

Chased Her 391

Chapter 391

She still remembers that on the day of her father's death, her cousin dumped garbage and paint on her father's grave on Mountain, and wanted the bodyguards to defile their mother and daughter. It was Isabella's appearance that saved them...

Afterwards, Isabella bandaged her mother's wounds, rented her house to them cheaply, and lied that it was a friend's house in order not to burden them psychologically.

In the past, President He often bullied her, saying that she was absent from work for no reason and wronged her for plagiarism. Isabella would come forward to help her. find out the truth of the matter, and return her innocence.

Isabella also encouraged her to participate in the American Apparel Design Competition, and acted as her assistant to accompany her through five stages along the way.

If it wasn't for Isabella, she still doesn't know where to draw a picture, being a bitter, little-known little transparent.

"Thank you very much." Lucy thanked solemnly. "It's nice to know you."

No one knew she was thanking Sofia on the jury table, and thought she was just talking about a friend.

Isabella's eyes became more gentle, silly, thank you for what.

After Lucy finished his thanks, the other two also said something, and soon, the third round began.

Six models came to the stage wearing the same skirts, and the six contestants who advanced to the third round were required to change the six skirts into the most stunning styles they thought.

There is only one requirement, the skirt cannot be taken off, it can only be transformed on the model.

It was too simple for Lucy, countless styles flashed in her mind, and soon, she began to transform it.

Lisa handed Isabella the snacks provided by the organizer. Seeing that she hadn't eaten, she stuffed some of the snacks she brought privately, which were all her favorite flavors. He even made a cup of coffee for Isabella.

"I brought the coffee beans, try it to see if it tastes good."

Isabella didn't expect her elder brother to bring coffee beans in person...

She picked up the cup and took a sip. The taste was mellow, and she nodded. "It tastes good."

"I still have some in the car, take some back when the time comes." When Lisa spoke, her gaze remained on the stage.

"Hmm." Isabella didn't take her eyes off the stage, and she noticed that Lucy's movements were getting slower and slower, as if she had encountered something difficult.

"There's something wrong with Lucy." Lisa obviously also noticed that although Lucy was seriously changing the clothes on the models with her back to the audience, her hands stopped from time to time, too often.

At this time, the model standing in front of Lucy noticed her

"It's okay." Lucy didn't know what was wrong, her stomach hurt more and more, the key was that she didn't eat anything backstage, not even a sip of water, could it be that breakfast spoiled her stomach?

"Your face is pale."

Not only his face, but even his lips paled a little.

“Why don’t you tell the host?” the model suggested.

“No need.” Lucy managed to make it to the third round. If she was suspended midway, the previous results would be in vain.

It doesn’t matter if she is ridiculed by others, but what she represents now is her own country.

American players who competed with her have been eliminated, and she is the only one left for the entire American representative.

The model couldn’t bear to see her gritting her teeth and desperately persevering.

Isabella sensed something from the model’s expression, Lucy should be uncomfortable, and she was still gritting her teeth.

“Do you want me to ask the staff to go up and ask?” Lisa asked her sister softly.

“No, she has sense.”

This is her game, whether she wants to stop, when to stop, and whether she can persist is up to her.

Lucy’s movements slowed down a little bit, and fine sweat oozes from her forehead. Just at the final finishing touch, her eyes suddenly went black and she fell down on the stage.

“Ah...” Many guests in the audience were stunned, and some even stood up and looked at Lucy in disbelief.

She collapsed on the stage, motionless, and the model in front of her shouted loudly, “She hasn’t been feeling well since just now...”

Several staff members rushed to the stage immediately, but not as fast as Isabella.

Isabella was the first to rush forward, leaning over to give Lucy the pulse, and within a second, her gaze suddenly became icy cold.

“Take her to the hospital.”

I went out in a hurry today and didn’t bring an injection kit, so I couldn’t save her, but Isabella pressed a few of her acupuncture points very quickly, so that the effect of the medicine could be slowed down.

Two staff members immediately carried Lucy off the stage, and people around were asking what was going on, whether Lucy had some underlying disease, and why he suddenly fainted.

Isabella stood up and scanned the audience, her cold voice was transmitted from the microphone on the collar to everyone’s ears.

“The scene is scaled off, someone is poisoning.”

Those eight cold words immediately shocked everyone present.

This is an international competition, who would dare to throw poison so blatantly?

Lucy is a contestant, and those who want to harm her are likely to be contestants too...

Could it be that the contestants wanted to kill Lucy??

Everyone’s eyes fell on the stage, and Claudia, who was the most suspicious, blurted out immediately, “You all look at me, it’s not me, I can’t do this kind of thing...”

Some people also questioned, how did Sofia conclude that Lucy was poisoned, what if she just ate the wrong food or felt unwell??

“Call the police.” Isabella looked at the host aside.

The host was dumbfounded.

Call the police??

Wouldn't it discredit the industry if the police called the police for such a big game??.

After that, will the competition be held smoothly??

“If you don't call the police, why don't you investigate yourself? If you find out, someone will believe you? Keeping such a cancer in this industry is the real way to discredit the industry.”

The host looked at the meaning of the organizer again, and a person in charge nodded before he dared to take out his mobile phone to call the police.

“Whether it's the scene or the backstage, everyone stays where they are, and they are not allowed to go anywhere.”

As soon as Isabella finished speaking, someone raised his hand and wanted to go to the bathroom, and Isabella sent him two words.

directly, “Hold on.”

The audience was silent.

The main reason is that Isabella's aura is too strong and her whole body is cold. Anyone who offends her seems to have a terrible end. so everyone is quiet.

Lisa on the judging panel realized the seriousness of the matter and knew what Isabella was worried about. She wanted to stay and investigate the truth, but she was worried that Lucy would go to the hospital alone, so she gestured to Isabella twice, which meant that he would go to the hospital first. look.

Isabella nodded, and after a while, the foreign police came.

Isabella, who called the police. The police came to her and asked her why they were so sure that Lucy was poisoned.

“Because her is HN2C, which is a colorless and odorless poison that has just emerged on the market recently.”

Chapter 392 The Champion Is...

Seeing that she spoke clearly and logically, everyone couldn't help wondering, how did she know?

The police asked her again in French, since it is colorless and odorless, how did you judge that she was HN2C.

Isabella answered in fluent French, meaning, analyze from the pulse.

Lucy's pulse just now is very similar to the reaction of a person who has been hit by HN2C.

Generally, people who take this medicine will feel unbearable stomach pain until the pain passes out. When they wake up again, the pain spreads to the limbs. When they faint again, the pain will spread to the whole body when they wake up...

Repeatedly lasted for three days, the general hospital could not find out the cause, and the painkillers did not work.

This kind of HN2C was developed by a small country, and it is specially used to force confessions. I don't know why it spread to the market.

"This drug cannot be taken orally, and can only penetrate the skin through contact, thereby releasing toxicity."

When people in that country study this thing to extract a confession, they will directly touch this thing with the criminal's skin. After a while, the criminal will curl up and roll on the ground in unbearable pain. Every time he faints from the pain, he wakes up again, the pain will intensify, and finally I can't stand it and choose to confess.

The police understood, so contestant No. 1 must have touched something before he could be infected.

When someone in the crowd heard what Isabella said, their faces turned pale.

This kind of medicine is not available in the United States. Sofia, an American designer, how could she know so much...

Isabella noticed that someone was looking at her, and when she turned her head again, she couldn't trace the source.

The police quickly went to investigate, and the atmosphere in the audience was extremely suppressed. When Isabella was sitting in the judges' seat, several judges around her wanted to ask about her situation, but they were all overwhelmed by her cold aura, and finally dared not say a word. ask...

This girl's aura is too strong, inexplicably frightening...

Isabella thought of something, took out her mobile phone and sent Lisa a WhatsApp, which meant that Lucy's condition was HN2C, and she needed more than a dozen western medicines for treatment at the same time. She made a list and asked the hospital to directly follow this method to save the patient.

In fact, the best way is to puncture bloodletting at several major acupoints, which is the fastest and best.

But this is France, and the doctors in the hospital don't know how to stick needles or prick bloodletting, so Isabella can only do this.

As everyone knows, this method was later retained by the hospital

After a while, another policeman came to ask Isabella in a low voice, meaning how to find out which items contained HN2C.

Isabella asked them to prepare a few things, mix them together and spray them on the surface of the item. If the item changes color, it means that the item contains HN2C.

Many people were stunned. They didn't expect a designer to have such a wide range of knowledge...

The police are very snappy to do.

Not long after, a policeman exclaimed, meaning that there was HN2C on the rhinestones. Lucy must have used rhinestones in the wedding dress, and her hands were in direct contact with HN2C, so she was infected with this virus...

"I remembered..."

Claudia who was standing on the stage suddenly said, "Before the game started, I saw Aggie provoking Lucy backstage..."

"Don't talk nonsense!" Aggie was obviously panicked, "I don't know her, it's just that the contestants said harsh words to each other, trying to compare their skills, that's all..."

Regardless of Aggie's sophistry, the police went directly to check the surveillance cameras. They found that before the start of the second match, everyone was preparing for the stage, and only Aggie passed the accessory box full of rhinestones...

Aggie on the stage was soon caught by the police.

"You have no proof that I did this... Let me go..." Aggie on stage. struggled and shouted, "I can suc you..."

"HN2C can't come into direct contact with the skin, otherwise it will be infected with poison. If you want to poison, this kind of thing must be stored in a container." Isabella 's voice was transmitted to everyone's cars through the microphone on the collar, "HN2C is usually in liquid form exist."

Everyone looked at her together and found that she was so calm and powerful...

At this moment, for some reason, the big screen on the stage suddenly switched to the monitoring screen. Before everyone could react, they saw Aggie passing the accessory box full of rhinestones...

There is also a number 1 posted on the accessory box, which is obviously for the number 1 player Lucy...

I don't know who is amplifying the surveillance. Several policemen looked at each other in blank dismay. Who is manipulating the surveillance??

After Isabella manipulated the monitoring on her mobile phone, she found that when Aggie passed the rhinestone box, the right hand hidden in the long sleeve seemed to have poured some liquid on the rhinestone box...

Then zoom in on the screen, and you can vaguely see that what she is holding in her hand seems to be a small white bottle.

Soon, the police went to search for Aggie 's personal items, but found no useful information. Then they looked in the trash can and found a bottle of vitamin C that Aggie had discarded not long ago. When they opened it, there was indeed a little liquid left by HN2C inside. Look carefully, I thought it was water...

Aggie on the stage was so frightened that her legs went limp, and she slumped on the ground...

Why, why was it found out so quickly...

Who is Sofia and why does she know so much...

"Oh, so it's you..." Claudia pointed at Aggie, "Just now you misled others, saying that I had a problem with Lucy...you are so scary."

Isabella looked at the girl on the stage, who shook her head desperately.

"No, it's not like that...you listen to my explanation."

The police handcuffed her without giving her a chance to explain.

"No, I haven't finished the competition yet, and I haven't won the ranking yet..."

Along the way, Aggie was still talking nonsense.

"I just don't want to lose...I don't want to do anything bad."

"She'll be fine after three days of pain, and this medicine won't kill her... Let me go, the judges haven't scored yet."

“I was instigated by someone, and it was not my intention to prescribe drugs...”

After Aggie was taken away by the police, the audience fell silent, and many people went to see Isabella again. Unexpectedly, at a young age, she first felt the pulse of Lucy 's poison, and then assisted the police in catching the culprit...

The point is, she was extremely calm from the beginning to the end. without any signs of panic...

This psychological quality can be said to crush the audience.

“If I remember correctly, there was only one minute before the end of the game.” Isabella said lightly.

At that time, all the contestants on the stage had completed their works, only Lucy moved too slowly due to pain, and only modified the skirt part.

She sewed a lot of fluttering butterflies on the hem of the skirt, and the last butterfly was sewed, and she hadn't had time to tie it yet.

Chapter 393 Can't vote after the game?

Although the overall effect looks good, but missed the first place.

Isabella gave her own score, and soon, the other judges also came to their senses and scored one after another.

Lisa was unable to score due to her early departure. In the end, only nine judges gave the score.

Claudia was surprised to find that she was the champion after counting the total points of the three games.

The runner-up was another French player, Anna.

The third place is Lucy.

But everyone present knew that if it wasn't for Lucy's sudden fainting, she would definitely win the championship. After all, in this round of competition, she could get a high score just by modifying the hem of the skirt.

When Isabella presented the award to Claudia, Claudia's mood was heavy, because she knew better than anyone else that this championship did not belong to her.

"This matter is unfair to player #1..." Claudia said suddenly, "If it wasn't for..."

"If there is no if, what happened is what happened." Isabella knew what she wanted to say, but this kind of large-scale international competition cannot be re-competed on another day because of a temporary situation. What happened is what happened, and no one can undo it.

No matter what the reason is, it can only be accepted.

"I believe the number one player is also looking forward to seeing you in the next game. It is not certain who the next champion will be." Isabella also comforted Claudia in turn.

Claudia saw the encouragement and affirmation in Isabella's eyes. She couldn't believe it. When she looked carefully, Isabella had already presented the award to the next contestant.

After awarding the awards, Isabella looked at everyone in the audience. "All the contestants who came to participate today are the best from all over the world. Being able to stand on this stage already shows that you have extraordinary strength. You are already bigger than those in this industry. Most designers are too good."

“Although many people failed to get the trophy and return to the United States in the end, it is not shameful to lose. Those who engage in small tricks behind the scenes and are taken away by the police are the ones who really embarrass the country.”

Isabella said every word, sonorously, “As long as you have the strength, one day you will shine and be seen by others. If you think you can win the trophy, we will see you in the next game.”

The audience burst into warm applause.

Isabella stepped off the stage and didn't rush to visit Lucy in the hospital until after the game.

And at this time.

Lisa stayed by the bed until the person on the bed opened their eyes.

“This, where is this...” Lucy 's mind was still confused.

“You're in the hospital.” Seeing that she woke up. Lisa asked softly, “Are you feeling better?”

“How could I be in the hospital...” Lucy 's mind was in a mess, and after a while, she suddenly realized something, “Competition, I'm still competing...”

She lifted the quilt and wanted to get out of bed, but she had no strength and fell into Lisa's arms.

Fortunately Lisa caught her in time, otherwise she would have fallen off the bed.

“Hiss, it hurts...” Lucy pulled the needle in the back of her hand and gasped in pain.

“Are you okay?” Lisa looked down at the girl in her arms, realized that the distance was too close, and quickly let go of her hand, letting her stand upright, “The game is over.”

"It's over?? Then I..." Lucy racked her brains to recall, she didn't seem to finish the work...

The last butterfly, she didn't even hit the link...

"Why did it end so soon...then did I get the ranking??" Seeing that Lisa was silent, Lucy wanted to pull out the needle in the back of her hand.

"It can't be pulled out." As soon as Lisa finished speaking, Lucy had already reached out to tear off the medical rubber on the back of her hand.

Lisa pressed her hand all at once, "It's going to bleed."

Pulling out the needle rashly in this way will not only cause bleeding, but also produce bruises, which block the blood vessels. which will affect the second needle injection, and at the same time, the local pain will be obvious.

"Mr. Logan, I have to go back to the game site to see..." Lucy was in a hurry, not only his expression but also his voice.

She has been looking forward to and preparing for this international competition for three full months, and she must not end in such a hasty way.

"The ranking is not important." Lisa comforted.

"Important!" Lucy corrected, "I'm competing as an American today, I can't quit the race in this way! And..."

Seeing that she hesitated to speak, Lisa couldn't help asking in a low voice, "What else?"

Lucy couldn't hide the loss and sadness in her eyes, her voice was on the verge of tears.

"Next, I will officially take over my own group. If I can take this championship back, at least most of the people will obey my management...but now..."

It's over, it's over.

How could the family's clothing group accept a waste that couldn't even get a ranking and go back to take care of it.

She is so young, there must be many old directors who are dissatisfied...

She is not Isabella, winning the championship is the only way she can think of....

There were tears in Lucy's eyes, "Mr. Logan, is the game really over?"

"Yeah." Lisa gestured to the time on the wall, "Half an hour has passed."

Now, the light in Lucy's eyes dimmed completely.

"Go back to bed and lie down."

Lucy didn't know how she sat back on the bed, she was so sad, she didn't expect that after three months of hard preparation, there would be such a result...

Two tears slipped silently down her face.

This is the first time for Lisa to see a girl cry silently. Her long eyelashes fell down, and two crystal clear tears rolled down like this. It was obviously silent, but the sadness seemed like a thousand troops, and people followed her. She is sad.

“Are you okay?” Seeing her crying, Lisa didn’t know how to comfort her, so she could only hand her a tissue.

“Wow...” Suddenly, Lucy burst into tears, which startled Lisa.

“Why do I have a stomachache...” Lucy cried loudly, “How could I, why did it happen at that time... Wow...how did I faint...I’m so useless...”

Seeing the contrast between the front and the back, Lisa could only comfort her, “That’s not your problem.”

“Obviously I can bear it, but why am I so hypocritical wow...”

Seeing her crying heart-rendingly, Lisa could only say, “Someone poisoned her.”

“Poisoning?” Lucy’s tears were stuck in her eyes, she immediately grabbed Lisa’s arms and asked, “What poisoning? Who poisoned? You mean, I have a stomachache, and someone hurt me?”

“Um.”

“Who, why did you hurt me??”

“I don’t know for the time being.” Lisa saw her grabbing her arms and couldn’t move them away, so she wanted to take a step back calmly, but she held her tightly again, “Isabella is there, she will definitely investigate of.”

“Wow... that’s too much.” Lucy suddenly hugged him and cried out in despair, “it’s too much, why do you want to poison me, why can’t you do it after the game?”

Chapter 394

Seeing that her brain circuit was a bit strange, Lisa couldn't help asking, "Can I vote after the game?"

"Yeah, I'd rather die of pain after the game, pass out from the pain, than be ashamed at the game site..."
Lucy was crying, her little face still rubbing against his clothes.

After rubbing, she choked up a bit. "Your clothes smell so good..."

After finishing speaking, she froze for a moment, wait, did she hold Lisa and cry, and wiped her tears on his clothes?

At this time, Isabella pushed open the door of the ward and came in. Seeing the scene in front of her, the corner of her mouth slightly curled up.

"Ah no...it's not what you think..."

Lucy didn't expect that she would do such a frenzied thing, she let go of her hand quickly, and desperately explained to Lisa. "I'm sorry Mr. Logan, I'm really sorry, I, I, I didn't mean it, you take off your clothes and go back I'll clean it up for you..."

"No."

Lucy tugged on his clothes, but couldn't take them off, she wanted to die, she wiped the tears on his clothes with her hands, "I didn't mean to..."

Her voice became quieter, and she was still muttering to explain, "I didn't mean to hug you just now..."

Isabella leaned against the door and asked leisurely. "Do you want more trophies?"

trophy??

Lucy wanted to rush over to get it.

"Be careful." Lisa grabbed her hand at once. There was still a needle on the back of her hand. If she rushed over so rashly, she would definitely pull the needle.

Lucy realized something, her little face blushed suddenly.

Lisa let go of her hand in a hurry. Just now, in a panic, he actually grabbed the girl's hand...

Isabella watched the scene in front of her with great interest, and walked towards them unhurriedly, breaking their predicament well.

"Take a look, what is this?"

"The third runner-up???" Lucy 's eyes lit up all of a sudden, "Ah, ah, Isabella, this is the friendship point you gave, isn't it? I'm already like that, and I can still get the third runner-up..."

"You only changed the skirt part in the third game, but the overall effect was good, and you scored more in the first two games."

Therefore, it is reasonable to get the third place.

"Really? Is there really no friendship in it? Really? Really?" Lucy hugged Isabella excitedly.

Isabella glanced at the back of her hand, but fortunately she didn't

Being Targeted by Several Groups of People

pull the needle, “Well, the other judges also scored, and the scores are very real.”

Isabella was pressed against her face, and could only say, “Relax. you’re going to strangle me.”

“Ah, ah, Isabella, I love you...” Lucy hugged her like a pet cat. Although he failed to win the championship, a third place was enough.

“It’s just that... I couldn’t personally accept the trophy you handed me on the stage...”

“Then go on now.” Isabella handed over the trophy and said. solemnly. “Contestant No. 1 Lucy, congratulations on winning the third place trophy.”

Lucy chuckled, bent at 90 degrees, and took it excitedly and respectfully. “Thank you. thank you Teacher Sofia, and thank you for presenting the award to me with your own hands.”

“Hey, autograph.” Isabella handed her a stack of photos. It was the picture of her commenting on Lucy during today’s game, which was captured by the photographer. Mr. Collins always had a dozen of them.

“Ahhh...” Lucy’s eyes lit up, and she took the photo excitedly, “Who took this, it’s so good...”

The point is, behind more than a dozen photos, there is Sofia ‘s autograph!!

“Do you want to take a group photo?” Isabella asked again with her lips curled up.

“Yes, yes!!” Lucy nodded desperately, holding the trophy in one hand and the photo in the other, and hooked Isabella 's arm, not only for a group photo, but also for a lot of photos!!

Being Targeted by Several Groups of People

Isabella took out her mobile phone, and the two of them pointed at the camera. Lucy found that there was an extra person inside, and she said a little embarrassedly, "That... I'm sorry Mr. Logan, please let me... just a little..."

Lisa didn't expect that she would be so redundant, so she took two steps aside and watched the two girls get close together.

Lucy pointed at the camera, smiling brightly, and Isabella also raised the corners of her lips.

Lisa found that women are really fickle creatures. One second she was crying, and the next second she was smiling and talking about. eggplants.

Isabella just took seven or eight photos when her phone vibrated. When she saw the caller, she said softly, "I'll answer the call first."

"Okay, okay." Lucy looked at the trophy in his hand again, unable to hide his joy.

After the call was connected, a man's voice came from the other end of the phone.

"Boss, did you save someone at the competition site today?"

Isabella walked to the balcony of the ward and said flatly, "It's hopeless."

"Then did you help people get their pulse and diagnose their illness? No ordinary person knows about HN2C. Today's game is live broadcast globally. If you say it all at once, you have already been targeted by several groups of forces. You still Hurry up and go

“Are you worried that I won’t be able to leave the country?”

“Boss, the situation is serious, even the members of the Skeleton. Club are following you!”

The Skeleton Club is an extremely terrifying and mysterious organization. Some people say that he can manipulate the political arena of a certain big country for a hundred years, and some people say that many international events that have caused a global sensation are organized and planned by them.

To put it simply, this organization is much more terrifying than the Nat Gang led by Isabella, and its nature is different...

“Also, the people from Hell Base are also following you.” The person on the phone seemed anxious,
“Also, the people from the T3. Research Institute are also looking for you...”

The T3 research institute is a terrifying medical organization. It will research many terrible viruses and conduct experiments directly on the elderly and children. As long as they are targeted by the people of this institute, they will either serve them or kill them directly. In short, for so many years, as long as the person they are targeting, no one can escape.

“I’ll be careful.” When Isabella said this, she suddenly noticed more than a dozen people walking hurriedly downstairs, who seemed to be not good at first glance.

“Boss, let me take a few people to escort you back to the United States. I dare not say protection, at least I will block bullets for you...”

Being Targeted by Several Groups of People

After all, those who are cycling the boss today are all big troubles. like gummy candy, the kind that can't be shaken off.

"No, I have something to deal with, so I'll hang up first."

"Ah?? Boss..."

Before the other party finished speaking, Isabella hung up the phone directly. She walked into the ward, and Lucy was overjoyed all of a sudden," Isabella, have you finished talking on the phone? Let's take some more pictures..."

"I have some things to deal with now, and I will shoot later. Brother, you can help me send Lucy back to the United States, now."

"Now?" Lisa was a little puzzled, Lucy still had two bottles of drips to finish... What happened to go back in such a hurry all of a sudden?

"Well, the fastest is a private jet, I kind of left beforehand."

sap

"Wait, didn't you say to visit your own group later?" Lisa asked softly.

"Next time." After Isabella finished speaking, she left the ward without hesitation.

Chapter 395 Don't worry, I'm here

More than a dozen faces of assistant students took the elevator up to the third floor. As soon as they walked out of the elevator door, they found another elevator with a closed door next to it. The girl inside was exactly what they were looking for!

“She’s gone down, chase after!”

Isabella left the hospital as quickly as possible, not wanting to leave danger to the people in the hospital.

Standing in front of the window, Lisa saw her sister walking in a hurry and quickly hid in the crowd. Behind her, there seemed to be more than a dozen people following her??

Is my sister in trouble??

At this time, a car quickly stopped in front of Isabella, and Isabella took a closer look, and it turned out to be Benjamin...

Didn’t he have a meeting at the French branch?

How did it appear here...

“Get in the car.” Benjamin opened the car door for her, and Isabella got in quickly.

More than a dozen people got into the car and chased after her, seemingly not giving up until they caught up with the girl.

Isabella glanced at the rearview mirror, then asked the man next to her, “How do you know I’m here?”

Lucy had an accident, the little girl would definitely visit her in the hospital, and this is the hospital closest to the game site.

The little girl just took a pulse and knew that Lucy was HN2C.

This kind of medical genius is sure to be rushed by many people.

However, the people who came today are not good people, the little girl is being targeted by them, and it is difficult to get rid of.

“If they know you are Selby Brown, it may be a little troublesome. I remember two years ago, someone said that Selby Brown had a medicine in his hand that could bring the dead back to life.” Benjamin said this, and glanced at the little girl.

Isabella didn’t deny it, and hummed lightly, “At that time, a patient was dying. His family spread the news everywhere in order to find me as soon as possible. Soon, all forces from all walks of life were looking for me. They wanted to get this panacea. A man who was mistaken for Selby Brown ended up dying tragically.”

Because these fake Selby Browns don’t have the medicine they want.

“If I had this medicine, I would have given it to grandma.” Isabella smiled, with a sad smile, but soon disappeared, “But they didn’t give up looking for me.”

These years, she has hidden it very well...

But what happened on the stage today, I am afraid that some people will doubt her identity.

At this moment, Benjamin’s cell phone vibrated, and he pressed the answer button on the steering wheel, “Brother.”

Lisa’s voice quickly reached their cars, and her tone was even a little anxious,” Benjamin, my sister seems to be in trouble.”

“I know, she’s with me.” Benjamin observed the surrounding traffic while driving. “Don’t worry, brother. I’m here for everything.”

“Okay, I’m relieved to have you here.” Lisa just breathed a sigh of relief, but couldn’t help asking. “Who is following her?”

“It’s nothing, I just admire her talent and want to ask her to see a doctor.”

The stone in Lisa’s heart fell slightly, “I thought I was here to seek revenge just now. so help me take care of her. Before she leaves, let me send Lucy back to the United States safely. I will send her back first.”

“Okay, then we’ll see you back in America.”

“OK.”

After hanging up the phone, Benjamin glanced at the little girl again, “Brother cares about you very much.”

“Ok, I know.”

Take today’s match scene as an example, I can’t wait to give her all the delicious food...

Unexpectedly, the elder brother found out that she was in danger...

She thought she was hiding it well...

Soon, more than a dozen black cars poured out from all directions behind Benjamin’s car. TikTok Trying to cross the border.p of people and let Benjamin’s car leave safely.

Isabella was a little surprised. She didn't expect Benjamin to have so many people in France. She didn't know what his identity was?

"I have raised some people, which just come in handy." Benjamin seemed to see her doubts, and explained it specially, and led her to a wasteland.

A private jet was parked here, and there were seven or eight people guarding it with weapons. They were very respectful when they saw Benjamin.

Benjamin nodded, tossed the car keys to one of them, and took Isabella's hand up the stairs.

"Let's go back to the United States and meet up with Big Brother."

"Yeah." Isabella was pulled by him, and suddenly remembered that her subordinates said not long ago that Benjamin had an organization in private, which was different from the one in LA. The people in this organization were spread all over the world, and it seemed to be related to politics.

But in front of her, this man was obviously very jealous, but in private...

When Benjamin stepped on the last step, his mobile phone vibrated and received a photo of a car crash and death.

It was one of his men, and the car was gone.

It seems that the group of people who came today are still a little bit capable.

On another private jet, Lucy was sitting in the sofa area, watching Lisa help her with drips...

"Mr. Logan, is something wrong?" Lucy couldn't help asking. "Isabella treats me as a friend, she can't rush to ask you to send me back to the United States when I haven't finished my drip..... Is she in trouble? Or, is it me?"

“No.” Lisa followed the steps explained by the nurse just now, and after helping Lucy get the drip done, she said softly, “There is a kind of medicine that is not available in foreign countries.”

Lucy seemed a little dubious, “Then why doesn’t Isabella come back together?”

“She’s going to stay with Benjamin.”

“Oh...” Lucy suddenly realized that Benjamin is really clingy, maybe the two of them will have some fun in France...

“You take a break first, call me if you need anything.” Lisa sat across from her and began to look through the report in her hand. This report was given to him by the French branch just now, and he hadn’t had time to read it carefully.

Seeing him working seriously, Lucy couldn’t help but said, “Mr. Logan...you seem to be working 24 hours a day...do you have nothing else to do in your life??”

Lisa raised her eyes, what could be the matter?

“I thought that successful people like you would definitely travel around in their spare time, see the beautiful scenery of various countries, spend time with their families...just like my father used to do.”

Don’t worry, I’m here

When Lucy said this, the kindly figure appeared in her mind, and she couldn’t help but feel her nose ache.

Dad was considered a successful person back then, whenever he was free, he would take the mother and daughter out for fun...

But that kind of time will never happen again.

After the father passed away, the uncle took away the management rights of the group, tried every means to reduce the assets in hand of her mother, and finally drove them out of the house...

At that time, those relatives didn't care...

If it weren't for meeting Isabella and Lisa, the mother and daughter would probably still be renting a house outside, living a miserable life.

Lisa seemed to see what she was thinking, and comforted her softly, "If your father knows that you won the third place today, he will definitely be proud of you."

Lucy burst into a smile, and there were tears in the smile," Mr. Logan, I didn't expect you to comfort people..."

She always thought that Lisa was a cold boss, and when she met her, she didn't dare to take a second look.

Chapter 396 The Next Sofia

"I'm usually serious?"

"It's not... It's just that the aura is so strong that it makes people feel oppressive when you get close..." Lucy said this, and then glanced at Lisa again. "But it's good now, at least a little more approachable..."

She smiled and gestured a little bit with her fingers, looking very cute.

Lisa 's voice softened, "It seems that I still have a lot of room for improvement."

"No. no. you are already perfect. You are very self-disciplined. motivated, able to control your schedule and emotions very well, and you can calmly deal with any problems you encounter... Many people in the group admire you and think you are perfect Impeccable."

"There are also people who think I'm a working machine, unhuman, and uninteresting."

"That's not the case. In my mind, you are a modest gentleman who leads by example, a boss who clearly rewards and punishes you, and a madman who spoils your sister..."

Pet sister madman?

"In short, I think you are very kind and gentle."

Lisa has never been praised face-to-face by a girl since she was a child. When she was in school, the girls only had one word for him- handsome.

After work, everyone just thinks that he is-strict.

And Lucy was the first to chatter and praise him in every way.

Lisa 's eyes softened, "You should rest, I will call you later."

"good."

Although Lucy also wants to rest, but the boss sits in front of her and reads the documents, there is still a certain pressure...

She closed her eyes, and the scene of the game appeared in her mind again. It's a pity that the butterfly was not tied, and the upper body was not improved...

After a while, she suddenly opened her eyes and looked at Lisa, " Mr. Logan, can you lend me a pen and paper?"

She's on an IV now, and she's on someone else's plane...

"Okay, I'll get it." Lisa got up and quickly found a pen and paper for her.

A lot of inspiration came to Lucy 's mind. She brushed and drew several styles of skirts on the paper. They were also butterfly skirts, but the design of the upper body was completely different.

Lisa saw how she was serious about drawing, and in her mind, she was holding an oil-paper umbrella on the stage today, slowly walking out of the background of the small bridge and flowing water, looking into the distance...

Retro hairstyle, slender figure, wearing a tailored red dress, the oriental atmosphere rushing towards her face, with the unique nobility and elegance of oriental women...

"Mr. Logan, what do you think?" Lucy whispered a few times, her hand that was not on the drip still waving in front of Lisa's eyes, Mr. Logan? Did you hear me?"

Only then did Lisa come back to her senses.

But in just a few minutes, Lucy has already drawn seven or eight styles.

Lisa took over the work, not expecting that each dress has its own uniqueness.

“Is it okay?” Lucy held her breath, waiting for her supervisor’s evaluation.

Lisa nodded. “Not bad.”

“real?”

“You’ll be the next Sofia.”

Such a high rating??

These words came from the mouth of Sofia’s own brother...

Lucy was surprised, but more excited...

“Under your leadership, the group will definitely get better and better.” Lisa returned the drawing to her.

Lucy didn’t know how she took these pages, but only knew that the affirmation from her boss made her inexplicably happy.

After a while, she closed her eyes and fell asleep. Lisa looked at the girl in front of her, and remembered that time in the office, she stepped on her split skirt, slipped and fell into his arms again and again...

At that time, the girl’s face was as red as a ripe apple, and she was about to burst into tears, especially at the end, when the skirt fell apart. Although he took off the suit jacket in time to save her, the girl still rushed out of the door in embarrassment...

That look is very cute.

After an unknown amount of time, Lucy could feel a thin blanket gently covering her body, probably because Lisa was afraid that she would catch a cold, so she specially found a thin blanket to cover her.

Lucy didn't dare to open her eyes, but her breathing became tense.

Immediately afterwards, she felt that someone gently changed the bottle of IV for her...

As if he was afraid of waking her up, the man moved very lightly...

Feeling Lisa's tenderness and care. Lucy's heart also warmed up.

I don't know how long it took, the plane flew over the United States.

Lucy fell asleep and woke up to find Lisa standing by the coffee machine making coffee.

That slender and tall figure, and that top-notch handsome face...it's so beautiful.

"Are you awake?" Lisa caught her gaze, made another cup for her, and put it in front of her, "Try it and see if it's good."

Lucy found that the needle on the back of her hand was missing, "Did you pull it out for me?"

"Um."

Lucy didn't expect this man to be very powerful, and he didn't wake her up when the needle was pulled out.

His movements should be very gentle, right?

When the needle was pulled out, did you press the needle port for her...

Thinking of this, Lucy couldn't help but blush again, and took a sip of the coffee indiscriminately, her baby face instantly turned into a ball of bitterness, it was so bitter.

Lisa was amused by her appearance, "Can't bear the hardship?"

"No, no, you can eat the hardships in life, but Mr. Logan handed you coffee...in fact, you can also drink it!"

"Don't call me Mr. Logan in private." Lisa added three more candies to her, looking very approachable.

"What's your name? Brother Logan ??"

Yes, yes, she will call it like Isabella, be kinder.

"Is it still bitter?" Lisa looked at her again.

Lucy took a sip, but I dare not say it was still a bit bitter...

Lisa added two more candies to her, "Try again."

Mr. Logan, ah no, Brother Logan, you are so careful..."

She didn't say anything, but Big Brother Logan could tell she couldn't drink the bitter coffee and added sugar to her twice...

The plane soon landed on a private apron.

“Brother Logan, thank you for taking me back to the United States...” Lucy wanted to take a taxi home after getting off the plane.

“There are no taxis nearby.”

“Then I’ll just go out and take a taxi...”

213 (Vouchere

“Isabella asked me to take you home.” Lisa kept the car door open, “Get in the car.”

Eventually, Lucy got into his car.

Because there is a driver in front of her, she and Lisa can only sit in the back seat...

The two were a little closer, and Lucy couldn’t help but hold her breath.

In order to ease the atmosphere, Lucy took out her mobile phone and turned it on, but unexpectedly received a bunch of missed calls and messages.

The person who called her most was mum Karl, whom Lucy hurried to call back.

“Mom, what’s the matter?”

Lucy, have you returned to the United States? I watched the live broadcast, and you fainted at the game site. Isabella said that someone poisoned you to prevent you from winning the championship... Are you okay?”

-When the phone couldn't be reached, Karl was afraid that his daughter would be in danger. During the live broadcast, Isabella said that this poison is very tormenting, and it will always hurt...

"It's all right, I'm in Bomsville."

"That's good, that's good..." The stone in Karl's heart finally fell to the ground, "Don't go to the group yet...come home."

"Is something wrong?"

Chapter 397 Abandoning the right to manage the group

"Those old directors watched your competition and were dissatisfied with the ranking you got. They have held several times to criticize the meeting, and even drew up an agreement and put it on your desk. They want you to sign directly and give up. The right to manage the group, and only receive a fixed dividend every month."

It's so deceiving!

Because Karl was anxious and sad, his voice was more excited than usual, and Lisa who was sitting beside him could hear it.

Although Lucy was dissatisfied with the actions of those directors, she suppressed her emotions and asked softly, "Where are you now?"

"I was invited out of the group by them, and now I'm at home... Don't go to the group. I'm afraid those old directors will embarrass you, come home, and we girls will think about countermeasures."

"We have to face it." Lucy thinks that delaying is not an option, and besides, they can't think of any good solution.

"I'll go to the group in a while. You don't have to wait for me to call tonight. Don't worry. I'm here."

"Lucy..." Karl's voice suddenly broke down, and there was a bit of crying.

She couldn't help wiping away her bitter tears. She didn't understand why God would test them like this. The lives of the two of them were already hard enough, and they had gone through so much wind and rain.

The point is, all these sufferings fell on the shoulders of Lucy, a child, and she felt extremely guilty.

"Mom, our life will definitely get better and better, don't be sad, wipe your tears away." Lucy heard her crying, "The more people want us to fall, the more we have to stand up and let everyone see. We are not so easily defeated."

Karl was made to cry by her words, sobbing directly on the phone.

"Okay, Mom, you go to the recovery meeting first, have a cup of coffee, enjoy the flowers, and I'll go home after I'm done."

After Lucy comforted her mother and hung up the phone, Lisa couldn't help asking. "Are you in trouble?"

"It's nothing..." Lucy didn't say, but her mood was a little complicated.

At her age, firstly, she has no management experience, and secondly, she hasn't made any great achievements. It's normal for those old directors to disapprove of her, but it's too much to invite her mother out of the group...

"Need help?" Lisa looked at the girl beside her again.

Lucy shook her head, "I can't help..."

This kind of thing can only be faced by herself.

"Please send me to L Group..."

Ten minutes later, the driver parked the car at the gate of L Group, and Lucy thanked him very gratefully.

"Brother Logan, you sent me back to the United States today, and you even gave me an IV. took care of me, and sent me here. I was supposed to treat you to a meal...but now I have something to do, and I will make an appointment with you later...today Thank you so much."

Seeing the girl being so polite, Lisa felt that she was a bit out of touch, "It should be."

"Then I'll go in first..."

When Lucy stepped into the gate of the group, Lisa could see through the window of the car that the two receptionists were pointing at her. They seemed to be very unwelcome and even a little contemptuous of her arrival.

Before, he and his sister thought that as long as the group was well' protected, Lucy and her mother's life would be better...

It was their negligence, and they did not expect that there are so many challenges waiting for their mother and daughter...

Lucy is pure by nature, I don't know if she can handle it.

As soon as Lucy entered the group, she heard the two front desks talking sarcastically.

"Yo, who did I think... Isn't it the one who killed my uncle's family..."

"Knowing that your relatives don't recognize you, you still dare to gossip here, believe it or not, you won't even be able to keep your job..."

"Yo, you say that as if I would like to work for her."

The two front desk staff were in a strange mood, because they managed to seduce Kirk, the uncle's son, who is also Lucy's cousin. They thought that they would not be able to fly on a branch and become a phoenix, but at least they would get some benefits, but they didn't expect Lucy to do this... I didn't get anything, and I was slept by Kirk for nothing!

Kirk is now in prison, and Kirk's parents and sister, I heard that they committed suicide...

Lucy didn't want to argue with them at first, but after hearing what they said, she felt that if she endured any longer, she would only become a soft persimmon to be manipulated by others. She remembered Isabella's vigorous and resolute style in the company, so she followed suit.

"Don't want to work here? Exactly, I don't want to hire you either. Go to the finance department to settle your wages within half an hour, pack your things and leave here."

"Why did you fire us?" One of the receptionists got angry and slapped the countertop, "Also, according to the labor law, if you fire us, you have to pay for it!"

"Tell me about the labor law?" Lucy found it funny, "Did the labor law tell you that if the employer is dismissed due to negligence, the employer does not need to pay you any financial compensation. You used to be late and leave early, which violated the company's rules and regulations. Yes. Isn't it the other way around that I can ask you for compensation?"

"You, you..." The two receptionists didn't expect her to suddenly become sharp-tongued, and they were suddenly speechless with anger.

"I will only give you half an hour. After half an hour, if you are still here, I can only ask the security to ask you to go out."

"Hey, Lucy... If your father is alive, seeing you managing the group like this, he must regret that he never gave birth to you, a bastard!"

Lucy was about to take the elevator, but when she heard this, she stopped again, and said with a sincere, "If my dad could see me handling things like this, he would definitely say that I am too kind, and I wanted to let you go, since you No need, then I'll have someone check it out, what other violations of the rules and regulations do you have in the group, and I'll make a claim together!"

"You..." One of the receptionists was almost out of breath by her.

Lucy stepped into the elevator in high heels, and the two front desk staff pointed and cursed at her when the elevator door closed, all of which were noticed by Lisa.

Lucy pressed the elevator and went to the top floor. As soon as she stepped out of the elevator door, she announced the convening of the group meeting, and all shareholders and the chairman must attend.

If it was normal, no one would come to the group meeting that Lucy ordered to hold, but today it was about whether she would give up the right to manage the group, so all the shareholders and the chairman came together.

When Lucy returned to the office, she saw the document drawn up by someone else on the desk, and all she had to do was sign it...

Heh, this eating appearance is too ugly.

Lucy, you're finally here..." Lucy's assistant hid in the corner for a while, and when she saw that it was Lucy, she dared to stand up, "You don't know how scary they were just now, I didn't dare to show up..."

Woohoo, she is really the most humble assistant in history...

The other assistants to the president are somewhat frightening, but she is the only one who is looked down upon and threatened to fire her...

It's so hard to be an intern assistant these days!!

Chapter 398 With Lisa's Backing

"They didn't make things difficult for you, did they?" Lucy cared softly.

"No..." Although she was embarrassed, warned, and harshly spoken, the assistant didn't say anything at this time. She knew that Lucy was in a bad mood, so she just said, "Lucy, what should we do next...

"Follow me to the meeting room." Lucy took the documents they had drawn up and rushed directly to the meeting room.

Lucy is a little different today, as if she has changed and become a little rusty.

"Oh, by the way, Lucy, you fainted at the competition site today, someone poisoned you... are you okay?" the little assistant followed behind her buttocks and asked cautiously.

“fine.”

“That’s good...” The little assistant breathed a sigh of relief, thought of something, and said, “You are so cool at the competition today, the style you designed is simply amazing, many people are amazed by your design, you know what? Because of this competition, the stock price of our group has risen a lot. Those old directors are probably afraid that you will be too popular, so they want to drive you out of the group. I think that only people as powerful as you are qualified to fight Li Group.”

Lucy didn’t expect this little assistant to be quite loyal. At this moment, she suddenly thought of something, and ordered, “The two front desks downstairs, ask someone to check if they have violated the group’s rules and regulations.”

“I know about this! No need to investigate, they used to always try to seduce Kirk, falsely report expenses, arrive late and leave early. and take full attendance. I know better than anyone... I have long since hated them...” The little assistant speaking of this, I couldn’t help asking. “Are you trying to fire them?”

“Well, by the way, make a claim.”

The little assistant didn’t expect that Lucy had really changed and became sulky, so she immediately became excited, “Then I will deal with this matter, and I promise to make them regret it!”

When we arrived at the meeting room, the little assistant pushed open the door of the meeting room for Lucy. Unexpectedly, this was the action, and the old director immediately came out to sneer.

“Became a CEO, he still puts on airs in front of our old employees, and he can’t even push the door...”

The little assistant panicked. She obviously wanted to push the door for Lucy herself, and it wasn’t Lucy who ordered her to do so...

This group of old directors really saw a needle, trying to make things difficult for Lucy....

“After taking the third place, do you think you are good? Do you want to take over the group? You really don’t know how high the world is!” One of the old directors slapped the table angrily, awe-inspiring the audience.

Lucy looked at the shareholders and directors in the room, and finally landed on Ivan, smiling coldly.

“Then may I ask what awards you have won in the past twenty years in this industry? The third place in the International Fashion Design Competition, everyone here, have you won any?”

In a word, the audience fell silent for an instant...

The little assistant’s chest was pounding. Unexpectedly, when Lucy came, the aura was fully opened, and the scene suddenly became tense...

“We just need to know how to operate.” Ivan said disdainfully.

“Talk about business with me? Oh... Then, before the competition, who can manage the group so that the stock price has skyrocketed like today?” Lucy looked around and asked coldly, “No?”

“You are just getting the glory of the game!”

“Yes, but you still can’t touch this light!” Lucy put the trophy on the conference table with a bang, and the audience fell silent again, daring to speak out.

Lucy took out the document drawn up by the board of directors and slapped it directly on the conference table, “What kind of mess is it written! The sentences are not fluent. This elementary school level, how dare you fight for the management right with me? This group was founded by my grandfather. Yes, what’s the matter with you?”

The chairman was so stunned by her that she didn't say a word, and the other Key couldn't stand it anymore, and said directly, "In short, our board of directors has the right to remove you!"

"Yes, as the CEO, I am not qualified to dismiss you all present here. I can only accept the fate of being dismissed by you. But, just today, I got the shares!"

All the shareholders and directors were shocked and looked at her in unison.

As we all know, Lucy's uncle snatched the shares held by Lucy's mother and daughter. Later, the uncle, aunt and cousin Yin Qing all died. Because the case is still under investigation, the shares never fell into Lucy's hands.

But not long ago, my uncle's son Kirk voluntarily donated the shares in his hand to Lucy in order to reduce his sentence, and my uncle's illegal possession of shares in Lucy's family has been found out, and now the shares have also been successfully transferred to Lucy's name according to the procedure.

Simply put, Lucy is currently the largest shareholder of the group.

"In my current capacity, it is still possible to dismiss any of you here."

"You..." Kev was so angry that he threw the employee badge hanging around his neck on the conference table. "If you don't do it, then don't do it. I'll see if the group can continue to operate without me, Kev.

"Heh, what's the big deal." Ivan also threw down his employee badge, apparently against Lucy.

The little assistant at the side couldn't help worrying about Lucy, these two chairmen are too much, isn't it obvious that they want to embarrass Lucy!!

Unexpectedly, Lucy sat at the head of the conference table, as if she had expected it a long time ago, and smiled coldly, "Is there anything else to go?"

As soon as these words came out, the audience fell silent again.

"No more? Just two??" Lucy felt funny, didn't the whole board of directors want to dismiss her, why only two people dare to stand up now, what about the other directors? Cowardly??"

"I have hired people from abroad, and there will be new people taking over any of the positions you have here."

Hearing this. Hugh slammed the table angrily, "Lucy, what do you mean? You want to replace all of us?"

"I didn't say that, I just hired more talents to be prepared."

Hugh pointed at her angrily, "I have worked with your father for many years, if you let him know..."

Before he could finish his sentence, Lucy interrupted. "If you let him know that after he passed away, you suddenly defected, supported my brother-in-law, and tried every means to reduce the shares held by our mother and daughter, and bully his wife and daughter." ...Do you think you can still sit here with my dad's temper?"

"You..." Hugh didn't expect her to come back from the competition, as if she was a different person.

Lucy changed his face instantly, and slapped the table angrily, "Play the emotional card with me, everyone here, are you worthy?"

The audience fell silent again...

The little assistant was stunned watching from the sidelines, but he didn't expect Lucy to be so rude today...

At this time, an employee knocked on the door of the conference room and pushed in.

“Excuse me, Lucy, Mr. Logan from Logan ‘s Group is waiting for you in the lounge. He said that the cooperation just now has not been finished. How long will it take?”

Logan ‘s?

Lisa ? ?

Everyone was stunned, how could such a big shot talk about cooperation with a small group like them...

No wonder the arrogance of this dead girl is so arrogant, it turned out that she was on the side of Logan, with Logan ‘s backing...

Chapter 399 Really Talking About Cooperation?

Lucy naturally knew that Lisa was here to support her, so she stood up and said. “I’m sorry everyone, I have other things to deal with. If you want to resign, you’d better submit your resignation within today. After today, if I find out who is If you are restless at work, do not follow the rules and regulations, and if you do something special, then I will be held accountable, claim compensation, and the meeting will be adjourned.”

“This girl...is so irritating.” Ivan was out of breath from her anger, and his secretary hurried forward to help him stroke his chest.

“It’s too much! I have worked hard in this group for twelve years, and she doesn’t give me any face...” Kev was also angry and blamed the other chairman, but he didn’t expect that the girl not only did not keep him, but also drove him away.

“Who would let people be the majority shareholder now, and the Logan Group cooperates...” Another chairman sighed. “It’s just that such a girl leads the group, I don’t agree with it...”

“Yeah, when her uncle led the group before, although he didn’t make any big achievements, he was still a middle-aged person... how can he look like a girl...”

“According to the regulations, when the new president arrives, there will be a celebration party to welcome him at night...and everyone has to come together.”

I don’t know who made such a remark, many chairman of the board felt bad, they were not convinced that Lucy took over the group, and now they have a celebration party to welcome her...

It’s just too annoying.

Lucy came to the lounge and asked someone to serve coffee to Lisa. After the door was closed, she showed a bright smile.

“Brother Logan, are you here to support me?”

“Well, you haven’t been bullied?” Lisa found that she was in a good state, and it didn’t look like she had suffered a disadvantage.

When Isabella was managing the company, I secretly learned a few tricks of her aura, and I finally managed to get over it today... I just don’t know what troubles are waiting for me...”

When Lucy said this, someone knocked on the door again, and it was the little assistant who came in with two cups of coffee.

“Mr. Logan, this is your coffee, Lucy, this is yours.” After finishing speaking, the little assistant put down the coffee, and reminded in a low voice, “Lucy, there is a celebration tonight, to celebrate you officially taking over the group... According to the usual practice, the directors of the board of directors negotiate the time and place, so be sure to attend on time tonight...”

“Huh? There’s also the celebration party?? Who came up with it...” Lucy didn’t want to face those old directors...

But before she could blame her, the little assistant said that it was suggested by her grandfather when he was still alive, so Lucy swallowed the words of protest again...

“Then tonight’s celebration...what do I need?” Lucy has no experience at all.

The little assistant has no experience, she has just joined the group as an intern, and the first task assigned to her is to assist Lucy with her work...

“When I left the meeting room just now, I overheard a chairman saying, saying...’

When the little assistant said this, he looked at Lisa again, wondering if he could tell this to outsiders.

Lucy saw what she meant, and said very straightforwardly, “It’s okay, just say, Brother Logan is one of our own.”

As soon as the little assistant heard that it was his own person, he knew everything he had to say and said it all.

“A chairman said, let’s see what kind of people you can invite tonight! After I inquired. I found out that tonight is not only a celebration, but also to see the network of your new CEO. Simply put. It’s about how much benefit you can bring to the group after you take over. Generally, the person in charge of the group who is on good terms with you will attend your celebration party tonight...”

When Lucy heard it, it was over, she didn’t have any connections at all, where could she invite someone with status and status to support her? ?

“I was quite anxious just now, but you said. Mr. Logan is my own, and the stone in my heart finally fell...” The little assistant heaved a sigh of relief, and laughed easily, “Mr. Logan is worth a hundred cash. Looking at the entire United States, which entrepreneur can compare with him?”

“...” Lucy glanced at Lisa, how could Brother Logan participate in such a boring celebration...

Besides, Brother Logan has already helped her a lot, so she is really embarrassed to say this.

“Also, when I was watching the live broadcast, the foreign player Claudia said that you have a close relationship with the famous designer Sofia, is it true? If Sofia can also come, then... those old directors and shareholders will definitely treat you Look at it with admiration!”

“...” Lucy was even harder, “Isabella is in France...”

Probably not back yet.

Even if she comes back, she doesn't want to cause trouble for Isabella...

Can't you bother people with little things?

“Ah??” The little assistant was a little discouraged, but soon regained his fighting spirit, “Mr. Logan is enough for us! I just don't know if Mr. Logan is inconvenient tonight...”

Lucy glanced at Lisa again, unexpectedly Lisa just nodded, “Well, what time is it tonight, you send me WhatsApp.”

“Brother Logan ??” Lucy couldn't believe what she heard, but Brother Logan agreed??

How could he be willing to participate in such a boring small celebration...

It must be for Isabella 's sake...

While Lucy was moved, she also felt very embarrassed, as if she had been wasting her friendship with Isabella, but she swear to God that she really had no intention of taking advantage of Isabella...

Chapter 400 Celebration Party

That's great..." The little assistant thought of something when he said this, "Oh, by the way. Lucy, you have to wear an evening dress. tonight... and you have to have some flirtation with those old directors..."

Lucy didn't expect this little assistant to dare to say, "Well, I see."

"Do you need me to prepare a dress for you?"

"No, I recently designed a set, which should be wearable."

"Okay, then I'll go out first?" The little assistant gently closed the door and left.

Lucy couldn't help bowing at ninety degrees again. "Thank you, Brother Logan... I know you are very busy, thank you for being willing to participate in such a boring celebration..."

"You don't have to be so alien to me." Lisa 's eyes softened, "I came here at this point to discuss cooperation with you."

"Cooperation??" Lucy's eyes lit up, she couldn't believe that Big Brother Logan really liked her small group...

But, how is it possible??

This small group doesn't have any impressive results...

“You won the third place in the international competition this time, I think we can cooperate to launch a new model...” Lisa expressed her thoughts.

Lucy nodded again and again, “Okay, just do as you say!”

“Then I’ll have someone draw up a contract another day, and bring it here for you to sign.”

“Thank you, Brother Logan...” Lucy knew that it was because of Isabella that Brother Logan would give her such a chance.

“See you again.”

Lisa got up, and Lucy hurried him out of the office.

“I just started managing the group, if you don’t understand anything, you can find me.”

Lucy looked at his side face and couldn’t help but said, “ Brother Logan, you are so kind...”

“You are good at complimenting people.” This is the nth time Lisa has been praised by her today.

“It’s not a compliment, it’s from the bottom of my heart that I feel good about you...” When Lucy said this, someone just passed by, so she stopped talking and sent Lisa to the gate of the group, she still expressed her gratitude very gratefully.

After Lisa left, Lucy sent Isabella a WhatsApp again.

Isabella, I have a party tonight, can you help me see if this dress, fits?”

Isabella quickly replied. “What celebration?”

Because I don't know what the occasion is, I don't know if such a dress is suitable for appearing.

"It was stipulated by my grandfather when he was alive that when a new official takes office, the old directors and shareholders will hold a welcome party to welcome her."

Isabella understood, and quickly agreed, "Well, then this dress is not bad, it just comes in handy."

"Isabella, speaking of which, I want to thank you." Lucy couldn't help but said. "If it weren't for your face, Brother Logan would not have sent me back to the United States, and he showed up in time. when I was made things difficult by those old directors Stand up for me... tonight he is still willing to participate in this celebration, you don't know that this celebration actually depends on the connections of the new CEO..."

I was really shocked by her three views...

Fortunately. Big Brother Logan was willing to attend, otherwise she would be beaten and despised by those old directors again.

After hearing her finish, Isabella said gently, "I asked Darreld to represent QY Group tonight, and I happen to have something to deal with here."

"Ah? No. I'm..."

"I know." Isabella smiled, "By the way, I want to talk to you about cooperation."

Talk about cooperation again??

Lucy was stunned, and was immediately moved, " Isabella, why do you think your family is so nice... Brother Logan also said that he wanted to cooperate with me...Actually, I know how much I am, our small group is really not bright The eye-catching results are worth your investment....."

It must be out of friendship that Brother Logan and Isabella are willing to help her.

"You won the third place, which is the best result." Isabella admitted with a smile. "Okay, I still have something to do here. If you need help tonight, just ask my elder brother."

"good."

After Isabella hung up the phone, she looked at the man next to her.

Although she and Benjamin returned to the United States safely, several forces still sneaked into the United States, looking for her everywhere.

She didn't want to put Lucy in danger...

So she can't show her face tonight.

eight pm.

The celebration was held on the top floor of the Bomsville Grand Hotel.

Many shareholders and directors came over early to see Lucy's jokes.

"A little girl is a little girl, and she has no concept of time at all... You see, we have so many directors and shareholders waiting for her... I really think I am the CEO, which is amazing."

"Isn't that right... the young people nowadays just don't have any points in their hearts. Let her be more majestic. If no one comes to support her in a while, let's see how she raises her head."

“You can see that the night view of Bomsville is beautiful...Only those who stand at the top can enjoy the unique scenery...”

At this moment, someone said, “ Lucy is here.”

Everyone looked around and saw that Lucy was wearing a tube top dress with stitching and contrasting colors. One side was extremely black, which gave people a cool feeling, and the other side was pink, with the charm of a little woman. The two styles collide, which is indescribably beautiful.

Unexpectedly, the little girl dressed up casually, her appearance and temperament were still online, her long black hair was hanging down, simple and beautiful.

That is, behind her... no guest was brought over.

At this time, many directors laughed and laughed, and some even stepped forward to make sarcastic remarks.

Lucy, why are you alone? No friends to come with you?” One of the slightly older middle-aged women pretended to remind in a low voice. “If you don’t have any contacts, you can tell me, I have a friend who owns a clothing store The company is quite famous, so I can call it over to support you...”

Speaking of this, the middle-aged woman found that the mountain. in front of Lucy was bigger than her, and she was a little dissatisfied and jealous.

“Hey Chairman Dot, what are you talking about, Lucy just took over the group, how do I know any friends...”

Before he finished speaking, a voice appeared.

“Sorry, I’m late.”

I saw a handsome young man in a suit approached politely, and offered his hand. “Lucy, congratulations on taking over the Yin family... under your leadership, it will definitely be like a tiger with wings...”

“Mr. Russell?” Lucy didn’t expect that Darreld, the acting president of QY, really came, and she stepped forward to hold his hand gratefully, “I’m glad you can come to this little celebration today...”

“It’s not small, but I just heard that there is a famous clothing company that can come to support you. I don’t know which clothing company it is?” Darreld ‘s eyes fell on Chairman Dot who had just spoken.

Chairman Dot was too scared to speak, this is Darreld, the president of QY...

As we all know, Sofia seldom shows up in the group, and Darreld is in charge of everything in the group...

Unexpectedly, he would appear here in person and speak for Lucy...

Just now she said that her friend’s company was just a humble company, and she wanted to humiliate Lucy.

Didn’t expect to be mentioned by Darreld.

“Chairman Dot, Mr. Russell asked you which company?” Lucy climbed up the pole and looked at Chairman Dot with great interest.

Chairman Dot repeatedly admitted defeat. “I’m just talking casually...”

Not to mention her friend’s small company, just take Yin’s as an example, it is not enough for QY.

How dare she play big swords in front of Guan Gong.

Darrel didn't make it difficult, but the gentleman looked at Lucy politely, "Lucy, today is your celebration, we will talk about cooperation tomorrow, what do you think?"

"Okay, it's an honor for our Yin family to cooperate with QY." Lucy shook hands with him again, expressing her gratitude.

The other directors and shareholders were stunned. They couldn't believe that Lucy was able to invite such a big Buddha...

What kind of status QY has in the clothing industry, we all know...

At this time, another man came slowly, his eyes fell on the hands of Lucy and Darrel...

"Is it Lisa from Logan's Group? Is he coming too?"

"In the afternoon, the board of directors wanted to dismiss Lucy, so he showed up in time and said that he wanted to discuss cooperation with the Yin family. At tonight's welcome meeting, he also showed up specifically to support Lucy. He is very interested in Lucy's affairs, not because he is interested in Lucy. gone?"

"How is it possible! Lucy is an onion, how can she be qualified to be favored by others?"

"But Mr. Logan is not a nosy person. He is not the one who has a crush on Lucy. Could it be that he has a crush on her talent??"

"You talk about talent, I think it's possible..."
