

Chased Her 581

Chapter 581 Stimulated

“Today I asked you to come and see her. If there is nothing else, you go down first. I still have something to say with Isabella.”

After John left, Jed took out another document and said softly, “This is the share I gave you. It’s a gift. I’m glad you came back to this home.”

“No need, uncle.”

“Take it.” Jed forced the equity transfer document into her hand, “You are not only a member of the Logan family, but also a member of the Harvey family. You should hold the shares of the Harvey family.”

“Uncle, I still have to go to school.”

It is really impossible to take care of so many industries.

“John will take care of it for you, not to mention uncle.” Jed said this, and asked gently, “You are good at rolling dice, who taught you?”

Isabella briefly told her uncle what happened when she was a child, and Jed laughed loudly, “It seems that your grandpa is still an old urchin, very interesting.”

Isabella thought of how she made 288 million Dollars at her uncle’s site yesterday, and felt a little bit sorry.

Mainly at that time, she thought that the Devil’s Heart was in Herman’s hands, so she wanted to help Herman win two hands and exchange for the Devil’s Heart.

I never expected that it was one of the properties under my uncle's name.

"From now on, you can go to the property under Uncle's name, free of charge." Jed said lovingly, "Find some time, Uncle will take you to the group to meet other people."

Seeing her cute and sensible appearance, Jed couldn't help softening his eyes, "I'll let Ann take you to familiarize yourself with the environment at home after you have had enough rest."

Next, Ann asked the driver to drive a sightseeing car to pick up Isabella.

"Mr.'s house is very big, and it will take a lot of time to walk on foot."

After Isabella got in the car, Ann began to introduce, "This is the garden in front, with a large area, and many precious flowers and plants are planted. If you walk slowly, it will take half an hour."

"This is the tarmac. Usually, if you have anything to do, you will fly back and forth directly."

"This is a vegetable and fruit garden, where a lot of vegetables and fruits are picked and grown."

"This is Mr.'s golf course. He likes to play here when he is free."

The sightseeing bus took Isabella around and it was already noon.

Jed asked the chef to cook a lot of delicious dishes, and Isabella found that the table was filled with dozens of exquisite dishes as soon as she came.

"This is your first meal with uncle when you come to Florida, so it must be grand."

Not only the dishes are grand, but even the presentation and the surrounding environment have been deliberately arranged to look warm and romantic.

“Jed, you’re spending money again.” Williams put his arm on Jed’s shoulders, feeling sorry for him, “Every time you come here, you entertain me with great fanfare.”

“You’re welcome, it’s just a few dishes.”

When Jed said this, he looked at Isabella again, his eyes became gentler, “Isabella, you don’t have to be cautious at uncle’s house, you can eat whatever you want, eat more, and you must be full.”

“Isabella is not afraid of strangers.” Eloise smiled, and after sitting down, she suggested that everyone to toast Jed.

“It should be us respecting Isabella. I’m really glad that she can come back to this family and come to my uncle.”

Everyone’s cups touch together, it is the sound of reunion.

Jed observed how often his sister and brother-in-law gave Isabella food, guessed which dishes she liked, and took the initiative to pick some for her and put them in her bowl.

“It’s rare for Isabella to come here. Let her have a good rest today, and tomorrow we will take her out to play and wander around.” Jed suggested.

“Okay, where are we going?” Eloise looked at her brother approvingly, and she also wanted to take her daughter out alone sometime.

“I’ll arrange it.”

Everyone talked and laughed again, and the meal was finished in a harmonious atmosphere.

In the afternoon, Isabella went into the room to rest, and not long after, she heard a sudden knock on the door.

“Miss Isabella, it’s me. Are you resting? That’s right. The old lady woke up just now, and Mrs. Logan told her about your life experience. She seemed to be stimulated, couldn’t breathe, and passed out again.”

Isabella got up and opened the door, “I’ll go take a look.”

In the big master bedroom on the first floor, Eloise was already in a panic. If something happened to her mother, she would hate herself to death!

“Isabella is here!” Williams felt at ease when he saw his daughter.

Eloise’s eyes suddenly had hope, “Isabella, your grandma ...

“It’s okay, let me take a look.” Isabella sat on the edge of the bed, catching the old man’s pulse with her slender fingers, she was indeed stimulated, and her condition worsened.

“Is it serious?” Eloise panicked, “I saw your grandma wake up, and I couldn’t hold back for a moment, so I told her about your life experience. Has her condition worsened?”

“Mom will know sooner or later, Isabella is here, don’t worry.” Jed didn’t blame his sister, but comforted her in a gentle voice.

But Eloise felt uncomfortable. If she had known, she would have waited for her mother’s condition to stabilize.

It's all because she couldn't bear it for a while.

The long silver needles landed on the old man's acupuncture points one by one, and Isabella's expression was very calm, as if the sky would not stop her.

Eloise suddenly found that her daughter was much more mature and stable than them. At least she was not in a hurry when things happened.

Seeing her mother suffering because of her mouth, Eloise had tears in her eyes, and she blamed herself countless times in her heart until Isabella started to close the needle.

"Grandma won't wake up until tomorrow." Isabella said softly.

"Why?" Eloise asked hastily.

"Her body is still weak, and she was a little stimulated. I will readjust the prescription later." Isabella stood up and looked at Eloise, "It's okay, don't worry."

"Your grandma. She's not in danger of her life, is she?"

"No."

Eloise breathed a sigh of relief.

"Let's go out first, don't disturb her rest." Isabella told the nurse next to her a few more words, and then left with the others.

"Fortunately, Isabella is here today." Eloise felt that she was too reckless. She had been hiding it for so long. Why did she rush at this moment? If Isabella wasn't here today, she didn't know what would happen when other doctors arrived.

“Don’t blame yourself.” Jed comforted, “You want to let mom know about Isabella’s existence. We all understand. It’s been half a year since Isabella came back to this house, but she hasn’t revealed her identity. You feel ashamed she.”

“I ... ” Eloise was very sad. In fact, she wanted to announce her daughter’s identity more than anyone else, and wanted everyone to know that she was the daughter of the Logan family, and she and Williams’ biological daughter!

But what she feared most happened.

Fortunately, this time, my mother did not endanger her life because of the stimulation. Otherwise, she really couldn’t forgive herself.

Chapter 582 I love Cecilia the most

Hearing this, Isabella said in a warm voice, “Mom, it doesn’t matter to me whether my identity is announced or not. The important thing is that our family can be together.”

It doesn’t make much difference to her whether grandparents know about it earlier or later.

As for the opinions and gazes of the outside world, they are even more trivial to her.

Being able to return to the Logan family, with the love of her parents, the attention of her brothers, and the cherishm of Benjamin, she is already content.

As for others, like Cecilia, she didn’t take it to heart.

“Good boy, it’s your parents who have wronged you all these years.” Eloise couldn’t help hugging her, tears rolling down her face.

“It was my negligence. Back then, if we had been careful and checked the parent-child relationship when we brought the child back, things would not have developed into what they are now.” When Williams said this, he said guiltily, “Isabella, yes Dad is sorry for you.”

Seeing that his brother-in-law took the blame on himself, Jed said, “When the hospital caught fire, my sister and the child were able to escape safely from the sea of fire. It was a blessing. I was pregnant for ten months and gave birth to a child so hard, how could it happen?” To doubt her identity for no reason?”

It can only be said that all this is a trick of good fortune.

“Now that Isabella is back, we have to treat her better and make up for the shortcomings of these years. That’s what we have to do now.” Jed comforted everyone, “Now it’s not about holding anyone accountable, everyone can relax, mom can do it herself. Let’s get over it, let’s not blame ourselves.”

Isabella glanced at her uncle and suddenly felt that this family was more humane than the Brown family.

No, it should be said, there is no comparison.

The Brown family will only blame each other and shirk responsibility when things happen.

But in this family, everyone takes the responsibility on themselves.

“Okay, don’t cry, don’t scare Isabella.” After comforting his sister, Jed smiled again, “Ann, take Isabella back to rest.”

“yes.”

Ann was very moved when she took Isabella back to the room, “Miss Isabella, you have suffered all these years, and Miss Cecilia has enjoyed the glory and wealth for you for so many years. I heard from Mrs. Logan, you have suffered a lot outside these years.”

When Miss Cecilia was mentioned, Ann's expression changed instantly. Too bad, the circle of friends she posted is visible to everyone, Miss Cecilia won't be able to see it, right?

Thinking of this, she hurriedly took out her phone again, hurriedly set it so that she could see it, and was still anxious: Negligence, carelessness!

"I'm sorry, Ms. Isabella, I'm too stupid. I posted it on Moments. Did you see it from Ms. Cecilia's side?"

Isabella immediately heard what she meant, "Oh, it's all right."

Anyway, Cecilia will know she's here sooner or later, it doesn't matter if she knows it sooner or later.

the other side.

Seeing Eloise sitting alone in the garden, Jed couldn't help but stepped forward, "Sister, are you still thinking about your mother?"

"Jed." Eloise's eyes were red, "You know, Mom loves Cecilia the most. Now she suddenly finds out that Cecilia is not her granddaughter, but Isabella is. I'm a little worried."

"Worried that Mom has no feelings for Isabella and prefers Cecilia?" Jed said her worry, "Afraid of breaking Isabella's heart?"

Eloise's eyes became even redder, "You know, Isabella is too sensible, even if she feels wronged in her heart, she won't show it on the surface. I'm afraid that when she comes back to this house, if we don't do well in any aspect, we will give her secondary injury."

“Sister, do you know? When I met Isabella for the first time, I thought she looked very similar to you, and she had a very outstanding temperament. She was the kind of existence. that could be noticed at a glance in the crowd.”

“After contacting her later, I found that she has a cold face and a warm heart. Although she doesn’t talk much, she is kind-hearted, smart and sensible.”

“She is also a genius doctor and knows how to run a company. When she rescued me that day, I found that her skills are not bad. The prescriptions she prescribed were written with awe-inspiring handwriting.”

“She has so many advantages, I’m not worried that Mom doesn’t like her, but there is one thing, you are right, Mom. loves Cecilia, the love of the past ten years has already penetrated into the bone marrow, didn’t I just wake up and heard about Isabella’s life experience, You can pet Isabella more than Cecilia, everything has a process, you can’t rush, you have to understand this.”

“As long as mom treats them fairly, everything will follow its own course.”

Speaking of this, Jed suddenly saw Williams bring a cup of coffee.

Williams saw him and smiled, “Jed, why didn’t you go back to your room to rest, I didn’t know you were here, so I made a cup, and I’ll make it for you later.”

“Don’t bother.” Jed’s eyes were gentle, “Every time my sister is in a bad mood, you will make her coffee. You have done everything by yourself these years, and I am very pleased that my sister can marry you.”

“Is this normal for a wife? Otherwise, why marry a wife and go home.” Williams said this, and then brought the coffee with a smile, “Wife, don’t you think it’s not hot? Come here, try it.”

Seeing her husband’s flattering appearance, Eloise couldn’t help bursting into tears.

“Jed has you as a sister in his heart. No matter which villa he lives in, his favorite coffee is always prepared at home.” Williams did not forget to say good things to his brother-in-law.

Eloise was a little arrogant, “Hmph, how can you praise the relationship between our siblings?”

“Yes, your relationship is better. Words can’t describe the relationship between you two.”

The three talked and laughed together again.

In the evening, after dinner, Jed suggested, “Isabella said Mom won’t wake up until tomorrow, why don’t we take her out for a walk tonight? As an uncle, I also want to buy her something to show my love.”

“This.” Williams was a little hesitant, Mom hadn’t woken up yet, wouldn’t it be a good time to go out and play?

“Isabella said, Mom’s condition is not serious, and I can wake up tomorrow, so I will take my sister out to relax and make Isabella happy.” Jed didn’t want the atmosphere at home to be so heavy.

“I’d better ask your sister what she means.” Williams listened to Eloise in everything, so he hurried to discuss with Eloise.

And Jed wanted to tell Isabella about going out to play, and seeing her sitting on the sofa in the living room with one hand on the phone, the big boss aura exuding from her body was really too strong.

As soon as he approached, he saw his niece handling work matters in French. He was a little surprised. The niece also understands French?

Is her business so extensive? Even France is involved?

At this moment, after Isabella replied to the message, she looked up at Jed, "Uncle, w

Chapter 583

"It's like this. Uncle wants to go out for a stroll, but there is no one to accompany him." Jed observed his niece's reaction and asked tentatively, "Are you free?"

Isabella saw through his thoughts at once, "Uncle has already given me so many properties and shares, and if he buys me something again, I should feel very sorry."

She couldn't bear to let her uncle spend any more money.

"Don't buy or buy. It's just for shopping. Your parents will also go, just treat it as a relaxation. It's your first time here, and uncle wants to show you around."

"Then let's go." Isabella got up and said.

"Uncle to see if your parents are ready." Jed finished one side, then found the other side, "Sister, Isabella agrees to go out for a walk, the three of us will accompany her together? It's rare to have such an opportunity."

In the end, the four set off in the stretched luxury car.

Jed's status in this country is very high, so when he goes out, four cars drive the way and four cars protect the tail.

As long as people on the street saw this formation, they would know that Jed had gone out.

While waiting for the traffic lights, everyone cast envious and curious eyes.

"Is the night view in Florida nice?" Jed asked the girl in the car.

“good.”

“In the future, if you have any injustice, you can come to me. Of course, you can come to me if you have nothing to do. I look forward to your coming.”

“Okay, I’ll definitely come when I’m free.” Isabella promised.

“Look, Isabella, the shops on this whole street belong to your uncle.”

After the car turned a corner, Williams pointed to the street view outside the car window and said, “The shops on this street also belong to your uncle. There are many properties of your uncle in this country.”

Isabella listened to her father’s introduction, and soon came to the city’s largest luxury shopping mall.

“This shopping mall is also your uncle’s.”

Of course, the first-line big names in it are settled, not all brands belong to Jed.

Jed wanted the staff to clear the venue, but Isabella said softly, “No need, don’t disturb other people’s interest, let’s go shopping for a while.”

Although Isabella didn’t want to be high-profile, twenty bodyguards followed behind them, and the manager and management of the mall led the way in front. This formation attracted attention wherever they went.

“What’s the background of that girl? Knowing Jed at a young age?”

“Who the hell is she?”

“Isabella, which brand do you like?” Jed asked in a low voice.

“Didn’t uncle want to go shopping?”

“That’s right.” Jed pondered again, “Then let’s go to QY to have a look.”

I heard that many young people like the brand QY.

When Williams and Eloise heard it, isn’t this a brand under Isabella’s name?

“Okay.” Isabella winked at her parents, telling them not to say anything, and give it to uncle directly if he likes something later.

The store manager of QY heard that Jed was coming and appeared in a hurry. When she accidentally saw Isabella, her eyes were straight.

As the regional manager and store manager of QY in Florida, she was fortunate enough to meet Isabella once in a video conference. She was deeply impressed by Isabella at that time.

It’s just that she never expected that Isabella would appear with Jed.

Are they a couple?

“See if there is something suitable for him.” Isabella didn’t bluntly reveal her uncle’s identity.

When the store manager heard this, he hurriedly took Jed to the men’s area.

Jed wandered around inside, followed by some bodyguards, and other customers couldn’t help talking.

“He’s Jed? So handsome!”

“He brought his girlfriend here to buy things?”

“My girlfriend looks so small, like a student in school.”

“You don’t look as good as me!”

A blond girl with blue eyes was full of confidence, fiddled with her hair, pulled her neckline into one shoulder, and stepped forward sexily.

Several bodyguards prevented her from approaching.

She brushed her hair back and gave Jed a seductive wink.

“Mr. Harvey, my name is Lucy, I have admired you for a long time, I wonder if I have the honor to get your mobile phone number?”

The customers around were stunned. They didn’t expect her to be so courageous. Who is Jed? He looks like a gentleman, but he is actually a ruthless character.

But she dared to step forward and wink at Jed.

Jed glanced at her without changing his face, and suddenly called his sister.

“Miss, please respect yourself.” Eloise stood in front of her younger brother, looking noble and elegant.

“Are you Mr. Harvey’s sister?” Lucy quickly smiled, “Hello, my name is Lucy, I like your brother very much, please give me a chance, I promise to make him happy for a lifetime.”

Eloise was a little speechless, what did this person do to make her brother happy? Take her brother’s money?

“Don’t you think I’m better than her?” Lucy pointed to Isabella, and deliberately straightened her back to make the mountain in front of her look taller.

“You compare with her?”

“Her clothes and figure are not as good as mine!”

When Eloise heard this, she waved her hand immediately, “Take her down.”

“What did I say wrong?”

Two bodyguards hold Lucy.

Lucy is still fighting hard, “You don’t know me, but when you do, you’ll know, I’m really better than her!”

Eloise looked at her with a smile, “I don’t know you, but I know her. In your life, you can’t compare to her with a single finger. Go slowly and don’t give it away.”

The two bodyguards directly took the man away.

“What the hell?” After Eloise finished speaking, she couldn’t help but said, “I’m not talking about you, when will you find a girlfriend? Can’t it be me, the older sister, who blocks these women for you every time? The one you mentioned earlier who.”

“Let’s go over there and have a look.” Jed left the men’s section and walked towards the women’s section.

“Uncle didn’t see anything you liked?”

Clothes, accessories, shoes for men. Is there nothing worth looking at?

“Well, those are very ordinary.”

Hearing this sentence, both Williams and Eloise’s expressions were a little indescribable.

This was designed by Isabella, and he actually said it was very ordinary?!

“Isabella, what do you think of this suit?” Jed asked Isabella, holding up a dress.

“Uncle don’t need to pick on me.”

“What about this one?”

“I don’t buy it.”

“What about this one?”

“don’t want.”

“It seems that you don’t like anything from this brand?”

“No.”

Jed signaled the manager of the store to come over, “Notify me, let this brand withdraw from our store overnight.”

Williams heard, “Jed, listen to me.”

“Isabella doesn’t like it, and neither do I.” Jed looked at the store manager again, “Hurry up and do it.”

“Jed, what are you doing! QY is such a good brand, let me tell you, this is...” Before Eloise finished speaking, the store manager’s voice became flustered.

“Boss, what should we do?” The store manager panicked.

Just now when she saw Boss and Jed coming in together, she thought they were a couple with a very good relationship.

But later, Boss called him uncle.

Why did this family seem to be so at odds with each other, and they asked them to move out overnight.

Could it be that there is no family affection in the big wealthy family, only interests.

Chapter 584 Network

Hearing what the store manager said, Jed asked in astonishment, “What did you call her just now?”

“This is my Boss.” The store manager was terrified, “Mr. Harvey, did we fail to entertain you just now? If you have any comments, you can ask our Boss, but don’t let us withdraw overnight. Give us a chance to make things right.”

Seeing that he couldn’t hide it, Williams had no choice but to say: “QY was founded by Isabella.”

“You just said that the things designed by this brand are very ordinary.” Eloise did not forget to add the gun.

Jed was shocked.

“What uncle needs me to improve, feel free to mention.”

Hearing what Isabella said, Jed was stunned for a while before saying, “Uncle didn’t know it was designed by you. How can you be so good at starting such a big brand at such a young age?”

Seeing that Isabella didn’t speak, Jed hurriedly said, “Uncle just wants to buy you something to try his best. Uncle’s thoughts were all in the women’s section just now. I suddenly remembered that there are several styles in the men’s section, which are my favorites.”

“If uncle doesn’t like it, don’t force it.”

“I’m really interested in several pieces.” Jed hurried back to the men’s section, took a dozen sets in a row, and handed them to the store manager, “Wrap them up for me.”

This is the brand of the niece. As an uncle, what if he doesn’t join in?

So he pointed to a row of clothes, shoes and bags in the men’s area, “Wrap them up for me.”

“Yes, Mr. Harvey!” The store manager hastily ordered all to be packed.

“Uncle really likes it?”

“Of course, if you don’t believe me, ask the people around me.”

The bodyguard behind him hurriedly testified.

“Mr. likes this style of suit very much.”

“The shoes that Mr. Harvey picked just now are all his favorite styles on weekdays.”

“These scarves, brooches, watches, and cufflinks. They are all my husband’s favorite, and I have bought similar ones before.”

The entire men’s section was half empty at once, packed up.

When the bodyguard was going to pay the bill with Jed’s card, Isabella refused, “I want to give it to uncle.”

“That won’t work!” Jed refused to agree no matter what, “Uncle will feel very sorry for you, and won’t be able to sleep at night.”

“Uncle won’t let me take it off, and I can’t sleep.”

Seeing that he couldn’t talk to her, Jed had no choice but to persuade her, “How can my uncle take advantage of my niece? How much are these things? I have to pay for it today.”

“no.”

“Not listening today.”

“What about you child?”

Eloise on the side couldn't help smoothing things over, “Since you said you came here for a stroll, Isabella wanted to give you a gift, otherwise she wouldn't let us keep it a secret for her, just to let you choose what you like without distraction.”

“Yeah, this is Isabella's kindness, just accept it.” Williams also helped.

“Brother-in-law, sister, please persuade her.’

“No, I can't persuade you.” Eloise waved her hand.

“This is my precious daughter, I have to listen to her.” Williams also admitted.

In the end, at Isabella's insistence, Jed's bodyguard left QY with dozens of shopping bags.

I don't know, I thought Jed gave his little girlfriend so many gifts with a big wave of his hand.

The store manager took a dozen shop assistants and bowed down to send them away respectfully.

The scene was filmed and posted online.

Instantly detonated the entire network.

“Is this Jed's girlfriend? Real or fake? She looks so small!”

“It looks like there are dozens of shopping bags. How much does it cost? This store only buys so much. This woman is going too far. She swiped Jed’s card hard.”

“Yeah, it’s too shameless!”

“At least be more reserved, this ambition is not concealed at all.”

“Have you lost your money?”

“I really want to be Jed’s woman. I’m so happy, I can buy so many things in just one store.”

“There are so many bodyguards and shopping mall staff accompanying him, it’s very stylish.”

At this time, Isabella didn’t know that she had become the target of public criticism, and was forced to be taken to a jewelry store by Jed.

“This time you have to listen to your uncle, how many must you choose!” Jed said this, and he still didn’t forget to ask Eloise behind him in a low voice, “Sister, this brand shouldn’t be founded by Isabella, right?”

Eloise couldn’t help laughing, and said with a smile, “No.”

“That’s good.”

When the clerk saw Jed bringing his little girlfriend to buy things, they stepped forward one after another, offering all kind’s of entertainment, and took out all the treasures of the store.

“Jed, Chanel across the street has a new style. I’ll take a look and come soon.” Eloise was not interested in these jewels and walked towards the opposite side.

Williams hurried to follow, and some of the bodyguards also left, leaving Jed and Isabella in the store.

At this time, the clerk took out a brilliant necklace composed of 999 diamonds, “This style is new, and 999 diamonds represent long life, which can perfectly complement this lady’s temperament.”

Hearing that it can bring out the temperament of the niece, Jed immediately said, “Wrap it up.”

“This one can make this young lady look more beautiful and attractive.”

Without hesitation, Jed said, “Wrap it up.”

Just as Isabella was about to refuse, Jed said, “If you don’t let me buy it, I’ll buy the whole brand and write it under your name.”

A row of ellipses flitted across Isabella’s mind.

But the seven or eight shop assistants around were all envious. Mr. Harvey must be too domineering. With such a boyfriend, this girl is not satisfied, she won’t be playing hard to get, right?

“Mr. Harvey, what do you think of this suit? This suit represents peace and health.”

“Mr. Harvey, look at these diamond rings.”

“Mr. Harvey.”

Jed bought a lot of jewelry in one go, and took Isabella to the next destination.

Many people outside secretly held up their mobile phones and took pictures of his heroic side.

As for Cecilia in the school dormitory, she was about to fall asleep after putting on the mask, when a roommate suddenly asked her.

“Cecilia, isn’t Jed your uncle? The news of him taking his girlfriend shopping has exploded on the Internet. The topic has rushed to the top. Why didn’t you tell us that you have an aunt?”

When Cecilia heard this, she had a bad premonition, and she hurriedly grabbed her roommate’s cell phone to take a look.

In normal times, she would never look at electronic products. after putting on the mask, because it would easily darken. her skin.

But at this time, she saw someone took a live video, Jed took Isabella to go shopping in a shopping mall under his name, and the bodyguards were carrying dozens of shopping bags.

Her face paled instantly.

“Why do I feel that this girl’s figure looks familiar?”

“Although the face was not photographed, there is an inexplicable sense of familiarity. I seem to have seen it somewhere.”

“I feel the same way.”

“Cecilia, who is she? Is the family rich?”

“I don’t think she has much money. You see, she caught your uncle trying to swipe his card. The QY store alone bought so much. Look at the logo on the shopping bag.”

QY is a brand founded by Isabella. Cecilia knew about it, but she actually took her uncle to buy things from the brand under her name. Isn’t this trying to get his uncle’s money? It’s too despicable.

Chapter 585

“If this woman really becomes your aunt, she might not know how to spend her money in the future.”

“Her fate is too good to be favored by your uncle.”

“Cecilia, can you tell me what your uncle likes about her? I really want to know what kind of girls rich people like, and I want to learn.”

Cecilia was no longer in the mood to listen to what her roommate said later.

Thinking that tomorrow is Christmas Eve and the day after tomorrow is Christmas, but she has not received any gift from her uncle until this moment.

In the past, my uncle would give it to her in advance, and once he gave it, he would get two copies.

But this year, my uncle had the time and mood to take Isabella to go shopping, but he forgot about her niece who had been with her for eighteen years!

unacceptable!

On the other hand, Jed bought hundreds of clothes, hundreds of bags, and hundreds of pairs of shoes for Isabella, and it was already twelve o'clock before he bought enough.

Originally, the mall closed at ten o'clock in the evening.

Because of Jed's arrival, none of the brands closed their stores early, and they all hoped that Jed would come to their store for consumption.

All the clerks stood at the door neatly, with smiles on their faces, and their eyes were full of anticipation, hoping that Jed and his party would come in.

"Uncle, it's twelve o'clock." Isabella's eyes were a little sleepy, "I'm sleepy."

Eloise also yawned, "No, let's go home."

"Jed, I know you love Isabella, but it's getting late, let's get here first."

Jed saw that the three of them were really tired, so he whispered to the manager of the mall, "Let them send the new season's models to me for the remaining stores, and I will continue to choose tomorrow."

Is this spoiled a bit too much?

"Yes, sir." The store manager bowed to accept the order.

Jed didn't forget to tell the bodyguards beside him, "Let the masseuse come to the door."

Make sure to let the brother-in-law and family relax tonight.

When they got home, Williams, Eloise and Isabella soaked in different hot spring pools, and professional masseurs massaged and decompressed them.

And Jed is still on the phone, "I tell you, whether it is now or in the future, as long as it is a mall under our banner, QY is always welcome to settle in, and, from this moment on, all rents in QY are free, and the best location in the mall will always be belong to it."

The person on the other end of the phone was obviously stunned, and after a while he asked in astonishment, "Then sir, when will the rent be waived?"

After all, this is not a small amount of money.

"Until the group goes bankrupt and liquidated."

The person on the other end was stunned again. With the current development momentum of the group, it is impossible to go bankrupt in another five hundred years.

What exactly did this QY do to make Mr. Favor so favored.

It's not easy!

at this time.

Mason Group.

Benjamin checked the time, he hadn't seen the little girl for two days, he dialed the internal line and called Green in.

"Our group recently had a project in Florida. You ask the person in charge to hand over the project to me, and I will personally follow up."

Green was stunned when he heard that, "Boss, this is just a project that couldn't be smaller."

In normal times, the boss would not pay attention at all!

But now the Boss is too busy to panic?

Oh no, he suddenly remembered, Miss Isabella seemed to have gone to Florida two days ago.

Hasn't he come back yet, so Boss wants to follow him to have a look?

"But Boss, Miss Isabella didn't let you follow before she set off."

At that time, Green, who was sitting in the driver's seat, could hear their conversation clearly.

Benjamin said without changing his face, "I'm not looking for her. I don't feel relieved to hand over this project to others."

Green thought to himself, Boss, can your words pass Miss Isabella's test?

If you want to see her, just tell me, it's not that you don't understand you.

"Yes, I'll ask the person in charge to free up the project." Green said this, suddenly remembered something, stood on his feet again, and said with a playful smile, "Boss, tomorrow is Christmas Eve, and the day after tomorrow is Christmas, my vacation?"

"What vacation do you want?"

Green suddenly choked up, wanting to cry but no tears.

Every time Boss goes on a date or goes to a festival, the work is left to him alone.

No, he can't be cowardly anymore!

The Boss must know that he has an opinion in his heart!

“What, have an opinion?” Benjamin's eyes fell on him.

Green smiled and said, “No. Thank you for giving me another chance to exercise. I'm so happy.”

“Since work makes you happy, you do Christmas Eve and Christmas work together.”

After hearing this, Green felt like crying, “Don't worry, Boss, I will definitely finish it with my heart.”

“Go down.”

Early the next morning.

When Isabella woke up, she found that it was snowing outside. The snowflakes were falling profusely, and the whole world suddenly became crystal clear and clean.

After washing and going downstairs, Isabella found that the house had also changed a lot. Everywhere was decorated warmly and romantically, with a festive atmosphere.

When every foreign servant saw her, he smiled and said to her, “Merry Christmas Eve.”

Isabella also wished them happiness.

“Miss Isabella, you woke up so early?”

The heating in the room was sufficient, and Ann ran towards her in thin clothes.

“They haven’t gotten up yet, sir has ordered, if you get up first, eat first, and I will take you there first.”

“You get up so early too?”

“Mr. has plans today, and everyone has to prepare in advance.” Ann did not disclose what kind of itinerary she had today, and wanted to surprise Ms. Isabella.

After breakfast, Isabella followed Ann to the wine cellar to choose the wine to drink tonight.

When I visited my uncle’s house yesterday, Isabella had never been to this place, but when I walked in, my eyes were attracted by the wine on the shelf.

“Mr. has a special liking for wine. He has several wine cellars under his name. All the wines in this cellar are his favorites. Every bottle of wine on the wine rack has a number. Miss Isabella, take a look and drink tonight. Which one?”

Each wine cellar is equipped with a central air-conditioning system, which can calculate the indoor temperature and humidity. The lighting here is strictly controlled. Every bottle of wine stored here is wrapped in paper and neatly placed on the shelf..

When Isabella came here, there were security patrols, fire extinguishing facilities, smoke detectors, monitoring, etc. everywhere. It can be seen that uncle attaches great importance to these wines.

It can be said that this place is as heavily guarded as a bank vault.

“The wine in this wine cellar alone is equivalent to a small bank vault.” Ann smiled and said to Isabella, “I heard from the caretaker of the wine cellar that just a few bottles can be exchanged for a villa. gone.”

Isabella is not interested in wine, but she has been influenced by her grandfather since she was a child. She knows what kind of wine is good and knows how to distinguish it.

“Only these two bottles.” Isabella’s slender fin to the left and right two bottles of wine, and Ann them to take them down immediately.

“Miss Isabella, can wine be used as an investment, waiting for it to slowly increase in value?” Ann asked curiously.

“The value-added speed of good wine is very fast.”

“No wonder there are so many members in the winery under Mr.’s name. They are all collectors. After buying wine, they will be stored in Mr.’s wine cellar. These members have private wine racks with their names engraved on them. Every bottle of wine has a number, and if they need to pick up the wine on a certain day, there will be someone who will send the wine to where they want it.”

Chapter 586 Encounter at the Ski Resort

“You like wine?” Isabella asked.

“I have been allergic to alcohol since I was a child, but I admire Mr.’s business skills. Being with him has broadened my horizons a lot.”

They were chatting and laughing, and after getting the wine, Williams, Eloise and Jed had already woken up and finished their breakfast.

“Isabella, can you ski?” Jed asked happily when he saw her coming.

“know a little.”

“That’s great, it just snowed today, let’s go skiing together.” Jed asked people to prepare the vehicles for travel, and the group set off in a mighty manner.

Jed has several ski resorts in the country.

When Isabella first came to the ski resort, a bunch of staff came to greet her.

“This is my niece. When she comes, please notify me as soon as possible and treat me well!”

“Yes, sir!” Everyone greeted Isabella in unison and wished her a happy holiday.

Isabella responded with a smile.

Jed sent for brand new ski gear.

Because the people who come here are either rich or expensive, there are not as many tourists as ordinary ski resorts. Each skier can even enjoy a ski run for himself, which is very enjoyable.

Isabella changed her equipment and went skiing. Jed watched her figure from a distance, couldn’t help but took out his phone and took a few photos of her.

“This kid seems to know everything.” Jed said to his sister beside him.

“She knows a lot, Williams and I will go over there to play, and you can relax too.”

Jed asked the staff to look at Isabella, and if there is any need, they must come forward as soon as possible.

Isabella slid down the high place, and the snowflakes flew around like waves. She hadn't had such a good time in a long time.

At the same time, the foreigner sitting on the cable car looked at the powerful Benjamin in front of him, unable to speak a word.

It was freezing and snowy outside, but he was so nervous that he wiped the sweat from his forehead. The person who was talking about cooperation with their group was a business manager of the Florida branch of Mason Group.

But now, Benjamin appeared on the stage in person, and he was so frightened that he couldn't even utter a word.

He didn't understand why Benjamin would talk to him personally, whether he offered too few benefits, or other reasons.

Because he couldn't figure it out, he felt uneasy for a while.

At this time, he inadvertently saw Benjamin's gaze, looking at a girl skiing below.

The girl looked like an expert skier at first glance. She was light and graceful, and Erkin suddenly had an idea.

“I know most of the people who come to this ski resort. The girl below, I will help you find out, and I will send someone to your room in a while. What do you think?”

Hearing this, Benjamin looked at the girl gently, but suddenly turned cold.

Erkin quickly changed his words, “No, I mean, I can introduce you to each other.”

“Introduction by you?”

“I was wrong. With the charisma of Mr. Mason, she can be completely conquered.”

The atmosphere turned cold again.

Erkin didn't know what to talk about, since Mr. Mason hadn't said much since he came to this ski resort.

He couldn't figure out what Mr. Mason meant.

I can only be cautious, thinking about the next topic.

“Mr. Mason, that.”

“Shut up.”

Benjamin just wanted to watch Isabella ski in peace.

Isabella slid down, and suddenly noticed a gaze in the air, which seemed to stare at her for a long time, she looked up, it was Benjamin!

Isabella took out her mobile phone from her pocket and called him, "Why are you here?"

"I just happened to discuss business with my partner, I didn't expect such a coincidence."

Just then, the cable car stopped, and Benjamin got off the cable car and walked towards her first, while Erkin followed him cautiously, like a follower.

Isabella glanced at Erkin, and the next second, she was hugged by Benjamin.

"Merry Christmas Eve."

Benjamin bowed his head and gave her a kiss, Isabella was sure now, this guy just wanted to come to accompany her for the holidays, talking about business and partners were all excuses.

When Erkin from behind saw Mr. Mason being so fierce, he took a fancy to the prey, and hugged him as soon as he came up. This progress was too fast.

Isn't it rumored that Mr. Mason is not close to women?

"Erkin."

Hearing Benjamin call him, Erkin hurried forward.

Benjamin still held Isabella in his arms, still looking at the girl in his arms, "He is the partner."

"Hi, nice to meet you, happy Christmas Eve." Erkin cautiously extended his hand, wanting to shake hands with Isabella as a sign of friendship.

Unexpectedly, Benjamin withdrew his hand in fright when he looked back.

“It seems that we are really talking about cooperation.” Isabella was very interested, and her tone was very playful.

“Is there still a holiday?” Benjamin looked at the girl in his arms dotingly, “For the sake of my hard work during the holidays, spend with me tonight?”

Perhaps out of fear of embarrassing her, Benjamin emphasized, “Just for a while.”

Knowing that she is at her uncle’s house and still needs to be with her family, this is her first Christmas Eve with her family, and Benjamin doesn’t want to take up too much of her time.

“Just a little while.” Benjamin looked expectantly.

“Okay.” Isabella agreed because he flew all the way here, “I’ll see the situation and tell you in advance.”

Benjamin was so happy, he bowed his head and kissed her again.

Chapter 587

“Your partner is still waiting.” Isabella’s tone was a little playful.

“Then I’ll be busy first.” Benjamin touched her face and said dotingly, “See you tonight.”

“Yeah.” Isabella watched him leave.

Erkin nodded respectfully to Isabella, and trotted to catch up with Benjamin, “Mr. Mason, I have told you about the project plan and future revenue budget on the cable car just now, you see.”

“Look again.”

When Erkin heard this, his heart skipped a beat, no good!

“Is there something in the project that is unreasonably planned, or is Mr. Mason dissatisfied with the revenue budget?” Erkin caught up with Benjamin again, “No matter what kind of problem it is, we can bring it up for discussion, as long as Mason Group is willing Give us a chance to work together.”

“talk later.”

Benjamin came out of the ski resort, got into the car and left.

Erkin looked at the back of the car driving away, completely unaware of what was going on.

Whether he said something wrong, did something wrong, or Benjamin’s personality, it was so hard to figure out.

Isabella was about to continue skiing when she suddenly saw a bunch of staff members running towards her, all out of breath.

“Miss Isabella, nothing happened?”

According to Isabella’s original place, she should have slipped under their noses ten minutes ago.

But they waited for a full ten minutes, but they didn’t wait for Isabella to slide down. They thought that something happened to Isabella, and hurriedly searched everywhere.

Isabella reacted, “It’s okay, I just changed to another snow track.”

“Aren’t you injured?” More than a dozen staff members stared at Isabella one by one, with anxious faces and still breathing.

“No.”

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief, “Which snow track Miss Isabella wants to play next, we will guard separately.”

“No need.” Isabella said gently, “There is no one here, I will play alone.”

“Then Miss Isabella, if you need anything, call us anytime.”

A staff member handed over a business card and reminded, “You still have a whistle in your pocket. If your phone loses signal or runs out of battery, just blow the whistle and we will come right away.”

“Okay.” Isabella found that they all worked hard, “Let’s go first.”

“Have a good time Miss Isabella.”

Everyone bowed to her back in unison, with a very respectful attitude.

Isabella slid for a while and was about to rest when a surprised voice suddenly sounded.

“It’s you?”

Isabella looked up and saw Patsy and a best friend took off their helmets and ski goggles at the same time, looking at her dissatisfied.

Not only looking at her, but also checking whether there is Kara around her.

“Kara didn’t come with you?” Patsy raised her chin slightly, looking at Isabella high above, it was really unlucky, originally she specially invited her girlfriends to go skiing here on Christmas Eve, but she didn’t expect to meet Kara’s friends here.

Isabella didn’t bother to talk to them, and went on to slide to another slope, planning to rest in another place.

“Patsy, how dare she ignore you!” Darlene was furious. “It must be the last time on the cruise ship, Mr. Harvey came forward to speak for them, and she felt that she was capable and had a backer!”

“Go, follow her.” A look of displeasure flashed in Patsy’s eyes.

Every ski trail here is very long, and it is far away from the service center.

Patsy and Darlene speeded up and chased after Isabella, but she was so good at skating, and the snow track was very smooth. Isabella’s light and beautiful figure made them jealous.

Damn, how can she skate so well?

After much difficulty, Isabella found a quiet place, took off her ski goggles and gloves, and was planning to take a rest.

Patsy and Darlene quickly followed, and Darlene even raised her face arrogantly and asked disdainfully, “Hey, what’s your name?”

Being able to enter the ski resort of Jed and be friends with Kara shows that her family background is good, but it remains to be seen how good it is.

“You should know Patsy? My name is Darlene, you should have heard of it?” Darlene was trying to scare her with his prominent status.

Isabella saw that they followed her again, took out her mobile phone, and sent Kara a WhatsApp message, "Who is Darlene?"

"That little trash is bothering you?" Kara quickly replied, "She is Patsy's attendant. There was a dress that was specially reserved for me by the brand before. She couldn't buy it if she wanted to, but I wore it at the banquet., deliberately poured wine on my skirt, and said a lot of bad things about me out of thin air, there are countless small things like this, is she picking on you?"

"I just met." Isabella raised the corners of her lips after reading the words she sent, "I will avenge you soon."

"Hey, I'm talking to you, are you deaf?" Darlene folded his hands on his chest and looked at Isabella dissatisfied.

"Is there anyone here?" Isabella raised her eyes and said lazily, "I only heard the dog barking."

Darlene was furious, "I've never seen you at the socialite balls and charity dinners before. You must be on the Uncle Harvey list, so you can ski here!"

In the past many international feasts, as long as the families. with status and status were all present, I have never seen this girl or her family.

I had never seen Jed and this girl in the same frame before, until after the night of the cruise, it suddenly broke out on the Internet that Jed took his girlfriend to the mall for shopping.

A bunch of bodyguards were carrying hundreds of shopping bags.

"Could it be that you were on Uncle Harvey's list that night?" Patsy guessed the possibility, and looked at Isabella with disdain, "Shameless, pretending to be aloof on the surface, but actually don't know how many times you have been played by others Already! How dare you put on airs in front of us?"

Isabella's eyes were a little colder, so eager to find out?

"Last time Uncle Harvey said that it depends on the occasion, I think today's occasion is quite good."
Patsy was about to clean up her.

Anyway, Uncle Harvey just warned, not to trouble Kara.

But he didn't protect the girl in front of him.

Darlene thought to herself, for a girl who can only swipe Uncle Harvey's card, spend money, and be ordinary, Uncle Harvey will soon get tired of playing.

Even if Isabella complains to Uncle Harvey afterwards, but there is no camera in this place, Isabella can't produce evidence, and Uncle Harvey can't do anything to them.

Anyway, Kara can't be dealt with, and it's not bad to take out Isabella's anger.

"You mean to do it?" Isabella curled her lips playfully, with a bit of interest.

"Stop talking nonsense." Patsy picked up the helmet and hit Isabella hard.

At the same time, Darlene also picked up the ski poles and swung at Isabella.

On the other hand, Williams and Eloise were tired from skiing and rested in the luxurious restaurant that comes with the ski resort.

Chapter 588 Uncle Protects the Calf

The restaurant is well heated, and there are waiters offering coffee and a variety of snacks. They rested for a while, and saw Jed push the door in.

“Where’s Isabella?” Jed couldn’t help asking, not seeing his niece.

“She should still be playing, right?”

The snow scene outside is so beautiful, Isabella probably hasn’t had enough fun, after all, she is young and full of energy.

Jed texted the staff again.

The staff quickly replied, “Miss Isabella said she wanted to play by herself for a while, but we didn’t follow.”

Perhaps afraid of Jed’s blame, he added, “Miss Isabella said she would call us if something happened, and we reminded her that there is a whistle in her pocket.”

“Go find her, let her rest for a while, and eat something to replenish her strength.”

“yes.”

The staff immediately checked the monitoring and found that after Isabella slid towards the farthest ski track, she never came back.

He immediately called a lot of people to set out to search, but he didn’t expect to see three figures fighting together in the distance.

No, to be precise, it was two figures hitting Miss Isabella with something for skiing.

Miss Isabella backed away, but they pressed on.

“Stop-” Immediately, many staff members whistled in unison, and ran over there desperately, trying to stop what they were doing.

But the distance was too far, and with the whistling wind and snow, their voices were covered up a lot.

There is still a long distance to run with only human legs.

A team leader called Jed, “There are two suspicious figures attacking Miss Isabella!”

“What did you say?” Jed stood up immediately, his face. cold.

Isabella had already seen the staff coming from a distance, and she took it easy, like she was watching a juggler, watching Patsy and Darlene hit her with ski poles and helmets.

She avoided it leisurely, even looking a little lazy.

It was as if they were too weak to be bothered to deal with. them.

Patsy and Darlene were so pissed off, they never expected that they were so out of breath that they didn't even touch

Seeing that they were exhausted and out of breath, Isabella slowly picked up the ski poles, gave them a disdainful smile, and skied further down the slope.

Patsy and Darlene were so willing to just let her go and catch up immediately.

The figures of the three of them disappeared before the eyes of the staff again.

Isabella saw that the staff had been thrown away, there was no surveillance around, and there was no one else, so she stopped and beat them up.

She specially picked places covered by clothes to attack.

Soon, Patsy and Darlene were curled up on the ground. Hug your head and beg for mercy.

When the staff showed up in a snowmobile with Jed, Jed saw that the precious niece was still standing, but two bad guys fell at her feet, and it seemed that she was seriously injured.

He got out of the car immediately, walked towards Isabella at a faster pace, and asked softly, "How is it? No injuries?"

Isabella shook her head and said obediently, "No."

On the cruise ship that day, Jed had already seen Isabella's skills, and knew that ordinary people were no match for her, so he immediately felt relieved.

"You guys are so brave, you even dare to touch Mr. Harvey's people!" Jed's bodyguard team also came, grabbing their arms at once.

"Ah. It hurts, Uncle Harvey, it's me, Patsy!"

"Let your people go, I'm Darlene."

Jed saw that it was them, and immediately guessed what was going on.

His niece should have a peaceful attitude and didn't want to hurt them, but they pressed on every step of the way, so they were beaten up.

"Uncle, she bullied us! My whole body hurts." Patsy immediately pointed to Isabella and cried, if it wasn't for the injuries on her chest, stomach, and thighs, she would have wanted to show Jed.

"Uncle, you can't indulge her, I'm hurt all over my body now." Darlene also sobbed wronged, staring at Isabella angrily.

Jed's aura cooled down, and the powerful cold covered the ice and snow, making people shudder.

He said coldly to the staff beside him, "Tell me what's going on."

"Sir, all our staff members can testify. From a distance, we saw that these two ladies made the first move, and Miss Isabella kept avoiding it."

It turns out that this girl's name is Isabella!

Patsy and Darlene looked at each other, and they seemed to have reached a consensus. They must ask people to ask about this Isabella later, and give her some color!

"Miss Isabella had no choice but to ski away, but they were still chasing after them, and because they were too fast, they disappeared from our sight."

"What we said is not half a lie, sir can check."

“It was indeed the two of them who started it first, and Miss Isabella was the victim.”

Hearing what the staff said, Patsy immediately denied, “It’s not like that, she did it first, and Darlene and I fought back to protect ourselves.”

Darlene also nodded repeatedly, “She provoked and beat people repeatedly. We had no choice but to fight back. We didn’t hit her, on the contrary, she beat us all seriously injured!”

Jed’s cold gaze fell on them, and they were too scared to speak any further.

Anyway, there is no monitoring here, what can Jed do with them!

They have already been beaten like this, and if their parents ask Jed to settle the score later, Jed will still have to show some face, and he will definitely not embarrass them again.

Nine times out of ten, Isabella apologized and moved on.

Thinking of this, Patsy and Darlene’s eyes flashed with pride at the same time.

“Isabella, tell me what’s going on.” Jed looked at the girl.

next to him again, his tone and eyes were much gentler than outsiders.

Patsy and Darlene were a little upset, and it was impossible to say that there was no problem between them.

“They said that only my uncle on the list can play in the ski resort, and that my body has been played for countless times.”

When Jed heard this, his anger suddenly ignited.

How could they hurt his niece with such vicious words?

“They also said that last time their uncle told them on the cruise ship that they should mess around depending on the occasion. They said that today’s occasion was pretty good, so they did it.”

Isabella’s way of talking is so obedient that Jed can’t help but feel distressed while being angry!

Damn, at his ski resort, he dared to say that about his niece, and dared to do something to his niece!

The bodyguards around all knew that the two ladies were finished today. They could already feel the aura of the husband, and their anger could hardly be suppressed.

The staff also cast a sympathetic look at them. In the husband’s territory, they humiliated the husband’s precious niece and beat her first.

No matter which point, it is enough to finish the game.

Chapter 589

“What did you say?”

At this point, Patsy and Darlene hit the ground running, looking at Isabella in disbelief, then at Jed.

What did Isabella call Jed just now, uncle??

Their faces turned pale and trembled, but it was Patsy who asked first, “What did you call him just now?”

Isabella didn't answer what she said, but Jed said coldly, "My niece came to my ski resort to play, is there a problem?"

Patsy and Darlene turned even paler, like a bolt from the blue, and it took a while to realize just how much trouble they'd gotten into.

How could Isabella be Jed's biological niece? What's going on?

Why hasn't a single news outlet reported it before.

Now it's in big trouble.

"Take them down."

Standing here and talking is not an option, the wind and snow are too heavy, and Jed is afraid that his precious niece will be frozen.

But Patsy panicked when she heard that Jed was going to take them down.

She has heard a lot about Jed's behavior, and the meaning of taking it down, nine out of ten, is either dead or missing arms and legs.

"Uncle, I don't know that she is your niece, but it is true that she provokes first, and we protect ourselves later." Patsy insisted.

If Jed knew that it was the two of them who made the first provocation and then made the first move, it would be more than just missing arms and legs.

"If you don't believe me, you can call a doctor and examine our injuries. We were indeed the ones who were beaten. We didn't lie." Darlene also echoed.

As long as it is found that the injuries on their bodies were beaten, no matter how reasonable Isabella is, it will become unreasonable.

Isabella was waiting for their words. She raised her eyebrows. and said, "I agree to the injury test."

Not only Patsy and Darlene, but even Jed was a little surprised. The injury test must be bad for Isabella.

But looking at her well-behaved and sensible appearance, I don't know what kind of medicine she sells in her gourd.

What is she trying to do?

"Uncle, let's have their injuries checked." Isabella suggested.

The surrounding bodyguard team and staff were stunned and did not understand Ms. Isabella's operation.

"good."

Jed took out his mobile phone and dialed a number, "Come over to the ski resort."

The man on the phone was overjoyed immediately, "You have finally considered it and are willing to sell us that large piece of land in the west?"

"No business today."

Jed's tone was very flat, but anyone who knew him could tell that it was the calm before the storm.

"Bring a doctor." Jed's voice remained cold, "Call Darlene's parents."

The man on the phone was stunned, and couldn't help but ask, "What happened?"

"The daughter of your two families was injured at my ski resort and threatened to have her injury checked."

The man on the phone was terrified, "These two ignorant girls, I'll go over right away and bring them back. It's just children talking nonsense, so I can't take them seriously."

"No, I don't want to miss any of the people I want." Jed's tone was very serious.

But the man on the phone was smiling, trying to calm down Jed.

"Children fall skiing at most, so there is no need for a doctor to come forward. I think they are itchy and lack education."

But Jed asked in displeasure, "Need me to repeat it a third time?"

"No." The man on the phone realized the seriousness of the matter, and was too scared to breathe, "Then please wait for us for a while, it will take up your time, we will rush over immediately. I must give you an explanation!"

Jed hung up the phone and opened the snowmobile door to let Isabella get in first.

Patsy and Darlene were a little uneasy. Could it be that Uncle Harvey wanted to call their parents over the phone just now?

Although they are usually willful and savage, their parents are not used to them.

Especially recently, the two families have a lot of things they want to ask Jed for help.

Patsy's father wants to get the land in the west, and other groups are scrambling to show in front of Jed, just wanting to please Jed so that he can get the land smoothly.

Not long ago, Patsy's uncle quarreled with people in the casino under Jed's name. They fought and broke a lot of equipment there. Jed hasn't expressed his opinion on this matter.

And Darlene's family produces medium-sized cars, and the family property is quite rich. Uncles have been secretly buying people's hearts and making things difficult for her father. Her father hopes to cooperate with Jed to achieve a win-win situation.

There are countless things like this.

Patsy and Darlene knew very well that if Jed got serious, it would only be the two of them who would suffer!

Seeing that the snowmobile was gone, Patsy and Darlene hurriedly asked, "Then what shall we do?"

Can't walk in the snow?

"If the two young ladies don't want to die too ugly in a while, they should catch up, confess to the husband, and try to be lenient." A staff member reminded.

Patsy and Darlene were covered in injuries, not to mention running, it hurt like hell to walk.

Seeing the snowmobile go further and further, they could only grit their teeth and catch up.

"Uncle, listen to our explanation. We dare not hurt your niece."

"What we said is true, you can check if you don't believe me."

Because of their injuries, they didn't use their skis either, but trotted after the snowmobile.

"We don't know why the people under your command are lying. It is clear that we were not the ones who hit people first. We are really the victims. When the results of the injury test come out, you will know that we are the weak side."

"Uncle, don't ask our parents to come over, let's talk about something."

Since the snowmobile looks a bit like a sightseeing car and has no windows to block it, what they said clearly reached Isabella's ears.

"Don't take it personally." Jed comforted in a gentle voice, "Uncle will vent your anger on you in a while."

"I did hit someone." Isabella confessed honestly.

"The staff saw it, they were the ones who started it first, and you were just acting in self-defense." Jed defended, "Even if you started all of this, so what, at uncle's place, whoever you see is not pleasing to the eye, think You can beat whoever you want, and if you have uncle to take care of the aftermath, you can go ahead and do it."

"Whoever our Isabella wants to hit, it must be that person who deserves to hit him. Whoever our Isabella doesn't like, it must be that person's problem." Jed said seriously, "In short, it is definitely not your problem."

"Uncle, you are a person. Do you not distinguish between right and wrong, black and white, right and wrong?"

“With uncle, everything you do is right.” Jed said this, but he still forgot to add, “It can only be someone else who is wrong.”

Chapter 590 No Scars Found

ten minutes later.

The snowmobile arrived at the luxurious restaurant that comes with the ski resort, and the staff rushed to serve Isabella with various delicacies.

Other staff came forward quickly with many things, lest Isabella would be cold and hungry.

Eloise also rushed to her daughter anxiously, “Baby, are you okay? Who would dare to hurt you? Jed, did you find out!”

“Tell Dad where you are hurt, and Dad will call you a doctor first.” Williams was in a panic, afraid that his daughter would feel some pain.

But Isabella said gently, “They are the ones who get hurt, I’m fine.”

“Really?” Eloise held up her face, took a closer look, rolled up her sleeves and pant legs, and checked it all over, as if it was really fine.

She immediately breathed a sigh of relief, and hugged her daughter tightly, “It’s fine, when Jed received the call, we were frightened. Jed, you haven’t said who they are, have you found out?”

“It’s Patsy and Darlene, you don’t know each other, I’ll take care of it later.”

“It must be dealt with severely, and it must not be taken lightly!” Eloise was heartbroken. “A good Christmas Eve has left a shadow on my precious daughter. Come, Isabella, warm up and eat something.”

But Patsy and Darlene were almost out of breath. They heard this as soon as they arrived at the entrance of the restaurant, and then they took a closer look. Isn't that beautiful lady with a "treasure" in her mouth, the famous wife of the richest man, Eloise?

Eloise is a well-known woman who is doted on by her husband. It is said that her husband will follow her wherever she is.

They took a closer look, and sure enough, Williams was beside her, bringing all kinds of delicious food to Isabella, wanting her to eat more.

how?

How could Isabella be their daughter?

The wealth of the Logan family is more than three times that of their family!

At this time, two couples ran towards this side in a hurry, and the doctor carrying the medicine kit also ran out of breath.

The door of the restaurant was pushed open, and the wind and snow outside rolled in.

"Sorry to keep you waiting!" The person who spoke was Patsy's father, who bowed deeply as soon as he entered the Patsy's mother gave Patsy a hard look, then bowed down to apologize, her posture graceful and dignified.

Darlene's parents slapped Darlene on the back hard, blaming her for fooling around.

"Don't hit hard, you will push the injury to us again in a while." Jed sat on the single chair with a cold light in his eyes.

“I’m really sorry, our two families didn’t educate our daughter well.” Patsy’s father blamed himself to the extreme, “During such a festival, I wasted your time, left a bad impression on you, and affected your mood. .”

Darlene’s father wanted to say something, but Jed had already reached out to stop him, “Let’s get the injury checked first.”

“It’s just nonsense among children. It can’t be taken seriously. Even if they fell here today, it’s because their skiing skills are limited, and it has nothing to do with you.”

Darlene’s father wanted to calm down Jed, but Jed reached out to stop him from continuing.

A bodyguard reminded, “Let’s have an injury check.”

In the end, the two families couldn’t get out, so they could only let the two girls go to the bathroom of the restaurant, and let the doctor examine their injuries.

After a while, the doctor came out with a medical kit and bowed very respectfully to everyone present.

“I’m sorry to keep you waiting. I guarantee with my personality and career that they don’t have any bruises or scars on their bodies, not even minor injuries. It’s just that they kept crying for pain. I gave them a preliminary examination, and There is no problem.”

At this time, Darlene got dressed and came out, and ran towards this side anxiously, “She really hit someone just now, and now my heart hurts, my stomach hurts, and my back hurts. My whole body hurts, how could it be a little bit Can’t even detect the injury?”

Patsy came out after changing her clothes, and she also thought it was weird. Logically speaking, since Isabella hit so hard, they should have scars on their bodies, and it’s impossible to have no bruises.

If it was the doctor hired by Jed, she would suspect that the doctor was bought by Jed.

But the doctor who came today is famous for not bowing to any powerful people. The two of them have known him for many years, and he has always told the truth about their illnesses.

In the past, Patsy didn't want to go to school, and tried to bribe him with a million dollars, asking him to issue a sick note and let her take a month's sick leave, but he refused.

How can a person like this lie?

But if he was telling the truth, then how could Isabella not even have bruises when she hit so hard?

Patsy also ran to her parents and said uneasy, "We are really injured, if you don't believe me, we can go to the hospital for examination."

When her father heard this, he slapped her hard.

"Haven't you messed around enough? How long do you want to mess around!"

The slap was so crisp that Darlene trembled in fright.

Never expected that Patsy's father was so serious.

"What the hell did you two do? What's going on?"

Darlene's father also said seriously, "Quickly clarify!"

The two girls were too scared to speak, Patsy covered her face, tears streaming down her face.

“Let me tell the story.” Jed, who was sitting on the chair, finally said, “Today is Christmas Eve, I took my niece to play in my ski resort, two young ladies came to provoke me, saying that my niece, for no reason, I can only appear here because I am on the list, and I also said that my niece has been teased many times in private.”

Hearing this, both Patsy and Darlene’s parents were choked up, frightened and furious at the same time!

“Last time they made things difficult for my niece on a cruise ship. I said that it depends on the occasion. Today they told my niece that they thought the occasion was pretty good, so they bullied people first.”

In Jed’s ski resort, how dare he say that about his own niece, and dare to do something to his own niece?

Darlene’s and Patsy’s parents were just about to faint.

They each beat and scolded their own children.

“Are you guys out of your mind? Can you say anything? Last time you made things difficult for others. You were seen by a human machine, but you still don’t know how to repent. What does it matter to you if people come to play at uncle’s ski resort today?”

“Mate!”

My muscles contorted when he repeated the word for the second time. I had known Flynn Winchester since we were kids. I used to meet him in the playground and it went on like that for years. He was the only persistent person in my life. It was truly a remarkable feeling when we recently felt the mate bond.

“Come on! Do it!” he smiled, cornering me by the lockers. It was my first day in twelfth grade. I was nervous and panicky because I had been homeschooled my whole life.

High school was a zoo for me, and I was a new animal at the zoo for everyone else.

Fortunately, my mother had talked to Ms. Winchester about my first day in school, so Alpha Flynn picked me up at the door.

“Here?” I asked, looking around at the empty hallway.

“It’s empty. Don’t you want to be accepted by your popular alpha mate on the first day of school?” He insisted, and I could not help but nod feebly. He had on his yellow and red jock jacket. The Alpha title has enabled him to become...
