

Chased Her 471

Chapter 471 Was Bought

After all, in LA, she has a priceless mountain of medicine...

There are many precious medicinal herbs on that mountain, which cannot be bought with money in the market.

"That's it?" Terry was dubious.

"Yeah." Isabella nodded, her small face was full of sincerity, "That's it."

Terry heaved a sigh of relief, "Then, can you tell which gang they are from tonight's skills?"

Isabella shook her head and said truthfully, "I can't tell."

Each of their moves is vicious and deadly, and it is temporarily impossible to see why.

Terry nodded, "You have this skill, Terry is very happy, at least in times of danger, you can protect yourself, but... today you risk yourself and use yourself as bait, you know Terry saw them pull out their guns At that moment, I was so anxious that I had to tell Terry first if anything happened in the future, although Terry is not as good as you, at least he can arrange more people to help you."

Arranging more people will only scare the snake, and may even become her burden.

Isabella knew that Terry 's intentions were good and she felt sorry for her, so she nodded and said obediently, "I see,

Terry."

“You’re tired enough today, go to bed early.” Terry patted her on the head.

Terry should go to bed early too, don’t sit on the balcony alone until dawn.”

When Terry heard it, he didn’t expect his sister to know about his staying up all night. He was moved and said, “Okay, Terry promises you.”

Isabella went back to her room to take a shower, deal with some personal matters, and went to bed at one o’clock in the morning.

Early the next morning, she went downstairs to have breakfast, and suddenly found that several servants looked at her with a little hesitation.

It was as if something had happened that she didn’t know about.

“What’s wrong?” Isabella asked quietly.

“without...”

“Tell me.” Isabella put down the fork and leaned back, full of the aura of a big boss.

One of the servants said timidly, “Just... Ms. Young called last night and called the third young master out. This incident angered Miss Logan, and Miss Logan lost her temper a lot.”

Isabella was a little confused and raised her eyebrows, “I’m looking for Terry, what’s her business?”

“The third young master originally promised her that he would go shopping with her...Everyone has gone to the garage, and the next second their buttocks will be in the car. At that time, Ms. Young called third young master, third young master I left in a hurry...”

“Isabella didn’t expect it to be such a coincidence. Seeing the disturbed looks of the servants, she asked softly, “Did she embarrass you?”

“No, it was to embarrass Myra, she thought it was Myra who tipped you off...”

“Miss Logan also threw the flowers Myra gave you on the ground, and the vase was broken...”

Isabella caught the point, “Send me flowers?”

“Yes, Myra said that she had a cold for many days before, and she got better because you gave her two pills, so she kept thinking about this kindness. She was on vacation that day, and when she went shopping, she passed a flower shop and took flowers. I bought you a bouquet of flowers for 300 USD, and after returning home, I asked us a lot of opinions, and finally put the flowers in place, and I was going to take them to your room...but Miss Logan stopped me.”

Isabella understood, “Where is Cecilia now?”

“Ms. Young, please don’t trouble Miss Logan, Miss Logan will definitely find out that we are the ones who gossip...”

“She was going to drive us away...”

“Ms. Young, please don’t go to her, please...”

The servants were terrified and hurriedly begged around Isabella.

“Don’t worry, I have a sense of proportion, and I won’t implicate you.”

Isabella left after breakfast, and several servants were worried, lest they lose their jobs.

Isabella first found Myra, and handed over a small bottle, Myra, I see that you are not looking well recently, this will replenish your energy and blood, one tablet a week.”

“Ms. Young? Your medicine must be very expensive...I can’t take it!” Myra knew that she was skilled in medicine, so she gave all good things.

“Here, you’re welcome.” Isabella put it in her hand, didn’t say anything about the flowers, or Cecilia, but said, “If you have any problems at home, you can come to me and I’ll take care of it.”

“Ms. Young...” Myra wondered if Ms. Young knew something.

But Isabella changed the subject again, “Are Mom and Dad awake?”

“not yet...”

“Where’s Terry?”

“Still in the room.”

Isabella nodded, “Don’t be too tired at ordinary times, if you feel uncomfortable, take time off and rest, don’t carry it hard.”

“Thank you Ms. Young for your concern...”

After Isabella left, Myra was still in a daze. Several servants around saw her and hurried over.

Myra, did Ms. Young give you something nice again?”

“If you eat this, will your skin turn rosy?”

"I always get acne. Last time I had the cheek to ask Ms. Young to look it up for me. She gave me a small bottle of effervescent tablets. I only took it for a few days, and the acne marks on my face disappeared..."

"I'm not in good health. Sometimes I squat to work and feel dizzy when I stand up again. Ms. Young gave me a dozen flower coffee bags to soak in water, and now I don't have this symptom anymore.

"I don't know how to dress. I saw Ms. Young's rustling clothes every day. They looked good, so I went to ask her for advice. As a result, she taught me some color combinations and gave me some QY clothes. QY! She just Send it to me then!"

Several servants talked about Isabella all the time.

Ms. Young is really the lady with the best temper I have ever seen!"

"The main reason is that she doesn't pretend, and she goes straight to everything, unlike some people who beat around the bush, with an elegant smile on the surface, but an extremely dark heart."

"I like Ms. Young because it's comfortable to get along with her..."

Cecilia, who was about to go downstairs, heard this, and unconsciously clenched her hands into fists. This damned. Isabella is quite good at buying people's hearts!

"I just said, why do some people not take you seriously, Miss Logan? It turns out that you were bought!" Scarlet helped Cecilia go downstairs, and said sarcastically, "Miss Logan, it's you If you don't pay, you will be tripped up..."

"Ms. Young didn't buy us off..."

"We went to ask Ms. Young for advice..."

The servants were a little panicked.

But Scarlet didn’t listen to their explanations, and instead said, “Listen, everyone is talking for her...she got some cheap gadgets and managed to bribe you, no wonder you said it’s comfortable to get along with her...sent a gift Some people have a good temper, Miss Logan, you didn’t send it, some people insinuated that you have a dark heart...”

The servants panicked even more, “No, we didn’t mean that...”

“Okay, it’s all over, let’s go to work.” After Myra finished speaking, several servants gave her a grateful look, and hurried down.

Chapter 472 Let’s see who dares to fight

Scarlet’s eyes fell on Myra, and then looked at the small bottle in her hand, and said contemptuously, “It’s really stingy, we Miss Logan are too embarrassed to take out such a small thing, it’s good for you, each of you is a treasure.”

“Yes, even if Ms. Young gave me a piece of grass, I would be happy! I will take it as a treasure!” Myra was touched by Ms. Young’s behavior today, and she was full of confidence, “If you are not happy, go to Elder Mr.. and Mrs. complain to me!”

Scarlet’s face darkened, and she was suddenly a little annoyed.

“Ms. Young saw that I was not looking good, so she kindly gave me a bottle of medicine, but you couldn’t see it, and thought I was bought, and wanted to kick me out of the Logan Family! Go talk! See Elder Mr. and Mrs. Ignore you.”

Scarlet didn’t expect Ming Lan to become sharp-tongued today, “It seems that someone is backing her up, and she has enough confidence.”

“Yeah, I have Ms. Young backing me, what’s the matter? Don’t accept it? Go find her!” Ming Lan looked at Scarlet again, “Miss Logan has given you many things these years, right? It’s only been accepted twice! If you want to pack up and leave, then you’re the first to get out! What else can you do besides bullying others, an old bastard?”

“Myra, don’t go too far. Scarlet is my half mother. She grew up with me, just like my relatives. Please apologize to her immediately!”

With Cecilia at her back, Scarlet straightened up, looking at Myra with her nostrils turned.

“I didn’t do anything wrong, why should I apologize?”

“All of you don’t take me seriously now? Okay, I’m very dissatisfied with your service attitude now, please leave this house immediately, parents, I will explain the situation, please clean up immediately Things go away!”

When Myra heard this, she became even angrier, “The people who pay me are Elder Mr. and Mrs. Unless they let me go, no one will let me step out of this house!”

“You...” Cecilia was obviously annoyed, this servant is too crazy!

“You bitch, how dare you disrespect Miss Logan! Gill, Toni, what are you still doing, why don’t you catch her!”

Scarlet rolled up his sleeves and walked towards Myra, “Today, I will teach you a lesson for Miss Logan, you ignorant old bastard!”

Gill and Toni belonged to Scarlet, they reacted, and immediately grabbed Myra 's hand, Myra couldn't break free, and raised her angry eyes.

"It's all lawless? Elder Mr. and Mrs. are still there, even if you want to teach me a lesson, it's not up to you guys to teach me a lesson!"

Scarlet raised his hand, about to slap her.

"I'll see who dares to fight."

A cold voice came from behind the crowd, and everyone followed the reputation, only to see Isabella came back from the garden with a cold face, Gill and Toni were a little scared, forced by Isabella 's aura, silently let go of Myra.

"Ms. Young came just in time." Scarlet saw Isabella, instead of being afraid, she was a little domineering, "This old bastard bullies your sister, as a sister, shouldn't you show it?"

"It's your turn to teach me how to do things in this family?" Isabella didn't even look at her, "Go aside."

"Scarlet was suddenly ashamed and indignant.

Myra, you go first."

As soon as Isabella's voice fell, Cecilia said, "No, sister, she can't go, she spoke rudely to Scarlet today and contradicted me, if I just let her go, wouldn't all the servants be able to ride on me and Scarlet in the future superior?!"

Isabella looked into her eyes and mocked coldly, "The Scarlet you're talking about has also made insulting remarks more than once. The last video is still with me. Am I right... I want to let her too?"

Cecilia's complexion was not good, and she suddenly remembered the last time, when Scarlet unscrewed the lid of the cooking oil and spilled the oil on purpose, trying to make Isabella fall down, but Isabella called in the monitoring of the sky eye...

At that time, Isabella said that if she dared to make small moves behind her back in the future, she would hand over the monitoring to the police, or tell her parents, or post it on the Internet...

Isabella also said: Your people want to harm me, do you think you can get away with it? Parents will believe you, or believe me?

When Scarlet thought of this, she was obviously a little uneasy. At that time, she also begged Isabella not to tell Mr. and Mrs. Elder. She was not afraid of being fired, but she was afraid of implicating Miss Logan and affecting her huge interests in the future...

Myra at the side finally understood why Ms. Young didn't hand over the evidence to Elder Mr. and Mrs., but chose to hold it in her hand.

Ms. Young said at the time that this evidence can only prove that Scarlet is harmful to others. If Scarlet clings to this matter, it is her own idea and has nothing to do with Cecilia. Or cry in front of the old man at home, cry in front of a few older brothers...

At most, it was just a servant who was fired!

Cecilia, for the most part, won't be swept away!

A little punishment at most.

But this thing, in the hands of Ms. Young, is equivalent to a handle, which can serve as a warning to them. If they are not afraid of death and cannot sit still, they will definitely try to force Ms. Young to delete it. They will make mistakes when they are in a hurry. At that time, if the mistake is too big, it will not only be a matter of getting out of the house...

Looking back now, Myra has to admire Ms. Young at that time, calm and foresight!

Just then, two little maids came to Isabella crying.

“Ms. Young, Ms. Young!”

Isabella turned her head and found that the eye sockets of both of them were red, and couldn't help asking, “What's wrong?”

“They're too much!” Lesley pointed at Gill and Toni, crying aggrievedly, “They cut my clothes off with Miss Logan and Scarlet backing them up! Look!”

The clothes in her hands have been cut beyond recognition, this is not the first time!

“And the skin care products I bought yesterday were also thrown into the trash can by them! I just sent WhatsApp to question them, and they said that they did it, and what can I do to them!” Iris took the chat history Showing it to Isabella, her face was full of anger and aggrieved.

Gill and Toni didn't expect these two newcomers to complain to Ms. Young in front of them, and they were furious!

“Now that the evidence is solid, there is nothing to say. This family does not need you to stay.”

Hearing what Isabella said, Gill couldn't help imitating Myra's words, " Ms. Young, the people who pay me are Elder Mr. and Mrs. Unless they let me go, no one wants me to step out. Half a step in this family! Including you, not even!"

Cecilia and Scarlet were secretly proud that finally someone could hate Isabella, and they wanted to add chicken legs to Gill later.

"Oh, okay." Isabella took out her mobile phone, called Eloise in front of them, and turned on the speaker, "Mom, are you awake?"

"Isabella, Mommy just woke up, what are you doing to Mommy..."

Chapter 473

"I want to fire two servants."

"Which two short-sighted things upset you?" Eloise heard Isabella 's tone was not very good, and immediately followed angrily.

Gill and Toni." Isabella said their names directly.

"Did they bully you? If so, mom won't let them leave so easily!"

When Gill and Toni heard this, they immediately felt bad.

"Not to mention bullying, but I just like to speak rudely, and even bully the people below."

"So bad? It's too much! Just wait, I'll go down and find them to settle accounts. I invite them to come here with tens of thousands of dollars a month, not to show face in front of my daughter and destroy the family atmosphere! These two can't be clear Don't even think about messing around in this business in the future!"

Eloise's angry voice came from the phone, as well as the voice of her getting out of bed and looking for things, "Hey, where are my slippers? Where did they go?"

She seemed to be coming downstairs, probably to settle accounts with Gill and Toni.

Both Gill and Toni panicked and wanted to run subconsciously, but were blocked by Lesley and Iris.

"Mom, don't worry, I'll just deal with it." Isabella looked at Lesley and Iris lightly, "Since you have no objection, then I will fire you."

"It's on, it has to be on! I'll go down and talk to them in a while!" Eloise couldn't find her slippers everywhere, it was strange, where did she go, "Isabella, remember, you are the most precious of mom and dad Daughter, in this family, you always have the right to fire anyone!"

Isabella hung up the phone and looked at Gill and Toni, "Got it?"

"Sorry Ms. Young, it's all Scarlet..."

Gill hadn't finished speaking when Scarlet pinched her, "What nonsense are you talking about!"

"No, I didn't say anything..." Gill looked down.

"Apologies." Isabella didn't care who was responsible, they were all in the same group anyway.

Gill and Toni had to rush to apologize to her, and to Myra, Lesley and Iris.

"We don't want our salary this month. We will pay it to Lesley and Iris. I beg Ms. Young to talk to Madam, don't block us in this industry..."

“We’ll change it later... Really, Ms. Young!”

Isabella withdrew her hand coldly, and looked at Scarlet again, Scarlet was forced by the monitoring, had to bow her head and apologize to Isabella, Myra, Lesley and Iris.

“Scarlet’s salary for this month has also been deducted. After all, it cannot escape.” Isabella looked at Scarlet with a smile.

“Ms. Young was well punished...” For the benefit of the future, Scarlet had to swallow his anger.

Isabella looked at Cecilia again, “Take care of your people from now on.”

Although Cecilia was very angry, she couldn’t help it. She could hear Angela and Freda what her mother said on the phone just now.

Mom said, Isabella is her baby girl!

Isabella always has the right to fire anyone in this family!!

At this moment, Eloise came downstairs wearing slippers, and seeing both daughters were there, she couldn’t help asking, “Where are Gill and Toni ?”

“I just went to pack my luggage.” Isabella said softly.

“Are you okay?” Eloise patted Isabella ‘s head again, concerned everywhere, “They didn’t hit you?”

Isabella couldn’t help laughing, just the two of them, still want to hit her?

“No.” Isabella smiled.

“It’s fine if you don’t have one.” Eloise couldn’t help but get angry, “It’s the other way around! How dare you bully my daughter in my house! Lesley, where’s the executive family? Go and call him!”

“yes.”

After hearing the sound, the senior executives rushed over and saw Scarlet and Cecilia standing aside, their expressions obviously not very good, and then looked at Eloise’s face, with deep displeasure, and hurriedly asked, “Ma’am, what’s the matter?”

“When you recruit people in the future, be more careful, don’t recruit anyone!” Eloise said angrily, “Isabella came back to this house with great difficulty, and Williams and I were reluctant to shout at her. As a result, the two current people came to my daughter Putting on airs in front of you!”

After hearing this, the senior executives looked at Isabella and the servants behind her. It shouldn’t be Myra and the others, but who could it be?

It can’t be Scarlet, can it?

He looked at Scarlet again, Scarlet shook his head slightly, and the senior executive breathed a sigh of relief.

“Ma’am, I don’t know which two unsightly things upset Ms. Young, so I’ll clean them up.”

“Wait for you to deal with it, the day lily is cold! I don’t know how you are a housekeeper! Next time, don’t be a housekeeper!”

Hearing this, the executive family hurriedly lowered their heads, “Madam, it’s all my fault, I promise there will never be a next time!”

“You will hold a meeting in a while and let everyone clarify their identities. If you don’t want to do it, leave me as soon as possible!”

“Yes.” The senior manager kept his bent posture all the time, he didn’t expect Eloise to get so angry.

“I’m going to settle accounts with them, Isabella, you go to eat breakfast first, don’t be angry, mom promises that they won’t be able to eat and walk around.”

“Mom, don’t be so angry.”

“Good boy, you still care about me after being wronged so much...” While Eloise was moved, her heart ached even more.

Seeing her leaving angrily, Scarlet helped Cecilia back to the room, both of them were livid with anger.

This damn Isabella is becoming more and more an eyesore!

Scarlet, did you hear... Mom said just now that Isabella her baby girl...” Cecilia clenched her fists angrily, and agreed that the bowl of water was fair, but the balance in her mother’s heart had already tilted towards Isabella.

“That’s why I asked you to swipe the third young master ‘s card to buy more things. The relationship is gone, at least the money is still there!”

It was also at this time that Cecilia understood Scarlet's intentions. This family is better than Scarlet, who treats her wholeheartedly, which is many times better than the so-called mother!

"Isabella spends more and more time with Elder Mr. and Mrs. It's normal for Elder Mr. and Mrs. to favor her, after all, she is their own daughter!"

Scarlet's words were like a knife stabbing into Cecilia's heart.

"But the brothers and Isabella haven't been together for long, Miss Logan, you should take good care of it!"

Play more emotional cards, let a few brothers buy more things...

"After a while, the third young master will wake up, you go find him..." Scarlet leaned closer to Cecilia's ear and whispered something.

the other side.

Myra, Lesley and Iris kept thanking Isabella, and Isabella said softly, "You're welcome, it's my fault that made you suffer."

"Ms. Young, I'm not wronged! Seeing Gill and Toni leave, I'm very happy, very happy!" Lesley couldn't help but burst into tears.

Iris also smiled and said, "It's the first time I've seen Madam lose such a big temper, which shows that Ms. Young is very important in Madam's heart, and I really envy the relationship between Ms. Young and Madam, unlike me... who is very small Then there will be no mother..."

Her eyes dimmed.

Lesley said again, "After this time, Scarlet must not dare to do it again, Ms. Young, lucky to have you today!"

Chapter 474 Routine Terry

"Yes, otherwise that Lotus would have its tail up to the sky." Myra laughed, " Ms. Young, thank you so much."

"Be polite to me again." When Isabella said this, she heard someone calling her.

"Isabella, why are you up so early?"

The person who went downstairs was Terry, who saw the lights in Isabella's room last night until one o'clock in the morning...

I didn't expect to wake up so early today.

"I'm not sleepy." Isabella looked up, " Did Terry sleep well last night?"

"I couldn't fall asleep at first, but I fell asleep soon after smelling the essential oil you gave me..." Terry also felt that it was amazing, he hadn't slept so soundly and deeply for a long time.

When Lesley heard it, what kind of essential oil was that? It sounded very useful, so she wanted one too!

Isabella saw the envy in her eyes, and asked softly, "Want? I'll give you one later."

"Ah, thank you, Ms. Young!" Lesley was so excited.

“The listener has a share.” Isabella looked at the two people next to her again.

When Myra and Iris heard this, they immediately cheered up, so they have it too?!

“Ms. Young, you are so kind...”

Woohoo, why is there such a big gap between the same Lady!

Cecilia received the best education since she was a child, and she has been immersed in the best family atmosphere for a long time. Why is her quality so poor in the end!

Look at Ms. Young again, she grew up in adversity, and her abilities amaze everyone...

The gap between people is really huge.

“Have you had breakfast?” Terry stretched out his hand to hook his sister to him, and asked in a low voice as he walked, “Is there any news over there?”

“A little bit.” Seeing that there were several servants around, Isabella didn’t elaborate.

Terry turned back and said, “You all go down.”

“yes.”

When Lesley went down, he did not forget to say, “The relationship between the third young master and Ms. Young is good. Even though they haven’t lived together for so many years, when they meet, the family affection in their bones is still...”

Cecilia and Scarlet standing on the spiral staircase in a blink of an eye, and was too frightened to speak.

Scarlet gave her a hard look, as if he wanted to cut her into pieces.

Lesley hastily left with his head down, unlucky, why did he meet them again...

Iris and Myra also left, leaving only the two people on the spiral staircase, and their expressions were not very good at this time.

“These bastards really thought they were capable, and dared to gossip behind their backs...”

What Lesley said echoed in Cecilia’s mind, remembering just now, the way Terry hooked Isabella’s shoulder and whispered, his hands unconsciously clenched into fists....

Damn Isabella, how did she do it...

All the servants in the dining area were dismissed by Terry. Seeing that there was no one around, Isabella said, “My people have checked the flights to France in the past year, and there is no record of Nora’s departure.”

“So, it’s possible that Nora is still in the United States ?” Terry couldn’t restrain his excitement.

“There are three possibilities. One is that she is indeed still in the United States. The other is that she went to France, but the exit record was erased and was not found out. The other possibility is that she went to another country.”

I don’t know if she changed her name and surname halfway through, if so, it will be more difficult to check.

Because the time involved is long, a full year, and the world is so big, it is really difficult to find her.

The light in Terry 's eyes suddenly went out, yes, if she wanted to hide, or if she was locked up and couldn't show up...

Terry didn't dare to think about it any further.

"However, two or three months ago, there were indeed records of her parents leaving the country."

With Isabella's voice, Terry suddenly asked concerned, "Where did they go?"

" Paris."

When Terry heard this, he didn't know whether to worry or worry, "If Nora isn't in Paris, it's useless for them to go."

What's more, they have never left the small town for most of their lives, and now they have gone abroad, to such a far place, and they are unfamiliar with the place...

"I have asked someone to check their whereabouts, and I believe there will be news soon." Seeing that Terry was not in a good mood, Isabella said softly, "There is no rush, there are too many things involved, you should eat now." Eat, drink, save more energy, we will meet again in the future."

Hearing his sister's consolation, Terry couldn't help but feel hot in his heart. Whether he can meet Nora again, in fact, he has no idea...

But seeing his sister so sensible and cute, his heart still warmed up, and he felt warm.

It turns out that it feels so good to have a sister...

Why didn't I feel this way in Cecilia before...

"Don't break down your body, eat something first."

Terry didn't expect to be his younger sister. Looking at her calm and wise face, it seemed like she could hold up when the sky fell...

Inexplicably reassuring.

Isabella also picked up his fork and picked up a few dishes for him.

After Terry finished eating, Isabella whispered, "I'll go to Woods Villa."

There are still four unidentified people locked up there...

Terry was about to say that I would go too when he heard a voice.

"Terry!!"

Cecilia trotted over and saw Isabella, as if nothing had happened in the morning, and greeted with a sweet smile.

Terry, I have something to do with you!"

"Hey wait..."

Terry wanted to follow, but Cecilia hurriedly took his arm and asked with a smile, "Terry, I've been waiting for you all morning! I have something to tell you..."

Seeing the back of Isabella walking away, Terry could only say, "What's the matter, tell me."

"Let's talk while walking." Cecilia took Terry's hand and came to the garden. "It's been a long time since we took a walk together. I was like this when I was a child. I held your hand and whispered to you... Unexpectedly, in a blink of an eye, we both When we grow up, we spend less and less time together, let alone whispering, we don't even say a few words in daily life."

Terry has been a little busy these two days, so I haven't been able to spare time to accompany you..." While feeling guilty, Terry looked at the girl beside him and suddenly remembered something, "Oh, by the way, did you go shopping last night?"

Cecilia beat around the bush for a long time, thinking about how to start this topic, but Terry took the initiative to ask!

She was secretly happy, but she remained calm on the surface, "Yes, Scarlet accompanied me."

"Terry had a temporary business last night, so I didn't intentionally let you go." After explaining, Terry looked at his sister next to him and asked concerned, "Did you buy anything you like?"

"Yes!" Cecilia said happily, "There are a lot of new products this season, they are so beautiful, I couldn't hold back, so I... bought more."

When she said this, she stuck out her tongue on purpose, showing her mischievous side.

Chapter 475 Lied

Terry asked straightforwardly, "How much did you buy, Terry will transfer it to you.'

"No need! Terry usually works so hard, how can I spend your money, I have it myself." Cecilia tried to show her empathetic side.

But Terry said distressedly, " Terry promised to reimburse you, how much did you buy? It's okay, tell Terry."

Cecilia deliberately smiled mischievously, "I won't tell you."

"You are still a student, and Terry will make money. Terry was supposed to take you to buy it last night, but it was just a temporary matter..." Terry always felt sorry for letting his sister dove off last night, "If you don't tell me, I want to ask Scarlet gone."

"Don't look for her."

Terry, I really don't need you to pay. I'm not here to ask you for reimbursement. I just want to tell you that I have bought all the presents for Christmas this year. Your present...you will be very happy when you receive it! But I can't reveal it now. I came to you today to tell you that you don't need to prepare Christmas presents for me."

"Why?" Terry asked puzzled.

"Because you have bought me a lot of things for so many years, so you can buy more for Sister Isabella!"

Terry saw that her eyes were full of innocence, and his eyes suddenly softened, "How can it be done, no one can do without the two of you, you are both my sisters."

At this time, Scarlet happened to pass by the garden, and Terry called out to her, " Scarlet, come here."

Scarlet also made a look of not knowing why.

“You went shopping with Cecilia last night, how much did Cecilia spend?”

Cecilia hastily signaled Scarlet not to speak with her eyes.

This move fell into Terry’s eyes, because his sister wanted to help him save money, and he was even more moved immediately.

“Miss Logan, you bought so many things for Elder Mr. and Mrs., several elder brothers, and Ms. Young, I guess there is not much money left in Cary... Since the third young master asked, I will tell you?” Scarlet’s tone was cautious, as if asking Cecilia’s opinion.

Cecilia was so anxious that she hinted to Scarlet again with her eyes, don’t say it, don’t let Terry spend it!

Terry asked again, “It’s okay, just tell me, how much did you buy?”

Miss Logan, don’t blame me, since the third young master has already asked this question...it’s 26 million.” Scarlet said boldly.

“Scarlet!” Cecilia let go of Terry’s hand immediately, and said anxiously, “How did you say that! Didn’t you promise me to keep it a secret last night?”

Scarlet said distressedly, “the third young master won’t blame you, and you didn’t waste money, so many things last night were almost all bought for Elder Mr. and Mrs., several brothers, and Ms. Young, You didn’t buy much yourself.”

In fact, Scarlet lied, Cecilia bought 90% of everything...

“Then you can’t say it, do you know that Terry will reimburse me...” Cecilia was still in a hurry.

Scarlet heard, "Huh? There's also this matter..."

Terry took out his mobile phone, logged into the mobile banking, and transferred 30 million to Cecilia's bank account.

"You are determined, buy so many things for your family, and buy the rest for yourself." Terry said softly.

Cecilia heard the notification tone from her mobile phone, opened it and saw that she had received 30 million USD, and immediately became anxious, "Terry, why did you transfer so much to me, I don't want it!"

Terry has money, you can keep it with peace of mind." Terry patted her on the head, his voice became more gentle,

Terry wants to apologize to you, I had something to do last night, I left in a hurry, I didn't mean to let you go, you Be good, don't take it to heart, Terry didn't mean to leave you behind, go out with Isabella..."

Terry, I'm not a fussy person! When you go out with sister Isabella, there must be important things to deal with. I'm eighteen years old, and I'm not an eight-year-old child who is ignorant! When you say that, I seem to be a small belly of..."

"How could it be? My sister is the most generous. She bought so many things for her family in one go. How can she feel so small?" Terry smiled warmly and asked, "The vacation is over, are you going back to school?"

“Well, back in the afternoon.”

In fact, Cecilia felt a little bit reluctant.

She didn't want to leave home, let alone her family.

But she is not like Isabella, who has a perfect score of No. 1. She can just hang around outside if she doesn't want to go to school...

She is very afraid that the relationship that she has worked so hard to cultivate with her family in the past few days will become less and less as time goes by...

“These few days, Terry has other things to deal with, and I will take you and Isabella out to play after the work is done. You can also think about where to go first, and let Terry refer to it.” Terry said softly.

“good.”

She couldn't tell how happy she was when she heard that

Terry was going to take her to play!

Terry, I'm going to school in the afternoon. To be honest, I can't bear to miss you. After I leave, I won't be able to go home for a few days.”

Terry coquettishly, like a cute child, hugging tightly.

The light in Terry 's eyes became gentler, “No matter when you come back, Terry will always be you Terry, we still have a lot of time to spend together, don't rush this moment.”

Terry looked at the girl in front of him and promised, "As long as Terry is free, wherever you want to go, I will accompany you at any time."

Terry, you're so kind." Cecilia raised a bright smile, as sweet as honey.

Scarlet, when you pack Cecilia's luggage later, bring her some more food, our Cecilia is a snack..."

"That's not it!" Cecilia acted coquettishly again.

After the walk, Cecilia went back to her room, and Scarlet also found a reason to come up...

Scarlet, do you think it's not good for me to be like this? It seems that Terry really treats me as a younger sister, but I..."

Before Cecilia finished speaking, Scarlet interrupted her.

"Now I treat you as my younger sister, but it won't be necessarily the case in the future!"

Scarlet's words were like a dagger, piercing hard into her hard-fought heart.

"Didn't I say before that as time goes by and they spend more time with Isabella, the relationship between them and their family will become deeper and deeper. On the contrary,

you will become more and more like an outsider. You have seen what happened today, and even the servants don't take you seriously!"

Cecilia felt a little hurt in her heart, "But I still don't think it's good to cheat Terry... I only spent 13 million, but you said 26 million..."

Fully doubled!

“The third young master is not short of money. You see, he gave you 30 million in one go. With the 30 million in your account, you can buy a lot of things!”

The best house in Bomsville is 200,000 square meters, and 30 million can buy a small house of 150 square meters. Although it is not as good as Riverside Villa, it is also personal property, and it is written in your name. down.

Chapter 476 The way to punish the traitor

“If each elder brother gives you 30 million every now and then, plus Elder Mr. and Mrs., how many apartments can you buy with your annual money? What kind of relationship are you talking about? How can a relationship be as good as a house?”

Cecilia lowered her head and said nothing.

Miss Logan, next...” Scarlet moved closer to Cecilia’s ear, planning something in a low voice.

the other side.

When Isabella came to Woods Villa, Peter saw her and reported truthfully, “Boss, those people woke up last night, but they refused to reveal a word, they were all tough.”

“It’s okay, don’t worry, I’ll go to the laboratory first.”

Peter looked at the back of her leaving, and thought: Boss looks so handsome in his career!

Isabella started to break down yesterday’s powder again, always feeling that she had neglected something, so busy, her mobile phone vibrated, and she saw that it was Freda calling.

“Freda ?” Isabella stopped what she was doing, with some doubts in her heart.

“Sister Isabella, where have you been? I’m coming to the lake villa!” Freda ‘s voice came from the phone, “The servant said you went out early in the morning, did you go to play? Can you bring me?”

“I’m going out with my friends.”

“Oh, so when are you coming back?”

“Probably not that fast.”

“You, Terry, are not at home... so can you finish your work at noon? Let’s have a meal together. I heard that Bomsville has opened a very beautiful cave restaurant, and many people go there to check in~”

Another reason why Freda wants to have a good relationship with her future sister-in-law is that she likes, IsabellaAngela’s cold personality very much, and she is very comfortable to get along with.

But since Isabella knew what Terry was thinking, she politely declined, “Maybe not at noon, I will treat you another day.”

“How can I do that, I can’t let you spend money! Then let’s make an appointment to go there to check in some other day, and I won’t bother you to accompany your friends~”

Freda said a few more words before hanging up the phone.

Looking at the beautiful big garden of Riverside Villa, Freda is a bit bored by herself, and Uncle Logan and Aunt Logan are not at home...

At this moment, Cecilia called softly, "Freda?"

"Did you come to see Terry? He has something to go out... There is no one else at home, why don't I accompany you to go shopping outside and have a meal?"

Cecilia thought to herself, if Freda becomes the future sister-in-law, it would be better to get closer.

One more friend is better than one more enemy.

But Freda laughed and said, "Another day, I suddenly remembered that I still have things to do, so I'm leaving first."

Hearing this, Cecilia was a little embarrassed, but still raised the corners of her mouth, "Okay, then let's meet another day."

After Freda left, Scarlet couldn't help but said, "This little bitch, she clearly doesn't want to get close to you... Just now she went to play with Isabella by licking her cheeks, and asked her to have dinner with her... Why does she have something to do when you open your mouth?" Do it? Who are you lying to!"

Cecilia didn't expect Freda to be so powerful, she just wanted to have a good relationship with Isabella...

"Who made you an adopted daughter..." Scarlet yelled all the time, "Miss Logan, do you know the difference now?"

My dear, how many people rushed to lick it.

An adopted daughter is an adopted daughter after all, an outsider in this family!

The way to punish the trañor

Woods Villa.

Isabella 's experiment hadn't been finished yet. When she heard that Terry was coming, she looked back and saw a tall figure standing at the door.

"Terry, are you here?"

It was the first time Terry saw his sister wearing a lab coat, "Didn't bother you?"

"No." Isabella gestured to the chair next to her with her eyes, "Sit down, I'm almost done."

Terry walked in and looked at the environment of the laboratory. There were all kinds of professional medical equipment. There were several sets that he wanted to buy before, but he couldn't find them anywhere...

I didn't expect my sister to have so many equipment here.

Just such a laboratory alone would cost hundreds of millions...

I just heard from Peter that there are 11 laboratories on this entire floor...

Sitting on the chair, Terry quietly looked at the side face of his younger sister who was focused. The sun was pouring on her, which was as beautiful as a painting.

He couldn't help taking out his phone to take pictures, but this laboratory involves his sister's privacy, so he didn't send it to other brothers to show off...

At this time, someone knocked on the door, "Boss, the test

The way to punish the traitor results of the third phase of Project P are out..."

Terry sitting on the chair, she was taken aback.

Why is there a man in the boss's laboratory?

It can't be the boss' boyfriend, right???

"Let me take a look." Isabella took the data report in her hand, and after flipping through the pages, "As we expected, the fourth stage will be carried out next, and we will try to test it out this Sunday."

"yes,"

Before the man left, he looked at Terry, he was so handsome, I didn't expect the boss to have such a good eye...

After half an hour, Isabella 's complexion was not very good.

Terry couldn't help asking, "What's wrong?"

"Terry, I made a bad discovery." Isabella stared at the data results, and said in a deep voice, "Our previous guess may be wrong."

Terry 's heart tightened, "What guess?"

“It’s the powder found in Nora’s vitamin C bottle. We thought it was a strong poison. Maybe someone else used it to poison Nora, or Nora took it for self-preservation... But now, I found out that it has a third possibility.”

Terry couldn’t help holding his breath, and asked in a deep voice, “What is it?”

“Before Benjamin’s mother was poisoned by a chronic poison called C30. There was no antidote on the market. Just now I tried to put C30 and the highly poisonous powder together, and found that they have a mutual restraint effect.”

In other words, the highly toxic powder mainly composed of camellia can detoxify C30.

“It’s equivalent to fighting poison with poison...” Isabella added, “but it can’t be completely removed, only part of it can be relieved, and the patient is very painful during the process of fighting poison with poison. Part of the poison.”

Terry finally knew why her complexion was not so good. “You mean, Nora may be poisoned, but there is no antidote, so I can only use this highly poisonous powder to fight. poison with poison and suspend the toxicity in the body?”

If this is the result, then how miserable she will be this year...

Terry’s heart seemed to fall into the ice cave all of a sudden, no, no, his Nora is kind-hearted, she shouldn’t have to endure such torture...

“Didn’t that group of people say she was a traitor? Is it possible that this is... a way to punish traitors?”

Terry didn't expect this possibility at all, but after hearing what his sister said, he felt that it was very possible...

Isabella, I want to find her." Terry was really anxious, "I

The way to punish the stor really want to find her quickly."

Chapter 477 Someone Can Heal You

"I know, this is just my guess, don't worry." Isabella said softly, "I have already sent people to look for her, and there is no whereabouts of her for the time being. We can find her parents first."

Maybe her parents knew the inside story.

"Then what are you waiting for, let's go to Paris now."

Terry really wanted to find someone. When he thought that Nora might be poisoned, relying on another kind of poison to suspend the poison, his heart felt as if he was suffocating, and it was extremely uncomfortable!

At this moment, Peter knocked on the door, "Boss, there is news, Mr. and Mrs. Scott have run out of money, and they are working as English tutors for a family in Paris. I have sent you the mobile phone for their rented place."

"Okay." Isabella ordered softly, "Help me prepare a private jet, Terry and I are going there now."

Terry heard: My sister still has a private jet?!

Peter heard that, "Boss, you can't go abroad! You forgot that the previous groups of forces were everywhere..."

Isabella 's gaze put pressure on him, and Peter changed his words instantly, "You should stay in the United States, there are so many things waiting for you to deal with..."

Someone Can Heal You

Terry heard something was wrong, "What do the previous groups of forces mean? Why can't Isabella go abroad? She will be in danger if she goes abroad?"

"I..." Peter was stopped by the question, and he was stunned for a while before he said nonsense, "I mean, when the boss went to Mrs. Sir 's house to arrest those people, didn't one escape? What if that person goes back and moves?" Rescue soldiers... What should I do if I set up an ambush for the boss in Paris? The boss doesn't have any manpower there, so it's too dangerous to go there."

"Shut up and get down." Isabella really thought he was talking too much.

"Boss..."

Isabella raised her warning eyes again, Peter could only back away silently...

" Isabella, you can send me the address, and I can go alone." Terry also heard the degree of danger, "You'd better stay in the United States to be safe, and if something happens to you, Terry will never forgive himself in his life. "

"Peter just likes to worry about things. Leave him alone. Let's go back to the lake villa to pack some light luggage. It may take two or three days."

While there was a change of laundry on her private jet, Terry didn't...

'Isabella, be obedient.' Terry was really reluctant for her to take this risk, and finally had such a caring sister...

Someone Can Heal You

"Terry, this is non-negotiable."

Isabella thought to herself, if she goes, she can still protect Terry.

That's the real danger if Terry goes it alone.

In case of being caught, she has to come forward to save people, which will be even more troublesome...

Seeing that his sister had made up his mind to go, Terry hesitated, " Isabella..."

"Let's go back to the lake villa first." Isabella didn't want to talk about this topic anymore.

Terry looked at his sister's stubborn face, and finally backed down, "Then you promise Terry, if there is any danger, Terry will let you run, you must be obedient."

"OK."

Even if she was running, she would take Terry with her.

"No regrets," Terry added.

"Well, I don't regret it."

On the way back to the lake villa, Terry received several WhatsApp messages, and it was from Cecilia.

Terry, I'm thinking about it. Let's go to France this weekend ~ We can check in at the Statue of Liberty, and we can also go to Disneyland~"

Cecilia pretended to be considerate and said, " Sister Isabella

Someone Can Heal You

has rarely been to such a place since she was a child, and I can leave some good memories for her."

Before Terry could reply, Cecilia sent another message, "We can still go to Provence. "

"Cecilia, Terry has something to do this weekend, next time." Terry typed back.

His current mind is not on entertainment, he only has one thought, that is to find Nora, other eating, drinking and having fun, he has no interest at all.

"Then let's go next time~" Cecilia sent another grinning emoji, " Didn't Terry say that? We still have a lot of time together in the future, so don't be in a hurry."

"Hmm." After Terry replied this word, he was in no mood to add anything else.

Cecilia, who received the reply on the other side, felt a little cold, feeling that Terry 's reply to her was getting fewer and fewer words.

Woods Villa.

Peter thought to himself, the boss is getting more and more stubborn, and he doesn't listen to persuasion anymore, hum, he can't cure the boss, isn't there Benjamin!

Thinking of those groups of forces, only Benjamin 's people could stop him, so he thick-skinned, called Benjamin on WhatsApp, and told him that the boss was going to Paris.

Isabella was driving, and halfway through the drive, the

She pressed the answer button on the steering wheel, and Benjamin 's voice appeared in the car.

“Isabella, are you going to Paris?”

Isabella heard: Peter said it again? Yes, it is not negotiable to deduct his annual bonus later.

Unaware Peter is still complacent, lol, finally someone can cure the boss!

“I have something to do.” Isabella explained, “I planned to call you when I arrived at the lake villa later.”

I didn't expect Peter with a big mouth to speak first, so that Benjamin would mistakenly think that she was deliberately hiding it...

“What have you been up to lately?” Benjamin on the phone was a little worried.

Terry, who was sitting in the co-pilot seat, said, “ Benjamin, it's me.”

“Terry.” Benjamin was a little surprised, “Are you with Isabella ?”

These two brothers and sisters often stay together recently, what are they busy with that he doesn't know?

“It's like this. My girlfriend disappeared a year ago. Isabella helped me find her whereabouts. Now I have some clues. I'm going to Paris. Don't worry, Isabella is here with me, and I will protect her.”

." Benjamin really wants to ask you what you can do to protect her. If all the forces outside are mobilized together, he and Isabella may be no match for the combination of skills, let alone Terry 's skills... It seems, very generally?

"I'm going too." Benjamin said worriedly.

Terry looked at Isabella, as if asking what she meant.

Isabella said calmly, "Yesterday I checked Green 's Facebook and said that he was going to France in the next two days. If I guessed correctly, you two are together?"

"He can do it alone." Benjamin decided immediately, "I don't have anything to do recently."

Terry and I are going to go for a day or two, and we'll be back soon. You should be busy with work first."

" Isabella."

Due to the presence of Terry, Benjamin couldn't talk about those groups of forces, but he and Isabella knew each other well that those groups of forces were no joke.

"How can work be more important than you?"

How could her personal safety be important?

Chapter 478

"Then you finish your work in France and come to Paris to find me." Isabella paused and added, "Be obedient."

"..." Benjamin wanted to refuse at first, but because of the last two words, he finally relented.

“I’ll be fine. Besides, won’t you send someone to protect me?”

Benjamin could only back down and say, “Okay, then you go there first today, and I’ll look for you tomorrow.”

Green: Boss, where can I finish the business in France today? Do you want me to follow you and work 24 hours without sleep?! Is there any reason?! I am not a working machine!

“Let your people hide better.”

Benjamin couldn’t help but laugh, “Okay.”

The little girl’s anti-reconnaissance ability is good, as long as it is someone he arranges, she can find it every time.

Riverside Villa.

Cecilia didn’t expect that Terry came back with Isabella. Could it be that Terry went to find Isabella just now when he said he had something to do?

Thinking of this, she felt a little unhappy.

Terry first went to the personal cloakroom to get a few sets of laundry, then knocked on the door of Eloise’s room, saying that he and Isabella would go abroad.

“You brat, you’ve finally figured it out!” Eloise said happily, “Then I’ll leave Isabella to you, you have to take good care of her, stay in the best hotel, and accompany her wherever she wants to go, you have to buy whatever she wants to eat, and, it’s cold, don’t let her catch a cold.”

Eloise thought her son was going to take Isabella to travel abroad, and while she was happy, she babbled and explained a lot.

It's all about taking good care of my sister.

"Okay, I remember."

Terry didn't tell her the dangers of this journey, and deliberately made her think that they were traveling abroad.

He wasn't impatient, and he didn't leave until his mother finished explaining.

in the living room.

Seeing that Terry was carrying a luggage bag, Cecilia couldn't help asking, "Terry, where are you going?"

"Terry has something to do. He needs to go abroad." Terry patted her on the head, "Terry will take you there next time."

Cecilia also wanted to ask Terry which country he went to and whether he was busy with work...

But Terry looked up to see Isabella coming downstairs, and walked towards her again, leaving Cecilia aside.

Seeing that the girl who came downstairs didn't bring anything, he couldn't help being a little puzzled, and asked in a low voice, "Why didn't you bring any luggage?"

"On the plane." Isabella said softly.

Terry nodded, "Okay, let's go now."

The plane had already parked near the lake villa, and the brother and sister left side by side...

Cecilia was a little puzzled, didn't Terry say he was going abroad, why did he go out with Isabella?

Miss Logan." Scarlet came quickly to Cecilia's side, whispering anxiously, "Just now I heard Madam call and tell Master that the third young master is going to take Ms. Young to France for a few days!"

"What did you say?"

"It's true!"

Cecilia's face was extremely ugly, her hands were unconsciously clenched into fists, and she looked at the back of them leaving. Cecilia couldn't believe it. She just told Terry that she was going to play in France. Terry told her that she was busy recently and didn't have time...

But in a blink of an eye, Terry took Isabella abroad?!

few hands-on games, and the 360° viewing platform in Chicago...

As a result, Terry left her and took Isabella alone??

How could Terry do this!!

Tears welled up in Cecilia's eyes, angry and sad.

"Miss Logan, as I said, they all have the blood of the Logan Family..."

Scarlet looked in the direction they left and sighed.

"I never expected that the third young master would be so eccentric. He is not afraid that the news will reach you. Will you be sad?"

“Or, he doesn’t care about your feelings at all. He doesn’t care whether you are sad or sad. He just wants to take Isabella out to play. After all, Isabella is his own sister...”

“The third young master’s doing this is too much! More eccentric than the young master and second young master!”

“I just said, what they said is a lie...”

Tears flowed down Cecilia’s face, and the scenes of her and Terry’s happy time from childhood to adulthood kept replaying in her mind.

Miss Logan, it’s not worth it for someone like this...” Scarlet said distressedly, “Don’t cry.”

“How could Terry be like this...” Cecilia couldn’t help wiping away tears with her hands, looked at the direction

Terry left, and said sadly, “How can it be, he keeps saying that he treats me as his own sister and will love me for the rest of his life... both False, one or two of the words are deceptive, and they have coaxed me into a three-year-old child...”

“Now you know what I told you, the importance of money? Fortunately, you received the 30 million. Although the relationship is gone, at least you still have money... At first you still felt sorry for you Terry, look, He didn’t feel sorry for your sister at all!”

Cecilia wiped away her tears and ran back to her room, not wanting to hear any more.

Looking at her back, Scarlet knew that what happened this time made her remember more or less, and it’s okay, short- term pain is better than long-term pain.

This home can only be used to make money, so what kind of relationship is there!

the other side.

Looking at the luxurious private jet in front of him, Terry was stunned.

This plane was a model two years ago. There is only one in the world. It is said that it was bought by a very powerful boss.

Didn't expect this boss to be his sister...

His younger sister's financial strength is completely beyond his imagination...

Looking at the priceless plane in front of him, Terry was full of emotions. Did he give less pocket money to his sister...

Those who can afford this kind of plane, do you think the pocket money he gave is too stingy?!

"Terry, why don't you go?" Isabella looked at him suspiciously.

Terry walked up the flight stairs, "You bought this plane two years ago?"

"I didn't buy it." Isabella said truthfully, "It was a gift from one of the grandpas I told you about."

Sent??

When Terry heard it, his grandfather was not so generous... Who is the other party?

A plane worth hundreds of millions of dollars?!

This girl must be spoiled to the core...

“They send me things a lot,” Isabella explained.

In the house book alone, she has hundreds of properties under her name, not to mention other shops and shares...

But most of these are real properties, and they are the wishes of the grandpas, so she is not willing to sell them no matter how urgently she needs the money...

She invested all the pocket money her grandpas gave her, and every time she made money, she would buy things for her grandpas in various names.

Including this time when she went home, her parents, and the pocket money given to her by her brothers, she also used it to invest, and planned to surprise them after making a small profit.

Chapter 479 How Did You Find This?

coffee, snacks and fruits to them.

Terry, eat something first, and then go to the bedroom to rest for a while.”

There were four separate rooms on the plane, the master bedroom was hers, and only one of the three guest bedrooms was used by the injured Peter before, and the other two had never been occupied.

But someone cleaned it on time, and it was neat and clean. inside.

Terry is not sleepy, but you, who went to bed so late last night, woke up so early today, and did so many experiments.”

Terry felt sorry, but at the same time felt that his younger sister was really different from other ladies, and she was serious about her career every day.

The other ladies are well-dressed, attending various parties every day, doing SPA, and shopping everywhere.

In contrast, Isabella 's life is much fuller and more meaningful.

“Oh, by the way, I suddenly remembered something.” Isabella sat on the single sofa, drank half a glass of lemonade, and said softly, “I didn't find anything related to you in Nora 's room before.

When Terry heard it, his eyes darkened instantly.

Isabella saw what he was thinking and explained, “Those people said she was a traitor, I was wondering if she was afraid of hurting you, so she erased everything about you, if so, then she still loves you.”

Terry raised his eyes sharply, and his whole heart was agitated at the thought of this possibility.

“She's protecting you in her own way,” Isabella added.

Since Nora left, Terry had been disheartened for a year, and when he was suddenly told of this possibility, his heart seemed to come back to life, full of vitality.

“There are still more than ten hours to reach the destination, let's all go and have a rest.” Isabella got up and walked towards the master bedroom.

Terry was led down to the guest bedroom by one of his subordinates. He didn't know if it was because of the possibility brought by his sister. He was in a good mood and soon fell asleep.

And after Isabella tricked him to sleep, she was busy with her private affairs in the master bedroom until the plane landed more than ten hours later.

Terry had a long sleep, and when he woke up, he was full of energy.

It's only ten o'clock in the morning here, a full twelve hours behind the time in the United States...

"Is it Ms. Young? Mr. Mason asked me to come, my name is Ellie, and I will pick you up and Sir."

"Hello."

As soon as Isabella was about to get in the car, Ellie opened the door for her one step ahead of Terry.

It's very sweet.

They followed the address to the place where Nora's parents rented. It was on the first floor of a small apartment. There was a small yard on the first floor, and they could see their clothes drying when they looked in.

Isabella rang the doorbell, waited, and a woman came out to answer the door.

The person who came was Nora's mother Eliza. When she saw the strange little girl in front of her, she was a little puzzled. Then she looked at Terry standing beside her, and instantly realized that they were in the same group.

“How did you find this place?” Eliza was so impressed with Terry. Ever since his daughter left Scott’s house, this young man has been looking for him every now and then.

“Hi, Auntie, I didn’t mean to bother you...” Terry was afraid that Mrs. Scott might not have a good impression of him.

“It’s all said, we have no news from Nora...” Eliza was about to close the door.

How Did You Find This?

Isabella said softly, “ Nora may be in danger. We found this place to help her.”

Eliza paused, turned her head to look at this delicate and beautiful girl, looking at her young age, how can she help. her?

“No.”

After Eliza finished speaking, she planned to close the door again.

“Auntie.” Isabella blocked the door with her hand, and said softly, “There are already a group of people everywhere looking for Nora ‘s whereabouts. We must be one step ahead of them, otherwise Nora is really in danger.”

After Isabella finished speaking, she took out her mobile phone and showed Eliza the bottle of vitamin C.

“This thing...” Eliza remembered, this small bottle has been placed in Nora ‘s room, how could there be this photo in the girl’s mobile phone, could it be that they went to her home. and entered Nora ‘s room?

“you...”

“What Nora has been eating is most likely not vitamin C, but a potent poison.”

Eliza was about to get angry, but when she heard about the strong poison, she couldn't believe it, "How is it possible..."

That thing was placed in her daughter's room a long time ago, and she even saw her daughter eat it with her own eyes.

Before her daughter found her biological parents, she was eating this thing!

Speaking of which, it was more than a year ago...

"Is what she eats in powder form?" Isabella asked again, "Vitamin C comes in slices."

Eliza's face was completely shocked, yes, how could she ignore this point, the medicine in this kind of medicine bottle is usually in the form of tablets or capsules, but what Nora takes is in powder form...

If it wasn't for this girl's reminder, she really didn't think so much...

She once accidentally saw her daughter pour the powder into the water, and she asked her daughter what she was eating, and the daughter said it was iron supplementation, whitening...

A few days later, when she was cleaning, she saw this medicine bottle with vitamin C written on it, but she didn't pay attention to it...

Thinking about it this way, something was wrong with my daughter more than a year ago!

"Why did she eat this kind of thing... What evidence do you have that it is a strong poison?!" Eliza obviously couldn't calm down, and asked in disbelief with a trembling voice.

“Because a group of people are hunting her down, saying she is a traitor...” Isabella can only tell her what she knows, and try to gain her trust as much as possible.

When Eliza heard this, she shook her head hastily, “No, how could my daughter be a traitor...you’re talking nonsense...”

“We don’t know the specifics. At present, we only found these. The reason why we found this is to get more clues from you... I, Terry, loves Nora very much, and we will not hurt you.”

Seeing the sincerity in the girl’s eyes, Eliza was finally moved and moved out of the way.

“1

Terry didn’t expect his younger sister to be able to persuade Mrs. Scott as soon as he got out, and he gave his younger sister a grateful look.

Eliza was still thinking about what Isabella said just now, little out of her wits...

a

At this time, a person came out of the room, “Rong’er, who is ringing the doorbell? Why did it take so long?”

Eliza looked up and saw her husband coming out, just about to explain...

Scott’s father asked, “Why is it you again? How did you find this...and bring a girl doll?”

What does this mean??

“Let them enter the house first!” Eliza was afraid that the wall would have ears, so she tugged on her husband’s sleeve and whispered, “They are here to help Nora.”

Father Scott didn't believe it. Since Nora left, they have seen too many unreliable people...

Chapter 480 Peeling off the truth layer by layer

But the girl's eyes were sincere, she nodded sincerely, and emphasized, "We will not harm Nora."

Because Scott's father rented the place on the first floor, people passed by outside from time to time, and some people even looked into the yard.

"Let them in!" Eliza entered the house with a feeling of uneasiness. Scott's father had mixed feelings, and finally followed him in.

Isabella and Terry looked at each other, as if to say: They agree.

Terry closed the door in the yard and followed his sister into the house.

The living room is small, but everything is tidy and tidy.

"Sit whatever you want."

Hearing Father Scott's words, Isabella and Terry sat on the sofa, looking obedient, like two obedient students.

Eliza went to the kitchen to pour water, and Isabella wanted to say that there was no need to bother, but seeing her preoccupied, she was obviously still thinking about what happened just now, her attention was not here, she was out of her mind...

Father Scott glanced at Isabella, then at Terry, "Brothers and

Peeling off the truth layer by layer sisters?"

The two nodded.

"Honey?"

Qiqi nodded again.

How long have you been dating Nora ?" Kay looked at Terry again and asked.

"One year." Terry replied truthfully, "After one year, she left me, and I looked for her for another year."

Counting it, he and Nora have been involved for two years.

Kay recalled that this young man had indeed gone to the door several times, and each time he was asking about Nora 's whereabouts. Was that when Nora left him?

"What did you do to apologize to her?"

"No!"

Terry was a little anxious, but Isabella explained gently, "It seems that Nora got involved in something dangerous and didn't want to get my brother involved, so she pretended to break up."

"Since you guessed that my daughter might be involved in a dangerous incident, why did you bring your sister here?"

Kay knew that this matter was far from being as simple as it appeared on the surface, so it was fine for Terry to find him alone, why did he bring his sister with him? What if something happened?

Terry wanted to say that my sister is not an ordinary person, and he was able to find this because of her...

Suddenly, the sound of breaking glass came from the kitchen.

Kay immediately got up and trotted over, " Eliza, what's wrong?"

Isabella and Terry also went together and saw that Eliza broke the glass and was squatting on the ground to pick up the fragments, her fingers were accidentally scratched and bleeding...

"Don't move." The three blurted out in unison.

Eliza was startled, and she came back to her senses, not as distraught as before.

"Come over here, slow down, I'll take care of the debris." Kay reached out to her, afraid that his wife would step on the debris on the ground..

Eliza was dragged out of the kitchen by him, and Kay went in to deal with the mess.

Isabella looked at her wound and asked softly, "Where's the medicine box? I'll take care of it."

"No, I'll put a Band-Aid on it."

“No, your cut is not small, it will be bad if it is infected by bacteria.”

Maybe she didn't expect the girl to be so persistent. Eliza was a little surprised, unconsciously thinking of her caring daughter.

“My sister is a doctor, she will help you deal with it.”

Hearing Terry's words, both Eliza and Kay were a little surprised, especially Kay, who froze in picking up the debris, a little unbelievable.

This girl looks young, probably a high school student, did not expect to become a doctor?

“Where's the medicine cabinet?” Isabella asked again.

Since it was a rented house, they didn't have a medicine cabinet, and they didn't have many medicines. Isabella opened it and saw that there were only some scattered medicines.

She took out the useful ones and disinfected them with ease, and Eliza was a little stunned again.

“It will hurt a little, bear with it.” After Isabella was disinfected, she helped her treat the wound.

Eliza looked at the serious look of this girl, and in a daze, she thought of her daughter again...

When she opened the door just now, she saw the girl standing at the door with a cold demeanor. For a moment, she felt that the girl looked like Nora...

But I have to admit that this girl is prettier than Nora, her eyebrows and facial features are impeccably perfect...

Terry again, the appearance and temperament of this family are really much, much higher than ordinary people.

Although I haven't heard Nora mention the two brothers and sisters, judging from their words and deeds, their family background should not be simple.

"Okay, don't touch the water for now." Isabella simply packed up her things again.

Eliza saw that the two brothers and sisters were not malicious, and they were always thinking of them, and her heart warmed up slightly.

At this time, Kay also cleaned up the mess in the kitchen, and poured two glasses of water in front of them again. Seeing that the girl helped his wife heal the wound, she looked obedient and obedient, and relaxed her guard against them a lot.

"I haven't asked your name yet." Eliza knew that the girl's brother was Terry, but she didn't know the name of the girl in front of her.

"My name is Isabella."

Eliza nodded, and said to her husband next to her, "Isabella just said that the thing Nora ate before is most likely not vitamin C, but a potent poison."

When Kay heard it, he couldn't believe it, and looked at Isabella again, "How are you sure it's a strong poison? Have you seen it?"

“We have tested it.” Isabella explained, “This powder is highly toxic and is made of 16 poisonous herbs. If it is a healthy body, it will kill you immediately after taking it.”

For example, the mice in her laboratory died on the spot after licking the powder.

She didn’t even have time to rescue her.

“Are you sure?” Kay asked in a trembling voice.

Isabella nodded, “It’s absolutely true.”

“Since the toxicity is so strong, why is Nora okay after eating...” Kay asked again in disbelief.

“We speculate that she may be highly poisoned and needs to rely on another highly poisonous powder to fight the poison with fire. However, this process is very painful.”

Isabella told them what she knew, “This poisonous powder cannot be completely detoxified, so we guessed that there may be no antidote for the poison on her body, so she had to use this poisonous powder to prolong her life.”

“No, it’s impossible...” Kay couldn’t believe it at all, how could his daughter be poisoned so badly and have to rely on another poison to survive, they had never heard her say that!

“So, I want to ask, have any of you ever seen Nora eat from a vitamin C bottle before?”

“That happened more than a year ago.” Eliza said frankly, “Probably last summer, once, I accidentally saw her pour the powder into the water, and I asked her what she was eating, She smiled and said it was for iron supplementation and whitening... When I was cleaning later, I saw vitamin C written on the bottle, so I didn't take it seriously...”
