

Chased Her 501

Chapter 501 was discovered

“Also, ask him what’s the matter. If you’re in a hurry, I can pass it on for you.”

Seeing Terry clumsily going down the stairs step by step enduring the pain from his wound, Pete became even more anxious, following behind him and persuading him, “Sir, let us take care of this trivial matter, you go back and rest...”

“No problem.”

Pete was worried about not knowing how to stop him, when in a daze, he heard a sound coming from outside.

“Boss!”

“It’s the boss’s car, the boss is back.”

“The boss is finally back!”

“I’m worried every time the boss goes to do some errands, but every time I see her car comes back safely, I’m very happy.”

More than 20 people yelled “Boss” one after another, the voice was so loud that everyone in the castle heard it.

Someone else took an umbrella and opened the car door for Isabella.

“Boss, are you not injured?”

“Is it a big win?”

“Is Bastard following? If so, I will lead someone to cut their way.”

Hal saw the girl getting out of the car, but he didn't expect that Les really didn't lie to him. Isabella really went to work and was not in the castle.

He subconsciously let go of Lionel, and Lionel hurried to the crowd, rubbing his sore neck.

Damn, this Hal is really serious.

“It's okay, it's going well.” Isabella raised her eyes, her clear and beautiful eyes were especially beautiful in the dark night, she was a little surprised when she saw Hal, “Why are you here?”

Isabella, come with me, and I'll explain to you on the way.”

Hal was about to grab Isabella 's hand, but he was suddenly stopped by someone.

It's Benjamin.

He pulled Isabella to his side, his black eyes darkened a little.

This person doesn't sleep at night, what is he doing with his fiancée?

Isabella saw Hal 's anxiety, she gave Benjamin the things on her body, and said softly, “ Benjamin, I'll go out for a while, when Terry wakes up, you give these things to him.”

She thought Terry was sleeping in the castle, but at this moment, Terry was standing in front of the French windows on the first floor, watching their every move.

At first, he thought he was wrong, but when the girl got out of the car, the bright and pretty face was not his sister, who else?

There was a thunderstorm outside, and the noise of disputes failed to wake up my sister...

It turned out that she was not in the room!

Terry subconsciously looked at Pete beside him again, Pete lowered his head guiltily...

So, why did my sister sneak around to do things in the middle of the night? And let these people hide from him together?

Could it be that the place my sister went to was the location where Nora stayed?

I was afraid of danger, so I didn't let him follow...

Benjamin came back with his sister, so this kid also lied to him...

The marriage with Isabella has not even been written off, and Isabella and Isabella cooperated with each other to deceive him, who is an older brother.

Terry intends to "settle accounts" with them.

Sir, don't be angry... Boss saw that you were injured and wanted you to rest more..." Pete hurriedly chased after him and explained, "Boss was afraid that you would be worried and wouldn't be able to sleep well, so he didn't tell you..."

Outside.

Benjamin lowered his head and asked the girl in front of him, "Where are you going?"

Hal on the side was in a hurry, and whispered, "Isabella, I don't have time."

"I'll talk to you later?" Isabella didn't know exactly what happened, but she vaguely guessed that it was related to the person Hal mentioned today...

That person should be dying soon...

"Then be careful in everything, and call me anytime you need anything."

Benjamin didn't want to restrict her freedom, and didn't want to ask too much. He gave her great trust and space.

"Come back early." He patted Isabella's head again, as if telling a child.

Someone handed him an umbrella, and Hal took it first, waiting for Isabella to take the first step.

"I'll be back soon, contact me anytime."

Isabella's words seemed to give Benjamin a reassurance, and Benjamin's expression became milder.

Seeing him smile, Isabella left with Hal, her thin back gradually leaving Benjamin's sight.

Benjamin looked at the direction she was leaving with a somewhat complicated look on his face. Les held his breath and said after a while, "Don't worry, Benjamin, Boss just went to do something and will be back soon."

Benjamin was still standing there, watching the car drive away, no one knew what he was thinking.

“Hal is in such a hurry, there must be something urgent to ask the boss for help.”

“He rarely comes here...”

“No way, who told the boss to owe him a favor...”

I don't know who said the last sentence, Benjamin 's eyes fell on him, “Ow him for favor?”

“This... Didn't the boss tell you...” The man realized that he had said something wrong, and hurriedly covered his mouth, but it was too late.

Benjamin 's gaze made him unbearable, he looked to Senior Brother Les for help.

Les could only pass in a few words.

Although it was only a few words, Benjamin 's heart was still suffocating with pain. Contents belong to the little girl had suffered so much before he knew Isabella.

It was a bit bitter, even a man couldn't bear it, but she still gritted her teeth and persisted...

Just as Terry was about to step out of the gate of the castle, he saw Benjamin walking back with an umbrella, walking up the steps step by step.

Terry?”

Benjamin 's tone was a little surprised.

Terry 's face was gloomy, " It's okay for Isabella to mess around, how can you mess around with her? In the middle of the night, it was raining heavily. If something happened, I would feel guilty and suffer for the rest of my life. Although you can protect her, you are not afraid of ten thousand, Just in case."

Pete on the side begged Benjamin 's forgiveness with his eyes...

He didn't mean to slip his tongue...

It's because he wasted some time by talking about Hal's kindness to the boss, that's why things have developed to this point.

"Our family finally found Isabella. I don't want her to have an accident, and I don't want her to have an accident because of me. Can you understand?"

Chapter 502

When Terry said this, he suddenly felt like a discouraged ball, "I know, I was injured, and acting with you will only slow you down, but I can at least shield Isabella from a knife? I am willing to be a shield to block How much is how much. It's about Nora, and I don't want to miss any opportunity to investigate the truth, I want to personally participate..."

He didn't want to be like a useless cripple who could only wait for news at home. His sister and brother-in-law would take care of everything for him, so he also wanted to do something...

Terry, we don't think you're slowing down." Benjamin 's eyes sparkled with sincerity, and his voice was warm and respectful, "You're hurt like this, we just want you to sleep. more, that's all, you've been hurt these days If we don't have a good rest, we see it in our eyes and worry in our hearts."

Seeing that Terry 's mood improved, Benjamin continued, Isabella and I are familiar with this place, and it's easy to move around. The reason I kept it from you is because I don't want you to worry, and I'm afraid you won't sleep well all night."

He explained, " Isabella knows you well, and knows that in a dangerous situation, you, as a brother, will definitely give up your life for your sister. So, she doesn't want you to be a shield, and she only hopes that you will be well, find the third sister-in-law, and be happy After living his whole life, Terry doesn't have to feel that he didn't do much, and it's not due to anyone alone, it's the result of everyone's hard work."

Terry didn't expect that this quiet and indifferent kid would be able to comfort others. The key point is, after being comforted by him, Terry suddenly felt that he had done something wrong, but if he had to say what was wrong, how wrong, he couldn't tell...

"One more thing." Benjamin changed the subject and said softly, "Tonight, Isabella and I found that place. It is an unnamed mountain. There are many people guarding it. We used the key left by my sister-in-law to get in smoothly. In the innermost laboratory, when Isabella cracked the password and wanted to download the data package, there were three problems."

Terry 's heart tightened, and he was instantly distracted. He focused on this, "What's the problem?"

"It's about you."

Benjamin briefly described what happened tonight, Terry was shocked, but also surprised and ecstatic... Contents belong to Set up three questions, asking his name, the specific time together, his birthday...

All three are related to him!

Such a problem, besides Nora, who else would set it up like this?

“At the most critical moment, setting such a question shows that you are very important to Sister-in-law San.” Benjamin said again, “Terry is another way to accompany Sister-in-law San to protect her precious things.”

Terry’s heart was agitated again, “Does she have anything to say?”

“No.” Benjamin took out his phone again, “But we cracked two data packages, and now I’m sending them to you, which probably contain the truth that Terry wants to know.”

For example, why the third sister-in-law suddenly proposed to break up, why she disappeared without a trace, what is her relationship with that organization tonight...

It’s probably in the data pack.

Terry took out his mobile phone and anxiously waited for the information to come. He has been struggling with the reason for the breakup for so long, and he and Isabella and Benjamin have been investigating the truth of the disappearance for so long, and it is about to come out...

He was excited and uneasy, apprehensive and anxious...

“One 6g, one 7g.” What Benjamin said was the memory occupied by the data package, which means that there are a lot of things in it, and it will be impossible to finish reading in a short while.

At this time, Benjamin’s cell phone vibrated, he looked up, and said, “Terry, I still have something to deal with, you can watch it first, and rest when you get tired, Isabella is going to do something, just call me if you have something to do.”

“Okay, then be careful on the way back.” Terry was about to go upstairs when he suddenly remembered something and asked again, “Are you and Isabella not hurt tonight?”

“No.”

“That’s good...” Terry breathed a sigh of relief, “No matter what happens next, don’t hide it from Terry.”

“good.”

the other side.

Bradley ‘s eyelids were about to fight, and they couldn’t hold on a few times, and they almost closed.

The phone screen was about to go dark, so he hurriedly turned it on. Seeing that his sister still didn’t reply to his WhatsApp or call him back, he yawned and continued to wait with his eyes open.

In case the younger sister sees his message, he must reply in seconds, and he can’t make the younger sister feel left out.

Can’t sleep, can’t sleep.

He pinched his thigh again...

Tears came out of his pain.

He was startled, and suddenly couldn’t understand why his sister called him in the middle of the night to ask him about Terry ‘s birthday, whether Terry ‘s birthday is coming soon, and he wants to buy a gift for Terry...

Why does it feel like when Terry returns home, his status becomes higher than him, and he is even favored...

Is it because he spent less time with his sister recently in order to make money for his sister, so Terry let Terry take advantage of it...

No, I need to call my sister a few more times tomorrow to express my concern...

Isabella sat in the car and looked at the wet man beside him. He drove the car like a plane and stepped on the gas pedal to the end. It could be seen that he was extremely anxious.

“Is she dying?” Isabella asked aloud.

As soon as he mentioned this, Hal almost lost his defense. He suppressed his tears, “She is in pain... I want you to help her relieve a little pain...”

At the end of life, Hal wanted her to go easy, “Is there any way to make her feel a little bit better in her last moments...”

Isabella didn't understand, “What's wrong with her?”

“It's not a disease... She is suffering from a chronic poison. There is no cure for this poison. As her life gets shorter and shorter, the toxicity becomes stronger and stronger. Now she is suffering every minute and every second...”

As long as Hal thinks of the pain she is in now, he wants to bear everything for her.

She was in so much pain that she was crying all the time...

In the past, she didn't know how strong she was. Even if she was injured or saw blood, she wouldn't blink her eyelids...

But now, her tears are all spontaneous and subconscious, and the pain has penetrated into the bone marrow...

Isabella saw that his emotions became agitated again, and couldn't help asking, "Then why...don't let her go faster?"

Although it is a bit bad to ask like this, it is better to leave early than to hold on in such pain.

"She still has a last wish, and I must help her fulfill it." Hal said the last wish, his voice was crying, "Before I come back, please take good care of her and help her relieve the pain of the drug effect..."

"I try my best."

Hal drove the car to an extremely secluded place and stopped, "Let's hurry up."

He was really racing against time, trying to help the people inside fulfill their last wish...

Isabella followed his footsteps through the small courtyard and came to the front of the house.

Hal whispered, "She has a special identity, if you see her face, you may be killed."

When Isabella heard it, she had a lot of background?

"So, you can take care of her inside, there is no one inside."

The person was in the next room, and there was a frosted glass wall between the two rooms, and a small hole was cut in the middle of the wall.

Isabella suddenly realized, take care of the partition wall? Quite fresh.

Hal came to the small hole, leaned over and said to the person opposite, "he, my friend is here, if you feel uncomfortable next time, just tell her..."

On the other side of the wall is the girl's bed. At this time, the girl is curled up on the bed, her internal organs are all stirred together in pain.

She firmly grasped the corner of the quilt, her thin shoulders trembled with pain, big beads of sweat fell from her forehead and landed on her cold and beautiful face.

Although her face was pale, it did not hinder her beautiful appearance at all..

Chapter 503 Meeting

If it weren't for the torment of illness at this time, her facial features could be said to be overwhelming, which is rare in the world.

"Hmm." The girl couldn't say a complete word, and even the sound came out through gritted teeth.

But Isabella can still hear her voice is very young, she should not be very old.

"She's in pain, and she can't get up to greet you." Hal turned to Isabella and explained, "If you can, help me ease the pain of her illness."

"OK."

“I’ll go back quickly.” Hal leaned over and said softly to the girl on the other side of the wall, “I’m leaving, I’ll be back soon, wait for me.”

must wait...

At least, let him meet for the last time...

Isabella saw the reluctance and pain in Hal’s eyes, she said softly, “Don’t worry, I’ll make sure she’s okay until you come back.”

“Thank you.” Hal gave Isabella a grateful look.

Isabella in the middle of the night. In this place, only Isabella has the strength to keep everything safe at this critical moment.

After Hal left, Isabella whispered to the girl on the other side of the wall, “Hand over here, let me see.”

The girl on the bed endured the pain and stretched out her hand.

It is a slender white hand.

Isabella’s finger landed on her pulse, and it took a while before she said, “Your poison is really complicated, I’ll help you relieve the pain first.”

The girl on the bed heard the sound of Isabella opening the backpack, followed by the sound of needles?

She withdrew her hand abruptly, wary and wary of Isabella.

Isabella was a bit surprised, "You can even hear the sound of needles?"

When she was holding the needle just now, the short needle hit the long needle, and the girl next door heard the sound of it?

It seems that the identity is really not simple...

The girl hesitated for a while, then stretched out her hand again.

" Didn't Hal tell you that he saved my life?" Isabella directly dropped the needle on the acupuncture point at the end of the girl's finger, and said softly, "I won't harm you."

The girl is used to being cautious, and Isabella 's words did not make her relax a bit, but she was always cautious.

"Switch hands."

The girl stretched out her other hand.

After Isabella administered the needle, she said again, "The pain has eased."

The girl was a little surprised. It seems that Brother Hal is not lying. This Isabella is really skilled in medicine.

"The left hand." Isabella began to narrow her needles again, and said after a while, "The right hand."

The girl obeyed obediently.

"It doesn't hurt that much now?"

“It’s much better.” The girl on the bed didn’t expect Isabella’s medical skills to be so superb, and said gratefully, “Thank you.”

Just now she was in so much pain that she had nothing to love, if it wasn’t for that last wish, she would have slammed her head against the wall to death.

“How many hours can my body last?”

She wondered if she could wait until the moment when brother Hal came back...

“It’s hard to say.” Isabella said while packing up the needle bag, “Your condition is indeed complicated, but it’s not impossible to save.”

When the girl heard this, her eyes lit up with hope, “Is this true?”

“Yeah.” Isabella finished tidying up, raised her clear eyes, and said softly, “But it’s not that easy to completely eradicate.”

“Then can you do it?”

“I have to draw some of your blood to go back for research.” Isabella explained, “You have a lot of toxins in your body. If you want to completely cure it, you need multiple medications, and it won’t be cured for a while.” Contents belong to

“How sure are you?”

“Seventy to eighty percent.”

The girl’s eyes were full of surprise, so many??

You must know that she has consulted countless famous doctors before, and they all said that she could not be saved...

Including the well-known he in the United States, he also waved his hands and said that he was helpless...

However, he did recommend someone, saying that Selby Brown might have a way.

But Selby Brown has never seen the end. No one has known his whereabouts these years. Until now, she has not been able to find out his whereabouts.

“Then can you save me?” The girl on the bed waited anxiously for Isabella’s answer with hopes and requests.

Isabella looked at her slender wrist and asked softly, “Who are you Hal?”

“Sister.” The girl replied truthfully, “My dear sister.”

Isabella was a little surprised, she had never heard that Hal had a younger sister before...

“Because our identity is sensitive, we have never mentioned it to outsiders. You are the first one.” The girl explained.

Isabella nodded, “Okay, I’ll try my best.”

As if, repaying Hal for saving his life.

“Thank you, then can you call Brother Hal for me? Let him come back...”

If she can survive, there is no need to fulfill this last wish right away.

When she recovers, she can do it herself.

Isabella took out her mobile phone and dialed Hal, but the other party showed that it was turned off.

Hearing the system's cold voice, the girl blamed herself a bit," Brother Hal took me to see many doctors before, and they all said that my condition was complicated and there was nothing I could do. I thought I would never get better."

So when Hal thinks about Isabella, and the whole mountain of medicine that Isabella presides over...

He wants to take his sister to show Isabella...

But the girl has already lost the confidence and courage to live...

"Do you know? I live in pain every day, and I want to die several times, but I know that once I leave, my brother will definitely go with me. We are each other's only relatives in this world.

"It can be seen." Isabella said warmly, "He cares about you very much, otherwise he wouldn't come to me in the rain in the middle of the night."

And hurt her men...

I have to ask him to buy something later, come to the door to apologize, and I can't take advantage of him.

"He went out in the rain?" The girl blamed herself even more, and asked after a while, "I heard your voice is very young, why are your medical skills so good?"

"It was taught by a grandfather."

“Then this grandpa must be very powerful and thinks highly of you, otherwise he wouldn’t have taught you such a powerful skill.”

When the girl said this, she began to feel pain again.

Chapter 504 Deepening Feelings

Isabella felt her strangeness, and asked quietly, “Does it hurt again?”

“Hmm...” the girl covered her abdomen, gritted her teeth, and comforted her in turn, “It’s okay, this little pain is much lighter than when I just had the attack.”

“Hold out your hand and let me see.” Isabella started to feel her pulse again.

The girl curled up on the bed, with her small face facing the wall, through the small hole, she could just see Isabella’s beautiful chin, and the slender and beautiful fingers on her wrist.

For some reason, she suddenly remembered the person in her mind...

If possible, she would like to go back and see him, even if she could only glance at him from a distance.

“How long has this poison been tormenting you?” Isabella let go of her hand again, and went to get the small medicine bottle in her backpack.

“It’s been a year and a half.” The girl smiled wryly. She didn’t expect that she could endure it for a year and a half.

After hearing it for a year and a half, Isabella paused for a moment, and for some reason, she suddenly thought of Nora...

The poison in Nora’s body has been there for at least a year, or even a year and a half.

“Take some painkillers first, and get a good night’s sleep.” Isabella poured out a small pill from the bottle and handed it over.

Just now the girl only saw Isabella’s fingers, but now she saw her whole beautiful hand, and immediately felt pleasing to the eye.

She took the pill and took it.

“I’ll make a phone call.” Isabella got up and went outside the room, closed the door, and dialed the familiar number again.

Benjamin seemed to have been waiting for the little girl’s call, and the moment the screen lit up, he answered it almost instantly.

Benjamin, “Is it safe?”

Isabella, “I’m safe now.”

The two spoke almost in unison, and after blurting out the words, they were taken aback for a moment and laughed together.

“It’s fine.” Benjamin smiled softly and dotingly, and glanced at the time, “It’s past three o’clock, when will you be back? Will he send you back, or should I pick you up?”

“I guess not so fast, it will be noon tomorrow.”

Hal said just now, he should be away for more than ten hours.

“Then what are you going to do tonight? Is there a place to rest? Is it not complicated? Are you tired?”

“Not tired, just looking after someone.” Isabella asked again, “Is there any news from Terry?”

“Haven’t gotten a call from him yet.”

“If you have time tomorrow, go over and take a look at Terry for me. Don’t make him sleepless. He needs to eat something and change his medicine.”

“good.”

“You yourself too.” Isabella added, “You must rest well tonight, don’t wait for me, I’ll be back when the time is up.”

Benjamin didn’t expect the little girl to know him quite well. Indeed, before the little girl came back, he couldn’t sleep well at all. He was always worried about whether the little girl would be in danger and whether he needed help...

Isabella naturally guessed this too, “If I see your dark circles tomorrow, then I won’t see you, I won’t see you for three days.”

“I’ll sleep.” Benjamin said immediately, “I’ll definitely sleep well tonight.”

“Don’t wait any longer.”

“I’ll sleep with the sachet you gave me.” Benjamin promised, “You have to sleep too. If I see you have dark circles tomorrow, I’ll beat that kid up and make panda eyes

Deepening Feelings

“Okay.” Isabella laughed, even if she stayed up all night, she wouldn’t have dark circles, which was related to the Beauty Flower Coffee she had been drinking.

“Then you should pay attention to safety in everything. If there is any situation, please call me anytime.” Benjamin was reluctant to give up, and asked a few more words before hanging up the phone.

Because Isabella was outside the room, not far away, the girl heard the content, and unconsciously, she thought of the person in her mind again...

Terry is also the first in the family...

automatically bring that handsome and charming face into her mind when someone said ” Terry “...

She misses him so much that she thinks of him at various moments...

I don’t know if he’s doing well now or how he’s doing...

After Isabella entered the room, she was a little surprised when she heard the girl next door turning over, “Are you still asleep?”

“Well, I can’t sleep.”

After sitting down, Isabella asked again, “What are you thinking?”

“Do you have a boyfriend?”

Deepening Feelings

Hearing what she said, the corner of Isabella's mouth twitched, "Eavesdrop on my phone call?"

"It's a small place. Although your voice is not loud, it's quiet. in the middle of the night..." Perhaps it was because no one spoke for a long time, but he rarely put down his guard, and smiled slightly at the corner of his pale mouth, "You and your boyfriend have a good relationship?"

If she heard correctly, just now Isabella was calling her boyfriend to report that she was safe.

"Well, it's okay." Isabella asked casually again, "What about you? Have a boyfriend?"

"used to have..."

When he said this, he thought of that handsome face again.

used to have??

Isabella understands, but now they are separated and not together.

"I will bring bad luck to those around me..." he laughed at himself again, "So, I can't face you."

She didn't want Isabella to get killed.

"Sometimes I want to survive, just like normal people..."

However, once she is alive, she will only bring endless disasters to those around her...

Just like Brother Hal, who has been hiding with her for a year...

Deepening Feelings

The most loyal subordinates by her side all died beyond recognition...

And her adoptive parents also suffered a lot because of her...

When she first fell in love, she did it secretly, and when she left, she blocked all the contact information of that person...

I really haven't contacted that person.

That person has a noble status and rarely goes home, so the people from the organization didn't find him...

weak-handed people around her.

Recalling that when her parents were tied up, she saw the news and wanted to save her, but she was powerless...

At that time, she had a toxic attack, and she couldn't take care of herself, let alone go back to the United States, she didn't even have the strength to get out of bed...

And brother Hal was seriously injured in order to protect her, and almost took a step ahead of her...

So at that time, they could only watch their adoptive parents being bullied...

She will never forget the blood on that ground.

Thinking of this, the girl clenched her fists tightly. Although it is difficult for her alone, as long as the poison can be completely cured, she must destroy the old nest of the entire organization and let herself live in the sun. Contents belong to

There is no longer any need to be manipulated wantonly.

“People around you, no one will regard you as a bad luck. I believe they all like you and are willing to fight side by side with you, just like your brother Hal, who has always been by your side to protect you.

Isabella ‘s words surprised the girl a bit.

Isabella continued, “So, you must survive, live well, and let everyone see that you are not a bad luck.”

The girl was slightly touched again.

I don’t know if it’s because of her special status. In these years, no one has ever said such a thing to her.

Chapter 505 Terry is Dead

“If you feel that your illness is a drag on those around you, get well soon.”

“If you feel that your identity brings misfortune to those around you, then find a way to get rid of it.”

“It’s hard to come to this world once, and you always have to live for yourself. It’s easy to feel that you don’t deserve to live, bow your head to fate, surrender, and lose like that. It’s not cool at all.”

“Even if you want to leave this world, you can’t do it in such an embarrassing way.”

“Next, you need to take good care of your body and have confidence in yourself. Your confidence will also infect the people around you, making them confident and courageous.”

Isabella, thank you.” The girl’s heartstrings were plucked, and her tone was grateful, “Do you know? In these years, no one has ever said such a thing to me.”

She is like a marionette, who has been manipulated and ordered since she was a child, and what she should do and what she should not do are all planned to death.

All kinds of rules and regulations bound her.

She was never told that she too could live for herself once.

“Let’s have a rest first.” Isabella checked the time, it was already past three o’clock in the morning.

“You can sleep on the bed next to you.” The girl’s voice was gentler than before, and she obviously regarded Isabella as her own. “The bedspread and quilt on the bed have been washed by Brother Hal, and they are very clean.”

“No, I’ll just close my eyes and rest my mind.” Isabella sat on the chair, leaning back against the wall, in a cool big guy pose.

Through a glass wall, the girl can feel Isabella’s cool aura, and their personalities seem to be quite in tune.

After another hour or so, it began to rain lightly outside, and the cold wind poured in through the gaps in the windows, bringing a bit of chill.

Isabella heard the sound of the girl next door turning over cautiously, opened her eyes, and asked softly, “Uncomfortable?”

“No, it’s nothing...” The girl almost gritted her teeth, she didn’t expect the poison in her body to strike again. In the past year and a half, she has been resurrected repeatedly under such torture, suffering from endless pain...

“Hand over here.” Isabella guessed that the pill just now had an effect. In addition to analgesia, that pill, combined with her acupuncture, could also force out some toxicity in the body.

Of course, only a few.

The girl was already trembling with pain, she stretched out her hand, and Isabella’s slender fingers landed on her wrist, as expected.

The toxicity has been forced to the heart, and it needs to add a fire to force the poison out.

Suddenly, the sound of something falling reached Isabella’s ears.

The girl saw her most precious thing dropped on the ground, and wanted to pick it up, but she was powerless...

“Something dropped?” Isabella asked softly, “Do you need any help?”

“No need...” The girl stretched out her hand to pick it up, but it fell to the ground together with a dull sound.

Now, Isabella could no longer sit idly by, got up and went to the next room.

The girl heard someone knocking on the door, and immediately said, “No need, leave me alone...”

Her voice was too low, completely covered by the wind and rain outside, Isabella didn’t hear it, and just said, “I’m coming in.”

Hearing the sound of the door being pushed open, the girl hastily raised the volume, "Stay away!"

Isabella hooked her lips, "Afraid of hurting me?"

"Everyone who has seen me will end up miserable and will be hunted down..."

I thought this would make Isabella retreat...

Unexpectedly, Isabella curled her lips disapprovingly, "Oh, that's quite exciting."

girl:???

Isabella stepped in and saw the back of the girl falling to the ground, as if she wanted to get the necklace on the ground.

Isabella walked over and picked up the necklace.

At this moment, the mobile phone vibrated in her pocket, and the moment Isabella took out the mobile phone, the small silver key and a symbolic necklace fell to the ground unexpectedly.

When the girl on the ground saw these two things, her pupils tightened instantly, expressing suspicion and vigilance about Isabella 's identity.

"Tell me something." Isabella picked up the phone, but didn't look at the girl's appearance immediately.

"Boss, the research results of the second phase of the last P3 project have come out."

"I don't have time to listen now." Isabella hung up the phone, picked up two small things on the ground and put them in her pocket, and then handed over the necklace that the girl had dropped.

The girl's cold and pale face came into her eyes, which made

Isabella slightly stunned, Nora??

This face was exactly the same as the photo Terry showed her before, except that there was a touch of morbid paleness.

And Nora endured the pain, and quickly moved towards Isabella. Isabella avoided it because she didn't know it. When she was about to speak, Nora gritted her teeth and asked, "Why did those two things fall into your hands?"

Isabella was a little puzzled, "You mean what I dropped just now?"

"That's right."

The small silver key was a gift from Nora hidden in her mother's scarf.

an important item she hid in Terry's amulet and handed over to Terry for safekeeping.

But why are these two things in Isabella's hands?

Isabella is from the organization? Was it sent by those old things?

Isabella understood it instantly, curled her lips, and did not forget to take out her mobile phone, turn on the video function, and record the next scene.

"Since I guessed it, I won't hide it from you. That's right, Terry is dead."

The girl's beautiful pupils widened instantly, and she asked in disbelief, "What did you say?"

Terry is dead?.

The person she cares about the most is dead??

When did this happen??

The sudden bad news made Nora 's heart tighten suddenly, and the pain was worse than before...

Terry is a stumbling block in your future, and I must help you get rid of him."

The girl's thin body was already angry and trembling slightly. She gritted her teeth, raised her bloodthirsty eyes and asked, "What right do you have to make decisions for me? Who allowed you to touch him?"

The last sentence was full of anger, and anyone with a discerning eye could tell that she cared about him very much.

Yes, according to the trend, the poison in the body will soon be forced out.

Nora asked angrily, "Is it Tel? Or something old? Who gave the order? Whose dog are you? Who allowed you to touch a hair of him!!"

"It doesn't matter who it is." Isabella said disapprovingly, "What matters is that Terry is dead and the barrier has been removed."

"I said, none of you are allowed to touch him! He is deaf now, and none of you can hear me clearly?"

It has to be said that Nora's angry appearance is somewhat similar to hers.

Isabella hooked her lips and said with great interest, "You are so different from just now I quite like your gentle look. just now, isn't it a man, as long as you go back to the organization, at worst, you can find another one for you."

"Even if you search the world, you won't be able to find. another him." Nora said disdainfully, "Besides, I don't care about it, and I won't go back with you. The old man is sent to hell, so please repent to him."

Chapter 506 Nat's Woman

Nora shot quickly, and Isabella intercepted it easily, "You are not my opponent."

"Don't talk too soon." Nora quickly made another move, with a fierce move, "Today, even if I lose my life, I will avenge Terry with my own hands."

Isabella accepted the offer with great interest, "Since you like it so much, why did you leave in the first place?"

much to manage."

Nora wanted to tear the person who hurt Terry to pieces.

Isabella saw that the poison in her body hadn't been forced out yet, and said again, "He's still chanting your name until he dies... Please let me let you go, just kneel at my feet and kowtow non-stop."

"You're lying." Nora said a few more tricks, "Terry won't beg anyone, no matter who it is."

“Then you are wrong. For you, he is willing to do anything. I asked him to take a knife and cut off the flesh of his body. He really did it obediently.” Isabella evoked a captivating smile, “I also took a video and sent it back to you?”

“frenzied.”

The severe pain in her body forced Nora to lean on the corner of the table beside her, and looked at Isabella again,

“You are young, and you look like a flower, but I didn’t expect him to be so vicious and vicious. How much pain did you inflict on him? Today I will You pay double!”

“Angry? It seems that you care about him.” Isabella raised the corners of her lips, “But you gave me a good suggestion. I think the process of him being stabbed is very interesting. Looking back, I am on the people around him implement it...”

“You dare.” Nora still wanted to make a move, but the pain from all over her body was enough to stop her. Her voice trembled from the pain, she bit her lip, and looked at Isabella in front of her angrily.

I didn’t expect that she was sent by the organization...

Hal so long in advance for this day??

Could it be that the organization knew that she and brother Hal were brothers and sisters a long time ago??

No, it’s impossible. If the organization knew about it, it would have killed Brother Hal long ago...

Why exactly, what went wrong?

No matter what, the person who caused Terry’s tragic death will never be forgiven today!

A burst of white powder flew over.

Isabella blocked it with her hand, and asked with great interest, "What is this?"

"Seven steps down." Nora also curled her lips, her pretty face glowing with confidence, "This is the medicine I researched, and no one has the antidote except me, now, kneel down for me, and take it through Terry suffering."

"Meaning, if I take more than seven steps, I will faint?"

"It was a sudden death." Nora corrected, "Of course, I won't let you die too easily."

Isabella smiled, her smile was elegant and beautiful, "It can't hurt me."

"You..." Nora didn't expect that Isabella could even smell the main ingredients, and she became even angrier.

Isabella quickly made a move, and hit her heart with a palm. I don't know if it was grief and anger. With Isabella's palm, Nora spat out a mouthful of poisonous blood in an instant.

Isabella looked at the blood on the ground, and said calmly, "Finally forced out, you, your patience is really different. From ordinary people, it made me lose a lot of lips..."

But fortunately, part of the toxicity was forced out.

"Do you feel better now?" Isabella asked again.

“What do you mean?” Nora supported the corner of the table next to her. Although she felt much more comfortable, she still had a lot of worries about the two things on Isabella, and she didn’t know why.

“You are Nora, right?” Isabella held out her hand coolly, “Let me introduce myself, I am your future sister-in-law Isabella, and Terry is my Terry.”

Nora was stunned on the spot, and it took a while to deny it, “You’re lying, Terry only has one younger sister, I’ve seen the photos, it’s not you.”

“Oh, you mean Cecilia? She’s our adopted daughter.” Isabella obviously didn’t take Cecilia seriously.

But Nora still brooded, “I never heard Terry mention it.”

“Then you will ask later?”

When Nora heard it, Terry came too? real??

“My Terry is not far from here. He has been looking for you for a whole year.”

Nora recalled the surrounding environment, “There is only one Nat Gang not far from here, and he was caught by the Nat Gang?”

Is there any danger? Where is Nat Gang?

No, she’s going to save him!

“Not caught, but he did suffer a lot of injuries for you and your family. It’s a good thing your organization did.”

Isabella picked up the recording phone again, clicked to pause the recording, and sent the video just taken to Terry, and then said, "But you don't have to worry too much, even if your arm was cut a few times, and your back was also injured, you need someone to walk. Holding on, I can't eat or sleep well, I just want to find you... that's all, don't worry, I won't die." Contents belong to Nora 's heart tightened inexplicably, did it hurt so badly? Have you seen a doctor? How did this idiot come here?!

Didn't you tell him to break up?!

Why are you so stupid!!

"As for my identity, if this cannot be proved..." Isabella clicked on the address book, found Terry 's mobile phone number, and raised her voice, "You can also call and ask."

Nora saw that " Terry " in her address book is indeed Terry 's mobile phone number, but...it is not difficult to get Terry 's mobile phone number...

At this moment, Isabella heard the voice outside and immediately said, "Be careful, someone is coming."

More than a dozen people broke into the door aggressively.

The leading man sneered, "You traitor, you are indeed here! You are in the same group!"

Since Isabella left the mountain, someone followed her secretly. Because of the heavy rain, Isabella 's anti-detection. ability was not as good as usual, and many voices were covered by the wind and rain.

The people in the organization saw Hal running to the castle. and making a scene. They had doubted Hal 's identity a long time ago. Finally, they saw Hal bring Isabella here, and they deliberately guarded outside until this moment. enter.

“What’s your relationship with Nat Gang?” The leading man asked again, “Are you Nat’s woman?”

Only Nat’s women are qualified to live in the castle, and are respected by so many of Nat’s subordinates...

Isabella :???

“Oh, that’s right.” Isabella raised a playful smile, “Didn’t you want to do it? Slowly, this is the speed of your organization?”

“Dare to look down on people? You have moved our Tel and so many brothers. Today, I must tie you to Nat and let him personally punish you!”

For the stability of the Nat Gang, Nat would definitely disdain to abandon a woman...

After all, Nat is notoriously cold-blooded and ruthless...

This woman went crazy to make trouble in their organization, and even deleted the computer records of their laboratory...

must be punished severely!!

Chapter 507 Half Human Half Ghost

“And you Nora, you traitor, come back with me and kneel down to the elders to admit your mistakes!”

“Whimsical.” Isabella and Nora said in unison, but looked at each other in surprise, unexpectedly they had a tacit understanding.

“It just so happens that I haven’t loosened my muscles for a long time...”

After being slapped by Isabella, the toxicity in her body was forced out, and Nora felt a lot more relaxed.

She rubbed her wrists and was about to have a big fight.

The leader of the masked man sneered coldly, “The organization has set up a net outside, and today you two can’t fly! If you know your senses, obediently catch them with your hands.”

“That’s a lot of nonsense.” Nora and Isabella said in unison again, and at the same time evoked a sneering smile. The beauty of the two was tinged with coldness and coolness.

Isabella said with great interest, “Show your skills.”

“Accept the move.” Nora quickly flashed to the front like a flash of lightning.

Isabella didn’t expect that she just expelled a little poison. from her body, and her speed was much faster than before, and her moves were obviously faster and more flexible than before.

Isabella also firmly gained the upper hand, and the dozen or so small shrimps were easy for her, no problem.

Wave after wave of people poured in outside the door, like mushrooms after a spring rain, constantly popping up.

At the same time, a hail of bullets hit them.

Isabella overturned the table and slammed the table in front of Nora to shield her from danger.

And Nora picked up the knife dropped by others on the ground, threw it behind Isabella accurately, and hit the person who was about to attack Isabella with a knife.

Both of them are protecting each other in their own way.

The masked man in the lead exuded a terrifying aura when he saw them cooperating so tacitly.

It seems that Elder's guess is right, Isabella is one of Nora's privately trained forces against the organization!

Not only did she train others in private, but she also colluded with Nat Gang and killed her own people. These two crimes are enough to send Nora to the 18th floor of hell!

Now let's see if other people in the organization dare to protect her!

At this time, Isabella looked at Nora with pursed lips, "Where's the thing just now?"

Nora was a little puzzled, what?

Suddenly, she remembered, took out a small medicine bottle from her pocket, and asked suspiciously, "This is what you mean?"

Seven steps down?!

Isabella raised an eyebrow, as if to say, that's right.

Nora immediately threw the medicine bottle over, and Isabella easily caught it. It took her less than two seconds to mix the seven-step pour into her other medicine bottle with one hand.

With just a single movement, the gray powder hit the other people. Before everyone knew what happened, they fell down one after another, completely powerless.

The leading man in the mask immediately blocked his breath, but the fine powder was still inhaled into his lungs. After a few seconds, he felt weak and unable to exert himself...

What is this?

It turned out to be so powerful.

Could it be that Nora and this girl are secretly researching some kind of drug, which is specially used to deal with the organization?

Thinking of this, the man in the mask burned even more furiously, thinking that this Nora was too much!

It's just an unfamiliar white-eyed wolf.

The organization has carefully cultivated her for so many years, but they never expected to raise such a scourge!

“Mine is called one step down.” Isabella gave it an impromptu name, pursed her lips and looked at the dozens of defeated soldiers in front of her, lying in front of her one by one, it seemed that the strength of this organization was not good enough.

Nora didn't expect her to be so powerful, just mixing the two medicines together has such a great effect...

How did she do it?

The man in the mask, who was completely weak, quickly pressed the button on the watch, and soon, a group of dead soldiers appeared at the door.

They seem to have come from hell, each of them has a strong chill, and the cold wind from outside the window pours in, making people feel shuddering.

When Nora saw this group of people, the light in her eyes turned cold. Knowing that the confession was likely to be here today, she glanced at Isabella and said softly, "You go first."

She'll cover for Isabella.

Isabella raised her eyebrows, "Finally some useful ones?"

"They have received special training since they were young, so that they are invulnerable to all poisons and difficult to penetrate with swords and guns."

He was also injected with various drugs, and his muscle strength and strength are no longer comparable to normal. humans...

Nora is able to have today's skills, it is because she has fought against these strange people again and again since she was a child...

Of course, there were many injuries during the period...

Because these people have the "indestructible body of King Kong", it is difficult for a knife to cut their skin, and the toxins in their bodies are intricate, making them look like normal people, and even their faces are dark blue.

"Take him away."

When Nora mentioned him, he naturally referred to Terry.

Nat Gang will be found soon. It is not safe for Terry to stay here. He must return to the United States, the sooner the better.

“Be sure to take him away.” Nora took the lead in attacking one of the dead men, “Now is the time.”

However, her strength and moves hit No. 1107, as if she was tickling him...

1107 was unafraid, standing like a statue, motionless.

After Nora hit seven or eight strokes, he quickly punched.

With just one punch, Nora took a few steps back, clutching her stomach in pain.

Isabella immediately supported Nora. She saw very clearly just now that 1107's punching speed was indeed faster than the two of them, and even stronger than the two of them...

Isabella realized that the other party was not simple, and asked in a low voice, “What are their backgrounds?”

“In recent years, they have been injected with various drugs...” Nora said reluctantly, “They have long since become nondescript, half human, half ghost, and they don't recognize their relatives...”

Just like a marionette without emotion, they only know how to complete the task, and never give up if they don't complete it.

“Is there any weakness?” Isabella asked again.”

“I've fought with them all these years, but so far, I haven't found out yet.”

Isabella looked at the thirty or so eerie people in front of her, and suddenly felt a mountain of pressure.

But what she didn't expect was that another group came outside the door...

At a glance, the dark crowd looked like soldiers sent by the god of death.

This time, the organization is doing everything in its power to bring them back...

Isabella, find a way to leave." Nora reluctantly straightened her thin body again, and said in a low voice,

"I'll deal with it for a while, and you help me take him away."

Isabella looked at the crowd of people in front of her, "I can't leave."

Nora also knew that there was little hope, but what if, if there was a chance, she could sneak away?

"I won't leave you alone." Isabella said again, "I can't tell Terry anything about you, and your brother Hal."

Isn't it just dozens of half-human, half-ghost monsters?

Vouchers Contents belong to

She pulled out a slender stick from the bag on her back, and it was one meter long.

"Electric batons are useless to them..."

Chapter 508 Return

With Nora's words, a string of ellipses popped up in Isabella's heart...

Really a half-human, half-ghost monster, not even afraid of electricity?

So how do they usually maintain their lives?

And how to obey orders?

Gotta have a weakness?

Where is the weakness?

the other side.

After watching the video, Terry couldn't hide his excitement. He has already called Isabella seventy-two times...

Almost drained Isabella's little phone battery...

The more Isabella didn't pick up, the more he felt agitated. He was afraid that something would happen to them, and he looked forward to their return...

Just now he saw the video sent by Isabella, Nora heard that he was "dead", the disbelief and pain in her eyes were enough to prove that she still loved him.

This love is deeper than he imagined.

Also, when she heard that he "died tragically" at her hands,

Nora 's angry and hateful eyes were clearly angry and distressed.

It turned out that Nora cared so much about him in private!

When Isabella proposed to find another man for Nora, Nora said disdainfully that even if she searched the world, she couldn't find another man.

What a high rating this is...

Nora said she didn't care, she didn't need...

This shows that she only wants him, only him.

Mistakenly thinking that he was "dead", he was clearly poisoned and exhausted, but he still tried his best to avenge him with his own hands...

Terry was so moved that the corners of his eyes were already wet.

This year because of the pain, torture, anxiety, self-doubt caused by the breakup...

After seeing this video, it all melted away.

In order to force the poison out of Nora 's body, Isabella came up with such a method, so that he could have the opportunity to see and hear Nora 's inner voice...

I have to say, this little clever ghost is simply his treasured sister!

Be sure to reward her well later!

Just, why didn't she answer the phone??

Terry couldn't bear it again, and dialed the seventy-third number...

Could it be that my sister's cell phone was silent and she was sleeping, so I didn't know he called?

Or, they are in danger, and my sister is too busy to take care of herself, and has no time to answer the phone??

Thinking of this, he felt agitated in his heart, and looked at the time again. It was past five o'clock in the morning, it was dark, and the storm was beating on his heart, making him more and more uneasy.

I remembered that in the video just now, Nora questioned Isabella's identity, and I must introduce this treasured sister to Nora...

His own sister!

Isabella!

subordinate Pete almost fainted, and couldn't help asking, "Sir, are you going to have a rest?"

"Did Isabella contact you?" Terry asked urgently.

"No, no..."

How can the boss contact them? The boss doesn't need to report his whereabouts to them unless he has something to tell them to do...

"Do we have to wait until noon..."

Just now Terry had already inquired from Benjamin that his sister would not be back until noon.

However, when he saw Nora 's person in the video and heard her voice, he couldn't wait.

Nora now.

I can't wait to hold her in my arms.

“Do you know where she went?” Terry asked again.

Pete, his subordinate, shook his head and said truthfully, “ Sir, I really don't know.”

Where the boss is going, usually only the boss knows...

They are subordinates, they can't control it, and they dare not control it...

Unless it's Peter who is not afraid of death, and dared to sue Benjamin last time...

In the end, the bonus was deducted by the boss, right?

Terry couldn't hold back anymore, and called Benjamin again, “ Benjamin, are you asleep?”

Benjamin was in a light sleep, when he heard the phone ring, he quickly picked it up, “ Terry? Is there something wrong?”

“Are you asleep?” Terry felt sorry, “I'm really sorry to wake you up...”

Benjamin didn't want to sleep at first, but the little girl let go of his words. He had to take two pills to help him fall asleep, and he barely fell asleep after smelling the sachet given by the little girl...

As a result, I didn't sleep for a while, and was woken up twice by Terry 's phone...

If the little girl sees his dark circles tomorrow, can she forgive him for once??

“It's okay, Terry, why haven't you slept yet?” Benjamin 's voice is very magnetic, he loves the house and crows, because he loves Isabella, so he respects Terry from the bottom of his heart.

Isabella sent me a video just now. It was Nora. She saw Nora and forced the poison out of Nora 's body.” Terry said excitedly and happily, “But after that, I sent her countless messages and made countless phone calls., she didn't return.”

Terry is worried that Isabella is in danger?” Benjamin guessed what he was thinking.

“Yes, it stands to reason that Isabella will reply to me as soon as she sees my message or missed call, but it has been more than an hour since my first message...”

For more than an hour, he spent every minute in torment and anxiety...

Feeling up and down, like riding a roller coaster.

“Don't worry, Terry. Isabella said that she will be back at noon.” Benjamin had great trust and space for the little girl,

“What she said, she will definitely do, or, do it in advance.”

I will never break my promise.

“But I’m still worried that they are in danger...” Terry always felt uneasy in his heart, as if he was about to lose something.

His eyelids are still twitching...

The more he jumped, the more uneasy he became...

more anxious...

Terry wants me to look it up?”

Benjamin wanted to check it too, but he cared about the little girl’s feelings.

However, if it’s Terry ‘s meaning, it’s different.

“If you talk back to Isabella and feel that you don’t trust her, Terry will definitely take care of everything.” Terry promised on the phone,” Terry will do what he says.”

“Terry, you don’t need to take responsibility.” Benjamin was sleeping just now, and he also dreamed that the little girl was in danger, and he was afraid that this dream was true...

Soon, Benjamin sent someone to investigate...

The area is not that big, it’s not hard to find someone... Contents belong to

The rain outside gradually lightened, and the sky lightened slightly. Terry couldn’t wait any longer. He came to the garden of the castle and paced back and forth, looking out of the gate from time to time...

Immediately afterwards, a car stopped at the gate, Terry looked up and saw that it was Benjamin coming...

Benjamin couldn't sleep either, so instead of waiting for news from the C gang, why not come and stay with Terry...

The two wait together in the garden...

I don't know how long it took before someone shouted, "It's the boss, the boss is back!!!"

"What happened to the boss??"

"Boss, boss!!!"

Isabella immediately.

In the distance, a girl was carrying another girl, walking step by step through the drizzle...

Their bodies were stained red with blood, and it was hard to tell whose blood it was. A large patch of red looked shocking...

Seeing this scene, Benjamin and Terry subconsciously ran towards them like a thunderbolt.

Chapter 509

Isabella was already exhausted, carrying Nora on her back, every step she took seemed to use up all her strength.

Benjamin running out of the castle in a daze.

His figure split into several shadows.

Isabella raised the corners of her lips, this guy, came early in the morning? Didn't sleep well last night?

Her vision became more and more blurred, and Isabella could vaguely hear the boys calling her boss, but she didn't have the strength to look at them one by one.

Her steps became heavier and slower, and every time she took a step forward, her body shook like a mountain about to fall.

“Baby!!”

It was Benjamin 's voice.

He rushed over and saw Isabella covered in blood, his eyes were red.

Isabella was exhausted and she fell into a coma. The next second, Benjamin caught her in time.

Terry also caught Nora, but his eyes were concerned about his sister immediately, ” Isabella!!”

Dozens of little boys felt distressed and angry when they saw the boss hurt like this.

“Damn it, which bastard did it, if I don't overturn their lair today, I will commit suicide and apologize!”

Peter just came back from Paris, seeing his boss hurt like this, his eyes were red!

How similar to the time when the boss was seriously injured a few years ago...

I thought that with their subordinates, the boss would not be injured again.

Seeing the blood all over his body, Peter 's tears rolled down, "Dare to touch the boss, I will let him die without a place to bury him!"

Troy also clenched his fists, "I can't spare those grandchildren!"

Les was also filled with righteous indignation, "Brothers, come with me and flatten their broken ground! You guys guard the castle, not a single fly is allowed in, and the others follow me!"

"Call the doctor first." Benjamin carried Isabella into the room, his eyes were warm, and his voice was a little hoarse, "Now do you know where to find someone to settle accounts? Isabella 's body is important!!"

Isabella was seriously injured, and Nora was no exception, and the two were put on the sofa in the living room.

Peter, Troy and Les stood aside, looking at the once majestic boss with distress, now like a wounded sheep.

If possible, they hope that the boss will always be the fearless lion.

Benjamin didn't know where to start. He wanted to wipe the rain off Isabella's face, but found that she was pale, with bruises on her arms and marks from a knife.

With her skill, how could she be easily injured by others, not to mention the traces of bullet scratches...

Just by looking at it, one can imagine the fierce battle at that time...

Where did that Hal take Isabella, why did Isabella and Nora get hurt like this..." Terry 's voice became hoarse, and he looked at Pete again, "Where's the doctor? When will he be here!"

"Come here, come right away!" Contents belong to

There are various doctors in the castle who are doing experiments. When they heard that the boss and Mrs. Sir were injured, they left the experiments and ran towards this side one by one.

Benjamin disinfected Isabella's wound first, his voice was hoarse, and he shouted distressedly, "Isabella."

With so many injuries, it must be very painful.

"Silly girl." Benjamin felt extremely uncomfortable, his eyes were reddened, and his voice was hoarse, "You did it, you finally brought the man back."

Bring it to Terry.

Let Terry realize his dream.

It can be seen that the little girl and the third sister-in-law came back after breaking through the siege...

Who is it? Can you hurt the two of them like this?!

"Boss, where is the boss!!"

Seven or eight doctors swarmed in, out of breath, and they were shocked when they saw the girl on the sofa.

This is their boss!

The omnipotent, invincible boss!

What kind of thing can hurt the boss like this?!

“I’ll help the boss take a look first.”

“I’m coming! I want to show the boss!”

“I came first! Didn’t you see that my left foot came first?”

Several people rushed to see a doctor for Isabella, and the rest could only treat Nora.

“strangeness.”

Doctor Lawrence was stunned when he saw the bruise on Isabella’s arm.

“Boss’ injury looks like it was hit by a fat man who weighs eight hundred catties...”

“What kind of metaphor are you talking about? Boss’s injury is not difficult to see that the opponent’s attack is indeed very strong...”

“What kind of person has such great strength?”

Are there such fat people in LA? They have no impression...

Another person felt for Isabella's pulse, "It's all flesh wounds, but luckily it didn't hurt the vitals... I'll help the boss clean up the wound first."

"I'll help the boss with the medicine."

"I will bandage the boss."

"Boss's symptoms are obviously exhausted. Could it be that the boss singled out dozens of fat people?"

"A fat man is definitely no match for the boss..."

"How can we raise so many fat people in this place where the birds don't shit?"

"If there is only one, logically speaking, it is impossible for the boss to be injured like this. You can see that every bruise on her body was caused by a lot of force, and the incision is obviously deeper than normal... almost it hit the bone, which shows that the opponent has great strength and extremely fast speed..."

"Is there anyone faster than the boss?"

I don't know who asked this question, everyone looked at Benjamin...

Benjamin was the only person present, stronger and faster than the boss...

But obviously not him!

Everyone looked at him because there are indeed people who are more powerful than the boss in this world, except for Benjamin, I don't know who else.

“Anyway, the other party is definitely a fat man.

I don't know which doctor said this, Peter was already impatient, “Can you guys stop making noise, the boss is deaf from your noise, can you let the boss have a good rest!”

At this time, Doctor Lawrence's hand trembled, the powder was spilled too much, Isabella 's eyelashes trembled slightly, and then they were slowly raised.

” Isabella!!”

Benjamin noticed that she was awake for the first time, and hurriedly approached and asked, “Are you okay? What's wrong? You silly girl, you finally woke up.”

“Boss! Boss is awake!”

“Damn you, old Dot, did you hit hard and wake boss!”

“Could you be gentle, you rough man?”

up the Doctor Lawrence was also very depressed, he was obviously very light, but he was still very happy to see the boss woke up, and shouted excitedly, “Boss!”

In a daze, Isabella saw the familiar handsome face in front of her eyes, and her hand gently squeezed Benjamin 's hand, “Head...”

head? ? ?

Benjamin hurriedly leaned over and asked, “Headache? Uncomfortable? Is it hurt?”

Isabella didn't have the strength to speak anymore, and slowly closed her eyes.

“Boss?? Boss!!!”

“Isabella!!” Benjamin was also worried, and without knowing why, he hurriedly said, “Check her out!”

Chapter 510

Did Isabella hurt her head, a headache??

No matter where he hurts, those people, he will never forgive them lightly!!

Seven or eight doctors took turns to check Isabella again and again, but nothing abnormal was found.

“Boss is fine, no head injury.”

“We've checked it many times.”

“Check again!” Benjamin didn't expect Isabella to wake up the first time, and the first word she said was “head”.

Her head must be hurting.

Seven or eight doctors did not dare to be negligent, and checked carefully several times, and indeed found nothing abnormal.

Suddenly someone said, “Could the boss mean that Mrs. Sir 's head is injured? The first time she woke up, it's normal to be concerned about Mrs. Sir 's injury, so it's Mrs. Sir 's head...”

Everyone felt that it made sense, and hurriedly asked the doctor to come over for an examination.

However, everyone checked carefully several times, but they couldn't find any abnormality from Nora 's head...

Both of them have no head damage...

It's normal.

“Does the boss mean that the person on the head hurt her? But he passed out before he finished speaking?”

“It's also possible...just, which leader is it? Which organization and what's its name?”

“It should be someone from the Ghost League.” Terry on the side said.

“Ghost League ??”

This is a small organization!

There is no disturbance in this place at all, no one takes this organization seriously, and no one troubles them, because they are too inconspicuous. Contents belong to

“They are usually very low-key. No one knows that they are huge in number and their influence is almost all over the world.”

Terry 's words made everyone unbelievable.

Sir, you can't joke, can you?”

“Are you sure you mean Ghost League?”

“A small broken organization can hurt the boss like this?”

“Does that organization add up to a hundred people?”

“With the skill of our boss, it’s easy to beat a hundred people...”

Terry has seen the first part of the data in the data packet, so he knows that Nora belongs to this organization, and the people of this organization are also hunting her down...

Today, Isabella and Nora’s injuries should be more or less related to this organization.

At this time, Benjamin’s cell phone vibrated.

“Boss, I found it. People from the Ghost League went to the foot of the Three Ax Mountain in the southwest in the middle of the night. About three hours later, Ms. Young came out from that place with a person on his back, fighting all the way back.”

“Just the two of them?”

Against those people??

“To be precise, there is only Ms. Young...” Green said this, feeling a little distressed, “It is said that the person on the back was unconscious at that time, and it was Ms. Young who killed him alone.”

Benjamin’s eyes dimmed a bit, “The news is reliable?”

“Brothers from other gangs have seen it with their own eyes.” Green said this, and couldn’t help but say, “Boss, people from the Ghost League, are more terrifying than we imagined. Their power spreads all over the world, and they are involved in many political circles... quite As for the secret left and right arms of those big figures, they can move the whole body with one hair, if this is cut down with a knife, and the left and right arms of others are injured, we will go back...”

“Call all horses.”

Tonight, he will make this organization completely disappear from this place!

After hanging up the phone, Peter and the others couldn’t help asking, “Mr. Mason, did someone from Ghost League do it?”

“Um.”

“Sure enough, it’s those grandchildren!” Peter poked secretly, wanting to settle accounts with them.

“Damn it, that broken organization, how can a dog dare to touch our people!”

“Look for them to settle accounts!”

“I can’t destroy them, I write my name upside down!”

Benjamin took the wet towel from the person beside him and gently wiped the little girl’s face.

He waited for the doctor to bandage the little girl’s wound, kissed her forehead lightly, and said softly, “Wait for me.”

“Benjamin, where are you going?” Terry seemed to have guessed something, and was faintly worried.

Benjamin stood still, and his tall figure enveloped him, “Terry, your injury is still not healed, Isabella and third sister-in-law, I entrust you to take care of it, if Isabella wakes up, let me know.”

“Mr. Mason, take us, we want to avenge the boss!”

“How can we miss this kind of thing, brothers!”

“Tonight’s bad breath must be given to the boss, let everyone know, if you dare to touch the boss, there is only one end!”

That is life! No! like! die!

Benjamin knew that with Isabella’s injury like this, the whole Nat Gang couldn’t sit idly by, so he nodded and everyone left together.

Terry wanted to say something, but in the end he couldn’t say a word.

He knew that if it wasn’t for Nora, Isabella would never have been hurt like this...

With her skill, self-protection is no problem, but if she brings one more, the result will definitely be different...

Thinking of this, he blamed himself and felt uncomfortable.

The sky was fully lit up. It was eight o’clock in the morning here, but it was ten o’clock in the evening in the United States.

There is a ten hour time difference.

Before I knew it, it had been a week since Cecilia called Terry last time.

On the weekend of this week, Cecilia went home specially, and she was even more unbalanced when she heard that Terry and Isabella hadn't come back yet.

Scarlet 's urging, she called Terry again.

Terry was not in the mood to answer, he was full of guilt for Isabella, and worried about her and Nora 's injuries.

But Cecilia persisted and hit one after another. In the end, Terry could only pick up, "Is there something wrong, Cecilia ?"

Cecilia was even more upset when she heard Terry 's tone of indifference, even with a hint of impatience, but she still suppressed her anger and spoke insincerely.

"I was on vacation for the weekend, and I didn't see Terry when I got home. I miss Terry, so I want to call Terry..." Her tone was cautious, pretending to be timid on purpose, "Am I bothering Terry and sister Isabella? Playing outside..."

Terry suddenly felt that she was a bit annoying, talking coffee and coffee, didn't he just want to show his presence? Let people remember that there is her sister?

"Cecilia, Terry told you that Terry and your sister have something to do outside. Don't call me or send me messages during this time. I'm busy here."

Now he only hopes that Isabella and Nora will wake up quickly, and he really has no extra thoughts to think about. other things.

“Terry, I’m sorry for bothering you...” Cecilia felt aggrieved, her voice choked up, “I just miss you, nothing else, I, I won’t call you, and I won’t call you Sent a message... yes, sorry Terry...”

“...” Terry was even more agitated by her choking, “Terry ‘s business is not over yet, when it’s done, Terry will do what I promised you.”

“No, there’s no need for Terry...it’s okay, it’s okay...” Cecilia sobbed intentionally, “Then, I’ll hang up first, goodbye Terry.”
