

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 141

8 minutes read

Kelsey had been preoccupied for the past few days. When she met Itzel, she ultimately followed Itzel's instructions and did not tell Rodney the truth.

Hearing that Itzel was not her mother, Rodney comforted her not to worry. He would help her find her mother in the future.

Kelsey felt very uneasy about lying to Rodney. She was not a treacherous person. This matter had always been very uncomfortable in her heart.

However, Itzel came to see her. She said that she had not fulfilled her mother's responsibilities for so many years. Now she was rich. She wanted to compensate Kelsey and send her to further her studies abroad. It was the dream of many people. Kelsey was also a little moved.

Itzel saw that she had such an intention, so she said that she would immediately go through the overseas study procedures for her and ask her to immediately resign from Rodney's company. Kelsey's heart had always been in a dilemma.

She had that kind of feeling towards him. It wasn't just because he had helped her. Just based on his abilities alone, he had enough charm to become a woman's dream lover.

However, Rodney did not have that kind of feelings for her. All of his thoughts were focused on Amber. Kelsey knew that she had agreed to leave not only because she was interested in studying abroad, but also because she wanted to forget about Rodney.

The feeling of being alone was too painful. Kelsey felt that she could no longer stay by Rodney's side. At present, she could only forget that it was a good choice for her to leave him alone. Itzel did not allow them to make their relationship public, so she had to resign first, leave Rodney's company, and think about studying abroad.

Kelsey was about to talk to Rodney about her resignation when she noticed that Rodney's face was covered with scratches. She didn't even need to think about it to know who the mastermind was. Only Amber could be so impudent.

It was said that no one would hit others in the face. Amber knew very well that she wanted him to lose face. Although this was a matter between Rodney and Amber, Kelsey couldn't help but feel resentful toward Amber.

This woman, Amber, was too ruthless! For the sake of clearing her heart and desires, Rodney had gone all out for her, and he had even done everything he could to ruin his own reputation. What exactly did she want?

She didn't talk to Rodney about her resignation. Instead, she went back to her office. One day, she felt wronged. When she returned home in the evening, Itzel bought some fruits to visit her.

When she mentioned the matter of studying abroad and asked if she had resigned, Kelsey said that she had not. When she saw that there were scars on Rodney's face, she did not have the nerve to look for him.

Itzel seemed to be deep in thought. "Kelsey, do you like Rodney and don't want to leave him?"

"Nothing." Kelsey immediately denied.

"Mom is an experienced person. She can't explain her feelings clearly. Rodney is so excellent. It's not wrong for him to like you." Itzel sighed.

"However, Rodney's heart has always been on Amber. He won't like other women. You'd better not put your heart on him, so as not to be as pitiful as Celia."

"Isn't Celia the third party? What's so pitiful about her?" Kelsey retorted.

"Celia is not the third party. Amber is the third party. I know this better than you." Itzel told Kelsey that Celia and Amber were sisters. She also distorted the facts and said that Celia and Rodney were childhood sweethearts. Amber was the third party. In order to destroy Celia and Rodney, he gave up his boyfriend, Pierce, who was in love with him. She played tricks on him and forced him to marry her in the end.

"It's not that she doesn't know how to give birth, it's just an excuse that she's sick and doesn't want to give birth to Rodney. That's because she only has Pierce in her heart and still wants to reconcile with him. During her marriage with Rodney, she even secretly went to meet him. Rachel was very angry when she heard that. She forced her to divorce Rodney not because she didn't know how to give birth, but because she cheated on him."

“She actually cheated on her marriage?” Kelsey opened her mouth wide in surprise. She could never have imagined that the tall and mighty Rodney in her heart would be cuckolded.

“Not only did she cheat, but she was also very vicious. I’ll tell you another secret. Amber said that he wouldn’t have a child and quarreled with Rachel every day, which turned the world upside down. In order to make her happy in the family, she forced Channing to ask Celia to replace her pregnancy. Celia and her daughter always thought that they owed her, so they swallowed such a thing. But Amber was too cruel. When Celia was pregnant for three months, she actually pushed Celia to a miscarriage. Rachel couldn’t bear it anymore and forced her to divorce Rodney with her life.”

“So it’s because of this divorce?” Kelsey naturally believed Itzel’s words. She didn’t like Amber in the first place, so she said resentfully, “I didn’t expect Amber to be such a person.”

“That’s right. The Barron family has a huge fortune. When they were divorced, they had to give her money. However, she was too sinister. She actually left without a single cent. This is because Rodney has always felt guilty towards her.” Itzel continued to speak nonsense.

“She was with Pierce after Rodney’s divorce, but the Hammond family had strict family education. Madam Hammond didn’t allow her grandson to marry a divorced woman, so she didn’t get what she wanted.”

“Is her child also Tang Pierce?”

“It’s almost the same. She and Rodney were going to marry each other, but Madam Hammond didn’t allow it. She had been a lover for more than three years and gave birth to a child. At this time, it was exposed that Celia and Rodney were about to get engaged. She couldn’t sit still, so she came back immediately to destroy it.” Itzel was good at twisting things.

“Amber is very stubborn. She thought that Celia’s mother robbed her mother’s man, and that Celia stole her father’s love, so she wanted to take revenge on Celia. Rachel knew that she was such a person who desperately opposed it, but Rodney was kind-hearted and deceived by her. He always believed in her.”

Amber had indeed appeared when Rodney and Celia were about to get engaged. Kelsey believed him even more. "If that's the case, why didn't you expose her?"

"She is good at lying. She not only lied to Rodney, but also made him believe that she had a hard time after the divorce. Take what happened last time for example. Amber and Elliot worked together to put the blame on Celia, saying that Celia found someone to slander her. I grew up looking gentle and kind. How could I do such a thing? She did this to ruin Celia's reputation, so she immediately began to hire people to attack Celia."

"That's right. We all find this strange. Didn't Miss Herrera ask someone to do this? Why did the situation change so quickly and start to attack Miss Herrera?"

"It's all Amber's fault. In order to ruin Celia's reputation, she could think of any way she could do. Rodney had no choice, so he went on the TV to say that this matter was to clear Celia's name. They were a good couple, but they broke up just like that. It's really pitiful. If Amber loved Rodney, it's okay, but she just wanted revenge. Rodney was so soft-hearted. Seeing that she was so pitiful after the divorce, he thought that everything she had done was caused by him and wanted to make it up to her. But how could she accept it? She didn't want the money. She just wanted to make Rodney feel guilty and force him to break up with Celia. Rodney was the same. He believed such a vicious woman and let Celia go for nothing. It's really a sin!"

Kelsey remembered Amber's ruthlessness towards Rodney. Indeed, people who loved each other would not be so cruel. "This Amber is too cruel!"

"Yes, on Monday 5th, it was Rachel's birthday. Rachel invited Celia to dinner. Amber was crazy again, afraid that Celia and Rodney had an affair, so he kept calling Rodney to urge him. That night, Rodney originally wanted to accompany his mother at home, but she forced Rodney's special help to take Rodney away. It was a good birthday, but she ruined it. Rachel was so angry that she burst into tears."

"No wonder there are scars on Rodney's face. It must have been caused by her." Kelsey quickly connected them.

"That's right. She's no different from a shrew. When she got married to Rodney, she often quarreled with Rachel. Her family was often thrown into a mess by her.” Itzel didn’t know about the scars on Rodney’s face. After hearing Kelsey’s words, she immediately added a crime to Amber.

“This woman is too hateful!” Kelsey was furious. “We can’t let her continue to deceive us like this. We must find a way to treat her!”

After Itzel left, Kelsey thought a lot. Although her impact on Amber was not good, it was not bad. But after Itzel’s words, it was a lot worse. She had to talk to Amber.

Kelsey made an appointment with Amber. She didn’t have a good impression of Rodney’s lover, Amber. Although Rodney said that it had nothing to do with her, Amber didn’t think so. A young woman couldn’t do anything to be someone else’s lover. Even if this lover was not as real as Rodney said, she wouldn’t feel comfortable if it was just for acting.

Kelsey didn’t have a good education background. Such a choice could only mean that there was something wrong with her character. Both of them didn’t have a good impression of each other. The result of this meeting could be imagined.

“What can I do for you, Ms. Farrell?” Amber went straight to the point.

“I want to talk to you about Rodney.”

The two words “Rodney” made Amber uncomfortable. “Ms. Farrell asked me to talk about Rodney? Am I right?”

“You didn’t hear wrongly. I want to ask Miss. Stone, do you love Rodney or not?”

“What does it have to do with Ms. Farrell whether I love her or not?” Amber asked. Judging from Kelsey’s look, she must have other thoughts about Rodney. Celia made Amber sick of her. Now she hated Kelsey and Amber even more. It was nonsense to start over. With these flowers and grass, she would never have anything to do with Rodney in this life.

“Of course it has something to do with you. If you really love Rodney, I hope that you can be happy. On the other hand, I hope that Miss. Stone will not pester Rodney anymore. Rodney has been living a hard life these years. I hope that you will not let him go.”

Amber was annoyed by her pestering him. She looked at Kelsey coldly and said, “Ms. Farrell, don’t you care too much? What kind of person are you? What right do you have to come here and talk to me like that?”

“I... I’m his friend...”

“Friend?” Amber laughed mockingly. “There are only a few kinds of friends in this world. There are some nodding acquaintances, and there are also those who are willing to live and die for the sake of righteousness. There are even some who are trading and dealing with each other. I wonder what kind of friends Ms. Farrell and Rodney are?”

Amber’s words mercilessly pointed out the fact that Kelsey was together with Rodney through a business deal. Kelsey’s face suddenly turned red. “Amber, don’t go too far!”

“I’m going too far? I don’t think I’m going too far.” Amber spread out his hands.

“Let me tell you, Rodney and I are innocent. It’s not up to you to criticize us!”

“Whether you are innocent or not has nothing to do with me. I have no interest in blaming others. If you don’t want to lose face, please don’t come to me with an excuse like that. I am very annoyed with this kind of familiar thing. As far as I know, you are no one but Rodney. Please don’t flatter yourself.”

“You... you think I’m willing to come looking for you? I don’t have the heart to do that, not because you’ve dominated Rodney so much that he couldn’t distinguish right from wrong.” Kelsey retorted.

“Do you think you can distinguish right and wrong from wrong?” Amber found it a little funny. Sure enough, this place was worthless. “I don’t mind Ms. Farrell occupying Rodney, and I don’t mind Ms. Farrell letting Rodney be equally distinguish between right and wrong. The premise is that you have the ability to do so.”

“You don’t think you’re ashamed, but proud. Amber, I know who you are. Be sensible and leave Rodney immediately, or I’ll make your scandal look bad.”

“Ugly? I wonder what kind of scandal Ms. Farrell has mastered?” Amber sneered, a cold glint in his eyes.

“What did you do that you don’t know? You robbed your sister’s boyfriend, pushed her to a miscarriage, and slandered her reputation...”

Kelsey accused Amber of several crimes in one breath. “You are the most ruthless and heartless woman I have ever seen. You are also the most pretentious woman I have ever seen. One day, I will uncover your hypocritical face and make you ashamed.”

“Ha!” Amber couldn’t help but laugh. Kelsey meant that she was here to defend Celia. Amber wondered how much benefit Celia had given her.

“Ms. Farrell, why are you so angry? Is it because I monopolized Rodney so that you can’t get your teeth sore, or do you want to bring up Celia’s injustice?”

Kelsey was at a loss for words for a moment. She had wanted to have a good talk with Amber, but why did she quarrel with her in the end? There was undisguised contempt and contempt in Amber’s eyes.

“Actually, there’s no need for Ms. Farrell to be so angry with me. You’re so young and beautiful. It’ll take you a lot of effort to make Rodney forget about you!”

“I’m not as shameless as you! I just can’t stand the fact that you’ve taken over Rodney’s fiancée and are still so self-righteous. It’s fine if you love Rodney, but in order to make use of him and take revenge for him, your personality is twisted and you can’t see anyone better!”

Kelsey was so angry that she spoke without any scruples. “Didn’t you say that I’m a mistress? You’re also a mistress. As a mistress, do you think you’re much more noble than me?”

“What’s wrong with her? Is she going to be turned upside down? Even her mistress has started to stand up for her mistress.”

“I’ve never said that I’m a noble person. Please don’t pretend to be noble in front of me, Ms. Farrell. I’ve seen many disgusting things these days, but I’ve never seen a mistress who can’t see a man come out to fight for justice. Ms. Farrell, I really admire you. But if you want to fight for justice, it depends on whether you have the ability. Why don't you come to me to humiliate yourself? It's better to think about how to hook up with Rodney!"

"You!" Kelsey was so angry that she was trembling. Amber's words were so vicious that they could poke people's hearts. It was impossible for him not to be angry!

"Don't think that Rodney is lawless just because he's obsessed with you. Amber, God is watching you. You won't be so carefree for the rest of your life."

"Well said. Heaven is watching you! Ms. Farrell, let me give you a piece of advice! Rodney doesn't spoil you to the point where you are lawless. Even if he dotes on you, it's your business. You don't have the right to criticize me. I'll give you some face today. If you come to me so shamelessly next time, don't blame me for beating you!"

"Too arrogant! Too arrogant!" Amber's figure disappeared for a long time, and Kelsey was still sitting there shivering. "How could Amber be so shameless? How could he be so shameless?"

Amber was also furious. Who gave Kelsey the courage to challenge her? No one would believe that Mu said she had nothing to do with Kelsey.

In the past, before the divorce, Celia had run to the Barron family with confidence every day, which irritated her so much that she was not calm. Now, there was a Kelsey who challenged her. How could she live?

Fortunately, she did not intend to have anything to do with Mr. Barron. Otherwise, she would have made the same mistake again.

When Rodney came back in the evening, he seemed to be in a good mood. After dinner, they went out for a walk. Once again, he talked about Mel, saying that he had contacted experts in the blood department and asked them to transfer Mel to our country so that it would be convenient for him to take care of her.

One Celia had not completely disappeared, and the other Kelsey had challenged her. She would only believe Rodney's words because she lacked the backbone. Amber felt a little disgusted when he pretended to be affectionate, so she continued to push him away.

Seeing that she was not very enthusiastic, Rodney suggested that he go abroad with her to see Mel. Amber did not refuse. He only said that in a few days, you would be able to check it out in about ten days. She wanted to see the result first.

Kelsey made an appointment with Itzel that night and told her angrily about her meeting with Amber. Itzel was a little surprised. She went to Kelsey to deliberately slander Amber because she wanted Kelsey to have a bad impression of Amber so that she could act in the future. However, she did not expect that Kelsey would actually go to find Amber. Itzel thought that it was such a close call. Fortunately, they had quarreled. If they had a good conversation, she might have wasted all her previous efforts.

Seeing Kelsey's angry look, Itzel knew that the time was ripe. She comforted Kelsey. "Don't be angry. If we know that she is such a person, we won't be fooled."

"She's so arrogant. Why didn't Rachel find a way to get her out of Rodney?" Kelsey was still angry after thinking about it.

"Do you think Rachel didn't think about it? She didn't know how many ideas she had thought of, but she didn't know what tricks Amber had used. Rodney had never listened to her, and now the mother and son turned against each other. It's really pitiful to think about it."

"Are we just going to let her run wild like this?"

"Now that Rodney believes her, he will listen to everything she says. There's nothing we can do about it."

"That's right. It's because Rodney believes in her that she's so arrogant. So is Rodney. How could a person who's usually so shrewd be deceived by him?"

"Isn't Rodney kind? Amber is just making a fuss about his kindness. Rodney is already over 30 years old. How many decades does he have in his life? Today, Rachel even called and cried. She said that there is no hope for him to have a grandson in his life."

Kelsey naturally had a deep understanding of Rodney's kindness. After listening to Itzel's words, she felt that Rachel was very pitiful. "Poor parents in the world. Rachel is really pitiful!"

“That’s right. My mother’s heart was broken by her crying today, and she was not in the mood for the whole day. Thinking about it, Rachel was also pitiful. When she encountered such a troublesome thing, my mother had such a good relationship with her, so she would like to help her friend. So she asked my mother for help today, but she didn’t refuse.”

“What did she beg me for?”

“She begged me for your help.”

“Didn’t Mom say that we can’t tell her about our relationship?”

“No, we didn’t tell her about our relationship. Didn’t Rachel see that Rodney was always with you? She wanted you to give birth to a child for Rodney and said that she would compensate you.” Itzel wanted to see what Kelsey was thinking about Rodney.

“This definitely won’t work!” Kelsey shook her head. She had that kind of feelings for Rodney, but he had no feelings for her at all. It was just the most normal way to get along with her. How could this child be born?

“Mom, to tell you the truth, Rodney has no interest in me at all. Although it’s said that I have something to do with him, it’s just a rumor made by someone else. He only treats me as an ordinary friend, so it’s impossible for him to give birth to a baby.”

“Is that so?” Itzel pondered for a moment. “Tell me the truth. Do you like Rodney?”

“I... Of course I like him.” Kelsey was a little shy.

“Since you like him, why are you not willing to give birth to a baby for him? If you are willing, I can help you.” Itzel continued to probe.

“Mom, it’s not whether I should help him or not. Although I like Rodney, I haven’t lost my mind yet. I won’t do such immoral things because I like him!” Kelsey was very determined.

Itzel held her hand and said, “As expected of my good daughter. I knew that you wouldn’t disappoint me, so I refused Rachel’s suggestion and suggested that she should find Celia. After all, Celia has been pregnant with Rodney for him, and she has loved him for so many years. She is the most suitable candidate.”

“But didn’t you say that Rodney didn’t want to touch Celia? How could this child be born?”

“Rachel means that as long as Rodney and Celia have a child, he will definitely give up Amber. But it’s not easy! Amber is so close to him that he doesn’t give Rodney any chance to contact Celia!” Itzel sighed. “That’s why I’m here to ask you for help.”

“What can I do for you?” Kelsey was a little confused.

“Rodney isn’t on his guard against you. I want you to ask him out and get him drunk so that he can be with Celia.”

“This...” Kelsey hesitated. Rodney was indeed not on guard against her. Wasn’t it good for him to do so? If he wasn’t willing to forgive her...

“Mom, knowing this will put you in a difficult position, but other than you, we can’t find a suitable candidate.” Itzel saw Kelsey’s hesitation. “At this point, I won’t hide it from you. We don’t really want him to have s*x with Celia, but let him mistakenly think that he has s*x with Celia.”

“Why can’t I understand? Do you think you can’t let Celia have a baby even if you have a relationship with her?”

“Didn’t Celia use Rodney’s sm to do artificial tutoring before? Those sm are still preserved. Now Rachel’s intention is to make Rodney mistakenly think that she has had a relationship with Celia, and then she will take out those sm and let Celia do artificial labor. At that time, Celia will be pregnant, and Rodney will be relieved after having a child.”

Kelsey was still hesitating, but Itzel tried to persuade her. “This is a good thing for Rodney. He’s so deeply involved that he can’t tell if it’s good or bad. He’s completely mesmerized by Amber. Think about it carefully. Do you have the heart to watch Amber charm Rodney?”

“Are you worried that you can’t face Rodney? Mom means that I will send you to study abroad immediately after this matter. After three or five years, when you come back from your studies, Rodney and Celia will get married and have children. At that time, he will see everything clearly. At that time, he will thank you for everything you have done for him.”

Kelsey hesitated for a while and finally nodded. “I tried to ask him out, but I’m not sure if he can do it.”

“As long as you do as I say, I’m sure it will work!”

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 143

Ashton hadn’t been at ease these days. After thinking about it for a long time, he felt that he had done something very stupid. He shouldn’t compromise with Itzel for a moment of peace.

He knew very well what kind of person Itzel was. She would never have anything to do with him like she had said. He might as well think of a way to deal with her if she came to threaten him again. He had to think twice before he went to find Elliot.

Elliot was very surprised by Ashton’s visit. He invited Elliot to sit down and poured him a cup of tea personally. Ashton took the cup of tea and took a sip. “I came today to ask you for a favor.”

“As long as I can do it, I will try my best.” Elliot was very straightforward.

“This is very easy for you. I want to ask you to help me settle down abroad with Amber.”

“Is Amber willing to leave?”

“Help me settle the migration first. When the time comes, she will naturally leave. After all, her purpose of coming back is to save Mel.”

“Alright, I’ll get someone to do it right away.” Elliot readily agreed.

Elliot’s straightforwardness made Ashton very happy. He opened his bag and took out a few drawings from it and placed them in front of Elliot. “I won’t let you help me for nothing. This is a reward.”

“This is?” Elliot picked up the drawing and looked at Ashton in surprise. “Wasn’t this the design of the sports ground? How could Ashton have this?”

"I'm D. This is the design of the venue for this sports meeting," Ashton said.

"You're Dyou?" Elliot came to his senses after a moment of surprise. No wonder he felt that Ashton was strange. So that was why.

"I've given you the Forging Design for the Deputy Arena. I've given you the Forging Design for the Main Arena, Itzel. I'm guessing she'll soon give it to Rodney."

"Are you asking the Barron Enterprises to cooperate with the Parableutions to build a sports meeting?" Elliot asked.

"No! Although the sports meeting will be more perfect for the two companies, to be honest, I never thought about letting Rodney's company develop. I designed these venues for leisurely. I originally planned to give you all these pictures, but I didn't expect that there would be an accident."

Ashton told him about Itzel's threat and his relationship with Itzel and Ashley.

"I'm not the real Ashton. The real Ashton died not long after I returned to South City. At that time, my parents died, and I was disheartened because of the huge compensation. In order to prevent me from being found, Ashley temporarily let me live in the tube-shaped apartment she bought for Ashton. Only Channing and Ashley and Itzel knew the truth. Everyone thought I was Ashton. At first, I just wanted to avoid worldly troubles, but I didn't expect it to become a disadvantage."

"Itzel is your biological sister? I can't believe it. Although you're not the real Ashton, in terms of seniority, you're still Amber's uncle. You didn't do anything bad. Why are you afraid of Itzel?"

"Back then, I lived in seclusion in South City not only because I was disheartened by the misfortune, but also because of my feelings." Issac young master sighed.

"I love Ashley deeply like your father, and this kind of relationship is not allowed. Itzel knows what I am thinking. She threatened me. If I don't help her, she will tell others my feelings for Ashley. I don't want Ashley to be criticized after her death, and I don't want Amber to know that I am not her biological uncle."

“You don’t have a blood relationship with Ashley . Besides, you haven’t revealed your feelings. I think Amber can understand you.” Elliot thought for a moment and comforted him.

“Amber won’t understand. I’ve lived like this for most of my life, and I don’t want anything to happen at the last moment. I’ve thought about Itzel’s character carefully, and I can’t trust her. Let her continue to bother me and talk about these adult things. It’s better for everyone to stay away from me.”

“Well, since you have made up your mind, leave all this to me. I will inform you soon.”

Ashton saw that Elliot was planning to migrate, and Channing was also in trouble. Tim, chairman of the board, had brought him a lot of trouble by sneaking away with money.

When Tim made a name for himself in South City, he didn’t try to get close to him. Channing had also invested in Timid Company and became a hidden shareholder. Only he and Tim knew about this.

Because Tim’s management had always been very good. In order to gain more benefits, Channing came to Tim and said that he needed money to open a branch company. He gave a batch of funds to Tim in an emergency by special means.

They had agreed to return it in a month, but they never dreamed that Tim’s company’s capital was not enough. The so-called new company was just for collecting money. As soon as he gave the money to Tim, Tim immediately fled abroad with money.

The funds borrowed from the company were a total of one billion yuan. How could Channing have so much money to make up for this loophole? So he seemed to be in a hurry during this period of time.

Coincidentally, the higher-ups also heard the news and asked him to come forward to talk about this matter. These years, the higher-ups had a good relationship with Channing, so they asked him to find a way to block the hole and let it go.

Since Channing had cooperated with Tim to start the company, he had only gotten some dividends. There were only a few million in total. The gap of one billion yuan was so big that how could he make up for it?

The only person he could ask for help with was Rodney. However, this was not a small sum of money. If there were a few million, Rodney might be able to help him. He was not certain that Rodney would help him with these one billion dollars.

Rodney had no interest in Celia. Channing was sure that Rodney would not pay for him because of Celia. He thought of Amber, who had always been obsessed with Amber. Maybe he would help him because of Amber.

When he came back, it happened that Celia had attacked Amber. Channing had just taken the opportunity to lie down in the hospital and think of a way. Rodney's innocence on TV had let Channing see hope. Rodney would rather let his mother take the blame and clear up Amber's name. It could be imagined how infatuated he was with Amber. The hope in Channing's heart became stronger.

Therefore, Rodney proposed to cancel the engagement with Celia and Amber. At first, he didn't object to it. That day, he asked Rodney and Amber to go home for dinner. He wanted to tell Rodney about it, but he couldn't say it out loud. It was urgent now, so he couldn't delay any longer. Therefore, Channing just had an appointment with Rodney.

"I've encountered some trouble recently. I would like to ask you to help me."

Rodney already knew what had happened to Tim. He guessed that Channing's help should have something to do with this matter. "Tell me about it."

Channing had just told him about Tim's escape with money. He was too embarrassed to say that he had colluded with Tim in order to collect money. He only said that he had a good relationship with Tim, but he didn't expect him to be such a person. He actually took the money and fled, leaving the trouble for him.

Rodney pondered for a moment. One billion yuan was not a small sum, but it was nothing to him. But should he tell Amber about it?

Seeing that he didn't say anything, Channing thought that Rodney wouldn't agree. He began to panic. "I didn't ask you to take it for nothing. Give me the loan receipt. I have a few family heirlooms. I'll pledge them to you first."

As he spoke, Channing opened the box he carried with him. He took out the painting and showed it to Rodney. "This is an ancient painting passed down from generation to generation. It was estimated to be over a hundred million years ago."

Rodney was stunned. Channing's family didn't seem to be an aristocratic family. How could there be an ancient painting that contained over a hundred million yuan? He picked up one and opened it.

"It's not a fake. Don't worry, it's a real ancient painting." Channing just thought that he didn't believe it, so he immediately explained. "This painting has been in my hands for more than 20 years. If it hadn't happened, I wouldn't have taken it out."

It was rare to see Channing in such a panic. It seemed that he was really anxious this time. Rodney smiled faintly and said, "I know. I'll go back and get the money for you."

Channing was not sure if Rodney's words were true. His eyebrows were on fire now. It would be fine as long as he made up for the hole. Although this painting was his life, it was nothing compared to his future. Moreover, he would pass the painting to Amber after a hundred years. It was the same for him now. "You'd better take this painting back. I'll write you a loan note."

"There's no need." Rodney refused. He had helped Channing only because of Amber. If Channing wasn't Amber's father, he wouldn't have listened to him. Since he had helped, he naturally didn't want to be involved in the loan receipt or anything.

"You mustn't tell Amber about this. If Amber finds out about this, I won't be able to face you anymore." Channing was determined to write a loan receipt when he reminded Rodney, "Amber has been stubborn since she was a child. I don't want her to misunderstand me."

This was a typical example of being a whore and then building a memorial arch. Rodney had a new understanding of Channing's shamelessness. "Forget it, I'll accept this as my uncle's dowry for Amber. I won't write anything else. Give me your account number, and I'll ask the finance department to transfer the money to you."

Hearing this, Channing was relieved, so he gave his account to Rodney. After Rodney accepted the account, he enthusiastically mentioned the marriage between Rodney and Amber. “When are you and Amber going to get the marriage certificate?”

“I can go to collect the marriage certificate with Amber at any time, as long as Amber agrees.”

“You’d better do your business as soon as possible. It’s not a big deal to delay.” Channing, who had solved the problem, had just calmed down as usual. “Why don’t you take Amber home for dinner tonight? I’ll talk to her.”

He took the initiative to show his kindness to Rodney, but he was not grateful. Amber could tell that he hated Channing. If he asked Channing to help him at this time, it would only backfire. “No, I’ll talk to her by myself.”

The two of them chatted about some other things before breaking up. When Rodney returned to the company and told the company to transfer the money to Channing’s account, Deon couldn’t help but remind him, “Mr. Barron, won’t you tell Miss. Stone about this?”

“Amber hates this kind of thing the most. If you tell her, her attitude toward Channing will change again. Let’s put it aside and talk about it later.”

While they were talking, someone knocked on the door. Kelsey came in and said, “Mr. Barron, I have something to tell you.”

Hearing that she had something to say, Deon tactfully avoided it. However, Rodney motioned for Deon not to leave. “Deon is not an outsider. If there’s anything you need to say, just say it.”

“Well, I received an admission letter from a foreign university. I want to study abroad, so...” Kelsey was a little nervous. She had never received an admission letter from a foreign university. It was Itzel who spent money to hire an agency for her to go abroad. Kelsey was afraid of being questioned by Rodney.

“Do you want to resign and study abroad?” Rodney understood. “This is a good thing. I support you. If you need any help, I will try my best to satisfy you.”

“Thank you, Mr. Barron. I have no other needs.”

Although he was surprised that Kelsey had resigned and gone abroad to further her studies, Rodney did not stop her. He readily agreed to Kelsey's resignation and even asked the financial department to add a few more months of salary to Kelsey's salary.

When they returned to the Scent Villa in the evening, Amber was talking to Mel on the phone. Mel said that she missed her mother and asked Amber when he would go to see him. Amber replied that he would go to see him in a few days.

When he saw that Amber had come back and hung up the phone in a hurry, he went up to her and pulled her to sit on the sofa. "Amber, uncle asked me to meet you today."

"Why is he looking for you?" Amber asked. Channing had just gone to find Rodney, but her intuition told her that there was nothing good going on.

"Uncle, give me this thing." Rodney showed Amber the painting that Channing had just given him.

Amber opened the painting and looked at it before putting it down. She didn't know how to draw, but she guessed that it should be the ancient painting that Channing had just said, which was worth more than 100 million dollars. "Why did he give this to you?"

"He said that this is a dowry, a dowry for you and me." Rodney had no intention of asking for Channing's things, but when he saw that Channing was determined to write something like a loan agreement, he thought that Amber would have a share of Channing's things after a hundred years, so he simply proposed the issue of the dowry and brought it back to Amber.

Amber did not expect that Channing would give the ancient painting to Rodney as a dowry. One of the reasons why she came back to recognize Channing was for this painting. Channing had tried his best to make excuses before, but now he was so generous. It was really strange. Thinking about it, Rodney reached out to hold her hand. "Amber, let's get married!"

"Get married?" Amber asked. Although Rodney had mentioned marriage several times, it was the first time he had mentioned it like this. She was a little surprised.

“Yes, we’re married.” Rodney looked deeply into her eyes. “Amber, I’ve been thinking about it for a long time, but I never dared to mention it to you. I know that I’ve hurt you too much, so I’m too ashamed to say that. But I really want to take care of you and your child. Amber, promise me!”

“Rodney, it’s not just two people getting married. Do you understand?”

“I understand. I will handle my mother’s matters well. Don’t worry, something like that won’t happen in the past.” Rodney promised.

“It’s not just your mother. I have a child...”

“Don’t worry. I like Mel very much. I will definitely treat him like my own child.”

Amber was silent. Mel was originally Rodney’s child. She was not worried that Rodney would do something bad to Mel. But now, it was not Mel’s problem that was in front of her. It was not worth believing that Rodney was worth it.

Thinking of Kelsey coming to reason with him rationally, Amber felt a little cold. In the past, he clearly knew that there was Celia around Rodney, who was eyeing him covetously, but she didn’t guard against him at all. As a result, she couldn’t accept it after the accident.

At that time, she was tired of dealing with Celia. But now, Rodney was no longer the young and immature Rodney. He was a tycoon in the business world. There was a row of women who coveted him outside. Amber would no longer put himself in such an awkward situation.

In addition to the woman beside Rodney, he also had a difficult mother. These were all facts in front of her and Rodney. However, Rodney was Mel’s biological father. Giving Mel a complete home had always been her dream. Amber was really in a dilemma. Seeing that Rodney was still waiting for her answer, she had to say, “You’d better think about it again!”

“I’ve already thought it through very clearly. Amber, promise me!” Rodney begged. “I really won’t let you down again!”

Amber did not believe in the so-called guarantee at all, but Noemi also said that it was not a problem of a child now. If she could successfully get pregnant, she would have to face the problem of two children.

It was impossible for her to remain single for the rest of her life. She had to get married and find a father for her child. Without a doubt, Rodney was the most suitable candidate. She might be able to give it a try, but he wasn't that bad. After a moment of silence, she nodded.

Rodney was so happy that he picked her up and carried her into the room to rotate. A few years ago, when she promised him that she would propose, he also carried her in his arms and spun in the room. Thinking of the past, Amber felt sad. He hoped that the result this time would not be the same as before.

Since she was engaged to Elliot, Breanna came to chat with Lannie every day to relieve her boredom. At first, Lannie was very nice to her, but later she gradually changed.

It was not as intimate as before, but a little alienated. After thinking about it for a while, Breanna did not find that she had done anything wrong. But why did Lannie suddenly change her attitude?

On this day, she brought gifts to visit Lannie. Lannie sighed and said, "Breanna, don't come here with me in the future."

"Auntie, do you hate me?"

"No, you are so obedient and sensible. How can I hate you? It's just that you are so young and should play with a girl about your age. There is no need to face an old woman like me all day."

"It's good that you don't hate me." Breanna looked relieved. "Auntie, you don't seem to be very happy these days. What happened?"

"Nothing happened. I'm just a little annoyed."

"Is that so? Why don't you tell me your worries? They say that there is something wrong with your worries. If you tell me, you will definitely be in a good mood."

Lannie looked at her beautiful face and sighed. Her worries were all because of her son. After her son came back that day and said something like that, she had always felt uneasy. She was poor enough in this life. Breanna was so young. Should she follow her footsteps?

In the past few days, she had been thinking about it over and over again in her heart, especially when Breanna, who was so sensible, came to see her every day. She felt even more upset. She really liked this girl, so she wanted to keep her by her side. But now she found that she was wrong. What she did might hurt her.

“Breanna, did you make a three-year promise with Elliot?”

“Auntie, you know that too?”

“I’m sorry. I’m the one who harmed you.”

“Why do you say that?” Breanna was surprised.

“Elliot’s temper is the same as his father’s. Do you understand?” Lannie smiled bitterly. “He won’t give up even if he dies if he falls in love with someone. He didn’t forget Amber at all. It’s unfair to you. You’re still young and have plenty of choices. Don’t hang yourself on a tree.”

This meant that she should give up Elliot. It took Breanna a lot of effort to stand beside Elliot, so she wouldn’t listen to his advice. “Auntie, I love Elliot and I’m willing to stay with him for the rest of my life. Even if he doesn’t love me, I’m willing to do it.”

“Breanna, you don’t understand what I mean. I am worried that my current life is what you will look like in the future. Do you understand?”

Breanna did not understand. She was so beautiful and had so many tricks up her sleeve. She did not believe that Elliot would not be able to see her good for the rest of his life.

Lannie had no choice but to explain it in detail. “Back then, I loved Reece as much as you did. If he were dead, I would marry him. At that time, I thought the same. It doesn’t matter if he doesn’t love me. It’s good that I love him. I will definitely melt him with my heart and let him see me falling in love with him slowly. But what happened?”

Lannie’s face was bitter. “Even if I marry him, even if I give birth to children for him, he doesn’t care about me at all. I’ve been married to Reece since I was in my twenties. I’ve wasted so many years of my youth. What do you think I’ve got? The green lamp, the ancient Buddha, is the same as cultivation. Breanna, are you willing to live like this?”

Of course, Breanna did not want to live like this, but she was not scared away. She also knew something about Reece and Lannie. Lannie was too weak and kind, and her weakness and kindness were just superficial.

Reece had a good reputation before marriage, but Elliot was different. He was a famous playboy who had slept with countless women. She didn't believe that Elliot could bear it.

The most important thing was that Breanna thought that Lannie was not sure of the opportunity. After she and Reece got married, Reece had stayed with her for several years. It was because Lannie had no ability to keep a man.

Breanna and Lannie were not on the same level at all. If she was given a chance to let Elliot get along with her day and night, she would definitely have a way to make him fall in love with her.

Even if he fell in love with her body!

Seeing that she was stubborn, Lannie had to sigh and give up persuading her. She really couldn't say anything about what had happened between her and Reece.

Since she and Reece got married, Reece had only touched her once. It was in a situation that neither of them could control themselves before marriage. Later, although they got married and lived in separate rooms, she had lived alone for so many years. The sadness and pain in her heart could not be expressed in words to outsiders.

Breanna chatted with Lannie for a while before taking her leave and returning home. Ever since she had plotted against Amber, the old lady no longer liked her as much as before. She looked at her with vigilance and vigilance.

It was really a big deal for Breanna to regain her image of having worked so hard for so many years. Fortunately, the old lady gave her some face. She didn't tell Pierce about it, but he still treated her as usual.

Although the old lady had retired from the second rank, she had one-third of the Hammond family's shares in her hands and still kept her word in the Hammond family. Breanna knew that the old lady would no longer treat her as before, but she could not let go of the old lady. Her father was not the best in the Hammond family. If it were not for the old lady and Pierce who liked her, she would have been pushed aside.

Although the Old Madam didn't like her now, she didn't show it to others. Therefore, in the eyes of others, she was the Old Madam's favorite granddaughter. In order to maintain this illusion, even if the Old Madam didn't like her anymore, she had to walk around in front of her.

Breanna deliberately went to buy the snacks that the old lady liked to eat. When she entered the Hammond family mansion, she saw that Pierce's car was parked at the door. Breanna entered the living room. The old lady's servants saw her and greeted her. "Big Master is here. He's talking to the old lady in the study."

The implication was that she should not disturb them. Breanna was not satisfied at all. She smiled and said, "Don't worry. I won't disturb them."

She was so direct that the old madam's servants were embarrassed, so she left. Breanna packed her snacks into a plate and went to the study.

The old lady and Pierce were talking about Amber in the study. "Amber has been gone for a long time. Do you have any news?"

Pierce smiled. "Grandma, why do you suddenly care about Amber? I'm not used to it."

"Grandma is telling the truth. She treated her like that before, but she didn't care about the past and took the initiative to save her. It's hard to find such a person in this era. It was Grandma's fault at the beginning." Madam Dowager sighed with emotion. "If it weren't for Grandma, you wouldn't be like this. Amber wouldn't have worked so hard!"

"Grandma, don't blame yourself. Amber and I have never blamed you. We all understand your stance and persistence." Pierce comforted her.

"You haven't been very busy recently, haven't you? Take the time to visit Amber!" The old lady added, "Mel, don't worry. Leave it to me. I promise I will keep an eye on him."

"Let's talk about it later."

“Why do I find that you are not too enthusiastic? In the past, I tried every means to stop you from seeing her. Now I give you a chance, but you are not too active. What happened?”

“Amber is busy now. I don’t want her to be distracted.”

Speaking of this, the old lady became more and more strange. Mel’s illness was the biggest thing for a mother. Why did Amber abandon his sick son and return to the country? “Is there anything more important than his son’s illness?”

“She went back for her son,” Pierce replied.

“Is it because of money?” The old lady asked tentatively, “Can we pay the treatment fee for Mel for her?”

“It’s not all about money. Money is just one aspect. Amber is independent, so he won’t easily accept the help of others unless he has no other choice,” Pierce replied.

“I appreciate this point of her, but I can’t be too stubborn. After all, everything is flexible.”

“It’s not her fault. When she married Rodney, she suffered a great blow from her purity. For her, only what she earned is her own. Others will never have anything to do with her.”

“The surname of Rodney is so cruel!” The old lady sighed. “You said that money is just one aspect, but what is the other aspect?”

“I can’t say that.”

“Kid, can’t Grandma tell you?” The old lady was unhappy. “Are you afraid that Grandma will harm Amber?”

“I know grandma won’t hurt her, but this matter involves privacy. Amber doesn’t want too many people to know.” Pierce didn’t want to say it. “Anyway, Amber went back for Mel’s illness, and you will know it in the future.”

“Privateity? Does it have anything to do with Mel’s illness?” The old lady became more curious when she heard that. During this period, she had seen Mel many times in the hospital. She had heard from the attending doctor that the treatment of Mel's disease would be more effective. The old lady was smart, so she immediately thought of it, but she was not sure. "Does this mean that Amber went back to find Mel's biological father? Does this mean that Mel's biological father is Rodney?"

Pierce nodded.

It was impossible for Amber to get married immediately after experiencing such a thing. She had not been pregnant for so many years. Even if she got married, it was impossible for her to get pregnant immediately. The old lady's face changed. Because of surprise, she suddenly raised her voice. "Is Mel's biological father Rodney?"

Breanna walked over with her small mouth. Just as she was about to knock on the door, she suddenly heard the surprised voice of the Old Madam from inside. Her outstretched hand suddenly stopped.

"Grandma, keep your voice down!" Pierce shook his head. The old lady was indeed the old lady. She immediately thought of it. "Don't tell anyone about this."

"I won't tell anyone. It's just that since the child belongs to Rodney, why didn't Amber tell him the truth? As the saying goes, tigers don't eat their children. No matter how bad he is, he won't be so cold-blooded as to not save his son, right?"

"Amber once called Rodney to cancel the engagement with Celia before Rodney got engaged, but he refused mercilessly." Pierce sighed. "It's really sad for Amber to meet such a cold-blooded man."

The old lady was furious. "It's rare for this Mu to be so vicious. Back then, Amber was blind." She blamed herself when she thought of how Amber married most of the time because of her. "It's all grandma's fault. If it weren't for grandma, she wouldn't be like this. I'm a sinner! Good grandson, in the future, grandma won't stop you from being with Amber!"

"Grandma, it's all in the past. We have to look forward. It's not too late now!" Pierce comforted her. "Amber and I will definitely be together if we have a fate."

“That’s true. No matter how good the fate is, it can’t bear it!” The old lady sighed with emotion and told Pierce, “When Amber gets what he wants, as long as she wants, you can hold a wedding with her immediately!”

Breanna didn’t expect to hear such explosive news. She was shocked and didn’t dare to stay any longer. She quickly turned around and left.

Channing had just finished his work and was in a good mood. When he returned home in the evening, he had a rare smile on his face. Seeing that he was so happy, Shannon asked tentatively, “Is there anything happy today?”

Channing nodded. “Amber and Rodney are about to get married again.”

Shannon also smiled and said, “It’s a good thing. Have you decided on the date?”

“Just in a few days.” Channing was not sure.

“Amber has wronged her when she married Rodney last time. This time, we must prepare a big gift for Amber.” Shannon looked as happy as her daughter.

Channing was very surprised by her reaction. According to common sense, Shannon should not be too happy. After all, Rodney almost became her son-in-law. He looked at Shannon and asked, “Aren’t you unhappy at all?”

“No, how can I not be happy? Amber and Rodney are a couple. It was because I will atone for my sins in the future that Celia broke them up for her. Now that they can be together, I am very happy.”

“But Celia may not think so. After all, she has given her heart to Rodney.” Channing sighed. “You should spend more time with Celia in the near future and comfort her. If it doesn’t work, you can accompany her on a vacation to relax.”

Channing rarely cared about Celia like that, but Shannon felt a little strange when she agreed. “Did the sun rise from the west today? Something must have happened when Channing suddenly changed.”

Shannon quickly told Itzel that Amber and Rodney were about to get married again. Itzel went to find Rachel and told her that Rodney was about to get married again with Amber.

Rachel seemed to be very anxious. After she failed to plot against her son last time, Rodney had a lot of opinions on her. Not only did he disappear, but he didn't even call her. She took the initiative to call him but didn't pick up. Rachel was anxious and angry. If Amber, the star of death, really got married to her son, she wouldn't be able to live the rest of her life.

She couldn't let her son and Amber get married again. She had to think of a way as soon as possible. Itzel told her not to worry. She said that she would go talk to Kelsey. Rodney was worried that they wouldn't guard against Kelsey, so he spent a little money to get Kelsey to help him. Rachel thought about it for a while but couldn't think of any other way, so she agreed.

The next day, Amber told Ashton about Rodney's proposal. Ashton was silent for a while. "Amber, I don't support your reunion with Rodney!"

Her uncle had never cared about her personal affairs. In the past, no matter what she did, he always supported her. This sudden opposition surprised Amber. "Why?"

"Is it because you're in love or because of your child that you're reunited with him?"

"Because of the child," Amber replied. "It'll be much better for the child to be with his own father."

"I don't think it's necessary if it's just for the sake of the child and Rodney's reunion. Pierce and Elliot will also be good to the child. They're no worse than Rodney. There's no need for you to suffer." Ashton tried to persuade him.

"Uncle, I know that Pierce and Elliot are very kind to me, but Elliot is engaged now. Pierce is too kind. I don't want to drag him down."

"Amber, this is not a burden. For those who love you, being able to take care of you is their happiest thing. Uncle hopes that you can carefully consider and deal with Rodney's matters. He doesn't only have a history, but he has an unreasonable mother. With her around, there will always be trouble between you and him. Uncle doesn't want you to do as you did in the past, so Uncle doesn't support your reunion with Rodney."

Ashton's worries were the same as Amber's worries. She left Ashton's residence in a heavy mood. On the way back, she received a call from Rodney, saying that he would go home late tonight and let her eat alone. She didn't want to wait for him.

Amber didn't want to come back and deal with dinner outside. She remembered that she hadn't had spicy hotpot for a long time. She was going to have spicy hotpot for dinner, but she didn't expect that Elliot would call her and say that he would treat her to dinner tonight.

I haven't seen Elliot for a long time, so Amber didn't refuse.

Elliot's treat was naturally not a small place. He brought Amber to the Huston Palace. The Huston Palace was a famous sightseeing restaurant in the South City. It had 360 degrees of Panoramic View, which rotated at a slow speed, especially in the evening.

Not only could he taste delicious food, but he could also enjoy the beautiful night scene of South City.

Amber had long heard of the name of the Huston Palace. Not only was the environment here good, but the taste of the dishes was also unique. Of course, the cost was also scary. If Elliot hadn't brought her here, Amber wouldn't have had the confidence to come here.

Sitting in the revolving restaurant, eating delicious food, and looking at the brightly lit bustling city outside, it was indeed a kind of enjoyment. However, Amber thought that Elliot didn't just invite him to dinner. He hadn't appeared for such a long time, so there must be something he wanted to say to himself.

Today, Ashton called him and told him that Amber was going to reconcile with Rodney. He asked him to find a way to stop it, so Elliot asked Amber to meet him.

Elliot was really upset when he heard that Amber was going to reunite with Rodney. After thinking for a while, he finally said, "Is it true that I heard your uncle say that you are going to reconcile with Rodney today?"

Amber was a little embarrassed. "What's wrong with my uncle? Why does he like gossiping like those old women? She just went back to discuss it with him, but he immediately told Elliot. She hid it and took a sip of water. "I'm still considering."

“If it’s just for the sake of the child, I don’t think there’s a need for you to reunite with him. Let’s not talk about whether Rodney truly loves you or not. His mother is a problem. We haven’t even been together yet, yet she’s already in such a deadlock. It’s easy to imagine what kind of life we’ll have in the future.”

Elliot’s words were the same as Ashton’s. “You came here from Rachel’s power. I think you should be very clear about what you and Rodney will face. For the sake of your and your child’s happiness, I think you should consider it carefully.”

“I’ll consider what you say.”

“Amber, there are many good men in the world. For example, Pierce and I are the best men among men. Even if you choose with your eyes closed, you shouldn’t choose Rodney.”

His self-introduction made Amber laugh. “Come on. If you have a boss, go to the side!”

His words made Elliot’s eyes dim. He and Amber could have been together, but he missed it by chance.

Now he was engaged to Breanna. Although he did not love Breanna, he was a man of his word. The three-year promise was made by him and Breanna. If Breanna could stick to it, he could not go back on his word.

“I’m just making an analogy. You don’t want me, but Pierce is better than Mr. Barron, isn’t he? Mel likes Pierce so much. For the sake of the child, you should also choose Pierce!”

As she spoke, she heard a familiar voice. “Our seat is over there!”

Amber looked up and saw a pair of familiar figures appear in front of her. Rodney had something to do tonight, which was to accompany Kelsey to have dinner here. Amber sneered.

If Elliot hadn’t invited her here for dinner, she wouldn’t have been able to witness such a good show with her own eyes. When she thought of how gentle and considerate Rodney had been to her during this period of time, as well as how he had proposed to her last night, the smile on Amber’s lips deepened.

“That’s great! Fortunately, I didn’t believe him!”

Elliot followed Amber’s gaze and saw Rodney and Kelsey. A cold smile appeared on the corner of his mouth. “Rodney is trying to enjoy a happy life with his lover. He wants to get back together with Amber while having a fierce fight with his lover.”

However, he didn’t expect to bump into Amber so coincidentally today. It was such a coincidence. He thought to himself as he looked at Amber. When he saw Amber’s face, his face darkened instantly.

She put down the chopsticks in her hand. “I’m full!”

“I’m full too. Let’s go!” Elliot left with Amber thoughtfully. Along the way, Amber had been silent with a gloomy face. Although she didn’t say anything, Elliot knew that she had made a conclusion about Rodney. The man Rodney probably had no chance this time.

Kelsey said that she would leave the day after tomorrow, so she invited Rodney out for a meal to express her gratitude for taking care of him over the years. The most important reason why she was with Kelsey was that her experience was similar to Amber’s. Not only that, but she also looked a little similar to Amber. Kelsey comforted him on those lonely days in the past.

Kelsey was a good girl. She knew when to advance and when to retreat. She had never caused him any trouble. Now that she was going abroad to further her studies, Rodney would naturally not reject her.

Kelsey had never drunk before, saying that she was allergic to alcohol. But today, she took the initiative to ask for wine and poured a cup of wine for him. “Rodney, I propose a toast to you on behalf of tea!”

Rodney raised his wine glass and said, “I wish you a smooth journey!”

After the two of them drank a glass of wine, Kelsey poured another glass for Rodney. “I know that Rodney’s stomach is not good, so I don’t advise you to drink more. You should drink three glasses of wine today.”

Rodney nodded. “Alright, let’s have three cups!”

Kelsey enthusiastically served the dishes for Rodney. “Rodney, it’s all because of you that Kelsey is here today. You are my benefactor. In this life, Kelsey has no way to repay you. In your next life, I will do anything to repay you!”

“Why are you saying such things?” Rodney was stunned.

“I’m just happy and excited.” Kelsey poured Rodney a second glass of wine. The two clinked their glasses. “I wish Rodney a happy and happy life.”

“I love to hear that.” Rodney smiled and drank it up. “He’ll marry Amber soon. He’ll be happy for the rest of his life.”

Kelsey poured a third glass of wine for Rodney. “Kelsey is young and ignorant. What’s there to be sorry for, Rodney? Please forgive her. Don’t argue with Kelsey!”

Rodney quickly drank the third glass of wine. It was still early after the meal. Rodney could not drive if he drank, so he called the designated driver. Rodney ordered the designated driver to send Kelsey home first and then sent him home, but he did not expect to see Celia on the way.

Her car was out of order and she was standing on the side of the road in a hurry. Rodney didn’t want to pay attention to it. Kelsey reminded him, “Rodney, isn’t that Ms. Black? She seems to be in trouble. Let’s go and have a look.”

Hearing Kelsey’s words, Rodney couldn’t pretend that he couldn’t see, so he ordered the driver to stop the car. “What happened?”

“Brother-in-law, my car is broken.” Celia was pitiful.

“Did you call the repair plant?”

“Yes.” As they were talking, someone came over. Kelsey warmly invited Celia to get in the car. “Ms. Black, get in the car. It’s cold downstairs!”

“Is that okay?” Celia looked at Rodney pitifully.

Rodney frowned. Thinking of the designated driver and Kelsey, he nodded and said, “Come on up!”

Celia got in the car, and Kelsey suggested, "This is relatively close to my apartment. Rodney, send me back first before sending Ms. Black back!"

Rodney nodded. He didn't drink much, but he felt a little dizzy. So he sat in the back row and closed his eyes to rest. Unconsciously, he fell asleep.

Seeing that Rodney was asleep, Kelsey and Celia sent him back to the Barron family home together. Rachel and Itzel had been waiting impatiently for a long time. When they saw them coming, their faces were filled with joy. They immediately helped Rodney up the stairs together with them.

At this point, Kelsey's task was completed. She got up and left the Barron family. Rachel and Itzel motioned for Celia to enter Rodney's room. "Take this opportunity and try to get pregnant!"

After closing the door, a cold smile appeared on Celia's face. Today, she had an old friend with her, so how could she get in touch with him when he was unconscious?

She didn't come here tonight to have a relationship with Rodney, but to fake a scene that had happened so that Rachel could believe it.

Itzel had told her that the sm provided by Rodney had been kept. After tonight, she would take her to use frozen sm as a test tube baby. By then, as long as she got pregnant successfully, with Rachel's protection, she would see where Rodney could run off to.

In the past, she only knew how to pretend to be gentle and win Rodney's favor. But now, she understood that she did not want to be a subordinate of a man. She also wanted to live for herself. Her mother was right. If a person did not have self-esteem, she would never succeed. But now, she could change everything.

Elliot sent Amber back to the Scent Villa and left. Amber was in a bad mood and felt that she had no energy to do anything. She watched TV in the living room for a while, but Rodney had not come back yet. She went upstairs to take a shower. When she came out of the bathroom, she heard the phone ringing. Noemi complained, "It's really hard to get through to your phone."

"I was taking a shower just now," Amber replied.

"Guess who I saw on the way? Rodney and Kelsey..."

“I saw them in the Huston Palace.” Amber interrupted her.

“No, I haven’t finished my words yet. In addition to Kelsey, there is also Celia. What do you think Rodney wants to do? You have to be on your guard and don’t be silly enough to believe his words.”

“I got it,” Amber replied.

“By the way, you and Rodney have been together for some time. Do you have any news?” Noemi asked again.

“I’m going to the hospital in a few days.”

After hanging up the phone, Amber was in a daze for a while. Why did Rodney and Celia, Kelsey, get together? She couldn’t figure it out. She rubbed her forehead and thought, “Forget it. No matter what Rodney does, it has nothing to do with me. I don’t need to worry about this. I’ll go to the hospital to have a check in a few days. If there is any news, I’ll leave.”

This was what she was thinking in her heart, but she still couldn’t fall asleep. When she saw that Rodney hadn’t returned after 12 o’clock, she thought for a moment and called him. The person who answered the phone was Rachel. She said in a strange tone, “Rodney is sleeping. Why are you so shameless to call him?”

Amber was stunned. Wasn’t Rodney with Kelsey and Celia? Why did he come home again? Rachel said something unpleasant over there, “Amber, you are a good person. Why do you have to do such shameless things? I’m telling you, don’t dream of marrying Rodney again. I will never agree!”

Knowing that Rachel didn’t have any good words, Amber didn’t want to make things difficult for her, so he hung up the phone before she could finish. Listening to the beeping sound from the phone, Rachel muttered, “It’s still impolite. I really don’t know what Rodney likes about her.”

It was already noon the next day when Rodney opened his eyes. When his eyes met the familiar decorations in the room, he was shocked. How could he be on the bed at home? The door was knocked. Rachel came in with a bowl of soup and said, “Son, Mom made a bowl of soup for you. Drink it.”

“Why am I here?” Rodney looked at her in shock.

“Don’t you remember? It was Celia who sent you back.” Rachel kept silent about what had happened last night. Celia left Rodney’s room in the middle of the night. It was still unknown whether Itzel could get pregnant. She asked Rachel not to tell anyone about it. She would tell Rodney about it when she got pregnant, so as not to mess up the plan.

There was a fragrant smell in the room. Rodney rubbed his forehead and sat up. He found that he was not wearing clothes. “Who helped me take off my clothes?”

“It’s my mother who helped you take off your clothes. I’m afraid you won’t be able to sleep well if you wear them,” Rachel explained.

“Didn’t he just drink a few cups of wine? How could he be so drunk?” Rodney had an intuition that there was something wrong. Seeing Rachel standing by the bed with a bowl of soup in her hand, Rodney was a little impatient. “Mom, can you go out?”

“After you drink the soup, I’ll leave.”

“I don’t dare to drink your soup!” Rodney sneered. “You’d better go out.”

“You don’t know what’s good for you.” Rachel muttered and turned to leave. Rodney hurriedly put on his clothes and got up. He reached out to touch his mobile phone, but it was not on him. He opened the door and shouted at Rachel, “Mom, where is my mobile phone?”

“Over here.” Rachel pointed to the tea table in the living room.

Rodney hurried downstairs to pick up his phone. When he saw that there was a call from Amber, his face changed. “Did you answer the phone from Amber?”

“Yes.”

“What did you say to Amber?”

“I didn’t say anything. I just said that you were sleeping, so I told her not to disturb you.”

How could Rodney believe it? He was very clear about his mother’s identity. How could he give up such an opportunity to humiliate Amber? He had to ask

Amber about the situation immediately. Rodney called Amber while driving, but it was an excuse. He called Kelsey again. "What happened last night? Why was I sent home by Celia?"

Kelsey was very innocent. "I don't know. Dai Fang sent me home first."

Rodney felt that things were not that simple. Of course, he did not doubt that Kelsey lied to him. He just thought that there was something wrong with Celia, so he called Deon and said, "Keep an eye on Celia and see what she is doing recently."

Amber felt uneasy that Rodney did not come back. Noemi's call reminded her that it had been more than half a month since she and Rodney came back. She would be able to find out within ten days. She had to try to buy a box of drug products. As she promised, she immediately went to the pharmacy outside to buy a set of drug products.

She couldn't sleep well that night. On one hand, it was a matter of health care. On the other hand, it was a matter of Rodney. As soon as the sky began to brighten, Amber got up. It wasn't a good idea to climb up a test. She opened several test papers at once.

A few minutes later, there were two red lines on the tickets. She won the prize!

Amber stared at the red line and was stunned. She couldn't believe it at all. She and Rodney had only been pregnant for five years, and this only lasted for one month. She couldn't believe it.

She rubbed her eyes again. "That's right. There are two red lines on it." Amber squatted down and cried with his hands covering his face. This was tears of joy. Her Mel, her Mel, could be saved!

Almost instinctively, she grabbed the phone and wanted to call Pierce to tell him about the good news. When she was about to dial, she stopped again. She was still worried that there would be some mistakes in the call, so she had to make sure that nothing would go wrong.

Amber decided to go to the hospital to see the result. She had breakfast in a hurry and took a taxi to the South City Hospital.

She came too early and the hospital had not started to work yet. Although the hospital did not officially go to work, there were still many people waiting in line to register in the hall.

Amber also joined the crowd of people who lined up to register. Soon, she hung up the account and saw that there was still a while before the doctor's work time. Amber was really bored, so she stood next to the publicity board of the hospital and looked at the news board. She still felt that the time was difficult.

Every five minutes, she looked at her watch and heard a familiar voice behind her in a hurry. "Mom, we came too early."

"Isn't this Celia's voice?" Amber turned his head slightly and saw Celia and Shannon coming in from another door, wearing sunglasses.

"You don't have to wait in line," Shannon replied.

"If you are afraid of waiting in line, come Club Cobalt. Anyway, you have Aunt Itzel. Why are you so early?" Celia was a little unhappy. Last night, she just went home in the middle of the night. Early in the morning, she was pulled up by Shannon to check her body. She had a good dream and was full of resentment.

"Let's take a look at your health first. The sooner, the better. Idiot!" Shannon said as she grabbed her daughter's hand and hurried upstairs. The mother and daughter were in a hurry and did not see Amber standing beside the bulletin board at all.

Amber heard the conversation between the mother and daughter clearly. "Aunt Itzel? Itzel is in the hospital's expert clinic. Are they referring to Itzel?"

Aunt Itzel called Celia so intimately. Was Itzel very familiar with them?

It was almost time for Amber to go upstairs. The seer was on the second floor, and the seer was on the third floor. Amber saw Shannon and her daughter go up to the third floor.

She went straight to the orthopedics clinic on the second floor. When the doctor heard that she was going to have a blood test, he gave her a list and asked her to have a blood test. Soon, Amber went to have a blood test. The doctor asked her to come over at noon to get the list.

Seeing that it was still early, Amber went outside to wait. She did not go far. There was a small garden between the hospital ward building and the clinic building. There were rockery, spray pools, flowers and trees. It was quiet and the scenery was good.

Amber went to the garden. She sat by the sink, reading the news with her phone.

Sure enough, it was quiet here. Amber watched the news for a while, and suddenly heard a familiar voice. "What were you doing just now with a straight face? What did you think of Itzel? She did it for your own good."

Her seat was blocked by a rockery. Amber could see Celia and her daughter, but they couldn't see her.

"I can't be happy!" Celia replied.

"No matter how unhappy you are, you have to be happy. This time, you are lucky. You can have your period. This time, we can check the necessary check-up of the period together. When the period is cleaned, we will check it again."

Celia was extremely impatient. "It's so annoying. Haven't these been checked before? Why do they have to be checked this time?"

"My enemy, I checked it out three years ago, but now three years have passed. If you don't check it out, what will you do?" Shannon tried to comfort her. "This is for your own good. Please be more troublesome. We have to make sure that nothing will go wrong!"

"When I saw Itzel's face, I panicked. Mom, can we go to another hospital? I don't want to deal with her at all." Celia still looked unhappy.

"No, I can only leave this matter to her. I'm not worried about others."

"Why do you trust her so much? She is so vicious that she can hurt her niece. I'm afraid that she will do something to me."

“It’s different. Don’t worry. She won’t do harm to anyone.” Shannon comforted her daughter. “Hold on. Remember to smile at her. Don’t be sad, okay?”

Celia reluctantly agreed to leave with Shannon. Amber was very surprised. What did the mother and daughter want to do in the hospital? From their conversation, it seemed that they were dissatisfied with Itzel. They said that Itzel was vicious to her niece. As far as she knew, Itzel had no relatives. Who was her niece?

Was there any check-up needed to be done at the same time during the period and during the period of menstruation? Did Celia have any cervical diseases?

Rodney said that he agreed to be engaged to Celia because Itzel said that Celia could not have a baby. Could it be that Celia came to the hospital to treat infertility?

There were so many questions lingering in her mind that Amber couldn’t figure them out. After sitting in the garden for a while, she saw that it was about time, so she got up and went to the hospital.

Amber took the test sheet and went to the doctor’s clinic to have a look. The doctor looked at the list and told her, “Look at the test sheet and make sure that you are not online!”

Amber was overjoyed. He thanked the doctor and hurried out of the hospital. At the gate of the hospital, she couldn’t wait to call Pierce. “Pierce, I’m pregnant!”

“Really!” Pierce’s voice changed as soon as he heard it. He was completely surprised. “Thank God, we don’t have to worry about it anymore!”

“That’s right. Thank God for giving me hope. My son can be saved!” Amber also felt that it was not easy.

“Mom, when will you come back?” Mel interrupted.

“Just for a few days, my good son. Mom will come to accompany you soon!” Amber kissed the phone, and Mel’s voice came from the other side.

“Mom, come back quickly. Uncle Pierce has a surprise for you!”

“What surprise?”

“I can’t tell you now. I’ll tell you when you come back!”

“This guy is mysterious.” Amber smiled.

After hanging up the phone, she found that there were a few missed calls from Rodney. Rodney had been eating with Kelsey last night, and now he finally remembered to call her.

Amber ignored him. He waved his hand to stop the taxi and went back to Scent Villa.

Hanging up the phone, Mel shook Pierce’s hand. “Uncle Pierce, I didn’t tell mom about the surprise just now. You have to reward me!”

Mel looked at him with a pair of beautiful eyes, like the brightest star in the starry sky. Pierce smiled, picked up Mel, and kissed her. Then he walked around the house.

Mel giggled, and his laughter filled the room. He finally had a father! When he first heard about it, he was very happy. He wanted a father and a father like Uncle Pierce. Now this matter was about to come true, and he was really happy.

Pierce got tired and put Mel down. Mel nestled in his arms. “Uncle Pierce, you won’t change your mind, will you?”

Pierce reached out and rubbed his hair. He said dotingly, “Don’t worry. When did Uncle Pierce lie to you?”

“Yes! Uncle Pierce, you’re the best!” Mel smiled so hard that her eyes narrowed into a line.

In the Scent Villa.

Amber took a taxi back here and began to pack up as soon as he entered the door.

She had expected that there would be a day today. She didn’t bring many things with her, so it was very convenient for her to pack them up. But in less than ten minutes, she packed them up.

Looking at the packed luggage, her heart was filled with joy and a faint sense of loss. She looked around the house again. Looking at the familiar layout, she couldn't help but be stunned when she thought of what Rodney had said to her here.

If he hadn't lied to her last night, he wouldn't have returned home last night, and that phone call...

Perhaps today, she would really be with Rodney, and then tell him Mel's background, and then...

"How is that possible..." She shook her head and patted her face. "Amber, wake up. Don't be fooled by the superficial things again. Otherwise, you will regret it."

She was reminding herself not to sink into the mud again. That man was no longer worthy of her trust.

Amber walked out of here resolutely. The most important thing for her now was Mel's illness.

Amber soon went to the airport. She was so lucky that she bought a ticket from the counter. Sitting in the lounge, she took out her mobile phone and called Noemi. "I'm back in the United States."

"You're pregnant?" Noemi was stunned and then understood. She sighed and said, "Are you going to give up on him?"

Subconsciously, she still hoped that she would stay, but her happiness...

"I can't say that I gave up. I haven't had any hope since three years ago. If it weren't for the child, I wouldn't have..."

Noemi also understood what she meant. "Well, what about you and Pierce? He has really been very kind to you for so many years."

Sometimes, people would be jealous of Amber. Not to mention Rodney's various situations, just Pierce alone was enough to make people want to throw themselves into his arms immediately.

Amber shook his head unconsciously. "I don't deserve him."

He was sure that he would be forced into a dead end.

Hanging up the phone, she was a little absent-minded. Under Noemi's number was Rodney's. Her fingers, which she wanted to press the button to get through, turned a little white because she had used too much force.

After a while, she pressed the call button and said hesitantly, "Hello..." She felt dry in her mouth.

"Amber, what's wrong?" Rodney was actually a little excited that she had taken the initiative to call him.

However, he didn't speak for a long time on the other end of the phone. Suddenly, he felt scared. He seemed to have foreseen something in such silence. "Amber, what are you talking about?" He urged hurriedly.

"I'm leaving. I'll take the plane back to America in ten minutes." This time, she didn't want to hide it. Everyone broke up.

Rodney's fingertips turned white, and he clenched his fists tightly. "Why? Is it because of Pierce?"

He didn't even need to think about mentioning that person's name. For so many years, he still had to stay between them.

"Yes." He didn't want to explain too much, but he unconsciously put his hand on his lower abdomen.

"How can you treat me like this? You promised me! You said that we would start from the beginning..." The pen in his hand was cut into the skin and flesh, but he did not know that blood was overflowing silently.

Amber smiled coldly, and the emptiness in his heart kept expanding. "Really? But I don't believe you... In fact, I gave you a chance... Unfortunately... we still missed it."

She missed the past, missed each other, and she didn't want to continue today.

After that, he hung up the phone, closed his eyes, and silently swallowed the emptiness in his heart.

"Everyone, nice to meet you. The flight to the US is about to take off..." The radio was broadcasting again and again.

Amber stood up and walked to the ticket check, with the hope of Mel.

When Kelsey walked into the office, she saw the absent-minded Rodney.
“Rodney, what’s wrong with your hand?”

She sent the documents here and was about to go abroad. She had been doing business management for the past few days.

Rodney raised his head and looked at her. The corner of his lips curled into a pale smile that made one feel despair. “We’re done for.”

“Big Rodney... what’s wrong with you?”

This sentence made him faint for no reason.

...

“Mom!” As soon as Mel saw her mom, she was overjoyed and ran over.

Amber got rid of all his worries when he saw Mel. He opened his arms and hugged her tightly.

“Did you miss your mother?” she asked happily.

The child nodded desperately in her arms. “Mom, I am very obedient. I came to pick you up today with the permission of the doctor.”

Amber’s heart ached as he let go of him. He almost forgot that he was still a patient.

“Yes, I’ve consulted the doctor. He was allowed to come out.” Pierce walked over, still handsome. He seemed to always have such a refreshing smile on his face.

Amber held Mel’s hand and stood up. “Pierce.”

Long time no see!

“Let’s go back!” It was always Pierce’s style of doing things.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 148

When he drove back to the Hammond family, he saw Old Hammond and Breanna sitting in the living room as soon as he entered the door. Amber felt a little embarrassed instantly. In fact, he didn't expect that Pierce would take her directly to the Hammond family's mansion.

"Hello, Mrs. Hammond, Ms. Hammond." She looked at Pierce awkwardly and was about to greet him.

The old lady stood up and looked Amber up and down. There was a faint smile on her kind face. "Mel, come and show me."

Just when Amber thought he would be scolded, she squatted down and waved at Mel.

"Great grandma." Mel ran over happily.

Breanna stood up and smiled. "Brother, Grandma said that I'm starving to death when you come back for dinner." She complained and went to the dining table.

After dinner, Old Hammond took Amber to her room.

She took out a brocade box. Amber opened it for no reason. A jade green ring was lying in it, selling noodles.

"This is?" Amber looked at the old lady in confusion.

The old lady looked at it and said in a serious voice, "This is a family heirloom. It's not something precious. It's just that I have to pass it on to my daughter-in-law."

"But... !!" Halfway through her words, she finally understood what the Old Madam meant. She looked at her incredulously. She remembered that the Old Madam had opposed it so firmly at that time. Why did it change now?

The old lady nodded with relief. She looked at her and said, "Mel is a good child. I hope he can have a complete family and my grandson can be happy. My family misunderstood you before, and now the old woman has thought it through. It doesn't matter who my granddaughter-in-law is. What matters is that I should be happy."

Amber really didn't know what kind of expression she should have on her face. She had suffered so much in the past, but she still returned to her side. But at this moment, she was already a divorced woman with two children.

What kind of identity would she have to stand by his side when Pierce was so outstanding?

"I'm sorry, grandma. I have someone else's child in my belly." At this time, she didn't know what else to do except to bluff.

The old lady was stunned and immediately understood what she meant. She sighed deeply and said, "I understand what you have experienced over the years. There is also my mistake. If it weren't for..."

"No, Grandma, these have nothing to do with you, so you don't have to do this." She handed the brocade box back.

After saying a lot more, Amber finally ended the conversation with a sentence.

Walking out of the old lady's room, Pierce stood at the door in a refreshing manner. Amber looked at him nervously, which was rare for him to feel a little uneasy.

"I'm pregnant, Pierce." That was his first sentence. She didn't know how to refuse. The person in front of her was so beautiful that she couldn't trample on his reputation like this.

Pierce raised his head and his handsome eyes became more and more charming. "You know I never care about it."

"But I care. I can't let you suffer such humiliation," she said firmly.

"You're the one who didn't want to, right? You're still in love with Rodney, aren't you?" The smile on his face was still the same as before.

Amber was stunned. His intuition told him that he didn't want to answer this question.

The next day, she got up very early. It could also be said that she didn't sleep at all.

Mel and Pierce had been exercising for a long time. It was already a habit for her to go to the kitchen to prepare breakfast.

Breanna got up and received a call from Elliot. When she saw the name, she was overjoyed. "Why is Elliot so early?"

"Amber is back in the United States, isn't he?" As soon as she said that, Breanna's face darkened in an instant.

He never took the initiative to call her. It turned out that this time it was not for her, but for Amber again.

"Yes, I'm back!" she said happily. She didn't want Elliot to dislike her, but she wasn't that kind to Amber.

After hanging up the phone, she went downstairs. The old lady also came out of the room. She trotted forward and said, "Grandma."

The Old Madam walked up to her warmly. However, she smiled faintly and went downstairs.

Breanna's face stiffened and she put all the blame on Amber.

In the evening, Pierce and Mel suddenly disappeared. Amber said that she would go out to buy something, so she didn't think much about it and followed them. When she returned to her room, she called the doctor to make an appointment for a check-up tomorrow.

Everything was ready. She looked at the time, and it was already seven o'clock in the evening. At this time, Mel should be resting. When she opened the door, she was shocked by the colorful lights in the room. She went to the fence and covered her mouth with her hands.

The large living room was empty, and a heart-shaped candle formation was placed downstairs. Pierce was dressed in an exquisite tuxedo, noble and elegant. This man had the most beautiful eyes, and Amber was unconsciously immersed in it.

"I'll marry you, Amber!"

Amber was moved to tears by the proposal. If it had happened in those years, she would have agreed without hesitation.

However... his hand unconsciously covered his lower abdomen. There was a life there. It was a pity that their father was not Pierce.

“You should be happy to marry his child.” The old lady smiled.

Amber looked at Pierce. He had never been a romantic person, but today he did this because of her. She understood his heart that he had waited for a long time these years.

She slowly walked down the stairs and walked up to him. She asked, “Pierce, do you really not mind what happened over the years, as well as the child in my belly?”

Shaking his head, Pierce did not hesitate. There were more or less his factors along the way. He did not have the right to care about her. He could not wait to give her happiness.

Tears rolled down her cheeks silently, but she nodded in agreement.

Pierce put the ring on her hand and hugged her tightly. His heart was filled in an instant.

Behind her, Breanna had no expression on her face, but she was extremely uneasy in her heart. She had once harmed Amber. There was no secret in the world. If Amber knew about this in the future, she would definitely not spare her. In the future, her brother would definitely take over the Hammond family. Her brother liked Amber so much, so he would definitely obey her words. How could she live by then?

Her relationship with Elliot was already in imminent danger. If she did not have the support of her family, it would definitely be more difficult in the future. Not only would her life be difficult, but her parents would also have a hard time.

No! She couldn't let her brother marry Amber. She had to find a way to stop him.

“Amber, can we have a talk?” After cleaning up the scene, Breanna walked up to her and asked.

Raising his head, Amber nodded with some embarrassment. The decision just now was indeed a little impulsive. Maybe it had been a long time since she felt happy. Pierce made her feel warm.

When they walked out of the Hammond Residence, they saw a large garden outside. Breanna went straight to the point. "Why did you agree to my brother's proposal? I thought you would know when to stop."

Amber frowned and looked at her in confusion. "Stop now? I don't understand what you're talking about."

Breanna snorted and said, "Don't you understand? You clearly know that Elliot likes you. You showed up in my house in such a straightforward way and he will call you sister-in-law in the future. Don't you think it's embarrassing for you to have such a relationship?"

She was a princess who had been spoiled since she was a child, so she naturally did not know what it meant to hurt people, nor did she know what it meant to be tactful.

Amber listened silently. Breanna was right. She had an apology to Elliot, but she would not back down. This time, she was not willing to give up her rare chance of happiness.

She wanted to learn to gamble once, once with her and Pierce's happiness.

She raised her head and said confidently, "Ms. Hammond, I know what you think, but Pierce and I really want to do everything. I only hope that you can bless us. As for Elliot, I believe he will understand."

Breanna was stunned. She didn't understand why Amber, who had never had a temper, suddenly became so tough. With the anger in her heart, her tone became harsh. "What blessing? You're just a married woman with a child, and you don't deserve to be with my brother? Amber, look at yourself! You didn't deserve it in the past, but now you don't!"

"Breanna, what are you talking about!" Pierce's voice suddenly sounded with unprecedented anger.

Seeing Breanna's pale face, Pierce went straight to Amber and held his hand. He looked at Breanna coldly and said, "Just take care of yourself. It's not up to you to talk about my business!"

After that, she pulled Amber and walked back.

Amber looked curiously at the side of his face. She had never seen such a powerful Pierce before, so she couldn't help smiling.

They disappeared at the corner. Breanna looked at them with hatred. She was unwilling to see Pierce never talk to her like this. He had always doted on her.

"It's all that woman's fault... Just wait and see!"

In the hospital ward in South City.

Rodney slowly opened his eyes and looked around to make sure that this was a hospital.

She slowly sat up and touched a person with her hand. Her eyes lit up and she turned her head, but the next moment, her eyes dimmed.

It wasn't Amber!

Celia was awakened. She raised her head and looked at him happily. "You're awake..."

Rodney nodded and looked at her coldly. "Why are you here?"

"Kelsey told me that she was not going abroad. She didn't have time to take care of you, so I came here." At that time, Kelsey was really scared when she said that. When she heard that it was because of Amber's departure, she was jealous and happy.

There was no problem with her physical examination. Itzel said that she could have an operation right away...

She looked at Rodney happily. Perhaps he would be the child's father in the near future.

"What are you laughing at?" His head was still hurting. Looking at this silly woman, he felt even more headache.

Shaking her head, Celia stood up and poured him a cup of tea. At this moment, Rodney's cell phone rang.

He picked it up and saw that it was a foreign number. He immediately picked it up with joy. "Amber..."

“Why do you think it’s Amber?” Breanna’s somewhat unfamiliar voice rang out from the other end of the phone. Rodney head was taken aback for a moment before he regained his senses.

“You are...” Not Amber, he was a little disappointed.

The corners of Breanna’s mouth curved up. “I’m Breanna, Pierce’s younger sister. Mr. Barron, you don’t have a good memory.”

Rodney was slightly stunned. Breanna? That was to say, Elliot’s fiancée.

“What’s the matter?” He wanted to hang up, but he had nothing to say to these people.

Naturally, Breanna would not let him hang up. “My brother proposed to your beloved woman today. Don’t you want to know the result? Amber has agreed.”

He closed his eyes. “Amber, you really can’t wait!”

“Amber agreed, but that’s not what I want to tell you.” Breanna paused for a moment. “Mr. Barron... do you know who Mel is?” That was the purpose of her call.

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 149

Rodney didn’t say anything. It didn’t matter whose child Mel was. What was important was that Amber had promised Pierce, and she had finally promised Pierce! Her heart was incomparably painful.

“Let me tell you, Mel is your son!”

“Nonsense!” Rodney was stunned. He had already asked Deon to investigate Mel’s identity. Breanna must be talking nonsense.

“I’m not talking nonsense. Mel is indeed your son.” Breanna’s voice was very clear. “I heard what grandma and brother said. It can’t be wrong!”

The phone almost fell to the ground. After a long while, he found his voice. “How is that possible?”

Breanna sneered. Needless to say, she knew what Rodney looked like. He must be extremely surprised!

“When you divorced, Amber was pregnant. She hated you so much that she didn’t tell you. This time, Mel got sick and went back to South City for the sake of Mel’s health. She wanted to have another child with you to save Mel with blood!” Breanna said it clearly, but the always smart man was stunned.

The phone fell to the ground and he sat there motionlessly. He was so smart that he couldn’t figure out the logic of this matter.

“What’s wrong?” Celia looked at his expression and felt that something had happened. However, Rodney ran out of the ward without saying anything.

Celia, who wanted to chase after him, had already disappeared. The bad feeling in her heart grew stronger and stronger. Who was the person who had just called Rodney?

“Deon ordered the fastest flight to the United States. I want to go abroad immediately.” He went straight to the underground parking lot and started the car and flew out like an arrow.

At the airport.

“Why did the president suddenly want to go to the United States?” Deon was a little confused.

“Send me the specific location of the Hammond family’s old house. You must receive it before I get off the plane.” After that, he immediately went to the ticket entrance.

Deon shook his head. This matter must have something to do with Amber.

Early in the morning, Amber went to the hospital for an examination, accompanied by Pierce and Mel.

Mel was in good health, and so was Amber.

“Should we celebrate such a good thing?” Pierce said happily as he walked out of the hospital.

Mel was the first to lose her cool. “I ate delicious food.”

Amber smiled helplessly and felt a little distressed. He was so young, but he couldn't eat anything. She was the one who gave him this disease. He should have had a happy childhood.

"Okay, I'll make an exception today." Pierce found it hard to be so happy, so he put down the burden in his heart and thought that they should be happy.

It was just that...

Amber looked out of the window. "Is the person far away from me also happy?"

After dinner, they went to the park. For the whole day, they were as happy as a family and gave up all their troubles.

Back at the Hammond family's old house, Mel shouted happily from a distance, "Great Grandma, we're back!"

The tall and straight body of the man in the room instantly stiffened, and he slowly turned to look at the lively and wild child.

"His son!" He walked quickly to Mel and squatted down. His hand gently fell on Mel's face. At this moment, the air seemed to have frozen, and time seemed to have stopped. There was only his heartbeat left in the world, and it was so fierce that it almost jumped out of his chest.

Rodney's hand gently caressed Mel's face. That delicate skin, that pale face, that black and shiny eyes...

The corners of his mouth twitched unnaturally. This was his son, his son, and Amber's son.

The old lady sighed. In the end, there was still something wrong.

"Ma'am..." Amber was supposed to greet her, but out of the corner of his eye, he saw Rodney, who was dressed in a casual manner. His face suddenly turned pale.

Pierce also noticed his arrival. He stepped forward, nodded, and put his arm around Amber's shoulder. "It's okay. I'm here."

His voice sounded, and she instantly felt at ease. She stood up straight and looked at him. "Why are you here?"

She was so dry that she even felt uncomfortable when she said those words.

Rodney stood up and looked at her with monstrous anger in his eyes. “Of course you don’t want me to come. I just want to ask you what you’ve been hiding from me all these years.”

Amber staggered two steps. Fortunately, Pierce held him in time. Pierce looked at Breanna, who was gloating, intentionally or unintentionally.

“Mr. Barron, nice to meet you.” After pulling Amber behind him, Pierce stepped forward and stretched out his hand like a gentleman.

Breanna finally stopped smiling. Only she knew that her brother was at his most peaceful time. She really didn’t want to be affected.

The two men’s hands touched each other for a long time, but they did not let go. Both of them looked calm, but the people present felt a little bit like a storm was coming.

“Well, since Mr. Barron is here, just sit down and talk!” After all, the old lady was a person who had seen a big scene, so she was relatively calm. She then ordered the servant, “Bring tea!”

Pierce pulled Amber and Mel to sit down. Rodney also sat down. A servant came in with tea and politely handed it to Rodney. “Sir, please have some tea!”

Rodney took the tea and put it on the tea table next to him. He kept staring at Mel. Mel’s facial features were indeed very similar to Amber’s, but if you looked closely, you would find that she looked familiar. Why was he so stupid at that time? How could he believe Amber’s nonsense? How could he believe that Mel was the child of someone else?

Mel felt very uncomfortable under Rodney’s gaze. Why did he feel that Uncle Rodney seemed to have changed into another person? He used to like Uncle Rodney, but when he saw that Uncle Rodney was engaged to someone else, he didn’t like him anymore.

His mother had said that a person must keep his promise. Uncle Rodney had told him that he had to take care of him and his mother. He also liked Uncle Rodney, but he did not keep his promise. He hated people who did not keep their promises.

Looking at Mel snuggled up to Pierce and Amber, Rodney felt a surge of resentment in his heart. He waved at Mel and said, "Mel, come here!"

Mel shook her head and leaned closer to Pierce. She looked at Rodney with a pair of black eyes and asked, "Uncle Rodney what are you doing here?"

Rodney could not vent his anger on Mel. He tried his best to smile and said, "I'll deal with some things and visit Mel by the way."

"Thank you, Uncle Rodney." Mel was very polite. She grabbed Amber with one hand and Pierce with the other. "My mom and Uncle Pierce are getting married. I'm going to have a father soon!"

Upon hearing this, Rodney's face suddenly changed. He looked at Amber with red eyes. "Amber, let me ask you, who is Mel's father?"

Amber didn't say anything. Rodney must have known something since he was able to ask her righteously. However, Mel's background had always been a secret. How did he know that?

Mel did not understand the undercurrents between adults. He answered in a childish voice, "My father is dead!"

"He's dead!" Rodney sneered. How much did Amber hate him for telling the child that he was dead? "Amber, is Mel's father really dead? Huh?"

Amber didn't say anything but just nodded.

"Very good. I'll do an appraisal with Mel tomorrow. Everything is determined by the appraisal!"

"Why? My child, why should I let you do the appraisal with him?" Amber retorted.

"Is there something wrong with your heart?" Rodney sneered. "What are you afraid of?"

"I'm not afraid of anything. My son is ill and can't stand any te!"

"Really? Then what about the baby in your belly? As far as I know, you are pregnant now. Do you dare to say that the baby is not mine?" Rodney was aggressive. "Amber, things have come to this point. I already know everything that should be known. It's useless for you to hide it!"

“Mom, what do you mean by hiding it?”

“Well...” Amber didn’t know how to answer Mel’s question.

Rodney stared at her. “Amber, can you tell Mel with a clear conscience that who I am?”

Who on earth was in the wrong that led to today’s result?

Amber’s face turned pale. In the face of Rodney’s question, she had nothing to say. She even felt that it was difficult to breathe.

“Mr. Barron, Mel is still ill. Do you think it’s appropriate to discuss this topic in front of him?” Pierce reminded him.

Rodney took a look at Mel and forcefully suppressed the anger in his heart. The old lady got up and said, “Mel, you and Old Madam will go upstairs to play for a while.”

Although Mel was young, she was very sensitive to the strange atmosphere, so she obediently followed the old lady upstairs.

There were only Pierce, Amber, and Rodney left in the living room. Rodney felt a sharp pain in his heart as he looked at the two people sitting together. In his life, he hated it the most when Pierce knew Amber in front of him. What he hated most was when Amber had a place in his heart for Pierce. Now, seeing the two of them sitting together like a perfect couple, he really didn’t like it.

Pierce patted Amber’s hand comfortingly. “Mr. Barron, since you already know that we won’t hide it from you, Mel is indeed your child. However, now that Mel is ill, there’s no benefit in making trouble like this. I hope that you can take a step back and wait for Mel to recover before we talk about this matter.”

“I can’t say no about this, but my son is sick. As a father, I can’t just sit back and watch. I am here to declare my position. I will hire the best doctor for Mel. I will gather all the financial resources of the Barron Enterprises to treat my son.”

“Mel’s illness has been well controlled. Now we’ll wait for Amber to give birth to the baby and treat it with blood and water. So I hope you can think of something for him and let him continue to stay here for treatment.”

“There’s no problem with that! I’ll stay and keep him company.” Rodney was very straightforward.

“Can you leave your company alone?” Amber asked.

“Compared with my son, the company is nothing.”

“I mean, you’d better go back to South City. I’ll report Mel’s illness to you at any time...”

“No!” Rodney interrupted Pierce. “I must stay by my son’s side and take care of him! I can’t change this decision!”

“Rodney, you really don’t have to do this. Staying here won’t help anything. Mel has already accepted me as her father. Staying here will only make things more complicated.”

“Mr. Hammond, are you afraid that I will affect you? Don’t worry, I won’t affect you. You two love each other so far, and I can’t break you up.” Rodney’s tone was sarcastic. “But let me be frank with you. Mel is my child, and the baby in Amber’s belly is also my child. I, Rodney, will never let my child call another man’s father!”

Chasing My Rejected Wife Chapter 150

“Rodney, are you being unreasonable?” Amber was furious. “What right do you have to make such a decision?”

“Because I’m Mel’s father!”

“Father? How dare you say that? Who drove me out of the sect? From the moment you asked me to get out of my house, my child and I had nothing to do with you!” Amber retorted.

“Amber, I’ve already explained what happened back then to you. I had no choice but to do so!” Rodney clenched his fists, and the veins on his fists stood out, showing that he was in great pain. Back then, the pain was something that he could not touch. In the past few years, he had never felt at ease.

“Yes, you have your difficulties, but so what? Don’t you need to pursue the matter of killing people with difficulties?” Amber wanted to control his emotions, but he really couldn’t.

“Amber, I know I’m in the wrong. I’m willing to change. I’m willing to spend the rest of my life to atone for my sins. Is that okay?”

“No!” Amber refused straightforwardly. “Rodney, not all mistakes can be forgiven!”

“Don’t force me!” Rodney glared at Amber. “I told you that I won’t let my child call someone else father!”

“Father? In addition to providing life, what have you given Mel? Mr. Barron, ask yourself, do you really have the face to be a father?” Pierce reminded him.

“I will make up for it! I will do my best to make up for it!” Rodney repeated.

“But Mel won’t let you make up for it. For him, you are just a stranger. He doesn’t care about your compensation!”

“Amber, you don’t care about my compensation, do you? As Mel’s mother, what right do you have to strip me of my right to be a father?”

“When you were pregnant, your pregnant mother beat and kicked me, and you asked me to get out of the house. I rolled down the mountain and broke my leg. I ran around with my son and had no way out. When my son was sick, I called you to ask for help, but you refused. There were countless reasons for me to refuse you. What do you have to question?”

“I…” Rodney looked at Amber and didn’t say anything. He knew that he had hurt Amber too deeply and knew that he couldn’t be forgiven. Amber’s every word was a mistake that he couldn’t refute. He had committed a grave sin.

Seeing that Rodney was speechless, Amber didn’t feel relieved at all. Pierce didn’t feel sorry for him either. Pierce had seen very clearly what Amber had suffered back then.

Madam Hammond, who was upstairs, had been paying attention to what was happening below. She came out to smooth things over. “Amber, it’s getting late. Take Mel with you and have a rest!”

Then he looked at Rodney and said, “Mr. Barron, if you don’t mind, you can stay here!”

“Grandma!” Amber and Pierce shouted at the same time. It was obvious that they were opposed to the Old Madam’s order to stop Rodney. The Old Madam waved her hand, motioning for her grandson and Amber to calm down. She only ordered the housekeeper to prepare a room for Rodney to rest.

The butler stepped forward politely and said, “Mr. Barron, please come with me!”

Rodney was naturally very grateful for the old lady’s proposal. “Thank you very much, Old Madame!”

Rodney followed the butler and left. Pierce looked at the old lady, complaining, “Grandma, why did you let him stay here?”

“Since Rodney has chased us here, it’s impossible for him to leave like this. In order to make him resentful and become enemies with us, it’s better to show his kindness and find a solution first,” the old lady replied. She looked at Amber and said, “We don’t want to see things develop like this now. After all, he is Mel’s biological father. If Rodney uses force, the consequences will be bad for everyone.”

Amber was silent. The old lady had experienced many things, so what she said made sense. Indeed, if Rodney forced her, the consequences would not be good for everyone.

Amber walked into Mel’s room. He was already asleep. She sighed and walked to the bedside to gently tuck in Mel’s quilt. Then she sat by the bed and looked at Mel’s little face in a daze.

After knowing the truth, Rodney would definitely not give up so easily. Looking at his performance tonight, she knew that if he continued to pester her, what should she do?

The door was gently pushed open and Pierce walked in. Seeing Amber’s tightly furrowed brows, he lowered his voice to comfort her. “Amber, don’t worry. I’m here! Don’t worry!”

Amber smiled at him. “Pierce, thank you! Fortunately, you’re here!”

“Rodney isn’t an evil person. He just can’t accept it for a while. When he thinks it through, everything will be fine!” Pierce added.

“I know. Pierce, you must be very tired after a busy day. Go and have a rest. I’m fine here!” Amber was moved when he saw Pierce’s tired face. Pierce had to manage the company and take care of Mel. He was really tired during this period of time. Now that she was back, she could take care of Mel alone.

“Alright, I’m going to rest. You should rest early too!”

Not long after Pierce left, Rodney entered Mel’s room. Seeing him come in, Amber was on guard. “What are you doing here?”

“Amber, I’m here to see the child.” Rodney’s attitude was particularly good.

As he spoke, he sat down by the bed. He looked at Mel with tenderness in his eyes. Amber wanted to drive him away, but he found that he had no way to say it. No matter what happened, Rodney was indeed Mel’s father. She had no right to strip him of his father’s power.

Rodney had never dreamed that he would have a child after he and Amber divorced for such a long time. He didn’t believe Breanna’s words very much. He just held on to the last glimmer of hope. In the end, everything was confirmed that it was indeed his child!

Rodney’s trembling hand gently fell on Mel’s head. He lowered his head and gently planted a kiss on his forehead. “Son! My son!” His heart was filled with happiness, but it was also full of sadness.

His son should have enjoyed his father’s love and had no worries about food and clothing, but he was forced to drift away because of him. He was seriously ill at such a young age.

His hand caressed Mel’s face again. He was very careful, as if he was his most precious treasure. Amber, who was watching from the side, was a little worried. She stopped him and said, “Rodney, don’t wake him up!”

“I won’t wake him up. Amber, I’ll stay here with him tonight!” Rodney pleaded in a low voice.

“No!” Amber shook his head.

“Amber, I am his father, his biological father! Let me accompany him, please!” Rodney’s voice was choked with sobs. In the past, he did not know that he would let the mother and son get married. Now that he knew the truth, how could he tolerate such a situation? Just now, he had thought that it was understandable that Amber hated her. He had no reason to blame Amber.

What he had to do now was to make up for it as much as possible. Whether it was the child or Amber, he had to make up for it as much as possible. He would never allow anyone to hurt his woman and child again!

Amber was not at ease. “Rodney, I know what you’re feeling right now. However, Mel is still ill. I don’t want him to get agitated. Do you understand?”

“I understand. I’m just guarding him. I don’t do anything, I don’t say anything. Can’t I do this?”

“No, you’re just an outsider to Mel. He’ll be surprised when he wakes up and sees you.” Amber paused for a moment. “In his current situation, how can I explain it to him?”

Rodney was a little annoyed. “He’s still young. He won’t have so many questions.”

“Although he is young, he is very sensitive. Now he is sick. I don’t want him to know that you are his father. I am afraid that he can’t accept it.”

Amber bit her lips. This was undoubtedly the best excuse at the moment. She hoped that Rodney would believe her. “What I mean is that you should stay away from him for the time being. When he gets better, I will tell him that you are his biological father and I won’t stop you from visiting him. What do you think?”

“This reason is really good, but I can’t accept it!” Rodney looked up at Amber. He was not a fool, so he naturally knew that this was the reason why Amber refused to let him get close to Mel.

“I won’t tell him that I’m his father for the time being, but I’ll stay here to take care of him during this period of time. I didn’t participate in everything about him before. From now on, I won’t miss every minute and second!”

“You!” Amber’s expression changed. Rodney was determined not to leave. She and Rodney had been married for several years, so she naturally knew that he was stubborn. It seemed that this matter was not easy to solve.

Rodney insisted on accompanying Mel. Amber had no choice but to go back to his room to rest. He didn’t sleep well that night. He woke up very early in the morning. She got up and went to Mel’s room. She found that Rodney was helping Mel put on her clothes. Mel didn’t resist him. Instead, she asked him in a childish voice, “Uncle Rodney, will you stay here with me in the future?”

“Yes! Uncle Huo will be with you every day in the future!”

Mel couldn’t believe it. “You’re lying again, aren’t you?”

“No! This time, Uncle Rodney won’t lie to you again!” Rodney answered guiltily. Mel found Amber at the door. “Mom, Uncle Rodney said that he would accompany me to the hospital for an examination today!”

Amber controlled himself to come in with a smile as much as possible. “My good son, are you feeling unwell?”

“No.”

“Then let’s have breakfast. After breakfast, we’ll go to the hospital.”

Rodney insisted on going to the hospital with him. While Pierce was driving, he was sitting in the back row with Mel in his arms. Mel did not resist his approach at all. They were all very happy along the way. Amber frowned slightly, feeling extremely annoyed.

After the examination, Rodney stayed for a long time to communicate with the doctor. On the way back, Amber held Mel in his arms. Pierce was still driving. Mel went home and fell asleep again.

After putting Mel on the bed, Amber walked out of the room and saw Pierce and Rodney talking in the living room. Rodney was thick-skinned. “Thank you for taking care of my son during this period of time, President Tang. I won’t say thank you for your great kindness. If you need my help in the future, feel free to tell me!”

Pierce smiled faintly. “Mr. Barron, you’re too kind. It’s only right for me to take care of my fiancée and child!”

Rodney's expression changed slightly. "It's too early to say that. President Tang, it's best if you don't come to a conclusion too early."

"I forgot to tell Mr. Barron that Amber and I will go to get our marriage certificate the day after tomorrow."

As soon as Pierce's voice fell, Rodney stood up. "I will never agree!"

"Why?"

"Just based on the fact that the child in Amber's belly is mine!" Rodney was no longer calm.

Pierce sneered. "It doesn't affect the marriage between Amber and me!"

"Pierce, you're taking advantage of others! It's not what a gentleman should do!"

"President Murong, this has nothing to do with gentlemen, right?"

"Anyway, I won't allow you to marry Amber. I will never allow that!"

"Let's wait and see!" Pierce turned a blind eye to Rodney's anger. "I won't be accompanying Mr. Barron anymore. The company has something to deal with!"
