

Chased Her 461

Chapter 461 I Found My Biological Parents

Isabella looked at Terry 's profile, and suddenly felt sorry for him, "What's her name? Maybe, I can help you."

Terry looked at Isabella in surprise, and suddenly realized that his sister's hacking skills were superior to his, and maybe he could really find her.

"Send me her personal information later." Isabella 's eyes fell forward, "If she is really doing well, we don't need to bother, but if she has something to hide, you can also take advantage of this Chance to make it clear."

Terry looked at his sister's profile, and finally said, "Okay."

Cecilia, who was hiding in the dark, didn't expect Terry to have such an unforgettable past, and his family thought he was single.

But why did he only tell Isabella...

Never tell her about this sister.

Isabella knew that someone was eavesdropping in the dark, and Cecilia was the only one who would do such a thing, so she didn't bother to talk to her.

After taking a bath, Isabella received a message from Terry, Nora, 22 years old, Libra, grew up in an orphanage when she was a child, was adopted by a family when she was 6 years old, and lived in the fish pond of Left County, South District of Bomsville after adoption No. 111 Road, the adoptive parents are county teachers.

Terry also sent a photo. The woman in the photo is as cold as snow, with detached and indifferent eyes. She is a very beautiful girl.

“receive.”

After Isabella replied to the message, she sent it to her subordinates, “Help me find this person as quickly as possible.”

“The fastest speed? Boss, is this person digging your ancestral grave or owes you a huge sum of money? Why are you looking for her?” The subordinate on the other end of the phone couldn’t help but said, “There are many beautiful girls in this world, but like I have only seen two people with this kind of temperament in my life, one is you and the other is her. Boss, this is not your long-lost sister, right? I found that your temperament is very similar!”

Girls give people the impression of a high-level sense of alienation, and the coldness and indifference in their eyes is unpredictable.

It’s like a mystery.

“Check it out, don’t talk nonsense.” Isabella sat down and dried her hair after sending it.

Early the next morning.

Isabella is going to visit No. 111 Road.

When I went out, a servant said that the third young master had been sitting on the balcony last night and didn’t sleep, maybe he was in a bad mood.

Isabella looked up at Terry’s bedroom, the balcony was empty.

She went to the garage to pick up a car, first navigated to Left County, then found a place to park, and then walked to Road.

The fish pond road is very small, with one fish pond after another on the left, only a path for pedestrians to walk in the middle, and rows of private houses on the right.

Isabella followed the rusty and blurred house numbers and searched from room to room.

Many villagers here do business in front of their houses, some sell fruit, open small shops, and sell vegetables.

No. 110 is for breakfast, and the store has set up a small tent at the entrance, selling steaming coffee fritters and porridge side dishes.

Many people patronize his stall, and the tables and chairs are all placed in front of No. 111 door.

“Boss, have a cup of coffee.” Isabella stepped forward and saw that the tables and chairs in front of door 111 were full of people, so she couldn’t help asking, “Boss, won’t your neighbors be affected by this?”

“It looks like you’re new here. You’re not from this village, are you?” The shopkeeper filled a cup of coffee and glanced at Isabella. There is no such beautiful doll in the village.

“I’m here to find my classmates. It’s my first time here.”

Seeing that Isabella was quite frank, the store didn’t hide it, Mr. Scott’s house is next door. The couple resigned and went to find their daughter. They have been away for two or three months.”

“Their daughter is missing?”

“A year ago, I said that I had found my biological parents, and I was going to settle abroad, but I didn’t contact here after that. No matter how many calls and messages Mr. and Mrs. Scott sent, nothing came of it.”

Isabella 's eyes darkened.

“Mr.Scott said that the child was filial and sensible since he was a child, and it was impossible for him to leave like this. He said that he had found his biological parents, but the biological parents had never shown their faces... Mr. and Mrs. Scott always felt that something happened to the child, so they After discussing it, I decided to give up my job and go to France.” The shopkeeper handed the coffee to Isabella, “One dollar.”

“France is a big place. If you don't have a detailed address, it's hard to find someone.” Isabella paid the money and started talking casually.

“I heard what it was, I don't remember.” The store continued to fry fried dough sticks.

” Paris.”

“That's right, that's right... Those of you who have read the book just have good brains... That's the name!”

Another person came to the breakfast stall and asked casually,” Mr. Scott hasn't come back yet?”

“Yeah, I've been away for two or three months, and I don't know if I've found Nora... What do you call this? It took a lot of hard work to raise the child, but the child left with his biological parents. Isn't it Mr. Scott? Is it the life of the couple...”

“I always feel that Nora is not such a heartless person. Will she meet a liar abroad and be deceived by someone?” Another villager guessed.

“Impossible, she must have found her biological parents, you think, Nora has been babbling French since she was a child, she is more fluent than us in Mandarin, she must have a good life abroad, I guess that is where she is not allowed to talk to Got in touch here.”

Although that kid Nora has seldom talked since he was a child, he feels that he will be a promising person in the future.”

“That’s right, she doesn’t look like someone from our small village.”

“Poor Mr. Scott, I haven’t stepped out of this town for most of my life, but now I’m going abroad to find my daughter...”

Everyone chattered.

Isabella found a place to sit down and took a sip of coffee silently.

“Hey, tell me, is it related to the group of people who came to our village before?”

Isabella raised her eyes and looked at the village woman who spoke.

“Hey, who knows, anyway, Mr. Scott said, don’t expand this matter, and let’s not mention it in the future.”

“Yeah, if the child really finds his biological parents and doesn’t plan to come back, talking about this matter will stab Mr. Scott in the heart, so don’t talk about it.”

Isabella drank coffee silently, and saw the village woman leave after buying breakfast, so she got up and followed.

The village woman was walking to her home with the breakfast she had bought, when she suddenly heard someone questioning her.

“Hi, may I ask what happened to the group of people you just mentioned?” Isabella explained sincerely, “That’s right, Nora is my senior sister, she helped me a lot in school before, and I even borrowed her books, but I can’t get in touch with her, I’m a little worried that something happened to her.”

The village woman saw that the girl’s eyes were sincere, and she didn’t look like a bad person, so she said, “That happened a few months ago. One night, a group of people. broke into Mr. Scott ‘s house at about two or three o’clock. Yes, the roof of my house is leaking, and the rain just kept leaking towards my bed, and the quilt was all wet, and my husband saw it when he went to repair the roof.”

Chapter 462 The Fish Takes the Bait

“What kind of people is that?”

“I couldn’t see clearly in the middle of the night. There were about seven or eight people in the yard. After that day, Mr. Scott’s house didn’t open for four or five days, until I saw someone else four or five days later. I asked him what was going on, and he only said that he had a relative., who do you think so many relatives come to in the middle of the night? It’s really strange to walk around in the yard when it’s raining.

Isabella continued to ask, “Could it be that Mr. Scott made enemies outside?”

“Impossible. The couple are kind and never leave this town. They get along well with us. I think it has something to do with Nora, because not long after this happened, they both resigned to find Nora. gone.”

Isabella ‘s eyes overflowed with a touch of sadness, “I don’t know when I will see Nora -senpai.”

“Hey, I see Xuan... If there is any news, Mr. Scott must have brought him back, and now the couple is silent... I don’t know how they are looking abroad.”

“Thank you, auntie.” Isabella said gratefully, “It seems that I can only return the book to Senior Nora next time I have a chance.”

“You are also a good boy, and you found this book to return...” The village woman saw that she was carrying a backpack. Needless to say, there must be Nora ‘s books in the bag.

Isabella said some polite words to her, then walked around to the back of house 111, saw no one around, and jumped over the wall to enter.

A lot of fallen leaves have piled up in the yard, and the flowers and plants are all withered. It can be seen that no one has lived here for a while.

Isabella took out Tony’s spray from her backpack and sprayed it on the ground. After a while, fluorescence appeared in some places.

Tony can find blood that has been diluted 12,000 times. Even if you clean it, as long as you have Tony, you can find blood.

These bloodstains were not much, scattered here and there, either the injured person was not seriously injured, or this was not the scene of the first crime.

The yard is surrounded by wing rooms, a bit like a courtyard house. Several doors were locked. Isabella took a closer look, but found that the lock had been opened before. She took out a fingerprint flashlight from her bag and took a photo on the lock., without any fingerprints on it.

It stands to reason that if Mr. Scott locks the door before leaving the house, his fingerprints will definitely be left.

But the surface of this lock is clean, which means that there are two possibilities.

Fish Takes the Bat

One is that someone came after Mr. Scott and his wife locked the door and left.

One is that the person who locked the door was not Mr. and Mrs. Scott, but someone else, but that person was very cautious and did not intend to leave his identity behind.

Isabella put on a mask, cap, and gloves and pushed the door in. The living room was clean and tidy. It could be seen that no one had lived in it for a while, and the surface was covered with dust.

Isabella took out the glasses she had researched a long time ago from her bag. After putting them on, she soon saw a small red dot on a socket board on the wall.

The little red dot is the light from the camera, which means that someone installed a camera here.

She quickly passed by, and began to observe other places, and finally found that there were six cameras in the living room. Obviously, this was not done by Mr. Scott and his wife.

Because these cameras are all installed in very secret places, like a few pairs of eyes, spying on everything in this home.

Isabella quickly removed the cameras. The phone vibrated a few times. She took it out and saw that it was Benjamin calling.

“Is there something wrong?” Isabella hung up the phone and sent him a message.

On the contrary, Benjamin’s voice was full of miss, “I came to the lake villa, Myra said you left early, where did you go?”

“Take care of something,” Isabella replied, “Let’s talk about it later.”

“Okay, tell me when you’re free, and I’ll go find you.”

“good.”

Isabella put away her mobile phone, took out the detector, and found that several bugs had been installed in the house.

The models and styles of these bugs have only been released in recent months, and Nora ‘s disappearance is by no means simple.

Isabella searched for a while in the living room, and then took out Tony’s spray. This time, a lot of blood was found on the floor of the living room.

This should be the scene of the first crime.

I just don’t know whose bloodstains belonged to them.

Isabella went upstairs again, to Nora ‘s room.

Like the living room, this place is clean and tidy, and it looks a little warm. Isabella checked it with Tony, and found no blood. It was too clean, as if all useful clues had been erased.

Isabella searched the bedroom for a while, and suddenly found a vitamin C bottle, which looked very old. She opened it and found that it was empty.

She picked it up and smelled it closely, and found that it didn’t smell of vitamin C, but a little powdery, which smelled like camellia.

Camellia is a potent poison with a special smell, but she couldn't smell the other ingredients, so she took out a small transparent bag from her bag, collected the little powder, and planned to take it back for testing.

Terry last night that he had been dating Nora for a year, but in Nora's room, there was nothing related to Terry.

It was as if Terry never existed in her world.

Isabella searched the room for a while, but found no other useful clues. She searched other places in the house, but found nothing new for the time being.

At noon, Isabella went out over the wall, got something to eat, and asked her men to go to Paris to find someone. At night, she came in again over the wall.

During the day, she dismantled the cameras and bugs here, and the other party would definitely come to see the situation, so it seemed to be who it was.

At this time, her cell phone vibrated again, and it was Terry calling.

After she hung up, she sent a message, "What's up with Terry?"

"Myra said you went out early in the morning. I called Benjamin and he hasn't seen you for a day. Where have you been?"

The Fish Takes the Bat

"I have something to do, I'll be back later."

"Have you checked Nora's whereabouts?" Terry quickly noticed something, "Any new discoveries?"

Instead of answering directly, Isabella asked, "Terry, have you been to Road before?"

"Of course I have." Terry said seriously, "More than once."

At that time, he inquired about Nora 's whereabouts. Maybe everyone saw him as a new face, so he didn't disclose much.

"I've been to Nora 's home and asked a few times, but her parents said they didn't hear from her."

Terry didn't believe this, "Maybe Nora fell in love with someone else, and her parents didn't want me to pester her anymore, so they lied to me."

He tried several times, but her parents said they couldn't reach Nora.

"Didn't you reveal anything else?"

"No." Terry was a little curious when she asked, "What did you find?"

"I'll tell you later." As soon as Isabella finished typing this sentence, she felt that someone came to the yard, and it was more than one person.

She hooked the corners of her lips lightly, and the fish took the bait.

Under the moonlight, several figures quickly entered the living room from the yard, the speed was staggering.

Chapter 463

The moment they broke into the living room, a figure as light as a swallow flashed quickly, the door lock fell, and Isabella locked everyone in the living room, including herself.

Several people realized that they had fallen into a trap, and looked up at the girl in front of them. In the darkness, she was wearing a peaked cap and a black mask, her thin figure blocked the door, and she exuded a fierce aura.

The man at the head was terrified, "Nora? You traitor, you finally showed up."

They all wore black hoods, so their facial features could not be seen.

"Today is the day of your death." The leading man attacked quickly, and the others were also merciless.

One of them pulled out a dagger and slashed at Isabella's stomach. After Isabella avoided it, she grabbed his wrist and kicked him in the heart.

Someone kicked a vase at Isabella again, and Isabella quickly kicked the vase onto the sofa so it wouldn't make any noise.

Several people attacked Isabella at the same time, and Isabella kicked one of them on the head, but that person quickly avoided it.

severe pain went from the man's fist to his shoulder, causing his eyes to flash a look of pain. Consciously cover the pain.

Someone pulled out a knife and tried to slash at Isabella's neck, but Isabella avoided it and kicked him directly in the chest.

Her movements were extremely agile, and her movements were fast and ruthless. The man in the lead suffered a loss, and her voice was sullen.

"Aren't you Nora?"

Isabella quickly charged at him again.

“Who are you?”

Seeing that Isabella didn't speak, the leading man exuded a murderous look. He attacked Isabella with vicious moves, but failed to draw with her, and was even at a disadvantage.

Several other people were hurt and hurt, obviously they were not Isabella 's opponents.

“It's time to end.”

Since she is not Nora, there is no need to waste time with her. After a word from the leading man, everyone took out their silencer guns and aimed at Isabella.

When they pulled the trigger, Isabella soared into the air, jumped, and a hail of bullets hit her. She was as graceful as a bird, and moved swiftly. Not only did she avoid more than a dozen bullets, but she also grabbed one of the men's arms and grabbed the man's arm. Passing his gun, he counterattacked neatly.

Her marksmanship was extremely accurate, and within a short while, four hands holding guns were hit by her.

“who are you?”

Now, the leading man really felt bad.

Whether it is skill, marksmanship, or reflexes, girls are far above them!

There is no chance of winning in this way!

“withdraw—”

The leading man gave an order and planned to leave this place, but within seven minutes after they broke into the living room, they had already unknowingly inhaled a kind of gas, and at this moment their whole body was weak and their consciousness was blurred.

This kind of aromatherapy is specially made by Isabella, and there is very little smoke after lighting. If you don't pay attention, it is difficult to find it in the environment.

It produces no fragrance during burning and can stun people in a short time.

So, by the time they realize their bodies are out of control, it's too late.

The leading man dropped the smoke bomb and planned to leave.

The living room was filled with thick smoke. Isabella heard the sound coming out of the broken window. She identified the position by the sound, picked up the rope she had prepared earlier, followed the source of the sound, and tied up the people who hadn't escaped from the window one by one. stand up.

Another had fled into the yard and climbed over the wall to leave.

Isabella looked in the direction he was leaving, and did not chase after him. Then she looked at the four people who were tied up, and they all fainted.

At this time, someone knocked on the door outside.

“Mr. Scott, are you home? Are you back?” The proprietress of the breakfast shop next door knocked on the door, “Are you okay? Why did I hear the sound of glass breaking...”

“There’s no light on here, did you hear it wrong?” Her husband looked left and right through the crack in the door, “There’s no one in the yard, it’s pitch black.”

“Should I call the police? I always feel that something is wrong... I’m in a panic.”

“Are you sure you heard the voice?”

“Yeah, when you were snoring just now, there was a loud sound of broken glass coming from Mr. Scott’s house.”

“Come on, let’s go upstairs and have a look.”

Their rooftop can see the center of Mr.Scott’s yard.

“Look, those fallen leaves are still there. Mr. Scott loves cleaning the most. If he comes back, he will definitely clean. the yard immediately.”

“But I clearly heard a noise just now...”

“It may be from someone else’s house...or it may be a wild cat jumped to the window and accidentally smashed something.” The husband yawned, “Go to sleep, don’t worry about it, you have to get up early tomorrow Making coffee, Mr. Scott and the others probably won’t be back so soon...”

“It’s so strange,” muttered the wife, turning off the light.

When there was no movement next door, Isabella took out her mobile phone and sent a message to her subordinates, “Bring a few people to No. 111 Road, and help me carry a few. people back.”

“Carry, carry people??” The subordinates were all stunned.

“speed.”

After sending the message, Isabella found that there were more than a dozen missed calls from Benjamin and Terry, and more than a dozen unread messages.

I didn't reply in time during the fight just now.

She sent two more words to them respectively, "Just return."

Then he jumped easily, took off the mini camera installed on it tonight, restored the living room to its original state, and then led the people away with his men.

Riverside Villa.

Terry finally heard the notification tone from the mobile phone. He picked up the mobile phone and looked at it. There were only two words: just return.

He called, but no one answered after several calls, and he became even more anxious, what's wrong with this girl, why didn't she answer the phone.

He messaged Benjamin again, "Has Isabella contacted you yet?"

"I replied to the message and said I'd be right back, but I didn't answer the call."

"This girl doesn't know what she's up to." Terry was a little worried, his eyelids kept twitching tonight, always feeling ominous.

Terry, I finished changing!" Cecilia happily went downstairs, "Why haven't you changed yet?"

"Let's go now." Terry glanced at the phone again, but the little girl didn't call back. It's already eight o'clock in the evening. Where will she go?

Cecilia saw that he was preoccupied and was still keeping an eye on his phone, so she couldn't help asking, "Terry, is something wrong?"

"No." Terry collected his thoughts, "I'll go upstairs and change first, wait for me."

"good!"

Cecilia happily watched his back as he went upstairs, and raised an eyebrow at Scarlet.

Scarlet smiled knowingly and gave her a victory sign, not expecting things to go so smoothly.

Isabella is not at home today, Scarlet asked her to take Terry to go shopping, using it as an excuse to buy Christmas gifts. for her parents and Isabella, firstly, it can show her generous and decent side, secondly, it can enhance the relationship between siblings, and thirdly, it can also use this Opportunity to swipe Terry 's card to buy something for himself.

Otherwise Terry 's money will be spent by Isabella...

Scarlet taught her that if Terry shied away, she would act coquettishly about the last time Terry took Isabella to the movies and shopping.

Sure enough, Terry was not in the mood to go at first, but Cecilia said aggrievedly, "But Terry went with sister Isabella last time..."

Chapter 464 I got angry and found the wrong person

In the end, Terry couldn't bear it and agreed to go shopping with her at night.

Terry went downstairs after changing clothes, Cecilia happily took his hand, "Terry, I knew you were the best for me!"

“You’re my sister, not for you, but for whom?” Terry scratched her nose, and as soon as he came to the garage and opened the car door, the phone rang. When he saw that the caller was Isabella, he immediately answered it.

“Isabella, where have you been?” Terry couldn’t help but said as soon as he answered the phone, “It’s already eight o’clock in the evening, do you know how worried Terry is about you? He doesn’t answer the calls, and only responds with one or two words after sending so many messages. It’s been such a long time since you came back, you’re trying to kill Terry, where have you been all day today?”

When Cecilia heard it, it turned out that Terry had been staring at his phone today, waiting for Isabella to reply...

Her heart was sour, a little dissatisfied and jealous, but she remained calm on the surface.

Terry, I caught a few people, which may be related to Nora ‘s disappearance.” Isabella has always been concise, and said while driving, “People are in my place, but I don’t want people to know about my place. Don’t say anything, I’m Go to the lake villa to pick you up, you come out.”

“Okay, you’ll be there in a few minutes?” When Terry heard that it was related to Nora’s disappearance, his whole heart arose.

Is my sister going to arrest someone today?

Could anyone have anything to do with Nora ‘s disappearance?

Didn’t Nora leave because she fell in love with someone else? Why did she become “missing” in the mouth of her sister?

Too many questions popped up, which gave him a bad feeling.

“I’ll be there in about three minutes.”

“Okay, I’ll wait for you at the gate now.” Terry closed the car door, then looked at Cecilia next to him, “Cecilia, Terry has something to do, I’ll go shopping with you another day.”

Terry...” Seeing Terry leaving in a hurry, Cecilia couldn’t help but catch up, “Terry, what happened?”

Isabella and I are going out for a while. You stay at home obediently, or ask your friends to accompany you to go shopping first. If you see something you like, just buy it. Terry will reimburse you later. Be good.” Terry patted her on the head and left quickly.

Terry...” Cecilia was extremely dissatisfied, why, why can Isabella call Terry away with just one phone call!

Isabella must have done it on purpose!

Do it early or late, but when Terry wants to go shopping with her!

Terry was too much, he promised to go shopping with her, but in order to go out with Isabella, he let her dove.

From a distance, Cecilia saw Isabella ‘s car parked at the gate of the villa, Terry got into the car quickly, and the car drove away.

The more she thought about it, the more angry she went back to the living room of the main building, just in time to see Myra put a bouquet of flowers.

Several servants around were praising her for her good performance.

Myra looked at the flowers in front of her and said with a smile, "I hope this bouquet can bring Ms. Young a good mood. I'll put it in her room first."

Scarlet rolled his eyes, and saw Miss Logan rushing back in a blink of an eye, and couldn't help being puzzled.

Didn't Miss Logan go shopping with the third young master?

Why did you come back alone?

Cecilia's heart was completely hurt by Myra's smile and the flower in her hand. She directly blocked Myra's way, "Is it you? You told Sister Isabella that Terry would go shopping with me, didn't you?"

I got angry and found the wrong person

"Miss Logan?" Myra held the vase, a little confused, "I don't know what you're talking about."

"You must have tipped her off, so she suddenly called and called Terry away." Cecilia was furious, "Who in this family doesn't know that you are her dog!"

"Miss Logan, taking care of Ms. Young is the task given to me by my wife. I just finished my work. How can I become a dog in your eyes, not even worthy of being a human being? The third young master temporarily let you dove. Not sure, I believe this matter has nothing to do with Ms. Young, it just happened to happen together.'

"You're still quibbling!"

This damn servant not only defended himself, but also defended Isabella!

What kind of ecstasy soup did Isabella give her!

“Terry has already opened the car door, and he is about to get in the car in the next second, so the phone call came in so coincidentally, and he was called away? Why didn’t he call for so many hours of the day, and why was it at that time?”

Myra felt wronged, “Then you should ask the third young master, the third young master is the person involved, I don’t know anything, you are looking for the wrong person.”

“Why, have you learned how to use Terry to suppress me now?” Cecilia looked at Myra and the trembling servants behind her, and couldn’t help but sneer, “Yes, you are amazing now, Isabella is on the list My sister is a big tree, and I don’t care about other people.”

“Miss Logan, I never thought of it this way, no matter in the eyes of Elder Mr. and Mrs., or in the eyes of us servants, you are always the miss of this family.”

“Which one of you thinks I’m a real lady?” Cecilia was so angry that she knocked off the flower in Myra’s hand.

The vase fell to the ground with a crisp sound. The little maids were frightened and hid behind Myra, not daring to lift their heads.

While Myra was terrified, she felt that today’s Miss Logan was inexplicable and too much.

Dissatisfaction is dissatisfaction, what do you do if you destroy her flowers?

This flower was prepared by her for Ms. Young...

Last time she had a cold for several days and felt uncomfortable all over. Ms. Young gave her a few pills, and she recovered within two days.

bought a bouquet of flowers for Ms. Young out of her own pocket today, and wanted to express her gratitude, but she was beaten to the ground by Miss Logan.

Miss Logan, calm down.” At this time, Scarlet stepped forward, pulled Cecilia over and said, “Some people are short-sighted and think that they are leaning against a big tree to enjoy the shade... Don’t get angry, whoever wins It’s not necessarily a negative.”

After she finished speaking, she looked at Myra, “Let’s see!”

“I’ll tell you why Miss Logan’s temperament changed drastically, and you were the one who instigated it behind your back.” Myra looked at Scarlet in front of her a little angrily, “Others lead the child to the right path, but you are the only one who led Miss Logan to the wrong place. You’re only ruining Miss Logan like this.”

“Obviously you bullied Miss Logan first, I haven’t said you yet! You must have tipped off Ms. Young and asked Ms. Young to call the third young master and temporarily call the third young master out. Your city is so Shen, wishful thinking is so loud, if you don’t guide Ms. Young on the right path, you still have the nerve to say that there is something wrong with my education, where do you have the face to say this?”

“Are you sick? The third young master temporarily releases Miss Logan’s pigeons. It must be because there are more important things to deal with than shopping...”

“Oh, you mean, going out with Ms. Young is more important than going out with Miss Logan? After all, in this family, Ms. Young is the most important one, you mean it!”

Williams and Eloise had gone to the dinner party tonight and were not at home, so Scarlet had a very aggressive quarrel.

The servants had never seen such a formation before, and they were so frightened that their courage almost broke.

“You are simply unreasonable!”

Chapter 465 One of the boss' strongholds

“Yes, Ms. Young's blood is indeed from the Logan Family, but don't be too happy. In the past eighteen years, the person who has been held in the hands of Elder Mr. and Mrs. is Miss Logan, Miss Logan is also the one who was hurt to the bone by the five brothers! I don't need to tell you how deep the relationship in the past eighteen years is, you know it in your own hearts!”

Scarlet supported Cecilia, and what she said was like a knife. piercing their hearts.

“With this deep affection, Miss Logan is more than enough to drive you out! If you dare to make small moves behind your back and dig a hole for Miss Logan in the future, you will never even think about staying in this house.”

“Whether you can stay in this house or not is not up to you alone.” After Myra finished speaking, she looked at Cecilia bitterly.

“Miss Logan, I have watched you grow up these years, and I know that your essence is not bad. You are eighteen years old. You must learn to distinguish between good and bad, and don't let your future get involved. Some people have vicious hearts. Don't let her lead you astray.”

After speaking, Myra knelt down and picked up the flowers on the ground.

She bought this flower for 300 USD, and now it has been desecrated and trampled, so she can't give it to Ms. Young again.

It's just a pity that such a beautiful flower, which could have brought Ms. Young a good mood, was destroyed by these two people.

"Take care of the pieces." When Myra left with the flowers, she did not forget to order the little maids behind her.

Unexpectedly, this approach stimulated Scarlet.

"Yo, I have learned how to control the people below. I am a servant. Those who don't know think you are the master of the house. Don't you just hug Ms. Young's leg and think that you are great? What are you doing in front of us? shelf!"

Myra didn't want to stay and talk nonsense with Scarlet, because when a scholar meets a soldier, it's hard to explain why.

She just pinned her hopes on Cecilia," Miss Logan, it was Ms. Young who nodded at the beginning, so you can stay in this family. If she is hostile to you, you can rely on Elder Mr. and Mrs. To her debt, let you move out directly, but she didn't do that."

Myra said conscientiously, "When Elder Mr. and Mrs. and a few older brothers were kind to you, Ms. Young didn't obstruct you, didn't do anything bad, and didn't say anything about you in front of them.."

Myra continued, " Ms. Young has been busy outside all day, maybe he needs the help of the third young master when he encounters some troublesome things, don't they all practice medicine? If life is at stake, then the third young master should put down the shopping first." There is nothing wrong with going to save people. Ms. Young's character is straightforward, she just says what she has, and there won't be so many twists and turns."

Seeing Cecilia's silence for a while, Myra felt that she had listened more or less, so she said, "Think about it yourself."

After Myra left, several little maids lowered their heads and cleaned the scene silently.

"Every one of them moves so slowly, I invite you to do foreign work?" Scarlet couldn't help reprimanding, "In the hearts of Elder Mr. and Mrs., Miss Logan is the most important one, everyone is short-sighted., I will have good fruits for you to eat in the future."

One of the little maids couldn't help but said, "Scarlet, all of us were watching Myra's flower arrangement over there just now, she really didn't use her mobile phone to contact Ms. Young, you misunderstood her."

"Still talking for her? I think you guys really want to leave here..."

The little maids were so frightened that they hurriedly packed up the pieces and left.

"These little things! They have to suffer a little bit another day, otherwise they don't know who is in charge of this family!"

Angrily, Scarlet took Cecilia's hand and went upstairs, cursing as she walked, "That old bastard Minglan still wants to mislead you, smear me in front of you, and let you distinguish between good and bad, bah, it's not obvious that I am A bad person! She advised Ms. Young herself, and she is still a good person!"

Cecilia patted Scarlet's hand, "Don't worry, I can tell the difference, but I don't know if there is something temporary on Terry's side. If it is really a matter of human life as Myra said, then I misunderstood Terry and Isabella.

"Miss Logan? Why have you been brainwashed by her? At this point, what is the most urgent matter that requires the third young master to go out? Well, even if it is a matter of life and death, the third young master can fully explain it to you Clearly, but he doesn't care about your feelings at all, just leave you behind and follow Ms. Young, this is somewhat inappropriate..."

"Terry said that he would go shopping with me another day, and he also said that I should find friends to accompany me first, buy more things I like, and ask him to reimburse me later."

After hearing this, Scarlet smiled coldly, "The third young master is really eccentric. He gave Ms. Young her unlimited black card and asked her to buy whatever she wanted. When it comes to you, I can only ask him to reimburse you for my purchases. I bought too much, how can I ask him for reimbursement? Don't you think so?"

Cecilia's eyes dimmed, yes, when she heard Terry say this, she did thump, her heart was cold.

She used to think that Terry was the fairest, but recently, she always felt that Terry was eccentric, just like the elder brother and the second brother, he seemed to only have Isabella in his heart.

"Miss Logan, let me go shopping with you! Anyway, that's what the third young master said, let's buy more and have some things with us, it's better than being penniless in the future." Scarlet urged, "Wait for me for a while, I'll Go change your clothes."

"But Scarlet, it's already half past eight..."

The mall closes at half past ten.

"Let's buy it hard, just pick the expensive one, don't care if you like it or not!"

Under Scarlet's meddling, Cecilia's originally unbalanced heart was completely shaken. In the end, she took Scarlet to the mall to scan the goods, and the two of them let go of buying and buying, regardless of the price.

the other side.

Isabella parked the car in front of Woods Villa.

The subordinates with weapons outside the gate saw the boss getting out of the car with a handsome man, and were a little puzzled, "Boss, this is..."

Peter noticed the movement here, came over immediately, and patted him on the back of the head, "What are you asking, this is the boss Terry! You haven't put away your weapon yet."

The men at the door immediately put away their guns and shouted in surprise, "Sir..."

Terry looked at the majestic big villa in front of him. The lawn just by the door is several thousand square meters. The key point is that many people are patrolling back and forth with weapons. The brightly lit big villa looks mysterious. Color, like some kind of sacred palace, does not allow outsiders to step in.

Terry didn't know why Peter in front of him knew his identity and called his sister "boss".

No wonder my sister said on the phone to take him to a place, but this place doesn't want people to know, so let him keep quiet.

With so many people holding weapons, they really can't make a fuss.

"Isabella, where is this?" Terry looked at the girl beside him.

"This is one of the base camps of our boss. There are many laboratories in it. There are many most advanced equipment and instruments outside the United States in the lab. Many of the world-sensational medical experiments of the boss. are done in it, just like the one in Africa last time. The popular SIR virus, the antidote is what our boss researched in it..."

Chapter 466 Interrogation

Isabella looked at Peter, who immediately shut up obediently.

“The antidote to the SIR in Africa was developed by Isabella ?”

Now it was Terry’s turn to be shocked. At that time, the virus was rampant in Africa, killing many people, and a few cases began to appear in the United States.

Just when people were panicking, the antidote came out. It was said that Professor Isabella from Bomsville University led a team to study it day and night.

Terry had noticed the news, and thought that Professor Isabella was very powerful, because no one in the world could figure out a way.

“Couldn’t you be Professor Isabella from Bomsville University?” Terry looked at the girl beside him in disbelief.

“Yes, yes, it is our boss! Our boss has completed all studies. at Bomsville University two years ago. The professors who taught her back then were ashamed of themselves and were willing to be called students. She is now a distinguished professor of Bomsville University. There are 66 influential figures, and our boss is one of them!”

Isabella looked at Peter again, “You can go down now.”

Peter immediately covered his mouth, expressing with his eyes that he would stop talking.

“Then why did you stay at the Medical University?” Terry asked as he followed the girl.

“That’s because the Principal Brown of the Medical University needs the cooperation of our boss to do the experiment...” After Peter finished speaking, he immediately covered his mouth, and once again expressed his sincerity that he would not speak.

Isabella :...

Terry didn't expect her sister to have so many identities. Her base camp, like her people, is full of mystery.

When Isabella led him into the side building, the two subordinates guarding the side building called out respectfully, "Boss."

Isabella nodded slightly.

If it's just an experiment here, why do you need so many people guarding it with weapons?

What are the identities of these people?

"Isabella, these people are..."

"The watchman." Peter seemed to say it, but he didn't seem to say it.

Isabella took Terry into the side building and came to the basement floor. There were several empty rooms with iron railings on the walls, a bit like a huge iron cage. There was no one inside, and the cold wind permeated.

When they passed by, the sound of footsteps echoed in the air, and the sensor lights lit up one by one, which was inexplicably creepy.

In the innermost room, the four people caught today were locked up. They were still in a coma and fell into a ball of unconsciousness.

“Is it because they have something to do with Nora ‘s disappearance?” Terry’s whole heart was in suspense.

“Um.”

As soon as Isabella finished speaking, someone moved two chairs. She sat down and said softly, “ Terry, sit.”

After Terry sat down, Isabella ordered the subordinates on the side, “Wake them up.

“Yes!” Peter pressed one of the switches on the wall, and immediately ice water poured down from the ceiling in the iron cage, like a heavy rainstorm.

At the same time, a transparent baffle is raised on the ground, which well blocks the splashed water droplets.

Isabella and Terry are still clean, not a drop of water.

The four people in the cage were all drowned. They woke up from the biting cold and found that they were not only tied together, but even their hoods had been taken off.

The transparent baffle retracted into the ground again, and Terry couldn’t help asking, “Who are you? Why do you say Nora is a traitor? Where did Nora go?”

In the car just now, my sister briefly told him what happened. He felt that Nora ‘s disappearance was not simple.

“What do you know, tell me!”

Everything related to Nora made Terry unable to calm down.

A subordinate went into the iron room and took the rag out of one of the men's mouths. Seeing that the man was about to bite his tongue to kill himself, he immediately stuffed the rag into his mouth and beat him several times.

"Playing with me? Boss, let me see, just take off their clothes and see if there are any gang tattoos on their bodies."

Strip clothes??

The eyes of the four people were obviously wide open. They could be killed but not humiliated. Let the four of them be naked and see each other. It would be better to torture them.

"Go ahead." Isabella got up and put her hand on Terry's shoulder, "I'll go out for a while, if you want to know something later, just ask."

After Isabella left the basement, the phone vibrated again, and she saw that it was Benjamin calling.

Busy busy, forget him...

Isabella slid across the screen to answer, and Benjamin's voice came from the other end," Isabella, haven't you come home yet?"

It's nine o'clock at night.

"Soon."

“What have you been up to all day?”

“Just... take care of something.” Isabella said softly, “Just went out with Terry.”

“What did you and Terry do?”

Isabella couldn't say how many people she had caught, it was related to Terry's missing girlfriend.

Benjamin would be pissed if she knew she had put herself at risk and fought with a few men with guns.

“Just... stay with Terry.”

“Then what are you busy with today?”

Don't answer the phone calls, just reply one or two messages.

“There is a small task to complete.”

Helping Terry find a girlfriend is also a task?!

“Is it dangerous?”

“It's not dangerous, it's simple.” Isabella added, “It just took a while.”

“It takes a lot of time.”

He disappeared for a day. If he hadn't heard from her, he would have sent someone to find her whereabouts.

"Is it done?" Benjamin asked again concerned.

"Well, it's done."

Just wait for those few people to confess, and there will be clues later.

"Are you hungry? Have you eaten tonight?"

After asking this question, Isabella remembered that she hadn't eaten dinner yet, and she had been lying in ambush at Nora 's house for a long time in order to catch those people.

In order not to worry Benjamin, Isabella lied, "I've eaten."

"I'll send some supper over in a while, you and Terry, as well as your uncle and aunt." Benjamin asked softly again, "Anything you want to eat? BBQ? Coffee? Or?"

"I'm not hungry, I don't want to eat."

Isabella didn't know how long she would be busy for a while, so in order not to let him wait in vain, she said, "I'll go to bed when I get home and take a shower, and you go to bed early too, see you tomorrow."

Hearing the last three words, Benjamin 's eyes softened, "Okay, see you tomorrow."

The little girl must have been tired all day, so it didn't seem too good for him to disturb her rest.

See you tomorrow. See you tomorrow.

As long as I can meet...

"Then go home early and don't play outside for too long." Benjamin said again, "Send me a message when you get home later."

"good."

Seeing that Benjamin didn't ask too many questions, Isabella breathed a sigh of relief and hung up the phone.

After a while, Terry walked out of the side building, and Isabella was a little surprised, "Did you get the result?"

"They refused to say a word." Terry was in a depressed mood." Peter stripped off their clothes, and they didn't have gang tattoos on them. I don't know who they are from."

"Don't worry, Peter will find a way."

Terry looked at the big lawn in front of him, his eyes lowered, " Isabella, tell me, where is Nora now?"

"Hard to say."

Chapter 467 Things Are Getting More Complicated

"It's been a year." Terry blamed himself, "I actually waited until a year later to find out that she was in danger... How did you find out? I have also been to Road, but the villagers there avoid the matter of Nora If you don't talk about it, you'll either just ask questions, or just turn your head and leave... How did you find out from them that things are not simple?"

"I bought a cup of coffee at her neighbor's breakfast shop and sat and listened to them gossip."

Terry :???

That's it?

Can you find clues from it??

"They are from the same village. If an outsider suddenly inquires about Nora 's whereabouts, they will definitely be alert and conceal the truth. But if people from the same village gossip together, it will be different."

Terry laughed at himself, "I even went to her home and asked her parents very abruptly..."

At that time, he was really going crazy, and he couldn't find Nora all over the world, so he had to have the cheek to ask the villagers, find their parents, and visit them again and again.

Things Are Getting Mr Complicated

Her parents had always said that they couldn't contact their daughter, and Terry thought they were lying.

He thought Nora fell in love with someone else, and her parents didn't want him to pester her anymore, so they lied to him.

"It seems that her parents should not know about it, but I'm not sure. We'll wait for the results of the investigation to come out."

"How did she live this year?" Terry said to himself again, "Why did those people say she was a traitor, what kind of incident did she get involved in, is she safe now?"

Terry, don't worry too much." Isabella comforted softly, "Those people also want to find out about Nora's whereabouts, which means that Nora hasn't shown up yet, and she should be hiding."

"Where will she be hiding..." Terry's heart ached when he thought that Nora would likely spend this year in extreme danger and fear.

It's all his negligence!

He believed Nora's words, thinking that she really liked someone else...

"Nora told you that she fell in love with someone else, and at the same time told her adoptive parents that she found her biological parents and then completely disappeared in your world. I think that these two things she said are not true. Yes, she should have had to leave for some reason, or possibly, was captured by other forces."

Things Are Getting More Cramplicated

When Terry heard it, he didn't know whether to be happy or sad.

Happily, there's a chance that Nora really didn't leave him because she liked someone else.

The sad thing is that there is no whereabouts of her now, and she is very likely to be involved in some terrible incident, and she cannot escape safely for the time being.

At this moment, Peter came out from the side building, followed by several subordinates.

They were all wet and stained with a lot of blood. It could be seen that they had exerted a lot of force just now.

"Boss, those hard bones refused to reveal a single word, and I have only one breath left, and if I continue to fight, I will die." Peter came to Isabella and reported, "I will give you the life extension needle you researched earlier., give each person an injection, and when they wake up tomorrow, I will continue the interrogation.”

“Well.” Isabella ordered, “You take Terry inside to rest for a while, ask someone to pour some coffee and some food, and I’ll go to the laboratory.”

Isabella took out two transparent small bags from her bag, each containing a cotton swab, and there seemed to be something on the cotton swab head.

Terry asked puzzled, “What is this?”

“I went to Nora ‘s house and sprayed Tony spray on the living room and yard, and it fluoresced.”

“You mean, someone was injured? Is it serious?” Terry naturally knew what Tony was, and his heart beat hard.

“I’m not sure whose blood it is for the time being. I’ll have to do a test to find out.” Isabella explained, “ I sprayed the spray, used a cotton swab to dip the dirt and dust on the fluorescent surface, and the results will be available in a while. Hair strands were found in her parents’ room, and there were nails cut by someone in the corner and under the sofa, and I collected them all.”

Fingernails and hair can extract DNA, but too much time has passed to be successful.

After the blood test results come out, and then compare their DNA, you can know whether it is their blood.

If it was their blood, it means that they were injured at home before, the living room was the first scene of the crime, and then they were transferred to the yard, which was the second scene.

but if not...

Terry 's heart was tightly clenched, how did Nora 's parents get involved, how much behind this matter did they not know?

“Oh, by the way, boss, these are the hairs of those people inside.” Peter handed Isabella several transparent small bags, which still had some blood stains inside.

“How much money have you made?” Isabella took the small bag, blood and hair, DNA can be detected.

Things Are Getting More Complicated

The blood in Nora's living room and yard may also be from the four people inside...

Isabella took out another transparent small bag from her backpack. There was only a little powder in it. If you didn't look carefully, you might think it was an empty bag.

“What's this?” Terry asked again.

“This was found in a vitamin C bottle in Nora 's room.”

Peter on the side was a little puzzled, “Isn't vitamin C in pieces? Why is it in powder form?”

“This is not vitamin C.” Isabella said this, and looked at Terry again, “One of the ingredients in this powder is camellia.”

camellia ?

Now, Terry couldn't calm down anymore, his heart seemed to be clenched tightly, and he was suffocating with pain.

“What is camellia ?” Peter has been with the boss for many years and has never heard of this thing, but judging from Sir ‘s reaction, it seems that it is not a good thing.

Terry knew that camellia was a potent poison, “You mean, Nora took the poison? People... are probably gone??”

“Not necessarily.” Isabella said softly, “ Camellia can also be used as medicine, mainly depends on the other ingredients, Terry, don’t worry too much, Peter, you take Terry to the rest meeting, I will go to the laboratory first.”

“Yes.” Peter gestured, “ Sir, this way please.”

Terry didn’t know how he got into the main building. The place is magnificent, whether it’s decoration or decoration, it’s no worse than Riverside Villa, but he’s not in the mood to look at the surrounding environment now, and he’s thinking about what his sister said in his mind.

Peter changed his clothes and came out with a lot of food and drink in hand.

“Sir, let’s eat something first, or you can drink some coffee, let me tell you, this coffee leaf is usually only drunk by our boss, and no one else can drink it...”

Peter smelled the aroma of coffee in the air, it was so fragrant.

Chapter 468

Terry sat on the sofa, his whole body seemed to fall into an abyss. If Isabella hadn’t intervened in this matter, he still wouldn’t know that Nora was involved in danger.

Behind this incident, how much truth is waiting for them to discover.

“Sir, take a sip?” Peter held the cup in front of him, and said sincerely, “It’s not an option for you to think about it by yourself now. After the test results come out, everything will be revealed.”

“No, it’s not that simple.” Terry always felt that he dragged Isabella into a fog, and couldn’t see the direction everywhere, and the correct exit seemed to be far away from them.

“Sir, why didn’t I realize that you are a pessimistic person before?” Peter still handed the cup one step forward.

After Terry took it, he was not in the mood to drink it, “It’s not pessimistic.”

It’s all the things that happened, all the evidence, that doesn’t allow him to be optimistic.

Where the hell is Nora now, is it safe or not, no one can tell him.

“Don’t worry, with our boss here, there is nothing in the world that cannot be found out.” Peter picked up the water on the table, unscrewed the bottle cap, and happily drank half of the bottle.

“How did Isabella know that this group of people would go to Nora’s house today...” Terry’s gaze fell to Peter.

“You don’t know this, the boss is at Nora’s house, ah no, at Mrs. Sir, Mrs. Sir’s house found several cameras and bugs, the boss removed them all, those who installed the cameras and bugs Don’t be in a hurry to send someone over to take a look.”

“So, Isabella was lying there alone...”

Terry suddenly felt that his sister was so stupid that he put himself in danger alone, just to investigate the truth for him.

“This silly girl, knowing that those people will come after you remove the camera and bug, but she still uses herself as a bait...”

Nor find a helper!

As an older brother, he was moved, guilty, and uneasy, what if he was in danger?

“Don’t worry, our boss’s skills, there are not many people in the world who can match her. If we go, it will be trouble for the boss.”

Peter picked up the snacks on the table again, and after eating a few, he continued, “Besides, the boss has made a perfect plan. She installed the surveillance camera and took a picture of the scene of fighting with them. She plans to come back to study their skills. Aromatherapy.

Peter said vividly, “Let me tell you that the aromatherapy is powerful. Anyone who smells it will faint within five minutes. Ordinary people are different, better than ordinary people! One even slipped away after getting scented!”

“You said that Isabella installed a surveillance camera and filmed the fight with them?” Terry said immediately, “Where is the surveillance camera, let me see.”

“This...you should get it from the boss.” Peter was a little timid.

If the boss knew about this, and he privately sent the surveillance to Sir, her neck would have been broken.

“You said it all. Isabella fought against them. I don’t know if she was injured during the process. She is afraid that I will worry about self-blame, so she will definitely not send me the surveillance.”

Sir, the main reason is that I don't have that fate..."

If he was destined to speak, he would have known everything without saying anything.

"You just said that they are very skilled, so Isabella's skill is better than theirs?" Terry asked again.

This point, Peter did not hide it, nodded, "Our boss is indeed very skilled, and it is easy to deal with a few young men."

"Who taught her? This skill." Terry was surprised that a teenage girl could catch four strong men.

"This... you should go back and ask the boss!"

Seeing that Peter refused to disclose many things, Terry could only say, "Okay, then add WhatsApp."

"Okay." Seeing that Sir didn't pursue the question further, Peter happily showed his QR code.

After Terry added him as a friend, he sent him a greeting animation.

Peter clicked on it and said, "Fucking Sir, it turns out that you are so kind... This girl's figure is really hot."

The picture is a moving picture of a sexy woman winking and blowing kisses, pure and lustful, Peter watched with gusto.

And Terry has already hacked into his mobile phone and stole the surveillance images.

Nora's house with lightning speed, and then his sister locked the door and faced them alone.

"Nora? You traitor, you finally showed up."

“Today is your day of death.”

They mistook their sister for Nora and wanted to put her to death, and their tricks were vicious and ruthless.

Terry ‘s heart twitched violently, this silly girl faced danger by herself, what if something happened!

“Aren’t you Nora ?”

“Who are you?”

Seeing them holding knives and guns, trying to kill the girl, Terry ‘s heart fluttered. Fortunately, his sister’s skill was higher than them, otherwise the consequences would be disastrous...

So many bullets flew towards my sister, but my sister avoided it perfectly, and even fought back!

Terry was shocked by this skill and reflexes.

This group of people may realize that they have no chance of winning and are planning to leave. One of the men dropped a smoke bomb. In the thick smoke, the younger sister could still hear the sound and identify the position. People are tied up one by one.

“Can you tell which organization they are from?” Terry asked Peter next to him.

Peter was still looking at the beauties, almost drooling, he came back to his senses, saw Terry ‘s phone screen, and was startled, “Damn it, why did you have this video? You, you, you invaded me Cell phone? No way? When?”

“Don’t worry, I only extracted this one video.”

He didn't watch any of the other things he shouldn't have seen.

"Are you a hacker too?" Peter suddenly realized, "You Logan Family members, why are you so capable..."

Careless!

Oversight!

He didn't realize that this beautiful GIF had a virus!

"The person who left, I don't know if he will go back and report, and whether Isabella's situation will be very dangerous..." Terry worried, "You must protect her in private."

Of course, as an older brother, he would always be by his sister's side and not let her get hurt in the slightest.

"Don't look at the hail of bullets in the video. It's very dangerous. Let me tell you, it's no problem for the boss to deal with this drizzle. You didn't see it before. Those dozens of guns were aimed at our boss, and our boss could escape..."

"What do you mean?" Terry seemed to realize something, 'What did Isabella go through before?"

"No, I'm talking nonsense..." Peter wanted to slap himself twice, why is his mouth so owed!

"What the hell is going on, why are there dozens of guns pointed at Isabella? Isabella messed with gangsters? Or?" Terry was really anxious and wanted to know why.

Chapter 469 Confused

“Sir, just pretend you didn’t hear... Please, please!” Peter clasped his hands together and kept begging, “What do you want to know, ask our boss when the time is right, don’t say I revealed it at this time Yes! Or I’m doomed!”

Terry didn’t want to embarrass him, but said, “Tell me, I will keep it a secret, and I won’t reveal a word to Isabella.”

“Sir, there are some things that even Benjamin doesn’t know...Hold your hands high and pretend to be deaf and dumb! Please.”

If the boss knows that he is owed again, he must be transferred to LA, then he will not be able to protect the boss all the time!

The group of people under him are so weak, at this critical moment, he must personally protect the boss before he can rest assured.

Just then, Isabella appeared, “What are you talking about?”

Seeing what Peter was begging with folded hands, Isabella was a little puzzled, “What are you begging me for Terry?”

“Boss, you are here...” Peter felt that he was finished, and he lied quickly, “Just... Sir wants to introduce someone to me, just this beauty...”

He took out the moving picture just now and flicked it, “I don’t want Sir to give me a contact information...”

“...” Isabella was a little speechless, she was still thinking about such things at such a time, she said coldly, “Go aside.”

“Yes yes yes...” Peter secretly heaved a sigh of relief, fortunately the boss had no doubts.

“The comparison results came out. The bloodstains in the living room and yard match those of Mr. Scott and his wife.”

As soon as Isabella finished speaking, Terry ‘s attention shifted instantly, “You mean, Nora ‘s parents were injured?”

“Well.” Isabella explained, “A village woman said before that one day a few months ago, at about two or three o’clock in the morning, a group of people went to Nora ‘s house, and they were still walking in the yard in the rain. Back and forth, I think, they were looking for Nora ‘s whereabouts at that time, and accidentally alarmed her parents, and her parents were injured during the dispute.”

Isabella paused, then continued to analyze, “The village woman said that the door of Mr. Scott ‘s house had not been opened for four or five days after the group of people appeared, and the blood stains seemed to have occurred in the living room. It was moved to the yard again, so I guess, in those few days, the injured Mr. Scott and his wife may have been taken away by that group, and it is not clear where they went or what they did.”

According to the words of the village woman, Mr. and Mrs. Scott came back after four or five days, and went out to find Nora not long after they came back.

Therefore, their disappearance that night is also the key to solving the puzzle.

“Has the powder been detected?” Terry looked at his sister with a heavy heart.

My sister just said that one of the ingredients of the powder is camellia, which is highly toxic...

“In addition to camellia, there are 16 other herbs, each of which contains toxicity.”

“Then what about putting it together?”

“It’s more toxic.” Isabella said softly, “Just now, one of the mice in the laboratory died. After taking it, it died -immediately.”

There is no time for rescue...

Terry ‘s heart throbbed, “You mean, Nora may have taken poison...”

She disappeared for a year because she was forced to take poison and was thrown away?

Therefore, all forces could not find her...

Because, she is no longer in this world...?

Thinking of this, Terry ‘s heart ached to the point of suffocation.

“Not necessarily.” Isabella analyzed, “What if she gave this medicine to someone else?”

“What do you mean?” Terry didn’t understand.

“You see so many people are looking for her. She may have taken this medicine for self-preservation. In order not to be discovered by others, it was packed in a vitamin C bottle. The bottle looks very old. It should be used well. It’s been a long time.”

“Boss, according to what you said, how many people will Mrs. Sir have to poison with this medicine...”

Isabella gave him a look, and Peter immediately shut up obediently.

“Nora’s hands are weak, it’s possible that this medicine is really for self-preservation...”

Besides drugging, does she have other ways to protect herself?

She is so weak, she shouldn't have...

"Not necessarily." Isabella overturned his guess again, "Didn't the four inside say that Nora is a traitor, if Nora is also one of them, then her skills are likely to be similar to theirs."

have nothing to do with "weak hands" ...

But whether he has any skills or not, and whether his skills are good or not, we have to continue to investigate to find out.

"No, it's impossible..." Terry recalled every detail of getting along with Nora before, but he couldn't tell that she was a skilled person at all, and she was probably afraid of cockroaches...

"I can only continue to check." Isabella checked the time, "Terry, it's getting late, it's almost eleven o'clock, let's go home first."

Too late and the parents will worry.

"My parents have called me a few times just now, I don't know if they have called you."

Terry took out his phone and looked, there wasn't a single call...

"It's no use worrying now, let's go."

Seeing that his sister was tired all day, Terry didn't want to bother her anymore, so he nodded and drove her home.

On the way, Terry heard his sister's stomach rumbling.

What did he realize," Isabella, are you hungry? Have you had dinner yet?"

"Eat." Isabella lied.

There was a gurgling sound from her stomach again, Terry glanced at her, "Still lying to me."

"Did you not eat all day just to catch those people?"

"Yes, I have eaten at noon."

"That's because I didn't eat at night." Terry felt even more guilty, "You girl, Terry will feel bad for you, no matter what you do, you have to take care of your body first."

"I'm not hungry."

As soon as Isabella finished speaking, there was another gurgling protest from her stomach.

Terry was distressed and funny, "What do you want to eat? Terry is hungry too, shall we buy some supper and eat at home?"

"Okay." Isabella thought for a while and blurted out, "Just order coffee."

In the evening, don't eat things that get angry.

There are other things to be busy with... It will be bad if you eat a bad stomach.

"Okay, Terry knows that there is a coffee shop that is super delicious and specializes in late-night snacks. We will buy more to take home later."

“good.”

Riverside Villa.

Cecilia checked the time, it was half past eleven, why Terry hasn't come back yet!

There was no movement downstairs. She sat in front of the dressing table, waiting, wondering where Terry and Isabella went! Why haven't you come back for so long.

She didn't look out the window until the sound of a sports car came from outside the villa, and it turned out to be Terry 's car!

Terry is finally back!

Hmph, this Isabella has occupied Terry so late, is she afraid. that Terry will still have time to accompany her when she comes back too early...

Chapter 470 I See You Delicious

“Baby girl, you're back, where did Terry abduct you again!”

Eloise, who was sitting on the sofa, saw Isabella coming home, so she quickly got up and walked towards her.

I called her and sent her a message just now, but it took a long time for her to answer or reply. Eloise thought something happened to her and was a little flustered.

“I went out with Terry and didn't look at my phone for a while.” Isabella explained softly.

“It’s fine, it’s fine...” Eloise slapped Terry again’ when she said this, ” Terry, I’m not talking about you, what time is it! Why are you taking my sister to play so late! You are going crazy by yourself It’s fine to play, my sister is a girl, you should go to bed early, it’s good for your skin, can you have a sense of time?”

“I told Terry to go out.” Isabella defended again, “It’s none of Terry’s business.”

“Look, in order to cultivate a relationship with your brother, my sister took the initiative to ask you to go out to play, and even spoke for you. Where can I find such a good sister! You must treat my sister better in the future!”

Terry held the supper in both hands and smiled, “Understood Mom, I bought the supper, let’s have some together.”

“Don’t eat, I recently practiced yoga with Benjamin’s mother to lose weight...”

“Then I want to share the joys and sorrows with my wife, you two can eat...” Williams helped Eloise upstairs, not forgetting to enlighten, “The children go out to play, buy some supper, don’t be too nervous... Let’s go Go upstairs to rest.”

“My eyelids kept twitching just now, I really thought something happened to them...”

Terry came to the dining area of the kitchen with the supper, and the servants put all these things on the table, a total of 11 large discs were placed.

Cecilia waited upstairs for a while, seeing that Terry didn’t look for her, she went downstairs to look for her, and found them eating in the dining area.

At this time, Terry was holding a shrimp for Isabella, and he was still muttering, “Eat more...”

“Terry, Sister Isabella, are you back?” Cecilia hid the dissatisfaction in her heart, and smiled brightly, “There are so many delicious food, do you have a share?”

“Cecilia ? Come, come and eat something, Terry bought a lot.” Terry got up and opened the chair for her and brought the tableware.

Cecilia took a sneak peek at Isabella, huh, it’s fine to snatch Terry away, but also deliberately bought some “trophies” to show off? Scheming girl!

“Cecilia, eat more.” Terry picked up a few dumplings for Cecilia, and then looked at Isabella, “How is it, is it okay?”

Isabella nodded, “Not bad.”

The prawns are smooth and fresh, and they taste delicious.

“Then you eat more.” Terry put a few more in her bowl, remembering that this silly girl was hungry from noon until night in order to catch those guys today, he couldn’t help but feel distressed.

“These are good too, try them.” Terry added a few more to -her bowl.

Dissatisfaction flashed across Cecilia ‘s eyes. Just now Terry only picked up four dumplings of different flavors for her, but he picked up seven dumplings for Isabella!

“Terry, eat it while it’s hot.” Isabella cared.

Terry isn’t hungry, it’s you...” Feeling sorry, Terry picked up a fork and put a piece of sausage into her bowl. Seeing that the beef sausage looked good, he took another piece for her, lest she would not be full.

This silly girl was obviously hungry, but she soaked in the laboratory for several hours. If she didn't hear the sound of gurgling from her stomach, would this silly girl plan to not eat tonight?

"Terry, this is for you." Isabella picked up the serving chopsticks and held one for Terry.

While Terry was moved, he felt even more guilty, "Silly girl, eat more, Terry is not hungry."

Isabella was eating, and suddenly remembered that she forgot to call Benjamin to report his safety. She took out her mobile phone and sent Benjamin a message.

"I'm home, go to bed early, good night."

Within two seconds, Benjamin replied, "Going to sleep?"

"Um."

"I see that you eat very well."

Isabella raised her eyes when she saw this sentence, "Terry, did you tell Benjamin that we were having supper?"

"Well, he asked if we were home, so I said yes, eating supper."

"You still sent my photo?"

"Yeah." Terry showed it to her, "Look how cute you are full of food."

“You lied to me about going to bed in order to have supper with Terry?” Benjamin sent a hurt expression.

“...” Isabella could only reply, “After eating and taking a shower, I will go to bed right away.”

“Are you tired today?”

“Well, kind of.”

Cecilia saw Isabella typing all the time, heh, that posture, for fear that others would not know that her chat partner was Benjamin!

I don't know what I'm showing off!

And deliberately said Benjamin 's name, and almost beat the drums to tell the world that she was chatting with Benjamin!

After a while, Isabella got up first after finishing her supper and said, “I'm full.”

Cecilia thought she finally had the chance to stay and be alone with Terry, her eyes lit up, she was not happy yet.

“Isabella, wait...” Terry hadn't finished eating yet. Seeing his sister get up, he also stood up quickly, “I finished eating too, I'll take you up.”

Isabella was a little puzzled.

Cecilia didn't expect Terry to stick to Isabella so tightly, and she suddenly became upset!

“I forgot to ask you a question just now.” After Terry walked out of the dining area, seeing no one around, he whispered, “You said that your skills were taught by those grandpas. Are those grandpas from various industries? Outstanding?”

“Hmm.” Isabella nodded, not understanding why Terry asked this question suddenly.

“Then your skills were also taught by one of the grandfathers?”

Isabella immediately realized, “Did Peter tell you something?”

“No, he didn’t say anything. I hacked into his phone and saw the video of you fighting with those people.

Isabella understood, sure enough, that big mouth must have said about her installing surveillance at Nora’s home, otherwise, how would Terry know that there was surveillance video in his mobile phone, and even invaded to watch it?

Thinking about it this way, the beautiful GIF that Terry sent to Peter was not an introduction to Peter, but a virus...

In order to hack into the mobile phone...

“Isabella, when did your gang start?” Terry asked again.

Peter also said about gangs?

Isabella just wants to wring his head off now...

“Peter really didn’t say anything. I saw those people calling you boss...all of them were holding weapons...” Terry couldn’t help asking, “Terry didn’t want to ask about your past, but just wanted to know if you are safe now. Safe, do you need more people to protect you?”

“No.” Isabella raised a faint smile, “Don’t worry, Terry, I’m fine now.”

“Then what does your gang do?”

“Just...protect some weak people, and protect some medicinal materials by the way.”
