Chapter 531 The second young master has a younger sister named Isabella

Instead of blaming them, Kay and Eliza were thankful they weren't there.

"If you come, all of us will die... Fortunately, you didn't show up."

"That's right, those people are just using us as bait, and you will be hooked as soon as you show up! Parents don't need you to save them, as long as you are safe and healthy, even if we want to die, we are willing."

"Dad, Mom, how can you say that? If we want to exchange your lives for ours, we will never live."

As soon as Nora finished speaking, Kay's face turned serious, and he said very solemnly, "My parents have tried their best to protect you, and they just hope that you can live well... Otherwise, how can you be worthy of your parents' sacrifice?"

"Okay, don't talk about life and death, we just met..." Eliza went to the kitchen to get some food to serve.

On the other side, Sofia Lake Villa.

This is the villa closest to the Medical University. In order to let Isabella live here more, Benjamin spent a lot of money to build a laboratory for her.

To second young master fas

At this time, Isabella was decomposing toxins in the blood in the laboratory, and in the blink of an eye, two hours had passed.

Benjamin knocked on the door and reminded softly, "It's time to rest."

Isabella saw that the system analysis would not produce results in a short time, so she stopped the process and opened the door of the laboratory.

“Taste it, just cut it.” Benjamin handed over the plate in his hand, and poked a piece of fruit with a fruit stick to feed her, “Is it sweet?”

“Well, it’s okay.” Isabella took the plate and poked and ate.

Benjamin pinched her shoulders and neck again. She had a back injury, so Benjamin’s movements were very light and careful.

“The United Heart Charity Association has been investigated.” Benjamin said softly.

One Heart and One Force Charity Association is a well-known non-governmental charity organization. Over the past 16 years, it has assisted the government in the development of public welfare and charity.

Now it has been revealed that they do good deeds in the name of charity on the surface, but they actually use these people to brainwash, train, and strengthen their own organizations, and use these people as experiments.

And these things, the relevant umbrellas know about it...caused an uproar on the Internet.

“This is just the tip of the iceberg of the Ghost League’s evil deeds. We will take advantage of the victory to pursue it.” Isabella said casually again, “As expected, those people can’t sit still. Next, Mason Group, the companies under my name, and Logan Ming Group, there should be all kinds of bad news breaking out in an attempt to divert the public’s attention, we must be prepared.”

“The net has been cast, just wait for them to come.” Benjamin continued to squeeze her shoulders and neck, “It’s their way of doing things, and it is very likely that they will pick the weak.”

“I will send more people to the villa to protect the safety of Nora ‘s adoptive parents, and I will also send more people to guard the house.”

“My people will also guard to ensure everyone’s safety.”

the other side.

With the wave of popularity on the Internet, many charities have been filed for investigation, some are public welfare organizations funded by local sages, and some are corporate charities.

They carry out love projects on the surface, but they are actually doing bad things in the name of charity.

At the same time, foreign charities have also exploded. As the popularity has increased, some people have dug out that these institutions are controlled by the same big shots. They not only cheat in charity, but also cheat in other things.

The second young master has a younger sister named.

Condition.

Many of those involved have been suspended for investigation.

This tornado blew across several countries at once, causing an uproar.

Leah’s family.

“Dad, what do you need from me?”

At this time, Deb came to his study, looked at the elegant and calm man on the chair, and couldn't help asking.

“Leah.”

The man on the chair had a powerful aura, and a touch of amiability in his aura. He said with a pleasant face, “The mission is completed?”

Deb was a little surprised. Normally, her father wouldn't bother with her work, but at this moment, she nodded, “You called me when I got home. What's the matter?”

Does the second young master have a younger sister named Isabella ?” Leah's father asked straight to the point.

Hearing her father's question, Deb was even more surprised. She didn't expect her father to notice Sister Isabella in a high position. She nodded and asked a little puzzled, “Yes, what's wrong?”

Leah's father 's eyes showed admiration, “Sister Hu Wugou, I can tell that the second young master is usually very motivated, and he is free in the back, take him to our house.”

Deb's eyes were full of surprise and disbelief, “Dad, do you agree with us dating?”

In the past, her father would not ask too much about her work and love, but now he took the initiative to offer an olive branch and invited the second young master to visit her.

What did Sister Isabella do??

It actually made her father pay attention, and incidentally noticed her daughter's love affair...

"At your age, it's time to fall in love." As soon as Leah's father said this, the secretary received a message and whispered something in Leah's father's ear. Leah's father nodded and waved his hand to let Deb go out.

Deb didn't know how he got out of the study, and how he got into the living room. Seeing the housekeeper Mary passing by, she hurriedly grabbed Mary and asked in a low voice, "Mary, is there anything important at home recently?"

Mary has always served by Luo Mu's side, and is also the housekeeper of the family, so she naturally knows a thing or two.

Seeing Miss Deb showing such a playful and lovely side, Mary smiled gracefully and said affectionately, "If you want to talk about the recent big event in the family, it is that the master will retire in one month."

The second young master has a younger sister Hamad

What does this have to do with the second young master?" Deb puzzled.

Mary always maintained an elegant smile, and her temperament and conversation were different from ordinary people. She reminded again, "The second young master is Isabella's brother."

"What does it matter??" Deb still didn't understand.

Mary whispered in her ear again, "The recent news and major events are all manipulated by Mason Family master Benjamin and Logan Family lady Isabella."

Many related personnel have been investigated...

Those who can manipulate the direction of such a large amount of public opinion outside the United States at the same time, those who can get so many people arrested, those who can make things develop to this point without causing trouble, and those who can make the situation develop in a better direction, let alone the forces behind Benjamin, even Isabella 's influence has been vaguely surfaced, which is impressive.

"The recent news is all related to Isabella?" Deb was stunned. She did notice the news on the Internet recently, but she didn't know that it was all related to Isabella, and she didn't know that Isabella and Benjamin caused such a big controversy behind the scenes. wind and rain..

Chapter 532 The Best Candidate

Mary reminded her again, "Master is about to retire, and his connections after retirement will definitely not be as good as they are now. Some hostile forces just happened to be uprooted by Isabella... Now 30 to 40% of the forces are involved in the whirlpool, and they cannot protect themselves. Thirty to forty percent of the forces can't take care of themselves, and the remaining 10 to 20 percent are nothing to be afraid of... After the master retires, he can take care of himself for the rest of his life."

It turned out to be like this.

Sister Isabella 's actions are tantamount to indirectly helping her father clear the obstacles, and leaving her father Angela in vain, alone.

"So, Isabella is in danger?" Deb 's first reaction was Isabella 's safety.

After all, such a big incident involves so many people, how can Isabella guarantee that she will not be implicated??

“No, I have to ask my parents to help secretly. I must not let Isabella have anything to do.”

The second young master is just this one’s own sister, who is more important than the baby...

What’s more, she likes Isabella very much...

opinions.’

Mary didn’t say whether they would help or not, but Deb heard what she meant.

“Miss has such a sister-in-law, and the future will surely flourish.” Mary always maintained a kind smile. She has always been a person of great wisdom, and she would say such words, which shows that her parents are very satisfied with Isabella. The second young master has a good impression.

Deb felt relieved and relaxed a little.

the other side.

In a dark room, a secretary knocked on the door and came in. He had a headache and reported to the big shots inside, “Sir, those old things have obviously washed their hands and retired, but now they come out to get involved, I don’t know What is the origin of that little girl, and why are there so many people behind her back to help...”

She was obviously a seventeen or eighteen-year-old girl.

I heard from people in LA that she is not only skilled, but also has connections with the Nat Gang and the C Gang.

In the United States, not only a few respected seniors used all their connections to protect her, but even several big families were in cahoots with her.

These include Logan Family, Mason Family, Thirza's family and many more...

Not to mention how ruthless Lisa, who is now in charge of the Logan Family, is, and Benjamin of the Mason Family is not a fuel-efficient lamp, which is simply frightening.

There is also Thirza from Thirza's family. It is said that he wanted to recognize this little girl as a goddaughter before, but the little girl was unwilling. Later, he recognized this little girl as a niece and loved her to the extreme...

"Now that several families are mobilizing together, it is very difficult for us to move her..." The secretary wondered, "Especially in the United States..."

There are too many forces in the United States protecting this little girl.

In foreign countries, it is relatively easy to start.

"You mean, now we can only let a seventeen- year-old girl stir up trouble and ruin everyone's future?"

The man's voice was calm before the storm, but the secretary could hear the suffocation of death.

Beads of sweat appeared on his forehead, and his voice became trembling, "I will definitely find a way to get the people below to trip up this little girl more, and I will definitely make her pay the price!"

"Just...pay a little price?" The man seemed dissatisfied with this punishment.

The secretary was terrified again, "I will definitely let her die without a whole body!!"

"Didn't those people love and protect her?" The man came up

with an idea, "Break down one by one, let me see who will dare to help her later."

The things that affect his official career are small, dare to touch his interests...

"Is it because you are young and not deeply involved in the world... thinking that the world is all white, and there is no room for sand in your eyes. When you see the blackness at the tip of the iceberg, you rush to eradicate it, thinking that after eradicating it, the world will be clean..."

The man laughed repeatedly and shook his head, as if mocking the girl's ignorance and innocence.

"White is only a small part of this world. The real black is still under the iceberg. I mistakenly think that digging up the iceberg can change the world... but I don't know that I am digging my own grave."

"It makes sense!" the secretary hurriedly admitted, "Are you young enough to think that someone is protecting you and dare to be lawless, but you don't know how many people will be implicated in hell... Let reality teach them a lesson and look at this world, what is it? Who is in charge!!"

in the lab.

Isabella separated ninety-nine and eighty-one kinds of toxins in Nora's blood. The toxicity was so strong that the mouse died violently as soon as it licked it. There was no time to take the antidote...

Isabella has just researched several antidote combinations, and she doesn't know if they will help Nora 's poison. She can only analyze them systematically, and then fuse these antidote into the toxin and let the mice eat it.

After working for three days in a row, the results were finally achieved. After eating the poison containing pills, the mice did not die suddenly, nor did they suffer from pain or convulsions. Instead, they were alive and kicking, as if nothing happened....

Finally see hope.

Isabella 's eyes warmed up. If the mouse can be healthy and full of vitality, it means that the detoxification pill can detoxify Nora 's body...

Although she felt that things would not be so easy, at least her attempt was in the right direction, and the hard work of the past few days had paid off, which was enough to make her gratified.

The phone vibrated at this moment, Isabella saw that the caller was Terry, and answered it quickly.

Terry, what do you want me to do?"

"Isabella, your Nora 's toxicity has flared up again, it's very painful, like that day in the castle, you gave me those two pills, can I give them to her?"

Isabella said before that unless it is absolutely necessary, don't give her those two pills lightly.

Because Nora 's body is very weak, she may not be able to withstand the violent effects of the medicine.

"Give her half a pill, take a look and see if there's anything wrong, then call me." Isabella confessed.

"good."

Terry was very snappy to do.

After a while, Isabella 's cell phone vibrated again. She thought it was Terry calling, but she picked it up and saw that it was Mr. Brown.

“My sweetheart, you’ve made a lot of noise in the city recently, grandpa seems to be watching a big show, one after another, it’s so exciting.” Principal Brown’s happy voice came from the phone.

Isabella couldn’t help but curl her lips, “Grandpa called to see me laughing?”

“Where is it, grandpa is happy, happy that my little boy is young and promising, daring to do something, this courage, this pattern... It shows that grandpa did not train the wrong person at the beginning, you are the best candidate to inherit the mantle of grandpa, there is no one.”

He also talked about inheriting the mantle.

Isabella hastily refused, “I’m very busy and don’t have time.”

“There is no more suitable candidate than you in this world. Oh, by the way, when will you come to school? Those experiments haven’t been finished yet... Also, there will be competitions in the next few famous schools. Our medical university is already far behind. You It is No. 1 with a perfect score, if you can participate in the competition, just give me a trophy, and there will be more outstanding students applying to the Medical University in the future.”

Chapter 533

“You just want to compare Mr. Mick.” Isabella raised the corners of her lips and said sharply.

Mr. Mick is the principal of Bomsville University. The two old men usually fight each other when they have nothing to do. Now that Isabella has applied for Mr. Brown ‘s medical university but not Mr. Mick

's Bomsville University, Mr. Brown must seize the opportunity to get her to Mr. Show off in front of Mick?

"Let's leave this opportunity to other students." Isabella is not interested in participating in the school's competition, "I have a very important experiment to do recently."

Before she finished speaking, Mr. Brown hurriedly asked, "What experiment?? Do it with grandpa!! Grandpa usually likes to challenge difficult experiments..."

"I'm afraid you'll have a heart attack."

Mr. Brown, who has been strong all his life, refused to accept, "I want to see what kind of experiment can stop me!"

It's not that he is blowing, with him and Isabella, he firmly believes that there is no experiment in this world that they can't handle.

"Okay, then I'll have someone send the blood samples to you later." Isabella thought, it would be better if more people help, the sooner the toxins in Nora 's body can be detoxified, the better, and it can't be delayed any longer...

"For the school competition, you should at least come over and lead a team. With you leading the team with a perfect score of No. 1, the morale of the people below will be higher than Michael's. That's the deal."

In order not to let Isabella refuse, the little old man quickly cut off the call and turned off the phone.

Isabella :...

two days later.

The little old man was so angry that he blew his beard and stared at him in the laboratory, "I can't handle you anymore!"

Isabella pushed the door open and came in. Seeing the little old man with panda eyes and still struggling with data research, she couldn't help but curl her lips, "I've said it all, I'm afraid you will have a heart attack."

Isabella, how much money do you make on this order?"

It must be a lot.

The little girl worked so hard, the reward for taking this order was at least 100 million or more?

The key is that the disease is so complicated, do you need several hundred million more...

"It's free," Isabella replied.

eyes lit up!

With this blood sample, his subsequent research will be smoother.

"And the detoxification pill I researched." Isabella handed over another small bottle.

Mr. Brown's eyes widened, "You, did you research the antidote so quickly?"

After all, it is old and useless!

He studied it for two days, but he didn't find anything...

He is not as good as an eighteen-year-old girl!

Sure enough, green comes from blue and is better than blue...

His little girl, grow up!

Isabella smiled lightly, "This is only a semi-finished product. After taking it for two days, the mice started to lose energy..."

This showed that the antidote could not completely dissolve the poison on Nora 's body.

"You have at least researched a semi-finished product..." Mr. Brown sighed, he didn't research anything.

Seeing the little girl walking this way, Mr. Brown tapped the screen system very quickly, completely deleted the research results of the past two days, and then emptied the recycle bin. He didn't want the little girl to see a joke.

Seeing his operation, Isabella raised the corner of her mouth again, "How about it, do you want to bet that within a week, can you be sure to research it?"

"A week???"

In normal times, if the little girl said "one week", it would be an insult to him, a pharmaceutical expert. After all, he is a senior figure in the medical field. In the eyes of many medical students, he is like a myth.

But now, he feels that the "one week" that the little girl said is a little bit urgent...

For the sake of saving face, Mr. Brown fully agreed, "One week is one week! If the two of us work together, can there be an antidote that we can't research?"

"You are the main force." When Isabella said this, her phone vibrated. She looked down and saw that it was a document sent by her subordinates, so she communicated with the other party in French.

After a while, another executive from abroad came to her, and she made a voice call with the other party in French.

Seeing that she was really busy, Mr. Brown couldn't help but said, "Okay, okay, whoever made you the ancestor, I don't want you to be too tired... I will be the main force, you help me. Oh yes, you Is the injury on your body better? Does the healing medicine I gave you work?"

Isabella rolled up her sleeves and showed him, "It's much better. Your medicine heals at a good speed. Make more and ll it for 30 to 70 cents."

"I researched this medicine specially for you. You have been fighting and killing all day... Oh no, I know that my medicine can be sold for money, but why is it sold for 37 cents?"

"Sell it for you, and don't give me a commission?"

"You...you even earn your own money..." Mr. Brown felt that the little girl went crazy for medical research, and all the money came to him, but he likes it, he is willing, as long as the little girl Come here often, let alone give it to her.

After all, in order to trick her into studying at the Medical University, he spent five billion to buy the world-renowned top drug research instrument H30!

There are only two in the world, one is in the French National Research Institute, and the other is in his school laboratory.

Isabella looked at the medical equipment in the laboratory. With these equipment, drug research will surely achieve a qualitative leap and a huge change in quantity.

Just then, someone knocked on the door," Principal Brown, it's me, Rene."

The voice of the student council president sounded from outside, showing respect and courtesy to Principal Brown.

"You said earlier that No. 1 led the team to participate in the famous school competition today. Just now, people from the student union went to her class to look at it. She hasn't come to class for a long time..."

This team leader was personally named by Principal Brown to lead the team, so Rene felt the need to tell Principal Brown about this...

Isabella in the laboratory heard this, she looked at the old man who was dodging her eyes, and asked, "Didn't you send WhatsApp to tell you that I won't lead the team?"

The little old man talked about leading the team on the phone. Before Isabella responded, he hung up the phone and turned off the phone. Isabella sent him a WhatsApp again, meaning that he was really busy and had no time to play with the kid...

Chapter 534

"It's mainly those freshmen who especially want you to lead the team... This is what the people want, and I just follow their ideas..."

"So you don't follow my ideas?"

“Isabella...” Mr. Brown immediately smiled and flattered him, “This prestigious school competition is jointly organized by ten universities in the university town. It only happens once every four years. It is particularly eye-catching. Every time, including the last time, our medical university ranked a little behind...’

Mr. Brown felt a little wronged, and gestured “a little bit” with his fingers.

When Isabella looked at it, it seemed that she was stretching her hips...

“No, everyone’s eyes are on your perfect score No. 1, so you have to help me win this time!”

Even with a team!

Let other schools see that among the top ten famous schools, their medical university is not the most hip!

They also have outstanding talents – the No. 1 out of this class, Isabella!

She didn’t participate, so everyone didn’t know her level of participation. Even if the medical university didn’t get any top rankings in the end, at least others would think: the really powerful No. 1 has not yet made a move...

“Isabella was a little depressed, “Actually, I want me to advertise for the Medical University...”

“Don’t you think that if more outstanding students choose our medical university and enter the society in the future, there will be more people saving lives and healing the wounded? This is a good thing! Our medical research requires more fresh blood to participate.....”

Isabella: Dare she be an old blood...

Principal Brown, are you in there? Did you hear what I said just now?" Rene knocked on the door cautiously again.

The door of the laboratory was opened, and Principal Brown pushed Isabella out with a smile, "The perfect score No. 1 is here, you go, this time I must get the top three!"

Isabella :...Did she agree??

Just the top three? Is the little old man satisfied?? The little old man's pursuit has become so low now...

When Rene heard the top three, the pressure doubled. It's not that he didn't know the degree of hip stretching in the previous competition of the Medical University...

There is only elimination...

Not to mention the top three, he finds it difficult to be in the top eight...

The point is, he has just passed the election to become the chairman of the student union, so he has to shoulder such a mission and heavy responsibility...

He wanted to cry a little, but in front of such a beautiful girl, he could only hold back.

On the way out, he introduced himself to Isabella, "Hello, I'm Rene, the president of the student union. I know your name is Isabella. I'm very glad to have you leading the team today. Thank you for your hard work."

Seeing that he is humble and gentle, Isabella also smiled slightly, "It's not hard."

When she didn't smile normally, she had a ruthless aura of a big boss, but now that she smiled, she was so beautiful.

Rene was stunned for a full three seconds, realizing that she had lost her mind, and her face turned red.

Unexpectedly, the perfect score No. 1 is more approachable than the legend, and it is even more beautiful when you look at it up close.

How can she look so good-looking?!

“This competition is jointly organized by ten universities. It is divided into two categories: professional competition and talent competition...” Rene hurriedly shifted his gaze, not daring to look into No. 1’s eyes.

Her eyes are like the stars in the sky, so beautiful that people will linger on them.

“Because Bomsville University is the leader among these ten universities, the venue for the competition is held in the north and south auditoriums of Bomsville University. The south auditorium is the professional competition area, and the north auditorium is the talent competition area. Only freshmen are allowed to participate. That is to say, until At that time, we will take two teams to compete in two divisions.”

“We lead the team?” Isabella was a little surprised.

“Yes...you are the main team leader, and I am the deputy team leader.”

Because Rene is a junior, he will have more experience in terms of age and knowledge, so the school will feel more at ease when he is the vice team.

“Talent competitions include piano, calligraphy, etc. Professional competitions include medical practice, brain competition, etc...”

Isabella didn’t know the specific entry process and content of the competition, but only knew that Millie and Poll would participate in the medical practice competition.

At this time, the “Professional Team” and “Talent Team” of the Medical University were standing on the playground in two teams. When they saw Isabella, they all raised their voices and said mischievously, “Full score No. 1 is good~~”

“I’m really envious of No. 1 with a perfect score. Come whenever you want, and do your own thing if you don’t want to. When will I have such strength.”

How did No. 1 learn? Can you teach us?”

“Full score No. 1, why didn’t you participate?”

If there is nothing to show in terms of talents, at least in terms of majors, can it win the school glory?

Isabella looked at the people in front of her with a smile, “Do you have the confidence to win today?”

“No-” Everyone dragged their voices on purpose and laughed together.

“Be serious!” Rene was controlling the field from the sidelines, and these giggling people stood up again.

Sure enough, the chairman is needed...

“This competition is held every four years. I believe that everyone does not want to leave any regrets. You will show your best strength and let other schools see that our medical university is not bad!”

Isabella cheered them on again and said some words of encouragement. Everyone was surprised to find that the perfect score No. 1 seemed to be gentler and more approachable than the legend!

Who said she was cold and ignorant before??

“Now, let’s go.”

It’s not far from Bomsville University, Isabella takes the lead, and the two teams follow behind her and Rene.

At this moment, Millie and Poll sneaked forward, each holding Isabella’s arm.

“I miss you so much! Why haven’t you come here for so long! Kara is too, she often asks for leave, and it’s just the two of us in the dormitory, it’s so boring!”

“The day before yesterday, your second sister-in-law sent another big package. It was really huge. Poll and I borrowed a small cart to take it back to the dormitory. It must be delicious again.”

“I

Isabella, your second sister-in-law is so kind to you.”

Because Deb has been to their dormitory before, they all know the second sister-in-law.

Isabella was a little surprised, the second sister-in-law sent her food again? Didn’t tell her either...

Seeing that Millie and Poll crowded close to No. 1, others who wanted to be friends with No. 1, and those who were curious about No. 1 also came forward tentatively.

The two teams became scattered again, some people chattered around Isabella, and some chased Rene for WhatsApp.

Over there at Bomsville University.

In order to accommodate the contestants from the top ten famous schools, the school vacated the backstage of the North and South Auditorium and arranged it as a rest area.

At this time, the North Auditorium.

A bunch of people surrounded Cecilia, looking enviously at her new dress, new jewelry, and new shoes, all of which are new WN models.

WN is a dark horse that has been released recently, with novel and fashionable designs, and has become the favorite of many celebrities, stars, and ladies.

Some people say that QY has met the strongest opponent in history, because of WN's limelight, it is about to keep pace with QY!

Chapter 535 Find her as a matchmaker

"I've seen it through official channels before. Your pair of earrings cost more than 200,000 USD, right?"

"Do these shoes cost more than 300,000 USD?"

"I know that the dress you are wearing costs 1.2 million...it is unique in the world."

WN has copied the model of QY. All the things produced are limited to one piece, which satisfies the upper class's desire to be unique and unique.

"Don't talk about the price..." Cecilia made a graceful gesture of silence, and whispered to the people around her, "In this way, others will mistakenly think that I wear expensive clothes to show off..."

When everyone heard it, they spoke for her one after another, and deliberately raised their voices.

“You are the Lady of the Logan Family. Clothes and jewelry like this are everyday for you, just like we wear thousands of dollars of clothes, it is also our daily life...”

“No one will think that you are showing off, because your living standard is already higher than many people... On the contrary, I think you are a very gentle and kind person who cares about other people’s feelings.”

Cecilia, I heard that your parents love you the most, is it

?” Another gossip said.

Find her as a matchmaker

After all, she has five older brothers. Parents do not love their sons, but their daughters. It is so enviable to spread the word.

In some ordinary families, the patriarchal thinking of the older generation is deeply rooted and very bad.

“It must be true!” A short-haired girl answered, “I went shopping with my mother a few days ago, and I happened to meet Cecilia and her mother. Her mother will sell tens of millions of dollars, as long as Cecilia likes it., buy them all for her!”

“Oh my god? It’s so rich and inhuman...” The people around were envious and jealous.

“Cecilia, you are too happy! Tens of millions of clothes, your mother bought it for you without blinking an eyelid?”

“When can I have this kind of mother? Last time I permed my hair for 5,000 USD. My mother still thinks it’s expensive, so she keeps nagging me for a long time...”

“I just bought a few new styles of LV, and my mother said I was spending too much...”

“Last time for my birthday, my mother asked me to buy whatever I wanted. I saw a dress worth 310,000 USD, but she couldn’t bear it. In the end, I changed it to a dress worth 190,000 USD...”

Although these ladies said that the amount of consumption was much more than the average person, in Cecilia’s eyes, was not enough, and even felt a little shabby.

Find her as a matchmaker

A long-haired girl said, “ Cecilia, I heard that Bradley is your Bradley. I like him very much. Can you ask me for his autographed photo? I’m willing to pay 10,000 USD to buy it from you!”

“Do you think Cecilia is short of ten thousand USD?” Another curly-haired girl finished speaking disdainfully, then took Cecilia’s arm flatteringly, and said coquettishly, I have hundreds of your Bradley’s autographed photos, but he sang I can’t get the tickets for the meeting every time! Cecilia, can you help me get one? I can pay you ten times, or even twenty times the tickets, as long as you help...”

“The VIP seats at the front of Bradley’s concert are really hard to grab! Every time they appear, they are snatched up in less than a second. I suspect that those people are sitting on the router to grab tickets.”

Cecilia, I saw your elder brother’s interview in a financial magazine last month. He is so handsome. The key point is that his age, achievements, and conduct in the world have satisfied all my fantasies about the other half! The fat water does not flow to outsiders..... You find a chance, let me meet your elder brother... If he looks at me more, I will definitely fight for the opportunity. If he hates me, doesn’t like me approaching, and asks me to stay away, I will also face difficulties Retire, don’t make it difficult for you, see if this works, please please!”

The girl who spoke was her, and her family was in the car manufacturing business. Although their target group was ordinary office workers, and a car cost only seven to eighty thousand, or a little over a hundred thousand, they sold a lot and made a lot of profit.

suddenly ranked 13th in the US 100 rich list, and the momentum is on the way. fierce.

Cecilia glanced at her, and suddenly felt that, based on the friendship between the two of them, if she and her eldest brother were together, it would be many times better than that Lucy!

That Lucy is useless and stupid, with a low status. I heard that she was kicked out of the house before, and she lived in a mess...

The most important point: she and Isabella are good friends!

After becoming a sister-in-law, I don't know how to make trouble behind my back...

"If I am lucky enough to be your sister-in-law, then I will give you all the benefits..." Qiurou said coquettishly, holding Cecilia's hand all the time.

"Cecilia, I also want to be your fifth sister-in-law...as long as I become your fifth sister-in-law, I can repay you whatever you want!" Someone pestered Cecilia to help lead the red thread.

"Cecilia, I'm not picky. If your second brother Terry and fourth brother don't have a partner, I can do it!"

Cecilia looked at the dozen or so begging people in front of her, and smiled softly.

"Okay, I can't decide the relationship between my brothers. In this way, I will find an opportunity later and invite all of you to my house to play. It will depend on your own ability to whom the fat water will flow to. "

When everyone heard this, they were overjoyed and praised Cecilia in various ways.

“Cecilia, you are the best friend of my life and I love you so much.”

“You are my ancestor. If this happens, I will enshrine you as my ancestor for the rest of my life.”

“Cecilia, you are so kind and understanding...”

Cecilia is smiling on the surface, but in fact she has no confidence in her heart, after all, she knows the characters of the brothers very well...

If you want to introduce someone to them, and you can catch their eyes, it is estimated that there is no one...

At this moment, Isabella came here with the kids of her own talent team.

She is so beautiful, her innate aura, and the “full score No. 1 aura on her head make her the focus of the audience as soon as she appears.

“Look, the perfect score No. 1 is here! My God, I didn’t expect her to be prettier in real life than in the photos, and I finally saw it today.”

“The medical university will let a freshman lead the team this year?”

“What’s so strange about this, Isabella is the only student in their medical school who can do it, and this kind of occasion will definitely make her show her face...”

“There is indeed no one who is more capable than her to lead the team, but I don’t know if she will participate soon...”

“No, no. 1 out of 10 points, which one would you choose? If it’s like me, I’ll retire on the spot.” Someone said discouraged words.

“Can you be a little promising? No matter how good she is in reading, it doesn’t mean she is equally good in other aspects!”

“Yeah, that makes sense...”

Cecilia, who was on the side, saw Isabella walking towards this side surrounded by people, feeling a little uncomfortable, what is she doing here!

Chapter 536 Isabella Comes Out

Isn’t Terry pampering him? not enough? Do you still want to come here to feel your presence?!

Heh, are you going to compare these students with your own status? Shameless!

What’s the point of winning like this!

There is no fighting to win!

The students of the Medical University were a little nervous and restrained when they saw the members of the Bomsville University talent team resting here.

After all, Bomsville University is the highest-ranked university in the United States. In comparison, their medical university is slightly inferior...

However, the rest areas of the two schools are close together, which makes people inexplicably tense and psychologically stressed...

Isabella glanced at everyone, "Everyone take a break in their own field and adjust their mentality. The game will start in 20 minutes."

A girl in a white skirt couldn't help but said, " Isabella, I'm a little nervous..."

"Me too..." Another girl in a black dress said anxiously, "Although I have studied piano for five years, the contestants this time are students from the University of Music.

Isabella Comes Out

Before she could finish expressing her anxiety, she heard someone mocking her.

"After five years of learning, you dare to come out and shame yourself? I started learning piano at the age of three, and it has been fifteen years now. I dare not sign up for the piano competition..."

The speaker was Pearl from the Music Department of Bomsville University. Her fingers fell on the piano keys next to her, and she played a piece of world famous music with one hand, and deliberately showed off her speed and piano skills.

When the students of the medical university heard this, they were stunned and even more ashamed. They didn't expect her to play the piano so well and so quickly...

What to do, they shouldn't sign up for the competition...

Not only to find abuse for myself, but also to embarrass the medical university...

After Pearl finished playing a famous piece, people from Bomsville University applauded and praised her for playing well.

The people in the medical university were silent, and no one said anything.

“After fifteen years of learning, you still play a wrong note, how dare you blame others?” At this time, Isabella raised the corners of her lips and said casually, “You haven’t even interpreted half of the artistic conception of the song. Not as good as others for five years.”

Inch Come Out

When everyone heard it, they were stunned.

Even the students of the medical university looked up at Isabella with admiration in their eyes.

Pearl playing wrong? Isabella can hear it! Amazing!

“Huh?? I didn’t hear it...” someone from Bomsville University said.

“I have also learned the piano for ten years. If Pearl played it wrong, I would not have noticed...”

” Pearl is a talented girl from the Music Department of Bomsville University, how could she make such a low-level mistake??”

“Pearl, don’t you think so?”

Just now, in order to show off her piano skills in front of everyone, Pearl really accidentally played a wrong note.

She originally thought that the speed could help her cover it up, because her wrong pronunciation and her correct pronunciation, the two timbres are very close, even if the music professor is present, if you don't listen carefully, you won't be able to hear the difference at all.

But Isabella was able to hear her mistake and point it out in such a short period of time...

Isabella Comes Out

Could it be that Isabella's attainments in piano are deeper than her??

Pearl, you didn't make a mistake just now, did she slander you? If so, I want her to apologize immediately."

"Pearl, why don't you speak?"

"You, your face is a bit ugly..."

Pearl sat back in his seat, not paying attention to what others said.

The people of Bomsville University seem to have an arrogance in their bones, always so high and look down on others...

Even if he did something wrong, he would not admit it himself.

"So someone played it wrong just now?" The people from the Medical University began to sneer, "That arrogant, self-righteous look, I thought how good it was, but it turned out like this?"

"It turns out that the talented women in the Music Department of Bomsville University are nothing more than that..."

The people at Bomsville University couldn't sit still, and began to choke, "Who are you talking about?"

Medical University, "Whoever takes the right seat is the one. It turns out that the students taught by the highest universities are like this. They are all impetuous. Those who don't know think that your cafeteria only has chili peppers. If you eat too much, they are all flammable and explosive..."

Bomsville University, "You, what evidence do you have to prove that Pearl played wrongly? If not, please apologize to her immediately, otherwise, we at Bomsville University will never let you go."

Medical University, "We have a perfect score of No. 1 and say that if we play the wrong song, then it is the wrong play..."

"Enough, is it over?" At this moment, Pearl couldn't help yelling, "Quiet me."

She really didn't want to hear people repeating in her ears that she played the wrong note.

Cecilia on the side was left speechless by the operation of her own...

Isabella is the master of Tanya, she said Pearl played wrong, then Pearl definitely played wrong!

He is a piano master!!

Even if they couldn't see that Isabella was a master, at least Pearl's reaction said it all...

However, these people are ignorant, stupid, and don't know how to read words and expressions. They are shameful here and asking for trouble...

Although Cecilia was speechless and dull, at this moment, she still tried to reduce her sense of existence as much as possible, and did not show her face to attract Isabella 's attention.

Isabella never gives face to anyone, if she gets angry, she exposes her identity as a fake Lady...

On such a big occasion today, she would be ashamed.

The two sides were quiet for a while, until there were exclamations from the Bomsville University crowd.

Tessa, your family is too powerful, and you spent another 30 million to collect the works of Mr. Alexis..."

"Oh my god, this picture is so well drawn..."

"Thirty million is not even a hair in the eyes of your Zhang family?"

"It's too rich."

Master Alexis has a high level of painting, which is known to everyone in the field of painting.

She is known as the Asian pen, Painting Master, and is a master of the painting world.

With superb painting skills, smooth brushwork, and bold creation, she has brought the entire painting art to a higher level by herself.

Each of her works has achieved the effect of painting with full intention, both form and spirit, and vivid charm.

He is a big figure in the painting circle and is admired by others.

Isabella Comes Out

“Alexis is my favorite painter, bar none.” Tessa smiled and said softly, “My parents know that I like her, so as long as it is her work, they will find a way to take it home and give it to me. It is the new work of Mr. Alexis – “Mountains and Rivers”, this superb painting skill is beyond the reach of ordinary painters.”

Everyone admired the new work on her mobile phone again and nodded in praise.

“That’s right, she has portrayed the gods and shapes that are most difficult to capture in the paintings, which is so admirable.”

“Other painters, either don’t have enough ideas, or don’t embody the spirit enough... But Master Alexis ‘s works are not only refreshing in style, but also very personal. I am also one of her fans.”

“Your parents are so kind to you, and they will help you collect the works of Master Alexis. Another pair of good American parents.”

“Wuuuuu, your parents seem to be different from mine...”

Chapter 537 Cecilia Slaps Isabella in the Face

Cecilia on the side: Please stop praising her! At this time, Alexis is far away in the sky and close in front of her eyes. If Alexis finds out that everyone is praising her, her tail will go up to the sky!

At this time, Isabella took out her mobile phone and was about to deal with private matters.

Unexpectedly, Tessa had a sense of superiority, and suddenly made a booing gesture to the people around her, then raised her eyes and looked at Isabella arrogantly.

“Full score No. 1 is well-informed and knowledgeable, and must have something special, why don’t you show me this work, what’s so good about it?”

If the family with a perfect score of No. 1 is very well-off, and she has been familiar with it since she was a child, but she can’t tell who made this work, this style, or what is so good about this work, it can only show that she has low vision and little knowledge.

If the birth is not good, no matter how good the grades are, they are not as good as these ladies...

So, no matter how you look at it, as long as Isabella opens her mouth to answer this question, she will either be ridiculed for her lack of knowledge or her birth...

Isabella raised her eyes and found a group of people who were about to watch her joke.

She looked at Tessa’s phone again, which contained a painting of mountains and rivers, which should be the work they said they bought for 30 million.

Her eyes were a little colder, “In my opinion, it’s not as good as a primary school student.”

This sentence stunned everyone, even Tessa was stunned for a few seconds.

The frog in the well actually said that the works of Painting Master Alexis are not as good as elementary school students!!

It seems that she is not only from a bad background, but also has no eyesight!!

“It seems that the full score No. 1 can only read books, and cannot appreciate the value of this painting.” Tessa came back to her senses, raised a superior smile, and laughed, “This is the new work of the current generation of painting master Alexis.”

“Exactly! At the auction two days ago, this new work was bought by Zhang’s family at a price of 30 million.”

“You don’t know how to appreciate famous paintings. I don’t blame you, but you actually said that the level of the Painting Master is not as good as that of elementary school students. You not only insulted the Painting Master, but also insulted all the fans of the Painting Master!”

“Please apologize to the Painting Master!”

Conilla Staps Isabella in the Fare

Isabella raised the corners of her lips, looking at the girls in front of her as if she was looking at a mentally retarded person.

“Last year, the Logan Family bought Alexis’s work for 100 million. This year, the Mason Family bought Alexis’s birthday picture for 100 million. Now, you say you can buy Alexis’s authentic work for 30 million?”

“What’s impossible? The Logan Family and Mason Family are rich and willing to spend more money. Our family knows Alexis well. Why is Alexis giving us a discount?” When Tessa said this, she felt a little guilty.

Anyway, Isabella didn’t know about the relationship between their Zhang family and Alexis, and there was no evidence to prove that she was lying, so she just said, what can Isabella do to her?

Isabella felt even more amused, "You said you knew Alexis? Is she male or female?"

"A man! An old gentleman!" Tessa said confidently. "I've seen him many times. He looks very elegant, very bookish, and looks very artistic."

Isabella couldn't help laughing, "Alexis is a woman, she is not very old, and she never gives discounts to anyone."

"How do you know? As if you knew Alexis?" Tessa insisted, "Alexis has been with our family all year round, I have seen him many times, but you, there must be no paintings of Alexis in your house, so you don't know Who made that

Cecilia Slaps Isabella in the picture of mountains and rivers just now?"

"Alexis never drew mountains and rivers." Isabella said casually, "Your one is fake."

"Fake??"

As soon as this remark came out, everyone was shocked.

The people at the Medical University couldn't believe it, how could No. 1 with a perfect score be sure that the picture of mountains and rivers was fake...

On the other hand, Tessa was furious. She wanted Isabella to show evidence, but she saw Cecilia winking at her desperately.

Oh yes, Cecilia!!

" Cecilia, tell me.

Not only did Tessa not get what Cecilia meant, but she also called her out, "You are well-informed, tell me, is Alexis male or female, old or young? Also, is this picture of mountains and rivers from Alexis?" hand?"

Cecilia was called and stood up very depressed. She looked at Isabella. In front of so many people, she really couldn't call out that elder sister.

Luckily Isabella didn't take her seriously, it seemed like it didn't matter.

"Alexis is a woman, and she's... really not that old." Cecilia bit the bullet and said this, and glanced at Isabella.

Celia Staps lead in the Fare

If she lied, would Isabella throw the evidence in her face in front of everyone?

A long time ago, when Norm and Angela were guests at the Logan Family, they once said that Isabella is the Painting Master Alexis, or Writing Master Cleo, if she speaks nonsense with her eyes open, she will be the one who will be slapped in the face.

Rather than embarrassing her, she might as well wrong her friend Tessa.

"Alexis is a woman? Is it the same as what No. 1 said?"

"So, she is lying?"

“You mean, she slapped her swollen face to pretend to be fat?”

Aren't Tessa and Cecilia good friends? Why does Cecilia show her face in person...

Everyone was talking.

Tessa obviously couldn't believe that Cecilia would embarrass her in front of so many people...

Not enough friends!

“Cecilia, did your family spend 100 million to buy Alexis 's work a year ago?” At this time, someone remembered this again and hurriedly asked Cecilia for confirmation.

Cecilia changed the subject as she wished, “Yes, our family did buy Alexis 's painting for 100 million a year ago.”

Celia Slape Isabel in the) an

“Cecilia, your family is so rich, you can buy 100 million paintings as soon as you want... Mason Family can afford. 100 million, and you can afford 100 million, no wonder you can get married.”

“Yeah yeah...”

The crowd began to flatter again.

“Cecilia felt a little guilty. She was afraid that Isabella would reveal her identity as a fake Lady in public, and she was even more afraid that Isabella would say that she was not Benjamin's fiancée, so she took the first step, “Okay, the competition is about to start, everyone should focus on Let's play.”

“Cecilia, since your family has bought Alexis' works, tell me, Alexis really doesn't give discounts to anyone?” Someone asked again.

Cecilia glanced at Isabella again, and admitted helplessly, "She said no discount, but no discount."

Everyone didn't expect that No. 1 with a perfect score has more knowledge than Tessa, and is in the same class as Cecilia, but Tessa is a bit pitiful and sympathetic.

Tessa didn't understand why Cecilia didn't help her, so Cecilia could only make an excuse under his breath.

And the people from the Medical University looked at Isabella with admiration.

Full score No. 1 is amazing.

Cadis Claps Isabella in the fare

It's so easy to slap a Bomsville University person in the face!

"Isabella, you are amazing!"

No wonder Principal Brown personally named her to lead the team. It turns out that she has this ability and strength.

Chapter 538

The talent contest begins soon.

The first competition was for musical instruments. Cecilia, as one of the influential figures of Bomsville University, came to the stage to perform the violin.

Isabella was sitting in the auditorium, and was disturbed by deafening applause and shouts for a while, and was disturbed by the hip-hop music for a while...

I didn't expect Cecilia's violin to be played worse than the piano...

Finally, the performers on the stage changed, and the music sounded much more melodious.

Isabella was processing the work on her mobile phone while listening to the sound of the violin. After a while, she raised her eyes and was about to relax her eyes. She didn't expect to see the person standing in the spotlight playing the violin, Lily!

Lily held the piano in one hand and the bow in the other. The way Lily closed her eyes and was intoxicated by it made the entire audience boil.

She was originally one of the influential figures at Bomsville University, and she is often compared with Cecilia. The two are not only outstanding in appearance, but also outstanding in talent.

Isabella's ears, this kind of violin sound is barely passable.

Isabella went on to deal with the work on the mobile phone. As soon as the song was over, Lily on the stage was highly praised by the judges.

The applause from the auditorium was like thunder, one after another, lasting for a long time.

Lily smiled brightly, and said through the microphone, "The contestants who participated in the competition today are from different prestigious schools, but the opponent I am most looking forward to did not participate. I don't want to leave any regrets. It is rare for her to come to Bomsville University. At this time, I want to invite her to compete on stage, so that everyone and the judges can see a different style."

After she finished speaking, she called Isabella by name.

Everyone was stunned. Unexpectedly, Lily, the man of Bomsville University, personally challenged the medical university's perfect score No. 1!

Her confident smile reveals the look of a winner, and the spotlight looks everywhere for the No. 1 figure...

The atmosphere at the scene suddenly ignited to the extreme.

"That Lily, how dare she..." The people from the Medical University became anxious, "Not to mention whether No. 1 with perfect marks can play the violin, this Lily at least told us in advance, it seems too disrespectful!"

"That's right, without saying hello, I suddenly called Isabella to compete on stage, isn't it just to crush Isabella? Make our medical university embarrassing?"

"There are not as many people who learn the violin as there are people who learn the piano. She definitely has bad intentions in doing this."

"unacceptable!"

The spotlight finally found Isabella, and many people's eyes fell on her.

The short-haired girl next to Isabella said, "Let me go up. Although I major in piano, I also know a little about violin..."

At least it's better than nothing to lose face.

"Now it's up to us whether No. 1 has the full score or not-' the host on the stage is the chairman of the Bomsville University Student Union. With the enthusiasm of the competition, he said impassioned, "If you want No. Give me a big round of applause!"

The audience burst into thunderous applause, and all eyes were on Isabella.

The people at the Medical University were all anxious, “They went too far. They not only tried to smooth things over with the kindness of the landlord, but also made a fuss on purpose...

“Isabella, you didn’t participate in the competition, you can completely refuse.”

Isabella just finished processing the work on the phone, and stood up casually, “Okay, just play with her.”

Just as the girl next to her wanted to dissuade her, Isabella took the violin in her hand and said, “Borrow it.”

“Don’t...” The girl next to her was so anxious that she whispered, “My violin is very cheap, and the tone is definitely not as good as Lily ‘s...”

Who doesn’t know that the Logan Family is rich and uses the best food!

The booing from the audience grew louder. Unexpectedly, No. 1 with a perfect score was very courageous and gladly accepted the challenge.

This year’s game is too interesting.

The applause from the auditorium was like waves, wave after wave.

Maybe she didn't expect Isabella to dare to fight, Lily was surprised, and her eyes were even more proud.

On such a grand occasion, guts alone are not enough, and the embarrassing news will spread to the family and the medical university... This perfect score of No. 1 will make people laugh, right?

After some dialogue, the host asked Isabella to start playing.

Cecilia in the audience knew that Isabella was the famous piano master Tanya, but Lily didn't.

Cecilia thought, Isabella is proficient in the piano, not necessarily the violin. As the famous master Tanya, if she loses to a college student in the violin, it will be a real embarrassment, right?

She doesn't care who wins or loses, no matter whether it's Isabella or Lily who loses, it's what she wants to see, and it can make her happy!

Isabella stood on the stage. She was already outstanding, but under the spotlight, she was incomparably beautiful.

Her right hand holding the bow is very stable, and her left hand has precise fingering, vibrato is even, the melody is beautiful, the timbre is excellent, and the music she deduces is as clean and delicate as her person.

Just standing on the stage exudes superior elegance and nobility, as well as a strong artistic temperament.

Everyone was stunned. They didn't expect that the No. 1 violin player could play the violin so well...

What's more, she had such an amazing temperament. Standing on the stage, it was like a dream out of reach of thousands of people...

Her performance is pure and thorough, noble and sharp, with an incomparable timbre, the power of her performance is extremely abundant, with an epic spirit, representing nobility and unyielding, and it is vented like a mountain torrent...

The great sorrows and great joys of life, the rich emotions, the heat and cold of the mixture of ice and fire, under Isabella 's swift and sincere interpretation, swept everyone present like a tornado.

Shocking is not enough to describe the shock that this performance brought to everyone.

Standing beside Lily, the smile froze at the corner of her mouth, and she was completely brought into the artistic conception of this song.

It seems that the whole world is only left with the girl playing the piano on the stage, and the music brings everyone through the great sorrow and joy of life...

At the end of the song, everyone couldn't extricate themselves, and they were still intoxicated by the wonderful music. It took a long time for warm applause to erupt.

The applause continued for a long time, and the girl on the stage bent over with an elegant and beautiful posture.

, a violinist and professor of music at Bomsville University, applauded repeatedly and said in admiration, "Your string- drawing skills and performance skills are not inferior to any masters of the time."

Such a high evaluation caused the audience to burst into applause again.

Another judge picked up the microphone and said emotionally, "I want to ask, where did your song come from?"

It's so melodious!

Just listening to it once makes people have endless aftertaste...

"It's my improvisation," Isabella replied truthfully.

Everyone in the audience was shocked again. Even the judges thought she was a genius. Such a beautiful music came from her improvisation!

Chapter 539 Accepting Apprentices

"Your melody is passionate, majestic and majestic, and you have a very good sense of rhythm and power. You have interpreted everything that this song should interpret, which is amazing. I dare say that this song, after you, no one can interpret it better than you, unless it is a violin master-no strings, come back out of the rivers and lakes."

This evaluation is too high!

The audience is boiling!

These are the three legends in the international violin circle, and they can be called the three great figures, representing the highest peak of the violin field in the 21st century.

Among them, Master is the most mysterious. No one has ever seen her in real life, but the six pieces of music she created are like the sounds of nature, and they are popular all over the world.

Many violinists can easily master all kinds of violin pieces, but they are afraid of the pieces of the master without strings, because her pieces are a test of the player's true cultivation and internal strength, and most violinists dare not try it lightly.

"The World" performed by the stringless and violin master before has been surpassed by no one so far.

Although she did not show her face in “The World”, the performance of the two has become a legend.

Now, the music professor at Washington University compares Isabella to a master without strings...

Lily on the side subconsciously clenched her fists, feeling unbearably angry.

Another well-known musician, picked up the microphone and said appreciatively, “No strings have created six violin pieces. The seemingly simple scales and arpeggios contain rich and ever-changing emotions. Self-cultivation, layout, intonation, skills, etc. are all extremely demanding.”

He looked at Isabella and said softly, “ Outside of the United States, very few violinists dare to try her pieces easily in public, because they are afraid that the level they can play will not even reach half the level of the master, but now, you The improvisation made me see hope, I believe you are about to break this exception and become the next legend, i am very optimistic about you, come on.”

Isabella smiled lightly and thanked the musician for her comments.

Another director of the Violin Association picked up the microphone and said kindly, “I dare say that in the United States, there is currently no violinist who can perform interpretations more heartily than you. You have brought us a luxurious feast of hearing., I participated in this feast for the first time in thirty-six years, and I was deeply shocked and intoxicated by it. I hope to see you win glory for the country in the next international violin competition.”

The applause of the audience was like the thunder that exploded in the sky, violent and hot.

Unexpectedly, Isabella could get unanimous praise from so many judges...

“Thank you for bringing such a beautiful song to everyone. I can only say that today’s trip is worthwhile. I wonder if you are interested in becoming my closed disciple?” The last judge on the judging panel picked up the microphone and asked warmly.

Everyone was stunned, because the speaker was Lionel, the president of the American Violin Association.

When he was young, he was taught by Master him for two months. Although Master him did not accept him as an apprentice publicly, after these two months of instruction, his violin skills improved by leaps and bounds, and he became a shining star in the international violin circle. Shining stars.

Because of his relationship with him and his status in the violin world, many wealthy families want to send their children to study with him.

He never accepted apprentices, only taught violin to one person, this person is said to be Lily.

Everyone thought that Lily would become Lionel’s only true disciple, and Lily had always been proud of it, but unexpectedly, in front of so many people, Lionel would throw an olive branch to Isabella, which made Lily feel so embarrassing!

Lily was already furious, too embarrassed to say a word.

Lionel, who was extremely strict with her on weekdays, actually wanted to accept Isabella as a closed disciple in front of her! The key is to be kind to Isabella!

Where does this put her face!

Faced with such a big temptation, Isabella not only did not agree, nor was she moved to tears, but smiled and said, "Thank you Lionel for your kindness, I just want to study medicine to save lives, I'm sorry, I have to live up to Lionel 's kindness.

"1

Everyone was too shocked to speak.

Is she stupid?!

Becoming Lionel 's closed disciple means taking a shortcut, and life has been on the rise ever since!

As long as there is Lionel 's guidance, with her qualifications, she can become another rising star in the violin world!

When the time comes, she will gain both fame and fortune, and live by her dreams. What a wonderful life is in front of her, as long as she nods her head...

But, she refused!!!

of Lionel was a little surprised, because so many people begged him to accept him as an apprentice, but he didn't like any them, but this girl refused?!

"You can give full play to your violin expertise while studying medicine. The two do not affect each other. With your qualifications, you will definitely be able to make a name for yourself in the violin world in the future."

Lionel's words shocked everyone again.

He was actually asking to stay! Retain an ordinary freshman!

The point is, this freshman is from a medical university!

Not Bomsville University, not Washington University, just a medical student!!

It actually made Lionel lower his status, and tried to persuade him to stay again and again!

Everyone was really shocked, especially Lily, she couldn't believe that Isabella 's qualifications allowed Lionel to do this!

You know, her parents visited the thatched cottage three times before, came out in person, and even made contacts abroad, but Lionel couldn't let Lionel let her go and accept her as a true disciple.

Usually, Lionel just treats her as a student, and doesn't teach her everything!

And Isabella...

It actually caught his eyes!

"Thanks Lionel, it's just that I can't do two things."

What's more, she is eighteen, she not only has a lot of things waiting for her to deal with, but also has to worry about Mr. Watson 's mood...

After all, it has been several years since Mr. Watson asked her to inherit the mantle...

If she turned around and became Lionel 's disciple, she could still imagine Mr. Watson 's grumpy look...

"I want to devote all my energy to medicine, and I'm sorry to disappoint Lionel." Isabella still politely declined.

Not only Lionel, but even others did not expect that Isabella refused again!!

God...

Now, Lily felt that she was not only sick, but also very sick...

But Lionel still didn't want to let such a good student go. He smiled and said, "If you change your mind one day, you can find me at the Violin Association at any time, or I'll add you on WhatsApp later."

Everyone was shocked again...

And Lily was already so jealous, how could this Isabella...

Although the level of the violin she performed just now was indeed a bit higher than hers, it wouldn't make Lionel so rare? Is it because of this face...

Chapter 540 Blocking the Way

She looked at Isabella, and saw that the girl said some words of sincere thanks without being surprised, and then gracefully called off the curtain...

Damn it, this dead girl must be very happy in her heart, and she pretended to be disapproving on the surface!

No wonder Cecilia doesn't like her, Lily also hates her to the extreme at this time, she really knows how to pretend!

Lily secretly swears in her heart that one day, she must be compared to others!

Isabella returned to the auditorium, and the people at the Medical University regarded her as a myth.

“Isabella, you are amazing! How can you play the violin so well? How many years have you been studying?”

“You have not only brought honor to yourself today, but also to the Medical University! You are so outstanding, so great!”

“Woooooo Isabella, I adore you so much, I declare that from today onwards, you are my idol!”

From the moment Isabella stepped into Bomsville University, she has been giving the medical university a face, but they... are holding her back!!

“I think I can smash the violin when I go back... I feel that after so many years of practice, it is not as good as Isabella ‘s one-thousandth.” Someone said in frustration.

Blocking the Way

“Hope Isabella makes a wrong sound to prove she’s human!”

In a freshman life, he has such a high level of music, and it also brings such a shock to people...

“As long as it is gold, people will always see it.” Isabella took the opportunity to encourage, “You can do it too. Whether it is the next game or the days to come, you must strive to be irreplaceable.”

Only in this way can higher value be realized and life will become better.

“I used to think that my piano was not good, it was too cheap, so I didn’t have the tone of others...”

lent the violin to Isabella said ashamedly, “Until just now, I saw with my own eyes that the violin, which made me feel ashamed, glowed with new brilliance in your hands, and I didn’t know that it was not the violin’s problem, but me.”

Isabella, whoever dares to insult you on the forum in the future, I will be the first to jump out and scold them! You are so approachable and outstanding, I will be the first to disagree with anyone who dares to talk nonsense in the future.”

“It’s obviously a person with extremely high academic performance and musical talent, who is so beautiful and has such a good personality, it will make people live...”

Blocking the Way

Everyone chattered around Isabella again, until Isabella told them to calm down and prepare for the competition, they stopped talking.

And Cecilia didn’t know how to describe her mood at this time.

She originally thought that seeing Lily defeated would make her feel happy, but at this moment, a feeling of jealousy and resentment emerged spontaneously, which made her unable to calm down.

how come...

How can Isabella be so powerful...

Her playing has actually made Lionel throw olive branches to her again and again!

That's Lionel!!

President of the Violin Association!

Although I know that Isabella is very good at the piano, I didn't expect that she surpassed her too much in the violin, too much...

She and Scarlet also thought about making Isabella make some mistakes in order to cover up the light brought by her identity...

But now, Isabella seems to know everything, it's really hard to make her go wrong!!

Cecilia clenched her fists so hard that her nails sank into her palms. She hated that someone taught Isabella so many talents!!

Obviously the least valued person in the Brown family!!

Obviously live at the bottom!!

But now, it has become an unreachable existence, which makes people angry!

Where did she get her connections, and how could she learn so many skills in such a short period of time!

And Lily was also very angry.

Last time, Isabella stood up for the waiter in the clubhouse, embarrassing her and her friends in public, she still vividly remembers it.

And last time, grandma woke up, and the two of them went to the hospital to visit grandma. She wanted to work with Isabella to kick Cecilia out of the Logan Family, but Isabella sneered at her.

Isabella said: Did Cecilia eat your rice and drink your water and spend your money? Does it matter to you whether she stays in this house or not? No more nonsense, you are the first to leave the Logan Family!

At that time, she still wanted to discuss it with Isabella. After all, the blood of Cecilia is not from the Logan Family. On the contrary, she and Isabella are the pure blooded Lady of the Logan Family, but Isabella just gave her a warning look and disdain to be with her.

Because of this, she was scolded bloody by her mother Molly after she went back. The mother said that with Isabella's character, it was impossible to join forces with her, and she was also called stupid, and she was inferior to Isabella in every way....

Now, she must find a way to find her place again!

half an hour later.

Isabella waited for the group of youngsters to finish playing before getting up and leading the team to leave.

She had to go to another auditorium to see how Poll and Millie were doing in their professional games.

When passing the backstage, Lily stopped her directly, Sister Isabella, let's play a game of chess."

This sound attracted the attention of many people around.

Could it be that Lily lost the full score No. 1 and was upset, and wanted to challenge the full score No. 1 again?

Now someone hastily sent a WhatsApp and secretly ran to call someone, wanting more people to witness this moment.

“I don’t have time to play with you.” Isabella’s tone was a bit disapproving, and she was about to lead the team away, but was stopped by Lily.

“Just five minutes! The winner will be determined in five minutes.”

There is no need to go down to the last step, as long as whoever wins the most in five minutes will do.

Blocking the Way

Isabella knew that she was having a hard time, so she would propose a game of chess, presumably her chess skill is no worse than that of the violin.

“You don’t even ask what Isabella is good at, but you propose to compare chess. Don’t you just want to beat Isabella in your field of expertise? Don’t you think it’s useless to win?”

“Okay, no need to compare, Isabella will give it to you.”

“I’m willing to bet and admit defeat. I don’t even have this pattern. Oh, I know. It must be because your teacher wants to accept Isabella as a closed disciple, so you are not balanced.”

Isabella, abuse her, let her see what is beyond the sky, and there are people beyond people.”

“Let’s go.” Isabella still didn’t want to challenge her.

Lily blocked her way again, "It's just a minute, win or lose in a minute."

It's all said and done...

Isabella raised her eyebrows, want to compare?

The people from the medical university couldn't help but rant, "Did you grow up as a star and never lose, so you can't afford to lose? Isabella even said that there is no time, and you are still sticking to a dog's skin plaster. Haven't you heard a word? A good dog doesn't get in the way..."

"What dog skin plaster, Lily is Logan Family Lady, if she is dog skin plaster, then you are even worse than dog skin plaster!"

"That's right, Lily is willing to compete with you people, it's because she thinks highly of you and gives you face..."

No. 1 out of 100 points should be able to do everything. It's just a minute of comparison. I've spent more than a minute of grinding here."

"that is!"
