

Chased Her 401

Chapter 401 Seems a little hostile

“Lucy.”

At this time, Lisa did not call her Lucy like QY’s Darreld, but directly called her by name, making people feel that they have a close relationship.

Lucy turned her head and saw Lisa coming, she suddenly showed a bright smile.

She happily came to Lisa, saw Lisa stretched out her hand and shook his hand, and whispered, “ Brother Logan.”

“Hmm.” Lisa’s eyes were a little gentle, “Aren’t you late?”

“No, you’re early.” Lucy led him forward, “There’s your favorite red wine ahead, I’ll get you a glass.”

Darreld on the side was a little confused, Lisa looked at him just now, seemed to be a little hostile?

Is it his illusion?

I don’t know why, this hostility is a bit familiar...

Like... the way Benjamin looked at him before.

The people present didn’t expect that Lucy, the dead girl, invited QY President Darreld on the front foot, and Lisa on the back foot, and they dared not speak out.

Lucy handed Lisa a glass of wine, “Brother Logan, I would like to toast you.”

“Girls don’t drink.”

“Brother Logan has helped me so much, I must respect you with this glass of wine.”

Lisa just wanted to say that a small sip is enough, but Lucy had already bottomed out the glass, and smiled at him after drinking, with a pure and innocent smile.

She originally looked like the sister next door, but now she was wearing an evening dress, she was pretty and sweet.

“Mr. Logan is really a compliment.” A chairman came over and said with a smile. “Usually I have never seen Mr. Logan at the welcome party of other groups. Today, for Lucy, you made an exception...”

“Yes.” Another chairman came over and echoed with a smile. “Before, the boss of Star Group couldn’t invite you to his 70th birthday party...”

When Lucy heard it, she looked at Lisa in disbelief.

“Lucy is different from everyone else.”

Lisa made a pun, and the two chairman were taken aback for a moment, and then laughed again.

“Since Mr. Logan is so optimistic about our Lucy, and then Lucy’s new official will take office, Mr. Logan needs to help...”

“Yeah, Lucy has little experience, if Mr. Logan can cooperate more with our group...”

When Lucy heard it, she interrupted immediately. “Don’t talk about work today, Mr. Logan, let’s go over there.”

These two directors are so annoying.

“Hey, I heard that Mr. Logan came to our Yin family today to discuss a cooperation? I don’t know what kind of cooperation it is, how is the negotiation going?”

“Yeah, I also want to know what is the first cooperation that Lucy brings with her new office.”

“You two seem to be asking too many questions.” Lisa did not answer directly, but said in a low voice, “I will discuss the details of the cooperation with Lucy at another time.”

“I don’t need you both to worry about it.” Lucy also added.

The two directors were dissatisfied, found an excuse and left immediately.

“Brother Logan, thank you...” Lucy didn’t expect Lisa to make an exception for her and helped her out.

“You just took over the group, and there are still many people and things to adapt to.” Lisa just said this, and the phone vibrated, “Sorry, excuse me.”

“Brother Logan, please be busy.” Lucy saw him answering the phone and walking to the other side, as if it was a matter of work and didn’t bother him.

Her eyes accidentally saw QY’s president Darreld surrounded by a group of people, so she went to separate them.

“Don’t scare Mr. Russell... we won’t talk about work today.” Lucy fended off seven or eight approaching chairman and shareholders. and protected Darreld behind him.”

Mr. Russell will talk to me about the follow-up cooperation, Don’t bother you.”

“Lucy, Mr. Russell and I have other things to talk about...”

“Then make an appointment at another time. Mr. Russell is here for me today. I don’t want to hear anything about work during my celebration.”

Another person said. “ Mr. Russell hasn’t given an answer to what Mr. Russell and I suggested just now.”

“No reply today, please give Mr. Russell some private time.”

After Lucy dismissed seven or eight chairman and shareholders, she turned around and apologized to Darreld. “I’m sorry, the people under my command don’t care about the importance, and they always want to take advantage of the advantages. Mr. Russell doesn’t need to give me face. If you refuse No matter how you refuse. I will tell them well later, so that they don’t look too ugly.”

“I can see Lucy’s situation...it’s okay, thank you Lucy for helping me out.”

Darreld is not only a president, but also a master of public relations, more than enough to deal with the scene just now, but the feeling of being guarded by a little girl still makes him feel a little different.

“I made Mr. Russell laugh...” Lucy felt apologetic, and smiled sadly, “As you can see, I am a new official, with no experience, and no experience. Many people don’t accept me...”

“Take your time.” Darreld looked at the girl in front of him, with a hint of encouragement in his appreciative eyes. “When I took care of QY for Miss Welch, I also fumbled all the way from ignorance and ignorance. I watched your game, you Very talented, very thoughtful, and very hardworking, you will definitely be able to make a name for yourself on the road of design.”

Lucy couldn’t help being moved, “Thank you, Mr. Russell...”

“I’m not talking politely, I really think you can do it.” Darreld patted her on the shoulder and encouraged, “Come on, you can definitely shine.”

Lisa in the distance was talking about work, seeing the two talking and laughing, and Darreld even patted Lucy on the shoulder...

“Boss, are you listening to me? Boss??” Lucas on the phone thought the signal was not good. After all, with Boss’ attitude towards work, it is absolutely impossible for him to be distracted.

“Well, you go on.”

“Boss... you, are you in a bad mood?” Lucas seemed to hear Lisa’s tone mixed with a little depression, but with Boss’ ability to control his emotions freely, how could he not be able to control his emotions??

Is he thinking too much??

But why does he feel that Boss is a bit abnormal today...

The little assistant ran over and said something to Lucy, Lucy nodded and said to Darreld, “The ceremony has begun.”

First, Hugh, who hated Lucy the most in the board of directors, came to power. He pretended to welcome Lucy’s arrival on behalf of the entire board of directors. Then he concealed a knife and said some warning words, which meant that the whole group was staring at her. Next I hope she can do a good job and live up to expectations.

“Ignore him.” Darreld stood beside Lucy, and the backs of the two looked inexplicably harmonious.

“I don’t take him seriously.” Lucy has long disliked this director, and today in the conference room, he still embarrassed her in front of everyone...

He obviously hates her, but now he welcomes her with some polite. words, it’s really too hypocritical...

Chapter 402 Your Big Brother Logan Won't Come

Lisa watched them interact, and said to the person on the phone with some displeasure, "You have to find time to study."

It took so long to report these small things, and I still need to listen. to his opinion...

Lucas is dumbfounded, is Boss dissatisfied with his business ability? But for such an important matter, he had to ask the Boss for his opinion before he dared to deal with it...

What happened to Boss today, seems really unhappy...

After Hugh finished his speech, it was the turn of the second largest shareholder of the group to take the stage. He also said some scenes, and the words were hidden in the same words. Lucy was really speechless...

Next, the lights of the audience were dimmed, and bright fireworks bloomed in the night sky...

Seeing the harmonious backs of the two flickering, Lisa finally couldn't hold back, and said to the person on the phone, "That's it, the next thing is up to you."

"Boss???" Before Lucas could react, he heard a beeping busy tone...

Lisa put away her phone and walked towards the pair of figures just now. When she got closer, she realized that Darreld was the only one left.

Where's Lucy?" Lisa asked with a gloomy tone.

Darreld was a little confused, "She went to the bathroom."

The sound of the fireworks was too loud, and the scene was very dark. Lisa couldn't find the figure in her eyes. After waiting for a while, until the fireworks show was over and the lights were turned on, Lucy still didn't come back.

Now, Lisa pushed aside the crowd and walked towards the bathroom.

“Mr. Logan...”

At this time, a woman wanted to throw herself into her arms, but Lisa avoided her.

The person here is a minority shareholder of L Group, and Lisa has fallen in love with him since Lisa came out tonight.

“Mr. Logan, my name is Anna. I am a shareholder of L Group. I like you very much. I fell in love with you at first sight. I don't know if you have a girlfriend. If not, can you see me?”

Anna is twenty-four years old this year. She thinks she is young and beautiful, and speaks confidently.

But Lisa still said. “Yes.”

After he finished speaking, he walked towards the bathroom without even looking at her.

Anna froze in place, unable to believe it. Isn't it rumored that Lisa is single and a cold working machine? When did you have a girlfriend? Where is the girlfriend? How did you subdue him? Why didn't any news come out?

When Lisa came outside the bathroom, a lady came out of the women's bathroom. Gentleman Lisa asked restrainedly, "Excuse me, is there anyone in there?"

The lady was dumbfounded by his question, and it took a while to react, blushing. "No... I was the only one just now..."

Lisa didn't know why she was blushing, took out her mobile phone, called Lucy, and it was turned off.

He was about to go to the open-air banquet hall to see if the little girl had returned, when he passed the fire escape stairs, he suddenly heard someone say, "That little bitch is going to die today..."

Lisa pushed open the door of the fire escape stairs, and saw two or three men coming up, one of them kicked a high-heeled shoe that fell on the stairs to the side...

That high heel is what Lucy is wearing tonight.

Lisa grabbed one of them by the collar and asked, "Where's Lucy?"

The other two who were not caught came back to their senses and saw that it was Lisa, so they ran downstairs in fright!

There was only one left, whose collar was grabbed by Lisa. Seeing his companions running away, he said a little scared, "Mr. Logan, why are you here..."

Where is Lucy?" Lisa's tone was sullen.

The man was terrified, and it was the first time he saw Lisa angry, "Yes, downstairs, 3201..."

This is the top floor, where the celebration is held, and the downstairs are hotel rooms.

Lisa realized something, and walked quickly towards 3201...

in the guest room.

Lucy was thrown on the bed, and realized that she was in a dangerous situation, but she didn't have the strength to resist, Lucy was terrified.

Hugh patted her on the face, "You can't control yourself, you insist on fighting with me... Uncle Wang is amazing, you haven't really learned it yet, I'll let you have a good taste today... until you call him Dad!"

He intends to tarnish the girl's innocence, and take some photos to threaten her, so that he can control her in the group...

"Don't, don't come here..." Lucy felt uncomfortable all over, it was obviously Hugh who came, but her whole body was so hot that she was about to lose control...

"You're so young..." Hugh touched her delicate face, especially when she was wearing this color-blocking stitching dress today, she looked quite attractive, pure and alluring.

Lucy clenched her fists desperately, her nails sank deep into her palms, almost bleeding...

"It's useless, this medicine is out of control... Don't do useless work..." Hugh is like a scary devil, with a sinister smile. "As long as you listen to Uncle Wang. Uncle Wang can be gentle, Uncle Wang knows you are first."

"Get out." Lucy was exhausted, and she was obviously reprimanded in disgust, but when she said it, it seemed like she was acting like a baby. Her tears rolled down her face, and she was afraid that she would really lose her virginity today...

The dress was pulled down by Hugh...

But she didn't even have the strength to reach out and pull back the dress, how could it be, how could it be like this...

Tears welled up again.

Hugh tugged the gown up to her waist and saw her fair skin, the final covering.

"It's beautiful..." Hugh looked like he was admiring a painting.

Lucy was pinned down by him and couldn't move her hands. With tears in her eyes, she cried out in despair, " Brother Logan, save me..."

At this moment, only this person appeared in her mind, as if with him, everything could be solved...

"Your big brother Logan is still upstairs, and he can't hear you no matter how loud you yell..." Hugh said this, and suddenly slapped her frantically, "Little bitch, I just want to seduce him because he looks young and handsome."? Why. I can't satisfy you??"

"Go away..." Lucy cried, helpless, unable to pull her hand back.

Seeing her crying so pitifully for Freda, Hugh 's heart was about to break, "Uncle just likes a poor little guy like you... so pitiful, so cute..."

He was about to tear off her last cover...

At this moment, the door of the guest room was kicked open. As soon as Lisa came in, she saw the girl on the bed with her hands.

pressed down, crying sadly, and called out pitifully, "Brother Logan."

The scum standing in front of the girl pressed the girl's hands on top of his head with one hand, and was about to unhook his belt with the other. When he saw Lisa appearing, he was obviously stunned, "Mr. Logan? Why do you..."

He backed away in horror.

Lisa rushed over with overwhelming anger. He took off his suit jacket and put it on the girl, kicked Hugh, then picked up the chair next to him, and hit the old director hard...

Chapter 403 Sowing Divorce

Isabella saw him talking nonsense in a serious manner, and said with great interest. "I'm just at school, not going anywhere."

"What can I do then?" Benjamin said while blowing her hair, "What if I bring danger to my classmates? It just so happens that I have nothing to do these days, so I can stay with you at home."

When Green heard this, he burst into tears and fainted in the group...

"Besides, there is a laboratory here." Benjamin followed the temptation, "Aren't you the favorite to do experiments? I'll send someone to send you any materials you need, and I promise not to disturb you when you are doing experiments."

Of course, when you are not doing experiments, you can hug and hold high.

But this point, he will not say it.

“Fine.”

Isabella didn't expect Isabella to agree, and Benjamin couldn't hold back his sneaky expression, “Then I'll send you back to school when it's safe.”

“Um.”

After drying her hair, Benjamin combed it for her. Her hair was so soft and soft that he couldn't bear to use force.

“I asked you Bradley, he said that girls now like to use this kind of skin care product after taking a shower.” Benjamin pointed to at dozen bottles and jars on the dressing table.

He also bought a set for Isabella, but didn't know how to use it.

At this time, he clicked on the video sent by Bradley, and Bradley explained word by word how the water was shot and how the milk. was applied...

While watching. Benjamin practiced on Isabella 's face. Isabella 's face was too small, tender and white. He patted it very lightly, for fear of hurting her.

The two looked at each other closely, as if they could feel each other's breath...

Benjamin 's fingers were still on Isabella 's face, he looked at the girl's clear and bright eyes, that straight nose, and her crimson lips...

Inexplicably want to get close to...

His lips slowly pressed against the girl's lips, entangled, and explored deeper and deeper.

The girl's softness made him want to stop, and gradually, his reason was defeated.

He carried the girl to the dressing table, kissed her uncontrollably, his big hands began to move restlessly...

The fragrance on her body teased him all the time...

the other side.

Cecilia went to the medical university and waited for two days, but she didn't see Isabella.

She wanted to send Isabella a WhatsApp, but she was afraid that Isabella would get bored, so she asked Isabella's roommates, but none of them were willing to talk to her. She didn't understand why Isabella didn't even go to the laboratory and library...

Seeing that the time on the phone has shown 22:37, if you don't go back to Bomsville University, the dormitory building will be closed.

She was walking back in a daze with the supper she bought for Isabella, when she suddenly remembered something and called Scarlet again.

"Scarlet, the foot bath bucket I sent back, is it useful for dad?" Cecilia didn't understand why the foot bath bucket that was signed for three days ago had not received any feedback from her father, but it was not good for her to ask dad directly, so she had to go first Ask Scarlet.

"Hey, Miss Logan...I didn't want to tell you at first, but this..." Scarlet sighed heavily again, and said after a while, "Master didn't even take a look at the foot bath bucket you sent me." No, it's the herbal bag prepared by Isabella, the master uses it to soak his feet every day..."

“Did you tell him that the foot bath bucket can be used together with my sister’s herbal bag?” Cecilia also heard from friends around her that there is a new foot bath bucket recently released on the market. It has various functions, although it is expensive., but many elders were very satisfied after receiving it, so they thought about buying one for Dad.

“Hey, I said it, but the master doesn’t seem to have heard...” Scarlet said this, hesitated to speak, and sighed again. “Miss Logan, I didn’t hit you, the sky-high price skin care products you sent the day before yesterday, Madam, take it I wiped my hands...”

Before Cecilia could speak, Scarlet lamented, “That’s something to wipe your face. You didn’t pay much attention to it before you wiped your hands... Ms. Use it to wipe your face, the contrast between before and after should not be too obvious...”

Cecilia felt slightly disappointed when she heard this, but quickly said. “It doesn’t matter, they can use whatever they think is easy to use, and they don’t have to buy it from me.”

As long as the parents receive it, as for whether it is useful or not, whether they like it or not, they cannot force it.

Miss Logan, you are so kind...” Scarlet said a lot of discordant words again. “I am reluctant to use the things Miss Logan sent me, if it wasn’t for the bottle of anti-aging cream you gave me that was about to expire recently I can’t bear to open it...but they...”

“Scarlet, I know you’re good to me, it’s okay.”

“Okay, it’s getting late, you should go back to the dormitory to rest early, and I’ll make indirect remarks tomorrow, hinting at Elder Mr. and Mrs., hey.”

“No need.” Cecilia said sensibly. “Some things can’t be forced, as long as I do my best, the rest, let nature take its course.”

“Hey, good...”

After Scarlet hung up the phone, she suddenly heard Eloise calling her.

“Scarlet? Scarlet ??”

“Hey, ma’am, I’m here...it’s so late. you haven’t rested yet?” Scarlet put the phone in her pocket in a hurry, and hurried out to the kitchen.

Eloise went downstairs and was still looking around, “I suddenly remembered that Cecilia told me a week ago that she sent a foot bath bucket to her dad. Has anyone signed for it at home?”

Cecilia originally said that she would arrive three days ago, but why has she remained silent until now? What’s going on...

“I don’t know... But two days ago, there were a bunch of things sent by brands. I don’t know if the courier from Ms. Cecilia has been mixed into the pile. I’ll go and see.

Scarlet had hidden the courier a long time ago, and when she heard that Eloise was looking for it, she pretended to find it.

“So it’s here! I don’t know which servant took it into the storage. room...Madam, do you want to take it apart now?”

“Well, you open it, and I’ll take it up for Williams to use.” Eloise said this, suddenly relieved,” Cecilia is getting more and more sensible, and she gave me a set of skin care products a few days ago, but my face I am allergic, so I can’t use it, I tried it on the back of my hand, and the effect is not bad...”

“Yes, Miss Logan has always been filial, but it’s a pity that she is not a biological child of the Logan Family.” Scarlet pretended to sigh.

“You can’t say that.” Eloise said seriously, “In our hearts, she is a part of this family... You can’t treat her like an outsider.”

“Don’t worry ma’am, I’ve always been loyal to Miss Logan.”

“I know.” Eloise took the foot bath from her and was about to go upstairs when she thought of something and stopped and said, “Isabella and Cecilia are both my children, and you should treat them equally.”

“Yes.” Although Scarlet was dissatisfied in her heart, she still pretended to be submissive on the surface.

Seeing the back of Eloise going upstairs, a ruthless light flashed in her eyes.

Chapter 405

Early the next morning.

Williams boasted while having breakfast, “The foot bath bucket sent by Cecilia is really useful. I added the herbal bag made by Isabella to it. I slept very comfortably last night. Wife, you can try it later, and you are guaranteed sleep tight.”

“Then you will call Cecilia later and give her feedback.” Eloise served a bowl of porridge and handed it to Williams. “By the way, tell her that the skin care products she sent are very useful...I like it very much.”

“Okay, I’ll call now...”

Just as Williams was about to take out his mobile phone, Scarlet brought all kinds of breakfast and said with a smile, "Master, madam, let me call, your breakfast is getting cold, and Miss Logan also bought something for me two days ago, just in time, I take this opportunity to thank her..."

"Okay." Eloise showed a gratified and kind smile. She didn't expect Cecilia to be so sensible. She not only prepared gifts for her parents, but also thought about Scarlet who raised her up.

This is a child who knows how to be grateful.

Scarlet breathed a sigh of relief, and called Cecilia in front of them. At this point. Cecilia was in class. As Scarlet expected, Cecilia didn't answer the phone immediately, but after hanging up, she sent WhatsApp to ask her what's the matter.

"Miss Logan is in class, so it's not convenient to answer the phone." Scarlet finished the report, and replied in front of Williams and Eloise. "The master said that the foot bath bucket sent by Miss Logan is very useful, he slept very comfortably last night, Madam also praised you for being sensible, saying that the skin care products you sent are very suitable."

After sending the voice, Scarlet put away the phone and boasted, " Miss Logan is so filial, she misses Elder Mr. and Mrs every day and every day..."

"I miss you too." Eloise smiled, " Cecilia has been innocent and kind since she was a child."

"Elder Mr. and Mrs. taught well."

After serving Williams and Eloise for breakfast, Scarlet took out her mobile phone and saw that Miss Logan had returned to WhatsApp.

Scarlet, were you looking for your parents last night?"

Last night. Scarlet said on the phone, would insinuate that Williams and Eloise valued her gift.

Scarlet took the opportunity to reply. " Mr. and Mrs. Elder were about to go to bed last night. I did open the foot bath bucket for the master to try. Madam's skin care products were also applied on the face..."

Cecilia 's heart was a little depressed, and it was because of Scarlet that her parents remembered the things she gave.

"Oh, by the way, Miss Leah sent something home just now, Elder Mr. and Mrs. went to open it after breakfast..."

Don't make this attitude too obvious, Cecilia sent it, just ignore it.

The second brother's girlfriend gave it to him, and the second elder was so caring, so he went to have a look after breakfast...

Cecilia 's mood became even more depressed. She didn't expect that she was not as good as her second brother's girlfriend in the hearts of her parents.

"Miss Leah not only prepared gifts for Elder Mr. and Mrs., but also for Isabella..." Scarlet hesitated to speak, "It seems that there is no Miss Logan..."

Cecilia lowered her long eyes, "Well, it's okay, she can give it to whoever she wants. I've contradicted her a lot before, and it's normal if she doesn't like me..."

Miss Logan, haven't you noticed? The whole family treats you as an outsider, even Miss Leah who hasn't stepped through the threshold dares to ignore you like this..."

Scarlet wanted to fan the flames, but when she heard Madam calling her, she said, " Miss Logan, don't be sad, Madam is calling me. I'll go and see what she wants from me first."

"Yeah." After hanging up the phone, Cecilia stood on the corridor outside the classroom with indescribably downcast eyes.

Why, she felt as if she had been abandoned by the whole world.

"Scarlet. Scarlet ??"

"Here comes ma'am..." Scarlet hurried over.

"Look, these are gifts that Leah sent home. These are for Cecilia. You help her get them to the cloakroom."

"Miss Leah sent so many gifts? Miss Logan also has a share..."

Scarlet accepted the gift with a smile. "It's so thoughtful, thank you Miss Leah."

"What is called Miss Logan also has a share, everyone in this family has a share, including you." Eloise smiled, and found a large box of gifts for the servants. There were dozens of copies neatly prepared in it. The things are the same.

She gave Scarlet a copy, laughing, "It's yours."

Miss Leah is still thinking about those of us who work...so caring." Scarlet laughed, "This is..."

Eloise opened Deb 's gift to Isabella, all kinds of beautiful dresses, Eloise picked up one of them, it was so fairy, she could imagine how Isabella would look in it, it must be beautiful.

“It’s so beautiful, it complements Ms. Young ‘s temperament.” Scarlet praised without hesitation.

“Yeah, I think it looks good too... Leah is so good at picking clothes...” Eloise took out the dress Deb gave Isabella to look at, and said to Williams, “ Leah is so sweet...”

“Yeah, I look sensible and well-behaved, but the character of the second child is a bit boring, not as lively and cheerful as other girls.”

“Complementary...Don’t look at the second child who doesn’t like to talk, let her do everything and love her...”

Seeing that they were chatting, Scarlet went upstairs with a gift, and secretly took out her mobile phone to take a picture and send it to Cecilia.

“These are gifts from Miss Leah to Isabella.”

Deliberately exaggerating, taking all the big boxes around in one photo, making people mistakenly think that Deb sent a lot of things to Isabella.

“Madam also thinks that dress is very pretty, and said that Isabella must be very fairy wearing it.”

“There are dozens of skirts by visual inspection.”

“It looks expensive.”

Scarlet picked out the most inconspicuous dress from Deb ‘s gift to Cecilia, deliberately messed it up, took a random photo and sent it, and said cryptically, “This is... the leftover.”

Pick leftovers?

What’s the meaning??

Cecilia didn't understand.

"It's just picking and picking from the pile of gifts."

When Scarlet said this, he deliberately added, "Maybe because Miss Leah didn't prepare a gift for you, and the aunt and sister-in-law won't get along well at that time, so I picked some from Isabella's pile of gifts... well, not very eye-catching. Treat it as if Miss Leah prepared it for you."

"I

Miss Logan, I'll put the things in your cloakroom first; you can look back..."

"good."

After hanging up the phone, Cecilia was even more depressed.

And there was a sly gleam in Scarlet's eyes.

Cecilia is her own child. From childhood to adulthood, seeing her daughters called Williams and Eloise "Mom and Dad", and getting so close to them, it is a lie to say that she is not jealous.

Just taking advantage of this opportunity, let her daughter's heart slowly fall to her mother.

She wants the Logan Family to become Cecilia's stepping stone. Simply put, she just wants to get a huge amount of benefits from the Logan Family, and even use the Logan Family to make her way to the top and lead a better life...

As for the relationship, she doesn't want her daughter to get close to them anymore, she wants her daughter to kiss herself.

Chapter 406

the other side.

Isabella was just about to go downstairs after washing, when Benjamin picked her up and kissed her, "Good morning, baby."

"..." Isabella was kissed by him last night. Although the last line of defense was not lost, she didn't sleep well all night.

"Put me down."

Benjamin hugged her all the time, "Hold and kiss, you choose one."

Seeing that she didn't speak, Benjamin went downstairs and pushed her against the window to kiss again.

Since you don't speak, it means that both want...

Benjamin kissed her endlessly until a servant accidentally broke a glass.

"Yes. I'm sorry, Young Master, Young Madam, I didn't mean to..." The servant wanted to cry, but why did she break the glass at this time.

"It's okay." Isabella glanced at her, "Don't get your hands hurt when you clean up."

The servant was very touched. I didn't expect the young lady to be so good-tempered and gentle. Today is the first day she was transferred here. I didn't expect to be comforted by the young lady after making a mistake.

While eating breakfast, the servants saw that the young master was either peeling eggs, or feeding milk, and even wiped the corners of the young lady's mouth with a tissue. She looked at the butler in disbelief with his doting look.

The housekeeper seemed to have gotten used to it, and didn't show much expression, so was she the only one who was shocked?

"There was an accident in Real Estate this morning. It was said that there was a problem with the hardcover house, and the stock price dropped a lot."

Benjamin fed the bread in his hand into Isabella's mouth, and Isabella said casually, "His public relations have always been excellent, no matter how big the problem is, they can always save the day in the end, you mean, take advantage of this wave, when others are selling stocks, Are we buying in bulk?"

Benjamin didn't expect that the little girl was quite smart, he just said the beginning, and she could guess what he meant.

He thought that the two of them would buy together when the price was low, and then sell it together when the price was high, so that they could earn some pocket money.

"Okay, let's buy some together later." Isabella didn't expect such an opportunity to make money, and Benjamin would share it with her.

"Oh, by the way, throw away some of stocks together."

"How do you know that I have the stock of sleeping?" Isabella was a little surprised.

Sleep is a well-known bedding group.

“There will be ugly news in the afternoon, and the stock price will plummet.” Benjamin fed her again, and even fondly wiped the corner of her lips with his thumb, looking at her tenderly.

The servant didn't expect that the picture of them getting along was so warm and loving, so he fell in love with it immediately.

the other side.

When Lucy woke up, she found herself lying on a strange bed, and the events of last night appeared intermittently in her mind.

She remembered the welcome party last night. When the fireworks were blooming, she didn't know who stained her skirt. She wanted to go to the bathroom to tidy up. She felt weak after arriving in the bathroom, and then someone broke in and took her away. In a guest room, Hugh swears at her and pulls off her dress...

She didn't have the slightest impression of what happened next. Could this be Hugh's home? Was she brought here last night?

There was a surge of anger in his heart, and when he heard footsteps outside, before he had time to think, Lucy picked up the glass on the bedside table and rushed to the door.

Someone opened the door and came in, Lucy was so angry that he threw a glass at him...

The next second, Lisa held her wrist, with a hint of doubt in her eyes, what's wrong with this girl?

After waking up so abnormally, could it be the sequelae left after the effect of the medicine evaporated last night??

Just in time Neal came downstairs so he could have a look.

Brother Logan, why are you..." Lucy let go of her hands in fright.

If Lisa hadn't caught it in time, the glass would have fallen to the ground.

"I'm sorry, I thought you were..." Lucy was stunned, not knowing what was going on.

"Hugh?" Lisa guessed what she was thinking, and said softly, "From now on, you won't see each other."

"Huh?" Lucy was bewildered, and it took a while to guess, "Brother Logan, you saved me last night?"

Lisa ...

This girl has no memory at all?

"Your neck..." Lucy noticed a lot of hickeys on his neck.

Lisa was a little gloomy. "Forgot?"

"I, what should I think of..." Lucy was a little dazed, she was drugged last night, and brother Logan rescued her from Hugh, she must have gone crazy...

So, the hickey on Brother Logan 's neck, wouldn't it be her fault? ?

Thinking of this, her whole body was petrified.

"..." Lisa realized that the girl really forgot, and her mood became even more gloomy.

During that hour last night, he was by her side, and he was tortured by her... After several cold showers, even his work and rest time, which was always accurate to the second, was messed up.

And when the girl woke up, she didn't remember anything.

Brother Logan...I didn't do anything to you last night, did I?” Lucy said cautiously, wanting to cry, “I can't remember...”

“The doctor is here, come down and let him take a look.” Lisa handed her a change of clothes, without answering her question directly.

Lucy was still wearing last night's dress, and after she briefly washed and went downstairs, she heard Neal laughing mercilessly.

“Hahahaha so she doesn't remember what she did last night?”

Lisa glanced at him with a cold face.

“Pfft ha ha ha ha you were taken advantage of by a little girl, kissed, touched, and slept, but she didn't admit it hahaha...”

Lisa threw him a pillow, and Neal finally stopped laughing.

Last night, the little girl insisted on pulling him to the bed and hugging him to sleep like an octopus, although nothing happened to them in the end...

But the cheapness... was indeed taken.

Lucy didn't even know how she got down the stairs, so she not only took advantage of Brother Logan last night, but also put him to sleep...

It's too scumbag!

When she thought of the hickey on Brother Logan 's neck, she wanted to die.

"It's nothing..." Neal smiled after checking Lucy, "When can I have your wedding candy?"

Lucy blushed instantly, and Lisa sent him a word directly, "Get lost."

"Oh, tell me to get out now." Neal grumbled as he put away his things, "I don't know who called me carly in the morning today, and asked me to buy breakfast on the way... I bought it and didn't give it to me. Keep it warm in the kitchen..."

Lisa :...

"All right, brother. I'll go, I won't disturb your good business." Neal didn't forget to pat Lucy on the shoulder before leaving, "It's not that my brother said you, we have to be responsible..."

Lisa's face darkened even more, "Take your hands away."

"OKOK~" Neal felt that if he didn't leave, he might be beaten up, so he quickly slipped away with his things.

Chapter 407 Two Big Orders in a few days.

Isabella receives a message from her subordinates.

[Boss, big order! Someone wants to ask you to paint a painting, the price is free, but it must have the implication of longevity and health. If you don't slaughter it now, when will you wait, boss, let's ask him for 200 million directly!]

Isabella didn't expect her subordinates to be darker than her, "When will it be?"

"tomorrow."

"Okay." Isabella was trying to practice writing recently, and since there was an order delivered to her door, "Just one hundred million."

"100 million... Boss, are you not short of money recently? With your level. 200 million is not a problem, or if you want him 200 million, you can give me the remaining 100 million..."

"Peter." Isabella suddenly said earnestly and earnestly, "Being a man must have a conscience."

"..." The boss actually told him his conscience? Do you have a conscience??

After the call, Isabella asked him to send the drawing paper to Benjamin's villa. She only used one kind of paper for drawing. which was not available in the market.

"Boss...you don't study well, you've fallen." Peter didn't expect that the relationship between the boss and Benjamin had grown to the point of living together, and suddenly he felt like his cabbage was being poked by a pig...

half an hour later.

Isabella got the drawing paper and was about to enter the villa, Peter hesitated to speak, and finally couldn't help but said, "Well. boss..."

“Huh? Anything else?”

“I saw a saying on the Internet, saying that men like to conquer and like challenges. The more they can't get, the more they care about it.”

“...” Isabella heard what he meant, “Use your teaching?”

“Yes yes yes...” Peter didn't expect the boss's aura to be so strong, and he was frightened immediately.

Isn't he just afraid that the boss will lose his virginity...

Hey, it's not easy being a subordinate these days...

In the study.

Isabella spread out a long drawing paper, and the brush was rendering on the white paper. This was the first time Benjamin watched her draw.

Her hair is simply coiled up, her whole body is as elegant as a chrysanthemum, and the pen and ink are smudged on the white paper, eloquently and magnificently.

Benjamin never knew that a little girl could draw and draw so well...

Does she have another identity, a painter??

In just two hours, Isabella has finished a painting.

Benjamin hugged her from behind, admiring her majestic masterpiece, and was suddenly deeply impressed by her layout and vision.

How high a realm does this girl have to complete such a work?

“Draw one for me when you have time?” Benjamin kissed her side face lightly, observing her reaction.

Isabella laughed, “My paintings are not cheap.”

“It’s okay, I can afford it.”

Don’t talk about money, give everything you want, including life.

“So what do you want to draw?” Isabella asked.

“Just us.”

Their intimate shadows are printed on the floor-to-ceiling windows next to them.

“This way, okay?” Benjamin motioned to the figure on the floor-to-ceiling window.

“OK.”

Isabella took out the extra drawing paper and drew the picture of Benjamin holding her from behind while she was painting.

The two characters are lifelike, and their expressions are captured in place. Even Isabella’s 100 million works are drawn again by her and emerge on paper,

Benjamin didn’t expect the little girl’s drawing skills to be better than he imagined. “Drawing from elementary school?”

“Yeah.” Isabella didn’t hide it. “It was also taught by one of the grandpas.”

Many of her skills were taught by those grandpas.

Isabella only one hour to complete this painting, and the signature was not signed, but Benjamin sent someone to send a sky-high price frame for it to be framed and hung on the wall of the study.

Just then, Isabella’s cell phone vibrated again.

[Boss! Another big order! Someone wants you to compose a cheerful-sounding, relaxing-sounding piece for any price. ]

Isabella is a little surprised. Is there any holiday recently? How could one or two be so generous?

Shouldn’t it be Benjamin?

Thinking of this, Isabella glanced at Benjamin.

Benjamin was still admiring her paintings, looking up at her eyes with doting and tenderness.

It should not be him.

Isabella put away her doubts, “When will it be?”

“Tomorrow, or the day after tomorrow, it doesn’t matter.”

Time is so urgent, it seems that there should be some big day recently.

Isabella didn’t worry too much, and still asked for 100 million. After hanging up the phone, she said to Benjamin. “I’ll go to the piano room.”

The little girl wants to play the piano?

Benjamin would not miss such a good opportunity. He followed the little girl to the piano room, saw her sitting on the piano bench. opened the piano cover, thought for a while, and started to play.

She seemed to be auditioning, and she seemed to be composing a new song. She paused from time to time, and Benjamin guessed, what big order did she receive? To create songs for people?

Isabella thought of many things, and those happy and beautiful pictures turned into beating notes, and soon formed a piece of music.

Benjamin looked at the time, but it took only an hour for the little girl to compose such a melodious and beautiful piece of music.

Her music level has improved again.

“How do you feel?” Isabella even raised her eyes, asking what he meant.

“Very good, it makes people feel relaxed.”

Isabella wanted this kind of effect, but she always felt that something was not good enough. After playing it a few times, she found the problem and improved it.

“I’ll play it for you again.”

Benjamin did not expect to be honored to be her first listener. He nodded with appreciation and love in his eyes.

Isabella played the optimized piano piece again, and Benjamin admitted. "It's better than the one just now. You added a new melody, which makes people can't help but think of the good things in the past."

Isabella wanted this kind of feeling, she turned on her phone and sent two words to Peter, "Okay."

Peter sent a series of question marks: ??? ?

It's only been a few hours, the boss's business ability is too strong?

A painting, a piece of music, just finished??

"Let me contact you over there." Half an hour after Peter disappeared, he quickly called Isabella again. "Boss, the person who bought the piano music asked to meet you by name, and wanted to listen to you play in person."

Isabella :...

What, don't believe she is Tanya? Do you think she is creating too fast and doubt her identity? or levels?

"Also... the one who asked you to paint, he said that he would give this painting to a very important person, so if the painting doesn't satisfy him, I want you to revise it in person..."

"..." Isabella asked again, "These two people who placed the order are the same?"

"No." Peter was afraid that the boss would be unhappy, so he quickly blew a wave of rainbow farts. "Boss. for the sake of 200 million, why don't we go there? Is it better than watching Benjamin at home?"

Isabella :???

“After all, watching Benjamin make no money and waste time...”

“...” Isabella looked at the gloomy man next to him, and replied, “ Benjamin saw it.”

“Damn it...” Peter didn’t expect Benjamin to be so close to the boss, always by his side...

Chapter 408 Meeting Two Mysterious People

He hurriedly explained, “I, I, I, I mean, you still have a lifetime of time to accompany Mr. Mason, earn more money now, and those medical projects can be promoted...”

“It’s over, it’s over, will he kill me? Boss, save me!” Peter sent several emoticons asking for help, wanting to cry but not crying. He usually praised Benjamin, why didn’t Benjamin see it...

“Don’t scare the child.” Benjamin patted Isabella’s head lovingly, “Where is the meeting place, I will accompany you.”

Isabella asked for the location again, but both of them were very cautious, saying they would give her the location tomorrow.

I don’t know, I thought I was a thief...

There hasn’t been a big person’s birthday in the upper class recently, so who will place the order??

In the evening, Isabella received another call from Peter.

“Boss, is Benjamin still angry?”

“You called just to ask about this?” Isabella didn’t expect that the child was really frightened, so she couldn’t help laughing.

“Tell me first if he’s still angry? Mainly I’m afraid he’ll embarrass you...” He remembered that the boss said that Benjamin is a difficult person to coax, and the boss won’t coax him from afternoon to night? If this is the case, he will cause trouble for the boss.

“No air.” Isabella spoke the truth.

“real?”

“Um.”

Peter breathed a sigh of relief, and quickly got down to business, “Oh, yes, someone wants to ask you to compose a piano piccc, but this person can only give you a price of 30 million...”

“seriously?”

With her title of “ Tanya “, it is more than 30 million.

Is this person deliberately lowering the price, or is he just able to afford so much? ?

“That person did inquire from many sources. The price has increased from 10 million to 30 million. It seems that he doesn’t understand the market.”

“Tomorrow too?”

“Boss, how do you know?”

“No.” Isabella glanced at the time, she had to check the experimental data sent by Mr. Brown tonight, so she didn't have so much time to accept the order.

“Then I will reject him, boss, you should go to bed earlier.”

“Um.”

After hanging up the phone, Isabella checked the data in the laboratory and suddenly found a problem. The fourteen drugs combined by Mr. Brown actually released a new toxin after synthesis.

Although the content of this toxin is low, it is in a separated state. and it is not easy to extract it all.

Isabella tried several methods, but it still didn't work, but Benjamin outside the laboratory noticed this scene and knocked on the door.

“Benjamin ?” Isabella saw the man walking in with a supper, and said with a heavy tone, “Something went wrong.”

“what is the problem?”

Isabella told him the results of the discovery, “This toxin has never been seen before. If the instrument you sent is not for the advanced equipment, it would not be detected according to the previous method.”

Now, if you don't extract this toxin and enter the human body, you don't know what kind of reaction will happen.

“Let me try.”

“You?” Isabella was a little surprised, and she couldn’t believe it. From now on, she didn’t know that this man knew about medicine??

“Just theoretical knowledge.”

Before, Benjamin envied that Bennett and the little girl could perform surgery together and talk about patients together.

He doesn’t know how to hold a scalpel, and he doesn’t know how to make medicine, but he knows a little about various types of

At this moment, seeing him input string after string of characters. Isabella looked at him with a hint of admiration.

It wasn’t long before Benjamin asked her to look at the screen, and Isabella saw the final equation and suddenly realized a new approach...

“I sec.” As if she was inspired, she started to do the separation experiment again.

During the period, Mr. Brown sent two video calls to discuss with her and ask about various progress...

Busy until three o’clock in the morning, Mr. Brown couldn’t help but said. “Okay, that’s it for today, you don’t sleep, you have to think about my old bones... Also, don’t neglect Benjamin, if it wasn’t for him Help, we were helpless just now... Hurry up, go to sleep.”

“Wait a little longer.”

“What are you waiting for! Benjamin, take her away quickly. She used to spend three days and three nights in the laboratory, and she regarded the laboratory as her home! At that time, I told you, I immediately cut off the power!”

Benjamin couldn't help laughing. “Okay, Grandpa.”

“Don't indulge her, you can't squander your body capital just because you are young... Then let's do it first, hang up.”

After hanging up the phone, Isabella was still doing the experiment, and Benjamin didn't rush her, but quietly accompanied her.

Isabella was busy for a while before she realized, huh? Why didn't he rush her?

“If you have inspiration, do more.”

Hearing that Benjamin spoiled her so much, Isabella felt a little. sorry, and looked at the time, it would be dawn if she didn't sleep.

“Do it tomorrow.” Isabella took his hand actively, “Go, sleep.”

Benjamin even forgot to take the tablet, held by her hand, couldn't help but clenched her slender fingers.

Early the next morning.

Peter sent me the time and place to meet.

Paintings, eight o'clock at night, see you in an old warehouse.

At nine o'clock in the evening, see you in a box in a private club.

"Boss, I can't find out who these two people are at the moment, why don't Troy and I protect you?"

"No." Isabella replied, "In the United States, there are not many who are my opponents."

"Boss, I'm afraid that they are one of those forces... They deliberately used this method to lure you." Peter said this, a little annoyed. "Last night. I didn't think too much about it.....Boss, how about I think of a way to delay the delivery time?"

"You think they guessed that Selby Brown and Tanya are the same person?" Isabella asked rhetorically.

"Yeah, it's impossible..."

After all, Selby Brown and Tanya, no one can think of going together...

In addition, the boss was very cautious in the past, and not many people knew her identity.

But... not afraid of ten thousand, just in case!

Peter has seen those forces before, and it's okay if they don't join forces. If they set a trap for the boss, no matter how powerful the boss is, he can't escape their palms...

"Don't worry, I can handle it." Isabella didn't take it seriously, and went downstairs after replying to the message.

At seven o'clock in the evening. Benjamin asked, "You really don't need me to accompany you?"

“Well, I can do it by myself.”

If the other party has a simple background and no background, it is unnecessary for Benjamin to go, and Isabella does not need his protection.

But if the opponent is one of several forces, or even several, then Benjamin will only be in danger if he goes.

Therefore, no matter from which angle. it is best for Benjamin not to go.

Thinking of this. Isabella also comforted, “It was the same way when I took orders before. Go there and come back soon.”

Chapter 409 I Am Alexis

“Then I’ll wait for you at home.” Benjamin didn’t insist, everything was arranged by the little girl.

“Don’t follow me secretly, and don’t send someone to protect me secretly.” Isabella seemed to see through his tricks, “Don’t think I don’t know what you’re up to.”

Benjamin didn’t expect the little girl to be so smart, so he guessed it right away.

He held her in his arms, looked into her eyes and asked, “Is it dangerous not to be followed? Are you afraid that I will get involved? Are you worried about me?”

Before Isabella answered, Benjamin asked again, “What is the origin of the other party?”

“I don’t know for the time being, but the other party asked to keep it secret.” Isabella was still persuading. “If they find out that I didn’t keep my promise and brought a group of bodyguards and you, then I can’t do business in the future. ?”

Benjamin punished her with a kiss, but he didn't expect that the little girl could speak well with her small mouth.

He turned around and found a black barrette, which he pinned next to her ball head.

"This is the latest locator. If you don't move for a long time, or if your positioning is abnormal. I will go find you."

Isabella didn't expect that there was such a thing in his home. The ordinary-looking hairpin turned out to be a locator.

"Specially for people to study." Benjamin seemed to see her doubts. and explained, "For your safety."

"Then I have to thank you very much." Isabella stood on tiptoe and kissed him, put her arms around his neck, saw his worried expression, and smiled. "Don't worry, I'll be back soon, everything will be fine."

"It's better like this." Benjamin pressed her forehead again, kissed her lips, and watched her leave with a feeling of reluctance and emptiness in his heart.

Isabella came to an old warehouse on the outskirts of Bomsville ten minutes early as agreed.

There were more than a dozen bodyguards guarding outside the warehouse. Seeing that it was a little girl who got out of the car, she couldn't help being puzzled.

"I'll hand in the painting." Isabella came to the head of the bodyguard captain and said without changing expression.

The captain of the bodyguard looked her up and down, "I'm sorry, you go back and tell Alexis that our husband wants to see him in person."

“I am Alexis.”

The captain of the bodyguard couldn't believe it again, and looked at the little girl from top to bottom.

Known as the pen of Asia, the Painting Master, the master of the painting world – Alexis, turned out to be a seventeen or eighteen-year-old girl??

Who will believe it??

“Sorry, I'm not joking.” The bodyguard captain said seriously.

“Me too, it's true.”

Seeing that Isabella looked very serious, not like joking, the captain of the bodyguard was dubious, and went in to report to the husband.

After a while, he came out to invite, “Please come inside.”

Isabella was walking into the warehouse door with the painting, when suddenly the captain of the bodyguard stretched out a hand to stop her. “Excuse me, please take off the hairpin on your head.”

Isabella: Get caught so quickly??

Isabella didn't make any further moves, the captain of the bodyguard explained, “Our husband won't do anything to you.”

“Since it doesn't, it doesn't seem to make any difference whether I wear this hairpin or not.”

“Our husband’s whereabouts are unwilling to let others know, I am really sorry, please forgive me.”

Seeing that he was not malicious, Isabella took off the hairpin and handed it to him. The captain of the bodyguard took it respectfully, and then gestured to invite. “This way please.”

Isabella walked into the warehouse. The environment was spacious and bright. There was only a big desk in the middle of the warehouse. There was no one around, but Isabella still found several cameras, some facing the desk and some facing her.

“Sir. Ms. Alexis is here.” The bodyguard captain reported respectfully to the person in the headset.

Isabella stood in front of the desk, exuding a cold aura all over her body.

After listening to the instructions in the headset, the captain of the bodyguard said politely, “Miss Alexis, please open the painting.”

Isabella spread the work on the desk, and what fell into the camera was a majestic and magnificent painting.

There are many peaks, lush forests, winding water, and mountains surrounded by clouds and mists.

There are sporadic thatched huts in the valley, making the environment more real and quiet, but the birds flying through the hazy and elegant clouds make people feel that the artistic conception is far-reaching and somewhat ethereal.

The captain of the bodyguard heard the praises from the gentleman coming from the earphones. There is no doubt that this one is authentic.

“Miss Alexis, how can you prove that this work is from you?”

If it was changed to before, Isabella would only say whether to believe it or not to such a question, but now, thinking of the man at home. in order to complete the task and go back carlier, she still picked up the paintbrush on the desk. dipped it in ink, and waited for them to prepare. Draw a corner of the work on the drawing paper.

This corner occupies one-tenth of the entire painting, and it took less than five minutes to complete.

The captain of the bodyguard was stunned, and the people in the carphones were obviously also stunned. It is unbelievable that a little girl can complete one-tenth of the painting in such a short period of time. The key is that this painting is really from her hand!

She really is Alexis!

Seeing that they were not talking, Isabella asked calmly, "Are there any other questions?"

She has to catch up with the next family and doesn't want to waste more time here.

"Miss Alexis, please wait a moment, our husband would like to see you in person."

Hearing what the bodyguard captain said. Isabella stood there and waited. After a while, a middle-aged man quickly walked down the iron stairs, followed by dozens of bodyguards.

He didn't wear gold or silver, and he didn't wear a famous brand watch on his wrist. He was dressed in casual clothes, like a successful person who would go out to play golf at any time.

From his well-maintained face and temperament, Isabella can tell that his status is not simple.

He should be a big shot in a certain field.

“Teacher Alexis, sorry for your disrespect...” The middle-aged man offered his hand.

Isabella shook his hand.

His fingers are soft and generous, proving once again that he is pampered and has good living conditions.

“I always thought Mr. Alexis was a man, but I didn’t expect him to be so young and beautiful.” The middle-aged man said very respectfully. “My mother and I both like your paintings very much. we can be said to be your fans.”

“Thanks.”

The middle-aged man picked up the work on the desk again, and said with emotion, “The mountains, rocks and forests are dyed layer by layer with light ink, and then thick ink is applied layer by layer. The thickness of the ink used makes the whole layout feel comfortable. It makes people feel that there is emptiness in the reality, and there is reality in the emptiness, the hanging spring flows straight down, the stream is gentle, and the clouds and mountains are beautiful... Teacher Alexis is really good at painting!”

He suddenly felt that 100 million was missing.

Such a painting is worth 500 million!!

“Do you still need to modify it?” Isabella asked suddenly.

The middle-aged man was taken aback for a moment, seemingly puzzled, and looked at the captain of the bodyguard beside him.

Revise?

What's the meaning??

The captain of the bodyguard explained. "When I communicated with the people under Mr. Alexis, I was afraid that Mr. Alexis would not show up, so I asked someone to convey that if the painting is not satisfactory, she needs to cooperate in face-to-face modification."

Chapter 410 Meeting an Acquaintance

"Nonsense!" The middle-aged man suddenly yelled angrily. "This is simply disrespectful to Teacher Alexis. If you make your own decisions, don't hurry up and apologize to Teacher Alexis."

and apologized to the middle-aged man and Alexis, mainly because he didn't come up with this idea, but he took the blame for it for the time being.

"Mr. Alexis. I'm really sorry, the people under my command are not sensible." The middle-aged man shook Isabella's hand again, expressing his deep apology.

"Your works are well interpreted. I originally thought that you would use longevity peach, pine, and Butterfly to replace the meaning of longevity and auspiciousness. I never expected that you would find a different way and make people's eyes shine. It is really wonderful!"

In this painting, there are no longevity peaches, pine trees and fairy Butterfly.

As we all know, longevity peach represents longevity.

Pine represents evergreen immortality, and is also a symbol of longevity and nobility.

And Butterfly represents peace and elegance, which means longevity and nobility.

But Isabella did not use all three, but drew two ribbon birds.

Ribbon birds have very long tail feathers, like ribbons, and their lifespan is the longest among small birds, so they also have the meaning of longevity.

Two ribbon birds fly through the clouds and mist, and the dynamics of this flight are detailed.

It can be said that the whole work, whether it is birds, landscapes, vegetation...all become vivid and fascinating under the pen of Isabella.

“In the painting world, there are many good painters, but no one can compare with you in the most difficult paintings of gods and shapes.”

The works of other painters are either not in place, or the spirit is not reflected enough...

But Isabella can be called a master of the generation, not only because she created a new style of painting, but also because each of her works is very personal, and more importantly, the most difficult to capture the gods and shapes in the paintings. She can portray it well.

This exquisite painting skill is beyond the reach of ordinary painters.

“Teacher Alexis. may I ask, can you sign for me?” The middle- aged man looked at Isabella expectantly like a small fan.

“Yes.” Isabella ‘s reaction was always calm. “Where to sign?”

“Here.” The middle-aged man opened a precious little book that he carried with him, and handed it over with both hands.

Isabella picked up a pen and wrote eight words on the front page:

Long winds and waves, skyrocketing.

Signed in the lower right corner: Alexis.

The middle-aged man did not expect Mr. Alexis to write his best wishes to him. While being moved, he unexpectedly discovered that Mr. Alexis 's writing was very similar to a writing master he admired. Before he had time to think about it, he heard Mr. Alexis speak.

“I still have something to do, it’s nothing. I’ll take my leave first.” Isabella was about to leave.

The middle-aged man hurriedly said, “Mr. Alexis, please stay.”

There was a hint of doubt in Isabella ‘s eyes, is there anything else?

“I would like to ask, does Mr. Alexis have a date? That’s right, my son is about the same age as Mr. Alexis...”

Isabella heard what he meant, and said flatly, “Yes.”

have??

A trace of regret flashed in the eyes of the middle-aged man, but he quickly said. “That’s fine. I’ll send Teacher Alexis off.”

“No need.” Isabella said lightly, “Please stay.”

She nodded and was about to leave the warehouse when a bodyguard quickly walked up to the middle-aged man and whispered something.

The middle-aged man looked at the girl's back and asked in surprise, "Mr. Alexis knows Benjamin from Mason Group?"

Isabella stopped and looked back at him.

"My people say that Mr. Alexis is driving Benjamin's car..."

Isabella frowned slightly, as if she sensed that someone upstairs was secretly looking at her, and reminded softly. "Come to me directly if you have anything to do in the future, don't disturb him."

The middle-aged man was a little confused, was he afraid that he would trouble Benjamin ??

The middle-aged man was about to say that Mr. Alexis had misunderstood, when he saw the girl glance upstairs, walk out of the warehouse, then took the hairpin from the captain of the bodyguard, got into the car and drove away.

Unexpectedly, at such a young age, the aura is so high, and the aura is so strong...

The woman upstairs saw her go, so she stepped on her high heels and went downstairs. "Why do I feel like she found me?"

"I didn't notice, she just glanced at it casually, maybe the lights above her head are too dazzling..." The middle-aged man hugged her into his arms. "We will leave here after delivering the paintings tomorrow."

"Yeah." The woman looked at the back of the girl leaving, and said with regret. "It's a pity, she has a partner..."

Otherwise, her aura, her age, and her painting skills are a perfect match for her son.

Isabella drove towards the next destination and called Benjamin to report that she was safe.

Benjamin waited at home for almost an hour, and finally heard her voice, and the stone in his heart finally fell to the ground.

“It’s...the hairpin you gave me, who else knew it was a locator?” Isabella asked suddenly.

Benjamin was a little puzzled. “Have you been discovered?”

“Um.”

“They didn’t make things difficult for you?”

“No.”

Benjamin heaved a sigh of relief, and thought carefully again.

“Only the people in the research team and I have seen the hairpin, and it has not been circulated, and it is not sold on the market.” Benjamin said. “The research team is all my people, and it is impossible to betray me.”

With their financial resources, they absolutely cannot afford a painting worth 100 million USD.

So, the hairpin is a matter of the locator, how did it get out, and. why was it discovered at a glance? And almost brought trouble to the little girl...

“Then check it out carefully, maybe there is an insider.” Isabella said while driving. “I’m coming soon, I’ll call you when I’m done.”

“Okay.” Benjamin urged worriedly, “Be careful in everything.”

“Well, don’t worry.”

Isabella parked the car in the garage of the private club, and as soon as she got out of the car, she saw another sports car getting off two beautiful girls.

One of them has beautiful facial features with a little arrogance.

Lily?

Why is she here?

Lily obviously also noticed Isabella, she didn’t expect her to come here, let alone that she was driving Benjamin ‘s car!

Sister Isabella.” Lily smiled. “Alone? Do you want to come with us? We have a class reunion tonight.”

Isabella glanced at the friend next to Lily. The friend’s eyes seemed to grow on the top of his head, and his hands were folded on his chest.

“No. I have something else to do.”

Isabella closed the car door and walked towards the clubhouse, Lily followed her, “Why are you here alone? Brother Benjamin didn’t accompany you?”

Isabella glanced at her, this glance made Lily inexplicably a little apprehensive, she didn’t expect this cousin who just recognized her to have such a strong aura...

There is an elevator from the garage to the first floor of the lobby, and there are four waiters standing outside the elevator.

“Does Sister Isabella have a card?” Lily asked again, “Only five- star and above members can park their cars in this garage, and only five-star and above members can take this elevator up.”
