because of running three kilometers, her face was a little red and she looked better.

Seb didn't dare to look directly into her eyes, coughed dryly twice, lowered his head and asked, "Well, did you feel uncomfortable while running just now?"

Isabella :???

"Didn't something happen??"

Isabella was a little speechless, "Don't worry, instructor. I'm finc."

"Well, tomorrow's Houshan competition, if you can't do it, you can ask for leave."

"I can do it," Isabella raised her chin slightly, looking confident.

What a crazy little girl!!

"If it doesn't work, turn it on and the signal tracker will find out where you are."

Is this an inside story?

How weak is she??

"Instructor, don't worry, I will deliver the red flag to you tomorrow."

Seeing the back of the little girl turning and leaving, Seb couldn't help feeling, crazy, really crazy!!

Still too young.

Chapter 324 I Will Cover You

Early the next morning.

All instructors draw lots for their respective classes, and every five classes form a group.

Isabella 's first class of doctors, the first class of western medicine, the second class of pediatrics, the second class of stomatology, and the second class of anesthesia were all drawn with "one", representing the first batch to enter.

Each class lined up in a row, and five rows walked into the entrance mightily.

Since it is early in the morning, there is a lot of morning fog here, which looks gloomy.

"Isabella, it's scary here..." Millic couldn't help but grabbed Isabella 's clothes.

Poll was also a little scared. "There shouldn't be any surprises waiting for us ahead, right?"

A lot of people shrank back, the whole doctor was in a class, and only Isabella was left in the lead...

"Don't worry, it's probably some single-plank bridges, broken piles. and other projects." Isabella is a person who has seen strong winds and waves, and her pretty little face does not show the slightest panic.

The psychological quality of No. 1 is so strong..."

“That’s right, she’s not afraid of such a terrible environment...”

“I’ll just follow her, the full score No. 1 will definitely lead us to success.”

“I think so...”

Isabella discovered that some of the fog was sprayed out by fog- making equipment to create tension.

Although this action left her speechless, many students still feel uneasy because of the fog that came out...

“There are no ghosts ahead, are there?”

“It stands to reason that there will be no wild beasts, right?”

“There won’t be a maze or something waiting for us?”

People in several classes were chattering, their fear magnified.

The five teams walked forward for a minute, and what appeared in front of them were five single-plank bridges with muddy puddles underneath.

“Is this muddy puddle deep? Will I drown if I fall?”

“I can’t swim...”

“This single-plank bridge is so narrow, so thin, how can I walk?”

On the left and right sides are walls erected with barbed wire. They have only one way, which is to pass the single-plank bridge in front and continue to move forward.

“follow me.”

Isabella stepped onto the single-plank bridge with ease, and within a few seconds, she had already crossed smoothly.

Millic and Poll nervously followed her, almost fell several times, and finally got a help from Isabella before they landed smoothly.

And Kara looked at the single-plank bridge in front of her, didn't take it seriously at all, and walked across it easily...

The rest of the students, some cheered, some were distressed, and some were hesitant...

One of the arrogant young men jumped onto the single-plank bridge and walked over in seven or eight steps.

the boys in Class One? Are you still here?”

He speaks very imposingly, looks very sunny and handsome, and exudes a cool aura all over his body.

“Do you have the nerve to let girls take the lead?”

He looked like a pampered rich guy, handsome and rich, and immediately attracted the attention of many girls.

Samson, come out-” he called names directly.

An equally good-looking boy stepped out of the crowd, but under his aura, he looked a bit like his subordinate.

“What’s the skill of hiding behind a girl, come here.”

“I dare not...” Although Samson is usually quite bold, the muddy puddle below is really daunting...

It’s one thing to get his limited-edition sneakers dirty, but it’s another thing to lose face if it falls off, and it’s not easy to chase girls in the future...

“Come here for me!” Abe said forcefully.

In the end. Samson desperately rushed over and threw himself on Abe. The two fell to the ground and almost kissed...

Fuck, get out of the way...” Abe was so disgusted that he pushed him away.

“You think I want to, my first kiss is still there! I can’t give you a man...”

“You think I’m rare?”

After Abe patted the clothes on his body, he raised his chin towards Isabella. “Hey, that one, follow me, I’ll cover you.”

He led Samson to the front.

Isabella followed casually with the other three girls.

The other girls in the doctor's class couldn't help but said:

"Is he the Abe that everyone often talks about?"

"That's right, it's him!"

"So handsome, I didn't expect him to be in the same class as us!"

"I didn't see him in training a few days ago, why did he come here suddenly today?"

"I'm a rich guy, so I definitely want to have some fun. I used to go forward, turn left and turn right, what's so interesting?"

"That's great. It's different to have a family background. Come whenever you want..."

A class of western medicinc.

A girl was stunned. "Lori, look, those people in the first class of doctors are so powerful, they passed by in a while... Have you noticed that the girl who was in the lead just now is so beautiful, with that temperament, that figure..."

Such an ugly military uniform looks so good on her...

It's so unreasonable!

Lori paid attention to the girl who took the lead from the very beginning, wasn't it Isabella who made her unable to sleep peacefully for days and nights and beat her all over her body ?!

Today. Lori specially asked instructor Adam to find a way to draw a group with Isabella, in order to have the opportunity to teach this ignorant girl a lesson!

Adam was entrusted by Scott before, knowing that Lori 's identity is not simple, so he must take good care of her...

But Mr. Sam took care of Isabella afterwards, he didn't know about it, he only knew that last time Isabella punched Lori with a military punch, Lori couldn't be angry, and today he wanted to find a chance to vent his anger.

He didn't take the petty fights between girls seriously at all, anyway, they were light-handed, and they couldn't kill anyone. He just reminded Lori to be careful, otherwise things would become big, even if it was a poor student, he couldn't handle it. down...

After Lori promised several times, Adam agreed to help her.

At this moment, Lori saw Isabella following Abe and Samson, and became even more jealous, her eyes were about to burst into flames.

"Lori, how do I feel, you don't seem to like her?" The girl who spoke was called Joan, her tone was Lori 's, and she looked very cute.

the Isabella I told you about."

“Ah? She beat you and made you lose face?” Joan had her period. that day and asked for leave. Later, Lori said that there was a very aggressive girl in the doctor’s class, who beat her all over...

I didn’t expect it to be the girl who took the lead just now...

“Go. I’ll meet her.” Lori stepped onto the single-plank bridge, followed by Joan, vowing to make Isabella pay the price.

Not long after Isabella and his party passed the single-plank bridge, three walls appeared in front of them, one higher than the other. When Abe climbed over the first two walls and tried to climb over the third wall, his strength did not allow him.

He cursed the beautiful American in his heart, and he didn’t know what these instructors were thinking. What’s wrong with setting up such a high wall?

At this moment, out of the corner of his eye, he noticed a girl who was as light as a swallow. easily climbed over three barrier walls, and then landed on the ground freely.

He stared wide-eyed, unable to believe it. Immediately afterwards, another girl easily climbed over three walls, and even gave the girl a high-five.

Chapter 325

Fuck, are they still girls??

They can climb such a high wall? Did you climb over the wall in high school before? Turn out the experience??

Isabella ignored their surprise and just encouraged Millic and Poll to turn over, but Millic and Poll managed to turn over the second block, and the third block was as difficult as heaven for them!

“Looks like the two of us have to stay here today...” Millie was a little discouraged.

Poll also knew that they really couldn't climb the two-meter-high wall in front of them, and they were immediately frustrated.

to see Isabella and Kara turn over just now, but when they got on, they realized that their eyes kept up, but their limbs did not keep up...

"Let's go together." Isabella was still waiting for them, "I taught you just now, recall it again, try."

Isabella's movements were too fast just now, Abe didn't pay attention, but when Kara turned over, he learned.

Kara's method, he quickly climbed to the top of the third wall and reached out to Poll below, "Come on, I'll give you a hand."

"I, I can't reach..." Poll jumped several times, only touching Abe's hand, completely unable to go up.

"How about this, I will step on my shoulder reluctantly for you." Samson squatted down, without the posture of a rich guy at all, and looked quite helpful.

With the help of the two of them, Poll and Millic also went up. Finally, Samson took a few steps back, made a sprint, and jumped up. Abe pulled him, and the two landed handsomely together.

"Thank you." The two girls thanked them.

"You're welcome."

The six continued to move forward, and somehow became teammates.

Lori and Joan brought a few friends and wanted to settle the score with Isabella, but not long after crossing the single-plank bridge, the six of them climbed over three walls and walked forward.

“Hurry up, we must not let them get the red flag!” Lori jumped up, and other friends followed suit.

As the six of them walked, they saw an artificial lake in front of them. If they wanted to go there, they could only step on the rope ladder above.

This level is much more dangerous than the previous two. Although the artificial lake is only about five meters by visual inspection, it is not so easy to think about it.

The rope ladder has no handrails, and it is wobbly to go up by one person, let alone six people lining up to go up together.

“I’ll come first.” Abe got on the rope ladder, stabilized his body, and walked over quickly.

Although Samson ordered some food, it passed quickly.

Then came Isabella, Kara...

Millic and Poll were left, one behind the other, almost sitting, moving forward slowly...

After a while, Lori and Joan came.

At this time, Millic and Poll moved to the middle of the rope ladder, and suddenly felt the rope ladder shaking violently, and the sound of ridicule reached their ears.

Lori deliberately stepped on the rope ladder, and sneered coldly. "Do you have the guts to study medicine? Sure enough, only doctors are suitable for you. After all, as long as you pick and weigh herbs, you can't hold a scalpel!"

Poll was a little nervous at first, but when she said it, he became even more nervous.

"Get your feet off!" Kara, who was on the opposite side of the rope ladder, couldn't help but get angry when she saw Lori deliberately swaying on the rope ladder, "Did you remember the lesson from last time? The scars don't hurt anymore?"

"Heh, I thought it was some dog that was barking at me..." Lori deliberately increased her strength, the rope ladder shook even harder, Millic lost her balance and fell into the water...

"Ah, help, help, I can't swim..." Millie splashed a few times in the water and was about to sink.

"Useless stuff." Lori continued to sneer.

There was a big tent at the end of the game. where all the instructors were waiting, eating, drinking, chatting, and waiting for the students to pass the test.

Seb just entered the tent, the next second, the surveillance screen disappeared...

His eyes fell on Adam all of a sudden, "What's the matter with the surveillance? You did it?"

Adam, who was sitting in front of the monitor, heard what he said, and kicked the stool next to him, "If the monitor is broken, you can blame me? Instructor Seb, you are really good at spitting blood!"

"Lori's attitude just now is obviously troubling my students! Do you think I'm stupid or blind?"

“Maybe it’s both...”

Seb clenched his fists and was about to step forward, Adam stood up not to be outdone, and several instructors beside him hurriedly persuaded him.

“What are you doing? You are all instructors now, and you have to set an example for the students!”

Adam smiled coldly and looked at Seb provocatively, “You still pay attention to your students, especially that Isabella, do you want to fuck her because of her beautiful parents?”

“What did you say?” Seb ‘s fist hardened.

Fuck...” Seb slammed his fist in the face, Adam backhanded, and the two of them wrestled together.

the other side.

Kara jumped into the water regardless to save Millic.

Lori got on the rope ladder, saw Poll in the middle, and pushed her down.

Fuck, are you still human?” Abc didn’t expect his cycs to be opened on the first day of training.

Although I was in the same high school as Lori before, I knew that the young lady was arrogant, but I didn’t expect her to be so arrogant...

Lori had confessed to him before, but after being rejected by him, she stared at him when she saw him....

Seeing Poll fall into the water, Abe hurriedly jumped down to save him, this move made Lori even more irritated!

Isabella went directly to the rope ladder and stepped on it hard.

Lori was proud one second, almost fell the next second, and just as she was grabbing the rope ladder, Isabella kicked her off.

With a splash, Lori fell into the water.

Joan, who was halfway there, saw this scene very angry, "Isabella, how dare you! Do you know who she is! You actually kicked her off!"

"A bunch of rubbish." Isabella only exerted a little force, and the rope ladder swayed, and Joan fell down.

Ding rescued Poll, he was stunned when he saw this scene. How did this cold girl manage to get them all down, and still stand on top with ease? Have you practiced this skill??

"Ha Qiu..." After Xu Poll landed, he sneezed and shivered from the cold.

After Millic was pulled up by Kara, Abe and Samson, she vomited several times before she woke up.

"Are you looking for death in the first class of western medicine?" Abe didn't like Lori before, and now he is even more angry.

Lori and Joan were jumping in the water, and a few of their roommates tried to walk over the rope ladder, but Isabella shook them off and fell into the water one by one.

Seeing Joan trying to climb up, Kara kicked her and kicked her down.

“You...” Joan emerged from the water, “I tell you, there are surveillance everywhere here, try kicking me again!”

Chapter 326

“Oh...thank you for reminding me.” Kara kicked up a small rock on the ground and hit a monitor on the tree directly. The monitor screen was shattered. Then, she picked up the leaves on the ground and slowly covered the other two grounds, monitor.

“Now, no more,” Kara finished, kicking Joan in the shoulder again, kicking her into the water.

Joan couldn't get to the shore after climbing several times, and neither could Lori.

Whoever wants to come up will be kicked into the water by Isabella and Kara in turn...

After being kicked three or four times repeatedly, they also learned to be good, and they stopped taking the initiative to come forward, and hoped for Isabella and the others to leave.

If Isabella and Kara don't leave, the few of them can only soak in the water.

There is a changing room nearby, which is prepared for those who accidentally fall into the water. Isabella asked Poll and the others to change first, while she and Kara stayed on the shore.

When we set off today, everyone carried a small bag with spare clothes in it. When Millic and the others went to change clothes, Kara kicked up the stones on the ground and hit everyone in the water on the head.

“It's fun.” Kara kicked it again, then said to Isabella, “Does this look like whack-a-mole?”

“Don’t insult the gopher.”

“You, you...” Lori was furious, and she couldn’t do anything to them!

After Millic and the others had changed their clothes, Isabella and Kara left slowly.

“You girls are fighting each other, it’s scary...” Along the way, Samson sighed, boys don’t have so many twists and turns, and they fight once if they feel uncomfortable, or twice if they can’t.

“What kind of intrigue, it’s obvious that they bullied us first, okay?” Millic couldn’t help correcting.

the other side.

Several instructors separated Adam and Seb, anxiously said, “Stop fighting, what’s the matter with you two? Scott is coming soon, you want to be punished?”

“Bastard.”

After Adam was pulled away, he wiped his nosebleeds and looked angrily at Seb in front of him, “After receiving a few awards and making a few small achievements, you dare to be lawless in front of me? I have more qualifications than you here For six years!”

When Seb heard it, he smiled disdainfully, “It’s been six years, isn’t it like this?”

“What did you say? Tell me again!”

“Speaking of your grandson! Quickly restore the monitor to me, you can’t take responsibility for my student’s accident!” Seb slapped the monitor.

Adam laughed. "Don't think I didn't see it, that Isabella in your class is a thorn in the head! It's not sure who is bullying who, maybe her defiant look is just because men get used to sleeping too much..."

"Fuck!" Seb couldn't hold back, stepped forward and punched him a few more times.

Isabella and his team went through high-board diving platform, low pile, tire climbing platform... and finally came to a grass field.

There is no barbed wire around here. At first, they thought they were coming to the end. but they didn't expect to be confused by the white mist as they walked.

"Where is this going?"

"We have overcome so many obstacles, why haven't we reached the end yet?"

"Why didn't you see the red flag??"

"Will this mist be another test?"

Everyone became more and more confused as they walked, and they couldn't even tell the north, south, east, and west.

"Have you noticed that we just walked past this place?"

"Looks like. I remember this tree growing weirdly... so we're back where we were?"

"Come on, it's too weird."

Isabella was unflappable, and just said flatly, "Poll, take your watch off."

Poll snorted, although he was a little puzzled, he still took off the watch and gave it to her.

“Isabella, what are you doing?” Millic stepped forward in confusion, seeing that she was busy.

Isabella picked up a twig and stood it on the ground, then put the watch horizontally on the ground.

“The shadow of the branch and the short needle overlap. The middle of the twelve o’clock direction on the surface and the scale pointed by the short needle is south, and the opposite side is north. When we set off just now. it was north. So, as long as you walk in this direction. You can go to the end.” Isabella nodded.

When Poll heard it, he immediately admired him, “ Isabella, you are so amazing...”

The two boys didn’t expect her to know such a partial knowledge point, and Samson couldn’t help but said, “If you don’t wear a watch, wouldn’t it mean that he can’t get out here?”

“That’s not likely.” Isabella said as she walked forward, “If you don’t wear a watch, you can look for ant holes nearby. Generally, ant holes face south.”

“Isabella, you know a lot...” Millic admired her even more.

“It’s all common sense.” Isabella ‘s tone was disapproving. “It was taught in my nature textbook when I was a child.”

“What if there is no ant hole?” Samson continued to ask.

“Then look at the tree stump. The growth rings on it can also tell the direction. The broad side of the growth rings is south.”

“And if there’s no stump?”

“You can observe the trees. Are there trees? The side with dense trees is the south, and the opposite is the north.”

After listening to Isabella ‘s words, everyone admired her so much...

Worthy of the full score No. 1...

know everything...

It seems that nothing can trouble her...

“Look, the end is there.” Isabella raised her chin slightly, signaling ahead.

Everyone was surprised to find that the red flag was planted on the grass in front, so they have successfully passed the test?

Very good!!

the other side.

Scott heard that Isabella participated in today’s competition, so he came here to take a look.

As soon as he arrived near the tent, he saw many people trying to persuade them to fight.

Several strong instructors managed to pull Adam and Seb apart...

Adam has color on his face, and Seb is no exception...

The two looked at each other with hatred in their eyes...

“What are you doing!” Scott ‘s face darkened suddenly, and he walked over with his hands behind his back, “What do you think of the school? Fighting here?! Is this how you set an example for the students??”

“Report–”

Adam stood at attention, and after paying a military salute, the villain filed a complaint first.

Seb is chasing Isabella, a student from the first class of doctors, and I demand a thorough investigation-”

Instructors chasing students, but serious demerits must be recorded. and serious ones will be expelled!

“Report” Seb was not to be outdone, and reported confidently, Adam allowed students to bully my students, including Isabella!”

What?? ?

Isabella ? ? ?

That’s Mr. Sam, must take good care of the person...

What happened to Isabella ?” Scott asked hastily.

Adam ‘s students bullied her. I was about to see what was going on, and Adam turned off the surveillance!”

“You spitting blood!” At this moment, although Adam didn’t understand why Scott suddenly cared about Isabella, the monitoring

Chapter 327 Reversal

Because he turned off the monitoring!

At that time, he saw Lori took Joan and they were going to clean up Isabella, just as Seb walked into the tent, he quickly pressed the remote control and turned off the screen.

Although the picture is gone, the monitoring is still recording in real time...

It's just that Seb can't see it.

"What's going on?" Scott was in a hurry, his tone was a little excited, he looked at Adam, his eyes were burning. "What did your student do to Isabella? Why don't you tell me the truth!!"

Scott, don't listen to his nonsense..." Adam felt even more guilty. Although he didn't understand why Scott was so angry, he had a vague premonition.

On the other hand, Seb added angrily, "Last time he proposed a martial arts contest, and Isabella won against Lori. Lori was furious, and probably wanted to find a chance to take revenge today, so Adam allowed her to avenge her private revenge! Bully Isabella!"

"You are framed!"

"Then why don't you dare to turn on the surveillance and let everyone see it!"

"Turn the monitor on-" Scott snapped.

All the instructors were dumbfounded.

When did Scott care so much about a student??

1:200 meters

Adam didn't expect Scott to hear the name Lori, and he didn't react at all. Instead, it was Isabella 's name that made him so excited...

He turned on the monitor, and Seb snatched the remote control at once, shrinking the screen into seventy-seven forty-nine shots...

The camera is full of pictures of students breaking through the barrier...

Didn't see Isabella!

Seb had a bad premonition, pushed Adam away, sat in front of the computer, quickly entered the program, locked on Isabella 's face, and soon, all the scenes in the historical records where Isabella appeared...

At the beginning, Isabella passed the level smoothly, until when she needed a rope ladder to cross the artificial lake, Lori and the others came.

He zoomed in and saw that Lori deliberately stepped on the rope ladder, causing Millie to fall into the lake, and Kara jumped to save her...

Immediately afterwards. Lori pushed Poll into the water again...

After monitoring, it will be gone!

Seb thumped the table angrily, and looked at Adam angrily, "Look at what your student has done! If something happens to my student, you will never have a better life!"

Before he could pursue the responsibility, he got up and said. "Everyone, come with me to the back mountain to save people!"

Nothing happens to Isabella!

Not only because of Mr. Sam 's advice, but also because she is his student!

His students must be good, and they must be good to him in this life!

Because the subsequent historical records were deleted after Isabella invaded, everyone can only see the scene of Lori pushing people into the water, but Isabella and the others counterattacked later...

Seb was about to step out of the tent when another instructor sat in front of the computer and started looking at other surveillance screens.

He was surprised to find that Isabella also appeared in other shots. She took several students to break through the high board platform, low pile, tire climbing platform... and finally successfully got the red flag at the finish line!

He hastily opened the tent door and shouted at Seb 's back, "No need to go, they..."

Before he finished speaking, he saw Isabella walking towards the tent with a few students talking and laughing.

she's fine!!

Is she really all right?!

Seb rushed forward all of a sudden, extremely excited, "You guys are all right..."

"Instructor, what are you talking about? What can we do?" Abe beside him couldn't help laughing. "Is it you who has something to do? What's wrong with your face? Did you fight with someone?"

Samson next to him also laughed, "Is this the instructor's defeat?"

Seb looked at Isabella up and down, luckily nothing happened, his tense nerves relaxed, and he retorted casually, "Fart, your instructor has never lost a fight!"

Millic and Poll were a little puzzled, why are there so many instructors watching them over the tent? Are they surprised because they got the red flag so quickly??

"Don't be surprised, we followed the perfect score No. 1 and reached the finish line in no time."

"Seriously, those obstacles you set up are too childish and boring!"

"People from other classes haven't come yet? Really!"

Scott walked quickly from a group of instructors, and stood in front of Isabella, looking up and down at Isabella several times.

Student Isabella, nothing happened along the way?"

Several question marks popped up in Isabella's mind, what can she do?

Seeing Scott's anxious reaction, does he know about Lori bullying them?

Fortunately, after she left the artificial lake, she invaded the surveillance immediately and deleted the subsequent records...

She raised the corner of her lips. "It's okay."

"That's good, it's good if you're not tired..." Scott's heavy heart finally fell to the ground, and he noticed the two big figures next to him. "Hey. Abe and Ben are also here? I finally participated in training today, how are you doing?", how are those tests set up in mountain?"

"Too pediatric."

"Hahaha..." Scott smiled, "You have to leave a way for other students to survive, look at them, it's not the end yet..."

As soon as he finished speaking, he saw Lori and a few classmates walking towards here angrily!

Relying on her family background, Lori reported loudly as soon as she came to Scott. "Report to the company commander, I want to report Isabella and Kara with real names, pushing us into the water, not allowing us to go ashore, and kicking stones to beat us head!"

"Our heads were all hit by stones!" Joan also helped to speak, with a dissatisfied expression on his face.

Others also blamed Isabella and Kara.

Millic and Poll grabbed each other's hands nervously, what to do, although Lori and the others made the move first, but later, they were indeed dealt with badly by Isabella and Kara...

Abe and Samson wanted to help talk, when they saw Scott, who was smiling just now, looking at them with his hands behind his back.

“You guys still have the nerve to see me spitting blood? I saw the surveillance, it’s you!” Scott looked at Lori. “You deliberately stepped on the rope ladder, causing this female classmate to fall into the water, and you even pushed another classmate into the water.” Into the water, did you say that there is such a thing?”

“I. I...” Lori was completely taken aback. Didn’t Dad ask the company commander to take good care of her? That’s how he took care of her? And Instructor Adam...

At this moment, she looked at instructor Adam, didn’t she ask him to turn off the surveillance and stop recording when the incident. happened?

Why was it seen by Scott ??

The point is, at this time, why didn’t instructor Adam help to speak?!

Student Isabella, except for these two female students who fell into the water in the first class of doctors, are you all okay?” When Scott looked at Isabella, his expression eased a bit.

Isabella replied obediently, “No.”

After all, I want her to have an affair with Kara, unless it’s the people in LA...

Scott secretly heaved a sigh of relief. Fortunately, the two young masters are fine, otherwise today, the black hat on his head would be lost!!!

“You took the lead in bullying your classmates. I want to propose to the school that you will be demerited!” Scott looked at Lori without any favoritism.

Scott...”

Before Lori had time to explain the rest, Scott glared at Joan and the others. “You guys are helping the evil, and you must be punished! I want to propose to the school that you must not miss a single word in the 3,000-word self-criticism!”

Scott...” Joan and the others still wanted to complain.

Scott looked at Adam, “You write a 10,000-word self-criticism for me today, and make a major demerit once! If you can’t finish writing, you don’t even want to stay in this company!!”

Adam knew it was useless to say anything now, so he stood at attention and saluted, and replied loudly, “Yes!!”

“Student Isabella, you have worked hard along the way, go back and rest first, as a reward, the whole doctor will have a day off tomorrow.”

“Thank you, company commander.” Isabella handed him the red flag, and left with a few people around her.

Isabella, do you know the company commander?” After walking away, Millic couldn’t help asking, “I think he is very polite to you...”

“do not know.”

But Scott knew her. If something happened to her today, he might not be the only company commander involved...

“He’s a snobby, it seems that your family background is good?” Abe raised his eyebrows and looked at Isabella, suddenly became interested in the girl in front of him.

“Just a small businessman.”

“Your family is in business? What do you do? Our family is also in business...” Samson said this, and suddenly remembered something. “By the way, it’s the first time for us to break through the barrier together, why don’t we celebrate? Eat together a meal?”

Isabella and Kara were about to say no, when Millie and Poll said in unison, “Okay.”

Just now Abe and Samson helped them during the competition, and now the two of them are vying to invite them to dinner...

Isabella and Kara had nothing to do when they were free, so they went with them.

There is a shared commercial street in the university town, where students from ten nearby universities can come to eat and shop.

Millie and Poll chose a small restaurant with a beautiful environment and were eating when Daisy in military uniform walked in accompanied by a boy.

“How dare I always ask you to treat me to dinner...” Daisy pretended to pull a strand of hair behind her ear, showing a shy look.

The boy looked about 180 catties, and he was quite simple and cute. He smiled and said. “As long as you like to eat, it’s okay to bring you here every day... Let’s sit there and enjoy the view of the lake.

scene.”

Daisy followed his footsteps with a smile, her eyes met Isabella who was eating, and her face turned ugly.

The seat chosen by the fat boy is at the table next to Isabella.

Daisy wanted to go to another table, but when she looked up, the other places were full, so she had to sit at the next table to minimize her presence.

Daisy, what do you want to eat?” The fat boy scanned the QR code with his mobile phone and handed his mobile phone to Daisy to order.

In the past, Daisy definitely didn’t like such a small restaurant, and would not eat such cheap meals...

But today is not what it used to be. From the first day of training to the present, every meal she eats is paid for by suitors...

Rub it if you can...

“Just these few dishes.” After Daisy ordered the food, she took a peek at the next table, only to see Isabella eating the food on the plate slowly and ignoring her intentions at all, so she was a little relieved.

Kara, if you hadn’t jumped into the water to save me today, I would have drowned! I respect you for this drink! Thank you for saving me!” Millic lifted the drink and clinked glasses with Kara.

Kara smiled, “You are welcome, we are all in the same dormitory, and we will be grasshoppers on a rope from now on!”

“Abc, thank you for saving me, and Samson, Kara, thank you for pulling me ashore...” Poll picked up a glass of strawberry drink, and after toasting one by one, he turned to Isabella, “Isabella, thank you for avenging me!”

Although she fell into the water at that time, she saw it when Isabella took care of Lori and the lackeys.

All I can say is, it's so cool!!

After living for eighteen years, this is the first time I see such a sassy girl!

Kara had just finished her drink when she heard someone at the next table calling Daisy. She turned her head and saw that it was really a narrow road.

Daisy... don't know if you have a boyfriend."

After waiting for all the dishes to be served, the fat boy looked nervously at the girl in front of him, and carefully confessed. "If not... I don't know if I have the qualifications to be your boyfriend."

Daisy lowered her shy eyes, what a fat man, just invited her to a few meals, and you want to be her boyfriend?

What sweet dream?!

"You must have the qualifications, but she doesn't." Kara, who was watching the fun next door. said without hesitation, "Her private life is too messy, and her fiancé abandoned her because of it. You have to work harder, after all, she has high vision, you are still a Mount Everest away from what she wants."

Kara, what nonsense are you talking about!!" Daisy gritted her teeth angrily, she didn't expect that Kara would reveal her embarrassing things in front of so many people, making her embarrassing!

Several eyes around her fell on her...

The fat boy was dumbfounded, the amount of information was too much, he couldn't accept it all at once...

How could the pure and lovely girl in front of me have a chaotic private life and be abandoned by her fiancé? ?

Didn't she say that she has been busy studying since she was a child, and hasn't had a boyfriend yet...

What exactly is going on?

"Allen, don't listen to her nonsense, I won't cat, if you believe her, then you stay!" Daisy picked up her military cap angrily and left.

"Daisy..." Although the fat boy didn't know what was going on, he subconsciously caught up with Daisy.

Kara felt a little regretful, the good show ended here.

It seems that some boys are just stupid, they can't tell the difference between white lotus and true purity...

On the contrary, Poll and Millie were a little curious, and chased Kara to ask what happened. Kara didn't say anything, but just reminded Daisy that she is a bad person, and when they meet her in the future, no matter what she says, don't believe it.

After eating, Abe and Samson took a step ahead to play golf with some friends. Isabella and his group were on their way back to the dormitory.

From a distance, the four girls saw Daisy standing at the west gate of the school, talking to a woman impatiently.

When I got closer, I heard something.

Daisy asked impatiently, "What are you doing here!"

Viv shoved a bag into her arms, "I heard that the days of training were hard. Mom made buns for you. You loved to eat them when you were young. You take them to the dormitory to share with others..."

Chapter 329 Why Did He Come?

"I don't want it!" Daisy's eyes were extremely disgusted, and her tone was even worse, "Don't come, I will go to the canteen to buy whatever I want to eat!"

"Then you take this little money, if it's not enough, call mom." Viv stuffed another few hundred dollars into her pocket.

Daisy felt that there were only a few US dollars in her pocket. Although it was too little, it was better than nothing, "Okay, you go back first."

His tone was still impatient.

"Call Mom if you need anything.

"Um."

Daisy turned and left, and was about to go back to her school, but she didn't expect her eyes to meet Isabella and the others, she couldn't get angry, and walked towards Kara again.

"The personal enmity between me and Isabella has nothing to do with you, Miss Nan, right? Are you her dog? Barking every time you see me??"

“Then what are you? You are not as good as pigs and dogs. How much did Isabella pay for your family? How did you treat her?”

“What do we do to her, does it have anything to do with you?”

“Of course!” Kara said unconvinced. “If you can’t get along with Isabella. you can’t get along with me! If you dare to play tricks. behind your back in the future. I’ll see you beat you every time, do you hear me?”

“Oh, don’t talk so full, be careful of capsizing in the gutter.”

Hearing Daisy say this, it’s obvious that she’s cycling Kara, looking for an opportunity to get revenge.

“You dare to try to touch her.” Isabella looked at the girl in front of her coldly, “Want to go to the prison to accompany those two conscience-stricken things? Feel free to come here.”

“Daisy...” Not far away. Viv saw Daisy having an argument with a group of classmates, and wanted to step forward to help.

“None of your business!” Daisy glared at her impatiently, then looked at Isabella, “We’ll see!”

“What are you looking at, who wants to look at you, self-righteous.”

Kara didn’t take her seriously at all, but Viv who was not far away kept staring at this side, and after Daisy left, she took the initiative to walk towards this side.

“Auntie, let me say it first. Just now she came over and called me a dog. I couldn’t be more angry to call her...” Kara said first.

“That child has indeed changed in recent months, but Auntie still wants to ask you, don’t hurt her... She scolded you, it was her fault, Auntie apologized to you on her behalf.” Viv said this, solemnly Bow, the attitude looks very sincere.

“Auntie, I don’t understand. She doesn’t regard you as a mother at all. She has nowhere to go to find you... She is using you!”

“I know, it’s okay.” Viv lowered her head and admitted. “As long as she still calls me mom, I can’t ignore her in this life... No matter how hard or tired I am. I have to let her have something to eat and a place to eat.” Live, have books to read... It’s just that she has a bad temper recently, if she offends you, you can tell Auntie, Auntie communicates with her...”

“...” Kara was a little speechless, if communication was useful. things would not have developed into the current situation.

“Please.” Viv solemnly bowed ninety degrees again, just wanting the group to let her daughter go.

“Auntie, as long as she doesn’t make trouble, we won’t do anything to her, but if she does something too extreme, we can’t condone her. After all, we are not her mother, don’t you?”

When Kara said this, she bent down and bowed again. “We still have something to do, so we won’t bother Auntie, goodbye Auntie.”

Viv watched their backs as they walked into the school gate, and thought to himself, I hope Daisy will not go wrong...

Today’s students are not easy to mess with...

“That Daisy’s mother is a nice person, but she doesn’t know what’s going on, and the daughter she raised is so bad...” Millie couldn’t figure it out.

Poll, too, said as he walked, "Just now Daisy was so cute in front of boys, why did she talk to her mother with such a bad attitude..."

"Because that's her adoptive mother." Kara said casually.

"Huh? Adoptive mother? What about her biological mother?" Millie and Poll asked in unison.

"Squatting in jail."

Millic and Poll looked at each other, they didn't expect Daisy 's family background to be so complicated...

"Then what's the relationship between her and Isabella?" Millic asked again.

"It's a long story. In short. Isabella was very good to their family. but they retaliated and finally put themselves in prison... In short, when you meet her, try to stay away from her."

At this time, the school radio station was broadcasting an announcement.

Lori, Joan, and Jill in the first class of western medicine bullied their classmates during the training period and were punished to write a 3,000-word self-criticism. The leader, Lori, was given a major demerit! The whole school publicly named and criticized."

"I hope all students take this as a warning. School is a place for learning. Don't bring the evil spirits from outside here."

"I hope that all the students in the school will get along well, unite and love each other, and gain knowledge and happiness here..."

“It deserves it.” Hearing the notification, Poll was instantly relieved.

“It’s good for the whole school to name and criticize publicly, so that they can remember, at least they won’t dare to mess around during this time...” Millie also thinks so.

But Kara took a look at Isabella. If Isabella was the one who had the accident today, then these students, let alone expulsion, would probably be caught and locked up in the bureau....

Poll and Millic probably don’t have a strong family background, so things just turned around.

But in this matter, they did not suffer.

“But the strange thing is, we clearly taught them a lesson, why didn’t the school name and criticize us??” Poll couldn’t figure out this question from just now.

Millic was also puzzled, and analyzed, “It stands to reason that we soaked them in water and threw stones at them. We are the ones who are at fault...”

When Kara heard this, she patted Isabella on the shoulder, “Because of your perfect score No. 1, all the monitoring that taught them was deleted.”

“Ah?? Can the monitoring be deleted? How did you do it??”

No. I was by their side the whole way, and they didn’t go anywhere...

Just delete it??

“Isabella. I suddenly realized that you are so powerful...you seem to be able to do everything.” Millie looked at Isabella with more admiration and curiosity.

Kara patted her on the shoulder, “Be confident and remove the look.”

Her Isabella is indeed good at everything, if she insists on saying she can't, she probably won't be able to fall in love...

what it was like when she fell in love with Benjamin...

Is it cold, or shy??

“Hey, Isabella.” Kara suddenly leaned into Isabella's car and teased in a low voice, “Your man hasn't been looking for you recently?”

“He...” Isabella was about to say something when she noticed a slender figure in the distance.

Benjamin?

How did he come to school??

Chapter 330

Benjamin looks like a college student in casual attire today.

Although he was wearing a black three-dimensional mask, those star-like eyes are so pretty, and with his height of 1.9 meters. just after he appeared for a while, many girls noticed his existence and went over to ask for him. WhatsApp it.

“Hi, may I ask what class of senior you are? Can I have a WhatsApp ?”

“I wanted to meet you.”

“I have a few academic questions I would like to ask you.”

“I don’t know if you have a girlfriend, if not, can you see me?”

Benjamin’s eyes fell on Isabella from the beginning to the end, and he raised his chin slightly to signal the little girl in front of him.

“Yes.”

Seven or eight girls looked in the direction of the school gate one after another, only to see a tall and thin girl with beautiful features, elegant demeanor, walking towards this side.

so beautiful...

Since when did the school have such stunning girls?

Seeing that she is wearing a military uniform, she should be at freshman. I didn’t expect that she looks so good in military uniform...

It’s so unreasonable.

Benjamin led Green, who was also wearing casual clothes, and walked towards Isabella step by step. Before he got close, several boys ran up to Isabella.

“Hello, I’m a sophomore. I like you very much. Can you be my girlfriend?”

Seeing the nervous look of the boy. Isabella just replied calmly, "Sorry, no."

"Hello. I heard that the bread at the bakery at the west gate of the school is delicious. I bought some and I'll show you a taste."

Another sunny and handsome boy in a ball uniform handed the bag to Isabella.

But Isabella didn't take it, and said politely. "Thanks, I've eaten."

"What about the cakes? I heard that their small cakes have a unique shape and a good taste. I bought a few and brought them back for you to try."

"No thanks." Isabella never took his things.

"Hello, I'm from the third class of Pediatrics. I want to exchange some medical knowledge with you. Can I leave a contact information?"

"Ask the teacher if you don't understand." Suddenly, a pleasant male voice reached their cars.

Everyone turned their heads together, and saw a boy who was around 1.9 meters walking towards this side step by step, with those beautiful eyes, so handsome that everything in the world was eclipsed...

The next second, he took Isabella's hand and said flatly, "She has a boyfriend."

The boys were stunned for a moment, then came to their senses. said sorry and left quickly...

Isabella raised her twinkling eyes, "Why are you here?"

"I don't know that there are so many boys thinking about you if you don't come." When Benjamin said this, he looked at the girls next to her.

Millie and Poll were stunned, and couldn't believe that Isabella had a boyfriend, and he was such a tall and handsome boyfriend!

Although the boyfriend is wearing a mask, his eyes are so beautiful!

The two look so well matched!!

But Kara seemed to be used to it, and greeted naturally, "Hi, my name is Kara, and I'm a good friend of Isabella."

"Long ago." Benjamin took off his mask and nodded. The combination of his handsome face and charming voice was completely overwhelming.

"You, you, hello, I'm Isabella's roommate, and my name is Millie." Millie didn't expect that he would look better after taking off the mask.

It's 360 degrees with no dead ends, so impeccably handsome, the kind that both people and gods are angry with!

It was the first time Poll saw what a high-end face is, and Benjamin's handsomeness directly impacted her vision, which shocked her greatly.

"Hi, hello, my name is Poll."

“Nice to meet you.” Benjamin gave them both another nod.

Isabella introduced casually. “My fiancé, Benjamin.”

The word fiance, like a shocking bomb, exploded between Millie and Poll.

“You, you, you, you both have fiancés...” Poll’s eyes widened in disbelief.

Just now I thought this boy was her boyfriend, but I didn’t expect it to be her fiancé...

How old is this, and you have a fiancé so soon??

Why is the name Benjamin so familiar, I seem to have heard it somewhere...” Millie muttered to this point, suddenly thought of something, and stuttered. “My God, he he he, he is, Benjamin...”

On the Forbes Rich List, the number one man of the year, the richest man in the world. Benjamin!!

There are only a few pictures of him on the Internet, and they are all of him with a cold face. wearing formal clothes, mature and stable...

With his casual attire today and the fact that he was wearing a mask, he didn’t recognize him for a while...

He didn’t expect that he already had a fiancée, let alone that his fiancée shared a dorm with them!!

A richest man in the world, a perfect score No. 1. absolutely!!

“Don’t be surprised, you’ll get used to it in the future.” Kara patted them on the shoulder. “Let’s go, let’s go back to the dormitory first and let them chat slowly.”

Both Millic and Poll were stunned, being held by Kara's arm, they didn't know how to get to the front.

"Put on the mask." Isabella was afraid that his face would be too ostentatious and cause too much commotion.

Benjamin put on a mask and cupped her face with both hands, "Little heartless, you've been away for a few days and don't look for me."

Isabella was a little puzzled, "Didn't you call every day?"

"I didn't take the initiative to look for it." Benjamin looked at her aggrievedly. "You don't want to see me at all... It seems that your college life is very rich, so rich that you forgot about me..."

Here we go again, Naive is online again...

Just now he was cold in front of his friends, but now he is three. years old again...

Isabella thought it was funny, "Didn't I say, I will accompany you after training?"

"Why do you have to wait for the training to end? Huh?" Benjamin 's eyes were puzzled and questioned. "I have time to cat with my friends, but I don't miss me. I don't care if I'm hungry. I'm alone or not."

"Isn't there Green with me?"

At this moment, Green can't wait to shrink his own existence.

"He is a man, how can he compare with you?"

Green on the side...

Benjamin, you're wrong for saying that, what's wrong with me as a man, although I can't compare with Ms. Young, but at least I have done a lot of work!

I'm also irreplaceable, okay?

Isabella looked helplessly at the man in front of her, "Then how do you want to make it up?"

"Stay with me today, isn't it a day off tomorrow? Stay with me too!" Benjamin didn't give her a chance to refuse, and added, "Want to give me something sweet?"

Isabella understands what he means, this guy has been hinting at her since before she entered school, didn't he just want her to stay with him for a night?

As for??

"Then don't move your hands and feet."

"I'm very conscious, don't worry." Benjamin touched her face, this face that he misses day and night, he finally touched it, he will have to touch it for a while.

"Put your hands down."

"It's been a long time." He couldn't bear to let go.
