

Chased Her 341

Chapter 341 On-Site Connection

It is said that Mr. Tomson loves chess like his life...

he snatched this chess set at a high price back then, he also spent a lot of money to buy an exquisite box just to hold this chess set!

How could this box be in Isabella's hands? Could it be that what's inside...is really genuine?

"Keep everyone waiting for a long time."

Isabella put the gift box in front of Jan with both hands, and Lily smiled. "I wanted to bring you this chess set next time, but I didn't expect this little episode, so I just took this opportunity to give it to grandma, see if you like it like."

Jan didn't expect the little girl to have such thoughts, and he wanted to give her this chess set for a long time...

She smiled, and asked Pius to open it for a look. Inside was a more transparent and more beautiful chess and chessboard...

"How come..." Mrs. Stone was stunned, "How come there are two identical chess pieces..."

It seems that the color and workmanship of Isabella's pair are not inferior to those of Jennifer's at all. Are fakes so realistic now?

Mrs. Lawrence couldn't believe his eyes, Isabella's chess set really couldn't fault it...

Mr. Ray's complexion is also a little ugly, I didn't expect that the pair in Isabella's hand can almost be mistaken for the real one...

"I bought this chess set from the granddaughter of the previous collector. It can't be fake! Where did you get this chess set from?"

Isabella raised her clear eyes and said casually, "Mr. Tomson has no granddaughter."

As soon as these words came out, everyone was shocked!

It is well known that Mr. Tomson has a granddaughter, but Mr. Tomson has done a good job of keeping it secret, so few people have seen his grandchildren....

Isabella said firmly, "You've been scammed."

Jennifer couldn't help clenching her fists. "Nonsense! I still have the WhatsApp of Mr. Tomson's granddaughter! Her Facebook is visible to me! There are many photos of her and Mr. Tomson!"

Some of them were taken in Mr. Tomson's yard. If it wasn't for the granddaughter, how could she appear in Mr. Tomson's home in pajamas and take pictures with Mr. Tomson ?!

"Oh, then the one you added must not be Mr. Tomson's granddaughter, you must have been cheated."

Hearing what Isabella said, Jennifer was even more furious, "You know Mr. Tomson? How do you know he has no granddaughter? You haven't answered me where you bought your chess! If you lie today, you will be corrupt, not only the friendship between the Young Family and the Ray Family has also tarnished Mr. Tomson's reputation!"

After all, she said Mr. Tomson had no granddaughters!"

"My chess set was given by Mr. Tomson."

As soon as Isabella said this, the audience was shocked!

No!

impossible!!

Mr. Tomson loves chess like his life, how could he give his beloved treasure to a little girl?

Even his granddaughter took him for more than three months before getting this chess set...

Mr. Ray was the first to laugh out loud, obviously taking Isabella 's words as a joke!

Mr. Tomson is not known to others, but he still doesn't know! That's a grumpy old man, how could he think highly of a little girl, and even give away his beloved collection...

What a big joke!

This little girl's lies are really getting bigger and bigger!

Jennifer also laughed. " Lady Logan lied, I really admire... You said you knew Mr. Tomson, and he gave you your chess? Do you have proof?"

"Oh, I have his WhatsApp."

Mr. Ray found it even more amused. "Little girl, let me tell you, I know Mr. Tomson. I know his voice... He is a man who doesn't just add people to WhatsApp..."

Even when he wanted to add that strange old man, he was

At the beginning, he also came forward to buy that chess set. After all the good words, his mouth was worn out, and he didn't give him any face at all!

This little girl can let others take the initiative to give her away?

Ah!

Isabella took out her phone and played a voice call directly.

After a while, the other party picked it up.

"Did I read it wrong or did you play it wrong? It's really strange that you can make a voice call to me..."

Mr. Tomson came from the other end, and everyone in the audience was stunned.

As soon as Pius and Jan heard it, they were sure that it was Mr. Tomson's voice, and they felt that the winning ticket was in their hands.

And Mr. Ray's complexion changed. This is Mr. Tomson's voice, that's right, he can't hear the accent and the line of the voice wrong!

But, how is it possible...

Mr. Tomson sounds like he really knows this girl!

this girl...

Can get Mr. Tomson so highly??

“Mr. Tomson, are you resting? Is it bothering you?” Isabella remembered him going to bed early.

“Hey, you’re off the hook, don’t talk about taking a break, even if I’m lying in the coffin. I’ll call you right away! How about it, when will you play two rounds with grandpa?”

These words reveal a lot of information, Isabella can also play chess? ?

It sounds like he played chess with Mr. Tomson...

Is she good at chess?

“I’ll be there another day.” Isabella said this, getting straight to the point. “I heard you have a granddaughter today? It’s nothing, just call and ask.”

“What granddaughter, why don’t I know? Oh, I understand..... You must have heard the rumors outside and mistakenly thought that grandpa accepted someone else as a granddaughter? Impossible! Grandpa only wants to recognize you as a granddaughter, how about it?”, Have you changed your mind? There are many people vying to be granddaughters to grandpa, and there is no such shop after passing this village!”

Isabella didn’t expect him to talk about this again, so she changed the subject directly. “We’ll talk about this later, do you remember that golden chess set?”

“Remember, didn’t I give it to you! Did you want to return it to grandpa? I knew you were a caring and lovely girl...”

“You think too much.” Isabella directly interrupted his fantasy, “I just want to tell you that I gave it away.”

“What, what?? You little girl, my chess set is my favorite. I gave it

Jennifer was extremely embarrassed, took out her mobile phone.

and was about to make a WhatsApp voice call to the granddaughter, when she suddenly found out that she was blocked by someone!!

Finding that Jennifer’s face was extremely ugly, Mrs. Lawrence hurriedly asked what was going on, and learned that her WhatsApp had been blocked...

The truth has been revealed!!

Jennifer was scammed out of money, and after the scammer received the money, he blocked her...

“I have been making trouble for a long time, I was deceived by someone...”

Jan looked at Isabella with kind eyes. “I didn’t expect that you even knew Mr. Tomson... When your grandfather asked him to buy this chess set, he didn’t even give your grandfather face... It can be seen that he is very I value you...”

Needless to say, Isabella must be very good at chess!!

Chapter 342

“Come to play two rounds with grandparents another day?” Pius invited with a smile.

Isabella said obediently, "Okay."

Mr. Ray on the side smiled and smoothed things over, "I didn't expect Jennifer to know people well and be deceived... Fortunately, this chess set was finally delivered to the old lady. Although it was given to a different person, the meaning is good."

Benjamin 's eyes dimmed, how shameless?

"The person who gave it is different, and the meaning is also different." Benjamin said calmly, "This is a gift from Isabella as a granddaughter-in-law to grandma, and there is an essential difference from Jennifer's gift."

The smile on Mr. Ray 's face froze, and he quickly smiled and said yes.

Benjamin 's eyes fell on Jennifer, "Jennifer hasn't formally apologized to my fiancée yet."

Jennifer : ???

Apologize???

"Just now Jennifer was aggressive and made rude remarks. My fiancée is timid. You scared her."

Hearing what Benjamin said, Jennifer was furious!!

Isabella timid? ?

Where is she timid?

She looks like a master who is not afraid of anything!

Relying on the support of the Young Family, he is defiant and lawless!

She is obviously crazy, but she has the nerve to say that she is cowardly...

Maintain without being too obvious!!

After all, this is in the Young Family, Mr. Ray pretended to accuse, "Jennifer, it's not Grandpa who blamed you, you misunderstood Ms. Young's kindness before you figured it out... Hurry up and apologize to her."

'..." Although Jennifer was dissatisfied, she gritted her teeth and said falsely, "I'm sorry, I just had a bad attitude just now."

Regardless of whether Isabella forgives or not, Mr. Ray directly brought up the topic. " Ms. Young has a lot of people, so I don't think I will take it to heart, but you, in the future, you must remember your status and status, and you must be careful in every word and deed. Think twice."

Jennifer pretended to be a good girl and agreed, "Yes, I will follow Grandpa's teaching."

"Okay, it's getting late, you guys should go back and rest earlier." Jan ordered the eviction, not wanting to see their two faces again.

Pius smiled and stood up and said, "When you go back, think about what your grandfather said, the older generation has eaten more salt than you have eaten rice, young people still have to learn to be cautious in their words and deeds.”

This statement has three meanings.

One level is dissatisfaction with what Jennifer has done.

The second is to remind Jennifer to be polite to Isabella in the future, and now Isabella is protected by the Young Family.

The third is that the older generation has eaten more salt than you have eaten rice, so don't provoke people of his generation, otherwise he has many ways to make the Ray Family complain.

Jennifer didn't expect Pius to protect Isabella so much, she bowed her head obediently and admitted her mistake, “Thank you Elder Mr. Mason for pointing out, I was the one who offended just now.”

Mr. Ray laughed, “I'm really sorry, the granddaughter is the only one in the family, she's spoiled!”

He originally wanted to smooth things over with a smile and bring this matter to the past, but he didn't expect Pius to have a half-smile, his expression was a little colder than before.

“We are only this granddaughter-in-law, but we haven't developed the problem of being coquettish and domineering. We are honest and easy to be bullied. I have to talk about her later. You can teach your granddaughter well when you are young. You still have the opportunity to teach her.”

“Yes, yes, I will teach you well when I go back!” Mr. Ray was ashamed, but he still had to say, “Today is Jennifer's recklessness, and I will teach it another day, and I will definitely pay a visit.”

“You don't need to go to the door!” Pius's words made the two of Ray Family stunned in place.

“My wife’s health hasn’t fully recovered yet. She’s usually quiet.

Bob, help me send them off.” After Pius finished speaking, he didn’t intend to talk to them any more.

It is completely different from the warm hospitality at the beginning.

Bob hastily presented fake chess with both hands, “Mr.Ray, Jennifer, please come with me...”

Jennifer ‘s complexion could no longer be described as ugly. She took the fake chess and glanced at the living room unwillingly.

I saw Pius and Jan smiling and talking to Isabella who was sitting between them, Isabella responded with a light smile, it looked like a family!

Just now Pius was not polite to their Ray Family, but now in front of Isabella, he seemed to be a different person again!

“Jennifer, please.” Bob made an inviting gesture.

Jennifer could only grit her teeth and leave.

She has never been angry like this since she was a child!

In the past, she was the one who bullied others and made them suffer from being dumb, but this is the first time that this happened today!

After getting into her luxury car, she took out her mobile phone, typed and sent it.

“Help me find out which class Isabella is in!”

Next, make her look good!!

After a while, her phone vibrated twice and received a reply.

11

She couldn't believe it, and murmured, " Going to study a doctor with a perfect score of No. 1 ?"

Oh, sure enough, I read too much, and my mind is stupid!

the proportion of doctors in the major tertiary hospitals?

Which doctor will hold a knife in the operating room?

After graduating, why not choose herbal medicines for others in a small clinic, and be a humble worker at the bottom....

How could the Young Family fall in love with this kind of person??

in the living room.

Jan patted the back of Isabella 's hand, " Isabella, you were wronged just now."

Isabella smiled slightly, "I'm not wronged, you all vented your anger on my behalf."

The warning, the warning.

Those who should ask for an apology, they also apologized, although they were not sincere.

But anyway, it's considered a slap in the face of the Ray Family, and if they hold on, it's just that their situation is small.

Benjamin 's father celebrated his birthday when he was a child, and there were many guests at home. He was only four years old at the time, and he fell into the swimming pool while chasing and playing with his friends. At that time, the place was far away from the main venue. Fortunately, Mr. Ray saved him....”

Isabella understood, it turned out that there was such a layer of kindness, no wonder Mr. Ray dared to indulge his granddaughter, and that Jennifer dared to speak wild words...

Just relying on Young Family people will not do anything to the savior...

It's shameless.

“In the future, if she dares to bully you at school, you should tell grandma immediately.” Jan said worriedly. “If necessary, I will transfer her to another school so that she won't be an eyesore to you.”

Isabella didn't care, “It's okay, the school is big, so we may not be able to meet them.”

Even if they meet, she is not the one who suffers.

At this moment, Bob sent the guests away, went to the kitchen and brought a bowl of herbs, and put it in front of Jan.

The tone was very respectful, “Madam, your medicine is ready.”

Isabella smelled the faint bitterness in the air. It was the medicinal ingredients she prepared. Her eyes fell on Bob, “How many of these medicines are left?”

“Go back to young mistress, there is still a week’s supply.”

“I’ll send some new ones in two days. Grandma’s condition has improved, and the dosage can be reduced appropriately.”

Chapter 343 It’s Over, It’s Too Late

“For example, 1 gram, it can be reduced to 0.8 grams.” Isabella guessed her expectation, and broke lightly, “It’s not that the number of times of taking it has been reduced, but the bitterness is still the same, and there will not be much change.”

“Very, very good... Isabella has a heart.” Jan finished the medicine in the bowl under the care of Pius.

Immediately afterwards, Bob took away the bowl, and when he came again, he served another bowl.

“Old sir, this is yours.”

This is the medicine that Isabella prescribed to Pius before, it is good for the heart, once a week.

As soon as Pius smelled the smell, his brows frowned, but his wife was still here, so he mustered up his courage,” Isabella ‘s medicine smells different, and the taste is mellow, which makes people have endless aftertaste hahaha... really It’s delicious!”

Isabella watched him finish the drink in one gulp, and the bitterness in her eyes seemed quite sympathetic.

Benjamin on the side raised the corners of his lips, “Delicious? I’ll ask Isabella to match two more for you to keep fit.”

Pius I thank you!!

“It’s getting late, you take Isabella back to rest first.” Pius was afraid that if Isabella really prescribed two more herbal medicines for him, then he would die on the spot...

Isabella knew that Pius also wanted them to go back to the world of two as soon as possible, so she smiled lightly, “Then grandpa and grandma, let’s go first, and we will come back next time when we have time.”

Benjamin’s eyes changed a little, and the whole person’s aura softened. What she said was: us.

Since when did she include him in her plan and say “we” more and more...

“Isabella is right, we will come again next time.” Benjamin deliberately emphasized the word “our”, and did not forget to remind, “Don’t throw away the medicine.”

“Don’t discredit me in front of your precious granddaughter-in-law! I have never poured the medicine prescribed by Isabella...”

“Really?” Benjamin said directly. “I see that plant looks like it was scalded to death.”

Pius followed his gaze to the one-meter-high plant between the living room and the courtyard, and stammered suddenly, “That time, I didn’t serve the bowl properly, and accidentally spilled it...”

Admit it??

“It’s all because the medicine Bob gave me was too hot, so I accidentally let go, Bob, it’s all your fault! Be more careful next time.”

Bob: Over the years, I have suffered too much.

“Really Isabella, the medicine you gave is so precious, how could I throw it away! I always want to drink another bowl after drinking it!”

Benjamin...

Bob ...

Isabella couldn't help laughing, “It's okay, as long as I didn't burn myself.”

“Look, it's my daughter-in-law who cares about me!”

You are a heartless grandson who only digs holes for me to jump into! snort!! go now!!

“We're going back.” Benjamin took Isabella 's hand, his eyes falling softly on her.

After Isabella said goodbye to her grandparents, she sat in the car, and after a while, Benjamin also came up.

He held the little girl 's hand, and said while playing, “Mr. Tomson has always been proud of his talents. You can make him take the initiative to invite him to play chess and make him look forward to it. Your chess skills are very good?”

“fine.”

“I won Mr. Tomson, so Mr. Tomson lost his beloved to you. You borrowed flowers to present Buddha to grandma.”

“You can guess this?” Isabella raised her eyes, a little surprised.

Benjamin realized that he had really underestimated the little girl. He didn’t expect her to be so good at chess.

As soon as Benjamin finished speaking, he suddenly leaned over and approached her with a provocative tone, “I sec.”

Isabella :??

Benjamin looked at her crimson lips, and the breath of speaking fell on her lips lightly, “You don’t know how to kiss.”

Benjamin ‘s lips pressed against hers lightly, “Like this, have you learned?”

Isabella raised her eyes and asked jokingly, “You are half full of water yourself, so you have the nerve to teach me?”

“That’s because there is no room for practice, it depends on whether you give it a chance.”

Isabella :??

Meaning, blame her for not kissing him more? Play more??

She didn’t give a chance, so he still shamelessly approached her??

At this time, Benjamin found someone standing outside the car, so he lowered the window and asked, “Grandpa, is there anything else?”

Pius stood there for quite a while, seeing what should be seen and what should not be seen...

"That...it's okay, let's go for a walk..."

To Over It's Too Late

Leaving grandma alone for a walk??

Who believes it??

"Go on, go on..."

11

Pius walked back again. Just now Darling saw that their car hadn't left for a long time, and thought it was broken, so he wanted to come over and ask if he needed to change to another car...

Now it seems that it is purely their old couple's overthinking!

The young people are just tired of being crooked in the car...

Seeing how winking Green is, he found an excuse to get out of the car and stay away...

When the car was driving on the road, Isabella faintly felt uncomfortable in her lower abdomen. This feeling seemed to be her period?

said to Green in front, "Speed up."

“Ah?” Green was a little confused, “ Ms. Young, are you in a hurry?”

“Um.”

Isabella sat in the seat and could feel something pouring out from underneath.

It’s over.

late.

Benjamin’s eyes fell on her, “What’s wrong?”

Are you tired and want to go back and rest?

Or do you think there is something urgent to deal with? ?

It’s so late, what else is there to do??

Green was still ahead, so it was naturally inconvenient for Isabella to say so. When the car arrived in front of Benjamin ‘s villa, Isabella said. ” Green, you can take a taxi back by yourself.”

ah? ? ?

It’s so late, can you get a taxi here??

Although the worker responded respectfully, but he couldn’t touch Isabella ‘s emotions, and his heart was still a little desolate...

Ms. Young, is no longer the caring little padded jacket...

When he was going to take a taxi, Isabella said to Benjamin again. "You get out of the car first."

"Huh?" Benjamin looked at her puzzled, and at the same time noticed her strangeness. "What's wrong?"

Why stay in the car alone??

"I'm on my period." Isabella was a little embarrassed, "The car is dirty."

It turned out to be like this.

Benjamin's eyes softened, "It's okay, it's just a car, I'll carry you in."

"Don't..." Isabella didn't want to stain his clothes.

Benjamin was amused by her appearance, it was rare to see her look like this, "Don't worry, no one will see it."

Richie the housekeeper and chef Ned in the villa, they should go to rest at this point.

Isabella looked at his white shirt and was still hesitating. The next second, Benjamin put a suit jacket around her waist and carried her out of the car.

Green understood, it turned out that Ms. Young wanted to hug Benjamin, but why did she have to push him away...

Is the little girl embarrassed and shy...

But in summer, why do you need to tie a dress around your waist...

Before Green could figure it out, Benjamin threw him a look. Green hurriedly looked away, realizing that he had looked at Ms. Young too much just now...

Benjamin didn't think he was looking at Ms. Young 's waist, did he?!

Chapter 344 Jealous

Benjamin carried Isabella to the bathroom of the master bedroom on the second floor, and put her down, "Wait for a while."

He turned and went to the cloakroom, and took clean clothes and things for his period.

After tearing open the packaging bag, he didn't know how to use such a small thing, so he checked it online and helped Isabella stick

1.

Isabella blushed when she saw it. I didn't expect him to do it so meticulously. The key is that the front and back are reversed...

"Wrong post?" Benjamin sensed her emotion.

"Yeah." Isabella whispered. "It's the other way around."

Benjamin looked down at what was in his hands.

"The short one is in front."

understood.

Benjamin tore it off and threw it into the trash can, and pasted it on again, more skillfully than before.

“Do you need to go in and change it for me?”

“No!” Isabella took the things from him, quickly closed the door, blushing even more...

After a while, Benjamin heard the sound of the faucet being turned

1. It should be that the little girl wanted to wash the dirty clothes after taking a bath.

Benjamin stepped forward with long legs and knocked on the door.

Isabella, put your clothes there, don't touch the cold water.”

Isabella didn't expect that he even discovered this, her face, which had finally subsided from the fever, became hot again.

“Hot water will come up, and it will be quick.”

At least wash off the stains too.

Otherwise, when the housekeeper comes to collect the dirty clothes tomorrow, will see...

“You don't need to wash it, be obedient.” Seeing that she didn't respond. Benjamin knocked on the door again, “Leave it there, I'll wash it later.”

“No need for you.”

“Hey, come out first.”

Seeing that Benjamin was still knocking on the door outside, Isabella could only soak in it first, opened the door, and in the next second, was hugged by Benjamin to the bed.

Because there are only two boys in the family, Richie and Ned, Benjamin guessed that the little girl was afraid that Richie would see these when he came to collect the laundry basket the next day...

the little girl would be inconvenient sometimes.

“You sit down first.” Benjamin put the pillow behind her, covered her with the quilt, and brought her a hot water bottle.

heated by Benjamin when Isabella went to take a bath just now, and the temperature is just right.

“Put it on your lower abdomen to keep warm.”

Seeing that her lips were a little pale, Benjamin said softly. “Wait for me a while.”

At this point, Richie had gone to rest, and Benjamin soaked the brown sugar ginger coffee bag he bought in advance, and brought it to Isabella.

“Not hot, just enough to drink.”

Isabella saw that he was so meticulous, so don't think about it, she must have done her homework in advance.

“Will it be too sweet?” Benjamin asked softly seeing her take a sip.

“good.”

“I’ll try.” Benjamin took a sip from the cup she had drunk, frowning slightly, “Is this the taste of brown sugar ginger coffee?”

“Um.”

if not? What’s the smell??

“Can you drink it?” Benjamin’s tone was distressed, “If it doesn’t taste good, don’t drink it.”

“good.”

When Benjamin saw her raise her slender swan neck and finish the contents of the cup in one gulp, her heart ached even more.

Menstruation itself is uncomfortable, and you have to drink such things and suffer.

I have to look back to see which manufacturer produced it, see if it can be improved, and can’t make his baby suffer...

After she finished drinking, Benjamin took the cup and put it aside, and asked softly, “Why don’t you use the hot water bottle? Is it cold or too hot?”

“It’s a bit heavy, and it’s uncomfortable to press.”

“Then I’ll warm you up.” Benjamin stretched out his hand to gently stroke her lower abdomen, “Is this any better?”

Isabella wanted to say that his hands were too cold and could not be warmed by a hot water bottle, but seeing how caring he was, she finally nodded.

Her expression couldn't deceive Benjamin's eyes. Benjamin sensed something, and his big hand landed on his stomach. Through the clothes, the temperature of his palm was really not warm enough.

He picked up the hot water bottle again, let his hands warm first, and then put his hands on Isabella's lower abdomen...

"Is this any better than before?"

Seeing him seriously asking what she meant, Isabella felt warm inside.

He immediately caught her expression and eyes, and he was able to get what it meant.

"Well, it's better than before." Isabella smiled.

"I still have medicine. The doctor said that I can take it when the pain is severe."

At this time, Isabella's cell phone vibrated, and Benjamin got up and said, "I'll get it."

The light on the screen flickered, it was Bennett calling.

Seeing this name, Benjamin's hand paused, this guy often calls Isabella? It's so late, what is he calling for? Do you think that Isabella is at school and her fiancé is not around?

When Isabella found out that Benjamin handed over the phone, she seemed a little jealous, and then looked at the caller, and couldn't help laughing.

She swiped to answer in front of Benjamin.

Isabella, are you busy?" Bennett 's concern came from the other end. "Are you tired from training recently?"

"It's okay." Isabella looked at Benjamin 's expression while talking. and suddenly felt even more amused, "What do you want from me?"

"There is a difficult patient in the hospital, do you have time to come over and take a look?"

"Now?"

As soon as Isabella said these words, Benjamin 's eyes instantly showed warning, it's so late, how dare you go on a date? try it!

"Are you convenient now? The patient had a headache and dizziness, crooked mouth and eyes, and felt weakness in the left limb. After the examination, it was found that there was a plaque deep in the middle cerebral artery, and there were two aneurysms that were about to rupture."

Isabella could hear the seriousness of it, plaque and aneurysm, no matter which one appeared, it was enough to be disabling and fatal.

When the two appear at the same time, cerebral hemorrhage combined with cerebral ischemic stroke is also prone to occur.

"The troublesome thing is that she has severe stenosis of the long M1 segment of the right middle cerebral artery combined with stenosis of the M2 branch. After intensive medical treatment, the cerebral infarction still recurs. The interventional treatment is difficult and risky, and the long-term effect of the stent is not good.

Bennett on the other end didn't know that Benjamin was so jealous that he ate to the sky, and then described his condition. "Now only by performing intracranial and extracranial vascular reconstruction to improve cerebral ischemia can it be possible to reduce the risk of severe cerebral infarction."

Benjamin on the side didn't know the content of their conversation. He only knew that Bennett had been talking for a long time, but Isabella still had no intention of hanging up.

Isabella knew that in order to unblock the occluded blood vessels in the brain and reconstruct intracranial and extracranial blood flow, the first step was to manually peel off the vascular plaques, which was extremely difficult.

The M2 segment is located in the deep part of the Sylvian fissure, and the surgical operation space is narrow, about the size of a finger.

In addition, the diameter of the middle cerebral artery is less than 3 mm. The plaque must be completely stripped, the blood vessel must be sutured and the vascular microsurgery must be magnified more than ten times under the microscope. There are requirements for microsurgical instruments and doctors' micromanipulation techniques extremely high.

Those people in the hospital, obviously no one can do it.

if Bennett were to come alone.

Chapter 345

"So, can you come here now? The best surgical plan has not been discussed yet..."

It's mainly their group of people, none of them are better than Bennett, and those on duty are all interns.

The experience is not as good as that of Bennett. It is said that it is a discussion, but in the end it is Bennett who makes the decision...

Bennett also has no better way. This case has not appeared in the United States for the time being.

The patient's family also went to several hospitals, and finally came to Jingkang. If Jingkang couldn't do it, almost no hospital in the United States would dare to accept this operation.

"The patient's condition is critical.

If he wasn't completely sure, he wouldn't call at night to disturb the little girl's rest.

"I am going now.

As soon as Isabella said this, Benjamin pinched her fingers immediately, his jealous eyes were filled with warning.

Isabella patted his head, beckoning him to be good, life is at stake, don't play games.

But Benjamin looked away, seeming a little annoyed.

"So, can you come here now? The best surgical plan has not been discussed yet..."

But Benjamin looked away, seeming a little annoyed.

"Then do you need other doctors to assist? I'll call them, which one do you want, and I'll ask them to come over immediately."

It was night, and many doctors were not there, only a few interns with low qualifications in the emergency room.

"No need, you can do it alone."

you! one! individual! At once! OK!

Now, someone is completely jealous, pinch Isabella 's hand, you try to say something again?

“Shall I ask a friend to pick you up from school?” Bennett had to stay and observe the patient’s condition at any time. After all, he was the only doctor on duty that the hospital could provide.

“No, I’ll go by myself.”

Ah.

Quite proactive!

Benjamin was even angrier.

After Isabella hung up the phone, seeing the man getting emotional, she took his hand and shook it lightly.

The man who was still annoyed just now, his heart softened because of her action.

“It’s a big night, leaving your fiancé behind and dating a guy? Do you think it’s appropriate?”

Benjamin...”

“It’s useless to say anything.” Benjamin seemed determined not to let her out.

“It’s not what you think.” Isabella kept holding his hand and explained the situation briefly.

Her little hand was soft, and with a pull, his anger disappeared spinelessly...

“This operation, if I don’t go, the risk is really high if he is alone.”

Although it’s not a difficult operation, the people in the hospital are unreliable at this point...

“You don’t get paid by the hospital.” Benjamin was still angry. “What’s more, you are on your period, so you should take a good rest.”

“I don’t have any discomfort.” In order to make him feel more involved and reassure him, Isabella said, “You go with me.”

“What can I do?”

He doesn’t know how to hold a scalpel.

Watch the two of them speak some technical terms and exchange experiences?

It was even more uncomfortable to leave him alone like that.

“Go and monitor me to see if I’m not a woman, and if I’m flirting with men.”

Benjamin was amused by her.

Isabella took the opportunity to say, “He used to take good care of grandma. In private, we never dated.”

It's all about communicating medical skills...

Not mixed with personal feelings in it....

"I know exactly what he thinks of you."

Benjamin had noticed the way Bennett looked at Isabella before, and there was clearly a liking that he wanted to restrain but couldn't restrain, mixed with forbearance and suffering.

"Who dares to rob you of your fiancée?" Isabella stood up, took his hand and said, "Go, come with me."

The condition worsened again later.

It was so late, it was impossible for Benjamin to really let her drive alone, the last time she drove a car to Cameron Hospital, the speed of the car still terrifies him when he thinks about it.

"It's rare to have a vacation, and the time is taken up by others." Benjamin still minded a little.

Isabella raised her eyes and smiled, "I will love you later."

"What kind of remedy?"

"You lower your head."

Benjamin had just lowered his handsome face when Isabella caught him off guard and kissed him.

Now, Benjamin lost all temper, and his aura softened completely.

The little girl kissed him!

proactive!!

He pushed forward. "One is not enough."

"Come back and add more."

"It's what you said, don't go back on your word." Benjamin's mood changed completely, and he hugged her into his arms as he walked. "I'll make trouble for him if the number is less."

"Did you hear me?"

"knew."

When the two came to the hospital, Bennett was obviously surprised to see Benjamin.

Isn't Isabella training at school, how could she be with Benjamin ?

There was still hostility in Benjamin 's eyes, obviously, he was regarded as a rival in love.

"Dr. Robinson, is this the expert you mentioned?" The patient's family did not expect that the visitor was so young, she looked like a girl of seventeen or eighteen years old, but at this moment, she didn't care so much, and immediately stepped forward Isabella 's hand cried, "Expert doctor, please... must save him..."

"Don't worry, I will." When Isabella said this, she looked at Bennett again, "What are you doing, don't change your clothes."

Isabella quickened her pace and walked towards the operating room.

Bennett looked back at Benjamin. "What do you decide to do?"

"Right middle cerebral artery M2 plaque stripping + superficial temporal artery vascular bypass + multiple aneurysm clipping of middle cerebral artery M1 bifurcation..."

Benjamin couldn't hear what the little girl said next, and she entered the door of the operating room and the lights came on.

Benjamin sat on the bench outside the operating room, waited for about an hour, and saw the door open, and Isabella came out.

The patient's family rushed forward, crying and asking, "Expert doctor, how is it?"

"The patient is out of danger and can be directly transferred to the general ward."

"Thank you, thank you so much..." The patient's family members immediately wanted to kneel down and thank Isabella.

Isabella hurriedly supported her. "You're welcome, it should be, the anesthetic hasn't passed yet, and I'm still not awake yet."

"Okay, okay, thank you doctor..." The family members wanted to ask Isabella's name, but when they saw the patient being pushed out, they rushed forward.

Isabella walked towards Benjamin. "I'm going to change."

"Thank you for your hard work, I will give you a pinch later."

Isabella smiled at him. "I'm not tired."

Bennett also walked out of the door of the operating room. After explaining the basic situation, the people under him pushed the

He was far away, meeting Benjamin 's eyes, neither of them spoke.

Until Isabella came out and saw Benjamin standing there, she thought he was in a daze.

"You can go."

"Yeah." Benjamin hugged her domineeringly, and bowed his head to kiss her. "My precious fiancée has worked hard."

Isabella raised a smile. "It's been a long time."

"It didn't take long, but I was a little hungry and wanted benefits."

"..." Isabella hit him.

Bennett just watched their flirting backs disappear from sight, and his eyes dimmed completely.

Chapter 346 A Mysterious Man

As soon as Isabella arrived downstairs in the hospital, her phone vibrated, and it was Bennett calling.

"Isabella, have you left the hospital? If not, it's not convenient for Fang to come up, someone wants to see you."

Isabella was a little puzzled, "Who?"

"People from the US Department of Security." Bennett's voice was noticeably softer.

Several question marks popped up in Isabella's mind, US Security Department? It is equivalent to the National Intelligence Agency, the highest anti-espionage agency and political security agency in the United States, but why are you looking for her at night, or in the hospital??

"The person you rescued just now is from the Ministry of Security. Their leader wants to see you."

Isabella also understands that the status of the staff in such positions is special and is not disclosed to the public.

"Well, I'm going up now."

After hanging up the phone, Isabella briefly explained to the man next to her, "I guess I want to ask about my condition. You wait for me in the car first, and I'll be down soon."

"Then be careful yourself and call me if you need something."

"good."

After Isabella went up, Bennett led her the way, "He's in my office, a man with a few subordinates."

Afraid that she might be scared, Bennett comforted her, "I'm right outside, if you call me if something happens, I'll go in right away."

"good."

Bennett pushed open the door and waited for Isabella to enter before closing the door, leaving room for them to talk.

What caught Isabella's eyes was a slender figure from the back, which looked tall and straight.

"Minister, here she is."

Several of the subordinates looked upright, heroic and young.

When the man turned around, his resolute face was not only young, but also extremely handsome, and he looked heroic.

"I performed the operation just now, is there any problem?" Isabella asked aloud.

With so many brave and mighty men standing in front of her, she wasn't afraid at all, instead she was extremely calm and calm.

The subordinates did not expect that the one who came in was a little girl with a ball head, let alone her courage. Even the minister was standing here, and she was not afraid at all...

The mental quality is too strong.

You must know that the entire security department is not afraid.

The leading man had a clear voice and clear eyes, and he didn't look malicious.

Isabella replied truthfully, "Eighteen."

Several subordinates were surprised: dare to hold a scalpel at the age of eighteen?

Although the Ministry of Security also has many young and gifted talents, there has never been one as young and beautiful as her.

“Educated medicine?” the leading man asked again.

“Why don’t you go to school at the age of eighteen?”

“above.”

“Which university?”

Isabella became a little impatient. “Is it related to the operation I have tonight?”

Several subordinates were even more shocked, do you know who you are talking to! This is the Deputy Secretary of the US Security Department! If it wasn’t because of his young age, he would have already been a leader at the Ministry level based on his achievements!

A little girl, not only was not intimidated by his aura, but her aura was so strong that she wanted to swallow them all up.

The leading man smiled handsomely. “Your surgery is doing very well, are you interested in joining our security department?”

I heard that the little girl has undergone many extremely difficult operations before, and her medical skills are already unmatched at such a young age.

The identities of the people in the Ministry of Security are not disclosed to the public, and sometimes they will be injured when performing special missions. Once before, an American spy was discovered by the people of the enemy country, and he was forced to swallow the poison that the enemy country had just researched, and died a miserable death...

The little girl is a student on the surface, and this identity is just a cover-up.

She has excellent medical skills and is a rare talent who can save more people in the Ministry of Security.

If you can take her under your command...

“Salary is not a problem, but it must be kept confidential, including family members, and you must not disclose your work.”

Getting an olive branch personally thrown by the Deputy Minister of Security of the United States is not just as simple as smoke from the ancestral grave!

This little girl must have saved the galaxy in her previous life!

Just when a few subordinates thought she would be grateful and agreed without hesitation....

Several subordinates were shocked, but the little girl refused?? What did she say, no time?!

What can a little girl be busy with!!

“It’s convenient to ask if you have other plans?” The man continued to ask, his tone very respectful.

Isabella hummed lightly, “I still have to go to school, I’m too busy.”

The main reason is that there are a lot of jobs at hand, and there is a man to coax...

A few subordinates stared wide-eyed. Did you make a mistake? The head of the Ministry of Security has already thrown an olive branch at you. What are you learning!

“Little sister, joining the security department will not affect your schooling!”

“You have to find a job after graduation. What job is better than the job of the Ministry of Security?”

“This is a great honor. To win glory for the country, you have to think carefully!”

Several subordinates said one after another.

Isabella nodded lightly, “Well, I’ve thought it through very clearly, I’m sorry, I can’t join you.”

The men looked at each other in blank dismay, completely speechless.

It’s a pity that such a good talent cannot be used by the country. The man in charge asked again, “Then what do you plan to do after graduation?”

Isabella did not hide. “Join the medical career, but not save a small group of people.”

For her, every project and every direction she studies is to save more people!

The man didn’t expect her to have such lofty ambitions as a little girl, and he immediately appreciated it even more, “How can I join the security department?”

He is still trying to keep him, this is the first time in his life history!

Isabella raised her eyebrows, "I can consider it when you have a more powerful doctor whose medical skills are better than mine, or have more powerful medical equipment..."

The subordinates are really eye-opening, isn't the little girl too arrogant!

"You can't buy our medical equipment on the market at all!"

They are all first class!

"Our doctors there are also very skilled in medicine!"

"Then why can't you save the people tonight?" Isabella raised her eyes and asked back, with a sincere and cute look.

Several subordinates were speechless...

It was indeed because the doctors from the Ministry of Security had nothing to do, so they had no choice but to let number 7731 turn to

If the little girl hadn't made a move tonight, 7731 would have died...

So they also want to find more talents in this field for use by the country.

But Isabella is not an ordinary person. She cannot be trapped in a small world and only save a small group of people there.

“Is it convenient for Fang to add a WhatsApp?” The handsome man said again, “If you go back on your word, please feel free to contact me.”

Isabella has never regretted his decision, but seeing that he is very sincere and is a member of the security department, out of politeness, he still added WhatsApp.

Chapter 347 Want to Confess?

After Isabella left, one of his subordinates comforted her. “Minister, don’t be sad, don’t you have a sister who is studying in a medical university? After four years of university training, she can still be used by the country.”

The second young master watched the little girl leave, and thought of his own sister who had just been found at home, who was also said to be eighteen years old.

“She has suffered a lot since she was a child.” The second young master heard about her sister, and said softly, “The security department is not suitable for her.”

She was finally found, and should be held in the palm of her hand and taken good care of, how could she be allowed to do such a hard job?

A few question marks popped up in the minds of his subordinates, dare to love his own sister, can’t bear it?!

The minister fell in love with him before we met??

It seems that he will be a madman who spoils his sister in the future...

“Go and see 7731.” The second young master left Bennett’s office with a few subordinates.

If he hadn’t been on a special mission abroad recently, he would have returned to the United States to see his sister a long time ago.

“Boss, when are you going to see your own sister?”

“the day after tomorrow.”

I heard that they will rest tomorrow, and I don't know what kind of person his own sister is.

She should be like a little girl at this age, well-behaved, sensible, kind and gentle.

When Isabella returned to the car, she was embraced by Benjamin. and Benjamin thought it was funny when she learned that people from the Ministry of Security threw an olive branch at her. Selby Brown, the genius doctor, can they please?

With Isabella 's ambition, she will never stoop to a small place, she needs a wider world.

Early the next morning.

When Ned served breakfast for Isabella, he found that there were many hickeys on her neck, and he was a little excited!

Looks like the battle was intense last night!

I thought the husband couldn't do it, but it seems that he and Richie were thinking too much!

My wife will still be very happy in this life!

“Have you seen enough?” Benjamin raised his eyes, and gave Ned a warning look, “Do you want me to give you this seat so that you can have a good look?”

“Sir, madam, take your time.” Ned was so frightened that he hurried down.

Isabella naturally knew what Ned found, and gave Benjamin a look. as if to say: Look what you did!

Last night, Benjamin hugged her and kissed her all night. Obviously, he was not satisfied with the area above the neck. If she hadn't had her period, she might have been eaten up by him.

“You said to make it up to me.” Benjamin handed over the peeled. egg and fed it to her, “Watch a movie with me after cating?”

“what movie?”

“You can choose, I can do it.” Benjamin planned to watch movies in the home theater at home and date like a couple.

After breakfast, Benjamin saw two servants standing in the living room, and said softly, “You can go back to Moon Lake today.”

Richie and Ned looked at each other, did they do something wrong?

Ned thought, could it be that during breakfast just now, he looked at his wife a few more times, and the husband was jealous?

Richie thought, could it be that when the husband came back last night, he didn't get up to open the door for him?

But the husband clearly explained that when he and his wife are alone, they will be as far away as possible...

“Sir, is there something wrong with us?” Richie bent over and asked respectfully.

“It will be more convenient for a maid to take care of you.”

Richie and Ned understood, it should be that the wife has some things that need to be taken care of by women, and it is inconvenient for them to be men...

“Yes, we’ll pack our bags now.” Richie secretly heaved a sigh of relief.

Isabella chose a recent blockbuster sci-fi movie in the home theater. Benjamin was a little surprised, thinking that the little girl would choose a romance movie.

But on second thought, his Isabella was already different.

When watching a movie. Benjamin held her hand, there were many exciting scenes, but Isabella didn’t have much reaction.

“Not interested? Do you want another one?”

“Need not.”

After Isabella watched the film, the audience went dark, and the atmosphere suddenly became a little delicate.

Benjamin held her hand and asked quietly, “Is the movie good?”

“good.”

“Is the movie good or am I good?”

“...” What kind of teasing question is this??

“you.”

After all, this face has killed too many movies in seconds.

Seeing what Isabella said, the corners of Benjamin’s mouth twitched lightly, aggressively asking, “Did you and Bennett talk alone last night?”

Isabella :???

How did it involve Bennett again??

This morning....

“You went for so long last night, apart from the olive branch offered to you by the Ministry of Security, did you and him talk about anything?”

“What did you say?” Isabella didn’t understand, “What can you say?”

“For example, he confessed to you...”

When Benjamin approached, his handsome facial features and provocative voice had a strong visual impact.

Benjamin, you’re really jealous.” Isabella didn’t know whether it was because she was ignorant, or if there were such men in the world who would be so jealous...

“Can you be more mature?”

“I can’t mature in front of you.” Benjamin’s Adam’s apple twitched, looking at her crimson lips, remembering the sweetness he absorbed last night, he couldn’t help kissing her again.

Isabella could feel his extremely possessive desire, and he held his head. unable to break free.

Benjamin’s hand gently stroked her back, through the fabric, he even unbuttoned the inside.

Isabella pressed his hand and raised her eyes. It seemed that this man was really dissatisfied with the parts above the neck.

“Isabella, sorry...”

Benjamin kissed her over and over, “Want you.”

“...” Calm down, she’s still on her period!

At this moment, her cell phone vibrated, before she reached out to answer it, her hand was held down by Benjamin.

The phone vibrated again and again, constantly breaking the quiet atmosphere...

As if he didn’t stop until she answered.

“I’ll take it.”

Isabella managed to get Benjamin to let go, and when she looked at the screen, it was Bennett calling again!

Now, someone is even more jealous.

Heh, he really calls his fiancée every day!

“It should be something new about the patient last night.” Isabella guessed.

Benjamin obviously didn’t believe it, his eyes were full of jealousy, “Turn on the speakerphone.”

open it!

her and Bennett, apart from the exchange of medical skills, there is no other topic at all!

Isabella, are you busy?” Bennett ‘s voice quickly came from the other end of the phone.

This title made Benjamin ‘s eyes arouse a trace of anger, huh, calling his fiancée so intimate? court death?

“Is something wrong?” Isabella asked quietly.

“That’s right, there’s something I want to tell you in person.” Bennett seemed a little nervous, paused, and asked, “Is it convenient for you now? Let’s make an appointment.”

“You don’t have to go to work today?” When Isabella asked this sentence, she remembered that he was on duty last night and didn’t have to go to work during the day today, but, “What can’t you say on the phone?”

Do you have to meet up??

Now, the corner of Benjamin ‘s mouth curled into a dangerous arc, wanting to confess his love to his fiancée? good! very good!

Chapter 348 Is Your New Identity Again?

"I just want to say it face to face..." Bennett hesitated to speak, "Do you have time?"

"Just talk on the phone if you have anything to say, and I'll listen."

Bennett's eyes darkened a bit, and after a long silence, he slowly said, "I'm going abroad."

Isabella was a little surprised, so suddenly?

"I resigned from the hospital job, and I'm on the plane this afternoon." Bennett said this, with a bitter smile on his lips.

"Where are you going? Why are you leaving in such a hurry?"

As soon as I asked this question, Isabella's hand was clenched by Benjamin, and when she looked up, the man was full of warning and jealousy...

"Going abroad for fun. I wanted to see you for the last time before leaving, but this is also good." Bennett smiled, pretending to be relaxed. "It's nothing. I'm just tired of working overtime. Although this is a good hospital, a week I have to work overtime for six days, I'm still young, I don't want to be bald..."

Isabella seemed to notice that he wasn't telling the truth, and she frowned slightly. "That's not the reason for you to leave."

Working overtime is commonplace for him, and it is too strange that he would not suddenly resign because of this.

Benjamin: You know him well?

“Is something wrong?” Isabella asked softly.

1288ouchers

Bennett didn't expect that the little girl was quite smart, and it was quite difficult to hide it from her.

he met Isabella, he did an internship at Cameron Hospital, but he never worked overtime....

Until Isabella came.

During that time, Elder Mrs. Brown's condition deteriorated, and the little girl went to the hospital every day. but the time was not fixed each time, sometimes in the morning and sometimes in the evening.

In order to spend more time with the little girl, he took the initiative to apply for overtime, and even took special care of Elder Mrs. Brown.

Sometimes after several surgeries a day, he doesn't even have time to eat, and he has to devote a lot of energy to dealing with Elder Mrs. Brown 's sudden illness and researching Elder Mrs. Brown's treatment plan...

But at that time, he didn't feel tired at all. Instead, he was happy because he could cat and talk...with the little girl.

But since when, the little girl has a Benjamin beside her.

After Elder Mrs. Brown left, the little girl stopped coming to the hospital. From the frequent contacts they had in the past, to now they have no intersection...

How many times he used overtime to paralyze himself.

How many times did he pick up the phone, just want to call and hear the little girl 's voice, but he couldn't, he wasn't qualified.

The little girl transformed into Benjamin 's fiancée...

His stay in this hospital seemed to have no other meaning except to add to the sadness.

"You think too much, you just don't want to do it, there is no other reason."

Bennett didn't intend to tell the truth, and Isabella didn't pursue it further, but this temporary decision made Isabella feel sour.

"Then what are your plans for the future?" Isabella asked quietly.

"I'm the only seedling at home." Bennett laughed. "When I've had enough fun, I'll take over the family property and let my parents. relax."

He is the only child of the Tang family, his grandfather is a well- known doctor, his grandmother is a professor of medicine at a famous university, his father runs a top-three pharmaceutical group in the United States, and his mother owns more than 30 private hospitals...

He grew up with a golden spoon in his mouth and worked as a doctor at Cameron Hospital, which is really a talent.

"Maybe we will deal with each other in the business field." Bennett laughed, "Your Isabella Medicine Group is a strong competitor of our Robinson Group."

When Benjamin heard this, his eyes fell on the little girl, who also founded Isabella Medicine ??

Never heard of her before...

What Bennett knew, he didn't know!

Just jealous!!

1288 (ouchers

Sensing Benjamin 's gaze, Isabella lowered her head, her expression a little embarrassed...

I didn't expect to be stripped of my identity again...

"Then you have to study the operation and management of the group carefully later. In the business field, I will not be merciful."

Bennett laughed, and his voice was surprisingly nice, "Well, you also want to be happy, I believe Benjamin will take good care of you, there is nothing else to say, you hang up first."

Although he still wanted to keep chatting with the little girl, he was afraid that the little girl would be annoying.

After hanging up the phone, Isabella took the lead and said. "I didn't know it was you at the beginning, so I robbed your order. Actually, it's not considered robbing..."

Half a year ago, she used tricks to get the pharmaceutical factory that was supposed to cooperate with Mason Group to turn around and cooperate with her....

Benjamin has always hated people who backtracked, so that pharmaceutical factory ended badly...

“How many secrets do you have that I don’t know?” Benjamin is also glad that Isabella Medicine was not cleaned up at the beginning, otherwise he would kneel down on durian now...

“What more secrets can there be?” Isabella put away her phone and said casually. “You listened to the phone call, Bennett really has nothing to do with me when looking for a relationship, so don’t think about it in the future.”

Otherwise, you will always be coaxed, and you will be in trouble.

Benjamin could hear the regret and reluctance in Bennett’s tone, it was obvious that he couldn’t love him.

But Bennett didn’t say it, and Benjamin also gave him a face, at least in this way, he and Isabella are still friends in the future.

Sometimes when you like someone, you don’t have to say it.

“It should be noon now?” Isabella suddenly said to Benjamin, “I’ll go back to school first after dinner.

“Why are you in such a hurry to go back?” Benjamin held her in his arms and asked, “Any other arrangements?”

“Um.”

“What arrangement?”

Isabella wants to make a few more sets of clothes for him, but I can't say it now, and I will give him a surprise then.

Otherwise, if he said it now, he would definitely not want her to be tired and would directly refuse.

"Just... contact your roommates to connect with each other, can't you just hang out all the time?"

"For the sake of my roommate, why leave me alone?" Benjamin kissed her punishingly. "I'll send you back tonight."

Is Your New Identity Again?

Now? no!

"It's too late at night."

Tomorrow she will start a new round of training, and she doesn't have much time to make clothes for him. By the end of the week, this guy will definitely pester her and ask her to accompany her...

"You can only accompany me now, who else do you want to accompany?"

Isabella thought for a while, and said, "The new servant hasn't arrived yet? Why don't I cook you a meal at noon?"

Of course, there are conditions...

I have to send her back to school after eating...

Benjamin was aware of her conspiracy, and was willing to use cooking as a condition in exchange, indicating that there are important people or things in the school waiting for her?

"I'm good at cooking. Think about it carefully. After passing this village, there will be no such shop!" In order to force him to make a quick decision, Isabella simply counted down, "Three, two..."

"OK."

Isabella laughed and knew he would say yes.

Benjamin: After dinner, he wants to see what she is doing in a hurry to go back to school!!

Isabella quickly made three dishes and one soup, and handed him the fork, "Taste."

There are French fries, fried chicken, pizza, chicken soup...

Chapter 349

They are all home-cooked dishes that are very common in ordinary families, but she cooks them well.

Benjamin took a sip, his eyes lit up, he didn't expect the little girl's cooking skills to be so good.

"It's delicious." Benjamin affirmed, "This is your new identity again? Chef?"

"no."

Isabella does not have a well-known title in the culinary industry, but a grandpa who is a state banquet chef taught her what he has learned all his life.

The reason why I taught her is to let her cook more meals for the old man when she is free...

When she was studying back then, she put in a lot of hard work, cutting vegetables and cutting her hands almost broke her hands, just thinking about it made her feel tired...

"I usually eat at my place, I have wronged you."

Isabella :??

"Is the dish made by the chef at home difficult to swallow?"

Isabella suddenly understood, "Why, they are delicious too."

"It's less than a tenth of yours." Benjamin decided to cut their wages back and let them practice more.

Wouchers

At that level, how dare you get a salary of 100,000 USD a month?

Not as good as his baby!

Isabella didn't know what he was thinking, so she brought some food for him, "If it tastes good, eat more. I'll make it for you later when I have time."

When Benjamin heard this, he paused, and his eyes softened unconsciously.

The little girl talked to him about “in the future” again...

He also said that he would cook for him...

“You don’t need to do it.”.

How could he want her to be busy, this time, it was enough for him to remember it in his heart for a lifetime, even the parsley floating in the soup, which he didn’t like, felt extremely delicious at this time.

After dinner, Benjamin ‘s car parked near the school, and just as Isabella was about to get out of the car, he took her into his arms and asked for a kiss....

After finally getting out of the car, she wanted to go back to the dormitory to draw pictures, but she didn’t expect to see a familiar figure surrounded by several girls.

Cecilia, this is our school, is it okay?” I don’t know who invited Cecilia to come to the Medical University to play.

Cecilia looked at the surrounding environment, heh, I didn’t expect

Isabella ‘s school to be so bad!

Cecilia. I found that you look good again, you are really good at taking care of yourself...”

Cecilia smiled and said generously, “Don’t say that, there are many people who are prettier than me in the world, and I think I am just an ordinary person.”

“Cecilia! You say that, do you still let us ordinary people live?” A girl immediately took her hand and said coquettishly, “The daughter of the richest man in the United States also claims to be ordinary. Did you consider us poor people when you said this? The feelings of the people!”

“That’s right! Cecilia, you’re too humble!”

Several girls joined the topic, all kinds of flattery.

“If you were ordinary, would Benjamin get engaged to you? Men are judged by appearance!”

“Your parents are so rich, yet you still say you are ordinary...”

“The point is, you look so good-looking and your skin is so good... Look at me, I stayed up late last night, and this morning I developed a small pimple.”

Cecilia was worried that she would not have the opportunity to show off her skin care products, so when the topic reached this point, she immediately took out a bottle of whitening essence from her bag.

“Here it is.” Cecilia handed it over dignifiedly and said with a smile, “This stuff is very useful, as long as you apply it on the pimples, the pimples will become smaller the next day!”

When the girl saw the brand of the essence, she couldn’t hide the shock in her eyes, “Cecilia, this is something from SV’s. A small bottle costs thousands of dollars. You can give it as you like...”

It’s just so rich!

Cecilia had long expected the reaction of these poor people. She smiled gently and said empathetically, “My parents bought me a lot of essence like this. I still have eight or nine bottles at home... I can’t use them all up. Expired is also a waste.”

Between the lines, there is a rich man’s temperament.

“Your family is too rich!” the girl wailed, envious.

This effect is what Cecilia wanted, and she maintained a decent smile on her face. “You can use it! You’re welcome, if you’re free in the future, you can come to Bomsville University to play, and I’ll treat you to dinner.”

Seeing that she is so generous and knowledgeable, the girls hurriedly said:

Cecilia you are so kind!”

“Thank you Cecilia!”

“Why are you so kind...”

Isabella was too lazy to look at her. At this moment, she just wanted to go back to the dormitory to draw pictures. She took another road, but she was stopped halfway.

Several girls stood aggressively in front of Isabella, and the leader, Lori, clenched his fists and asked through gritted teeth, “Isabella, do you dare to talk to me in the back mountain?”

There are cameras everywhere in the school, and she is not easy to do it.

The girls behind her all suffered losses from Isabella and Kara last time. Now that Isabella was caught alone, they wanted revenge and killed her.

“Listen to your nonsense and run to the back mountain? I have nothing to do?” Isabella raised her eyes and looked at them impatiently, “Good dogs don’t get in the way, get out of the way.”

“What if we don’t let it?” Lori folded her hands on her chest, “If you have the ability, you can crawl under my pants.”

Several girls laughed along with them, deliberately blocking them and not letting them go.

Isabella took out her mobile phone, "Then I'll take a picture and take it to the counselor. I got a major demerit and wrote a self-criticism, but you can't make your memory long. Tell me, what do you want to do when you invite me to Houshan? Tell me what you just said. Say it again."

"You..." Lori gritted her teeth, "Take whatever you want, put your phone away."

Isabella just patted their faces, and commented one by one, "This skin is obviously dehydrated. What's the use of applying more whitening products?"

One of the girls panicked and touched her face subconsciously. How did Isabella know that she usually used whitening products? Don't use moisturizing products??

No wonder her skin is still dry after applying whitening cream and "Your face...have you been constipated for the past two days?" Isabella began to comment on another girl, "Eat less junk food, drink more water...and you, why are you smiling, look at the pimples on your face smallpox..."

Because of Isabella's tall figure, fair skin, and a delicate face that is so beautiful in the sun, several girls couldn't help but want to ask her about skin care, but Lori glared at her, and they could only keep quiet...

"With this time blocking the way, why don't you go back and save your faces, it's just like this in freshman..."

Hearing what Isabella said, a girl really got out of the way and took out a mirror to look at her face.

Lori was almost furious, and before she could say anything, Isabella swaggered away from them...

Isabella, the Jennifer you bullied yesterday is my cousin! Let me tell you, I will settle with you sooner or later! Just wait for me!!!”

Isabella didn't expect that Jennifer and this Lori were sisters...

That virtue is really like...

Chapter 350 Let Me Smell

Early the next morning, all freshmen went to the temporary training base in the back mountain to practice crawling.

Isabella just arrived at the base, and many students took the initiative to say hello to her.

“Good morning, Isabella.”

“Morning”

Isabella, you are here~”

Several question marks appeared in Isabella 's mind, did she know them? ?

“Thank you for giving our class a day off yesterday.”

“If you hadn't brought Abe and the others to get the red flag in advance, we would still be suffering under the scorching sun yesterday.”

“Yesterday we turned on the air conditioner in the dormitory all day, not to mention how comfortable it is”

“Thank you for taking care of that bastard Lori!”

Seven or eight unfamiliar faces surrounded Isabella, chattering non- stop, saying that she has good skin, and complimenting her on her beauty. It’s not too enthusiastic.

Instructor Seb whistled. “Attention!”

The project to be practiced today is crawling forward, because the field is wide, allowing all freshmen to do it together.

“Let me talk about the rules of the game first.” Seb glanced at everyone and said seriously, “After a while, the gunshots rang out, you immediately got down on the ground, crawled forward, and got the red flag at the finish line, there will be six instructors standing Looking for the target in the tower, all you have to do is to cover yourself and don’t make too much noise.”

“The gun is a powder gun. The instructor will shoot as soon as he finds a moving target, and the students who are shot have to go back to training.”

In other words, unless you pass today’s assessment and get the red flag at the finish line, you will have to practice crawling in the grass all day.

“Other school training is to walk the right way, and we spend our lives cleaning it every day.”

“The weather is so hot, and we are required to lie down in the grass half a meter high, it is simply inhuman.....”

Seb glanced at Isabella, as if asking: Do I need to ask for leave??

Isabella looked at him speechlessly, do I need to please??

Well, a strong little girl.

Seb blew his whistle to call the game on, and the entire doctor's class, along with other classes, started plopping around in the grass to move forward.

Let Me Smell

"These grasses are so prickly..."

"Help, it's so hot..."

"A lot of mosquitoes..."

Many people complained incessantly, and many people were shot by powder bullets and were eliminated one after another.

Before Isabella crawled forward a few steps, she felt a lot of people approaching her.

"Isabella covers me!"

"I want to be with you."

"Take me!"

Isabella :...

It was the people who praised her just now.

One of the instructors found that one of the students was fanning the wind with his hand and shot him directly. Isabella was even more speechless...

"Don't make too much noise, like me."

Under the demonstration of Isabella, seven or eight students led by her passed all the way...

on the tower.

There was a dignified figure holding a binoculars, watching the movement in the grass.

“Looking at the densely packed area, how could you see it? What kind of titanium must close your eyes to find it?”

“It’s very hard for girls to train this on a hot day. The people in the camp just don’t know how to be sympathetic.”

Several subordinates stood behind the second young master chattering, and the second young master’s hand holding the telescope tightened suddenly.

He didn’t know which one was the younger sister, but he asked Lao Wu before he came here, and Lao Wu purposely pretended to be the most beautiful one in the whole school, saying that she was her!

Looking at the past, there are only one figure crawling on the ground, and it is impossible to tell which one is which.

“Minister, you are too impatient. Why don’t you go to say hello after she rests?”

“Have a sip of coffee first, maybe your sister was shot by a powder gun and has gone back to retrain...”

“What kind of crow’s mouth are you? What is the minister’s younger sister? Even if you hit everyone, you can’t hit her!”

“Fuck you 2223, you have to be practical when you flatter.”

“Look, there is a girl who got the red flag at the finish line first!”

A thin and beautiful figure got the red flag at the finish line, apparently it was a girl.

“The legs are so long!”

“...” The second young master glanced back at them. Is this what they should say in their identities?

Picking up the binoculars to look again, the girl who got the red flag had already left with seven or eight classmates, and she didn't see her appearance.

It is said that those who get the red flag first can go to the rest area to drink water and rest.

Several classmates surrounded Isabella.

“Isabella, you are amazing!”

“Sure enough, if you follow the full score No. 1, you will be able to overcome obstacles.”

“A few of us really didn't get hit by the powder gun, did we have the luck of No. 1 ?”

“I decided that from now on, I will hug Isabella 's long legs tightly!”

Isabella suddenly found that there was no shadow of Kara around her, and looked back, “Still not following?”

Kara, who thought she was neglected by others, was a little excited at this moment. Little Isabella did not forget her. Even though more people like little Isabella, little Isabella has new friends, but little Isabella still has her place in her heart!

She hurried forward and hugged Isabella 's arm, as if saying: I am the best friend of little Isabella!

other people:...

The rest area is a bit far from the training area, and there are bushes around it. The water cups and backpacks of each class are placed here and left unattended.

Isabella opened the cute pink bunny water glass that her mother bought for her. Just about to take a sip, she suddenly smelled something wrong.

It was also when Kara was about to drink, she seemed to notice something, she glanced at Isabella, and Isabella was also looking at her, both of them found something wrong with the water at the same time!

Who drugged the water?!

And it's a stun drug??

What does the drugged person want to do??

Let them faint in full view? Then what? ?

"I'm thirsty! I'm so thirsty! Luckily, I drank honeysuckle today to reduce the fire..." Poll was about to drink water when Kara suddenly grabbed her wrist, "Wait, let me smell it."

"ah??"

Smell, smell it??

What kind of deceptive behavior is this??

Poll didn't think his honeysuckle water smelled so good...

But Kara wanted it, and Poll obediently handed it over, while feeling a little puzzled.

"Everyone, don't drink."

While Isabella stopped the others, she began to check their water glasses one by one. Except for the water problems of the four in their dormitory, the water of the others was clean.

Only deal with four of them?

Now you don't have to think about who did it!

After a meeting.

Lori walked over here with a few girls, all of them panting from exhaustion.

"I didn't expect Isabella and the others to be so far ahead of us... They wouldn't find the water a problem, would they?"

"I don't know if they drank it or not?"

"Lori, if this is revealed to the public, will people find out that it was done by us..."

Before the last girl finished speaking, Lori glared at her, scaring her to shut up immediately.
