Chapter 571 Help You Win Back

Jed held out his hand.

The girl poured a small white pill into his palm.

“This will detoxify your body. After half an hour, the fatigue will disappear.”

“you are a doctor?”

Jed suddenly discovered that this girl was quite different, not only with outstanding temperament, but also with agility, skillful bandaging techniques, and a lot of medicine in her bag.

Purchase completed

“What would happen if you didn’t eat this?” Jed asked sincerely.

“Death from exhaustion.”

When Ozzie heard it, the consequences were so serious?

“Is the injury on my arm very toxic?” Jed asked again.

“If you don’t detoxify in time, it will be fatal.”

Isabella picked up her backpack, put on her hat and mask, and was going to talk to that gentleman to see if he could sell her the Devil 's Heart.

“Thank you, Miss Long.” Jed thanked, looking in the direction she was leaving.

Isabella paused, Miss Long? Is this treating her as Kara?

But she didn't deny it, but said calmly, “You're welcome.”

Seeing her go, Ozzie couldn't help but ask in a low voice, “Sir, is that how you let her go?”

“if not?”

When Isabella came to the auction hall, the staff said that Mr. Herman had already paid the fee and left after taking pictures of Devil's Heart.

The Devil's Heart was also taken.

“Then do you know where he went?”

“Sorry miss, we are not in the business of asking about the whereabouts of the guests.” The staff looked apologetic.

Isabella hacked into the surrounding cameras again and found that the man was driving towards a floating casino in a black car.

That place is a rich man's paradise.

More than a dozen resplendent and resplendent buildings stand on the water, and small boats shuttle among them, with beautiful girls dancing beautiful and seductive dances. on them.

Inside is the place where the rich spend a lot of money. After enjoying the pleasure of spending money like water, there are comfortable saunas, Michelin restaurants, and luxurious suites waiting for you.

Isabella took a taxi to go there, and was politely stopped by the staff as soon as she arrived at the door, "Excuse me, miss."

Because of Isabella's age, she looks too young, and her clothes don't match the people who come and go here.

The staff couldn't help reminding, "This is where adults come."

A child like Isabella in casual clothes, a hat, and a backpack on her back looks like a well-behaved student who left cram school and went to the wrong place.

Isabella turned on the phone and brought the bank balance in front of him. The staff looked at the string of astronomical numbers in surprise. There were many zeros, and Isabella had already stepped in before counting them clearly.

"Miss, I don't know what game you are interested in, do you need to find an escort for you?" The staff hurriedly led the way.

The male and female escorts stand there in two rows, waiting for the guests to choose like commodities.

Some rich people embrace left and right as soon as they enter the door, and take several girls inside to spend money.

And a row of men looked at Isabella with anticipation.

The people who usually come here are older and have a bit of status. This is almost the first time I have seen such a young and beautiful girl.

Isabella said lightly, "No need, what does Mr. Herman usually play?"

"He plays everything, but throwing dice is something he must play every time." The staff member said this, took Isabella to the hall, and gestured, "He likes the table on the left the most."

I saw a handsome man sitting wantonly at the table, holding a chip in his left hand and embracing a girl in his right hand.

It is not difficult to see from his proud appearance that he has won a lot just now.

There are many guests around him, some standing, some sitting, all of them have a lot of background.

Isabella walked in his direction.

The dealer shook the dice, and after stopping, many guests immediately put chips on the table.

Some bet big, some bet small.

Herman had won a lot just now, and at this moment he was in high spirits. Under the instigation of the girl, he placed a bet of 30 million chips in his hand, and everyone around him. was stunned.

"God, what a hero. One shot is 30 million."

"If you win this, you won't get hundreds of millions in return."

“It’s so rich.”

Many people praised him for his generosity, and the girl who followed him felt that she had more face, and even kissed him on the cheek.

“Wrong bet.”

Suddenly, Isabella’s voice sounded faintly.

Herman glanced at her, and the girl next to her looked at Isabella from beginning to end with disdainful eyes.

Where did the girl come from, she wouldn’t be interested in Mr. Herman’s money, and would like to come here to gain a sense of presence, right?

Thinking of this, the girl put her arms around Herman’s neck, and looked at Isabella provocatively, as if saying: Mr. Herman is mine, no one can think of him!

Herman obviously didn’t pay attention to the little girl who just arrived, he reached out his hand to signal the dealer to take away the dice cup.

Only three dice were seen, and the total added up to 5.

Herman’s complexion suddenly became ugly, and the girl seemed to be in disbelief that thirty million was gone in an instant.

Seeing that the chips were taken away, the girl’s complexion also turned ugly.

Just now Herman also said that 10% of the winning money will be given to her.

If I had known earlier, I would not have encouraged Herman to vote all-in.

Now I can't get a penny, I'm so mad!

Herman lost and was in a bad mood, so he pushed the girl away, got up and left.

"Mr. Herman." The girl hurried to catch up and put her arms around his waist, not forgetting to say, "It's all because of that girl, you lost."

"Mr. Herman, let's talk." Isabella stopped the man without changing her expression.

Herman stopped in his tracks, and only then did he formally look at Isabella's appearance. It was late at night, wearing a hat and mask, and carrying a backpack.

Where did the student come from, if he didn't study well at home, what did he come to him for?

"I know Mr. Herman is in a bad mood when he loses, and I can help you win it back."

When the girl heard this, she immediately sneered, "It's up to you? Mr. Herman, I think this girl is probably interested in your money and wants to get your attention."

Herman lost 30 million, and he didn't have much interest anymore.

Isabella then said, "I know you are out of chips, I can lend you 10 million first, and pay me back after I win."

Herman was not in the mood at first, but after hearing what she said, he was a little bit interested.

Someone rushed to give him money?

Is there such a good thing in the world?

“What do you want?” Herman asked bluntly.

Isabella said frankly, “I’ll help you win three games, and you give me the Devil’s Heart.”

It turned out to be for Devil’s Heart.

Herman laughed wickedly, the two buttons on his shirt were unbuttoned, making him even more playful, “Do you know how much Devil ‘s Heart is?”

Chapter 572

“At the auction just now, you bought it for 30 million Dollars.”

The man smiled even more wickedly, “Okay, let me see your skills.”

Together they returned to the table where the dealer was rolling the dice.

As the dice settle, some bet high and others bet small.

Isabella did not exchange chips, but turned on her mobile. phone, opened one of the bank cards with a balance of only 10 million, and put the mobile phone on her bet.

Everyone looked at her curiously, and some even checked the balance in her mobile phone, ten million?

Playing so big right away?

Sure enough, young people are easily impulsive.

The bankers have long been used to the strangeness. Before, some people bet directly with the house book and car keys. As long as it is valuable, they will accept it.

“Buy and leave, buy and leave.” The dealer waited for everyone to bet before opening the dice cup.

Everyone looked at Isabella in surprise, they didn’t expect that she made the right bet as soon as she came, and could double the profit.

She invested 10 million just now, and now she got back a total of 20 million with interest.

She put away her mobile phone, threw out the remaining 10 million chips, and bet on the original position again.

The dealer shook the dice, opened the cup, a total of 13 points, Isabella won again, and got back 20 million with interest.

Herman and the girl on the side were stunned.

I didn’t expect her to have this ability.

In the third game, the dealer finished rolling the dice and waited for everyone to bet.

Isabella cast 20 million and bet “Small”. Soon, the betting point was 6, and Isabella won again.

Twenty million becomes forty million.

Everyone looked at Isabella in disbelief.

She pushed 40 million chips in front of Herman.

Herman was completely stunned, even the girl couldn't speak. The girl won back 40 million in less than two minutes.

"Help me win three more games!" Herman begged, "Just three games! As long as you win, everything is easy to talk about."

So Isabella looked at the dealer again, the dealer shook the dice, Isabella said an answer, and Herman immediately bet all 40 million on the bet she said.

Seeing this, the others followed suit.

Soon, the dealer opened the cup, and all the points added up to 5.

Herman wins again!

This time, I won 80 million with profits!

Soon, 80 million became 160 million, and 160 million became 320 million.

The dealer was not calm anymore, because not only Herman won so much, but even other customers followed suit and made a lot of money.

This is no small loss for them.

“Haha.” Herman was so happy, he looked at Isabella excitedly, “How did you do it?”

Isabella didn’t elaborate, but looked at his blue eyes, “It’s time to fulfill the promise.”

“Are you interested in hanging out with me?” Herman offered her an olive branch, “Your treatment depends on you.”

If Isabella can win every time, then he will be well-off in his life, and he will start a company and do business.

How easy is it to get money like this?!

“You cheated.”

The eyes of the other customers at the next table were red, and they said jealously, “You can’t guess the size every time.”

“I asked for a body search. She must be carrying something out of the ordinary.”

“Maybe she is with the banker.”

Dealer: .

Isabella: .

“Is it possible to get out here?” Isabella didn’t take the doubts around her seriously, but looked at Herman, waiting for him to fulfill his promise.

The others were persistent, “How do you prove that you didn’t cheat?”

“If you can’t produce evidence today, you must search to prove your innocence.”

“A little girl who came out of nowhere, can beat us? We have been playing here for more than ten years! Why can’t we bet every time?”

“That’s because you can’t do it.” Isabella gave him a disdainful look, “It’s not difficult to tell the number by listening.”

“What did you say? Can you count by hearing?”

“I don’t believe it, you can identify one and show me, otherwise we have the right to doubt you.”

“Can you tell what time it is in the dice cup? I’ll kneel down and call you daddy!”

Isabella looked at him depressedly, “I don’t need a bastard like you.”

Don’t you want to prove your innocence?

Isabella picked up the dice cup, picked up three dice at once, and shook them quickly.

The way she shakes is fast and cool, just watching her shake is a kind of visual enjoyment.

The three dice made a crisp sound under her shaking. After Isabella stopped, everyone’s eyes fell on the dice cup in her hand.

“6.”

Isabella reported the number first, and then opened the dice cup, only to see that the total of the three dice was indeed 6 as she said.

Everyone was dumbfounded and couldn't believe it.

Can she really hear and tell numbers?

There have only been two gods like this before.

One is a gambling king who is over seventy years old, and the other is the owner of this place.

Isabella picked up the dice again, shook it again, dropped the dice cup firmly to the table, and reported the number casually.

“7.”

The dice cup was opened, and the points of the three dice added up to exactly 7!

Everyone looked at this magical girl in disbelief.

How on earth did she do it?

“No, I don't believe it, unless you do what I said and roll a 13!”

“Yes, just roll a 13, and I'll see what tricks you can come up with.”

“Shake 13! 13!”

Isabella picked up the dice, didn't she want to roll out tricks?

The three dice made a clear sound in the cup, and after a while, Isabella took the dice cup away.

I saw three dice turned into pillars, and Isabella took them down one by one, and the number that was facing up was exactly 13 when added together!

The people in the audience were dumbfounded, and then they fell to the ground in admiration, and burst into warm applause.

She can actually shake the dice into a column shape.

"Are you the daughter of the gambling king? Or his disciple?"

"The dice are in your hands, as if following your instructions, you can set as many times as you want."

"It's amazing, how did you do it?"

She uses the dice cup and dice here, not her own, and she can roll out the points she wants at will.

With so many people staring at her just now, if she cheated, she would have been discovered long ago!

So, how did she do it?

It's unbelievable!

When she was young, grandpa wanted her to be obedient and do something obediently. He would always roll the dice and let her guess the size. Every time she said big, grandpa would give out small points.

At that time, she was defeated every time, and had to listen to her grandfather's words and obediently complete the tasks assigned to her by him.

But she was a little unconvinced in her heart, and even wondered if grandpa had cheated, otherwise, how could she beat her every time.

Later, she found that as long as she mastered the strength and angle of shaking and practiced more, she could shake the dice to get the desired number of points, and it was not difficult to even turn the dice into pillars.

Chapter 573 Get Mr. Favor

As long as you shake it a lot, you can feel it, and you can even judge the points in the dice cup by hearing.

In order to win her grandpa, she practiced a lot, and gradually increased the difficulty later. So far, she can roll ten dice and turn them all into pillars.

She didn't rely on cheating or luck, it was all skill.

"Miss, I wonder if you are interested in conspiring with me for a great cause?"

"You can set a price at will, as long as you are willing to cooperate with me, how much money is not a problem."

"Still come with me! Let's play together. If we lose, we will count as mine. If we win, we will get seven or three points. You will get seven points, and I will get three points."

Many people rushed to cooperate with Isabella, and some even quarreled.

Herman would not miss this opportunity, he got up and said, "Miss, take a step to talk."

Isabella followed him to the small bridge outside.

"To be honest, Devil 's Heart was bought at a high price not long."

Isabella's eyes suddenly became colder, so, after a long time, are you kidding her?

"Let's split the 320 million just now." Herman's tone was very sincere.

But Isabella's eyes were cold.

She's here for the Devil's Heart.

Herman felt her displeasure, and said again, "Three to seven points, I three, you seven. In this way, eighty-two points, you eight, I two."

Seeing that Isabella's expression was still displeased, he bit the bullet and said, "Ninety one points, nine for you, one for me, no less!"

"Who did you sell it to?" Isabella's tone was frosty.

"A big man who can't be said. As long as it is what he wants, we can't get it back. In this way, if you want Devil's Heart, I will help you find out. My friend's friend should have it there. I told She contacted to see if it can be delivered tomorrow, if so, I will send it to you for free!"

Isabella took out her phone, "Mobile number."

Herman hastily reported his cell phone number.

After Isabella wrote it down, she dialed again, "This is my number."

Herman immediately saved it, a little respectfully, and even said cautiously, "Would you consider the cooperation between us?"

Isabella sent him another string of bank card numbers, "Put the 90% on my card first."

Herman was stunned for a moment, then came to his senses, and immediately said, "No problem."

Seeing that Isabella was about to leave, he couldn't help but said, "I'll call you in a while, and think about it when you get back. Don't think about other people, they are not as reliable as me! I will be responsible for losing in the future. Winners get ninety one points, nine for you, one for me!"

Isabella stepped off the small bridge and was about to leave the water city when ten staff members stopped her immediately.

"Excuse me, miss, please wait a moment."

Isabella raised her eyes, why, I can't afford to lose, so I trouble her?

"Sorry for wasting a little of your precious time."

The manager has already called the people above to ask if she should be let go.

Isabella looked at the ten vulnerable staff in front of her coldly. If they really wanted to fight, they would be the ones who would suffer.

But her coming here today has already attracted a lot of attention, and if she continues to make trouble, it is very likely to attract those people.

She didn't want to get angry, if Herman could send her the Devil's Heart tomorrow, she would be able to return the day after tomorrow, why bother with these people and cause unnecessary trouble.

"How long?" Isabella asked suddenly.

The ten staff members didn't expect her to be so easy to talk, and they looked at her with frighteningly cold eyes.

In the end is young, not scared.

"Just a short while," said the leading staff member.

"Okay, give me something to eat and drink." Isabella walked to an empty boat and sat on it, admiring the scenery on the water.

More than a dozen resplendent and resplendent buildings stand upside down on the water, like a golden illusion.

The ten staff members were stunned, and it took a while to realize that this little girl is quite courageous, isn't she afraid of danger if she stays?

They didn't dare to be negligent, they brought food and drink to the boat and waited on them carefully.

the other side.

The manager dialed Ozzie's phone with a very anxious tone.

“Mr. Ozzie, something is wrong! A girl won 320 million from us, and other people followed suit and won a lot! We lost a lot tonight!”

“What did you say?” Ozzie’s tone was a little surprised,

“Girl?”

Not an elderly man or woman, but a girl?

“Yes, she looks only seventeen or eighteen years old, but her skill at rolling dice is comparable to that of my husband back then!”

“Presumptuous!” Ozzie reprimanded immediately, “Anyone can be compared with Mr.? Mr. can tell the number by listening, can she? Mr. can roll the dice into pillars, she can. do it? Mr. can roll as many times as he wants, She can?”

“She, she, her. It’s all right!”

“What did you say?” Ozzie realized that the other party was not simple, so he calmly said, “The surveillance is here, let me take a look.”

Soon, the manager sent the on-site monitoring.

When Ozzie saw the girl’s familiar outfit, he was stunned, “Look, sir.”

It’s that girl tonight!

Dressed in a casual outfit, wearing a hat and a mask, the movement of rolling the dice is very skillful.

Jed’s eyes fell on the girl, and he said appreciatively, “This girl is really not simple.”

“Sir, do you see any clues?” Ozzie stared closely at the girl in the video, but didn’t see any flaws.

Jed said with great interest, “I didn’t expect that her hands.

can not only save people, but also roll dice.”

“Sir, is she cheating? At her age, how could she do whatever she wants?” Ozzie still didn’t believe in the girl’s ability, and wanted to stare at the screen through a hole, but every movement, every expression of the girl, I can’t even see that she is cheating.

Jed said disapprovingly, “As long as you practice more, you can do it naturally.”

“Then we just let her go?”

You know, she helped Herman win 320 million!

It’s not tens of thousands, it’s 320 million!

Such a huge amount.

In case she comes again next time.

“She won by virtue of her ability. Is there any reason not to let her go?” Jed said in a rather formal manner, “Not only should she be sent away, but she should also be treated with courtesy. She is welcome to come back next time.”

“She’s still welcome?” Ozzie couldn’t believe it. With her winning method, can’t she go bankrupt?

“Where is she now?” Jed asked.

“I heard from the manager that when she was stopped by us, she was flattered and humiliated. She even went to the boat to enjoy the scenery and asked people to give her food and drink.”

This is the first time Ozzie has heard of this kind of person, mainly because the little girl is young and stopped by dozens of people, she doesn't cry in fright, nor does she show a look of fear.

Instead, with a sense of leisure, he went to the boat to drink tea and enjoy the moon, which was completely different from what he had imagined.

This psychological quality has to be given a thumbs up.

Chapter 574 Divided into 288 million

“Serve her well, free of charge.”

When Ozzie heard it, this girl's fate was too good to be favored by her husband.

Not only did he win 320 million, but he also got free food and drink on the boat!

There was a comfortable sofa on the boat, and Isabella leaned back, folded her hands behind her head, and looked at the bright moon in the sky.

There are tea, snacks and snacks next to the sofa. Isabella eats a little from time to time, which is very comfortable.

After receiving the news, ten staff members chased the boat on the shore to the next mooring point, and hurriedly pulled the boat back.

“Miss, sorry for neglecting you, you can go.

“If you still don’t want to leave, you can play a few more games inside. We can provide five million chips for you to play. Whoever wins is yours, and whoever loses is ours.”

“Or we can arrange check-in for you.”

“We have a variety of landscape rooms here, you can choose at will.”

Isabella saw that they had finished asking the people above her, and her attitude was quite respectful, she got up lazily and said, “No need.”

“Whenever the lady wants to come, you are welcome at any time.” Ten staff members surrounded her, as if they were surrounded by some important person, politely sent her to the door, and asked, “Is there a car to pick you up? Need us to help you?” Arrange a car?”

“No.”

The hotel she booked just now has a Rolls Royce that picks up guests, and it is already waiting outside the door.

Everyone saw that the driver who was picking up was wearing the uniform of a high-end hotel, and immediately knew that this guest was not simple.

Because the high-end hotel is very famous among them, there are more than 300 rooms, and the most common ones cost one hundred and one nights.

The most expensive of these is the penthouse suite on the 52nd floor, which is very luxurious and beautiful, with large- scale windows, allowing you to enjoy the 360-degree night view of the city.

The hotel is also equipped with a private spa, a super-large crystal bathroom, etc., allowing guests to have the supreme experience and enjoyment.

Isabella came to the hotel, took the card at the front desk, took the elevator to the 52nd floor, and opened the door of one of the luxury suites.

The lights sensed that someone was coming and turned on automatically. The curtains slowly moved to both sides, and the 360-degree invincible landscape came into her eyes.

Isabella took off her hat and mask, threw her backpack on the sofa, and went to the balcony to enjoy the night view of this bustling city.

She rarely had the time to stand quietly and enjoy such an invincible view.

The wind blew her long hair, inexplicably comforting.

After a while, she heard a beep on her mobile phone, which was a reminder from the bank to receive the money.

The total income is 288 million, which is the share that Herman gave her.

She hooked her lips, but she didn't expect that guy to be quite trustworthy.

the other side.

Eloise took a 12-hour flight, and just got off the plane, and received a reply from her daughter as soon as she turned it

She told Williams, "My baby girl has gone abroad, and she said she has something to do. Should we still let her come? Will it be too busy?"

She was a little bit reluctant to bear her daughter's hard work.

Ask, if she's not free, just choose another day." Williams didn't want to force it, and walked forward pushing two large suitcases with his wife's bag in his hand, when the phone rang. My brother-in-law's people called to ask if they had arrived, and said that the car was waiting outside the airport.

Eloise replied alone: "Honey, which country have you been to? Is it convenient to come to Florida?"

Isabella was a little surprised to receive this news.

Are they busy? Are you still traveling?

Isabella tapped the screen with her slender fingers, and quickly replied, "I'm very close to Florida, can I go tomorrow?"

Eloise was very happy when she saw the reply, and hurriedly replied, "Okay, okay, no problem, what time will you be available tomorrow?"

"Maybe at night."

"Okay, before you come here tomorrow, I'll send you another location."

"good."

In order to get closer to her daughter, Eloise also sent a very cute happy emoji.

Isabella's heart warmed up, and she replied: Happy.jpg.

On the other hand, Dr. Mark struggled with his mobile phone for a long time, and finally typed:
“Teacher, have you read the medical records? I’m stupid, I couldn’t think of a better way, and I bothered you with such a trivial matter.”

At this point, he felt that he couldn’t do it again. The teacher hated chattering and chattering people the most.

He reorganized his language again and asked cautiously, “Teacher, are you asleep? Sorry to disturb you so late.”

After thinking about it, I felt that it was too foreign and too polite, so I deleted one by one and edited again.

“Teacher, my patient.”

Wouldn’t it be good to be so straightforward?

It’s a bit rude.

So, Mark kept typing, typing, deleting, and deleting, struggling for a long time, but he still couldn’t organize a satisfactory sentence.

It was Isabella who came out of the shower and took the initiative to send him a message.

After Mark received it, he was so excited that he called Jed, “Jed, are you asleep? Great news, the teacher said that she is here to do something with us, and she is free tomorrow afternoon, so you can come and help the old lady look!”

“Great.” Jed asked again, “What does she like to eat and drink? I’ll have someone prepare it in advance. How much should I prepare for the consultation fee?”

“I don’t know what the teacher likes. As for the consultation fee. The teacher may have his own fee standard. Don’t worry. We’ll talk about it tomorrow when she comes.”

No matter how much, as long as the teacher can come, the old lady will definitely be saved!

“I’ll pick her up tomorrow.” Mark was overjoyed, and sent a message to Isabella, “Thank you teacher for taking the time to come. The students are so grateful. When is it convenient for you tomorrow? Tell me at any time. I’ll go pick you up.”

“good.”

After Isabella replied to the message, she sent a WhatsApp to Benjamin, sharing with him what happened today.

“No injury?”

Benjamin heard from her that when the auction started, a gentleman next door was hunted down and fled to her box. She saved him and knocked out a few young people.

“Will the person you saved today cause you trouble? Do I need to send more people to escort you back?” Benjamin worried.

“It’s okay.” Isabella didn’t take it seriously, “They are not my opponents. After finishing their work tomorrow, they should be able to go back the day after tomorrow.”

“Is that Herman reliable? If he doesn’t get the Devil’s Heart from his friend tomorrow, how long are you going to stay there?” Benjamin asked again.

“He said that he could deliver Devil’s Heart to me tomorrow. I think he really wants to cooperate with me. There should be no fakes.” Isabella was very relieved of Herman.

“Then you won’t cooperate with him?”

Isabella smiled lightly, “Who would be so stupid to stay and help others make money?”

Benjamin smiled lightly, “Then go to bed early and come back early, I will wait for you at home.”

“good.”

Isabella chatted with him a few more times before hanging up the phone.

Chapter 575

Early the next morning.

Isabella is woken up by Kara’s phone call.

“Isabella, there is a Mr. Harvey who asked to send Devil’s Heart to Long Group, and he named it to Kara, saying that it was to thank her for saving her life last night. What’s going on?” Kara was at a loss, totally unknown.

Isabella was also a little confused when she just woke up, “What did you say?”

“That is, did you miss the Devil’s Heart last night?” Kara guessed, “Did you save someone, and the other party bought the Devil’s Heart, thank you for saving your life?”

“Could it be that Mr. Harvey?” That handsome figure appeared in Isabella’s mind.

Last night, he did regard her as Kara, and said thank you Miss Long for saving her life.

Isabella told Kara what happened concisely, and Kara suddenly realized.

“I just said, I was on the plane last night, and I didn’t save anyone. I guessed it was you.”

Now it can be explained why someone sent the Devil’s Heart to the Long Group and also named it to Kara.

“It turns out that Mr. Harvey thought you were me.” Kara couldn’t help laughing, “Although you didn’t take pictures of Devil’s Heart last night, it was a blessing in disguise, and Devil’s Heart went around and returned to your hand. Come on, this is the so-called good man is rewarded.”

‘s Heart in his hand was bought by a big shot at a high price, and that big shot would be Mr. Harvey.

What a coincidence.

But, how did he guess that she wanted the Devil’s Heart, and was willing to give it away?

Could it be because she helped him deal with those little fellows and detoxify him?

“Isabella, that Mr. Harvey is not interested in you, is he?” Kara couldn’t help but said, “He seems to be very interested in you.”

“What nonsense.”

“He knows how to do what he likes.”

Isabella’s tone was lazy, “You have someone send the Devil ‘s Heart to the school for Grandpa Brown, and I’ll go back and study it tomorrow.”

“Okay, no problem.” When Kara said this, she couldn’t help gossiping, “Isabella, how old is that Mr. Harvey? Is he young? Is he handsome? It sounds like a generous move.”

“You’ve seen it, the one who helped us out on the cruise ship.

“It turned out to be him.” The polite figure first appeared in Kara’s mind, “He does look a few years older than Benjamin. But he is quite handsome, with an indescribable personal charm.”

“What do you compare him to Benjamin?” Isabella chatted with her for a few more words before hanging up the phone.

After washing up and eating breakfast, Herman happened to call her.

“I’m really sorry, my friend’s friend doesn’t have Devil’s Heart anymore. Just wait a little longer, I’ll hurry up and find out for you in the past two days.” Herman sounded apologetic.

“No need.” Isabella said lazily, “No need.”

’s Heart on hand, and this time I heard that it was bought at a high price. Just wait a few more days, I promise, There must have been news in the past few days, but if there is no news, I will kick my head for you.”

Isabella found it funny, “It’s really unnecessary, I don’t want Devil’s Heart anymore, I have something else to do, so let’s not talk about it for now.”

“etc.”

Herman didn’t expect her to hang up the phone so quickly, it’s over, did she think he was lying to her?

While Herman was anxious, he thought of another way.

Not long after, Isabella's mobile phone received 30 million

Dollars. She looked at the transferer, and it turned out to be Herman.

Is this guy crazy?

Immediately afterwards, Herman sent her a message.

"I failed to keep my promise to deliver the Devil's Heart to you today for the 30 million Dollars. I'm sorry, but you must accept it."

Several question marks popped up in Isabella's mind, is there such an operation?

"Devil's Heart, I will definitely continue to inquire. You keep the 30 million Dollars first, which is my apology." When Herman said this, he did not forget to add, "You don't have to pay it back, it's yours if you give it to you."

Isabella was a little speechless, and wanted to turn him over, but he didn't expect the other party to block her.

"Don't transfer it to me, you must accept it."

Only by accepting it will it be possible to cooperate with him. in the future. Herman thinks so.

Isabella really has nothing to say, okay, since it was an "apology" sent to her, then she will accept it.

Anyway, it's free money, don't want it for nothing.

After a while, she read the last few pages of the medical record, and then sent a message to Mark, saying that she could come to pick her up early.

Mark was having breakfast, and when he received the news, he immediately got up excitedly, and drove out before finishing breakfast.

At the entrance of the hotel, Mark stretched his neck and looked towards the hotel. When he saw Isabella coming out, he shouted happily, "Teacher!"

He hurried forward, trying to help Isabella carry her bag.

"No need, I will carry it myself."

"Teacher, you are too out of touch. There are students here, so let them come for such a trivial matter." Mark grabbed her bag, insisted on helping her carry it, and respectfully opened the car door for her.

Isabella got in the car, Mark happily returned to the driver's seat, glanced at the rearview mirror and said, "To be honest, I really didn't expect you to be doing business nearby, and I took the time to come here, thank you very much."

"I've read the patient's medical records. He needs multiple medications. It's not a big problem."

"Do you think there is a possibility of recovery?" Mark said this, and couldn't help asking boldly, "How sure are you?"

"90%." Isabella didn't finish her words, but she was 100% sure in her heart.

Mark was very excited. Sure enough, no matter what difficult and miscellaneous diseases, as long as you find the teacher, the teacher will always have a solution.

The teacher is really amazing!

“teacher.”

Before Mark finished speaking, Isabella corrected her, “Just call me Isabella, I don’t dare to be a teacher.”

After all, she is younger than Mark.

Mark knew that this “teacher” was his wishful thinking.

Many years ago, during an extremely complicated operation, Mark was fortunate enough to witness Isabella’s medical skills, and he was greatly shocked by her knife skills that brought her back to life.

Afterwards, he cheekily called Teacher Isabella. For the sake of his hard work and studious, Isabella did give him advice a few times, but never said that he would be accepted as a student.

But in front of Isabella, he is like a student, because he is not as good as one-tenth of Isabella in terms of strength and experience.

“Students don’t dare to call the teacher’s name directly. It’s too rude.” Mark glanced at the rearview mirror again and said, “My friend said that as long as the teacher can save his mother, the amount of payment is not a problem.”

“I did it for your sake.”

“Thank you” Mark was very happy, “but my friend is very rich, you can just speak up, don’t be polite to him.”

Chapter 576 You Can Get a Discount Next Time You Find Me

“You are willing to help, and the students are already very grateful. If the teacher doesn’t accept any money, then both the students and the students’ friends will feel ashamed.” When Mark said this, he strongly pleaded, “Teacher, you must We need to charge more, so that we can feel better.”

In such a rush to give her money?

“Okay.” Isabella curled her lips and said, “I’ll take care of it when the time comes.”

She didn’t say how much she would charge, but Mark felt. relieved after hearing what she said, and felt that the old lady must be saved!

half an hour later.

The car arrived in front of a beautiful villa.

The villa is composed of more than a dozen buildings, with a blue lake, a vast lawn, a beautiful swimming pool, and even a helipad.

Just getting off the station and standing in front of the gate, you can feel the grandeur and layout of this family.

This should not be ordinary rich people.

To be able to afford such a villa, the other party’s status should be very high.

There were six foreign servants who came to greet her. They wore uniforms, trained in an orderly manner, and greeted Isabella neatly, with a very respectful and polite attitude.

Jed, who was sipping tea in the garden, heard that Mark had received his teacher, got up and walked towards the gate, ready to greet him.

The short-haired maid followed behind him. From a distance, she saw a slender girl with outstanding temperament entering the gate of the villa.

The girl's hair is tied into a ball head, and her beautiful facial features are very eye-catching, with her good looks. and aura.

When the short-haired girl saw it, she was immediately overwhelmed with excitement.

“Sir, the very powerful girl I mentioned is her!”

It was she who gave the old lady a few needles, and the old lady was out of breath.

It was she who reminded the old lady that she was weak and should be more careful in taking care of her.

“Sir, have you found her?” The short-haired maid was overjoyed, “So, the old lady is saved!”

“You said that day when the bus was rear-ended and the old lady had a seizure, she was the girl who rescued her?” Jed was a little surprised, “Are you sure?”

“Very sure! It's this face! How many of her looks are there in the world?” The short-haired maid followed her husband to Isabella, waving happily and playfully saying hello, “Hi, we meet again.”

Isabella didn't have much memory of her, and searched her mind, but couldn't remember who she was.

“Before the bus was rear-ended, I called for help on the side of the road. You got out of the bus and saved our old lady. Do you remember?” The short-haired maid smiled sincerely and her eyes were full of expectation.

Isabella remembered, it was her.

She was in a hurry because no one would stop the car to help.

She stood on the side of the road with the driver and kept shouting for help.

So, after a long time, is the old lady in need of medical treatment?

At that time, Isabella had checked the old lady's pulse, because the condition was complex and required multiple medications, so when the short-haired maid asked her how to do it, she couldn't give the short-haired maid specific instructions on how to use the medicine.

Because of the old lady's condition, the prescription needs to be adjusted constantly.

"It's nice to meet again." Isabella nodded at her as a response to her enthusiasm.

The short-haired maid was overjoyed. I didn't expect it to be like this when we met again. This girl is so gentle and polite, so people like her.

"Let me introduce, this is my good friend Jed." Mark introduced happily, "Jed, this is the very powerful teacher I told you about. People in the Jianghu call her Selby Brown."

This girl is Selby Brown?

The miracle doctor who is said to be able to bring the dead back to life, Selby Brown?

Jed was very surprised. He didn't expect that the very powerful teacher Mark mentioned was her.

At such a young age, she turned out to be at the level of a miracle doctor.

The short-haired maid didn't expect that it wasn't the husband who found her, but Dr. Mark.

It sounds like it has a lot of background.

No wonder I carry an acupuncture bag with me, it turns out that he is a miracle doctor!

Amazing.

She is beautiful, and she is also a miracle doctor.

If it wasn't for the fact that the husband was over thi years old, she really wanted to bring them together!

"We meet again." Jed's gaze softened, and he had a better impression of the girl.

Now it was Mark's turn to be surprised. He looked at Jed, then at Isabella, and asked in surprise, "Have you met before?"

"Mr. Harvey helped my friend and I get out of trouble last night." Isabella said succinctly.

"Miss Miraculous Doctor also saved me last night and detoxified me." Jed formally extended his hand, "Thank you, Miss Long."

"Kara is my friend, just call me Isabella." Isabella didn't expect to meet again in such a situation, and shook hands with him, "Thank you for your Devil's Heart too."

Now it's Jed's turn to be surprised. After a long time, her name is Kara, isn't she the Miss Long Group? So his Devil's Heart went to the wrong place?

The assistant on the side was also a little confused, that. Is there no need to investigate her identity? Seeing that she looks somewhat similar to her husband's sister before, I thought Mr. Nan of the Long Group had embraced the wrong daughter.

"So Isabella is your real name?" Jed was surprised and asked with a smile.

"yes."

"It sounds good." Jed made a gesture, inviting her to go forward, "I believe you already know about my mother's condition, what good plan do you have?"

At this time, Mark seemed to think of something, "Oh, by the way, teacher, there was a medicine that appeared in the auction before, and it was looted by people. It is called Heart Tonic Pill. It is said that it was made by a very powerful pharmaceutical man. It works wonders."

He said, "Many heart patients who have been sentenced to death by doctors have improved after taking Heart Tonic Pill. The old lady's disease is not pure heart disease. For her, this medicine can only play a role Part of the effect, so I plan to use Heart Tonic Pill, mix it with my new drug, try it, I don't know if it will help the old lady's condition."

"Oh." After hearing what he said, Isabella said flatly, "That thing is useless to the old lady."

"Why?" Mark asked puzzled.

Jed was also puzzled, "Last night, I also took a picture of the Heart Pill."

"Oh, I made it with the scraps left over from the Heart Tonic Pill. It doesn't really help the condition. The old lady's condition is complicated and requires multiple medications."

As soon as these words came out, the people around were stunned.

Mark's eyes widened, and he asked in disbelief, "Are you the Mr. Pharmaceutical that is widely rumored?"

"Well, it's me."

Mark held his breath, so, after a long time, he bought the medicine made by the teacher last night.

Jed was surprised and admired this girl even more.

Isabella asked indifferently, "How much did you pay for it last night?"

Jed said truthfully, "A Heart Tonic Pill is 20 million Dollars, and a bottle of Heart Pill is 5 million Dollars."

"It's expensive, next time you find me, you can get a discount."

Chapter 577

Through the magnificent living room, Isabella followed Jed to the large master bedroom on the first floor.

As soon as you enter the door, you can see the fairyland-like garden outside the large floor-to-ceiling windows.

It is arranged as a warm tea room, and then there is a cloakroom, a large bathroom, and finally the bedroom.

A kind old woman was lying on the spacious and luxurious bed, beside which there were various medical instruments displaying her physical condition in real time.

A nurse and a servant waited quietly, and when they saw someone coming, they stood up and bowed respectfully.

“This is the famous doctor we invited.” Jed took the initiative to introduce Isabella’s identity, and looked at the two of them, “What’s the matter with the old lady recently, you can tell her.”

“Yes.” The two servants had great respect for Jed.

Isabella sat down to listen to their report and check on the condition of the old man.

Mark held his breath, waiting for the teacher’s judgment.

Jed looked at her too, slightly nervous.

It never occurred to him that after going around, he could invite Selby Brown.

Someone said before that it was difficult to ask her to see a doctor.

Isabella’s expression was always calm. After taking her pulse carefully, she said softly, “It’s not a big problem.”

Jed and Mark breathed a sigh of relief and beamed with joy.

The nurses on the side were a little surprised. Many experts were helpless and powerless about the old lady's condition. Even Mark, who is known as a genius doctor, couldn't think of a better way.

Isabella was the first to say it was not a big deal.

She also looks to be in her teens, if it weren't for the cold aura and confident look on her body, people would really suspect that she is a liar.

But, if it is really a liar, how dare you cheat in front of your husband?

It can only be said that this girl is very capable.

“Multiple medications are needed.” Isabella asked someone to bring a pen and paper, and wrote down three prescriptions, “These are the medicines to be taken in the first three days. I have noted the order of the medicines, so you can just follow them.”

The servant hurriedly took the prescription and showed it to the husband to read.

When Jed saw the strong and imposing font on the prescription, he always felt inexplicably familiar, as if he had seen it somewhere.

Unexpectedly, the girl's handwriting is just like her person's, with a grand and refined style, which makes people's eyes shine.

“Do it.” Jed handed the prescription to the nurse, trusting in Isabella's prescription.

Mark hurried over to read the content again. He also studied medicine, and just saw the first prescription, and he praised it again and again.

“Wonderful, that’s wonderful, why didn’t I expect that these medicinal materials can be combined together.” Mark was surprised, and he was in admiration. The medicine is still very mild, unlike the medicines I prescribed before, which had side effects.”

At that time, she knew that the old lady would suffer from chest tightness and mouth pain after taking the medicine he prescribed, and she would get tired easily, but there was no better way.

At that time, with Jed’s consent, he had no choice but to use those medicines to temporarily save the old lady’s life.

Later, the bus was rear-ended, and Isabella accidentally helped her. After pointing out the side effects of those medicines on the old lady, he dared not give the old lady anymore, and stopped immediately.

But after that, no better medicine could be found to replace it.

Fortunately, I found the teacher, and the teacher came over when he was free.

Now that he saw the teacher’s prescription, he realized that it was his own skills that were inferior to others.

It seems that in terms of medicine, he still has a long way to go..

“This is just the medicine for the first three days. I will prescribe the right medicine for the rest of the medicine according to the old lady’s physical condition.”

It is also impossible to prescribe all the medicines at once, and it is necessary to combine the old lady's body reaction after taking the medicine.

Grateful, Jed reached out and shook her again.

“Thank you so much, with you here, the heart disease that has troubled me for a long time has finally been resolved.”

During this time, he took his mother around to seek medical treatment, but her condition never improved, and he was under a lot of pressure because he couldn't explain to the rest of the family.

But now, he has the feeling of pushing through the dark clouds to see tomorrow.

All of this was brought to him by the girl in front of him. This is commonly known as-hope, right?

“Teacher, if the old lady's condition improves after three days and there is no problem with the medicine in the future, how long will it take for her to recover?”

“One to three months, it depends on the specific situation.”

If surgery is not performed, the recovery time will be longer.

The operation will be faster, but it depends on her physical condition to see if it is suitable for surgery.

When Jed heard this, he faintly felt that there was still a long way to go, but with this girl by his side, he believed that no matter what the situation, this girl would be able to deal with it calmly.

“Okay, thank you teacher.” When Mark heard the teacher’s words, he felt more or less confident, “I don’t know if the teacher has any other plans in the future. If I have time, I will ask Jed to arrange accommodation for you. You will stay here first. come down.”

“Yes, just live here, don’t see outsiders.” Jed welcomed.

“I still have something to attend to.”

“The old lady’s follow-up treatment.” Mark asked again.

“In three days, you tell me her physical condition, and I will tell you how to take the medicine in private.” Isabella got up and said, “Then I will leave first.”

She also promised her mother that she would meet them today.

I don’t know why my mother suddenly asked her to go abroad to meet her.

“In such a hurry? I also want to treat you to a meal, thank you very much.” Jed suddenly felt a little reluctant to let the girl leave.

But Isabella glanced at the clock on the wall and said softly, “Next time.”

At this time, her mobile phone vibrated, she took it out and saw that it was Peter calling.

“Boss, the group left to you by Mr. Will before, many of our people have already entered, and everything is under normal management.”

“His subordinates are very loyal. They know that you were deeply loved by Mr. Will during his lifetime, so they are very convinced of your takeover. Those old directors and old shareholders have been supporting you in the group. What I mean is, should we find someone Time, go to the group to show your face?”

“After all, you haven’t shown up once since taking over.”

As long as Isabella thinks of the scene of Grandpa leaving her eyes in the hot summer after the college entrance examination, her heart hurts a little.

She said softly, “I’ll go there sometime.”

“Okay, let me talk to the old directors and shareholders first, and say that you will visit them later. This way everyone will be motivated. When will you come back?”

“Maybe tonight, or tomorrow.”

“Okay, everything is normal, no suspicious person appears for the time being.”

“Well, got it, hang up.” After Isabella hung up the phone, she found that Jed and Mark were waiting for her.

Listening to her conversation, she seems to have been very busy.

What kind of identity does this girl have? She doesn’t look like an ordinary person at all.

Chapter 578

“I heard from Mark that you usually have a preference for tea tasting, and you can’t eat, how many cups of tea before. you go?” Jed asked again in a warm voice.

Isabella saw that he wanted to thank her sincerely from the bottom of her heart, and finally said, “Okay.”

With a smile on Jed's face, he took Isabella into the garden. and served the best tea and refreshments.

Mark was by his side, and solemnly thanked Isabella's doctor for his kindness.

At this time, the door of the villa opened slowly, and eight servants trot together to meet the guests.

Isabella followed her eyes and saw a black car parked outside the gate. The driver opened the door, and a man and a woman got out of the back seat.

"It's my sister and brother-in-law."

Jed sent someone to pick up his sister and brother-in-law from the hotel in the morning, and the time finally came.

My sister and brother-in-law would be very happy if they learned that their mother's condition was cured!

Jed smiled, and deliberately kept it a secret, "You will be surprised when you see my sister later."

After all, they both look so similar.

"I'll go to greet you first, wait for a while." Jed got up, straightened his suit, and walked towards the gate.

Mark also got up and said, "Teacher, I'll go say hello, I'll be here soon."

"Well, I'm busy with you." Isabella nodded, and saw that they had gone far away, so she took out her mobile phone to reply to Benjamin's message.

Eloise walked into the villa led by eight foreign servants, and accidentally saw a girl sitting at the table playing with her mobile phone in the garden on the right.

Due to the distance, she didn't see the girl's face, but she couldn't help but feel happy, and asked the foreign servant in front, "Is that my brother's girlfriend? From which family?"

The servant didn't know either, "She came here with Dr. Mark in the morning, and she is said to be Dr. Mark's teacher."

"Looking at the clothes, he looks quite young. They are all teachers?" Williams smiled, "Now you don't have to worry about the big things in your brother's life."

They finally brought their girlfriend home!

"You said before, there were five sons in the family who needed to be urged, and there was a younger brother who needed to be urged abroad. Now it finally relieves me." Eloise couldn't hide the smile on her face, "Mark's teacher must also be a medical student Well, a girl studying medicine is good, like Isabella."

Jed came to them, first hugged his sister, then his brother-in-law, and seemed to have a good relationship.

Mark also greeted them with a smile.

"Mark, it's been hard for you recently." Eloise said a few polite words to him, then took her brother's arm and whispered, "Quickly tell the truth, who is that girl sitting over there! Did you mention it earlier?" Who?"

As soon as Jed heard it, he guessed what his sister had misunderstood, but he smiled and deliberately didn't reveal it, "Sister just follow me to take a look and you'll know."

After a while, my sister must be very surprised to see that the girl looks so similar to her!

I will tell my sister later that my mother's condition can be cured, because this girl is a miracle doctor, and my sister's expression must be wonderful.

"Walk around, take me to see." Eloise originally wanted to meet the girl as a parent, but the closer she got, the more she felt that the girl's figure was inexplicably familiar.

At this time, Isabella answered the phone and got up to answer it.

Her back caught Williams' eyes, and Williams couldn't help but said, "Suddenly I feel that her figure is quite similar to Isabella."

"You think so too?" Eloise was surprised, "I just thought her dressing style was similar to Isabella's."

"Who is Isabella?" Jed was puzzled.

After Isabella finished talking on the phone in a few words, she turned around, and Eloise and Williams' eyes widened in disbelief.

Seeing the expressions of his sister and brother-in-law, Jed was smiling slightly and wanted to introduce him.

Unexpectedly, Eloise blurted out in surprise, "Isabella, why are you here?"

"Mom?" Isabella was also a little surprised, and then looked at Williams who was beside him with a surprised face, "Dad? Why are you here?"

"What did you call them just now?" Now it was Jed's turn to be surprised, when will his sister and brother-in-law have an extra daughter?

Even Mark's eyes widened, what's going on??

“Mark asked me to come over to see a doctor for his friend’s mother, and I happened to be nearby, so I came here.” After Isabella explained, she looked at her parents with shattered expressions, “Who are you?”

“You’re not talking about his mother?” Eloise pointed to her younger brother next to her.

Isabella nodded in confusion.

“He is your uncle! His mother is my mother, your grandmother!”

After Eloise said this, both Isabella and Jed looked a little surprised, uncle? grandmother?

Is this amount of information a bit large?

Jed was confused, when did he have a niece?

Are they all this big?

What’s going on here?

Williams reacted and greeted, “Sit down first and tell me what’s going on.”

Eloise succinctly talked about the fire in the hospital that year, Isabella was taken away by the Brown family, and Cecilia was not their own.

After being shocked, Jed finally understood why he felt inexplicably familiar when he saw Isabella for the first time, and even this familiarity revealed a hint of intimacy.

Subconsciously, he always felt that there was some kind of connection between her and her sister, and even wanted to investigate her.

“Because you are usually very busy, and you are abroad, and your mother’s condition puts you under a lot of pressure. I’m afraid to tell you, in case you tell your mother, it will stimulate her condition.”

So Eloise thought, to hide it for a while, and wait for her mother’s condition to improve.

At that time, Isabella had just recognized her back, and she didn’t want to announce her identity to her distant relatives and neighbors all at once, because she was afraid that too many people would come to her door, which would disturb Isabella, and second, she hoped that she and Williams would have more time to spend with their precious daughter. The third is that the old people on both sides were not in good health at that time, and they were afraid of being stimulated.

“Then how did you and Isabella meet? Was it introduced by Mark, or?” Eloise asked her brother again.

Jed said truthfully, “I saw her in the restaurant before and thought she looked a lot like you. I saw her again on the cruise ship last night. She not only saved me, but also detoxified me.”

Eloise heard him finish the thrilling scene last night, her heart pounded and accelerated, “You were hunted down last night? Who did it? In your territory, there are still people. who dare to be so lawless?”

“Fortunately, I met Isabella. She also helped me, so that I could find the ghost soon.”

When Isabella heard it, it turned out that what happened last night was done by the ghost?

She also thanked, “Uncle also helped me and Kara out of trouble, and also gave me the very precious medicinal material Devil ‘s Heart.”

Chapter 579 Stay

When Eloise heard this, she was very surprised.

Her younger brother would not give away things casually, let alone such precious medicinal materials.

Only when you really recognize and appreciate this girl will you be generous.

So, the baby girl was recognized and loved by her uncle before that?

While Eloise was happy, she was also somewhat puzzled, "Isabella, what do you want Devil's Heart to do?"

"The people around me are sick and just need this medicine." Isabella wanted to wait for her brother to confess to his parents.

"Then Isabella, have you seen your grandma? Is her condition difficult?" Williams asked again with concern.

Jed smiled gently, "Isabella has already prescribed the medicine for the first three days. If there is no accident, Mom will be fully recovered in one to three months."

"Really?" Williams and Eloise were overjoyed at the same time, knowing that this child must have a way.

"Father knows that there is no intractable disease in the world that can stop you. No matter how serious the patient is, you can turn the crisis into safety." Williams laughed, but Eloise pinched his thigh.

He almost yelled out. After being stunned, he realized that he had said the wrong thing. He looked at Isabella again. She seemed to be remembering the past, and there was a flash of sadness in her eyes.

Williams hastily apologized, "Father means that you are highly skilled in medicine, and there is no you in this world. Ah, no, no, Dad just wanted to praise you."

"It's okay." Isabella smiled lightly.

"Your father is just happy, because your grandma's illness has not improved after seeing many doctors. Fortunately, you have a way!"

Eloise hurriedly took Isabella's hand, and said softly, "You are already great, every patient, you have done your best, and you have a clear conscience."

Jed guessed in his heart that before Isabella, there should be someone who couldn't be saved, that person was very important to her, that's why her brother-in-law and sister carefully maintained her emotions.

Is there anyone that Selby Brown can't save?

Then how desperate and sad she must have been at that time.

Because she has reached that peak, even if she can't be saved, the other doctors are even more helpless.

That kind of despair is like falling into a bottomless black hole, and no one can help.

Poor little girl, she has to bear this kind of pain at such a young age.

“Isabella, your parents will stay at Uncle’s house for a few days, why don’t you stay too, at least meet Grandma before leaving?” Jed invited from the bottom of his heart.

“Yes, yes, stay with your parents for a few days and meet your grandma.” Eloise agreed, “Mom also wants you to stay.”

“You said earlier that you have other things to do, see if you can arrange it, even if you stay for a night or two.” Jed likes this niece very much, and wants to spend more time with her and find opportunities to treat her better.

“It’s rare to come here, and it’s such a coincidence. This is God’s will.” Williams smiled, and hoped that his daughter would stay. “The three of us will go together when the time comes.”

Isabella thought for a while, then nodded, “OK.”

“Great.” Jed was very happy, and called the housekeeper, and gave some instructions in a low voice. Soon, the housekeeper showed up with all the servants in the house.

Jed greeted Isabella to his side, looking like a family member. Looking at the dozens of servants in front of him, he introduced very seriously, “This is my niece Isabella. When you see her in the future, it is like seeing me. You must wholeheartedly treat.”

“Yes, sir.” Dozens of servants bent down in an orderly manner, and then bowed respectfully to Isabella.

“Hi there.”

Facing these dozens of servants, Isabella was not timid at all, as if she was used to seeing big scenes, her aura was above everyone else.

Jed could tell that the child’s future would definitely not be easy, and his aura was so strong at such a young age.

He patted his niece on the shoulder, and said in a very affectionate and loving tone, "Isabella, from now on, uncle's place will also be your home, and you are welcome to come and play whenever you are free."

"Thank you uncle."

Jed asked someone to clean up the largest room and asked Isabella to go back to the room to rest for a while, while he asked his sister and brother-in-law to find out about his niece.

After Isabella returned to her room, she called Grandpa Brown and briefly explained what happened.

Grandpa Brown smiled, "Children, this is God's will. This is a family, and they will be reunited no matter what. Going around, you will eventually come together."

Isabella also thinks that the fate is very strange, no wonder the first time I saw Jed before, I felt inexplicably kind.

It turned out to be her own uncle.

"Don't worry about your sister-in-law's condition. Grandpa is already researching it, and I guarantee that it will be found out in a few days."

As long as you have Devil 's Heart, nothing else is a problem.

"Thank you grandpa."

"It's not hard. Grandpa has nothing to do when he's old. He happens to have something to do for entertainment. You can stay there for a few more days and spend more time with your family. You're so busy that you often don't see anyone for three to five months. In the future Your uncle has to wait."
Grandpa Brown laughed out loud.

Isabella chatted with him a few more times before hanging up the phone.

The room Jed had vacated for her took up half of the entire third floor, with an excellent view and a beautiful view.

Isabella stood on the balcony and could see the distance, while her parents and uncle were still chatting in their original positions.

The wind blew her long hair, and the short-haired servant who was about to come in to deliver her toiletries couldn't help staring at this scene.

This girl is really beautiful and has a good temperament.

That kind of fresh and refined feeling makes people unable to take their eyes off at all.

Isabella noticed someone behind her and turned her head to see the enthusiastic short-haired servant.

“Miss Isabella, you look so good-looking.” The short-haired servant put down the toiletries and said happily, “I was so happy to learn that you are Mr.'s niece. My name is Ann. What do you need next? Tell me anytime.”

Isabella said gently, “Thank you.”

“Miss Isabella is too polite. From the first moment I saw you, I liked you very much! Your medical skills are superb, and you are beautiful. You are completely different from other young ladies.”

When Ann said this, she couldn't help mustering up the courage to ask, “Can I take a photo with you?”

Isabella smiled slightly and nodded.

Ann was overjoyed, and hurriedly took out her phone, "Don't worry, I have a lot of beauty software."

Although with Isabella's appearance, there is no need to rely on beauty blessings.

But out of courtesy, Ann turned on the beautification camera and took two photos with Isabella.

Isabella in the photo has an outstanding temperament, her facial features are impeccable, and just a smile is so perfect.

Ann on the side smiled brightly, but she looked a bit like a sister next door.

Chapter 580 Uncle's Meeting Ceremony

"Miss Isabella, can I add you on WhatsApp? Can this group photo be posted on Moments?" Ann said hastily added, "No, it doesn't matter."

"It's up to you." Isabella clicked on her personal business card, handed it to her to scan, and asked softly, "How long have you been here?"

"I was picked up by my husband since I was a child, and I have been in this family for eighteen years." Ann couldn't help asking, "Miss Isabella, you should be younger than me, right?"

"I'm eighteen too."

"Then we are the same age."

Ann liked her very much and chatted with her for a while before going down.

Downstairs, many servants were working and talking about the new Miss Isabella.

“Why did the master come up with a niece out of thin air? Or is it a kiss?”

“What about Miss Cecilia?”

“Didn’t you notice? Miss Isabella looks a lot like Mrs. Logan, she should be Mrs. Logan’s own, but it’s Miss Cecilia, who looks more like an outsider in this family.”

Marking Ceremony

“Do you think Miss Cecilia is wrong? In contrast, Miss. Isabella and Mr. Isabella are more like a family.”

“Mr.’s family affairs, let’s talk less.”

Everyone worked hard again, and after a meeting, someone said, “Don’t you think Ms. Isabella is very powerful? Even Dr. Mark can’t do anything about it. Ms. Isabella said that the problem is not serious, and even prescribed a prescription.”

“Dr. Mark said that Ms. Isabella is his teacher, which shows that Ms. Isabella’s medical skills are superior to Dr. Mark’s.”

“Miss Isabella has such a good family background, so she should have cultivated her medical talent since she was a child?”

“It’s so nice to be rich, you can make your children so good.”

“I think Miss Isabella is a nice person, she doesn’t put on airs at all.”

“Yeah, although she doesn’t talk much, she is very friendly to everyone. Unlike Miss Cecilia, she looks gentle and generous, but in fact.”

“do not talk.”

Everyone quieted down again and continued to work.

It didn’t take long for Isabella to see Ann’s post on Moments.

She also posted two photos together.

Isabella’s eyes softened, and just as she was about to give her a thumbs up, her phone rang, and it was someone under her who was reporting to her.

the other side.

Cecilia was stunned when she saw Ann’s circle of friends, and her whole body began to feel cold.

Ann is an orphan picked up by her uncle. She grew up in her uncle’s house since she was a child. Besides her, there are several servants who are also orphans.

The uncle provided them with education, and they spontaneously worked at the uncle’s house. Later, Ann learned that the old lady’s condition was very serious, so she took care of her and refused to leave.

The reason why Cecilia has Ann’s circle of friends is because she is close to her uncle, and occasionally she can find out about her uncle from Ann.

But now, how could Isabella be with her uncle and even bribed Ann.

My parents went abroad suddenly yesterday. Did they take Isabella to meet my uncle and grandmother secretly?

Cecilia clenched her fists in anger. If her parents told her about it openly, she wouldn't be angry and jealous.

But they were always sneaky, as if trying to hide it from her.

If she hadn't seen Ann's circle of friends, she would have been kept in the dark.

After being angry for a while, Cecilia sent Eloise a WhatsApp.

“Mom, when will you and Dad come back? The day after tomorrow is Christmas, and I want to go home and spend it with you.”

Eloise quickly replied, “Christmas is coming so soon? Mom is so busy that she forgot that mom and dad went abroad to visit your grandma, so they may not go back so soon. You are at school to play with your classmates. Mom wishes you all have fun in advance~”

Cecilia bit her lower lip, as expected, mother didn't mention Isabella a word! It's obviously Isabella, and I went to visit my grandma and uncle with my parents!

Could it be that this Christmas, are all of them going to leave her behind and live with Isabella?!

Thinking of this, Cecilia was furious!

“Mom, how is grandma? Is your health better?” Cecilia began to play emotional cards, “I miss her so much, if she is not so far away from me, I really want to visit her.”

If mother still has her daughter in her heart, she will definitely ask her if she wants to go to uncle's for the holiday together.

But Eloise just replied with a smile, “Don’t worry about your grandma’s illness, she will recover soon. When she recovers, we will get together as a family and make her happy.”

Cecilia was so angry that tears welled up in her eyes, “I’m going to class first.”

I thought Eloise could sense her emotions, but Eloise just replied: OK.jpg.

Cecilia is even angrier, and now she is partial to this, is she not hiding it?!

No, she can’t sit still!

She had to figure out a way.

On the other hand, when Jed heard that his niece had suffered so much grievance in the Brown family, and learned medicine from a grandpa, Jed felt distressed and sad.

If it weren’t for the fact that two of the Brown family’s conscience-stricken people were already in prison, he would not have let him off lightly.

It’s just that, when meeting for the first time, what gift should I give my niece.

My sister said that Isabella is also excellent in managing the company. Before that, the clothing company under the name of her brother-in-law caused a lot of great things, but it turned out that it was Isabella’s achievements.

He also thought that his brother-in-law hired a very powerful person to take care of him, bringing the clothing company back to life.

I never expected that these were written by a seventeen or eighteen-year-old girl.

Jed thought about it, and made another call.

Isabella was resting in the bedroom for a while when she heard Ann knocking on the door.

“Miss Isabella, are you asleep? Mr. has something to ask for you.”

Isabella opened the door, and Ann immediately showed a bright smile, “Mister is in the study on the second floor, please follow me.”

Isabella found that Ann’s smile was contagious, and the whole world seemed to brighten up when she smiled.

In addition to Jed, there was also a man in a suit in the study.

Isabella was a little surprised.

“Here?” Jed got up and left his seat, came to Isabella, and said to the man gently, “Let me introduce, this is my niece Isabella, dear.”

“Miss Isabella has inherited all the advantages of Mr. and Mrs. She is beautiful and outstanding, she is as beautiful as a fairy.” The man hurriedly bent down, “Hi Miss Isabella, just call me John.”

“Hello.” Isabella greeted politely.

“John helps me manage the multiple casinos under my name.” Jed patted Isabella on the shoulder again when he said this, “From now on, she will be the biggest person in charge of all the casinos.”

When Isabella heard it, was this going to give her the property under her name?

“Yes, I will follow Miss Isabella’s orders from now on.” John was very respectful to her.
