Chapter 521 Emotional Healing

Isabella 's eyes softened, and she said with a smile, "You're quite easy to please."

"I think I'm greedy. To be with such an excellent you, I need to work harder." Benjamin applied the medicine gently, and said softly, "You alone are better than everything in the world. It is enough for me to resist all kinds of temptations in the vast world, in this life, one you is enough."

Isabella 's eyes softened even more.

"Does it hurt?" Benjamin lightly rubbed the wound on her back again.

"Your movements are much lighter than Brandon 's."

It seems that he has the talent to be a doctor.

When she was in a coma, someone sprinkled too much medicinal powder on her wound, which made her feel excruciatingly painful for a moment.

Benjamin finished her medicine and kissed her where she wasn't hurt.

The soft touch came down, causing Isabella to raise her eyes, and the beautiful side profile came into his eyes.

Benjamin approached again, and couldn't help but press her lips.

The soft love came from the lips, making Isabella slowly respond to his kiss.

The affection between the two is entangled, inseparable.

“Boss...”

At this time, seeing that the door was open, Peter knocked on the door as usual and came in, followed by several people.

Seeing Benjamin kneeling on one knee and kissing the girl on the bed, Peter and several of his subordinates were stunned, their eyes widening in disbelief.

Although Isabella’s back was covered by clothes, Benjamin immediately pulled the quilt to cover her body.

The lips of both of them were red, and the affection in their eyes had not yet dissipated.

“Let you in?” Isabella’s voice still had a provocative ending She raised her eyes and saw that Peter, Les and several of her subordinates were all bruised and swollen. “Are you injured?”

“It’s okay, boss... just, we want to escort you back to the United States.” Peter was still worried about the few of them getting on the plane. There were too few of them, and it was easy to suffer.

Isabella saw that they were seriously injured, and decided, “You stay here to recuperate.”

“Boss...” Peter wanted to say, you don’t want Benjamin and we don’t? But think about it, it’s better not to say such disgusting words, otherwise the boss will wring his head off...

“Come find me when you’re better.”

Hearing what Isabella said, Peter and several of his subordinates were overjoyed, “We will definitely recover from our injuries!”

“Everyone has worked hard this month, and everyone’s bonus will be ten times higher.”

Everyone’s eyes were full of joy, “Long live the boss!”

“Go and treat the wound.”

“Boss, are you feeling better?” Peter couldn’t help asking, “Can I contact you, the old man who is a miracle doctor, and let him show you after you return to the United States?”

“Need not.”

“Stop talking nonsense...” Troy pulled Peter away directly, “There is no end, the young couple is cultivating a relationship... What are you making trouble for?”

“That’s my boss, okay? What’s wrong with me talking to my boss?”

“Your eldest brother also wants to fall in love and get married, so you go!”

downstairs.

Terry noticed that Nora’s fingers moved. He couldn’t believe it, but was overjoyed. It didn’t take long for Nora to open her eyes, as if trying to adjust to the light in front of her.

She was originally beautiful and refined, but when she opened her eyes, she looked even more beautiful.

Terry finally saw a real person, he shouted excitedly and cautiously, "Nora?"

Nora was startled when she heard the familiar voice, her eyes fell on Terry, she couldn't believe it, "Terry?"

"You're finally awake..." Terry had a sore nose and hugged her immediately, "Great, you're finally awake..."

Thank goodness he finally woke up his girl.

Nora didn't know why she was here, feeling the man's familiar and long-lost embrace, her eyes were instantly moist, and she hugged him subconsciously.

"Is it a dream..." Nora closed her eyes and took a deep breath of his breath, "It must be a dream..."

She often has such dreams.

In the dream, Terry hugged her like this too, sometimes he was happy, sometimes he was teary-eyed like now.

The only thing that remains the same is that every time she wakes up, Terry is not by her side.

That kind of huge emptiness and loss has tormented her many times.

"It's not a dream." Tears welled up in Terry's eyes, and he said in a hoarse voice, "Isabella carried you back."

He took this opportunity to formally introduce, "Isabella is my sister, my dear. I just recognized her a few months ago. She went to Road and told me that there may be something unspeakable about your departure, so we Only then followed the clues and searched all the way down..."

"Isabella..." Now, Nora thought of something and hurriedly asked, "Where is she?"

"A little injured, rest upstairs."

"No life-threatening?"

"No." Terry stroked her soft hair again, and said lovingly, "Don't worry, this is her territory, and you are safe here."

Nora raised her eyes again and asked, "Is this her place?" "Well, she's the boss here."

Terry 's biological sister is the boss of Nat Gang – Nat??

Now it's Nora's turn to be surprised.

"Your brother didn't tell you?" Terry asked softly with lowered eyes.

"He only said that Isabella was his good friend and had a close relationship with him... He didn't elaborate on the rest."

When Nora said this, her eyes accidentally discovered that Terry was still injured, and remembering what Isabella said, the tears in Nora 's eyes flooded even more.

"These injuries were all for me..." Nora looked at every wound on his body with distress. While feeling sad, she became even more angry in her heart. The damn Ghost League dared to hurt her people like this...

“I am too good at myself. Fortunately, there is Isabella. She was the first to find out that something was wrong, and she took me to investigate together. In the amulet, the token you left me was also the first to find out. She and her fiancé I also went to Ghost League Mountain and brought back all the data you stored in the computer.”

Hearing this, Nora was happy, but at the same time blushed for the three questions she had set.

Terry held her face in his hands and said happily, “If it wasn’t for Isabella, I wouldn’t know I have such a high status in your heart. The three questions you set up are all related to me... Also, Isabella lied to you I’m dead, you look sad...”

“Nora was even more embarrassed, but she was secretly relieved when she thought that all the data was in her own hands and was not taken away by the Ghost League.

Next, she must cut off part of the Ghost League’s influence, and let the huge darkness surface.

Nora, I miss you so much...” Terry held her face in his hands, and with the joy of reunion, kissed his longing lips.

Nora had already broken up with him, and subconsciously wanted to resist, but the longing for more than a year had made her unable to control herself. She missed him so much, she unconsciously responded to his kiss, closed her eyes obediently, shed tears.

Chapter 522

Just as Peter led a group of his men down the spiral staircase, when he looked up, he saw the two kissing passionately, very hotly.

His glass heart shattered instantly.

It seems that this world suddenly does not belong to their single dogs, and they are abused everywhere they go.

Just as Peter was about to speak, Troy covered his mouth and walked the other way...

Terry deepened the kiss little by little, and all the unfinished words and longing for more than a year were released at this moment.

The lingering kisses were like a storm, coming one after another, I don't know how long it took, Nora felt that she was going to be out of breath, and Terry stopped.

His blurred eyes are still full of love, and his handsome face is even more beautiful than before, but he is thinner and his face looks smaller. I don't know if it is because of his injury or because he is worried about her. Overall, Looks haggard. Contents belong to

Nora looked at the wound on his body and said sadly, "Why are you so stupid, I told you that I fell in love with someone else, why didn't you let go?"

"I only want you in this life, and no one else." Terry looked into her eyes and said with red eyes, "Promise me that you will never leave me again?"

"But..." Nora 's eyes dimmed, and she said in a low voice, "You should have seen those two data packets?"

"I know." Terry looked into her eyes, said word by word, resolutely, "I know what kind of danger I will face next, and I know your identity. I don't care or be afraid, as long as you are by my side, let I can do anything."

Nora was puzzled, "Based on your conditions, you can obviously find a better one."

“You are the best.” Terry held her face and said affectionately, “I know what kind of person I am looking for, and you are the most suitable and the one I like the most. am not interested in anyone except you.

After he finished speaking, he lowered his head and kissed her, bit by bit, absorbing her sweetness.

Nora was kissed by him for a while before saying, “You’re so stupid.”

She is clearly a top hacker and the third young master of the Logan Family, yet she wants her to be a successor to the organization who has no parents and no parents...

The world of the two of them is obviously one black and one white, they are not suitable to be together at all...

“You are the stupid one. When we were dating for the seventh month, your toxicity flared up, but you didn’t let me know. I was so stupid. I clearly noticed your abnormality, but I didn’t think about it deeply...

At that time, he and Nora were about halfway through dating, and he often found her pale after going to the bathroom, but he didn’t think about it, but believed what Nora said, she was uncomfortable during her period...

“That’s because you trust me. You won’t suspect every word I say, even if it’s a lie.”

Terry looked into her eyes again, leaned closer and kissed her, “I’m not careful enough, I will definitely pay more attention to your changes in the future, and I will never let you bear these hardships alone again.”

Terry, I don’t want to drag you down.” Nora said truthfully, “This matter involves a lot, and it’s beyond our power to solve it... Besides, I don’t want to drag people around you, such as your sister.”

Speaking of Isabella, Nora felt extremely guilty.

“At first I mistakenly thought she was an agent sent by the organization, and beat her up... Later, when the medicine men came, I asked her to go, but she insisted on taking me along... Several times, in order to help me, she Injured by the medicine man, obviously she can escape by herself with her skills, but she still has to take me as a burden...”

Nora ‘s eyes were moist, “She was hurt so badly, but she still carried me back... This kindness is too heavy for me.’

After all, they had never met before, and it was because of Terry that they had such an intersection.

“Then be her third sister-in-law, and treat her slowly in this life.” Terry touched Nora ‘s face lovingly, and said softly,”

Isabella also likes you very much, she is like this, with a cold face and a warm heart.”, although she seldom talks, but in her heart, she really takes you seriously.”

When Terry said this, he paused, and continued, “When you get to know her well, you will find that she is really nice, with many advantages, and easy to get along with.”

“I’ve never heard you praise Cecilia like that.” Nora could tell that Terry was really satisfied with this biological sister.

“The two of them are different.” Terry said softly,” Isabella said that she and her fiancé will definitely intervene in this matter to the end, so let us face it together as a family. No matter what, I will never let go this time.” Open your hand.”

Nora looked at him moved, ” Isabella said, my poison is 70% to 80% sure to be cured.”

“She also said the same thing as your brother, and she will definitely do what she said.” Terry smiled and said firmly, “There is no poison in this world that she can’t cure. After all, she is the genius doctor Selby Brown...”

Nora ‘s eyes were full of surprise, “Is she Selby Brown ??” Doctor Selby Brown??

The legendary Mr. Selby Brown, a genius doctor who can't see the end of the dragon???

"Yeah." Terry gave her an affirmative answer.

Nora was completely stunned. She and her brother had been looking for a miracle doctor for so long, and it turned out that it was not an old gentleman, but a young and beautiful girl of seventeen or eighteen years old.

"So she said it could be saved, so it must be." Terry is very confident in his sister's medical skills.

Nora didn't expect that she would be so lucky. Not only did she reunite with Terry, but she also accidentally ran into it. The genius doctor Selby Brown detoxified her...

The bond between her and Terry didn't seem to be broken...it was still deep.

"Isabella said that the poison in your body is very troublesome, but it's not impossible to cure. You need to draw some blood to go back and study it. When she turns back, I will let her take it easy."

Nora laughed, "Drawing blood is like a mosquito bite to me, it doesn't hurt."

I have experienced all kinds of wind and waves, how can I be afraid of this little needle?

"That should be gentle." Terry rubbed her hand and said softly, "We have to be mentally prepared, this poison will take some time to recover."

"It's been a year, I don't care about these few months...I told Isabella later, let her treat it with confidence...I believe her."

Terry looked at her dotingly, “Then I’ll take you upstairs to change into clean clothes, and we’re going to fly back to the United States in a while.”

The word “back to America “made Nora suddenly think of her own brother – Hal!

Oops!

She thought she was going to die this time, so she asked her brother to take a picture of Terry ‘s recent situation, and wanted to see him one more time before she died...

“I’ll make a call.” Nora was about to find her phone.

“Do you want to call your brother?” Terry smiled softly. “ Isabella has already explained the situation to him. He is waiting in the United States and will join us tomorrow.”

At the same time as Nora was surprised, her face blushed again. Didn’t Terry know her dying wish to see him one more time??

Chapter 523 I owe two lives

Not long after, Nora ‘s expression turned a little strange, Terry asked hurriedly, “What’s wrong? Is there something wrong?”

“fine...”

Seeing her body curled up together, Terry couldn’t help but anxiously said, “Is it a toxic attack? I’ll call Isabella to come down...”

“Don’t go.” Nora grabbed Terry ‘s hand in a hurry, her voice changed due to the pain, “She’s hurt, let her rest for a while...I’ll be fine if I bear with it...”

She had endured it like this before.

Countless times, when the toxicity flared up, she relied on this method to overcome it abruptly.

“I can’t just watch...it must hurt.” Terry tried to move her hand away.

But Nora grabbed his hand tightly and begged, “ Terry, I can do it, but I can’t just look for Isabella every time I have an attack? My poison, I have occasional attacks, I can only rely on myself...”

Seeing that her body was trembling from the pain, and even her voice became quieter, Terry suddenly said distressedly, “How can I help you?”

“You go out first...” Nora didn’t want him to see his downcast look, “give me some time.”

She must be able to...

“You used to be like this. You were afraid that I would feel uncomfortable watching it, so you hid yourself to bear any suffering or pain. This time, let me accompany you...”

Terry ran along her back lightly, and then along other uninjured places, trying to make her comfortable.

However, no matter what he did, the onset of toxicity in his body was no longer something Nora could control by himself, nor could it be solved by just stroking her twice casually. Contents belong to

Nora burst into tears from the pain, the piercing pain seemed to kill her, her tears were all spontaneous and subconscious.

It hurts.

Her heart, liver, spleen, lungs, and kidneys were all twisted together in pain, and her internal organs made her in agony.

Seeing her in such pain, Terry recalled the rainy night not long ago, he had a terrible dream, in the dream Nora was like this, she had a toxic attack, her whole body was in pain, she was crying all the time...

In the dream, he really wanted to help her, but there was nothing he could do. He could only wipe away her tears and hold her in his arms...

Now, he let go of Nora 's hand and ran upstairs.

In order to run faster, he made a lot of movements and hurt the wound, but he couldn't care less.

Isabella, Isabella!!!"

He went up to the second floor at once, knocked on Isabella 's door, and asked anxiously, "Are you asleep? Nora is having a toxic attack...can you help her? She is in pain now... Isabella ??"

Soon, the door opened and Benjamin appeared with Isabella in his arms.

needle kit from the fourth drawer." Isabella ordered.

Terry 's mind went blank, but when he heard his sister's words, he subconsciously replied, "Okay."

Needle pack, needle pack...

He hurried to get it.

Benjamin went downstairs with Isabella in his arms, Terry caught up with them with a needle kit, and Nora was already sobbing on the sofa in pain.

Her tears flowed more and more, she was speechless, and the veins on her forehead were popping out.

“Nora...” Terry really wanted to help her, really wanted to relieve her pain.

But Isabella said softly, “Get out of the way.”

Nora was already in excruciating pain, touching her now would only make her feel worse.

Benjamin put Isabella down, and Isabella immediately opened the acupuncture kit and injected needles in several major acupuncture points of Nora.

Nora’s trembling became smaller, but her little face was still pale without a trace of blood, and her whole body was sickly and listless.

Isabella went on to give her the needles, and by the way, asked her men to go to the laboratory to get the pills she had recently developed.

After one shot, Nora seemed to recover, raised her weak eyelids, and said feebly, “Thank you, Isabella.”

She is much better now.

At least it doesn’t hurt as much as before...

“Why are you being polite to me, rest more next time.” Isabella started to take the injection again, “This medicine can protect you for 12 hours.”

That is to say, within 12 hours, the poison in her body will not take effect for the time being...

You can take a good rest for a while.

“Isabella, what should I do if the poison in her body flares up again and again?” Terry asked, “Is there any way to relieve her pain quickly?”

“These two medicines, don’t take them unless it’s absolutely necessary.” Isabella handed over the small bottle, “The medicines are too strong, I’m afraid she’s too weak to take it.”

Terry wrote it down and held the bottle of medicine firmly in his hand.

“Now the plane is parked outside. After returning to the United States, I will take some blood tests.”

Now Isabella doesn’t know what kind of poison she was poisoned, so I can only help her relieve the pain first, and then prescribe the right medicine later.

She looked up at Nora on the sofa, and said in a gentle voice, “In the past, she used poison to fight poison for treatment, so the toxins in her body became more and more complicated and difficult to understand.”

Nora raised her weak eyelids, and looked at Isabella in surprise. She didn’t expect the girl to know that she used poison to fight poison for treatment...

“You still have some leftover powder in your vitamin C bottle, I took it for testing.” Isabella looked at Nora and explained, “That time, I broke into your room without your permission, sorry.”

“I know, you are helping Terry find clues... If it weren’t for you, I would be dead, so I should be the one to say thank you.” Nora smiled weakly, “Thank you Isabella, I owe you two It’s a fate.”

One is that when those medicine men attacked her, Isabella tried her best to save her.

One is that she was poisoned, and Isabella helped her detoxify. From yesterday to now, she has been detoxified three times!

“You saved me too, family, you’re welcome.” Isabella looked up at Terry again, “Can you hug Nora? Or let my people come?”

The plane is waiting outside, it’s time to go.

“I can.” Terry was full of confidence.

“Then let’s go.”

As soon as Isabella finished speaking, Benjamin on the side picked her up.

“Oh, by the way, I just said that Isabella is my own sister, and this one is my brother-in-law, Benjamin.” Terry formally introduced.

Only then did Nora look at the noble man next to her. When she was in pain just now, she didn’t even notice who was beside her...

Seeing Benjamin at this moment, and knowing that he is Terry’s future brother-in-law and the richest man in the world, she was a little surprised. No wonder Terry said that his sister and brother-in-law would intervene in this matter to the end...

It turns out that they have this strength.

“Hello.” Nora nodded, her pale face was gentle.

“Hello, third sister-in-law.” Benjamin also greeted, then bowed his head and said to the girl in his arms, "The United States is ready, let's go back."

Just wait for those fish to enter the net by themselves...

"Yeah." Isabella nodded.

Terry gently hugged Nora, "Does it hurt?"

Although Nora shook her head, a look of pain quickly flashed across her expression, and Terry blamed himself, "Did I touch your wound? It's all my fault, clumsy..."

"It's okay." Nora smiled at him.

Terry found that her smile was a little pale, and he must give her more touches later to make her look better. She is too thin and light now.

Chapter 524

The plane has parked outside.

Peter led a group of men, and Poll looked at the boss reluctantly, "Boss, we will find you in a few days... You must take care of yourself in the United States, and if you need anything, just call us."

"Yes, boss, my mobile phone will be turned on 24 hours a day, and i will be on standby at any time. If there is any danger in the future, don't carry it by yourself. Be sure to think of us as soon as possible." Troy instructed.

"Peter and Troy saw that you were injured, and their eyes were red. Boss, you have to protect yourself and don't let yourself get hurt again." Les urged reluctantly.

Isabella's eyes softened, "Understood."

“Goodbye, boss.”

“Mr. Mason, take care of our boss.”

“Our eldest is a little girl who needs someone to take care of her, please Mr. Mason...”

“Don’t worry, I will.” Benjamin nodded at them before carrying Isabella up the flight stairs.

And Terry was obviously struggling to hold Nora.

“Why don’t you let me down?” Seeing his painful expression, Nora guessed that he might have pulled the wound, so she resolutely said, “Let me down, I’ll go by myself.”

“Don’t move, you’ll hurt my wound.”

Now Nora obediently didn’t dare to move, she just looked at him worriedly, “Are you okay?”

“Are you questioning me? You haven’t really seen the side of me.”

“...” Nora suspected he was driving, but there was no proof. Terry hugged her contentedly, and walked up the stairs step by step, “If it wasn’t for the injury, let alone you, I can hold both of you.”

“You want two more?”

“I’m just making an analogy...not what you think.” Terry explained hastily.

next.

The door of the plane was closed, and a group of subordinates, Poll, watched the plane fly away reluctantly. Peter suddenly said with emotion, "Do you think the boss is going back to his mother's house to visit relatives, and then back to his husband's house after leaving..."

"What are you thinking about with your stupid head every day..." Troy patted the back of his head, "It's all gone, still watching?"

"Boss didn't have so many troubles when he was with us before. Since he recognized his ancestors and returned to his clan, there have been too many troubles..."

"That's not the case. All the money earned by the boss in the past went into the pockets of the Brown family, and he wiped the ass of the Brown family. In comparison, I prefer the Logan Family."

"Aren't you talking nonsense, comparing animals with humans?"

On the plane, Benjamin took Isabella into the room to rest.

Due to injuries and too much physical exertion, Isabella's mental state is not very good today, and she is a little tired.

And Terry was still discussing with the girl in his arms, "After returning to the United States, you and your brother will live with me?"

He also has his own private villas, some looking at the mountains, the sea, the bustling city center, and the quiet ones in the outer suburbs...

“No need.” Nora refused. Contents belong to

She was afraid that the news would make the Logan Family think she was too casual.

“If you feel uncomfortable with my name on the house, I can also write yours.” Terry played with her hand and said, “In short, I must live with you, different rooms, different floors, whatever, as long as I can take care of you.”

“In your current situation, the toxicity will flare up at any time. Your brother is busy with other things, so it’s impossible to take care of you all the time. It’s better to have someone at home with you...” Terry added, “ If I hand it over to the servants, I won’t worry about it.”

Nora was entangled by him for a long time, and finally agreed helplessly.

And the other side.

Cecilia took Eloise to the shopping mall to buy things. After spending tens of millions, her mood finally improved.

She held her mother’s hand and said coquettishly, “Mom, you are so kind! You bought me so many things again. You are obviously not your own child, but you are still so kind to me...”

“Stupid child.” Eloise patted her head lovingly, “Over the years, mother has already regarded you as her own. The relationship between you and Wayne has become more and more stable. Naturally, you will pay more attention to daily dating. Our family It’s not short of this money, you can dress yourself up beautifully, as long as you are happy, mother will be happy.”

Cecilia ‘s excuse was that she didn’t know what to wear when she was dating Wayne, as if the things in her closet weren’t pretty enough...

So, Eloise took her to the shopping mall to buy, buy, buy...

“Mom, I’m so happy to be your child.” Cecilia held Eloise’s hand and stood at the entrance of the mall, waiting for the driver to drive the car in front of them.

“Does his family know about your relationship with Wayne?” Eloise asked again.

“Well, he has already told his family members before. They heard that it is the Logan Family, and they are very satisfied with us. They also think they have promoted us and urged Wayne to come to visit us. He also wants to come. He has already told me several times. This time...”

When Cecilia said this, she lowered her head and pretended to be shy, “I never promised him before, but he treats me better and better...”

“Then you invite him to come over, and your father and I will have a good talk with him.” Eloise smiled lovingly, “You’re old too, it’s time to make a boyfriend, and when the relationship is more stable, you can consider getting engaged.”

When this smile fell into Cecilia’s eyes, it became a thorn, stabbing Cecilia’s heart severely.

In the past, her marriage partner was Benjamin, but now she has become a Wayne Family’s young master, does Eloise feel satisfied? Happy??

Could it be that in Eloise’s heart, only her own daughter Isabella is worthy of Benjamin, and as an adopted daughter, she only needs to be matched with a young master of the Wayne Family??

“If you get engaged, Logan Family will definitely make you beautiful.” Eloise smiled dotingly again.

Cecilia twitched the corners of her mouth, “Mom, the car is here.”

She doesn’t want to talk about the subject anymore.

The driver opened the car door for them, and seeing the smile on Eloise’s face, he couldn’t help asking, “Why are you so happy, madam?”

“Cecilia has a good date, do you think it’s worth being happy?”

The driver glanced at Cecilia again, “Congratulations Miss Logan.”

Ah.

Congratulations ghost!

What a good object!

Wayne and Benjamin are obviously far apart.

Cecilia was unhappy in her heart, but still smiled gracefully on the surface and said, “Thank you.”

At this time, Eloise received a call, “Terry? Are you on your way back? Huh? You are going to live in your own house? Are you busy with work? Okay, okay, so Isabella will go back to school directly?”

Okay, then I’ll call her later and ask when she will be back, I have something to ask her, so...”

Cecilia heard that Terry is back? Why didn’t he go home directly? Did he avoid her on purpose...

Did he not want to fulfill his promise and take her abroad to play?

Or do you want to take Isabella to visit his private villa?

Isabella must have said something bad to Terry again!

damn it!

When Eloise hung up the phone and asked, Cecilia couldn't help asking, "Mom, isn't Terry coming home? I picked out a belt for him just now, thinking that he would give it to him at home..."

"He's a bit busy, so he won't go home recently... Freda will come to the door every now and then. I have to ask Terry if he's interested. If not, I can't delay the good girl..."

Chapter 525 Exposure

Eloise said this, and said, " Cecilia, mom knows that Isabella will come back to this home, and you will feel a little bit of a gap in your heart, but Isabella is our own child and must come back. Mom hopes that you two sisters can live in harmony... Because you two hold a lot of weight in mother's heart."

Cecilia didn't understand her mother's sudden words.

" Isabella suffered a lot in the Brown family before, but now you, Terry, have the heart to take her abroad to play. Don't mind things like this. Those brothers used to take you out to play."

It turned out to be about this!

Cecilia breathed a sigh of relief, and said with a smile, "Mom, why would I care about it? I'm not a narrow-minded person. Sister Isabella is so good. Not only other brothers like her, but I also like her... Don't worry, we will definitely get along better The sisters are close, no matter how long she spends with her brothers, I won't mind, seeing how harmonious our family is, I'm too happy, how can I care!"

When Cecilia said this, in order to dispel Eloise 's doubts, she deliberately said, "If my sister doesn't like me, I'll just get married earlier."

After she finished speaking, she stuck out her tongue playfully at Eloise, and Eloise smiled, "You child..."

In the past few days, she has vaguely felt that Cecilia seemed unhappy because of Terry taking Isabella out to play, but now it seems that she is thinking too much.

Cecilia 's mentality is very good, but she treats the belly of a gentleman with the heart of a villain.

the other side.

landed at Moon Bay Villa, which is Terry 's private residence. The lawn alone covers dozens of acres, which looks very grand.

Hal received the location and came here early to wait. After seeing the plane stop, Terry walked down the stairs with Nora in his arms, and he hurried over there.

This was the first time Hal saw his sister sleeping so soundly and relaxed. They were chased and killed by the Ghost League before, and they had never had a peaceful night's sleep. They lived in fear.

"I'll do it." Hal held out his hand.

But Terry didn't hand Nora over to him, "She's hurt, so don't change hands, I'll just hug her."

"Hal thought about this guy before he was dying, so he endured it for a while, and noticed that Benjamin was holding Isabella off the plane, and seeing Isabella 's injuries, he couldn't help asking, "Are you okay?"

"Those are medicine men."

Isabella originally wanted to say that those people are not human at all, so injuries are inevitable.

But when Hal heard it, he suddenly worried, "I heard from he that those people have been injected with various strange drugs since they were young, and their physical functions have long been different from ordinary people... Are you seriously injured? Sorry to drag you down gone."

He thought it was a safe place...

I didn't expect the people from Ghost League to find that so quickly...

At that time, he wanted to go back to the United States to shoot some videos, but he didn't expect that group of people would take advantage of it.

"It's okay, both Nora and I have flesh wounds, and it will be fine after a few days." Isabella didn't take it seriously.

But Hal took this kindness seriously, and said solemnly, " Isabella, I owe you my life."

He solemnly promised, "Anyone who needs my help in the future, just ask, even if you risk your life, I will be obliged to do it."

"You saved me once." Isabella emphasized, "At least it's clear."

"But you rescued he twice, once when you carried her back to the castle, and once when you were sure to cure her poison." Contents belong to

So, Isabella thought it was funny, she didn't even start to explain, this guy thanked her in advance??

"If it's so clear, then we're not friends." Having said that, Isabella glanced at Terry again, "Let's go in first."

Terry was still injured, and he was still holding Nora in his arms...

in the living room.

Nora heard the movement, opened her eyes, saw Hal, and called out happily.

When Hai saw the wound on her body, his nose was sour, "It's because brother didn't protect you well..."

They talked about what happened after they separated.

At this time, Benjamin told Isabella the latest news, and Isabella said, "As we expected, a large number of people have already rushed here."

They cut off nearly half of the power of the Ghost League, and killers have come to take their lives.

"There is a data package, which contains evidence of the Ghost League's many evils over the years, and I want to expose it." Nora suggested.

"But these people will use their power to cover up all of this. Maybe as soon as we are exposed, these things will disappear without a trace in the next second." This is also what Hal is worried about.

"Me and Benjamin have made arrangements." Isabella said,

Terry 's people will help us too. Let's see who can last the longest."

“Then what identity do we expose?” Hal asked again.

“Of course it’s the identity of the victim, but we don’t need to come forward in person.” Isabella has already selected a candidate. This person, who was Nora’s former confidant, was locked in the laboratory of the T3 Institute for more than a year of torture.

When rescued, there was only one breath left.

There was also StoneStoneStone, the teacher at the orphanage. At that time, everyone thought she was dead, but they didn’t expect her to be rescued midway.

The two of them are the most suitable to speak out.

In addition, there are some people from abroad, Isabella has already arranged, as long as their experiences are real enough, they can arouse public outrage.

“Describe everything in their tone about the insanity of the T3 Research Institute and the Orphanage, then involve the Ghost League, and then expose their protective umbrella...”

Nora faintly feels that a war is about to start, “The reason why this organization is fearful is not only because it has too many branches, but also because it involves too many big people. As far as I know, after taking over the Ghost League, it can still be protected by ghost soldiers, it is said that ghost soldiers are an upgraded version of dead soldiers.”

The dead soldiers are enough to shock people, but there are ghost soldiers??

“Who is training these people?” Terry asked again.

“It is said to be the T3 Research Institute, but I have a vague feeling that it is not. It seems that behind the Ghost League, there is a larger and more powerful organization than the Ghost League that is silently manipulating all this.”

“What did you say...” Terry didn’t expect things to become so complicated.

“Also, the T3 Research Institute has secretly cultivated a lot of germs. I don’t know what is plotting behind the scenes. They seem to obey the command of the headquarters, but they don’t completely obey the orders of the headquarters.”

“In short, the soldiers come to cover up the water and the earth.” Isabella made a decisive decision, “As much as we can cut down, the United States abroad, we must win.”

“En.” Everyone nodded.

Soon, shocking posts appeared on the Internet...

At the same time, behind the host who was broadcasting the news, what appeared was not the background of the news, but the news of the victimization of the two victims.

Including all platforms, are starting to expose all this...

The actions of the orphanage alone have caused an uproar, and the servers of all major platforms have been paralyzed dozens of times.

Chapter 526 I Have a Girlfriend

In addition, the insane behavior of the T3 Research Institute over the years has made people angry, and the heat is too high. Some big shots can’t be suppressed at all, so they can only find trouble with Benjamin and the others in private.

But Benjamin was already prepared. Once they came, it was equivalent to throwing themselves into a trap, and they would only push themselves into the abyss.

In addition, the people of Isabella and Terry have been manipulating, fermenting, and expanding the impact of the incident. Soon, waves of enthusiasm brought these incidents to the top.

attracted worldwide attention.

How many big figures have been dragged into the water and hurriedly came out to clarify, how many entrepreneurs issued statements, fidgeting anxiously, and how many hands wanted to come out to clean up, none of them can stop the spread of these things.

Eloise sat on the sofa at home, watching the news, her three views were shattered, "Is there such a thing? How did this world become like this? Did these things exist before??"

"Oh my god, how did this happen??" Even the servants were horrified when they saw the news on their mobile phones.

The world they live in seems to be completely different from the exposed world...

At this time, a servant came running and said, "Madam, Miss is here."

"Freda?"

Eloise hadn't recovered from the huge shock. Seeing Freda entering the door with a bunch of gifts and a bright smile, she smiled and said, "Why did you bring so many things? I told you that you don't need to bring gifts when you come to Auntie's house." "

"This is a fruit grown by a distant relative of ours. It's sweet. I picked it specially. I also saw this coffee at an auction. It said it tasted particularly mellow, so I wanted to bring it to you. try..."

Freda introduced the gift in her hand, and Eloise hurriedly took it, "My good boy, you have a heart. Terry recently took Isabella abroad for fun, and he just came back and was busy with work... You sit down first, and I'll give him a call."

"No need, auntie, don't bother him... I have nothing to do, I just came to see you."

"It just so happens that I have something to look for him, I'll go upstairs to get something, I bought it for you today..."

Eloise thought, it's not good to always accept this child's gift, but in return, the child is determined not to accept it...

with Cecilia today, she remembered to buy something for Freda...

At this time, Freda thought that she had won the favor of her future mother-in-law, and she was very happy.

After Eloise called Terry, she hurriedly said, "Son, Freda has come to our house again. What do you mean by her? You can tell your mother clearly first. Mom thinks this child is very good, no matter in terms of family background or There is no choice in character education, appearance, and personality, and my mother is very satisfied with her, why don't you try to date her?"

At this time, Terry was feeding Nora with medicine, and kept his mobile phone outside. He didn't expect his mother to say such a thing suddenly, and before he could refute, Eloise continued.

"This child visits us every now and then and cares about us. Every time he comes, he brings a bunch of things. Last time I had a stiff neck, she even gave me a massage. It took me a while to press it. It's amazing.

"Cecilia goes to school, and there are no young people at home. She even came here to accompany me, doing beauty treatments and drinking afternoon coffee with me."

“And your dad, the last time she had a backache, she brought it with herbal porridge, and sent a massage chair with a physiotherapy machine, and invited a famous doctor to come to help dad take a look.”

a lady’s temper at all...” Contents belong to “Mother.”

At this moment, Terry felt the eyes of Nora and Hal, and hurriedly interrupted his mother, “Mom, I have said many times that she and I can only be brothers in this life, I have a girlfriend, and I will bring her to show you someday,”

As soon as Terry finished speaking, Nora hurriedly covered his mouth, signaling him not to continue.

Eloise said on the phone just now made Nora feel the gap between her and Freda...

Terry could feel the soft touch from the girl’s fingers, kiss her lightly on his lips, Nora was a little embarrassed, and subconsciously withdrew her hand...

This scene was seen by Hal, which only made him more angry, when is it, and he is still taking advantage of his sister?

“You have a girlfriend? When did it happen? Why have you never heard of it?” Eloise was shocked.

Hal got even angrier after dating for a year but never told his family...

Why??

Why not tell the family??

“Is the other party the same age as you? What does the family do? Does mother know her? Which family’s Lady is it?”

Before Eloise finished asking, Terry sensed a change in Nora’s mood, and he hurriedly interrupted, “Anyway, don’t give Freda any hope on your side, and on my side, find time to clarify with her later.

“Son...”

Eloise wanted to ask about her girlfriend again, but her son had already hung up the phone in a hurry.

Strange, when did my son get a girlfriend, why didn’t she hear any news...

Was it a recent relationship??

Downstairs, Freda was looking forward to it with great anticipation. Seeing Eloise going downstairs, the light in her eyes became brighter.

“Freda, these are the clothes my aunt bought for you. I don’t know if they fit well. I wanted to see you and try them on, but there is something urgent, and your uncle asked me to go out. I can’t stay to entertain you...” Eloise lied.

“It’s okay, it’s okay, auntie, thank you for buying me so many beautiful clothes, then I’ll go back and put them on, and make a video for you to watch? I won’t stay here to bother you and uncle...” Freda got up consciously and said goodbye. Don’t forget to thank Eloise for her kindness.

Eloise looked at the back of her leaving, and didn’t know what kind of girlfriend Terry had made. After Freda found out, how uncomfortable she felt...

Moon Bay.

Hal looked at Terry with a cold face, and Nora said in time, "Brother, you go to rest first, I'm sleepy too, I want to sleep."

"Let me ask you." Hal stared straight at Terry, as if he wanted to see through him, "For more than a year, have you kept in touch with that lady from Tel Family? She still visits your house often? You two have a good relationship? You never told your family about Nora 's existence?"

"Brother, I'll let you go to rest first." Nora 's eyes were warning, and she didn't want her brother to intervene in this matter.

But Hai said angrily, "This kid said on the surface that he loves you, cares about you, and looks for you everywhere, but he still has a spare tire in private."

The point is that the spare tire has already been approved by his family, and the spare tire has already been preconceived, and his family will definitely think that the spare tire is better than the bag.

"Brother, you misunderstood."

Before Terry had time to explain, Hal said angrily, "I just heard that Angela and Freda, your family, don't even know you have a girlfriend!"

After dating for a year, he never told his family members, so that the family members have been looking for him.

Seeing that something was wrong, the servants outside rushed to find Isabella.

Chapter 527 I have something to tell you

Isabella 's body has recovered a bit, and she heard that Hal and her Terry were about to fight, she came to Nora's room door, knocked on the door, saw Hal's sword was on the verge of breaking out, and said softly, "To my brother Be polite."

"Isabella, you don't know him..." Hal just wanted to tell Isabella that you don't know how much your brother is going too far, but when he met Isabella's warning eyes, he suddenly felt a little oppressed.

To be honest, in the past few years of knowing Isabella, he was a little afraid of Isabella 's eyes, which inexplicably made him feel a little apprehensive.

His momentum weakened, and he explained, "It's because he did something wrong." Contents belong to Isabella looked back at Terry, who stared at the pressure and admitted, "It's my fault."

"Speak up if you have something to say." Isabella didn't want to meddle in their affairs, she leaned against the door and said casually, "Don't disturb my sleep."

Hal 's arrogance disappeared for some reason, and Nora saw the clue from it, brother seemed to listen to Isabella 's words?

It can't be...impossible??

I have something to tell you

"You, keep an eye on them." Isabella finished talking to the servants at the door, and left gracefully.

The servants couldn't believe it, Isabella just came to say a few words, and the atmosphere of the scene changed...

Toned down.

“Brother, a year ago, I didn’t tell my family about my relationship with Nora. It was my fault.” Terry admitted voluntarily, “I wanted to wait for my relationship to stabilize, and then tell my family after I proposed to Nora. I didn’t want my family to disturb you in advance. The life of Nora ‘s family.

How enthusiastic his mother is, he knows very well that he may peek at Nora at any time, or even pay a visit.

“My heart for Nora is a lesson from heaven and earth.” Terry said earnestly, “I was really in pain and suffering when she left for more than a year... Now that she is back, I will definitely treat her even better. Take care of her, be with her, let her get well soon.”

Nora was moved, and looked at him softly.

“As for Freda, I’ve always regarded her as a buddy, never crossed the line, I can swear to God.” Terry explained, “My mother is nosy, my eldest brother and second brother have girlfriends, so her eyes, naturally placed on me.”

He was thinking, after he and Nora recovered from their injuries, he would bring Nora home...

The timing is wrong.

I have something to tell you

“But you also heard it just now. Your mother cares about being in the right family. he doesn’t have a prominent. family background, nor is she a Lady. Her personality is not cheerful enough, and she won’t please anyone in her bones. She is still the successor of the organization...”

Either way, it didn’t look like Eloise would like it.

“My mother cares more about her son’s happiness. As long as this person is her son’s favorite, she will definitely agree.”

On this point, Terry is still sure.

“What’s more, I don’t think there’s anything bad about Nora ‘s personality. At least I like it very much. She doesn’t have to please anyone when she’s with me. Is it Lady? Does she have a prominent family background? It doesn’t matter to me at all. unimportant...”

What matters is that Nora is there for him.

the other side.

Freda had just walked to the garden with the clothes Eloise gave her, and before she really left the Logan Family villa, she saw Cecilia and Scarlet whispering in the garden.

She knew that Scarlet had served Cecilia for eighteen years, and the relationship between the two had long been that of a mother and daughter.

She took the initiative to smile,” Sister Cecilia.”

“Freda ?” Cecilia paused the topic, looking at Freda with a sweet smile in his eyes, “Are you here to find Terry? Terry won’t be coming home soon...”

“I know, your mother said he was busy with work...”

“He will be living in his own house recently, I guess it should be Moon Bay, shall we visit him together someday?” Cecilia offered to show his kindness.

With her younger sister bringing Freda to the door, Freda’s motives would not be so obvious.

Feeling her enthusiasm, Freda smiled, “Okay, thank you.”

“Freda is too kind.”

The two exchanged pleasantries for a while, and Freda just came home, and as soon as she entered the room, she couldn’t wait to try on the clothes, and she didn’t forget to put on all kinds of beautiful and naughty faces in front of the mirror, and took videos for Eloise to watch.

the Nine skirts, she took nine videos, and still did not forget to say, “Thank you, Auntie, you have such a good eye, skirts you choose are either beautiful and generous, or naughty and cute, each one is my favorite style, thank you so much so much love...”

After posting, she thought she looked good in the video, and forwarded it to Terry.

Terry heard the phone ring nine times, and took it out to see that it was a video sent by Freda.

He was a little puzzled, and when he clicked on one of them,

I have something to tell you

he saw Freda wearing a cute tutu skirt, making various cute expressions in front of the mirror...

Since the sound of the video was played externally, everyone heard Freda saying, “Oh my god, this dress is so cute. It looks so good. It looks so energetic. I like it very much. Thank you. This dress must be very expensive...”

." Terry didn't understand why Freda made such a video inexplicably, and said some nonsense in the video. Feeling Hal 's gaze, Terry hurriedly sent a few question marks to the other party.

Soon, Freda replied, " Terry, don't I look good in these clothes?"

The voice was sweet, with a smile on it, which made Hal even more furious...

Nora on the side didn't have much expression...

Terry was in a hurry, so he couldn't help sending a voice to ask, "Tell me what's going on with these clothes first, if you don't know, you might think I bought them...Why did you send these to me?"

Freda laughed again, "Auntie bought me so many beautiful clothes. I am happy, so I sent them to you. Auntie is so caring, she treats me like her own daughter..."

When Hal heard this, his anger could hardly be suppressed.

"My mother buys you clothes?? Then you send it to my mother, why do you send it to me..." Terry was a little depressed.

I have something to tell you Freda didn't know what made him unhappy, so she hurriedly made a voice call.

Terry didn't want to answer the phone at first, but after thinking about it, he felt that there were some things that he needed to explain clearly to her, so he pressed the answer button again and turned on the speakerphone.

Terry~~" Freda's sweet voice came from the other end, "I just shared my aunt's heart with you, why are you upset? Did it disturb your work? Or are these clothes not your favorite? "

The other party seemed to be a very considerate, gentle person who cared about Terry's feelings.

Nora 's eyes deepened a bit. Thinking about the year of dating Terry, she never seemed to speak to him in such a gentle tone. Every time he took the initiative to care...

"Freda, I have something to tell you." Terry said this, glanced at Hal and Nora, and said seriously, "We can only be brothers, sorry."

Freda's smile froze.

Chapter 528 Sorry

"You know, I only have Nora in my heart..."

Before Terry finished speaking, Freda said, " Terry, did I make you unhappy by posting so many videos just now? Or did I say something wrong? I didn't mean anything malicious. Auntie said you've been busy recently, so, If you have anything to say, let's talk face to face tomorrow, and I'll message my aunt first, so I won't bother you."

"Freda." Terry wanted to say something to her, but Freda hung up the phone.

There were some subtle changes in the atmosphere at the scene.

Terry thought for a while, and then sent her a WhatsApp message, "I found Nora, next, I want to spend time with her."

When Freda saw this WhatsApp message, she was hit hard.

She can't believe it, Nora is back!!

Could it be that Nora was living in Terry 's villa at this moment, so Terry was in a hurry to get rid of her?!

Thinking of this, Freda only felt that the whole world was darkened, and he couldn't see his fingers.

Her heart hurt badly, thinking of Terry 's tone just now, she was restless.

At this time, Eloise replied to the message," Freda, as long as you like it, Auntie is worried that the style she picked is too old-fashioned and doesn't suit your liking. Freda looks like a beautiful princess in it, it looks so good."

Freda 's tears flowed down, and she endured it for a while before sending a WhatsApp to Eloise, "Auntie, thank you so much, you love me like a mother, what can I do..."

After sending the message, she hid in the quilt and cried.

the other side.

Seeing that Freda didn't reply to the message for a long time, Terry looked up and said to Hal, "I've made it clear to her, she probably won't come to our house in the future..."

After finishing speaking, he knelt down on one knee and said to the girl on the bed, "The relationship between me and her is just the purest friendship. I will keep a distance from her in the future, so that the friendship will become weaker and weaker..."

He doesn't need friends.

In this life, he only needs one Nora.

Nora 's eyes warmed up, "It doesn't matter if you have more friends of the opposite sex, I believe in your feelings for me."

After all, in order to save her adoptive parents, he was injured all over like this.

His feelings for her are absolutely true.

“It doesn’t matter! When a man has a partner, he naturally has to keep a distance from other members of the opposite sex.” Hal’s expression was a little serious, “You must learn to take care of your partner’s emotions.”

“Brother, don’t worry, I will.” Instead of getting angry, Terry agreed seriously.

Nora’s eyes fell on Terry again, “I haven’t told my parents about my return, I want to call them tomorrow, visit them by the way, and also want to formally introduce you and Brother Hal to them I know, how do you feel?”

She was asking what Terry meant.

When Terry heard it, his eyes overflowed with surprise, “Of course.”

Last time, Nora’s adoptive mother also said that her old man was waiting to drink his and Nora’s wedding wine...

Now that Nora officially took him back, it was equivalent to recognizing his identity...

him and Nora is almost here!

A huge surprise hit him, making him overjoyed.

“Brother, I want to be honest with them about the Ghost League.” Nora turned to look at Hal again.

After all, her adoptive parents have been dragged down by her for a long time, and they have the right to know.

Hal nodded, "You decide."

"Then let's go tomorrow afternoon." Nora said.

"Okay." Terry nodded, "Isabella will go to the laboratory tomorrow to study the toxins in your blood, and I believe the results will be available soon."

Everything is going in the right direction...

Unexpectedly.

The next morning, Freda came. She held the breakfast she made by herself and stood at the door of the villa. She didn't let the servants wake up Terry. She just stood there, looking a little lonely.

The servant couldn't bear it, and after she stood there for half an hour, she still mustered up the courage to knock on Terry's door.

"third young master, Miss has been waiting outside for half an hour, do you want to invite her in?"

"Why is she here?"

Terry waking up came from the room. He didn't tell Freda where he was at all, nor did he tell anyone which villa he lived in. Could it be that she came here one after another?

Thinking of this, Terry could only say, "You let her come to the garden, I'll go down soon."

After quickly washing up, he walked past Nora's room with a deliberately light footstep.

But the long-term life of fear has made Nora's nerves very sensitive. As long as Terry is not by her side, she will easily wake up.

Hearing Terry's quiet footsteps, she was a little puzzled. It was still dark outside, what was Terry going to do early in the morning?

At this time, she also heard a servant report to Terry, "Miss Scott didn't wake up last night, she should be resting well..."

"That's good." Terry went downstairs again.

Nora got out of bed and came to the window, just in time to see a beautiful figure in the garden.

Even though she hadn't seen her for a long time, she still recognized the person at a glance, that person was Tel Family Lady, Freda.

Seeing Terry coming down in pajamas, Freda said happily, Terry! Why don't you sleep for a while, I told the servants not to wake you up, why are they calling you? You, what's wrong with your injury?"

"I accidentally hurt it." Terry didn't explain too much, but asked, "How did you find this place?"

It's winter, the morning is cold, and Freda is only wearing a thin long dress.

"I got up at four o'clock and made breakfast for you. Auntie said that you are busy with work recently. I originally thought about putting down breakfast and leaving, but thinking about what you said last night, I think it is necessary to wait for you to wake up, talk to you personally."

Terry's eyes deepened, what are you talking about?

What else is there to talk about between them??

“Before we talk, I want to ask you, does Nora live there?” Freda looked into the villa.

It should be inside, otherwise the servants wouldn't let her wait in the garden in the cold weather.

Obviously didn't want her to run into Nora.

“Yeah.” Terry nodded and admitted without hiding anything. Contents belong to Freda smiled again, “Then you were so nervous last night, and you were anxious to break up with me, was it because of her?”

“Um.”

“Okay, I see.” Freda smiled brighter, “Then why did she come back suddenly?”

“I went looking for her and found her.”

In order to prevent her from imagining Nora as the kind of scheming person, Terry deliberately explained, “She left me because she had something to hide, and now this problem will be resolved soon.

Freda understood, “So, you're back together again...”

Fortunately, she thought she had a chance...

He also deliberately returned to the United States to develop, to be the heir of the family group, to make himself more valuable...

Freda, I have always regarded you as a brother, and I have never had a relationship between a man and a woman. I am really sorry.”

Although Terry knew it was cruel for him to say this, short-term pain is better than long-term pain. It is good for everyone to make it clear.

Chapter 529

“If the brotherhood between us makes you think that there is a possibility of development, it is my fault, and I sincerely apologize to you.”

“It doesn’t matter.” Freda smiled generously, “I know you have Nora in your heart, and I know that you will never fall in love with others in this life. It’s because I don’t give up. I just try to see if I can impress you with a fluke mentality.”

Freda smiled more generously when she said this, “I do like you, and I do approach you in the name of ‘brother’. Now that you two are back together, I also sincerely wish you happiness and happiness.”

She had a sore nose, but the smile on her face was still as bright as a flower, “Although I can’t be with you, and I can’t let you go soon, but thinking of her coming back, you will have more smiles on your face than before. One point, and I’m satisfied.”

Terry felt a little sorry when he heard this.

Terry, as long as you’re happy, it doesn’t matter if you’re the one with me or not, although it’s true that you’re a little bit sad...” Freda gestured “a little bit” with her fingers, and tears suddenly appeared in her eyes.

Terry wanted to comfort her, but she interrupted her with a smile, “I came here today to tell you in person that you are excellent and really likable. This is also your advantage. You must keep it: This breakfast, I did it specially for you, so let’s put an end to my love.”

When she said this, she opened the breakfast bag, took out the breakfast inside, and took out the tableware, "Will you have a bite?"

Terry didn't want to eat it, but seeing that she was about to cry, he took out his fork and prepared to take a bite.

"etc."

At this time, Freda 's eyes accidentally noticed a thin figure of a girl in front of the window on the second floor.

Is that Nora ??

Knowing that Nora has been watching the movement here, Freda smiled again, "You don't need to eat it, just smell it."

If you eat it, it may cause Nora to misunderstand and cause unnecessary trouble.

Terry was a little confused, but he still leaned closer to the lunch box and smelled it.

"Is it fragrant?" Freda asked with a smile.

"Well, it's delicious." Terry found that these breakfasts were his favorites, and Freda probably learned them for him in private.

"To get your praise, these breakfasts are considered to have fulfilled their mission."

Freda put away the things again and planned to take them away, leaving only a gift bag, "The clothes and skirts in here were all given to me by my aunt last night. As I am, it is not suitable for door-to-door. Please transfer me to Her, thank her for her kindness."

Terry 's apology deepened, and he didn't reach out to take it. "Since my mother gave it to you, you can accept it. You usually buy things for our family."

"I'm honoring my uncles and aunts, and it's not for bartering! My uncles and aunts are so kind to me. I can buy some small things for them. I can't come to the door empty-handed every time? You also tell the uncles and aunts that you don't have to accept me just because of it." Those gifts feel uneasy, and I give them the hope that they will be useful, if it makes them uneasy, then I will be the culprit." Contents belong to

Freda smiled again when she said this, "And here, this little book records some of my uncle's and aunt's usual preferences, as well as some shopping places they like to go to, etc. I have set up VIP for them, which is very practical., I also recorded some card passwords and questions in it. Last time my uncle had a sore shoulder and neck, I asked someone to massage him. He said that the massage technique of that person was very comfortable, and the contact information of that person was also included."

It was obviously a book that couldn't be smaller, but when Terry took it, it seemed like a heavy weight.

"There are some other little things, all of which are included." Freda looked into Terry 's eyes and smiled, "You have a girlfriend now, and I won't show up if it's not a group event in the future, so as not to be misunderstood. Coming down to the group, there are many things that I need to do personally, while you take care of yourself, don't forget to take care of your girlfriend."

When she said this, she saw the injury on Terry's body, needless to say, it must have been for Nora, right??

She felt that her tears were about to be unbearable, and she wanted to hug him again before leaving, but the figure in front of the window on the second floor still made her hold back the last willfulness and impulse.

"Then I'm leaving~" Freda showed the brightest smile and waved to Terry, "Be sure to be happy."

It makes sense for her to let go.

She turned around, tears finally couldn't help shedding, in order not to let the people behind her see her shrugging shoulders, the corner of her mouth was still smiling, trying to calm down.

"Freda." Terry wanted to say sorry to her, but he knew in his heart that what she needed was not an apology.

Freda didn't stop, didn't look back, but raised her hand, as if saying goodbye to the people behind her, and left the Moon Bay villa gracefully.

After getting into the car, she still kept smiling, "Drive."

The driver saw her laughing and crying, completely confused.

She didn't cry until the car drove away, as if she had lost the most important and precious beam of light in her life.

And Terry looked at the direction she left, and after a while, he looked down at the small notebook in his hand.

The records in it are all small things, but it is these small things that made him get to know his parents again.

It turned out that his father worked so hard when he was young, and now he suffers from sore shoulders and necks. Sometimes the pain is so painful that he can't sleep at night, and he needs to use a brand of medicine to relieve it.

This brand is only for the royal family. According to the book, Freda has already used her personal connections to order the potion for the next ten years.

It turned out that his mother likes to wear knee skirts, because it will look dignified and decent. She doesn't like exaggerated earrings, but only likes simple and generous styles.

It turned out that his father was afraid of heights, and anyone above the 20th floor would have weak legs. I remembered that his father took them skydiving many years ago in order to bond with his son...

It turned out that his mother didn't like a certain aunt, but because of the little kindness back then, she had to be polite, so Freda also summed up three points. As long as you ask these three questions, the aunt will definitely retreat...

From the notebook, I can feel Freda's care and attention. She memorized a lot of things, including what kind of flowers her parents don't like, what her eating habits are, what makes her feel bad, etc...

Nora was standing in front of the window on the second floor, watching Terry look down at the small notebook, her eyes darkened a bit.

I don't know how long it took, Terry came into the room and woke Nora up, the small notebook was no longer in his hand.

Nora didn't ask, as if nothing happened, after breakfast, they set off for the Scottbin villa together.

The Riverside Villa is one of the villas under Benjamin's name. It is located by the river and has been vacant, so her adoptive parents lived in it first.

Chapter 530 I want to hug too

Knowing that their daughter has safely returned to the United States, Kay and Eliza are waiting in front of the door early in the morning to visit them today.

Finally, they saw a car approaching from a distance.

Terry led Nora 's men out of the car, followed by Hal, Kay and Eliza burst into tears.

" Nora!!!" Eliza was the first to rush to hug the girl, wishing she could hug her even tighter. Contents belong to

Their daughter is finally back!

Very good!

Terry was worried that the wound on Nora 's body would open, but before leaving, he promised Nora not to tell her about her injury.

At this time, Kay hugged the mother and daughter, her voice choked up, "It's good to be safe, it's good to be fine..."

Terry was worried that Nora 's wound would open, so he said, "Uncle and aunt, I want to hug too."

Everyone:???

Although Kay was stunned for a moment, seeing Terry 's injuries, he still reached out and hugged him.

Eliza also stepped forward and gave him a gentle hug," Terry, did you see a doctor for your injuries?"

"Yes, the doctor said I was injured on the flesh, it's fine..."

"Nonsense, I saw such a long knife cut on you with my own eyes, don't try to lie to me." Eliza was not deceived by him, and worried, "Did you hurt any bones? Oh, by the way, where is Isabella? Is she okay?"

"She's back."

“Let’s go in and sit down first... have something to say inside.” Eliza said again, “This house was arranged by Isabella, it’s too big, and she left two people to take care of our daily life, we feel so sorry...”

“Yeah, we two old people don’t need to live in such a nice house, and there are people to take care of them, but the little girl said, it’s safe here...”

After entering, Nora introduced Hal’s identity.

Neither Kay nor Eliza expected that the big boy next to him turned out to be Nora’s own brother. After a closer look, the two did have some similarities.

“When I was young, my parents took us to the amusement park. There were so many people that day that we got separated. My sister must have been sent to an orphanage. I was caught in a car and knocked unconscious. When I woke up, I found that I was sold to a mountain village, and then I escaped and looked for my sister everywhere.”

At that time, he and his sister were too young, and they didn’t know their home address or their parents’ names. They only vaguely remembered that the interior of their home was beautiful. At Christmas, their parents would put up a Christmas tree in the garden...

But this information is useless to find the biological family...

However, he remembered that his sister still had a small crescent birthmark on her left hand.

A few years ago, he finally found his sister, but her sister became the successor of the organization.

In order to let the younger sister leave the organization, the two brothers and sisters made a lot of preparations, but they still couldn’t beat the strength of the organization.

Terry is also hearing about their past for the first time. It seems that Nora 's biological parents are still alive...

If you can find it...

Terry took another look at the girl next to him.

"We did the identification, and Nora and I are indeed brother and sister." Hal said seriously.

"You brothers and sisters can recognize each other, I am very happy... In this life, if you can find your biological parents, then you will have two sets of parents who love you, if not, we will treat you as your own children..."

Unexpectedly, Eliza was not worried that Hal would take her daughter away, but was happy for having another "son".

"This way our family will be more lively." Kay smiled kindly.

It was the first time for Hal to feel the warmth and beauty of the family.

Nora away because of his appearance, but accepted his existence with the kindest attitude.

"Thank you for taking care of Nora all these years." Hal stood up and thanked him with a bow.

"Thank you, we've always treated Nora as our own..." Eliza hurriedly asked him to sit down.

They talked for a while longer before talking about what Terry had been doing for Nora during this time.

Nora heard that Terry frequently went to her house to look for her, chased after her in Paris, left the chance of life to her adoptive parents, and faced so many organized people by herself...

While she was moved, she became more convinced of this man in her heart.

“We agreed on the matter of you being together, and we are waiting for your wedding wine.” Eliza took Terry and Nora’s hand and said softly, “You will be happy.”

Both of them love each other deeply, and both regard each other more than their lives.

Hal at the side :...

The adoptive parents agreed, so it’s hard for him to say anything as an older brother.

But between Terry and Freda, he will definitely pay attention

I want to hug too and never let his sister feel wronged.

“As for Terry’s parents, it depends on when Terry makes it clear, and then bring Nora to visit.” Eliza was not in a hurry about this matter, but said, “If you need our parents to visit, just tell us, gift Whatever, we’ll definitely have everything ready.”

“Auntie was joking, Nora is the best gift. If my parents see such a beautiful and sensible daughter-in-law as Nora, they will definitely like her very much.”

Eliza was amused by him again.

Kay asked about the gang who broke into their house on Fish Pond Road and tied them up...

Nora also told her adoptive parents about her experience in the orphanage when she was a child, about becoming a successor, and about leaving the organization but being forced to take poison.

The three views of the adoptive parents were shattered, and they couldn't say a word for a long time...

"But don't worry, Terry's sister has already taken the poison out of me." Nora lied about this matter.

But Eliza was worried, and asked with concern while holding Nora's hand, "Then do you feel any discomfort now? Are there any sequelae?"

"No, everything is fine." The wound on Nora's hand was pinched by her mother, but she never changed her face, and there was a touch of tenderness in her eyes.

Terry thought, Nora can bear this kind of pain, and she can still act as if nothing happened, how painful it is for the poison in her body to attack, so that she can burst into tears.

"We have to find a way to bring those bad guys to justice!" As soon as Kay heard that her daughter had suffered so much, she wanted to tear those people to pieces.

"Isabella has already thought of a solution, and we are also doing it, and it has worked these days." Nora talked about the recent news, and apologized, "Last time those people tied you up and deliberately sent WhatsApp to I see, but I couldn't come forward to save you... I'm really sorry."

"At that time, she had a toxic attack, and she couldn't save herself. I was also seriously injured. I'm really sorry for making you suffer." Hal also felt extremely guilty.

At that time, even if he had a little ability, he would not have watched the two old people suffer.
