

Chased Her 351

Chapter 351 Vomiting Blood

The medicine was brought from outside by Lori, there will be no problem!

As long as Isabella and the others drink, even if they are beaten up, they won't know who did it when they wake up!

Thinking of this, the corner of Lori's mouth curled into a triumphant smile.

In the rest area, Isabella raised her slender swan neck and drank several sips of water.

Her movements are elegant and pleasing to the eye, like a movie that has been edited frame by frame.

Not to mention the boys, the girls next to Lori were fascinated by it.

I have to admit that Isabella's beauty is very advanced, and her every move is very eye-catching.

"I'm thirsty!" Kara finished drinking the water in the glass, then looked at Isabella, "Isabella, let's go buy some water? It's so hot!"

"Let me go with you. I just ran out of tissues. I remember there is a small supermarket at the foot of the mountain."

"I'm going too, I'm going too~"

Lori saw the four of them get together, this is a great opportunity given by God!

Originally, she thought of a lot of excuses, trying to trick them into a place where no one was around...

This is just great!

Helping her day in and day out!

“Lori, they’re gone, should we follow?”

“They are going to the back mountain, they must pass through that trail, there is no monitoring there!”

“This is a good opportunity.”

Lori smiled smugly. “Come on.”

Along the way, the four of Isabella and the others talked and laughed, until they came to the trail, Isabella stopped suddenly and rubbed her temples with her hands.

“ Isabella, what’s wrong with you?” Kara asked hurriedly. “What’s wrong?”

“Head... a little dizzy.” Isabella seemed unable to stand up, and stretched out her hand to support the tree trunk beside her, “What’s wrong with me, I can’t see clearly?”

“Me too...” Millie supported the tree trunk beside her, and couldn’t help shaking her head, “Why is the scene blurred?”

“What’s going on here?” Before Kara could react, she found Poll fell to the ground,” Poll, what’s wrong with you?”

Poll passed out, and Kara said in her heart: Good guy, the acting is really good, after graduation, are you interested in developing in an entertainment company under Nanshi??

Immediately afterwards, Kara also made a uncomfortable expression, "I'm so dizzy, what's going on, are we suffering from heat stroke?"

"It's finally in my hands!" Lori saw them fainted and collapsed, completely powerless to resist, and walked forward proudly, "How is it, my medicine is not bad, right?"

"Lori, it's you..." Kara pretended to be angry, but was powerless to resist, "What did you do to us!!"

"Heh... Of course I drugged your water..." Lori sneered, "Today we settle old and new grudges together!"

"Lori, why don't I do it now and beat you up first!" The short- haired girl beside her pointed at Kara.

"Don't worry, in a minute, they will obediently close their eyes..."

Wait until they faint before doing anything, otherwise it will be very troublesome if they shout...

Time passed by every minute and every second...

It's a minute!

Lori raised her eyes, before her smug smile could rise, she suddenly found Isabella standing up!

What, what's going on??

Did the medicine wear off so quickly??

“I got it!” Poll, who fainted, took out his phone and looked at it, and said happily, “Oye, it’s perfect!”

Not only Isabella, the other three girls suddenly stood together as if nothing happened, looking at Lori with great interest.

Now it’s Lori’s turn to be confused!

“You, you didn’t drink the water in the kettle...impossible!!”

Lori clearly saw them drink with her own eyes, especially Kara, she drank all the water in the transparent water glass!

Lori, is it the medicine that is not effective enough?”

But... It seems that Isabella and the others saw through the trick first...

“That Poll seems to have taken a video...”

In the video, Lori admits she drugged their water...

“do not care.”

Anyway, there is no monitoring here, Lori gave an order, “Slap them for me, grab the phone and delete it!”

If you make a fuss with the instructor, you can cry at most and refuse to admit it!

Anyway, whoever hits whom, there is no monitoring here! It’s black or white, it all depends on their mouths!

“You can’t do what you can.” Isabella glanced at the little friends around her, motioned them to back off, and then lazily looked at Lori and the others, “Let’s go together.”

She doesn’t want to waste time.

“Ignorance and arrogance!” Lori learned a few useful tricks from her brother in the past two days, and she is about to show off her skills...

But watching the friends around me being beaten up one by one by Isabella...

Her three-legged cat moves are obviously not enough to take at beating...

This is not military boxing!!

Doesn’t look like taekwondo either...

Did Isabella learn Sanda?!

Thinking of this, Lori clenched her fists, neither stepping forward nor retreating...

After being beaten by Isabella, the four friends of Lori hid behind Lori one after another, “Lori, quickly use your unique skills to deal with her! She is too much!”

Lori :...

Isabella raised her eyebrows and looked at Lori casually, with a calm expression, as if waiting for her to make a move.

“How about it...” Lori hesitated and said with a lack of confidence, “You hit the four of us, so let’s forget about it and we won’t pursue -it, but the video you just shot will be deleted.”

Lori’s friend: ???

Is Lori showing weakness??

Kara and the others:?? Are you sick?? Dare to talk about conditions if you can’t beat it??

“Stop talking nonsense, come here.” Isabella obviously had no intention of letting her go, and raised her chin to signal her to come over.

That look is cool and sassy.

Just when everyone thought Lori would rush forward to fight, Lori suddenly bent down and bowed at ninety degrees. “I’m sorry, I was wrong! I want to apologize to you!”

Everyone is dumbfounded, what kind of operation is this...

Lori apologizing to Isabella??

Do you know you can’t beat it, so you admit it??

Lori’s friend: All face lost...

Suddenly, Lori raised her head abruptly, and slashed the clip from her hair to Isabella ‘s face...

Everyone exclaimed, but it was too late!

“Be careful, Isabella!”

I didn't expect that Lori's apology was fake, she was cheating!

Isabella just found out that Lori was hiding the word in the palm of her hand, pretending to apologize, just to cut her face??

With just one kick, Lori flew a few meters away, slammed into a tree trunk, and fell to the ground.... point is, Lori also vomited a mouthful of blood.... priate you okay?”

abilia. you are too much! You kicked Lori until he vomitedd youkintow who Lori is? Ever heard of the Ray Family in sville?! They've been with the Young Family for years!”

me tell you, you not only offended the Ray Family today, butt offended the Young Family!”

I don't becadrraid. I'll help you go to the school infirmary right y. let's see adoctor...”

Chapter 352 The second brother is here

Office of the Head of Department.

Mrs. Ray who rushed over after hearing the news pointed at Isabella angrily, “You, you are so brave...”

Lori was sent to the school infirmary just now, the school doctor said she was fine, not even a minor injury, but Lori said she vomited blood and her stomach hurt badly...

Isabella must have bought the school doctor, and the school doctor didn't tell the truth! You can't let Isabella go, I vomited blood just now, and all my friends saw it!"

Several friends nodded quickly.

"Auntie, Isabella did hit someone.

"Originally we wanted to go down the mountain to buy some drinks, but Isabella and the others deliberately blocked the way and didn't let us go down the mountain."

"Before she did it, I said that Lori is from the Ray Family, but she beat Lori the worst, which shows that she doesn't care about the Ray Family at all!"

Mrs. Ray heard this, and looked at the head of the department furiously, "This is a good student from your school!"

"Mrs. Ray, calm down...let me understand the situation first." The dean of the department was sweating profusely, looked at Kara, and was very frightened, "You must be innocent, there is no business for

"Wait!" Mrs. Ray's sharp eyes fell on Kara, "Why should she go out?"

She heard from her daughter that there were four bullics in total this time!

This Kara is one of them!

The head of the department bent over and whispered, "She's Miss Long Family..."

"Nan's Group?"

Mrs. Ray finally felt a little apprehensive, it was a top consortium!

The power of their family should not be underestimated in the United States, not to mention Bomsville...

It is said that there is a princess in the Long Family, and the whole family holds it in their hands and loves it...

Are you talking about the one in front of you?

Thinking so...

"It turned out to be Ms. Long, I didn't recognize it just now..." Mrs. Ray 's attitude was a little more pleasant, "You go out first, it's none of your business here, and say hello to your parents for me when you have time."

Isabella :...

Millie :...

"As far as I know, Mrs. Ray is not familiar with my parents." Kara said directly.

Mrs. Ray's complexion was a bit ugly, it was indeed Lady, speaking without restraint!

"Say hello? There's no need to do so much."

Hearing what Kara said, Mrs. Ray 's expression was not as kind as before. "Student Nan wants to disregard the friendship between the two families? I heard that in the last training assessment, you did not bully my daughter less, and even She pushed her into the lake to teach her a lesson, I believe Mrs. Nan is a reasonable person, if this matter gets to her, she will definitely not let the younger generation mess around."

"Yeah, my mother has always taught me to be reasonable with people, but if it's a beast... definitely taught me not to show mercy.

“You!” Mrs. Ray grabbed the armrest of the sofa, feeling a little annoyed.

“Two, what we need to deal with is Isabella ‘s bullying...” The head of the department didn’t dare to offend, so he could only attack Isabella and the others, “You still haven’t explained what’s going on!”

At this time, the second young master walked towards the department head’s office with a few subordinates.

“Minister, do we really want to meddle in this business?”

When the minister used the binoculars to look for his younger sister just now, he suddenly found several girls besieging four girls.

The four girls fainted and fell down, and one of them was holding on to the tree trunk, seeming very uncomfortable.

The second young master took a closer look, the one holding the tree trunk was not the doctor who saved 7731 in the hospital last night?

That figure, that face, are exactly the same!

She seemed to be plotted by someone, she was drugged, and the three girls who were with her also staggered.

Worried that they were in danger, the second young master put down the binoculars and wanted to take a look, but when he got there, he realized that they were one step too late. There was only a pool of blood in the grass, and no one was there...

After questioning. I found out that a girl had been beaten and vomited blood, and had been sent to the school infirmary for treatment...

He rushed to the school doctor's office again, and the school doctor said that the girl had gone to the department head's office...

So, they rushed to the dean's office now.

On the way, he was thinking, could the girl who was beaten and vomited blood be the doctor who saved 7731 last night?

If so, he must help.

"Minister, we are members of the Ministry of Security, and we cannot disclose our identities to the outside world..."

"If something really happened to that little girl, what capacity do you plan to use to speak for her?"

"The principal is not here today, no one in the school knows us, so they probably won't give us face..."

"The identity of the witness is enough."

As soon as the second young master came to the door of the department head's office, he heard a girl's voice coming from inside.

"Director, Lori drugged our water, she admitted it herself!"

The dean glared at Poll, "Do you have proof?"

"Yes!" Poll took the mobile phone video to the head of the department.

After watching the video, the dean's face darkened a little, and he put Poll's mobile phone in his pocket, and said, "Anyway, you beat him up and vomited blood, and Mrs. Ray doesn't want you to pay, as long as you apologize..."

“Dean!” Poll felt aggrieved, “If we hadn’t noticed that there was something wrong with the water in the kettle, once we drank it, we wouldn’t know what would happen afterwards! This is obviously because Lori wanted to hit us while we were unconscious. pausc...”

“Don’t think of everyone so badly...”

Poll opened his mouth, and suddenly realized that what he said was useless, the head of the department was obviously partial to Lori!

“She was the one who drugged our water first, and she apologized

The head of the department frowned, looking at this girl who exudes aloofness and arrogance all over her body, she was very unhappy.

“If you hadn’t kicked people until they vomited blood, Mrs. Ray would have found this place? How dare you ask for an apology! You don’t apologize? It’s fine, everyone will make a big mistake! Write a 10,000-word self-criticism! Compensation for medical expenses! Call your parents to apologize!”

“Director, how could you do this?” Millie felt so wronged.

“We are not satisfied with the result of the dean’s handling, please return the phone to me.” Poll stretched out his hands, wanting the dean to hand over the phone.

“Why, you still want to take the video and sue me to the superiors? At such a young age, the city is very deep!”

Poll :...

That’s her cell phone!!

What's wrong with her coming back?!

"If you don't follow my instructions on today's matter, then you will never even think about staying in this school!!" The head of the department turned his head coldly.

Mrs. Ray is still whispering to comfort her daughter...

"Teacher, is this how you handle things?" A cold voice came from the door.

Chapter 353 The Family Gathered Together

He is tall and straight, with handsome facial features, the girls in the office are stunned, so handsome!!

Since when has there been such a character in the school??

looks so young...

It was Isabella who recognized him first: the one who wanted to invite her to join the security department last night?

What a coincidence.

It took Lori a long time to call out a name, "Second Brother...is that you?"

the second young master a few times at the top-level gatherings before, and she was so fascinated by him at the time...

In terms of age, she had to call her brother.

Mrs. Ray also recognized him, and asked softly, "Is it the second young master? Why are you here?"

Looking behind him, there are several handsome young men, all of whom are upright.

Heard about Logan The second young master works in a high-level national department. No one knows exactly what position and level.

But I heard that even the leaders have to listen to him, his rank is very high...

Logan didn't know the mother and daughter in front of him, but Mrs. Ray said kindly, "In recent years, our two families have been walking more and more frequently..."

The second young master disregarded the relationship, "I have rarely been at home these years, and I don't know much about the family affairs. I came here today because of Jennifer's beating."

As soon as this remark came out, Lori 's friends were even more proud, and another person came to help them!

Let's see how Isabella died!

learned that Logan The second young master wants to stand up for his daughter, Mrs. Ray is very happy, is it Logan The second young master has taken a fancy to her baby girl?

Very good!

Logan Family is the richest man in America!!

A single flower in the garden costs hundreds of thousands...

Seeing that Mrs. Ray was so happy, the head of the department naturally knew that this man was not simple. Judging from his tone. was he trying to show off to Lori?

Isabella smartly, "Aren't you apologizing?"

Isabella raised the corners of her lips sarcastically, "You asked the wrong person, they should apologize."

"Okay! Untamed! Okay!" The head of the department asked the others to wait for a while, went to the counselor's office next door to ask them for student information, and called the parents of Isabella, Poll, and Millic respectively.

After the phone call, he came back with his hands behind his back. his tone quite smug.

"Mrs. Ray, their parents are already on their way, let them give it to you in person, and Jennifer apologizes."

Mrs. Ray raised his face and asked the second young master to sit down again, wanting to catch up on the past.

The second young master was standing all the time, quite dissatisfied with the department head's handling attitude.

"Head of Department, Mrs. Ray, as far as I know, it was Jennifer who made the first move."

If she hadn't poured medicine into his kettle first, and led the way to outflank him, he wouldn't have resisted...

Mrs. Ray's face was a bit surprised, Logan second young master is here to speak for Isabella?

The two of them know each other??

At this time, Lori was shocked, and a name suddenly flashed in her mind: Isabella!

Isabella's surname is Logan second young master. Could it be that they belong to the same family??

What kind of cousin, even...cousin??

She grabbed her mother's hand subconsciously, but Mrs. Ray didn't understand where her fear and anxiety came from. Out of instinct, Mrs. Ray subconsciously asked, "What does second young master mean?"

"Drugging a classmate's water, such a bad thing, Mrs. Ray thinks Jennifer shouldn't take the initiative to apologize?"

Listen to the tone of this maintenance!!

Lori was even more disturbed, did they really know each other!!

But on Isabella's face, it can't be seen that she knows the second young master brother...

At this time, a slender figure stepped into the office.

"Is it still lively here?"

Everyone followed the reputation, it was Benjamin!!

Poll and Millic are relieved to know that Benjamin is Isabella's fiancé!

Needless to say, Benjamin is definitely here to stand up for Isabella!

But Mrs. Ray didn't know, and thought it had alarmed Benjamin. The Xia family had always been good friends, and her father-in-law had saved Benjamin's father's life many years ago.

Therefore, it is normal for Benjamin to come forward to deal with Lori when he heard that Lori was beaten!

Thinking of this, Mrs. Ray got up immediately, and said in a friendly tone that she had never had before, " Benjamin? Why are you here?"

"I heard that someone bullied me."

As soon as these words came out, everyone was shocked!!!

Mrs. Ray was both surprised and delighted: what he said, it seemed that Benjamin had taken a fancy to her precious girl and was speaking for her precious girl.

Lori also felt that Isabella definitely didn't know a big shot like Benjamin!!

So a shyness appeared on her face, she lowered her head, as if to say: I hate it, don't be so high- profile!!

The head of the department didn't expect Benjamin to come because of this matter, so he hurried forward and bent down at 90 degrees, " Mr. Mason, I'm really sorry for disturbing you with this little incident...it's her, everything started because of her! Jennifer would vomit blood if she kicked Jennifer... I've already..."

"Did your foot hurt?" The next second, Benjamin pulled Isabella into his arms and asked, "Did you twist your foot when you kicked such a fat person? Next time, let someone else do this, so don't hurt yourself."

Everyone is stunned, Fuck!!

Did Benjamin pull the wrong guy?

Listen to this pampering tone...

The head of the department was also stunned, and it took him a long time to stammer and say, "Mr. Mason, Jennifer is here..."

At this moment, Lori almost stuffed two eggs in her mouth!!

That look seemed to say: Did you hug the wrong person? I am here!!

"My fiancée, will I admit my mistake?" Benjamin raised his eyes and put pressure on the head of the department, "Principal Brown promised me before that he would take good care of my fiancée, is that how he takes care of him?"

fiancée!!

Isabella is Benjamin 's fiancée!!

Everyone in the dean's office, except for Millic and the others, was shocked!!!

Isn't Cecilia, Benjamin 's fiancée!!

How did he become such a little-known little character as Isabella ?!

The second young master beside him was burning with anger, what is this Benjamin talking about?

It is well known that the Young Family has an engagement with the Logan Family, and he and Cecilia will definitely get married in the future!!

Isabella was his fiancée in front of so many people, so what about Cecilia ?

Where does he put Cecilia ?!

Does he know that Cecilia is a fake lady, so he doesn't plan to marry??

So what's Cecilia 's reaction??

Do you agree??

The subordinates of the second young master were stunned: Fuck, I ate a big melon out of nowhere, the minister is still here, and the future son-in-law actually wears a cuckold for the minister's sister??

At this time, a hurried voice reached everyone's cars.

"Who bullics people??"

Everyone followed the prestige again, and it was Eloise who came, the wife of the richest man in the United States!!

She was followed by her husband Williams!!

The two of them obviously walked quickly all the way, and they were still a little out of breath!!

Seeing that Eloise had come, Mrs. Ray didn't know what was going on, and subconsciously asked. " Mrs. Logan, why are you here too?"

"I heard that my daughter was being bullied, who is it?" Eloise scanned around again, and suddenly found her son was there, "Why are you here??"

Chapter 354 Listening to Second Brother

Only then did Benjamin notice the second young master on the side. There were too many people when they entered the door just now, so they didn't look carefully at each one.

He is not familiar with the second young master. He has met him several times since he was a child. The most recent time was two years ago, at Logan Five's birthday party...

I heard that he held a high position in the security department and rarely had time to go home, so he appeared here for... Isabella?

The second young master looked into Benjamin's eyes, obviously displeased, but at this moment, he still answered the parents' question first.

"Come here to be a witness, why are you here?"

During this period of time, they have been calling him to go home to meet his sister. Could it be that they have chased him here because of this matter?

When the second young master called Williams and Eloise's parents, Isabella raised her eyebrows. It turns out that the Minister of Security is her second brother?

This officer is quite big.

It turned out that the two brothers and sisters met yesterday.

"Why are you here? Did you hear that your sister was being bullied? So come here to help her out?" Eloise asked the second child, then suddenly remembered something, looked at Isabella, "Isabella, are you not hurt?"

This is the most important!

Now, everyone in the office was shocked!

Isabella is... Williams and Eloise 's daughter?!

When was it born??

They didn't hear any news!!

The second young master looked at Isabella not far away: Is this little girl his sister? dear??

Just now he thought that even if Benjamin didn't choose Cecilia, at least he had to choose his own sister Isabella. He never expected that this little girl is Isabella!

It turned out that they had met yesterday.

He also invited his sister to join the security department...

Mrs. Ray and Lori were so scared that they couldn't even stand still.

A few of Lori's friends also broke out in a cold sweat, they never expected Isabella to be so big!

Mrs. Ray didn't fully react, she twitched the corners of her mouth, held the last sliver of hope, and asked with a stiff smile, " Mrs. Logan, what did you just say, this female classmate is..."

"My daughter Isabella!"

Logan...

Surname Logan.

Mrs. Ray almost fainted. On the phone just now, Lori didn't say that the person who bullied her was Williams and Eloise 's daughter Isabella...

It's over.

This is the end.

Not only the second young master, Williams and his wife, even Benjamin, came to stand up for Isabella!

Her stupid daughter is destroying the future of the Ray Family today!

Ray Family is going to end!

Thinking of this, Mrs. Ray raised his hand and slapped his daughter hard.

A crisp sound resounded throughout the office, and everyone looked at Lori...

Lori couldn't believe it herself, looking at her mother.

Her mother has always doted on her, from childhood to adulthood, she was even reluctant to scold her...

"You idiot! Yes! Isabella is good-looking. Even if you want to take a close-up photo of her and show it to the plastic surgeon, and want to look more beautiful according to Isabella 's appearance, you can't put medicine in Isabella 's water glass Ah! Look at this... a big misunderstanding!"

Lori's eyes widened: plastic surgery? Make it look like Isabella?

This kind of lie can be told...

Fortunately, it's her mother...

"Isabella kicked you and vomited blood, that's because she gave you face, it's not bad if you didn't take your life!"

After Mrs. Ray reprimanded her, she stopped her anger and looked at Eloise with a smile, " Mrs. Logan, I'm really sorry, all this is my daughter's fault...I'm here to apologize."

Mrs. Ray bent over at ninety degrees with a very sincere attitude.

"I didn't teach my children well, and I am also responsible for all of this. Please also have a lot of love with Mr. Logan, and give us another chance."

"Is this how the Ray Family handles things?"

Before Eloise could answer, Benjamin 's eyes turned a bit cold, "Bullying my fiancée, one slap, two sentences and want to turn the page? Is there such a good thing in the world?"

Mrs. Ray always kept a 90-degree bent posture. Hearing Benjamin 's words, she understood what he meant, and immediately turned her head and scolded her daughter. "Why are you still standing there, why don't you roll over and apologize to Ms. Young!"

Lori naturally knows the consequences of offending the Young Family and Logan Family today, maybe the huge family will be dragged down by her alone...

Isabella in shame, humiliation and torment, imitating her mother's manner and bending over at ninety degrees, speaking tremblingly.

"I'm sorry Isabella, I have a grudge because of the military boxing, and I did something bad, please forgive me!"

Isabella looked at her frightened look, and said lightly, "If I drank the water in that water glass today, you won't even have a chance to apologize now."

Lori lowered her head, "I'm sorry, I'm really sorry... please give me another chance!"

"There are only one or two opportunities, and sometimes they are gone."

She is not the Virgin.

If today's medicine was more powerful, colorless and tasteless, after she drank it, she would become a fish on the chopping board.

"I'm sorry, it's really Lori's fault. I apologize to you on her behalf!" Mrs. Ray kept bending at a 90-degree angle. After apologizing, she, turned back to Benjamin, still bowing. "I'm sorry Mr. Mason, I'm the one who can't teach girls."

Then, she apologized to Williams, Eloise, second young master one by one, and did not forget to say sorry to Poll and Millie...

Seeing her mother, who is usually high and high, now humbled to this point, Lori felt extremely uncomfortable...

All this is brought by her...

Suddenly, she thought of her cousin Jennifer!

Jennifer said she was bullied by Isabella, and she was crying...

Then in the end, does Jennifer know that Isabella is Miss Logan Family and if she knows, she deliberately asked her to confront her...

Listening to Second Brother

Seeing that neither the Logan Family nor the Young Family spoke. Mrs. Ray obviously didn't intend to start the story...

She didn't dare to lift her waist, and her back was covered with cold sweat," Jennifer is spoiled by our parents, I decided to take her home to educate her well, and today, I will handle the withdrawal procedures for her!"

The deans of the department on the side were stunned, quit, drop out??

It's only been a few days...

Although Lori was reluctant to leave the medical university, her mother showed her attitude. She could only continue to bow her head, cry silently, and resign herself to fate.

"It's time to discipline her properly." Benjamin said coldly, "Mrs. Ray is at this age, if it's later, I won't be able to control her anymore."

"Yes." Mrs. Ray responded humbly, "Mr. Mason is absolutely right."

"It's just that at Jennifer 's age. I'm afraid it will be difficult to teach it well in a day or two. I think Mrs. Ray 's suggestion of dropping -out of school is good. I can take it home and teach it slowly for a little longer..." The second young master said this, Looking at Isabella, "What does my sister think?"

This is the first time the second brother called her sister!

Inexplicably, there is a sense of intimacy and pampering

Isabella said very face-savingsly. "I listen to my second brother

When the second young master heard this, his brows brightened His sister is too obedient, too sensible, too cute, right"

Men: Wake up. she kicked people and vomited blood...

Chapter 355 Protected by Two Men

Someone on the side: Why don't you just listen to your fiancé? Want to listen to my second brother? Just a little vinegar!

"Since Mrs. Ray wants to take the child home and educate him slowly, we can't stop it." Eloise said suddenly, "Oh, by the way, you just said that my Isabella kicked your child until he vomited blood?"

"It's nothing." Mrs. Ray smiled meekly, without any temper at all. "It may be my child's peptic ulcer, or vomiting blood caused by acute gastritis. I'll ask the doctor to check it later."

"It turns out that I'm sick..." Eloise nodded thoughtfully, "Okay, then you have to ask the doctor to check it out."

Everyone:...

A lot of pressurizing eyes fell on the dean of the department. The dean was stunned for two seconds, and immediately filled with righteous indignation, "I have seen the video. This matter is of a bad nature, and we must be expelled from school!"

Poll :...

Millic :...

Kara :...

Why didn't you say it just now??

"As the head of the department, I will personally handle the withdrawal procedures for student Xia! I will never show favoritism!" The head of the department hurriedly ran out, fearing that if he was a second late, he would also suffer disaster...

Eloise took Isabella 's hand and asked with concern, " Isabella, is there any injury? Are you tired from training recently?"

"Not tired, not hurt..."

Both Millic and Poll sighed in their hearts: Such a gentle mother, living in such a family, Isabella must be very happy, right?

Suddenly, Millie suddenly remembered something, as if struck by lightning!

No wonder on the first day of school, she always felt that Williams and Eloise looked familiar...

It turns out that Williams is the richest man in the United States!

Isabella, is the Logan of the richest man Williams!

Not coincidentally having the same surname, but, Isabella, really is Williams and Eloise 's biological blood!

At this time, Instructor Seb finished his affairs at the base, heard what had happened, and rushed to the department head's office as fast as a bolt of lightning.

As soon as he entered the door, he grabbed Isabella's arm and asked anxiously, "Are you okay? Tell me where you hurt? Hand or foot? Is there any injury on your body? Tell me quickly!!"

If so, his life would be over!!

"My fiancée's hand, you can grab it if you want?"

"Let go of my sister, you hurt her!"

The two men spoke in unison, Seb let go of his hands in fright, and took a closer look, one was the richest man in the world, Benjamin, and the other was the Minister of Security...

What did they just say??

Isabella is Benjamin's fiancée and Minister Logan's sister...

The huge amount of information left Seb in a daze, unable to react.

Benjamin looked at the male instructor in military uniform in front of him, who was about the same age as him, did he want to chase his fiancée because of his youth?

Something happened to his fiancée, this instructor is worried??

Thinking of this, Benjamin asked in a cold voice, "Which class is in which row?"

The second young master also took a step forward, aggressively, "Which battalion and which company?"

Benjamin + second young master. "What's your name!!"

Seb had never seen such a scene before, and he was completely shocked when he heard the two men questioning in unison again!

How strong is Isabella's network, and I haven't come to save him, the poor instructor, at this time!

Woohoo, he doesn't want to be an instructor anymore, it's too scary!

He looked at Isabella, wanting Isabella to save him, Benjamin immediately said, "My fiancée is pretty?"

Dare to see?

"You can see my sister too?"

Seb Help!! Who will save him!!

He finally understood why Mr. Sam asked him to take care of Isabella himself, and he emphasized that he should take good care of her!

Young Family and Logan Family, he can't afford to offend either!

Just as Isabella was about to speak, one of the second young master's subordinates recognized Seb and helped him speak, "Minister, he's my friend...he...he...he's gay! I've got a date! There's no way I'm going to have sex with Miss. What an unreasonable thought!"

Seb:??? I really appreciate you! This helps me out...

The second young master obviously didn't believe it, and looked at Seb a little colder, and pulled his sister's arm even if he had a crush?

His own brother didn't even pull his sister's arm!

Why is this instructor?

"Minister, Miss is a student under his command. If something goes wrong, he has to take responsibility. That's why he grabbed Miss's arm in a hurry..."

When the subordinate said this, he looked at Seb again : You are talking! Brothers can't always tell you the truth!

Seb took over the conversation, "Yes, I was just too anxious and didn't grasp the proper proportions..."

While they were talking here, Mrs. Ray and Lori kept bowing.

Lori 's friends are all anxious like ants on a hot pot. If they knew it. they wouldn't mix with Lori. They thought that the Ray Family has a big business, and they have a relationship with the Young Family. At least they can walk sideways in Bomsville...

I didn't expect this relationship to be thinner than paper!

Just now Lori apologized from the bottom of her heart, but Isabella didn't forgive her, and said that the chance was only once or twice, and if it's gone, it's gone...

What should they do?

If Isabella doesn't forgive them... ask them to drop out of school...

No...

They are reluctant to go to the medical university, and they don't want their parents to be implicated by them. People as humble as Mrs. Ray apologize one by one...

At this time, someone came again.

Mrs. Ray with fresh and hot procedures, and he was a bit more confident. As long as Mrs. Ray took Lori away quickly, the matter would be overturned. His department The director will not be implicated either.

Mrs. Ray took over the withdrawal procedures with both hands, and asked in a humble posture," Mr. Logan, Mrs. Logan, the procedures are all over, can I take Lori back and educate her well?"

Eloise seemed to have noticed her existence just now, and glanced at her waist, "Why do you keep bending over? You are already this age, it would be bad if you accidentally flashed..."

Mrs. Ray knew that Eloise was deliberately drying her out and making her bend over, but she didn't dare to say anything at this moment.

"What my daughter has done is so absurd, it's like a heavy burden is on my back...I don't even have the face to look up."

"Okay, since my daughter won't pursue it anymore, you can go back first."

With Eloise's words, Mrs. Ray bent over and apologized to Isabella again, then straightened up and took Lori away.

Lori's friends stepped forward one by one at this time, desperately apologizing to Isabella.

Lori was the one who drugged them. Isabella didn't make it difficult for them, but Kara uttered harsh words, warning them that if they dare to make trouble in the future, they will end up worse than Lori!

The few girls had never seen such a scene before, and they nodded repeatedly, all kinds of grateful.

Kara asked them to keep their mouths shut and not to reveal what happened today, and the girls hurriedly agreed...

Please, they won't reveal such an embarrassing thing...

Chapter 356

Kara just let them go...

Because Isabella's identity hasn't been made public yet, spreading it out now will cause a lot of unnecessary trouble. She and Isabella still have a lot to do, so it's not appropriate to reveal their identity too soon...

Of course, that's what Isabella meant too.

The head of the department thought of something, hurriedly took out a mobile phone from his pocket, returned it to Poll with both hands, and said with a smile, "I forgot to return it to you just now, so I put it in my pocket..."

Poll twitched the corner of his mouth: I believe you are a ghost!!

“Isabella, you go out first, I’ll chat with the department head.” Eloise set her eyes on the department head.

The head of the department wanted to cry, but he had to make coffee for her and Williams himself, and invite them to sit down...

Outside.

The second young master looked at the younger sister with exquisite facial features and outstanding temperament, and said solemnly, “Hi, let me introduce myself formally. I am your second brother, second young master. I am very glad that you are back here.”

Poll and Millic next to him listened: What does it mean to be happy to come back to this home? Isabella just came back to the Logan Family?

No wonder the outside world is rumored that the Logan Family has only one daughter, Cecilia...

Could it be that Isabella has just been found?

Thinking of this, they felt sorry for Isabella, who had just returned to this home. She had suffered so much before...

When Isabella heard the name second young master, several question marks popped up in her mind.

Serious about the name? Why does it sound so casual...

The second young master seemed to have noticed something, and explained with a light smile, “After my parents gave birth to their first child, they always hoped to have a daughter for the second child, but when they saw me, they didn't even have the mood to name me, so they just called me second young master."

Others: A little pitiful, and a little want to laugh, what's going on...

It can be seen that although the second brother has status in the family, but not much...

Isabella couldn't help laughing, thinking: Could it be that her Terry is called Logan Three and her fourth brother is Logan Four?

Thinking of Bradley, the corners of Isabella's lips rose," Bradley is lucky, at least he has a full name."

"His original name was Ozzie, but he changed it to a fashionable name because of his debut."

Isabella, you have suffered all these years. From now on, your parents and every brother in the family will treat you even better."

When the second young master said this, he took out a card from his pocket, and said guiltily. "The second brother has been on a mission for a while, so he couldn't go home immediately. I'm sorry, it's not that the second brother deliberately snubbed you.....

Rather, the mission he was carrying out was the highest level of secrecy in the country, and he could not tell anyone about it, nor could he reveal his identity.

Williams and Eloise still don't know what missions he has performed, how many injuries he has suffered, and how much hardship he has suffered.

The degree of danger is beyond anyone's imagination.

"Second brother just returned to the United States last night, and he hasn't had time to buy gifts yet. This is the second brother's secondary card. Just swipe whatever you like."

Isabella: Give her a card again??

The way her family treats her well is to send cards, pay money, and buy, buy, buy!

“Thank you, I’ve accepted the offer, and I don’t need the card.” Isabella didn’t answer.

How dangerous the second brother’s job is and how cautious it needs to be, she knows very well that the money in it is probably the second brother’s life in exchange for it.

You must accept it. If you don’t accept it, you don’t want me to be your second brother.” The second young master especially hoped that she would accept it, but Isabella didn’t take any action, and the second young master couldn’t help but said, “Still seeing my second brother?”

Isabella still declined.

“It’s the second brother who doesn’t have time to choose gifts for you. It’s all the second brother’s fault. Does it make you feel that you are not sincere enough if you only send cards?”

Before Isabella could reply, the second young master said again, “Hold it first, the second brother promises to pick out gifts for you in person, there will be more, not less!”

Isabella was dumbfounded by what he said, but she didn’t expect her second brother to be quite cute.

The second young master grabbed her arm and forced her to accept it. Suddenly, he realized that he was also grabbing his sister’s hand!!

The card was forced into Isabella’s hand...

Millic and Poll on the side: It’s money without humanity!!

Isabella was a little helpless, she didn't touch the cards given to her by her elder brother and Bradley, and now there is another brother's...

"This is my good little sister." The second young master 's eyes glowed softly.

The subordinates next to him were stunned. They had never seen gentle and pampering side of the minister. He was so handsome and charming!

They are going to bend!

"Second brother, can you add your WhatsApp ?" The second young master said this, and then explained softly. "Before I asked my elder brother to push your WhatsApp to me, but my elder brother asked me to ask for it myself. After the pen, there is no future."

Everyone: Poor second brother... was blackmailed by his younger brother in order to see his younger sister.

"How much did Bradley knock you?"

"Not much. If he really wants to give it, I'm willing to add an extra zero."

Everyone: My wife is too rich! Adding an extra zero is to ask for my sister's contact information! Do you still have a sister? Are they okay?

"Scan me." Isabella took out her phone and presented the QR code in front of him.

The second young master's heart warmed, his sister is so obedient and considerate! So sensible and considerate!

He hurriedly scanned WhatsApp, added it, and changed the note: Good girl.

If anyone has read his address book, he will know that the WhatsApp names of all contacts are the original names, and he doesn't bother to change them.

Isabella was the first person to change his notes!

Isabella entered a series of mobile phone numbers in the WhatsApp chat box and sent them, "This is my mobile phone number."

"That's good." The second young master looked at the obedient girl in front of him, and finally couldn't help but pat her head.

My sister's hair is so soft, she looks so cute and obedient, how did she make herself so cute and attractive??

Last time, the fifth child was still showing off in WhatsApp, saying that he patted his sister's head every day, and the sister even said that her favorite person is Bradley!

The second young master at that time was very envious, but because of the mission, he couldn't go back... I still feel regretful when I think about it.

Now he also touched his sister's head, this feeling is really good!

The second young master sent his mobile phone number, "This is the mobile phone number of the second brother, you save it, and the second brother will call you often when he is free."

Benjamin: Often??

“If the second brother doesn’t answer your call or reply to your message one day, he must be on a mission. When he looks back, he will definitely reply.”

The reason why I said it in advance is because I am afraid that my sister will misunderstand in the future...

Millie and Poll didn’t understand what kind of mission the second young master was talking about. They felt powerful and mysterious.

Isabella nodded, “Be careful in everything.”

The security department is a place where danger and pressure meet at the same time

It was really not easy for her second brother to become a minister

“I’ve been here for four days this time and I hope I can do it with you.”

Chapter 357

After the second young master finished speaking, he swore secretly in his heart that he must buy a gift for his younger sister in a while, so as to make a good impression in front of her.

Benjamin: Four days!! What should he do?!

At this time, the second young master’s eyes fell on Benjamin, with a bit of probing.

“Isabella, you chat with your classmates first, and the second brother chats with Benjamin.”

Isabella naturally knew what the second brother was going to say, so she nodded and patted the second brother, “Talk well.”

The three words "Talk well" surprised the second young master. How does it sound like the younger sister meant to make him speak better? Be nicer to Benjamin?

Is my sister defending that man?

Is it his illusion???

After Isabella walked away, Benjamin took two steps forward, extended his hand and shook hands with the second young master, and said gently. "Second brother, long time no see."

Unexpectedly, when they met again, the second brother became the second brother-in-law.

He had been calling "Second Brother" after Bradley before...

"The relationship between you and Isabella, do you go out with Isabella's consent, or use the marriage contract to force her?"

As soon as the second young master came up, he asked such a question as an older brother.

Benjamin replied truthfully, "I fell in love at first sight first."

There was no persecution and no formal pursuit of...

Speaking of which, he owes Isabella a serious pursuit...

He briefly described the story of Isabella saving Pius. The second young master did not expect his sister's medical skills to be so superb. Not only did he save the Elder Mr. Mason, but even Mrs. Mason became a vegetable... She can save it!

Previously, he only knew that his younger sister was found at home. but as for what powerful skills her younger sister had, he had no idea at all.

Looking at it now, how much suffering and experience my sister has gone through to have such superb medical skills... His eyes dimmed immediately.

“The marriage between you and Isabella has not yet been written off. It is not appropriate to be too intimate in front of outsiders.”

Benjamin naturally knows what the second brother means. In case he can't get together with Isabella in the future, the current over- intimacy will affect Isabella 's reputation and life in the future...

Benjamin made a guarantee, “Second brother, don't worry, in this life, I will not marry Isabella.”

This guy is quite determined?

Dividing into page now

The second young master looked at him. After all, his status was right here, and there were too many people and things to choose from. Could he guarantee for the rest of his life that he would not marry a non-sister?

It's not that the second young master has no confidence in his sister, nor does it feel that her sister is not good enough for Benjamin, but that she is afraid that her sister is too involved in this relationship, what if something happens?

Benjamin always thinks about his sister, instead of overdoing it because of a momentary liking.

“Isabella can touch my emotions, she is very important to me.”

“Sometimes I wish she would grow up and graduate soon so I could give her a big wedding and let everyone know that she is my Benjamin’s wife.”

“I want everyone to witness our happiness, and I want to use the marriage certificate to keep her by my side.”

“Second brother may not believe it, but I’m so afraid of losing her.”

The last sentence made the eyes of the second young master slightly surprised, and Benjamin would also be afraid?

In this world, is there anything he would be afraid of?

“There are many women in this world, and there will be more young and beautiful women in the future.”

“But she is the only one who can make me go crazy and bewitched.” Benjamin said every word from the bottom of his heart, very sincerely, “She is really important to me.”

“Is it important enough for you to give up your status?” The second young master looked into his eyes, as if waiting for an answer.

Benjamin smiled, “If I could replace her with all my status, I would have earned it.”

The second young master was surprised again, but after all, it was his word of mouth, and the second young master didn’t fully believe it.

“If I have to let go of my status to be with her, then I will abandon everything I have without hesitation.”

Even if you can only be an ordinary person in this life, as long as you have Isabella, you will be the happiest person in the world.

To get her, to him, he has already got the whole world.

enough.

“It’s easy to say, but it’s so difficult when you really want to give up.”

Benjamin understood the meaning of second young master.

“Second brother. I promised my elder brother before, and now I want to say the same thing to my second brother again.”

“If one day, you feel that Isabella has been wronged by me, or that I have betrayed Isabella.”

“Then my life, you can come and take it at any time, I won’t have the slightest struggle.”

The second young master seemed to know him only today, looked into his eyes, and seemed to understand why Isabella liked him, and spoke for him. He is so masculine, and a responsible person would say it.

“Okay, then I will remember your words. If one day you bully my sister or cheat on me, I will be the first to take your life!”

“Okay.” Benjamin agreed seriously and solemnly.

“Since you chose Isabella, stay away from Cecilia as much as possible.”

The second young master knows that Cecilia likes Benjamin very much and wants to be his wife even in her dreams.

“Second brother, don’t worry, I haven’t had any inappropriate thoughts about Cecilia since I was a child. I don’t like her.”

“The only one I love is Isabella.”

“It is now, and it will be in the future.”

“I won’t change my mind.”

“Second brother, please believe me, don’t worry.”

Next to it, the subordinates of the second young master surrounded Isabella, chatting non-stop.

“You look so obedient and cute!”

“Genes are powerful...”

“You don’t know how much our minister wants to fly back to the United States to meet you.”

“This task was not finished until the end of the month, but he completed it ahead of schedule! You don’t know how long the process is...”

They didn’t say the word “dangerous”, but Isabella guessed it, and her heart was suddenly involved.

“As soon as the mission was over, the minister flew back to the United States without taking a breath! We were so tired that we could sleep standing up last night!”

“The minister is very envious of your brothers, they can see you earlier... You may not believe it, but the minister feels extremely guilty and blamed himself for not being able to buy you a gift in person.”

“I want to say that the minister really attaches great importance to you. Whenever he is free, he will ask other brothers to ask you how you are doing, but... other brothers show off in front of him every time, saying how his sister is getting close to them again, which makes the minister feel uncomfortable again. Envious and helpless.”

Hearing this, Isabella’s eyes fell on the figure who was talking to Benjamin, and her heart warmed even more.

It turns out that there is an older brother who cares about and loves... such a happy thing.

“By the way, the minister didn’t know you were his sister last night. If he knew, he definitely wouldn’t invite you to join...” Before the man finished speaking, he seemed to be thinking of something, and immediately fell silent.

Kara on the side was a little curious, “Join what?”

The three words of the Ministry of Security cannot be revealed, but Kara was still very surprised, “You guys met last night? It’s not Ann that the second young master invited you to join...”

Chapter 358 Show off

Before she finished speaking, several subordinates hurriedly boocd. signaling her not to speak out...

Millie and Poll on the side didn’t understand, “Ann” what? What’s the meaning?? What are they talking about??

At this time, the second young master finished talking with Benjamin and came towards this side.

The sun shines on them, with their height and long legs, each is handsome in his own way.

Both Millie and Poll were stunned. How many people’ would have to be beaten by these two faces in the entertainment industry...

"It's been a long time." Benjamin patted Isabella's head, not to be too fond of her.

The second young master at the side...here again! Didn't you say restrain yourself in front of outsiders?
Tired and crooked again...

Isabella glanced at the second young master, and asked softly, "Is the talk over?"

"Yeah." Receiving the younger sister's gaze, the second young master immediately added, "Second brother is talking about it all the time."

The sound wasn't any louder.

"After training today, your second brother and I will pick you up for dinner, and we will send you back to school after eating." Benjamin revealed his final decision with the second young master.

Isabella nodded, "Okay."

In other words, after training in the afternoon, her fiancé will pick her up with her brother.

She has two picks!

Before Williams and Eloise came out, Isabella glanced at the office, "Then let's go first."

Today's training is not over yet, after Seb left, I'm probably scratching my heart...

What happened just now almost scared him to death...

“Okay.” Benjamin happened to meet a partner nearby. He rushed to the school after hearing that Isabella had an accident. At this time, he had to go back to continue the detailed discussion, so he left after saying goodbye.

the second young master and a few subordinates remained.

“Minister, your sister is so beautiful!”

“Your genes are too good!”

If they hadn’t become Benjamin’s fiancée, they would have wanted to pursue her and become the minister’s brother-in-law!!

The second young master looked at them dangerously, “Who said before that my sister has long legs, thin waist, and good-figure? Stand up!”

When the subordinates heard that the minister wanted to settle an old score with them, they hurriedly pointed at each other.

“It’s him! He saw your sister’s legs!”

“He looked at the waist!”

“He looked at the whole body! Good figure is what he said!”

After the few people blamed each other, they all gave up and lowered their heads, “Minister, we are wrong...”

“We didn’t know it was your sister!”

“If we knew it was your sister, we wouldn’t dare to take a second look if we gave us a hundred courage.”

“Really, let alone a hundred courage, we wouldn’t dare to be your brother-in-law even if we had a thousand courage!”

“...” The eyes of the second young master were filled with depression and warning, “I shouldn’t look at it in the future, don’t look at it blindly!”

“Yes, Minister!”

“Go to the playground and run ten laps.”

What, what???

Did they get it wrong??

“Minister, this is someone else’s school...”

They ran in other people’s playgrounds for no reason, and they ran ten laps, wouldn’t it be...not good?

“You mean you want to run around all of Bomsville?”

“No, no, we definitely didn’t mean that!”

“There are many girls in the school, I’ll give you a chance to show yourself in front of the girls... What if someone blindly falls in love with you?”

Several subordinates:...

What does it mean to be blind!

They are also very good, okay!

Not to mention the achievements they have made over the years, their looks are more than enough to form a group and make a debut!

But the second young master obviously didn't intend to let them go...

Why!

Unexpectedly, as soon as sister Isabella left, the minister would turn back to that ruthless, vicious person...

Isabella just now...

If she was there, how could the minister talk to them....

Does sister Isabella know that she has such a fickle brother?

Hey, resign yourself to fate!

run!

When they went to run on the playground, the second young master took out his mobile phone and first sent WhatsApp to the fifth child.

“I saw my sister today.”

“The hair is soft, the appearance is obedient, good-looking and caring, cute and well-behaved, gentle and understanding.”

“My sister also said that the person I like the most is the second brother!”

After posting three messages in a row, the second young master raised the corner of his mouth, hum, he finally avenged his past.

Bradley, who was preparing for the concert at the backstage, saw his second brother send so many WhatsApp messages in one go. This is the first time in so many years!

Not to mention sending so many WhatsApp messages, the second brother is so busy that sometimes he only sends him once a month or two!

Not even replying to his WhatsApp!

Bradley pressed down and spoke, “Blow it! My sister’s favorite person is Benjamin, and all brothers have to stand aside! Don’t think you and I can be an exception!”

“This seems to make sense?”

“...”

The second young master thought about it, the younger sister defended Benjamin just now, it seems that she really likes it?

He was a little sour all of a sudden...

“How many days are you going back this time?” Bradley asked.

The second young master replied “four”.

On topics that have nothing to do with his sister, he became concise again...

Bradley pressed down and spoke, “The time you spend alone with your sister. I mean alone! It will never exceed an hour, don’t ask me how I know!”

Asking is angry!

The last time he went back for so many days, Benjamin insisted on occupying his sister, so that he never had a chance to take her out to play alone. Really, he never had a chance. The wife is too much!

“You really think your sister likes Benjamin ?” the second young master asked again.

See, there are more words related to my sister!

Bradley replied, “Then you’ll find out.”

In these four days, the second child will definitely see how the younger sister manipulates the old fox. how their little padded jacket leaks air... and how much the old fox dominates the younger sister...

“Okay, let’s not talk, I’m going on stage.”

The second young master stared at the phone for a while, then remembered something, and forwarded the words he had just sent to the fifth brother to his elder brother,

Lisa replied almost instantly, “Touched once? What are you showing off?”

second young master ...

“I’ve only been back for four days? Compared to the time I spent with Isabella, it’s only a few hundred hours less.”

second young master...

“You are a stranger to Isabella, no more than a big brother, and you have already left a place in her heart.”

second young master ...

“Isabella likes to be quiet. I usually don’t like to be disturbed by others. If you have nothing to do, please call her and send her a message. If you have anything to do, you can tell me and I will help you pass it on.”

second young master... I really thank you! Believe in you, there are ghosts!

Unexpectedly, the eldest brother has also changed. In order to compete for the position in the younger sister’s heart, he can even make up such lies...

Isabella told me just now that she likes to chat with the second brother the most, and told me to call her and send a message if I have nothing to do.” The second young master edited and sent it, deliberately making the elder brother uncomfortable.

“It’s a screenshot.” Lisa is not a vegetarian either, “I’ll send it to Isabella to verify the authenticity.”

“Shameless! How shameless!

Chapter 359 Her? I Can’t Move It

At this time, Eloise came out of the office holding Williams’ hand, and the dean of the department almost bowed at ninety degrees to see him off.

“Mr. Logan, Mrs. Logan, go slowly!”

Eloise came to the door and found that there was only the second son here, what about the others?

“Where’s Isabella ?” Williams asked, “I haven’t spoken to her yet...”

“She still has to train. When she finishes her work, she will go home for dinner tonight.”

“Okay!” Eloise didn’t expect her baby girl to be able to go after staying at school for so many days.

home

She couldn’t eat or sleep well these days, and she was always worried that Isabella would be hungry and cold at school, or that she would be bullied...

Williams said happily, "You can finally sleep soundly tonight! Isabella comes home for dinner, and we quickly asked the kitchen staff to prepare more of her favorite meals. Last time, we can bring more shrimps of that species from Australia."

"Yes, yes, and that fish..."

The second young master heard: Is he his own??

younger sister, and they didn't even ask him a word.

Completely forgot about his son...

The heart of the second young master is a little sour...

the other side.

Seb saw the returning Isabella and wanted to ask something, but he couldn't speak in front of so many students.

Isabella saw him hesitating to speak again and again, blushing, and scratching his heart and liver in a hurry, inexplicably found it funny.

Finally, Seb couldn't bear the torment in his heart, and asked everyone to go for a run as usual, except for Isabella.

"It's okay." Isabella told him the result first, seeming to know what he was worried about.

Seb couldn't believe his ears, looking at the little girl with beautiful features in front of him, he was overjoyed and asked, "Really? You didn't lie to me?"

Isabella raised her eyebrows, "What's the good of lying to you?"

“Really no punishment? No demotion? No expulsion?” Seb was very happy, holding Isabella’s shoulders and said excitedly. “You must have said a lot of good things for me! The instructor knows you are a good boy...”

Isabella looked at his hands, as if hinting at something.

Seb came to his senses and hurriedly let go in fright...

In the office just now, Benjamin and the second young master took turns questioning him, I can still vividly remember it, just thinking about it makes one’s hair stand on end...

I didn’t expect this girl’s background to be so powerful, and behind her were two god-like men guarding and supporting her...

Oh no, there are Logan Family parents, and several other brothers...

the other side.

After careful consideration, the second young master took out his mobile phone and called an elder.

“Mr. Watson, it’s me.”

“Second young master, hahahaha, why are you free to call me today?” An old man’s hearty laughter came from the other end of the phone.

“To be honest. I have something to ask Mr. Watson today.”

Mr. Watson on the phone is always smiling, "Tell me about it."

"It's like this. There is someone beside me who is outstanding in medical skills and has great ambitions. He is a rare medical genius. I want to ask Mr. Watson to come out of the mountain and take her personally."

Last night, Isabella said she would devote herself to the medical profession after graduation and save more lives.

This shows that her ambition is here!

Mr. Watson is a leading figure in the medical field, if he can come out to bring Isabella himself...

Then Isabella will definitely become the most dazzling star in the American medical field in the future!

Mr. Watson on the phone was a little surprised. I didn't expect that the second young master, who has always been quiet and strong, would take the initiative to call his old man for help.

He asked earnestly, "The person you mentioned is very important to you?"

Thinking of my sister, the second young master's tone was a bit gentle, "To be honest, she is my long-lost sister."

Isabella ?"

"You know him?" Now, it was the second young master's turn to be surprised. How did Mr. Watson know his sister's name?

Mr. Watson laughed loudly on the phone, waved his hands repeatedly and said, "I can't take it, I can't take it..."

"Mr. Watson?"

Before the second young master asked the reason, Mr. Watson said, "Speaking of which, I taught Isabella 's medical skills, but her current level is already higher than mine..."

Mr. Watson said with a smile, " Selby Brown, the miracle doctor, I can't carry it."

Selby Brown??

It's unbelievable that the second young master, Selby Brown, the miraculous doctor who can bring people back to life, is actually his sister? dear?

"You just came home, right? You probably don't know your sister very well...you'll know if you get closer."

The second young master was completely stunned, he didn't expect the clown to be himself...

the other side.

"My darling, you have been wronged!" Principal Brown called Isabella immediately after listening to the dean's evasive report, "Grandpa is on his way here and will be here soon. What the hell, dare to bully me?" My precious granddaughter! If Ray Family 's stock price does not drop by several billion, my surname will not be Bai!"

Through the mobile phone, Isabella can imagine his angry and arrogant look.

She couldn't help laughing. "It's all over, you should pay attention to safety on the road, and ask the driver to drive slowly, don't worry about accidents."

"In Grandpa's territory, how dare someone bully you... All cats, cats and dogs dare to bully you, it's them who have trouble! Not me!"

Principal Brown was so angry that he blew his beard and stared, "I'll hold a meeting tomorrow to let everyone who is a counselor and above know who you are! Remember your identity!"

Today he just went out to run some errands, and things turned out like this. If he's not around in the future, he doesn't know how he will be bullied!

"I'm not the one who suffered today." Isabella coaxed him a few more words, and seeing that his anger had subsided a little, she said. "I'm going home to have dinner with my second brother tonight, and I won't be doing experiments with you."

11

The old man was a little surprised, "Your second brother is back?"

"Um."

don't participate in the next training. ", go back and get together with your family."

In recent years, the little girl has hardly felt the warmth of the family. It is not easy for the second brother to come back. It is a good thing that one more person loves her.

Hearing what Principal Brown said, Isabella just said, "How can that be?"

“Students, don’t pay attention to what they say. When the school recruited students, it was said to the outside world that as long as the full score No. 1 comes, when to go to class and when not to go. the full score No. 1 has the final say. The school does not Because of this, it will be said that you are late and leave carly, or you are absent from class without reason, this is a privilege that gives you full marks No. 1, you must make good use of it!”

Isabella smiled. “My second brother and I are having dinner at at dusk.

A low-key luxury car parked at the gate of the school.

Two tall and handsome men stood beside the car, their outstanding facial features and height attracted many people’s attention.

“Oh my God, look over there, those two men are so handsome!”

“Are they waiting for someone?”

“I don’t know if they have girlfriends. let’s ask for a WhatsApp ?”

There were girls who wanted to approach in groups of three or four, but were politely stopped by the driver.

The two men looked at the school together, as if they were waiting for someone, chatting a few words from time to time.

That face value, that temperament, so handsome that people can't take their eyes off.

Finally, a girl walked out of the school gate and walked in their direction.

The eyes of the two men lit up, one stepped forward to touch the girl's head, and the other helped to open the car door.

The movements of both of them are extremely gentle, it seems that girls are very important people to them.

Many people looked at the girl, only to see that she bent down and got into the car. From the back, they only saw that she was in good shape and tall, but did not see her specific appearance.

inside the car.

Isabella sat between the two men.

"Are you tired from training? Come on, drink some water first." The second young master unscrewed the bottle cap and handed Isabella a bottle of Kona Nigari mineral water. It's not expensive, and a bottle costs several thousand.

Benjamin took out some snacks again, "I bought this on the way here, try it and see if it tastes good?"

"Wipe your hands first?" The second young master tore open the package of wet wipes.

After Isabella wiped her hands clean, Benjamin led her to dry them again, and put disposable gloves on her hands.

Seeing that the two men took care of her like a child in every detail, the corners of Isabella 's mouth raised a warm arc.

“Try it too.” Isabella brought them the snacks.

The second young master was so touched: this is the first time that my younger sister gave him something to eat with her own hands!

She didn't see sex and forget brother!

Even, the first snack she took was for the second brother!

The second young master's heart warmed up, and he looked at Benjamin again. He thought he would be jealous, but unexpectedly, he lowered his head and took a bite of the dessert in Isabella's hand.

second young master...

For my sister's sake, bear with it!

After a while, Benjamin got a call, “You say it again?”

“Chen, Benjamin, even if you kill me, you still have to come here... It happened suddenly... Now the group can only deal with you!”

Because Isabella was so close, she naturally heard Green 's voice on the phone.

Benjamin was about to get angry, but when he received Isabella 's gaze, he forcibly held back his anger.

“Oh, I really know how to pick time.”

After hanging up the phone, Benjamin asked the driver to stop at the entrance of Mason Group, and then said to Isabella, “You and the second brother go back to eat first, don’t wait for me, I will rush over after I finish processing.”

“Well, have a better attitude.”

“rest assured.”

For the sake of the little girl, he reluctantly did not want to take anyone’s knife.

the second young master and Isabella were left in the car.

The second young master is happy because he monopolizes his sister. The fifth brother reminded him before that Benjamin will always dominate his sister, and it is almost impossible to be alone with his sister...

Now it seems that the fifth child is simply overthinking.

“1

The second young master felt flattered in his heart, he glanced at the well-behaved girl beside him, and his heart warmed up even more.

How could his sister be so good-looking, so well-behaved, so versatile...

Isabella studied medicine with Mr. Watson before?”

Isabella 's eyes provoked a trace of surprise, "How does the second brother know?"

The second young master told her what happened in a concise manner.

Isabella didn't expect her second brother to ask Mr. Watson for help because of her future.

"Mr. Watson said that your medical skills are already higher than his. That night, the second brother was superficial, and he wanted to invite you to join us..."

He didn't say the word "Department of Security" because he was afraid that "the walls have ears."

It's funny to think about it, the genius doctor Selby Brown, how could they invite them?!

"If you know it's the second brother that night, you can go and get a job."

Anyway, she also manages the small broken company at home in an orderly manner.

It's just a job...、

Can't beat her.

Just a little time consuming...

When the second young master heard the words, he was moved, and at the same time remembered what the fifth child said, my sister is not a small padded jacket that leaks air, but a down jacket that is super sensible and warm!

“Second brother is a bit dangerous, you’d better not go there.” The second-young master’s attitude was completely inconsistent, “You can’t even take a second job.”

Isabella ... That’s not what you said that night...

“It’s my grandpa and grandma who are not in good health and are currently receiving a series of treatments abroad.”

This process cannot be interrupted, otherwise the previous efforts will be in vain.

“If there is no improvement in the future, you can help them take a look.”

“Okay.” Isabella agreed.

“The relationship between me and Mr. Watson is because...” The second young master took the initiative to tell the story of how he met Mr. Watson, and before he knew it, the car had arrived at Riverside Villa.

There were a lot of cars parked at the entrance of the lake villa, and a dozen people took the things out of the cars and delivered them to illa one by one.

There are clothes, shoes, bags, skin care products, jewelry, food and drink, and daily necessities...

The second young master opened the car door and let Isabella get out of the car. Seeing her puzzled look, he smiled and said, “Second brother bought this for you. You can go in and see if you like it.”

Isabella raised her gaze, a little surprised, “Did you move the whole shopping mall here?”

“The second brother doesn’t know what you like, so I bought you some of everything. If there is something you don’t like, the second brother promises not to buy it again next time.”

When the second young master said this, he found that his sister’s hair was messed up by the wind, so he reached out to help her adjust it.

Before he bought these things, he asked the servants at home. Myra said that Ms. Young is very easy-going, doesn’t pick anything, has no particularly hated color, and doesn’t hate food...

It’s all about what the family gives, what she wears, what the chef does, what she eats...

Such a well-behaved, sensible and lovely girl, the Brown family used to treat her that way!!

Thinking of what the Brown family did, the second young master felt a fire in his heart. Fortunately, the younger sister cut the mess quickly and sent the animal parents to prison with her own hands.

“Second brother will accompany you in to have a look.”.

Isabella nodded. She had just walked a few steps when she suddenly something and looked back.

There was nothing unusual about it, but she could just feel someone’s gaze staring at them.

The second young master followed her gaze and asked softly. “What are you looking at?”

“Nothing.” Isabella thought, could it be the “enemy” brought by the identity of the second brother? But with the second brother’s position level, how could it be so easy for the enemy to notice? Still found here?

Is she thinking too much??

Or is it that the person hiding in the dark came after her?

The living room was full of things that the second young master bought for Isabella, and many servants moved the things to Isabella's room.
