

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 131

8 minutes read

Shannon had always acted as if he was the most important person in the world, which led him to think that he was Shannon's son.

But now, Shannon said, "What should we do if something happens to you?" She didn't think of him at all in her words. Channing was already suspicious, so he suddenly felt unhappy.

"I didn't mean that. I was just worried and worried about you!" Shannon was also a quick-witted person. She immediately realized that she had said something wrong. "Mr. Black, what can I do now?"

"If you really worry about me, stay at home obediently. Don't forget to come to the hospital every day to see me!" Channing said lightly.

Shannon stayed in the hospital for a while before leaving with a heavy heart. Instead of going home, she took a taxi to the beauty salon where she often went. After entering the beauty salon, Shannon went straight into the VIP room.

Wendy, the beauty designer who often served her, immediately came over and asked, "Why are you here today?"

It was no wonder that Wendy was surprised. Every time Shannon came, she would call in advance. The sudden arrival had never happened. "Call him and ask him to come over. I have something to tell him." Shannon ordered.

Wendy immediately picked up the phone and dialed. The phone was quickly connected, and a female voice came. "What's the matter?"

"Ask Malone to answer the phone." Wendy subconsciously glanced at Shannon.

"Malone is taking a shower," the female voice replied. "I'll get him to call later."

When Shannon heard that it was a female voice who answered the phone, her face darkened. When she heard the female voice's reply, she gritted her teeth after taking a shower. She grabbed the phone in Wendy's hand and said, "I'll call Malone to answer the phone immediately!"

“Who are you?” The female voice asked.

“It’s not up to you to ask who I am. Call Malone to answer the phone immediately, or you will be in great trouble!”

Shannon’s arrogant tone made the woman feel stressed, so she went to knock on the bathroom door. “Malone, a phone call!”

Malone opened the door with his nd body. “Baby, who is your phone number?”

“Your sister’s phone number, but the woman who spoke is not your sister. She is very fierce.”

Shannon heard it clearly and was very jealous. She gnashed her teeth and roared, “Malone, get over here now!”

Twenty minutes later, Malone arrived at the beauty salon. He pushed open the door and smashed a teacup on his face. He leaned to one side to avoid it. “Bastard! You bastard! How dare you cheat on me! I won’t beat you to death!”

Shannon pounced on him like a tiger, grabbing and biting at him. He was in so much pain that he gritted his teeth, but he didn’t dare to do anything. He pleaded, “It’s not a lover, it’s just a nanny. Don’t get me wrong.”

“Bullshit, do you think I’m so easy to cheat? I can’t even tell who my nanny and lover are. Bastard! I’m so tired of working for you, but you f*cking raise my lover behind my back. I’m not done with you!”

“Shannon, don’t be angry! I really didn’t have a lover behind your back. I don’t have a second woman except you!”

“I believe that a sow can climb a tree. I’m telling you, Malone. I’m not easy to bully. Don’t even think about it. If you piss me off, don’t blame me for turning against you.”

“I don’t dare to mess with you. You are my god. Don’t you know how I feel about you? I don’t like any other woman except you.”

“If you dare to fall in love with another woman, I will not let you go!” Shannon said fiercely, “I have endured the humiliation for you for so many years. I have to help you raise your daughter and deal with that b*stard Channing. Do you think it's easy for me? By the way, your daughter is going to die now, but you are still drinking and drinking. Are you a human?"

"What's wrong with Celia?"

"What's wrong? Why don't you watch TV? Didn't you hear others say that Mr. Barron was going to break off the engagement, and Celia was going to commit suicide!"

"Damn it, what does this Mr. Barron want to do?" Malone scolded angrily, "He is a divorced man, and our Celia is still a v*n. Does he have eyes on the top of his head?"

He smiled and said, "Baby, I'm not angry. You persuade Celia not to be sad. It's hard to find a toad with three legs. There are many men with two legs. With our appearance, Celia can find a good man with her eyes closed."

"Is this a problem of looking for a man? Celia likes the man Rodney. Do you know?" Shannon was so angry that her liver ached.

"But Mr. Barron doesn't like her. It's not sweet to force her..." As soon as she finished speaking, Shannon made a fierce claw, which made the scholar grimace. "You murdered your husband!"

"I still expect you to think of a way, but now it seems that I can't count on you. It's better to go and discuss it with Itzel. Her idea is much better than yours."

"You'd better stay away from Itzel. She has been involved in many things in the past. If she revealed it, everything would be over." Malone reminded him.

"Don't worry. She won't do any harm to anyone, nor will she do any harm to Celia." Shannon was confident.

"There are exceptions to everything. If she finds out that Celia is not her daughter, with Itzel's vicious character, she will definitely make a scene. So you'd better be careful!"

"Itzel will never suspect that Celia is not her daughter. Don't worry about that." Shannon didn't want to mention it. "I'm thirsty. Get me a glass of water!"

Malone immediately poured her a glass of water. Shannon drank up the glass of water in one gulp. Malone sat down beside her and stared at Shannon's towering chest with his eyes narrowed. “Baby, is there anything else other than Celia’s matter?”

“What are you doing?”

“If there’s nothing else, I’ll make you comfortable!” As he spoke, he reached out to touch her chest with a lewd smile.

“Be serious. I have something important to tell you today.” Shannon opened his hand and told him what had happened to Channing. “If he really has trouble, we have to think of a way out.”

Malone frowned and thought for a moment. He shook his head and said, “There won’t be any trouble.”

“Why?”

“Channing is sophisticated and cunning. How could he let others catch him so easily?”

“But he admitted it himself.”

“The mayor is still in the provincial capital, but Channing is resting in the hospital. What does this mean?”

“Don’t keep me guessing. Just say it.”

“It means that there must be something wrong with the mayor, and he must be fine.”

“I still don’t understand.” Shannon was confused.

“If something happened to Channing, he would stay in the provincial capital like the mayor and would never come back to recuperate, got it?”

Seeing that Shannon still didn’t fully understand, Malone added, “Now that I know about this, I will definitely let people pay attention to it. Don’t panic, just stay with him obediently. I will inform you if there is anything.”

Shannon was relieved to hear that. She reached out her hand with lust again. This time, Shannon did not refuse. Soon, the room was full of sunshine.

After that, Shannon put on her clothes and left. After sending Shannon away, she went back to her room. There was a lascivious smell in the room. Wendy began to tidy up quietly. Malone reached out to hold her hand and sighed.

“Wendy, you’ve been wronged!”

“Brother, we have everything now. Why don’t you cut her off?” Wendy looked at the scars on her brother’s face, and her eyes were full of pity.

Shannon was too vicious. She had a man and lived a happy life, but she didn’t allow her brother to have other women. Her brother was so old, but he had always been single. Was the Wen family going to have no descendants?

“I want to do that, but I have no choice. Everything was given by Shannon at that time. I can’t turn against her like this. Besides, she gave birth to a daughter for me. For the sake of my child, I can’t let her down!”

“Brother, you are too soft-hearted. Celia said that she was your daughter, but I didn’t find any resemblance to you on her face. Shannon used to be a dirty woman. I don’t know which wild man she is!”

“Wendy, don’t talk nonsense.”

“I know. I feel wronged for my brother! You shouldn’t go on like this! Why can’t Shannon allow you to get married and have children?”

“It’s my brother’s idea. It has nothing to do with her.” Malone shook his head. “Anyway, you don’t have to worry about this. My brother knows what he should do!”

“Brother, you are not young anymore. Listen to my advice. Get married as soon as possible. The Wen family can’t have no descendants!”

Wendy said earnestly, “We are not short of money now. If Shannon is unwilling to let you go, let’s leave the business here. I don’t believe that her hands are so long!”

Malone didn’t say anything. He knew that his sister was kind to him, but it was not easy for Shannon to get rid of him. If she could get rid of him, she wouldn’t have waited until now. He had a fatal weakness in Shannon’s hands.

“If I hadn’t been confused at that time, I wouldn’t have ended up like this.” Malone sighed deeply in his heart.

The sky was bright. Rodney opened his eyes, and the person in his arms fell asleep. Just like before, he gently put her hand, which was placed outside the quilt, back under the quilt. He saw the red mark on her chest, which was caused by him.

Rodney could not help but lower his head and kiss her face. He hugged her tightly and placed his chin gently on her forehead. "Amber, do I really have you again?"

A kind of unspeakable happiness surrounded him. Rodney really wanted to laugh out loud. This was the first time in three years that he had been so happy since he left.

He hugged her for a while before he slowly got up and went to the room next door to wash up. After washing up, he made ham sticks. In the past, when he lived with Amber, she used to make nutritious breakfast for him every day.

The breakfast he could make was only fried eggs and ham sticks. Rodney put the bread into the oven and roasted it. Then he fried the eggs and cut the tomatoes. Everything was ready, and two rather good sticks were ready.

He heated up the milk and went upstairs along with the already-prepared chalk. When he pushed open the bedroom door, he saw that Amber was still asleep. He reached out to push her away, but Amber turned over and went back to sleep.

Seeing that Amber was sleeping soundly, Rodney couldn't bear to disturb him, so he walked out of the room. He finished his watch and called Celia to meet him.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 132

9 minutes read

In the past, Rodney felt guilty for Celia and felt that his mother and he owed her. Celia was young and in her prime, and had a good future. It was her mother who innocently let her get involved in the right and wrong.

Later, when he learned that it was Channing and Shannon's plot, he felt more sympathy for Celia. Especially when he heard Itzel say that Celia could not give birth to children, his sympathy reached the top. Knowing that he could not resurrect Amber, he chose to get engaged to Celia.

On the one hand, he chose to be with Celia. On the other hand, he felt guilty for her kindness. On the other hand, he was desperate. It had nothing to do with love. Celia had always been considerate and gentle in front of Rodney. Rodney never dreamed that Celia would come up with such a bad idea to deal with Amber.

He was not a fool. He didn't believe that it was Zoe's doing at all. This time, he made a very wrong choice to deal with it.

Because he had made Amber suffer such a big blow, he had to stop his relationship with Celia.

Rodney really didn't blame Celia for doing such a thing. He was Celia's fiance, but he was incompetent. He didn't have her, his fiancée, in his heart. He played with another woman behind his fiancée's back. He was sorry for her.

However, Amber was innocent. Amber shouldn't have suffered such pain and humiliation. Rodney was prepared to let his mother and him clarify everything.

Amber said that he wanted to break up with Celia, but he didn't expect that before Deon could do it, the relationship between Celia and him had been magnified. Seeing that Celia had been attacked, Rodney had thought about it for a long time. He not only announced the relationship with Amber in public, but also got rid of the relationship with Celia.

Now that Amber had promised to give him a chance, Rodney was going to make it clear to Celia that she would continue to treat her illness. He would do everything he could to make it up to her, but he would no longer interfere with her relationship.

However, Celia refused his request to meet her, saying that she had no time to take care of Channing.

It was a fact that Channing had just fallen ill. Rodney didn't want to push her too hard, so he hung up the phone. Seeing that there was nothing to eat at home, he drove to the supermarket.

Amber didn't fall asleep until dawn. She was woken up by hunger. When she opened her eyes, she found that it was already noon. There was no sign of Rodney on the bed. She struggled to get up from the bed and went downstairs.

Rodney's breakfast was still on the table. Amber didn't care. He wolfed it down and went upstairs to take a shower.

When she came back after taking a shower and changing her clothes, Rodney came back from the supermarket. "Are you hungry? I'll cook right away."

"Don't you have to go to the company?" Amber was confused. "Rodney shouldn't be so idle. He's cooking for me at home at noon. It's strange."

"I'll stay with you for the next few days."

"I don't need you to accompany me. You'd better go to the company." Feeling that her tone was a little stiff, she added, "Since you want to start over, it won't take a day or two. We have a long way to go."

Rodney was exceptionally happy to hear her words. He said softly, "I'm going to cook first. I'm going to the company after dinner."

Since he said so, Amber did not stop him. He allowed him to cook in the kitchen. Seeing that he was going to cook and thinking about what he could do, he also walked to the door of the kitchen. "Do you need my help?"

"It's fine as long as you watch from the side," Rodney replied. Amber felt a little strange when he thought of how he had never done anything before when he saw Rodney washing rice and putting it into the pot.

Looking at her thoughtful expression, Rodney explained, "Do you think it's strange that I can cook? When you left, I thought it was very difficult to cook. I missed you every day, not just because you wanted to eat the dishes made by you. Compared with what you cooked, I couldn't swallow the dishes cooked by Auntie. So I tried to cook when you cooked. Although I haven't been as good as you in the past three years, I'm almost as good as you."

Amber replied with an "oh". She didn't know what to say to Rodney's explanation. He was telling her that he missed her, but she didn't feel the slightest bit happy. She would rather Rodney be hypocritical in everything he had done to her. That way, she would be able to walk around in a natural and unrestrained manner, and they wouldn't owe each other anything!

"I bought some fruits that you like. You wash them yourself and eat them!" Rodney noticed that she was in a daze and reminded him.

Amber responded and turned to look. When she saw that Rodney had bought a fork in the car, she picked up a fork and played with it in her hand.

His voice came from behind. "I won't let you live like before. Don't worry, I won't let you eat the fruits you like!"

Amber didn't say anything. He continued, "I'll transfer the company's shares under your name. In a few days, we'll take Mel back. Don't worry about keeping your child by your side."

His words shocked Amber. He turned to look at Rodney and said, "No! Mel is being treated there. We can't take him back!"

"Don't worry. I'm already thinking of a way to solve the medical problem you're worried about. I won't joke about Mel's illness."

"Let's talk about this later." Amber refused. She had never thought of being reunited with Rodney, nor would she let Mel and Rodney stay under the same roof.

"I know, I just want to tell you first." Rodney also knew that everything needed to be done step by step. If he was forced too hard, it would backfire.

The most important thing was that he hadn't made it clear to Celia yet. He had to deal with all his troubles, so as not to hurt Amber and Mel again.

After lunch, Rodney went to the company under Amber's urging. After he left, Amber looked around the villa. It had been several days since she moved into the villa. She had never carefully observed the situation of the villa.

Amber walked around the upper and lower floors of the villa and found that many places in Rodney's villa were decorated in line with her mind, such as children's rooms, decorations, and furniture choices. No wonder it said that their hobbies would change as time went by. It seemed that the five years they had spent together were not the same.

While she was thinking, Noemi called and said, "Amber, I saw Shannon go to the beauty salon. Do you want me to go in and have a look?"

"What are you looking at?" Amber did not respond to Noemi's words. It was not a big deal for Shannon to enter the beauty salon.

“What is she doing inside? Your father is seriously ill in bed, but she is in the mood for beauty. Don't you think there is something fishy in it?”

Noemi didn't know that Channing was pretending to be sick, but Amber knew. It seemed that Channing had told Shannon about pretending to be sick, so Shannon was in the mood to do beauty care. She couldn't tell Noemi that Channing was pretending to be sick, so she persuaded her. “Forget it, there is a reason for her to do beauty care. You can do your own business. Don't worry about her.”

Hearing her words, Noemi had to give up the idea of going in to have a look. The two talked about something else, and then hung up the phone.

Itzel was not in a good mood after meeting Rachel. She thought that she could reverse the situation with her wits, but she didn't expect that the incident of Channing would cause Rachel to directly block her way out. Damn Channing, why did nothing happen to him at this critical moment?

Channing deserved to be on the 18th floor of hell, but he couldn't drag others down with him if he wanted to die! Itzel hated Channing in her heart. She wanted him to die, but she didn't want anything to happen to him at this time. Channing was about to get into trouble. What about Celia?

Shannon must have thought that the reason why she tried her best to help Celia was that they had once been in cahoots with each other. It was because she hated Ashley and wanted to get all the grievances she had suffered from Ashley's daughter. However, she didn't know that Celia had her own purpose. If it weren't for Celia being her daughter, could she do her best to help her?

Speaking of Celia being his daughter, Itzel was really upset. She loved and hated Celia. She loved her because she was the flesh that fell out of Itzel's body. Itzel hated her because Celia was the most ugly memory in her heart.

If it weren't for the fact that she couldn't give birth in this life, how could she give birth to her at the risk of losing all her dignity? The culprits of all this were Ashley and Channing.

It was said that blood was thicker than water. According to common sense, she and Ashley were half-sisters. They should have had a blind date and loved each other, but the fact was that they had always been enemies.

Her mother was the daughter of a poor family. She was forced to marry Ashley's father because of her family's decline. Later, she gave birth to Ashley and Ashton.

Ashley's father died of lung disorder, leaving a family of orphans and a widow behind. Life was very difficult. Later, his mother met the missing young painter Johnson. Johnson was a famous painter in the local area. His family was well-off, and his wife left him a son, Issac, five years after she got married to him.

Johnson happened to meet his mother in a life of calligraphy. He was fascinated by her beauty, so he started to pursue his mother. Johnson's elegant demeanor naturally attracted his mother. The couple had a crush on each other, so it was natural for them to be together.

Johnson and her mother agreed to take care of Ashley and Ashton. This was supposed to be a happy thing, but the members of the Stone family made a mistake. They gave their mother two choices. One was to stay in the Stone family to take care of the two children, the other was to leave the two children and leave with Johnson.

On one hand, it was hard to meet her beloved man. On the other hand, it was family affection. Her mother was in a dilemma. In the end, she put love first and left a pair of children behind.

Later, she learned that someone in the Stone family was thinking about her mother and was ready to marry her. However, her mother did not like that person, so the Stone family used the child to threaten her mother and force her to surrender.

Her mother had agreed to let go of the two children and marry Johnson because she was pregnant. In that case, she had no other choice. Although her mother had married Johnson, she had been worried about Ashley and Ashton. Since she was sensible, she had been missing Ashley and Ashton for a long time.

When she was a child, she was very looking forward to Ashley's sister. Later, when she saw Ashley, she couldn't like her at all. She remembered that when she was five years old, her mother took her back to the Stone family to see Ashley and Ashton. However, she was rejected. Those vulgar women in the Stone family scolded their mother for her foul words. They said that their mother was shameless and shameless. It was only a few months after her husband died that she hooked up with another man.

She even called her a b*stard and the one who had hooked up with her. Her mother left with her with a gray face, which cast a shadow on her heart at such a young age. If it weren't for Ashley, her mother and she wouldn't have suffered such humiliation.

Although her mother married Johnson, they were a loving couple, but they were not very popular in the Lott family. The Lott family was also a literary family, so they were very against their mother's pregnancy. When she was a child, she often heard the servants gossiping behind her. She also saw her mother secretly wipe her tears in the room after being excluded by others.

Johnson couldn't bear to see his wife endure such humiliation. In the end, he took his wife away from South City and went to another country. There was no discrimination or gossip here. They lived a very happy life.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 133

8 minutes read

As for Ashley and Ashton, they had a hard time. The people who often took care of them would beat and scold them. Later, the people who took care of them also died. Ashley and Ashton became orphans without anyone taking care of them. When their mother heard the news, she asked someone to pick up Ashley and Ashton, but she refused.

She didn't know what the Stone family had taught her, but she hated her mother very much. She said that she didn't have a mother who didn't want to be so shameless. She had two hands to feed herself and her younger brother. Her mother was in great pain because of this. Later, Johnson thought of a way to let a servant in her family adopt Ashley and Ashton in the name of a kind-hearted person, so that Ashley and Ashton could enter the school to study and study.

Ashley's grades were very good. Along the way, she successfully studied from primary school to university, but Ashton was not interested in studying. Before she graduated from junior high school, she would quit school at home.

When Ashley was in college, she was the most beautiful girl in the school. Many boys liked her, including her brother, Issac. At first, Ashley hated Issac, but later he didn't know why their relationship had become better.

Itzel saw that Issac had gone to find Ashley. She had never seen her brother's high spirits when he was with Ashley.

What was so good about his family that he finally thought of Ashley, which made Itzel very jealous. She was brother and sister with Issac young master. Why did Issac young master treat Ashley, who had no blood relationship with her at all, better than his biological sister?

Because Itzel slowly began to hate Ashley. Especially when she heard that the people around her were praising her beauty, intelligence, and talent, she was even more unconvinced.

Because of his excellent grades and his specialty in architectural design, a famous foreign university took the initiative to invite him to study abroad.

After Issac went abroad, he quickly became a famous designer in the design industry in an English name. Because Issac was abroad, Itzel went on vacation at her brother's place during the summer vacation.

Issac's acquaintances were all from the upper class, and there were many rich and powerful families in the country. Reece was one of them. Reece liked carving, so he slowly became friends with Issac at a gathering. Because he often came to see Issac, he naturally began to get familiar with Itzel.

Reece was handsome and unrestrained, and he was also the heir of a rich and powerful family. Itzel took a fancy to him at a glance. She began to have a crush on Reece and would approach him with such a reason every time.

Because of Issac, Reece treated her well. He answered her every request. At the party, he would also invite her to be a female companion.

The short two months of interaction made Itzel very happy. She had always thought that Reece liked her, otherwise, he would not have invited her to be his female companion.

Itzel began to fantasize about Reece. Her thoughts could not escape Issac's eyes. He warned Itzel not to have any other fantasies. Reece only treated her as a friend's younger sister and had no other thoughts. Moreover, Reece's family background was not something that people like them could get along with.

But how could Itzel listen to it? She fell in love with Reece as if she was possessed. She didn't spend much time abroad and was about to return to our country. She hoped that Reece could make full use of the time to confess his love for her and achieve a love story between a prince and a princess.

Reece did not confess his love to her, but he went back with her when she returned to the country. At that time, Reece returned to the country to see a famous carving master in the country, but Itzel did not think so. She thought that seeing the carving master was just an excuse for Reece. His real purpose was to send her back to the country.

Because of Reece's return, Issac asked Reece to send a gift to Ashley. When Reece sent a gift to Ashley, he was shocked and fell in love with her at a glance.

For this reason, Reece gave up going abroad and settled down in the country on the grounds of learning carving. It was a good thing for Itzel that Reece stayed in the country. She had always happily thought that it was because of her that Reece stayed in the country.

It wasn't until she saw Reece and Ashley begin their date that she realized that Itzel began to have an inexplicable grudge against Ashley. She hated her for shamelessly taking away her lover.

Looking at the re between Reece and Ashley, Itzel's heart was as sharp as a knife. She would never allow her man to be taken away by another woman, even if this woman was her sister.

She began to find ways to separate them. Coincidentally, Channing also liked Ashley at that time, so Itzel set her eyes on Channing.

Channing was a well-known talent in the school. He was also good-looking and won the hearts of many girls. He also fell in love with Ashley at first sight, but she was not very interested in Channing.

No matter how Channing pursued her, he didn't say anything. Itzel hinted to Channing that she could help him get Ashley, and she also told Channing about her relationship with Ashley.

Channing was naturally very happy that she took the initiative to extend an olive branch. The two began to form an alliance. Itzel took the initiative to show her kindness to Ashley. She liked her sister Ashley a lot and did not object to her approach. Therefore, Itzel often thought of ways to bring Channing to Ashley.

However, the effect of this was not obvious. Ashley had no interest in Channing at all. Itzel saw that Channing was unable to do it, so she set her eyes on Reece. Reece's domestic affairs were known by the Thomson family because of a woman, so Remington naturally did not allow him to do so.

Therefore, as Reece's fiancée, Lannie came to Reece in person. Reece made it clear that he had no feelings for Lannie.

Itzel was the typical thing that others could not get what they wanted. Since Channing was useless, she could only think of a way. Anyway, she could not let Ashley take advantage of her. Lannie's arrival gave her an opportunity. She took advantage of the fact that Reece was on guard against her and directed a good show.

Itzel had drunk Reece and Lannie so that they could put on a play in the Spring Palace. She also informed Ashley to come and watch. Ashley was heartbroken when she saw Reece and Lannie together. In the end, she chose to be with Channing.

Things had already come to an end, but for Itzel, it was just the beginning. She thought that she would have a chance to break up with Reece and Ashley, but she didn't expect that Reece would choose to marry Lannie, who she didn't love. She thought that Ashley and Channing would have a mediocre life after they got married, but she didn't expect that Channing would have a successful official career and began to grow step by step.

As a person who was scheming everywhere, she didn't benefit at all, while others were living happily. Itzel was very unwilling to give up. Of course, the thing that made Itzel most angry was that they were all living a good life, but she was beginning to live a bad life.

Issac had been entrusted by a rich businessman from France to buy a famous painting. In the end, he entrusted the famous painting to Ashley to keep, but the famous painting he brought back in the end was a fake. Because of this, Issac had lost all his fortune and his reputation. His father, who was old, had also suffered such a blow and returned to the west. After his father died, his mother also followed him.

In one night, Itzel changed from having nothing to having nothing to worry about. Her brother, Issac, was disheartened and looked like he wanted to see through the mortal world. Itzel blamed everything on Ashley. If it weren't for her, they wouldn't have fallen to such a state.

After her parents died, her brother returned to the South City to live in seclusion. Itzel had no choice but to go to the old servant who took care of Ashley. The old servant lived in the cat's alley. From this, she knew Shannon, who lived in the cat's alley, also known as a flower.

In the end, Itzel and Issac ended up like this. Ashley felt guilty. She had sent all her work money to Itzel for her studies. Itzel had been studying at the Medical College at that time, so she was naturally in need of money. She did not reject Ashley's money, but she was not grateful. She had been thinking about how to get revenge.

She was not grateful to her sister, but she was angry with Shannon. At that time, Shannon was popular in Parkview Street. Those ruffians coveted her beauty and treated her very well.

On the summer vacation of the year when Itzel graduated, Channing had just gone on a business trip to South City. He was entrusted by Ashley to visit Itzel and to deliver money to her. Itzel brought Shannon and her cousin to meet Channing.

At that time, Channing was young and handsome. Shannon fixed her eyes on him for a while. Seeing this scene, Itzel secretly guessed that a vicious plan had been made.

She wanted to make Ashley suffer the pain of betrayal, and it was the betrayal of her most trusted friend. So Itzel put medicine in the water that Channing and Shannon had drunk, but she didn't expect that the last thing would be beyond her imagination.

Shannon had just had s*x with Channing, and she was not in a good condition. When she woke up, she was nd and lying with Shannon's cousin, because Shannon's cousin began to be entangled with her.

Shannon's cousin was a local ruffian in Parkview Street. The local ruffians in Parkview Street were all bloodthirsty people. Previously, Shannon's cousin treated her well, but since she had s*x with her, he had threatened her openly and asked her to have friends with him. Otherwise, he would have made this matter known to others. Itzel chose to maintain a relationship with Shannon's cousin for her sake. She did not expect that she would be pregnant.

She was supposed to go to the hospital to give birth to this child, but the doctor in the hospital told her that her body was not allowed. If she gave birth to this child, she would never have another child in her life.

Shannon's cousin also got the news and followed her to the hospital. In the end, Itzel didn't give birth to a child, but gave birth to a child. On the day she gave birth, Shannon also gave birth to Channing's child.

Itzel hated Shannon. She wasn't a fool. She was the one who schemed against Channing and Shannon, but Shannon must have played tricks on her. Itzel hated Shannon. She persuaded Shannon's cousin to give birth to Shannon's child, so she wouldn't raise a child that didn't belong to her. So she asked Shannon's cousin to send Shannon's child away.

Itzel knew that the purpose of Shannon's child was not to be full of love. She must have wanted to replace Ashley to get Channing, so she began to negotiate with Shannon. She helped Shannon get Channing, and Shannon helped her get rid of the cousin who pestered her.

In the end, they were all very happy. Ashley died in a car accident, and Shannon successfully became the wife. Her child also became Shannon and Channing's child. Shannon's cousin was also sent to the prison by her and Shannon.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 134

9 minutes read

After that, Itzel left South City and went to City A. After more than ten years of hard work, she became a famous expert. But this was not the life she wanted. If it weren't for Channing and Ashley, she wouldn't have ended up like this. She would have slept with Reece, and she would have lived a rich life instead of being a doctor like this.

Although she was quite famous in the medical circle, she was nothing compared with the madams of hundreds of millions of rich and powerful families. If not for that incident back then, how could she end up in such a state? She hated Ashley and Channing. She had never hated them so much.

When Itzel became a famous doctor in City A, Channing was transferred to City A as a secretary. Itzel was sincerely happy to see her daughter go down. Of course, if it weren't for her terrible father, she would have been even happier.

To be honest, she didn't intend to deal with Amber. Amber was courting death by falling in love with the man her daughter liked. Her behavior was as shameless as her mother's.

Therefore, she continued to help Shannon deal with Ashley's daughter. She and Rachel used to be old friends. She knew Rachel very well. The Barron family had been simple for generations. Rachel was both snobbish and wanted to have grandchildren. She had come up with a vicious plan to deal with her and Shannon. She asked Riya, the nanny of the Barron family, to secretly take medicine for Amber so that she could not get engaged.

Amber had been married to Rodney for two years without any news. He held his grandson in his arms and began to take Amber to the hospital for an examination. Naturally, he wanted to find her, a well-known expert and a good friend.

Because Amber had taken an aphrodisiac, the results of the examination were naturally unable to do so.

There was no way to get engaged, which meant that she could not have a baby. She exaggerated that it was difficult for Amber to get pregnant for the rest of his life.

Rachel, who had been dissatisfied with Amber, was extremely angry when she heard that. Her attitude toward Amber was extremely bad.

Amber swallowed his anger and thought that it was because of his relationship, so he looked around for the treatment method actively.

Wu Yuzhen was worried that other hospitals would find out Amber's real situation. After discussing it with Shannon, they decided to give Amber a warm-up surgery and stop her from getting pregnant.

The servants of the Barron family, Riya, were stunned by Amber when he was not at home. They secretly arranged for someone to perform an operation for Amber.

After they cleaned up the administrative department, they stopped drugging Amber. Later, Amber went to other hospitals for several tests, but they used various means to switch the examination report, so that Amber did not know his physical condition at all.

Those bitches thought that she would never have a baby in her life, so they began to actively think of ways to help Celia and Rodney get along with each other.

All the results were carried out according to their expectations. After being pestered by Rachel, Rodney was extremely annoyed and finally agreed to take over the pregnancy.

Celia was successfully pregnant. As long as Celia successfully gave birth to the child, Amber would be kicked out. But at this critical moment, she had a problem with having a child. In the end, after discussing it with Shannon, she decided to expose this relationship to Amber and frame him.

The plan went well. Amber was expelled from his house and left his hometown.

She and Shannon's plan was not an ordinary one. It was difficult but the medicine was going to be done soon. She didn't expect such a thing to happen after the engagement. Amber and Channing had just reconciled, and she didn't expect that Channing would be investigated.

Rachel wanted to change her mind not because Celia was the daughter of the mistress, but because Channing had just lost his power.

However, she still had a trump card in her hand right now. That was the genius designer, Issac'er, who was pretending to be Ashton.

Rachel would definitely change her mind as long as she had a picture of the arena designed by Issac.

She had to ask Ashton about the Forging Design. As long as she got the Forging Design, she could negotiate with Rachel in this way. Rachel only cared about profit. She would never give up such a big fat.

Thinking of this, Itzel went to find Ashton. Ashton was very cold to see her. He did not say much and directly took out the drawings and gave them to her. Itzel was very happy to get the drawings. She pretended to thank Ashton and left.

With this money, Itzel calmed down a little. When she got home, she began to calculate. This drawing was just a chip, not all. Rachel was too snobbish. She changed her mind at will. This time, she must plan carefully and not make any mistakes.

After seeing Amber wearing the same jade pendant as herself, Kelsey firmly believed that her background must have something to do with Amber. Rodney had the same idea as her. Naturally, the investigation began from Ashley.

It took Rodney a lot of effort to find out the origin of Ashley. His mother was remarried, and his clansmen raised her and Ashton. Later, after the death of the people who raised Ashley and Ashton, they were adopted by a kind-hearted person and lived in the Parkview Street. Therefore, Rodney and Kelsey went to the Parkview Street to investigate.

Ashley and Ashton were adopted by the servants ordered by Johnson to live in the cat's alley. Although they lived in the cat's alley and did not have much contact with the people around them, the people in the cat's alley knew little about them.

Everyone only remembered that Ashley was admitted to college and married an official. Later, she settled down and took her younger brother's adoptive father away. As for where she went, there were many different opinions. Some said that she lived in a house in another place in South City, and some said that she was taken to another city.

Rodney guessed that Ashley did not take her brother and adoptive father away at that time. Instead, she settled down in the tube-shaped building, so Ashton had been living in the tube-shaped building all the time.

However, there was a clue that more than 20 years ago, Ashley had lived in Parkview Street for a period of time. At that time, it was winter. She was dressed in thick clothes and looked fat. Usually, she had no contact with others except for a flower.

The flower was Shannon's nickname. The person who provided the clue took Itzel as Ashley. Itzel looked like Ashley. They didn't have much contact with others, so the person who provided the clue regarded Itzel as Ashley.

At this time, wasn't Ashley married to Channing? Why did she go back to the cat's alley? Was she pregnant?

Rodney found it unbelievable. According to his calculations, Amber was already several years old at this time. Why did Ashley leave her daughter and husband behind and return to the cat's alley for such a long time?

The most important thing was that according to the time, Shannon was already pregnant with Celia at this time, and Kelsey was about the same age as Celia. Did Ashley come back to the cat's alley to have a baby at this time?

However, Ashley had a good relationship with Shannon. Since they were both pregnant at the same time, how could they not know about the baby in Shannon's belly?

It was Channing who gave birth to Shannon's child, which was also the reason why Ashley became so close to Shannon.

This matter was very strange. Wasn't the person who returned to the cat's alley Ashley? But who could it be?

Rodney and Kelsey's investigation in Parkview Street had not made any substantial progress, but Deon had found a lot of news about Ashley's mother and Johnson.

After Ashley's mother married Johnson, she had a daughter named Queena. Later, Johnson and Ashley's mother both passed away. Queena and her brother, Issac, were missing.

Deon put Itzel's and Issac'er's photos in front of Rodney. "Why does Issac'er look exactly like Ashton? And Queena, don't you think she's very similar to Dr. Lott?"

Rodney took the photo and was shocked. Although the photo had been taken for a long time and looked a little yellow, the person in the photo was very clear. That Issac young master did look the same as the current Ashton, while Queena and Itzel looked very much alike.

"What's going on?" Rodney couldn't figure it out. He couldn't figure out the relationship between Ashton and Issac, but he had a big guess about how he and Ashley had lived in the cat's alley that year.

At that time, the person who lived in the Parkview Street and Shannon were not Ashley, but Queena. If this inference was true, then Queena might be Kelsey's mother.

Rodney and Deon were discussing this matter. Zico, the designer he invited, came in to talk to Rodney about something. He glanced at the photo in front of Rodney and couldn't help but let out a cry of surprise. "Isn't this D threatened? Did you find him?"

Rodney was stunned. "What did you say?" Of course, he had heard of the name "Ding" before. When he suddenly heard Zico's words, he was quite surprised.

Zico picked up the photo and looked at it. He told Rodney with certainty, "This is the genius designer, D! I saw him when I went to study in France."

"D*mn, aren't you a French?"

"Just like you, I thought he was French. Later, I learned that he was not a native, but his identity has always been kept secret. Very few media magazines can see his photos. I only saw him at a children's party. He was in a hurry and left a few minutes later. I saw that the French at the party were very polite to him. Later, I inquired about him in private and found out that he was a D."

"Do you know his native name?"

"I don't know." Zico shook his head.

Zico left after talking to Rodney. Rodney waved to Deon to come over. "Did you find out that he studied in France when you investigated him?"

Deon nodded. "Yes, I haven't had time to report."

Rodney rubbed his brows. This matter was too strange. Ashton was Issac'er? Then where had the real Ashton gone?

"Is Issac D? Why is he so incredible? In my impression, Ashton has always been so obedient and honest. How could he have anything to do with a genius designer?"

Rodney pondered for a moment and asked Deon to call the French translator of the company. He asked the French translator to call Ashton in French. The phone was soon connected. The interpreter asked in French instead, "Excuse me, are you Mr. Mason?"

Ashton replied in French, “No, you hit the wrong person!”

The interpreter said sorry in French and hung up the phone. Beside him, Rodney and Deon clearly heard Ashton’s French answer. He waved his hand to motion for the interpreter to go out.

Ashton had dropped out of school after graduating from junior high school. He knew very well that this Ashton was a fake. Why did Issac Shao have to disguise himself as Ashton?

“Does Amber know about this?”

Rodney thought for a while and called Kelsey in. Now he was sure that Ashton was Issac. However, he was not sure whether Itzel was the same person as Queena. In that case, he might as well ask Kelsey to meet Itzel and ask her about the jade pendant in person.

Amber had a meal with Noemi at noon, so they met Kelsey in the restaurant. When she saw Amber, she took the initiative to come over and say hello. She reached out to greet the smiling man. Amber was also very polite to her. After exchanging a few words of greetings, Kelsey entered the private room.

When Amber opened the door, he glanced inside and found that the person Kelsey saw was an old acquaintance, Itzel, who once treated her stomach disease.

Strangely, why would Itzel meet Kelsey? Could it be that Kelsey’s purpose in seeing her was also to treat her stomach disease?

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 134

9 minutes read

After that, Itzel left South City and went to City A. After more than ten years of hard work, she became a famous expert. But this was not the life she wanted. If it weren’t for Channing and Ashley, she wouldn’t have ended up like this. She would have slept with Reece, and she would have lived a rich life instead of being a doctor like this.

Although she was quite famous in the medical circle, she was nothing compared with the madams of hundreds of millions of rich and powerful families. If not for that incident back then, how could she end up in such a state? She hated Ashley and Channing. She had never hated them so much.

When Itzel became a famous doctor in City A, Channing was transferred to City A as a secretary. Itzel was sincerely happy to see her daughter go down. Of course, if it weren't for her terrible father, she would have been even happier.

To be honest, she didn't intend to deal with Amber. Amber was courting death by falling in love with the man her daughter liked. Her behavior was as shameless as her mother's.

Therefore, she continued to help Shannon deal with Ashley's daughter. She and Rachel used to be old friends. She knew Rachel very well. The Barron family had been simple for generations. Rachel was both snobbish and wanted to have grandchildren. She had come up with a vicious plan to deal with her and Shannon. She asked Riya, the nanny of the Barron family, to secretly take medicine for Amber so that she could not get engaged.

Amber had been married to Rodney for two years without any news. He held his grandson in his arms and began to take Amber to the hospital for an examination. Naturally, he wanted to find her, a well-known expert and a good friend.

Because Amber had taken an aphrodisiac, the results of the examination were naturally unable to do so.

There was no way to get engaged, which meant that she could not have a baby. She exaggerated that it was difficult for Amber to get pregnant for the rest of his life.

Rachel, who had been dissatisfied with Amber, was extremely angry when she heard that. Her attitude toward Amber was extremely bad.

Amber swallowed his anger and thought that it was because of his relationship, so he looked around for the treatment method actively.

Wu Yuzhen was worried that other hospitals would find out Amber's real situation. After discussing it with Shannon, they decided to give Amber a warm-up surgery and stop her from getting pregnant.

The servants of the Barron family, Riya, were stunned by Amber when he was not at home. They secretly arranged for someone to perform an operation for Amber.

After they cleaned up the administrative department, they stopped drugging Amber. Later, Amber went to other hospitals for several tests, but they used various means to switch the examination report, so that Amber did not know his physical condition at all.

Those bitches thought that she would never have a baby in her life, so they began to actively think of ways to help Celia and Rodney get along with each other.

All the results were carried out according to their expectations. After being pestered by Rachel, Rodney was extremely annoyed and finally agreed to take over the pregnancy.

Celia was successfully pregnant. As long as Celia successfully gave birth to the child, Amber would be kicked out. But at this critical moment, she had a problem with having a child. In the end, after discussing it with Shannon, she decided to expose this relationship to Amber and frame him.

The plan went well. Amber was expelled from his house and left his hometown.

She and Shannon's plan was not an ordinary one. It was difficult but the medicine was going to be done soon. She didn't expect such a thing to happen after the engagement. Amber and Channing had just reconciled, and she didn't expect that Channing would be investigated.

Rachel wanted to change her mind not because Celia was the daughter of the mistress, but because Channing had just lost his power.

However, she still had a trump card in her hand right now. That was the genius designer, Issac'er, who was pretending to be Ashton.

Rachel would definitely change her mind as long as she had a picture of the arena designed by Issac.

She had to ask Ashton about the Forging Design. As long as she got the Forging Design, she could negotiate with Rachel in this way. Rachel only cared about profit. She would never give up such a big fat.

Thinking of this, Itzel went to find Ashton. Ashton was very cold to see her. He did not say much and directly took out the drawings and gave them to her.

Itzel was very happy to get the drawings. She pretended to thank Ashton and left.

With this money, Itzel calmed down a little. When she got home, she began to calculate. This drawing was just a chip, not all. Rachel was too snobbish. She changed her mind at will. This time, she must plan carefully and not make any mistakes.

After seeing Amber wearing the same jade pendant as herself, Kelsey firmly believed that her background must have something to do with Amber. Rodney had the same idea as her. Naturally, the investigation began from Ashley.

It took Rodney a lot of effort to find out the origin of Ashley. His mother was remarried, and his clansmen raised her and Ashton. Later, after the death of the people who raised Ashley and Ashton, they were adopted by a kind-hearted person and lived in the Parkview Street. Therefore, Rodney and Kelsey went to the Parkview Street to investigate.

Ashley and Ashton were adopted by the servants ordered by Johnson to live in the cat's alley. Although they lived in the cat's alley and did not have much contact with the people around them, the people in the cat's alley knew little about them.

Everyone only remembered that Ashley was admitted to college and married an official. Later, she settled down and took her younger brother's adoptive father away. As for where she went, there were many different opinions. Some said that she lived in a house in another place in South City, and some said that she was taken to another city.

Rodney guessed that Ashley did not take her brother and adoptive father away at that time. Instead, she settled down in the tube-shaped building, so Ashton had been living in the tube-shaped building all the time.

However, there was a clue that more than 20 years ago, Ashley had lived in Parkview Street for a period of time. At that time, it was winter. She was dressed in thick clothes and looked fat. Usually, she had no contact with others except for a flower.

The flower was Shannon's nickname. The person who provided the clue took Itzel as Ashley. Itzel looked like Ashley. They didn't have much contact with others, so the person who provided the clue regarded Itzel as Ashley.

At this time, wasn't Ashley married to Channing? Why did she go back to the cat's alley? Was she pregnant?

Rodney found it unbelievable. According to his calculations, Amber was already several years old at this time. Why did Ashley leave her daughter and husband behind and return to the cat's alley for such a long time?

The most important thing was that according to the time, Shannon was already pregnant with Celia at this time, and Kelsey was about the same age as Celia. Did Ashley come back to the cat's alley to have a baby at this time?

However, Ashley had a good relationship with Shannon. Since they were both pregnant at the same time, how could they not know about the baby in Shannon's belly?

It was Channing who gave birth to Shannon's child, which was also the reason why Ashley became so close to Shannon.

This matter was very strange. Wasn't the person who returned to the cat's alley Ashley? But who could it be?

Rodney and Kelsey's investigation in Parkview Street had not made any substantial progress, but Deon had found a lot of news about Ashley's mother and Johnson.

After Ashley's mother married Johnson, she had a daughter named Queena. Later, Johnson and Ashley's mother both passed away. Queena and her brother, Issac, were missing.

Deon put Itzel's and Issac'er's photos in front of Rodney. "Why does Issac'er look exactly like Ashton? And Queena, don't you think she's very similar to Dr. Lott?"

Rodney took the photo and was shocked. Although the photo had been taken for a long time and looked a little yellow, the person in the photo was very clear. That Issac young master did look the same as the current Ashton, while Queena and Itzel looked very much alike.

"What's going on?" Rodney couldn't figure it out. He couldn't figure out the relationship between Ashton and Issac, but he had a big guess about how he and Ashley had lived in the cat's alley that year.

At that time, the person who lived in the Parkview Street and Shannon were not Ashley, but Queena. If this inference was true, then Queena might be Kelsey's mother.

Rodney and Deon were discussing this matter. Zico, the designer he invited, came in to talk to Rodney about something. He glanced at the photo in front of Rodney and couldn't help but let out a cry of surprise. "Isn't this D threatened? Did you find him?"

Rodney was stunned. "What did you say?" Of course, he had heard of the name "Ding" before. When he suddenly heard Zico's words, he was quite surprised.

Zico picked up the photo and looked at it. He told Rodney with certainty, "This is the genius designer, D! I saw him when I went to study in France."

"D*mn, aren't you a French?"

"Just like you, I thought he was French. Later, I learned that he was not a native, but his identity has always been kept secret. Very few media magazines can see his photos. I only saw him at a children's party. He was in a hurry and left a few minutes later. I saw that the French at the party were very polite to him. Later, I inquired about him in private and found out that he was a D."

"Do you know his native name?"

"I don't know." Zico shook his head.

Zico left after talking to Rodney. Rodney waved to Deon to come over. "Did you find out that he studied in France when you investigated him?"

Deon nodded. "Yes, I haven't had time to report."

Rodney rubbed his brows. This matter was too strange. Ashton was Issac'er? Then where had the real Ashton gone?

"Is Issac D? Why is he so incredible? In my impression, Ashton has always been so obedient and honest. How could he have anything to do with a genius designer?"

Rodney pondered for a moment and asked Deon to call the French translator of the company. He asked the French translator to call Ashton in French. The phone was soon connected. The interpreter asked in French instead, "Excuse me, are you Mr. Mason?"

Ashton replied in French, "No, you hit the wrong person!"

The interpreter said sorry in French and hung up the phone. Beside him, Rodney and Deon clearly heard Ashton's French answer. He waved his hand to motion for the interpreter to go out.

Ashton had dropped out of school after graduating from junior high school. He knew very well that this Ashton was a fake. Why did Issac Shao have to disguise himself as Ashton?

"Does Amber know about this?"

Rodney thought for a while and called Kelsey in. Now he was sure that Ashton was Issac. However, he was not sure whether Itzel was the same person as Queena. In that case, he might as well ask Kelsey to meet Itzel and ask her about the jade pendant in person.

Amber had a meal with Noemi at noon, so they met Kelsey in the restaurant. When she saw Amber, she took the initiative to come over and say hello. She reached out to greet the smiling man. Amber was also very polite to her. After exchanging a few words of greetings, Kelsey entered the private room.

When Amber opened the door, he glanced inside and found that the person Kelsey saw was an old acquaintance, Itzel, who once treated her stomach disease.

Strangely, why would Itzel meet Kelsey? Could it be that Kelsey's purpose in seeing her was also to treat her stomach disease?

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 135

7 minutes read

Kelsey closed the door of the private room and sat opposite Itzel. Itzel's face darkened. "Miss, what can I do for you?"

Kelsey looked at Itzel and bit her lip. The woman in front of her resembled her a little bit. She did not know why she had a faint look of expectation in her heart, hoping that she was her mother.

Itzel hated Kelsey. Rachel had said that she wanted Kelsey to have a baby with Rodney, and Kelsey had a close relationship with Rodney, which made her uncomfortable when she saw Kelsey. Her tone was also very unpleasant.

"I..." Kelsey took out a Guanyin jade pendant from her pocket and placed it on the table. "Do you know this jade pendant?"

Itzel's expression changed when she saw the jade pendant. She picked it up and looked at it carefully. "Why is this with you?"

"Is it yours?" Kelsey looked eagerly at Itzel.

"Yes!" Itzel picked up the jade pendant. "This is my family's jade pendant. My mother left it for me. I accidentally lost it back then, but why was it here with you?"

"This jade pendant was given to my adoptive parents by the orphanage's yard. She said that this jade pendant was given to me by the person who gave it to me to keep. She said that this was my mother's stuff. As long as I find the owner of this jade pendant, I can find my mother... I have been looking for this jade pendant for so many years... Mother! I finally found you!" Kelsey's eyes were full of tears, and she choked with sobs.

Itzel looked at Kelsey in surprise, and a memory flashed across her mind. In the middle of the winter night, a woman in a thick cotton-padded jacket handed a newborn baby to a shrewd man. "Take this little bastard away immediately! Send him as far as possible!"

The man reached out to take the baby and disappeared in the cold night. After that night, her jade pendant disappeared. She always thought that it was lost by accident, but she didn't expect that it was taken away. Itzel hated him so much. "Damn man, how could he do this to me! How could he make such a big mess for me? What should I do now?"

Kelsey was still crying on the opposite side, but Itzel's heart had already passed a few corners. The person in front of her was a problem. Would she admit it or not?

Looking at her like this, if she didn't admit it, she would definitely keep looking for it. The paper couldn't cover the fire, and it would be bad if the matter of that year was exposed.

However, there was always a knot in her heart. Looking at Kelsey's delicate and beautiful face, and thinking of the ambiguous relationship between her and Rodney, since this little enemy came to her, she must have done an investigation. She had no choice but to admit it. Itzel gritted her teeth in the bottom of her heart and decided to admit it. Maybe she could help in the future.

Thinking of this, her face immediately showed sadness, and her beautiful big eyes also burst into tears. "My child, my poor child! It was my mother's fault to send you to the orphanage, but I had no choice!"

She held Kelsey in her arms and said, "An unmarried woman like me couldn't live with a child. I had no choice, so I had to send you to the orphanage. I went back to look for you. Later, I heard that you were adopted!"

She did not lie. She had secretly visited the orphanage after hearing that the child had been sent to the orphanage. Later, when she heard that the child had been adopted, she suddenly felt relieved and never thought about it again.

"My adoptive parents have all passed away. When they died, they told me the truth and asked me to use this jade pendant to find my biological mother... I... I didn't expect that I could really find you!"

Kelsey was really happy. Although Itzel left her in the orphanage without asking, she always believed that she had her own difficulties. She was really happy to find her birth mother.

However, Itzel's thoughts were different from hers. This Kelsey was destined to be a problem. She had to think of a way to deal with it so as not to cause more trouble in the future. The two of them each had their own thoughts and hugged each other while crying.

Amber and Noemi received a call from Rodney when they were eating. He asked her where she was, what she ate with Noemi, and what she ate. She was as long-winded as an old woman. Amber was so annoyed by her.

It was said that the IQ of a woman in love was zero, but if these words were used on a man, he would be in such a situation. He was worried about gains and losses every day, and he was in a dilemma every day.

He always felt that there was a reason why Amber suddenly changed his attitude toward him, but he couldn't find a reason. To be honest, he was afraid that all the beauty now was just an illusion. He was afraid that when he opened the door one day, he would find that Amber would disappear like before.

Every time he went out in the morning, he would remind Amber not to miss him. When he was at work, he did not forget to call her and ask where she was. When he came home in the evening, he would be Amber. Did you miss me?

Amber himself felt that Rodney was very strange. After hanging up the phone, she sighed and said, "Do you think he's pretending? Is it necessary to be so disgusting?"

Noemi smiled and said, "Don't ask me this kind of question because I don't have any love experience, but I think most of it is due to Rodney's disguise. I haven't seen him think much of you since we were separated for three years. Why are you suddenly so reluctant? It's not normal to think about it..."

Amber nodded. "That's what I'm thinking as well. I'm just wondering why he's putting on an act. Is that really necessary?"

"I haven't finished my words yet. I mean, Rodney's current performance is either pretending, or he really loves you. Only you can figure out this question by yourself. I, an outsider, can't give you an answer."

Amber glared at her. "I don't have time to figure this out. I have to hurry up and get pregnant in this week or so."

"In fact, sometimes I think that Rodney is a good person, but it's very bad for him to have such a disgusting mother."

"Don't mention it. As the saying goes, being bitten by a snake for ten years is like being afraid of a well. When I thought of the situation back then, I still felt a little flustered. Why did you say that I was so stupid back then? What about a single-minded person?" Amber couldn't believe his own eyes when he thought of the grievances he had suffered in the past.

“That’s because you love him. When a woman is in love, her IQ is zero. Your heart belongs to him, so you naturally forget yourself. You only want to think for him, so you can also bear those tortures for him.” Noemi sighed. “Amber, do you really not love Rodney at all? Don’t you love him at all?”

“I don’t have time to think about this!” Amber replied.

“You must think about this!” Noemi reminded him. “Amber, now it’s not just Mel’s problem. If there’s a problem with the second child, don’t you want the two children to have no fatherly love?”

“As long as Mel’s illness is cured, I will consider finding a father for them.”

“The love of your own father is completely different from the love of your step-father. Amber, if Rodney truly loves you, you can start over with him. Even if it’s for the sake of your child, you should think of him first. Of course, the premise is that he loves you and has no purpose.”

Amber was silent. Noemi was right. The love of her biological father was completely different from the love of her step-father. Thinking of Mel’s eager expression for her father’s love, her heart sank.

She hated Rodney, but when he told her the truth, she suddenly found that the way she dealt with things at that time was too extreme. She couldn’t rule out the reason for her and Rodney’s current situation.

When she saw Celia holding the pregnancy test sheet and telling her that she was pregnant and that she was Rodney’s child, her heart was completely filled with anger and hatred.

Celia’s mother seduced her father, and now Celia came to seduce her man. Amber could not accept it. The pain of being unable to get pregnant for a long time and the pain of being betrayed swallowed her heart. That was why she was so crazy and irrational.

As a result, after Rodney’s lawyer had appeared with the divorce agreement and given such harsh conditions, she had signed the divorce without even considering it.

Generally speaking, couples would quarrel when they got divorced. However, she did not give a single word of explanation to him, nor did she need an explanation. Just like that, she was supported by hatred as she left him.

Over the years, the hurdle that she had always been unable to overcome in her heart was how could Rodney betray her. However, the truth of the matter now might have been her fault for blaming him. If that was the case, then there was no need for her hatred and persistence back then.

Noemi was right. She should really think about her, Rodney, and the future of the child.

Noemi left after receiving a call from the TV station. Amber sat in the private room for a while before leaving. When he passed by the door of the private room where Kelsey had just entered, he heard a suppressed cry coming from inside. Amber stopped subconsciously. If she heard correctly, it was not only Kelsey who was crying inside, but Itzel was also crying. What happened?

Amber didn't want to eavesdrop and just felt that the crying inside was too strange. She didn't expect to hear Kelsey call Itzel's mother. Amber was shocked and left the restaurant in a hurry.

On the way back, Amber had been muttering in his heart. She had often dealt with Itzel in the past and knew that she had always been single. It was really surprising for her to suddenly have a daughter.

Thinking of the relationship between Itzel and Reece, Amber was shocked. "Is Kelsey the daughter of Reece and Itzel? If so, isn't she Elliot's half-sister?"

"Should I tell Elliot about this?"

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 136

8 minutes read

In the evening, Rodney came back a little earlier than usual. He found that he had a lot of questions to ask Amber, but he didn't know how to answer them.

Ashley's mother had been remarried and married to Issac's father. Although Issac had nothing to do with Amber, he was Amber's uncle according to his seniority. Thinking that he and Amber knew little about her in the past five years, Rodney felt sad.

Before the wedding, he had asked about Amber's family. She said that his father and mother were dead, and he had no doubt that there was only one uncle. Now that he thought about it, he could not blame Amber for not telling her. At that time, he only knew that he was with her and did not care about what she was thinking at all. It was no wonder that Amber would hide his thoughts in his heart.

Rodney was conflicted. Finally, when he was strolling with Amber after dinner, he began to ask tentatively, “Amber, is there any other siblings in your mother’s mother other than your uncle?”

Amber was stunned. “No, I don’t think so!”

Since she could remember, she knew that there was only one uncle. Other children would go back to her grandmother’s house with their parents during the holidays. She was also very envious at that time, so she asked her mother this question. Her mother told her that both her grandfather and grandmother were dead. Later, she also took her back to the South City to visit the grave, but she only saw her grandfather’s grave.

She once asked where her mother’s and grandmother’s grave was, but her mother didn’t answer. Seeing her mother’s angry look, she didn’t dare to ask again.

She had never asked about how many siblings her mother had. In her impression, Ashton was the only uncle. At that time, the relationship between her uncle and her mother was not very good.

Her mother rarely took her back to see her uncle, but her uncle always remembered her. He often asked someone to bring delicious food to her, and also bought gifts for her on the New Year’s Day.

Channing seemed to dislike Ashton very much. In her impression, Channing had never mentioned her uncle, so she guessed that the relationship between her mother and her uncle at that time should have something to do with her father.

Later, her mother died in a car accident, and her uncle, Ashton, appeared in her life.

At that time, it was his uncle who dealt with the funeral for his mother. Channing had just had a meeting in a foreign place. When he heard that his mother had rushed back because of something, his uncle had already burned his mother.

It was the first time that she had seen Ashton get angry. Her eyes were red as she punched and kicked at Channing. Channing had been beaten black and blue. She didn't have many interactions with Ashton. On the contrary, she had a deep affection for Channing. But that day, when she saw Ashton hitting Channing, she didn't hate him at all.

Later, when Ashton wanted to take her away, Channing did not allow it. She remembered that Channing had warned Ashton viciously, "Don't force me! Let me expose your past and it's not good for everyone!"

Later, Ashton gave up taking her away, but told her, "Uncle has been in the tube-shaped building in the South City. When he misses you, he will come back to see you. He will often come to see you in the future."

Later, Shannon appeared with Celia. Looking at the several-year-old Celia, Amber finally understood his uncle's anger. She didn't want such a shameless father, so she resolutely left Channing and returned to Ashton's side.

Now Rodney suddenly asked what he wanted to do with these questions. He was not bored. There must be a reason to ask. Amber asked again, "Why are you asking this?"

"I don't want to do anything. I just want your mother to die early. You were still young at that time. You don't know if you have other relatives..."

"Other relatives?" Amber stopped and looked at Rodney. "I only have one uncle. I've never heard of any other relatives."

"Could it be that your mother didn't tell you?" Rodney probed.

Amber glared at him. "What do you mean? It's a good thing that I have other relatives. Why didn't my mother tell me?"

Amber's question made Rodney speechless for a moment. He suddenly realized a problem. Ashton was Issac's son, so Amber's mother must know about it. What was the reason why she didn't tell Amber? Was it because Amber was too young or did he have other considerations?

If it wasn't a good thing that Ashton was the son of Issac, then Amber's mother had her reason for choosing not to tell her daughter. She didn't want to affect her daughter. If that was the case, would it be appropriate for him to tell Ashton that he was the son of Issac?

The key point was that this matter had not been confirmed yet. It was still too early to say this now. It was better to wait for Kelsey and Itzel to meet and see the result.

As for why the matter of Issac shaoye becoming Ashton was so strange? This matter still needed to be investigated carefully before making a decision.

After Kelsey and Itzel recognized each other, they hugged each other and cried. Kelsey was so happy that she cried, while Itzel was acting. She soon stopped crying and tried to persuade Kelsey not to cry.

After the two stopped crying, Itzel began to explain to Kelsey that she had no other choice. At a young age, she was forced to be pointed at. Later, she was pregnant and could not bear to have an innocent child, so she chose to give birth. However, it was very difficult for an unmarried woman to take the child, so she sent her to the orphanage. Anyway, she was saying how she had no choice and asked Kelsey to forgive her.

After Kelsey forgiven her, she asked again how Kelsey had been through these years. Kelsey naturally told her everything that had happened these years. Itzel had no interest in Kelsey's life these years. She just wanted to ask about how Kelsey had found her from the side.

When Itzel found out that Kelsey had started searching for her because of the jade pendant that Amber was wearing, she was shocked. It was not a good thing to be found out by Rodney. She made a few turns in her heart and then made a request to Kelsey.

It was said that she had been forced to do this at the beginning, which would affect her reputation. She begged Kelsey not to reveal the fact that she was a mother and a daughter, even if it was Rodney.

Kelsey hesitated. Rodney was so kind to her that she didn't want to lie to him. Itzel could tell that she was hesitating. She told Kelsey that she was a friend of Rodney's mother and that no one knew that she was forced to get pregnant before getting married. If she told Rodney about this and he wasn't paying attention to Rachel, she wouldn't be able to lift her head anymore.

It was cruel for Kelsey to work hard to find her mother, but she couldn't make her relationship public. It was just that she was a kind person. She didn't want to find her mother for anything else. She just wanted to fulfill her wish. Kelsey knew that Itzel was not an ordinary doctor now. She was an expert on TV often. Thinking that it was not easy for a woman to get her current position, she chose to agree.

When the two of them walked out of the restaurant, they realized that it was already late Club Cobalt. Itzel had repeatedly instructed Kelsey not to tell Rodney about her relationship with him before breaking up.

On the way back, Itzel began to plan in her heart. It was a big problem for Kelsey to stay in South City. She had to find a way to keep her far away. However, she would never appear in South City, and Celia could not delay any longer. She had to make a quick decision, so she immediately went to find Rachel.

Rachel was surprised to see Rachel at this time. "What happened?"

"I saw Shannon in the hospital yesterday and talked about Rodney and Celia while chatting. Shannon told me something. I thought about it and decided to tell you."

"What did she say?" Rachel was naturally interested.

"I said you went back on your word, didn't keep your word, and treated the engagement as a child's play. Fortunately, she didn't choose to believe you."

Hearing this, Rachel was furious. "Isn't this caused by her daughter? What does it have to do with me?"

"Don't be angry. Let me finish." Itzel knew Rachel's temper. "The most important thing is not that Shannon said you didn't like credit, but about the sports meeting. I heard from Shannon that she had a card up her sleeve."

"You've held back a trick?"

"When Amber came back, she didn't want Rodney to see her change of mind, so she left a hand in the matter of the sports meeting to prevent you from going back on your word. I didn't expect you to use it now." Itzel was good at lying.

"What can Shannon do?" Rachel was suspicious.

"Don't look down on Shannon. She is so capable. I think she wants me to tell you this. After all, she knows that I have a good relationship with you."

“What does she mean?”

“Shannon is disappointed with Rodney, but Celia likes him. She has no choice. Shannon means that if you can let Rodney and Celia be together, she will find a way to leave the bid for the sports meeting to the Barron Enterprises.”

“I knew it. They said that it was fair competition. It turned out that they had kept it a long time ago.” Rachel was furious when she heard that.

“This is also human nature. The bidding of the sports meeting is not a small matter. Think about it. There are so many companies looking at you covetously. Many companies are lining up to give you gifts. If you are not sincere, how could they give you for free?” Itzel analyzed. “You are also on your guard against them. It’s normal for them to guard against you.”

“It’s normal for them to guard against me. I have to guard against them. Who knows if what she said is true?”

“That’s simple. According to my suggestion that day, you should find a way to let Rodney and Celia be together to show your attitude. Shannon is naturally relieved.”

“It’s just that Rodney doesn’t listen to me now. Look, he’s not back at home right now. What can I do?”

“If he doesn’t usually go home, won’t you go home on your birthday?” Itzel reminded him. “This Monday is your birthday. When he comes back, you can create an opportunity to let Celia and Rodney be together. As for the future, it depends on her luck.”

“Will it work?”

“Why not? Anyway, if you don’t suffer any losses, you can get the money for the sports meeting in vain. As for the future, if Celia can get pregnant, you can marry her. If you can’t get pregnant, you don’t have to worry. Anyway, if you try your best, Shannon can’t do anything to you.”

Rachel thought for a moment and said, “That’s a good idea.”

Hearing that she agreed, Itzel fell to the ground. Rachel was the only one who could help. As long as she could create an opportunity for Rodney and Celia to live in the same room, even if Rodney did not touch Celia, she would have a way to make Celia pregnant with Rodney's child.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 137

8 minutes read

Rodney was asleep, but Amber was quietly thinking about something. Why was Rodney's question so strange tonight? Why did he ask about his mother? What did he want to know? Or did he already know something?

Ever since she was sensible, her mother had always been reluctant to mention her grandmother in front of her. She had always said lightly that her grandmother was dead. But since her grandmother was dead, why was there no grave?

Could it be that his mother was lying? Did his grandmother actually not die? That was why Rodney came to ask him what he had heard? It was just that this matter had nothing to do with him. His mother was dead, and his uncle was the only relative. As for these things, only his uncle knew them. Amber decided to go back and ask his uncle Ashton.

The next day, Amber returned to Ashton's residence and chatted with him about other things. She quickly asked her own question. "Uncle, I have a question to ask you. Did Grandpa and Grandma only give birth to you and Mom?"

Ashton was stunned and nodded.

"I heard that my mom and grandma died when you were very young. You and mom were raised by a kind-hearted person, but my mom and I went to my grandpa's grave. Why didn't my grandma's grave?"

Ashton was silent. Amber saw that he was silent and asked tentatively, "Is Grandma still alive?"

Ashton shook his head. "She's dead."

"Then why didn't you bury her beside Grandpa?"

"This... is because... because she got married later."

"Grandma got married again? Who is she going to marry?"

“It seems that she married a man surnamed Wu. I don’t know the details. At that time, my uncle and your mother were very young. Later, they moved away, so we don’t know much about her.”

Amber understood a little. It turned out that her grandmother abandoned her young daughter to get married after her grandfather’s death, so her mother hated her grandmother for not mentioning it at all. “How can grandma be so cruel?”

Ashton wanted to explain, but he didn’t know how to explain it. If he put in a good word for his stepmother, Amber would definitely keep asking about it. In this way, some things would inevitably be made up. However, he didn’t want to let Amber misunderstand his stepmother. In fact, her stepmother was a good woman, and she was forced to do so at that time!

Seeing that her uncle was silent, Amber asked again, “Grandma must have given birth to a baby after getting married, right? So, in this world, I actually have other relatives?”

“Amber, are you looking forward to having other relatives?”

“Of course, it’s better to have relatives than to be alone and helpless. Uncle, if you can find other children of Grandma, will you reconcile with them?”

“I don’t know. Maybe!” Ashton looked at the time. “It’s almost noon. Uncle’s going to buy vegetables and cook for you. What would you like to eat today?”

“I’ll go with uncle.”

“No, you stay at home. My uncle will be back soon.” Looking at his uncle’s hurried figure, Amber felt a little strange. “Why do I feel that something is wrong with my uncle?”

Ashton walked out of the room and frowned. Sure enough, there was no such thing as an impenetrable wall in the world. Amber must have heard something when he came to ask him these questions.

Was he going to tell Amber the truth? If he knew that it wasn’t Ashton but Issac didn’t know what Amber would think?

It was not about his identity, but that he was worried about Itzel's nonsense. Although Itzel was his half-sister, her character was very bad. It would not be a good thing for Amber if she slandered him.

The wind never stopped. Did he only want to live a peaceful life and finish his life? Ashton heaved a long sigh. No matter what, he had to think of a solution. If it didn't work, then he would take Amber and leave South City!

Ever since he had quarreled with his mother and left that day, Rodney had never returned home. Not only did he not make any calls to Rachel.

His ruthlessness made Rachel very angry. This was a typical example of having a woman who didn't want a mother. Her filial son was ruined by Amber, the vixen. She couldn't let the vixen enter her house again, so she agreed with Itzel's suggestion.

She did this not only because of the sports meeting, but also because she wanted to make Amber sad. She wanted to let her know that she would never win the battle.

Tomorrow was Rachel's birthday. Every year, she would celebrate her birthday. Rodney had already begun to prepare for it, but this year, there was no movement at all. He even forgot his own birthday. Rachel was so angry that she asked the auntie to call Rodney to remind him that it was her birthday tomorrow.

After Rodney answered the phone and promised to come back tomorrow, Rachel was relieved. She called Celia again and asked her to come over for dinner tomorrow night. She also invited several friends who had a good relationship with her.

Because he had to go home to celebrate his mother's birthday, Rodney told Amber in advance that he would meet the Barron family to celebrate his mother's birthday in the evening and would not come back for dinner.

Amber didn't comment on his return for dinner. Rodney had wanted to bring Amber home for dinner, but when he saw that Amber had nothing to do with it, he had no choice but to swallow his words.

Amber wasn't the Amber he used to be. He wouldn't lower himself like he used to be, and his mother wasn't a good person either.

Although he would not embarrass Amber in front of guests, he would definitely not say something nice. It would be difficult to deal with it when the time came. Therefore, he could not be in a hurry. He would talk about it when there was a chance in the future.

When Rodney returned to the Barron family's house, the guests that should have arrived had all arrived. Celia had also arrived. When she saw Celia, Rodney's brows furrowed slightly.

He called her and asked her to meet him every day. She said that she didn't have any spare time, but she was able to find time to celebrate her mother's birthday. Sima Zhao knew very well what she was thinking. He couldn't help but feel a little disgusted by Celia.

Celia saw Rodney and quickly came over to explain, "Dad is out of the hospital today."

She was explaining why she had time to attend Rachel's birthday party. Hearing her explanation, Rodney felt more comfortable. Since Channing had been discharged from the hospital, Celia had no reason to refuse to meet him. He had to make things clear with Celia and ask Channing to make it clear.

The dinner party was about the family banquet. Those who came were all Rachel's best friends. When they saw Celia, they all showed a well-known smile. They had a happy meal. Because it was Rachel's birthday, Rachel drank a lot of wine. Finally, she couldn't hold it anymore and asked her son, Rodney, to help her return the toast.

Therefore, Rodney drank a round of wine. After the meal, he also drank a lot of wine. Although the alcohol was not very high, he still felt a little headache. After the banquet, most of the guests said goodbye and left.

Only Itzel and Celia had not left yet. Seeing that her son was drunk, Rachel asked her son to go back to his room to rest and gave Celia a wink. Celia's heart beat fast, and she was very happy. Tonight was a good opportunity for her. Thinking of what would happen in the meeting, her face couldn't help but turn red.

Rodney staggered upstairs. It didn't take long for Rodney to enter the room. Rachel motioned for Riya to prepare the soup for Rodney to sober up. She asked Itzel in a low voice, "Is that medicine harmful to your body?"

“No, it’s just an aphrodisiac. Didn’t you say that Rodney has no interest in other women? If he’s not interested in it, he’ll be interested as well.” Itzel also lowered her voice.

Riya brought out the soup. Rachel went to her son’s room with the soup. Hearing the sound, Rodney opened his eyes. Rachel went to the bed and handed the soup to her son. “Rodney, drink this soup.”

Rodney didn’t say anything as he took the soup from his mother and drank it up. Seeing his son finish the soup, Rachel came out with an empty bowl in satisfaction.

“Have you drunk all of them?” Itzel asked worriedly.

“Drink it.”

“In about ten minutes, Celia will go up.” Itzel looked at Celia. Celia blushed and lowered her head to sit on the sofa in the living room. Rachel and Itzel sat beside her and taught her how to stay there.

Just as they were talking, the sound of cars came from outside. Soon, the door was pushed open. Rodney’s special assistant, Deon, strode in. He greeted the women in the living room very politely. “I’m here to pick up Mr. Barron.”

“What’s the matter at this time?” Rachel’s intuition told her that something bad was going to happen. She hurriedly got up to stop him. “Rodney is drunk and is lying on the bed. Don’t disturb him and let him rest.”

“I’m sorry, Madam. This is an important matter. I must take Mr. Barron away.” Deon’s attitude was neither servile nor overbearing.

“If I say I can’t, then I can’t! Rodney must stay tonight. You should leave now. If he blames you, I will bear the responsibility.” Rachel was unhappy.

“I’m sorry, Madam. Please forgive me for not obeying your orders. I’m Mr. Barron’s assistant and I’m at his disposal.”

“You’re just an assistant hired by Rodney. To put it nicely, you’re an assistant, but to put it bluntly, you’re just a servant. What right do you have to refute me?” Rachel was annoyed when she saw that Deon didn’t give her face.

Deon smiled faintly and was not angry at her insult. "Madam is right. I am indeed a servant hired by Mr. Barron, but as a servant, I am only loyal to my master. Madam is not my master, so I can't listen to your words!"

After that, he moved over to Rachel and went upstairs. Seeing that Deon was going to go upstairs, Rachel was anxious and reached out to stop him. "This is my home. Did I agree to let you go upstairs?"

"As long as I agree!" A cold voice sounded. The people downstairs looked up and saw that Rodney had walked out of the door and was standing on the second floor looking down at them.

"Rodney, it wasn't easy for you to come back. Can't you stay at home for one night?"

"No!" Rodney went downstairs and stumbled. Deon immediately went up to hold him. "Mr. Barron, are you all right?"

"You've come at the right time. Nothing will happen if you're here," Rodney replied.

Seeing Deon holding Rodney downstairs, Rachel and Itzel looked at each other. They knew that their plan would not succeed today. They were a little angry and anxious. "Rodney, it's my mother's birthday today. Can you bear to leave me alone at home?"

Rodney felt as if there was a fire burning in his chest. He ignored Rachel and ordered Deon, "Let's go. Let's leave now."

"Rodney, you can't leave Mom alone!" Rachel saw that her son's face was flushed red. She knew that the drug had taken effect. If she could keep her son here for a while longer, maybe...

Rodney looked at his mother with a sneer. "Mom, I have to leave tonight! Even God can't control me!"

Deon strode through the living room with the help of Rodney. Looking at the blushing Celia in the living room, Rodney stopped and said, "Ms. Black, don't you want your shame?"

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 138

9 minutes read

Celia's flushed face instantly turned as pale as snow. Rodney sneered and said, "Tomorrow, I will personally go to the Black family to explain our affairs to Mr. Black and Mrs. Black."

Deon held Rodney and strode to the car outside. He started the car quickly. Rodney unbuttoned the button of his collar and ordered Deon to take a cold breath, but the hot feeling still did not ease.

He came back tonight to celebrate his mother's birthday. He didn't intend to stay overnight. When he came, he told Deon that he must come to pick him up Club Cobalt. He was not afraid that his mother would play tricks on him, but he didn't want Amber to stay alone.

But she didn't expect that her mother had such an idea. At the banquet just now, she clearly knew that her stomach was not good, but she still asked her to drink. She must have some ideas.

However, he was not worried. Anyway, Deon came to save the car, so he did not refuse. After drinking the sober-up soup that his mother gave him that night, he began to feel hot and dry in his chest. Rodney had a bad intuition.

Therefore, when he got up from the bed and saw his mother stopping Deon and Celia sitting in the living room, he knew what his mother wanted to do, no matter how stupid he was.

He was extremely disappointed, and he hated Celia even more. In the past, she had said that she had no choice but to give birth to a child on behalf of her parents and that she wanted Amber to be happy. But now, why did she do this?

Even though she knew that she loved Amber, she was still willing to do such a nasty thing. Her character was obvious.

The driver quickly parked the car at the entrance of the Scent Villa and helped Rodney into the villa in a hurry. Amber heard the noise and came out of the upstairs. When he saw Rodney's flushed face, he was very surprised. "What's wrong?"

"Let Mr. Barron explain. I'll take my leave first!" After saying that, Deon immediately left.

Amber reached out to hold Rodney. "Have you drunk a lot of wine?"

“Amber, I miss you!” Rodney reached out to hug her soft waist and kissed Amber’s lips fiercely. His big hands were not idle, and he tore off her clothes in a few moves.

Amber couldn’t make a sound after being blocked by him, so he had to reach out to push him. However, she was no match for Rodney, who was caught in the fire. Soon, he stripped her nd and threw her onto the sofa.

He crazily asked for it from her body. This night was destined to be full of love.

After Deon helped Rodney to leave, Celia stood where she was with a pale face. She had gone for wool and came home shorn. This was what she was feeling right now.

Rodney’s mocking tone and disgusted eyes made her feel cold in the bottom of her heart. Her good image that she had hidden for so many years had been destroyed. It was over! Despair rose from the bottom of her heart. She no longer had the face to stay here. She rushed out of the Barron family without saying a word.

“Celia!” Itzel was worried that she would follow them out, so she stopped Celia outside the villa. “Think about it. It’s not the end.”

“It’s all your fault!” Celia glared at Itzel. “If it weren’t for your stupid idea, would I have done that? I hate you so much!”

“I...”

“You can’t do anything! Get out of my way!” Anyway, there was no image left, and Celia didn’t want to pretend to be gentle and kind, or a lady. She pushed Itzel away, got in the car, and drove away from the Barron family.

Shannon was waiting for the news at home, full of hope. Just when she was anxious, Itzel called her. “The matter did not succeed and was discovered by Rodney. Celia is very angry. You must remember to comfort her and prevent her from doing extreme things.”

Her words made Shannon’s hope drop in an instant. After hanging up the phone, she immediately called her daughter, but no one answered. Was there anything wrong?

Shannon was nervous. How could she stay at home? She was worried that something would happen to her daughter, so she hurried out of the house. On the road in front of the Black family's villa, Shannon continued to call her daughter while looking around.

No one answered the phone. Shannon was so worried that something bad would happen to her daughter, wouldn't it?

In her anxiety, Celia's car finally appeared in her sight. Shannon was relieved. Celia stopped the car and strode into the villa with a sullen face. She did not stay in the living room and went straight upstairs into her room.

A few minutes later, Shannon trotted in and hurried upstairs. Aunt Maleah stood at the door of the nanny's room and saw everything about the mother and daughter. She seldom saw Shannon and her daughter lose their composure like this. What on earth happened?

Shannon pushed open her daughter's door and asked, "Celia, are you all right?"

"Can it be that nothing happened?" Celia jumped up and shouted at her, "Rodney said that he would come to your house tomorrow to make it clear. Do you know what it means to me?"

"Little ancestor! Keep your voice down. Your father has just fallen asleep. Don't wake him up!"

"Why should I keep my voice down? Anyway, there's no hope between me and Rodney anymore. Since that's the case, why should I let it go? From today onwards, I won't pretend anymore. I want to be myself!"

Celia shouted angrily. Shannon stamped her feet in a hurry and hurried forward to cover her mouth. She lowered her voice and warned, "Have you had enough of your good days?"

"I'm just tired of living!" Celia pushed Shannon's hand away. "Since I can't get Rodney, I won't pretend to be weak anymore. I'm fed up with it!"

Shannon was also angry. "I've advised you to give up Mu. There are so many good men in the world, but you insisted on hanging yourself on a tree. You deserve it!"

“I deserve it! Wasn’t it all because of you that I ended up like this? It was you who said that you would help me get Rodney. It was you who came up with the dirty idea to let me get pregnant on my behalf. It was you who asked me to seduce Rodney tonight. Now, it’s all right. Rodney knows everything. I’m done with him. It’s all over! It’s all because you believe in that Itzel! It’s all because of you!”

Thinking of Rodney’s words and the look in Celia’s eyes before he left, she felt as sad as a cat’s paw in her heart.

“You heartless thing. Did I work so hard to raise you just to hear you complain about me? You still have the nerve to say that. If it weren’t for me, you wouldn’t even be able to touch Rodney’s side!” Shannon was angry when she saw her daughter blame herself.

“I would rather you didn’t give birth to me! You just insisted on being a mistress in a good life, which made me unable to lift my head for the rest of my life. I always feel inferior and have no confidence. It’s all because of you that I became like this!”

“You b*stard. Can’t you live without a man?” Shannon was so angry that she slapped Celia’s face.

“I’m not going to live anymore!” Celia saw Shannon slap her and sit down on the ground. “I’ll die for you!”

“If you want to die, go back to the cat’s alley and die. Don’t dirty this place!”

The words “the cat’s alley” reminded Celia. She suddenly stopped talking. Shannon looked at her coldly and said, “Do you forget your previous hardships after a few years? If you want to go back to the cat’s alley, I won’t stop you. Now get out of here!”

Celia couldn’t say a word for a while. Shannon poked her head with her hand. “Don’t raise your tail to the sky in a few days. If it weren’t for me, you wouldn’t have lived such a good life. How dare you complain that I’m a mistress. If it weren’t for me, you could only stay in the cat’s alley and eat vegetables in this life! You heartless thing! I’m so angry!”

Celia still remembered the days she lived in the cat’s alley. At that time, she lived in a low, damp, and moldy house, wearing clothes full of patches. She ate the most difficult food to swallow, and occasionally ate meat, she was as happy as the Spring Festival.

But now, she lived in a villa, drove a car, and entered a high-end hotel. The friends around her were all from the upper class. In comparison, heaven and hell.

Shannon saw that she didn't speak and continued to scold her. "Do you really think you are the daughter of a rich family? You bastard, don't look at yourself in the mirror, and you dare to challenge me at any time. Are you tired of living? I don't have the final say in this family, but the one below! If the one below sees you like this, you will never be able to turn over in this life. I warn you that in his heart, only the one outside is his treasure. You can't even compare with the one outside!"

"I... I'm sorry!" Celia was immediately awakened by Shannon's scolding. What did she do just now? She even called her mother a mistress and shouted at her father when he was at home.

In this family, only her father had the right to speak. Although her mother and she had been in the limelight all these years, she was clear about the status of their family. Amber could lose his temper at Channing and ridicule him, but she had no right to do so.

From the first day she entered this house, Channing had been very distant from her. He had never felt a father's love for his daughter.

Many times, she even felt that Channing hated her, so she had been trembling in front of him. Her mother had also reminded her several times that she should be docile, kind, and polite in front of Channing. Otherwise, she would annoy him.

She had always followed this rule. Finally, she could make Channing take another look at her. If she really changed her docile and kind heart, would Channing still look at her again? The answer was very clear to Celia.

Shannon said slowly, "The man below is not an ordinary person. He is very cruel! He has ignored his beloved child for so many years, let alone you, an unpopular illegitimate daughter. We are now acting according to other people's expressions. That's why I asked you to curry favor with Rachel and hope that you can dominate your own life, instead of being a subordinate of a man who makes you loyal to him. It's sad that a person can only be a subordinate without self-respect. Even if you can marry someone Rodney, as long as you don't have a good attitude, you are destined to be eliminated. Think about it carefully!"

After Shannon finished lecturing her daughter, she went back to her bedroom. Channing was still reading in bed. When he saw her coming in, he asked lightly, "What happened? Why are you so noisy?"

"Celia was in a bad mood and drank some wine, so she went crazy."

"Are you drunk?" Channing had just put down the book in his hand and looked at Shannon with a disgusted look. "How did you discipline her? Don't you know when it is? Are you happy because you want to make me step down from the stage?"

"Mr. Black, don't be angry. Listen to my explanation. Celia drank more at Rachel's birthday party, not outside."

"To attend Rachel's birthday party? Do you really want to save my face?" Channing gave a sinister smile. Shannon was a little frightened by his smile and continued to explain, "It's Rachel who called to invite Celia. It's not good not to go."

"Not very good? Do you think I am a three-year-old child?" Channing just stared at Shannon. "Someone has wiped your a*s for what you have done before. Now that everything has calmed down, as a mother, what you have to do now is to let Celia give up."

"I know. Celia is usually very sensible and obedient. This time, it's the effect of alcohol. She has a crush on Rodney. I just said it to her."

"She fell in love with you? Don't tell me that Rodney didn't make it clear enough on TV?" Channing sneered. "You should warn her not to daydream about things that she shouldn't have. If she goes on like this, don't blame me for falling out with her!"

Shannon agreed obediently. Her attitude made Channing finally stop talking about this matter. Everything returned to normal. She lay beside Channing and listened to his calm breathing. A sneer appeared on Shannon's face.

“If you can’t bear it, you’ll mess things up. Channing, you’re just a pawn of mine. I’ll pay you back a hundred times over for the humiliation you’ve given me! I swear!”

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 139

8 minutes read

The sky was bright, and Rodney opened his eyes from his deep sleep. Looking at Amber, who was sleeping soundly beside him, he felt distressed and hugged her and planted a kiss on her forehead. “Amber, I’m sorry!”

It wasn’t that he didn’t know how crazy he was last night, but he couldn’t control it at all. He was still in the car with his willpower, but when he saw Amber when he returned home, he couldn’t control it anymore. He rushed to her like a hungry wolf.

He asked for her hard on the sofa, and the raging fire in his body finally went out. He held Amber in his arms and said sorry. He ignored her punches and kicks and took her back to the bedroom. He was going to help her take a bath, but in a few minutes, his desire began to burn again, so he couldn’t control it anymore.

He heard that Amber was begging for mercy, but he couldn’t control it.

There were marks all over Amber’s body. Rodney reached out and gently caressed the kiss marks on her nd neck. His eyes darkened. Did his mother make use of his birthday to seduce him? Was she going to break up with him?

He was not a rebellious person, and he also looked down on rebellious people. He always thought that as a person, if he could not even treat his own parents well, he would lose the capital to be a human being.

He knew his mother’s hard work because he could tolerate her challenging his bottom line again and again. But now, when his mother did such a thing, Rodney was very disappointed.

How could she do such a thing against her moral bottom line? He was very filial, but not stupid. His mother went too far this time, and he would never tolerate her.

There was also Celia. He always thought that Celia was kind, but the word “good” last night was greatly reduced. She kept saying that she wanted to help him and Amber, but at the same time, she colluded with her mother to do this kind of thing.

No matter what kind of difficulties Celia had, knowing that he loved Amber, it was enough to prove how bad her character was if he could not leave Amber.

Thinking that he had felt guilty about her in the past, Rodney felt that he was really too naive. He was very glad that he had kept an eye on her. Otherwise, the relationship between him and Amber would really be desperate.

Amber, who was in his arms, moved and opened his eyes. “Amber, you’re awake!” Rodney’s eyes were full of guilt.

Amber felt pain all over his body. “Rodney, were you out of your mind last night?”

“Amber, I’m sorry!” Rodney apologized.

Amber wanted to scold him, but when he saw the scars on Rodney’s exposed skin, he stopped. Last night, he was so crazy, like a wolf. She was in so much pain that she couldn’t help gasping. Naturally, she had to resist. Rodney’s body was covered with her scratches, and his face was not spared. Looking at the bloody scratches on his face, Amber couldn’t scold him. “What happened last night?”

Rodney sighed. “I drank too much. I’m sorry!” Last night, it was his mother who schemed against him. Amber did not know how much he would despise his mother if he told others about this.

She finally understood why Amber refused to tell her the relationship between her and Channing. To Amber, it was a shame to have a father like Channing, so she would rather hide it than tell him the truth.

Last night, when Rodney came back, he was indeed full of the smell of alcohol, and his consciousness was not clear. Although Amber wondered why he was so drunk, she never dreamed that Rachel would treat her son like this, so she did not doubt it. “Drink less in the future. Your stomach is not good.”

Amber’s concern made Rodney almost burst into tears. He hugged Amber tightly and said, “Don’t worry. I won’t drink so much in the future.”

“Rodney, be gentle. You hurt me.” He exerted too much force and Amber couldn’t help complaining.

“I’m sorry! I was too excited!” Rodney quickly let go of her and couldn’t help but lower his head to kiss her again. “I’m hungry. I’ll make you breakfast.”

“Forget it. I’ll make it.” Amber got up. Rodney suspected that he had heard wrongly. He stared at Amber in a daze. Amber glared at him. “What are you looking at? Are you so surprised that I made breakfast for you?”

“I’m not surprised. I’m moved!” Indeed, this was the first time that Amber had offered to make breakfast. She had not moved for the reason that she had forgotten about it. Now that she was willing to make breakfast, did it mean that she had put down the past and was ready to accept him?

Channing just came back from his morning exercise and opened the door. He saw Celia sitting on the sofa in the living room. Seeing him come back, Celia smiled and said, “Good morning, Dad!”

Channing nodded and walked over to Celia to sit down. Celia said apologetically, “Dad, I’m sorry! I drank too much last night! I won’t do it again!”

“Do you really know you’re wrong?” Channing asked with no warmth in his eyes.

“I really know I was wrong,” Celia replied, “Dad, I was just confused. Please forgive me!”

Channing didn’t respond. Celia added, “Dad, I haven’t been home for a long time. I miss her so much. Why don’t you ask auntie to buy my favorite dishes tonight and call my sister and brother-in-law to go home for dinner?”

The word “brother-in-law” made Channing look at Celia. Seeing that her expression was very natural, he nodded slightly. He agreed. His mother was right. In Channing’s heart, only Amber was his sweetheart. She was nothing. Celia hated him so much in her heart, but she didn’t show it on her face. “I’ll call him now!”

Seeing that she picked up the phone and was about to make a call, Channing stopped her. “Forget it. Amber won’t listen to you. I’ll call you!”

After Rodney finished his breakfast, he went to the company. Deon was very surprised to see him. "Why aren't you resting at home?"

"The bidding is about to begin. I'm not at ease."

"There's no problem with the patent. The key lies in the design. It's useless for you to come here, but I just received a message..." After saying that, Deon glanced at Rodney and saw the scar on his face. He suddenly stopped talking about it and asked cautiously, "Did Madam catch him?"

"Mm," Rodney said as he sat down. "What news?"

Seeing that he was not unhappy, Deon was relieved. "It's about Mr. Black. He seems to have encountered some trouble."

"About the suspended leave?"

"It's not that. It has something to do with Tim, the chairman of Tim."

Rodney frowned when he heard that. It was definitely not a small matter to have anything to do with Tim. Could it be that Channing really could not escape this time?

While he was thinking, his phone rang. It was a call from Channing, asking him to go back to the Black family with Amber. He had something to say. Rodney was about to tell Channing about what had happened with Celia, so he agreed.

Channing hung up the phone and called Amber again. Amber's voice was very cold. "Mr. Black, are you cured?"

Channing didn't care about her attitude. "Amber, come back with Jinyan for dinner tonight."

"Mr. Black, don't you feel uncomfortable when you see Rodney?" Amber asked.

Channing forced a smile and said, "Amber, it's a good thing for you and Rodney to be together again. Dad has always hoped that you can live a good life! I made such a mistake to make you happy. Dad has never thought of hurting you!"

“Stop! I don’t want to mention this again.” Amber interrupted him. In order to make her happy, everything was for her own good. Channing just said these nonsense words naturally, but she felt uncomfortable.

“Mr. Black, you are an official. You are broad-minded and tolerant. But your mistress and mistress are ordinary people. Are you sure they don’t like you?”

“They also know their status,” Channing replied.

It was good that they knew their status well. Since Channing had pretended to be ill last time, Amber no longer believed Channing. His intuition made him believe that there must be something bad that Channing had asked him and Rodney to go back this time.

However, no matter what his plot was, it didn’t matter to Amber. She just wanted to watch the performance of Channing’s family. Others might have feelings for them, but she would never have any feelings for them. No matter what Channing wanted to do, he wouldn’t succeed.

At six o’clock in the evening, Rodney and Amber came to the Black family. Hearing the sound of the car, Aunt Maleah came out first. Then Channing, Shannon, and Celia also came out.

Just as Amber had imagined, everyone had a smile on their faces. Amber deliberately looked at Shannon and Celia’s faces for a while, and secretly cheered in his heart. At this time, they could smile. They were really good at acting.

Rodney opened the trunk and took out a series of gifts. Channing took them with a smile. “Don’t spend too much money in the future!”

“It’s what I should do!” Rodney replied with a smile. He continued to take the gifts out of the car. The amount of gifts he received was more than double each time he came.

Celia looked at the smile on Rodney’s face and felt a sharp pain in her heart. This was the real Rodney. Not only did he have a smile on his face, but his eyes were also smiling. Having been with her for such a long time, she had never felt that his eyes would smile.

She had loved him for so many years. In order to get him, she had planned for nine years and wasted her nine-year youth. But what did she get in the end?

In addition to humiliation and tears, this man had never given her any sincerity. Celia hated him so much. Her mother was right. She was too stupid. It was not worthwhile to put all her pressure on a man who was willing to be his subordinate. From today on, she would never be the silly Celia again.

Shannon reached out and poked Celia. When Celia came back to her senses, she found that her mother, Channing, and even Aunt Maleah were carrying gifts in their hands. Amber looked at Celia with a sneer.

Although Celia had a smile on her face, she could see that she was obviously absent-minded. Celia's cultivation was much lower than Shannon's, and she was also the person involved. It was very good for her to be able to do this.

At least he was not on the same level as her. She was sure that she would not do such a good thing when she encountered such a thing.

Seeing Shannon poking her daughter, the sneer on Amber's face deepened. He glanced at Channing. He didn't know if he had seen the mother and daughter's performance, or if he really knew them.

Seeing that Rodney had taken the last gift from the car, Celia, who had come to her senses, stepped forward and said, "Brother-in-law, give it to me!"

Celia called him brother-in-law, which made Amber more impressed. She could see the unwillingness in Celia's eyes, but she was the first to call him brother-in-law in public.

This was equivalent to admitting the relationship between her and Rodney, indicating that she had already withdrawn. This was such a difficult change.

Not only was Amber surprised, but Shannon and Channing were also surprised. Shannon was very pleased. Her daughter was indeed not an ordinary person. Being able to recover in such a short time and cooperate with her acting was enough to prove that her idea had changed.

As long as her daughter no longer loved Rodney wholeheartedly, as long as she no longer wanted to become a subordinate of a man, her life would be controlled by herself, and what she wanted would be as easy as pie.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 140

8 minutes read

Channing's gaze swept lightly over Celia. She was gentle and kind. Being sensible had always been the label of a little daughter. However, this was not what he liked. Compared to Amber's waywardness and ignorance, he liked his eldest daughter more. He was not pretentious nor scheming.

Channing was a person who had been immersed in the officialdom for many years. Although he hoped that his youngest daughter could change like this and that she could know his position clearly, he secretly had a hint of vigilance in his heart. This little daughter's change was too surprising. Such a person was either enlightened or pretending to be a pig eating its prey.

Rodney was also surprised by Celia's address of brother-in-law. A man who was going to sleep with him last night suddenly called him brother-in-law today. No matter how he thought about it, it was weird. This Celia was indeed not simple!

"Let's talk inside!" As soon as Channing greeted them, a group of people turned from outside to inside the battle house. Channing and Shannon were sitting on the same sofa, Amber and Rodney were sitting together, and Celia was sitting alone in the same seat.

This scene made Amber feel very strange. After thinking about it carefully, he remembered that the person who used to sit alone on the sofa was now Celia.

Seeing that Channing was talking to Rodney as if nothing had happened, and that Shannon and her daughter had no grudge against each other, Amber felt that it was extremely ironic. This family was all top-class actors, and their acting skills were too obvious.

Aunt Maleah set up the dishes and invited everyone to dinner. The atmosphere at the table was very good. Celia actually helped Amber and Rodney prepare the dishes personally. Shannon also helped with the dishes with a smile. Looking at her intimacy with Rodney, Amber felt a chill.

Originally, she tried to convince herself to bear it, but in the end, Amber failed. When Shannon came to pick up the dishes for him, she picked up the bowl to avoid them. Seeing the disgust on Amber's face, Channing stopped the mother and daughter's performance. "We are family. You don't have to be so polite! Let them do whatever they want!"

This meal seemed to be a happy one, but in fact, only the person involved knew what was going on.

After dinner, Channing had just asked Rodney to go to the study. The smile on Channing's face disappeared after he closed the door of the study. Instead, there was a gloomy expression on his face.

"Rodney! You really make me look at you with new eyes! What's so good about you? My two daughters... My two daughters are so outstanding, why do they have connections with you... Hey... It's a shame to say this! I've lost all my face!"

When Channing just had his meal, he was still smiling. It was really an eye-opener for him to see that he had become like this after closing the door. He deserved to be an official. He was really good at practicing the skills behind the scenes.

However, wasn't he the one behind Celia's incident? Since he was the one behind it, what was he pretending to be?

Rodney finally understood why Amber hated Channing so much. He said lightly, "Speaking of Celia, I'm very sorry. First of all, it's my mother's fault. If my mother hadn't held her grandson in her arms, such a thing wouldn't have happened."

"Yes, if your mother hadn't treated Amber like that, there wouldn't be so many troubles now. It's all your mother's fault," Channing said.

As soon as Channing finished speaking, Rodney smiled faintly. "Although my mother is selfish and snobbish, Uncle and Mrs. Black shouldn't push it. After all, Uncle and Mrs. Black were involved in the incident."

Channing's old face turned red. He didn't expect Rodney to say these things mercilessly, so he smiled awkwardly.

"Poor parents in the world. I was confused at that time... It's just that things have happened, and it's useless to regret it. I asked you to come here today to talk about Amber and Celia. How are you going to deal with it now?"

"I came here today to talk about this matter." Rodney looked at Channing. "I want to cancel the engagement with Celia and marry Amber."

Channing had just knocked on the table in front of him and did not speak.

Rodney continued, "Although I'm engaged to Celia, there is no ambiguous relationship between us that should not have happened. I've always had a special relationship with Amber. I hope that uncle can help me!"

"It's like this. I can't do anything about it. As long as Amber agrees to marry you, I won't object. I just want to pity Celia!" Channing said with a long sigh.

Rodney took over his words. "If Celia needs it, I will compensate her! I am referring to the compensation for money."

The word compensation made Channing's eyes light up. He thought for a moment and said, "There's no need for compensation. As long as you and Amber can be happy, Celia, as your sister, will be very happy."

As soon as Channing didn't object to this matter, it was basically settled. Rodney felt very relaxed.

After Channing and Rodney went to the study, Shannon and her daughter pretended to wash the fruit in the kitchen. Amber knew that they didn't want to face her, and she didn't want to face them either. She went to the living room alone and leaned against the sofa to watch TV. She said that she was watching TV, but she didn't care about it at all. She really wanted to know what Channing and Rodney would say when they closed the door.

After waiting absent-mindedly for a while, Celia and her daughter came over with fruit. Celia put the fruit in front of Amber and said to her with a smile, "Sister, eat the fruit."

Amber also smiled faintly. "I'm afraid of indigestion. Ms. Black, you can eat it yourself."

"Sister, I'm sorry!" Celia apologized sincerely. "It was all my fault before. Please forgive me!"

Amber smiled playfully. "Ms. Black, you're too kind." This meant that she did not accept Celia's apology. The smile on Celia's face suddenly disappeared, and she stared at Amber pitifully with her big eyes.

"Sister, I really know I'm wrong. It's all Zoe's fault. She was the one who gave me the right to sow discord. I was so hot-headed that I acquiesced to it... I also felt uncomfortable. After all, we are sisters, and blood is thicker than water..."

Speaking of this, Celia choked with sobs. Two drops of tears hung on her beautiful face. Amber cheered in his heart!

She was indeed an expert in acting! If she remembered correctly, she had argued with her self-righteously after the incident. But now, she had made such a thorough mistake. Even a fool knew that such a big change was abnormal.

“Ms. Black, don’t! I didn’t bully you!” Amber got up in disgust and made way for her.

“Amber, your father and I have already told you about Celia, and she really wants to correct it. Just give her a chance!” Shannon also tried to persuade him.

“Sister, give me a chance!” Celia cried. “I will never trust others again. I have broken up with that Zoe.”

Amber was completely devoid of sincerity when he said that he was apologizing but was putting the blame on someone else. He was also drunk. “Ms. Black, you really don’t have to do this. It’s all in the past. Everyone knows who’s in the past. No one is a fool. Do you understand?”

“Sister, are you not willing to forgive me?” Celia suddenly got up and knelt down in front of Amber. “Sister, I beg you!”

As Celia knelt down, as if they had agreed, the door of the study room opened. Channing and Rodney came out. Seeing this scene in front of them, Channing frowned. “Celia, why are you kneeling on the ground?”

“I... I’m apologizing to my sister. If she doesn’t forgive me, I... I won’t get up!” Celia’s eyes were full of tears, as if she had been bullied by Amber.

Hearing that, Channing walked over quickly. “You are sisters. You have broken your bones and tendons. It’s good that you know that you didn’t make a mistake next time!” Then he looked at Amber. “Celia is young, so it’s inevitable that she made a mistake. Please forgive her this time!”

Didn’t Celia say that if Amber didn’t forgive her, she wouldn’t get up? Channing naturally meant that Amber should forgive Celia and reached out to help her up.

Amber smiled playfully. He neither reached out to help Celia nor said anything. He just looked at her like this, which made her feel a little scared. Then he said slowly, "Mr. Black, did you ask me to come back for acting?"

"What are you talking about?"

"I'm stupid. I always thought that kneeling down and begging for forgiveness were just acting. I didn't expect to see such a performance just after a meal."

Amber stood up as he spoke. "Mr. Black, thank you for your dinner. I won't watch the show. There's nothing to watch. You should rehearse well and try to impress me next time!"

After that, he turned around and left without looking at Channing's ugly face. Seeing Amber leave, Rodney naturally wouldn't stay any longer. He said something to Channing and followed him out.

Seeing the two figures disappear, Channing's face turned cold. Amber's acting reminded him precisely.

If Celia really wanted to apologize, it would not be at this time. He turned his head and looked at Celia who was still kneeling on the ground. "Why are you still kneeling? Don't you think it's shameful enough?"

Shannon quickly reached out to help her daughter up. Celia said with tears in her eyes, "Dad, I really want to apologize and beg for my sister's forgiveness."

"Whether you are sincere or not, don't do such things in the future. You are not a wise person, and others are not fools." After saying this, Channing returned to the study.

Back in the car outside, Amber couldn't help sneering again when he thought of the situation just now. "Who is Celia acting for? Channing or Rodney?"

"Rodney, don't you think I'm going too far?"

"Amber, no matter what, I support you!" Rodney didn't know what had happened just now, but he was sure that Amber wouldn't force Celia to kneel. They had been married for three years, so he knew very well what kind of person Amber was. No matter how evil Celia was, she wouldn't force her to kneel.

” supported me? Rodney, no matter what, Celia is your fiancée. Your answer will make people feel disappointed.”

“Amber, she’s no longer my fiancée. I’ve already made things clear to uncle in the study earlier. Celia and I have already broken our engagement.” Rodney reached out and held her hand. “Amber, you once said that I’d like to get rid of my trouble with you from the beginning. I don’t have any more trouble now. We can start over again!”

Amber remembered that she had said this before, but she did not say that she would have a result with him. For her, not only did she have a fiancée, but she also had an omnipotent mother. With Rachel’s help, she and Rodney would never be together. But now was not the time for her to say no. She tried to make herself smile. “Yes, we can start over again!”