

Chased Her 481

Chapter 481 Gaining Trust

If her daughter is highly poisoned, how could she appear so relaxed.

I heard from a girl that the process of fighting poison with poison is very painful...

How could her daughter smile so beautifully and tenderly at her after taking the poisonous powder...

Isabella 's eyes deepened a bit, "Last summer, Nora and my brother were still dating..."

" Isabella also said that a group of people are looking for Nora 's whereabouts." Eliza mentioned it to her husband again.

Kay looked at the girl in front of her in disbelief, "How do you know?"

Isabella didn't hide anything, she told all the things she heard from her neighbors, as well as the fact that she climbed over the wall and entered their house...

Kay and Eliza were a little angry because this girl broke into their house without saying hello...

But I heard the girl say that so many cameras and bugs were installed in their house, and that group of people rushed to the door after the girl removed these things...

While they were shocked, they secretly rejoiced in their hearts. Fortunately, Nora didn't go back, otherwise she would have fallen into the hands of those bad guys.

" Isabella, you were not hurt at that time, were you?" Eliza asked again.

If Isabella gets hurt, the couple will be very sorry.

“No.” Isabella said truthfully, “but those people said that Nora is a traitor, so I guess, maybe she wants to stay with my brother, doesn’t want to bring danger to you as parents, and wants to leave the organization completely. Kind of like that, so she was forced to take the highly poisonous poison, and it was very painful when the poison occurred, so she had to borrow another strong poison to fight the poison with the poison? To save her life?”

Hearing his sister’s analysis, Terry suddenly remembered, “At the meeting last summer, I gradually couldn’t contact Nora. When I asked her, she always said that she was busy, but I didn’t worry about it. Sometimes it was hard to get an appointment with her. We went out to eat together, and while we were eating, she would go to the bathroom for a long time, and her face was a little pale after coming out.”

“What did she say then?” Isabella asked again.

“She said that she had a bad stomach, or she told me that she was on her period. In short, the reasons are different every time. Sometimes when she goes shopping, she says she is not feeling well and doesn’t want to go shopping...”

Terry suddenly remembered these things, and asked in disbelief, “Could it be that at that time, her toxicity had already flared up, and she couldn’t hold on any longer...’

Isabella listened to what he said and nodded, “It’s possible, it’s also possible that she took that bottle of vitamin C with her, and when the toxicity flared up, she hid in the toilet and took it, trying to fight the poison with the poison, but the process was very painful, so she couldn’t bear it.” After going down, I will tell you that I want to go home and rest.”

Terry clenched his fists, thinking of these two possibilities, he wished he could kill his past self!

How could he be so stupid that he didn’t realize that Nora was hiding something from him!

Eliza and Kay shook their heads when they heard this.

“No, it’s impossible. Nora has never been with any dishonest people since she was a child, let alone joined any organization!”

Kay feels that her daughter is not stupid. If a certain organization is dangerous, how can her daughter risk her life to join it?

“I know Nora ‘s personality. Even if that organization gives her many benefits, she will not be able to join.” Father Scott assured, patting his chest.

Isabella asked lightly, “From childhood? Didn’t Nora grow up in an orphanage when she was young?”

When Kay and Eliza heard this, they were stunned again, yes, Nora was brought from the orphanage...

but!

How old was Nora at that time!

“Your assumption is not valid...” Kay waved her hand and repeatedly denied it, “When we brought Nora, she was so young, and she was a little timid when she first arrived at our house...”

“Yeah, I still remember when she first got home, I asked her what she thought, and she said yes, she was so obedient, she didn’t pick anything...”

“I think the orphanage is a bit suspicious.” Isabella ‘s sixth sense told her, “Is there a possibility that the people in the orphanage are not ordinary children?”

This guess stunned Kay and Eliza, including Terry, who were all stunned.

But my sister started to investigate this matter, and she guessed every guess correctly, so Terry took out his mobile phone again, “I’ll ask someone to check.”

“It’s still my people.”

Isabella thinks that Terry ‘s people are easy to scare people, but her people are different, they are all specially trained.

Terry stopped, looked at his sister, and said trustingly, “Okay.”

Isabella took out her phone and sent a message to Peter, almost scaring Peter to death...

Ever since he knew that the boss was going to take the risk of coming to Paris, and found out that Benjamin actually gave the boss a lot of trust and didn’t follow him personally, Peter was very disappointed in Benjamin, and at the same time worried. He always felt that something happened to the boss, and finally had to sneak around come on...

When he heard the notification tone of his mobile phone, he took it out and saw that the person who sent the message was the boss, and his face turned pale with fright.

Troy was a little puzzled, “What are you doing? Are you sick?”

“Boss sent a message! Said to find me for something! It’s over, it’s over! Does the boss know that we are here? Do you want to settle accounts with us?”

“No way?” Troy was terrified, “Is there still time for me to buy a plane ticket and fly back to the United States?”

“You...you don’t care about the safety of the boss?”

“Isn’t it you? I’m more worried about whether my neck will be broken by the boss than the safety of the boss...”

“Then you are willing to let the boss wring my neck alone?” Peter grabbed him, “Don’t leave! I don’t care, we will die together!”

“Don’t, let me go, I have never been in love in my life, and I have never experienced the beauty of life...”

Peter’s cell phone vibrated again, it was a question mark from the boss.

He wanted to cry but had no tears, so he took great courage to unlock the screen. After clicking in, he found that the boss wanted him to check an orphanage in the United States!

He couldn’t believe it, the boss didn’t notice that they came here?

What kind of orphanage did the boss check for no reason?

God, I almost scared him to death just now!

“Don’t worry, boss, we promise to complete the task!” Peter replied first again.

Isabella saw that Peter on the phone sent a few emoticons of loving her, resisted the urge to block him, put away the phone, and looked at Eliza and Kay again.

“There will be results in two days.”

Both Eliza and Kay couldn’t believe it, who is this girl? She said that if she checked the orphanage, the results would be available in two days???

You know, they have been looking for their daughter for two or three months, and they haven't heard anything about it...

"When will we find Nora..." Eliza was obviously worried, it sounded like her daughter was in danger...

Chapter 482 Found a Problem

But Isabella said softly, "As long as you tell us everything you know, I believe that Nora's whereabouts will be found soon."

When Isabella said this, she paused, and then said, "Nora lied to you that she found her biological parents and wanted to live abroad with her biological parents, but we checked the flights in the past year, and there was no record of her departure."

Kay and Eliza were stunned again.

"I just said that Nora is not a heartless person, something must have happened to her..." Eliza has been with her daughter for many years, and they have already had a tacit understanding. Ever since her daughter said that she found her biological parents and wanted to leave them, she felt something was wrong and panicked.

Seeing Eliza wipe away her tears silently, Kay also had a sore nose and a hoarse voice, "I hope she really found her biological parents, and I don't want her to be in danger..."

If possible, they would rather their daughter be happy for the rest of her life, even if they can never see each other again...

"I heard from my neighbors that a group of people went to your house a few months ago, and they were still walking around in the yard in the rain." Isabella looked up at them.

According to neighbors, after that day, Scott's house did not open the door for four or five days. The neighbors saw them four or five days later and asked them what was going on.

“That time...” Kay hesitated to speak, not knowing whether to say it or not.

“Tell them, they are good people and really want to help us.” Eliza advised.

In the end, Kay chose to tell the whole story, “It was a rainy night, I fell asleep, and suddenly heard a sound coming from Nora’s room. At first I thought I heard it wrong, but after a while, there was another sound coming from Nora’s room.” It came, and now, Eliza heard it too.”

“Both of us thought it was Nora’s return. We were excited and excited, so we got up to look. At that time, the sound of the storm was too loud, and it made people panic when it hit the windows.”

“The door of Nora’s room was ajar, and I saw two or three people sneaking through things in the room...”

“At that time, I thought there was a burglar in the house, so I took Eliza’s hand and tiptoed downstairs, trying to ask the neighbors for help.”

“Unexpectedly, there were several people in the living room. on the first floor who were also rummaging through boxes and cabinets. If we went down, we would throw ourselves into a trap. When they found us, they rushed over. During the resistance, Eliza and I were injured.”

“Later, we tried every means to escape to the yard, but we were caught by them and knocked out.”

Isabella understood, no wonder there were so many bloodstains on the floor of the living room, and some in the yard. As she guessed, Mrs. Scott, Scott’s father, was in danger.

“When we woke up, we found that our hands and feet were bound, and there were several people guarding us in the living room. They were all wearing black hoods and black clothes, and we couldn’t see their faces clearly.”

“They kept asking the same question over and over, which is the Nora people, but we don’t know the whereabouts of Nora either.”

“At first, we thought that Nora was attracted by people from the underworld because she was young and beautiful, but as we got to the end, we realized that things were not simple.”

Hearing this, Isabella asked again, “How many days have they locked you up?”

“Three days.” Kay said truthfully.

“Aside from asking about Nora ‘s whereabouts, did you say anything else?”

“No.” Kay recalled, “No matter what we asked them, they kept silent, oh yes, they even looked through the chat history in our mobile phone, as if they wanted to know if we had any personal contact with Nora, and they even took pictures Sending Nora the way we were hurt... We wondered if they were using us as bait to force Nora to show up.”

“No, this child has never responded to our messages since he found his biological parents... We were worried that she would come here foolishly when she saw us hurt, but luckily she didn’t...”

Kay breathed a sigh of relief, he would rather have an accident himself than put his daughter in danger.

“They seem to have received a very important call, and they didn’t untie us before they left. We haven’t eaten for three days. Although the wound is not deep, we haven’t treated the bandage. Both of them have a fever... Later we It took two days of slowing down at home to come back to life.”

Isabella understood, no wonder the neighbor said that Mr. and Mrs. Scott didn't open the door until four or five days later...

"Did they leave anything behind when they left?" Isabella asked again.

"Just a warning, if you don't want Nora to have an accident, just shut up honestly and don't say what you shouldn't, otherwise the whole village will suffer."

Hearing this, Terry asked again, "Are those people very skilled, as if they have received special training?"

Kay nodded, "It doesn't look like a normal person."

At first, the couple thought that this group of people were gangsters, but the more they looked at it later, the more they felt that they were not ordinary gangsters.

"So you guessed that Nora was in danger and wanted to find her?" Isabella asked again.

"Yeah." Kay nodded, "But what we didn't expect is that we have been in Florida for almost three months, and there is no news at all, and we also found some very strange things."

"What's the matter?" Isabella and Terry asked again in unison.

"When we went to work as English tutors for others and made a little money, we always felt that the things in our house had been moved when we got home."

When Isabella heard it, she suddenly had a bad feeling, "You mean, someone has been here?"

"It seems to be more than once." Kay said again, "I remember one time, I clearly put away all the daily necessities, but when I came back the next day, the order I saw was different from what I put. There were some subtle differences. And the location of the tissue box, the location of the vase..."

"Stop talking." Isabella got up immediately, turned off the lights in the whole room, took out the detector from her bag, and tested all parts of the living room, and found 6 cameras and 4 bugs. The moment in the living room was probably captured.

Isabella started directly, removing the hidden camera in the wall socket, as well as the tiny camera in the screw hole, etc...

Eliza was terrified, hid in her husband's arms, and watched the girl's series of manipulations in disbelief...

She didn't expect that some seemingly inconspicuous little things turned out to be a pair of "eyes", staring at their movements all the time...

Kay suddenly discovered that the brothers and sisters were not ordinary people. After all, they even carried such detection equipment with them at all times, and the calm and wise face of the girl was not like an ordinary high school student at all!

Who are they? What kind of identity do you have!

Seeing the girl tearing down everything and destroying it,

Eliza couldn't help asking, "Son, are you sure these things are cameras and bugs?"

Chapter 483

"Well, these are the same as the ones installed in your house. Although they are not the latest styles, they are more than enough for monitoring movement."

“Why are they spying on us?”

Eliza thought to herself, no wonder her husband always felt that the layout of the house had changed a few times before. At that time, she thought he was thinking too much. Now it seems that the gang entered their house several times and installed cameras and wiretapping. device!

Just thinking about it makes my whole body go numb.

“However, you and your wife live together on weekdays, and they probably don’t bother to listen to your 24-hour movements. What’s more, when we were talking just now, I had already turned on the anti- eavesdropping device, so they couldn’t hear our conversation..”

Isabella took out a small button, and without looking carefully, she couldn’t tell the difference between it and a real button.

Not only Kay and Eliza, but even Terry was a little surprised. I didn’t expect my sister to carry so many treasures...

Isabella came here this time to investigate Nora ‘s whereabouts, so she packed all kinds of artifacts in her small backpack.

“But the fact that Terry and I came here should have been captured by the surveillance camera, but the other party couldn’t hear the sound because the sound source was interfered, but the surveillance video can still be seen.”

“So, this place is not safe anymore?” Eliza was confused.

“Well, you go and pack your things, we’ll get out of here as soon as possible.”

"Isabella said just now that Nora didn't come to Florida, and it doesn't make sense for us to stay here. Let's pack up our things and go with them..." Eliza discussed with her husband.

She has lingering fears about that group, after all, they are ruthless and skilled...

Kay nodded, and went into the room with her to pack their luggage.

Isabella took out her mobile phone again, and found Ellie's WhatsApp that she just added, and asked him to book a hotel under the Mason Group first, which is relatively safe.

"Isabella, Terry doesn't know how to thank you."

At this point in the investigation, the younger sister is the biggest contributor, but Terry is also worried that he will bring the dangers around him to his younger sister.

"I'm just looking for my third sister-in-law, it should be."

The third sister-in-law is a member of the family, and it is her responsibility to look for someone who has disappeared.

"Don't worry, will the third sister-in-law you speak of get along with you in the future?"

After all, my sister hasn't met Nora yet, and she doesn't know how Nora behaves...

"Whatever it is, as long as Terry likes it."

Isabella can't speak well, but the people Terry identified must have the same character, so she is not worried.

Even if she and the third sister-in-law are cold and reticent, and they don't usually talk together, as long as Terry is happy, this is enough.

Suddenly, there was a strange noise in the bedroom, and Eliza even subconsciously screamed, "Isabella!"

Isabella realized something was wrong, exchanged glances with Terry, and immediately entered the room.

In the bedroom, a man in black wearing a hood covered Eliza's mouth, and Kay was still struggling with another man in black...

Seeing this scene, Isabella kicked the man in black beside Scott's father away. The man in black knew that the girl was not easy, so he avoided the kick, and was too lazy to waste time with Scott's father. He just wanted to get rid of the girl in front of him..

Terry ran to rescue Mrs. Scott again. When he was fighting the man in black, Eliza was trembling with fright...

Kay made Eliza hide next to the bedside table, picked up the

The man in black noticed the danger and dodged extremely quickly. The desk lamp almost hit Terry's head, but was kicked away by Isabella....

A lot of people in black poured in again on the first floor. Isabella turned her head and said to Kay behind her, "Go out through the window. I'll ask Ellie to meet you outside. Terry, use my mobile phone to call Ellie."

After finishing speaking, she threw the phone to Terry again, locked the door directly, and looked up at the dozen or so men in black standing in front.

"Who the hell are you? Why do you meddle in your own business?" The leading man in black was murderous, his sharp eyes filled with terror.

"It's your father." Isabella attacked directly, not wanting to talk nonsense with them.

Terry didn't know the password of his sister's mobile phone at all. Fortunately, he was also a hacker, so he finally cracked his sister's password. Unexpectedly, it turned out to be 123456...

He almost shed bitter tears, and after calling Ellie, he escorted the two old men through the window, left the yard, and came to the door, just as Ellie's car appeared.

"Uncles and aunts, don't be afraid, Ellie will take you to a safe place..." He had to go in to help his sister, and he couldn't let her face danger alone.

"My bag..." Eliza cried anxiously in a low voice, "There is a scarf that Nora wove for me in the bag, and a necklace that she bought for me after making money..."

Although they are not worth much, but everything is of great significance to her, she only has these few things left, and keep them in mind.

"Don't worry, I'll get the bag back in a while." Seeing another man in black chasing after him, Terry immediately closed the car door and faced it alone.

Terry, you have to protect yourself, Terry..." Eliza patted the car window, seeing so many people surrounding Terry, she was trembling with fright.

Kay didn't expect things to become so complicated and dangerous, "Stop."

Ellie thought she had heard wrong.

"I can't leave the danger to those two children, stop quickly." Kay felt that he had to help anyway, "Those people are coming for us and my wife, I can't let those two children face it!"

Isn't this equivalent to sending two children to die?

But Ellie hesitated to speak, and finally could only say, "Well... Mr. Scott, even if there are a hundred of you, you are no match for Ms. Young alone. If she can't handle it, then it's useless for you to go....."

A hundred him???

Both Kay and Eliza were stunned. That girl, can one defeat a hundred? ? ?

Seeing Angela being cold, quiet and well-behaved...

Can hit so many people??

"Who are you?" Eliza asked Ellie who was driving again, "Where are you taking us?"

"Don't worry, Ms. Young and Sir will come to join you in a while." Ellie said this, and while waiting for the traffic light, she reported the matter to Green.

It means that when his car left the apartment, those people swarmed out, some of them should have seen his license. plate number, and he needed to send more people, otherwise he was afraid of danger.

And Kay and Eliza are still thinking: Sir?? What's the meaning? Why is the driver named Terry Sir?

the third young master of some big family??

After Green received the news, he ordered his subordinates to hurry up and rush to the apartment to help Ms. Young...

At this time, Isabella and Terry beat up the whole room, and Isabella stepped on the belly of one of the men in black, "Don't tell me?"

Chapter 484 There's Something Inside

The man in black wanted to bite his tongue to kill himself, but Isabella raised her hand, and the white powder fell profusely.

Many people fainted.

When Benjamin 's men arrived, the room was full of chaos, and there were more than a dozen people lying there.

Their hoods had been removed a long time ago, revealing unfamiliar faces, and there were no tattoos or marks on their bodies.

“You take care of the rest.”

Isabella knew that these people were very hard-spoken and would not be able to ask questions within a few days, so she said, “Be careful, don't attract attention.”

“Yes, Ms. Young.”

The headed bodyguard watched Isabella's back, took out his mobile phone, and wanted to secretly take a photo of Isabella 's back...

Unexpectedly, Isabella noticed something, turned her head and asked, “What are you doing?”

The man trembled with fear, “I, I'll show Mr. Mason to prove that Ms. Young is safe...”

Terry thought that this man had taken a fancy to his sister and wanted to secretly take a photo as a souvenir...but it was Benjamin who meant it.

“...” Isabella was also a little speechless. Before she left, she confessed, “Deal with the scene as soon as possible.”

“Yes!” The man blushed, a little embarrassed.

Terry picked up the bag on the ground and opened it. There was a scarf and other personal items inside.

It should be the bag Mrs. Scott mentioned.

There is a car outside the door to take them to meet Ellie.

As soon as I got into the car, Isabella asked, “Terry, did you find anything new?”

Just now, after the two brothers and sisters teamed up to beat up those people, they found their mobile phones and found that their chat content used some special codes to communicate, and someone even sent a photo of Isabella, probably meaning to catch this girl.

This photo was taken from the surveillance screen. Terry knew that his sister was being targeted by the gang, and the next step would be very dangerous.

He cracked it in the house for a while, and found nothing new.

“After deciphering these codes in a while, I will try remote tracking to see if I can find any clues,” Terry said.

Isabella leaned back, full of bossy aura, “It’s really impossible, just wait for the next group of people to come, I pretend to be outnumbered and be taken away by them.”

In this way, you can know where their lair is and what kind of organization it is...

Even, they can follow the clues and find out about Nora 's past...

"No, I can't let you take this risk!" Terry immediately denied the proposal, "I'm going too!"

"Go, can you get away?" Isabella raised her eyebrows and asked.

'..." Terry naturally knew that these people's skills were not simple. If it wasn't for his sister present today, he would probably be hard-pressed to defeat the crowd by himself...

"In any case, this matter is not negotiable, I will not cooperate with you, and I will not allow you to take risks." Terry was reluctant to let his sister take risks alone.

"Terry, I have my measure."

"No! There is no room for negotiation on this matter." Terry thought to himself, with his younger sister's temper, even if he disagreed, the little girl would do it in Terry, let me keep the mobile phones of those people just now."

There's Something Inside

"Do you think that after I crack the code, I won't tell you?"

Terry 's going to be alone, isn't he?"

"..." Terry didn't expect his sister to be so smart.

My sister's level of hacking is obviously higher than his. If you leave all the mobile phones to her for safekeeping, in case she cracks it first, go alone...

Terry, I think there's a little bit of trust missing between us."

"..." Terry felt the pressure from his sister, so he could only say, "Well, I promise you, after I crack it, I will share the information with you, but you also have to promise that you are not allowed to take risks alone, and you can go there if you want to." It must be the two of us, brother and sister, going together."

"OK."

Anyway, I agreed first.

"Don't lie," Terry emphasized.

"good."

Hearing her assurance, Terry relaxed a little.

The car was parked in front of a large pasture in the outskirts, where there were vast grasslands and herds of cattle grazing leisurely with their heads down.

There is an inconspicuous house in the middle of the ranch, where Scott's father, Mrs. Scott, was sent.

This is a relatively safe place under Benjamin's name, and no one will find it for the time being.

When Terry got out of the car, he didn't hold the bag in his hand properly, and the contents fell out.

Isabella bent down to pick it up, but found the necklace a bit strange.

“What’s wrong?” Terry looked at her puzzled.

Isabella shook the necklace in her hand again, “There seems to be something inside.”

“Something?” Terry took the necklace and took a look. It was a red rope necklace with a Buddha head on it. It looked ordinary, as if it was prayed from a temple for safety. He shook it like Isabella did., I really found a slight sound coming from inside.

There seems to be something!

They walked towards the house, and Eliza had been waiting at the door anxiously for a long time. Seeing their safe return, she had a sore nose, happy and blamed herself.

“It’s fine if you’re fine, it’s fine...”

Seeing that they were not injured at all, Eliza couldn’t help hugging the two children.

Kay felt more and more that these two brothers and sisters were not simple. In such a dangerous situation just now, they were able to come here unscathed and safely...

An ordinary person would never have such skill.

Auntie, here is your bag.” Terry handed the bag over.

Eliza cried with joy, “It’s great, I didn’t lose it, everything is still there...”

“And this necklace...” Terry handed the necklace over and reminded by the way, “There seems to be something inside.”

“I suggest you take it apart and have a look.” Isabella said warmly.

thing???

what???

“This is the necklace that Nora begged for her dad from the temple last year. It was used for safety. Later, the rope broke and she didn’t wear it...” Eliza explained that last year, Kay was not lucky, so Nora went to the temple to ask for this, and I asked Kay to carry it every day, and I was not allowed to take it off.

“Take it out and take a look.” Kay also shook the head of the Buddha statue at this time, and heard a slight sound coming from inside.

What if there are clues in there?

“How do I take this apart?” Eliza had no idea what to do.

“Let me try.” Isabella found that the head of this Buddha statue is not simple, and the principle of locks is used inside, one layer after another. If the order is not correct, it cannot be opened at all...

In the end, everyone saw that there was a very small chip inside the opened head of the Buddha statue!

“Why is there such a thing?” Kay and Eliza said in unison, “What is it for?”

is also the first time for Isabella to see such a small and exquisite chip, which is a little bigger than a grain of rice, and I don’t know what it is for.

“Could it be that Nora has something to tell us through this chip?”

Chapter 485

Terry seemed to have found something to be involved with Nora, and his heart was agitated.

Isabella suddenly remembered something, " Terry, did Nora give you an amulet too?"

When Terry heard it, he suddenly realized, "Do you think there is something hidden in that amulet too...?"

"possible."

Terry immediately took out his wallet and took out the red triangular amulet.

He shook it, but didn't hear any sound coming from inside the amulet.

Thinking that there might be clues hidden in it, he became ruthless and opened the amulets layer by layer...

Kay and Eliza held their breath and carefully watched his movements. Not long after, a small crescent appeared in the innermost part of the amulet.

This crescent is about the size of a fingertip, is made of platinum, and has a strange symbol engraved on it.

"Is this the clue Nora left me?"

Terry didn't expect that Nora had hidden the relevant things in this amulet a long time ago, but he waited so long to find

If it wasn't for his sister's reminder, he probably wouldn't have found out in his lifetime...

He is really stupid!

“What does this little crescent moon mean and what is its use?” Eliza couldn’t figure it out at all,” What message does Nora want to convey to us...”

Kay didn’t know what the purpose of this gadget was, he held it in his hand and looked at it repeatedly, “If Nora is really involved in a certain organization, then the small symbol on the crescent moon, could it be the logo of a certain organization?”

“It’s possible.” Isabella affirmed, “I’ll have someone check it out.”

She took a photo and sent it to Peter, asking him to find out the symbol as quickly as possible.

“Nora must have realized that she was in danger a long time ago. She didn’t abandon us as parents, and she didn’t leave Terry. She had to do this as a last resort...” Eliza guessed something, tears streaming down again.

“I have another suggestion.”

As soon as Isabella finished speaking, everyone looked at her in unison, wondering what new ideas the little girl had.

What Nora left behind, I suggest, take it all apart and have a look.”

“You, you mean, you have to take apart the scarf?” Eliza ‘s tears were stuck in her eyes, but there was nothing hidden inside the scarf...

She has washed it many times, even if there is a clue, it must have been washed away by her long ago...

“What if there are new discoveries?”

Hearing Isabella 's words, after thinking about it, Eliza finally decided to take off the scarf to see what happened.

Kay picked up a platinum necklace, "This is Nora 's first gift to her mother after making money. It's made of platinum, so there should be nothing suspicious."

"Let me see." Isabella took the heart platinum necklace, which looked ordinary, but Isabella still took out a miniature magnifying glass from her bag to see if there was anything written on it.

"Son, are you worrying too much..." Kay couldn't help but said, "How could there be clues on this..."

"There was a news before. I don't know if you have read it. There is a Writing Master who can write 3mm characters with a brush. Calligraphy circles call it: Weishu."

While observing, Isabella said, "Later, another Writing Master wrote even smaller characters, with a length and width of only 0.8 mm, which broke the world record. Now, even smaller characters appear.

Kay was shocked. She didn't expect such a miracle to exist in the world.

Eliza felt that they had spent half their lives in the small town, and they were really a little ignorant. She didn't expect that there were so many talented people in the outside world.

Terry, there are two lines of strange codes on the heart pendant of this necklace, take a look."

Isabella really found out this clue, she handed the things to her brother, Terry saw it, really!!

"It should be written in special ink, or it might be printed. I don't know what Nora wants to convey to us."

Isabella found that Nora was also very smart, leaving so many clues.

Terry was faintly excited because of this discovery. At first, he thought that finding out Nora 's whereabouts was far away. Now it seems that as long as these things are deciphered, the results will be soon!

"Do these codes look like the symbols that appeared on their mobile phones?" Terry guessed, " Nora must have been in danger a long time ago. She guessed that something might happen to her, so she left us clues in advance so that Let's check."

"I think that Nora probably guessed that she was in danger, so she kept these things. These may be used by the organization to save your life."

As long as the bargaining chips are there, they are eligible to negotiate.

At this time, Eliza also opened the scarf, and found that there was still a thick wool inside, and there seemed to be something in the wool.

"What is this?" She cut it open and saw that it was a small silver key.

It's about the size of a fingertip, and I don't know what this thing can do for the time being...

What kind of incident was Nora involved in..." Eliza felt more and more that things were not simple.

"Nora should hold the handle of that organization, that's why those people tried their best to track down her whereabouts." Isabella guessed, "A few months ago, those people went to your house and didn't kill you, it may be because These things are in the hands of Nora, they know that if something happens to you, Nora will fight with them to death..."

When Eliza heard it, her nose became sore again. What else is this silly boy hiding from them...

Is her current situation safe or not...

At this time, Isabella 's cell phone vibrated, and she saw that it was Benjamin calling.

"I'll take a call."

Isabella got up and went to the window.

"Isabella." Benjamin's gentle voice came from the phone, "No injury?"

"No." Isabella raised the corners of her lips, "Didn't the people under your command take pictures and send them to you?"

"..." Benjamin didn't expect his subordinates to be so stupid that they could be spotted by taking a photo, so he said, "I have something to tell you."

"You say." Isabella looked back again, Eliza was wiping tears silently, while Terry and Kay were comforting.

"Before you say anything, you must promise me that I will participate in the next activities." Benjamin began to negotiate terms with her.

When Isabella heard it, she immediately guessed that he had found some important clues, so she said straightforwardly, "Okay."

"I found out that the last place Nora appeared was a month ago. Someone saw her in LA."

"you sure?"

"Hmm." Benjamin naturally guessed the little girl's next move, "Take me."

Isabella didn't expect Nora to appear in LA, but after thinking about it carefully, that place is a three-way zone, the most dangerous and safest place...

"Then, your people will send your uncle and aunt back to the United States first, and find a safe place for them to stay. Tomorrow you go directly to LA, and we will meet there."

Chapter 486

After hanging up the phone, Isabella raised her eyes and ordered, "Ayu, prepare for the plane, and send your uncle and aunt back to the United States first."

"Yes." Ayu quickly took the order.

Eliza raised her tearful eyes and asked in surprise, "Going back soon? But we haven't found Nora yet..."

"This matter is too involved. It's not safe for the two of you to stay here." Isabella came to them and said softly, "We will definitely find Nora, trust us."

"Take us with you." Eliza grabbed Isabella's hand and pleaded, "We don't want to go back to the United States, we promise, we will never hold you back...As long as we are in a city, we will be far away when you are doing business, just don't follow..."

"No." Isabella resolutely said, "We are going to the next place, which is more dangerous than this place."

LA is notoriously chaotic after all...

Even if she and Benjamin's people accounted for half of the country there, it's still best to be careful in everything.

"I can assure you that within a week, there will be news from Nora for you." Isabella seemed to give them a reassurance.

Terry couldn't believe it when he heard it. He could find Nora 's whereabouts in such a short period of time?

Isabella took just now brought any clues??

Nora within a week?" Eliza 's tears flowed down again, she didn't know whether to be happy or excited, "Which country is Nora now? Which city?"

"It's not far from us." Isabella didn't elaborate, fearing that the two old people would act alone, "Before we find her, you should stay at the place we arranged for a few days, where someone will take care of you, protect you, provide food and shelter not a problem."

"Do you have to go back?" Eliza still wanted to be closer to her daughter, and didn't want to leave so quickly.

Kay on the side seemed to have made a decision, "Listen to the children, go back, we are here, we can't help them, we will only cause trouble for them, they said there will be news about Nora, so there must be, Isabella, we Leave a contact information."

Kay took out his phone, saved Isabella and Terry 's phone numbers, and added WhatsApp.

Eliza also added, but she was still worried about one thing, "We just left so rashly, without telling the old gentleman who taught..."

"Yeah, that's a poor man, let me call him first." Kay called a few times, but the other party never answered.

As soon as Eliza said this, Isabella denied it, "No, you can't go anywhere now, the plane will arrive soon."

“But... that old gentleman is really pitiful.” Eliza always felt that leaving like this was too irresponsible to others.

She told Isabella that the old man was also an American. After his son married a foreign daughter-in-law, he moved to France with his son. Because he didn't understand French, he couldn't communicate with his daughter-in-law.

Later, the job of the daughter-in-law changed, and the son and daughter-in-law moved to live far away from here. It was in the suburbs, and it was not convenient for the old man to buy groceries.

Later, the old man stayed alone in the old house here, and he also found an English tutor, learning English every day, in order to be able to communicate with his grandchildren when they came to visit him every month...

If Kay and Eliza are gone, the old gentleman will be even more alone...

He is usually alone, and no one goes to talk to him.

“He gave us a lot of money at that time, and the rest had to be sent back to him.” Eliza didn't want to take advantage of him for nothing.

“Then give me his mobile phone number, and I'll call him later. If he doesn't answer, I'll send the money to him.”

“Okay, just say, we asked you to go, express our apologies for us, and say that we really have something to do, and we didn't break the appointment on purpose...” Eliza felt really sorry.

Isabella wrote down the phone number and address, and then said to Terry, " Terry, you stay here for a while and send them to the plane."

"good."

At this time, Isabella 's cell phone vibrated again, and she saw that it was Mr. Brown calling.

"Little girl, what are you busy with recently? The school doesn't come here. The results of the P31 research have come out. I plan to conduct the next experiment with you."

Isabella got up and came to the window, and said softly, Mr. Brown, I've been abroad recently, and I have something to deal with."

"What? You went abroad?" Mr. Brown's eyes widened suddenly, "Didn't you say that some forces were looking for you earlier? Isn't it equivalent to throwing yourself into a trap by running away? Come back quickly! You have nothing to do with yourself. Safety is important! Are you short of money? Grandpa has it, and Grandpa will give it to you."

"Those forces have been quieter recently." Isabella raised the corners of her lips, "It's okay, I will protect myself, it's not about money, I just want to find someone."

"You'd be safer at school..." Mr. Brown was always worried that if she showed her face all over the world, it would bring more disasters.

In the past, those people didn't know her identity, and she could go abroad to do some business, but now, she is the target of many people.

"I know, I'll be back soon." Isabella reassured in turn.

"Then I will do other experiments first, and I will study this together when you come. Let me tell you, if this is as we expected, it will be a medical achievement that will sensationalize the world. By then, your name will be more valuable than it is now." , it can be said that the future is boundless."

“It’s all thanks to Grandpa.” Isabella didn’t grab the honor, but said, “You are the one who spends the longest time in the laboratory, and you are the one who spends so much time researching...”

“In the future, it will be the country of young people. I don’t plan to leave my name. I want to finish these experiments and go back to the mountains to retire...”

Mr. Brown also felt that he had more energy than he wanted, “I’m getting older, so I can make more contributions to this society while I can still move, help those who are sick, and reduce some pain...”

The scene of his wife’s death is still vivid in his mind, and it still hurts his heart and makes him suffer unceasingly.

For some incurable diseases, if he finds out the solution

Now, once he and Isabella’s medical results come out, how many people will be saved and their families will be spared...

He has experienced the pain of the death of a loved one, so he doesn’t want others to experience it too...

“You miss grandma again?” Isabella knew that at this moment, he must be thinking of her wife.

“When we finish researching these projects, I can show off to your grandma in hell and let her praise me.”

Chapter 487 Not a Good Thing

Mr. Brown smiled on the phone again, “Okay, you are busy with your work, try to come back as soon as possible, the outside is not peaceful, no more than the United States...”

Her own power in the United States, the power of the grandfathers, and the power of Benjamin... at least they can keep her safe.

But not necessarily outside...

Isabella smiled slightly, "Okay, I see."

After hanging up the phone, Isabella saw Peter sent her two WhatsApp messages.

[Boss, the four people in Woods Villa don't eat or drink, and they want to commit suicide whenever they get the chance.. If it wasn't for your life-sustaining needle, they probably would have died long ago.]

[I have tried all methods now, but they just refuse to reveal a word, what should I do?]

They were beaten and beaten, tortured and tortured, but their bones were tough, and they refused to reveal the slightest bit of news.

Isabella's slender fingers replied, "Don't want to reveal? Hasn't it already been revealed? Those unknown and inconspicuous small organizations, under such torture, have already revealed what they know."

Isabella typed another sentence, "I would rather die than reveal a word like this, and keep the secrets of the organization tight-lipped. In fact, there are only a dozen or so outside the United States."

Peter quickly replied, "Yes, I can investigate from these dozen or so organizations first, maybe there will be clues."

"Other things I asked you to check, give me the results as soon as possible." Isabella didn't want to have long nights and dreams.

“Yes! Boss! I will hurry up.”

After Isabella replied to the message, she looked up at Terry again, “Terry, come out.”

Terry was still gently enlightening the two old people, but when he heard what his sister said, he got up and went outside the house.

Benjamin called me just now, saying that someone had seen Nora a month ago.”

“What did you say?” Terry held his sister’s shoulder excitedly, “Are you sure? Did you read it wrong?”

Benjamin ‘s news, generally you can’t go wrong.”

Terry was very excited, “Then what are you waiting for, we will go to LA after my uncle and aunt get on the plane.”

“Don’t startle the snake.” Isabella said softly, “I have already promised Benjamin that we will meet up there “Can’t you go today?” Terry was so anxious that he wished to fly to LA now, search all the places, and find his beloved Nora.

Because it takes about ten hours to fly from here, and it will be tomorrow when we get there.

Terry couldn’t suppress the restlessness in his heart, and at the same time he was a little worried, “That place is a famous no-go zone, Nora must be there, it must be very dangerous... I don't know who she is with, or just herself Isabella, you don't know, the people in that place are not very nice!"

He was too worried about Nora 's personal safety!

Isabella : Terry, are you talking about me? I am not a good guy?

"There's nothing good there!" Terry worried, "Should we go there now?"

"You have to escort your uncle and aunt to the plane in a while. I have to get in touch with the old gentleman that the uncle and aunt mentioned, and maybe I have to make a trip. Just be careful, it's not too late.."

But Terry still couldn't wait and wanted to find Nora quickly.

However, thinking of the dangers of LA, Terry still said, "I'll just fly there by myself tonight, and I'll meet Benjamin there tomorrow, don't get involved in the next thing, LA is too messy, I'm afraid you will be in danger. "

"Are you sure it's me who is in danger?" Isabella couldn't help laughing. "Okay, I'll call that old gentleman first. You can go in and be with your uncle and aunt. They need someone to guide and comfort them now."

Isabella called the old gentleman a few times, but she still didn't answer. She planned to go there.

address and found that it was not far from here, and it was only a 20-minute drive away.

Ellie was driving her there when suddenly she saw someone standing on the side of the road calling for help.

A bus crashed into a luxury car, and the girl in the car seemed to be in her early twenties, standing on the side of the road and shouting for help in French.

It means, is there any passing vehicle willing to help send the old man in the car to the hospital, because of the crash just now, the old man had a heart attack and couldn't breathe, and their car couldn't start again, it seemed to be broken.

People passing by just told her to call the ambulance hotline, some stopped to watch, but no one really stepped forward to help.

Because the traffic flow is blocked, many cars are moving forward slowly.

The girl stomped her feet anxiously, she looked like she was about to cry, it was really impossible, she planned to take turns carrying him to the hospital by herself and the driver.

Seeing that she was an American, Isabella asked Ellie to stop and go down to have a look.

“need any help?”

As soon as this remark came out, the girl was very excited, and hurriedly asked in English, “Are you a doctor? Do you understand medicine? My old lady was going to the hospital for a re-examination, but she was hit by that bus. She has difficulty moving. He said he couldn't breathe, and it scared us...”

Isabella came to the car and saw the old lady sitting in the back seat, her face was flushed red because she couldn't breathe.

“The doors, windows and sunroof are all open to let in more fresh air.”

After Isabella finished speaking, she took out the needle kit from her bag and quickly gave the old man a needle...

The driver couldn't help being anxious, and asked the short-haired girl in her early twenties, "You asked her to give the old lady an injection? What if something goes wrong?"

Isabella heard their conversation, and said softly, "It's too late to send her to the hospital now, she will be out of breath in less than three minutes, don't worry, I won't mess around."

Because they are all Americans, and the girl's calm eyes, the short-haired girl believed her, and said to the driver in turn, "Let her try, she carries an injection kit with her, she must know medicine."

Who has nothing to wear with a prick bag?

Unless it's in this line.

She can still trust doctors in the United States to give needles.

After a while, the old lady gradually became breathless, and her eyes were able to open a weak slit. Because of the lack of oxygen, she was dizzy and had a headache. Suddenly, she saw a beautiful girl who was treating her. She looks inexplicably like her daughter...

She must be hallucinating.

After Isabella gave her the injection, she said, "This old lady's body is very weak, so she should be more careful. In addition, castase is not helpful for her current condition, and Chilswell and Anluo It is recommended to switch to other medicines, otherwise it will increase her physical burden and make her mentally tired, drowsy, chest tightness and mouth pain every day."

The short-haired girls on the side were all stunned, unexpectedly, she was right about all the symptoms of the old lady.

Chapter 488 I feel a little strange

Moreover, among the medicines that the old lady took, there were the three kinds she mentioned.

These three are special medicines, and they are not yet on the market. How did the girl know? How do you tell?

Isn't it amazing?!

The driver also stared wide-eyed. Although he usually didn't take care of the old lady's medicine, but after hearing the girl speak clearly and logically, he still felt that the girl was awesome...

Even this is known.

"Well, do you know medicine? If you don't use these three medicines, what other medicines can you use?" The short-haired girl caught her and asked, "Can you leave a contact information? If you are interested in our old lady's If the condition is helpful, our husband will definitely reward you with a lot of money..."

"The old lady's body cannot be cured in a day or two."

When Isabella took the old man's pulse just now, she found a lot of problems. If she wanted to treat her, she had to change the prescription constantly, and even had to observe the old lady's medication reaction and make adjustments at any time, which was a bit time-consuming.

"Miss, it's time to get in the car."

At this time, Ellie saw that Isabella had been delayed for too long, so she couldn't help coming over to remind her.

There are cars coming and going here, if someone with a heart finds out, Ms. Young will be in trouble that she can't get rid of in the future.

"Can you leave a contact information?" The short-haired girl was a little reluctant to part with this beautiful girl, who looked only in her teens, and she didn't expect to know so much about medicine.

But Isabella thinks, if this scene is seen by the bad guys, they will find her and they will definitely find the old lady's family. She doesn't want to implicate the innocent...

In order not to bring disaster to them, Isabella politely declined, "Anyone who knows a little bit about medicine can solve this problem."

She wasn't lying.

Although the old lady's condition is a bit time-consuming and laborious, it is not difficult to deal with. It can be said that it is much easier than Mrs. Mason's condition.

The short-haired girl watched her get into the car, watched their car drive away, and then realized that she hadn't said thank you to the girl...

"This girl's temperament is amazing." The driver looked at the direction Isabella left and praised, "You are young and good-looking, and she is also proficient in medical skills. This is the first time I have seen her."

I feel a little strange

"Don't look, she has a driver, she must be a lady from a rich family." The short-haired girl said again, "Unfortunately, I forgot to thank her just now, let's take the old lady to the hospital first."

Just now I saw that the girl's license plate number is local. If the husband wants to find her, it should be easy.

in the car.

While driving, Ellie glanced at the girl in the rearview mirror, "Ms. Young..."

"No need to report to him, it's just a trivial matter." Isabella seemed to know what he wanted to say, and gave the answer directly.

Ellie was taken aback, she didn't expect Ms. Young to have the ability to see things...

"But let's not talk about the situation just now, let Mr. Mason know in the future..."

"I'll handle it."

Ellie secretly breathed a sigh of relief, with Ms. Young's words, his life was saved.

The car soon arrived in front of a bungalow in the suburbs.

This bungalow looks a bit old, exuding a touch of history and vicissitudes...

Surrounded by the same old bungalows, at a glance, there should be twenty or thirty buildings here.

feel a little strange

There are five or six steps straight up in front of each bungalow, which is the design style of a long time ago.

“Just wait for me in the car.”

Isabella got out of the car, walked up the steps, and rang the doorbell.

After a while, no one opened the door, and Isabella pressed it twice, thinking that the old gentleman should not be at home.

She saw a crack under the door and was going to write a letter and slip the money under the crack.

Just when she was about to take out the pen and paper, an elderly man suddenly staggered up. He was holding on to the banister of the stairs with one hand, and holding the things he bought from the supermarket in the other. girl.

Isabella heard the voice and looked back, “Is this Ron?”

Ron put down his guard when he heard the long-lost English, and asked kindly, “Which family are you from? Why are you standing at the door of my house?”

Scott asked you to come?” Ron heard this, and grabbed the shopping bag again, “No, no, you can’t carry it like a girl...”

Isabella’s hand accidentally touched his hand, and she paused for a while, instead of continuing to fight, she looked at the old man in front of her.

He looked about seventy years old, with white hair and a stooped back, as if the few steps had exhausted all his strength.

But Isabella still felt a little strange.

“First, come first.” The old man was a little out of breath, and he walked ahead with his bag.

Isabella followed him, closing the door behind her.

“You don’t need to take off your shoes. I’m not afraid of your jokes. I haven’t mopped the floor for a few days...” When the old man said this, he laughed heartily. daughter?”

“No.” Isabella turned against customers and asked quietly, “I heard that you are usually at home alone?”

“I’m the only old man left. My son and daughter-in-law are far away. I asked my son to help me find a good teacher like Scott. Scott should have told you that my grandchildren all speak French. My grandchildren and I They couldn’t communicate, but luckily Scott taught me, my pronunciation is okay, right?”

Isabella smiled slightly, “You’re not bad at your age.”

After Ron put the bag down, he washed his hands again and poured water for Isabella.

“There’s nothing to entertain at home, you drink your saliva first.” His movements were a little slow and clumsy, he put the cup on the coffee table in front of Isabella, sat down again and asked, “ Scott asked you to come over...”

“The couple has something to leave temporarily, so they can’t be your tutors.”

Isabella took out the words written by Eliza from her bag, and the remaining money, “They originally wanted to apologize to you in person, but they had something to do, so they couldn’t come over, and they didn’t answer your call, so let me do it for you. Mr. and Mrs. Scott asked me to hand over the tuition fee to you.”

“They’re leaving?” Ron ‘s eyes showed reluctance. Seeing Isabella put the money on the table, he waved his hand and said, “You tell them not to be polite, you don’t have much money, take it back, and give them money for the journey, I am also very happy to know them...”

Probably because of the thought that he would be single again next time, the old man felt a little sad.

Isabella said softly, “You must be able to find a better tutor.”

“Thank you for your comfort.”

Isabella picked up the cup and looked at the layout of the house, “You cleaned the house really clean.”

“It’s okay hahaha, I used to be in the United States and planted land for decades, and finally my son was successful, so I followed him abroad, but my problem is that I can’t take time off. Look, I raised the flowers and plants outside. ‘

Chapter 489 This Is Ron ‘s Way of Hospitality?

Isabella saw that there were so many flowers and plants outside, it was surprising, it can be said to be a beautiful little garden.

“I made you travel all the way, I feel so sorry, drink some water first? Oh yes, I bought some bread at the supermarket just now, I’ll give it to you...” The old man stood up tremblingly again.

“Do not bother.”

Isabella picked up the cup and smelled Lily as soon as she got close.

She raised her eyes to look at the back of the old man. The old man bent down to get the bread in the bag. It seemed that he was struggling, "I often buy this bread...the taste is not bad."

He staggered to Isabella again, handed it over, and said affectionately, "Try it."

Isabella didn't drink the water, but put down the glass and smiled, "Calendula and mist are separated, this is Ron's way of hospitality?"

The old man didn't expect her to smell it all. The key point is that the girl's eyes are clear and bright, and she doesn't seem to be afraid of the situation in front of her. Her strong psychological quality is quite surprising.

This is Ron's Way of Hospitality?

"What are you talking about?" Ron was still playing dumb.

"In addition to these two, you also ordered aromatherapy."

"Hahahaha..." The old man put down the bread and said with a smile, "When did you find out?"

"At the door." Isabella's beautiful eyes were calm and calm, and she said slowly, "You said that you have planted the land for decades, and you often do housework at home, and even set up a small garden, but I accidentally touched it. To your hand, it doesn't look like a hand that has worked."

That's why Isabella didn't help him carry his things, but deliberately followed his footsteps into the house, hoping to see what he would do next.

"After you entered the room, you put down your things, looked tired, and helped the side table next to you. At this time, you turned on the aromatherapy switch?"

Hearing this, the old man became even more interested, "What else?"

"And when you went to pour water, in order not to let me see, you first took an empty glass, filled it with water, and waited a while before coming out... At this time, you are already administering medicine, right?"

The old man smiled more kindly, "Since you know something is wrong, how dare you come in alone? The little girl is quite brave."

"If you don't come in, you won't be able to see the scene?"

This Is Ron's Way of Hospitality?

"Hahahahaha... She is really a special little girl, why not follow me, I just need an apprentice like you."

"Then tell me, what do you do?"

"Based on your intelligence, how many guesses have you made?" The old man made a sudden move, with quick movements, not at all like a seventy-year-old man...

Isabella responded, and the two fought in the living room.

The old man just compared a few tricks and asked, "What is your relationship with the leader of the Nat Gang in LA?"

As if he was facing an enemy, his expression was vigilant and suspicious.

Isabella raised her eyebrows, "You know him?"

“Answer my question first.” The old man carefully looked at the girl in front of him. Except for her long hair, she had never seen her before. Her body shape, posture, and even her moves were all similar to Nat Gang’s leader...

But the leader of Nat Gang is not a man?

this little girl in front of him be his woman??

Or... a direct disciple?

But Nat Gang ‘s three moves and two moves are not so easy to learn!!

Who is this little girl ??

Was it the Nat Gang who sent her here to meddle??

This Is Ron’s Way of Hospitality?

“What’s the relationship between Nat Gang and Nora ?” The old man asked again, “ Nora is in Nat Gang now?”

“I don’t know what you’re talking about.” Isabella struck out quickly.

She recalled it in her mind, but she didn’t think of who the old man might be. She had never fought against someone so old, but how could the old man guess that her moves were related to the leader of the Nat Gang??

“No matter who you are, you must come with me today.”

He had to take the little girl back to explain to the people above, this little girl is too suspicious, her moves are similar to Nat Gang's leader, she is calm and composed even in danger, this is obviously specially trained!

If the people from Nat Gang really meddled in their affairs, then they just had a chance to attack Nat Gang!

Fight for it all!

Nat Gang for the previous feud!

Ron used the most ruthless moves to deal with the little girl in front of him. He found that the little girl had excellent skills and quick reflexes. The key point was that the aromatherapy floating in the air seemed to be of no use to her at all!

“Who the hell are you?” Ron felt more and more powerless, and Isabella's moves had the upper hand, and he felt more and more that he couldn't turn things around.

This Is Ron's Way of Hospitality?

This girl is amazing.

Isabella planned to take him down with three or five moves. Unexpectedly, Ron suddenly turned over and pressed a mechanism. A dozen iron balls fell from the ceiling, each of which was about the size of a hamburger. If it landed on top of his head, he would definitely die.

After Isabella avoided it easily, she found that the old man turned on another switch and ran away from the safe passage in the wall.

In order to avoid distracting the tiger from the mountain, Isabella didn't intend to chase him. She took out her mobile phone and called Terry.

Terry, I saw that Ron. If I'm not mistaken, he should also be a member of a certain organization. He deliberately got close to uncle and aunt."

When Terry heard this, he immediately asked subconsciously, "Are you not injured?"

"No, it's just that he ran away, and I'm too lazy to chase after him." When Isabella said this, she didn't forget to tell her, "He approached his uncles and aunts in a pitiful capacity, and he probably wanted to extract information about Nora from them. It means that Nora really has what they want."

Terry guessed what those things were, and secretly made up his mind to crack them out quickly.

"Pay attention over there, and send uncle and aunt to the plane earlier." Isabella confessed.

"Okay." Terry stood in front of the ranch house, looked at dozens of men in black walking towards him, and said softly, "Isabella, Terry is a little hungry. On your way back, buy Terry something to eat."

hungry???

When Isabella heard it, she suddenly felt strange.

After all, it is impossible for a madman who loves his sister to let his sister do errands to buy things for him.

The reason why Terry asked her to buy it was probably to delay her going back so soon.

So, Terry should be in danger.

“Okay.” Isabella hung up the phone readily, walked out of the small bungalow, and said to Ellie who was waiting outside, “On your way back, buy some food for Terry and try to arrive before I go back.”

ah??

Ellie was overwhelmed, and asked him to buy something, and told him to hurry up...

“I’ll drive the car away first.” Isabella took the car keys in his hand, got into the car directly, and accelerated to the ranch.

Ms. Young...” Ellie came to her senses and became a little anxious, “You can give me a ride...I can’t get a taxi here...”

Looking at the quiet suburb, Ellie wanted to cry a little, so she could only take out her mobile phone and call her

This in than a tray of subordinates...

Chapter 490

In the ranch, Benjamin ‘s men lined up in a straight line, vowing to protect the people in the house.

Dozens of men in black quickly attacked them, as fast as lightning.

Some men in black rushed to the door, but Terry resisted alone, preventing them from stepping into the door.

“What to do... Is Terry in danger?”

Eliza hid by the window and peeked. While worrying, she once again felt that the child was doing her best to them and protecting them time and time again.

Just because of this child's character, she secretly swore in her heart that if she could find Nora smoothly, she would definitely agree to this marriage with both hands and feet.

"It's causing trouble for them again." Kay was also extremely worried, the killing was fierce outside, Terry's arm had already been slashed severely, and blood Terry..." Eliza's heart ached so badly, so much blood, how much this child hurts!

But Terry didn't stop. Two men in black wanted to break in while he was injured, but he stopped him again.

The situation looks tense.

At this moment, a rattling sound fell from the sky.

Eliza and Kay discovered at the same time that it was a plane, and the plane to meet them was coming!!

A man in black pulled the trigger on the plane, but it didn't prevent it from landing smoothly...

Startled by these noises, the herd ran around.

"We must take Terry and leave with Isabella..." Eliza said this, remembering that Isabella hadn't come back yet, she hurriedly took out her mobile phone, with trembling hands, found out the number she wrote down earlier, and dialed.

"Auntie." Isabella's voice quickly came from the other end. of the phone.

For some reason, Eliza suddenly burst into tears. Hearing Isabella 's voice, all worries, anxieties and fears were all reduced at this moment.

I don't know if it's because the girl is too reliable in her daily affairs, but just hearing her voice makes her feel at ease.

“Isabella, come back quickly, the plane is here.” Eliza's voice was still crying, “The situation has changed, we all have to go together, hurry up.”

“I'm almost there.” Isabella seemed to hear her fear, and comforted her softly, “Don't be afraid.”

Although there were only two words, Eliza burst into tears again, “Okay, be careful on the way back, this place is already surrounded by people, you will see the situation later, get on the plane first, don't rush here to save us foolishly, remember gone.”

“Is Terry okay?” Isabella asked softly again.

As soon as Terry was mentioned, Eliza looked out again, and the child was scratched by a man in black again, and he seemed a little outnumbered.

Although Benjamin 's people are powerful, they can't stand up to the opponent's crowd and have already fallen a little bit.

Eliza choked up even more, “He, he hurt...”

“Don't be afraid, I'll be there soon.” Isabella has already stepped on the gas pedal to the bottom, although this is not the United States, but such a small matter as speeding, Benjamin 's people will definitely settle it.

After a while, Terry managed to get rid of the seven or eight men in black outside, and opened the door panting, "Quick, I'll escort you to the plane..."

Eliza burst into tears when she saw the bloody man in front of her eyes," Terry, leave us alone, you go first..."

One after another, the men in black outside couldn't resist.

In all likelihood, they will not be able to get on the plane...

"Follow me." Terry didn't have time to talk to them so much, he grabbed one with one hand, and just as he stepped out the door, a knife slammed down. They ran in the

His arms were covered in blood, and the clothes on his body had already been stained red with blood.

Eliza cried, and Kay felt bad. If it wasn't for Nora, this young man would not have risked his life to protect them...

He really loves Nora. He loves Nora to the bottom of his heart.

Benjamin 's people were seriously injured. They saw Terry from a distance escorting the two elderly people to the plane, so they reluctantly got up from the ground and tried their best to protect them.

Eliza looked at the tragic situation in front of her, and really didn't understand what kind of people her daughter had provoked. It looked terrible.

There was still some distance from the plane. Benjamin 's men were already injured, but now they fell down one by one. Soon, a dozen or so men in black rushed towards Terry.

Someone else pulled out a knife and swung it at Eliza.

Don't want the lives of the three of them, but make it impossible for the three of them to escape, so that they can be brought back to report.

Seeing that someone was going to hurt Eliza, Terry immediately pulled her to his side. On the other side, the falling knife hit his shoulder, and he gasped in pain.

“Terry...” Eliza was terrified, the kid was clearly in pain and still struggling.

Seeing another man in black slashing at Terry, Kay hurriedly pushed him away with all his strength, but he didn't notice what was going on behind him. He was kicked and fell to the ground.

Kay...” Eliza wanted to help him, but several men in black came at them again, and Eliza closed her eyes in fright.

Terry pulled Eliza away to avoid the falling knives, kicked away the man in black who was going to chop Scott's father, pulled Scott's father, pushed him behind him together with Eliza, and shouted, “Run!”

He stayed alone to take care of them. Looking at the twenty or so men in black in front of him, Terry knew that he might have to confess here.

Fortunately, my sister hasn't come back, otherwise, he will feel guilty for the rest of his life.

I don't know what delicious food my sister will bring him, and whether he will have a chance to eat it...

Eliza couldn't move at all. Terry was obviously no match for the men in black. He was still injured, blood dripping down his clothes onto the grass, and he looked like a heroic warrior.

“Go-” Kay knew that the two of them staying would be the real hindrance for Terry. He pulled Eliza and persuaded, Terry will find a way, he still loves Nora, and he will find a way to survive.”

Terry...” Eliza yelled in pain, her eyes blurred with tears, “You must protect yourself, your mother-in-law is waiting to drink your wedding wine...you must live!”

Hearing this, Terry suddenly laughed, a handsome and charming smile.

Does he have the affirmation of his future father-in-law?

So he died today without regret.

“Go-” Kay pulled Eliza into a run.

Eliza turned her head and saw a dozen men in black attacking Terry. Among them, a gleaming silver knife cut Terry ‘s back, and a bloodstain appeared impressively.

During the second that Terry was hurting and enduring the pain, more fists, kicks, knives and sticks attacked him.

Terry—— ” Eliza felt that she couldn’t leave. She didn’t want Terry to trade theirs for theirs, so she wouldn’t feel at ease for the rest of her life.
