

Chased Her 371

Chapter 371 The scene is getting more and more chaotic

My sister was slandered like this, how could he drive slowly, and he arrived at the school gate in less than ten minutes, which shocked the security uncle who guarded the gate.

Uncle Security was about to curse, but it turned out that it was Logan Family second young master who had been to school two days ago, so he smiled again and bent down very kindly, "Logan second young master is here? This way Please...just park your car at the gate of the school, it doesn't get in the way, as long as it's convenient for you."

Even if Logan second young master drove the car in front of his security booth, he didn't mind, who told him that he was Logan second young master!

"Excuse me, I'll stop for a while, and I'll leave right away." The second young master also wanted to find a parking space to park, but he was fully focused on his younger sister now, and he just wanted to rush there as soon as possible to help her.

Isabella, who was training, looked towards Deb from time to time, obviously aware of something.

Even Poll noticed it, and whispered to Isabella's car, "Look, Isabella, the second sister-in-law seems to be arguing with someone? Shall we go over and help?"

The people in the security department are more than enough to deal with the few students in the school,

What's more, her second sister-in-law is not a fuel-efficient lamp.

"I'm afraid that the second sister-in-law will suffer... She is too simple." Millic watched the movement on the landscape stone while doing warm-up exercises, "The four of them don't feel ashamed to bully the second sister-in-law..."

“Wait a little longer, we will disband in ten minutes.” Kara raised her hand and looked at her watch. Soon, the day’s training was over.

At this point, Dot was still asking Deb. “Just tell us what’s going on? Isabella is not the adopted daughter of the Logan Family, why is her last name Logan? Why did she move to the Logan Family? And why did Cecilia lie to me??”

At this time, Cecilia came, and she saw Dot talking to Deb from a distance...

She guessed something all of a sudden, bad.

It must be Dot ‘s big mouth, who said what shouldn’t be said.

Deb’s tone of voice on the phone just now was very bad. It turned out that he wanted to settle accounts with her...

She was about to run away, but Dot saw her at a glance, “ Cecilia! This way!!”

All eyes were on Cecilia, Cecilia almost suffocated, damn it...

Deb also stood up, squinting his eyes, clearly seeing Cecilia ‘s

Cecilia was thinking about it as she walked forward. Suddenly, she pretended to be staggering, rubbed her temples with her hands, and hurriedly supported the tree trunk beside her.

Cecilia, what’s the matter with you? Is it too hot and heatstroke?” Dot hurriedly ran towards her and reached out to support her. “Sit down for a while? I’ll give you my military uniform on the grass. You love to be clean. sit on my clothes...”

“Water...” Cecilia pretended to be dizzy, “I want to drink water...”

“Water? There’s no water here, wait a minute, I’ll go to the supermarket to buy...” Dot ‘s attention was distracted, and he was about to run to buy water.

“I want to drink water right away, I’m so thirsty, why don’t you help me there?”

“Can you still go?”

“Well...it’s okay to hold on for a while.” Cecilia said this, and looked at Deb again. “I’m sorry second sister-in-law, I’m not feeling well, I’ll see you later.”

“People with heatstroke will turn pale, sweat profusely, and have a high body temperature...I think you are all fine. Tell me, what’s going on? You told your classmates that Isabella is here because of the support from the Logan Family. She has the qualifications to go to school, and she can get full marks in the exam, and she can’t do without the help behind the Logan Family? Is that so?”

Before Cecilia could speak. Deb added. “Because Isabella can talk and has a sweet mouth, she became the adopted daughter of the Logan Family? Is that the case?”

Dot on the side lowered his head a little apologetically. “I’m sorry Cecilia. I didn’t say it on purpose...it was because at the beginning, your second sister-in-law helped Isabella speak, and I was irritated, so I blurted it out accidentally...but I thought. Ict’s There’s no need to hide it for Isabella, she has bullied you to such an extent... You should tell her so that everyone will know her truc face...”

Cecilia How stupid! If you say you won’t talk to others, what can you tell Deb??

“I didn’t know she was your second sister-in-law...I’m sorry...”

Seeing Dot like this, Cecilia could only be angry in her heart, but she still said on the surface. "What's the matter, I'll talk about it when I get back... go buy water first..."

"How long are you going to pretend?" Deb grabbed her wrist and refused to let her go, "Today you must clear Isabella's innocence in front of your classmates, otherwise this matter will never end."

"Second sister-in-law, you scratched me..." Cecilia showed a painful expression.

"You let go. Cecilia is already uncomfortable, and you're still holding her..." Seeing that Deb didn't intend to let go, Dot became even more anxious.

"Pretentious! Why didn't I know you were so good at pretending before?" Deb coldly withdrew his hand.

Unexpectedly, Cecilia fell to the side grass, her expression became more uncomfortable, "Second sister-in-law, why are you like this..."

the second sister-in-law, are you going too far? You even pushed your sister-in-law? Is this how you treat Cecilia at home?"

"Dot, don't talk about my second sister-in-law, it's because I'm not feeling well, I can't stand firmly, don't blame her..."

Cecilia, you are so kind, I finally understand now, in your house. your second sister-in-law and Isabella colluded to bully you, right?"

Dot guessed this possibility, and felt sorry for Cecilia, so Deb suddenly appeared to speak for Isabella...

It turned out that they were on the same boat!

Cecilia Freda shook her head pitifully, "Help me to your dormitory to rest first. I'm so dizzy... When I fell just now, my head fell to the ground again."

At this time, a voice sounded hastily.

“Cecilia, what’s wrong with you?”

Cecilia turned her head and saw that it was the second brother. Tears welled up in her eyes, “Second brother, you are here...”

That’s great, she can let the second brother see this scene without her trying so hard, let’s see how Deb can argue!

She is a good sister in the heart of the second brother!

The second brother will definitely favor her!

“You are Cecilia’s second brother. You came at the right time. Discipline your girlfriend. She pushed Cecilia down. Cecilia kowtowed to the head. She said she was uncomfortable and wanted to take a rest. Your girlfriend is still pestering her. of.”

The second young master raised his eyes and looked at Deb. Just as Deb was about to say something, several people rushed towards him.

“Nonsense, the second sister-in-law obviously let go of her hand, it was Cecilia who was acting on her own and fell on purpose.”

It’s Kara’s voice.

Cecilia’s expression turned ugly when she saw her.

It’s Miss Long Family again, why is she here to join in the fun?

"I saw it too. As soon as the second sister-in-law let go, Cecilia fell into the grass by herself, and fell in the wrong direction."

Poll also stood up for Deb.

Chapter 372

"I, Millic, never lic, but Cecilia, you slandered your second sister- in-law for no reason, what is your intention?"

"The second sister-in-law did not do anything, she fell down by herself." Isabella also stood up and testified.

Deb didn't expect four people to stand up and speak for her. While being moved, she looked at Cecilia confidently.

"Aren't you going too far?" Dot couldn't help but said, "One or two are talking nonsense with their eyes open. I saw with my own eyes that Cecilia was pushed down by the second sister-in-law you called, brother second young master, you don't have to believe what an outsider said If so, don't you even believe your own sister?"

The word "sister" made the second young master subconsciously look at Isabella...

Dot thought that the second young master looked at Isabella because he was doubting the credibility of Isabella's group of people, so the corners of his mouth immediately turned up.

"Which is right and which is wrong, you will know if you call out the monitor and have a look."

Isabella 's words made Cecilia's heart skip a beat, and she said anxiously: Not good!

When she was acting just now, she didn't observe the surrounding environment. This is a medical university, and as a student from another school, she didn't know where there was surveillance...

“Second brother, my head is so dizzy and it hurts...” At this time. Cecilia put her hands on her temples and said in distress, “Did I fall and concussion? Will there be any sequelae? I’m so scared...”

“You still know that I am your second brother, which means that you are conscious and not confused.” The second young master explained, “Concussion patients will have confusion, loss of consciousness, or even coma, etc., but you are not.

Cecilia froze, still have these symptoms?

“Is it fake or real? Let Isabella take a look and you’ll know?” Kara on the side smiled jokingly, as if taking Cecilia as a joke.

Cecilia silently greeted the eighteenth generation of her ancestors in her heart, but on the surface she was very weak, grabbing the corner of the second young master’s clothes and Freda said pitifully, “Second brother, I want to go to the hospital...I don’t feel well right now...I think Go to the hospital for a systematic examination, can you send me there?”

“Isabella is much more reliable than the doctors in the hospital, Isabella is better than looking for anyone~” Kara directly broke Cecilia’s wishful thinking. “If I were you, I would stand up now and apologize to the second sister-in-law generously, Never lie on the ground and make a fool of yourself...”

After all, she is also a rich lady, lying on the ground in such a disfigured manner...

What did Cecilia do wrong? Why are you apologizing to someone who pushed her? Also, you asked Isabella to see a doctor for Cecilia? Is Isabella a doctor? Does she know medicine? Does she know how to see a doctor?”

Dot on the side was very angry, “Isabella always targets Cecilia on weekdays, who knows if she will talk nonsense about her illness? Say serious things as mild, and light things as nothing.”

“She targeted Cecilia ?” The second young master narrowed his eyes, seeming a little displeased, “Do you have evidence?”

“Of course, she...”

Before Dot finished speaking, Cecilia tugged at the corner of her clothes, “Don’t talk about Dot, let’s go to the hospital...”

The second brother’s expression just now clearly does not believe that Isabella will target her in private...

Heh, since when did the blood relationship become more important than the eighteen years of love?

Kara, Millie, and Poll stop Dot and Cecilia and don’t let them go, insisting that they speak clearly.

Seeing that she was no match for so many people, Cecilia’s eyes turned black and she passed out.

“Cecilia, what’s wrong with you Cecilia? Enough is enough for you. Cecilia has fainted, what else do you want?” Dot hurriedly squatted down and called anxiously, “ Cecilia, wake up, are you okay...”

“It’s better to be dizzy, tell me, how did Isabella target Cecilia ?” Kara insisted on asking why.

Cecilia, who was in a coma, suddenly pinched Dot.

Dot is dumbfounded.

Is Cecilia pretending to be dizzy?

What Cecilia meant was that it was difficult for her to speak up as a party to this matter, and she needed an outsider to help her speak?

Thinking of this, Dot took the courage to tell the whole story.

“As far as I know, Isabella coaxed Uncle Logan and Aunt Logan into submission, and not only took the surname ‘ Logan’, but also became the adopted daughter of the Logan Family, moved into the Logan Family’s big villa, and lived as Lady, A life full of hustle and bustle...”

Hearing this, Cecilia quickly pinched her again.

Dot almost cried out in pain, could it be that what she said was too trivial? Not serious enough?

So. Dot added, “ Isabella bullied Cecilia a lot at home, splashed water on Cecilia’s face when no one was around, cut Cecilia ‘s clothes, and pushed Cecilia into the pool...”

Hearing this, Cecilia broke into a sweat, and squeezed her hand again...

The idiot!!

Which pot is not opened and which pot is lifted!!

Dot thought, these things aren’t serious enough??

So racking her brains, it really reminded her of one thing!

“Oh, by the way, Isabella also snatched Cecilia ‘s fiancé, Benjamin!”

Now, Cecilia couldn’t take it anymore, Lori coughed weakly, and asked in a daze, “What’s wrong with me? Where am I...”

Everyone looked at her with speechless eyes...

"Cecilia, tell me! Tell me what else Isabella did to bully you! While your second brother is here!" Dot still didn't understand Cecilia's situation, so he encouraged, "Your second brother will decide for you."

"I splashed water on your face? Cut your clothes? Pushed you into the pool?" Isabella narrowed her eyes and looked at Cecilia with interest. "Why didn't I know I did these things myself?"

There are dozens of servants in the Logan Family, and there is such a big commotion, will no one see it??

"Why, in front of the second young master, do you dare to do it or not? How about your arrogance to bully Cecilia? Show it!" Dot spoke for his friend.

"As far as I know, every piece of clothing Cecilia wears is advanced customization. Whether it has been cut or not, and which piece is missing in the closet, I can check it out with one phone call now."

Having said that, Isabella glanced at Cecilia again, "As for me splashing water on her face? When is it?"

"I, I don't remember..." Cecilia lowered her head, looking a little scared.

What this means is that Isabella did pour water on her, but she can't remember the exact day!

"Okay, Cecilia, how dare you lie in front of your second brother? Do you think that some places in the house are not monitored, so you can talk nonsense?" Kara was so angry that she wanted to roll up her sleeves and go forward to beat him up. She punches twice.

Poll and Millic hurriedly held her back to keep her from messing around.

Now as long as Cecilia insists that Isabella really splashed water on her face and pushed her into the pool, then Isabella will not be able to wash herself off if she really jumped into the Yellow River!

Deb glanced at her worriedly, but found that she raised the corner of her mouth and asked Dot calmly.

“When did Cecilia tell you?”

Chapter 373 I’m So Disappointed

Oh, right!!

Dot remembered!!

She has chat history!!

” Isabella, you really don’t cry when you see the coffin. It just so happens that my phone has a lot of memory, and all the chat records are saved by Angela and Freda...I’ll find it for you!”

Dot opened the chat history between her and Cecilia, and searched for keywords “water”, “swimming pool”...

Soon, there were related chat records, and the chat time jumped out.

“See?” Dot held the phone in front of everyone, “Now let’s see how you argue?”

“Oh...” Isabella looked at the day Cecilia said she splashed water, “I just flew to Switzerland that day.”

At that time, Mr. Will wanted to choose euthanasia, and Benjamin arranged for her a private jet, which flew there that day and did not come back at night.

“And the swimming pool... If I remember correctly, the Logan Family’s servants clean the swimming pool every Monday... The swimming pool is empty all day long. If I push her down, won’t she fall to her death?”

Cecilia originally thought that she had the chance to win, but when she heard Isabella say this, her face suddenly turned pale.

At that time, she just asked Dot to blame Isabella casually, arbitrarily charged Isabella with a few trumped-up charges, and didn’t think so much at all...

Seeing Cecilia’s reaction, Dot was also a little dubious, but out of defense for her friend, she said, “Who knows if what you said is true or not?”

“She didn’t lie.” The second young master said suddenly, “Cleaning the swimming pool every Monday has been the habit of the Logan Family for many years. On the day I flew to Switzerland, my family also told me that it was because of Isabella’s grandfather’s physical problems. Isabella I rushed over to visit, but did not return to the United States that day... As for the damaged clothes. I will call home and ask about it.”

“Second brother...” As soon as Cecilia opened her mouth, she saw the deep disappointment in the second young master’s eyes...

She called second brother too urgently, too panicked!

Sure enough, she lied!!

“Are you slandering your sister like this in front of your friends?” The tone of the second young master also became extremely disappointed.

Since when did the innocent and kind sister start to change??

“Second brother, listen to me...the situation at the time was...” Cecilia was about to explain, but after thinking about it, besides. Dot, there were three other friends she knew were present, so she whispered, “Let’s find a place Say it right? This is a family matter

“Just say it here.” The second young master’s firm tone made Kara and the others breathe a sigh of relief. Fortunately, the second brother is sensible. Let’s see how Cecilia dics.

“Second brother...I...” How could Cecilia admit in front of so many people that she slandered Isabella, and wouldn’t her image be ruined??

Dot saw that she was slow to speak, so she couldn’t help asking, “ Cecilia, what’s going on? You won’t lie to me, right? What are you doing to smear Isabella for no reason? Also, you said she stole your fiance...”

“That’s not her fiancé! It’s Isabella ‘s!”

Kara, Poll, and Millie suddenly spoke in unison, startling Dot, what’s going on??

“Cecilia is the adopted daughter!!”

The three of them spoke together again, startling Dot and the other three friends...

Cecilia is the adopted daughter?

Benjamin is Isabella ‘s fiance??

How can it be??

Everything reversed??

Cecilia didn't expect that the persona she worked so hard to build would collapse like this. She closed her eyes deeply, smiled after a while, and stood up slowly.

Now that the matter has been revealed, there is no need for her to hide it anymore...

"Yes, I am indeed an adopted daughter..." Cecilia lowered her head, and it took a while to raise her head. She looked at Isabella with self-mockery, sadness, and jealousy in her eyes, "She is the real Lady."

"This...what the hell is going on?" Dot and the three friends were stunned.

But Cecilia didn't have the heart to answer her words, and looked at the second young master again, every word and every word, crying heartbrokenly.

"You all keep saying that Isabella is back, and you will treat me as a relative...but everything you do, every word you say, is biased towards her!"

Cecilia's tears flowed down wronged.

"Second brother, we have lived together for eighteen years. Could it be that the relationship between us is not as good as a younger sister who just came back?"

The eyes of the second young master are a bit complicated, it's not like this.

"And you, have you been friendly to me since the first day you stepped into the house?" Cecilia asked Isabella loudly again.

Kara on the side couldn't stand it anymore, and couldn't help but stand up and speak, "Isabella's character is always so lukewarm, but she has a very kind heart."

“And you!” Cecilia glared at Kara, “What’s none of your business?”

When Cecilia said this, she shed tears of sadness and disappointment. “I just want to be the same as before. I want to continue to have the love of my parents and brothers. Where did I go wrong?? Why did everything change when Isabella came back?”

“This is her home, she deserves to come back.” The second young master remained restrained as always, but his eyes became much more complicated. “And you, who enjoyed eighteen years of life for her. slandered her everywhere after she came back.”, spread rumors about her, did you tell your classmates that she was taken care of by an old man?”

Kara, Poll, Millie: What? There is such a thing? If Cecilia really said it, then Cecilia is too much, right?

“No... I didn’t say it!” Cecilia shook her head and smiled desperately, “Is it because I spread the rumors that are not good for her? I declare again that this matter is not I said it!

“Then your second sister-in-law, did you push you?” The second young master looked into her eyes again, switching between hope and disappointment repeatedly.

“Would you believe me if I said yes?” Cecilia laughed and cried, “If I said no, would you be more disappointed in me?”

“Don’t be jabbering, I’ve already got the surveillance footage just now.” Kara interrupted directly, and played the video captured by the phone for everyone to see.

In order to let everyone understand, she also set slow playback. In the video, Deb obviously retracted his hand, but Cecilia deliberately fell to the grass...

The truth came out!

Dot was stunned when he saw this scene. How could it be that Cecilia really fell?

Out of the trust among her friends, she did not hesitate to stand up and speak for Cecilia, and said that she saw Deb pushing someone...

I didn't expect the truth to be like this...

She was immediately disappointed with Cecilia...

"I regard you as my best friend, but you treat me like a monkey in the zoo! Trick me again and again! Did you fake your fainting just now?" Dot gritted his teeth. "Cecilia, you are so disappointing!"

Chapter 374 Please

Fortunately, she thought that Cecilia had suffered a lot from Isabella, and wanted to stand up for Cecilia...

The three girls beside Dot also cast disappointed and contemptuous glances at Cecilia.

"let's go!"

When Dot left with the three girls, he passed Isabella and said sorry.

"Oh, the name of this play is called shooting yourself in the foot. Isabella, let's go back to the dormitory first. This is your family business, so we won't participate." Kara took Millie and Poll away.

Next to the playground, there are only four people left.

Deb took Isabella's hand and looked at Cecilia coldly. If it wasn't for the surveillance to testify, Cecilia would still want to accuse her of pushing someone wrongly, which is too much.

“Second Brother... It was you who kept saying that even if Isabella came back to this house, you would still treat me as good as before... Does what you said still count?”

“I still remember when I was a child, one year, we planted a big pomegranate tree in our garden. At a glance, it was full of red fruits. I was greedy and wanted to eat it, but the servants didn't dare to give me too many seeds. It was you who climbed up the tree to help me pick the fruit, and fell down because of it, and lay on the bed for three months.”

When Cecilia said this, a rare tenderness appeared on the corner of her mouth.

“At that time, you said that as long as my sister is happy, she is willing to lie on the bed for three hundred days.”

“Another time, we flew to Russia, where it was snowing, and the sky was white. You rubbed a snowball and threw it on me, which stained my favorite dress. I was a little angry. You did it for Coax me, make me a lot of snowballs, and let me throw them on you.”

“Of course I don't want to throw them away, but you see how angry I am, and I order my servants to throw snowballs on you one by one until I am happy, and one just hits your face. I smiled. You laughed too, what a wonderful time it was.”

“Another time, we went to New Zealand to play and took a family portrait in a beautiful forest. At that time, I saw two very beautiful butterflies. I asked you to catch them together. As a result, both of us got lost... everywhere In the dense forest, you carried me from afternoon to night without finding the exit...”

“It was summer at that time, you were wearing shorts, your legs were scratched by branches, and you bled a lot, but you didn't say a word about the pain, but kept comforting me when I was crying... I was hungry, and you still tried to go Catch fish in the river for me to eat, but how can you catch fish as a young master, in the end you didn't catch anything, and I cried for a long time...”

The memories of the past were so beautiful that Cecilia closed her eyes, and these memories were like knives, cutting her heart hard.

“I still remember the family trips every year, whether in foreign countries or in the United States, you, my parents, and other brothers took special care of me. I was thirsty, and you all fought to bring me water. I was tired. You are rushing to carry me, especially every time you eat, as long as it is a dish I like, you will put it in my bowl one by one...”

But when did these things start to change?

Was it the moment when Isabella came back to this house and everyone gave her food?

It seems that some things, once lost, can never come back.

“Second brother, I really miss the old days. the time when we were a family, laughing and playing together, carelessly.”

When Cecilia said this, she shed two lines of tears and smiled poignantly.

“Second brother, do you still remember that once, when we were traveling, your favorite camera fell by the cliff. I wanted to help you pick it up, but my feet slipped, and you caught my hand in time.”

“At that time, you were obviously a child, but you had such great strength. You said that even if you died, you would not let go of my hand.”

“Another time, we were affected by the nearby earthquake area. The house was shaken. I thought there was an earthquake, and I was so scared that I cried. You hugged me and ran to the garden quickly, and said that no matter what happened, as long as you were there, you will always protect me.”

“Another time, I was chasing and playing with my friends at home, and accidentally knocked down the giant Lego robot you worked so hard to build. Say, with you, I always have the right to do wrong things, no matter what I do wrong, you will forgive me in the end.”

When Cecilia said this, she shed two more lines of tears, raised her eyes, and Freda looked pitifully at the second young master.

“Now, does what you say still count?”

The second young master ‘s heart seemed to be torn apart by something, and the pain caused his eyes to become complicated.

“I didn’t kill or set fire, nor did I do anything harmful to the world. I just had a mouthful in front of my friends...”

“I can’t bear my parents, I can’t bear you and the other brothers, I can’t bear all the good times in the past, I still want to be your sister, the daughter of my parents...”

When Cecilia said this, she reached out and tugged at the corner of the second young master ‘s clothes, “Second brother, I’m just not used to it all of a sudden. I’m not used to someone popping up without warning and taking everything I own...I know I I shouldn’t speak ill of sister Isabella in front of my friends, and I shouldn’t wrong my second sister-in-law... I’m just jealous that my second sister-in- law treats sister Isabella so well...I was wrong.”

Cecilia couldn’t stop crying, “I made a mistake, second brother, please forgive me and give me one last chance... I promise I will never make such a low-level mistake again...”

the second young master ‘s clothes pitifully, crying so hard that Freda was moving..

“Please, second brother...” Cecilia cried bitterly, “Please...give me one last, one last chance.”

The second young master closed his eyes deeply. It is impossible to say that he has not softened his heart in the slightest. From childhood to adulthood, he has really held Cecilia in his palm for eighteen years...

Be obedient to her and respond to every request.

But if he forgave her this time, it would be unfair to Isabella.

Cecilia may have guessed what he was thinking, and cried and pulled Deb's clothes. "Second sister-in-law, I'm sorry, I was wrong just now, you didn't push me, I wronged you...you hit me...just Forgive me, let me do whatever you want..."

"..." In all the upbringing Deb has received since he was a child, there has never been a single thing in which a girl cried and begged for forgiveness. "You, don't pull me, you begged the wrong person..."

Cecilia went to pull Isabella's clothes again, "Sister, give me one more chance... I was wrong... From now on, I will never speak ill of you in front of my classmates... Also, I will talk to you one by one. The classmate explained that I was the one who discredited you, but you have never done anything..."

Chapter 375 Always More Right Than Her

Before Isabella opened her mouth, Cecilia said, "If you mind the identity issue, I will also make it clear in front of my classmates and tell them that you are the real Lady of the Logan Family, and I am just an adopted daughter...I will not do it for myself. to hurt your face."

"Sister Isabella, give me one last chance? Just one last time? Okay?"

Cecilia grabbed Isabella's clothes and begged bitterly. "Let's settle our differences and be good sisters again? Forget all the unpleasant things in the past..."

Isabella found that this time. Cecilia's eyes were not as calculating and shrewd as before, but sincere and pleading.

She should be afraid of losing everything she owns, so she had to lower her head once...

"Sister Isabella, I beg you!" Cecilia said, about to kneel.

Isabella blocked her knees with her feet, preventing her from kneeling, and said with a somewhat indifferent tone. "Some things cannot be solved by kneeling."

"Then what do you want me to do?" Cecilia asked very sincerely, "I will bring you breakfast every day? I will cook for you at noon? I will also come to you after the breakup in the afternoon, and I will take a place for you in the cafeteria? Help you get it Express

"Sister Isabella, tell me, as long as I can do it, I promise to do it!" Cecilia seemed to have made a lot of determination.

"Let's talk." Isabella didn't say to forgive her, nor did she say that she didn't forgive, and she and Deb took a step ahead.

Cecilia was messed up in place, she didn't know what the three words Isabella meant, should she forgive her, or not forgive her, or wait for her to behave??

Sister Isabella..." Seeing Isabella gone, Cecilia turned her head to ask the second young master, "Second brother..."

But the second young master 's tone was still light, with a bit of indifference. "You go back first."

I don't even know whether to give her a chance or not...

"Second brother, don't go... You can talk to sister Isabella again... I really know my mistake." Cecilia followed behind the second young master, like a humble little follower.

When they arrived at the restaurant near the university town, the second young master, Deb and Isabella went in first, and Cecilia followed them after taking a taxi and paying the bill.

The waiter looked at the embarrassed lady in front of him with some puzzlement, and asked politely, "Excuse me, are you alone? Or are you with the three in front?"

“Together.” Cecilia followed them upstairs, and after they entered the box, she didn’t dare to go in, and stood outside the box and

The second young master glanced at Isabella and asked gently, “How do you plan to deal with this matter?”

“Second brother, how do you want to deal with it?”

Isabella raised her eyes with a bit of oppression.

Deb on the side couldn’t help but sigh with emotion, the one who is born is the one who is born, and this aura is exactly the same as that of the Logan Family, even stronger.

“Second brother is up to you, you can make up your own mind about this matter.” The second young master poured coffee for her, and poured another cup for Deb, as if he was used to her strong aura.

“I think we’ll let her hang out and see what she does next.” Deb took a sip of coffee and said, “If she still doesn’t repent in the next few days, or makes some small moves behind her back, then we’ll take care of it.” Tell Uncle Logan, Aunt Logan, let them kick her out of the house... But if, she is really wrong... Isabella, why don’t you give her a chance?”

“What do you mean, one more friend is better than one more enemy?” Isabella looked at the two of them, seeming to guess what they meant.

“I’m just suggesting... After all, Uncle Logan and Aunt Logan also have deep feelings for her... and several other brothers, who also put a lot of effort into her, suddenly kicked her out, Uncle Logan and Aunt Logan said Don’t say it, but you are more or less used to it in your heart? After all, we have been together for eighteen years...Of course, I am just a suggestion, and the choice is in your hands.”

Isabella, you don't have to worry about what other people think, as long as it's what you want to do, the second brother will support it, even if you want her to leave the Logan Family."

"Well, so is the second sister-in-law. As long as you want her to leave, she must leave!"

Isabella tapped the glass wall with her slender fingers, and was silent for a while, "Okay, let's see her next performance."

Anyway, Cecilia's presence in this family doesn't have much influence on her. In the past two months, although Cecilia has made some small moves, she has never taken advantage of her...

If she really wanted to clean up Cecilia, it would be easy for her, mainly out of consideration for her family.

The family seems to have a deep affection for Cecilia ?

"There are more." The second young master said suddenly.

Both Isabella's and Deb 's eyes fell on him.

The second young master said apologetically, "The things Cecilia said just now, I mean the tourist attractions, as long as you have time, no matter where you want to go, all of us will accompany you... Create new ones, belong to our family people's memories."

Isabella 's eyes softened.

Just now Cecilia was talking about various experiences when she was a child. She said that her second brother climbed a tree and fell down for her, and walked for a long time with her on his back. Eat. in order to make her laugh, he even ordered his servants to throw

These experiences did make Isabella feel a little bit of envy. Since childhood, Michael and Gail never gave her the slightest bit of family warmth.

Although Mrs. Brown loves her, this kind of pain is always different from the love of her brothers....

Ever since she was a child, she has never been held and cared for by her brothers...

The second young master seemed to see what she was thinking, and just as he was about to comfort her, Deb put his arms around Isabella's shoulder, patted and comforted her. "Don't worry, there will be more second sisters-in-law who love you in the future, no matter what you want to do next, what you want, the second sister-in-law will take care of everything!"

Isabella couldn't help laughing, "It's fine as it is now."

Although there are no such deep memories, at least the family really loves her.

And now, she also has a second sister-in-law.

This is enough.

Isabella, one thing you have to remember is that you always have more right than Cecilia to be willful in this family. As long as you say a word, between you and Cecilia, everyone will choose you without hesitation. Of course, it will be very painful when you let go. This is human nature, but the second brother can bear this kind of pain, and the second brother believes that other people can also bear it."

“And the second sister-in-law!” Deb put his arms around Isabella and said. “Don’t forget about me! Your second brother will know it, and your second sister-in-law will too.”

“Yes, yes, your second sister-in-law is also very good.” The second young master laughed, looking at Deb with a hint of doting in her eyes.

Deb raised his eyebrows triumphantly, “That’s it.”

Cecilia was waiting outside the box, her stomach growling with hunger, the air conditioner was blowing in her direction, and she was so cold that she hugged her arms.

Cecilia didn’t hear any movement inside.

In the next few days, the second young master and Deb took Isabella to visit nearby scenic spots. Cecilia just followed them from at distance, and did not take the initiative to step forward to show her presence, keeping a certain distance...

When eating. Cecilia will order a few more dishes for them.

So much so that Isabella was a little surprised when she saw the dishes. “We didn’t order these.”

“The lady at the last table ordered it for you, saying that it’s what you like to eat at home.”

Cecilia still remembers that Isabella likes to eat seafood...

Isabella raised her eyes and glanced at Cecilia. She ate with her head down, not daring to look this way.

After the meal, Cecilia will help them pay the bill in advance. When they are tired from playing, they will buy hand-held fans, water, paper towels, etc., and have them delivered to them...

Benjamin for the next two days, the four checked in many scenic spots. Cecilia still followed the four of them, but her eyes no longer dared to stay on Benjamin, as if she no longer crossed the boundary in her heart.

Two days later, the second young master and Deb returned to work, and Isabella 's college life officially began....

Mr. Brown in the laboratory. The classmates in the class didn't know about it. They thought she got a perfect score of No. 1 in the exam and were complacent, so they didn't even go to class.

Isabella ignored these gossips, but Cecilia came to the medical university every day, which made her a little dizzy.

As long as someone asks, Cecilia will say that she is looking for her sister, so that everyone is curious about the relationship between Cecilia and Isabella, and why Cecilia calls her sister.

On this day, Isabella had just finished the experiment, walked out the main door, and saw Cecilia waiting under the big tree at a glance, waving her hand at her.

"Sister, this way."

"..." Isabella didn't expect her to come again.

Cecilia ran forward with the milk bread she just bought, "I came here right after class... I bought this on the way, freshly baked..."

Cecilia took out an Encyclopedia of Medical Intractable Diseases from her shoulder bag, which is an English-American version. It is said that there are no more than ten copies of this version in the world, which is very rare.

“I heard that this version of the book is what every medical student wants... the one I found for you is the genuine one.” Cecilia smiled and handed her both hands very sincerely.

Isabella glanced at the book in her hand and said gently, “No, I have it.”

This book was translated by her, what’s more, with her current level, there is no need for this elementary stage book.

But Cecilia didn’t know, and thought that Isabella would not accept her kindness.

“Sister. I really want to settle down with you. I have worked so hard to get this book. Just accept it? If you don’t accept it. I won’t leave today.”

“Also, this bread and milk is also for you. I bought it myself. Don’t worry, there is no poison in it...”

When Cecilia said this, she lowered her head again, as if she had a bad image in the past, and Isabella would suspect that she was normal.

“I really have this book, take it back.”

Isabella knows that this book is hard to come by. On the one hand, the author of the original book is a top genius doctor in the UK, so the content of the whole book is in French, and all the technical terms are used, which is difficult to understand.

On the other hand, this book has been translated by her hand, and it is currently the book with the highest translation accuracy in the United States. At the beginning, she only allowed the publisher to publish ten copies, each of which had her autograph on it.

But Cecilia didn't know, "You have the book... But you definitely don't have milk and bread. You can take it back to the dormitory to eat. I bought some for Kara and the others too... Don't worry, it's all the latest date, so you can eat it fresh."

Isabella was so entangled by her that at this moment, Kara and Poll came out of the library and saw them.

"What are you pestering our Isabella to do again?" Kara pulled Isabella behind her at once, looked at Cecilia and said. "If you have nothing to do, go to the library to read more books and learn how to behave."

After speaking, he looked at the bag in her hand and said coldly, "Who would dare to eat what you bought?"

Who knows what's wrong with her?

"It's really not poisoned..." Cecilia lowered her head, as if she was hurt. "The bakery just made it today. If there is any problem, I will pay for it with my life."

"Is your life worth more than our Isabella?" Kara patted Poll again when she said this. "You take Isabella first."

"Oh..." Poll looked at Kara, Miss was still domineering, she quickly grabbed Isabella's arm and slipped away.

“Sister...” Cecilia still had something to say, but seeing Isabella’s back, she could only swallow the words.

“What sister, who recognizes you as a sister?” Kara looked at her with some displeasure, and warned coldly. “No matter what wishful thinking you have in mind, I advise you to get rid of it. Isabella is the best girl in my life.” My friend, if you dare to touch her, I will never let you go.”

Cecilia was aggrieved and unwilling. “I really want to settle down. with my sister and try to be friends with her...”

“You don’t need to play this set of sisterhood, and Isabella doesn’t need you as a friend.” Kara directly interrupted Cecilia. “As long as you don’t bother her and do your own thing. Logan Family will still have your place, but If you jump too much. I’ll break your feet, do you hear me?”

Cecilia couldn’t understand why she sincerely wanted to repent, but after so many days, she received so much malice.

“Don’t worry, I will do my part well, but I also want to settle the feud with my sister. I will not change this decision...” Cecilia said this, and handed the bag in her hand. “These things, please help me bring it to my sister, and treat it as if I owe you a favor.”

“Can’t understand human language? What Isabella wants is neither bread nor milk.”

She doesn’t want material things.

Kara spoke forcefully, “All she wants is to make the family happy.

If you understand this, you will understand many things in the

What She Wants Isn’t Material Things

future.”

Cecilia looked at Kara’s leaving back, lost in thought.

Isabella doesn’t need another sister to go shopping, cat, and do beauty treatments...

The direction of her life is in medicine, which is the complete opposite of what Cecilia wants.

So, it doesn’t matter how many times Cecilia runs.

Chapter 377 You Are Too Confused

All Isabella wants is for her family to be happy.

As long as Cecilia keeps her own place, the happy atmosphere in the family can continue...

Cecilia thought, if one day, Isabella finds that she has changed her mind and started a new life, will she treat her differently and accept her as a younger sister??

If so, she is willing to keep trying.

As soon as she walked out of the medical university, Cecilia heard two voices.

“Cecilia, why are you here?”

Williams and Eloise had just got out of the car, carrying a lot of things in their hands, obviously coming to visit Isabella.

“Dad, Mom... Scarlet, why are you here?”

“We wanted to see Isabella, and see you again. Scarlet said he missed you, so he followed us to see.”
Eloise asked curiously, Cecilia, why are you here?”

“I, I will send some milk and bread to my sister, but...”

Cecilia thought for a while, but she couldn't say that Isabella didn't accept her kindness. Wouldn't this mean that she was speaking ill of Isabella in disguise?

So she turned around and said, “But I didn't meet her.”

Oh... so I didn't meet you.

“Then did you call her?” Eloise asked concerned, “I heard that you often run to the medical university recently? Why do you run so often? Hey, when did you start reading medical books? Probably not, this is also for your sister prepare?”

“Hmm... sister may be busy. I'll come back next time.” Seeing that Eloise was about to call Isabella, Cecilia hurriedly said, “Don't talk about my coming to the medical university, I want to order this book and other delicious things.” Bring it to my sister personally for the first time... You go to visit my sister first, and I will go back to Bomsville University.”

“Then...” Eloise looked at Scarlet again, “Then send Cecilia back to Bomsville University first, and we'll go there later.”

“good.”

Scarlet had discovered that Cecilia had changed since just now, and after Williams and Eloise left, she couldn't help asking what happened.

When Cecilia tried to be friends with Isabella, but repeatedly hit the wall, she was terrified.

“Miss Logan, you are so stupid! How could someone like Isabella be your friend? She is clearly trying to make things difficult for you!!”

“I ran here every day by myself. Besides, I did do a lot of wrong things before. It’s normal for her not to believe me so quickly.”

Cecilia walked in the direction of Bomsville University and said,

“This time I have made it clear that instead of being an enemy of her in private, it is better to get along with her. At least I can continue to stay in this family, and I can still have my parents and grandpa.”
Grandma, grandparents, and the love of my brothers.”

Miss Logan, you are so confused! Isabella just came back to this home, and she doesn’t have a deep relationship with Elder Mr. and Mrs. This is your best chance to turn around. After that, she will get along with everyone in the family. People respect her, how can she tolerate you then?”

“As long as I have a good relationship with her, she will naturally tolerate me. The Logan Family is so big, isn’t there room for me? She is not a narrow-minded person.”

“Miss Logan, who has led you astray? Do you know her? How do you know what kind of person she is?”
Scarlet became more anxious. “No matter how good a relationship is, it is vulnerable to interests! Little girl. I don’t know the dangers of the human heart and the darkness of the society, you and her are not related by blood, and the magnetic field of each other is not compatible, it is impossible for you to get along together in this life...”

“Scarlet, she never took the initiative to feel sorry for me. Every time we picked the head first, she just hit us a little bit, and she didn’t behave too much to us. Why don’t we live in peace and be friendly?”

“That’s because she doesn’t have a deep relationship with other people in the family. She needs time to settle down, so she won’t make big moves now. When she is full-fledged, you can see how she will deal with you.”

“Okay Scarlet, I know you are doing it for my own good, but I have my own ideas.” When Cecilia said this, she remembered the disappointed eyes of her second brother, lowered her eyes and said. “I really don’t want to see my second brother disappointed.” It looks like it.”

In the past, it was the eldest brother who was disappointed in her, but now it is the second brother....

If the whole family were disappointed in her in the future, it would be too late for her to regret it.

“Mr. Elder and Mrs. first went to see her at her school, and then went to see you at Bomsville University. The order and the gifts they brought are different...Don’t you understand... Your position in the Logan Family, It’s already in jeopardy...”

“Okay Scarlet, I know.”

Scarlet sighed and didn’t say any more, just frowning, looking worried.

“I’ll take you around our school. There are a few more restaurants opened there. Let’s call our parents and eat there.”

Seeing Cecilia’s innocent smile, Scarlet sighed again. Forget it, it’s useless to persuade her now. I’d better wait until she hits the wall repeatedly with Isabella before trying to persuade her...

I don’t know what method Isabella used in that dead girl movie to make such a big change in Cecilia.

This dead girl is becoming more and more unbearable.

the other side.

Isabella gets a call from Lucy.

Isabella, three months are up... The HR department asked me to do the handover work in these two days... Wooo. Back then, with the help of Lisa and Isabella, Lucy's house occupied by her uncle's family wanted to come back, and the group also wanted to come. back. She originally wanted to stay with Isabella to study for three, five, or even ten years....

But Isabella only gave her three months, because Isabella thought she was very smart and thoughtful, and three months was enough for her to lay a solid foundation and go back to manage her own group.

"As I said, if you have any problems with the group in the future, just come to me." Isabella said with a smile.

"You are so kind. If I hadn't met you, my life would have been completely opposite. Now I don't know where I'm slumped..."

Lucy was also concerned about her recent schooling, chatted back and forth, and then talked about the competition, "What should I do, the international competition is coming soon..."

Last time she participated in the American Design Competition with Isabella and won the first place.

The top three winners from each country are eligible to participate in the next round of the international design competition...

But this time it's a one-man race, and Lucy can only compete by himself.

"Come on, the top five will definitely be fine."

Isabella recently received the latest design draft from the company at school. Lucy's design caught her eyes, and she has improved a lot compared to last month.

But this time there are several well-known designers in the competition. Their works are very good, and they are very strong competitors of Lucy.

“My eldest brother will also be a judge at that time.” Isabella said.

“Huh? Is Mr. Logan going too? Great!”

There is someone I know, and I am a little more confident.

Otherwise, people who are unfamiliar with foreign countries will always make people nervous...

Chapter 378

In the next few days. Isabella was still busy in the laboratory, but there were more and more rumors outside.

“It’s been almost a month since school started, and I heard that No. 1 with a perfect score has only attended a few days of classes until now. I really think that I have a perfect score.”

The teacher in the first class of doctors cherishes her talent very much. She has never approached her privately, and the whole class also praises her very much.”

“Isn’t it just that I took a red flag during training and gave the whole class a day off? What’s so great about it?”

Kara, who was going to the bathroom, heard this and couldn’t help. but sneered, “It’s nothing special, but it seems like no one in your western medicine class can do it?”

“You...” The short-haired girl was scolding her friend, but when she saw Kara, she couldn’t help but said, “I know you...you’re Isabella’s friend. We’re talking about Isabella, what’s the matter with you?”

“You’ve already said that I’m her friend, and her business is mine. But you, what does it matter to you whether people come to school or not? It’s so lenient!”

“You...” The short-haired girl was furious.

After washing her hands, Kara was about to walk out of the bathroom door, as if she thought of something, she stopped suddenly, “Oh, by the way, Isabella doesn’t come to class, it’s because she has the capital, not everyone needs to sit in the classroom to study of.”

With Isabella’s abilities, being in the classroom is a waste of time.

What really attracted her to come to the Medical University was the sky-high equipment in the laboratory and the joint research of new drug formulations with Mr. Brown.

Why can’t an old man run to her and a little girl every day to do experiments at his age?

After Kara left the bathroom, she went back to her seat in the restaurant, “There are so many people these days.”

“What’s the matter?” Isabella raised her eyes and saw that her face was a little angry, and she looked inexplicably cute.

Kara told her what happened, and Poll on the side couldn’t help but said. “I’ve also been pissed off by those people recently, maybe Isabella’s No. 1 halo is too bright, so everyone is paying attention to her.”

“Me too. When I took the elevator to classroom 3303 last time, I heard someone say that Isabella doesn’t attend class... I just want to ask, what does it matter to them whether Isabella attends class?!”

Isabella thought for a while, she didn't go to class for a long time, so she asked. "What class is next?"

"Recipe.

It mainly talks about the efficacy of American and Western medicine, diagnosis and treatment, etc. Because the theories are similar, people from the first class of doctors and the first class of Western medicine will attend the class together.

"Go, show your face."

Hearing that Isabella was going to class, Kara was stunned, "Hey, wait for me..."

Today's professor of pharmacy is a kind-faced old man, dressed in plain clothes and wearing a pair of glasses.

Because there were too many people in the class, he couldn't name them one by one. He just asked the monitors of each class to count the number of people. He was a little surprised to learn that all the people in the doctor's class had come today.

"The perfect score No. 1 is here? Let me see which little girl it is?" The old professor lowered his eyes, looked at the audience with a smile through the glasses on the bridge of his nose, and seemed to be curious about who the perfect score No. 1 was.

"No. 1 is here!"

"This, this, this!"

No. 1 in our class."

Everyone in the first class of doctors was enthusiastic and eager to introduce Isabella to Professor Wang, but the first class of western medicine “cut” and looked indifferent.

Isabella stood up under the gaze of the old professor, and said politely, “Hi, professor, I’m Isabella.”

“Finally came to class...” The old professor smiled. She was a naturally beautiful girl who looked very smart.

The people in the first class of western medicine thought that the old professor would settle accounts with Isabella, but the next second, the old professor smiled and asked, “You have such good grades, why did you choose to come to the University of Medicine and take the path of medicine?”

Isabella said without thinking, “I want to save people.”

“There are many ways to save people, and Western medicine can also save people...”

Medicine is something left by the ancestors, and someone should carry it forward.”

“Okay, okay, I’m an ambitious kid... Please sit down.” The old professor smiled and looked at everyone. “Some people like to be doctors, so I’ll talk about it in this class. Regarding colds, how do different doctors differ?” The way it is handled...”

He looked at the people in the two classes, “I would like to ask the students in the western medicine class to tell me, what do you do when you usually catch a cold? Let me do the roll call, Doreen.

In the crowd, a short-haired girl stood up. It was the one who spoke ill of Isabella in the bathroom just now.

“When I have a cold, I usually just pack a pack of cold medicine. I don’t look like a doctor who has to pick and boil herbs... right, full score No. 1 ?”

Many western medicine students laughed out loud.

Everyone in the doctor's class was filled with righteous indignation, but they couldn't think of an excuse to refute.

It was Isabella who said calmly, "No one told you that cold medicine is our foundation?"

Doreen froze for a moment, then laughed again, "Did you hear that? No. 1 out of 1 said that cold medicine is our foundation? In No. 1's eyes, granules are the foundation?"

Other medical students also laughed:

"I thought the perfect score No. 1 was so good, but I didn't expect to make such a low-level mistake."

"Isn't this common sense? That's it... and she got a full score of No. 1. I even wonder if her Enter University exam score is fake."

"It seems that the full score No. 1 is nothing more than that."

"It's the foundation." Isabella said unhurriedly, and the entire doctor class was stunned, and their eyes were filled with admiration when they looked at her.

"In modern medicine, it is mainly used to treat influenza, hepatitis, gastritis and other diseases."

The people in the western medicine class saw that what she said was logical, and hurriedly took out their mobile phones to check, it was really herbal medicine!!

"Doreen, it's really the foundation!" Someone reminded in a low voice. "Is there any other medicine that can replace it?"

“I, I don’t take much cold medicine...” Doreen just finished. speaking.

Isabella raised the corners of her lips and talked freely.

Doreen was stunned, and so were the people in the western

Isabella continued. “When you have a cold, it is best to choose a doctor’s treatment, because Western medicine usually takes cold medicine and antibiotics first, and the course of treatment is long and it is easy to cause side effects such as bacterial resistance.”

Everyone listened to her as if she was listening to a bible.

“Doctors focus on treating the root cause. On the one hand, they use herbal medicines to reduce inflammation and detoxify, and on the other hand, they focus on improving body functions and strengthening immunity.”

Chapter 379 Let her show off

“Compared with Western medicine, the doctor’s treatment is clearer, more active, and has no side effects.”

The whole doctor ‘s class immediately applauded, it’s so loud!

Isabella is amazing!

When they were in class before, they were only crushed by Western medicine.

Unexpectedly, as soon as the perfect score No. 1 comes, their aura is fully opened, and their heads can also be lifted up!

Doreen was told that she could neither stand nor sit, and was extremely embarrassed.

“Hahahaha... It seems that Isabella has learned a lot of knowledge in this area. Yes, the cold medicine that Isabella mentioned just now is really basic. What Isabella said is very good. Doreen, you should study more after class. Please sit down.”

Doreen sat down in embarrassment, and his friend Edna couldn't help standing up. “Professor, I have a question to ask for full marks No. 1. ”

How could the old professor fail to see that the people in the western medicine class and the doctors in the class obviously got married. To be precise, they got married with No. 1.

“Full score No. 1 said herbal medicine is so good. I have been suffering from a cold for six days. After taking the herbal medicine you said, why is it still not getting better? Is it because No. 1 has a problem with herbal medicine, exaggerated, magnified its efficacy. or herbal medicine Is it not as effective as western medicine?”

This question was very provocative, but Isabella just said lightly, “Who knows how you usually cat?”

One pack a day is also taken, and one pack every three days is also taken. Who knows if there are other things in the process of cating that will affect the efficacy of the medicine.

“You...” Edna smiled angrily, “I think the perfect score of No. 1 is only on paper. If you really want to deal with the illness, I'm afraid you can't think of any good way...”

“This little problem needs to be thought through?” Isabella looked at her with interest, “Want to get better? Come to the podium.”

Edna was stunned, and everyone in the classroom was also stunned. This is Isabella, which one is she playing?

Why can't they understand?

"Why, dare not?" Isabella raised the corners of her lips and looked at her amusedly.

"Who said I dare not?"

Although I don't know what Isabella wants to do, but in front of so many people, forgive her for not being able to come up with any tricks.

Seeing two classmates standing on the podium, the old professor stepped aside with great interest. He wanted to know how the little girl Isabella would deal with it.

Edna stretched out his hand, didn't he want to feel her pulse? Doctors really waste their time...

Isabella put a hand on her pulse and looked back at the old professor.

When the class bell rang just now, she saw the professor bring in an acupuncture kit. At this moment, she asked politely, "Professor, can you lend me the acupuncture kit?"

"Yes, on the table."

Acupuncture??

Isabella wants to treat Edna's cold with needles ??

she crazy??

Edna hastily withdrew his hand, "Are you a doctor? The needles were pricked randomly?"

“It’s not what you said, you want to get better?” Isabella simply sterilized the silver needle with alcohol. Seeing that Edna hid her hand behind her back and dared not stretch it out. Isabella directly grabbed her hand and placed it on the radial side of her thumb, apart from it. On the ShaoThirza point at the 0.1-inch corner of the nail, after disinfecting with an alcohol cotton ball, inject it directly with one injection.

“Ah...” Edna cried out.

Everyone in the classroom was stunned, especially Doreen, who stared wide-eyed, unable to believe that Isabella had acted so excessively.

Isabella, are you crazy? Professor, drive her off...” Doreen was about to rush to the podium to save someone.

Isabella saw the blood dripping out, and squeezed out the bleeding port again to increase the amount of bleeding. After draining two drops of blood, she pressed the bleeding port with a sterile dry cotton ball.

“alright.”

“You...” Just as Edna was about to get angry, she suddenly felt obvious relaxation in her throat. She couldn’t believe it, and cleared her throat again, and was surprised to find that her throat was not as painful as before! so amazing!!

The professor on the side laughed loudly. “For decades of teaching and educating people, it’s the first time I’ve seen a student who takes less than three seconds to feel the pulse and gets the needle so accurately. Student Isabella, look at the point where you gave the needle. Student Edna has a cold. Sore throat caused?”

“Yes.” Isabella put the silver needles back in place after they were sterilized.

“Student Edna, tell me, is it getting better...”

Edna was stunned and stunned, and she nodded after a while, “Yes. my throat doesn’t hurt so much... I can say it’s much more comfortable.”

“This is what doctors do with acupuncture. Isabella did a great job.”

When the professor said a word, the whole class of doctors burst into applause, No. 1 is No. 1, cow!!

The acupuncture effect is too fast!!

“I don’t know if you have noticed that Isabella helped disinfect the silver needles and put them back in place after the injection. This is a very good move. Please learn from her and give her warm applause again.”

Now, many people in the western medicine class applauded.

Doreen didn’t expect the students in her class to quit so quickly, let alone let Isabella get the limelight.

“Two students, please go back to your respective seats.” After the old professor let them go down, he explained. “For sore throats caused by colds, pricking and bloodletting can be very effective. The specific method was also performed by Isabella just now. Look, well done, nothing wrong.”

When the old professor said this, he took the opportunity to say, Doctors are profound and profound, and their wisdom is no worse than that of Western medicine. No matter whether you want to study medicine or Western medicine. just make it clear that you are sitting here studying for the purpose of getting out of the campus in the future.”. With the ability to save people, understand this, it is better to study doctors or Western medicine, it is no longer a question worth discussing, and there is no need for everyone to make enemies because of this.”

As long as the purpose is the same, they are all contributing to society.

After class, many students went to Isabella.

Student Isabella, I have had a stiff neck for many days, can you give me an injection ?”

"I have had a stuffy nose for several days, please give me ant

Kara and the other two roommates were almost fainted by their questions.

"Sorry everyone, Isabella still has something to do, next time." Kara helped maintain order.

"Yes, yes, next time. Isabella has other plans for today, I'm sorry..." Poll also helped to block the crowd.

"Isabella, let's go..." Millic hugged Isabella's arm and entered the elevator as if fleeing for her life. After the elevator door closed, she breathed a sigh of relief. Bar?"

"Yes." Isabella replied solemnly, "Take the acupuncture points of Zu Shaoyang, Yangming and Taiyin, and focus on these three points."

"Isn't it? Is it really possible?" Millic looked at her with admiring eyes. "You are so amazing... It seems that there is no question in the world that you can't answer..."

Chapter 380 Hitting Their Car

As soon as Isabella walked out of the teaching building, she saw a familiar figure from a distance. Why did he come?

Millic's eyes met Benjamin, she held Isabella tightly one second, let go of her hand the next second, and explained, "I, I brought your wife, goodbye."

Seeing her running so fast and almost tripping, Isabella couldn't help laughing.

"How did you come?"

“Tell me, have you ignored me for a few days?” Benjamin ignored the attention of the seven or eight girls around him, and reached out to touch Isabella’s face, “Forget about me as soon as you do the experiment.”

Isabella thought about it, she seems to have been busy with research recently, either the messages were not replied in time, or the phone calls were not received, and even the video chats every night were reduced...

“Come on, I’ll show you something.” Benjamin took her hand and left the campus.

The car quickly arrived at Benjamin’s nearest residence.

Isabella followed him to the third floor, only to find that he had turned the entire floor into a huge transparent laboratory.

The laboratory not only has the same type of medical equipment purchased by Mr. Brown with a huge sum of money, but also various advanced equipment...

Some are even more advanced than those bought by Mr. Brown.

“You are...”

“In this way, you will come here often.” Benjamin took her hand and went in to visit. “Drug research, drug analysis, drug production, and various systems are the best at present.”

Isabella’s eyes flicked over the medical equipment, and her heart was moved.

If Mr. Brown was here, they could do the experiment right away...

Benjamin noticed that her eyes lit up, she was happier than seeing him, and couldn't help being jealous...

How good are these cold equipment? Comparable to him?

"Now, is it time to praise me?"

Benjamin was just about to hear a few good words, but unexpectedly, Isabella stood on tiptoe and kissed him, then immediately opened a system, entered the data made today, and the system analyzed the pros and cons.

This system can greatly save her time waiting for the result. It is a sky-high price system that she has always wanted to get, but is reluctant to get it...

Benjamin was stunned for a moment, and when he came back to his senses, he saw that the girl was seriously inputting string after string of data, every number and every symbol was familiar by heart...

Her eyes were very serious and focused, staring at the screen, as if she was waiting for a result that was in line with the prediction in her heart.

Unconsciously. Benjamin's eyes were attracted to her, until a few minutes later, the system analyzed a lot of data, and Isabella was so happy that she couldn't help taking out her phone.

“Grandpa, the results of our data came out, and a series of reactions. occurred in TR1 and VO3, which shows that our plan is feasible.”

The previous three plans failed, but the latest one succeeded. Isabella ‘s voice became excited.

“Really? Don’t you have to wait until a week later to know the result? How did you know the result so quickly?”

“No more waiting a week.”

The medical equipment purchased by Benjamin can greatly save her experiment time.

Mr. Brown obviously didn’t understand what it means not to wait a week, but he was also excited when he heard Isabella was so happy, “So, the next plan can continue.”

“Yes, no accidents, it will be completed soon, and the application for listing will be made.”

Isabella was a little excited inside, as long as she was listed, more people could be saved.

After hanging up the phone, Isabella ‘s eyes returned to the screen, remembering the Alzheimer’s project she was still working on in private, and she entered a series of data to create a new file in the system.

Benjamin on the side...

While it’s charming to see your baby working hard, he doesn’t want to spend all day in the lab like a sculpture...

So he cleared his throat, “ Isabella...”

“Wait.” Isabella’s attention was on the screen, and it took a while before she asked. “What’s the matter?”

“...” Benjamin checked the time, half an hour had passed, and his baby was only responding to him now...

“Half an hour.”

Isabella :???

Is there half an hour??

She just entered a little data, so much time has passed?.

Seeing the man who was left hanging by the side. Isabella could only file first, and then said, “Okay, what’s the plan for today?”

Seeing that he bought so many equipment, Isabella intends to cooperate with him.

“I want to take you somewhere.”

Isabella’s eyes lit up again. “Is there any equipment?”

“...” Benjamin didn’t expect the equipment to hold such a heavy place in her heart, and suddenly became even more sour, “There is only one me, do you want it?”

"It's okay..." The light in Isabella's eyes dimmed again.

Benjamin...

It turned out that he was really inferior to these experimental equipment.

After leaving the residence, Isabella looked a little sad, "Come and pick me up tomorrow."

Benjamin wanted to be happy just now, but then she came here for the experimental equipment, and she was a little depressed...

"When I finish the experiment. I will have more time with you." Isabella seemed to see his thoughts and smiled at him.

"When you finish, there will be more experiments waiting for you to complete." Benjamin knew that for her, the experiments would never be finished...

What can I do with such a research-loving fiancée on the stall, I can only pamper her.

At this moment, a car slammed into their car, Benjamin subconsciously held Isabella in his arms, and Green, who was driving, couldn't help but said, " Benjamin, Ms. Young, be careful, there is an ambush."

Another car hit the rear of their car. Benjamin held the girl in his arms tightly, bloodthirsty anger flashed in his eyes.

It doesn't matter if you come towards him, but the girl who dares to scare him...

Hitting Their Car

There were cars flanking the left and right, and there was another car chasing after him. Green glanced at the rearview mirror, and then at the situation on both sides, "Benjamin, Ms. Young, sit still."

Now there is only one way to break through, otherwise they will be outflanked, and the consequences will not be optimistic....

This is the outskirts, and this section of the road happens to be in the wilderness, with only a few cars chasing each other.

Green turned the steering wheel to hit the car on the left, turned the steering wheel quickly, and hit the car on the right, but the car behind him, as if in revenge, hit them hard.

At this moment, a large truck appeared in front of them, directly blocking their way.

Green slammed on the brakes.

Four cars surrounded Benjamin's car, and Green pressed the emergency call button on the car to send an internal connection to the bodyguard captain and send the real-time location.

"I'll take care of it. You wait for me obediently in the car, and you are not allowed to get out of the car without my consent." Benjamin looked at the girl in his arms and asked softly. "Did you hear that?"

"Yeah." Isabella nodded, but she didn't hear, she didn't hear a single word of what Benjamin said just now.

After Green and Benjamin got out of the car, many people got off from the four cars.
