

Chased Her 431

Chapter 431

“Oh, by the way, the clothes Elder Mr. and Mrs. are wearing today are all given by Isabella, and the ones you gave...”

Scarlet added again. “You can go to the changing cloakroom.”

Cloakroom for changing seasons. as the name suggests, is for those who don't plan to wear and don't want to put them there for the time being. After a while. someone will choose some good ones and donate them, which can be regarded as doing good deeds.

There are as many clothes as a cow's hair, occupying an entire sixty square meters of space, densely packed, and the number is countless...

Cecilia really couldn't contain her inner surprise. When she went to see it, she found that she had carefully selected, and even paid a high price to hire a designer. The latest clothes specially designed for her parents were all hung in the corner...

I have never worn it once!

Suddenly a little disheartened...

Benjamin's parents are coming tonight. Her favorite parents wear the clothes designed by Isabella, but they don't wear the clothes she gave them. Does it mean that they don't think that the things she gave can be put on the stage?

“Miss Logan, have you noticed that your fate is very similar to those of these clothes? At first, I thought I could let Elder Mr. and Mrs. take a closer look, but unexpectedly, Elder Mr. and Mrs. didn't take it seriously at all.....”

Cecilia 's cycs dimmed.

At this moment, Scarlet 's eyes flickered with calculation.

Yesterday she told Williams and Eloise that she wanted to iron the clothes that Miss Logan gave them, and after getting their consent. she quietly hung up these brand new clothes in the seasonal cloakroom, in order to let Miss Logan see and misunderstand.

The clothes that Miss Logan gave this time were mainly black and white. In order to prevent them from being worn out, she took some black and white clothes that Miss Logan gave to Williams and Eloise half a year ago, and tried to make them yellow and old, and then asked them if they wanted them.

Of course they wouldn't wear such clothes, so they asked her to hang them in the seasonal cloakroom, intending to donate them.

At this time. Cecilia went downstairs after hesitating for a while, just in time to see Eloise arranging flowers, she pretended nothing to do. chatted with Eloise in a relaxed tone, and asked after a while, "Mom, when I took the unwanted clothes to the cloakroom just now, I happened to see the black and white clothes I gave you... You and Dad, don't you like it?"

"Oh, you said those pieces..." Eloise suddenly realized, remembering what Scarlet said, and looked at her with a smile, "Those styles are very good, but I can't wear them anymore, good boy. you have a heart, don't give it to your parents in the future." Buy such expensive clothes."

Cecilia asked, "Why can't you wear it?"

"Just... the color is a bit bad, it doesn't look good on you." Eloisc didn't understand why she asked.

wrong color...

It doesn't look good on...

Cecilia thought about it secretly, and instantly understood.

Yes, black and white are unlucky, and of course you can't wear clothes of this color on an occasion like today.

But, you can keep it for later wear, there is no need to put it in the cloakroom for changing seasons...

She took another look at the beautiful dress on Eloise. Such a red color represents celebration, right?

Cecilia finally believed that it was not Scarlet who lied, but her parents really did it...

Throw the heart she sent to the cloakroom for changing seasons...

In the cloakroom for changing seasons just now, she also saw that many of her favorite clothes were discarded there without anyone notifying her.

Scarlet said it meant Elder Mr. and Mrs....

Could this family not accommodate her, nor her clothes?

She didn't ask any more, and went upstairs after chatting for a while, her back was a little dim and lonely.

Eloise put flowers, and always felt that something was wrong with Cecilia today. Did she feel a little unhappy when she saw that she was wearing the clothes Isabella gave her instead of the ones she gave her?

Thinking of this. Eloise called Scarlet again.” Scarlet, have you ironed the clothes that Cecilia gave us?”

“Ma’am, you are talking about the latest batch from Miss Logan. right? Miss Logan sent a lot of clothes, and the fabrics are better. I was afraid that it might be ironed, so I made an appointment with the company you used to iron. I will iron and maintain all the clothes sent by Miss Logan at one time, I have agreed with them. but they happen to have something to do, so they can’t finish ironing so quickly...”

Eloise didn’t expect such an unfortunate coincidence, “Well, there’s no need to iron it. Cecilia is at home these few days on vacation, I want to take it out and wear it...”

“Ma’am, I have sent them to other companies. Do you want to get them back now? I am afraid that Mr. Mason and Mrs. Manson will come here often, so I think it would be better to iron the clothes. If you want, I will now Bring it back to you... ouch...” Scarlet said this, pretending to be in pain.

Eloise hurriedly asked. ” Scarlet, what’s wrong with you?”

Scarlet smiled. “It’s okay, I accidentally fell down today...”

“Ah? When did you fall? Where did you fall? Are you all right? Have you seen a doctor?” Eloise didn’t doubt it, but asked with concern.

“It’s okay, it’s just that I’m old and useless... In two years. I have to go back to take care of myself.”

When the time comes when Cecilia gets married, her identity will be exposed, what kind of babysitter will she be, and what kind of uselessness she will suffer!

Of course I don’t do it here anymore, I just live with Cecilia.

Eloise was still a little bit reluctant to part with her, said something about her hard work, and then hung up the phone.

The matter of clothes is not urgent, Eloise told her to have a good rest. Scarlet sent a WhatsApp to Cecilia again, made some insinuation, found that Cecilia was not wearing any clothes, and felt better..

It was eight o'clock in the evening.

A servant happily came in and reported, "Mr. Elder and Mrs., Mr. Mason and Mrs. Manson are here, and they brought a lot of things!!"

For the meeting ceremony alone, eighteen bodyguards brought in, and everyone was stunned by the extravagance.

Williams and Eloise wanted to go out to greet them, but Myra soon led Norm and Angela in...

"Williams, long time no see hahaha..." Norm greeted Williams as brothers as soon as he entered the door, shook hands with Williams, then hugged him gentlemanly, and laughed. "I'm so happy these days..."

"Norm, are you finally willing to come back? Tell me, how long has it been since I saw you!"

"she, you're here!" When Eloise saw Angela, she hugged her happily. "It's been a while since I saw you, why are you young again? You've been traveling around the world, and you're still in good condition." so good!"

"Hey, my husband spoiled me..." Williams on the side smiled and smoothed things over.

"I see that your two parents-in-law are young, and your daughter finally recognizes her. This spirit is different..." Angela praised them again, and the four of them invited each other to sit down. first.

Eighteen bodyguards brought in all the gifts and put them aside. neatly.

“Oh, she. I don’t know, I thought you came to propose a marriage, why do you have so many things...”

Chapter 432 Overheard

“How can it be so shabby to come to propose a marriage, but Isabella really wins my heart.” Angela said this, and added with a smile, “Not only me, but Norm also likes her very much.”

“Angela’s words are not false at all. Not only the two of us, the elderly in the family also like this child very much. He is smart and beautiful, low-key and capable. What kind of painter. Writing Master, pianist, brand founder... really counts. I can’t even count them, hahaha...” Norm laughed.

Angela took up the conversation again. “And I heard that she is the No. 1 perfect score in this Enter University exam! Eloise. you and Williams are so good at giving birth, how could you give birth to such an excellent baby!”

Both Williams and Eloise were stunned, painter and Writing Master? When did it happen? How do they not know?

“You say Isabella is a painter?” Williams couldn’t help asking.

Eloise was also a little surprised. “Writing Master?”

After the two of them asked, they both looked at Isabella who was going downstairs, stunned.

When did the daughter have two more identities?

Isabella didn’t expect that her two identities would be exposed as soon as she came downstairs after taking a shower. and she didn’t expect Norm and Angela to come over early. She greeted everyone present politely.

“Isabella, you’re here” Angela saw her daughter-in-law in a casual outfit, she’s really a hanger-on, she looks good no matter what she wears, her eyes are full of appreciation and satisfaction, this child is so cute.

“Come and sit here.” Angela couldn’t help but stepped forward again, and kindly pulled Isabella to sit beside her.

After Norm greeted Isabella with a smile, he asked Williams, “Why, don’t you know? Isabella is about Alexis...”

Alexis has a high level of painting, which is known to everyone in the field of painting.

With superb painting skills, smooth brushwork and bold creation. she has brought the whole painting art to a higher level by herself

Each of her works has achieved the effect of painting with full intention, both form and spirit, and vivid charm.

He is a master-level figure in the painting circle and is admired by others.

“Don’t you still have her painting hanging there?” Norm smiled and looked at the painting on the wall, it was another good painting.

bought by Williams at an auction a year ago. At that time, he thought the painting was too beautiful, so he bought it for 100 million USD and hung it on the wall of the living room.

But he didn’t know that the painting was made by his daughter...

My daughter has been back to this house for so long, and she never said that the one on the wall is her work...

Therefore, this child is too low-key!

In fact. Isabella is not low-key, but because she didn't know Williams at the beginning, when people took the painting to auction, the asking price was too harsh...

Later, when I saw this painting, my conscience was a little uneasy...

Suddenly, Williams remembered another thing. On the first day her daughter just came home, her eyes briefly stayed on a painting.

At that time, his daughter suggested that he hang in the coffee room.

Thinking about it now, the ancient painting hanging among the pile of modern art paintings in the living room was indeed a bit abrupt and out of place.

My daughter suggested hanging it in the coffee room. It really complements the other works in the coffee room and matches well.

At that time, my daughter should have seen at a glance that it was an authentic work, really good eyesight.

"Where is Isabella or Writing Master Cleo..." Angela talked about her marriage with her daughter-in-law again, and the more she talked, the happier she became.

Williams and Eloise didn't expect their daughter to have so many identities in private, and they didn't expect that the future mother-in-law not only saved, but also successfully captured the heart of the future mother-in-law...

This fate is really amazing.

Cecilia, who was returning home after meeting with her friends, had just walked to the gate of the main building when she heard Isabella 's new identity and the compliments from everyone. She couldn't believe it, and her face was full of astonishment.

She never imagined that the Writing Master Cleo she had liked for more than two years turned out to be Isabella herself!

What's more, she didn't expect that all the paintings that she couldn't buy after all her efforts were all made by Isabella...

Isabella is Alexis...

Not only the Painting Master, but also the famous Writing Master!

this Isabella have so many identities?

obviously not taken seriously in the Brown family, and grew up being left out in the cold...

But if any identity is taken out, it crushes her too much, too much...

Cecilia stood at the door for a long time, with mixed feelings, until Myra, who was delivering snacks, passed by her and called out. " Miss Logan?"

Cecilia came back to her senses, walked into the living room under Myra's surprise, raised the standard Lady's smile that she had practiced over the years, and politely greeted everyone present.

"Cecilia is back?" Angela smiled and looked at Cecilia with a dignified and friendly expression.

She didn't like or dislike Cecilia before, but now she greeted her kindly when she came back.

Norm also looked at Cecilia, and asked with a smile. "Going to play?"

"Long time no sec. yes, I just came back after going out with my friends."

Cecilia greeted them with a smile, and then looked at her family with a decent and elegant smile on her face.

"Dad. Mom, sister, let's talk first. I'm going upstairs to take a shower. I'll excuse you for a while."

Her words and deeds are elegant and generous, and she can't see the slightest difference at all.

"Okay." Angela found that the child was quite calm, and it seemed that the marriage contract didn't have much impact on her.

After all, the Logan Family has eaten delicious food and drink for eighteen years, and the Logan Family is well-bred, so they should know how to measure.

With that in mind, she didn't care too much.

Cecilia..." Norm looked at Williams, hesitant to speak.

"Hahaha Cecilia is a reasonable child, she knows what doesn't belong to her, and she didn't force it... It's all my fault. If I had been more careful and cautious back then, I wouldn't have made such a big oolong... Let the two A child suffers what they shouldn't..."

In fact, Williams was also very guilty, more towards Isabella.

Because although Cecilia is not their biological child, after all, she has been pampered by the Logan Family for eighteen years and has never suffered at all.

But Isabella is different. The Brown family only got rich later on. Isabella has suffered a lot in the Brown family since she was a child. This ability is also developed through hard work and hard work...

Not only Williams, but actually the entire Logan Family owes this child too much, too much.

"These are the arrangements of fate. Now that Isabella is back, there will only be more laughter in this family..." Norm brought the topic over with a smile.

At this time, a servant came to report, "Master, madam, Mr. Mason is here."

Wearing a well-tailored suit, Benjamin exuded a noble and ascetic aura, and explained as soon as he entered the door, "Uncle, Aunt, I'm sorry. I have something to do, so I'm late.

Chapter 433 Pain Forever

He looked at Isabella again, "It's all over."

"Yeah." Isabella didn't blame him, he was already busy, and it's a good thing that he was busy.

"It's okay, it's okay, come to uncle and aunt, you don't need to step on the spot, and you don't need to clock in at work hahaha...." Williams smiled and looked at the son-in-law, the more satisfied he looked. "Sit down, sit down... Come on, get some coffee."

Benjamin walked up to Angela, "Mom, go sit with Dad."

"You men sit together, we women sit together." Angela held Isabella's hand tightly, as if she didn't want to give up this seat.

Benjamin looked at their tightly held hands. "Isabella won't be used to you being so close."

“Who said that? This is how we go shopping arm in arm recently...”

Benjamin:...

“It’s okay, the sofa is big, you can sit here.” Isabella still spoke.

Lily’s smile suddenly appeared in Benjamin’s eyes, as if to say: It’s still my fiancée who loves me.

Seeing the smile hidden in his eyes, Isabella couldn’t help laughing, as for?

Benjamin is sitting on Isabella’s right hand side, Angela is sitting on the left hand side, and Norm on the opposite side has the two-seater sofa all by himself, feeling a bit lonely for no reason...

Eloise had a panoramic view of this scene, as if she had hit sugar. She couldn’t close her mouth with a smile, and asked Myra to serve more snacks and coffee.

“Eloise, you are too polite! Why did you prepare so many things...” Angela looked at the table full of fruits, snacks, and coffee water, and couldn’t laugh or cry, “This time I will gain five cattics.”

“Next time, we don’t need to be so busy, we just come here to have a sit.” Norm explained with a smile, “I have been abroad for a while now, and I don’t have time to come over as a guest...”

“I saw your Facebook and went to many beautiful places, where do you plan to go next?” Eloise casually asked a question that Benjamin wanted to know the most.

Benjamin’s gaze fell to his father, waiting for an answer.

Norm said with a smile, "Ever since I knew Isabella is our daughter-in-law. I was reluctant to leave and wanted to spend more time with her, especially Angela. The itinerary changed again and again, and in the end there was no plan to go out to play at all."

Benjamin :!!!

No!

"We came here this time to tell you that we are very satisfied with this child, Isabella. We not only approve of this marriage with both hands and feet, but also hope that it will be held as soon as possible. Of course, the specific time depends on Isabella 's intention." Speaking of this. Angela looked at Isabella dotingly again. If

Isabella doesn't want to get engaged and wants to get married after graduation, that's fine.

Isabella smiled, "Not so fast."

"Isabella is still young..." Eloise explained with a smile. Although she also wanted to see the day when the two got married, her daughter had already said so, and everything was still based on her opinion.

"No hurry, no hurry, we just want to express our position, mainly because we like this kid too much." Angela looked at Isabella again, "Take advantage of this time to test Benjamin more, don't let him be so easy..."

Benjamin...

Other people's parents are god assists, only his parents are not.

Not only is it not, but it is seriously delayed.

Isabella smiled and looked at Benjamin, "Okay."

Benjamin No! good!

“I, Norm, guarantee here that no matter now or in the future, everyone in the Young Family will not treat Isabella badly. She and I will treat her as our own daughter and love her forever.” Norm also used tonight to express own sincerity.

Cecilia, who was standing on the second floor, couldn't move anymore for some reason.

I didn't expect Norm and Angela to be so satisfied with Isabella, let alone that they would talk about it.

Although I don't want to admit it, I have to say that Isabella is really happy!

As soon as she came back to this home, she had a pair of parents who doted on her, and five older brothers.

From the Young Family up to Elder Mr. Mason, down to the servants, everyone loves her to the bone...

She is really dazzling, so dazzling that it hurts the hearts of others...

Cecilia felt as if she had been abandoned by the world, lonely and helpless.

Looking at the happy two families downstairs, the future she imagined was like this...

Unexpectedly, the heroine became Isabella.

And she became a bystander.

And the other side.

Scarlet, who was resting in the room, heard from another servant that Miss Logan stood on the second floor for a long time and never returned to the room. She seemed to be crying and was silently wiping her tears.

Scarlet watched Cecilia grow up all these years, so she naturally understood her thoughts, and after a while, someone came to comfort her.

The reason why I didn't go there in person is that I'm pretending to be hurt, and the second is that I don't want to talk too much to make people annoying, which will affect the effect...

Gill has always followed Scarlet's lead, and soon appeared with Cecilia's bath clothes, pretending to ask, "Miss Logan, why are you..."

Cecilia quickly covered her mouth, "Keep down."

Fortunately, the people downstairs laughed at the same time, the laughter was loud, and no one noticed the movement on the second floor.

Only then did Cecilia let go of Gill, seeing Gill was holding a change of clothes in his hand, and then remembered that she was going to take a shower, but she stood alone on the second floor for a long time.

Is Isabella's happiness too dazzling, or is she too lonely after being abandoned by the whole world...

Miss Logan, are you crying?" Gill looked at her red eyes and couldn't help but feel sorry for her. "All this should belong to you..."

Cecilia shook her head. "Isabella is the lady of this family, I just made a mistake..."

“Miss Logan, the etiquette education you have received since you were a child has long been the style of a real lady from a famous family. Whether it is quality, taste, or aesthetics, it is above Ms. Young. Ms. Young is just...” Gill did not finish, but said, “I’m sorry Miss Logan, I was talking too much.”

As if she knew she was wrong, she offered a change of clothes with both hands, and then withdrew respectfully.

This made Cecilia think about it more...

Norm and Angela were guests and were ready to go home. Williams and Eloise sent them to the door and returned many gifts...

Isabella doesn’t even know when her parents asked people to prepare these things, but she can tell that both families value her very much.

“Eloise, you are too polite... You are not allowed to carry it in the car, how can you take things from your in-laws.” Angela even called her in-laws.

Eloise also ordered the servants to move in the car, and even moved it herself, “This is our wish, no one can refuse...”

Isabella listened to their parents and relatives calling each other and fighting for each other. In the end, Eloise won and returned a lot of things to them. She didn’t accept all the gifts they sent, but returned some.

Benjamin said politely. “Uncles and aunts, you go to bed early, and I will take Isabella back to school.”

Angela: I believe you are a ghost!

Chapter 434 Grandma Woke Up

I heard that this kid bought a villa near the university town, and he often runs there recently, so he knows what's going on without even thinking about it.

But she didn't reveal it, but smiled and said to Eloise. "Then let's meet again next time."

"Okay." Eloise grinned from car to car, "Go back and rest early, Benjamin, Isabella will trouble you."

"No trouble."

Although the National Day is off, Isabella has many identities, and maybe she has other things to do at school. Eloise didn't ask her daughter's itinerary, but looked at their backs as they got into the car lovingly.

"Honey. I think Norm and she really treat Isabella as their own daughter..." Williams looked at the direction they left, feeling that his daughter would not have to worry about the rest of his life.

But he suddenly said with emotion, "Why does this moment feel a bit like a daughter visiting her mother's house and going back with her husband's family... Do you think so?"

"My daughter is going to marry when she grows up..." Although Eloise was reluctant, but children and grandchildren have their own blessings, it's useless to think too much now. "Let's go in."

In the next few days, Angela saw interesting jokes and videos on the Internet, and always sent them to Isabella, and then laughed with

After the National Day. Angela often made delicious food, delivered it to Isabella's school in person, and walked around the campus. holding Isabella's hand.

Isabella for anything, and even asks Isabella for advice on the dress to be worn at the dinner party, the color of the nails, the shape, etc.. and sometimes takes her to play with her, as if treating her as a best friend.

Isabella also often receives transfer information from Angela. One transfer can be millions of dollars. Millions of pocket money is not accepted. Angela can be soft and hard for half a day until she accepts it.

Every time Isabella accepts the money, Angela is very happy, and feels that this child treats her like a family member.

If you don't accept it, you will feel that this child is too alien.

Time passed quickly, and it was autumn in a blink of an eye.

The school is full of students in long clothes and trousers...

On this day. Isabella was doing experiments in the school laboratory when she suddenly received a call from Eloise.

"Baby Isabella, your grandma is finally awake! I'll pick you up from school, and we'll go to the hospital to see her."

"good."

I heard from my mother that my grandparents like sports very much. Once, when they were climbing a mountain, my grandma didn't step on it and fell down a dozen steps. At that time, in order to catch my grandma, my grandpa used her as a human back.

The two were in a deep coma when they were taken to the hospital.

At that time, CT showed that they had intracranial fractures, brain contusions, and multiple fractures all over the body. Grandpa was more serious because there was fluid in his left chest cavity.

intracranial hemorrhage and hemorrhage. Both of them had high disability and high risk of death..

After a series of rescues, they were still not out of danger and stayed in the ICU.

The last time Isabella went to the hospital with her parents to visit. and only found out about the situation after quietly feeling the pulse of the two elderly people.

Because grandparents are getting old, doctors choose conservative treatment, and they are not 100% sure that they dare not rush to use medicine...so they missed the best treatment period.

Isabella took the pulse and found that they were weak, and the intracranial hemorrhage caused great damage to their central nervous system. In addition, respiratory infections, anemia, electrolyte metabolism disorders, etc.. required multiple medications.

A simple infusion cannot cure the disease at all.

Due to Cecilia's presence, she did not tell her family that she was Selby Brown, but said that she knew a famous doctor who happened to have medicine on hand to treat this condition.

At that time. Williams and Eloise were ecstatic after hearing this, and hurriedly asked her to contact the doctor to save her life, so only later...

Isabella let go of her hands and began to treat her boldly.

The medicine that grandparents need is Mint Herb, which is extremely beneficial for treating brain damage.

Mint Herb is very rare, and it takes several days to refine it. At that time, Kara finally helped her take a calming pill in South Africa. but in the end. by accident, it rolled onto the sole of Bradley 's shoe and was trampled flat...

At that time, if I took Mint Herb. I would be able to wake up within a month, and it would not be delayed until now...

Isabella finished the experiment in hand, recorded the data, took her coat, talked to Mr. Brown, and left the laboratory.

The driver drove to the school gate to pick her up.

When Eloise saw Isabella, she lowered the car window, and her tone couldn't hide her excitement, "Isabella, get in the car."

The two elderly people had been in a coma for several months, and one of them finally woke up. Eloise was really happy.

After Isabella got in the car, Eloise said happily, " Isabella, you call that doctor friend. I want to thank her personally."

Isabella: This...

In the past three months, Isabella has been taking medicine to the hospital, so no one has seen the " doctor friend" she mentioned.

"Did you know? The condition of your grandparents is much more serious than that of Elder Mr. Mason. Many doctors are helpless...

Your friend is really amazing. After only three months of treatment your grandma woke up!"

Although the old man hasn't woken up yet.... Judging from the situation, it shouldn't be far away.

“Oh, by the way, did she collect the consultation fee given to her last time? Is it too little?” Eloise gave a two billion card, “If it’s not enough, mom still has...”

As she said, she went to get the card in her bag again.

Isabella hurriedly said, “No, she didn’t ask for a consultation fee.”

ah? ? ?

Eloise was a little confused, she is a famous doctor, treating the two old people for three months for nothing? No money?

That is why ah??

Seeing her daughter hesitate to speak, Eloise suddenly guessed something, and asked in disbelief, “The doctor friend you mentioned is not yourself, is it?”

Isabella knew that she couldn’t hide it anymore, so she hummed.

Eloise was stunned. “So, you, you are...”

“Selby Brown.”

“Selby Brown ??”

As we all know. Mr. Selby Brown ‘s superb medical skills brought the dead back to life, but he was so unpredictable that no one knew his whereabouts...

Since the old man and the old lady were admitted to the ICU, the eldest son had repeatedly sent people to inquire about the whereabouts of Selby Brown, hoping to ask him to come forward to treat the two elderly people.

But some people say that Mr. Selby Brown is dead, some say that he has appeared in LA, some say that he has retired, whether these news are reliable, no one knows.

All along, Eloise only knew that her daughter had excellent medical skills and had saved Elder Mr. Mason and Elder Mrs. Brown, but the fact that she was Selby Brown... was beyond her expectations!

“Why do you have so many identities!” Eloise was really stunned. “No wonder you have to ask for a consultation fee...you silly girl!”

girl who dared to be busy before and after three months, providing treatment plans and sky-high prices for old men and women.

Chapter 435

Some time ago, Angela was hit by C30. It is said that there is no cure in the world, and it was Isabella who rescued her.

At that time. Eloise did not associate her daughter with the miracle doctor Selby Brown.

Because there are rumors in the world that the miracle doctor Selby Brown is a man!

“No wonder she said that you are a mysterious treasure...how can you be so good, you can do everything!” Eloise held her face. excitedly, and praised. “If your grandparents knew that you cured their diseases, they would definitely be better than you.” I’m surprised and proud!”

I didn’t expect this girl to be so outstanding in every aspect.

Not to mention the Young Family, if the Logan Family meets such an outstanding daughter-in-law in the future, they will definitely be satisfied to the bottom of their hearts!

The driver. Uncle, couldn't help but glanced at Ms. Young from the rearview mirror, remembering that the first time she went to pick up Ms. Young from the Brown family, she would easily fit the car door that fell off with her bare hands...

Ms. Young seems to be really good at everything, in every aspect, she is so different.

"Oh yes, look at the data."

The daily test data and doctor's summary of the two elderly people will be updated in the background of a software for Williams and Eloise to view at any time.

Eloise has found that the data is improving a little bit these days. but she can't understand many professional terms, so she can only show it to Isabella.

After Isabella saw it, she smiled and said, "Grandpa will wake up soon."

"Really?" Eloise didn't expect so many obscure technical terms and data reports, and the daughter finished reading them in less than at minute. The point is, will the old man wake up soon? Very good!

"Just a couple of days."

Eloise smiled after hearing this, "Great, I'm going to tell your dad the good news!"

Not long after, the car was parked in the private garage of the hospital.

Dawn Hospital is a high-end private hospital under the Logan Family. For a long time, two elderly people have been recuperating here.

As soon as Isabella got out of the car, she saw another car coming towards her family. The people who got out of the car were Williams and Cecilia.

Cecilia greeted her obediently when she saw her, and explained softly. "Dad happened to be working near Bomsville University. He heard that grandma was awake, so he picked me up to have a look."

"Honey, you just said on WhatsApp that Dad would wake up in a day or two. Did the doctor say that? Are you sure?" Williams was overwhelmed by the news and was so excited. If it was true. It's a double blessing.

"Before I say this. I have a secret to tell you!" Eloise said happily, as if sharing a shocking secret, "Actually, Isabella is Selby Brown!"

"White, Selby Brown?"

Isabella is the one who provided treatment plans and sky-high prices for Mom and Dad. She is the 'doctor friend'!" Eloise reached out to catch up with Isabella when she said this shoulder, praised. "I didn't expect this kid to be so low-key, if I hadn't guessed it..."

Isabella...you cured your grandparents' illnesses?" Williams stared blankly at his daughter, never expecting her daughter's medical skills to be so good.

Isabella nodded, hummed. "I didn't say it before, because I was afraid you would worry..."

After all, if a teenage girl uses the medical skills she learned outside. to save her seriously ill grandparents, anyone would be worried.

Cecilia 's face was pale, she couldn't believe it, and subconsciously clenched her fists.

Before. I only knew that Isabella knew some medical skills, but I didn't expect that she was at the level of the genius doctor Selby Brown!

Who is the miracle doctor Selby Brown, everyone in the medical field knows, everyone knows!

The last time Isabella came to the hospital to visit her grandma, and when grandma had an emergency, when Isabella administered needles to save her, she even mocked Isabella for reading a few unscrupulous medical books.

But I never expected that he was the miracle doctor Selby Brown!

How can a layman like her underestimate the status of the miracle doctor Selby Brown?

But since she is a genius doctor Selby Brown, why did she apply to such an ordinary medical university? Isabella really went for the batch of experimental equipment as the admissions teacher said??

The real purpose of Isabella's going to the medical university is not to study, but to do medical experiments.

It's not that I was stupid in studying, and applied for a university worse than Bomsville University...

If so...

The words she had mocked Isabella before seemed to turn into slaps, hitting her own face one by one!

It hurts, it's loud, it's embarrassing!

Fortunately, when Scarlet wanted to drug Isabella, she stopped it in time. Thinking about it now, if she had drugged, Scarlet and she would have been kicked out of the house long ago...

At that time. Scarlet also thought of a trick to set the blame, trying to make everyone think that Isabella and her doctor friend killed her grandparents. Fortunately, she was soft-hearted and reluctant to do anything to her grandparents...

Otherwise, it will only be her and Scarlet who are left behind!

But, how could Isabella be so strong and powerful!

Cecilia felt a little unwilling....

"Cecilia. Cecilia ???" Williams called her several times.

When Cecilia came back to her senses, she realized that Eloise and Isabella were talking and walking towards the elevator.

Only Williams was still waiting for her, "You child, why are you so dazed?"

"I. I just didn't expect grandma to wake up so soon. I was so excited and surprised. I didn't even expect that my sister is a genius doctor Selby Brown... My sister is really outstanding."

"Yeah, Logan Family, how can they find such a treasured daughter..." Williams said this. suddenly realized something, and hurriedly added. " Cecilia. I mean, your sister is very good, and you are also very good." Not bad. your grades and talents are all outstanding among your classmates."

Cecilia smiled awkwardly, yes, she barely stands out among her classmates, but in front of Isabella, she only deserves to be beaten...

What to do, what should she do...

She really doesn't know that Isabella has so many identities...

At this time, Eloise had already reached the twenty-second floor holding Isabella's hand.

This floor is not open to the public, and all the medical staff only serve the Logan Family. When a head nurse saw them, she greeted them respectfully.

"Mrs. Logan, Lady Logan, the old lady has woken up, she is in the ward, and the situation is quite good."

Cecilia, who had just walked out of the elevator door, heard the head nurse calling Isabella "Lady Logan", and her expression changed.

there was only one "Lady Logan" in everyone's eyes, and that was Cecilia.

But now it has changed.

The head nurse took a few steps forward, saw Cecilia, and called out "Lady Logan" again.

This "Lady Logan" made Cecilia's mood slightly changed.

At this time, Liu Zhu, the nurse of grandma, had just walked out of the ward. When she saw Eloise and Isabella coming, she immediately stepped forward to say hello.

towards Isabella is even more respectful and enthusiastic than last time.

Chapter 436 Come to Grandma

The last time Isabella used emergency needles to save someone. Nurse Lee questioned her medical skills. Later, when she saw that she had successfully saved the old lady, her attitude changed completely, and she admired the little girl's medical skills very much.

On the contrary, when Nurse Lee met Cecilia, she was not as enthusiastic as Isabella. but just greeted him respectfully, and did not see Isabella's "admiration" and "appreciation"...

Cecilia is in a bad mood again. She thinks that Nurse Lee looks down on people and learns to watch people order dishes.

Nurse Lee was instigated by the old lady to pick him up. On the phone just now. Williams and the old lady mentioned that there is a child who was left behind. A few months ago, he recognized his ancestors and returned to his family. He will bring her here later. To see people.

After the old lady heard about it, she asked Nurse Lee to pick it up.

At this time, everyone was here. Nurse Lee knocked on the door with a smile, raised her voice, and said happily, "Old Madam... Elder Mr. and Mrs. and the two ladies are here to see you and the old man!"

"Please come in." A kind voice came from the ward.

Nurse Lee pushed open the door and made way for it.

The old woman sitting on the hospital bed looked dignified and elegant, and she looked radiant and radiant.

"Mom, you finally woke up."

Both Williams and Eloise couldn't restrain the excitement in their hearts, rushed forward, hugged her and wept with joy.

Connie laughed, with maternal tenderness and love in her eyes. "I'm crying anyway."

“Mom, you and Dad have been in a coma for too long, and it scared us.” Eloise said with tears in her eyes. “You don’t know that we look forward to you and Dad waking up every day, for a long, long time. and finally this day It’s...”

Williams also choked up, and said in a hoarse voice. “Mom, you and Dad have suffered.”

“What’s the matter? We closed our eyes and didn’t hear what’s going on outside the window, but you...” Connie looked at the two children in front of her lovingly. “It’s been a hard time, and you have to worry about us and take care of us The family must be very tired.”

Eloise ‘s tears streamed down, and Connie immediately looked at her son.” Williams, what are you still doing? Your wife is crying, why don’t you hurry up and get some tissues.”

Williams realized it later, and hurriedly brought a pack of toilet paper.

Connie wiped away Eloise’s tears. “I haven’t seen you for a while, my Eloise is getting more and more beautiful. How about it, Williams didn’t bully you while my old woman was unconscious, right?”

Eloise couldn’t help bursting into tears when she heard her asking. “Mom, how dare he?”

“Yes, Mom, I don’t even have time to love her... How dare I bully her.”

Seeing that they were still loving and harmonious as always, Connie couldn’t help laughing, and asked, “Where’s the child you’re talking about?”

“Here.” Eloise remembered the business now, and hurriedly waved to Isabella, “ Isabella, come here quickly, let your grandma take a good look.”

The girl standing on the side has clear and bright eyes, a beautiful and refined appearance, an elegant and charming temperament, and fair skin.

She greeted the old man politely, her voice was warm and pure, like gurgling water, refreshing.

What a beautiful and outstanding female doll, whether it is voice, appearance or temperament, it is all eye-catching.

Connie's eyebrows and eyes still reveal the look of all beings over the years, as well as the tenderness and kindness of an elder, "You are Isabella? My granddaughter? Come to grandma."

Connie patted the place beside him.

Isabella came over obediently and sat down.

"I heard about you on the phone... I vaguely felt that something was wrong about the fire that year. I secretly checked it for a while without telling Williams and Eloise, and then I gave up... If grandma insisted Check it out, maybe you won't have to suffer like this."

Connie held Isabella's soft little hand, seeming a little guilty.

Isabella didn't expect her grandma to be so vigilant back then, and she even had people check her behind her back for a while, and suddenly felt that grandma was not simple.

She raised an elegant smile and said gently, "Grandma, you don't have to blame yourself. I've lived a pretty good life these years."

Connie was overjoyed when he heard that, "Silly boy, you've turned around to comfort me."

No matter how good it is, it would be nice to have the Logan Family?

I heard that she was taken to the Brown family, suffered a lot and suffered a lot...

"I know a lot of like-minded people and do a lot of things I want to do."

Much better than being a vase Lady.

"Besides, haven't I come back?"

Connie looked at the girl in front of her with picturesque features. and blue temperament, and suddenly felt that she was different from what she imagined, she was sensible and general, beautiful and generous.

Before seeing her, Connie imagined a timid and cautious image. After stepping into the ward, she would feel unwell, show a timid look, speak in a low voice, and may even shed tears of grievance...

But the girl in front of her was so handsome. like a spring plum blossoming into snow, and the wind blowing willows, which made people feel very comfortable.

"It's a good thing you came back and gave us a chance to make up for it." Connie patted her hand again, "I'll prepare a gift for you after grandma is discharged from the hospital."

Isabella laughed, "As long as my grandparents are in good health. that's the gift I want to receive the most."

Connie was overjoyed, she didn't expect this child to be so well- behaved and sensible.

I heard that the Brown family is very heartless, I never thought they could teach this child so well...

At this time, Connie 's eyes fell on Cecilia again," Cecilia."

Cecilia, who was standing in the corner, didn't show her presence. Instead, she called out at the right time when Connie noticed her, looking as gentle and obedient as ever.

"Come to grandma."

Cecilia came to sit on the other side of Connie, with joy in her eyes, "I'm so happy to see you wake up."

Connie heard that the family decided to keep the child in the end. and she was worthy of Sister Isabella, "The family does not lack your bowl of food, how you lived before, and how you will live in the future."

In the past eighteen years, Connie has regarded her as her own granddaughter, and has really loved her for eighteen years.

Although there is no blood relationship in the end, the feelings that have been paid have already surpassed blood relationship.

The Logan Family has a big business, so there is no room for a little girl.

Connie patted Cecilia 's hand again, "I heard from the nurse that you often came here when your grandpa and I were in a coma."

Cecilia didn't deny it, and said obediently, "Like my parents, I hope that my grandparents will wake up soon..."

"Good boy, you have a heart." Connic held Cecilia in one hand and Isabella in the other, and looked at Eloise again, "Now that we have an extra padded jacket at home, it feels more lively... Cough cough cough..."

Seeing that she was coughing, Isabella picked up the jug beside her, poured a glass of water, and was about to hand it over.

Chapter 437 I want to express my gratitude in person only...

next second...

Isabella stopped in mid-air.

Eloise noticed something strange and couldn't help asking, Isabella, what's wrong?"

"There's something wrong with this water."

As soon as this remark came out, everyone present was stunned. Is there a problem with the water?
what is the problem??

"It was poisoned with chronic poison."

Isabella 's words shocked everyone, even Connie had a look of disbelief.

This is the private hospital of the Logan Family!

All the medical staff on this entire floor serve the Logan Family only!

In this case, strangers can't get in! Where is the time to poison?

Isabella is clearly aware of the problem too, and she asks Eloise, "Has anyone else been here lately?"

“No, just us, doctors, nurses, and two nurses...”

Because the old man and the old lady were in the same ward, they were taken care of by two nurses separately. Apart from this, no other outsiders came.

Isabella’s eyes fell on everyone present, and Cecilia noticed her eyes and suddenly became a little nervous.

Isabella wouldn’t want to take this opportunity to slander her, would she?

Well done, let’s see what she does....

But in the next second, Isabella looked away from her again and looked at other people.

Cecilia breathed a sigh of relief, but fortunately Isabella didn’t make excuses...

“Ms. Young. I just changed the water this morning. There can be no problem...” The person who spoke was Nurse Lee. She has been taking care of the old lady for several months, and she has long regarded the old lady as her family.

“What time did you change it?” Isabella’s voice was gentle, and she didn’t seem to plan to include her as a suspect.

“At eight o’clock, after the doctor checked the room, I went to change the water. No one else came until you came.”

“The water you changed is for everyone in the ward?”

“No, the water I changed was only for the old lady. Nurse and I both went outside to fetch water. The old man’s water was changed by Nurse.”

Isabella opened grandpa’s kettle again, and there was no poison in it. Could it be that the poisoner came for grandma alone?

“Aside from the two of you, who else knows about the separate water jug between grandparents?”
Isabella asked again.

“The doctors and nurses certainly didn’t pay attention to this... Except us, and Ms. Young ‘s family, no one else should know.”

At this moment. Nurse’s expression was a little unnatural. She knew that Isabella knew medicine, but she never expected that the child could tell that there was something wrong with the water at a glance...

Now Isabella also noticed her, she sat beside her grandfather, lowered her head, trying to reduce her sense of existence, but Isabella could catch a trace of panic from her expression.

“So, the medicine is under nurse’s care?”

With Isabella’s words, Nursing stood up in fright, and argued, “Ms. Young, you can eat indiscriminately, but you can’t talk indiscriminately!”

Nurse Lee on the side saw that Isabella was suspicious of her colleague, and explained. “It shouldn’t be Nurse, she is usually the one who does her best to take care of the old man...”

“This will produce toxicity when it goes into the water. People who are poisoned will feel drowsy all day long, have no appetite, feel weak, and are afraid of cold. Within a week, people will emaciate and die.”

Isabella 's eyes fell on Nurse. "Being able to come in as a nurse means that you have a certain knowledge of pharmacology. Do you know why I doubt you? Because the medicine I gave to grandpa contains a kind of medicinal material, which can be easily extracted from Schisandra chinensis.", you are very smart, instead of buying from outside channels, you chose to use local materials."

"I don't know what nonsense you are talking about!" Nurse's expression became even more disturbed.

Nurse Lee is loyal to grandma, so I don't doubt her. As for you. what is your motive?"

Eloise on the side couldn't believe it. "Why did you do this?"

"Isabella is right, I believe her, but you, my mother didn't give you any trouble, why did you hurt her?" Williams was also very angry.

"It's not me..." Nurse face became more and more disturbed, and his eyes began to avert.

"You still say no? Do you know what the consequences of murdering the Logan Family are? It's not true!" Cecilia scolded angrily.

Connie, who was sitting on the hospital bed, saw the uneasy expression on Nurse's face, and already had an answer in his heart.

It's just that she doesn't understand, "We have no enmity, why do you do this?"

As expected of a strong woman who has dominated the world for decades, she can still be so calm in the face of the person who harmed her.

Isabella suddenly admired this grandma.

“As long as I make a phone call, there are plenty of ways for you to tell...” Eloise was already quite sure in her heart, and said angrily, “Do you want to confess here, or do you want to go to the police station and tell the police?”

“lady...”

Hearing from the police station, Nurse couldn't hold back any longer, and finally chose to tell the truth.

In the past few months, when she was taking care of the old man, she fell in love with her heart, and wanted to be by his side....

But seeing Connie wake up, she started to panic, fearing that she would never have another chance, so she became murderous...

She thought that after Connie died, the old man would choose the people around him...

With her pharmacological knowledge, she thinks she can do it seamlessly...

Unexpectedly, Isabella found out just after taking the medicine and before the old lady took a sip!

Who is this girl!

Why do you have such profound attainments in medicine...

“You, you really...” After hearing the reason, Eloise was speechless. It turned out that the nurse wanted to kill Connie and replace him.

I don't even look at my identity!!

Eloise was so angry that she called the people in the hospital and asked them to send her to the police station immediately...

Connie's eyes fell on Isabella. The decisiveness, calmness, and wisdom she showed in analyzing the situation just now were impressive.

Isabella, how did you find out there was a problem with the water?" Connic asked lovingly.

"When this kind of Schisandra is put into the water, the water will be a little cloudy under the light, and there will be a little powdery floating substance at the bottom of the cup. Because the particles of this kind of floating substance are extremely small, it is not easy to detect."

As long as people who drink water drink the water in one go, they will not notice whether the water is cloudier than usual, even if there are a little floating objects that are too small to be seen, they will not be suspicious.

"You still know this kind of knowledge." Connie was a little surprised and appreciated.

"Mom, you don't know, Isabella knows a lot..." Williams was full of praise when talking about this child. "She really has many advantages..."

"It's lucky to have you this time." Connic patted the back of Isabella's hand again, and then looked at Eloise, "Oh yes, this time I can wake up. it is inseparable from the efforts of those doctors, you let them come, I think Thank them in person..."

Chapter 438

"Mom, in fact, the person who saved you and dad is Isabella."

Eloise's words surprised Connic. Could it be that this teenage girl in front of her knew medicine?

"At that time, you and your dad fell down the steps and were already in a deep coma when you were sent to the hospital. CT showed that you had fractures in your skull, brain contusions, and multiple fractures all over your body. Dad's condition is more serious than yours."

Eloise recalled, "For more than a month, the entire ICU team overcame many difficulties, from respiratory failure, shock, respiratory infection, etc., and faced new challenges every day, but you and Dad never woke up. Until three months ago, Isabella Come to visit you."

When Eloise said this, she glanced at Isabella again, and said softly. "After this child felt your pulse, she immediately knew what the problem was, and provided several medical solutions. Wake up, she is the biggest contributor."

Williams on the side also added at the right time. "Mom, you don't know how powerful Isabella 's medical skills are. Before you, she cured Elder Mr. Mason and Elder Mrs. Manson."

Connie was even more surprised. "Pius' heart has undergone several surgeries. It can be said that there is no good place in his heart. I remember that even the famous genius doctor was helpless... Also, isn't Jan a vegetable? Healed too?"

"This is the power of Isabella. She is the legendary doctor Selby Brown who can bring people back to life!"

"Is she Selby Brown?"

Now, Connie was even more surprised. She didn't expect that Selby Brown, known as the living miracle doctor and capable of curing illnesses, turned out to be her own granddaughter...

"You don't know how smart Isabella is. She not only understands medicine, but also manages a company at a young age, which is no less than when you were young!" Williams said with a cheerful smile, "It was summer vacation, and I was afraid that she would be bored. I left the clothing company at home to her to play, but I didn't expect her to play well."

The clothing company Connie has an impression that it has been tepid and hovering on the verge of bankruptcy.

"I said that in our Logan Family, we all have business genes in our bones. This must be genetic. Originally, the clothing company was about to go bankrupt. I didn't expect Isabella to go there and come back to life. She was also supported by many employees there. Now That company is quite famous in the entire industry, and its sales have skyrocketed more than ten thousand times.”

Williams laughed. ” Isabella also founded a clothing group, you must have heard of it, called QY.”

QY Connie knew that before the accident, she often bought QY clothes for Cecilia to wear...

“I remember that every piece of QY clothes is made by their manager Sofia.” Connie said in disbelief.

“Yes, all the styles are drawn by Isabella.” Williams said. “She not only knows how to do business, but also plays the piano. She is the famous piano master Tanya. the painter Alexis, and the Writing Master Cleo... It can be said that in this world There’s nothing she can’t do!”

Connie didn’t expect a teenage girl to have so many identities. The key point is that any one of them is a master-level figure, which can be said to be one of the best in the industry.

How did she do it?

Isabella was embarrassed by the praise.

Connie looked at the girl in front of him and nodded in praise, “This kid is really outstanding...”

“Her excellence doesn’t stop there. She is also No. 1 in this Enter University exam. Now she is studying at the Medical University. There are several powerful old gentlemen who rush to recognize her as their granddaughter...”

Connie looked at Isabella with admiration, it was not easy to be so outstanding at such a young age.

Cecilia on the side was a little ashamed, and subconsciously grabbed the hem of her skirt. feeling embarrassed.

Any identity of Isabella has crushed her too much, too much.

Parents said this in front of everyone, without considering her feelings at all.

Connie noticed her presence, and asked softly. "What about Cecilia, which university is she going to now?"

Before falling down the steps. Connie remembered that she was still a senior in high school, but she didn't expect to go to college in the blink of an eye.

"Grandma, I'm admitted to Bomsville University." Cecilia said.

Although, with Isabella's grades, going to Bomsville University is not a problem...

But the Bomsville University that Cecilia applied for was also admitted by her own strength, so it is not too much to be proud.

Connie smiled and nodded again, "It's also great, Bomsville University is the best university in the United States... Your academic performance has been good since you were a child..."

When she said this, she looked at Eloise again, "The matter of the engagement..."

Eloise explained with a smile. " Benjamin fell in love with Isabella at first sight, and the Young Family also likes Isabella... Cecilia also has a boyfriend now, and he has a good condition."

It can be said that double happiness is coming.

Cecilia didn't expect that the matter of "having a boyfriend" would be mentioned again and again, and she felt a little guilty.

At that time, in order to let everyone think that she didn't care about Benjamin, Scarlet quickly lied for her. Unexpectedly, this lie would require countless lies to complete.

"Cecilia also has a boyfriend?" This surprised Connie, because the child's thoughts had been on Benjamin all along, how could he let him go so quickly?

"What about Pius and Jan ?" Connie asked again.

"They all like Isabella very much, and even gave Isabella a necklace symbolizing granddaughter-in-law! Benjamin 's parents are also very satisfied with Isabella. The sea blue necklace that she gave her is a treasure passed down from her natal family to her daughter from generation to generation. He is the fifth generation, which is enough to show how much she attaches importance to Isabella."

Eloise smiled when she said this, and continued. "Norm gave her a gemstone key engraved with the Young Family's family crest, which is said to be able to open the Young Family 's secret base, and even his and she's safes in foreign banks..."

Cecilia on the side was stunned when she heard this!

These two gifts can no longer be described as "precious". If I didn't recognize Isabella 's identity and love her so much, it would be impossible to give these two treasures!

Connie was also very surprised when he heard this, he didn't expect that this child could be liked by everyone in the Young Family, even to this extent.

She knew very well about Pius and Jan 's behavior, if the child was not loved by them somewhere, they would never have given her the necklace that symbolized the granddaughter-in-law.

Isabella easily just because of a marriage contract, and even give her a necklace...

Cecilia visited Young Family many times before, but she failed to get so much attention from she and Norm...

Thinking of this. Connie looked at Isabella again. She didn't expect that this child not only has many identities, but also wins the hearts. of everyone in the Young Family. It's not easy, it's not easy.

In such a comparison, Cecilia looks much inferior.

Chapter 439

After all, she really loved Cecilia for eighteen years, and Isabella was just a granddaughter whom she had just met, so in terms of feelings, Connie devoted more to Cecilia.

When she heard that Cecilia was not her granddaughter, and that Cecilia 's excellent fiancé was gone, she understood the child's situation and mood, and patted Cecilia 's hand to express her comfort.

"Maybe it's fate, grandma just asks you, do you and your boyfriend really love each other?"

Cecilia could only bite the bullet and nodded.

"Then bring him to see me some other day." Connie looked at her lovingly, "You have been cared for since you were a child, and you can't be wronged by others. Grandma wants to see his character and his future Will she treat you well, grandma hopes that you will be happy in this life... Of course, the Logan Family will make you marry well in the future."

Cecilia suddenly had a sore nose. "Thank you grandma."

Sure enough, only her grandparents love her the most, unlike her parents and brothers, who only revolve around Isabella.

Connie held Isabella 's hand again, "You're going to marry into the Young Family in the future, and you'll definitely have more pomp than Cecilia."

Cecilia was stunned when she heard it.

Connie thought to herself that when the time comes for the wedding of the Logan family, there must be countless eyes watching. If the granddaughter's pomp is the same as that of an adopted granddaughter, others will definitely gossip, thinking that the Logan Family does not value their own children.

Even if the Young Family has no objection, the distant and close relatives of the Young Family will definitely feel that the person Cecilia married is not as good as the Young Family, but her status is equal to Isabella, which is disrespectful to the Young Family in disguise.

In addition, in the past eighteen years, I have owed too much to this child Isabella, so Cecilia's pomp is the same as hers, which is unfair to this child.

When Cecilia heard this, the emotion just now was gone, and a dimness flashed in her eyes, but she didn't dare to show it.

Ever since Isabella came back to this home, everything that belonged to her was gone, and there was nothing left of what was taken away.

Even grandma's love for her has diminished.

It was Isabella who said flatly. "The ostentation doesn't matter, as long as he treats me sincerely."

"You are a special child..." Connie looked at her appreciatively, "I just don't know when your grandpa will wake up and see if you two get married..."

"I'll wake up in a day or two." Isabella replied.

"Really?" Connie was a little surprised, "Are you sure?"

“Hmm.” Isabella was always sure of her medical skills. If the medicine hadn’t rolled under Bradley ‘s shoe, her grandparents would have recovered in a month.

It took a lot of time to find the medicine after that...

“Mom, Isabella is a miracle doctor, she said yes, it will be fine.” Eloise confirmed with a smile.

“Then is your grandfather’s condition serious? Can he walk on the ground after waking up?” Connie asked seriously again.

“Both of you can’t do it right now.” Isabella said truthfully, “but you can go outside in a wheelchair to get some fresh air.”

Connie was a little disappointed to hear that she couldn’t walk, but quickly asked, “When will I be discharged from the hospital?”

“Basically, it takes a day or two to wake up. I will take the follow-up medicine at home, but the medicine is a bit bitter and must be taken.”

“It’s okay, your grandma and I can endure hardships...” Connie smiled, looking kind and kind, and seemed to be quite satisfied with this granddaughter.

Just then, someone knocked on the door.

Here comes Lew, Molly and Lily.

“Mom, I heard that you woke up and came here to take a look. I didn’t expect it to be true!” Molly rushed over to hug Connie, crying very emotionally, “But we are so worried. God has eyes, finally woke up!”

“I heard that you don’t come here half as often as your elder brother and sister-in-law!” Connie pretended to be angry.

“Mom, aren’t we busy? Big brother and sister-in-law are here too? Cecilia and Isabella are here too?” Molly turned her head and noticed that other people present were very good at assessing the situation, and in front of Connie, Williams, and Eloise, she praised Isabella to the sky. “This child is well-behaved and sensible. beautiful and capable...”

“Yeah, Molly and I both really like her,” Lew added.

“I also like Sofia, Cecilia, you too?” Lily never forgets to provoke Cecilia.

Cecilia raised an elegant smile, “Of course, my sister is so outstanding, who wouldn’t like it?”

“I thought you would have a grudge against Sofia because of Brother Benjamin...” Lily smiled innocently.

“How could it be? Who does brother-in-law like? That’s his business. Besides. I already have a boyfriend now.”

“Then I wish you and your boyfriend a happy marriage for a hundred years and get married soon-”

“...” Cecilia resisted the urge to hit her violently, and kept a decent smile. “Thank you for your blessing.”

How could Connie not know that the two sisters liked to choke when they met, but after so many years, in her eyes, the two of them were playing around like two children, harmless, so she got used to “My head hurts when you come here.” Connie laughed.

“Grandma, you have to blame us if we didn’t come, but you said your head hurts when we came, so why don’t we come?” Lily stepped forward and took Connie’s hand coquettishly. “Is it only when Cecilia comes that you don’t know how to lose your head?” It hurts, you have always favored her.”

“Nonsense. I treat every granddaughter the same.” When Connie said this, she found that there was one granddaughter missing. “Where’s your sister?”

“She is still abroad and has no time to come back recently.”

Seeing that Connie was a little annoyed, Lily hurriedly added. “If she knew you woke up, she would have flown back overnight!”

chuckled, “You kid...”

After everyone chatted for a while, Lily had another idea, “ Cecilia. don’t you know how to make a fruit platter recently? Make one for grandma?”

“Can grandma eat fruit?” Cecilia looked at Isabella again.

“Well, you can eat a small amount.’

“...” Cecilia could only bite the bullet and pick up a few different fruits, intending to make a tree full of flowers and leaves for grandma.

“Cecilia, let me help you.”

Cecilia knew that she had no good intentions, and immediately said. “No. I can do it myself. you can stay with grandma.”

“Are you afraid that I will take credit for your work? I’m just a helper, don’t be nervous.” Lily walked over frankly and happily, picked up the grapes and washed them.

When everyone saw them chatting while washing, they didn't take it seriously, and their attention returned to the old man's condition.

Knowing that Connie was able to wake up because of Isabella's medicine, Lew and Molly couldn't believe it. They didn't expect their niece to be a miracle doctor!!

Seeing that everyone's attention was not here, Lily glanced at Cecilia again, she was peeling an apple.

Chapter 440

Lily immediately bumped her with an elbow, then turned around in time and said, "What fruit do you want to eat? I'll wash it up together."

Cecilia was hit by her and accidentally cut her finger, which was bleeding a little.

Lily pretended to turn around and said, "Ah, Cecilia? What's wrong with you? Cut your finger? Why are you so careless! Mom, let the nurse come over and take a look, it's not a trivial matter. Cut your finger, it's not good if it's a bacterial infection."

"..." Cecilia was about to lose her temper.

"Cecilia, are you in pain? Hold on, the nurse will be here soon!" Lily snatched the fruit and paring knife from her again, and pretended to be anxious. "Go and bandage the wound, the rest I'll come, but I can't make a fruit platter... I can only make it for grandma when you are well."

"Cecilia hurt her finger?" Connie saw the nurse coming in after saying this, and immediately said. "Take Cecilia down to see the wound."

"Yes, old lady." The nurse was very polite and quickly took Cecilia down.

Cecilia didn't know how to make a fruit platter before, let alone peeling. she didn't even know whether the fruit should be cut horizontally or vertically..." Lily sighed while washing the fruit, "Unlike me. I was enslaved by my mother since I was a child..."

"What is slavery, I'm training you!" Molly corrected with feigned. anger.

"Pull it down, you just don't care about your child..."

Upon hearing this, Molly turned to complain to Connic, "Mom, look at your wonderful granddaughter..."

Connic was in a daze.

Just now Lily said that Cecilia didn't even know how to peel the fruit before, but now she knows how to make a fruit platter. Did she learn it specially to please her family?

If this is the case, the child's situation is a bit distressing.

"Grandma, my mother sued me again, this time you have to take care of it." Seeing that Connie was thinking a little bit, Lily knew that she had more or less listened to what she said, and secretly smug.

Isabella, on the other hand, watched all this and felt that Cecilia was too stupid. Not only would she not protect herself, but she would allow her to slander her...

But it was none of her business, she stood by and looked on calmly.

Lily took a peek at Isabella in the mirror, seeing that she wasn't affected by the topic just now, she felt a little uncomfortable...

Just now Lily deliberately said that her uncle and aunt love Cecilia and want to make Isabella jealous...

Unexpectedly, Isabella didn't respond at all.

Lily cut up the fruit, and carefully put a small part on a plate.

picked it up and told everyone, "I left this plate for Cecilia, and none of you are allowed to eat it."

Connic chuckled, "You two sisters have always been quarrelsome since you were young, but at times like this, you always miss each other."

"Grandma, try the fruit I cut-" After putting the rest of the fruit on a plate, Lily put both hands in front of Connic, poked a piece of apple and handed it to Connic, "I know you love apples, so let's try it first. See if the fruit I cut is sweet, or Cecilia."

"You kid..." Connic couldn't help being amused by her, "I'll compare everything with you, Cecilia."

"Who made you partial!" Lily smiled and flattered Connic, and after a while, brought the fruit to Isabella." Sofia, can you eat too?"

"This child is not given to my parents first, nor is it served to my uncle and aunt, but to my sister first." Connie said with a smile. "It seems that he likes my sister."

"Sofia is so good, who doesn't like it?" Lily smiled innocently.

But Isabella didn't want to buy it, and said flatly, "I can't eat it."

Lily suddenly showed a hurt look, "Is it because the fruits I cut look bad?"

Everyone looked at Isabella one after another, as if they didn't understand why she rejected Lily.

Isabella said calmly. "Now I secrete a lot of insulin, neuropeptides, and cholecystokinin. The cellulose in the fruit will absorb electrolytes, trace elements and organic acids. The banana on the plate also contains a certain amount of tannin, which will interact with trace elements. For example, iron and calcium combine to form more insoluble substances, increasing the burden on the pancreas."

Everyone is dumbfounded...

No one understood what she was saying...

To put it simply, I ate something before coming here, but now eating fruit will affect digestion and absorption, it's that simple.

But everyone didn't know what she meant at all. Seeing that she spoke clearly and logically, one or two nodded along.

Even Connie was concerned, "Then don't eat it, your body is important."

"..." From Isabella's calm and indifferent eyes, Lily always felt that Isabella was playing tricks on her, but she couldn't come up with evidence...

You can only serve the fruit to other people...

After a while. Lily checked the time. "Why hasn't Cecilia come back yet? I'll go check it out."

Cecilia is always on his mind." Connie laughed.

"Isn't that right? Although they always choke a few times when they meet each other, they will never forget them after they are separated. These are sisters." Molly laughed.

outside the ward.

Cecilia had just bandaged her fingers when she saw Lily walking towards her.

She was suffocating and had nowhere to vent her anger. Seeing Lily's proud expression, she rushed over and asked. "Lily, you..."

Before she finished speaking. Lily suddenly pinched her bandaged fingers." Cecilia, are you okay? Grandma specially asked me to care about you, let me see how your bandaged fingers are doing...

"Ah..." Cecilia shook off her hand angrily, frowning in pain.

Lily pinched Cecilia's wound before she pushed her away, making Cecilia even more painful.

One or two nurses looked this way, and Lily pretended to be concerned," Cecilia, did the nurse just bandage badly, which made you angry? Don't be like this. she is just a job, don't ask for it." unacceptable."

When the nurse over there heard it, she was immediately moved: Miss Lily is so kind.

Lily!" Cecilia gritted her teeth angrily.

"You should know that grandma hates people without quality the most. Even if you are justified, arguing here will only make the Logan Family lose face." Lily folded her hands on her chest and said leisurely. "You can't show family ugliness, understand Yet?"

"You wait!" Cecilia was about to leave.

Unexpectedly, Lily stretched out her foot, causing her to trip.

This time. Cecilia couldn't take it anymore and raised her hands angrily, Lily immediately hid back and raised her voice," Cecilia. isn't it because I said something to the nurse? Are you going to hit me?"

"It was you!" Cecilia kicked Lily.

Lily backed away in fear, "Don't do this, people will see it... This is a public place, even if you don't care about the Logan Family 's face. don't you care about the friendship between us sisters?"
