

Chased Her 491

Chapter 491 Find out

At this moment, there was a rapid sound of an engine driving towards this side.

The girl in the driver's seat had a cold aura and a calm face.

The car circled the group of men in black at a very fast speed. Except for Terry, all the men in black were shot and fell down.

Isabella threw the spent gun aside, got out of the car, and helped Terry up again, "Are you all right?"

Terry looked at his younger sister in front of him, and suddenly asked anxiously, "Didn't I tell you to come back later?"

As soon as the words fell, more than a dozen cars drove towards this side, and a new man in black appeared.

"You protect your uncle and aunt and go first."

How dare she hurt Terry?

Isabella raised her eyes and looked at the menacing vehicles, her eyes turned cold, none of these people would even try to run away!

Terry didn't argue any more, but escorted Kay and Eliza up the stairs first.

At the same time, Benjamin also sent new reinforcements.

The situation is increasingly favorable for them.

Terry sent the two old people to the plane, and Eliza held his hand and said reluctantly, "Let's go together..."

"I'm still going to find Nora, you go first..." Terry knew that Eliza was worried about the safety of the two brothers and sisters. He raised the corners of his handsome lips and comforted him, "Don't worry, we will be fine."

"But your injury..."

"I'll bandage it in a while. I'll help Isabella first. I'll contact you later." Terry asked the people inside to close the door.

Eliza patted the door, looked at Terry's leaving back, and cried again, "Be careful Terry, be careful in everything..."

ten minutes later.

Isabella and Benjamin's people finally got rid of the men in black. Looking at the dozens of people lying on the ground, Isabella was glad in her heart that she was back. If she had gone after that Ron, the consequences would have been disastrous.

Just then, a plane descended from the sky again.

"Ms. Young, Mr. Mason asked me to prepare the plane for you again and fly directly to LA." A bodyguard respectfully said, "Please follow me. There is also a medicine box on the plane, which can help Sir."

Isabella supported the blood man next to her, "Can I still go?"

"It's okay, this little injury is nothing to Terry, hiss..."

Seeming to have accidentally pulled the wound, Terry gasped in pain.

Isabella raised the corners of her lips, " It's a pity that Nora didn't see that scene just now.

"How can I let her see it, she will feel uncomfortable." Terry took another breath of cold air in pain, unexpectedly, even when the cold wind poured into the wound, he could feel the heart-piercing pain.

At this moment, he remembered what Peter said before, when his sister was injured when she faced those dangers alone, how much pain should it have??

How did she endure it??

Isabella helped Terry onto the special elevator.

Ms. Young, you asked me to buy this..." Ellie came here out of breath, holding a bunch of delicious food in her hand.

After Isabella took it, she thanked her and helped Terry get on the plane.

"You still have someone buy me food?" Terry was a little surprised.

Didn't Terry say you were hungry?"

"I..." Terry couldn't answer for a moment. He wanted his sister to come back later, but he didn't expect his sister to ask another person to buy it...

This seems to be okay??

What should he say about his sister??

on the plane.

Isabella treated Terry's wound, and every bloodstain looked shocking.

I didn't expect Terry to be so tolerant. If it were someone else, he would be so painful that he couldn't move after one or two injuries...

Terry's endurance was pretty good. Fortunately, the wounds were not deep. It seemed that those people didn't intend to kill him.

"What are you thinking?" Terry couldn't help asking.

"Those people probably want to arrest you and return to your life, so there is no serious injury." Isabella did not forget to say after analyzing, "If it hurts, just call it out."

"How can I be in pain..." Terry said this, the medicine powder fell on his wound, he hastily gritted his teeth and endured it, even though his sister's attack was already very light, but the effect of the wound and the medicine powder still caused him pain cold sweat.

It just hurts.

Isabella looked at his expression and couldn't help laughing, "Call it out, I won't laugh at you."

Terry doesn't hurt at all..." After Terry finished speaking, he frowned again, his expression was indescribable.

"When you arrive in LA, everything will be arranged by me." Isabella smiled and gave him medicine, "It's a mess over there, don't go out and wander around by yourself."

Terry:???

How does my sister act as if she knows LA very well??

At this moment, Terry 's cell phone vibrated a few times suddenly, it was a message from Cecilia.

As we all know, private jets use satellite direct communication signals, have wifi to surf the Internet, and can also make calls at any time.

Because of his injury, Terry finally took out his mobile phone, and saw Cecilia sent him several messages in one breath.

[Terry, I heard from my mother that you and your sister went to France. I have a weekend tomorrow. Can I visit your guys? ]

[ I really want to go to the Art Palace to take pictures, and I also want to go to Mike's Beach to enjoy the sea breeze and look at the sea. ]

[ Just let me go, I promise to come back after two days. ]

[ Expectation.jpg]

[beg.jpg]

Terry knew that Cecilia must have heard that he and Isabella were coming to France, and thought that the two of them came to play and didn't bring her, so she begged so much.

He replied, " Terry and you, Sofia, are not here to play. We have something to do. Next time, Terry promises to bring you two to play."

[What are Terry and Sofia going to do? I also want to participate...]

[ Take me, I promise you won't make any trouble. ]

Terry replied again, "It's business. You are obediently staying at home this weekend and spending time with your parents. Now Terry has something else to do, so let's not talk about it."

His arms and arms were hurt, as were his shoulders and back, and every word he typed was painful, but he still responded to this sister with the utmost tenderness and patience.

But Cecilia on the other end of the phone felt Terry 's perfunctory, and her heart became even colder.

So, Terry doesn't even want to put on a show and comfort her now? ?

Don't you even want to talk a few more words??

"Terry, stop looking at your phone, eat something, lie down on the bed later, and have a good rest."
Isabella put away the medicine box and said softly, "I'll get someone to help you there later."

"Come here and serve Terry to eat." Isabella looked up at a subordinate next to her.

Terry bit by bit.

Isabella 's cell phone vibrated for a long time, she saw that it was Peter calling, so she swipe to answer.

Peter didn't expect that he was a step late. When he followed the clues to the pasture in the suburbs, he found that the boss had already left by plane...

He could only call and ask, "Boss, are you still in Paris now?"

"Going to LA, on the plane." Isabella asked again, "What's the matter?"

“The orphanage you asked me to check is now a bit of a clue...” Peter Hui reported, “Things are more complicated than we imagined, you can’t believe it, the

Chapter 492

Peter paused, then continued, “It’s one of the experimental bases of the T3 Research Institute. It’s not only a living laboratory, but also a terrifying breeding cradle.”

The T3 Research Institute is a terrifying medical organization that usually likes to study various viruses and conduct experiments on children.

Children who can survive will be recruited by their headquarters and become members of the organization.

In the developmental trajectory of these people, there is often a need to perform a variety of tasks.

They need a normal identity to cover up their private behavior, so the head of the orphanage will arrange them into a normal family, so that they can have a normal life on the surface.

“All adoptive parents don’t know how terrible these children they adopt...” Peter said with emotion, “They look like other children, go to and from school normally, get good grades, and are liked by others, but in fact, they need regular time. Return to the organization and return to order, and complete the various tasks assigned by the organization...”

Speaking of this, Peter added, “These people have never felt the warmth of a family since they were young. After being adopted, they usually develop feelings for their adoptive parents, which instead become the organization’s weapon to restrain them...”

Isabella’s eyes darkened, “You mean, Nora might be from the T3 Institute?”

“Very likely!” Peter affirmed, “And I guess, she should have the handle of the orphanage, so the people in the research institute will chase after her, trying to catch her back.”

“But I have fought against that group of people, and the opponent’s way is not from the research institute.”

Hearing Isabella say that, Peter also felt a little strange.

“However, last time the people from the T3 Research Institute focused on you and made things difficult for us. One of our subordinates died and the other was injured. This feud is finally settled!”

Isabella knows that as long as she is targeted by the people of this institute, she must either obediently serve them, or there is only one end, and that is a dead end.

It is said that for so many years, as long as they have been targeted by them, no one can escape.

Is Nora one of them too?

“You just said that the T3 Research Institute has a headquarters?” Isabella asked again, “Where is the location? The headquarters is also called the T3 Research Institute?”

“I don’t think so, I don’t know the details...”

Peter always felt that this matter was like a huge net, and many people were trapped in it. What they touched was only the edge of the net...

“Continue to check and give me the results as soon as possible.”

“Yes, boss.”

Ten hours later.

The plane landed at the top of Medicine Mountain in Nat Gang.

Terry was woken up by the sound of the landing, and managed to bear the pain from his wound to get up to look, only to find that there were dozens of people waiting for them with weapons...

Oops.

Have their whereabouts been exposed?

hunted down Nora had already ambushed here in advance??

Knock knock knock.

There was a knock on the door outside.

Terry, here we are.”

Hearing his sister’s voice, Terry reluctantly came to the door, opened the door, and said a little heavily, “Isabella, we are surrounded by people. Before the door is opened, let’s fly to another place and land first?”

Several question marks appeared in Isabella’s mind, surrounded? Who dares to surround them in Medicine Mountain??.

“Look, those people have come here.” Terry pointed his gaze out the window again.

Isabella was even more puzzled, this is the territory of Nat Gang, even if those people are daring, it is impossible for them to show up on the top of Medicine Mountain...

that it was solved before entering the gate of Nat Gang...

But seeing that Terry 's expression didn't look like a joke, she came to the window again and looked out. There was no one chasing and killing Nora. They were all her loyal subordinates who ran to the stairs of the machine and waited to meet her.!

Since she recognized her ancestor and returned to her family, she seldom came back. The kids were all happy, looking in the direction of the door, looking forward to it, a bit like a child waiting for the teacher to give candy.

Isabella hooked her lips with great interest, “This formation is quite big.”

Seeing that his sister was going to press the switch to open the door, Terry hurriedly stopped him, “You know how big the battle is, so you dare to take the risk?”

“I mean, there's a big welcome.”

Isabella pressed the switch, and the door slowly opened. Before Terry could say his worried words, he saw dozens of people under the stairs neatly, and happily shouted “Boss, welcome home!”

The boss hasn't come back for a long time, seeing her standing at the highest door, everyone couldn't help getting excited!

Their boss has snarled a lot!

But, who is that man behind him? ?

Why have I never seen...

Terry was surprised by the neat “boss welcome home”. He looked at his sister beside him in disbelief, and couldn’t help asking, “This is...”

Nat Gang.” Isabella walked down the stairs first,” Terry, we’re home.”

home??

Nat Gang is her home??

She is the boss of Nat Gang???

Terry was shocked for a full three seconds before reacting...

He followed in his sister’s footsteps, “As far as I know, Nat Gang was founded three years ago. How old were you then? Why did you come to LA and become the boss here?”

There are too many questions in his mind.

“It’s a long story.”

Isabella’s long story short, that is, three years ago, Mrs. Brown’s condition deteriorated, and she was in urgent need of a herb that grew on the Medicine Mountain in LA. At that time, several gangs were fighting for the medicine mountain. When Isabella appeared, they were fighting for the most. When it's great...

Because Mrs. Brown 's condition urgently needs medicine and needs to be taken for a long time, and this herbal medicine is only suitable for the soil of Medicine Mountain, so by chance, Isabella not only founded Nat Gang, occupied Medicine Mountain, but also strengthened her own power...

Although I almost died in LA several times...

"But later, Mrs. Brown 's condition no longer needed this herb..."

Speaking of Mrs. Brown, Isabella 's heart will always have a tearing pain. On that day, the person on the operating table closed her eyes forever, but as Selby Brown, she was powerless...

This kind of regret, no one understands.

"Boss!"

Seeing the boss walking down the stairs, everyone shouted happily and looked at Terry in unison, not knowing how to say hello.

"This is me, Terry." After Isabella's introduction, she added, "Honey."

The subordinates were stunned, and the boss always shocked every time he appeared...

Take the last time as an example, she inexplicably formed an alliance with the boss of the C Gang, and even bloodbathed the Wolf Gang, which shocked the whole of LA...

Obviously their Nat Gang and the C Gang had no relationship before...

Many people can't figure out why they formed an alliance all of a sudden, and what is the reason?

Even the people inside them don't know the boss's operation...

Chapter 493 Deciphered

So later, they lived peacefully in LA for a long time, but recently, a few new forces have emerged, together with the old gang, saying they want to meet their boss...

Withdrawing their thoughts, everyone shouted again in unison, "Hello, Sir!"

Terry nodded, and after greeting them, his heart was still extremely shocked.

How much hardship did the little girl suffer to sit on this chair and become the boss in everyone's mouth.

No wonder she looks cold, always indifferent, as if she doesn't care about anything.

Growing up in the Brown family, her adoptive parents didn't care or love her, and even helped her be a disaster star, never giving her family warmth.

Except for Mrs. Brown, no one seems to really care about her and take care of her. She has to fight for everything by herself, so her personality becomes independent and self-reliant.

Her coldness, her rustiness, and her excellence were all bought with blood and tears.

Like Cecilia, she has never been beaten by the society since she was a child, and she is held in the palm of her hand by her family. She can get whatever she wants, and do

But his own sister, because of her own fault, she crawled all the way here by herself. She really experienced endless darkness and suffering before she achieved what she is today.

Thinking of this, while he was admiring, the sockets of his eyes warmed up unknowingly.

He secretly swore in his heart that he would treat this sister even better in the future! Give her all that she has never experienced, and all that she has not got, and double it to her.

“Boss, recently several gangs called you and wanted to find you...” His subordinates followed Isabella and reported, “There are also people from Hell Base who want you to come to their site alone within three days, saying that you have something to discuss, otherwise you will have to go to their site.” You’re welcome to us...”

Isabella curled her lips coldly, “Where did they have the face to say that?”

It’s okay not to mention the hell base, but when she mentioned it, her whole body was ignited with anger.

Hell Base is a terrorist organization abroad, and later took root in LA, and they often confronted their Nat Gang.

Forget about the small fights in the past. A year ago, they chased and killed Deb, and they were accidentally seen by Isabella. Because they had an enmity with Nat Gang, Isabella also helped them in time.

At that time, Deb was seriously injured and ran away when Isabella made a shot. First, she was carrying out a secret mission and was afraid of leaking the secret. Second, she was afraid of falling into the wrong hands again. Third, she still had a deadly toxin to detox...

Although they formed a bond between aunts and sisters-in-law, it also made the people in Hell Base even more dissatisfied.

“Recently, those foreign devils seem to have a stronger backbone, their arrogance is different, and their noses are turned up when they speak. I don’t know, I thought they were so good.” The subordinate said contemptuously.

“Didn’t teach them a lesson?” Isabella asked rhetorically.

“Yes, when they came to our site arrogantly and uttered harsh words, we directly blew up their car, but they didn’t fight back afterwards, I don’t know what they were planning.”

“Never mind.” Isabella said softly, “If they want to go west quickly, just send them a ride earlier.”

Speaking of which, she had already descended from the Medicine Mountain, and came to her old castle again.

The whole castle is magnificent, which opened Terry’s eyes again. He didn’t expect his sister to have so many secret bases...

The family members probably thought she was just a school bully, obediently...

If you know her so many identities, I don’t know if your jaw will drop...

“Terry, give me the chip.” Isabella planned to take it in and study it.

“Okay.” Terry handed her the chip, and then entered the private base with her, asked for a computer, and began to decipher the clues left by Nora.

The subordinates were all stunned, wondering what the boss and her Terry were busy with, from day to night, they had been busy for a long time, and they didn’t plan to open the door...

The two subordinates waited in front of the door, waiting left and right, and finally pushed each other away.

“The boss didn’t eat at noon, it’s already evening now, you go ask her to have something to eat, and she can be busy later.”

“I don’t dare... You are a senior figure. If you go, even if you disturb the boss’s work, the boss will not blame you.”

“Who said that? You are a newcomer. Those who don’t know are innocent. It is most suitable for you to go...”

“No, no, give me a hundred guts, I wouldn’t dare...”

The two subordinates pushed each other outside the door, and suddenly, the door opened.

Seeing the cold air of the girl in front of them, the two were so frightened that they obediently opened their mouths and

Isabella glanced at the sky outside, it was already dark, and couldn’t help asking, “Is there any news from Gang C?”

“Ah? News? What news???”

Both subordinates are dumbfounded, what news can Gang C have? No, what news should there be???

Isabella was a little suspicious. It stands to reason that Benjamin should be in LA, so he should find her as soon as possible. Why didn't he arrive so late? Should she call and ask? In case he was delayed because he was just busy with work, wouldn't it be good for her to call?

Thinking of this, Isabella dismissed the idea again, "Eat it later."

She closed the door again.

The two subordinates looked at each other, why did the boss become more and more interested in the C gang??

Since the alliance was formed, all those who disrespected Gang C have been defeated one by one by the order of the boss...

"Terry, what's the matter?"

After Isabella entered the study, she looked at Terry who was checking the template.

Just now she deciphered the chip inside the Buddha head necklace that Nora gave to Father Scott. There are a total of ten pinyin templates, and each template has many different Terry then pointed the two lines of strange codes on the love pendant that Nora gave to Mrs. Scott against the template, and the result was: 21.1 degrees north latitude, 99.2 degrees east longitude, and two words, danger.

"Where is this?" Terry was a little surprised, he didn't expect to get such an address.

Was Nora trying to tell him that this place was dangerous??

"This place is in LA, but no one is active there."

It can be said to be a very remote place.

“Is Nora going to leave something there? No, I have to go...” Terry got up to leave.

Isabella said, “If you’re so hurt, don’t go, I’ll just go for a while.”

She looked at the silver key in her hand again, which Mrs. Scott found in the scarf Nora gave her. Could it be a key that could open something?

Take it with you when the time comes.

“No.” Terry refused, “Your subordinates also said just now that several forces are looking for you recently, you should stay here obediently and be safe.”

He would never let his sister take this risk!

Only then did Terry remember that they hadn’t eaten for half a day in order to study the clues left by Nora.

The little girl must be starving.

Thinking of this, he felt sorry again.

Chapter 494 Another Great Gift

“Okay, let’s eat first.” Terry went downstairs with her, and before they reached the dining table, they suddenly heard the sound of a plane landing outside the castle.

A subordinate trotted in, looking like an enemy, “Boss, the boss of the S gang is here! It looks like he is going to land on our tarmac? Should we stop him???”

Although the two gangs have long formed an alliance, the castle is the boss's private territory after all. Wouldn't it be a bit... too much for the other party to park the plane directly on the boss's private apron without saying hello?

"Tell him to stop." Isabella's eyes softened a little, "Send someone to meet him."

"Ah??" The subordinate thought he had heard it wrong, and was surprised for a second. After receiving the pressure from the boss, he hurriedly followed suit....

God, the boss seems to have changed!

In the past, she was not afraid of anything, and she didn't even give face to the emperor. How could she be so polite to the S gang this time?

Although the S Gang has a great reputation and is quite powerful, but it doesn't have to be conceded to this point?

The subordinates couldn't figure it out, the boss seemed to have become timid, but he didn't dare to say anything, so he could only bring someone to meet him.

Terry found out that his sister was hungry and going to eat. Hearing that Benjamin was coming, he turned around and walked towards the tarmac. He really didn't hide his expectation for someone...

Terry can only follow in the footsteps of his younger sister and meet his future "brother-in-law" together.

After the plane landed, the door opened, and a tall and stern man appeared in front of everyone.

His eyes were clear and his temperament was dignified. Just standing there, he was like a big mountain, and the people below did not dare to breathe.

Green was still standing behind him.

Green : Boss, you want to see Ms. Young yourself, why did you bring me together... woo woo woo, I want to go back to the United States, I want to take a vacation!

Seven or eight of Isabella's subordinates were terrified when they saw this master. After all, in LA before, the S gang led by this master did many great things that caused a sensation in the century...

Seeing the man walking down the stairs slowly, they called out tremblingly, " Benjamin."

This is the first time that Benjamin visited their castle, and it was in such a strong way that everyone was a little confused about his purpose...

"Where's your boss?" Seeing that Ms. Young didn't come out in person, Green was a little worried that she went to investigate the truth by herself again.

"Our boss..." Before the subordinates finished speaking, they saw the boss walking towards this side.

The old aura was cold and windy, and the wind blew her hair, making her look like a little woman.

When Benjamin saw the girl, endless tenderness and pampering poured out of his dark eyes, he walked towards the girl and hugged her into his arms.

Not seeing each other for a few days, Benjamin deepened the hug.

The seven or eight subordinates around were all stunned, and their eyeballs were about to fall off. What's going on?

The boss of the S gang actually took advantage of their boss in front of them?

The point is, why didn't the boss kick his kidneys?

even...

She also hugged his waist with both hands, raised her clear eyes and asked, "Didn't you say it's noon?"

The mouths of the seven or eight subordinates were so wide open that they could even stuff two eggs...

Could it be that their boss is in love??

The target is the boss of the S Gang??

Another Great Gift

This is too scary...

If the news gets out, how many people will be shocked...

"I have something to do at the last minute, so I'm late." Benjamin stroked the girl's soft hair, and said warmly, "Did you eat well recently?"

"have."

As soon as the words fell, there was a gurgling sound from my stomach.

Isabella :...

“Lying?” Benjamin chuckled dotingly, his eyes were full of happiness and satisfaction, “Waiting for me?”

Green on the side couldn't help but said, “Boss was going to leave after finishing his business in France, but he heard that a local fairy tale-themed amusement park couldn't survive because of poor capital turnover, so he bought it again and wanted to give it to you As a gift.”

The theme amusement park was particularly dreamy. Because the venue was large, the layout was beautiful, and the entrance fees were high, not many people went to spend there.

The seven or eight men on the side listened, not a little jewelry, or a few clothes, but a whole theme amusement park??

The boss of the S gang is too generous to fall in love??

“I haven't decided on a name for the new paradise yet.

Another Great Gift

When the time comes, will you choose one?” Benjamin gently caressed the girl's tender and delicate face with his fingertips. The girl's beautiful face and every inch of skin. were deeply engraved in his mind.

After thinking about it for several days and nights, he finally found it.

Isabella raised the corners of her lips, her eyes were clear and agile, “Okay.”

“Eat something first.” Benjamin helped her waist again, and then he noticed Terry next to him, “Is Terry feeling better?”

Today he heard from his men in Florida that Terry was injured while escorting two elderly people away.

“It’s okay, little injury.” Terry walked forward with them again, “I heard from Isabella that you have been helping me investigate Nora ‘s whereabouts in private, and found that she appeared in LA a month ago...”

Benjamin hadn’t brought such important news to him, he probably wouldn’t have been able to find LA in his lifetime.

In the past, he was a little “hostile” towards this brother- in-law, because he finally recognized his sister back, and he didn’t want someone to abduct her so soon, and he was even more worried that Benjamin was just playing for fun, and didn’t really like his sister...

But after several contacts, he found that Benjamin only had his sister in his eyes, and he was indifferent in front of outsiders, and he was like a little puppy in front of his sister, extremely obedient...

Another Great Gift

“It’s just that I couldn’t find any more useful clues for Terry.” Benjamin ‘s people only found this information so far.

“It’s already very useful.” Terry patted him on the shoulder and comforted him, “Although I don’t know where Nora is hiding, but LA is not big, as long as you look for it, you will definitely find her one day. Terry feels a little guilty.”, because of this, the two of you were involved.”

Terry is wrong to think so. Terry ‘s affairs are our affairs, not to mention we know each other well here. Terry is safer here than outside.”

After Benjamin finished speaking, Isabella added, “If Terry found this place alone, it would be really dangerous.”

The real sheep into the tiger's den.

There are gangs in LA, an outsider, who will soon attract the attention of the people here, and then be bullied...

But it's different with the S gang and the Nat Gang.

"Boss, another gift for Ms. Young, do you want to bring it?" Green said suddenly.

Both Isabella and Terry have some surprises, and gifts??

Benjamin looked at the girl with a pampering tone, "Didn't the people at Hell Base want to find you? I heard from the people below that they had been confronting Nat Gang a lot before, and they came here recently to ask you to find you within three days. "Go to their territory?"

Chapter 495 Mysterious Man

Such a provocation, Isabella doesn't take it seriously, Benjamin can't stand it.

Isabella raised her eyes and asked, "So, you captured their people?"

"The person in charge, I'm going to hang at the gate of Nat Gang for three days and three nights, to make an example to others."

"..." Would this be a bit high-profile? Enemy??

"Anyway, no one is the opponent of our two gangs."

Benjamin doesn't give a shit about other gangsters, especially in LA, he does everything without worrying about anything else.

"It's fine to strip the people and send them back." Isabella still wants to find Nora next, not wanting to cause trouble.

Green was a little surprised, that's it? Would it be a little cheaper for him??

If it weren't for his random orders, there wouldn't be so many people chasing after Ms. Young...

"Okay, I'll listen to you." Benjamin's dark eyes burst out with gentle love, anyway, it's her business to deal with the delivery.

"I'll have someone put him in a coffin and carry him over there." Isabella ordered the people below to do it.

Isabella's subordinates really don't know what to say, they somehow feel that the boss is as black-bellied as the boss of the S gang...

like a family...

I don't know if the people at the base will feel ashamed seeing their boss being sent back in this way...

After Isabella walked into the castle, she asked for more tableware for Benjamin.

The subordinates inside were also stunned. They didn't expect that the boss of the S gang would come here and eat at the same table with their boss...

In places they didn't see, what kind of intersection did the boss and the boss of the S gang have?

Why did they get along so well all of a sudden?

Why do they look like a family? The atmosphere is inexplicably harmonious...

Terry next to him was like a big patriarch entertaining, Benjamin, eat more, you and Isabella are exhausted these two days..."

Everyone looked at each other in blank dismay, as if asking: What is the situation? Is it because they have vision problems and misread it, or is it that the boss really fell in love with the boss of the S gang, and got the approval of his family??

The two look very close, like a couple...

If this news is true, it will be a sensation throughout LA...

Isabella ate the food from the two people next to her, and shared the recent events with Benjamin one by one.

The subordinates next to him were all stunned. They never expected that the always taciturn boss could talk so much at once...

Isabella seems to be subconscious, saying it spontaneously, as if sharing daily life has long been a subtle habit between them.

Benjamin pursed his lips, looked at her lovingly and tenderly, and listened to the dangers she had experienced, he gently wiped the ketchup from the corner of her mouth, "Next time something like this happens, be sure to bring me with you."

Although he knew that the little girl was good at skills, he still couldn't avoid worrying. This time, the little girl escaped by luck. What about next time? What about next time?

If there is a one in ten thousand chance...

He can't bear it.

Isabella shared the deciphered secret with him again, and Terry, who was beside him, suddenly felt that he was a bit redundant...

he was with Nora before, he didn't feel how sweet his relationship was, but now he feels the sugar sprinkled by others, he just feels that the sugar is too much.

After a while, Isabella's cell phone vibrated, and she saw that it was a call from Eliza.

'Isabella, are you out of danger? Has Terry gone to the doctor? Is the injury serious? Are you okay?'

She had been worried for a long time, but she still didn't receive a phone call from the siblings to report that they were safe. After thinking about it, she called.

Terry is fine, no harm was done. As for what Nora gave you, part of it has been deciphered so far. I believe her whereabouts will be found soon."

When Eliza heard this, she immediately thanked God, "Okay, okay, it's good to know that you are safe, as long as there is nothing wrong."

She didn't dare to bother her any more, she just gave a few words of advice, and then hung up the phone in a hurry.

After dinner, Benjamin took Isabella to go to the S gang again. Isabella knew that he wanted everyone to know her identity.

But at this time, some subordinates came to report, "Boss, Hal is here."

As soon as he heard it was a male name, Benjamin 's eyes knew a little bit, who is Hal? Seems to be very respectable?

"Where is the person?" Isabella seemed to be interested in this person.

"Just outside the castle, he walked through the northwest. gate of the castle, and seemed to avoid other sights on purpose."

"Ask him to the living room." Isabella let go of Benjamin 's hand, and said softly, "I'll deal with something first, you and Terry don't act rashly, wait for me."

"Okay, be safe." Benjamin just patted her head, his eyes were doting and indulgent, and he didn't think about anything else.

The little girl was just running errands.

There is a secret living room on the first floor of the castle. As soon as Isabella appeared, she saw a tall figure standing behind the window.

"Coming?" Isabella closed the door.

Hal turned around, wearing a black mask on his face, only revealing a pair of clear eyes.

Just from these eyes, it is not difficult to guess that he is only in his twenties, almost as old as Isabella.

“I heard you went back to Nat Gang, so I came here as soon as possible, and I want to ask you for a favor.” When Hal said this, he paused, and made another request, “I want something.”

Isabella raised the corners of her lips, “What?”

“A seven-leaf lotus on the Medicine Mountain, one plant is enough.”

It is said that the most valuable medicine on the whole medicine mountain is the seven-leaf lotus, and there are only two plants left. It can cure all kinds of diseases, and even people who have nothing to do will strengthen their health after eating it, and it is extremely valuable as a medicine.

Naturally, many people wanted to snatch such a precious medicine before.

Isabella smiled lightly, “Did you know that Mrs. Brown is dead.”

Upon hearing the bad news, Hal raised his eyes in disbelief, as if surprised.

At the same time as the surprise, the light in his eyes also dimmed, “I’m sorry, I reminded you of something sad. It seems that Aescinus is really a rumor.”

It’s not like he doesn’t know how deep Isabella’s feelings for Mrs. Brown are, but if the horse chestnut is in Isabella’s hands, it is impossible to save Mrs. Brown...

There is only one possibility, that is, there is no such thing as esculentum on Medicine Mountain at all, and it was spread by other gangs. If you want an excuse, you can just trouble Nat Gang...

Hal’s eyes were as dark as black, “In that case, excuse me.”

He was about to leave when Isabella stopped him, “What’s Hearing what she said, Hal stopped again and smiled wryly, "It's very complicated, no one in the world can understand it."

"Are you sure?" Isabella raised her eyes. Are there really so many diseases that no one can solve? Then she was a little curious.

"Extremely complicated, and there is no time." Hal 's eyes seemed to be raining, and at the same time he said with deep pain, "Maybe this is the arrangement of fate."

Chapter 496

His dejected look came into Isabella's eyes, which made Isabella a little moved, "It seems that person is very important to you."

"It's more important than my life." Hal raised his eyes to look at Isabella again, and said with a smile, "It's a pleasure. meeting you in this life, and I hope we can meet in another place in the next life."

Hal, don't do stupid things." Isabella seemed to have guessed what he wanted to do, and said to hold back, "Whenever there is a chance, you should never give up. You told me that."

"There is no chance." Hal 's pupils dimmed, and his tone was full of despair, " Isabella, there is no chance, there are less than 24 hours left... I thought Echinacea could save her..."

Although he guessed that this magical herb might be a rumor, he still had the cheek to find Isabella with hope...

But when the girl said that there was no such herb on the medicine mountain, his last hope was also destroyed, and the whole person seemed to fall into the abyss.

He tried everything he could, but in the end he couldn't keep her.

The boy's shoulders trembled slightly, and it could be seen that he was crying. His sadness was like an invisible net, which caught the two people in the living room.

Isabella saw his sadness, "Take me to her."

Maybe, can help a little...

"At the end of her life, she wanted to go quietly." Hal choked up and said gratefully, "Thank you for your kindness, I thank you on her behalf, it's worth it to know you in this life."

The identity of a poisoned person is not suitable for publicity, so let her go quietly.

And he will accompany her to another world, so that she will not be alone.

Isabella looked at his leaving back and said softly, "If you need help, you can come to me anytime."

Hal stood still, endured for a while before saying a good word, opened the door and left quickly.

Isabella didn't see the tears in the corners of his eyes.

When Isabella came out of the living room, Isabella was a little depressed.

Benjamin saw the boy walking out with red eyes on his front foot, and saw Isabella's downcast look on his back foot, and couldn't help asking, "What happened?"

"In this life, I may not have the chance to repay my kindness." Isabella paused when she said this, then looked up at Benjamin, "Let's go, accompany me to a place."

If Nora secretly went to the location left by Nora, someone would definitely report it to Benjamin.

Rather than that, it is better to invite him to join.

“Where is Terry?” Benjamin seemed to see what the little girl was thinking, “You want the two of us to cooperate?”

Isabella nodded, unexpectedly Benjamin knew her quite well.

Terry sat on the sofa in the living room, tapped his fingers on the laptop keyboard, put the strange symbols that Nora left for him, and put them into the global picture library for comparison, but nothing decent and useful could be compared.

What does this strange symbol that Nora left him mean?

Terry, the location where Nora stayed, the three of us will go together tomorrow. It’s too late now, and we can’t arrange the manpower. You’re injured. You should rest early tonight and recharge your batteries.” Isabella said Now, I still don’t forget to say, “I also went up to rest.”

Terry stopped and said gently, “Okay.”

He looked at Benjamin again, “Where’s Benjamin?”

“I’ll go back to my place first, and come back to find you tomorrow morning.”

“Okay.” Terry closed the computer and got up reluctantly, “Then I’ll go upstairs too, and we agreed that we will act together tomorrow, and no one will be left behind.”

“Okay.” Isabella agreed wholeheartedly.

Half an hour passed.

Terry still couldn't find any clues about this strange symbol in the room. He got up and went to the window again. Out of the corner of his eye, he inadvertently noticed that the light in the sister's room next door was dim. Would the sister go secretly without telling him??

Thinking of this, he came to the next door again and knocked on the door.

Wearing pajamas, Isabella rubbed her eyes with a slight sleepiness at the end of her eyes, " Terry? Is there something wrong?"

"Did you fall asleep?" Terry was a little surprised, "Sorry, I saw your lights dimmed, and thought..."

"What do you think?" Isabella yawned lazily, as if she didn't understand what Terry was saying.

While Terry felt extremely sorry, he also felt that his sister's appearance was so cute.

My sister has to deal with so many people and do so many things today, she must have been exhausted long ago!

And as an elder brother, he actually suspected that his sister would act alone without telling him. He was really too suspicious, and he didn't trust this lovely sister too much!

He could doubt anyone, but how could he doubt his own sister!

What's more, she is such an obedient and cute sister!

"Terry, what's the matter, just say it." Isabella's eyes were still a little sleepy, and the ends of her eyes were a little red, and it could be seen that she had to brace herself up to talk to him.

"It's okay, Terry is just to see if you are asleep, if not, I want to tell you to go to bed early." Terry stretched out his uninjured right hand and gently stroked her head, "Go to sleep, good night, sleep well, do A sweet dream."

Isabella said slightly drowsily, "Then Terry should go to bed early too, we will act together tomorrow morning... You must rest well tonight."

"Okay, Terry promises you, go to bed now."

Terry patted her head again, and waited for her to enter the room before returning to his room.

In order not to hold his sister back, he quickly turned off the lights and fell asleep, preparing to recharge his energy and go to the place where Nora left clues tomorrow.

And the other side.

Isabella had already changed out of her pajamas and put on casual clothes. Seeing that Terry 's lights were dimmed, she went directly from the secret passage in the room to the outside of the castle, where Benjamin was already waiting for her by car.

"Is Terry asleep?" Benjamin opened the car door for her and asked with a smile.

"Yeah." Isabella guessed that Terry would definitely look for her, so he joined him first, " Terry was seriously injured today, so he should take a good rest. Let's park the car far away and walk over."

"good."

Twenty minutes later.

They came to a jungle and passed through it to the place Nora left behind, at 21.1 degrees north latitude and 99.2 degrees east longitude.

Because there is no light, the whole forest is pitch black, only the sound of insects and birds chirping, revealing a gloomy coldness.

If ordinary people saw this scene, they would have been frightened away, but Isabella took out the night vision goggles from her bag and handed one to Benjamin.

Unexpectedly, in the next second, Benjamin wrapped his arms around her waist, lowered his head, and kissed her lips.

Today, because of Terry's presence, he has not crossed the line.

Finally, the longing of these days was overwhelmingly released at this moment. Benjamin absorbed the sweetness of the girl and deepened the kiss even more.

The slight moonlight poured on them, making this moment as beautiful as a dream in a fairy tale.

I don't know how long it took before Benjamin let go of her, his eyes were full of affection and satisfaction.

Isabella put on the night vision goggles for him, making him look even more handsome. The two of them clasped their fingers together and walked side by side into the depths of the jungle.

Chapter 497

Although with night vision glasses, Isabella could see everything in the jungle clearly, but Isabella accidentally tripped over the stones at her feet.

"Be careful." Benjamin took her into his arms in time, "Did your foot hurt?"

Before Isabella could answer, Benjamin had squatted down, let her sit on his lap, and took off her shoes to have a look.

The feet are fine, but there are a few scratches on the ankles from the branches, which look red, which makes people feel distressed.

The little girl's skin was already tender, but now these red marks made Benjamin couldn't help asking, "Does it hurt?"

Isabella shook her head.

If she hadn't seen these marks with her own eyes, she would have no idea that she was scratched by a branch. She never cared about such small injuries.

For her, it doesn't even count as an injury.

At most it was the branches tickling her.

"What about the foot, did it hurt when I tripped over a rock just now? Can you walk?"

"Yes, it's okay." Isabella felt that he was making a fuss over a molehill, "I'm not so delicate."

After Benjamin helped her put on the shoes, he couldn't help but carry her on his back.

"I'm really fine."

"I want to carry you." Benjamin walked forward step by step with her on his back, "It's too light, I must have not eaten. well these two days."

“I used to be heavy?”

“It used to be light, but now it’s even lighter.” Benjamin slowed down because he was carrying her on his back. “I will eat more in the future. I will cook all the dishes you like now, and I will cook them for you later.”

“You’ve been secretly practicing these days?”

“It’s an aboveboard practice.” Benjamin’s lips curled up, and he smiled warmly and indulgently, “What else do you expect me to know?”

“Um?”

“In other words, where can I improve? Please give me some advice from the commander.” Benjamin smiled softly again.

Isabella put her arms around his neck, smiled, and just wanted to speak, the next second, she suddenly covered his lips, and whispered in his ear, “There is someone.”

Benjamin also heard the movement, he put the little girl down, and the two hid in a secret place, Benjamin did not forget to pull the little girl into his arms, fearing that she

There were two men who shone flashlights around the jungle and complained.

“It’s so cold, and you still have to go out to patrol... Let me tell you, the elders are thinking too much. How could the traitor come back? She wouldn’t even dare to go near here even if she had a hundred guts.”

“If she really dares to come back, it’s just the two of us. She’s no match for her at all... Hey, it’s just a formality. I think the traitor is dead long ago. It’s just that the thing hasn’t been found yet. What the elders care about is That thing.”

“No, you’re still superficial. She used to be the person most valued by the elders, but later she stabbed the elders in the heart. The elders gave her a hunting order because of their cold hearts.”

“Woman, in the end, I’m still lost in the word love. Don’t worry about such a bright future. If it were me, I would definitely choose power. Love is nothing.”

“Hey, we have to patrol here in the middle of the night, why don’t we stop patrolling and let’s have a drink later? It’s cold, and it’s best to drink some wine to warm our stomachs.”

“If the elders find out that the two of us are lazy, you know better than me how ugly the death will be.”

Benjamin and Isabella heard their voices getting farther and farther away, and finally disappeared, so they met their eyes and got up.

Benjamin put the girl on his back again, “It seems that the person they are talking about is Terry ‘s girlfriend Nora.”

Isabella didn’t twitch, wrapped her arms around his neck, and said softly, “I didn’t expect that Nora ‘s status in the organization was quite high before.”

To be unanimously valued by the elders must be quite capable.

Terry used to think that Nora was a good girl, weak...

It seems that Nora has always been a well-behaved image in front of Terry and her parents, which is somewhat similar to her.

“You think, she disappeared for a year, and no one in the organization can find her, which shows that she is really capable.” Benjamin analyzed.

I don't know what kind of existence this organization is, whether I have heard of it before.

“She can hide for more than three hundred days, she is really powerful.” Isabella looked at Benjamin 's side face again, and said warmly, “It seems that we guessed right, Nora really wanted to leave the organization for Terry, and ended up breaking the hearts of the elders. He was ordered to die by the elders.”

“Emphasis on love and righteousness.” Benjamin commented, “Able to deal with.”

“I don't know if she is hiding near here.” Isabella guessed, “The most dangerous place is perhaps the safest place?”

“Not too possible.”

No matter how safe it is, it is impossible to hide under the nose of others for more than 300 days without being discovered...

“I think there should be something in this place, which is worth a visit.” Benjamin guessed, “It may be the handle of the organization.”

If the elders don't miss their old feelings and become cruel, then Nora may also plan to kill her...

Didn't those two people just say that what the elders care about is that thing....

That thing might be evidence of a crime.

“Look, the front doesn't seem to be easy.”

At this time, Isabella 's eyes fell to the front, there is a mountain peak, the terrain is steep, not conducive to building a camp, so few people usually come here...

However, under the mountain, there are obviously some lights and people...

"Put me down," Isabella whispered in Benjamin's ear.

Benjamin squatted down, and when she came down, he took

There were indeed people gathered under the mountain, not many, only a dozen people, as if they were guarding the mountain?

Does this mountain have any unknown secrets?

Isabella also took out the binoculars from her bag and looked at the foot of the mountain. These people were walking back and forth near the foot of the mountain, seeming to be patrolling and guarding the mountain. Could there be any secrets hidden in the mountain?

"It's weird." Isabella wanted to see more clearly, but the sight was still blocked due to the terrain.

She looked up and saw a big tree beside her, and said to the man beside her in a gentle voice, "You wait for me here."

She climbed up the tree in two or three steps, quickly sat on the thick trunk, took out the binoculars, and then observed the movement over there.

Benjamin smiled lightly, and followed her up the tree, don't have any special skills, so I really don't deserve you."

Isabella didn't expect him to come up, the corners of her lips curled slightly, and then looked at the foot of the mountain, "Look, someone came out of it."

There seemed to be an exit from that mountain, and the man came out from it. Everyone seemed to respect him, nodding and bowing.

Chapter 498 The Three Questions Are All About Terry

“Go and have a look and you’ll know?” Isabella was as light as a swallow, and fell directly from the tree to the ground.

Benjamin followed her.

The guards of the mountain only saw two black figures flashing past in front of their eyes. Before they could see clearly, they fell to the ground one by one, unconscious.

“I’ll do the physical work.” Benjamin couldn’t bear the little girl’s hard work, so he kicked these people into the bushes. one by one to avoid attracting attention.

Isabella was on the tree just now, she saw a man coming out of the mountain, turning the stone next to him with one hand.

At this time, she imitated that person’s movements and turned the stone counterclockwise. The surface of the stone suddenly opened, revealing a crystal clear recognizer.

It should be restricted.

Isabella opened the software developed by herself in the mobile phone, scanned it around, and soon, the program automatically analyzed the traces of various check-ins on it.

It turned out that this group of people entered and exited by punching cards.

The Three Questions Are All About Terry

Everyone's card is different, there are dozens of different patterns, Isabella enters a series of codes on the mobile. phone, and separates these patterns one by one...

Soon, strange patterns emerged from the screen one after another.

At this moment, the identifier suddenly turned on a rapid red light, and there was a cold mechanical warning sound, "You stay too long, please identify yourself within ten seconds, otherwise the alarm will be triggered, ten, nine, eight, seven..."

Among the separated patterns, Isabella suddenly found a key-shaped pattern, which was exactly the same as the one Nora had left them before.

"Six, five, four..."

Isabella found the small key, punched the card directly on it, and soon, the red light of the recognizer turned into a gentle blue light.

The mechanical voice became gentle, "Dear master, welcome home."

Owner?

Isabella raised the corners of her lips, "It seems that the road ahead will be easy."

The door opened to both sides in front of them, and the passage inside was lit with the lights of the highest level.

Isabella hooked her lips and explained, "Being called the master by this system means that it is impossible for all hidden weapons to be aimed at her. The master's path must be different from that of ordinary people. Will it end in the master's private residence?"?"

"Just go in and have a look." Benjamin took her hand and walked inside.

There was no way at the end, and when Isabella was looking for the next identifier, the wall on the left slowly opened again, revealing another door.

They walked through nine doors before entering the master's private area.

Everything here is made of cold stone, and the ten-meter- high walls are carved with various giant beasts to suppress evil spirits. The weird electronic candlelight exudes a gloomy and terrifying atmosphere. If you don't know it, you may think that you have strayed into the domain of vampires. Everywhere is too cold to be a human habitation.

The area in front of me was frighteningly empty, no matter the sofas, tables and chairs, were all carved out of stone.

Everything about everyone is telling the visitor: the owner here is a cold-blooded and ruthless person.

huge gossip pattern on the ground is also a hexagram to suppress evil spirits.

How many "harmful" things did this master do to use such a beast and gossip to suppress it on a large scale...

"There's a way to go over there." Benjamin noticed another door on the front right.

Isabella checked it with a detector and found that there were no cameras or bugs here, so she followed Benjamin into the room.

The interior of ordinary people is usually a lounge, or an office or something...

But the inside of this place turned out to be a laboratory.

The air was filled with the looming smell of blood. Isabella sprayed it with a spray, and dense fluorescent lights appeared on the ground.

This shows that a lot of blood has been shed here.

The dense fluorescence seems to be silently complaining about the past.

Could it be that the master is doing human experiments here?

impossible...

At this level, what else needs to be done by yourself?

Then this master, what experiment is he doing here? Why was there ever so much blood on the ground? Isn't this the master's private residence? To do bloody experiments, why not do it elsewhere?

"These two computers are used most often." Benjamin turned on his phone to scan the seven or eight computers on site, and concluded, "We are two, one for each?"

Isabella was surprised by the scanning software in his phone, but when he heard him say that, she still raised the corners of her lips, "Okay."

The two sat down side by side again, tapping the keyboard quickly.

The first hurdle is naturally to crack the login password, which is too easy for them.

I thought I could easily crack the login as before, but I didn't expect that the two firewalls blocked it a bit.

"If the owner here is really Nora, I think she's pretty smart, at least she can make her own firewall to block it." Isabella continued typing on the keyboard.

It's a pity that no matter how powerful the firewall is, there is only a fate of collapse in front of her.

It took Isabella less than ten seconds to crack and log in smoothly. Unfortunately, the computer interface was blank, which must have been deleted artificially.

She started to restore the data again, and after sitting in front of the computer for a while, she finally found a hidden data package, which took up a full 6G of memory.

She used her mobile phone to connect to the computer, intending to take the data packet back for research, but a red warning popped up on the interface.

"Please answer three questions."

"Reminder: If you make a wrong answer once, the data package will be automatically destroyed within 3 seconds, and an alarm will sound at the same time."

"Excuse me, what is his full name?"

Isabella :???

What the hell kind of question is this??

There is only ten seconds to answer the question, and during the countdown, Isabella can only type two words on the keyboard: Terry.

Didn't expect to get it right...

Could this problem be set by Nora ? ?

Isn't she afraid that the person who comes is someone else? 、 Can't answer? The sound of the siren attracted people from all over the mountain, so there is no place for good people to die??

“On which day and month did we get together?”

Isabella :...

Several large characters appeared on the screen, “Countdown ten, nine, eight, seven...’

Isabella quickly deduced in her mind, Terry said that Nora disappeared for a year, and they dated for a year before that, Terry once said that it was a National Day holiday and there were many people, so he summoned up the courage to ask her out and went to Bomsville for the last time In the beautiful castle paradise, the grand fireworks that day were not as good as her smile.

The Three Questions Are All About Terry

Isabella asked Benjamin next to him, “What day is the fireworks in Castle Paradise?”

“The 1st of every month.”

“So, it’s October 1st??”

Seeing that there were only three seconds left in the countdown, Isabella entered the date again, unexpectedly it was right...

Really are...

If Terry hadn’t told her before, the two of them would be surrounded here today.

“What month is his birthday?”

Isabella :...

She didn’t know Terry ‘s birthday either, and neither did Benjamin.

Chapter 499 Missed Call

During the countdown, she pulled out her phone and called Bradley.

The eldest brother’s schedule is so strict that it is outrageous. The second brother often has to perform special tasks and is inconvenient to answer the phone. Parents have already fallen asleep at this point. Now the only person who can place high hopes... is the night owl Bradley.

Fortunately, Bradley ‘s call was connected immediately, and his tone was full of joy and surprise, “Hello? Isabella? What a good day today, you actually think of five...”.

“What month is Terry ‘s birthday?”

“Huh?” Bradley was stunned, thinking he had heard wrong.

“Say it.”

Only four seconds left.

Isabella hung up directly, dialed 1111, and answered correctly.

The data package was downloaded automatically, Isabella breathed a sigh of relief, and looked at Benjamin next to her.

His profile was impeccably perfect, his thin and slender fingers were typing on the keyboard, and his dark and bright pupils were particularly beautiful. Soon, the defense program in the computer was rewritten, and the data package was being downloaded smoothly.

Isabella saw that the name of the data package he downloaded was: experimental data.

So what did she download?

Not even a name, just a T instead of...

T? Terry?

Could it be Terry and Nora’s past memories?

Or is it alluding to something else?

Soon, the download of the data package was completed, and a line popped up on the screen: All data will be destroyed in 10 seconds, countdown 10, 9, 8, 7...

Isabella watched it count down from second to second until the screen displayed: Destruction complete.

She got up and said, "Go."

As soon as the two of them stepped out of this cold private residence, before the stone door behind them closed, countless hidden weapons struck towards them.

"Be careful." Benjamin was agile and blocked many hidden weapons for the girl at once.

In the long and narrow stone path, the two of them formed a sharp contrast with the dark crowd on the opposite side.

Standing at the front of the crowd was an old man who was not angry but mighty, with a sharp chill all over his body.

There are at least thirty or so subordinates behind him, obviously, they are coming for Isabella and the others.

The old man at the head opened his mouth, with a formidable aura, "Who told you to come? How did you get in?"

The "rain of hidden weapons" continued, and Isabella kicked the hidden weapons one by one, and was easily blocked by the leader.

This old man is pretty good.

She suddenly remembered that the old man in Paris should be with these people.

When the “rain of hidden weapons” stopped, the old man raised his hand to signal, and more than 30 people behind him rushed towards Benjamin and Isabella, and some even broke into the owner’s private residence.

In less than a minute, someone ran to the old man and reported, “Tel, there is a laboratory inside, and all the computers in the laboratory displayed four words: Destruction completed.”

Tel showed terrifying eyes, looked coldly at the man and woman who were fighting opposite, and said in a tone that he wanted to cut them into pieces, “What did you destroy?”

Is... Nora ?!

1

This place, with the exception of Nora, is off limits to even the highest-ranking senators.

During the fight, Isabella dropped the silver key from her body. When everyone saw the key on the ground, they were all frightened and their faces changed.

This is the “key card” that Nora carries with her, and it is her status symbol. How could it be in the hands of this girl?

Isabella kicked the key up easily, put it away, and continued to deal with the surrounding dangers.

Seeing that she has a light figure and great skills, could it be that she is Nora ?!

Tel is like a gust of wind, flashing in front of Isabella, although the tricks and clear eyes of this girl are not like Nora herself, but she is not afraid of ten thousand, just in case...

He was about to try the girl's skills, but he was intercepted by Benjamin first. After only seven or eight moves, Tel took a few steps back.

“Who the hell are you guys?” Tel was visibly annoyed, “Did Nora send you here?”

Isabella knocked down one of the youngsters, stepped on his stomach, kicked up the concealed weapon on the ground, held it accurately in her hand, and stabbed the poisonous end into the belly of another youngster, raised the playful weapon Yan Mou, “What qualifications do you have, let us

Hearing her voice so young, Tel guessed that she should be Nora 's friend, about the same age.

He had clearly warned Nora not to make friends in private, so his wings were stiff, and he betrayed him time and time again...

The feeling of being lied to was filled with anger, Tel laughed back in anger, “Today you can't fly, tell me where she is hiding, maybe I can leave you a whole body.”

“You should think about where to bury after death.” Isabella quickly made a move, and Tel received a few more moves.

“You go first, leave this to me.” Benjamin took over and knocked Tel back several steps.

More and more people poured in, blocking the only way out.

Now I want to leave but I can't.

“They broke in by themselves, even if they die, they will die!”

“Either hand over Nora, or die without a whole body!”

“Tel, they just destroyed all the data in the lab. Do you think they will take the data with them?”

If so, it would be a disaster for their organization.

“Kill them.” Tel made a quick decision and stopped wasting

At the same time, Isabella’s cell phone was vibrating in her backpack, and she heard a buzzing sound coming from behind her, but she and Benjamin could only make a way out of the enemy.

The phone vibrated over and over again in the backpack, and the caller stood in front of the castle, drenched in the rain.

No one ever answered on the other end.

Looking at the dark crowd in front of the castle, Hal put away his phone and pleaded, “I really have something urgent, please report it to me.”

“Our boss has already fallen asleep, we can talk about it tomorrow.” More than 20 people held weapons and blocked him in front of the gate, not allowing him to go any further.

“Today I must see her.”

“Who do you think our boss is, you can see him whenever you want?”

“Brother, can you see the time clearly? It’s two o’clock in the morning, aren’t you embarrassing us?”

“Is there anything that will happen in a short while...”

The movement here caught Les’ attention.

Peter and Troy aren’t here, he’s the one in charge here.

Seeing Les walking this way, more than 20 people shouted in unison, “ Brother Les.”

“What’s wrong?”

“This person insists on seeing the boss, and he won’t listen to any persuasion.”

Les raised his gaze and saw that it was Hal, his whole body was wet from the rain, and his eyes were full of eagerness and anxiety.

Chapter 500 It’s almost over

Clearly something is urgent.

Les took a step forward and whispered, “Our boss isn’t inside, we’ll talk about it tomorrow if we have anything to do.”

Terry inside...

“There’s no time.” Hal ‘s expression was particularly urgent, “I must see her, and immediately, immediately.”

Twenty or so people were annoyed.

“You said see you soon?”

“Because you saved the boss once, to save face, don’t be too arrogant.”

“If you want to see the boss, first step over our corpses.”

“Damn, who do you think you are? Our boss is not your follower, but someone you can see whenever you want? Can you weigh your identity?”

Benjamin had never been this arrogant.

Did this little brat save the boss by himself, so they all came to show off in front of them.

“Sorry, offended.” Hal shot quickly.

Les responded immediately, he didn’t mean to hurt Hal, but explained, “The boss is really not here, she’s out on business.”

“I do not believe.”

Every second is precious to Hal right now, he has to see Isabella before it’s too late.

“That’s the truth. Even if you turn the entire castle over, you won’t see her.” Les still didn’t make a cruel move, but avoided it as much as possible.

Who let the other party have a life-saving grace for the boss? The boss is thinking of this kindness, and he is also thinking of it.

But Hal is different.

He was eager to see Isabella, and he moved fiercely. In less than a minute, he had already hit Les in many places.

The move undoubtedly sparked public outrage.

” Brother Les let you, you are really shameless.”

“Dare to go to the castle to make trouble, who the fuck will borrow your courage?”

“Let me meet him!”

Sleep in bed.

Terry had a terrible dream. He dreamed that Nora’s almost over medicine was taking effect, and he was in pain and crying all the time.

He really wanted to help her, but there was nothing he could do. He could only wipe away her tears and hold her in his arms...

Suddenly, there was a thunder in the night sky, and Terry woke up from his sleep with fine sweat on his forehead.

It turned out to be a dream.

He breathed a sigh of relief, wiped the sweat from his forehead, and heard the sound of a storm coming from outside the window. It seemed that there were still some disputes.

Enduring the pain from his wound, he got up and went to the window. It seemed that someone was trying to force his way into the castle, but was stopped by Isabella 's men. There was a dispute between the two sides...

Immediately afterwards, the two sides raised their hands.

He was a little worried, and opened the door again. Seeing someone guarding not far from the door, he gently raised his hand to signal the other person to come over.

Unexpectedly, my sister's security here is stricter than that of Woods Villa. There are a group of people guarding the second floor 24 hours a day, so the security is extremely high.

"Sir? Why are you awake? How can I help you?" The person who spoke was Pete, one of Isabella 's loyal followers.

Terry asked softly, "What happened outside?"

When Pete heard it, it turned out to be this matter, and explained, "There is a person who wants to see the boss, but our people didn't let him in."

"It's so late, are you looking for Isabella ?" Terry looked at the wall clock on the wall again, it was already showing 2:14 in the morning.

Are you sick in your head?

Is there anything you can't say tomorrow?

It's so late, and you still come here to make trouble in the rain?

"Ignore him." Pete explained, "We'll take care of it, sorry for waking up Sir."

"Well, I'm fine." Terry looked at the door next door and asked in a low voice, "Did Isabella wake up?"

"No..." Pete felt a little guilty, and hurriedly lowered his head, "Maybe the heavy rain covered up the sounds outside... Another possibility is that the boss is exhausted and sleeps soundly at this point."

Terry thought of what he and his sister had experienced today. The little girl was really tired, so he nodded without thinking about it, "Thank you for your hard work."

"No hard work, no hard work, it is our honor to serve the boss and Sir."

Terry was about to enter the room, thought for a while, and added, "Oh, yes, stay alive."

Tomorrow, he will go to the location where Nora left with Isabella and Benjamin. He is afraid that the news will be too big and spread and cause unnecessary attention.

Pete was taken aback, and then said, "Don't worry, Sir, he is the boss's savior, and we won't do anything to him."

They all let him.

"The savior?" Terry was about to enter the room, but turned around when he heard this, "He saved Isabella?"

Pete didn't know that Sir didn't know anything about this matter. While surprised and uneasy, he had to bite the bullet and add, "When our boss first came here, he was weak and almost died here...he came to rescue him." Boss, it is said that the boss was seriously injured that time, only one breath left, if it wasn't for him, it would have been long ago..."

"Why did you get hurt?" Terry's heart ached and he couldn't help asking, "Who attacked her? Why did you bully her?"

Pete was dumbfounded by the question, "Boss is so beautiful. When he first came here, it was inevitable that someone would have evil intentions and want to take Boss as his own. At that time, Boss came to find herbs alone, so he would inevitably be made things difficult... Anyway, Boss It's not easy going all the way."

It really made the whole Nat Gang feel sorry for her.

When Terry heard this, he suddenly realized, and felt even more sad.

Yes, my sister is so beautiful, stepping into this place where people can't spit out their bones, it is inevitable to attract attention.

No wonder later, she hid her identity as a woman and rarely showed her face outside. Every time she showed her face, she used the identity of "Nat", just to avoid unnecessary troubles.

Sir, don't say that I said this." Pete was a little uneasy, he didn't know that the boss didn't tell Sir about the past, maybe he didn't want Sir to be sad.

Seeing Sir's reaction at this time, he felt that he was talking too much and actually made Sir sad...

Outside.

Hal put a knife on one of the men's necks, "Stop pushing me."

“You you you, you let go of Lionel.”

Everyone became even angrier.

Lionel was held hostage by him, and he didn't dare to act rashly.

Everyone is very irritable.

“What on earth do you want to do, we let you in every way

“You have to wake up everyone in the castle today, don't you?”

“Let me tell you, our boss hates being threatened the most, sensible, let me go Lionel!”

The commotion outside was getting louder and louder. Instead of going back to the room, Terry walked to the window of the corridor and looked out.

Isabella 's men appear to have been caught.

Pete was a little uneasy, oops, there was such a commotion outside, if the boss didn't come out of the room, did Sir guess that the boss was not in the room?

Thinking of this, Pete said again, “ Sir, don't worry about him, you can go and rest first.”

Isabella I have a business for you-”

In the rainstorm, Hal 's voice was very clear, he shouted, “I want to see you-”
