

Chased Her 561

Chapter 561 Your friend told us to continue

“I’ll take you to deal with it.” Benjamin carried her to another presidential suite.

The manager guarding this floor saw it, and instantly widened his eyes. He didn’t expect Mr. Mason to spoil this girl so much in private.

Are the rumors true that Mr. Mason is secretly dating a girl??

This girl is the one in Mr. Mason’s arms??

But she looks only seventeen or eighteen years old, probably still in high school, right??

Mr. Mason can do it too...

Without thinking too much, the manager hurriedly walked towards them, took out the master card, and swiped open the door of another presidential suite for them.

“Go get the medicine box.” Benjamin ordered quietly.

“yes.”

Only then did the manager realize that there seemed to be injuries on the girl’s calf. Upon closer inspection, it was just a few small cuts, probably scratched by some small stone or something.

Hey, the girls nowadays are too delicate, if they get hurt even a little, they have to be hugged by Mr. Mason, and they can’t even walk.

Relying on Mr. Mason 's favor, proud of being favored...

And Benjamin had just entered the room, noticed the gaze behind him, turned his head and asked coldly, "Still watching?"

"I, I, I'm looking to see if Isabella 's injury is serious, and if he needs to get some more medicine...I'll get it right away." The manager was so frightened that he lost his soul, and hurried out of the way.

Benjamin put Isabella on the sofa and found that her calf was scratched and her arm had several cuts.

This little girl is often injured, it seems that people should study some medicines and bring them with them...

"Don't worry, it's just an ordinary wound." Isabella knew it at a glance, "It's nothing serious."

"You always say it's okay." Benjamin looked at her wound, remembering how she jumped into the lake desperately to save someone. Although he tried his best to swim towards her at that time, the little girl swam faster than him. good.

At that time, he was chasing the little girl, so afraid that the next second, the little girl would disappear in front of his eyes.

"Try not to hurt yourself next time?" Although Benjamin knew that the little girl put his own life and death aside every time, he still wanted to hear an affirmative answer from the little girl, as long as she pays more attention and suffers less..

Isabella asked with a smile, "Does your heart hurt?"

“Well, every time I see you get hurt, I can’t wait for these wounds to appear on my body.” Benjamin squatted on the ground halfway, holding up her injured right foot, “Look, it’s tender and tender. It will take many days to disappear.”

“This kind of pain is like tickling to me. It doesn’t matter at all. If you feel distressed, I will pay more attention next time.”

“real?”

“Um.”

Benjamin was moved and happy, approached slowly, and kissed her lips lightly.

“Mr. Mason, the medicine box is here!!” The manager appeared like a gust of wind, and found that the two were kissing. He regretted that he ran too fast and ruined his good deed.

Benjamin gave him a gloomy look, “It’s pretty fast.”

“I, I’m just worried about Isabella’s injury...” The manager hastily put down the medicine box, “I’m leaving first, Mr. Mason just call me if you need anything.”

Seeing the manager fleeing away, Isabella couldn’t help laughing, “You scared people away again.”

“I don’t have any vision at all.” Benjamin opened the medicine box again, put Isabella’s injured right foot on himself, carefully disinfected the wound and applied medicine.

Isabella watched him lower his head and take the medicine seriously, and couldn’t help but teased, “Your movements are getting more and more proficient.”

“Because you have been injured more and more times.” Benjamin applied the medicine gently and carefully, and raised his handsome face and asked in concern, “Does it hurt?”

Isabella shook her head.

“This resort is stocked with the common medicines on the market. There are no specific medicines, and some will irritate the wound. If it hurts, tell me, and I’ll ask someone to get some medicine again.”

“Don’t bother.” Isabella smiled, “I’ll be back in a while.”

“It’s all here, why don’t you invite your friend to have dinner before leaving?” Benjamin bandaged the wound on her calf, and then disinfected the wound on her arm.

He held the little girl’s soft hand, and the wound appeared on such a fair and delicate skin, which seemed a little shocking.

Isabella thought of the two people in the hot spring, at this point, they must be hungry too.

“Okay, let’s go after eating.”

I will probably have nothing to eat when I go back to school.

After Benjamin helped her bandage the wound, he gave her a deep hug.

“I seldom see you these days.” He looked into the little girl’s eyes and said helplessly, “You are really too busy.”

There are fewer and fewer people getting along with each other as simple and daily as before.

“Aren’t we staying together again?” Isabella looked at him with a smile, “Get up first, the ground is cold.”

Benjamin was still kneeling on the ground, breathing in her body greedily, hugging her and refusing to let go.

Isabella patted him on the back, “The clip you gave me is very useful, and I will keep it with me in the future.”

“Better take me with you...” Benjamin looked down at her again, and kissed her lips again irresistibly.

Isabella- ”

Poll helped Willa, whose knee was injured, to find this place. Seeing the intimate scene between the two, she instantly petrified.

She responded very quickly, “There are too many rooms, Willa, we went to the wrong place, manager, please guide us, which room did we soak in the hot spring just now?”

Manager outside the door: Didn’t you ask me for directions just now and said you were looking for Isabella??

Poll desperately winked at the manager when he heard Isabella ‘s voice coming from inside.

“Let’s go down and eat something together.”

Benjamin looked at the little girl in front of him, wondering why it was so hard to be alone with her.

“No, no, no, we’re not hungry.” Willa didn’t want to ruin their good business. It turned out that Isabella didn’t want to go to the hot spring just now, she said she had something to do, and she came here to accompany Benjamin!!

Thinking of the picture of Benjamin kneeling and kissing Isabella, Willa felt blood rushing up. She didn’t expect the two to be so close to each other in private, and their relationship was so deep...

The point is, Benjamin is not a domineering president, he is more like a puppy in private, his affectionate look is simply too seductive.

In contrast, Isabella is like a queen, sitting and enjoying the love of the little milk dog...

“You guys go on, go on... We’re going back first, we haven’t finished soaking in the hot spring yet.” Willa staggered, pulling Poll and wishing to walk faster.

“Your friend let us continue.” Benjamin pressed Isabella’s lips again, and kissed, deeply in love...

And the other side.

Poll and Willa returned to the presidential suite, their hearts still pounding.

For them who are not in love, the scale of the same feeling is too big and too sweet...

“Isabella is amazing, she was able to capture such an excellent man... just now Benjamin was full of eyes on her, and it was obvious that he liked her very much.” Willa said sincerely.

Chapter 562 Gossip’s Heart

"I think it's Isabella's excellence that attracts Benjamin, who is also excellent, to approach her. Don't you notice? Both of them are much, much better than their peers." Poll expressed his opinion.

Isabella is indeed much better than us, how did she do it..." Willa couldn't help but wonder, "Like me, it is very difficult to make a living in the road of studying medicine, as if there is no end in sight, and Isabella already knows how to dissect with a scalpel in today's game.

This was deliberately provoked by people from the Faculty of Medicine of Bomsville University, and Isabella took the stage to challenge it, thus showing her skills.

How many things does she know in private that no one else knows...

"Isabella has a unique personality and talent. She was attracted by Bole when she was very young. She has put in more effort than ordinary people and devoted a lot of time and energy to reach her current height. If you have any medical problems, you can ask her for advice, she will teach it generously."

Hearing what Poll said, Willa couldn't help but said, "I really envy you, being able to share a dormitory with her... The people in my dormitory, one is more than the other, one often uses a tablet to watch variety shows, the sound is loud, and one I often don't take a shower or wash my clothes, the clothes in the bucket are moldy and smelly, and there is one who likes to speak ill of people behind their backs..."

"Then you can ask the counselor to apply for a change of dormitory. In comparison, I think our roommates are easy to get along with, but Isabella and Kara are often not in the dormitory, only Millie and I are company, but if something happens, we The four are good comrades in arms."

Hearing this, Willa became even more envious," Isabella and Kara won't be here from now on, can I go and have dinner with you and have a class together?"

“Of course!” Poll warmly invited, “Even if Isabella and Kara are back, you can come anytime.”

At this moment, Isabella knocked on the door and said with a smile, “Let’s go down and have something to eat.”

Isabella, are you done?” Willa’s eyes lit up when she saw her, “You, you, you, there are so many little strawberries on your neck...”

Poll looked at Isabella and couldn’t help but add with a smile, “The lips are also swollen.”

“Benjamin is so fierce, he gnawed you to pieces in just a short while... His fighting power is amazing.

“You guys seem to love gossip?”

“It’s like you...it’s hard not to gossip...” Willa couldn’t help but stepped forward to hold Isabella ‘s hand, and said worryingly like a parent, ” Benjamin ‘s behavior he likes you to the core, I think You can get engaged first, he is Benjamin, in case someone else preempts...”

“I’m not as good as him? You have to fasten him with an engagement?” Isabella raised her eyebrows with great interest.

“Of course not, I mean just in case, in case those little whores out there take a fancy to him, try to seduce him, and use some indecent means... You can guard against one or two, but you can’t guard against a hundred or two hundred, it’s better to strike first.”

“It depends on his self-awareness.” Isabella said with a light smile, “It’s useless for anyone to guard against it.”

“No, no, I still feel...”

“You better worry about yourself!” Poll interrupted her, took hand and continued gossip, “Come on,

Isabella’s or which one of you can’t help it first...”

As soon as the three of them walked out of the presidential suite, they saw Benjamin standing outside the door, as if they had been waiting here for a while.

Willa and Poll’s expressions turned petrified instantly, my God, why is Benjamin here??

They all looked at Isabella, and Isabella smiled. Could it be that Benjamin has been waiting outside since Isabella appeared just now??

“I, I, I...” Willa didn’t know how to explain, it’s over, it’s over, she asked Isabella to get engaged in advance, lest Benjamin be seduced by the little bitch...

Benjamin won’t hear these words, will he??

And Poll was also a little ashamed. Just now she asked Isabella, who couldn’t help the two of them kissing first...

This kind of shameless question, gossip in private is fine, but it was heard by the person involved...

“I, I, I, I just gossip casually.” Poll didn’t know how to explain.

“Me too, don’t worry about what you said just now...” Willa was afraid that Benjamin would think that she had a problem with her character, so she wouldn’t let her be friends with Isabella.

“It’s okay, just a joke among the students. I think he is far- sighted, and Isabella can think about it.” Benjamin looked at Isabella with a doting smile on his face.

Willa was stunned, but Benjamin thought she was far- sighted, right??

Did Benjamin want to be engaged to Isabella more than she did???

This shows that he really likes Isabella, right?!

Oh my god, why do I feel so sweet all of a sudden!

“Between Isabella and I, I have always taken the initiative.” Benjamin looked at Poll again, satisfying her gossip.

Poll was stunned. He didn’t expect Benjamin to answer such a question. He was surprised, but at the same time, he was almost excited, oh my god, Benjamin actually...

“You go down first.” Isabella stepped forward and said, “The three of us are injured, so we have to walk slowly.”

“I hug you?”

“Get out of the way.”

Isabella thinks he did it on purpose, to let her classmates know that they have a good relationship.

“Then I’ll go downstairs first.” Benjamin looked at her with a smile, and even stroked her hair, not forgetting to raise his eyes and say to the two girls behind Isabella, “I’ll ask you to take care of Isabella first.”

“No problem no problem...” Poll replied automatically.

After Benjamin left, Willa couldn’t help shouting excitedly, “Oh my god...my brain is still confused, Isabella, Benjamin treats you well, he listens to you very well, he will do whatever you ask him to do...”

“The key is that he was so obedient just now, and he actually answered our questions...” Poll couldn’t help but get excited.

Two people around Isabella After gossip all the way, I finally arrived at the restaurant downstairs, which was already fully booked.

All kinds of delicacies were set up on a large table, and both Poll and Willa were stunned. Would this be too polite and extravagant?!

“Isabella, we can’t eat that much...” Willa suddenly felt that it was a waste, so many delicacies, there seemed to be at least twenty or thirty dishes, right??

Benjamin is here, even if he didn’t order it, the resort manager would have made so many preparations...” Isabella explained.

Who let Benjamin’s status lie here, this resort is under his name, who dares to entertain the people he brought with a few dishes???

“What about the Benjamin ? Did he stop eating??”

Poll was wondering, the manager stepped forward and explained, “ Mr. Mason went to the other side for dinner, he was afraid that you would feel uncomfortable if he was here.”

“God, he’s so sweet...”

Chapter 563 Which bastard did it?

Because Benjamin wasn’t here, both Poll and Willa ate with their bellies open.

“Well, this is delicious. Is it wrapped in salted egg yolk? It smells so good...” Willa will show Isabella to taste the food that Willa thinks is delicious.

And when Poll eats delicious food, he will share it with Isabella, “Unfortunately, it would be great if her was here, she is a foodie...”

“What’s the matter, I’ll pack it up for her later.”

“Isabella, you are so kind! But will we embarrass you by doing this? Will the manager think that the two of us are like reincarnated starving ghosts, who have never seen the world...”

Not only do you eat and drink here, but you also have to take it away...

“I have eaten delicious food, and I want to take some back to share with my good friends.” Isabella disagreed, but supported, “Is there any dish you like, I will ask someone to pack it together.”

“Isabella, you are so kind...”

In the end, they were so full that the manager asked the kitchen to re-cook some dishes for them to take away.

The helicopter ride back to school was too dramatic, so Benjamin sent a car to wait at the gate of the resort.

Knowing that Isabella was going to send her classmates back, Benjamin Poll held her face reluctantly and said, "Tell me when the school work is over, and I will take you to my place."

"good."

"The Ghost League gang will take action later, so be careful in everything." Benjamin looked into her clear eyes, and said worriedly, "If there is any danger, find a way to contact me, just like today."

"knew."

"Try to minimize injuries." Benjamin held her face all the time, and Poll reluctantly explained, "Pay attention to the wounds on your body, don't touch the water, and change your dressing later."

Isabella couldn't help laughing at his nagging.

Benjamin saw what she was thinking, and smiled slightly, "You think I'm long-winded?"

"No."

Benjamin lowered his head and kissed her lips again, with reluctance in his eyes, "Okay, you go back first."

Isabella just got into the car.

Benjamin helped her close the car door himself, and still leaned over to remind her, "Send me a message or call me when you arrive.”

Isabella knew that he was going to deal with the group of people caught today, so she signaled him to do it first.

“Then Mr. Mason...I’m leaving first?” The driver wanted to step on the gas pedal several times, but he didn’t know whether Benjamin had finished urging him.

“Be sure to send them back safely.” Benjamin confessed, “Drive slowly on the road.”

“Yes, Mr. Mason.”

Isabella waved to him, and it wasn’t until Benjamin’s figure disappeared into a dot behind that Poll and Willa couldn’t help but tease.

“Isabella, Benjamin loves you so much, he still has to tell you so many things in such a short distance...”

“I feel that the big brother driver is under pressure. It can be seen that he really cares about you.”

“Be sure to call him when you get back to tell him he’s safe.”

half an hour later.

As soon as Isabella arrived at school, she received a call from Mr. Brown.

“Hahahaha Isabella, where are you? Your third sister-in-law’s cure is in sight, and I have a major breakthrough...”

The little old man’s arrogant voice came from the phone, “lol, it’s not that easy to embarrass me!”

Isabella couldn’t help laughing, “I’ll be there in a while.”

As soon as she hung up the phone, she saw Abe, Samson and Millie running towards them.

“Isabella.” Abe and Samson greeted Isabella one after another, looking out of breath, as if they had just received the news and ran to greet them.

Isabella nodded.

Abe’s eyes first fell on Poll’s face, “What happened to the face? Who hit it?”

“I accidentally got it myself.”

“Lie, this was obviously punched, which scumbag did it to you?” As soon as Abe touched the wound on Poll’s face, Poll frowned in pain and made a painful sound.

“Which bastard did it?” Abe looked very angry, as if he was distressed, and as if he was going to stand up for Poll at any time.

Seeing his appearance, Isabella knew that he was most likely to be moved by Poll, and said softly, “Those people have already been taken care of by my people.”

“Why did they attack Poll?”

“Why are you so much, are you annoying?” Poll stomped forward.

"I..." Abe followed her footsteps, "You have been beaten like this, I can't ask you? What are you carrying? I'll get it."

Poll refused, but Abe forcibly snatched it away, "He packed so much food when he was injured, he really is a snack."

"You are the snack foodie, we packed this for her."

"Have you had dinner?"

"I've eaten, Isabella treated us to a big meal!"

"Is it delicious? Give me some?" Abe also wanted to taste what kind of feast she was talking about.

"No, these are all prepared by us for her..."

The two of them were still arguing, and Millie couldn't help covering her mouth when she heard Willa whispering about being tied up.

Only Samson followed Isabella, "What the hell is going on?"

"Recently someone troubled me and couldn't find me, so they kidnapped Poll and Willa. Tell Abe to be careful in everything next. If you can, help me watch Poll and her more and protect them more. they."

"Which bastard dares to trouble you?" Samson couldn't help rolling up his sleeves when he heard this, "Tell me who they are, and I'll find someone to clean them up."

"It's not an ordinary person." Isabella didn't want to say much, but said, "In short, be careful in everything, and if you notice anything wrong, call me."

"Then what do you do yourself?"

"I have no problem protecting myself."

"That's fine, Brother Yi and I will help you protect Poll and her, and you should be careful."

"I'm going to the lab first."

Seeing that the two people in front were still arguing, and Willa and her were still chatting, Isabella talked to Samson and went to the laboratory first.

Samson didn't understand why Isabella spent every day in the lab, but he heard that today Isabella led the team to participate in a competition at Bomsville University, and the judges were full of praise for her surgical and suturing skills...

Probably a skill learned in the lab...

As soon as Isabella pushed open the door of the laboratory, she heard the excited voice of the little old man, "Isabella, come here quickly, you see, the upgraded pill interacts with this poisonous blood, did you see that this toxin disappeared little by little..."

Isabella came to the instrument and saw that the two substances reacted, and the toxin was indeed disappearing little by little...

"Hahahaha this is the result of my research for several days.

When the upgraded pill encounters this toxin, it is like a rainstorm meeting a fire. Be on the lookout, the fire will be extinguished immediately..." Mr. Brown was excited, Suddenly the smile froze.

Chapter 565 Isabella Showdown

Late at night.

The lights of Riverside Villa dimmed, and it was not as magnificent as before, leaving only dozens of aisle lights, which were still shining warmly and faintly.

The villa was quiet, everyone went to rest, Scarlet left her room, saw no one around, quietly took a long detour to another room, before twisting the handle, she purposely looked around.

Seeing that no one was following him, he quickly walked in and locked the door.

The man at the door noticed her coming, and his voice was reproachful, "Why are you here? If someone sees..."

"I've looked around and there's no one following..."

Scarlet poured a glass of water by himself, and after drinking it, he was so angry that he squeezed the disposable cup flat.

"Molly's little daughter is getting more and more excessive. Today, she pressed Cecilia's head into the washbasin in the school bathroom and flushed it with water, and dumped the garbage on Cecilia...and even let Cecilia get used to the days ahead, saying If he is kicked out of the house by the Logan Family in the future, he will definitely trouble Cecilia..."

"You little bitch, I really think I'm capable..." The man who spoke had a murderous look in his eyes, as if he was extremely dissatisfied with Lily's actions.

"Isn't that right, I just can't swallow this breath!" Scarlet said angrily, "Before bullying Cecilia again and again, I really think Cecilia is a soft persimmon, so easy to bully!"

“In the future, just send me a WhatsApp to tell me about things like this. You don’t need to come here.”
The man couldn’t help reminding, “Walls have ears.”

“Didn’t I miss you...” Scarlet suddenly stepped forward and hugged him, still showing a little feminine look, “It’s been a long time since you took the initiative to find me... It’s been four or five months...”

Seems like since Cecilia Enter University exam is over for the summer vacation, so far, he is not as enthusiastic as before...

The man was somewhat resistant to her approaching, and said in a cold voice, “Don’t make trouble, we have important things to do next...”

“Yeah, it’s late at night, it’s time to do something important...” Scarlet took the initiative to unbutton her pajamas.

The man hurriedly helped her buckle it up, “Go back quickly, if someone finds out...”

“No one will notice...” Scarlet said this, and suddenly found the quilt on the bed, revealing a little pink fabric?

She couldn’t believe it, she seemed to realize something, and wanted to rush over to find out.

“It’s time to go back.” The man pushed her away from the bed, “Go to bed earlier...”

Lotus stepped on his foot hard, and while he was in pain, rushed over and lifted the quilt.

Under the quilt, a naked and panicked figure made Lotus burn with anger.

Sue, the new servant.

“Okay, you little bitch, you seduce people, you’ve seduced me here...” Lotus hit her directly.

“Ah, Scarlet, I didn’t know that the executive was yours...” Sue covered her face in pain and hurriedly begged for mercy, “If I knew, I would never go to his bed...”

“Look at how I deal with you, you shameless little bastard...” Lotus beat her desperately and pinched her hard, “Usually when you have nothing to do, you like to pretend to be pitiful for Freda. My mind has moved to the executive’s house!”

Sue screamed in pain.

Lotus, stop messing around!”

Now, the executive was so angry that he pulled Lotus off the bed.

Lotus was disheveled, trembling with anger, pointing at the senior executives and said indignantly, “Moore Xiang, do you have a conscience, for whom I have worked so hard for all these years, you dare to do such a thing, or let me vent my anger today, put this The little bitch will be kicked out after a beating, or I will go to Elder Mr. and Mrs. and explain what happened back then!”

” Lotus!!”

“Do you think I dare??”

Lotus’ hysterical lunatic made Moore feel like a deflated ball. In the end, he turned one eye and closed one eye, and stood aside without saying a word.

Lotus knew that he had confessed, and stepped forward to tear up his mistress, pinching her and slapping her.

Bitch, because I am young and pretty, I dare to seduce people. If I don’t teach you a lesson today, my surname will not be that!!”

“Ah...don’t hit me, executive, save me...” Sue struggled, and accidentally knocked off Scarlet ‘s wig with her waving hand.

She froze for a moment, tears still stuck in her eyes, “It turns out that what the senior executives said is true, you, you really don’t have hair...”

“You, you little bitch...” Scarlet was furious, hitting her hard.

After a meeting.

The sound of a car reached their ears.

Sue was overwhelmed by being pushed against the window, just in time to see Isabella driving back.

She hurriedly said, “It seems that Isabella is back! Scarlet, please let me go, Isabella has always been smart, if she hears...”

Lotus looked out, and it was really that dead girl Isabella, who didn't come back early or late today, but at this time!!

She pinched Sue again, "What you heard tonight is rotten in my stomach, find an excuse for me to resign tomorrow, if I find out that you have other thoughts..."

"No, no, I will resign tomorrow. I won't say a word that I shouldn't say. I will leave here with all my secrets!"

A killing intent flashed in Lotus' eyes, and he pushed her away, then gave Moore Xiang a hard look, turned and left.

Isabella parked the car in the garage and pressed the elevator leading to the first floor.

Kara today, saying that Devil's Heart will be auctioned in an underground auction house in New York. People who enter the venue must be their old members, and capital verification is required before entering.

Kara has always been in major auction houses, and has long been a guest of major auction houses. She is a member, so she can bring friends there, but she has something to do, and she will leave after taking Isabella in, so Isabella plans to go to New York tomorrow, Go to the auction house tomorrow night and bring those Devil's Heart back.

I wanted to go home and simply pack my luggage, but I didn't expect to see Scarlet sneaking back to the living room as soon as I stepped out of the elevator on the first floor.

"Isabella is back?"

Scarlet 's tone seemed a little sarcastic.

Isabella looked at her coldly, "You don't sleep at night, what are you doing here secretly?"

"Isabella was just joking, what can I do at night... But at this point, all the ladies have gone to bed, why did you come back so late?"

Isabella heard her sarcasm, and curled her lips coldly, "People who are idle should go to bed early, anyway, they have nothing to do when they are idle, so they can't hang out here at night like you, I don't know, I thought you were stepping on the spot."

Scarlet was a little upset, "Isabella, how about we talk."

"What are you talking about?" Isabella looked at her coldly, "Talking about why you wear a wig all the time? Or talking about the unknown things between you and Cecilia?"

Chapter 566 Better to Bring Isabella

Scarlet's complexion changed upon hearing this, and she subconsciously straightened her hair with her hands.

This action fell into Isabella's eyes, which further confirmed her statement. It turned out that Scarlet was really wearing a wig as it was found out.

The living room was not lit, only the light coming in from the street lamp in the garden, it looked a bit dim, making people feel uneasy.

Scarlet didn't expect Isabella to check on her, and seemed to know something...

How could it be, what happened back then was so secretive, how did Isabella know about it? ?

Or is it that Isabella is just probing and has no evidence at hand??

“The one outside, come in, I already know it’s you.”

Isabella ‘s voice made the people outside the door breathless, very uneasy.

Scarlet glanced out in a panic, “Isabella, did you hear me wrong, there is no one outside.”

“You think that if you don’t come out, I won’t know who you are? Senior executive, you two have poor acting skills. Do you really think you can hide the truth in this family?”

Isabella looked in their direction indifferently, and said.

coldly, “I don’t have time to play cat and mouse games with you, if Cecilia wants to stay in this house, please give me peace of mind.”

Anyway, stay for three or four years at most, get married, and see nothing.

“But if you continue to make small moves...”

“What trick did we do?” Scarlet suddenly felt wronged, Isabella has no proof, how could he be so wronged?”

“Cecilia’s sudden sex change, dare you say, has nothing to do with you at all? She is well on her way, but you have to lead her astray? You just lead her, and you even implicate innocent people.”

“...”

“I don’t care what you guys want to do. If it’s just for a small fortune, you’ve already made it all these years. If you want Cecilia to take advantage of the power of the Logan. Family in the future, the Logan Family is actually willing to help her, but if you still have Don’t think about it...”

Isabella thought too much. What happened back then was just a coincidence. If you don't believe me, you can check it out."

"Anyway, I'm putting my words here. My patience is limited. This is my last warning." After Isabella finished speaking, she went straight upstairs.

Looking at her back, Scarlet felt a sudden chill in his heart.

Why, at the age of seventeen or eighteen, why does he seem to know everything...

Those who were hiding in the dark didn't dare to show up anymore, for fear of being caught, they left in a hurry.

Scarlet clenched her fists, no, it's not too late, it can't be delayed any longer!!

the other side.

Eloise couldn't sleep well all the time, vaguely, as if she heard the sound of arguing.

Immediately afterwards, a phone call woke her up. When she saw that it was her mother, she hurriedly answered it.

"Mom, why are you free to call me today?" Eloise got out of bed, tiptoed to the balcony, and asked softly.

Eloise, the sun is so good today. I suddenly remembered that the day you were born was also sunny and sunny... I couldn't help but call you. I heard someone say that your side is faster than mine. Twelve hours, are you sleeping now?"

"No, Williams and I haven't planned to sleep yet... Are you feeling better recently?" Eloise asked anxiously.

"Yesterday, I saw that your younger brother's eye circles were red. The situation should be not good... but they didn't tell me." The old woman on the phone smiled openly, as if she had seen it, "A while ago, I saw A girl who looks a lot like you..."

At that time, she was ill and couldn't look carefully. When she woke up, she asked the servant, and the servant said that a passerby saved her.

The girl looked exactly like Eloise when she was younger.

buchers

"Mom, do you miss me? Williams and I have been thinking about visiting you for the past two days... Are you not in France anymore?" Eloise worried.

"Yeah, I moved to Paris again this month, and said that there is a very powerful doctor who has saved many people. here... It helped my condition, but I don't even have confidence in my condition..."

After tossing and tossing for a long time, the old woman was also exhausted, and the light in her eyes was extinguished.

"Mom, don't think so." Eloise suddenly felt a little uncomfortable, "I'll ask my brother tomorrow, if the doctor over there can't help, why not let our family try."

"Is there anyone in our family who knows medicine?" The old woman was surprised and smiled again, "Oh, you're talking about that kid Terry...how is he doing recently? Is he busy with work?"

"Mom, Terry is a forensic doctor. What I'm talking about is..." Eloise hesitated to speak, and was afraid that speaking out would make her mother's mood fluctuate too much and it would be bad for her condition, but she couldn't help it if she didn't. After all, Isabella 's medical skills It's really amazing, how many people have been saved, there must be a way!

"In this way, we will leave for Paris tomorrow, and when we arrive the day after tomorrow, I will tell you that you must be mentally prepared."

“What kind of doctor is it? It’s so mysterious. You and Williams don’t need to make a special trip. Maybe I won’t be here in Paris for a few days, and I have to go to the next place...”

“No, we haven’t seen you for a long time. You were in a coma before, and your brother took you around to seek medical treatment. Williams kept saying that he wanted to see you... so it’s agreed, we will go tomorrow.”

“Eloise, there’s really no need to come here.”

The old woman knew that her time was running out, and her daughter and son-in-law rushed to see her, probably because they were afraid that they might not see her for the last time.

“Mom knows that you are busy... Even if Mom’s condition is hopeless, it doesn’t matter. In this life, Mom has never had a good life, so I am content.”

When Eloise heard it, tears welled up in her eyes.

She covered her lips, not daring to let herself cry out, and kept enduring the emotion that she was about to collapse.

At this time, Williams found her talking on the phone on the balcony, and hurriedly took a nightgown and put it on her....

It was the weather in December, and the wind outside made my face hurt.

Seeing that his wife was about to cry, Williams hurriedly stroked her back and helped her into the house.

“Then Mom, let’s settle this first. After you finish your lunch, go to the lunch break. Williams and I will leave tomorrow and arrive the day after tomorrow. If I see that your energy is not as good as before, I will ask my unfilial brother to settle the score.”!

Eloise didn’t forget to smile when she said this.

The old man also laughed, “Okay, okay, then I’ll wait for your to come...you children, you have filial piety...”

After hanging up the phone, Eloise hurriedly sent a WhatsApp to ask about the elder brother’s condition, and then did not forget to tell Williams about her mother’s condition...

The situation does not seem to be optimistic.

“Why don’t we take Isabella with us?” Williams suggested.

Firstly, I can formally introduce them to each other, and secondly, Isabella is on the scene, so I can help with diagnosis.

“I just don’t know if Isabella has time...ask her tomorrow.”

Chapter 567 Is Your Temper So Bad?

The next morning, Williams and Eloise got up early, sat in the living room and waited quietly.

Seeing their gazes looking upstairs from time to time, Myral couldn’t help asking, “Are Mr. Elder and Mrs. waiting for Isabella to wake up?”

Eloise nodded, “We want to have breakfast with her.”

” Isabella went out before dawn, and she was carrying backpack. From the looks of it, she seemed to be going on a long journey.”

“You said Isabella has gone out?” Eloise was surprised, it was only past seven in the morning, where was the little girl going with her luggage??

“Aren’t you going to school? Is there some change of clothes in the bag?” Williams reassured, “Call and ask.”

If you have nothing else to do in school, see if you can take a leave of absence and go abroad first.

Eloise dialed, and the system reminded coldly: The phone you dialed has been turned off.

“Let’s go first.” Eloise looked at Williams, “I heard from my brother last night that my mother’s condition is not optimistic. I’m afraid there will be changes, and I want to meet her sooner.”

“I want Isabella to help mom take a look...Maybe there is a turning point? Wait a minute, maybe Isabella is still in class and it’s not convenient to answer the phone. Send her a message.” Williams believes in his precious daughter’s medical skills, and he feels so worried With a little hope.

Eloise sent another message, and waited quietly for two hours. Isabella ‘s cell phone kept turning off. Finally, she got up and said, “Let’s go abroad first. When “It’s fine.” Williams put his hand on his wife’s shoulder and comforted him, “Don’t worry too much. I’ll contact a few more doctors in a while and let them go abroad to help my mother take a look.”

Eloise looked at him moved. Since his mother’s accident, he, as a husband, has been busy and paid for his efforts. It can be said that he is not picky.

Over the years, she has been spoiled so much by her husband that she can be said to be carefree.

And the other side.

Isabella was sitting in the first class of the plane, flipping through the medical records that Mark sent her. There were more than 30 pages, and the condition was indeed difficult.

If you want to recover completely, you need multiple medications, and the process is long.

She flipped through the pages, unaware that Eloise had sent her a message and even called her.

Paris.

A handsome American man sat in his garden with a heavy heart. Although he was in his thirties, he still had a strong personal appeal with his handsome face and unique temperament.

“Sir, don’t be sad...” The short-haired servant beside him couldn’t help comforting him, “The old lady has a good fortune, and she will definitely get through this hurdle safely.”

“The girl you met last time, are you sure she is American ?” Jed cast his good-looking eyes on the short-haired servant.

The servant with short hair nodded. The last time she and the driver sent the old lady to a re-examination, she was hit by a bus and the old lady had a heart attack. It was a passing American girl who came to help.

“She is very beautiful, the kind of beauty that can be noticed at a glance when walking on the road, her hair is tied into a ball head, her demeanor is very cold, she doesn’t talk much, it seems that she has never seen her smile, but she can never smile. There was genuine kindness in her tone.”

People with short hair can still recall the appearance of Isabella. Her facial features are beautiful and refined, and her temperament is as elegant as a lotus. If she is not clumsy, I really want to draw that girl.

“She is really powerful. After giving the old lady a few needles, the old lady was out of breath... She also knows that the old lady is very weak, and reminds us to be more careful when taking care of her.”

“In addition, she also said that castrase is not helpful for the old lady’s current condition, and Chilsivir tablets are also recommended to change to other medicines, otherwise it will increase the burden on the old lady’s body and make her Every day I feel tired, drowsy, and have chest tightness and mouth pain.”

“If you are not proficient in medical skills, how can you carry an acupuncture kit with you, and you can tell the name of the medicine that the old lady is taking, and what adverse reactions will occur after taking it?”

After all, among the medicines that the old lady took, there were the three kinds she mentioned.

These three are special medicines, which haven’t been released yet, but she actually knew it by feeling her pulse...

Her medical skills must be very good!

“At that time I asked her what other medicines could be used instead. She just said that the old lady’s body could not be cured in a day or two... At that time, a driver was very respectful to her, calling her Miss, and reminding her to go to the hospital. Che, I think she should be a lady from a rich family, she has something urgent to deal with, I thought, as long as you are in this country, there is no one you can’t find...”

When the short-haired girl said this, her voice became softer.

In this country, there is indeed no one who Jed can’t find, and his power is in full swing here...

“But the license plate number you gave me is fake, so I can’t find it.” Jed said quietly, “The other party should have a lot of background, and all the surveillance cameras that she appeared during that time have been erased.”

“Ah?” The short-haired girl was a little surprised, “Then what should I do?”

I thought that if I found that girl, the old lady’s condition might turn around...

Now, even the most powerful doctor Mark here can't do anything about the old lady's condition...

At this time, Dr. Mark came towards them, and Jed asked softly, "Did you fall asleep?"

"Yes, after an injection, I finally fell asleep."

The old lady's condition was so serious that she couldn't sleep peacefully. Every time she lay down, she would feel out of breath and had to sit up again and gasp for breath.

"The great teacher you mentioned, did you reply?" Jed asked again.

Mark looked at his heavy and depressed look, and said truthfully, "The teacher has always been very busy...but she promised me that she would look at the medical records sometime, so she will definitely read it. All we have to do now is to wait patiently."

"But there's not much time left." Jed raised his beautiful eyes, "Ask her again for me."

"This..." Mark was a little embarrassed, "The teacher's temper is not good if he is in a hurry... Well, I will ask again in the evening. If she still doesn't have time to read the medical record, then we don't have to rush, just Can wait any longer."

"Is your temper so bad?" Jed asked.

"It's not that I have a bad temper... It's just that the teacher is usually very busy... I don't like to be disturbed by others. There are many things that need to be done by her. I have known her for many years. This is the first time I ask her for help. I believe she will help."

"It would be even better if we could come here."

After all, better treatment options can only be provided by seeing patients in person.

“The teacher said that she is busy recently and has no time to come here, but she should be able to verbally give some pointers.”

If you can get the guidance of the teacher, it will definitely be of great help to the condition.

Chapter 568 The Same Restaurant

“Let me know something tonight,” Jed said.

“Okay.” Mark looked at his heavy heart and couldn’t help but said, “Actually, there is another way. There was a medicine that appeared at an auction in the United States before, and it was called Y Pill. The powerful Mr. Pharmacy made it with heart-nourishing grass, which has a miraculous effect on healing the heart.”

Jed raised his eyes and seemed to have some hope, “Y Pill?”

“Yes, many heart patients who were sentenced to death by doctors have improved after taking Y Pills. But the old lady’s illness is not pure heart disease. For her, this medicine can only help. Seeing some of the effects, I plan to use Y Pills and mix them with my newly researched medicine to try.”

If there is no news from the teacher, he has to find a way to save the old lady’s life first.

He can’t just watch the old lady have an accident in front of his eyes...

There have been no Y Pills for sale in the United States for a long time, but in our auctions, they have appeared twice recently.”

“I’ll call and ask.” Jed took out his phone and quickly dialed a number.

After a while, Mark heard him say, "At nine o'clock tonight, in a club in New York, there will be an auction of beneficial pills, only one."

"One is enough."

Mark did not expect that the husband has always been vigorous and resolute, and the good news came so soon.

Jed nodded, "I'll go tonight."

Twelve hours later.

Isabella 's plane landed at a foreign airport. She got off the plane and received a bunch of messages as soon as she turned it on.

Among them, Eloise 's WhatsApp and calls made Isabella call back first.

But at this time, the system reminded that the other party had shut down.

Isabella clicked on WhatsApp again, and Eloise sent her three WhatsApp messages at 7:30 in the morning.

[Isabella, I heard someone say that you went out early in the morning, did you go to school?]

[Are you in class? get out of class is over, is it convenient to give mom a message back?]

[Mom is looking for you.]

Isabella quickly replied, “Mom, I’m sorry, I’m going abroad and I have something to deal with. What do you want me to do?”

After sending the message, before receiving a reply from Eloise, the phone vibrated, and it was Kara calling.

“Isabella, are you there yet? I’ll wait for you at Exit A.”

Vouchers

Isabella came out with a backpack on her back, “I saw you.”

“Isabella, this way!!” Seeing her, Kara jumped up and waved.

In order to prevent being recognized by others, today Isabella is wearing black casual clothes and a black peaked cap, exuding a cold aura.

The big black mask allowed her to only reveal a pair of clear and beautiful eyes, which were indescribably charming.

“How many people are you going to fascinate with this outfit...” Kara stepped forward and took her hand, “It’s not. time yet, let me take you to eat first, I entered the auction tonight, I have something to do Do it, are you okay by yourself?”

“What’s the problem?” Isabella smiled lightly, “What big orders have you received recently? Poll said, I haven’t seen you back to school for a long time.”

“Recently, I don’t have time for a side job. My dad said I have to inherit the family business or find someone to fall in love with. Of course I choose the former!” Kara said without hesitation, “The former is rich, while the latter is a waste of time and affects my mood.”, I have been taking over some businesses under my father’s name recently, but I am exhausted.”

Thinking of the recent experience, Kara felt a bitterness in her heart.

“When you have a partner, you will find out the benefits of having a partner.”

Maybe, he wouldn't work so hard.

“Then you probably won't be able to wait until the day when I have a date...” Kara couldn't help being puzzled when she said this, “No, it's good to have a date... Such words will also come out of your mouth, Benjamin You have changed into a different person!”

Isabella didn't think so, “Is there?”

“Didn't you realize that you are completely different from before? Now you seem to have a weakness, and your behavior is a little different from before... But then again, what about him? Didn't come with you?” Kara teased.

Isabella said truthfully, “I don't want him to leave work to be with me, there's no need.”

“What about himself? Do you want to come?”

“He wants to be threatened by me.”

“Tsk tsk, you said it would be nice to let him accompany you, and save me from worrying about your safety.”

Kara is afraid that going abroad this time will give guys a chance.

“I'll just take a few Devil's Heart plants and leave and nothing will happen.”

Kara unlocked the car and opened the door for her, Benjamin is not here today, so I will act as a gentleman and take care of you...”

The two talked and laughed and came to a high-altitude restaurant.

This restaurant has a great view overlooking the beautiful night view of the city.

In the past, Kara would come here to eat occasionally. She knew that the people who came here were either rich or expensive, with strong privacy, which was more eye-catching than ordinary restaurants.

“What do we want to eat?” Kara opened the menu, a little difficult to choose.

Although she has been here several times, she doesn't know what to order each time.

“Order what you like.”

Isabella saw that her mother still didn't reply to her message, but Benjamin's WhatsApp came in.

On the way to the restaurant just now, Isabella has already reported her whereabouts. Now that Benjamin sent a photo of him working in the office, Isabella asked him to go to eat first. Don't forget.

“Isabella, let's just order a fruit wood grilled black pepper steak, a seafood spaghetti, pan-fried prawns, black truffle beef fried rice, and two more corn chowder?”

Although Kara orders, all Isabella hears are her favorite dishes.

This is a good friend, thinking of you in everything, even the food can be accommodated to your taste.

At this time, it seemed that a big person appeared, and many waiters rushed over to greet him immediately.

Kara raised her eyes and didn't see the appearance of the big man. Instead, she could guess from the respectful appearance of the seven or eight waiters that the other party had a lot of background.

"Jed, there are too many people on this floor. I'm afraid it will affect your dining experience. Please follow me to the top floor?" The manager bent down and led the way.

There are several glass room boxes with the best view on the top floor, which are specially used to entertain VIPs.

Jed followed the restaurant manager upstairs, leaving behind a lot of sighs.

They are all praising him for being handsome, saying that he is rich, handsome and powerful...

"Still eating?" Seeing that Kara was still watching the movement over there, Isabella couldn't help laughing.

"I don't know who it is..." Kara disagreed, "It's seven o'clock, and the auction is nine o'clock, we still have time to eat, don't worry."

Jed on the top floor ordered food, and then sent a message to his sister, "I have something to do tonight, I can't pick you up and my brother-in-law, I have sent an assistant there, you go to the hotel under my name to rest for a night, and my people will pick you up tomorrow." Come here."

Mainly because of the 12-hour flight, Jed couldn't bear the pain of his sister and brother-in-law.

I looked in the mirror, giving a nod to myself as I was pleased with how I looked. I was wearing a long black backless silk dress with thin straps, the front was a deep v-plunge neckline that showed quite a bit of my cleavage. The dress was tight from the top and got a little loose from the hips as there was a long split on the right side, stopping mid-thigh. I finished the look with a pair of open-toe black stilettos with straps around the ankle. I did a simple brown smokey eye which complimented my green eyes and had them look a bit cat-like. I decided to let my long curly and heavy brown hair be as it was, but with a rhinestone leaf design clip to lift some of the hair away from my face on the right side.

I kept fiddling with my hands before I forced them to keep still as I took a deep breath. Nervousness was filling my body.

“Get it together. What’s the worst that can happen?” I asked myself, building up the courage to leave my hotel room. The worst that could happen was my father being angry at me for showing up and throwing me out.... My eyes widened a...

Chapter 569

After one hour.

Jed finished his meal, got up and left the box, and walked downstairs.

“Mr. Harvey, is the meal tonight still to your liking? Do you have any valuable comments on the service and other aspects of the restaurant?” the manager asked cautiously.

At the same time, a girl with outstanding temperament got up and left the seat.

She was wearing a hat, and the black mask made her only reveal a pair of cold eyes.

With just one glance, Jed, who was standing on the spiral staircase, was a little surprised. This girl, both in figure and temperament, was very similar to his sister when she was seventeen or eighteen years old.

It’s just that she is obviously more aura and more eye- catching than her sister.

“Mr. Harvey?” Seeing that he didn’t reply, the manager followed his line of sight suspiciously.

“Is that girl a regular here?” Jed asked suddenly.

The manager immediately recognized Kara who was walking behind and packing her bags.

Long from the Long Group, who occasionally comes over for dinner.”

As for Isabella who was walking ahead, he didn't notice.

“Kara Long?” Jed murmured the name.

Long Group is a top-level consortium that is in the limelight. He has heard about it, but he has never cooperated with it.

He didn't expect their daughter to be so similar to his sister. when she was young, even more similar than Cecilia.

It's a little bit counterintuitive.

The phone rang at this moment, it was a call from Special Assistant Ozzie.

“Sir, the car is here.”

Jed put away his phone and looked in the direction the girl left again, but there was no one there.

the other side.

On a luxury cruise ship parked on the shore, the lights are brilliant at this time.

This is a high-end private club with strict security and strong privacy. Only a few wealthy people are eligible to enter and exit.

Usually, celebrities and elites of the upper class will make friends here.

A monthly auction will also be held here.

People outside can only see luxury cars gathering on the shore, and people entering the cruise ship are dressed in extravagant, dignified and dignified clothes.

But you can't go in to see what's going on, because the person who enters must meet two conditions, one is a member, and the other is a capital verification.

Kara swiped her face and verified her qualifications. Isabella also took off her mask and entered the face recognition. After verification of her qualifications, she was invited to enter.

Customers can choose a box, or sit in the auditorium on site.

In order to avoid people's eyes and ears, Kara and Isabella chose a box.

The box is on the ninth floor of the yacht, and it is one of the best boxes on the cruise ship.

After a while, all the commodities in the auction will be projected on a wall in the room for a 360-degree display.

“You two ladies, please follow me.”

There are staff leading the way ahead.

“Kara?”

At this time, an unhappy voice suddenly sounded.

Surrounded by a few best friends, a wealthy daughter in bright clothes blocked their way.

Isabella didn't know who this rich daughter was, but the staff greeted her very politely, “Miss Patsy.”

Seeing her, Kara also showed some displeasure, “Get out of the way.”

“My family is one of the organizers, you want me to get out of the way?” Patsy gave Kara a high look, and even looked at Isabella next to her.

“It's late at night, wearing a hat and a black mask, are you here to be a thief?”

As soon as this remark came out, several friends around her laughed and looked at Isabella's outfit with disdain.

The people on the yacht are all dressed up, wishing to wear all the prominent wealth on their bodies, as noble as they want.

But it was the first time I saw people in casual clothes like Kara and Isabella.

“The clothes of these two obviously disrespect our auction, and I request that they be kicked out.”

The staff showed embarrassment, who would dare to chase Miss Long family down?

Leaving aside her family background, she is at least the top VIP member of the club.

But Patsy folded her hands on her chest and said proudly,

“This is a foreign country, not like a domestic one. Our family also invested in this cruise ship. As one of the organizers, I said they are not qualified to come in, so they are not qualified.” Come in!”

“Miss Patsy. Miss Kara is an old member of our clubhouse.”

Before the staff finished speaking, Patsy sneered, “I’m also an old member, and I even have the right to expel you. I want you to invite the two of them down within a minute, or you will leave this place for me.” !”

Kara sneered coldly, “Whether we have the right to appear here, you are not the only one who has the final say! Your family is one of the organizers, but what does it have to do with you? Believe it or not, I will call your father and let you Daddy will come back to clean you up?”

“You.” Patsy knew her father’s temper, and suddenly became angry.

“What’s the point of showing off? When you have the ability to rely on your own ability to become the organizer, it won’t be too late to bark in front of me. You haven’t even grown your hair yet, so you’ll run out to embarrass yourself.”

Several guests around were laughing, and a few girlfriends secretly worried for her, but couldn’t think of anything to say back.

“You.” Patsy’s face changed with anger.

“Our Patsy said that you are not qualified to appear here, so you are not qualified. If you are sensible, get out of here, otherwise I will let the security carry you down, and you will be the ones who will be ashamed!”

“Yes, that’s right, dare to make our Patsy unhappy, who did you borrow the courage from?”

“This is not a place where you Long family can run wild, get the hell out of here.”

“roll!”

“Is this how you treat the guests of the club in private?”

At this time, a noble voice reached their ears.

Everyone followed the prestige, their faces changed, and the staff was also terrified. They hurried forward and shouted respectfully: “Mr. Harvey!”

Jed’s power in this country, everyone has to be a little bit afraid.

Isabella’s eyes fell on Jed, and somehow he felt familiar, but couldn’t remember where she saw it.

He looks very young, but he exudes maturity and stability, with a strong personal charm, which is very attractive.

“It seems that your club doesn’t need guests anymore?”

As soon as Jed finished speaking, Patsy hurriedly explained, “You misunderstood, it’s because of me and her.”

“Patsy.” Jed’s meaningful eyes fell on her, “There must be a limit to self-willedness.”

Chapter 570

Only then did Jed see Isabella, the two girls turned their backs to him just now, he didn’t know that one of them was the one he met in the restaurant, the girl who looked a lot like his sister.

Jed wanted to say something more, but Patsy apologized in a low voice, “I’m sorry, I just had some conflicts with Kara before, and I want to give her a blow. I usually treat the guests of the club with great respect.”

Hearing the name Kara, Jed’s mind automatically brought Isabella’s face.

“Don’t trouble them in the future.”

“You know them?” Patsy was a little annoyed immediately, but she didn’t expect that bitch Kara to know quite a lot of people, and even Uncle Harvey came forward to defend her.

“The last time you were unruly and willful, your father suspended your pocket money for three months, do you still remember?”

“Uncle, these people are all my friends, what are you talking about?” Patsy blushed in embarrassment.

“You’ve grown up, it depends on the occasion when you mess around in the future.”

“yes.”

Jed walked towards the box, and Ozzie, who was following behind him, couldn’t help but whispered, “Sir, have you noticed that the girl in front of you just now is somewhat similar to your sister, and the fire that year was likely to happen.”

“I also have this suspicion.” Jed whispered, “But she is Miss. Long family, if the identity is wrong, it is impossible for the Long family to hide it for so many years.”

“Could it be that the Long family didn’t find out at all?”

“Go and check.”

“yes.”

Kara and Isabella arrived at box 9111 under the leadership of the staff.

“What’s going on with you and that Patsy?” Isabella asked casually.

“In the previous school, she liked to compete with others. Sometimes our parents took us to parties, and we would run into each other. In short, we had a few unpleasant troubles.”

“It seems that our two trees have quite a lot of enemies.”

“No, with her aptitude, she’s not qualified to be my enemy.” Kara checked the time and patted Isabella on the shoulder, “The auction will start in twenty minutes, so I’m leaving first.”

She still has things to do.

“Well, be careful on the road.”

“Don’t worry, you have to be careful with that Patsy, lest she come back to trouble you.”

“I think she’s afraid of that Mr. Harvey, probably not.”

“Anyway, be careful.” Kara warned and left.

Isabella was sitting on the sofa in the private room, her whole person showing the aura of a big boss, and she sent a WhatsApp to Benjamin.

After a while, someone knocked on the box door.

Isabella instantly became alert, “Who?”

“Miss Isabella, it’s me. I just sent you a fruit plate and two bottles of red wine to express my apologies for neglecting you two.”

Isabella opened the door, and there was the staff member just outside the door, and she made way for it.

The staff pushed the trolley in and put the things on the table one by one, “I’m really sorry for giving you and Ms. Kara a bad experience. These are all given away by our clubhouse for free. I hope you two can forget about the unpleasantness of tonight.”

“Um.”

Isabella looked at the things on the table, except for the fruit plate, red wine, some desserts and lemonade.

She poured a glass of lemonade and smelled it, but it was not poisonous, and took another sip.

At this time, there was a sudden noise from the balcony of the room, and a figure landed on her balcony.

The curtain rolled up with the wind, and a figure broke in.

Just as Isabella was about to make a move, she saw clearly the person in front of her, was that Mr. Harvey just now?

He fled here from the balcony next door, covering his injured arm, his white shirt was stained with blood, and there were seven or eight people chasing after him.

Maybe he didn’t expect to meet Isabella here, Jed was a little surprised, because the girl didn’t wear a mask, and her beautiful and outstanding facial features were 70% similar to his sister!

Seven or eight people quickly attacked Jed, and Isabella kicked him quickly, helping him with agility.

At this time, the host’s extremely excited voice came from the system on the wall: “Devil ‘s Heart is 30 million for the first time!”

When Isabella heard this, she turned her head and saw that the host was already holding a small hammer, eager to make a final decision.

Two knives slashed at Isabella at the same time, and Isabella kicked their wrists away and quickly brought them down.

“Devil’s Heart 30 million for the second time!”

With Isabella’s gaze, she quickly found the button next to the sofa, and just about to press it, two more people swung their knives and slashed at her.

“Devil’s Heart 30 million for the third time, a deal! Let us congratulate Mr. Herman for successfully photographing today’s first masterpiece Devil ‘s Heart, and let us congratulate him again with the warmest applause!”

In the camera, Mr. Devil’s Heart was photographed smiling and nodding towards everyone under the projection of the spotlight.

Isabella was speechless.

Jed could see the depression and loss in the girl’s eyes. Did she come here for the Devil’s Heart tonight?

The next lot will appear soon.

Isabella has beaten four or five.

Jed didn’t expect the girl to be so skilled. It seemed that none of these people were her opponents.

The remaining three or four, knowing that they had no chance of winning, jumped off the cruise ship one after another, swam and ran away.

“Are you okay?” Jed asked concerned.

Isabella glanced at him, “You’re poisoned.”

“You mean my wound is poisonous?”

“Including the breath on your body, you should smell something and feel weak.”

Seeing that on the deck just now, this man stepped forward to rescue them, and at this time Isabella’s slender fingers rested on his pulse.

“as expected.”

Jed was a little curious, he really couldn’t exert all his energy, otherwise he wouldn’t have given those youngsters a chance.

At this time, the door of the box was kicked open, and the injured Ozzie appeared with a dozen of his men.

“I’m sorry sir, I was stupid and fell into the other party’s scheme.”

Just now he heard movement on the balcony, ran to the balcony to have a look, and found a few sneaky people were about to leave.

He immediately led people to chase him, leaving only the husband in the room.

It was only later that I realized that I was tricked.

At this moment, when he saw Isabella’s face, he was a little surprised. This girl looks too much like the husband’s sister, right?

But he didn't forget about his business, first he grabbed a few unconscious little guys on the ground.

"It's a very low-level drug. It needs to be released in the air two hours in advance. Check the people who entered and exited your box two hours ago."

After Isabella finished speaking, she took out a small spray bottle from her backpack, pressed it a few times, and sprayed the medicine on the man's wound.

"What are you doing?" Ozzie was a little nervous.

"The knife edge is poisonous, this one is detoxification."

Isabella finished spraying, wrapped the wound with a white bandage, bandaged Jed's wound, and said, "Hold out your hand."
