

Chased Her 511

Chapter 511 Escalation of Contradictions

Compared with Cecilia 's mood, Terry is more concerned about the injuries of Isabella and Nora at this time, so he doesn't explain much.

After Cecilia hung up the phone, seeing that Terry hadn't called yet, the more she thought about it, the more angry she became, her tears fell like broken beads.

Scarlet at the side heard the conversation, felt that something was wrong, and asked cautiously, " Miss Logan, Sir think you disturb them?"

Terry really went too far every time."

Cecilia wiped away her tears angrily, and complained, "He didn't answer my phone on purpose just now. If I hadn't called four or five times, he wouldn't have answered at all. After answering, he would have asked me if I was okay. Looking for him? The tone is still very impatient! It's as if I've interrupted their good business!"

Cecilia sobbed a few times, and then complained, "He also said that he is busy recently, and asked me not to call and send him messages these days. What can he and Isabella be busy with? Isn't it just eating, looking at the scenery and taking pictures? This What's the matter! You're so busy that you don't even have time to connect to my phone? You don't even bother to talk to my younger sister, and you don't even bother to pretend!"

Cecilia cried for a long time before she said, "You also said that you treat me as your own sister, you are a lie, everything is a lie! They may check in at a scenic spot now, how happy they are smiling! That Isabella, heard Terry must be secretly proud of talking to me like this! It's almost time. to show off in front of me!!"

Cecilia sniffled, "I don't know what's so good about her, she puts on that self-righteous look every day, but everyone likes her so much! Why, why don't people like me? Did Isabella let them do this? "

Scarlet sighed, "Now you know the importance of blood ties?"

Cecilia 's tears stuck in her eye sockets, could it really be because of her blood relationship?

"Not to mention whether she has a cold personality or not, as long as the blood of the Logan Family is flowing on her body, the Logan Family will naturally dote on her and love her to the core."

"In the past, they mistakenly thought you were relatives, so they treated you in every possible way, but now you are not. Think about the treatment before and after."

"This Sir, when he first came back, he still put on a show, but after a long time, he can't pretend anymore. You just called to care about him, but he treats you like this!"

Scarlet was even more dissatisfied with the members of the Logan Family, especially this Terry, who stuck with Isabella as soon as he got home. Those who didn't know thought they were a couple!

How can a clingy sister be so clingy, she's worthless!

He is the least promising one among the five brothers!

"Scarlet, I'm so angry..." Cecilia threw herself into Scarlet's arms and cried, "Why, why do I treat them as family members, but they don't accept my favor? Parents are like this, brothers are like this, and Isabella is like this too!"

During this time, she kept sticking her hot face to their cold buttocks, thankless!

“Don’t care about my feelings at all...all of them don’t care about my feelings!!”

Scarlet patted her on the back distressedly, and sighed, “You still can’t leave this house. If you leave, Isabella wants to see your jokes.”

“Scarlet, what do you think I should do... woo woo woo... now you are the only one who can help me out.”

In this family, only Scarlet is the most loyal and best to her.

“I do have a suggestion.” Scarlet patted her on the back, making suggestions, “Before Elder Mr. and Mrs. tell everyone that you are a fake Lady, in the eyes of everyone, you are still the real lady of the Logan Family, Before they announce it, quickly find a good marriage for yourself, use the Logan Family as a springboard, jump to another rich family, and take a large dowry by the way, isn’t it better than you being angry at this family?”

“But...” Cecilia hesitated. She just entered her freshman year and really didn’t want to talk about marriage so soon.

The main reason is that she still has a little fantasy about the people in this family...

To fantasize that they will be kind to her, that they will change their minds, as before...

“I checked. In the world’s richest list, Benjamin ranks first, the second to eleventh are all older, the thirteenth is too carefree, the fourteenth, fifteenth and sixteenth are women, and the seventeenth is Logan Family, the eighteenth and nineteenth are not suitable, in short, I think the most suitable for you is the thirty-sixth, the Wayne Family we mentioned before.”

A long time ago, Eloise discovered that Cecilia still had fantasies about Benjamin, and even said something wrong to Benjamin. At that time, Scarlet hurriedly lied that Miss Logan already had a boyfriend.

Wayne Family's young master has indeed pursued Cecilia since junior high school, and has pursued Cecilia for six full years in the third year of high school. During the summer vacation after the Enter University exam, Scarlet lied that Miss Logan was moved by Wayne 's sincerity and had already Trying to get along with him, absolutely not thinking anything wrong with Benjamin...

Since then, Cecilia has been forced to agree to Wayne, and occasionally go out to eat or watch a movie, just to show her family.

thought he had a chance, and often bought some expensive gifts, and drove to the door of the Logan Family, just to see Cecilia more when giving gifts.

He likes Cecilia very much, and it can be said that he regards her as a goddess.

But Cecilia has no feelings for him...

"Their family's department store has more than 6,000 stores around the world, and the total number of employees exceeds 2 million. Wayne used his own resources to start a logistics company by himself. A while ago, he succeeded in financing and owned 50 cargo planes and Unique route autonomy, his air logistics business has reached all over the United States, is the real speed first, and the momentum has already crushed other logistics companies!"

If things go on like this, Wayne Family is likely to catch up with Logan Family and become the No. 1 in the United States and the top 15 in the world.

"The point is, he has such a business acumen in his freshman year, and the future is promising."

At such a young age, he can strategize in the business field. How many such talents can be found in the world?

Seeing that Cecilia was still hesitating, Scarlet couldn't help but said, "It's very possible that he will become the next Benjamin! Cecilia, his family background is not bad, he is handsome, and he likes you wholeheartedly... You must give me this opportunity." Hold on tight."

"How many women marry into a wealthy family, without the support of their husbands, their family status is not as good as a pet dog at home."

"But with Wayne protecting you, the rest of your life will definitely be wonderful!"

better to find someone who loves you than to put a hot face on Benjamin's cold ass! Scarlet also hopes that you can live happily..."

Cecilia felt a bit disappointed. Her former fiancé, Benjamin, was a man at the top of the pyramid. How many people envied her and looked up to her...

Chapter 512

But now, her life partner has become the boss of a logistics company, which is somewhat embarrassing.

"If it is known that you are the adopted daughter of the Logan Family..."

Scarlet didn't finish speaking, but Cecilia suddenly raised her eyes, as if realizing something.

Yes, if people know that she is just the adopted daughter of the Logan Family, how many people would like her? Willing to let her in?

Even if Wayne likes her, fine, what about his parents?

They dote on Wayne so much, how could they let an adopted daughter in and make people laugh!

If the Wayne Family can't even pass the threshold, then why would other families want her to be a fake lady with a wrong background and a wrong household?

Thinking of this, Cecilia clenched her fists angrily.

Isabella's fault, if she doesn't come back to this home, everything will be fine, like a beautiful fairy tale.

It is precisely because of the arrival of Isabella that this fairy tale has been broken, and she has changed from a high-ranking princess to a down-and-out Cinderella...

"Oh, by the way, Madam should be going to bed at this point. You can use what happened tonight to make Madam feel sorry for you, comfort you, and take this opportunity to let Madam take you shopping tomorrow..."

Before Cecilia asked Terry for reimbursement of shopping expenses, she always felt sorry...as if she had cheated Terry.

But now, in a fit of anger, she suddenly felt that the Logan Family owed her too much, too much!

The Logan Family has more money than they can spend anyway, so let them pay it back.

the other side.

Terry wiped Nora's face gently with a hot towel.

This face that he has missed countless times can finally be seen and touched today.

the Nora touched today is warm. Soft.

is real.

No longer have to worry that dreams will be broken and people will disappear when you wake up.

This feeling, like finding a lost treasure, makes people ecstatic, but at the same time, cherish and value her more carefully.

Terry washed the towel again, wrung it dry, and gently wiped the other places for her.

He knows that girls like to be clean, so he wipes every inch of his skin very carefully and seriously.

The doctor said that she was more seriously injured than Isabella, and she needs to be taken care of next...

the other side.

Dr. Theo wiped Isabella's face, and then down to the neck. After wiping it clean, she suddenly noticed that Isabella's shoulders were a little red.

Out of the doctor's intuition, Dr. Theo hastily turned Isabella over, the movement was very light, so that Isabella could lie on her side...

Terry and Nora on the other side...

So Dr. Theo took a special look back, seeing that Terry's attention was not here, and there were no other servants around, she quickly lifted the boss's clothes to take a look.

With just one glance, she hurriedly covered her clothes, feeling extremely heavy and unable to calm down.

On the boss's white back, a long red bloodstain suddenly appeared...

The bloodstains connected to his shoulders, as if he had been hit by something long.

Is it a stick? Iron rod? Or a longboard?

No, none of these things leave such a heavy mark...

The boss's fair skin was a little cracked, and blood seeped out from inside...

Dr. Theo's eyes became even redder, remembering how the boss came back with Nora on his back, at that time, the boss hurt so much.

And her calf, there are marks of bullet scratches, how did she carry people back step by step...

Perhaps hearing Dr. Theo's slight sobbing, Terry turned around and asked softly, "What's wrong?"

"Boss, she..." Dr. Theo couldn't hold back any longer, shed tears of distress, "Boss's back and abdomen are all injured... Those bastards don't know how to feel sorry for people at all... Hitting so hard, is simply not human!"

The boss is so beautiful, how could they do it, it's not a thing.

What the boss has gone through, she really wants to bear it for him, even if it takes her life, she is willing.

“What did you say? Both back and abdomen are injured? Didn’t find out just now?” Terry threw down the towel and came over to care for the first time.

Through the clothes, he didn’t know that his sister was hurt so badly...

How much more, the doctor didn’t find out...

“I just noticed too...” Dr. Theo’s tone was somewhat self-blaming.

There were too many people just now, Peter, Troy and Les

|were all here, and a group of subordinates surrounded them, those male doctors naturally didn’t have the guts to lift the boss’s clothes...

And as a female doctor, it’s not easy for her to check the boss’s back in front of everyone...

They also thought that the blood on the boss’s back belonged to Nora.

“Is it serious? Do I need to go to the hospital?” Terry was very worried.

Thinking of the scene when his sister came back with Nora on her back, his heart ached so badly.

Sir, you go and wait outside first, I’ll give you some medicine.” Dr. Theo wiped his tears with his hand, and said distressedly, “Boss must be in pain like this, it’s all my negligence, I didn’t check him carefully...”

Just now everyone's attention was on the "head" that the boss said, thinking that the boss or Nora had hurt his head.

Now it seems that except for the head and face, other parts are injured in sevens and eighties.

"good."

Terry glanced at his younger sister reluctantly. Her younger sister's face was even paler than before. As an older brother, he felt even more uncomfortable.

He explained in a hoarse voice, "Call me if you need something."

"good."

Dr. Theo waited for him to leave before disinfecting and applying medicine to Isabella 's back.

Fortunately, the boss has developed this healing medicine a while ago. After applying it, it can not only relieve pain, accelerate wound healing, but also ensure that there will be no scars...

After applying the medicine, Dr. Theo gently turned Isabella over and saw that her white abdomen had marks of being punched, and tears welled up again.

bastard, it's all a bunch of bastards!

Start so hard...

Woohoo, her boss...

finally taking the medicine, Dr. Theo thought about it, but felt that he couldn't swallow the breath, so he sent Peter another message.

“Boss's back is cracked! The abdomen was also hit by a fist! When you see those bastards in a while, don't show mercy and beat them to death! The worse the better!”

She also sent a beating emoticon package, but after thinking about it, she felt that it was not enough to relieve her anger.

Everyone went to the front to charge and avenge the boss. What is she doing here alone!

No, she wants to go too!

‘Sir, I entrust you to take care of the boss. If you have anything to do, you must call me. I will come as quickly as possible. If there is an emergency, there are other doctors in the laboratory. They will help...” Contents belong to Having said that, Dr. Theo glanced at the girl on the sofa again, “She won't wake up in a short time.”

“Where are you going?” Terry asked worriedly.

“I have something to do.”

After Dr. Theo left, he asked someone for a location, and was about to kill him, when he suddenly found other servants in the family sneaking around behind her.

“You...” Dr. Theo was a little puzzled.

Dr. Theo, take us with you, we also want to avenge the boss, so let's vent our anger!”

The chef is still holding a frying pan in his hand, and the other servants are also holding their own “weapons”, such as brooms, tree shears, telescopic poles for cleaning the ceiling, etc...

Think back when they came out to hang out, they were holding real weapons in their hands!

It was after being “domesticated” by the boss that they performed their respective duties, working as cooks and gardeners in this family...

Now, the boss is injured like this, they don't steam the steamed buns, just to fight for breath!

“You are all gone, who will cook for the boss? Who will hang the clothes for the boss? Who will clean the room for the boss?” Dr. Theo showed the momentum to crush them, “Go back to me!”

“I've prepared all the meals, and I'm keeping them warm in the kitchen, and the boss can eat them when he wakes up.”

“I ironed all the clothes that the boss will wear next. Even if I die on the battlefield, these clothes are enough for the boss to wear for a month.”

“I have trimmed all the flowers and plants, and I don't need to cut them in two weeks.”

“Dr. Theo, take us with you, our boss is hurt like this, we feel bad.”

“We want to do something for the boss, otherwise we will regret it for the rest of our lives.”

“Don’t underestimate us, when we came out to hang out, you were still a little baby!”

“yes.”

Seeing how loyal they are, Dr. Theo finally backed down and said, “Then do what you can, if you are in danger for a while, run away if you can’t handle it, the boss needs you to take care of him when he wakes up, don’t hang up all of them, I can’t follow him later Boss explain.”

“Don’t worry Dr. Theo, we won’t die!”

They will definitely live well and continue to serve the boss...

The kindness they owed to the boss has not been repaid in this life...

And the other side.

Peter received the news from Dr. Theo, cursed in beautiful American, and said to Benjamin next to him, “Boss’s back is still injured, it’s all split open, and his abdomen was also beaten... Who the hell is it? I want to chop off his hands and tear him into pieces.”

All cracked?

Benjamin ‘s heart ached again, Mo Tong became dark and cold.

At this time, he led the two major gangs and stood in front of the ghost castle, as if they wanted to annex the mountains and rivers.

The three elders who received the news slowly appeared with hundreds of people. Among them, Elder was the oldest.

Benjamin and Nat, are you sure you want to fight our Ghost League for a woman?”

They thought, Isabella was Nat's woman...

And Benjamin personally brought two groups of people here, because he wanted to vent his anger on Nat's woman...

When Peter heard it, he found it funny, "Why, you still need to read the almanac to become enemies with you? Who are you!"

Isn't it just a small broken organization, and dare to drag it like two to five to eighty thousand in front of them...

"I have lost more than half of my Ghost League members..." Elder said with a smile.

In front of them, Benjamin and Isabella broke into the Ghost League mountain without permission, killing Elder Tel and dozens of Ghost League subordinates.

Afterwards, dozens of dead men ran to surround Isabella and Nora, only to fall down again...

"Now, we only have these one hundred people left..."

Before Elder finished speaking, Peter laughed, "What, are you afraid? Grandpa told you, it's too late!"

Dare to touch their boss, beg for mercy now? That's too late!!

"Hahahaha..." Elder smiled calmly, "I just want to say that there are only a hundred people left. If you lose in a while, if you spread the word, it will make the whole LA laugh..."

The two big gangs can't even defeat more than a hundred people...

It is estimated that they will have no face to hang around here in the future!

“Hey, listen, what is this old man talking about?” Peter thought it was too funny, “Today, grandpa, I will let you see that our Nat Gang is amazing! Get out of the way!”

He wants to step up and single out in person!

Only one person from the Ghost League came out to fight.

Seeing that his face was livid and his eyes were frighteningly wide, Peter couldn't help but tease him.

“Hey, you dress up like a ghost or a ghost, is this the virtue of your Ghost League?”

In the next second, as soon as the dead man made a move, Peter clutched his abdomen in pain, unable to straighten his waist...

Damn, what kind of food did this person grow up to be so hard-hitting...

He felt that his spleen, stomach and kidneys were going to be broken...

Peter didn't see clearly when the opponent made the attack. He only saw a black shadow falling on his stomach...

It's so fucking painful.

“What the hell.” Not far away, Troy couldn't believe it, and turned to Benjamin beside him and said, “Mr. Mason, did you see clearly? That speed... that force...”

It's simply not what normal people do!

“I see.” Benjamin also found something strange, normal people definitely don’t have such speed and strength...

Peter has always been rough-skinned and thick-skinned, so it’s impossible for him to suffer like this...

With his ability, he won’t be too late to dodge...

It can only be said that the speed of the opponent is extremely fast, and the strength is also higher than that of Peter...

Green on the side couldn’t help but asked, “Boss, could they be the medicine men who were widely circulated before? They have been injected with various drugs since childhood, and their body functions have long been mutated. They are equivalent to half-human, half-ghost monsters. Infinity, but also invulnerable.”

At this time, Troy suddenly realized, “So, the boss was not beaten by a fat man who weighs 800 pounds, but was injured by these strange people?”

“I just said, how can a person as powerful as Boss be injured, and so seriously injured...” Les seemed to have figured it out, “It turns out that these monsters that are neither human nor ghost hurt Boss, I will go and learn!”

“Don’t go...” Troy couldn’t stop him.

Les walked over to the weirdo and whistled, “Hey dog, look this way.”

He punched quickly, wanting to take the opportunity to teach the opponent a lesson.

Unexpectedly, the other party’s speed was faster, and with just one movement, Les arm was reversed, causing tears to burst out of his eyes.

If Peter hadn't attacked this strange man, Les' arm might have been wrenched off by this strange man in the next second...

horrible.

terrible!

As the boss's capable generals, they can't even defeat a strange person...

At this moment, Peter was picked up by the strange man and thrown back to the group of Nat Gang. Troy took a few steps back in order to catch him.

"Brother Peter!!" Contents belong to

"Peter, are you okay?"

A group of people surrounded Peter and looked at Les anxiously. Les wanted to avenge the boss. He stepped forward to beat the monster's eyes, nose and mouth, and beat his heart and stomach violently, using all the strength in his body...

As a result, he was kicked by the strange man and retreated more than ten steps.

Everyone went to help him again," Brother Les!"

This weirdo is too strong, and everyone realizes that the situation is not good...

Chapter 514 Not Ended

Benjamin raised his hand, and hundreds of bullets shot at them at the same time. The dead soldiers stood in front of the three elders one after another, and the bullets failed to penetrate their bodies.

“Are they wearing body armor?”

“I

Benjamin, what should I do?”

“Just now one is already so strong, here are more than a hundred...”

“So, how did the boss go back with Nora on his back?”

“Has the boss discovered their weakness?”

“They are not afraid of fists, not even bullets, what weakness can they have?”

“Hahahaha...” Elder smiled vigorously, “You are all heroes, why not join our Ghost League and let us plan a better futur together...”

“Bah-” Troy sneered, “Grandpa, I despise you!”

“You want us to work together with you? Dreaming!”

“I don’t even look at my own virtue. People who are half buried in the loess dare to shout in front of us.”

Elder still laughed, as if he didn’t pay attention to them.

“Stop talking nonsense with them, today, I must vent my anger on the boss!”

Someone stepped forward first.

Others followed suit.

Benjamin watched his own people fall down one by one, and his eyes were somewhat knowing, "Did Isabella forget to take her backpack when she came back?"

"Huh??" The injured Peter didn't understand why Mr. Mason's brain circuits were so strange. He was still concerned about the boss's backpack at this time??

The point is, don't care about it early, don't care about it later, why do you think about it at this time??

Les, who was injured even more seriously, recalled at this time, "It seems... that bag, the boss thinks it is heavier than gold, it must be really helpless, so I didn't take it..."

In normal times, the boss would definitely pick up the backpack after the fight.

But this time, the boss is injured like that, and he has to carry Nora back, so he shouldn't have any extra thoughts to pick up that bag again.

Benjamin knew that no matter how badly the little girl was injured, she would definitely take the bag back, because there was an acupuncture kit given to her by a certain grandpa inside, and the little girl took that thing very seriously.

"Mr. Mason...Is there something wrong?" Peter saw Benjamin 's eyes were dim, and he couldn't figure out what he was thinking, "Should we think about how to defeat this group of people... other gangs are cats Looking at our movements from a distance, many of our people have already fallen!"

Benjamin thought to himself, it's fine if the little girl didn't bring a bag, it's impossible to leave the needle bag there.

Unless, the needle kit cannot be brought back.

Why can't I get it back?

broken?

Or is it useful for something else??

In that case, what use could it be??

In a daze, he remembered the first word the little girl said after she came back – "Head."

"Mr. Mason? Mr. Mason ???" Peter didn't expect that Mr. Mason was still thinking at this critical moment, and he was convinced," Mr. Mason, did you hear me?? Should we..."

"Attack them on the head, with something sharp, like a needle, or a knife," Benjamin ordered his men.

Peter and Les were stunned when they heard this.

Hitting their heads??

Could it be...

Their weakness is in the head??

In a daze, they remembered what the boss had said, and seemed to understand something.

“I’ll try it!” Peter suddenly realized, and took a step first.

“I am coming too.”

Benjamin punched them to the head and found that they did slow down, but not by much.

Thinking of the fist wound on the little girl’s abdomen, his movements were deliberately slowed down for half a second, as the dead man’s fist hit his abdomen.

“Benjamin!!”

“Boss!!”

“Mr. Mason, are you all right?”

With such a strong pain, the little girl was in such pain with just one punch.

Then the wound on her body... How painful should it be?

At this moment, Benjamin’s heart was suffocating with pain, and he hit the dead man’s temple with his fist, using 100% strength.

The dead man seemed to be unable to see what was in front of him, he was blinded for a while, and he even vomited a mouthful of blood..

The little girl knows medicine, so when she stabbed the needles in the needle bag into the heads of these people, she should have pierced the acupuncture points?

Some acupuncture points can control the central nervous system of a person...

Some influence actions...

Some control hand and foot coordination...

So, the head acupuncture points are the weakness of these people?!

Benjamin told the crowd about this discovery, and soon, they turned defeat into victory.

Seeing the dead men fall one after another, especially when the bullets pass through the temples of the dead men, the dead men are like a mountain falling down with a bang...

The three elders realized that the situation was not good, and hurriedly hid in the ghost castle.

“Brothers, rush to me!” Contents belong to

“Today we must unscrew their heads and avenge the boss!”

“Follow me in.”

“Wait.”

Just when everyone was about to break into the ghost castle, Benjamin suddenly said, “Be careful of the trap.”

The Ghost League’s behavior is destined to hide murderous intentions, so we should be careful in everything.

“Listen to Mr. Mason.”

“If it weren’t for Mr. Mason this time, we wouldn’t be able to turn defeat into victory.”

“Thank you Mr. Mason, you not only saved the brothers of the C Gang, you also saved us.

“It was Isabella who discovered their weakness.”

And he just suddenly figured out what the little girl said.

Thinking of how many weirdos the little girl fought alone, she accidentally discovered this weakness...

Benjamin ‘s heart ached again.

Everyone followed Benjamin and walked cautiously towards the haunted castle.

At this time, all the lights in the ghost castle went out...

The cold wind blew past them, bringing a burst of coolness...

“Damn, despicable villain, don’t hide if you have the ability, come out to grandpa.”

As soon as Peter finished speaking, poisonous arrows shot out from all the windows of the ghost castle. When Benjamin gave an order, everyone dodged immediately.

Only three or five were injured, and everyone else was fine...

Peter still wanted to go in, but Benjamin raised his hand to stop him, “There’s no need to waste time.”

He told everyone to back up, back up, back up...

Some of the subordinates were in a hurry, thinking, Mr. Mason is not afraid to go in because of cowardice??

Victory is just around the corner, do you want to watch those people proud inside?!

Obviously, in the next second, he can go in and avenge the boss.

“Boss, has it started yet?” Seeing that the distance between everyone had almost receded, Green asked aloud.

Benjamin nodded, and soon, everyone heard a rattling sound approaching from far away...

The helicopter dropped the time bombs directly, and in less than ten seconds, the entire ghost castle was immediately reduced to the ground...

Thick smoke billows, fire raging...

Everyone was fooled by Benjamin 's operation, do you want to be so aggressive???

A few surviving small deserters ran out of the billowing smoke, but they were directly pulled the trigger and fell down one after another.

Seeing the fire burning in front of his eyes, and no other deserters coming out, Peter didn't expect to avenge the boss so soon, so he asked, " Mr. Mason, are you going back now?"

“No.” Benjamin said quietly, “It's not over yet.”

Chapter 515 Can't hold back

Peter didn't understand, this person was wiped out, isn't it over yet??

“Go, T3 Research Institute.” Benjamin glanced at the raging fire, turned and left, and others followed.

Peter doesn't know, so, going to the T3 Institute? What does this have to do with the T3 Institute??

Troy was also dumbfounded, looking at Green.

Green explained, “This fire hasn't hurt a tenth of the Ghost League 's foundation, the T3 Institute, which is a small branch of them.”

“You, you, what are you talking about... didn't hurt one tenth of them? Isn't the Ghost League just a small broken organization? Then Niu's T3 Institute is just a small branch of them??” Peter 's three views All subverted.

Troy couldn't believe it either, “ Is Ghost League that good?”

It was obviously a broken organization that couldn't be smaller.

He also gestured with his fingers, in the eyes of everyone, he was like a little ant, which could be crushed to death at any time.

Can the famous T3 Research Institute listen to them?

It seems that the Ghost League hides deep enough.

“Not only the T3 Research Institute, Blood Prison Sect, Evil Ghost Mansion, etc... are all their branches.”

Peter and Troy were even more stunned, “You, you, are you sure?”

They have all heard of these big gangs, and their reputation is no worse than that of the T3 Research Institute.

“Under these small branches, there are branches, such as the T3 Research Institute. The orphanage you found is one of their branches.”

Péter and Troy were completely stunned.

Therefore, Ghost League is more terrifying than they imagined, but they only discovered today...

“Also, those three elders should have escaped to the T3 Research Institute. There is an underground passage between Ghost Castle and T3 Research Institute.”

Now, Peter and Troy were completely stunned, looking at each other.

And the other side.

After Terry took care of his sister, he started to take care of Nora again. She wondered if she was having a nightmare. There was slight sweat on her forehead, and her expression was a little uneasy.

Terry brought a hot towel and gently wiped her forehead. He held the girl’s hand and said softly, “Don’t be afraid, I’m right by your side.”

Nora didn’t sleep soundly.

“You are safe now.” Terry leaned close to the girl’s ear and comforted her softly, “You and Isabella have both arrived home safely.”

He gently stroked the girl’s soft hair. From such a close distance, he could see every inch of skin on the girl’s face, perhaps because he was afraid that the girl would be entangled in nightmares, or perhaps to comfort her.

In the next second, his lips touched hers lightly, giving her a gentle kiss.

“cough...

Isabella coughed lightly from the other side.

Terry turned his head and blushed suddenly, “Isabella, are you awake?”

The girl lying on the sofa raised the corners of her lips and couldn’t help laughing, “I’m sorry Terry, my throat is a bit dry, I can’t help it.”

She woke up just now, and was about to call out to Terry, but the next second she saw Terry bowing his head and kissing Nora...

This is what she should see?

“I’ll get you a glass of water.” Terry got up hurriedly, poured a glass of water, and brought it to Isabella.

His face was still a little red, like a child who was caught stealing candy.

Isabella didn’t expect that Terry’s embarrassed look was cute.

“I’ll help you up, slow down.” Terry knew that her back was still injured, so he was careful when helping her, and he brought the water glass forward after Isabella sat up.

After drinking the water, Isabella found that there were only three of them in the living room, “Where are the others?”

“out.”

“Benjamin isn’t there either?”

“He took your little brats to vent your anger on you.”

Isabella raised her eyebrows, and she had expected him to do this. Just as she was about to pick up the charging phone next to her, Terry hurriedly said, “I’m coming, you’re still injured, don’t move around.”

When I came back just now, my subordinates found that her mobile phone was out of battery, so they put it aside to charge her.

“I’ll send him a message.” Isabella took the phone and opened WhatsApp.

Terry was afraid that her movement would hurt the wound, so he hurriedly said, “Don’t move, I’ll do it.”

“What you post is different from mine.”

Too.

Benjamin would definitely like to hear from her more...

After Isabella sent the message, I heard Terry ask, "Do you feel better now?"

"Who bandaged my wound?"

"The wound on your calf was bandaged by Doctor Lawrence, the arm was taken care of by Dr. He, and..." Terry told what he knew.

"X" Isabella raised her eyebrows, as expected, this Brandon and Xiao He, the medical skills are still so hip, even if they haven't seen each other for a while, they haven't improved much, so they bandaged her like this...

"Who the hell hurt you like this?" Terry asked again.

He had seen his younger sister's skills. In Paris, so many villains were no match for her.

"A bunch of weirdos." Isabella said what happened.

Terry suddenly remembered what was mentioned in that data packet, "It's the medicine man."

Since childhood, he has been injected with various drugs, and his body functions have already changed, turning him into a nondescript monster.

"Then how did you escape?" Terry worried.

Isabella didn't stand a chance at first either.

Because no matter how she hits, she can't hurt these weirdos at all...

It wasn't until later that she tried to seal their acupuncture points with needles when they both fell to the ground in order to save Nora and saw the needle kits on the ground.

Later, she inadvertently discovered that chips were implanted in the brains of these people.

The needle she stuck in just happened to destroy the chip.

“So, that organization controlled their consciousness through a chip?” Terry couldn't believe it, having never heard of it.

“In fact, implanting a chip in the human body is not new. The grandfather who taught me medical skills tried this method more than ten years ago, but at that time, he wanted to use the chip to give himself abstinence from alcohol...”

Of course, I couldn't bear it later, so I drank it again.

He felt that his life was only a few decades, so why should he suffer himself...

Terry didn't expect this technology to be so mature more than ten years ago.

“It's just not widely used in the United States.”

In fact, in other countries, some companies and some places have already begun to implant chips.

In Switzerland, more than 10,000 people were implanted with chips in the previous year.

This kind of chip will bring great convenience to daily life, such as taking a train, entering a concert hall, and only needing one finger to complete identity authentication. Contents belong to

Such a microchip is only the size of a grain of rice, and the implantation process is also convenient, just like a vaccine injection. The whole process takes less than a minute and is painless.

“I just didn’t expect that this kind of technology would be used by Ghost League to do bad things.”
Isabella didn’t expect this.

“So, when you came back, the word ‘head’ refers to their weakness, in the head?” Terry suddenly realized.

“Hmm.” Isabella originally wanted to say, focusing on the Lily point on her head, but she fainted before finishing speaking.

She sent a message to Benjamin just now and said this.

Chapter 516 Hug

At this time, Benjamin led the two gangs to win all battles, and the mobile phone rang at this moment, it was a message from the little girl.

she woke up!

Benjamin’s eyes lighted up, and his voice was gentle, “Stop the car.”

The mighty convoy all stopped, just in front of the gate of the Butcher Gang.

This frightened the butcher gang...

“Forgive me, grandpas... We, the Butcher Gang, have no festivities with the C Gang and Nat Gang on weekdays. We have not been here for a long time, and we only scare newcomers in this area. We haven’t done anything bad...”

“Yes, grandpas, please be merciful...”

“The little ones are unfamiliar with Ghost League...they haven’t crossed paths at all...”

Seeing someone wet their pants, Peter thought it was funny, and lowered the car window, “Grandpa, we don’t bother you, we just pass by.”

“Road, passing by...” The man suddenly realized, and almost kowtowed to thank you, “Thank you, grandpas, it is our honor that you grandpas are willing to use this place as a resting place... Grandpas, are you thirsty or tired? Go get you something delicious.”

Seeing them swarming into the house to get food and drink, Peter teased Troy beside him, “Are they treating us as bad guys who do all kinds of evil?”

“Of course, we made such a big commotion here today. I didn’t know it. I thought we were going to wipe out all the organizations and rule the roost here.”

“Hey, don’t hang around here if you’re not brave enough to scare them.”

At this time, Benjamin got out of the car, asked Green to give up the driving seat, and drove away first.

Peter was confused, and hurriedly called Green, “Where is Mr. Mason going?”

How did you leave them behind?

“Isabella has woken up, and there is one third ultimate door left, which we will deal with,” Green explained.

“Boss is awake? No, I want to go back and have a look!”

After Troy heard about it, he immediately said, “I want to go too, I don’t know how the boss is doing, is there anything better.”

“When I kill these grandsons, I’ll buy the boss his favorite snacks later.”

“Come on, Boss just wants to see Benjamin now, so let’s go.”

Seeing his sister’s slightly pale face, Terry couldn’t help but feel distressed and said, “Why didn’t you call Terry or your subordinates at that time?”

At least let someone go over to deal with it...

How dangerous is it for a girl to fight alone?

Several question marks appeared in Isabella’s mind, Terry, did you forget something??

At that time, she really wanted someone to come over to help her, at least take Nora away first...

It’s just that when the phone was taken out, it showed that Terry had made 73 missed calls. The next second, the screen of the phone automatically dimmed, and the phone turned off when it ran out of power.

“Is the cell phone out of battery?” Terry thought of those men who charged Isabella’s cell phone after bandaging Isabella’s wound. Thinking about it carefully, it seems that he called Isabella too many times??

Wouldn’t Isabella be out of battery for this reason??

“It’s Terry...” Terry suddenly felt more guilty, “Terry called you too much, draining your battery...”

How desperate and sad my sister must have been at that time!!

In fact, Isabella is just a little puzzled...

After all, the phone ran out of battery as soon as it was taken out... At that moment, she was a little speechless.

“Terry, I’m sorry. It’s Terry’s fault. Terry not only didn’t help, but also dragged you down.”

Seeing that Terry was blaming himself, Isabella said disapprovingly, “It’s okay, I didn’t charge it before I went out.”

“You don’t need to comfort Terry, Terry knows, it’s because Terry made so many phone calls...”

My sister suffered so many injuries and suffered so much in vain.

If he had known, he would have controlled himself a little bit!

He is too nothing!!

Terry, they are not ordinary people, no matter who goes there, they will get hurt.”

She would rather get hurt herself than those kids who are like her...

One punch from the opponent is enough to hurt the brats for ten days and half a month...

“It must be painful...” Terry looked at her distressedly,

How can Terry help you? Change your medicine, or?”

“I want to eat.”

Terry went to the kitchen to get you something to eat.” Terry got up hurriedly and walked towards the kitchen.

Isabella looked up at Nora who was not far away, she was still lying there quietly with no new injuries on her body.

On the way back, Isabella ‘s consciousness was a little fuzzy, and she was afraid that she would not be able to protect her and add new injuries to her...

Fortunately everything is fine.

“Here comes the food.” Terry pushed a dining cart filled with all kinds of delicious food, “Before your little ones left, they made delicious food and put them on the warming table to keep warm.”

Isabella knew who made the dishes as soon as she saw them. With their personalities, seeing her injured like this, she probably took out the kitchen knife and fought with them.

“At that time, I accidentally found out that they were going to avenge you. I guess they were afraid that I would stop them, so they begged me in various ways.” Terry pushed the small dining cart to the side of the sofa and said with a smile, “You guys are really loyal. ”

Much more faithful than he had ever seen.

“It was a fateful friendship,” Isabella explained.

Besides, in her heart, she never regarded them as real subordinates...

Although they called her the boss one by one, she never regarded herself as the boss, but got along with them as equals, and all the benefits would be shared with them.

“There really aren’t many ‘bosses’ like you.” Terry looked at his sister tenderly, with approval in his eyes.

Although Cecilia had been in the Logan Family for eighteen years, he and Isabella had only been together for a short month.

From the bottom of his heart, he didn’t want to compare the two younger sisters, but he had to say that Isabella was much better than Cecilia.

This kind of excellence is not only good at learning and outstanding talents, but also a good character and a good personality charm.

These advantages are not only particularly conspicuous among peers, but also a unique existence in this world.

Not to mention Benjamin, he was attracted by his sister’s character and personality.

She is really outstanding and really deserves so many people’s love.

“Isabella-

At this time, a handsome figure came quickly.

soon as Isabella raised her eyes, she was hugged by Benjamin in the next second.

Benjamin knew that she was injured, so he was very gentle and careful when holding her.

Isabella could smell the familiar aroma on his body, "Are you done?"

"There's still one left, I'll give it to Peter and the others." Benjamin bowed his head and kissed her, hugged her for a long time before asking softly, "Are you hungry? I'll feed you."

Terry stepped aside silently, and Benjamin glanced at him, Terry, thank you for taking care of me."

"It's not hard..."

This is also his sister, he should take care of it.

"Only a few of your pups are hurt, the rest are fine."

Chapter 517 Successor

Benjamin knew that she was concerned about those youngsters, so he took the initiative to tell her the situation.

He sat by the sofa, without taking his eyes off the girl for a moment, "Do you feel better?"

"Well, much better."

Benjamin picked up something to feed her again, "I'll take you back to the United States to show to other doctors when the work here is over."

Isabella obviously didn’t take the injury seriously, but Benjamin said distressedly, “The injury is so serious, you still say it’s okay?” Contents belong to

“I agree with what Benjamin said. When we go back, we must find a few more doctors for a proper examination.”

“Look, that’s what Terry said.”

Seeing that the two of them looked serious and there was nothing to discuss, Isabella could only back down and say, “Okay.”

Hearing her let go, the expressions of the two eased down.

“Terry, did you discover anything new about those two data packets?” Isabella asked again.

“No.” Terry said gently, “Next, you have a good rest. Benjamin has taken your brats to vent your anger on you today. This matter is over. From now on, you heal your injuries and go to school well. Talk about a good relationship, about you and Benjamin, Terry agreed.”

Benjamin’s eyes softened, finally getting the approval of the third uncle.

“It seems that Terry has discovered something new.” Isabella raised the corners of her lips, “Aren’t you going to tell us? It’s dangerous?”

“No, you think too much.”

“Terry.” Isabella said with great interest, “I have already backed up the data package before handing it over to you. If you don’t tell me, I will check it myself later.”

“Isabella!”

Maybe he didn't expect his sister to do this, Terry said anxiously, “This matter is very involved, I don't want the two of you to get involved again.”

“Does Terry think the two of us are incapable of coping?”

“It's not a matter of ability. Too many people are involved in this matter, and it's more complicated than we imagined. Terry hopes that you and Benjamin can enjoy your little life and don't get hurt like today.”

God knows how distressed he is to see his sister hurt like this...

“Is Terry afraid of hurting us?” Isabella seemed to have guessed something, “The other party is very powerful?”

Bigger than Benjamin ?

Isabella, be obedient and leave it alone.”

Terry 's words made Isabella and Benjamin look at each other, Benjamin seemed to agree with her thoughts, and said softly, “Check.”

He also wanted to know who could make Terry so afraid.

Benjamin ??” Terry didn't expect Benjamin to mess around with his sister, so he asked immediately, “Can you two listen to Terry?”

“No.” The two said in unison, and Isabella also took out her mobile phone, ready to open the two data packets.

“Isabella.” Terry saw that they would not listen, so he could only say, “This matter involves many countries and people in many political circles. Terry is not scaring you. Whether you agree or not, Terry will not allow you to intervene in this matter. gone.”

This is no longer something that one or two of them can solve...

It's not something a gang can handle...

Today, Benjamin mobilized people to avenge Isabella, and ady mobilized nearly half of the Ghost League. When he returns to the United States, there are many traps waiting for him.

If they searched further, what they pulled out would be more than half of the international forces.

Isabella understood, “So, the Ghost League is equivalent to these people's right-hand man. These two data packets are not only evidence of the Ghost League 's crimes, but also threaten the status of these people? Ghost League is in a hurry to recover these evidence? Because The evidence is in Nora's hands, so Nora has become the target of public criticism?”

“Anyway, you promise me that you two are not allowed to meddle in this matter.” Terry didn't intend to go into details.

He knew that his younger sister was smart, but this matter involved so much that it was beyond their ability. If they intervened again, it would be more than just a stumbling block in the future...

At the least, the family will be destroyed, and at the worst, everyone around them will go to hell together...

“One of the reasons they hunted down Nora was that Nora had these evidences in her hands, so what about other reasons?” Isabella asked again.

Terry didn't expect his sister to be so smart, and he really couldn't hide anything from her. He paused, and could only say, “She has been gifted since she was a child, and she has a unique personality. The leader of the organization bor very much and regards her as his successor.”

nourish...”

Because he is a successor, he doesn't need to do everything by himself like other grassroots subordinates.

In short, Nora has done nothing evil.

The leader will often take her by his side to participate in various internal activities together. In addition, she only needs to regularly participate in the special training courses tailored for her by the organization, that's all.

Because she performed very well every time, she was highly valued by the elders, so the elders liked her very much.

Although she is young, she has the highest-level access card, that is, the silver key. After the death of the leader, only she is eligible to enter and leave the private area of Ghost League Mountain.

And the symbolic necklace she put in Terry's amulet is her keepsake as a successor and her identity symbol.

Everyone seeing that necklace is equivalent to seeing the leader of the organization, and must obey orders.

The reason why he put such a precious necklace on Terry was because he was afraid that people from the Ghost League would make trouble for him. This keepsake necklace could save his life.

Isabella understood, "So they are looking for Nora everywhere, not to make her change her mind and go back to be the successor, but to take away her token and replace it? By the way, destroy everything about the organization in her hands..."

Terry nodded, "That's right."

Therefore, Nora had to hide. Once they found out and the token was taken back, her and Terry 's lives would not be guaranteed.

"Then what about the poison on her body?" Isabella asked again.

"I read the first part of the data packet. It said that Nora wanted to leave the organization. The elders were very angry and opposed. After countless disputes, the elders finally let go and came up with the idea of punishing traitors. she."

That is, after drinking the most poisonous chronic poison in the organization, after leaving the organization, life or death is at the mercy of fate.

"Did Nora drink?"

Terry nodded heavily, she drank it all, but what she didn't expect was that the onset of toxicity was very fast...

And, more and more painful every time...

“From the seventh month of our relationship, her toxicity flared up. She was in pain for half a year, and she couldn’t hide it anymore, so she chose to leave...”

Terry didn’t expect this to be the same as his sister guessed. It’s not that Nora didn’t love him, nor did she like someone else, but she was so tortured by this poison that she had to leave...

In addition, at that time, the members of the organization backtracked on their promises and let her go after promising Nora to take the poison, and never interfered with her life again...

But the organization chased and killed her time and time again, at first they tried to persuade her to go back to be her successor, but after finding out that she was obsessed with it, they wanted to take away her successor’s token and take her place...

Not only some people inside the Ghost League, but even many external forces only recognize tokens, not successors.

Chapter 518 Isabella Help

This token is the inheritance that has been handed down from the Ghost League for nearly a hundred years.

Not only the elders want to get it, but other internal forces also want to get this treasure...

“So, Terry intends to face it with Nora and not let the two of us intervene?” Isabella finally understood, “Terry wants to keep the danger to himself, thinking that this way, Benjamin and I can feel at ease?”!

Terry, we are all a family, we have to deal with things together naturally.” Benjamin also said.

“If this incident will make us, including everyone around us, fall into the abyss? Not only you, but even your relatives and friends around you will be doomed because of this incident. Are you willing to drag them down? Don’t you feel bad?”

“We will arrange it properly.” Isabella said confidently.

“You are only eighteen years old, and Benjamin is only twenty-two. You two have already made their mark in many fields. You have a wonderful life. There is really no need to go into this muddy water.”

This matter is related to Nora, so it is his duty to fight alongside Nora.

But this has nothing to do with my sister and brother-in-law so Terry wants them to be alone.

“Terry, whether you agree or not, we will participate in this matter.” Isabella seemed to have made up her mind, “Let you and Nora face it alone, Benjamin and I don’t worry, no matter what force, as long as it dares to hurt our, must be uprooted.”

No matter what power he has, as long as he dares to let his horse come over, he will definitely die without a place to bury him.

“I agree with what Isabella said.” Benjamin nodded. “Terry, you two can’t handle this matter. We have to work together to have a chance of winning.”

Benjamin!” Terry didn’t expect that this kid really didn’t care about priorities and followed Isabella’s wishes in everything. He had expected him to persuade Isabella a little more, but it turned out that he and Isabella were in the same group...

“I agree with what Benjamin said, and it’s settled.” Isabella no longer accepted Terry’s rebuttal, “Nora should wake up soon. According to what she said, she should want to make this evidence public. I have an idea.”...

Before Isabella finished speaking, the phone vibrated.

“I’ll do it.” Benjamin helped her swipe across the screen, clicked answer, and put the phone to her ear so that she could answer it without raising her hand.

It was Myra calling.

Isabella was just about to say hello, but Myra's low and for help came from the other end. anxious cry

"Isabella is not well, at home..."

Before Myra finished speaking, the call was interrupted, and when she called again, the other party had already turned off her phone.

"It's Myra calling. There must be an accident at home. I'll send someone to check it out." Isabella realized that something was wrong, and her eyes darkened a little.

She was going to call the other pups and ask them to come over and have a look.

Benjamin said immediately, "I'll let my people go, it's closer."

"Um."

Dare to move their family? Don't want to live anymore?

"An accident happened at home? Myra called? What happened?" Terry didn't expect those people to seek revenge so quickly, and suddenly became worried.

"I don't know for the time being, something must have happened..." Isabella heard Myra's tone just now, it didn't look like she was joking, and Myra was not a person who liked to joke.

I will call her, the matter should be serious...

At this time Benjamin made a phone call and told his subordinates to rush over as quickly as possible.

Terry also wanted to call Eloise to inquire about the situation, and Benjamin told him not to startle the snake,

Hubella Help

and wait for his people to go over. Contents belong to the other side.

Near Riverside Villa.

Someone pressed Myra against the tree trunk, with a knife on her neck, "Who did you call just now? Did you call Isabella ???"

"No, no, no..." Myra denied it repeatedly.

Just now, she helped his wife go to a brand store to get a pair of custom-made boots and came back. As soon as she walked to the door, she found someone sneaking in and peeping inside.

She subconsciously called Isabella, and the man found her before she finished speaking, and pressed her against the tree trunk, with a shining knife on her neck.

"I clearly heard you calling Isabella just now?" The man raised his eyebrows again, the black mask covered half of his face, only revealing a pair of clear eyes, looking very young.

"You, you heard me wrong, there is only one Miss Logan in our family... there is no Isabella, this little brother, why are you kidnapping me? I, I am worthless... I am a servant, you threaten me Elder Mr. and Mrs., can't change a few money..."

“I don’t want money.” The man’s tone was a little scary.

Myra was terrified, “You, you, you, you don’t want money, what do you want me to do... I can only do housework, nothing else...”

“Let me ask you, where did Terry go?” The man moved the knife closer, his tone dangerous.

“third young master ??” Myra thought that the person in front of her was the third young master ‘s enemy, and hurriedly shook her head, “I don’t know... the whereabouts of the young masters, how can our servants deserve to know?”

“I really don’t know?” The man moved the knife closer.

Myra could feel the cold touch from her neck, she was quite frightened, “I really don’t know, even if you killed me today, I don’t know where he went...”

“I’m not his enemy, I won’t hurt him, let alone you, I just want to know where he is.”

“...” Seeing him like this, Myra was still carrying a knife, saying that he was the enemy of the third young master? Don’t you believe it??

She said pitifully again, “I, I also want to know where the third young master has gone. If I know, I will definitely tell you... The main reason is that I really don’t know, little brother, if you are his friend, why don’t you give it to him?” Make a call and ask?”

“...” If he had Terry ‘s number, he would have already called.

Seeing that the servant in front of him really didn't know, Hal 's eyes dimmed again, "Then do you know when he will come back?"

Myra shook her head again.

"Don't tell anyone what happened today." Hal warned again.

"Don't worry, even if I die and take it to the grave, I won't reveal a word..." Myra saw him let go of the knife, her heart was pounding, "Then little brother, I, shall I go first?"

Hal didn't speak, his eyes seemed to dim even more.

Myra hurriedly spread her legs and ran towards Riverside Villa.

Hal looked at the direction she was leaving, and was about to leave, but Benjamin 's men arrived unexpectedly. Seeing seven or eight people blocking the way, Hal fought them.

As soon as Myra entered the room, she saw two gangs fighting behind her. She was so frightened that she didn't forget to take out her mobile phone, shivering, recorded a video and sent it to Isabella.

Isabella, another group of people came, and they started fighting! The one wearing a black mask, the one who kidnapped me just now, came for the third young master, should I tell Elder Mr. and Mrs. Ah? Is the third young master in danger?"

Isabella clicked on the video and saw that although it was a bit blurry after zooming in and the face could not be seen clearly, it was obviously Hal 's right.

“There’s a big misunderstanding.” Isabella seemed to have figured something out, raised her eyes and said to Benjamin, “Tell your people to stop, it’s Hal.”

Chapter 519

The phones of the two groups rang at the same time, and Benjamin ‘s men saw that the caller was not special assistant, but Big Boss Benjamin, so they picked it up immediately in fright.

And Isabella dialed Hal ‘s mobile phone number, Hal heard the exclusive ringtone, thought something happened there, and answered immediately.

“That’s my fiancé’s.”

As soon as Isabella ‘s voice fell, I heard Benjamin say to the person on the phone, “Stop it, that’s my fiancée’s friend.”

The two groups of people, were stunned and looked at each other with the same unbelievable expressions.

“Withdraw.” Benjamin only said one word, and seven or eight of his subordinates obeyed the order to leave immediately.

And Isabella asked with great interest, “You ran to my door, kidnapped my servant, and beat my fiancé, what do you want?”

The amount of information is too large, Hal didn’t realize it all at once, what door? What servant? These people who left were her fiancé’s subordinates??

Where is this going??

“Are you looking for me Terry ?” Isabella seemed to have guessed something, and asked with interest, “Logan...Sen?”

Terry, who was named, was confused and didn't know what happened.

“Terry is your Terry?” Hal took a blow to the head and couldn't believe it. Looking at the luxurious building in front of him, he was startled and asked, “Is this your home?”

“if not?”

Terry is really you Terry?”

“Um.”

“Then do you know where he went?” Hal didn't expect such a wonderful fate after going around, “Before he left, he had a last wish.”

he is Nora 's nickname.

After listening to what Hal said, Isabella looked at Terry on the opposite side, and repeated deliberately, “You mean, Nora 's last wish is to look at Terry again before leaving? Just take a video? Don't disturb his life?”

Just looking at it from a distance?

When Terry heard it, he looked at the girl on the sofa sadly and moved.

“That's right, he's you Terry, do you have his latest video, send it to me, or show it directly to he.”

If he had known that Terry was Isabella 's Terry, he would not have had to fly back to the United States on a plane for more than ten hours.

It's all his fault that he didn't investigate clearly, but it's not too late now, Isabella is right beside he, and he can show her the video at any time.

“My latest video of Terry? Yes, I'll send it to you later.”

is very close to Terry now.

After taking a short video, Isabella sent it over, “Freshly baked, still hot.”

Hal opened it and saw that his sister he was lying on the sofa next to Terry. What's going on?!

“People from the Ghost League found Nora 's hiding place. Nora and I broke through the siege and came to the castle.” Isabella said succinctly, “ Nora was injured a little bit, and her life is not in danger. Her poison can still be saved. You now No, we'll fly back tonight, and you'll see her tomorrow.”

Hal couldn't believe it, and at the same time he was anxious and worried, but at the same time he asked ecstatically, “Is there a way to go around? You have a way? Really?”

he's condition has already been sentenced to death by many famous doctors...

He didn't dare to have any hope...

But Isabella said confidently, “It is indeed possible to save, the poison in her body just now has been forced out.”

“Then how sure are you?” Hal couldn't hide his excitement.

“Seventy to eighty percent.” The girl on the phone said lazily.

Hal was overjoyed, and was dazzled by the huge surprise. He didn't expect Isabella to be so powerful...
Contents belong to Terry on the side also looked at his sister in disbelief, Nora can be saved? Isabella sure to save her? 70% to 80% sure??

At this time, Myra waited for a long time but did not get a reply from Isabella. She saw another group of people leaving in a hurry, and worried that if Hal stayed, he would pose a threat to the third young master...

The point is, Hal is anxious and worried for a while, and overjoyed for a while, looking like a psychopath...

Myra picked up a long clothes pole in the garden, walked quietly behind Hal, and slammed it down.

Although Hal was dazed by the huge surprise, but when he heard the movement behind him, he still grabbed the long pole with quick eyesight and hands.

“I, I, I...I'll fight you!” Myra couldn't snatch back the pole in Hal 's hand, feeling anxious and angry.

Isabella on the other end of the phone heard Myra 's voice, a few question marks popped up in her mind, did Myra personally come forward to teach Hal a lesson?

Isabella 's friend.” Hal explained, holding the pole.

“What Isabella, they say we don't have Isabella in our house... Let go, let go...” Myra stomped on his foot again.

Hal reluctantly withdrew his foot, Myra hurriedly grabbed the pole and was about to hit him.

“Isabella, say something...” Hal hastily switched on the speakerphone.

Myra.”

Isabella ‘s voice came from the other end of the phone, and Myra froze in mid-air, “You, why is there Isabella ‘s voice on your phone?? Oh, no, no, we don’t have Isabella in our house...you take less The synthesized voice lied to me!!”

Myra, Hal is my friend. I forgot to tell you when you sent the video just now.”

At that time, Isabella just wanted Hal to stop as soon as possible, so as not to hurt the innocent, and had no time to return to Myra ‘s WhatsApp.

“Isabella? Is that really you?”

Myra did send a video to Isabella just now. While she was overjoyed, she looked at the sneaky and crazy young man in front of her. How could Isabella have such a friend?

still a man...

“It’s okay, you go into the room first.” Isabella reminded from the air.

“Then I’ll go in first.” Myra took the long pole from Hal, and her suspicion towards him still didn’t ease at all. She always

“Your servant looks at me like I’m crazy.” Hal looked at Myra’s back as she entered the room, feeling a little funny, “Then where shall we meet tomorrow?”

“When the time and place are determined, I will send it to you later.”

“good.”

After Isabella hung up the phone, she explained what happened to Benjamin and Terry.

Terry was surprised, “ Nora has a brother?”

“I only found out last night.” Isabella explained softly, “ Hal said that they met a few years ago, but they didn’t let the organization know.”

“No wonder Nora was able to hide under the noses of the organization for so long, so it was because of her brother’s help...” Terry glanced at the girl next to him again, wondering how long it would take for her to wake up.

“You just said, you have an idea to deal with those people?” Benjamin asked Isabella in front of him again, “What is it?”

Isabella raised the corners of her lips and said, “The Ghost League will definitely send people to obstruct and hunt down after receiving the news that we are returning to the United States tonight. I plan to lure some of them back to the United States and deal with them in turn. Some people are hindered by their responsibilities. Don’t you think it’s funny having to deal with your own people yourself?”

“You intentionally increase their grievances. They will trip us up in the open and in the dark. You plan to seize their faults and catch them all?”

“That’s right.” Isabella pursed her lips, “I’ll make arrangements for tonight.”

“I will let my people fully cooperate with you.”

Terry on the side :...

Did you forget something??

Although he participated in it, it seems that he did not participate in it...

Chapter 520 As long as you are by my side

“I’ll take you back to your room to rest.” Benjamin knew that Isabella was still injured, so he was very careful when he picked her up. “Go to sleep first, and we’ll go back when the plane arrives.”

Isabella hugged him, “Terry, Nora wakes up later, you send someone to tell me.”

“good...”

Seeing their intimacy, Terry suddenly felt a little alone.

“I know you’re in pain.” Benjamin carried Isabella up the stairs, lowered his head and kissed her on the lips, and said lovingly, “I can’t wait to tear their corpses to pieces and leave their bones in ashes...”

How dare you hurt his girl like this...

Even he couldn’t bear to say harsh words to the little girl, let alone treat her so roughly.

Seeing the injuries on the girl’s arms and calves, Benjamin felt extremely uncomfortable, wishing to bear everything for her.

Brandon said that when you wake up, he will put some painkiller cream on you, and I will help you later.” Benjamin carried the girl to the second floor, “Where is the bedroom?”

He hasn’t been in the girl’s bedroom yet, so he doesn’t know which direction to go.

“Over there.” Isabella raised her chin slightly, looked at the man’s sharp jaw line, and said with a light smile, “They are medicine people, and they have been injected with various drugs since they were young. It is normal for them to be strong.”

“That’s not why they hurt you.” Benjamin hugged her and walked towards the bedroom. “I had someone order an identical needle kit for you, and I’ll give it to you when I return to the United States.”

Isabella didn’t expect him to be so careful, and even thought of this, “I have a lot of needle kits.”

“But that means a lot to you.”

Benjamin remembered the texture on it, so he drew it and asked people to make it according to the picture.

Although there is no guarantee that they are 100% identical, at least they are close to each other.

Isabella curled up her lips and looked at him softly.

When Benjamin carried her into the bedroom, the servants who came back were stunned...

They couldn’t believe their eyes, Mr. Mason was able to enter the boss’s bedroom, the point is, the boss has no opinion at all...

They looked at each other, the boss seemed to be really different to him!

Benjamin put Isabella on the bed, gently, “Where’s the painkiller?” Contents belong to “I’ll have someone wipe it for me in a while.”

“No.” Benjamin looked at the girl on the bed and said firmly, “Always ask me to do something for you?”

Otherwise, he would feel really uncomfortable.

“The room in front, the second-to-last drawer in the first row on the left-hand side.”

“good.”

When Benjamin walked into that room, he realized that it was almost a “pharmacy”, connected to the room, and there were at least a hundred drawers in it...

It seems that they are full of medicines, and there is a faint fragrance of medicine as soon as you enter the door.

Benjamin opened the penultimate drawer. In addition to the pain-relieving ointment, there were also some pain-relieving capsules, pain-relieving tablets... none of which were available in the market.

It should have been researched by the little girl herself.

Benjamin took out a jar of painkiller ointment and walked towards Isabella, “Are you often injured before?”

So I prepared so many medicines in this room to bandage my wounds at any time?

“When I first came here, I suffered a little.”

Isabella only mentioned it briefly, but Benjamin remembered that her subordinates once said that she almost lost her life when she first arrived, and it was Hal who saved her once...

So, how many times has she been injured, how many times has she hidden in this small pharmacy to bandage her own wounds?

How much did you go through to be as strong as you are now?

Benjamin felt extremely distressed. He sat down and said in a distressed voice, "Let me see the injury on your back."

"It really doesn't hurt."

"It's all broken." Benjamin heard from Peter, and Peter heard from the doctor...

"Let me see." Benjamin coaxed her for a long time, and after getting her helpless consent, he gently lifted her clothes.

When the long bloodstains on his back came into his eyes, a cloud of mist suddenly rose in his eyes.

damn it.

Those bastards!

Hurt her so badly!

While Benjamin was angry, there was a tearing pain in his heart, and his eyes were so red that he couldn't do anything.

The wound fell on the girl's fair and delicate skin, which was particularly shocking.

How painful should it be when she suffers this?

Benjamin didn't dare to think about it, but he couldn't help thinking about it. He lost his mind at this moment and wished he could uproot the entire Ghost League.

"Why don't you talk?" Isabella lay on the bed, turned her head and saw the red eyes of the man caught her eyes, did she cry??

"I'm fine." Isabella smiled, "I'll be fine in two days."

Benjamin's eyes were filled with scorching mist, and because of the girl's comfort, his eyes looked even redder, and he asked in a hoarse voice, "How did you hurt?"

"There were so many people at that time, I didn't pay attention for a while."

"Lie, with your skill, you can protect yourself. It must be to protect the third sister-in-law." Benjamin knew that the little girl was trying to save others, so he accidentally hurt her.

"The injury on Nora's body is also because of me." Isabella was afraid that he would "resent" Nora, so she specifically explained, "She asked me to leave first several times, and deliberately led those people away..."

Nora was also injured for this.

Both of them are trying their best to protect each other.

"I didn't blame her." Benjamin knew that in that situation, both of them would fight to protect each other, and he was so angry that it was the group of people, the organization...

He must make everyone involved pay a terrible price!

As long as it has something to do with the Ghost League, he will never let it go!

Isabella was really sad to see him, and said softly, "Come here."

Benjamin knelt in front of her on one knee, his sad and self-blaming handsome face came into her eyes, and the two looked at each other.

Isabella raised her hand and touched his head, "It's okay, just go back and ask them to get it back."

"I'm sorry, Isabella." Benjamin pressed her lips and looked at her with discomfort, "I didn't protect you well... If I had known, I wouldn't have let you go with him."

If we want to go, we also go together.

He would rather Isabella blame him for being ignorant, blame him for not giving her enough freedom and trust, as long as she can protect her well...

At least don't let her get hurt...

If he had been there at the time, at least he could have stayed and dealt with her aftermath.

"It's not your fault." Isabella looked into his eyes, smiled and said, "Didn't you want to rub the medicine for me?"

It's a bit cold and her back is still bare...

“If I do something wrong, be sure to tell me.” Benjamin pressed her lips again, feeling sad, and gave her medicine.

This shocking bloodstain made him think about his plan to deal with Ghost League...

“Seriously, I can perform a one-handed handstand for you.”

The girl’s words successfully made him laugh, “You might as well act as a good wife and mother for me, and let me experience it.’

“What if I’m not a good wife and mother?”

“Not to mention the others.”

Isabella laughed, “But in my life, it seems that I really can’t handle this role.”

“You don’t need to be a good wife or a good mother, you just need to be yourself.” Benjamin said softly, “In front of me, just be yourself, I don’t want a good wife or a good mother, I just want you by my side.”
