

Chased Her 381

Chapter 381

The leading foreign man was tall and fierce, with blond hair tied into a braid behind his head. He wore a mask and said in broken English, "I only want the girl in the car. I didn't mean to offend you just now. Please forgive me."

"What do you want that girl in the car for?" Green looked at the twenty or so people in front of him, and couldn't help asking, "Who sent you here?"

"Sorry, no comment." Several people took out their weapons and pointed at Green.

Benjamin stood there, exuding a cold aura, he raised the corners of his lips. "Just send a few of you to pick up my fiancée? Isn't this sincere enough?"

Who do you look down on?

His Benjamin's fiancée, just how many people pick him up? No side at all.

A murderous intent flashed in the foreign man's eyes.

"Give you a little time, call more people." Benjamin raised his hand and looked at his watch, "Is five minutes enough?"

"You..." The foreign man was completely irritated, "Don't think you are Benjamin so I dare not touch you!"

Just now, I gave him face and asked him to take his assistant to go, but he didn't, he was looking for a dead end!

"This Bomsville is all under his influence, there is no need to provoke him, we only want that girl..." Someone whispered in the foreign man's car.

The foreign man cursed and looked at Benjamin, "Hand me over, and I can let you live."

"Oh? Isn't the person with you?" Benjamin raised his chin and motioned behind him.

Just as the foreign man was about to turn around, a knife was already on his neck. Isabella raised the corners of her lips. "I heard you want to arrest me?"

"You, you..." The foreign man couldn't believe that a little girl was able to approach him without anyone noticing. The point is, not only him, but a dozen of his subordinates didn't notice at all. her approach!

Who is she?

No wonder there is such a high reward on the reward list...

It turns out that this person is not easy to catch...

"You you you...you let him go!"

"Don't touch our boss."

"Put down your knife quickly."

Not only did Isabella ignore the words of these younger brothers, but she wiped them directly, and the foreign man's neck was instantly dripping with blood.

"Who sent you here?" Isabella raised her eyebrows, her appearance was breathtakingly beautiful.

The foreign man didn't expect that she would really dare to strike, and wanted to cover her neck, but Isabella's knife was a little closer.

He was a little scared. "I, I don't know who that person is... I took the order on the reward list..."

Is the reward list...

Coincidentally, she also has an account to log in to that website. However, this must be a new order. If the order was placed a few days ago, it is impossible for her subordinates to not notice...

At this moment, more than a dozen black cars surrounded the place in an instant, and it was Benjamin's bodyguard team who came.

The foreign man knew that the matter had been exposed, and was about to take medicine to commit suicide, but Isabella found out first and knocked him unconscious.

"Isabella, let them take care of the rest." Benjamin held out his hand to signal her to come over.

Isabella pushed the man to Green, and the rest were quickly caught by Benjamin's bodyguards...

Isabella wiped her hands with the disinfectant tissue in the car, and suddenly, she was picked up and spanked on her ass.

"Who asked you to get out of the car?" Benjamin didn't expect her to be so bold as to go around behind the group of people, "What if they find out?"

"How could I be discovered by them?" Isabella didn't expect Benjamin to hit her after they had known each other for so long, "You hit me?"

“Do you know it was dangerous just now?” Benjamin’s expression didn’t look like a joke, “I said, I will solve it, don’t you believe me?”

“It’s not that I don’t believe you.”

However, when the group of people dented the car door, they almost hit him...

Isabella just wanted to vent his anger.

“What’s the reason? Huh?” Benjamin kept holding her, looking into her eyes. “Caring about me? Want to vent my anger? Okay, I’ll tie someone up in front of you and let you vent, but you can’t be like that just now...”

Isabella felt that he was too noisy, put her arms around his neck, and kissed her lips directly.

Benjamin was stunned, kissed by her, and it took a while to hear her say, “You have domestic violence tendencies.”

Benjamin:???

A slap on the butt has a tendency to domestic violence?

“Slap me next time, and you won’t be able to taste the sweetness.” Isabella had never been spanked before in such a big age, especially in front of so many people, it was embarrassing.

“I’m worried about you.” Benjamin looked into her eyes and suddenly softened, “Does it hurt?”

“Let me sec.” Benjamin carried her into the car and was about to lift her skirt.

“What are you doing!”

“See if it’s red.”

Green finished handling things and was about to get in the car when he suddenly saw Benjamin about to lift Ms. Young ‘s skirt...

This, such a crazy progress, can one of his assistants watch it?

Seeing him coming, Benjamin’s eyes were a little displeased, “It’s really time for you to come.”

“I, I just...” Green was about to turn around.

Green, take me back to school.”

“Ah? This...” Green looked at Isabella and then at Benjamin. Is there something wrong between the young couple?

“I was in a hurry just now. I didn’t hit you on purpose. You don’t take your own safety seriously...” Benjamin cupped her face and coaxed softly, “You want to call me back?”

Isabella didn’t speak, as if deliberately leaving him alone.

“Green, stop by the fruit store on the roadside and buy me a durian.”

“Ah???” Green was stunned, Benjamin is going back to kneel down on the durian??

“Is durian okay?” Benjamin was still asking the girl in front of him. “Or do you like cactus?”

Isabella couldn’t help it, the corners of her mouth raised slightly.

"I finally laughed." Benjamin heaved a sigh of relief, and the corners of his mouth rose, "I'm most afraid that you will be angry."

She is the only little girl in the whole world who dares to show him face...

"Who told you to do it?"

"It's the impulsiveness of the hand itself, and it's none of my business."

"I will take good care of him next time and won't beat you again."

"Besides, it wasn't a fight just now, so don't do such a dangerous thing next time?" Benjamin was still coaxing her, "At that time, I found you walking behind him, and I was really afraid that something would happen to you."

Green: When I was pointed at by so many weapons just now, I didn't see you, Benjamin, caring about me...

"That..." Benjamin hesitated to speak, observed her expression, and asked cautiously. "It's the first offense just now, can the punishment be taken back?"

Just now Isabella said that if you hit her, you won't be able to taste the sweetness...

Isabella reacted, and raised the corners of her lips, "It depends on your performance."

"What kind of performance will you be satisfied with? You can't hit you with your hands, do you have to kiss and touch you?"

Unexpectedly, Benjamin made a fuss again, Isabella raised her eyebrows, "Try to do it again."

Benjamin settled down immediately.

Chapter 382 Guaranteed or not?

Green, who was driving, glanced at the rearview mirror and couldn't help asking, " Benjamin, should we send Ms. Young back to school first, or..."

Benjamin, "Go home."

Isabella, "School."

The two spoke in unison and looked at each other again.

"The identities and motives of those people haven't been clarified yet. If you go to school, you will bring danger to your classmates." Benjamin persuaded solemnly, "Stay by my side, I will protect you.

Isabella Huh? Who was protecting whom just now?

"Have any news come from our people?" Benjamin glanced at Green in the driver's seat.

"Not yet...but if it falls into our hands, even a dumb person will have to speak..."

"I found it." Isabella's slender fingers invaded the background of the reward website, and quickly found out the person's IP address. "The person who posted the reward was posted at 11 o'clock last night, and the reward is 50 million."

I didn't expect her to be worth such a little money as a big boss...

Green's eyes widened, and he glanced in the rearview mirror in disbelief.

Benjamin looked at the little girl with deep eyes, but he didn't expect the little girl's ability to become more and more powerful.

"Deer Mountain is located at the junction of Maple Leaf City and Bomsville, a neighboring city. No one usually goes there to climb and play, because the mountain is steep and 90 degrees vertical, and there is not even a foothold, so there is no surveillance there."

"There are three nearby roads with vehicles passing by, and there are eleven vehicles in total that pass through the mountain after 11 o'clock."

"I tracked these 11 vehicles and found that their driving trajectories were normal along the way, and they didn't mean to avoid the camera."

Isabella tapped the screen again with her slender fingers to zoom in on the monitoring screen. "But look at this, among the eleven vehicles, there is a large truck, and a Toyota vehicle coming from the other direction passed the bottom of the Bridge and came out. At that time, there was an extra Mercedes-Benz."

That is to say, after the truck and Toyota passed under the bridge at the same time, a Mercedes-Benz suddenly appeared.

Where did this Mercedes come from?

"So, you suspect that this Mercedes came out of a truck? Both the truck and this Mercedes have problems?" Benjamin looked at the little girl beside him.

Guaranteed or not?

"That's right." Isabella checked the direction of the truck's next direction and found that it drove into a scrap car recycling station, and then suddenly exploded.

Isabella checked the next destination of the Mercedes-Benz, and found that it drove silently from the Bridge to the West Lake.

Where did the people in the car flee to??

Isabella checked for a while, and Benjamin admired her serious profile, and couldn't help but raise the corners of his lips.

His baby is so beautiful.

"The driver of the truck died. He left a suicide note before he died, saying that he owed a lot of money outside and didn't want to die. He set himself on fire. Apart from that, there was no one else on the truck."

Isabella shared the information she found, "There is also that Mercedes-Benz, the driver was drunk, hit the railing and fell into the West Lake, the car was destroyed when it was picked up the next day, but..."

"But what?" Benjamin asked again.

"This Mercedes-Benz drove well...the whole process didn't look like a drunk driving..." Isabella fell into deep thought. After a while, she suddenly realized what she had neglected, and immediately checked on her mobile phone.

"Any clues?"

"Well, we ignored that Toyota. If I'm not mistaken, this truck and Mercedes-Benz are all illusions created by the behind-the-scenes for the purpose of confusing us and biasing our thinking. In fact, the point is In that Toyota car, if I guessed correctly, the bounty offerer should be in the Toyota car!"

Isabella clicked on the monitoring screen of the Toyota and found that it drove to an abandoned factory and left not long after.

After a while, another Porsche drove out of the abandoned factory...

It should be the person in the Toyota car, and then switched to the Porsche...

Isabella followed the clues to the end and found that the Porsche was parked in one place.

“Midsummer Light Year Villa.”

Benjamin’s eyes deepened. “That’s where the Ray Family lives.”

the person who wanted to kill Ms. Young was from the Ray Family?” Green, who was driving, was stunned. Unexpectedly, it took Ms. Young less than ten minutes to find out who was behind the scenes.

But how could it be the Ray Family?

The Ray Family and the Young Family have a close friendship, and they know the identity of Ms. Young, who is Benjamin’s fiancée.

Even if they had a hundred guts, they would not dare to attack Ms. Young.

Isabella continued to check and found that Jennifer did return home at twelve o’clock last night...

Came back with her, and Lori...

Now that the evidence is solid, Isabella looked at Benjamin, “Will you guarantee it?”

After all, Ray had saved Benjamin’s father...

If he hadn't discovered it in time. Benjamin 's father would have drowned in the swimming pool long ago, and he wouldn't have married a wife and had children when he grew up, and gave birth to Benjamin...

All in all, this kindness is beyond heaven.

Benjamin's eyes became complicated, and he said after a while, "Paul."

"OK."

Since she wanted to keep it safe, Isabella didn't intend to embarrass them.

"Keep their family ruined."

Dare to touch his baby?

How can they go bankrupt, no family is ruined, wives are separated, how can they be worthy of their feat of paying for murder.

Isabella originally thought that Benjamin wanted to keep the Ray Family safe, but never expected...

"You handle this matter, I'll take care of the aftermath." Benjamin said softly.

"Okay." Isabella directly packed the evidence and sent it to the police station. Soon, several police cars rang through the street and went directly to the Ray Family to arrest people.

The parents of Ray Family didn't believe it when they heard that their daughter had bought a murderer. They watched their daughter and niece being taken away. They panicked and called Ray for help.

As soon as Ray heard that it was related to Isabella, he called Benjamin again without Isabella 's phone number.

Benjamin deliberately left him alone, so he could only find Pius himself, and when he entered the door, he was so anxious that his voice choked up.

“Did your granddaughter-in-law misunderstand something? How could Lori and Jennifer pay to kill her? The two of them couldn’t bear to trample an ant to death since they were young. They definitely didn’t do this...”

Mr. Ray was really anxious, regardless of his appearance, he held Pius’s hands and said eagerly, “Call your granddaughter-in-law quickly and let him out first, how did Lori and Jennifer suffer like this? Didn’t it hurt the peace of the two families!”

After the fake chess incident last time, although he didn’t like the Ray Family, he still asked, “What’s going on?”

Ray told Pius what had happened, but Pius had a cold face, and withdrew his hand. “Isabella must not be mistaken, she said that your two granddaughters hired murderers, so your two granddaughters must have done something shameful.” thing!”

Chapter 383 was pushed down

Ray was stunned, “Mr. Manson, the matter hasn’t been investigated yet, why did you jump to conclusions so quickly? My two granddaughters had a little conflict with your granddaughter-in-law, but it’s not enough to buy murder To such an extent...someone must want to drive a wedge between our two families...”

“You mean Isabella is slandering you?” Pius looked very unhappy. if there was a table in his hands at this moment, he would definitely overturn it.

release Jennifer and Lori before the matter is clarified...”

"You've said it all. It's Isabella's idea. I can't be the master." Pius waved his hand and was about to leave the living room and go upstairs.

"Mr. Manson, she is your unmarried granddaughter-in-law. If you say a word, does she dare not listen?"

"Then you are wrong." Pius turned around and corrected word by word. "It is precisely because she is the granddaughter-in-law of our Young Family, so no matter what she does, I will fully support her. Bullying her under my nose, I still want to pursue it to the end! You better hope that your two granddaughters don't do anything utterly unconscionable... Otherwise, I will never let you down!"

"Mr. Manson!!" Seeing that Pius didn't intend to intervene in this matter, Ray immediately became angry, "Don't forget, I saved your son back then! Otherwise, where would you have a grandson or granddaughter-in-law now!"

"To put it nicely, the Young Family owes me a favor. To put it bluntly, the Young Family owes me two lives!"

If he hadn't saved Benjamin's father back then, then Benjamin would not have been born...

It can be said that he saved two Young Family members at once.

"So, you are begging for my life-saving favor now?" Pius's eyes showed a hint of contempt.

"That's right!" Ray disregarded the friendship between the two families, and directly teared his face apart. "Even if Lori and Jennifer did something wrong, I saved the lives of your son and grandson, you let them go, it's even!"

"Those two granddaughters of yours combined are worth half the life of my son? If you Ray Family really try to kill Isabella, don't expect me to let you go!"

"Mr. Manson, you can't be ungrateful. I saved your son and gave you a grandson. Your grandson is still so outstanding. It's all because of me." Ray pressed on every step of the way. "If it's not convenient for you Come forward and communicate with Isabella, if you feel embarrassed, let me do it, you call her now, and I will tell her myself.”

“Are you trying to embarrass my granddaughter-in-law? I’m not dead yet! It’s not your turn to be an outsider...”

Before Pius finished speaking, the phone rang, and he saw that it was Isabella calling.

Ray noticed the change in his expression, needless to say, the caller

He was about to snatch Pius’ cell phone, but Pius answered it first.

The reason why he answered it was because he was reluctant to hang up on his granddaughter-in-law’s phone, and he didn’t want to pretend he didn’t see it...

“Hello? Isabella...” Pius spoke to Isabella in a soft tone, compared to just now, they are completely different.

But Isabella still heard a trace of fatigue from his tone.

Pius didn’t wait for Isabella to open his mouth and said, “Grandpa knows what you’re doing. Grandpa fully supports it. Don’t worry about doing it boldly. I’ll see who dares to stop you.”

The last sentence, he said to Ray.

Ray was so angry that he blew his beard and stared, and was about to step forward and grab the phone...

“Grandpa.” Isabella’s pleasant voice came from the other end of the phone, “I called you today to ask you, did Mr. Ray look for you? Is he by your side?”

“You... why are you asking this...”

“Speak up, I have something to say.”

Although Pius didn't want the two of them to talk directly, but since his granddaughter-in-law asked, he could only reluctantly press the speaker button.

“That's right. Benjamin 's father was pushed into the swimming pool by Mr. Ray. I have found witnesses.”

As soon as these words came out, Pius widened his eyes and looked at Mr. Ray in disbelief.

Mr. Ray's expression was startled, “You bloody girl is talking nonsense, you have killed Lori and Jennifer, and now you want to drag me into the water...”

“When Benjamin 's father was four years old, he held a grand birthday party. When he was chasing and playing with his friends, he ran to the swimming pool. Mr. Ray saw it and pushed him on the back, and he fell.”

“At that time, Mr. Ray did not save the person immediately.

Instead, Mr. Ray 's driver found it after going to the bathroom, and jumped into the water to save the person.”

“There is no surveillance near the swimming pool, it is far away from the main site, and no one saw it. The driver probably wanted to keep the child, so he told Mr. Ray that it would be more beneficial to associate with the Young Family as a 'savior', and there was no need to hurt him. Such a small child.”

“The driver left by the side door after finishing speaking. Only Mr. Ray and Benjamin 's father were left by the swimming pool. Benjamin's father had fallen into a coma at that time. Mr. Ray saw this and after thinking twice, he called someone and sent a large number of guests away. Attract it.”

“So, everyone thought he saved Benjamin ‘s father, but it wasn’t.”

Mr.Ray ‘s face became more and more ugly, and he said excitedly, “You damn girl, you are so young, why are you so good at nonsense? Make it up as if you have seen it with your own eyes!

Why, the Young Family doesn’t want to return my Thank you for saving your life, so you help come up with such a poor excuse? You said it yourself, there is no surveillance near that swimming pool...”

“Yes, I also said, I have witnesses.” Isabella said this, and said. slowly, “At that time, there was a servant named in the Young Family, who was new here, and she had never seen the upper class like this. It was a grand birthday party, so when the master wasn’t paying attention, she secretly took a video with her mobile phone and took pictures of all the decorations in the garden that day, and what you did was captured on her mobile phone!”

“yes, that’s right, there was a servant named back then...” Pius remembered, his eyes were red, and he looked at Mr. Ray angrily and tremblingly. “So. really push my son into the swimming pool You are the one who...”

Mr. Ray was a little flustered, “Your son said it himself, he slipped. and fell into the swimming pool by accident, what does it matter to me?”

“He was only four years old! He fell into the water, choked on the water. fell into a coma, and then had a fever for three days. Of course, he didn’t have any memory of how he fell! He didn’t have eyes on his back, so he didn’t know someone pushed him!”

Pius stepped forward and said angrily, “You actually did something to a four-year-old child... Over the years, you have taken a lot of benefits from our Young Family in the name of being a lifesaver! You are nothing like a beast!”

Chapter 384 There is only one way to go

“How can you believe what she said?” Mr. Ray hurriedly looked at the phone and questioned the girl on the phone, “You said that servant took a picture of what happened? All right, then send it over for everyone to see.”

“Okay.” Isabella directly sent the video to Pius’s phone, and still reminded, “Grandpa, don’t get angry.”

She was afraid that Grandpa would be furious when he saw it, and the old problem would recur...

“Don’t worry, I still have to take a breath and clean up some people who don’t know what to do!”

After Pius hung up the phone, he clicked on the video. The pixels of the mobile phone back then were really not very good, but he could vaguely see a little boy running to the pool with a smile on his face. He just finished making a phone call and came out of the garden. When he saw the child passing by, he didn’t hesitate for a second, and pushed him directly...

At that time, the little boy fell into the water before he could react.

Perhaps it was the first time he saw such a thing with her own eyes, and her phone trembled in fright. Immediately afterwards, someone rushed over and jumped into the water to save the child...

What happened afterwards was exactly the same as what Isabella said.

In order to make people believe that he saved the child, Nigel deliberately went into the water to get his whole body soaked, and then he went ashore, pretending to be anxious and calling the guests over...

After the guests arrived, all their attention was on the child, Pius and Jan hurriedly called the doctor, busy...

No one doubted the truth of the matter.

Isabella sent a second video, in which someone was asking the current He why she didn't tell the truth back then.

He said that because she was too scared at that time, and Pius quickly regarded Nigel as a savior, and he thanked Nigel and gave him a gift, so she dared not speak.

It was her first high-paying job, and she had only worked for a few days. If she lost it, her family would not be able to pay back the money owed by her family outside, and her grandma in the hospital- would soon have an operation...

At that time Nigel dared to do something to the Young Family 's child and pushed him directly into the swimming pool, so he was also afraid that after speaking out, the Ray Family would make trouble for her and take revenge on her...

If the Young Family knew that the child was pushed by Nigel, they would definitely be furious. At that time, the Ray Family might be imprisoned. If the Ray Family can't deal with the Young Family, can't they deal with her a little transparency?

She doesn't want to dic, she wants to make more money and lead the whole family out of trouble.

But later, Pius and Jan treated her better and better, and her heart

Pius closed his eyes and after a while he gathered all his grength and punched Nigel hard

Nigel was caught off guard and fell to the ground, his bones seemed to be falling apart the path made Now suffocate

"What else do you have to say now" Plus kicked him angrily agam.

Nigel didn't expect Isabella to find out the truth in such a shutt period of time Now that the exidotos is credidimming, if he insists on denying at a wall be a catastrophic for the family

So, he could only say "Mr Manson, listen to m

"You are not as good as a beast

Pius ordered another iron rod to be brought and hit Nigel hard, not wanting to listen to his nonsense at all.

Over the years, Young Family has given Ray Family a lot of benefits, so that Ray Family's development is in full swing. When Nigel repeatedly made progress, Pius deliberately tolerated it, but he didn't expect it to be a scam in the end!

"Mr. Manson, listen to me." Nigel was so dizzy from the beating that he was in so much pain that he subconsciously wanted to pull Pius's trousers.

Pius slammed down with a stick, and the crisp sound of broken hand bones spread into the air, making one's scalp tingle.

"Ah. Nigel was trembling with pain, and his face turned pale several degrees.

Didi

The phone rang again and Pius picked it up to see that it was the third video sent by Isabella.

The crimes of Jennifer and Lori, and all of Angela and Freda are recorded in the video.

"Now the evidence is overwhelming. Let me see how you argue!"

Pius threw the phone in front of him. Nigel crawled over with difficulty, and saw that his granddaughter had really paid for the murder.

He was trembling with fear.

In the past, he could rely on the grace of saving his life to save his life, but now...

“Mr. Manson, listen to me, this is because they were confused and did something wrong. When I get back, I will beat them up, beat them to death, and then bring them here, for you, the old lady, and Isabella Apologize...”

“You have no chance to go back.” Pius dropped the iron rod, and the heavy sound of the iron rod colliding with the ground chilled Nigel to the extreme.

A chill ran through his body.

No chance to go back... What do you mean?

“You were considered an attempted murder back then.” Pius took the disinfectant tissue from the butler, wiped his fingers clean, and threw the tissue on Nigel. “Returning yourself to the police is the only way you can go now.”

Nigel’s mind went blank.

He never thought of turning himself in.

If he appears in the bureau, it will be a sensational news in the United States, and the stock price of Ray Family will definitely fall accordingly...

“If it weren’t for the Young Family back then, how would you have the ability to join the upper class?” Pius gave him a cold look, “cold- hearted.”

People can’t be beaten to death. After he surrenders, there are ways to make his life worse than death.

There is only one way to go

Mr. Manson, I was wrong... because you gave that piece of land to the Roy Family back then. I was confused for a while. Really, I have also suffered day and night for decades, and I was often woken up by nightmares. I regret it very much. Why? To be able to touch a child..."

"Fortunately, fortunately, my driver jumped down to save people and gave me the credit for saving people. Mr. Manson, this incident is all my fault..."

"Jennifer and Lori, they hired murderers, obsessed with ghosts... They did wrong too, but please see for the sake of so many years of love, spare their lives... I am an old immortal, I will go to hell and ask myself The ancestors of the Young Family apologize..."

Chapter 385 What Player Are You?

Pius didn't turn his head. Hearing the sound of kowtow coming from behind, he didn't even look at Nigel, "Come on, see off."

Nigel's kowtow stopped, his whole body seemed to be suffocated, and he seemed to realize the most terrible result...

Pius doesn't intend to keep him alive, and even Lori and Jennifer won't have a chance to reform themselves...

The rest of the Ray Family, will definitely be implicated...

Now, the Ray Family is over!!

half an hour later.

The news that Nigel surrendered himself to the police station. immediately became the number one in trending.

Everyone couldn't believe that this famous philanthropist and a big entrepreneur who had been with the Young Family for decades. would be so ruthless that he almost killed Benjamin 's father...

Lori's parents were waiting for the good news at home, but their father Nigel suddenly surrendered to the police. It turned out that Benjamin's father didn't fall into the swimming pool by himself, but their father reached out.....

Lori's father was breaking out in a cold sweat. Before he could recover, he heard the housekeeper hurriedly report that the police had come to investigate a murder case many years ago.

What Player Are You?

Lori's father and Lori's mother thought together that when they drove through a mountain road many years ago, they accidentally hit and killed a little girl.

The little girl went down the mountain with her grandma after gathering herbs, and when she was tired from walking, she rested under a nearby tree. Because her grandma was thirsty, she wanted to go to the small river next to her to get some water for her to drink.

At that time, Lori's father had something urgent to rush home, the speed of the car was too fast, the car couldn't stop, and the person was directly hit and flew.

They originally wanted to have an affair with grandma, but grandma cried heartbreakingly, saying that she didn't want monetary compensation, but just wanted to pay for life with life.

Lori's father and Lori's mother learned from her that their grandparents and grandchildren had depended on each other all these years, and they had no other family or friends around them, so they just didn't do anything, directly knocked the old one to death, and threw them under the cliff.

All these years, they thought that this matter was done flawlessly, but they didn't expect that the police would suddenly come to their door today.

"Could it be Benjamin..." Lori's father felt cold all over.

Only Benjamin has this ability, as long as he has his prey, there is nothing he can't get.

Now, Ray Family is his prey, if he targets, Ray Family will be overthrown!

What Player Are You?

Lori's mother panicked, "Could it be that Isabella... I heard from my daughter before that that girl is not simple..."

No matter who it is, the predicament facing the Ray Family seems to be more troublesome than they imagined.

Before the police took them away, Lori's father also received a call from the group, saying that someone came to investigate tax evasion, the group's stock price plummeted, and people's hearts were unstable....

Soon, the news of Lori's father and Lori's mother's murder and body dumping, tax evasion and tax evasion, just appeared on the trending...

In private, they are even involved in illegal business...

It didn't take long for Lori and Jennifer 's hired killers to be trending.

The towering tree in the eyes of everyone in the past just fell down like this...

The Internet criticizes and criticizes the Ray Family, wishing to spray the Ray Family to death, thinking that they are devoid of conscience, eating steamed buns of human blood...

And Ray Family 's distant relatives and neighbors, whether in politics or business, have all been investigated by the police.

"Isabella, you did a great job!" On the phone, Kara couldn't help but praise when she saw these pieces of news, and she knew what Isabella meant without thinking about it.

"It's their own stupidity."

Anyway, Ray Family Lady, but personally did this kind of thing, it's hard to get rid of the crime...

"Maybe they are worried that this matter will be handed over to other people, but they have never thought about the consequences of this matter being revealed..."

Anyway, so stupid.

The strongest cheating sisters in history directly dragged a whole family into hell.

The ancestors saw it from the sky, so they had no choice but to jump out of the coffin and beat them to death...

"Okay, let's not talk about it, I have a call coming in." Isabella glanced at the caller, and it was Elder Mr. Mason. After hanging up, she quickly answered Pius 's call, with a gentle voice, "Grandpa."

"Isabella, fortunately to have you..." Pius 's voice sounded a lot tired, but for Isabella, there was still doting and love in his tone.

"I heard from Benjamin that all of this was discovered by you... You are great, far beyond your peers. I am very happy to have a granddaughter-in-law like you."

Isabella raised a smile, her eyes softened. "Grandpa, you are too serious."

"Are you interested in helping the Young Family group? If you team up with Benjamin, you will be invincible. Grandpa firmly believes in this."

Isabella did not expect Elder Mr. Mason to personally come to recruit people. The main reason is that she has too many things to do at hand. With a group as large as Mason Group, she really has no skills at all.

"Grandpa, I still have to go to school."

"Sooner or later, Mason Group will belong to you and Benjamin. You can adapt in advance now, and it will be easy to manage in the future."

Isabella couldn't refuse, and couldn't accept it, so she could only say. "I'll talk about it later, the medicine I gave you last time was in that white bottle, and I'm going to take one today."

"Okay, don't worry, I didn't have a heart attack today... I usually listen to your advice and take medicine on time. My health has improved a lot..."

Pius babbled on the phone.

"If it weren't for you. I would still be kept in the dark by that old thing! How dare you lie to me that he is my son's savior, I'm..."

Pius gritted his teeth every time he thought about it.

Isabella couldn't help laughing, she didn't expect Elder Mr. Mason to have such a cute side in private.

In front of her, the old man had a true temperament, said what he had to say, and didn't even hide his emotions....

"I just didn't expect that the two girls from the Ray Family would dare to do such a thing behind their backs. Don't worry, I have already said hello. The three of them, don't think about it next time!"

The delamination is a small matter, and it makes them regret until they dare not be human in the next life, this is what Pius wants.

"Thank you, Grandpa." Isabella knew that Grandpa took care of the calf, but she didn't expect to do so.

"Are you going back to school now?" Pius asked again with concern.

"Well, it's in the dormitory."

"National Day is coming soon, do you want to go somewhere to play? Grandpa and grandma will take you there!"

Isabella raised a smile, "Then I have a competition, I need to participate..."

"A game? What game? Can grandparents watch it?"

No matter what the game is, he and Darling must fully support it!!

“A game or something?” Pius asked.

“Oh yes, you are very good at this aspect... Then what is your contestant number, grandparents will go to the scene and vote for you in person...”

Isabella’s smile deepened, “I’m the judge.”

Hearing the word judges, Pius was stunned, and it took him a while to come back to his senses, the judges...

His granddaughter-in-law is not a contestant, but a judge...

As far as he knows, there is an international fashion design

What Player Are You?

competition about to be held recently, and he can attend such a grand competition as a judge....

That level of professionalism must exceed how many people...

Chapter 386 Isabella Arrives

Unexpectedly, his precious granddaughter-in-law turned out to be a judge. The old man said cheerfully, “Okay, then we will make an appointment after you finish your work.”

“Okay.” Isabella said gently, “Remember to take the medicine.”

“Okay, no problem, just cat...”

A few days later, the international fashion design competition was held in France in full swing.

As soon as Lucy stepped into the gate of the art palace, she was hit hard on the shoulder.

Lucy? Number one in the US ?”

The person who bumped into her was a blond, blue-eyed foreign girl who looked young and energetic. She looked at Lucy with contempt, and even gave her a thumbs up. Turning it upside down, she said in English, “garbage.”

“You...” Lucy was really speechless, she provoked whom early in the morning. “Who are you calling trash?”

“You, and your country, are rubbish.”

Hearing these provocative words, before Lucy got angry, she heard a girl say coldly, “Why, the French education industry taught you such a scum? Is this the quality of your people?”

Lucy looked back, ahh, it’s Isabella!!

She was so excited that her nose was sore for no reason, Isabella!!”

The voice was a little choked up.

Woo Woo Woo...

God knows how nervous she is recently, especially after the plane arrived in France yesterday, she was alone, unfamiliar with the place, and even anxious to the point of insomnia.

she called Isabella last night, she also talked about her pressure. Because she went abroad, she shouldered a responsibility. She dared not say that she would win glory for the country, at least she could not shame her own country...

She is not afraid of losing, but what she is afraid of is that others will have a bad impression of the United States, thinking that the design level of the United States is only so...

Isabella comforted her and enlightened her last night, but she didn't expect that today, she appeared directly at the competition site!

This is France!

France!!

Her Isabella must have flown to France overnight, give her courage!

"You Americans are not qualified to comment on us." Claudia gave Isabella a contemptuous look, and was about to leave.

"Coincidentally, I am really qualified to comment on you today. Not only am I qualified, but I can also decide whether you will stay or not."

Isabella's words made Claudia turn around, and smiled jokingly, "It's up to you?"

American girl who appeared out of nowhere must be representing the United States as a contestant to appear here.

Lucy competed as the first, so this girl is the second? third place??

What qualifications do you have to talk to her, the No. 1 champion in the French district?

He also boasted that he could decide whether she would stay or not...

it's so funny.

"I want to see how you can decide whether I will stay or not." Claudia didn't leave, and folded her hands on her chest, as if she wanted to see a joke from Isabella.

Isabella took out her mobile phone and dialed a number, "Dulcic. come here, the main entrance is here."

When Claudia heard the name Dulcic, her blue eyes widened. How could this girl know Dulcie? And Dulcie's contact info?

It should be known that the top three contestants in the French area are led by Dulcie, the president of the French Garment Association, to participate in today's international design competition.

Did the girl know the news ahead of time, so she used Dulcie to frighten her??

Before Claudia could say anything, Dulcic hurried over, saw

Isabella and immediately shook hands with Isabella, and called Isabella 'teacher', seeming very polite to Isabella...

Claudia didn't know who this girl was, but it was definitely not easy for Dulcic, who had always been aloof, to call her a teacher.

"Teacher, what's going on here?" Dulcic's English is very good. Seeing Claudia standing aside, he asked her harshly in French in a low voice if something offended the teacher. His tone was full of accusations and dissatisfaction.

"The level of competition between players is okay, but if it rises to the national level, isn't the friendship between the two peoples too low?"

When Dulcie heard this, he immediately knew that the matter was not simple.

"The contestants who came to participate today are all the top three in each country, representing not only the design level of each country, but also the appearance of each country, but I did not see in this contestant the etiquette that your country should have. I even think that She doesn't fit here."

"I'm sorry teacher. I'm really sorry..." Dulcie probably understood what was going on, looked at Claudia at the side, and ordered her to apologize immediately in a very stern tone!

"Sorry." Claudia didn't expect that this girl had a lot of background and could make Dulcie so nervous.

Isabella raised her eyebrows and looked at the foreign girl in front of her, "Didn't you speak English well when you cursed just now?"

Claudia understood what she meant, and could only apologize in her native American language, "I'm sorry, I offended just now."

"You did offend." Isabella examined her with her eyes, "Also, you forgot one person."

Claudia could only look at Lucy, and said again, "I'm sorry."

“Is that Claudia ?” Lucy looked her in the eyes, clenched his fists, and swore secretly, “I’ll show you later what real trash is.”

“You...” Adhering to the principle that one thing more is better than one thing less, Claudia swallowed this breath first, but this grudge is over!

Seeing them turn and leave. Lucy hugged Isabella again, “Ah, ah. Isabella, it’s a good thing you’re here! With you here, I feel at ease... But today is Friday, did you ask for leave from school?”

Isabella said truthfully, “No please.”

“Oh yes, the school gave you privileges, even if you don’t go to school for a semester, the school won’t say anything...”

very nice!

This is the treatment that can only be given with a perfect score of No. 1.

“You go to the assembly first, and the game will start later.” Isabella said this, but she didn’t forget to add, “Don’t be nervous, just treat it normally, oh yes, there will be surprises later, don’t be too surprised.”

“Huh? Surprise? What kind of surprise?” Lucy didn’t expect Isabella to fly to France to bring her a surprise, so she was curious, it couldn’t be some cheating game, could it?

“Let’s go gather first.” Isabella smiled and didn’t reveal.

“Okay, I promise I won’t be surprised in a while! I’m someone who has seen strong winds and waves, and I can withstand any situation.”

Lucy was full of confidence and went to the assembly happily. She never expected that she would be slapped in the face by herself after a while.

Backstage.

British woman in her early thirties came towards Lucy, “You are the number one Lucy in the United States? My name is Aggie, I hope you can remember my name.”

Lucy saw that the person was not kind, but out of the quality of the American people, she still asked patiently, “Is there something wrong?”

Aggie said condescendingly. “I got the video of your game through my relationship. To be honest, I think your assistant is more capable than you.”

Chapter 387 Surprised? Surprised?

“Is that so? I also think she has the strength. Our America is a place where Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon is the place. Unlike you, the level lies here.”

“You...” Aggie was obviously provoked, and just about to get angry, she smiled again, “Today’s game will be broadcast live globally, so don’t cry if you lose later, and don’t embarrass your country.”

“Don’t worry, the one crying is definitely not me, but you, have you brought enough tissues?”

“you...”

“I have watched the three games you participated in in the UK. To be honest, there are only four words to describe it with our profound and profound culture in the United States -it is horrible. I don’t know where you have the face to tell me these things.”

“you...”

“What’s the use of talking nonsense, isn’t it more effective to use your housekeeping skills than your mouth?”

On the side, the second and third place in the US region couldn’t help applauding.

“You’re Lucy? You’re so amazing, you can speak! Look at her, you’re mad at her...”

“These people are arrogant. They talked non-stop in front of me just now, but I still didn’t confront her due to the quality of the American. Lucy, you are so cool! I was the second contestant in the last competition Lily, nice to meet you!”

“I am the third Mengmeng. Just now you said that you watched the video of Aggie ‘s game? Where did you watch it? I can’t find any resources on the Internet...”

“Me too. I haven’t found it after searching for a long time...”

“Well...I bluffed her.” Lucy smiled mischievously, not daring to tell the truth.

In fact, it’s not just Aggie ‘s competition video, she has watched all the videos of all the contestants today, and Isabella found them for her!

This is called knowing yourself and knowing your enemy!

However. Isabella told her just now that there was a surprise, what kind of surprise??.

jury seat.

Isabella obediently called the people around her, "Brother."

"Have you had breakfast?" Lisa 's voice softened, because his sister was coming to be a judge, so he reluctantly agreed to today's invitation, in order to spend more time with his sister.

He even sent photos to his second and fifth sons, waiting for their replies in a good mood.

Soon, the second child and the fifth child responded to him with one word: get lost.

Isabella replied obediently, "Well, I have eaten."

Surprised? Surprised?

People not far away were stunned. They didn't expect Lisa, an American judge who was always cold, to have such a gentle side.

He looks like doting on that girl?

Benjamin sent you here last night?"

"Well, he is now going to the French branch to handle affairs."

"After the game is over, brother will show you the company at home. here."

"good."

Soon, the first game kicked off.

Lucy wasn't nervous when she came on stage, but she was stunned when she saw Isabella sitting in the judges' seat.

The point is, in front of Isabella 's seat, there is also a piece of judge's name, which says: Sofia.

Sofia who desperately wanted to compete and meet, had always been by her side...

Isabella looked at her with great interest, didn't she say that she has seen strong winds and waves, and can withstand any kind of surprise?

It seems that he hasn't recovered yet.

Lucy was stunned, remembering the drawing that Isabella had given to Isabella before. Isabella added or subtracted a few strokes for her at will, and could always modify it to a more stunning look.

At that time, she found that Isabella 's design style was somewhat similar to Sofia's, and the feeling expressed was also unrestrained and joyful.

Surprised? Surprised?

She also muttered and asked whether Sofia was male or female, old or not.

At that time, Isabella told her that she was not old, she was a woman, and she asked if she had seen Sofia...

Thinking about it now, I was so stupid at that time, I didn't realize that the famous master was right in front of me!

Speaking of which, if it weren't for Isabella, her life would be completely different...

At that time, she wanted Sofia 's autograph, but she was so transparent that she was not qualified to meet Sofia.

It was Isabella who encouraged her to participate in the competition. She still remembers that she had to bring an assistant to participate in the competition, but she was not famous, and secondly, she was not confident. The colleagues around her did not want to be her assistant, because all of them knew how much they weighed.

As a designer, I definitely don't want to go to the design competition scene to embarrass myself.

It was Isabella who said to accompany her and give her courage and confidence. She successfully submitted the registration form at the last minute of the registration deadline.

On the road of design. Isabella really gave her too much help, not only helping her to revise the draft, giving her advice, but also clearing up her grievances.

She remembered that once, her work was slandered and plagiarized. and it was Isabella who temporarily changed the model to save the scene. The 23 models were modified by Isabella, but in order to give her a chance to show her face, Isabella asked her to go to the live broadcast room to show the 23 models in public. Change it out for everyone to see.

The number of viewers of that live broadcast reached 1.29 million. While her fame soared, she also listened to Isabella 's words and released the surveillance video in the live broadcast room, showing everyone the act of Hu Linqun sneaking into Isabella's office to steal manuscripts. He cleared up his grievances and brought heat and orders to the company.

the US competition started. Isabella taught her a lot of design skills and tricks. That night, she insisted on inviting Isabella to cat skewers, but Yin Qing sent more than 20 gangsters to trouble them. In order to protect her. Isabella Injured, but insisted on accompanying her to participate in the competition the next day...

Isabella has helped her countless times. It is because of Isabella that she is able to stand here today and represent her country in international competitions.

If Isabella had directly signed her as Sofia, or hadn't supported her, then her life would have been completely opposite...

Lucy 's eyes were moist, and the eyes looking at Isabella were full of gratitude and emotion.

Isabella raised the corners of her lips, so stupid, why is she still crying.

After the host finished reading the rules of the game, all the players played on the spot.

The content of the first competition is very simple. The contestants provide clothing materials and accessories, allowing them to make a dress that best represents their country.

All the tips and tricks that Isabella had taught Lucy before, including the hundreds of videos and tutorials Lucy had watched during this time, all flashed through her mind.

Lucy picked up the material and cut it, and her movements were much more skillful than before.

There was appreciation in Isabella 's eyes, yes, she has improved a lot from before.

Lisa glanced at her sister and knew that her sister came today for Lucy. In the past, no matter how invited by the competition party, her sister refused to show up as a judge...

If she had shown her face back then, maybe he would have recognized her...

My sister can also suffer less and go home carly...

“Isn’t that the No. 16 assistant from the previous America’s Cup costume design competition?” A judge suddenly found Isabella in the jury, but he was not sure, after all, she was sitting in the jury today as Sofia.

Chapter 388 I have a problem with this score

“Don’t tell me I haven’t noticed yet. She looks just like the former No. 16 assistant...” Another judge also noticed something, but he couldn’t believe it either. After all, as Sofia, it was impossible to give a Newcomers as assistants...

“It should just look alike, not the same person.”

Claudia, who was standing on the stage, saw Isabella sitting in the judges’ seat, her whole face was extremely pale.

This girl is so young, she is actually a judge...

The point is, there is a name on the front of the house, which says: Sofia.

This girl is Sofia...

For a long time, Sofia, the top designer in the United States, whom she admired the most, admired the most, and wanted to meet the most, was actually far away in the sky, right in front of her eyes...

For a moment, Claudia’s mind went blank.

No wonder the girl said just now that she has the power to decide whether she will stay or not. It turns out that she really has this ability.

Isabella, who do you think has the most potential?" Lisa 's eyes fell on the stage, and she saw dozens of contestants performing their movements in an orderly manner, each of them looked confident, and the clothes they made had their own merits.

have a problem with this soon

Isabella glanced around and said lightly. "I like Lucy."

After all, those hundreds of videos are not for nothing, and the skills learned during this time are not for nothing.

Lucy has a deep insight into her work, and soon a beautiful dress. was made.

time up.

All contestants need to go to the backstage to put on the clothes they designed, and they will take turns to show on the stage after a while.

While waiting for the contestants, a series of finished products. appeared on the big screen, which were the costumes made by the contestants just now. First, ten judges on the scene and thousands of senior insiders in the auditorium gave their marks.

All kinds of kimono, Hanbok are dazzling. At a glance, only the dress designed by Lucy is eye-catching, and it quickly stands out from the pile of works.

She used red to represent her own country, and made a bright red elegant dress. The striped elements on the skirt and the dark flower design on the skirt of the dress all have American elements, which combine American culture and modern fashion at the same time, reflecting her uniqueness. Designers have a keen sense of fashion.

Isabella 's eyes were filled with admiration, yes, although there are still a few places that can be improved, but overall, it is much better than others.

Soon, Lucy got number one by lottery and was the first to show on stage.

With a retro hairstyle and a slender figure, wearing a tailored red dress and holding an oiled paper umbrella, she slowly walked out of the background of the small bridge and flowing water. The V-neck design highlighted the lines of her collarbone and neck, and she rushed forward. The oriental atmosphere that came made many people on the scene dumbfounded.

This is the noble, gorgeous and elegant charm unique to oriental women, which is undoubtedly displayed by her from top to bottom, so beautiful that people can't take their eyes back.

In particular, her eyes looking into the distance, thoughtful, bright and clear, are even more attractive.

There are pattern embroidery on the dress, which increases the overall sense of elegance and gorgeousness. The sleeveless style not only modifies the figure, but also makes the whole dress more elegant.

Isabella quickly showed the score, nine points, only one point away from the perfect score of 10!

Lucy on the stage was surprised and slightly excited.

Nine points!

Isabella actually gave her such a high evaluation!

Oh no, it's Sofia, Isabella gave her such a high score with Sofia's identity and gaze!

Lisa also showed the score, nine points.

The whole audience was stunned again. With such a high score just after playing, how much pressure is there on the players behind?

The other judges also showed their points, nine, eight, seven...

I have a problem with this score

The lowest score is not seven points!!

The audience burst into thunderous applause. Isabella picked up the microphone and explained why she gave such a high score from a professional point of view. What is so good about this dress? Other judges also commented in turn, admiring the design of this dress...

Soon, it was the turn of the other players.

A lot of kimonos, hanboks, and dresses failed to stand out from the critical eyes of the judges, until Claudia wore a very sweet and cool denim suit.

Her denim design looks sweet and cool, very distinctive, and very avant-garde.

Combining national culture and modern popular elements, it can be said that the sales volume is gratifying.

But Isabella only gave it six points.

When Claudia saw the score, the light in her eyes dimmed, she knew it would be like this...

She offended Isabella just now, so Isabella declared her personal revenge and gave her a low score on purpose...

But as a judge, how can he abuse his power??

She felt a little unconvinced immediately.

In addition to Isabella, Lisa also gave seven points, and other judges gave eight and nine points.

Overall, it's good, but Claudia 's heart is getting more and more unbalanced.

Because she is the overall champion in the French arca, the host asked her after seeing all the judges give the score. "How do you feel about this score now? If I remember correctly, you are the second highest scorer after Lucy." point."

"No, I'm not happy at all," Claudia said, "I have a problem with the score Sofia gave me."

As soon as this remark came out, all the guests in the audience were in an uproar.

All eyes of the judges fell on Isabella.

Isabella raised her eyes and met Claudia on the stage.

When the host saw such explosive news, he hurriedly asked. "Why? Just because Sofia gave you six points? Do you think your work can get a higher score?"

"Yes, that's right, the other judges recognized my work, only she gave me a low score on purpose."

"Sorry, if I heard you right, what you just said was: on purpose?"

“Yes, that’s right, just because I offended her backstage just now...”

As soon as this remark came out, all the guests couldn’t sit still, there was such an inside story!

The host was dumbfounded, “You, you offended her...”

“Yes, besides, she knows the number one player Lucy, and she gave Lucy a nine.”

Because I know each other, I gave it nine points!

This is an international design competition, and such explosive news immediately made the reporters desperately press the shutter, and even captured Isabella’s reaction.

Some staff members of the organizer saw that things were getting serious, and hurriedly turned off the microphones of the host and Claudia, and some people came to the stage to ask Claudia to come down...

But Isabella’s voice was quickly transmitted to everyone’s cars through the microphone.

“Don’t turn off the microphone.”

She signaled the backstage staff to turn on their microphones. There was no panic in her eyes, but the powerful aura emanating from her whole body was unbelievable.

A teenage girl has such a boldness and style...

Chapter 389

Isabella looked at the girl on the stage and asked softly, “I don’t know where I lost?”

“Yes.” Claudia is very sure that if she puts on a sale with her outfit today, the sales will definitely be hot. She doesn’t think she deserves the bad grade of six points.

Lucy in the background clenched her fists nervously. She caused trouble for Isabella...

Such a big competition, with such an episode, will it affect Isabella’s status as a judge in the future...

Isabella down, and couldn’t help feeling anxious and blaming herself in her heart.

“Because her dress can show the unique nobility and magnificence. of oriental women, and can also reflect the charm of the traditional colors of her own country, but yours can’t.”

Claudia bit her lower lip, “Why not?”

Today she incorporates elements of national culture and the most avant-garde design concept, isn’t it better than Lucy’s archaeological gown?

The style designed by Lucy, whether it is worn on her body or on a middle-aged woman, can maintain the traditional culture while wearing a fashionable temperament. In other words, her style is not picky. It looks good in clothes.”

Claudia saw that dress with her own eyes just now, and it was very demanding on her figure. If it was worn by a middle-aged woman. it would definitely ruin everything!

Lucy just does a good job of styling. If a middle-aged woman wears a dress designed by her, it is definitely not worth the score.”

“Really?” Isabella didn’t think so. “Then you can choose a woman on the spot, let her wear the dress designed by Lucy, and choose another woman to wear the dress you are wearing.”

“Okay!” Claudia was still very confident in her work. She immediately picked two middle-aged women in their forties and went backstage to change clothes.

There was a lot of discussion in the audience, some were saying that this Claudia was too much, to openly contradict the judges on such an occasion, this is the first competition, there are two more rounds to come, are you not afraid of the judges’ retaliation?

Some people also said that if Sofia really gave high marks to acquaintances, it would be unfair to other players...

Some people even said that there is an inside story about this. competition, and the American judges will definitely help. Americans...

Soon, the two middle-aged women changed their clothes.

just now, Claudia deliberately selected two foreign women. Unexpectedly. Ms. Grace, who was the first to play, wore a dress designed by Lucy, and she had a bit of sexiness and temperament of an oriental woman.

Although the forty-year-old figure has a little belly, after wearing this dress, not only does it not show the belly, but it looks graceful and luxurious, full of the charm of oriental women.

And another woman, Julia, wore a sweet and cool denim suit. Not only did she not look trendy, but she was so dusty...

The audience suddenly burst into thunderous applause.

With this gap, one can tell at a glance who designs better clothes.

Everyone already has the answer in their hearts.

But Claudia was still a little dissatisfied. "As long as my suit has a certain audience? Why must everyone be satisfied?"

"It was you who asked me why Lucy had three more points than you."

Isabella looked into her eyes and said word by word, "Because her style design is better than yours, and her cultural heritage is deeper than yours, and your clothes are very avant-garde, but you use too many elements, and some designs are also Too much."

"Really? Then I will ask Mr. Sofia on the spot, how to design so that it is not redundant? How can I get your high score of nine points?"

These provocative words made everyone in the audience completely unable to sit still...

This Claudia is too crazy, too proud, she doesn't pay attention to the judges at all.

Everyone was worried that Isabella would not be able to end the event, and even the organizers were always watching Isabella's

The crew's hands are on the button, ready to cut Claudia's mic at any moment.

Just as Lisa was about to speak, Isabella spoke up, "Since you are so eager to learn, I might as well teach on the spot so that you will be convinced to lose. Please take off your clothes first and send them to the stage."

No one understood what Isabella was trying to do.

Watching Isabella walk onto the stage step by step with a strong aura at a young age.

Claudia was a little scared, afraid that Isabella would beat her up on the stage in the next second...

Before Isabella went on stage, she also asked people to bring scissors and other tools to the stage. Soon, she cut off the denim suit designed by Claudia in front of everyone.

Everyone was stunned, oh my god, what is she doing??

Even Claudia couldn't believe it, Sofia is modifying her clothes??

Her clothing design has already used the most popular elements nowadays, it can be said to be impeccable, what other styles can Sofia change?

But in just three minutes, Isabella showed the modified style to the host.

The host immediately arranged for Julia to put on this suit, and the camera focused on Julia, zooming in on Isabella 's transformation...

The denim suits transformed by her hands have different effects when worn by the same person...

Julia, who was so dusty just now, wearing this dress now, not only has a sweet and cool feeling, but also has a sense of domineering and cold temperament...

"It would look better if this dress had a plaid pattern with light blue and brown lines. Not only the color, but you also chose the wrong fabric."

Everyone looked at the clothes Julia was wearing.

The top is a three-dimensional version, with white round holes. simple and fashionable, and the sleeves are rolled up, which is a bit casual and cool. This way of dressing is more casual than the one just now. The wide-leg pants are paired with a pair of high heels, and the aura is full Open, it can be said that at a glance, it is more advanced than before.

“If you don’t consider the national element, put on a beret, the effect will be more attractive.”

This kind of clothes has a sense of fashion and style on the streets of Logan. There was warm applause again at the scene, and Claudia finally understood where she lost...

It turned out that Isabella didn’t declare her personal revenge publicly, but she judged the heart of a gentleman with the heart of a villain.

Her design really has a lot of room for growth...

She, who was full of confidence in her work just now, finally understands where she lost, and she is convinced by the loss...

“As for Lucy’s dress, why do I only give it nine points? The difference is just one point...” Isabella directly modified it. It was amazing just now...

The whole audience was stunned, it turns out that the dress can be changed into this!

Lucy in the background couldn’t help being surprised and excited. It turned out that the one point difference was here!!

Isabella is really amazing...

The scores she gave, without any partiality, are all from the most professional point of view...

There was continuous applause from the audience, and Isabella walked off the stage and walked to her seat.

Everyone looked at her with admiration and affirmation in their

“Really?” Isabella didn’t think so. “Then you can choose a woman on the spot, let her wear the dress designed by Lucy, and choose another woman to wear the dress you are wearing.”

“Okay!” Claudia was still very confident in her work. She immediately picked two middle-aged women in their forties and went backstage to change clothes.

There was a lot of discussion in the audience, some were saying that this Claudia was too much, to openly contradict the judges on such an occasion, this is the first competition, there are two more rounds to come, are you not afraid of the judges’ retaliation?

Some people also said that if Sofia really gave high marks to acquaintances, it would be unfair to other players...

Some people even said that there is an inside story about this competition, and the American judges will definitely help. Americans...

Soon, the two middle-aged women changed their clothes.

just now, Claudia deliberately selected two foreign women. Unexpectedly. Ms. Grace, who was the first to play, wore a dress designed by Lucy, and she had a bit of sexiness and temperament of an oriental woman.

Although the forty-year-old figure has a little belly, after wearing this dress, not only does it not show the belly, but it looks graceful and luxurious, full of the charm of oriental women.

And another woman, Julia, wore a sweet and cool denim suit. Not only did she not look trendy, but she was so dusty...

The audience suddenly burst into thunderous applause.

With this gap, one can tell at a glance who designs better clothes.

Everyone already has the answer in their hearts.

But Claudia was still a little dissatisfied. "As long as my suit has a certain audience? Why must everyone be satisfied?"

"It was you who asked me why Lucy had three more points than you."

Isabella looked into her eyes and said word by word, "Because her style design is better than yours, and her cultural heritage is deeper than yours, and your clothes are very avant-garde, but you use too many elements, and some designs are also Too much."

"Really? Then I will ask Mr. Sofia on the spot, how to design so that it is not redundant? How can I get your high score of nine points?"

These provocative words made everyone in the audience completely unable to sit still...

This Claudia is too crazy, too proud, she doesn't pay attention to the judges at all.

Everyone was worried that Isabella would not be able to end the event, and even the organizers were always watching Isabella's

The crew's hands are on the button, ready to cut Claudia's mic at any moment.

Just as Lisa was about to speak, Isabella spoke up, "Since you are so eager to learn, I might as well teach on the spot so that you will be convinced to lose. Please take off your clothes first and send them to the stage."

No one understood what Isabella was trying to do.

Watching Isabella walk onto the stage step by step with a strong aura at a young age.

Claudia was a little scared, afraid that Isabella would beat her up on the stage in the next second...

Before Isabella went on stage, she also asked people to bring scissors and other tools to the stage. Soon, she cut off the denim suit designed by Claudia in front of everyone.

Everyone was stunned, oh my god, what is she doing??

Even Claudia couldn't believe it, Sofia is modifying her clothes??

Her clothing design has already used the most popular elements nowadays, it can be said to be impeccable, what other styles can Sofia change?

But in just three minutes, Isabella showed the modified style to the host.

The host immediately arranged for Julia to put on this suit, and the camera focused on Julia, zooming in on Isabella 's transformation...

The denim suits transformed by her hands have different effects when worn by the same person...

Julia, who was so dusty just now, wearing this dress now, not only has a sweet and cool feeling, but also has a sense of domineering and cold temperament...

"It would look better if this dress had a plaid pattern with light blue and brown lines. Not only the color, but you also chose the wrong fabric."

Everyone looked at the clothes Julia was wearing.

The top is a three-dimensional version, with white round holes. simple and fashionable, and the sleeves are rolled up, which is a bit casual and cool. This way of dressing is more casual than the one just now. The wide-leg pants are paired with a pair of high heels, and the aura is full Open, it can be said that at a glance, it is more advanced than before.

“If you don’t consider the national element, put on a beret, the effect will be more attractive.”

This kind of clothes has a sense of fashion and style on the streets of Logan. There was warm applause again at the scene, and Claudia finally understood where she lost...

It turned out that Isabella didn’t declare her personal revenge publicly, but she judged the heart of a gentleman with the heart of a villain.

Her design really has a lot of room for growth...

She, who was full of confidence in her work just now, finally understands where she lost, and she is convinced by the loss...

“As for Lucy’s dress, why do I only give it nine points? The difference is just one point...” Isabella directly modified it. It was amazing just now...

The whole audience was stunned, it turns out that the dress can be changed into this!

Lucy in the background couldn’t help being surprised and excited. It turned out that the one point difference was here!!

Isabella is really amazing...

The scores she gave, without any partiality, are all from the most professional point of view...

There was continuous applause from the audience, and Isabella walked off the stage and walked to her seat.

Everyone looked at her with admiration and affirmation in their eyes.

Claudia bowed ninety degrees in the direction Isabella left, picking up the phone guiltily.

“I’m sorry, Mr. Sofia, I was ignorant and offended you just now. You corrected it very well. It’s my own fault that I didn’t get nine points.”

Isabella returned to her place, her clear eyes fell on Claudia.

Her voice reached everyone’s cars word by word through the microphone.

“On this stage, what the judges look at is not nationality or friendship, but your works. As long as the things you design can make people’s eyes shine, then the high score will be yours.”

Sitting in the position of a judge, she still has the professional ethics that she should have, and she will not avenge her personal grievances because of personal grievances.

“The next game is to have a good game. There are still two games to come. The world is still undecided, and everything is possible.”

Everyone was amazed by Isabella’s layout and courage, and applauded one after another.

She didn’t take the opportunity to disqualify Claudia from the competition, let alone get angry because of it.

The backstage staff breathed a sigh of relief.

Claudia couldn’t help bowing again, thanking Isabella for her kindness.

After the first round of screening, only nine contestants could successfully enter the second round.

The content of the second round of the competition is to make a wedding dress that you think is the most beautiful for the most important person in your life. It can be yourself, or your relatives. and friends. The time limit is 60 minutes.

A person suddenly appeared in Lucy 's mind. This person's appearance is too high, as if no matter what style of wedding dress she wears, it doesn't look high enough.

Lucy thought about it, and when everyone was hurrying to do it, fter eyes fell on Isabella who was not far away.

Isabella, you handled it very well just now." Lisa looked at her sister beside her. She didn't expect that she would grow up and be able to handle such a difficult situation with case and stand alone.

Isabella smiled at Lisa, "It's nothing."

Small episodes like this have happened many times before, and she has long been used to it.

But Lucy kept looking at her, because she wanted to make a wedding dress for her?

Lucy thought about it and finally made a beautiful and gorgeous wedding dress with a lot of rhinestones.

Sixty minutes passed quickly.

Nine designers stood on the stage with their respective works,

Isabella picked up the microphone and commented one by one.

“The styles designed by designer No. 9 are good, but ordinary people will wear them like white gauze curtains, which is very attractive.”

After hearing what she said, everyone looked like white gauze curtains at a glance...

“The flowers that Designer No. 8 added to the skirt of the wedding dress look like bed sheets in general.”

When everyone saw it, it was really...

I didn't expect Isabella's comment to be so sharp. While the audience burst into laughter, they couldn't help applauding.

“Unless you are a young and beautiful person, you can't afford this wedding dress.”

Isabella was still stern, and then commented, “The blue wedding dress designed by designer No. 7 is darker in color. If the lighting and atmosphere are not enough, no matter how beautiful a person wears it, the complexion will become sallow. If it is worn at the wedding scene, it will affect the overall effect. Here I also suggest that girls try to avoid darker and a little stuffy skirts when they wear them every day.”

Isabella's comments were spot on, and no one in the audience was unconvinced, and many people nodded in agreement.

“As for designer No. 6, you made a silver sequined wedding dress, which can perfectly combine a woman's maturity and cuteness. It's charming but not too kitsch. It's not bad.”

“Designer No. 5 also designed a silver wedding dress, but with a bare back and high slits. It's bolder and more sexy than the previous one. It's very thoughtful.”

Isabella commented on the works of eight designers in total, and finally, she set her sights on Lucy's works.

The bright rhinestones outline the curves of the body charmingly and gracefully. From a distance, you can feel the exquisite clear rhinestones and delicate tulle, gently wrapping the body.

“The upper body is a tight-fitting design, which outlines a beautiful waist and hip curve. The rhinestones all over the body add to the temperament, and it seems to be shimmering with tiny shimmers when walking. This wedding dress is solemn and elegant at the same time, with a sense of luxury and domineering.”

“If a person with fair skin and beautiful skin wears such a wedding dress, she must be radiant. If it is worn by a woman with a darker complexion, the rhinestones match her skin tone, and the beautiful lines can also be seen through the tulle, which is not bad.”

Isabella showed all the scores at one time and scored nine designers at the same time.

Lucy was surprised to find that Claudia, the No. 2 designer, got the same eight points as her.

Claudia herself was stunned. She did not expect Isabella to give her such a high evaluation in this round of competition.

“The most prominent part of your embroidered wedding dress is the waist design. The overall feeling is fairy-like and cool, which is

“Thank you, thank you. Teacher Sofia.” Claudia bent down again and again to express her gratitude, but she did not expect that Isabella was really not at all selfish, and she was doing business from beginning to end.

It was Lisa’s turn to comment on the works of nine designers at one time, and Isabella listened quietly, unexpectedly, her elder brother also had unique insights into design.

“Your wedding dress has rich colors. It looks like flowers and butterflies from a distance, and it looks like layers of bird feathers up close. Although the style is good, but if you are not careful, you can easily become a square dancer. Personally, I suggest that the wedding dress should try to use the same color Lord.”

Lisa commented in a circle, scored, and it was the next judge’s turn to speak.

The brothers and sisters whispered to each other when they were free. A reporter photographed their backs chatting close to each other. They couldn’t believe it. Lisa also took the initiative to talk to Women...

Still so close, chatting for so long...

I don’t know if there will be melons to eat next.

After all the judges had finished expressing their opinions and scoring points, the host invited the three with the highest scores to stay and give their testimonials.

Lucy held the microphone, looked at Isabella in the audience and said, “I have a very important mentor and friend in my life. Because of her encouragement and help. I can stand on the stage today. Her appearance is like a light in the dark.”, made my world brighter a little bit, here, I would like to thank her especially, this wedding dress is designed for her.”

“This wedding dress can show her beautiful and a bit aloof temperament, with a sense of immortality, but at the same time. elegant...”

Isabella’s eyes looked at the speaker gently. This wedding dress was indeed prepared for her.

“Thank you Isabella.” Lucy thanked everyone publicly.

Except for Lisa, no one in the audience knew that Isabella was Sofia, and thought that Isabella was Lucy's friend.

Lucy looked at the girl in the judges' seat, and the past scenes came to mind.
