

Chased Her 441

Chapter 441 Let's join forces

"Give me less hypocrisy!"

Cecilia kicked her a few times but failed to kick her, and became even more frustrated, chasing and kicking her non-stop.

Lily pretended to dodge, and led Cecilia to the fire stairs. There was no one here. Lily clenched her fist and punched Cecilia hard in the stomach.

Cecilia was already on her period, and this punch made her squat down in pain, unable to speak.

Lily grabbed her hair and sneered condescendingly, "You're still so stupid, fight with me, you're still young."

"Let go..." Cecilia's eyes were angry, but she couldn't move away.

"Knowing the relationship between you and Isabella, why do I hate you more? Because you are as stupid as a pig. have no ability, and have a bad temper. Did you see grandma wake up and think that you have a backer?"

Lily kept grabbing her hair and said, "Grandma is a traditional woman, she values blood relationship more than anyone else, not to mention having such an excellent granddaughter in front of her, it's just fantastic to think that you can compare to Isabella."

Seeing that she didn't let go. Cecilia twisted her thigh hard.

"Ah..." Lily let go of her hand in pain, and kicked Cecilia's ass unwillingly.

Cecilia fell to the ground all of a sudden, gnashing her teeth angrily, "Lily, you provoked me over and over again, do you really think I'm easy to bully?"

"Yeah, in this family, is there anyone who is more stupid and bullying than you? Besides, I'm really happy to see you looking so desperate."

"You..." Cecilia clenched her fists, wanting to hit her up.

"You have to think about it, if you can hit me, don't end up asking for trouble..." Lily was still taunting and laughing, "Go back and take care of your ugly face, you are the only one who deserves to miss Benjamin, disgusting."

When Lily was about to leave the fire escape, she gave an exaggerated ah, pretending to be kicked out of the fire escape by Cecilia.

She covered her belly, pitifully, "Cecilia, no matter how you treat me, you are always my sister, I will forgive you..."

Several nurses not far away saw this scene, felt sorry for Lily, and at the same time began to hate Cecilia.

in the ward.

Connie was still holding Isabella 's hand and talking non-stop until he was tired before lying down to rest.

Isabella covered her with the quilt and prepared to go back with her parents. Lew and Molly also planned to leave. Everyone left the ward together. After Cecilia came back, she never said a word, and her eyes were full of dissatisfaction when she looked at Lily...

Not only was Lily not afraid, but she even approached Isabella. ‘

Sofia, I want to say a few words to you...”

Sofia at home every day, let them chat enough, let’s move on.” Molly took Eloise ‘s hand and chatted about recent events as they walked.

Seeing Cecilia walking in front, Lily whispered to Isabella. “Just now, I was kind enough to see how Cecilia ‘s wound was being bandaged, but I didn’t expect her to be...”

She pretended to be hesitant to speak, but finally chose to blurt out. “She wants to join forces with me to deal with you and drive you out of Logan Family.”

When Isabella heard her say that, her expression didn’t change a bit. “Oh.”

“She is just the adopted daughter of the family, but she wants to replace you...” Lily couldn’t help but said again,” Sofia, aren’t you angry?”

“I’m not angry, but a little surprised.”

“You also think this incident is very surprising!” Lily was about to continue.

Isabella interrupted directly. “With Cecilia ‘s brain, she wouldn’t say such a thing, don’t act in front of me, not everyone is as stupid as you.”

“Sofia, do you trust Cecilia more than me?” Lily made a hurt look, “Yes, we did have a few misunderstandings before, but this time, I really took the risk to follow you You said this...”

“I don’t believe either of you. I just know whose character is better. Do you think that no one will see you every time you do something wrong? Put away your low-level tricks. I have no time or mood to watch you juggling.”

Having said that, Isabella stepped forward with long legs, leaving her behind.

Lily looked at her back, thought for a while, and was unwilling to catch up. “Yes, I admit that I made it up just now, I just want to join forces with you to drive Cecilia out of the Logan Family, how about it, what do you want?” Don’t cooperate with me?”

Isabella :??

Is this man out of his mind??

You’re the one who left the Logan Family first.”

“You...” Lily didn’t expect Isabella to speak for Cecilia, let alone Isabella ‘s tone was so firm.

“You mean, you want to be my enemy for her? You have to think about it, the blood of Cecilia is not from the Logan Family, on the contrary. I am also a pure-blooded Lady of the Logan Family, you want to drive me away It’s not that easy to get out.”

“Really?” Isabella gave her a cold look, which made Lily feel cold for no reason.

In Isabella ‘s eyes, it seemed that there was something that could drive her out of the Logan Family at once...

But she did something heinous.

I don’t know why Isabella ‘s eyes look so frightening...

Seeing Isabella walking by alone, Eloise immediately asked with a smile, "What are you talking about? The chat is over so soon..."

"It's about teaming up."

When Isabella said this, not only Eloise and Molly were surprised. but even Cecilia next to her and Lily behind her were surprised.

This damn Isabella, dare to...

Lily is going crazy!

"Joining? What joining?" Molly seemed to have guessed something. but couldn't believe that Isabella would say it in public, so she pretended to smooth things over, "Is Lily going to do business?"

"It's up to her to ask."

Isabella 's answer was ambiguous, but the eyes looking at Molly made Molly a little uneasy.

The child was so clever that she had already seen that she had guessed it.

Lily is an idiot, it's not good to find someone to join forces, but Isabella is not expected to join hands with her!!

Molly laughed. "The kid is messing around, ignore her, Eloise, where were we just talking..."

She brought the subject up again, and Isabella glanced at Lily, who was furious.

Cecilia on the side seemed to have guessed what Isabella meant by joining forces, and glared at Lily even more angrily.

No, this person must be taught a lesson!

Too arrogant!

Thinking of this, she took out her phone and sent Scarlet a WhatsApp.

Scarlet grew up with her for eighteen years, and she spent more time than Eloise alone...

So Cecilia is used to being the first to find Scarlet when there is anything...

Chapter 442 Two Masters

half an hour later.

Isabella had just returned to Riverside Villa when she suddenly received a phone call.

“Boss, the people from the US Cyber Security Center would like to invite you over.”

“What’s up?”

“It is said that a hacker team attacked our country’s tactical system and energy system for three consecutive days, trying to steal relevant information. The people in the security center resisted day and night, but they could not stop their attack. The five-layer firewall has dropped four layers...”

“...” Hearing this, several question marks appeared in Isabella’s mind.

The hundreds of computer experts in the entire security center couldn’t stop the opponent’s attack?

The opponent is very strong?

“They want you to go there now, saying that they have a special car to take you to the security center.” The subordinate reported on the phone. “I’m afraid of revealing your identity, so I asked them to pick you up at a church in the suburbs.”

“good.”

This time, Isabella didn’t ask how much the remuneration was.

because personal interests were no longer worth mentioning in front of national affairs.

After a meeting.

Isabella was escorted by a special car to the security center building. This was the first time she had come to such a place.

When the director of the center heard that she was coming. he hurried forward to greet her, “ Mr. Logan. I finally waited for you. and now the last layer of firewall is almost unable to defend, please come with me...”

In the hall, hundreds of security personnel sat in front of the computers, desperately trying to stop the opponent’s attack.

There is a huge electronic screen where progress can be seen in real time.

The menacing sound of typing on the keyboard echoed in the air.

Isabella :...

“Mr. Logan, this is your computer. Thanks for your hard work.” The director of the center arranged a seat for her, and went back to the office to ask for another big Buddha.

“Terry, it’s time to play, the outside is almost overwhelmed, this is imminent. can you eat later?”

dubbed ” Terry:” was reclining on a couch as several people massaged him and another fed him snacks.

His handsome face was so handsome that there was no flaw in it under the light, it was so pretty.

“It can be seen that the fire is imminent, and even the little girls are called to make up the number.” His voice is lazy and magnetic, as casual as his person.

Little girl??

The director of the center was stunned for a moment, and quickly realized, “That’s Mr. Logan.”

Mr. Logan ??

Mr. Logan, the top hacker who has been ranked first in the reward list all year round, is a little girl? interesting.

He wanted to see if the little girl could hold on for a few minutes.

Terry, when are you going to take action? If you don’t take action again, the last layer of firewall will be...” Before the director of the center finished speaking, he heard the sound of beeping from the electronic screen.

The first-level firewall was repaired successfully. ]

Not only the director of the center and the man on the sofa, but even hundreds of computer experts outside looked at Isabella in disbelief.

Isabella's long fingers tapped a series of codes on the keyboard.

Soon, another notification sound came from the huge electronic screen.

[Secondary firewall was repaired successfully. ]

Everyone's jaws dropped in shock.

| The third-level firewall was repaired successfully. ]

Isabella's movements were fast, as natural as chatting and typing. Her expression didn't change much, but she looked at the computer screen. Soon, the system heard a notification that the fourth or fifth level firewall was successfully repaired.

The movements of everyone's hands stopped, and they looked at this teenage girl in disbelief, who was she, and why was it possible to repair all five layers of firewalls in such a short period of time??

| Firewall upgrade successful. |

Everyone was too shocked to speak...

Not only did she defend the opponent's attack, she also upgraded a brand new system...

How did she do it in such a short time??

| The opponent's firewall has been successfully broken. |

At this moment, the man lying on the sofa couldn't hold back any longer and got up all of a sudden. Before he could reach the glass wall, he heard the notification sound from the system again.

The other party's IP has been locked. I

This time, the man's footsteps were completely stunned. He thought that the group of security personnel outside were useless, and in the end he, the great god, had to come forward to clean up the mess.

Unexpectedly, the little girl was able to re-upgrade the firewall and find out the other party's IP in such a short period of time.

It's impressive.

Seeing that the opponent's IP address came from the intelligence center of the enemy country, Isabella immediately launched a counterattack.

Isabella first compromised the computers of everyone in the enemy's intelligence center, making them unable to control their computers and hide their data.

Then they opened their tactical deployment plans and energy plans for other countries under their noses, and after sending them to other countries, they publicly hung the relevant plans on their official homepage. Finally, they made a thumbs down GIF, directly despise them.

After doing all this, she got up to leave.

The audience couldn't believe that this girl was so sassy...

"Master, which hacker team are you from?"

“Are you interested in joining the American Hacking League organization?”

Even the director of the center who was coaxing the man in the office quickly chased after him, “ Mr. Logan, please stay!”

This “ Mr. Logan ” shocked everyone. It turns out that this little girl is the famous hacker Mr. Logan!

I didn’t expect it to be a little girl...

Still looks so good-looking....

God is so unfair...

“Mr. Logan, the Security Center really needs talents like you. I wonder if you are interested in joining us? The salary is free, the working hours are free, you can come when you want...” The director of the center really hopes to keep Such a talent.

“Sorry, I still have school to finish.”

When everyone heard this, they were stunned again.

Such a powerful top hacker still has to go to school....

That’s right, she looks like she is only seventeen or eighteen years. old, she should still be in high school or university...

You are so powerful, what else do you need to learn??

Everyone can't figure it out...

After Mr. Logan finishes his studies, if he is interested in joining us. please contact me at any time. This is my business card." The director of the center would not miss such a talent, and sent his business card with both hands.

"The door to the security center is always open for you!"

Although Isabella didn't intend to take the path of hacking, but for the sake of the sincerity of the director of the center, she still accepted the business card politely.

"etc."

At this time, the man in the office came out...

He was handsome and suave, and his seductive eyes were a little careless.

When everyone saw him, their expressions were even more surprised. It turns out that the Buddha who has been resting in the office is him...

This guy is the originator of the hacker world, the feared top Asian hacker Terry.

I didn't expect the director of the center to be so powerful, so he invited two masters at once.

Chapter 443 You Can't Win

But Isabella didn't know him, and when she heard his voice, her eyes were full of doubts.

“The firewall you built may not be able to block the next attack. I will try.”

What???

Is this guy trying to break through the brand new firewall that Mr. Logan just built??

Are these two big guys... on the fence??

The director of the center was dumbfounded when he heard the words, what's going on? Should he stop it? What if it is breached. and the enemy country invades again?

“Don't worry, it's broken, and I'll build you a new one.” The man's tone was relaxed and comfortable, as if such a few firewalls were as simple as eating and drinking to him.

“You can't break through.” Isabella said bluntly.

“So confident? How about we make a bet?”

The man had already found a seat and sat down. leaned back casually, his slender fingers landed on the keyboard. “How about it, dare you?”

Isabella felt that this person was really idle and painful, “It's not a question of daring or not, but that you can't win.”

The man laughed wickedly, it was the first time he had seen such an arrogant girl, “Do you know who I am?”

Known as Asia's top hacker, he still has a firewall he can't break through?

Isabella didn't know who he was, and wasn't interested in knowing.

The smile on the corner of the man's mouth deepened. "Look at it."

His slender fingers entered a series of codes on the keyboard, and the system quickly issued a prompt.

| Firewall under attack. |

Many people's hearts suddenly rose to their throats.

Terry made a move, but Mr. Logan didn't know how long the firewall could last...

I guess it won't last for a few seconds, after all, it was built in such a short period of time...

Should be vulnerable...

Isabella really didn't want to waste time with him, but seeing his blind self-confidence, she wanted to stay and watch his jokes.

Soon, a minute passed...

The smile on the corner of the man's mouth has froze, which seriously exceeded his estimated time!

Another minute passed....

The man didn't even break through the outermost firewall...

Everyone has changed from being nervous to being unbelievable.

Isn't this guy known as the number one hacker in Asia? How come two minutes have passed and he can't even break the outer firewall??

Did they overestimate this master, or is this master a fake??

Isn't he really" Terry "??

The third minute passed...

Isabella walked away, not wanting to waste any more time.

"Wait. little girl..." The man didn't expect that he had dominated the hacker industry for many years and was despised by a little girl!

The point is, the little girl turned her head and left. She walked too simply, which made him lose face...

It took him three minutes to break through the five-layer firewall. but he couldn't break even one layer!!

"Little girl, I'm talking to you."

Seeing that the little girl 's footsteps did not stop, the man glanced at the director of the center again.

But the director of the center rushed to catch up with Isabella, but instead of keeping her, he sent her off.

"Mr. Logan, don't take it personally... Terry just hasn't met a match for too long..."

"Who?" Isabella was a little surprised when she heard the name.

"Terry."

So, that sloppy, arrogant young man just now is Terry, the No.?

Just this level??

Isabella rolled her eyes mentally.

At this time, the director of the center received a call, saying that Terry had finally broken through the outermost firewall.

Isabella :...

Get in the car and leave without hesitation.

“Mr. Logan, don’t forget your business card...” Before leaving, the director of the center reminded me.

half an hour later.

The man lost all face. He never expected the little girl’s firewall to be so powerful. After half an hour of attacking, only one layer was breached.

Now hundreds of people are watching his jokes...

of coffee slowly. “Now that there are mountains beyond mountains, there are people beyond people, right?”

“Give me her contact information.”

“1. let me tell you, don’t be impulsive...” The director of the center hastily put down the coffee cup, and whispered. “She is the talent I like, no matter what, to save face, she must live!”

“I just want to get to know her.”

The director of the center breathed a sigh of relief. “Then let me ask you, I don’t have her contact information...”

The man gave him a contemptuous look. “Send it to me if you ask.”

Isabella went back to the church first, and then drove back to Riverside Villa. It was completely dark.

She called Benjamin to report that he was safe, and then found that the servants were busier than usual, and couldn’t help being puzzled.

“Is anyone coming?”

Myra smiled and said. “Ms. Young is the third young master. He will go home for dinner later.”

third young master?

Terry?

He’s coming back?

“Although the third young master is usually a fool, and seems to be less reliable than the fifth young master, he has many advantages, and...” Before Myra finished speaking, she was called to help again.

Isabella watched the servants in the whole family busy preparing for tonight’s dinner, and it was obvious that Terry hadn’t been back for a long time.

That's why it's so grand.

At this time, Isabella 's mobile phone vibrated, and it was a call from her subordinates.

“Boss, the people in the security center said that there is a Terry who wants your contact information.”

Hearing the word Terry, Isabella directly refused, “No.”

Thinking of his arrogance and foolishness, Isabella didn't want to pay attention.

“Boss, this Terry, isn't he the originator of the hacker world, the number one hacker in Asia? He won't be interested in you, will he?”

“Where do you want to go?”

Isn't it because she can't break through the firewall she built, and want to ask her for an answer?

There are no doors!

Terry I just want to be friends with you!

“Boss. I heard that when Terry was 11 years old, he broke into Jian Guo's data system and ransacked all the nuclear research data in his house... This is a big scandal for Jian Guo, and they don't care about it. Dare to report it...”

The subordinate continued, “If that Terry sells this data to any country, he can earn at least 100 million US dollars, and this strong country will have to spend billions on research and deployment... But guess what, he Leave it to your own country for free.”

“Also, he is idle and has nothing to do. He has used technology to help the police track down several groups of spies. He even invaded the intelligence system of the enemy country and cleared all the information he obtained about our country.”

When Isabella heard it, she was a patriotic person.

“So boss, are you sure you don’t want to give him his contact information? In case you have a chance to join forces in the future...”

“No more.” Isabella felt that she would never deal with such a person again, so she said. “I still have something to do here, so hang up first.”

“Boss, I haven’t finished yet, boss, boss...”

Woohoo. the contact information is a small matter, but the money he wants is a big deal, the research project burns a lot of money. and now the money is almost gone...

It can only be said that the boss hung up the phone too fast...

Chapter 444 Terry is Back

After one hour.

A servant said excitedly. “Master, madam, the third young master is back.”

“You brat, you’re finally willing to come back.” Eloise got up from the sofa, planning to settle accounts with him.

“No wonder I saw smoke coming out of my house from all the way. Terry changed a pair of shoes, walked in casually, and said with a playful smile, “It turns out that my mother is so angry.”

“You brat!” When Eloise saw him, she couldn’t help but stepped forward and thumped him several times. “Finally you’re willing to come back? Your sister has been back for several months. You, an older brother, don’t know how to come back to care. ” one time?”

“Everyone who is so busy with the boss is back, the second child is rushing home non-stop after completing the secret mission, and the fifth child has been with his sister for how many days. but you and the fourth child are out of tune, sending messages and not replying. or calling Then, deal with those dead people all day long.”

“Mom, that’s my job.”

“What job, hurry up and take a bath for me. don’t smoke your sister in a while!” Seeing him stepping upstairs. Eloise couldn’t help but wondered, “Wait. why are you empty-handed? What about a gift for my sister?” ”

Terry was stepping up the steps, and when he heard this, he asked innocently. “Isn’t it the best gift for my sister when I go home?”

“You, you brat...” Eloise couldn’t help but stepped forward and thumped him a few times. “Who cares about you, what girls want is perfume, jewelry, clothes, etc. No matter how bad it is, you can buy a doll, you can’t cat. play, or wear..

“I can be used as a decoration.” Logan said solemnly. “I bought a doll and used it as a decoration when I brought it home. It’s not as good as mine. I can still move. My sister can do whatever posture she wants. Besides, dolls How can I be more beautiful?”

Looking at her son’s handsome and serious face, Eloise covered her heart. “You, you are going to piss me off...”

Seeing that his mother was really angry, Logan three took out a small box and handed it over, smiling flatteringly. “No one has forgotten, this is for my mother.”

“Really?” Eloise was dubious, and half of her anger subsided.

“My sister’s gift is still in the car, go and see if you don’t believe me.”

“You have a conscience!” Eloise opened the small box and saw a dazzling gemstone inside.

Knowing that this kid has Isabella and himself in his heart, Eloise feels better.

“Where’s mine?” Williams rushed from the kitchen.

Logan San threw him a small box. “I’m going upstairs first.” Williams was a little excited, “The child is still embarrassed. running so fast. Wife, our boxes are the same, do you think the inside is the same?”

“Open it and have a look.”

Williams opened it and saw that there was only a note inside, which said: owed first.

Williams :...

What a good son.

Terry went downstairs after taking a shower, sat on the sofa for a while, but still didn’t see his sister.

But Cecilia heard that he was going home, and ran to him as fast as she could, and said happily, “Terry, you’re finally back!”

“Cecilia.” Terry put one hand on the edge of the sofa, exuding an unruly aura, and smiled handsomely, “I haven’t seen you in a while, and you’ve grown into a big girl.”

“Terry, how long has it been since you came back...” Cecilia’s nose was a little sour, and to be honest, she really missed Terry a little bit.

third young master, you are finally home, Miss Logan misses your every day... my ears are callused!” Scarlet stood aside and said with a smile. “Sometimes Miss Logan flips through your past photo albums. Turned over and cried...”

“What’s there to cry about?”

“Of course I miss you, I want to cry!”

Terry’s eyes softened. “Come here, sit by Terry’s side.”

Cecilia happily sat next to him.

“Why don’t you just give me a call?”

“I was afraid you were busy, so I didn’t dare to disturb you...”

Terry is even more handsome than before, and that handsome face. is still a bit unruly...

“Terry, can I take some pictures with you? That way I can show them when I miss you.”

After getting permission, Cecilia quickly took out her mobile phone. took a lot of photos with Terry, and posted them on Facebook.

“How are you doing recently?” Terry asked concerned.

Cecilia doesn't know how to sum up her recent life. If she had to describe it in one sentence, it would only be “terrible”.

“Third young master, aren't you stabbing Miss Logan in the heart? Since Ms. Young came back to this home, Miss Logan's status and situation have gotten better.”

Isabella was about to go downstairs, but she stopped when she heard this. This Scarlet, is speaking ill of her in front of Terry?

It really doesn't stop for a moment...

Terry heard the implication, raised his eyes, and asked lightly, “ Little girls are difficult to get along with?”

Scarlet made an indescribable expression, and the subtext was: super difficult to get along with.

“What about parents? Don't care?”

Scarlet's expression was also indescribable.

“Brother, what about them?”

Scarlet sighed. “Everyone revolves around her now, only the third young master, who is the first to care about Miss Logan's recent situation.”

Terry glanced at the girl next to her, she seemed a little hurt, she kept her head down, like an abandoned doll, but after a while, she glanced at the haze in her eyes. “ Terry, are you hungry, I'll get it for you Order something to eat.”

"I'm a little hungry." Terry looked at her with a smile. "Get some more for me."

"Okay." Cecilia was about to get it.

"Miss Logan, let me go, you and the third young master have at longer chat..."

What a great opportunity this is!

Don't miss it!

"Scarlet, you stay." Terry 's smile was unpredictable. " Cecilia, you go."

"Oh, good..." Cecilia glanced at Scarlet and walked towards the kitchen in a daze.

" Scarlet."

Seeing Cecilia leave. Terry 's eyes fell on Scarlet again. "You seem to have a problem with Isabella ?"

"The third young master misunderstood, I just saw that Miss Logan was neglected in this family, and it was useless for Miss Logan to please Ms. Young, Ms. Young always gave her face, so I felt for Miss Logan in my heart Not worth it..."

Isabella on the second floor :...

Scarlet, you've been at this home for too long, have you forgotten that Cecilia's place originally belonged to Isabella?"

With one word from Terry, Scarlet was completely stopped.

'Isabella has endured eighteen years of suffering, and finally came back to this home. You say that everyone around her is trying to make up for her, treat her well, and care about her. Isn't this normal?'

Scarlet lowered her head in embarrassment, and whispered, "Yes."

"Cecilia enjoyed the first 18 years of life for Isabella. Isabella didn't ask her to return, but agreed to her to stay. This shows that Isabella is a generous and non-calculating person."

Chapter 445 Are you going to transfer her away?

When Terry said this, he raised his eyes and looked at Scarlet again, "Would you keep a potential threat by your side?"

Scarlet was stopped by the question, and was immediately speechless.

Yes, if it were her, she would definitely not keep such a threat, compete with her for favor, and make things difficult for herself...

Terry continued. " Cecilia is wearing this month's new style, and she is also wearing this month's new product. This shows that, at least on the material level, this family does not owe her anything."

What the third young master said was..."

"In terms of emotions. I often hear my parents often mention Cecilia. After a while. Cecilia won an award, after a while. Cecilia was admitted to Bomsville University, after a while, I will take Cecilia out for dinner, and after a while. I will go to Cecilia's school to visit her. look."

Scarlet has lowered her head, not daring to speak...

"My biological one is back, it is impossible to leave my biological one aside, and only treat Cecilia as well as before, which is unfair to my biological one."

“If parents can give 100 points of love, even if they give Isabella 60 points and Cecilia only 40 points, you have to understand, because in the past 18 years, Isabella didn’t get a point, then 100% My love is all for Cecilia.”

“As the closest person to Cecilia. you should enlighten her, let yourself and her learn to be grateful, instead of having such a big prejudice against Isabella, your words and deeds will subtly affect Cecilia.”

Scarlet was extremely ashamed, “The third young master taught me a lesson.”

“I’m not trying to teach you a lesson.” Terry corrected lightly. “I’m just explaining a fact to you. I can tell that you don’t like Isabella. It seems that Isabella’s life in this family is not going well. She got stuck.”

“third young master...” Scarlet was a little flustered.

“She could have fired you with her current status, but she didn’t. Learn to be grateful. You can stand here and speak ill of her because she gave you this opportunity. Otherwise, you would have left long ago.”

Scarlet bent down completely. “I’m sorry third young master. I will definitely correct my mentality in the future, and I will never chew my tongue again.”

“Terry. I’m bringing you something delicious!”

At this time. Cecilia brought a large plate of delicacies. “The chef just made them. I took some of each, you taste it first, if there is not enough, I will go get it.”

Terry ate a few pieces. “Come on, accompany me to the garden.”

He didn’t want to stay and see Scarlet’s face.

Cecilia still wanted to pick up this plate of food, Terry said with a smile. “If you don’t eat. just go for a walk.”

Scarlet looked nervously at the back of them leaving, wanting to follow and cavedrop, but afraid of being discovered by the third young master...

Terry, what do you want to say to me?" Cecilia followed Terry, sneaking a little uneasy glance at his profile.

"Don't be nervous, just keep up." Terry smiled at her, "Why, Terry is scary?"

"No..." Cecilia hurriedly followed his steps, walking side by side with him.

What's going on between you and Isabella?"

When Cecilia heard this, her expression turned a little ugly, "Did Scarlet tell you something?"

"She didn't say anything."

"Then why did Terry ask that?"

"Just want to know..." Terry saw that she was so vigilant, and the smile on the corner of his mouth deepened. "It seems that you really don't get along very well."

Cecilia lowered her head, and she chose to confess after a while. "At first, my parents brought her back suddenly, and they didn't tell me in advance. I wasn't mentally prepared at all... That day, my parents prepared her a super The dreamy surprise. I thought it was prepared for me, and it was a joke..."

Cecilia 's eyes dimmed. "Later, I found out that she is the Lady of this family, and I am the adopted daughter... Her arrival distracted. my parents from paying attention to me, and even Benjamin began to like her..... So, it would be a lie to say that I have no opinion of her at all..."

Cecilia 's eyes dimmed for a while before she said. "Later, after going through all sorts of things. I suddenly figured it out and wanted to be good friends with her, but she seems to have no shortage of sisters..."

"What do you mean?" Terry didn't seem to understand.

"Her mind doesn't seem to be on these trivial matters."

In Cecilia's impression, she either spends time in the laboratory doing experiments, or doing business all over the United States. She doesn't seem to care about such a deep sisterhood.

"Then what is she like?" Terry asked again.

"Actually, her personality is just that tepid, she treats everyone the same...not just me."

Terry was a little surprised to hear her say that. He didn't expect that Cecilia would not take the opportunity to smear Isabella like Scarlet, but expressed it fairly and justly.

"What about other aspects?"

"Other aspects?" Cecilia thought for a while. "She's pretty good... Anyway, Terry will know it when he sees it."

It seems that in Cecilia's mouth, this sister is not bad.

"You have grown up too, and you can make your own judgment on many things. Terry is very pleased." Terry patted her on the shoulder. "You are eighteen years old, and you live in school again. I think you don't need Scarlet to serve you anymore. It's better to let her go to my side and help me take care of my life."

“Terry, are you going to transfer Scarlet away? To yours?” Cecilia hurriedly grabbed the hem of his clothes and said. “Can you change to another servant? After all these years. I’ve gotten used to Scarlet being by my side...”

“Habits can be changed.”

Terry...” At this moment, Cecilia realized something. “Did Scarlet say something that offended you just now? I apologize to you on her behalf...don’t transfer her away, okay?”

Terry couldn’t stand Cecilia’s soft words, and finally said, “It’s fine if you want her to stay, but you have to make your own judgment on everything, and ask Terry more about things, and don’t always ask her.”

“I promise you!” Cecilia said hastily.

“Also, in the hearts of my parents, they owe Isabella deeply, because they have failed to give her anything in the past eighteen years... As an older brother. I also feel that I should make up for her, but that doesn’t mean you’re not important in this family, you know?”

Cecilia was taken aback when she heard the words, then nodded.

“You are still a part of this family, but now there is one more person in this family. We should welcome and accept her instead of crowding out and loathing her.”

“I see. Terry.”

“You’re a good boy, remember, if we didn’t like you, we would have kicked you out.” Terry patted her on the shoulder, fearing that she would be spoiled by Scarlet, and it seems that he should pay more attention to Scarlet’s actions in the future I moved.

going to

At least for now, Cecilia is still a kind and innocent child...

It's just that Scarlet 's prejudice against Isabella is a bit deep...

It's best if you can change it, if you can't...

Chapter 446 Don't Talk If You Can't Talk

After a while, a servant came over and invited, "third young master, Miss Logan, it's time to cat."

"Let's go and cat."

Terry and Cecilia talked and laughed, walking back side by side.

Scarlet glanced at them from afar, with a gloomy look in his eyes.

I don't know why, every time Cecilia and the Logan Family get closer, she feels like a thorn grows in her heart.

at the table.

Seeing them coming. Eloise immediately scolded, "Terry, where have you gone, Isabella has been waiting for you here for a long time."

Terry glanced at the girl on the seat. At this moment, he thought he was dazzled. The girl's appearance, temperament, figure...why does it look so much like the "Mr. Logan" he met in the security center today?

"Let me introduce you. This is your sister Isabella, who is studying in medical university."

Looking at the girl's beautiful face and the faint smile on the corner of her mouth, Terry felt like he was petrified.

"Isabella, this is you Terry – Terry, he often works with dead bodies and is a forensic doctor."

Forensic?

Terry, the number one hacker in Asia?

"Hello, Terry." Isabella raised the corners of her lips, her voice refreshing like spring water.

Terry found that this girl not only looked exactly like Mr. Logan, but even had the same voice. She was definitely the girl who appeared in the security center today!

"Your sister is greeting you!" Seeing that Terry didn't respond. Eloise stretched out her hand to hit him, and whispered. " Terry, do you have long cars?"

"You are Isabella..." Terry suppressed the shock in his heart, and asked in a low voice. "Did we meet somewhere?"

Enter University exam No. I was flying all over the sky in June and July this year, the heroine in it was your sister. She is the No. I with a perfect score of this session."

Terry was shocked again. He didn't expect his sister to be a king. and she came back with so many skills.

Williams smiled, " Terry just came back, let him sit next to Isabella and bring more food for Isabella."

Upon hearing this. Scarlet moved Cecilia 's chair to the other side of Terry. "Miss Logan, you can also sit next to the third young master, it won't take you so long to read third young master."

"Cecilia often says Terry ?" Eloise was a little curious.

“Yeah, I read it every day, every day, it makes my ears callused...” Scarlet laughed with everyone.

Looking at the girl’s naturally beautiful face. Terry subconsciously asked, “Firewall...”

He said these three words very quietly.

Isabella raised a smile and asked lightly, “Terry hasn’t found a solution yet?”

It really was her!!

Terry took a deep breath, he didn’t expect his sister to be the hacker Mr. Logan, the hacker skills are superior to him!

My brother’s face was shattered...

Eloise saw the siblings whispering to each other, and thought they were having a good chat. While being happy, Eloise reminded, Terry, don’t worry about chatting, give Isabella more food! Isabella likes to eat scafood.”

“I’ll peel the shrimp for you.” Terry reached out and took a shrimp. After peeling it, he put it in his sister’s bowl.

“It’s not peeled clean, you see there are still shrimp shells on it.” Eloise noticed this, and said to Isabella, “ Isabella, don’t blame your brother, he hasn’t peeled shrimp for more than ten years, he is careless. ”

Terry was careless. Terry peeled it for you again...” Terry picked up a shrimp again.

“No Terry, I’ll just peel it off myself.”

“How about that? With Terry here in the future, you don’t have to touch all the shelled things on the dinner table.” Terry peeled a few more for her, hesitating to speak.

He wanted to ask his sister, why is there such a superb hacking technique? Where did you learn it? Why do you have such powerful hacking skills while taking care of your studies?

But with so many people present, he just asked. “Are you still used to going back to this home?”

“Um.”

“Is there anything that needs to be improved in terms of basic necessities of life?”

Terry put the peeled shrimp into her bowl, “Nobody bullies you at home?”

As soon as the words came out, Scarlet hurriedly looked at Isabella. afraid that she would talk nonsense.

Isabella was a little surprised, how could Terry ask such a question, did he ask casually, or did he discover something?

“If someone bullies you, tell Terry.”

“good.”

Terry put the peeled shrimp meat into her bowl, and found that she was quite obedient, whether it was the way she talked or the way she ate, she was so obedient as hell, so cute.

At this time. Cecilia put the peeled shrimps into Terry's bowl, Terry, you can eat too. If you don't eat any more, the food will be cold."

It was only then that Terry remembered that there was another sister beside him.

Just now he was so focused on peeling shrimp for Isabella that he ignored her.

"You know how to peel shrimp..." Terry saw the unsightly peeled shrimp in the bowl, his eyes overflowed with gentle light, he put the shrimp back into Cecilia's bowl, reluctant to eat, "Eat it. you are too Thin."

"Terry thinks that I don't look good?"

"No way, Terry is reluctant to eat."

"I peeled this for Terry, Terry must eat it." Cecilia put the shrimp back into Terry's bowl.

Scarlet at the side glanced at Gill, and Gill immediately said. " Miss Logan misses the third young master all the time, and even peels shrimp for the third young master, such a sister is too good, she can be regarded as a good sister." "

In contrast, Isabella has never peeled shrimp for any brother!

After a while, Cecilia added soup to her parents and Terry, and Gill praised again.

"Miss Logan is getting more and more sensible, not only her parents, but also her elder brother..."

The implication: unlike someone, you know how to eat.

Terry, these are what you like to eat, eat more.” Cecilia picked up the serving chopsticks to serve Terry with food.

“With a sister like Miss Logan, the third young master is really happy...”

Gill, you talk too much.” Now. Terry raised his eyes, and his eyes fell on Gill, his voice was a little cold.” Isabella also made me a lot of dishes, why haven’t you praised me?”

“Yes, Ms. Young is doing well too...”

“It’s not a competition to pick up vegetables. Don’t tell me I have to pick up a few forks if you pick up a few forks. I can’t do without a fork? Then what else do you have to eat? Let’s just pick up each other’s vegetables.”

Seeing her son lose her temper, Eloise was a little dazed, she ate well, why did she criticize the servants?

“I’m sorry third young master, I was wrong, I think Miss Logan is doing well, so I...”

“If you want to praise. praise together. If you choose one to praise, what will the other think?”

Now, Eloise finally understood where her son was angry. It made sense. Just now. Gill did a good job with Miss Logan. Miss Logan is a good sister of America. Then Isabella must be upset when she hears it....

“Gill, if you can’t talk. don’t talk, go down, you don’t need to serve. here.” Eloise was also a little unhappy.

Chapter 447 A Mountain of Gifts

After seeing Gill leave, Terry said to Isabella, "Don't talk to her. if you don't want to see her. Terry will fire her."

Scarlet on the side was completely surprised, she didn't expect the third young master to protect her own sister as soon as she got home...

So what does Miss Logan think!!

Cecilia was also a little confused. When Gill praised her just now. she really didn't expect that this compliment would hurt Isabella...

But Terry 's actions made her feel empty, as if Isabella 's feelings came first.

Doesn't she deserve to be praised for doing a good job?

Isabella looked at Terry in front of her. She didn't expect Terry, who was doing nothing. to see what Gill was thinking, and pointed it out directly

It seems that Terry is quite meticulous in observing the details.

"Listen up, all of you."

When Terry said a word, the servants standing around immediately lifted their spirits, and looked like they were listening attentively.

"The two young ladies in this family must treat each other equally. Who would dare to divide behind their backs. favor the high and depress the low, and intentionally separate the feelings of the two sisters... If I find out, it's not just as simple as leaving the house. understand?"

“Understood. third young master.” All the servants bowed down in unison, not daring to disobey.

“Let’s all go down.” Terry waited for them to leave, and said to Isabella next to him, “The cars are finally clean, come, eat more.”

He picked up food for Isabella and a lot for Cecilia. “You acted very well just now, Terry criticized Gill, not against you.”

Cecilia was a little gloomy at first, but when she heard Terry say that, she was slightly moved.

Terry said this because he cared about her feelings...

It seems that Terry still has her in his heart.

“We are a family, don’t become pawns in other people’s hands, eat.”

Williams and Eloise on the side looked at each other, and suddenly found that their son had grown up, thinking about everything...

after eating.

Terry pulled Isabella’s clothes again, “Go, Terry has a present for you.”

Eloise had long been wondering what kind of gift a straight man like Terry would give, why he didn’t take the car down by the way, and what to do with it in the car.

Until Terry opened the trunk of the stretched luxury car, a lot of pink balloons floated out...

“Every balloon here is made by Terry, isn’t it pretty?”

He also saw someone doing this on the Internet, so he silently wrote it down, wanting to surprise his sister...

"It's so romantic..." Williams didn't expect the straight man of steel to have such a romantic side. The key is. how can the trunk of the car hold so many balloons, isn't it so pretty?

Cecilia looked enviously at the balloon flying into the sky, and suddenly felt that Isabella was so happy, because Terry had never prepared such a surprise for her before...

Isabella looked at the words "Welcome Home" written on each of the balloons. Needless to say, such ugly words must have been written by Terry.

"All the hardships and unhappiness in the past are over, and I will stay in this home." Terry patted Isabella on the head, "We are a big family and will take good care of you."

After all the balloons flew out of the trunk, the star lights inside were still twinkling and emitting dreamy light, and there was a string of words that read "Welcome my sister home".

Below this sentence, there is also a mountain of gifts, Terry took a gift to Cecilia, "This is yours."

"Thank you Terry."

"The rest are Isabella 's." Terry picked up more than a dozen gifts in one breath. "Don't be jealous, Terry has given you many gifts before."

Cecilia couldn't help laughing when he said that, "Terry, you make me seem petty..."

"What stinginess, neither of my two younger sisters is stingy!" Terry said, holding a bunch of presents and telling Isabella, " Terry will send these to your room."

Terry, you prepared too much..." Isabella saw the "mountain of presents" in his hand, almost higher than the bridge of his nose.

"You are eighteen years old now, and there are exactly eighteen gifts here. Terry will give you other gifts after your birthday." Terry smiled at her and said, "Let's go, you lead the way. What do you usually have?" If you like it, if you like it, you can also tell Terry. Terry will buy it for you at any time."

"Thank you Terry."

"Silly girl, thank you for telling me. When Terry delivers it to your room, you take it apart slowly. If you see something you don't like, just throw it away. Don't force yourself. Terry sent you a gift just to make you happy. If you are happy, Terry will be happy. ". "

Seeing that her son was so caring, Eloise couldn't close her mouth. No wonder he left his sister's gift in the car. It's really inconvenient to pick up and take off so many things...

After the children left. Williams couldn't help asking, "Honey, isn't the home gift we prepared for Isabella too ordinary, and there is no surprise or romance at all."

"We can't compare to Xiaonian. Xiaonian has many ideas and creativity... We can only wait for Isabella's birthday to prepare a big surprise for her."

"At that time, we have to plan carefully..." Williams felt that his son's surprise today was inferior to him, and he had to think about what to send back next time...

Terry carried the gift to the door of Isabella's room, and asked, " Can Terry go in?"

"Okay." Isabella was generous.

"Is it okay to put this? This way you can sit and unwrap presents." After getting his sister's consent, Terry put the presents on her coffee table, then took out a bank card and handed it over. "This is Terry 's pocket money for you. "Money, use it to buy what you like."

Isabella was still thinking just now, finally there is a brother who didn't send a bank card, unexpectedly...

Terry, I don't need it, you can take it back."

"Here, this is Terry's kindness." Terry stuffed the card into her hand, "Terry doesn't know what girls like. if you buy the wrong one, you can buy yourself what you like, or tell Terry, Terry will give it to you." You buy, just swipe whatever you like, if there is not enough money in it. Terry will transfer it."

"No Terry..."

Terry gave it to you, you must accept it, don't refuse to hear it!" Terry forced her to keep it, but when no one was there, he asked, "Who taught you your hacking skills?"

Isabella succinctly told the story of those grandfathers, and Terry was very surprised. "If someone guides you into the industry, you can reach this level, very powerful and very talented."

At least more talented than him.

"Terry is self-taught, and Terry is even better."

Damn, don't talk about it, he still doesn't know how to crack the firewall...

In front of his sister, he was crushed badly...

"Actually, as long as..." Isabella stood on tiptoe and suddenly whispered something in Terry's car.

Terry suddenly realized that it turned out to be like this. Forced attack is not enough, we can only find a breakthrough...

I didn't expect my sister to tell him the breakthrough, but this also shows from the side that my sister's hacking skills are really superior to his...

Chapter 448 The Old Mister Woke Up

After coming out of his sister's room, Terry thought about it.

My younger sister is Mr. Logan, a hacker, and if I pick up a random task. I get a starting reward of 50 million, so is his pocket money less? Do you want to turn around a bit more?

The phone vibrated a few times at this time, it was from a few brothers.

"Well, have you seen your sister?"

"Isn't my sister cute?"

"Sister is timid, you have to take the initiative to talk to her and let her feel your enthusiasm."

"Talk to her softly and be a gentleman."

"My younger sister doesn't like physical contact, so don't pat her on the head or put her on the shoulder."

"No matter what happens, you must put your sister's feelings first."

Terry's slender fingers replied. "Use your teaching?"

He put away his mobile phone and was about to go downstairs, but he didn't expect Myra to rush upstairs in a hurry.

“Ms. Young, the old man is awake, do you want to go to the hospital, Ms. Young, have you rested?”

The Old Mister

Myra patted on Isabella’s door, not noticing Terry next to her.

Isabella opened the door, saw that Terry hadn’t left, and called Terry obediently, then looked at Myra, “Grandpa is awake?”

Only then did Myra notice someone beside her, “Yes, the hospital called and said they just opened their eyes.”

“Terry, do you want to go and have a look together?” Isabella ‘s eyes fell on Terry.

Terry was invited by his sister for the first time, his eyes softened, “Okay, let’s go together.”

He went home this time, first to see his sister, and second to see his grandparents.

half an hour later.

When Isabella and her group came to the hospital, suddenly a nurse rushed in front of her.

“Ms. Young, you came just in time. The old man suddenly convulsed and fell into a coma...”

Isabella rushed to the ward immediately.

Another doctor saw her and took the initiative to report, “When the old man woke up just now, we did a full body check on him and found nothing unusual. I don’t know why he suddenly convulsed...”

Terry on the side didn't understand why all the doctors and nurses were reporting their condition to Isabella. Does she understand medicine?

Isabella immediately stepped forward to feel her pulse, "He was stimulated, who said anything to him just now?"

Connie on the side was terrified, "It's me, talking about you and Cecilia's life experience, he got excited before he finished talking.... Isabella, you must save him..."

Connie regretted to death, "It's all my fault, I told him this before he was emotionally stable..."

Isabella took out the needle bag, pulled out the long silver needles. and landed directly on the big acupuncture points of Grandpa.

Soon, the person on the hospital bed stopped twitching and gradually settled down.

"Isabella, is your grandpa okay..." Connie was still a little scared, he didn't expect him to have such a big reaction to the children's life experience.

"It's okay." Isabella administered a few more needles, and after a while, the old man on the hospital bed slowly opened his eyes...

Terry on the side was stunned. He didn't expect that his sister not only knew medicine, but also had such excellent medical skills. With just a few needles, he could wake up his grandfather again!

"You, you are..." Adam's voice was still weak, just now he heard from Darling that both his and Darling's lives were saved by his granddaughter from the gate of hell.

"My name is Isabella, and I'm your granddaughter." Isabella's voice was very calm.

The old man on the hospital bed was gasping for breath again, Isabella went straight to the injection, his breathing fluctuated less. and he would not twitch easily...

The people around were dumbfounded, they didn't expect Isabella to be able to deal with it easily...

Isabella, my granddaughter who just came back recently after being away for eighteen years..." Adam looked at the little girl in front of him, her eyes were calm and indifferent, and her outstanding facial features were somewhat similar to Eloise.

This is obviously the kind of Logan Family.

"yes."

Receiving Isabella's affirmative answer, Adam gasped again, as if he had been greatly stimulated, but he didn't faint because of Isabella's injection.

At this moment he reached out with difficulty and took Isabella's hand.

"My child, you have suffered..." Adam spoke weakly, but he held Isabella's hand tightly, not willing to let go. "It's because we adults are confused, we didn't pay attention back then, and caused you to fall to other people. My family, I have endured eighteen more years of suffering..."

"It's okay, it's all over."

Isabella's open-minded attitude made Adam's eyes blush, "It's good to be back, it's good to be back... We will make up for your shortcomings these years, but I didn't expect that God made such a big joke with our Logan Family..."

Isabella thought to herself, it's none of God's business, but the fire that year caused the three families to blame.

But what happened to the fire back then, and why there is no clue yet...

Who is behind all this?

It seems that it is necessary to speed up the investigation...

“Where’s Cecilia...”

“Grandpa, I’m here!” Cecilia hurried forward.

Adam stretched out his hand again, holding the girl’s hand with difficulty, “My Cecilia...”

He never expected that the granddaughter whom he had spoiled for eighteen years was not his own!!

Looking at this beautiful, sensible and well-behaved girl in front of him, Adam felt uncomfortable, how could this happen!

How can you do this!

The Logan Family went up and down, but they really held this child in their hands for eighteen years!!

Tell him now, it’s not his granddaughter...

Adam’s heart throbbed with pain, discomfort, reluctance, and pain.

“Mom, Dad, and sister, let me stay in this house. Don’t worry, I’m still your granddaughter... I will honor you until I grow old...”

Adam burst into tears. "Okay, that's good, if you stay, Grandpa can see you every day..."

Knowing that Grandpa has her in his heart. Cecilia 's eyes became more gentle. "In the future, you will not only see me every day, but also your sister. We sisters will definitely get along well and stay with you and grandma well."

"Okay, good boy..." Adam wiped his tears with his hand, but he didn't expect the children to be more sensible than he imagined.

Connie on the side also wiped away tears, and can only say that good fortune makes people, good fortune makes people.

"Grandpa, you are just recovering from a serious illness, so your mood shouldn't fluctuate greatly." Isabella took a pillow and let him have something to lean on when he sat.

Adam's eyes fell on Isabella again, "I heard from your grandma that you saved us..."

"It's not just me. You and grandma are able to wake up. The other medical staff are also credited. It's because they took care of you day and night that this miracle happened."

Seeing that she is not a child who likes to grab credit, Adam's affection for her soars.

Terry on the side looked at Eloise, as if asking, what's going on? Why is it said that Isabella saved the grandparents?

"Isabella is the miracle doctor Selby Brown. She provided treatment plans for your grandparents and found good medicine..."

Selby Brown, a miracle doctor, may not be known to ordinary people, but as a forensic doctor, the name of Selby Brown, a miracle doctor, is so popular in the medical world, it is difficult not to know her.

The legendary Selby Brown was an old gentleman, but unexpectedly, it was his beautiful younger sister...

Those who spent huge sums of money looking for Selby Brown may not know until their death that they found the wrong gender and age...

The condition of grandparents, Terry has seen the cases before, is very difficult, because they not only have multiple fractures in the whole body, but also have many complications...

It's not as simple as just taking some medicine.

At that time, the whole ICU team couldn't help it. I didn't expect my sister to be cured so quickly.

Not only is his hacking technology crushing him, but even his medical skills are superior to him...

Terry felt that his face as an older brother was once again shattered...

"Take some medicine first." Isabella asked someone to bring the decocted herbal medicine, and send it to Grandpa first.

Adam frowned from crying. "It's so bitter..."

Healthy." Isabella fed him slowly, "I want to get well soon, no less than three times a day."

Adam found that this granddaughter still has a bit of a doctor's aloof demeanor, which made people inexplicably a little frightened. so he could only admit that he was cowardly and obedient...

"Isabella, can you change this medicine to other, sweeter medicine?" the old man asked anxiously.

"This is already the sweetest."

She hasn't prescribed the more bitter medicine, fearing that the old man will die on the spot after drinking it.

"Grandma, can you drink it too?" Cecilia brought Connie a bowl of herbs.

Connie didn't want to drink it, but seeing so many people watching. she could only bite the bullet and drink it down.

"Let me tell you, although this herb is bitter, it is good for your recovery. A bowl like this is worth a hundred thousand, so don't waste it."

Williams felt the need to tell them the value of the drug, otherwise they might secretly dump it...

"One hundred thousand for a bowl!? So expensive?" Connie had never heard of it.

"Many of the medicinal materials in it are very rare, and Isabella got them after thinking a lot of ways. You should cherish them... how many people are rushing to ask Isabella, a miracle doctor, to save her, and Isabella doesn't have time to take care of them..."

Connic knew that the medicine was not easy to come by, and that it was Isabella's credit that he and his wife could wake up, so he patted his chest and promised.

“Don’t worry, we will drink every bowl of medicine in the future, and there will be no residue left.”

Isabella couldn’t help laughing when she heard this, “I’ll change you to other medicines when things get better.”

Now these medicines are indeed the most effective medicines.

At least on the market, there is no other medicine that can replace it.

“We will listen to what Isabella says.” Connie promised with a smile.

“Grandpa, Grandma, I’m really glad to see you all waking up.” Terry on the side finally spoke.

“You brat, I finally saw you. We used to seldom see you when we were at home, and we knew we were busy every day...” When Connie saw him, she couldn’t help but sigh, “When I grow up, how many times will I see you?” I haven’t seen you for a month, and I’ve become a handsome boy...’

“Now that Isabella is back, you brother, you should spend more time with her and take her out to play more, do you hear me?” Adam urged.

Terry laughed wantonly. “Don’t worry, my elder brother will definitely take good care of my younger sister! As long as she wants to play. I will definitely accompany her to the end! But your two elders should get well quickly. After the New Year’s Eve, can you take a family trip.

“That’s a good idea. Your grandma and I like going out to see the scenery the most...”

Adam and Connie like sports, mountain climbing, and travel even more, but they don’t know if they can walk that far in the future...

Seeing him staring at her legs in deep thought. Isabella couldn't help laughing. "Don't worry, grandpa, after a while, you and grandma will be able to walk on the ground."

"Really?" Adam 's eyes lit up.

Isabella nodded, "I promise.

Adam felt refreshed all of a sudden, and began to discuss with them which attractions to visit during the American New Year.

They have been to some scenic spots before, and they want to take Isabella to places they have never been to. Some scenic spots are too cold, and the elderly are afraid that their bodies will not be able to bear it...

The whole family talked about a lot of places, and then Adam said, "You all be quiet. I will ask Isabella for her opinion first."

Isabella smiled, and had no particular desire to go.

"That's Isabella, who is sensible. She is afraid that we will make things difficult. In short, I will follow the scenic spots I said. You can see snow, see other scenery, climb mountains, and see the sea of clouds..."

After Adam thought about it, he became concerned about the studies of his two granddaughters. When he learned that they both went to college, Isabella still had a perfect score of No. 1. and he was full of praise again.

"Dad, Isabella has more advantages than these. Have you heard of QY Group? She founded it! Do you like Alexis' paintings? She painted them! Are Clco 's calligraphy works still hanging in your old study? It's all from her hands..."

Now, Adam was too shocked to speak...

Unexpectedly, his granddaughter is so outstanding, she is also a Painting Master, a calligraphy master, and the founder of the group.

Terry was also dizzy by Isabella 's identity. I thought that the two identities of "Selby Brown" and "Mr. Logan hacker" had crushed him hard, making him lose face as an older brother...

He didn't expect his sister to have so many identities, which he didn't know...

The eldest brother, the second brother and the fifth brother never told him!

He was shocked for a long time before he took out his mobile phone and sent a message asking. "You guys are so mean, no one told me that Alexis and Cleo are both Isabella! If it wasn't for being exposed by my parents today... I would still be fooled. "In the drum!"

Big Brother: Isabella is the Painting Master Alexis? Writing Master Cleo? I do not know how?

Second Brother: When did it happen?

Bradley: Isabella still has so many identities? I only know her as Tanya and the founder of QY...

Therefore, Isabella also has the identity of the piano master " Tanya "!!!

Terry took a deep breath, and his eyes fell on the girl next to him. How did she do it? With so many identities...

Any one of them is much better than his brother...

Is it still too late for him to go back to the furnace and rebuild...

At this time, Isabella didn't know how shocked Terry was, so she took a pen borrowed from the doctor and wrote for her grandfather.

"That's right, that's the font that Cleo wrote. You are really Cleo..." Adam was overjoyed, "Write me some more, grandpa likes your words..."

God knows how much he likes Cleo 's calligraphy, which is sharp and bony...

It is said that her writing is like a person, and Isabella 's personality must be like her writing, with a refined atmosphere and awe- inspiring spirit.

Chapter 450 Everyone Revolves Around Her

Isabella wrote him several poems, each one a page. Adam was so happy that he couldn't put it down and read it over and over again...

"Me too, me too." Influenced by her husband, Connic also liked Cleo's calligraphy.

Isabella wrote her a few more pages.

The paper is also an ordinary A4 paper from the doctor, but because Cleo 's words are written on it, it is very precious.

"Isabella, your handwriting is so beautiful." Connie praised her handwriting without hesitation.

"Isabella is not good-looking?"

As soon as Terry said this, Connic patted him, "As long as you are poor. Isabella is of course good-looking, unless a blind person can't see it."

“Isabella, you can draw me something, anything!” Adam loved Alexis ‘s paintings so much, he took a blank A4 paper and wanted Isabella to draw something.

“How much is a painting by Isabella worth? How can I paint so casually!” Williams was afraid that his precious daughter would be exhausted. “When you are discharged from the hospital, Isabella will visit you when she is free and bring you her works.”

“Let’s draw a little to satisfy our hunger...” Adam still held the A4 paper in his hand. looking at Isabella expectantly.

“Leave Isabella alone, what time is it...” Williams looked at the time, it was almost one o’clock in the morning. “Okay, okay, you guys rest first, we will visit you again tomorrow...”

“You don’t need to come, just let Isabella be the representative...”

Williams didn’t expect that as his own son, he would be rejected by his father!

Isabella took the paper, sketched a few strokes on the paper at will. and a majestic sketch appeared on the paper...

Maybe she didn’t expect her painting skills to be so good. It only took a few minutes to complete a painting. Adam was full of praise, “It’s wonderful, it’s wonderful...I’m going to frame this painting...”

“What’s the matter. I’ve seen Isabella draw with sand...” Williams took out his phone and showed Adam the works he had captured before.

Isabella didn’t even know that she had painted with sand until she saw the paintings in the photos, and she remembered that when she answered the phone at Riverside Villa a long time ago, she kicked her feet in the sand randomly because she was bored...

At that time, the garden was being remodeled, and a pile of sand was placed in that place, which unexpectedly became a “tool” for her painting...

photographed by Williams...

“Send this sand painting to me. I want to save it and use it as a mobile phone wallpaper.” Adam didn’t expect that sand can also paint, and the painting is so good...

In fact, Isabella can draw with many things, but no one knows, because just drawing with a pen is amazing enough.

“Isabella, we’ll be discharged from the hospital in two days, you must come...” Connie took her hand and Poll said reluctantly.

“Don’t worry grandma, I’ll definitely be there.” Isabella said gently. “It’s getting late, you and grandpa go to bed early...”

Connie glanced at Darling, who was still admiring Isabella’s sand painting...

Isabella smiled, “I’ll draw some pictures for you later...”

Just now she only painted for grandpa, not grandma yet, but it was getting late, and she didn’t want to delay the rest of the two old people.

“Thank you for my good granddaughter...” Connie was so happy that she couldn’t close her mouth from car to car. “After you get out of the hospital, you can go to my place to play the piano. I have a good piano...”

“You guys want to exhaust Isabella to death...” Terry couldn’t help laughing, “Okay, lie down, I’m going to help you cover the quilt.”

Adam could only reluctantly put the things into the bedside table, and then lay down.

Terry helped them cover the quilt, gave some instructions, and prepared to leave.

“etc!”

Now, Adam seemed to remember something, and sat up again.

“What’s wrong with you being old?” Terry smiled helplessly, not knowing what he was up to.

“What’s Isabella’s phone number?”

“That’s right, I didn’t save Isabella’s phone number...” Connie also sat up, took out his phone, and was about to record it.

Cecilia on the side saw that her grandparents were walking around Isabella in one night, feeling uncomfortable...

Why, why is Isabella always able to easily grab all the attention in such a short period of time!

Isabella reported her mobile phone number, and after Adam wrote it down, he couldn’t help but read it out again, to confirm with her...

Connie squinted her eyes, and whispered one number after another, for fear of remembering it wrong...

Isabella, are you on National Day holiday recently? What time do you get up every day?” Adam remembered that he imitated Alexis’s style of painting a long time ago and drew a landscape picture, hoping to get his own comment.

"I get up at six o'clock."

"Six o'clock, why don't you sleep in more?" Connie felt a little distressed. "It's hard to have a vacation, and you usually have a lot of studies... Is it because Williams and the others don't let you sleep in?"

"Mom. I want Isabella to get enough sleep more than anyone else..." Williams immediately complained.

"I'm used to this point, it's none of other people's business."

"What a good boy..." Connic praised repeatedly. "There are too few children who can get up early now... It's not easy to maintain such a good habit, it's really not easy..."

"Okay, it's time to lie down." Terry was about to reach out to turn off the light.

"Then Isabella, I'll call you tomorrow..." Adam always felt that the grandpa and grandson didn't talk enough today!

"Dad, Isabella is usually very busy. She also has to take care of her own group and is busy with other businesses. She doesn't have that much time. You'd better take care of her health before looking for her..."

Williams was afraid that his precious daughter would have to deal- with both her studies and her work, and now she also had to deal with her elder brother...

"It's okay, you can call anytime." Isabella was very gentle.

WhatsApp at that time, remember to pass it when you see it!"

As soon as Adam said this, Terry said, "What about WhatsApp, add it tomorrow, lie down and rest first...".

The two old men reluctantly said a few words to Isabella before lying down.

After Terry turned off the lights, everyone said good night to each other, and then quietly exited the ward.

"It can be seen that my parents are very satisfied with Isabella..." Williams smiled. thinking, how can such an outstanding child be dissatisfied? He himself is very satisfied...

And Isabella bowed her head to reply to the message on the phone. at this time, not paying attention to what they were talking about.

On the contrary, Cecilia heard her parents' words, her eyes were a little lonely.

If Isabella doesn't show up, then the best granddaughter in the eyes of grandparents will only be Cecilia!!

"Responding to a message?" Terry saw his sister kept pressing her phone with her head down, and pulled her skirt and said. "You answer yours, just follow me."

Isabella was declining Angela 's supper invitation, and Angela found that the little girl didn't come out with her very much these two days, did she think she was annoying...

So I sent a message to Benjamin and learned that the little girl's grandparents woke up. The little girl was busy visiting these two days, and Terry went home, so I didn't go out with her. Angela was very happy...
