

Chased Her 541

Chapter 541 The Chess Master Comes

“Sister Isabella, I want to compete with you. If you don’t know how to play chess, you can choose other talents.” Lily said with confidence, “I can play chess, calligraphy and painting.”

Lily, who was born into a wealthy family, had many opportunities to learn talents. There are many people around who secretly envy her shiny appearance. object of envy.

“It’s like chess.” Isabella reluctantly said, “One minute.”

Lily was secretly happy, and asked someone to borrow a set of chess, and graciously let Isabella play first.

“No, I’ll let you take three steps.”

What???

Isabella’s move made Lily feel humiliated. She smiled and said, “How about it? The game is all about fairness and justice. I will call you ‘sister’. Respecting the old and loving the young is a traditional American virtue. Let my sister go first. Let’s make a move.”

Isabella was too lazy to talk nonsense with her, so she had a son first.

Lily thought that Isabella couldn’t find anything to say back to her, and she felt even more proud. However, her smile didn’t last for a few seconds, and she saw that the situation was getting more and more tense...

The Chess Master Comes

It was obviously a situation that couldn’t be simpler, but under Isabella’s handling with ease, she was always in a disadvantaged position, and the pawns were always eaten by Isabella...

In less than a minute, the outcome was already clear. Many people who came to join in the fun had just stood still when they saw that the time had come and the outcome had been decided.

Isabella won, and she always looked indifferent, as if winning or losing was just a trivial matter in her eyes.

But Lily was sitting in front of the chessboard, her whole body was like a lightning strike. She thought that she could maintain her leading position for at least a minute, but now, seeing the miserable scene on the chessboard, she felt so ashamed that she couldn't even say a word. Unable to speak.

how come...

How can Isabella 's chess be so good...

It doesn't matter if the violin is good, but even chess can crush her...

Isabella just got up when someone said, "It's Lionel!"

Lionel appeared in the crowd, no one knew how long he had been watching. Many people's eyes fell on him. He smiled kindly, looked at Isabella, and applauded appreciatively.

"it's so wonderful, I didn't expect you to know chess... I don't know where you learned from?"

1 Chess Master Comes

He was able to beat Lily in violin and chess.

Lily's chess talent is no worse than violin...

But Isabella didn't reveal Mr. Tomson's name, but asked softly, "Why is Lionel here?"

If you don't want to be a judge, why go backstage to join in the fun?

"I want to add you on WhatsApp." Lionel smiled gracefully.

he commented on Isabella's violin level just now, he once said that if one day changes her mind, Isabella is welcome to find him at the Violin Association at any time, or he will add her to WhatsApp after a while...

I didn't expect what he said was true!

Seeing Isabella leave the auditorium, he followed up!

Everyone was stunned by his move. It seems that he really likes Isabella, is very satisfied with Isabella, and intends to accept her as his apprentice.

In front of so many people, Isabella didn't want to embarrass him, took out her phone, opened the QR code, and handed it over.

After Lionel scanned her business card, he smiled, "Added."

Isabella accepted his friend request, "I have another team to play, so I won't bother Lionel."

"Okay." Lionel nodded, "Contact anytime."

7 Chess Master Cones

After he finished speaking, when he passed by Lily, he didn't even look at her...

He originally thought that by pretending not to see her, it would make the conceited her feel better.

But Lily misunderstood his kindness, and became even more dissatisfied and jealous!

I feel that Lionel didn't take her seriously, in front of her, he treated Isabella again and again, treating her as transparent...

Everyone around gathered around Isabella.

"Isabella, you are amazing! Not only can you play the violin well, but you can also play chess so well!"

"When did you start learning chess?"

"Some people made a mistake in their wishful thinking. They wanted to win you, but in the end they were embarrassing again."

"Hahaha that's..."

At this moment, a vigorous and powerful voice reached everyone's ears.

"Hey, let me see what's going on here, it's so lively!"

Everyone followed the source of the sound, but they didn't expect that the person who arrived was the famous Mr. Tomson!!!

Mr. Tomson is a well-known chess master today, proficient in all kinds of chess, especially chess.

The Chess Master Comes

Because he is very obsessed with chess, many people call him “chess crazy”.

How can a big guy like him show up at a small game like Bomsville University and hang out backstage...

Could it be that Mr. Tomson, like Lionel, wants to find talented juniors in the competition and accept them as disciples...

Thinking of this, everyone looked at Lily again.

Lily’s chess is learned from chess master He Bin. I heard that He Bin has been taught by Mr. Tomson...

It’s just that Lily lost to Isabella, I don’t know if Mr. Tomson, still thinks highly of her, and will accept her as a closed disciple...

“Who will tell me what happened? So many people?”

There were so many people that the little old man didn’t see Isabella at all.

I heard from Mr. Brown that today Isabella will lead the team to appear at Bomsville University, so he has nothing to do, so he came here to block people!

The little girl had clearly agreed to play a few games of chess with him before, but three or four months passed without even seeing him!

I want his old man to make a special trip.

The Chess Master Comes

Not reliable.

What's even more exasperating is that the bad old man Mr. Brown, relying on the little girl who often conducts experiments with him, often sends photos to the group to stimulate everyone...

Every time they see a little girl doing an experiment with him, the people in the group will inevitably scold Mr. Brown, but Mr. Brown enjoys it...

Today, Mr. Mick, the principal of Bomsville University, had no time to entertain him, but Lionel, the vice-principal, bent over to accompany him, looking very respectful.

"I heard that Lily from the Logan Family is playing chess with Isabella from the Medical University..."
Lionel said with a smile.

"Ouch..."

Isabella playing chess here?

Who is not afraid of death, dare to challenge Isabella?

Isn't this looking for abuse??

"Hurry up and take a look."

See if you need help playing 120. After all, Isabella's chess skills are really easy to make people suffer from heart disease...

Lionel thought that the chess master was interested in playing chess, and just a few steps forward, he found that Isabella was about to leave.

Tim Chess Master Comes

Chess... seems to be over?!

" Mr. Tomson ??"

Isabella saw the old man coming, and at the same time, she regretted wasting a minute with Lily just now.

Otherwise, she'd be able to avoid Mr. Tomson's head.

"You said you little girl, I have to come here to catch you..." Mr. Tomson couldn't help turning on the chanting mode as soon as he saw Isabella.

Everyone was stunned...

Why does it sound like Mr. Tomson took the initiative to find Isabella??

But Isabella looks like she wants to slip away a little bit??

Chapter 542

who did you give the golden chess set I gave you!"

This sentence was like a bomb that exploded in the crowd.

Everyone was so shocked that they couldn't speak. It sounded like Mr. Tomson had a close relationship with Isabella...

The golden chess set in Mr. Tomson's mouth, wouldn't it be the sky-high price chess set that shocked America and foreign countries last time?

It is said that the chess pieces are very rare, those with gaps, uneven color, cracks, too small pieces, etc., cannot be selected as polishing materials...

It took three years to select this chess piece just for the selection of materials.

Next, it took another three years to make these 361 chess pieces, all of which were handmade, each worth 200,000 USD.

After it was made, it provoked countless chess collectors to compete for the first, and finally, Mr. Tomson bought it at a price of 180 million. It is regarded as a treasure...

But what he meant seemed to be that, after he gave it to Isabella, Isabella took this sky-high priced chess set as a gift!!

How dare Isabella ?!

That is the pawn sent by Mr. Tomson!!

Not to mention priceless, even this kind of affection cannot allow her to destroy and trample like this!

She is so ungrateful!!

Isabella hooked her lips and asked with great interest, "Mr. Tomson wants to settle accounts after the fall?"

That set of chess pieces was what Mr. Tomson lost to her when she competed with Mr. Tomson!

Willing to gamble and admit defeat.

If it is given, it is hers, and she has the right to decide whether the chess piece will go or not.

“That set of chess pieces is my favorite, I don’t care, you have to play a game of chess with me today!”
Mr. Tomson took this as a threat.

“Here?” Isabella raised her eyes and looked around. There were already so many people watching that it could be described as tight.

The little old man beamed with joy, “It’s here!!”

After finally catching her, can’t I live a chess addiction??

Hey, at his height, it is too difficult to find someone who is evenly matched to play chess...

“Are you sure?” Isabella smiled playfully.

Last time I lost the chess game, there were only a few servants watching, but this time there are so many students present, what if the old man still loses...

He is not afraid of losing face??

“Very sure!” Mr. Tomson was full of confidence this time, and lowered his voice to whisper next to Isabella’s ear, “I have practiced at home a lot these past few months!!”

the little girl once, I feel proud.

Isabella felt amused, “Then...what’s the bet this time?”

“No gambling, no gambling...” Mr. Tomson waved his hands repeatedly and said, “I have nothing to do, just play.”

He couldn't bear to lose his heart and soul to the little girl, in case the little girl turned around and gave it to someone else...

Then he will have a heart attack.

At this time, the expressions of the people around him could no longer be described as shock...

A well-known chess master, Mr. Tomson, actually found the backstage of the Bomsville University competition in person, and wanted Isabella to play a game of chess with him??

How good is Isabella 's chess skills??

Lily in the competition just now, it's not enough to make Mr. Tomson take a high look??

Lily on the side clenched her fist even more, unable to believe it.

Why?!

Why are Lionel and him so optimistic about Isabella and giving her face like this...

The point is, this girl was raised in the Brown family since she was a child, how could she get in contact with a big man like Mr. Tomson!!

Lily was a little annoyed, because even her teacher He Bin didn't have the chance to see Mr. Tomson anytime, let alone a little girl like Isabella...

But Mr. Tomson asked the vice-principal Lionel to get the chess pieces, sat down, and began to compete with Isabella.

The contest between the strong and the strong makes people dumbfounded. Just at the beginning, the two are evenly matched, which is very interesting.

This is chess!

That's what makes it interesting!

Mr. Tomson enjoyed it and was very happy.

And Isabella's attitude was not as indifferent to Lily just now, but interested and meaningful, as if playing chess with an old friend, looking at Mr. Tomson, a lovely old man, with leisure and interest.

lol hey, I'll eat you!" Mr. Tomson was so happy that he could eat a little girl's son, which is better than eating a hundred other people's!

Isabella couldn't help laughing, and the old man was amused after just one bite, which shows how long the old man hasn't won...

Everyone thought that Isabella would be defeated, but as time passed, the two were still tied, and their strengths were equal...

Where did this Isabella learn from...

To be able to confront Mr. Tomson for such a long time...

Is it human?

The people from the Medical University were stunned at this moment. Their perfect score of No. 1 could become Mr. Tomson 's opponent!

They both played chess for half an hour, and they still haven't lost. The two captured the same number of pieces!

How on earth did she do it?

Mr. Tomson was secretly happy, lol, I haven't practiced in vain in the past few months, and I can even compete with the little girl!

"I said you've been so busy recently that you don't care about playing chess anymore. Look, how long has it been since you practiced..."

According to the little girl 's level, she can beat him in at least half an hour.

But now...

Mr. Tomson was complacent, and was eaten three times by Isabella, his eyes widened all of a sudden, "You you you..."

"What's wrong?"

Mr. Tomson stared at the chessboard, and suddenly realized that he was very secretive, and the little girl found a place to sneak in!

Next, he devoted 100% of his energy...

And the other side.

Rene, the chairman of the medical student union, looked at the time and was a little worried.

It stands to reason that the people brought by Isabella should have finished the game, but after so long, they haven't come to show their faces...

Could it be that the people she led were wiped out and lost ugly, so she stayed there to comfort a group of crying people??

Thinking of this, he also sent Isabella a WhatsApp question, "Are you done with your work? Do you need any help?"

Millie hugged Poll 's arm a little nervously, " Isabella hasn't come yet, I'm a little nervous...

"Me too..."

It will be their turn soon, and Isabella said that before they compete, they will come to see them in person and cheer them on.

But now, Isabella didn't reply to their WhatsApp or answer the phone, it couldn't be over there, it's an ugly loss, right??

"This..." At this moment, Mr. Tomson saw his son being eaten by Isabella again, and he looked anxiously.

Although Isabella didn't practice at home during this time, she understood Mr. Tomson 's thinking and knew what kind of defense he would set up...

So she deliberately made Mr. Tomson think that he had successfully defended the old man. As a result, she charged from another way, went directly to the place where he was not defending, and ate his pup.

The old man regretted again and again, he shouldn't have taken that step just now!!

After another half hour, Isabella narrowly won by one goal.

Everyone in the audience was shocked, but they didn't dare to applaud, for fear of hurting Mr. Tomson's self-esteem...

They looked at Mr. Tomson in disbelief. This is a famous chess master- Mr. Tomson!!

Actually lost to Isabella??

Mr. Tomson was about to say wonderful, wonderful, suddenly a girl jumped out to question.

Chapter 543 Ten Years

"Impossible! When Isabella won Lily just now, I was thinking that there must be some weirdness in it. Now that Isabella has won Mr. Tomson, don't you think it's strange?"

The girl's words successfully aroused everyone's suspicion.

"Yeah, Isabella is just a student, how could she win Mr. Tomson ?"

" Mr. Tomson is a world-renowned chess master."

"I also find it strange, Isabella must have cheated! There must be an AI helping her!!"

"Didn't the recent news reveal that some chess players used artificial intelligence to cheat and were discovered on the spot? But his method is a bit low-end. He uses a micro- camera to take pictures of the chess game and sends it to his companions. The companions use computer AI to dismantle the moves. Then pass the answer to him."

Isabella must have used a smart chip or something, I demand a body search!"

“If Isabella used despicable means to win Mr. Tomson, I think she needs to apologize to Mr. Tomson, and also, to Lily!”

“She may have used AI in the violin competition just now...”

Everyone’s chattering voices reached Isabella’s ears, and Isabella hooked her lips with great interest. It turned out that her brain was comparable to AI.

cheated in various competitions in the past, including the Enter University exam. If this is the case, I will ask the police to deal with it!”

“I also ask the police to disqualify her from various competitions.”

“I hope that the medical university can show an attitude and expel her. Such a scum can no longer let her go to school.”

“You spout blood!”

People from the Medical University stood up to speak for Isabella one after another, filled with righteous indignation.

Every move that Isabella made just now, everyone Angela and Freda watched, how could she cheat, and how did she cheat?”

“You open your mouth with an AI on the left and an AI on the right. Can you produce any evidence?”

“I just can’t get it out, so I have to call the police.”

“Have the guts to cheat, but don’t have the guts to let people tell?”

“Why, that’s what the medical university taught you? Cheating is the way to win in everything?”

Everyone seemed to recognize the fact that Isabella was cheating, and looked at her with contempt.

The University of Medicine was very angry, and it was hard to argue, "If you can't show evidence, it's slander! Isabella can sue you!"

"Sue us? Well, before you sue us, call the police! When the police arrive, everything will be revealed..."

The popularity of the medical university was broken, and he looked at Isabella again, and said angrily and helplessly, Isabella, they bullied people too much..."

"If you want to report to the police, if you can't produce evidence, I will report them one by one later. At the same time, I will ask Bomsville University to conduct a public review and record a major demerit once."

The people at Bomsville University were irritated by Isabella's attitude. Did this person think they couldn't produce evidence, so he was arrogant?

She obviously cheated, but she still dares to speak in such a tone!

Don't cry without seeing the coffin!

Their vice principal, Lionel, is standing here!

this girl be defiant?!

She asked for Bomsville University?

In what capacity does she claim Bomsville University?

Who did she think she was!

Lionel on the side, his face darkened, looked at these students with displeasure in his eyes.

Not to mention that Principal Mick valued Isabella as a girl, but with Isabella 's knowledge and status, she couldn't do such a shameful thing as cheating.

"Is this what Bomsville University taught you? Before there is any proof, you talk nonsense? Slander your classmates?" Lionel looked extremely serious with his hands behind his back.

"Vice-principal, this matter is not big or small. We also hope that Isabella will not go astray and go astray."

"We also hope that people from the Medical University can see her true face, and don't be deceived by her..."

"If she even cheated to get the perfect score on the Enter University exam, don't you think it's unfair to those hard- working classmates?"

"Yeah, she easily beat everyone with Al..."

"Everyone is eloquent." Lionel sternly criticized, "I've never seen you so eloquent when it comes to studying, but when it comes to slandering people, you're pretty good at it, don't say you're a student of Bomsville University!"

Shame on Bomsville University.

"I'm sorry Mr. Tomson, I made you laugh..." At this time Lionel turned his head again, with a pleasant expression, even with a hint of respect and politeness, he smiled and said to Mr. Tomson, "I remember these students, I will talk to them one by one later, and if they don't repent, I will ask their parents to go to school and talk to see if there is any need to continue reading."

After all, Bomsville University is a school that values students' moral character more than grades.

If a student has bad intentions and likes to spout blood, then after graduation and integration into society, it will only embarrass and discredit Bomsville University.

"Vice principal..."

Everyone didn't understand why the principal of his own school turned to an outsider!!

Is it because Isabella looks beautiful?!

Or because Isabella and Mr. Tomson know each other, so the vice principal wants to take the opportunity to please Mr. Tomson ?

Hmph, the vice principal is too hypocritical, too flattering!

The most unsuitable person to stay at Bomsville University is him! Be sure to report him later!!

Cecilia hid in the crowd and secretly breathed a sigh of relief. It turned out that Isabella only used some means to win the game...

Maybe even the title of " Master Tanya " came about like this...

And her medical skills may be copied mechanically from the Internet, or there is an AI pointing behind her...

Otherwise, at Isabella 's age, how could she be " Selby Brown "...

Maybe " Selby Brown " is her impersonation?

the real Selby Brown?

Thinking of this, Cecilia felt much more relaxed.

In the past, her and Isabella 's strength seemed to be separated by a Milky Way, but now, the Milky Way has become a small canal, which can be crossed with a single step...

On the other hand, Lily felt very happy. It turned out that Isabella won the competition by unfair means...

She said that in the whole world, among her peers, no one can match her violin level and chess ability, including that stupid Cecilia...

Let's see how Isabella ends up!

"Hahahaha..." At this moment, Mr. Tomson smiled heartily, as if he was not affected by these things at all.

"The little girl's chess skills were taught by me. It has been more than ten years. She is better than blue, and she is comparable to AI. Should I be happy or happy?"

What???

Everyone was dumbfounded, what did Mr. Tomson just say???

Was Isabella taught by him? So far, more than ten years???

Both Lily and Cecilia suspected that they heard it wrong, but seeing the surprised and astonished eyes around them, they couldn't help clenching their fists. Damn, how did Isabella get close to Mr. Tomson, and how did she make Mr. Tomson take her as his apprentice for ten years???

Chapter 544 Show off

The vice-principal on the side smiled respectfully and politely, "These students are ignorant, and I will definitely educate them later, so that Mr. Tomson will laugh."

"Hahahaha..." Mr. Tomson was in a good mood, completely unaffected by these people and things, he recollected with satisfaction, "Yes, today's trip was not in vain!"

Being able to play chess with the little girl also opened up new ideas, very good, this trip is so worth it.

He looked at Isabella, patted her on the shoulder and said, "You should think about inheriting the mantle of grandpa..."

Everyone was shocked again.

What does Mr. Tomson mean by that??

He chose the closed disciple a long time ago? This person is Isabella? Not Lily??

Everyone subconsciously looked at Lily...

At this time, Lily's face was surprised, extremely surprised...

Mr. Tomson asked Isabella to reconsider. Did Isabella reject him earlier??

God... how is it possible?!

Are there such stupid people in the world?!

This is Mr. Tomson!!

The highest pinnacle of today's chess world, can inherit his mantle, will wake up from the dream, right?

But Isabella just smiled lightly. This little old man has turned bad, deliberately using the presence of everyone to put pressure on her, thinking that she is concerned about his old man's face and will not refuse in person?

"You should go back."

Isabella didn't talk about the inheritance, just one sentence, and directly changed the subject...

"Hahahaha good... come to my house to look for grandpa when you have time, and call grandpa occasionally. Don't let grandpa call you all the time. If you call, you don't answer!"

The little old man's tone was a bit complaining, but the people around him turned into lemons...

"knew."

"Then I'll go back~" Mr. Tomson was about to leave, when he suddenly remembered that when Mr. Brown was doing experiments with little girls, he always sent photos to the group to stimulate everyone...

In the past, he thought this behavior was too much! too boring! It's so annoying!

But now, he smiled and said to Isabella, "Shall we take a photo?"

Mr. Tomson holding Isabella to take pictures in disbelief.

This, this, this Isabella is so happy, to be so valued by Mr. Tomson ?!

“I led the team.”

After taking the photo, Isabella checked the time and knew that the game was about to start over there, so she said, “See you later.”

“See you later, girl.” Mr. Tomson looked at the group photo on his mobile phone and smiled unbelievably happily.

He posted more than a dozen photos in the group at one go. In the photos, he smiled so much that his eyes narrowed. The little girl still looks as elegant as a lotus. She is so pretty. She is indeed a young girl of seventeen or eighteen years old. Cheap Mason Family boy!

Hmph, no, he, as a grandfather, didn't agree to this marriage!!

Looking back, he has to look at this kid's character and sincerity, if not, he will never agree!

When Isabella was leaving, she suddenly received a call from Bradley, and she answered it a little unexpectedly, Bradley ?”

Isabella, Bradley 's world tour concert will be held at Bomsville for the first time. I specially reserved two tickets with the best seats for you. You and Benjamin remember to come and see~ I have already sent the tickets to your mobile phone.”

Bradley's sunny voice on the phone, 100% pampering.

What he sent to Isabella was an electronic ticket with a QR code on it, and she could directly scan the code to enter the venue.

“Thank you Bradley.”

“Look, I haven’t seen you for a while, and I’m being polite to Bradley again! We are a family, let alone two concert tickets, even if you want Bradley to sing to you alone, Bradley is willing! Which time period is 24 hours Anything! Even if it’s three o’clock in the middle of the night, Bradley will accompany you to the end!”

Isabella : Thanks Bradley, you don’t have to...

Terry came home recently? Did he bully you? If so, Bradley went to find him desperately!”

Isabella hooked her lips,” Bradley can beat Terry?”

Although Terry is very skilled, should he be much better than Bradley??

“Don’t underestimate Bradley. Bradley can’t beat him, and Bradley won’t let him bully you. No matter who bullies you, Bradley won’t be polite to him. Just tell me, is there anything about Terry that makes you feel uncomfortable recently?, Bradley is going to settle accounts with him!”

“No, Terry is very nice to me.”

“That’s good.” While Bradley was relieved, his heart was a little sour, ” Bradley is going to have a concert tour next time, and I won’t be able to go back to accompany you while... You should find more classmates to play with. If there is any classmate who happens to like Bradley Yes, if you want Bradley’s autographed photo or tickets, you agree to everything, and Bradley will give you as much as you want! As long as they treat you sincerely, don’t bully you...”

When Isabella heard it, she was a little moved.

“If they want to chat with Bradley on voice calls, or meet via video, Bradley is fine. Bradley is also willing to invite them to dinner and take pictures with them. As long as you are happy, Bradley can do anything.”

“Bradley, that’s very kind of you.”

“You are good, Bradley has a sister like you, Bradley is very proud, very proud! Be good~”

Through the mobile phone, Bradley can imagine the cute and cute appearance of his sister.

“Then you can call Bradley anytime you have time, or send a WhatsApp...”

But don’t be like last time, after calling to ask about Terry ‘s birthday, he disappeared without a message or anything...

It caused him insomnia for several nights, and he always felt that he had done something wrong, that he had no place in his sister’s heart, and Terry took advantage of it...

message and call Bradley when I’m free,” Isabella affirmed.

“Okay, okay, then Bradley won’t bother you, you have to take care of yourself at school, you hang up first.’

Bradley heard her lively voice, he should be with his classmates, and he was sorry to delay her for too long.

“good.”

After Isabella hung up the phone, someone asked, “ Isabella, do you still have Bradley? How many babies did your mother have?”

Why does it sound like a lot?

“Not much.” Isabella didn’t answer directly, but just passed it on in a vague way.

But someone said, “The daughter of the richest man in the Logan Family, Cecilia, have you heard of it? There are five older brothers in her family. I heard that she is the only daughter in the family, and she is the favorite of the family!”

“I think her demeanor is very attractive, she looks like a lady from a rich family, but I don’t like her.”

“Me too, I always feel that she is aloof and far away from us...”

“Hey Isabella, your surname is also that Lily just now called you sister, you are not relatives, are you?”

“Huh? Really?”

Everyone just wanted to gossip, after all, they didn’t think Isabella would be related to the Logan Family...

There are too many people with the surname Logan in the world, and there are several celebrities with the surname Logan, such as the popular little fresh meat Bradley.

“The violin you just played is better than Cecilia.” Isabella suddenly said to a girl with short hair.

“Really?” The short-haired girl was a little surprised, “Really? But my total score is not as high as hers...”

Chapter 545 Get hung up by Bradley

“You are more talented than her, but your practice time is not as long as her.” Isabella said truthfully, “If you practice more later, you will surpass her in all likelihood.”

“Then I will practice more in the future and strive to make myself a big step forward.”

The girl with short hair did not expect that she would be affirmed by Isabella. She secretly had a motivation in her heart to surpass Cecilia, which she had never even dared to think about before!

“Then Isabella, what do you think of my saxophone just now?”

“How is my piano performance?”

“Is my flute okay?”

Many people surrounded Isabella, wanting to get her evaluation and approval.

the other side.

Cecilia stared at the back of Isabella, unable to recover for a long time, until the crowd dispersed, she still stood there in a daze, unable to believe it.

Isabella has been taught by Mr. Tomson since she was a child, and it has been more than ten years...

Get hung up by hraday

One must know that the famous chess master He Bin only received one month’s advice from Mr. Tomson...

How can Isabella have a way to get close to Mr. Tomson, and she is deeply loved by his old man...

It’s not hard to see today that Mr. Tomson came here on purpose to block her, just to play a game of chess with her?

Listening to Mr. Tomson 's words, she actually didn't answer Mr. Tomson's call in private, and didn't return Mr. Tomson 's WhatsApp...

Why is she so pushy?

But when I think about it carefully, she seems to have been so pushy, so high above, as if she has been standing on the clouds, disdain to fall into the mortal world and be with mortals...

Just then, several girls ran over to pull Cecilia.

"Cecilia, what are you thinking? Thinking so intently."

"You played the violin so well just now, I think the judges have a problem with their ears, obviously your score should be higher than Lily's."

"That's right, I think Lily 's violin level is not as good as yours, she's terrible at playing the violin."

"I don't think it sounds good either."

Cecilia knew that these girlfriends were comforting her, but hung up by Brady

she felt better, and said with a smile, "It doesn't matter, Lily is also a member of the Logan Family, winning is the common glory of the Logan Family, and I am also proud of her."

"Cecilia, you have a big picture and a big heart."

"This is the upbringing of the rich lady. We need to learn more from you in the future."

“Oh, by the way, Cecilia, you promised us concert tickets backstage today...”

Several eyes looked at her expectantly.

Cecilia smiled lightly, “I’ll call Bradley right now.”

“Great! You know Cecilia treats us like sisters.”

Cecilia, you are so kind, you help me every time I can’t get a concert ticket...”

“I really envy you for having a star brother who is a top performer in the entertainment industry and is so handsome...”

“Cecilia, your family is so handsome, especially you...”

Everyone left one sentence and right one sentence, boasting Cecilia to the sky.

Cecilia dialed Bradley’s number in front of them, and the people around did not forget to say, I really envy having a mobile phone number of a big star, Cecilia, you are so happy...

Get hung up by bradey

The other end was quickly connected.

“Bradley, can you give me some tickets for your concert?” Cecilia smiled in front of her friends, “That’s right, my girlfriends really like you and want to go to your concert, but they Can’t get tickets, you are too popular, tickets are too hot...”

Perhaps afraid that Bradley would not agree, Cecilia said. again, "They have begged me several times, and it's not good for me to refuse, but I don't want to make it difficult for you..."

Bradley on the other end felt a little sorry when he heard this," Cecilia, Bradley 's tickets have just been given out, how about this, next time, next time Bradley will leave you a few more tickets."

"Ah? Are they all gone?" As soon as Cecilia finished speaking, she felt that the surrounding atmosphere was a bit stiff...

Several friends looked at her beggingly, as if hoping she would plead with Bradley again...

"Originally, Bradley had more than a dozen tickets in his hand, but he promised his agent earlier that he would leave seven or eight tickets for his family and friends, and the rest, the agent would use it to thank a few people who helped me...'

Although the tickets given away, their location is not the best...

The best, already given to Isabella and Benjamin...

Gut hung up by Braday

"Say sorry to your friends for me, next time Bradley will save you a few more." Just as Bradley finished speaking, he heard someone calling him, " Bradley is going to rehearsal, let's talk later."

"Hey Bradley..." Cecilia wanted to say a few more words, but Bradley had already hung up.

She looked at the expectant and hot eyes around her, and explained a little apologetically, "Bradley said that he did have a dozen tickets in his hand, but he promised his agent earlier and left seven or eight tickets for his family and friends, and the rest The others were also sent out, so there are no more."

“Not one?”

“But his first stop is Bomsville, I really want to see it!”

“Cecilia, can you please let Bradley let us in?”

Celebrities often do this.

“Please Cecilia...” the crowd began to plead again.

Cecilia knew that Bradley was very principled, he would not let people walk up and down the aisle, let alone hide in the backstage to watch the concert...

She knew this a long time ago.

“On the phone just now, Bradley asked me to say sorry to you, saying that I will keep a few more sheets for you next time. I am really sorry. I called late.”

Everyone else was a little regretful and unwilling, and always

Get hung up by Bradley felt that it was Cecilia ‘s problem.

Obviously she could call Bradley again to act like a baby, just ask the staff to let them in, such a simple thing, but she is unwilling to help.

Since you didn’t want to help, why did you agree to help them in the first place?!

Don’t you just want to show off that you have a celebrity brother??

Cecilia, I don't want concert tickets. You know, I have always admired your elder brother. I heard that he will attend a Bomsville celebrity charity gala next Monday and ask for a girlfriend. Can you recommend me to him as his girlfriend? partner?"

lady with short hair asked.

Perhaps because she was afraid that Cecilia would refuse, the short-haired lady said again," Cecilia, your tickets for Bradley are very popular, and it is difficult to keep one more ticket. I'll call and ask to see if he has chosen a female partner, if not, you can recommend me..."

"Cecilia, just help her. If she is lucky enough to become your sister-in-law, she will definitely ask your elder brother to give you more pocket money in the future."

"What kind of pocket money, if you want to give it, you will also give it shares."

The short-haired Lady hastily expressed her loyalty, "As long as I become the other half of your elder brother, I will give you all the shares your elder brother gave me.

Although Cecilia was a little speechless when she heard what they said, the feeling of being begged prompted her to pick up her phone.

Soon, she dialed Lisa's number.

Chapter 546

"Cecilia." Lisa's warm voice sounded from the other end of the phone.

Cecilia clenched her phone tightly, feeling a little nervous subconsciously.

For some reason, every time she called her eldest brother, she felt nervous and stressed.

“Brother, I heard that you are going to attend a charity party next Monday and you need to bring a female companion. It happens that my friend is free. Do you want to go together?”

“No need.” Lisa heard the meaning in her words, and refused softly, “I already have someone to choose.”

Cecilia thought, it can't be Lucy, right? Bringing such a girl to such a high-end occasion will embarrass the Logan Family and the eldest brother, right?

Seeing that the short-haired Lady kept clasping her hands together, making a gesture of please.

Cecilia could only say, “Are you free these two days? I want to have dinner with you.”

Lisa heard her thoughts, and said in a low voice, “Are you busy recently? Is your studies easy?”

Are you worrying about his life?

“Brother, I just want to have dinner with you...” Cecilia guessed that Brother already knew what she was thinking, and hurriedly said, “I haven't seen you for a long time...”

“Don't think about what you shouldn't. If you're too free, I'll hire you a few more teachers.”

“Brother...”

“I have a meeting.”

It was time for Lisa 's meeting, and his time was always accurate. At this moment, he hung up the phone and sat at the conference table with cold eyes.

Cecilia didn't expect to be hung up by two brothers in a row today!!

Seeing the expectant gaze of the short-haired lady, Cecilia could only bite the bullet and lie, "My elder brother said that he would ask his assistant to see when he is free. When the time comes, I will bring you and have dinner with him.

"Really??" The short-haired Lady was so happy that she jumped up and hugged Cecilia, "That's great! I knew you would have a way!"

Cecilia smiled on the surface, but she didn't know how to think of a way to trick her brother into having dinner with her...

the other side.

Lily finally recovered from the blow when the phone rang.

She took it out and saw that it was from her mother, Molly.

Lily, I heard that Mr. Tomson is coming to Bomsville. You, Mr. Rex, said that you can set up a line for us tonight. You go home now. I will ask the driver to pick you up. Dress up and go to the coffee shop tonight and Meet him and find a way to let him play a game of chess with you, remember, you must not lose face to him, and you must not appear to be too stupid, and you must grasp the proportion just right."

It is also necessary to attract Mr. Tomson 's attention, and to make him feel that he is a malleable talent, so that he may have the opportunity to get his attention and advice...

"Mom, I don't want to go."

Lily was already disappointed by this matter, but now her mother's phone call undoubtedly gave her another blow.

Sitting in the garden at home, Molly took a sip of coffee gracefully, and said calmly, "What's wrong?"

Chess has always been a hobby that my daughter is proud of, but now, it seems to be hit??

"Mr. Tomson came to Bomsville University today... I lost to Isabella in front of him."

"What did you say?" Molly paused as she drank her coffee, her gaze a little disbelieving.

"Isabella's chess is very good... Mr. Tomson said in person that he and Isabella have known each other for more than ten years, and he taught Isabella's chess. In addition, in front of everyone, he asked Isabella to think about inheriting the legacy....."

Lily succinctly stated what happened today, and did not forget to reprimand her.

"Mom, do you think there is something wrong with Isabella's brain? She doesn't know how to cherish such a big opportunity in front of her. Either she is really mentally ill, or she is just putting on airs and hanging Mr. Tomson on her own. I think it's different, it's special..."

Maybe she really regards herself as a treasure, so she likes to put on that condescending and dismissive look.

"Idiot." Molly poured another cup of coffee, took a sip slowly, and then asked, "There were so many people present, and Mr. Tomson deliberately mentioned the matter of inheriting the mantle in front of them. Why do you think?"

“What else is there, isn’t it just to let everyone know that Isabella has his backer behind her, so she can’t be easily offended!” Lily became even angrier when she said this, and she didn’t know why Mr. Tomson identified her.

Molly said calmly, “No, his real purpose is only one, and that is to put pressure on Isabella in a disguised form. He was sure that Isabella would not lose face and reject him in front of everyone, so he deliberately brought it up...”

But what he didn’t expect was that Isabella didn’t say inheritance or rejection, and just changed the subject like this...

Molly thinks this girl is very interesting, facing such an olive branch, dealing with it in this way...

“She’s not stupid, either she has too many olive branches to take, or she has her own olive branches, she doesn’t need to take anyone else’s, she has it herself.”

In Molly’s view, Isabella is a hidden person. She once warned her daughter not to provoke her easily.

With her daughter’s skills, she can’t beat her.

In today’s situation, another backer behind her Mr. Tomson, appeared in front of everyone.

How many are there that didn’t show up?

no one knows.

“But Mom, I don’t understand... why did Mr. Tomson choose her?”

Lily thinks that she is quite talented in chess. The teachers who taught her before praised her for being very smart and malleable, saying that she will definitely be able to make a fortune in the chess world in the future.

If she could get advice from Mr. Tomson when she was a child, for ten years, she might not be worse than Isabella now!

“Sometimes, the right time, the right place, and the right people, these three elements are indispensable.” Molly insisted, “Come back and fight for it tonight.”

Such a good opportunity is placed in front of them, and they cannot back down despite the difficulties.

Isabella hasn't given Mr. Tomson an affirmative answer yet, and Mr. Tomson can find a better candidate...

Nothing is foregone.

Lily doesn't have to be better than Isabella, but if she is really talented and studious, what reason does Mr. Tomson have to refuse??

Even if you can't be a personal disciple, getting the guidance of Mr. Tomson is much better than getting guidance from other people.

After listening to her mother's words, Lily also felt that it made sense, “I'll go back right away.”

When she passed the backstage, she happened to see Cecilia surrounded by a few friends.

At this time, Cecilia was in a good mood, but when she received Scarlet's WhatsApp and learned that Bradley had given Isabella the concert ticket, her phone almost fell to the ground...

“I just found out that the madam originally wanted a ticket for her best friend’s daughter. She called the fifth young master, and the fifth young master said that he had given it away. When I asked, it was for Isabella...”

Cecilia, why are you so pale? Do you want to go to the school infirmary?”

“Are you okay? Your smile looks a bit forced. If you’re not feeling well, don’t force yourself...”

“Shall I take you to the school infirmary?”

Chapter 547

“I’m fine.”

Cecilia tried her best to stabilize her emotions, and quickly sent a message to Scarlet.

Scarlet, are you sure? Bradley really gave Isabella the concert ticket?”

“When Madam called, I was standing next to her. It’s absolutely true! The fifth young master not only gave Isabella the ticket, but also gave him the best seat!”

Perhaps anticipating Cecilia’s sadness and loss, Scarlet couldn’t help but fight for her.

“Fifth Young Master is going too far. I told you that there is no ticket, but then turned around and gave the ticket to my own sister... I don’t care about your feelings at all!”

The word “sister” hurt Cecilia’s heart severely.

She didn’t expect that Bradley was so gentle on the phone. just now, that he was lying to her!

“You just said that there is already a young master candidate for next week’s charity dinner, and this candidate will not be Isabella, right?” Scarlet sent over and asked again.

Cecilia was startled, no way...

“Miss Logan, I don’t know if you have noticed that Isabella’s position in their hearts has become more and more important, and you...” Scarlet added, “beginning to become irrelevant.”

Cecilia couldn’t stabilize her emotions, and said to the friends around her in a daze, “Sorry, I’m going to the bathroom.”

Everyone looked at her leaving back, a little puzzled, and couldn’t help whispering.

“Is Cecilia on her period?”

“I guess it should be... Her face is pale, let’s wait for her here.”

“To be honest, I think the violin played by Isabella from the Medical University is the real pinnacle. It sounds so good!”

“Me too, I was shocked the moment her music came out, and she played better than my violin teacher.”

“Hush, keep your voice down, do you want Cecilia to hear you? We’re going to use her to get close to her brothers in the future!”

Everyone made silence again, and after a while, they began to chat quietly.

“If you become her sister-in-law, and I become her second sister-in-law... we will be able to see each other often in the future! Like now, we often play together...”

“Hey, look, Lily went to the bathroom, is she going to trouble Cecilia?"

"Shall we go in and help Cecilia ?"

A curly-haired girl wanted to go in to help, but was held back by several other friends.

"Don't go! Did you forget that Cecilia said last time that she went to the hospital with Lily to visit her grandma, and Lily beat her up on the fire escape? We are weak hands, and we are definitely not her opponents...in case Your face is all blurred... how will you meet people in the future?"

"Yeah, what if I have to have dinner with Lisa next time, and my face will be messed up..."

"I still have to go to the Bradley concert, but I can't have a bruised nose..."

Although they knew that Lily would make trouble for Cecilia in all likelihood, five or six girls didn't dare to go in, and even purposely wandered a little further away, trying to stay out of it, pretending not to notice the situation here.

As soon as Lily entered the bathroom, she heard Cecilia asking the person on the phone what to do. Her voice sounded a little anxious, even crying.

"How did it become like this...why..." Cecilia was about to cry, but when she raised her eyes inadvertently, she noticed the person in the mirror, Lily!

She subconsciously clenched her phone tightly, and didn't know how long Lily, a despicable person, had been eavesdropping here. She said to the person on the phone,

"I'll call you later."

Lily folded her hands in front of her chest, looking at her flustered and angry look casually.

“Call Scarlet, let Scarlet give you advice?”

Lily sneered, walked in again, took out a lipstick from her bag, and touched up the color of her lips in front of the mirror.

“What good idea can a stupid servant come up with!”

“Speaking of how good you are, don’t you still lose to Isabella, a defeated opponent who doesn’t know what to show in front of me!” Cecilia obviously looked down on her.

Lily raised her glamorous lips and said with a smile, Isabella ‘s violin and chess are indeed better than me. I feel convinced when I lose to her, but you, who have learned the violin for so many years, actually play like that...”

Cecilia clenched her fists and saw that the lipstick in Lily’s hand turned out to be the latest limited edition from LV, and the diamond necklace she was wearing around her neck was a new VW model. She even wore a small dress and high heels on her feet., all are limited!

Never seen it before!

Where did she get so much money to buy these?!

Cecilia suddenly remembered that uncles, aunts, and Lily, including Lily ‘s sister, every time they showed up, the things on them were all very valuable...

Even the lives of their parents are not as extravagant as they are...

They seem to never run out of money...

Seeing her staring at the lipstick in a daze, Lily couldn't help sneering, "The adopted daughter is the adopted daughter, and the clothes on her body are getting more and more shabby. Why, Logan Family is reluctant to buy you a good dress now?"

Cecilia was furious, grabbed the bag in her hand, and slammed the chain strap on Lily 's back hard.

Lily dodged in a hurry and pressed Cecilia 's head into the washbasin.

The faucet sensed the approach of the human body, and the water came out with a splash.

Cecilia 's hair, face, were all soaked in water, she struggled, but Lily held her head down desperately.

"My sister will wash your hair to enhance your sisterhood..."

Cecilia couldn't bear to be held down by her, so she stepped back angrily, and the heel of her high-heeled shoes stepped on Lily 's feet hard.

Lily let go of her hand in pain, and Cecilia took the water from the washbasin and swung it onto Lily.

Bitch, I'm fighting with you!"

Cecilia was so angry that she grabbed her bag and slapped the chain hard on Lily.

Lily ate a pain, picked up the trash can next to it, and poured the contents on Cecilia.

Although Cecilia dodged subconsciously and blocked it with her hands, the dirty things still stained her dress...

“Ouch...” Cecilia was about to vomit.

Seeing her being so dirty, Lily also felt disgusted, and hurriedly kept her distance.

“Looking at your current appearance as a bereaved dog, it will be used as an advance to let you adapt to the future life. Be mentally prepared. Once you leave the Logan Family, my sister will definitely find her more and make contact with her.”

After Lily finished speaking, she turned and left.

Cecilia was furious, but the smell of garbage on her body made her retch. She was so mad, looking at herself in a mess in the mirror, she swore that one day, Lily must pay a terrible price!

She took out her mobile phone and called her friend, “Send me a dress, no matter what it is, send it right away!”

In fact, she was a little angry, because a living person at Lily’s age walked into the bathroom, and her group of good friends couldn’t have missed it!

Chapter 548 Isn’t there still no strings?

“Ah? Cecilia, why are you in such a hurry to get a dress? Are you on your period and dirty the dress? We waited for you outside for a long time, and seeing that you didn’t come out, we guessed that you might be on your period, so we hurried I went to the supermarket to buy you something to use during your period...”

Hearing this, Cecilia calmed down a bit, “Anyway, let’s send it over first.”

Damn Lily, it’s time to die!!!

the other side.

Molly called Lily out of the blue and said that Mr. Tomson and Mr. Rex 's coffee drinking time had been advanced, and now they are drinking coffee at a nearby coffee shop.

Molly made Lily get ready. Their caravan will soon arrive at the gate of the school, with stylists and makeup artists in the car, and they must make a good impression on Mr. Tomson today.

at this time.

a coffee room with a fragrant coffee, Mr. Tomson and Mr. Rex are drinking coffee.

“You old guy is getting more and more difficult to date, tell me, I've been dating you for several months!” Although Mr. Rex talked about settling accounts with his old friend, the smile on his face never stopped. You are at the winter solstice, and it will be American New Year soon...”

“Hahahaha...” Mr. Tomson laughed, “Isn't this chasing the young man and wanting her to inherit my mantle!”

“You haven't done this yet? It's really not possible, change her.”

“I can't change it...” Mr. Tomson waved his hands repeatedly and said, “I just like that girl...”

“Aren't you saying you're looking for abuse? There are so many smart kids in the world, so just take it as a chance for other young people. Why hang yourself on a tree...”

“Hey, there is something in your words, tell me, who do you want to recommend to me!”

“Hey, you guessed it unexpectedly, so I won’t beat around the bush, let me tell you...” Mr. Rex introduced Lily again.

After a while, someone knocked on the door, and the waiter brought a pair of mother and daughter standing at the door. The two were well dressed, elegant and noble, with a smile on their faces.

“Molly and Lily are here? Come in, come in...” Mr. Rex took the initiative to call them in.

Molly greeted him first, then looked at Mr. Tomson.

“I’ve heard about the reputation of Mr. Tomson for a long time, but now I see it, it’s really extraordinary... I’m Lily’s mother, Molly, and I’m very glad that Mr. Rex gave us the opportunity to meet you today. Lily, follow Mr. Tomson Say hello.”

When she introduced herself, she did not mention that she was from the Logan Family, but introduced herself as the mother of the child, which left a good impression on Mr.

Tomson.

Lily also greeted her generously, and it could be seen that she was a well-mannered and educated person.

“I have known Mr. Rex for more than twenty years, and this is the first time in his life that he recommends someone to me...”

Although Mr. Tomson heard the name “Lily” a little familiar, but today he was backstage at Bomsville University, and he didn’t pay attention to other people. He only saw Isabella...

“I really think this child is smart, clever and malleable. She has won countless chess awards since she was a child...” Mr. Rex looked at Lily again after saying this, “Did you bring the certificates and trophies to Mr. Chu take a look?”

Lily smiled, “The younger generation dare not show shame in front of the two grandpas. Those awards can scare ordinary people, but the two grandpas are superb at chess, how dare the younger generation play big swords in front of sword king.”

“Hahahaha... Let me just say, this kid is clever and clever, and he won’t embarrass you in the future.” Mr. Rex seemed very satisfied with Lily, if he hadn’t recruited a closed disciple, he really wanted Lily at this moment Recruited.

Mr. Tomson smiled, “Come over for coffee first.”

Everyone chatted and laughed and drank a few cups of coffee. Seeing that the atmosphere was getting better, Molly spoke with a smile.

“Lily has always admired your reputation. I wonder if there is a chance to get your advice?”

“Hahahaha, I don’t dare to take it as a guide... If you study hard from He Bin, you will have great achievements in the future.”

Although He Bin is a chess master, he is not even a little worse than Mr. Tomson...

What Molly and Lily want is not to follow He Bin, but to become Mr. Tomson’s closed disciples, so that they can stand on the supreme peak in the future and be admired by everyone.

Mr. Tomson...” Lily still wanted to play a game of chess with him, and she had already figured out what to say in her heart.

But Mr. Tomson said with a smile, "Okay, I'll stop here for today's coffee. I still have something to do. Mr. Rex, let's make an appointment later."

Mr. Rex knew that this matter could not be done, and smiled generously, "You are a busy person, and you don't know how many months you will have to wait, so I will send you off first...

"No, you stay with them..."

"My old friend, I don't see you off, I'm so sorry..."

Molly signaled Lily with her eyes to stop fighting, there was no chance.

After the people left, Lily couldn't help feeling a little discouraged.

Molly picked up the coffee cup in front of her, and took a sip of coffee slowly," Mr. Tomson didn't choose you as a close disciple. I expected this, but he didn't even mean to give you advice. Do you know

why?"

Hearing her mother's question, Lily shook her head, "Is it because I didn't behave well just now?"

Molly finished the coffee in the coffee cup and said, "To be precise, your performance just now was not as good as Isabella's. Your every move is not enough to shake Isabella's position in his heart..."

It seems that the daughter born by Eloise has some skills to make Mr. Tomson value her so much.

“Is that so... Next, as long as I go in front of him a few more times, I will be able to impress him one day? Make him look at me with admiration?”

“It’s useless.” Molly saw through this, and added another cup of coffee to herself, “We don’t need to hang on this tree, isn’t there another choice?”

“Mom, don’t you mean no strings?”

“Yeah.” Molly took a sip of coffee and said lightly, “In the early years, he specially challenged the songs with jaw- dropping difficulty. The fast songs were aggressive and unrestrained under her interpretation, and the slow songs were in the air. Her interpretation is as delicate and moving as flowing water, easily touching people’s hearts without being overly pretentious.”

When she said this, she paused, and then said, “No strings are not only loved by conductors such as Karavan and Shanna, but also the well-known French composer Silvano, the well-known British composer Alita, and the talented Spanish composer. Cecilia, the composer of the world, is full of praise for her performance and looks forward to having the opportunity to cooperate with her...”

Lily seemed to see hope.

“The famous violinist Hesena once said that she would never perform violin music without strings in public, because it would be self-defeating, and she could not pull out the full emotion and the collision between ice and fire.”

Speaking of this, Molly said, “Many performers only linger on the external magnificence of their works, simply want to show off their skills, but lack deep thinking. The exquisite perfection of stringless technology is amazing. I have reached a very high level of thought, so I can pull out such a beautiful song...”

Chapter 549 The Birthday Party Next Week

“But Mom, no one has seen what Wu Xian looks like, so it’s not so easy to find her.”

“Who said that?” Molly smiled gracefully, “Didn’t he play a song “The World” with Mr. Tomson before he? It is said that he will appear every year on Mr. Tomson’s birthday... Count, Mr. Tomson’s birthday is coming up, next Saturday...”

“You mean, as long as we find a way to attend Mr. Tomson’s birthday party, it’s possible to meet he himself?”

While Lily was happy, she was also a little worried, “But what if Wu Xian has recruited closed disciples, or, like Mr. Tomson, she doesn’t accept disciples easily...”

“How do you know if you don’t go and see?” Molly said this, when she suddenly heard footsteps outside, she whispered, “Quiet.”

Seeing her mother’s upright sitting posture, Lily followed suit and straightened her back.

As the footsteps got closer and closer, the door was pushed open, Mr. Rex said with a smile, “Finally, I sent that old guy away. Once he is here, the atmosphere is almost freezing to death.”

Molly and Lily smiled at the same time, showing their wealthy upbringing.

“Molly, I’m really sorry, that old guy’s temper is too stubborn. Once he decides something, he won’t be able to pull back nine cows.”

“Mr. Rex, you are serious. Without your recommendation, how could we have a chance to meet Mr. Tomson in this life? You have helped us a lot. It is Lily who is not in the eyes of Mr. Tomson. It is none of your business.” thing.”

Mr. Rex was moved by her words, and said ashamedly, "Well, I know a chess master who is better than He Bin, and I will introduce you to him another day."

"Mr. Rex, Lily has always admired your chess skills, but she didn't have the fate to be your disciple. She thinks that Mr. Tomson is the only one who can compare with you in the world, but now Mr. Tomson has someone. Lily is a girl Whether high or low..."

There is only one person in the United States who can be compared with that old guy."

"Mr. Rex, you are too modest...Although Lily can't be your disciple and Mr. Tomson 's, but Mr. Tomson 's birthday is next week, Lily still wants to express the respect of the younger generation... I don't know if Mr. Rex can Do me a favor and let Lily finish her last thought?"

Seeing that the time was ripe, Lily also said, " Mr. Rex, I don't want Mr. Tomson to accept me as an apprentice. I just want to give the birthday present I prepared earlier, so I will leave. I will never let Mr. Tomson embarrass me."

"You child, the presents are all ready..." Mr. Rex thought about it, "but that old guy's birthday party is held in private every time..."

Never entertain guests.

Those invited were all close relatives and friends on weekdays.

Even the bigwigs in the business world and the wealthy upstarts find it hard to see him...

Mr. Rex thought about it for a while, and then said, "Well, when the time comes, Lily will send me a birthday present... I'll just pretend I have something to do."

Mr. Rex, you are so kind!" Lily grabbed his arm and was completely moved, "You treat me better than my own grandfather... If there is a next life, I really want to be your own granddaughter."

“Hahaha, your little mouth is getting better and better at speaking...” Mr. Rex was amused by her.

But Molly said seriously, “Lily, don’t mess around, put your hands down.”

“No, I just like Mr. Rex! If I can be Mr. Rex’s granddaughter in the next life, then I must give more blessings to God, and I will cook delicious food for Mr. Rex every day, and accompany him to think about it. place, do what he wants to do, and take care of him for the rest of his life.”

Molly smiled helplessly, and looked at Mr. Rex again, “This girl is not big or small, but she really likes and admires you in her heart... She envied your disciple more than once at home, and she had the opportunity to get your advice...”

“Hahahaha, I, Huang, how can I...” Mr. Rex was embarrassed

the other side.

Mr. Tomson sent a message to Isabella as soon as he left the coffee room.

Girl, I just forgot to say that you have to come to my birthday party next Saturday. You have to push me away from all the big things. Do you hear me?”

This time it was his sixtieth birthday, and he planned to make a big fuss.

Perhaps afraid that Isabella would not come, Mr. Tomson added, “If you don’t come, I will never love you again, and will be very angry. You can’t calm down with just a few words of coaxing. You said, the consequences are very serious...”

At this time, Isabella came to the South Auditorium of Bomsville University, and the girls around her couldn’t help’ but said, “Look, the South Auditorium of Bomsville University is more imposing than the North Auditorium, and it is much more beautiful than the dilapidated auditorium of our medical university.”

“Don’t overwhelm your prestige with other people’s aspirations. A big auditorium is nothing. Only students who can show their skills are considered capable.”

“That’s right, today we must bring honor to the Medical University!”

Isabella!!”

At this time, Poll and Millie saw Isabella and rushed over to hold her hand.

“Finally waiting for you, the next one will be me and Poll! So nervous!”

For some reason, when they saw Isabella coming, their hearts suddenly felt at ease.

At this time Rene also saw them, got up and walked towards them, and did not forget to comfort the group of students behind Isabella, “It’s okay, just do your best, you don’t have to be the first in everything.”

Those students were a little puzzled, as if they didn’t know what Senior Rene was talking about.

“You spent so long over there, it’s...” Are you crying?

So Isabella spent a lot of time comforting them...

Rene still knows the talent level of the medical university.

I guess I lost and cried over there...

“You didn’t embarrass the medical university, don’t blame yourself.”

As soon as Rene finished speaking, a short-haired girl said, "Senior Rene, we didn't embarrass the medical university. On the contrary, today Isabella came on stage and slapped other schools in the face! Especially the people from Bomsville University, their faces turned green!" "

"Let me say it!" A girl with ponytails said first, "That thought that no one could beat the violin. After being praised by all the judges, she suddenly called Isabella on the stage to compete. After Isabella went up, the violin The level is simply crushing everyone present, those judges are full of praise for Isabella, and even rush to accept her as a student, hoping that she can participate in the international violin competition to win glory for the country!"

Rene and the professional competition students he led were all dumbfounded.

Especially Millie and Poll, they have known Isabella for so long, they didn't know that Isabella can play the violin.

"Also, that Lily lost and was not convinced, so she went to Isabella to try chess in private, but who did you guess came? It was Mr. Tomson!! Mr. Tomson, one of the three famous chess masters in the world, personally Find the backstage at Bomsville University just to play a game of chess with Isabella!"

Chapter 550

Everyone's eyes widened again, unbelievable, Isabella also knows chess?

"As a result, you must not have guessed that Isabella won Mr. Tomson, and then people from Bomsville University and the other University said that Isabella cheated, and that her Enter University exam results were also obtained by cheating. As a result, you can guess what, Mr. Tomson He personally came out and said that he taught Isabella 's chess skills, and that they have known each other for more than ten years, and let Isabella think about inheriting his mantle..."

Rene, Poll, Millie and others were stunned again...

Isabella is too amazing...

It's so hidden.

At this time, the host on stage named Millie, Poll, and Willa to come on stage.

The medical team represented by the four of them challenged the medical team of the Faculty of Medicine of K Bomsville University, and the whole audience was excited.

Isabella, the most powerful thing in the Medical University is medicine. If we lose, it will be too embarrassing for the Medical University..."

"Don't think too much, just do your best." Isabella encouraged, "Come here, don't leave any regrets for yourself."

The four nodded again, and walked towards the stage with a little confidence.

The first competition was a medical knowledge competition, which was conducted by answering questions.

"Please name at least ten core medical systems that you have mastered."

Someone from the western medicine team of Bomsville University quickly rang the bell and answered, "The first- diagnosis responsibility system, the third-level doctor's ward round system, and the difficult case discussion system..."

Millie and Poll are a little anxious, because this problem is obviously in the category of Western medicine.

"What are the criteria for judging a critically ill patient?"

Just as Millie was about to ring the bell, someone from Bomsville University took the lead, "Patients with circulatory arrest, respiratory, cardiac, acute liver and kidney failure..."

Seeing them talking endlessly, the medical team of the Medical University became a little anxious.

"What is the drug of choice for rescuing anaphylactic shock?"

People from Bomsville University and Medical University rang the bell at the same time.

Bomsville University beats it by a second, "Adrenaline."

The people at the Medical University were a little angry, because these questions were clearly based on Western medicine, and even the answer was Western medicine!

The second game was about how to make a patient with stomach trouble recover in the shortest time.

The prescription prescribed by the medical team of Bomsville University is Western medicine, which is quick and effective...

The medical team of the Medical University pays attention to nourishing the stomach and protecting the stomach. It takes a long time and the medicine is mild...

"In the three games, the Medical University has already lost two games. It seems that there is no need to compete in the third game." A member of the Bomsville University medical team joked domineeringly, "I don't think you should call it a medical university. Not enough for us to hang and beat."

“It seems that the medical university doesn’t have anyone who can show it. We have a few doctors who come to compete with us.”

“I think people from the Western Medical Team of the Medical University dare not come, for fear of being abused...”

The people on the stage laughed loudly, and the audience in the audience also laughed out loud. Only the people from the Medical University clenched their fists secretly, unwilling to lose.

“The really good people from our medical university haven’t come out yet!” Willa said angrily.

“Oh... You mean No. 1 Isabella won’t get full marks, right? I heard that she is here, why don’t you let her compete on stage?”

Calling out the most powerful person from the medical university and crushing her hard, that is the real slap in the face of their medical university.

Isabella in the audience, and they didn’t know whether this would harm Isabella or give the medical university a chance...

I’m afraid of the next competition, the questions are still related to western medicine... Isabella is not good at it.

At this time, Isabella sat under the stage, watching this scene playfully, why are there so many people looking for abuse today?

She got up suddenly and walked to the stage.

The members of the Bomsville University team were stunned for a moment, and then taunted, "I heard that No. 1 with a perfect score often doesn't go to class, and dares to compete with us on stage? It seems that the Medical University really has no one who can do it..."

Isabella came to the stage, her calm eyes exuded confidence.

"Classrooms are for those who need them. But I don't need them."

"Hahahaha dare to talk big right now...don't cry when you lose later." The Bomsville University team didn't take her seriously. In their view, how can a person who doesn't even listen well in class Possibly won them over?

They are the ones who read until two or three o'clock in the morning every night, and vow to make a career in medicine!

While Isabella was late for school and left early, they were all absorbing medical knowledge!

Isabella behind long ago!

The people from the medical university in the audience couldn't help shouting:

"Too arrogant! Isabella, hang them up!!!"

"Let them know what it means that there is a sky beyond the sky, and there are people beyond people."

Isabella, torture them to death!!!"

Although there were only sparse shouts cheering for Isabella, Isabella still felt the trust and encouragement of the people from the Medical University.

Rene in the audience thought that although Isabella didn't usually go to class, she was often seen going in and out of the school laboratory, and sometimes Principal Brown would also go in...

They should be doing experiments in it, right?

Even if Isabella doesn't have any medical background, but she has been there many times, she must have been taught by Principal Brown!

At least, it shouldn't be too embarrassing...

At this time, the professor of the medical university on the judging panel hurriedly called Principal Brown.

Principal Brown, classmate Isabella is on stage to compete."

"Really?" Mr. Brown smiled and was very happy, "I know that the students at Bomsville University can't hold back. Seeing the perfect score of No. 1, they are proud and want to compete. As long as my little girl Go up and slap your face casually, next year there will be many students coming here admiringly, and our medical university will be more lively than now hahahaha..."

The professor of the medical university was a little puzzled, this student Isabella didn't even see her in school...

Principal Brown be so sure of her abilities for a person who doesn't even take classes well?!

Moreover, how did you guess that she would compete on stage?

"Turn around, let the people in the procurement department order more beds, desks and chairs, etc., to prepare for next year's enrollment. Our medical university will become famous this time hahahaha..."

After Mr. Brown hung up the phone, I still didn't forget to say proudly, "It's a child after all, I can't hold back, let the little girl kill their prestige and teach them how to be human...

Bomsville University team on the stage looked at Isabella proudly, "I heard that you are a doctor, tell me, what do you want to compare, we Western medicine doctors will not play the game of picking herbs with you."

Isabella said calmly, "Just pick what you are good at."

"What are we good at?" The captain of Bomsville University has never heard of it. "Heh, the perfect score of No. 1 is really arrogant. What we are good at is dissection!"

Although Bomsville University has not had the opportunity to get in touch with anatomy practice in their freshman life, they have all worshiped famous teachers in private, and their level is higher than that of ordinary students.

They didn't believe that a freshman in the medical department of a medical university could dissect!!
